2159. If Abraham's Way was the right way, the Jews were ready with the taunt, "Why don't you then observe the Sabbath?" The answer is twofold. (1) The Sabbath has nothing to do with Abraham. It was instituted with the Law of Moses because of Israel's hardness of heart (2:74); for they constantly disputed with their Prophet Moses (2:108), and there were constantly among them afterwards men who broke the Sabbath (2:65, and n. 79). (2) Which was the true Sabbath Day? The Jews observe Saturday. The Christians, who include the Old Testament in their inspired Scripture, observe Sunday, and a sect among them (the Seventh Day Adventists) disagree, and observe Saturday. So there is disagreement among the People of the Book. Let them dispute among themselves. Their dispute will not be settled till the Day of Judgement. Meanwhile, Muslims are emancipated from such stringent restriction. For them there is certainly the Day of United Prayer on Friday, but it is in no sense like the Jewish or the Scotch Sabbath!

2160. Cf. 2:113.

2161. In this wonderful passage are laid down principles of religious teaching, which are good for all time. But where are the Teachers with such qualifications? We must invite all to the Way of Allah, and expound His Universal Will; we must do it with wisdom and discretion, meeting people on their own ground and convincing them with illustrations from their own knowledge and experience, which may be very narrow, or very wide. Our preaching must be, not dogmatic, not self-regarding, not offensive, but gentle, considerate, and such as would attract their attention. Our manner and our arguments should not be acrimonious, but modelled on the most courteous and the most gracious example, so that the hearer may say to himself, "This man is not dealing merely with dialectics; he is not trying to get a rise out of me; he is sincerely expounding the faith that is in him, and his motive is the love of man and the love of Allah."

2162. It may be that the Preacher sometimes says to himself, "What is the use of teaching these people? They have made up their minds, or they are obstinate, or they are only trying to catch me out." Let him not yield to such a thought. Who knows how the seed of the Word of Allah may germinate in people's minds? It is not for man to look for results. Man's inner thoughts are known best to Allah.

126. And if ye do catch them out,
Catch them out no worse
Than they catch you out:
But if ye show patience,
That is indeed the best (course)²¹⁶³
For those who are patient.

١٢٦- وَإِنْ عَاقَبْتُمْ فَعَاقِبُوا
بِمِثْلِ مَا عُوِّقْتُمْ بِهِ
وَلَكِنْ صَبْرَتْمْ لَهُوَ خَيْرٌ لِلصَّابِرِينَ ۝

127. And do thou be patient,²¹⁶⁴
For thy patience is but
From Allah; nor grieve over them:
And distress not thyself
Because of their plots.

١٢٧- وَاصْبِرْ وَمَا صَبْرُكَ
إِلَّا بِأَلْفِهِ وَلَا تَحْزَنْ عَلَيْهِمْ
وَلَا تَكُ فِي ضَيْقٍ مِّمَّا يَمْكُرُونَ ۝

128. For Allah is with those²¹⁶⁵
Who restrain themselves,
And those who do good.

١٢٨- إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا
وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ يُحْسِنُونَ ۝

2163. In the context this passage refers to controversies and discussions, but the words are wide enough to cover all human struggles, disputes, and fights. In strictest equity you are not entitled to give a worse blow than is given to you. But those who have reached a higher spiritual standard do not even do that. They restrain themselves, and are patient. Lest you should think that such patience only gives an advantage to the adversary, you are told that the contrary is the case: the advantage is with the patient, the self-possessed, those who do not lose their temper or forget their own principles of conduct.

2165. And the Sūrah ends with the highest consolation which the righteous can receive: the assurance that Allah is with them. A double qualification is indicated for so high an honour—(1) that they should not yield to human passion or anger or impatience, and (2) that they should go on with constancy doing good all around them. To attain the Presence of Allah in the sense of "I am with you" is the culmination of the righteous man's aspiration.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 17—AL ISRĀ' OR BANĪ ISRĀ'ĪL

In the gradation of spiritual teaching (see Introduction to Sūrah 8), we saw that the first seven Sūrahs sketched the early spiritual history of man, and led up to the formation of the new Ummah of Islam. Sūrahs 8 to 16 formed another series dealing with the formation of the new Ummah and its consolidation, and Allah's dealing with man taken as an Ummah and considered in his social relations in organised communities (see Introduction to Sūrahs 8, 10, and 16). We now come to a fresh series, (Sūrahs 17-29), which may be considered in three parts. Sūrahs 17-21 begin with an allusion to the Mi'rāj (of which more later), and proceed to spiritual history as touching individuals rather than nations. The old prophets and stories of the past are now referred to from this point of view. Sūrahs 22-25 refer to Hajj (pilgrimage), worship and prayer, chastity, privacy, etc., as related to a man's individual spiritual growth. Sūrahs 26-29 go back to the old prophets and stories of the past, as illustrating the growth of the individual soul in its reactions against the lives of the communities and the reactions of the communities to the lives of its great individual souls.

Let us now consider S. 17. by itself. It opens with the mystic Vision of the Ascension of the Holy Prophet: he was transported from the Sacred Mosque (of Makkah) to the Farthest Mosque (of Jerusalem) in a night and shown some of the Signs of Allah. The majority of Commentators take this Night Journey literally, but allow that there were other occasions on which a spiritual Journey or Vision occurred. Even on the supposition of a miraculous bodily Journey, it is conceded that the body was almost transformed into spiritual fineness. The Hadith literature gives details of this Journey and its study helps to elucidate its meaning. The Holy Prophet was first transported to the seat of the earlier revelations in Jerusalem, and then taken through the seven heavens even to the Sublime Throne, and initiated into the spiritual mysteries of the human soul struggling in Space and Time. The Spaniard, Miguél Asín, Arabic Professor in the University of Madrid, has shown that this Mi'rāj literature had a great influence on the Mediaeval literature of Europe, and especially on the great Italian poem, the Divine Comedy (or Drama) of Dante, which towers like a landmark in mediaeval European literature.

The reference to this great mystic story of the Mi'rāj is a fitting prelude to the journey of the human soul in its spiritual growth in life. The first steps in such growth must be through moral conduct—the reciprocal rights of parents and children; kindness to our fellow-men, courage and firmness in the hour of danger, and sense of personal responsibility, and a sense of Allah's Presence through prayer and praise.

The Mi'rāj is usually dated to the 27th night of the month of Rajab (though other dates, e.g., 17th of Rabi' I, are also given) in the year before the Hijrah. This fixes the date of the opening verse of the Sūrah, though portions of the Sūrah may have been a little earlier.

Summary—The spiritual experiences of the Prophets of Allah are given in order that Allah's Signs may be made clear to men: man is misled into evil, and must be guided to a sense of personal responsibility (17:1-22, and C. 128). (R).

Our service to Allah is shown also in our human relations, goodness to parents and kinsmen and strangers in want, as well as kindness to children, purity in sex relations, justice and respect for human life, protection of orphans, probity in all dealings, and avoidance of arrogance. (17:23-40, and C. 129).

Allah's glory is above all comparison, and the reception of His revelation marks off the man of faith from those who do not believe. But the Believers should speak fair and avoid dissensions, for Allah doth encompass all men (17:41-60, and C. 130).

Pride caused the fall of Iblīs, but the children of Adam have been raised in excellence above other Creation. They will be judged by their deeds. Prayer is good at stated times and at night, and the Qur'ān is offered as healing and mercy (17:61-84, and C. 131).

Inspiration (the Qur'ān) is a Sign of Allah's grace, and men should accept it without making carping excuses. Be humble in prayer and praise (17:85-111, and C. 132).

C. 128.—It is the privilege of the men of God
(17:1-22) To see the sublimest mysteries
Of the spiritual world and instruct men
In Righteousness; they warn and shield men
Against Evil. But nothing can lessen
Each soul's personal responsibility
For its own deeds. It carries its fate
Round its own neck. Allah's gifts
Are for all, but not all receive
The same gifts, nor are all gifts
Of equal dignity or excellence.

Sūrah 17.

Al Isrā' (The Night Journey), or
Banī Isrā'īl (The Children of Israel)

In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.

1. Glory to (Allah)
Who did take His Servant
For a Journey by night²¹⁶⁶
From the Sacred Mosque²¹⁶⁷
To the Farthest Mosque,²¹⁶⁸
Whose precincts We did
Bless—in order that We Might show him some
Of Our Signs: for He
Is the One Who heareth
And seeth (all things).²¹⁶⁹

2. We gave Moses the Book,²¹⁷⁰
And made it a Guide

الجزء الخامس عشر سورة الإسراء

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- سُبْحَانَ الَّذِي أَسْرَى بِعَبْدِهِ
لَيْلًا مِّنَ الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ
إِلَى الْمَسْجِدِ الْأَقْصَا
الَّذِي بَرَكْنَا حَوْلَهُ لِنُرِيَهُ
مِنَ الْيَتْنَا
إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ

۲- وَآتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ وَجَعَلْنَاهُ هُدًى

2166. The reference is to the Mirāj for which see the Introduction to this Sūrah.

2167. Masjid is a place of prayer: here it refers to the Ka'bah at Makkah. It had not yet been cleared of its idols and rededicated exclusively to the One True God. It was symbolical of the new Message which was being given to mankind.

2169. Allah's knowledge comprehends all things, without any curtain of Time or any separation of Space. He can therefore see and hear all things, and the Mirāj was a reflection of this knowledge without Time or Space.

In this and the subsequent verses, the reference to Allah is generally in the first person and plural. But in the first and the last clause of this verse it is in the third person singular: "Glory to Allah, Who did take His Servant . . .", "He is the One. . .". In each of these two instances, the clause expresses the point of view of Allah's creatures, who glorify Him, and whose hearing and seeing are ordinarily so limited that they can do nothing but glorify Him when one of His creatures is raised up to hear and see the Mysteries. It is they who glorify Him. (R).

2170. The Book: the revelation that was given to Moses. It was there clearly laid down that those who followed Moses must consider Allah as all-in-all. "Thou shalt have no other gods before me; thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image. . .; thou shalt not bow down thyself to them nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God. . .;" etc. (Exod. xx. 3-5). These are the words of the English Bible. As a matter of fact the spirit of Mosaic teaching went further. It referred all things to the Providence of Allah: Allah is the Disposer of all affairs, and we are to look to none but Him. This is Islam, and the Mirāj showed that it was the teaching of Allah from the most ancient times, and yet it was violated by the very people who claimed to be its custodians.

To the Children of Israel,
(Commanding): "Take not
Other than Me²¹⁷¹
As Disposer of (your) affairs."

بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ لَا تَتَّخِذُوا
مِنْ دُونِي وَكِيلًا ۝

3. O ye that are sprung
From those whom We carried
(In the Ark) with Noah!²¹⁷²
Verily he was a devotee
Most grateful.

۝ ذُرِّيَّةَ مَنْ حَمَلْنَا مَعَ نُوحٍ
إِنَّهُ كَانَ عَبْدًا شَكُورًا ۝

4. And We gave (clear) warning
To the Children of Israel²¹⁷³
In the Book, that twice²¹⁷⁴
Would they do mischief
On the earth and be elated
With mighty arrogance (And twice would they be punished)!

۝ وَقَضَيْنَا إِلَىٰ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ
فِي الْكِتَابِ لَتُفْسِدُنَّ فِي الْأَرْضِ مَرَّتَيْنِ
وَلَتَعْلُنَّ عُلُوًّا كَبِيرًا ۝

5. When the first of the warnings
Came to pass, We sent
Against you Our servants
Given to terrible warfare.²¹⁷⁵
They entered the very inmost
Parts of your homes;
And it was a warning
(Completely) fulfilled.

۝ فَإِذَا جَاءَ وَعْدُ أُولَاهُمَا بَعَثْنَا
عَلَيْكُمْ عِبَادَنَا أُولِي بَأْسٍ شَدِيدٍ
فِيَا سُوَءِ خَلَلِ الدِّيَارِ
وَكَانَ وَعْدًا مَفْعُولًا ۝

2172. After the Deluge of the time of Noah the only descendants of Noah were those who were saved in the Ark with him. They had special reason to celebrate the praise of Allah. But they relapsed into idolatry, sin, and abomination. They are reminded of the true and sincere devotion of Noah himself, as contrasted with the unworthiness of Noah's descendants, especially the Children of Israel.

2174. What are the two occasions referred to? It may be that "twice" is a figure of speech for "more than once", "often". Or it maybe that the two occasions refer to (1) the destruction of the Temple by the Babylonian Nebuchadnezzar in 586 B.C., when the Jews were carried off into captivity, and (2) the destruction of Jerusalem by Titus in A.C. 70, after which the Temple was never rebuilt. See n. 2168 above. On both occasions it was a judgement of Allah for the sins of the Jews, their backslidings, and their arrogance.

2175. A good description of the warlike Nebuchadnezzar and his Babylonians. They were servants of Allah in the sense that they were instruments through which the wrath of Allah was poured out on the Jews, for they penetrated through their lands, their Temple, and their homes, and carried away the Jews, men and women, into captivity. As regards "the daughters of Zion" see the scathing condemnation in Isaiah, iii. 16-26.

6. Then did we grant you
The Return as against them:²¹⁷⁶
We gave you increase
In resources and sons,
And made you
The more numerous
In manpower.

٦- ثُمَّ رَدَدْنَا لَكُمُ الْكَرَّةَ عَلَيْهِمْ
وَأَمَدَدْنَاهُمْ بِأَمْوَالٍ وَبَنِينَ
وَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ أَكْثَرَ تَفِيرًا ۝

7. If ye did well,
Ye did well for yourselves;
If ye did evil,
(Ye did it) against yourselves.²¹⁷⁷
So when the second
Of the warnings came to pass,
(We permitted your enemies)
To disfigure your faces,²¹⁷⁸
And to enter your Temple²¹⁷⁹
As they had entered it before,
And to visit with destruction
All that fell into their power.²¹⁸⁰

لِيَسْتَعْمُوا وُجُوهَكُمْ
وَلِيَدْخُلُوا الْمَسْجِدَ كَمَا دَخَلُوهُ أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ

2176. The return of the Jews from the Captivity was about 520 B.C. They started life afresh. They rebuilt the Temple. They carried out various reforms and built up a new Judaism in connection with Ezra. See Appendix II following S. 5. For a time they prospered. Meanwhile their old oppressors the Babylonians had been absorbed by Persia. Subsequently Persia was absorbed in Alexander's Empire. The whole of western Asia was Hellenized, and the new school of Jews was Hellenized also, and had a strong centre in Alexandria. But their footing in Palestine continued, and under the Asmonaeon Dynasty (B.C. 167-63), they had a national revival, and the names of the Maccabees are remembered as those of heroes. Another dynasty, that of the Idumaeans, (B.C. 63 to B.C. 4), to which Herod belonged, also enjoyed some semi-independent power. The sceptre of Syria (including Palestine) passed to the Romans in B.C. 65, and Jewish feudatory Kings held power under them. But the Jews again showed a stiff-necked resistance to Allah's Messenger in the time of Jesus, and the inevitable doom followed in the complete and final destruction of the Temple under Titus in 70 A.C.

2177. This is a parenthetical sentence. If anyone follows Allah's Law, the benefit goes to himself: he does not bestow a favour on anyone else. Similarly evil brings its own recompense on the doer of evil.

2178. The second doom was due to the rejection of the Message of Jesus. "To disfigure your faces" means to destroy any credit or power you may have got: the face shows the personality of the man.

2180. Merivale in his Romans Under the Empire gives a graphic account of the siege and final destruction (ed. 1890, 7:221-255). The population of Jerusalem was then 200,000. According to the Latin historian Tacitus it was as much as 600,000. There was a famine and there were massacres. There was much fanaticism. The judgement of Merivale is: "They" (the Jews) "were judicially abandoned to their own passions and the punishment which naturally awaited them." (7:221).

2181. Now we come to the time of our Holy Prophet. In spite of all the past, the Jews could still have obtained Allah's forgiveness if they had not obstinately rejected the greatest of the Prophets also. If they were to continue in their sins, Allah's punishment would also continue to visit them.

Revert (to your sins)

12. We have made the Night
And the Day as two²¹⁸⁵

١٢- وَجَعَلْنَا اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ آيَاتَيْنِ

Notice that the allegorical reference to Jewish history, when brought into relation with the true meaning of Mi'rāj, refers to the constant struggle of the individual soul against evil. It has its setbacks and its punishments. But if it is true to itself and is true to the Faith in Allah, Allah will give it strength and make it successful in its fight against evil. For Allah's Mercy is unbounded and comes to suffering humanity again and again. (R).

2183. The instability and crookedness of the Jewish soul having been mentioned, the healing balm which should have cured it is now pointed out. The Message of the Qur'ān is for all. Those who have Faith and show that Faith in their conduct must reap their spiritual reward. But those who reject Faith cannot escape punishment. Apart from what is past, apart from questions of national or racial history, there is a spiritual Hope—and a spiritual Danger—for every soul.

2185. If we were to cry when it is night, we shall look foolish when it is day; for the night is but a preparation for the day: perhaps, as the last verse says, we pray for the day when we want rest for the night. Both are Signs from Allah. Darkness and light stand for ignorance and knowledge. "Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise." Darkness and light may also stand for shadow and sunshine, sorrow and joy: both may be necessary for our development.

Receiveth it for his own
Benefit: who goeth astray

۱۵- مَنِ اهْتَدَىٰ فَإِنَّمَا يَهْتَدِي لِنَفْسِهِ

2186. By the physical light we see physical facts. And this physical gift of Allah is good for us in two ways: (1) we can arrange for our livelihood, or we can attain knowledge of the physical sciences and gain some control over the physical forces of nature; and (2) the daily rising and setting of the sun gives us the computation of days and years, for the physical natural year is the solar year. But there is spiritual light even more precious: by it we can similarly attain two objects, viz: (1) our spiritual livelihood and knowledge, and (2) our computation of the stages we reach in our spiritual years. Let us be patient and seek everything as from Allah—in joy and in sorrow, in knowledge and in want of knowledge of those things which are above us. Let us rejoice in what Allah has given us, and not be impatient about those things which He in His wisdom has thought fit to withhold from us. But all things should be sought and striven for under the guidance of the All-Knowing Allah.

2187. Fate : Ṭā'ir, literally a bird, hence an omen, an evil omen, fate. Cf. 36:19. The Arabs like the ancient Romans, sought to read the mysteries of human fate from the flight of birds. And many of us in our own day seek to read our future fortunes by similar superstitions. We read in the previous verse that there are Signs of Allah, but they are not meant to subserve the vulgar purpose of disclosing our future destiny in a worldly sense. They are meant for quite other purposes, as we have explained. Our real fate does not depend upon birds or omens or stars. It depends on our deeds, good or evil, and they hang round our necks. (R).

2188. These deeds, good or evil, will be embodied in a scroll which will be quite open to us in the light of the Day of Judgement, however much we may affect to be ignorant of it now or waste our energies in prying into mysteries that do not concern us.

2190. The doctrine of personal responsibility is insisted on, and the basis of ethics is shown to be our own good or evil as furthering or obstructing our highest development.

2192. Allah's Mercy gives every chance to the wicked to repent. When wickedness gets so rampant that punishment becomes inevitable, even then Allah's Mercy and Justice act together. Those who are highly gifted from Allah—it may be with wealth or position or it may be with talents and opportunities—are expected to understand and obey. They are given a definite order and warning. If they still transgress there is no further room for argument. They cannot plead that they were ignorant. The command of the Lord is proved against them, and its application is called for beyond doubt. Then it is that their punishment is completed.

2193. Qawl here has the sense of word, order, law, charge framed against one under a definite law.

2195. Let not the wicked think, because they are given a lease of life and luxury for a time, that their wickedness has escaped notice. Allah notes and sees all things, both open and secret. He knows the hidden motives and thoughts of men, and He has no need of any other evidence. His knowledge and sight are all-sufficient.

2196. An explanation is now given of how it is that prosperity sometimes seems to attend the wicked. The explanation is threefold: (1) the transitory things of this life are worth little in the eternal scheme of things; (2) even they are provided, not just because their recipients wish for them, but according to a definite Plan of Allah; and (3) in the end there is for the wicked the eternal misery and deprivation of grace—the Hell which is worse than destruction in the terms of this world.

Grant them—such things
As We will, to such persons
As We will: in the end
Have We provided Hell
For them: they will burn

19. Those who do wish

Hereafter,²¹⁹⁸
And strive therefor
With all due striving,
And have Faith—²¹⁹⁹
They are the ones
Whose striving is acceptable

20. Of the bounties of thy Lord
We bestow freely on all—
These as well as those:
The bounties of thy Lord
Are not closed (to anyone).²²⁰⁰

21. See how We have bestowed
More on some than on others;
But verily the Hereafter
Is more in rank and gradation
And more in excellence.²²⁰¹

22. Take not with Allah
Another object of worship;²²⁰²

لَهُ فِيهَا مَا نَشَاءُ لِمَنْ نُرِيدُ
ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَا لَهُ جَهَنَّمَ

١٩- وَمَنْ أَرَادَ الْآخِرَةَ

٢٠- كَلَّا نُمِدُّ هَؤُلَاءِ وَهَؤُلَاءِ مِنْ عَطَاءِ
رَبِّكَ
وَمَا كَانَ عَطَاءُ رَبِّكَ مَحْظُورًا ○

٢١- أَنْظِرْ كَيْفَ فَضَّلْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ عَلَىٰ بَعْضٍ
وَلِلْآخِرَةِ الْكِبْرُ دَرَجَاتٍ وَأَكْبَرُ تَفْضِيلًا ○

٢٢- لَا تَجْعَلْ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ

2197. All the pride and insolence will then be brought low. The disgrace and the exclusion from the "sight of the Face of Allah" will by themselves be punishments of which the magnitude cannot be measured in the terms of our present material life.

2200. Allah's favours are showered on all—the just and the unjust, the deserving and the undeserving. But there is a difference as explained in the last two verses.

2201. Nor should man suppose that all gifts are of equal value. The spiritual ones rank far higher in dignity and real worth than the transitory ones. Therefore it is altogether wrong to compare the worldly prosperity of a wicked man with the apparent want of it to a man of spiritual worth. There is no comparison between them when measured by right standards.

2202. The seeming inequality of gifts to men might make short-sighted men impugn the impartiality of Allah. But the fault lies with such men's own want of knowledge and want of Faith. There is no excuse for them to seek other objects of worship than Allah. For there is none worthy of worship except Allah.

Or thou (O man!) wilt sit
In disgrace and destitution.²²⁰³

نَتَقَعِدُ مَذْمُومًا تَخْذُلًا ۚ

C. 129. — To be worthy of the service of the One True God,
(17:23-40.) We must love and serve His Creatures.

The parents who cherished us in childhood
Deserve our humble reverence and service: next
Come the rights of kinsmen, those in want,
And wayfaring strangers: to each
According to his need, not in spendthrift show.
And gentleness is needed to those whom we Cannot help. Allah will provide. He has made
Life sacred and pure. Fulfil your trusts
For orphans and deal with all in strictest
Probity. Pry not into evil from curiosity,
And shun insolence: for Allah hates evil—
The One, the Good, the Universal Lord!

SECTION 3.

23. Thy Lord hath decreed
That ye worship none but Him,
And that ye be kind
To parents. Whether one
Or both of them attain
Old age in thy life,²²⁰⁴
Say not to them a word
Of contempt, nor repel them,
But address them
In terms of honour.

۲۳- وَقَضَىٰ رَبُّكَ أَلَّا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا إِيَّاهُ
وَبِالْوَالِدَيْنِ إِحْسَانًا
إِنَّمَا يَبْلُغُنَّ عِنْدَكَ الْكِبَرَ أَحَدُهُمَا
أَوْ كِلَاهُمَا فَلَا تَقُلْ لَهُمَا آفٌ وَلَا تُنْهَرُهُمَا
وَقُلْ لَهُمَا قَوْلًا كَرِيمًا ۝

24. And, out of kindness,
Lower to them the wing²²⁰⁵
Of humility, and say:

۲۴- وَاخْفِضْ لَهُمَا جَنَاحَ الذُّلِّ مِنَ
الرَّحْمَةِ وَقُلْ

2203. If foolish men turn to false objects of worship, they will not only be disappointed, but they will lose the respect of their own fellow-men, and spiritually they will be reduced to destitution. All their talents and their words will be of no avail.

2204. The spiritual and moral duties are now brought into juxtaposition. We are to worship none but Allah, because none but Allah is worthy of worship, not because "the Lord thy God is a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me" (Exod. xx. 5).

Note that the act of worship may be collective as well as individual; hence the plural ta'budū. The kindness to parents is an individual act of piety; hence the singular taqul, qul, etc.

2205. Cf. 15:88 and n. 2011. The metaphor is that of a high-flying bird which lowers her wing out of tenderness to her offspring. There is a double aptness. (1) When the parent was strong and the child was helpless, parental affection was showered on the child: when the child grows up and is strong, and the parent is helpless, can he do less than bestow similar tender care on the parent? (2) But more: he must approach the matter with gentle humility; for does not parental love remind him of the love with which Allah cherished His creatures? There is something here more than simple human gratitude: it goes up into the highest spiritual region.

"My Lord! bestow on them
Thy Mercy even as they Cherished me in childhood."²²⁰⁶

25. Your Lord knoweth best
What is in your hearts:
If ye do deeds of righteousness,
Verily He is Most Forgiving
To those who turn to Him
Again and again

26. And render to the kindred
Their due rights, as (also)
To those in want,
And to the wayfarer:²²⁰⁸
But squander not (your wealth)
In the manner of a spendthrift.²²⁰⁹

27. Verily spendthrifts are brothers
Of the Evil Ones
And the Evil One
Is to his Lord (Himself)
Ungrateful.²²¹⁰

28. And even if thou hast
To turn away from them
In pursuit of the Mercy

رَبِّ اَرْحَمُهُمَا كَمَا رَبَّيْنِي صَغِيرًا ۝

٢٥- رَبِّكُمْ اَعْلَمُ بِمَا فِي نَفُوسِكُمْ

٢٦- وَاٰتِ ذَا الْقُرْبٰى حَقَّهٗ
وَالْيَسْكِيْنَ وَاِبْنَ السَّبِيْلِ
وَلَا تُبْذِرْ تَبْذِيْرًا ۝

٢٧- اِنَّ الْمُبْذِرِيْنَ كَانُوْا اِخْوَانَ الشَّيْطٰنِ
وَكَانَ الشَّيْطٰنُ لِرَبِّهٖ كَفُوْرًا ۝

٢٨- وَاِمَّا تَرَضٰنَ عَنْهُمْ اِتِّغَاءَ رَحْمَةٍ

2206. Note that we are asked to honour our father and mother, not "that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee" (Exod. xx 12), but upon much higher and more universal grounds, such as befit a perfect revelation. In the first place, not merely respect, but cherishing kindness, and humility to parents, are commanded. In the second place this command is bracketed with the command to worship the One True God: Parental love should be to us a type of divine love: nothing that we can do can ever really compensate for that which we have received. In the third place (see next verse) our spiritual advancement is tested by this: we cannot expect Allah's forgiveness if we are rude or unkind to those who unselfishly brought us up.

2207. It is the heart, and its hidden and secret motives, by which we are judged: for Allah knows them all.

2208. In the Jewish Decalogue, which was given to a primitive and hard-hearted people, this refinement of kindness—to those in want and to wayfarers (i.e., total strangers whom you come across) finds no place. Nor was there much danger of their wasting their substance out of exuberance. Even the command "to honour thy father and mother" comes after the ceremonial observance of the Sabbath. With us, the worship of Allah is linked up with kindness—to parents, kindred, those in want, those who are far from their homes though they may be total strangers to us. It is not mere verbal kindness. They have certain rights which must be fulfilled.

2209. All charity, kindness, and help are conditioned by our own resources. There is no merit if we merely spend out of bravado or for idle show. How many families are ruined by extravagant expenses at weddings, funerals, etc., or (as they may call it) to "oblige friends or relatives", or to give to able-bodied beggars? To no one was this command more necessary than it is to Muslims of the present day.

2210. Spendthrifts are not merely fools. They are of the same family as the Evil Ones. And the chief of the Evil Ones (notice the transition from the plural to the singular)—Satan himself—fell by his ingratitude to Allah. So those who misuse or squander Allah's gifts are also ungrateful to Allah.

From thy Lord which thou

۲۹- وَلَا تَجْعَلْ يَدَكَ مَغْلُولَةً إِلَىٰ عُنُقِكَ

SECTION 4.

31. Kill not your children²²¹⁴
For fear of want: We shall Provide sustenance for them
As well as for you.
Verily the killing of them
Is a great sin.

۳۱- وَلَا تَقْتُلُوا أَوْلَادَكُمْ خَشْيَةَ إِفْلَاقٍ
مَنْ نَرْزُقْهُمْ وَإِيَّاكُمْ
إِنْ قَتَلْتَهُمْ كَانَ خَطَاً كَبِيرًا ۝

32. Nor come nigh to adultery:
For it is a shameful (deed)

۳۲- وَلَا تَقْرَبُوا الزَّوْجَ إِنَّهُ كَانَ فَاحِشَةً

2211. You may have to "turn away" from people for two reasons. (1) You may not have the wherewithal with which to entertain them and give them their rights; or (2) you may have to give them a wide berth because their thoughts are not as your thoughts. In either case there is no need to speak harshly to them. Your words should be those of "easy kindness", i.e., the sort of kindness (not merely frigid politeness) which flows from pity and understanding and smooths over unnecessary difficulties in human intercourse.

2212. Cf. the phrase for niggardliness in 5:67. We are not to be so lavish as to make ourselves destitute and incur the just censure of wise men, nor is it becoming to keep back our resources from the just needs of those who have a right to our help. Even strangers have such a right, as we saw in 17:26 above. But we must keep a just measure between our capacity and other people's needs.

2213. If a foolish spendthrift pretends that his generosity, even if it ruins himself, is good for other people, he is reminded that Allah will take care of all. He knows every one's true needs and cares for them. He gives in abundance to some, but in all cases He gives in just measure. Who are we to pretend to greater generosity! (R).

2214. The Arabs were addicted to female infanticide. In a society perpetually at war a son was a source of strength whereas a daughter was a source of weakness. Even now infanticide is not unknown in other countries for economic reasons. This crime against children's lives is here characterised as one of the greatest of sins.

34. Come not nigh

Except to improve it,²²¹⁷
Until he attains the age²²¹⁸
Of full strength: and fulfil
(Every)²²¹⁹ engagement,
For (every) engagement
Will be enquired into

۝۳۴ وَلَا تَقْرُبُوا مَالَ الْيَتِيمِ إِلَّا بِالَّتِي

حَتَّىٰ يَبْلُغَ أَشُدَّهُ

35. Give full measure when ye
Measure, and weigh

۝۳۵ وَأَوْفُوا الْكَيْلَ إِذَا كِلْتُمْ وَزَنُوا

2215. Literally, "it is evil as a road (or a way)." Adultery is not only shameful in itself and inconsistent with any self-respect or respect for others, but it opens the road to many evils. It destroys the basis of the family; it works against the interests of children born or to be born; it may cause murders and feuds and loss of reputation and property, and also loosens permanently the bonds of society. Not only should it be avoided as a sin, but any approach or temptation should be avoided.

2216. On the subject of Qiṣāṣ see 2:178 and the notes thereto. Under the strict limitations there laid down, a life may be taken for a life. The heir is given the right to demand the life; but he must not exceed due bounds, because he is helped by the Law. Some Commentators understand "he" in "he is helped (by the Law)" to refer to the heir of the person against whom Qiṣāṣ is sought. He too will be helped by the Law, if the heir of the first slain exceeds the bounds of Law.

2217. Cf. 6:152, and other passages relating to orphans, e.g., 2:220. If an orphan's property is touched at all, it should be to improve it, or to give him something better than he had before—never to take a personal advantage for the benefit of the guardian. A bargain that may be quite fair as between two independent persons would be, under this verse, unfair as between a guardian and his orphan ward until the latter attains the full age of understanding.

2218. Ashuddah means the age when the orphan reaches his full maturity of strength and understanding, say between the ages of 18 and 30. The age of legal majority may be 18 (as for certain purposes in India) or 21 (as in England). For certain purposes in Muslim law it may be less than 18. In the orphan's interest a much stricter standard is required in his case.

2219. The definite article al has here a generic meaning, and is best translated "every".

2220. From the context the engagements referred to would relate to beneficial contracts connected with the orphan's property or promises or undertakings given by the guardian or implied in the terms of his appointment. But the words are general and may be interpreted in the general sense. Note that this sentence does not occur in the similar passage in 6:152, where there was a discussion of social laws: it is appropriate here, where the discussion is about the guardian's personal and individual responsibility in a spiritual sense.

The mountains in height.

۝-۳۷ وَلَا تَمْشِ فِي الْأَرْضِ مَرَحًا ۚ إِنَّكَ

رَبُّكَ مِنَ الْحِكْمَةِ
وَلَا تَجْعَلْ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ فَتُلْقَى

2221. Giving just measure and weight is not only right in itself but is ultimately to the best spiritual and material advantage of the person who gives it.

2222. Idle curiosity may lead us to nose into evil, through our ignorance that it is evil. We must guard against every such danger. We must only hear the things that are known to us to be of good report, and see things that are good and instructive and entertain in our hearts feelings or in our minds ideas that we have reason to expect will be spiritually profitable to us. We shall be called to account for the exercise of every faculty that has been given to us. This goes a little farther than a famous sculpture on a Japanese temple in which three monkeys are shown as putting their hands to their ears, eyes, and mouths, respectively, to show that they were not prepared to hear any evil, see any evil, or speak any evil. Here idle curiosity is condemned. Futility is to be avoided even if it does not reach the degree of positive evil.

2224. The moral law, as expounded in 17:23-39 is far in advance of the bare Decalogue in that it searches out motives, and draws pointed attention to the weak and helpless if we are to reach any spiritual understanding of Allah. It begins with a mention of the worship of Allah, the One True God and ends with a similar mention to close the argument, thus emphasizing the fact that the love of Allah embraces the love of man and practical help of our fellow-creatures. (R).

SECTION 5.

41. We have explained (things)
In various (ways) in this Qur'an,
In order that they may receive²²²⁷
Admonition, but it only increases
Their flight (from the Truth)!

۴۱- وَلَقَدْ صَرَّفْنَا فِيْ هٰذَا الْقُرْاٰنِ لِيَذَّكَّرُوْا

كَمَا يَقُوْلُوْنَ اِذَا لَا بُدَّ لَهُمْ
اِلٰى ذِي الْعَرْشِ سَبِيْلًا ۝

2225. "Blameworthy" carries us back by reminiscence to 17:29, between which and this verse there is mention of crimes committed out of covetousness and a selfish disregard of other people's rights. "Rejected" carries back our reminiscence to 17:18, from which to here we have a reference to crimes that lead to deprivation of Allah's grace. The latter is of course wider than the former. Note how subtly the two streams of thought are here conjoined.

2226. Cf. 16:57-59. Insistence on true worship means also exclusion of false worship or worship derogatory to Allah. In circles where daughters were despised and even their lives had to be protected by special legislation, what could have been more dreadful than ascribing daughters to Allah?

2227. Things are explained in the Qur'an from all points of view, individual and national, by means of stories, parables, and figures of speech, and by way of categorical commands. But those who are evil, instead of profiting by such instruction, often go farther and farther away from the Truth.

2228. There is only One True God. But if, as polytheists say, there had been subsidiary gods, they would yet have had to go to the Throne of the Supreme God, for they could have done nothing without Him. Thus the Islamic idea of the unity of the Godhead is quite different from the polytheistic ideas of a supreme god, as in the Greek Pantheon, where Jupiter was often defied by the minor deities! But such ideas are absurd, as stated in the next verse.

43. Glory to Him! He is high

45. When thou dost recite
The Qur'an, We put,
Between thee and those who
Believe not in the Hereafter,
A veil invisible:²²³⁰

٣٥- وَإِذَا قَرَأْتَ الْقُرْآنَ جَعَلْنَا
بَيْنَكَ وَبَيْنَ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ
حِجَابًا مَسْتُورًا ۝

46. And We put coverings
Over their hearts (and minds)
Lest they should understand
The Qur'an, and deafness²²³¹
Into their ears; when thou
Dost commemorate thy Lord—
And Him alone—in the Qur'an,
They turn on their backs,
Fleeing (from the Truth).

٣٦- وَجَعَلْنَا عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ
أَكِنَّةً أَنْ يَفْقَهُوهُ وَفِي آذَانِهِمْ وَقْرًا
وَإِذَا ذُكِّرْتُمْ رَبَّكَ فِي الْقُرْآنِ وَحْدَهُ
وَلَوْ أَعْلَىٰ أَدْبَارِهِمْ نُفُورًا ۝

2229. All Creation, animate and inanimate, sings Allah's praises and celebrates His glory—animate, with consciousness, and inanimate, in the evidence which it furnishes of the unity and glory of Allah. All Nature bears witness to His power, wisdom, and goodness. It is only "ye" i.e., those who reject the whole trend of your nature and deny Faith simply because ye have been given a limited amount of choice and free will—it is only such as "ye" that understand not what every other creature understands and proclaims with joy and pride. What must be your degradation! And yet Allah bears with you and forgives you! Such is His goodness! (R).

2230. Veil invisible: Some Commentators understand mastūr here as equivalent to sātir: a veil that makes invisible, a thick or dark veil. But I think that the meaning of mastūr (in the passive voice) as "hidden or invisible" is more consonant with the whole passage. If all nature, external and within ourselves, declares Allah's glory, those unfortunates who cut themselves off from their better nature are isolated from the true servants of Allah and the revelation of Allah, because (1) they are unfit for being in their company, and (2) because the servants of Allah and the revelation of Allah must be protected from the pain which blasphemy or rebellion must cause to their unsullied nature. The veil is none the less real even though it is invisible. (R).

2231. The invisible veil being put against the ungodly on account of their deliberate rejection of Truth. The result is that their minds are fogged so that they cannot understand and their ears are clogged so that they cannot hear. In other words, the effects of Evil become cumulative in shutting out Allah's grace.

47. We know best why it is
They listen, when they listen²²³²
To thee; and when they
Meet in private conference,
Behold, the wicked say,
"Ye follow none other than
A man bewitched!"

٣٧- نَحْنُ اَعْلَمُ بِمَا يَسْتَمْعُونَ رَٰهٖ اِذْ
يَسْتَمْعُونَ اِلَيْكَ وَاِذْ هُمْ يَخْجَوْنَ
اِذْ يَقُولُ الظَّالِمُونَ
اِنْ تَتَّبِعُونَ اِلَّا رَجُلًا مَّسْحُوْرًا ۝

48. See what similes they strike
For thee; but they have gone
Astray, and never can they Find a way.²²³³

٣٨- اَنْظُرْ كَيْفَ ضَرَبُوْا لَكَ الْاَمْثَالَ
فَضَلُّوْا فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُوْنَ سَبِيْلًا ۝

49. They say: "What!
When we are reduced
To bones and dust,
Should we really be raised up
(To be) a new creation?"²²³⁴

٣٩- وَقَالُوْا اِذَا كُنَّا عِظَامًا وَرُفَاتًا
ءَاٰرَآتَا لَنَبْعُوْثُوْنَ خَلْقًا جَدِيْدًا ۝

50. Say: "(Nay!) be ye
Stones or iron,

٥٠- قُلْ كُوْنُوْا اِحْجَارًا اَوْ حَدِيْدًا ۝

51. "Or created matter
Which, in your minds,
Is hardest (to be raised up)—
(Yet shall ye be raised up)!"
Then will they say:
"Who will cause us
To return?" Say: "He
Who created you first!"
Then will they wag

٥١- اَوْ خَلْقًا مِّمَّا يَكْبُرُ فِيْ صُدُوْرِكُمْ
فَسَيَقُوْلُوْنَ مَنْ يُعِيْدُنَا
قُلِ الَّذِيْ فَطَرَكُمْ اَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ
فَسَيُنْغِضُوْنَ

2232. See last note. That being so, the only motive for the ungodly to listen to Allah's Truth is to scoff at it instead of to be instructed by it. They may make a show of listening, but when they meet together in private, they show themselves in their true colours. Cf. 2:14. They cannot help seeing that there is singular charm and attractiveness in Allah's Word, and that it consoles, helps, and elevates many people who receive it in the right spirit. So they pretend that they are superior to such people and laugh at them for listening to someone who is only under the influence of something which they call magic!

2233. Note that the word used is "Sabīlan" "a way", not "the way". In going astray they have lost the way; but never can they find any means of getting back to that way, or of justifying themselves or making good their wicked similes.

2234. They do not realise that Allah Who created them once out of nothing can create them again with memories of their past, in order to render to Him an account of how they used or misused the talents and opportunities which they were given. If it is to be a new Creation, what then? Bones and dust or ashes may yet retain something of the personality which was enshrined in them. But even if they were reduced to stones or iron or anything which their minds can conceive of as being most unlike them, yet there is nothing impossible to Allah! He has clearly sent a Message that we shall have to render an account of ourselves, and His Message is necessarily true. (R).

Their heads towards thee,²²³⁵
And say, "When will
That be?" Say, "Maybe
It will be quite soon!"

52. "It will be on a Day
When He will call you,
And ye will answer

But a little while!"²²³⁷

٥٢- يَوْمَ يَدْعُوكُمْ

وَتُظَنُّونَ أَنْ لَبِثْتُمْ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ۝

SECTION 6.

53. Say to My servants
That they should (only) say
Those things that are best:²²³⁸
For Satan doth sow
Dissensions among them:
For Satan is to man
An avowed enemy.

٥٣- وَقُلْ لِعِبَادِي يَقُولُوا الَّتِي هِيَ
أَحْسَنُ إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ يَنْزِعُ بَيْنَهُمْ
إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ كَانَ لِلْإِنْسَانِ عَدُوًّا
مُبِينًا ۝

54. It is your Lord
That knoweth you best;
If He please, He granteth²²³⁹

٥٤- رَبُّكُمْ أَعْلَمُ بِكُمْ إِنَّ يَشَاءُ

2235. The sceptic shifts his ground when he is cornered in argument. It is no longer tenable for him to say that it cannot happen or that there is no one who can bring him back to life and memory. He now gets shaky, and says, "Well, when is that going to happen?" The actual time no man can tell. Indeed that event will be on a plane in which there will be no Time. Our relative ideas of time and place will have been completely overthrown, and it will appear to us then, not that it has been postponed too long, but that it has come too soon! See the next verse and note.

2236. It may be that this verse should not be in the inverted commas governed by the verb "say" in the last clause of the last verse. In that case, the answer to the sceptic would be finished in the last verse, and this verse would be a general statement applying also to the righteous, who will rise up celebrating the praises of Allah. But on the whole, I think it is better to take this verse as part of the answer to the sceptic referred to in the last verse.

2237. Whatever may have been your spiritual blindness in this life, the "new creation" will have opened your eyes to the Truth. No one will any longer be in any delusion as regards the Reality of Allah, and will be forced by their new circumstances, to recognise the Truth and sing Allah's praises. And all will be surprised at the seemingly short flight of time since they had their little ephemeral life on this earth. They will now appraise its true worth.

2238. This command refers to two situations. (1) Even to your enemies and the enemies of Allah you should speak fair: who are you to judge others? Judgement belongs to Allah alone, for He knows you (i.e., all mankind) best, and your personal knowledge is at best imperfect. And Satan is always trying to divide mankind. (2) Amongst yourselves, also you should not entertain suspicions, but speak politely according to the best standards of human speech. A false or unkind word may destroy all your efforts at building up unity, because the forces of disruption are more numerous than the forces of unity.

2239. Man should never for a single moment entertain a thought that would imply that he was wiser than Allah. Allah's knowledge is all-embracing. If He grants mercy to some that you consider wicked or punishment to some that you consider righteous, it is your knowledge or your deductions that are at fault, not Allah's righteous Plan. Even Prophets of Allah are not sent to arrange or dispose of men's affairs, but only to teach Allah's Message. How much less can ordinary men presume to judge other men? The Mashīyah - Will and Plan of Allah - is above all human wisdom. (R).

You mercy, or if He please,
Punishment: We have not sent
Thee to be a disposer
Of their affairs for them.

يَرْحَمُكُمْ أَوْ إِنْ يَشَأْ يُعَذِّبْكُمْ
وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ عَلَيْهِمْ وَكِيلًا ۝

55. And it is your Lord
That knoweth best all beings
That are in the heavens²²⁴⁰
And on earth: We
Did bestow on some Prophets
More (and other) gifts
Than on others: and We gave
To David (the gift
Of) the Psalms.²²⁴¹

٥٥- وَرَبُّكَ أَعْلَمُ
بِمَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
وَلَقَدْ فَضَّلْنَا بَعْضَ النَّبِيِّينَ عَلَى بَعْضٍ
وَاتَيْنَا دَاوُدَ زَبُورًا ۝

56. Say: "Call on those —
Besides Him — whom ye fancy:
They have neither the power
To remove your troubles
From you nor to change them."²²⁴²

٥٦- قُلْ اذْعُوا الَّذِينَ زَعَمْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِهِ
فَلَا يَمْلِكُونَ كَشْفَ الضَّرِّ عَنْكُمْ
وَلَا تَحْوِيلًا ۝

57. Those whom they call upon
Do desire (for themselves) means
Of access to their Lord —
Even those who are nearest:²²⁴³
They hope for His Mercy
And fear His Wrath:
For the Wrath of thy Lord
Is something to take heed of.

٥٧- أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ يَبْتَغُونَ
إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمُ الْوَسِيلَةَ أَيُّهُمْ أَقْرَبُ
وَيَرْجُونَ رَحْمَتَهُ وَيَخَافُونَ عَذَابَهُ
إِنَّ عَذَابَ رَبِّكَ كَانَ مَحْذُورًا ۝

2240. Not only are we not to judge other ordinary men and carp at them, we are not to set up false standards for judging the Prophets of Allah. If one was born of the unlearned Arab race, he yet was a mercy to all the worlds. If one spoke to Allah as Kalīm Allah or another's life as Rūh Allah begun with a spiritual miracle; it does not imply superiority. It only means that Allah's wisdom is more profound than we can fathom. (R).

2242. Men's suspicions of each or of the prophets have been condemned in the previous verses. We now have the strongest condemnation of all, that of imagining any other being as being equal or in the same category with One True God. Allah has all power: they have no power. They cannot remove men's troubles. They cannot even mitigate or change them so as to afford the least relief. Why indulge in false worship?

2243. Where men or heroes, or prophets or angels are worshipped, the worship is futile: because (1) even if they are good and holy, and ever so near to Allah, yet the nearest of them have need to seek means of access to Allah, and they do seek such means, viz., the hope of Allah's Grace: (2) though by their very nature it is impossible for us to suppose that they will incur the Wrath of Allah, yet they are but creatures and are subject to the law of personal responsibility.

58. There is not a population
But We shall destroy it
Before the Day of Judgement
Or punish it with
A dreadful Penalty:²²⁴⁴
That is written
In the (eternal) Record.

٥٨- وَإِنْ مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ إِلَّا نَحْنُ مُهْلِكُوهَا
قَبْلَ يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ أَوْ مُعَذِّبُوهَا عَذَابًا
شَدِيدًا
كَانَ ذَلِكَ فِي الْكِتَابِ مَسْطُورًا ○

59. And We refrain from sending
The Signs, only because
The men of former generations
Treated them as false:²²⁴⁵
We sent the She-camel²²⁴⁶
To the Thamūd to open
Their eyes, but they Treated her wrongfully:
We only sent the Signs
By way of terror
(And warning from evil).²²⁴⁷

٥٩- وَمَا مَنَعَنَا أَنْ نُرْسِلَ بِالْآيَاتِ إِلَّا
أَنْ كَذَّبَ بِهَا الْأَوَّلُونَ
وَأَتَيْنَا ثَمُودَ النَّاقَةَ
مُبْصِرَةً فَقَتَلُوهَا بِهَا
وَمَا نُرْسِلُ بِالْآيَاتِ إِلَّا تَخْوِيفًا ○

60. Behold! We told thee
That thy Lord doth encompass
Mankind round about:²²⁴⁸

٦٠- وَإِذْ قُلْنَا لَكَ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ أَحَاطَ بِالنَّاسِ

2244. These verses are a commentary on the last clause of the last verse. "The Wrath of thy Lord is something to take heed of." The godless thoughtlessly challenge Allah's Wrath, but do they realise its nature? Even the best of us must be moved with terror when we think of its consequences, were it not for His unbounded Mercy. Those who deny the Hereafter fail to realise its terrible Portents. They ask for Portents and Miracles now, but do they realise that their coming means destruction and misery to those who reject faith? They will come soon enough. The whole world will be convulsed before the Day of Judgement. The part of the wise is to prepare for it.

2245. Past generations treated Signs and Portents with contempt or rebellion, and brought about their own undoing. It is only Allah's Mercy that gives them Grace for a time and prevents the coming of those Portents and Punishments which would overwhelm them if they were put to their trial at once.

2246. An example is cited from the story of Thamūd. A wonderful she-camel was sent among them as a Portent and a Symbol. In their wickedness they hamstrung her. So instead of her reclaiming them she was a cause of their destruction, as their sin and rebellion were laid bare. For the story of the she-camel and the reference to the passages in which she is mentioned, see n. 1044 to 7:73.

2247. Signs, Miracles, and Portents are sent by Allah as a warning, to strike terror into the hearts of evildoers and reclaim them to the right path. I have discussed Fear as a motive for reclaiming certain kinds of hard hearts, in my note 82 to 2:74. But some hearts are so hard that even this motive does not work. As they have a limited free will given by Allah, they are to that extent free to choose. But when they actually choose evil, Allah in His infinite Mercy delays their punishment and removes the occasion for their immediate self-destruction by withholding the Signs which might make them transgress all the more and compass their total destruction.

2248. The reference may be to 72:28, probably an earlier Makkan revelation. But the argument is independent of time. This verse falls naturally into three divisions. Warnings and Portents and Signs are sent or not sent according to Allah's All-Wise Plan or Mercy and Justice: this is in no wise inconsistent with the apparent freedom given to the wicked: because (1) in any case Allah is all around all His creatures, and His delay as a Sign of Mercy in no way diminishes His power; (2) the Visions of Truth vouchsafed to Prophets of Allah are themselves Signs by which they can warn the ungodly; and (3) sometimes it is more merciful to give them time by not immediately bringing the matter to judgement. (R).

We granted the Vision
Which We showed thee,²²⁴⁹
But as a trial for men—
As also the Cursed Tree²²⁵⁰
(Mentioned) in the Qur'ān:
We put terror (and warning)
Into them, but it only Increases their inordinate transgression!

وَمَا جَعَلْنَا الرُّؤْيَا الَّتِي أَرَيْنَاكَ
إِلَّا فِتْنَةً لِلنَّاسِ
وَالشَّجَرَةَ الْمَلْعُونَةَ فِي الْقُرْآنِ
وَنُخَوِّفُهُمْ ۖ فَمَا يَزِيدُهُمْ
إِلَّا طُغْيَانًا كَبِيرًا ۝

C. 131. — Arrogance, jealousy, spite and hatred
(17:61-84.) Were the cause of the fall of Iblīs. Man
Was given pre-eminence above
Much of Allah's Creation, and owes
Higher responsibilities. He should give thanks
For Allah's mercies, and remember
To Day of Account. Not all the scheming
Of Evil will deflect Allah's righteous Plan
To protect His chosen ones. They should pray
Without ceasing, and seek His true Guidance;
For Truth will last, but Falsehood will perish.

SECTION 7.

61. Behold! We said to the angels:²²⁵¹
"Bow down unto Adam"
They bowed down except Iblīs:
He said: "Shall I bow down
To one whom Thou didst create
From clay?"

۞ وَإِذْ قُلْنَا لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ اسْجُدُوا لِآدَمَ
فَسَجَدُوا إِلَّا إِبْلِيسَ
قَالَ ۖ أَسْجُدُ لِمَنْ خَلَقْتَ طِينًا ۝

62. He said: "Seest Thou? This is The one whom Thou hast honoured
Above me! If Thou wilt but
Respite me to the Day
Of Judgement, I will surely
Bring his descendants

۞ قَالَ أَرَأَيْتَكَ هَذَا الَّذِي كَرَّمْتَ
عَلَيَّ لَنْ أَخْلُقَ إِلَى يَوْمِ
الْقِيَامَةِ لَأَحْتَنِكَنَّ ذُرِّيَّتَهُ ۖ

2250. The tree of Zaqqūm, a bitter and pungent tree described as growing at the bottom of Hell, a type of all that is disagreeable. See 37:62-65; 44:43-46; and 56:52. All these are Sūrahs chronologically earlier than this Sūrah. The application of the name to a tree of the myrobalan kind in the region of Jericho is, I think, of post-Quranic date.

It is a trial for wrongdoers. See 37:63 and n. 4073.

2251. Cf. 7:11-18, which deals, as is the case here, with the temptation of the individual human soul, while 2:30-38 deals with the collective race of man through Adam. Arrogance, jealousy, spite, and hatred are the ingredients of the story of Iblīs.

Go smoothly for you
Through the sea, in order that
Ye may seek of His Bounty.²²⁶¹
For He is unto you
Most Merciful.

فِي الْبَحْرِ لَتَنْتَعُوا مِنْ فَضْلِهِ
إِنَّهُ كَانَ بِكُمْ رَحِيمًا ۝

67. When distress seizes you
At sea, those that ye
Call upon—besides Himself—
Leave you in the lurch!
But when He brings you back
Safe to land, ye turn Away (from Him), Most ungrateful²²⁶²
Is man!

ۖ- وَإِذَا مَسَّكُمُ الضُّرُّ فِي الْبَحْرِ ضَلَّ
مَنْ تَدْعُونَ إِلَّا إِيَّاهُ ۚ
فَلَمَّا بَجَلْتُمْ إِلَى الْبَرِّ أَغْرَضْتُمُ
وَكَانَ الْإِنْسَانُ كَفُورًا ۝

68. Do ye then feel secure
That He will not cause you
To be swallowed up
Beneath the earth²²⁶³
When ye are on land,
Or that He will not send
Against you a violent tornado
(With showers of stones)
So that ye shall find
No one to carry out
Your affairs for you?

ۖ- أَفَأَمِنْتُمْ أَنْ يُخْسِفَ بِكُمْ
جَانِبَ الْبَرِّ
أَوْ يُرْسِلَ عَلَيْكُمْ حَاصِبًا
ثُمَّ لَا تَجِدُوا
لَكُمْ وَكِيلًا ۝

69. Or do ye feel secure
That He will not send you
Back a second time
To sea and send against you
A heavy gale to drown you
Because of your ingratitude,²²⁶⁴
So that ye find no helper
Therein against Us?

ۖ- أَمْ أَمِنْتُمْ أَنْ يُعِيدَكُمْ فِيهِ تَارَةً
أُخْرَىٰ فَيُرْسِلَ عَلَيْكُمْ قَاصِفًا مِنَ الرِّيحِ
فَيَغْرِقَكُمْ يَمًا كَفَرْتُمْ
ثُمَّ لَا تَجِدُوا لَكُمْ عَلَيْنَا بِهِ تَبِيعًا ۝

2261. This illustration of the sea, and the skill with which, by Allah's grace, men pass through it with ease in order to earn material gains by commerce, social gains by human intercourse, and spiritual gains by knowledge, is frequently used to enforce Allah's goodness to man. Cf. 2:164.

2264. If a man flees from the Wrath of Allah, there is no place secure for him. He may flee from sea to land, and back again from land to sea. But his life depends on the Disposer of all affairs. He may go again and again to sea, and perhaps finally end by being drowned.

70. We have honoured the sons
Of Adam; provided them
With transport on land and sea;
Given them for sustenance things
Good and pure; and conferred
On them special favours,
Above a great part
Of Our Creation.²²⁶⁵

٤٠- وَلَقَدْ كَرَّمْنَا بَنِي آدَمَ
وَحَمَلْنَاهُمْ فِي الْبَرِّ وَالْبَحْرِ
وَرَزَقْنَاهُمْ مِّنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَفَضَّلْنَاهُمْ
عَلَىٰ كَثِيرٍ مِّمَّنْ خَلَقْنَا تَفْضِيلًا ۝

SECTION 8.

71. One day We shall call
Together all human beings
With their (respective) Imāms.²²⁶⁶
Those who are given their record
In their right hand
Will read it (with pleasure),
And they will not be Dealt with unjustly
In the least.²²⁶⁷

٤١- يَوْمَ نَدْعُوا كُلَّ أُنَاسٍ بِإِمَامِهِمْ
فَمَنُ أُوْتِيَ كِتَابَهُ بِيَمِينِهِ
فَأُولَٰئِكَ يَفْرَحُونَ بِكِتَابِهِمْ
وَلَا يُظْلَمُونَ فَتِيلًا ۝

72. But those who were blind
In this world, will be Blind in the Hereafter,²²⁶⁸
And most astray
From the Path.

٤٢- وَمَن كَانَ فِي هَذِهِ أَعْمَى
فَهُوَ فِي الْآخِرَةِ أَعْمَى
وَأَضَلُّ سَبِيلًا ۝

73. And their purpose was
To tempt thee away
From that which We
Had revealed unto thee,
To substitute in Our name

٤٣- وَإِن كَادُوا لَيَفْتِنُونَكَ عَنِ الَّذِي
أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ لِتَفْتَرِيَ عَلَيْنَا

2266. I have discussed various meanings of Imām in 2:124, n. 1244. What is the meaning here? The Commentators are divided. Some understand the meaning to be that each People or Group will appear with its Leader, who will bear witness to its virtues or sins: Cf. 16:84. Another view is that the Imām is their revelation, their Book. A third is that the Imām is the record of deeds spoken of in the next clause. I prefer the first.

2267. Literally, by the value of a fatīl, a small skin in the cleft of a date stone: this has no value.

Something quite different:²²⁶⁹
(In that case), behold!
They would certainly have
Made thee (their) friend!

75. In that case We should Have made thee taste

portion²²⁷¹
In death: and moreover
Thou wouldst have found
None to help thee against Us!²²⁷²

76. Their purpose was to scare
Thee off the land,²²⁷³
In order to expel thee:
But in that case they
Would not have stayed
(Therein) after thee,
Except for a little while.

2269. It happens with men of Allah, and it happened with the Holy Prophet, that they are tempted by the world with many things which appeal to the world generally, if they would make some small concession in their favour. The "small concession" may hold the key of the position, and neutralise the whole teaching sent by Allah. If the Prophet had accepted wealth and position among the Quraysh and "only respected" their idols! The Quraysh would have taken him into their inner circle! A dishonest liar like Musaylama would have jumped at the opportunity and been hailed as a friend and associate and made much of. But Prophets of Allah are made of sterner stuff. They are given special strength to resist all plausible deception. (R).

2270. From a purely human point of view it may seem policy to make a small "concession" to men's weakness in order to fulfil a divine mission. But the divine Messenger is given special strength to resist such temptations.

2272. The motive held out by the world for a compromise with Truth is itself fallacious. The motive is that the compromise may bring influence, position, and opportunity, if not wealth and the other good things of life. But these in themselves (if attained) would not be of use or help if pitted against the command of Allah.

2273. As happened in the case of the Holy Prophet, the enemies try to frighten the Prophet of Allah away from their midst, so that, once away, they could expel him and keep him out. But they are counting without the Plan of Allah. If they persecute the righteous, they dig their own graves! (R).

80. Say: "O my Lord!

مُحْمُودًا ۝

٥٠- وَقُلْ رَبِّ أَدْخِلْنِي
مُدْخَلَ صِدْقٍ

2274. This was no new thing in history. Allah protects His own, and the ungodly cannot long enjoy the fruits of their unrighteousness even if their punishment be delayed a little while.

2275. The Commentators understand here the command for the five daily canonical prayers, viz.: the four from the declination of the sun from the zenith to the fullest darkness of the night, and the early morning prayers, Fajr, which is usually accompanied by a reading of the Holy Qur'ān. The four afternoon prayers are: Zuhr, immediately after the sun begins to decline in the afternoon; 'Asr, in the late afternoon; Maghrib, immediately after sunset; and Ishā, after the glow of sunset has disappeared and the full darkness of the night has set in. There is difference of opinion as to the meaning of particular words and phrases, but none as to the general effect of this passage.

2276. The morning prayer is specially singled out for separate mention, because the morning is a "Holy hour" and special spiritual influences act on the soul awaking from the night's rest. Special testimony is borne to the prayers of this hour by the angelic host.

2277. This was held to be addressed specially to the Holy Prophet who usually prayed more than the five canonical prayers. The Tahajjud was a prayer after midnight in the small watches of the morning.

2278. To the Prophet was to be assigned in the Hereafter the highest Post of Honour and Glory—the Maqām Maḥmūd implying his excellence above all other Prophets. The immediate reference may be to the hope that the Makkan persecution will soon be over and the glorious work in Madīnah will begin. (R).

2279. The entry and exit here referred to may be interpreted in four senses: (1) entry into death and exit at the resurrection for the righteous, who have purified their souls by prayer (last verse) and spiritual teaching from the Qur'ān (next verse), there is on each occasion a fuller and fuller realisation and enjoyment of truth and honour: for those who are estranged from Allah, the effect is the opposite: the truth becomes bitter and there is ignominy and exposure instead of honour; (2) entry for the Holy Prophet into the new life at Madīnah, which was still in the womb of futurity, and exit from the life of persecution and the milieu of falsehood, which surrounded him in his native city of Makkah still given up to idolatry; (3) referring to the impending Hijrah again, the prayer may mean, "Let it be from pure motives of truth and spiritual honour, and not from motives of anger against the city of Makkah or its persecutors, or of ambition or worldly power from the city of Madīnah, which was ready to lay everything at the Prophet's feet"; (4) generally, entry and exit at every stage of life.

And Honour, and likewise
My exit by the Gate
Of Truth and Honour;
And grant me
From Thy Presence
An authority to aid (me)."²²⁸⁰

C. 132. — Who can define the Spirit of Inspiration?
(17:85-111.) Its gift is the highest of Allah's Mercies

2280. All prayer must be for Allah's aid and authority. However much we may plan, our success must depend on His aid. However nobler our motives, we have no right to imperil any lives unless there is authority in the Word of Allah. The Prophet only acts on Allah's commission and inspiration.

2281. From its nature falsehood must perish: for it is the opposite of Truth, and Truth must ever prevail.

2282. In Allah's revelation there is healing for our broken spirits, hope for our spiritual future, and joy in the forgiveness of our sins. All who work in faith will share in these privileges. It is only the rebels against Allah's Law who will suffer loss. The more they will oppose Truth, the deeper down will they go into the mire — the state of sin and Wrath, which is worse than destruction.

2283. Truth saves us from two extremes: when we are happy, we are saved from being puffed up, for we realise that everything comes from Allah; and when we suffer misfortunes, we are not in despair, for we know that Allah is our sure refuge and help.

2284. If the wicked go their own ways, there is nothing to discourage us. It is their nature. We must seek and hold fast to true guidance.

To man. The Qur'ān is divine, and no carplings
 Can affect its greatness or the greatness
 Of the Messenger who brought it to men.
 Those who reject it will be called
 To account on the Day of Judgment. Let not Pride and Ignorance rush, like Pharaoh,
 To the Punishment of the Hereafter.
 The Qur'ān as revealed by stages teaches
 The Truth: learn it and chant it, and praise
 The Beautiful Names of Allah forever!

SECTION 10.

85. They ask thee concerning
 The Spirit (of inspiration).²²⁸⁵
 Say: "The Spirit (cometh)
 By command of my Lord:
 Of knowledge it is only
 A little that is communicated
 To you, (O men!)"

٨٥- وَيَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ الرُّوحِ
 قُلِ الرُّوحُ مِنْ أَمْرِ رَبِّي
 وَمَا أُوتِيتُمْ مِنَ الْعِلْمِ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ۝

86. If it were Our Will,
 We could take away
 That which We have Sent thee by inspiration:²²⁸⁶
 Then wouldst thou find
 None to plead thy affair
 In that matter as against Us—

٨٦- وَلَئِنْ شِئْنَا لَنَذْهَبَنَّ بِالَّذِي
 أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ
 ثُمَّ لَا تَجِدُ لَكَ بِهِ عَلَيْنَا وَكِيلًا ۝

87. Except for Mercy from thy
 Lord:²²⁸⁷
 For His Bounty is
 To thee (indeed) great.

٨٧- إِلَّا رَحْمَةً مِنْ رَبِّكَ
 إِنَّ فَضْلَهُ كَانَ عَلَيْكَ كَبِيرًا ۝

88. Say: 'If the whole
 Of mankind and Jinns²²⁸⁸

٨٨- قُلْ لِّئِنْ اجْتَمَعَتِ الْإِنْسُ وَالْجِنُّ

2285. What is the nature of inspiration? Who brings it? Can it ask its Bringer questions? Can we ask anything which we wish? These are the sort of questions always asked when inspiration is called in question. The answer is given here. Inspiration is one of those high spiritual mysteries which cannot be explained in the terms of everyday human experience. It is spiritual. The Spirit (Gabriel) does not come of his own will. He comes by the command of Allah, and reveals what Allah commands him to reveal. Of the sum total of true spiritual knowledge what a small part it is that ordinary mortals can understand! They can be only given that which they can understand, however dimly. We are not in a position to ask anything that we wish. If we did so, it would only make us look foolish, for the guidance comes from Allah's Wisdom, not from our worldly knowledge.

2286. Even the spiritual knowledge that comes to us comes because of the favour and mercy of Allah. If He were to withhold it, who can call Him in question?

2287. In that case the only one who can plead for us is the Mercy of Allah. We can interpret the phrase in its widest abstract sense, as well as in the concrete sense of the title which is applied to the Holy Prophet Muhammad, the Mercy of Allah. Thus we come from the abstract question to the concrete question of the Qur'ān, which is referred to by name in the verses that follow.

2288. For the meaning of "Jinns", see n. 929 to 6:100.

Were to gather together
To produce the like
Of this Qur'ān they Could not produce
The like thereof, even if
They backed up each other
With help and support.²²⁸⁹

عَلَى أَنْ يَأْتُوا بِمِثْلِ
هَذَا الْقُرْآنِ لَا يَأْتُونَ بِمِثْلِهِ
وَلَوْ كَانُ بَعْضُهُمْ لِبَعْضٍ ظَهِيرًا ۝

89. And We have explained
To man, in this Qur'ān,
Every kind of similitude:²²⁹⁰
Yet the greater part of men
Refuse (to receive it)
Except with ingratitude!²²⁹¹

۸۹- وَلَقَدْ صَرَّفْنَا لِلنَّاسِ فِي هَذَا
الْقُرْآنِ مِنْ كُلِّ مَثَلٍ فَأَبَى أَكْثَرُ
النَّاسِ إِلَّا كُفُورًا ۝

90. They say: 'We shall not Believe in thee, until thou
Cause a spring to gush
Forth for us from the earth,²²⁹²

۹۰- وَقَالُوا لَنْ نُؤْمِنَ بِكَ حَتَّى
تُفْعِرَ لَنَا مِنَ الْأَرْضِ يَنْبُوعًا ۝

91. 'Or (until) thou have
A garden of date trees
And vines, and cause rivers
To gush forth in their midst,
Carrying abundant water,²²⁹³

۹۱- أَوْ تَكُونُ لَكَ جَنَّةٌ مِنْ نَخِيلٍ
وَعِنَبٍ فَتُفْعِرَ الْأَنْهَارُ خِلَالَهَا تَجْجِدُ ۝

92. 'Or thou cause the sky
To fall in pieces, as thou

۹۲- أَوْ تُسْقِطَ السَّمَاءَ كَمَا

2289. The proof of the Qur'ān is in its own beauty and nature, and the circumstances in which it was promulgated. The world is challenged to produce a Book like it and has not produced one. It is the only revealed Book whose text stands pure and uncorrupted today. Cf., for a similar challenge, 2:23, 10:38, and 11:15.

2290. In the Qur'ān everything is explained in detail from various points of view, by commands, similitudes, examples, stories, parables, etc. It does not merely narrate stories or lay down vague abstract propositions. It gives very detailed help in outward and inner life.

2291. One form in which it can be received with ingratitude is to pay verbal tribute to it but not study it as it ought to be studied (2:121 haqqah tilāwatihi), or to disobey its precepts or standards.

2292. Cf. 2:60.

2293. This ill-assorted and crude jumble of the sort of miracles which the Unbelievers wanted is in very appropriate contrast to the sober and reasoned argument which is begun in the last sentence of verse 93 and continued in sections 11 and 12, which close this Sūrah. It is throughout reminiscent of the materialistic imagination of the Jewish sceptics, which was mainly responsible for the fall of the Jewish nation (see verse 104 below). For a thirsty people sojourning in a dry land, the finding of a spring of water as in the story of Moses or of the well of Zamzam is an appropriate miracle. But miracles are not for the faithless crowds to gape at. A beautiful well-watered Garden is a symbol of Felicity; but a sceptic cannot order Allah to produce it for his pleasure. The same may be said about a house adorned with gold, except that its symbolism is even more materialistic. The fall of the sky or producing Allah face to face or climbing to the skies by a ladder, or bringing down a book of parchment which men could handle, are all irreverent suggestions that make no distinction between spiritual and material things.

Sayest (will happen), against us,²²⁹⁴
Or thou bring Allah
And the angels before (us)
Face to face;²²⁹⁵

93. "Or thou have a house
Adorned with gold,
Or thou mount a ladder
Right into the skies.²²⁹⁶
No, we shall not even believe
In thy mounting until thou
Send down to us a book
That we can read."²²⁹⁷
Say: "Glory to my Lord!
Am I aught but a man—
A messenger?"²²⁹⁸

SECTION II.

94. hat kept men back
From Belief when Guidance
Came to them, was nothing
But this: they said.
"Has Allah sent a man²²⁹⁹
(Like us) to be (His) Messenger?"

95. Say, "If there were settled,
On earth, angels walking about²³⁰⁰

رَعِمَتْ عَلَيْنَا كِسْفًا
أَوْ تَأْتِي بَالِهٍ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ قَبِيلًا ۝

٩٣- أَوْ يَكُونُ لَكَ بَيْتٌ مِّنْ زُخْرٍ
أَوْ تَرْقَىٰ فِي السَّمَاءِ
وَلَكِنْ تَوْمَنُ لِرُقَيْتِكَ حَتَّىٰ
تُنْزِلَ عَلَيْنَا كِتَابًا تُفَرِّقُوهُ
قُلْ سُبْحَانَ رَبِّي
هَلْ كُنْتُ إِلَّا بَشَرًا مِّثْلَ سُوْلَا ۝

٩٤- وَمَا مَنَعَ النَّاسَ أَنْ يُؤْمِنُوا إِذْ جَاءَهُمُ
الْهُدَىٰ إِلَّا أَنْ قَالُوا
أَبَعَثَ اللَّهُ بَشَرًا مِّثْلَ سُوْلَا ۝
٩٥- قُلْ لَوْ كَانَ فِي الْأَرْضِ
مَلَائِكَةٌ يَّمْشُونَ

2294. Contrast the sublime passages with 82:1, or that in 25:25, where the final breaking up of the firmaments as we know is referred to in the world's catastrophe, with the ridiculous demand that it should be done for the sport of the sceptics!

2295. Cf. 2:55 and 4:153 about the desire of the Israelites to see Allah face to face; and 6:8-9, about angels coming down to convince men.

2296. Cf. 6:35 about the ladder in the skies.

2297. Cf. 6:7 for the foolish idea of materialistic sceptics that a spiritual revelation could come down from the heavens on a piece of parchment that they can touch.

2300. The argument is that if the angels inhabited this earth, an angel from heaven could be sent down as a messenger to them, as they could mutually understand each other, and the Message of Allah could be explained without difficulty. But the earth is inhabited by men, and the men themselves are divided into races, or groups, or nations. To each group is sent a prophet from among their brethren: to 'Ād, their brother Hūd (11:50); to Thamūd, their brother Šālīh (11:61); and so on. As a matter of fact, with wicked men, constituted as they are, the appearance of an angel causes disturbance and an unseemly riot, as in the case of the angels that came to Lot (11:77-80). In any case they cannot carry out an effective mission among men (6:8-9).

In peace and quiet, We should Certainly have sent them
Down from the heavens
An angel for a messenger."

مُظْمِئِينَ لَنَزَّلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ
مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ مَلَكًا رَسُولًا ۝

96. Say: "Enough is Allah
For a witness between me²³⁰¹
And you: for He is
Well-acquainted with His servants,
And He sees (all things)."

۹۶- قُلْ كَفَىٰ بِاللَّهِ شَهِيدًا بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكُمْ

97. It is he whom Allah guides,
That is on true guidance;
But he whom He leaves
Astray—for such wilt thou
Find no protector besides Him.²³⁰²
On the Day of Judgement
We shall gather them together,
Prone on their faces,
Blind, dumb, and deaf:
Their abode will be Hell:
Every time it shows abatement,
We shall increase for them
The fierceness of the Fire.²³⁰³

۹۷- وَمَنْ يَهْدِ اللَّهُ فَهُوَ الْمُهْتَدِ

وَنَحْشُرُهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ عَلَىٰ وُجُوهِهِمْ
عُمًى وَبُكْمًا وَصُمًّا
مَا وَهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ
كُلَّمَا خَبَتْ زِدْنَاهُمْ سَعِيرًا ۝

98. That is their recompense,
Because they rejected Our Signs.
And said, "When we are reduced
To bones and broken dust,
Should we really be raised up
(To be) a new Creation?"²³⁰⁴

۹۸- ذَلِكَ جَزَاؤُهُمْ بِأَنَّهُمْ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِنَا
وَقَالُوا إِذَا كُنَّا عِظًا مَّأْوُفَاتًا
ءَاِنَّا لَمَبْعُوثُونَ خَلْقًا جَدِيدًا ۝

2301. 'If you want a real witness, it is not these sorts of fancy miracles, but the witness of the true ever-living God. Purify your hearts, and ask Him in true contrition and repentance, and He will guide you and show you the Way.' (R).

2302. 'All your insincere subtleties are of no use. The only real guidance is the guidance of Allah. If you do not seek His grace, you will be lost. Besides Him, there is no true friend or protector.'

2303. 'If you still persist in your evil ways, what is to be your evil end? You will become more and more identified with the company of Evil. You will come to shame and ignominy, like men thrown down prone on their faces. You will lose the use of all the faculties of judgement with which Allah had endowed you. Instead of seeing, you will be blind to Allah's Signs. Instead of having the power of seeking Him in prayer and rejoicing in His grace, you will be dumb. Instead of hearing the harmony and music of the spheres, as typified in the pure and harmonious lives of men, you will hear nothing or only hear dull or confused sounds like deaf men. The scorching fire of your punishment will not grow less, but grow more fierce as you go deeper into Hell.'

2304. This phrase is repeated from 17:49. The reminiscence rounds off the argument. After certain moral precepts to which Faith was linked, we have had a discussion of unfaith. Its various motives have been analysed, and its penalties have been allegorically shadowed forth. After this, the example of Pharaoh is held as a type of unfaith in the next section, and the Sūrah closed with an exhortation to faith and a declaration of the glory of Allah.

99. See they not that Allah,
Who created the heavens
And the earth, has power
To create the like of them²³⁰⁵
(Anew)? Only He has Decreed a term appointed,
Of which there is no doubt.
But the unjust refuse
(To receive it) except
With ingratitude.²³⁰⁶

وَجَعَلَ لَهُمْ أَجَلًا
لَا رَيْبَ فِيهِ

100. Say: "If ye had
Control of the Treasures
Of the Mercy of my Lord,
Behold, ye would keep them
Back, for fear of spending
Them: for man
Is (ever) niggardly!"²³⁰⁷

۱۰۰- قُلْ لَوْ أَنْتُمْ تَمْلِكُونَ خَزَائِنَ
رَحْمَةِ رَبِّي
إِذَا لَمْ تَسْكُنُوا خَشْيَةَ الْإِنْفَاقِ

SECTION 12

101. To Moses We did give
Nine Clear Signs:²³⁰⁸
Ask the Children of Israel:
When he came to them,²³⁰⁹
Pharaoh said to him:
"O Moses! I consider thee,

۱۰۱- وَ لَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى تِسْعَ آيَاتٍ
بَيِّنَاتٍ فَسُئِلَ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ إِذْ جَاءَهُمْ
فَقَالَ لَهُ فِرْعَوْنُ إِنِّي لَأَظُنُّكَ يُمُوسَى

2305. Allah. Who created all that is in the heavens and on earth, has surely the power to receive the life of individual souls after their bodies have perished — and revive them with memories of their past life and for a continuation of their spiritual history. Only He has fixed a term for each stage of our existence, which we can neither prolong nor shorten.

2306. This phrase carries us back to 17:89. after we began the argument about the real motives for the rejection of the Qur'ān by sceptics. That argument is now closed in a sort of minor circle within the major circle sketched in n. 2304 above.

2307. A fresh argument is now addressed to those who confine Allah's revelations to a limited circle of men, such as they themselves belonged to. The reference was to the Jews, who could not understand how any Gentiles could receive revelations and guidance even superior to what they considered their own birthright. But the tendency is widespread in the human race. A particular race, or caste, or a particular kind of culture, claims to be the custodian of Allah's Message, whereas it is universal. Allah's Mercy is universal, and He scatters the priceless Treasures of His Mercy broadcast among His creatures. They are not exhausted by spending. It is only the misers who hoard their wealth for fear it should be used up by spending. 'Are you spiritual misers going to keep back Allah's holy Message from the multitude? Is that the reason why you deny the advent of the new Teacher, who comes as a Mercy to all men—to all Creation?'

2308. Nine Clear Signs: see 7:133, n. 1091. The story of Pharaoh (or a phase of it) is here told with a view to exhibiting the decline of a soul on account of pride in outward power and dignity.

2309. To them: i.e., to Pharaoh, as sitting in his Council, with the Chiefs of his People. Cf. 7:103. The whole scene is described in some detail from the point of view of nations or Ummahs in 7:103-133.

102. Moses said, "Thou knowest
Well that these things
Have been sent down by none
But the Lord of the heavens
And the earth as eye-opening²³¹¹

Indeed, O Pharaoh, to be
One doomed to destruction!"
103. So he resolved to remove them²³¹²
From the face of the earth:
But We did drown him
And all who were with him.
104. And We said thereafter
To The Children of Israel,
"Dwell securely in the land²³¹³

The second of the warnings came
To pass, We gathered you
Together in a mingled crowd²³¹⁴

١٠٥- وَبِالْحَقِّ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ وَبِالْحَقِّ نَزَلَ

2311. We can well suppose Moses to ask Pharaoh to recall all the past history of Moses, for Moses had been brought up in Pharaoh's palace in all the learning of the Egyptians. He could not therefore be mad, or a simpleton worked on by Egyptian magic. What he was going to show was something far greater; it was not the deceptive magic of Pharaoh's sorcerers, but true Signs that came from Allah, the Lord of all power. They were to open the eyes of his people, and if Pharaoh resisted faith, Moses warns him that Pharaoh in that case was doomed to destruction. This is the course of the soul that sinks down by Pride! (R).

2312. Pharaoh on this tries various subterfuges and plans for removing not only Moses but all his people by doing away with them. The detailed story is not told here but may be read in S. 7. But Allah's Wrath descended on Pharaoh and those who were with him in body and mind. The Egyptians who repented were subject to Pharaoh's wrath but were saved from the Wrath of Allah.

2313. The Israelites were taken to the Promised Land in Palestine, and they established their own kingdom there, but they forfeited Allah's favour by their sins and backslidings and will have to answer like all souls by the laws of personal responsibility at the Day of Judgement.

2314. The second of the warnings: the first was probably that mentioned above, in 17:5 and the second that mentioned in 17:7 (middle). When this second warning due to the rejection of Jesus came to pass, the Jews were gathered together in a mingled crowd. Some commentators understand the second warning to be the Day of Judgement, the Promise of the hereafter. (R).

2315. The Qur'ān was sent down by Allah in Truth: it was not forged by any mortal. It has descended in Truth: it was not falsified or corrupted in the process of being communicated to mankind.

Their (earnest) humility.²³²⁰

۝۱۰۹ وَيَخِرُّوْنَ لِلّٰذِقَانِ يَبْكُوْنَ وَهُمْ

2316. The part of the Prophet was that of a Messenger: he was not responsible if the ungodly rejected it. He fulfilled his mission in promulgating and explaining it and leaving it as a legacy to the world.

2317. The marvel is that these parts, revealed at different times and in different circumstances, should fit together so closely and consistently as they do. All revelation is progressive. The previous revelations were also progressive. Each of them marked a stage in the world's spiritual history. Man's mind does not take in more than his spiritual state will have prepared him for. Allah's revelation comes as a light to illuminate our difficulties and show us the way in actual situations that arise.

2318. No one's belief or unbelief affects the beauty or grandeur of Allah's revelation. But those endowed with spiritual knowledge or insight know at once when they hear Allah's Holy Word, and fall down and adore Allah. Those endowed with knowledge include those who had received previous revelations and had kept themselves free from corrupt ideas.

2319. Those who had received previous revelations find in the Qur'ān and in the Messenger who brought it, the promise of Allah fulfilled. Those who were spiritually prepared for it found in the same way the satisfaction of their spiritual yearnings: to them, also, Allah's promise was sent to be fulfilled.

2320. A feeling of earnest humility comes to the man who realises how, in spite of his own unworthiness, he is brought, by Allah's Mercy, into touch with the most sublime Truths. Such a man is touched with the deepest emotion, which finds its outlet in tears.

110. Say: "Call upon Allah, or

111. Say: "Praise be to Allah,
Who begets no son,
And has no partner
In (His) dominion:
Nor (needs) He any
To protect Him from humiliation:²³²⁴
Yea, magnify Him
For His greatness and glory!"

۱۱۱- وَقُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ الَّذِیْ لَمْ یَتَّخِذْ
وَلَدًا اَوْ لَمْ یَكُنْ لَهُ شَرِیْکٌ فِی الْمُلْکِ
وَلَمْ یَكُنْ لَهُ وَلِیٌّ مِّنَ الدُّنْیَا
وَكَبِّرْهُ تَکْبِیْرًا ۝

2321. Cf. 7:180. Raḥmān describes one of the attributes of Allah — His Grace and Mercy which come to the sinner even before he feels conscious of the need of it — the preventive Grace which saves Allah's servants from sin. See n. 19 to 1:1. Allah can be invoked, either by His simple name, which includes all attributes, or by one of the names implying the attributes by which we try to explain His nature to our limited understanding. The attribute of Mercy in Raḥmān was particularly repugnant to the Pagan Arabs (see 25:60, and 21:36): that is why special stress is laid on it in the Qur'ān. (R).

2322. These Beautiful Names of Allah are many. The Ḥadīth related by Tirmidhi, accepted by some as authentic, mentions 99 names of Allah. Qādī Muḥammad Sulaimān has published an Urdu monograph on the subject, published by the Daftar Raḥmatun-lil-'Ālamīn, Patiala, India, 1930. Those who wish to see a poetic Commentary on the names in the form of stories in English may consult Sir Edwin Arnold's Pearls of the Faith. Sir Edwin's stories are of unequal merit, but a fine example is furnished by No. 4, al-Malik, "The King". (R).

2323. Cf. 7:205. All prayer should be pronounced with earnestness and humility, whether it is congregational prayer or the private outpouring of one's own soul. Such an attitude is not consistent with an over-loud pronunciation of the words, though in public prayers the standard of permissible loudness is naturally higher than in the case of private prayer. In public prayers, of course, the adhān or call to prayer will be in a loud voice to be heard near and far, but the chants from the Sacred Book should be neither so loud as to attract the hostile notice of those who do not believe nor so low in tone as not to be heard by the whole congregation.

2324. A first step towards the understanding of Allah's attributes is to clear our mind from superstitions, such as that Allah begot a son, or that He has partners, or that He is dependent upon other beings to protect Him from harm and humiliation. We must realise that He is the One and Peerless. His greatness and glory are above anything we can conceive: but using our highest spiritual ideas, we must declare forth His greatness and glory.

The Sūrah began with singing the glory and praises of Allah: it ends in the same note, concluding the argument. The next Sūrah takes up the same theme from another point of view, and opens with the same note, "Praise be to Allah". (R).

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 18—AL KAHF

It has been explained in the introduction to S. 17 how the five Sūrahs 17 to 21 develop the theme of the individual soul's spiritual history, and how they fit into the general scheme of exposition.

This particular Makkan Sūrah may be called a lesson in the brevity and mystery of Life. First there is the story of the Companions of the Cave who slept therein for a long period, and yet thought they had been there only a day or less. Then there is the story of the mysterious Teacher who shows Moses how Life itself is a parable. And further there is the story of Dhu al Qarnayn, the two-horned one, the powerful ruler of west and east, who made an iron wall to protect the weak against the strong. The parables refer to the brevity, uncertainty, and vanity of this life; to the many paradoxes in it, which can only be understood by patience and the fulness of knowledge; and to the need of guarding our spiritual gains against the incursions of evil.

Summary—The Qur'ān is a direction and a warning. This life is brief and subject to vicissitudes. Our ideas of Time are defective, as shown in the story of the Companions of the Cave, who had faith, truth, patience, and other virtues. But their life was a mystery that can be fathomed but by few (18:1-22, and C. 133).

Knowledge is for Allah: be on your guard against idle conjectures and cocksure hopes. Learn from the Qur'ān the Parable of the man who is puffed up with this world's goods and is brought to nought (18:23-44, and C. 134.).

This life is uncertain and variable: goodness and virtue are better and more durable. For the Day of Reckoning will come, with its Mercy and its Wrath (18:45-59, and C. 135).

Moses in his thirst for knowledge forgot his limitations. Patience and faith were enjoined on him, and he understood when the paradoxes of Life were explained (18:60-82, and C. 136).

Dhu al Qarnayn had a wide dominion: he punished the guilty and rewarded the good; he protected the weak from the lawless; but he had faith, and valued the guidance of Allah. Allah is One, and His service is righteousness (18:83-110, and C. 137).

C. 133. — The Book of Revelation gives straight
(18:1-22.) Directions to make our lives straight—
To warn us against Evil and guide us
To the Good everlasting. Teach the Truth.
But fret not about men rejecting it.
The Parable of the Companions of the Cave
Shows how Allah works wonders beyond
Our fathoming: how Faith is a sure
Refuge in ways we know not; how
Time itself works Allah's Plan
Before we know how it passes;
How He can give us rest, and raise
Us back to life against all odds;
And how futile it is to engage
In controversies about matters we know not.

الجزء الخامس عشر سوره الكهف

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي أَنْزَلَ عَلَى عَبْدِهِ
الْكِتَابَ وَلَمْ يَجْعَلْ لَهُ عِوَجًا ۝

۲- قَيِّمًا لِيُنْذِرَ
بِأَسْأَفِيْدًا مِّنْ لَّدُنْهُ
وَيُبَشِّرَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ الَّذِينَ يَعْمَلُونَ
الصَّالِحَاتِ أَنَّ لَهُمْ أَجْرًا حَسَنًا ۝

۳- مَا كَثِيرٌ فِيهِ لِقَاءُ ۝

۴- وَيُنْذِرَ الَّذِينَ قَالُوا اتَّخَذَ اللَّهُ وَلَدًا ۝

2325. See n. 2324 to 17:111. The theme of the last Sūrah, that Allah is good and worthy of all praise from His creatures, to whom He has granted a clear revelation, is continued in this Sūrah. The spirit of man makes gradual progress upwards, through the grace and mercy of Allah.

2326. Some people's idea of a Sacred Book is that it should be full of mysteries – dark corners, ambiguous expressions, words so far removed from human speech that they cover anything or nothing. Pagan oracles were couched in language which suggested one meaning to the hearer and claimed to have the very opposite meaning in the light of events which actually happened subsequently. They were distinctly crooked, not straight. In the next verse, the word "Straight" (qayyim) is used to characterise the Qur'ān, in contrast to this word "crooked" (iway). See also 19:36, n. 2488.

2327. Qayyim: straight, that which has no bends and no corners to mystify people, that which speaks clearly and unambiguously, that which guides to the right path. Cf. 9:36, where the adjective is used for a straight usage, in contrast to usages, which tend to mystify and deceive people. The Qur'ān is above all things straight, clear, and perspicuous. Its directions are plain for everyone to understand. Any book that deals with the highest mysteries of spiritual life must necessarily have portions whose full meaning is clearer to some minds than to others not so well prepared. But here there is nowhere any mystification, any desire to wrap up things in dark sayings repugnant to human reason. Allah's purpose is to give clear warnings of spiritual dangers and lead up to the highest bliss.

2329. The warning is not only needed for those who deny Allah or deny His Message, but also for those whose false ideas of Allah degrade religion in supposing that Allah begot a son, for Allah is One and is High above any ideas of physical reproduction.

صَعِيدًا جُرُزًا ۝

9. Or dost thou reflect²³³⁴

٩- أَمْ حَسِبْتَ

2330. The attribution of a son "begotten" to Allah has no basis in fact or in reason. It is only a "word" or "saying" that issues out of their mouths. It is not even a dogma that is reasoned out or can be explained in any way that is consistent with the sublime attributes of Allah. (R).

2331. In a reasonable world the preaching of a reasonable Faith like that of Islam would win universal acceptance. But the world is not altogether reasonable. It causes great distress to the unselfish Preacher of Islam that his Message met with so much opposition. He wanted to point the way to salvation. He only got, in the Makkan period, abuse from the chiefs of the Makkans—abuse and persecution, not only for himself but for the Truth which he was preaching. A heart less stout than his might have been appalled at what seemed the hopeless task of reclaiming the world from falsehood, superstition, selfishness, wrong, and oppression. He is here consoled, and told that he was not to fret himself to death: he was nobly doing his duty, and, as later events showed, the seed of Truth was already germinating, although this was not visible at the time. Besides, these "chiefs" and "leaders" were only strutting in false plumes: their glory was soon to fade forever.

2332. This world's goods—worldly power, glory, wealth, position, and all that men scramble for—are but a fleeting show. The possession or want of them does not betoken a man's real value or position in the spiritual world, the world which is to endure. Yet they have their uses. They test a man's sterling quality. He who becomes their slave loses rank in the spiritual world. He who uses them if he gets them, and does not fall into despair if he does not get them, shows his true mettle and quality. His conduct proclaims him.

2333. The fairest sights on the earth will become as dust and waste when this earth vanishes, and the spiritual values are restored.

2334. A wonderful story or allegory is now referred to. Its lessons are: (1) the relativity of Time, (2) the unreality of the position of oppressor and oppressed, persecutor and persecuted, on this earth, (3) the truth of the final Resurrection, when true values will be restored, and (4) the potency of Faith and Prayer to lead to the Right. Wonderful though such things may seem to be, they happen every day on Allah's earth!

2335. The unbelieving Quraysh were in the habit of putting posers to the Holy Prophet – questions which they got from Christians and Jews, which they thought the Prophet would be unable to answer. In this way they hoped to discredit him. One of these questions was about the floating Christian legend of the Seven Sleepers of Ephesus. The Prophet not only told them the main story but pointed out the variations that were current, and rebuked men for disputing about such details (18:22). Most important, he treated the story (under inspiration) as a parable, pointing to spiritual lessons of the highest value. This is Revelation in the highest sense of the term. The story is recapitulated in n. 2337 below.

2336. Raqīm = Inscription. So interpreted by the Jalālayn, and the majority of Commentators agree. See. n. 2337, below. Others think it was the name of the dog: see 18:18, and n. 2330 below.

2337. The bare Christian story (without the spiritual lessons taught in the Qur'ān) is told in Gibbon's Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire (end of chapter 33). In the reign of a Roman Emperor who persecuted the Christians, seven Christian youths of Ephesus left the town and hid themselves in a cave in a mountain near by. They fell asleep, and remained asleep for some generations or centuries. When the wall which sealed up the cave was being demolished, the youths awoke. They still thought of the world in which they had previously lived. They had no idea of the duration of time. But when one of them went to the town to purchase provisions, he found that the whole world had changed. The Christian religion, instead of being persecuted was fashionable: in fact it was now the State religion. His dress and speech, and the money which he brought, seemed to belong to another world. This attracted attention. The great ones of the land visited the Cave, and verified the tale by questioning the man's Companions.

When the story became very popular and circulated throughout the Roman Empire, we may well suppose that an Inscription was put up at the mouth of the Cave. See verse 9 and n. 2336. This inscription was probably to be seen for many years afterwards, as Ephesus was a famous city on the west coast of Asia Minor, about forty to fifty miles south of Smyrna. Later on, the Khalīfah Wāthiq (842-846 A.C.) sent an expedition to examine and identify the locality, as he did about the Dhu al Qarnayn barrier in Central Asia (Appendix VI at the end of this Sūrah).

A popular story circulating from mouth to mouth would necessarily be vague as to dates and vary very much in details. Somewhere about the 6th century A.C. a Syriac writer reduced it to writing. He suggested that the youths were seven in number; that they went to sleep in the reign of the Emperor Decius (who reigned from 249-251 A.C., and who was a violent persecutor of Christians); and that they awoke in the reign of Theodosius II, who reigned from 408 to 450 A.C. In our literature Decius is known as Daqyānūs (from the adjectival Latin from Decianus), and the name stands as a symbol of injustice and oppression, and also of things old fashioned and out-of-date, as res decianae must have been two to three centuries after Decius.

2339. Drew (a veil) over their ears: i.e., sealed their ears so that they heard nothing. As they were in the Cave they saw nothing. So they were completely cut off from the outer world. It was as if they had died, with their knowledge and ideas remaining at the point of time when they entered the Cave. It is as if a watch stops at the exact moment of some accident, and any one taking it up afterwards can precisely fix the time of the accident.

قُلْنَا إِذْ شَطَطًا ۝

٥٠- هَؤُلَاءِ قَوْمُنَا اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ

2340. Roused them: or raised them up from their sleep or whatever condition they had fallen into (18:18), so that they began to perceive the things around them, but only with the memories of the time at which they had ceased to be in touch with the world.

2341. When they awoke to consciousness, they had lost all count of time. Though they had all entered together, and lain together on the same place for the same length of time, their impressions of the time that had passed were quite different. Time is thus related to our own internal experiences. We have to learn the lesson that men as good as ourselves may yet differ as to their reactions to certain facts, and that in such matters disputes are unseemly. It is best to say, "Allah knows best" (18:19).

2342. Their Faith carried them higher and higher on the road to Truth. Faith is cumulative. Each step leads higher and higher, by the grace and mercy of Allah.

2343. So that they were not afraid to speak out openly, and protest the truth of the Unity which they clearly saw in their own minds and hearts.

2344. We may suppose them to have taken their stand and made a public protest before they betook themselves to the Cave (18:16). The story really begins at 18:15, and the verses 18:9-12 may be considered as introductory. As the emphasis is on spiritual lessons, the facts stated in the introductory part are passed over lightly in the story.

2345. Besides the heathen gods, the cult of the Emperors also became fashionable in the Roman Empire in the first three centuries of the Christian Era. The statue of Diana (Artemis) at Ephesus had been one of the wonders of the ancient world. The city was a great seaport and the capital of Roman Asia. We may therefore imagine how the heathen cults must have flourished there. St. Paul spent three years preaching there, and was mobbed and assaulted, and compelled to leave (Acts, xix. 1-4).

Than Him: why do they
Not bring forward an authority
Clear (and convincing)
For what they do?
Who doth more wrong
Than such as invent
A falshood against Allah?

لَوْ لَا يَأْتُونَ عَلَيْهِمْ بِسُلْطٰنٍ بَيِّنٍ
فَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ افْتَرٰى

16. "When ye turn away
From them and the things
They worship other than Allah
Betake yourself to the Cave:
Your Lord will shower
His mercies on you
And dispose of your affair
Towards comfort and ease."²³⁴⁶

۱۶- وَإِذْ اَعْتَرٰهُمْ مُوْحُهُمْ وَمَا يَعْْبُدُوْنَ اِلَّا
اللَّهُ فَاَوٰا۟ اِلَى الْكَهْفِ
يَنْشُرْ لَكُمْ رَبُّكُمْ مِنْ رَحْمَتِهٖ
وَيَهْدِيْكُمْ لَكُمْ مِنْ اَمْرِكُمْ فَرَقًا ۝

17. Thou wouldst have seen
The sun, when it rose,
Declining to the right²³⁴⁷
From their Cave, and when
It set, turning away
From them to the left,
While they lay in the open
Space in the midst
Of the Cave. Such are
Among the signs of Allah:
He whom Allah guides²³⁴⁸
Is rightly guided; but he
Whom Allah leaves to stray—
For him wilt thou find
No protector to lead him
To the Right Way.

۱۷- وَتَرٰى الشَّمْسَ اِذَا طَلَعَتْ
تَزُوْرُ عَنْ كَهْفِهِمْ ذَاتَ الْيَمِيْنِ وَإِذَا
غَرَبَتْ ثَقُرَتْ ضَلْعُهُمْ ذَاتَ الشِّمَالِ
وَهُمْ فِي قَعْوَةٍ مِنْهُ
ذٰلِكَ مِنْ اٰيٰتِ اللَّهِ
مَنْ يَهْدِ اللَّهُ فَبِهْدِ الْمُهْتَدِ
وَمَنْ يَضِلَّ فَلَنْ يُجَدَّ
لَهُ وَلِيًّا مُّرْسِدًا ۝

2346. That is, 'do not be afraid of anything; put your whole case in the hands of Allah; at present you are being persecuted; he will solve your difficulties and give you ease and comfort'. The public protest ends at verse 15. In verse 16 they are taking counsel among themselves. After they go into the Cave, verse 17 introduces us to the scene where they are lying in the midst of the Cave in tranquil confidence in Allah.

2348. The youths, having faith and trust in Allah, found safety and refuge in the Cave. They were protected from the persecution and violence of the heathen. Their prayer (18:16) was heard.

Section 3.

18. Thou wouldst have deemed them²³⁴⁹
 Awake, whilst they were asleep,
 And We turned them
 On their right and on
 Their left sides: their dog²³⁵⁰
 Stretching forth his two forelegs
 On the threshold: if thou
 Hadst come up on to them,
 Thou wouldst have certainly
 Turned back from them in flight,
 And wouldst certainly have been Filled with terror of them.²³⁵¹

۱۸- وَتَحْسَبُهُمْ أَيْقَاظًا وَهُمْ رُقُودٌ ۚ
 وَنَقَلْنَاهُم ذَاتَ الْيَمِينِ وَذَاتَ الشِّمَالِ ۚ
 وَكَلْبُهُمْ بَاسِطٌ ذِرَاعَيْهِ بِالْوَصِيدِ

19. Such (being their state),
 We raised them up (from sleep).
 That they might question²³⁵²
 Each other. Said one of them,
 "How long have ye stayed (here)?"
 They said, "We have stayed
 (Perhaps) a day, or part
 Of a day." (At length)
 They (all) said, "Allah (alone)
 Knows best how long
 Ye have stayed here. . .
 Now send ye then one of you
 With this money of yours²³⁵³
 To the town: let him

۱۹- وَكَذَلِكَ بَعَثْنَاهُمْ لِيَتَسَاءَلُوا بَيْنَهُمْ
 قَالَ قَائِلٌ مِنْهُمْ
 كَمْ لَبِثْتُمْ
 قَالُوا لَبِثْنَا يَوْمًا أَوْ بَعْضُ يَوْمٍ
 قَالُوا رَبُّكُمْ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا لَبِثْتُمْ
 فَابْعَثُوا أَحَدَكُمْ بِوَرِقِكُمْ هَذِهِ
 إِلَى الْمَدِينَةِ

2349. Perhaps their eyes were open, even though their senses were sealed in sleep. They turned about on their sides as men do in sleep.

2350. The name of their dog is traditionally known as Qitmir, but see n. 2336 above.

2352. This is the point of the story. Their own human impressions were to be compared, each with the other. They were to be made to see that with the best goodwill and the most honest enquiry they might reach different conclusions; that they were not to waste their time in vain controversies, but to get on to the main business of life; and that Allah alone had full knowledge of the things that seem to us so strange, or inconsistent, or inexplicable, or that produce different impressions on different minds. If they entered the Cave in the morning and woke up in the afternoon, one of them might think they had been there only a few hours—only part of the day. This relative or fallacious impression of Time also gives us an inkling of the state when there will be no Time, of the Resurrection when all our little impressions of this life will be corrected by the final Reality. This mystery of time had puzzled many contemplative minds. Cf. "Dark time that haunts us with the briefness of our days" (Thomas Wolfe in "Of Time and the River").

2353. They now give up barren controversy and come to the practical business of life. But their thoughts are conditioned by the state of things that existed when they entered the Cave. The money they carried was the money coined in the reign of the monarch who persecuted the Religion of Unity and favoured the false cults of Paganism.

20. "For if they should Come upon you, they would
Stone you or force you²³⁵⁵
To return to their cult,
And in that case ye would Never attain prosperity."²³⁵⁶

٢٠- إِنْهُمْ إِنْ يَظْهَرُوا عَلَيْكُمْ
يَرْجُمُوكُمْ أَوْ يُعِيدُوكُمْ فِي مِلَّتِهِمْ
وَلَنْ تَفْلَحُوا إِذَا أَبَدًا ○

21. Thus²³⁵⁷ did We make
Their case known to the people,
That they might know
That the promise of Allah
Is true, and that there can
Be no doubt about the Hour
Of Judgement. Behold,
They dispute among themselves²³⁵⁸
As to their affair. (Some) said,
"Construct a building over them":

٢١- وَكَذَلِكَ أَخْذَرْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ
لِيَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ
حَقٌّ وَأَنَّ السَّاعَةَ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهَا
إِذْ يَتَنَازَعُونَ بَيْنَهُمْ أَمْرَهُمْ فَقَالُوا
ابْنُوا عَلَيْهِمْ بُنْيَانًا *

2354. Best food: i.e., purest, most wholesome, perhaps also most suitable for those who rejected idol worship, i.e., not dedicated to idols. For they still imagined the world in the same state in which they had known it before they entered the Cave.

2356. That is, never reap the spiritual good which your knowledge, instruction, and experience entitle you to attain. To become a renegade, to give up the Truth which you have won, simply on account of the fear of men, is the most despicable form of cowardice, and would rightly close the door of salvation if strict justice were to be done. But even then Allah's Mercy comes to the coward's aid so long as the door of repentance is open.

2357. Thus: in this way, by these means, i.e., by the sending out of one of the Sleepers with the old money to the town to buy provisions. His old-fashioned dress, appearance, and speech, and the old uncurrent money which he brought, at once drew the attention of people to him. When they learnt his story, they realised that Allah, who can protect His servants thus and raise them up from sleep after such a long time, has power to raise up men for the Resurrection, and that His promise of goodness and mercy to those who serve Him is true and was exemplified in this striking way. On the other hand, to the men of the Cave themselves, it became clear that Allah can change the situation before we are aware, and our hope in Him is not futile, and that even when we are on the brink of despair, a revolution is surely working in the world before the world itself realises it.

2358. The perversity of man is such that as soon as ever a glimpse of truth becomes manifest, men fall into controversies about it. The Sleepers could not judge about the duration of their stay in the Cave, but they wisely left the matter and attended to the urgent business of their lives. The townsfolk could not agree as to the significance of the event: they fell to discussing immaterial details. What sort of a memorial should they raise? - a house or a place of worship or a tablet? The place of worship was built. But the real significance of the spiritual meaning was missed until explained in the Qur'ān.

Their Lord knows best
About them: those who prevailed
Over their affair said,
"Let us surely build a place
Of worship over them."

رَبُّهُمْ أَعْلَمُ بِهِمْ قَالَ الَّذِينَ غَلَبُوا
عَلَىٰ أَمْرِهِمْ لَنَتَّخِذَنَّ عَلَيْهِم مَّسْجِدًا ۝

22. (Some) say they were three,
The dog being the fourth
Among them; (others) say
They were five, the dog
Being the sixth—doubtfully
Guessing at the unknown;²³⁵⁹
(Yet others) say they were
Seven, the dog being the eighth.
Say thou; "My Lord
Knoweth best their number;
It is but few that know²³⁶⁰
Their (real case)." Enter not,
Therefore, into controversies
Concerning them, except
On a matter that is clear,²³⁶¹
Nor consult any of them
About (the affair of) the Sleepers.²³⁶²

۲۲- سَيَقُولُونَ ثَلَاثَةٌ رَّابِعُهُمْ كَلْبُهُمْ
وَيَقُولُونَ خَمْسَةٌ سَادِسُهُمْ كَلْبُهُمْ
رَجْمًا بِالْغَيْبِ وَيَقُولُونَ سَبْعَةٌ
وَتَامُهُمْ كَلْبُهُمْ
قُلْ رَبِّي أَعْلَمُ بِعَدَّتِهِمْ
مَا يَعْلَمُهُمْ إِلَّا قَلِيلٌ ۖ
فَلَا تَسَارِفْ فِيهِمْ
إِلَّا مِرَاءَ ظَاهِرٍ ۚ
وَلَا تَسْتَفْتِ فِيهِمْ مِنْهُمْ أَحَدًا ۝

- C. 134. — True knowledge is with Allah alone.
(18:23-44.) We are not to dispute on matters
Of conjecture, but to rely on the Truth
That comes from Allah, as in the Parable.
The man who piles up wealth
And is puffed up with this world's goods,
Dismissing those otherwise endowed,
Will come to an evil end,
For his hopes were not built on Allah.

2359. The controversy in later ages raged about the number of the Sleepers: were they three or five or seven? People answered, not from knowledge, but from conjecture. Gibbon's version, which has now become best known, makes the number of Sleepers seven. The point was immaterial: the real point was the spiritual lesson.

2360. The true significance of the story is known only to a few. Most men discuss futile details, which are not in their knowledge.

2361. It is unprofitable to enter such immaterial controversies, and many others that have been waged about Religion by shallow men from time immemorial. Yet, if there is a matter of clear knowledge from experience that matters, we must openly proclaim it, that the world may be brought to listen to Allah's Truth.

2362. Vulgar storymongers as such know little of the true significance of the stories and parables. We have a clear exposition in the Qur'ān. What need is there to go into details of the men in the Cave, or of the time they remained there?

SECTION 4.

23. Nor say of anything,
"I shall be sure to do
So and so tomorrow"—

۲۳- وَلَا تَقُولَنَّ لِشَيْءٍ
لَّأَنِّي فَاعِلٌ ذَلِكَ غَدًا ۝

24. Without adding, "So please
Allah!"²³⁶³
And call thy Lord to mind
When thou forgettest, and say,
"I hope that my Lord
Will guide me ever closer
(Even) than this
To the right road."²³⁶⁴

۲۴- إِلَّا أَنْ يَشَاءَ اللَّهُ ۖ وَادْكُرْ رَبَّكَ
إِذَا نَسِيتَ وَقُلْ عَسَى أَنْ يَهْدِيَنِّي رَبِّي
إِلَاقَرَبَ مِنْ هَذَا ارْشَادًا ۝

25. So they stayed in their Cave
Three hundred years, and (some)
Add nine (more).²³⁶⁵

۲۵- وَلَبِثُوا فِي كَهْفِهِمْ ثَلَاثَ مِائَةٍ
سِنِينَ ۖ وَازْدَادُوا تِسْعًا ۝

26. Say: "Allah knows best
How long they stayed:
With Him is (the knowledge
Of) the secrets of the heavens
And the earth: how clearly
He sees, how finely He hears
(Everything)! They have no protector"²³⁶⁶

۲۶- قُلِ اللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا لَبِثُوا
لَهُ غَيْبُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
أَبْصَرُ بِهِ وَأَسْمَعُ
مَا لَهُمْ مِنْ دُونِهِ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ ۝

2363. Verses 23 and 24 are parenthetical. We must never rely upon our own resources so much as to forget Allah. If by any chance we so forget, we must come back to Him and keep Him in remembrance, as did the Companions of the Cave.

2364. In geometry, the perfect circle is an ideal. Any given circle that we draw is not so perfect that we cannot draw one closer to the ideal. So in our life, there is always the hope of drawing closer and closer to Allah.

2365. This verse should be read with the next verse. In the floating oral tradition the duration of time in the Cave was given differently in different versions. When the tradition was reduced to writing, some Christian writers (e.g., Simeon Metaphrates) named 372 years, some less. In round numbers, 300 years in the solar Calendar would amount to 309 in the lunar Calendar. But the next verse points out that all these are mere conjectures: the number is known to Allah alone.

The authority on which Gibbon relies mentions two definite reigns, that of Decius (249-252 A.C.) and that of Theodosius II (409-450 A.C.). Taking 250 and 450, we get an interval of 200 years. But the point of the story does not lie in the name of any given Emperor, but in the fact that the beginning of the period coincided with an Emperor who persecuted: the Emperor's name at the end of the period may be taken as approximately correct, because the story was recorded within two generations afterwards. One of the worst Emperors to persecute the Christians was Nero who reigned from 54 to 68. If we took the end of his reign (A.C. 68.) as the initial point, and (say) 440 A.C. as the final point, we get 372 years of Simeon Metaphrates. But none of these writers knew any more than we do. Our best course is to follow the Qur'anic injunction, "Say, Allah knows best how long they stayed" (18:26). There is also a rebuke implied: 'do not imitate these men who love mischievous controversies!' After all, we are given the narrative more as a parable than as a story.

2366. Who are "they" in the sentence? They may be the Companions of the Cave, for they put themselves under the protection of Allah, and disowned all attribution of partners to Him. Or "they" may refer to the people in general who go wrong and become "Mushriks", i.e., attribute imaginary partners to Allah.

Other than Him; nor does
He share His Command
With any person whatsoever.²³⁶⁷

وَلَا يُشْرِكُ فِي حُكْمِهِ أَحَدًا ۝

27. And recite (and teach)
What has been revealed
To thee of the Book
Of thy Lord: none
Can change His Words,²³⁶⁸
And none wilt thou find
As a refuge other than Him.

٢٧- وَأَنْتِلْ مَا أَوْحَىٰ
إِلَيْكَ مِنْ كِتَابِ رَبِّكَ ۚ
لَا مُبَدِّلَ لِكَلِمَاتِهِ ۚ
وَلَنْ تَجِدَ مِنْ دُونِهِ مُلْتَحَدًا ۝

28. And keep thy soul content
With those who call
On their Lord morning
And evening, seeking²³⁶⁹
His Face; and let not
Thine eyes pass beyond them,
Seeking the pomp and glitter
Of this Life; nor obey
Any whose heart We
Have permitted to neglect
The remembrance of Us,
One who follows his own
Desires, whose case has
Gone beyond all bounds.²³⁷⁰

٢٨- وَاصْبِرْ نَفْسَكَ مَعَ الَّذِينَ يَدْعُونَ
رَبَّهُمْ بِالْغَدَاةِ وَالْعَشِيِّ
يُرِيدُونَ وَجْهَهُ ۚ وَلَا تَعْدُ عَيْنُكَ عَنْهُمْ
تُرِيدُ زِينَةَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا ۚ
وَلَا تُطِعْ مَنْ أَغْفَلْنَا قَلْبَهُ
عَنْ ذِكْرِنَا وَاتَّبَعَ
هَوَاهُ وَكَانَ أَمْرُهُ فُرُطًا ۝

29. Say, "The Truth is
From your Lord":
Let him who will,
Believe, and let him
Who will, reject (it):²³⁷¹

٢٩- وَقُلِ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّكُمْ ۖ
مَنْ شَاءَ فَلْيُؤْمَرْ
وَمَنْ شَاءَ فَلْيُكْفَرْ ۚ

2367. His Command: i.e., Allah's government of the world, or in His Judgement on the Day of Judgement.

2368. His Words: His Commands. Decrees. Orders.

2369. Cf. 6:52 and n. 870. The true servants of Allah are those whose hearts are turned to Him morning, noon, and night, and who seek not worldly gain, but Allah's Grace, Allah's own Self, His presence and nearness. "Face" is the symbol of Personality or Self. Even if they are poor in this world's goods, their society gives far more inward and spiritual satisfaction than worldly grandeur or worldly attraction.

2371. Our choice in our limited Free will involves a corresponding personal responsibility. We are offered the Truth: again and again it is pressed on our attention. If we reject it, we must take all the terrible consequences which are prefigured in the Fire of Hell. Its flames and roof will completely enclose us like a tent. Ordinarily there is water to quench the heat of thirst: here the only drink will be like molten brass, thick, heavy, burning, sizzling. Before it reaches the mouth of the unfortunates, drops of it will scald their faces as it is poured out.

For the wrongdoers We Have prepared a Fire
Whose (smoke and flames),
Like the walls and roof
Of a tent, will hem
Them in: if they implore
Relief they will be granted
Water like melted brass
That will scald their faces.
How dreadful the drink!
How uncomfortable a couch
To recline on!

30. As to those who believe
And work righteousness,
Verily We shall not suffer
To perish the reward
Of any who do
A (single) righteous deed.²³⁷²

31. For them will be Gardens
Of Eternity; beneath them
Rivers will flow: they will
Be adorned therein
With bracelets of gold,
And they will wear
Green garments²³⁷³ of fine silk
And heavy brocade;
They will recline therein
On raised thrones.
How good the recompense!
How beautiful a couch
To recline on!²³⁷⁴

SECTION 5.

32. Set forth to them
The parable of two men:
For one of them We provided
Two gardens of grapevines

إِنَّا أَخْتَلْنَا لِلظَّالِمِينَ نَارًا
أَحَاطَ بِهِمْ سُرَادِقُهَا
وَإِنْ يَسْتَغِيثُوا يُغَاثُوا
بِمَاءٍ كَالْمُهْلِ يَشْوِي الْوُجُوهَ
بِئْسَ الشَّرَابُ
وَسَاءَتْ مُرْتَفَقًا

۳۰- إِنْ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
إِنَّا لَا نُضِيعُ أَجْرَ
مَنْ أَحْسَنَ عَمَلًا

۳۱- أُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ
تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ يُكَلِّفُونَ فِيهَا
مِنْ أَسَاوِرَ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ وَيَكْبَسُونَ
ثِيَابًا خَضْرَاءَ مِنْ سُنْدُسٍ وَإِسْتَبْرَقٍ
مُتَّكِئِينَ فِيهَا عَلَى الْأَرَائِكِ
نِعْمَ الثَّوَابُ
وَحَسْبَتْ مُرْتَفَقًا

2372. The righteous will be rewarded, as has been said again and again, beyond their merits: 28:84; 30:39. Not a single good deed of theirs will lose its reward, and the mercy of Allah will blot out their sins.

2373. Heaven is figured by all the pictures of ease and comfort which we can imagine in our present state: Gardens: perpetual springs of crystal clear water, which we can see as in a landscape from above; the finest and most costly ornaments; the most beautiful clothes to wear; green is the colour mentioned, because it is the most refreshing to the eye, and fits in well with the Garden; the wearer takes the choice of fine silk or heavy brocade; and for rest and comfort, high thrones of dignity on which the blessed ones recline.

2374. This picture is in parallel contrast to the picture of Misery in the last verse.

And surrounded them
With date palms:
In between the two
We placed cornfields.²³⁷⁵

وَحَفَفْنَاهُمَا بِنَخِيلٍ
وَجَعَلْنَا بَيْنَهُمَا مَازِعًا ۝

33. Each of those gardens
Brought forth its produce,
And failed not in the least
Therein: in the midst
Of them We caused
A river to flow.

۝۳۳ كِلْتَا الْجَنَّتَيْنِ آتَتْ أُكُلَهُمَا
وَلَمْ يَنْظِلْمَا مِنْهُ شَيْئًا
وَفَجَّرْنَا خِلْفَهُمَا نَهْرًا ۝

34. (Abundant) was the produce
This man had: he said
To his companion, in the course
Of a mutual argument:
"More wealth have I
Than you, and more honour
And power in (my following
Of) men."²³⁷⁶

۝۳۴ وَكَانَ لَهُ ثَمَرٌ فَقَالَ
لِصَاحِبِهِ وَهُوَ يُحَاوِرُهُ
أَنَا أَكْثَرُ مِنْكَ مَالًا
وَأَعَزُّ نَفَرًا ۝

35. He went into his garden
In a state (of mind)
Unjust to his soul:²³⁷⁷
He said, "I deem not
That this will ever perish.

۝۳۵ وَدَخَلَ جَنَّتَهُ وَهُوَ ظَالِمٌ لِنَفْسِهِ
قَالَ مَا أَظُنُّ أَنْ تَبِيدَ هَذِهِ أَبَدًا ۝

36. "Nor do I deem
That the Hour (of Judgement)
Will (ever) come:
Even if I am brought back
To my Lord, I shall
Surely find (there)
Something better in exchange."²³⁷⁸

۝۳۶ وَمَا أَظُنُّ السَّاعَةَ قَائِمَةً
وَلَكِنْ رُودِدْتُ إِلَىٰ رَبِّي
لَأَجِدَنَّ خَيْرًا مِنْهَا مُنْقَلَبًا ۝

2376. The two men began to compare notes. The arrogant one puffed up with his possessions, his income, and his large family and following, and thought in his self-complacency that it would last forever. He was also wrong in looking down on his Companion, who, though less affluent, was the better man of the two.

2377. It was not wealth that ruined him, but the attitude of his mind. He was unjust, not so much to his neighbour, as to his own soul. In his love of the material, he forgot or openly defied the spiritual. As verse 37 shows, he took his companion with him, to impress him with his own importance, but the companion was unmoved.

2378. Here comes out the grasping spirit of the materialist. In his mind "better" means more wealth and more power, of the kind he was enjoying in this life, although in reality, even what he had rested on hollow foundations and was doomed to perish and bring him down with it.

37. His companion said to him,
In the course of the argument
With him: "Dost thou deny
Him Who created thee
Out of the dust, then out of
A sperm-drop, then fashioned
Thee into a man?"²³⁷⁹

٣٧- قَالَ لَهُ صَاحِبُهُ وَهُوَ يُحَاوِرُهُ
أَكْفَرْتَ بِالَّذِي خَلَقَكَ مِنْ تُرَابٍ
ثُمَّ مِنْ
نُطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ سَوَّكَ رَجُلًا ۝

38. "But (I think) for my part
That He is Allah,
My Lord, and none shall I
Associate with my Lord.

٣٨- لَكِنَّا هُوَ اللَّهُ
رَبِّي وَلَا أُشْرِكُ بِرَبِّي أَحَدًا ۝

39. "Why didst thou not,
As thou wentest into Thy garden, say: 'Allah's Will (Be done)! There is no power
But with Allah!' If thou²³⁸⁰
Dost see me less than
Thee in wealth and sons,

٣٩- وَلَوْلَا إِذْ دَخَلْتَ جَنَّتَكَ قُلْتَ مَا
شَاءَ اللَّهُ لَا قُوَّةَ إِلَّا بِاللَّهِ إِنَّ
تَرَبَّيْنَا أَنَا أَقْلَ مِنْكَ مَالًا وَوَلَدًا ۝

40. "It may be that my Lord
Will give me something
Better than thy garden,
And that He will send
On thy garden thunderbolts
(By way of reckoning)
From heaven, making it
(But) slippery sand!"²³⁸¹ —

٤٠- فَعَسَىٰ رَبِّي أَن يُؤْتِيَنِي
خَيْرًا مِّنْ جَنَّتِكَ وَيُرْسِلَ
عَلَيْهَا حُسْبَانًا
مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ فَتُصْبِحَ صَعِيدًا زَلَقًا ۝

41. "Or the water of the garden
Will run off underground
So that thou wilt never
Be able to find it.

٤١- أَوْ يُصْبِحَ مَآوُهَا غَوْرًا
فَلَنْ تَسْتَطِيعَ لَهُ طَلَبًا ۝

42. So his fruits (and enjoyment)
Were encompassed (with ruin),

٤٢- وَأُحِيطَ بِثَمَرِهِ ۝

2379. Three stages of man's creation: first dust, or clay, itself created out of nothing and forming the physical basis for his body; then, out of the produce of the earth as incorporated in the parent's body, the sperm drop (with the corresponding receptive element); and then when the different elements were mixed in due proportion, and the soul was breathed into him, the fashioned man. Cf. 87:2. and 15:28-29.

2380. The companion's argument divides itself into five parts. (1) He remonstrates against the proud man denying Allah. (2) He, from his own spiritual experience, proclaims that Allah is One and that He is good. (3) He points out to him the better way of enjoying Allah's gift, with gratitude to Him. (4) He expresses contentment and satisfaction in Allah's dealings with him. (5) He gives warning of the fleeting nature of this world's goods and the certainty of Allah's punishment for inordinate vanity.

2381. The punishment was that of thunderbolts (husbānan), but the general meaning of the word includes any punishment by way of a reckoning (hisāb), and I think that an earthquake is also implied, as it alters watercourses, diverts channels underground, throws up silt and sand, and covers large areas with ruin. (R).

And he remained twisting
And turning his hands
Over what he had spent²³⁸²
On his property, which had
(Now) tumbled to pieces
To its very foundations,
And he could only say,
"Woe is me! Would I had Never ascribed partners
To my Lord and Cherisher!"²³⁸³

فَأَصْبَحَ يُقَلِّبُ كَفَيْهِ
عَلَى مَا أَنْفَقَ فِيهَا
وَهِيَ خَاوِيَةٌ عَلَى عُرُوشِهَا
وَيَقُولُ لِيَأْتِنِي
لَمْ أَشْرِكْ بِرَبِّي أَحَدًا ۝

43. Nor had he numbers
To help him against Allah,
Nor was he able
To deliver himself.²³⁸⁴

۴۳- وَلَمْ تَكُنْ لَهُ فِئَةٌ يَنْصُرُونَهُ مِنْ
دُونِ اللَّهِ وَكَانَ مُتَنَصِّرًا ۝

44. There, the (only) protection comes
From Allah, the True One.
He is the Best to reward,
And the Best to give success.²³⁸⁵

۴۴- هُنَالِكَ الْوَلَايَةُ لِلَّهِ الْحَقِّ
هُوَ خَيْرُ ثَوَابًا وَخَيْرُ عُقْبًا ۝

C. 135. — The life of this world is ephemeral,
(18:45-59.) And its gains will not last. Good Deeds
Are the best of possessions in Allah's sight:
All will be levelled up on the Day
Of Judgement, and a new Order created
On the basis of Truth, according to the Book
Of Deeds. Pride is the root of Evil,
Rebellion, and wrong. Who will choose
Evil ones in preference to Allah? Let us accept
Truth, for though Falsehood may flourish
For a time, it must perish in the end.

SECTION 6.

45. Set forth to them
The similitude of the life
Of this world: it is like

۴۵- وَاضْرِبْ لَهُم مَّثَلَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا

2382. "Fruits", "spent", "twisting of the hands", should all be understood in a wide metaphorical sense, as well as the literal sense. He had great income and satisfaction, which were all gone. What resources he had lavished on his property! His thoughts had been engrossed on it; his hopes had been built on it; it had become the absorbing passion of his life, if he had only looked to Allah, instead of to the ephemeral goods of this world!

2383. In this case, in his mind, there was his own Self and his Mammon as rivals to Allah!

2384. He had built up connections and obligated dependents, and was proud of having his "quiver full". But where were all things when the reckoning came? He could not help himself; how could others be expected to help him!

2385. All else is vanity, uncertainty, the sport of Time. The only hope or truth is from Allah. Other rewards, and other successes are illusory; the best Reward and the best Success come from Allah.

The rain which We send
Down from the skies:
The earth's vegetation absorbs it.
But soon it becomes
Dry stubble, which the winds²³⁸⁶
Do scatter: it is (only) Allah
Who prevails over all things.

كَمَا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ
فَاخْتَلَطَ بِهِ نَبَاتُ الْأَرْضِ
فَأَصْبَحَ هَشِيمًا تَذْرُوهُ الرِّيْحُ
وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ مُّقْتَدِرًا ۝

46. Wealth and sons are allurements
Of the life of this world:
But the things that endure,
Good Deeds, are best
In the sight of thy Lord,
As rewards, and best
As (the foundation for) hopes.²³⁸⁷

٣٦- الْأَمْوَالُ وَالْبَنُونَ زِينَةُ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا
وَالْبَاقِيَتُ الصَّالِحَاتُ خَيْرٌ
عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ ثَوَابًا وَخَيْرٌ أَمَلًا ۝

47. One Day We shall
Remove the mountains, and thou
Wilt see the earth
As a level stretch,²³⁸⁸
And We shall gather them,
All together, nor shall We
Leave out any one of them.

٣٧- وَيَوْمَ نُسَيِّرُ الْجِبَالَ وَتَرَى الْأَرْضَ بَارِزَةً
وَحَشَرْنَاهُمْ فَلَمْ نُغَادِرْ مِنْهُمْ أَحَدًا ۝

48. And they will be marshalled
Before thy Lord in ranks,
(With the announcement),
"Now have ye come to Us
(Bare) as We created you"²³⁸⁹
First: aye, ye thought
We shall not fulfil
The appointment made to you
To meet (Us)!"²³⁹⁰

٣٨- وَعَرَّضُوا عَلَى رَبِّكَ صَفًّا
لَقَدْ جِئْتُمُونَا كَمَا خَلَقْنَاكُمْ
أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ بَلْ رُغِمَتْ
الْأَنفُ أَنْ تَجْعَلَ لَكُمْ مَوْعِدًا ۝

2386. Rainwater is a good thing in and of itself, but it does not last, and you can build no solid foundations on it. It is soon absorbed in the earth, and produces the flourishing appearance of grass and vegetation—for a time. Soon these decay, and become as dry stubble, which the least wind from any quarter will blow about like a thing of no importance. The water is gone, and so is the vegetation to which it lent a brave show of luxuriance temporarily. Such is the life of this world, contrasted with the inner and real Life, which looks to the Hereafter. Allah is the only enduring Power we can look to, supreme over all.

2387. Other things are fleeting: but Good Deeds have a lasting value in the sight of Allah. They are best as (or for) rewards in two ways: (1) they flow from us by the Grace of Allah, and are themselves rewards for our Faith; (2) they become the foundation of our hopes for the highest spiritual rewards in the Hereafter.

2388. On the Day of Judgement none of our present landmarks will remain.

2389. We shall stand as we were created, with none of the adventitious possessions that we collected in this life, which will all have vanished.

2390. The sceptics will now at length be convinced of the Reality which will be upon them.

49. And the Book (of Deeds)
Will be placed (before you);
And thou wilt see
The sinful in great terror
Because of what is (recorded)
Therein; they will say,
"Ah! woe to us!
What a book is this!
It leaves out nothing
Small or great, but Takes account thereof!"
They will find all that they
Did, placed before them:
And not one will thy Lord
Treat with injustice.²³⁹¹

هَٰذَا الْكِتَابُ
لَا يُغَادِرُ
شَيْئًا
وَمَا عَمِلُوا حَاضِرًا
لِمُؤْتَبَرِكٍ أَحَدًا

SECTION 7.

50. Behold! We said
To the angels, "Bow down²³⁹²
To Adam": they bowed down
Except Iblīs. He was
One of the Jinns,²³⁹³ and he Broke the Command
Of his Lord.
Will ye then take him
And his progeny²³⁹⁴ as protectors
Rather than Me? And they
Are enemies to you!
Evil would be the exchange²³⁹⁵
For the wrongdoers!

قُلْنَا لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ اسْجُدُوا
لِآدَمَ فَسَجَدُوا إِلَّا إِبْلِيسَ
كَانَ
فَقَسَقَ عَنْ أَمْرِ رَبِّهِ
وَدُرِّيَّتَهُ أُولِيَاءَ
أَفَلَا يَتَذَكَّرُونَ
بِالظَّالِمِينَ

SECTION 8.

51. I called them not
To witness the creation

أَشْهَدُ لَهُمُ خَلْقَ

2391. Personal responsibility, for all deeds in this life, will then be enforced. But it will be a perfect justice. Expressed in the forms of this world, it will amount to a clear statement of all we do in life: the record will be put before us to convince us. As it will be a perfect record, with no omissions or wrong entries, it will be perfectly convincing. Where there is punishment, it has been earned by the wrongdoer's own deeds, not imposed on him unjustly.

2392. Cf. 2:34, where the story is told of the fall of mankind through Adam. Here the point is that God wants man to in order to bring home the individual responsibility of the erring soul. 'Iblīs is your enemy: you have told his history; will you prefer to go to him rather than to the merciful Allah, your Creator and Cherisher? What a false exchange you would make!'

2393. Cf. 6:100, n. 929.

2394. Satan's progeny: we need not take the epithet only in a literal sense. All his followers are his progeny. (R).

2395. Out of the limited free-will that man has, if he were to choose Evil instead of Good, Satan rejected Faith in Allah, what a dreadful choice it would be! It would really be an evil exchange. For man is Allah's creature and cared for and cherished by Him. He abandons his Cherisher to become the slave of his enemy!

Of the heavens and the earth,
Nor (even) their own creation:
Nor is it for Me
To take as helpers
Such as lead (men) astray!²³⁹⁶

52. One Day He will say,
"Call on those whom ye
Thought to be My partners,"
And they will call on them,
But they will not listen
To them; and We shall
Make for them a place
Of common perdition.²³⁹⁷

53. And the Sinful shall see
The Fire and apprehend
That they have to fall
Therein: no means will they
Find to turn away therefrom.

SECTION 8.

54. We have explained
In detail in this Qur'ān,
For the benefit of mankind,
Every kind of similitude:
But man is, in most things,²³⁹⁸
Contentious.

55. And what is there
To keep back men
From believing, now that
Guidance has come to them,
Nor from praying for forgiveness
From their Lord, but that
(They ask that) the ways
Of the ancients be repeated²³⁹⁹
With them, or the Wrath

الْأَمْوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَلَا خَلْقَ أَنْفُسِهِمْ
وَمَا كُنْتَ مُتَّخِذَ الْمُضِلِّينَ عُضْدًا ۝

٥٢- وَيَوْمَ يَقُولُ نَادُوا
شُرَكَاءِيَ الَّذِينَ زَعَمْتُمْ فَدَعَوْهُمْ
فَلَمْ يَسْتَجِيبُوا لَهُمْ
وَجَعَلْنَا بَيْنَهُم مَّوْبِقًا ۝

٥٣- وَرَأَى الْكَاذِبُونَ النَّارَ فَظَنُّوا أَنَّهُمْ
مُؤَاقِعُهَا
وَلَمْ يَجِدُوا عَنْهَا مَصْرِفًا ۝

ع
١٩

٥٤- وَلَقَدْ صَرَّفْنَا فِي هَذَا الْقُرْآنِ
لِلنَّاسِ مِنْ كُلِّ مَثَلٍ
وَكَانَ الْإِنْسَانُ أَكْثَرُ شَيْءٍ جَدَلًا ۝

٥٥- وَمَا مَنَعَ النَّاسَ أَنْ
يُؤْمِنُوا إِذْ جَاءَهُمُ الْهُدَى
وَيَسْتَغْفِرُوا رَبَّهُمْ إِلَّا أَنْ
تَأْتِيَهُمْ سُنَّةُ الْأَوَّلِينَ

2396. Allah wants man's good: how can He take Evil for His partner?

2397. Some Commentators construe: "And We shall make a partition between them": i.e., the Evil ones will not even be seen by their misguided followers, much as the latter may go on calling on them.

2398. If men had not cultivated the habit of contention and obstinacy, they would have found that the parables and similitudes of Scripture had fully met their difficulties, and they would gladly have obeyed the call of Allah.

2399. But man's obstinacy or contrariness asks or calls for a repetition of what happened to the wicked and those who rejected Faith in ancient times. Out of curiosity, or by way of challenge, they seem to court the Punishment and ask that it be brought to pass at once. But it will come soon enough, and then they will think it too early! Cf. 13:6 and n. 1810.

Be brought to them
Face to face?

أَوْ يَأْتِيَهُمُ الْعَذَابُ قُبُلًا ۝

56. We only send the Messengers
To give glad tidings
And to give warnings:²⁴⁰⁰
But the Unbelievers dispute
With vain argument, in order
Therewith to weaken the truth,
And they treat My Signs
As a jest, as also the fact
That they are warned!

۝۵۶- وَمَا نُرْسِلُ الْمُرْسَلِينَ إِلَّا مُبَشِّرِينَ
وَمُنذِرِينَ ۚ وَبِجَادِلِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
بِالْبَاطِلِ لِيُدْحِضُوا بِهِ الْحَقَّ
وَاتَّخِذُوا آيَاتِي
وَمَا أَنْذِرُوا هُزُوًا ۝

57. And who doth more wrong
Than one who is reminded
Of the Signs of his Lord,
But turns away from them,
Forgetting the (deeds) which his hands²⁴⁰¹
Have sent forth? Verily We
Have set veils over their hearts
Lest they should understand this,
And over their ears, deafness.
If thou callest them
To guidance, even then
Will they never accept guidance.

۝۵۷- وَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ ذُكِّرَ
بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِ فَأَعْرَضَ عَنْهَا
وَنَسِيَ مَا قَدْ مَتَّ يَدُهُ
إِنَّا جَعَلْنَا عَلَى قُلُوبِهِمْ
أَكِنَّةً أَنْ يَفْقَهُوهُ وَفِي آذَانِهِمْ وَقْرًا
وَإِنْ تَذَعْلُهُمْ إِلَى الْهُدَى
فَلَنْ يَهْتَدُوا إِذًا أَبَدًا ۝

58. But your Lord is Most Forgiving,
Full of Mercy. If He were
To call them (at once) to account
For what they have earned,
Then surely He would
Have hastened their Punishment:
But they have their appointed

۝۵۸- وَرَبُّكَ الْعَفُورُ ذُو الرَّحْمَةِ لَوْ
يُؤْخَذُ هُمْ بِمَا كَسَبُوا لَجَلَّ الْعَذَابُ
بَلْ لَهُمْ مَوْعِدٌ

2400. The Prophets of Allah are not sent to humour us with dialectics or satisfy the vulgar curiosity for miracles of dark unusual things. There is no "crookedness" (18:1) in their preaching. They come to preach the Truth—not in an abstract way, but with special reference to our conduct. They give us the good news of salvation lest we despair in the presence of Sin, and to warn us clearly of the dangers of Evil. Vain controversies about words only weaken their mission, or turn it into ridicule. The ungodly have a trick also of treating the earnest preaching to them itself as a jest and ridicule it. (R).

2401. Considering the power of sin, and how it gets hold of the hearts of men, and considering all the wrongs that men have done, it is the height of folly and injustice on their part to turn away from warnings which are given expressly for their good. But a stage of callousness is reached, when, by their own choice, they have rendered themselves impervious to Allah's Grace. At that stage a veil is put over their hearts and they are left alone for a time, that they may commune with themselves and perhaps repent and seek Allah's Mercy again. If they do not, it is their own loss. See next verse.

Time, beyond which²⁴⁰² they
Will find no refuge.

59. Such were the populations
We destroyed when they Committed iniquities; but
We fixed an appointed time
For their destruction.²⁴⁰³

لَنْ يَجِدُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ مَوْئِلًا ۝

٥٩- وَتِلْكَ الْقُرَىٰ أَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ لَمَّا
ظَلَمُوا وَجَعَلْنَا لِكُلِّهِمْ مَوْعِدًا ۝

ع

C. 136. — Moses was up against mysteries
(18:60-82.) Which he wanted to explore. He searched
Out a man endued with knowledge
Derived from the divine springs from which Flow the paradoxes of life. He is shown
Three such paradoxes and how human
Impatience is inconsistent with their true
Understanding. The highest knowledge
Comes not except by divine gift,
And a constant, patient striving,
With Faith, to apprehend something
Of the purpose of the All-Wise Allah.

SECTION 9.

60. Behold, Moses said²⁴⁰⁴
To his attendant, "I will not Give up until I reach
The junction of the two"²⁴⁰⁵

٦٠- وَإِذْ قَالَ مُوسَىٰ لِفَتَاهُ لَا
أَبْرَحُ حَتَّىٰ أَتِلْقَىٰ الْيَمِينَ ۝

2402. Min dūni hī: should we take the pronoun to refer to "the appointed time", or to "your Lord," mentioned at the beginning of the verse? Most Commentators take the former view, and I have translated accordingly. But I agree with those who take the latter view, and the better translation would be: "But they have their appointed time, and except with Allah, they will find no refuge." That means that even during the period allowed them, when they are left to wander astray as they have rejected Allah's Grace, Allah's Mercy is open to them if they will repent and return; but nothing but Allah's Mercy can save them.

2403. The instances of exemplary Punishment in former times were also subject to this rule, that Allah gives plenty of rope to the wicked, in case they might turn, repent, and obtain His Mercy.

2404. This episode in the story of Moses is meant to illustrate four points. (1) Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians. Even so that wisdom did not comprehend everything, even as the whole stock of the knowledge of the present day, the sciences and the arts, and in literature, (if it could be supposed to be gathered in one individual), does not include all knowledge. Divine knowledge, as far as man is concerned, is unlimited. Even after Moses received his divine mission, his knowledge was not so perfect that it could not receive further additions. (2) Constant effort is necessary to keep our knowledge square with the march of time, and such effort Moses is shown to be making. (3) The mysterious man he meets (18:65 and n. 2411), to whom Tradition assigns the name of Khidr (literally, Green), is the type of that knowledge which is ever in contact with life as it is actually lived. (4) There are paradoxes in life: apparent loss may be real gain; apparent cruelty may be real mercy; returning good for evil may really be justice and not generosity (18:79-82). Allah's wisdom transcends all human calculation. (R).

2405. The most probable geographical location (if any is required in a story that is a parable) is where the two arms of the Red Sea join together, viz., the Gulf of 'Aqabah and the Gulf of Suez. They enclose the Sinai Peninsula, in which Moses and the Israelites spent many years in their wanderings. There is also authority (see Baydāwī's note) for interpreting the two seas as the two great streams of knowledge, which were to meet in the persons of Moses and Khidr.

Seas or (until) I spend
Years and years in travel.”²⁴⁰⁶

61. But when they reached
The Junction,²⁴⁰⁷ they forgot
(About) their Fish,²⁴⁰⁸ which took
Its course through the sea
(Straight) as in a tunnel.

62. When they had passed on
(Some distance). Moses said
To his attendant: “Bring us
Our early meal; truly
We have suffered much fatigue²⁴⁰⁹
At this (stage of) our journey.”

63. He replied: “Sawest thou
(What happened) when we
Betook ourselves to the rock?
I did indeed forget
(About) the Fish: none but
Satan made me forget
To tell (you) about it.”²⁴¹⁰
It took its course through
The sea in a marvellous way!”

64. Moses said: “That was what
We were seeking after:”
So they went back

الْبَحْرَيْنِ أَوْ أَمْضَى حُقُبًا ۝

٦١- فَلَمَّا بَلَغَا مَجْمَعَ بَيْنِهِمَا نَسِيَا حُوتَهُمَا
فَاتَّخَذَ سَبِيلَهُ فِي الْبَحْرِ سَرَبًا ۝

٦٢- فَلَمَّا جَاوَزَا قَالَ
لِقَتْنَاهُ أَتَيْنَا عَدَاءَنَا لَقَدْ
لَقِينَا مِنْ سَفَرِنَا هَذَا نَصَبًا ۝

٦٣- قَالَ أَرَأَيْتَ إِذْ أَوَيْنَا
إِلَى الصَّخْرَةِ فَإِنِّي نَسِيتُ الْحُوتَ
وَمَا أَتَيْنِيهِ إِلَّا الشَّيْطَانُ أَنْ أَذْكُرَهُ
وَاتَّخَذَ سَبِيلَهُ فِي الْبَحْرِ عَجَبًا ۝

٦٤- قَالَ ذَلِكَ مَا كُنَّا نَبْغُ ۖ فَارْتَدَّا

2406. Huqub means a long but indefinite space of time. Sometimes it is limited to 80 years.

2407. Literally, 'the Junction of (the space) between the two,' i.e., the point at which the two seas were united.

2408. Moses was to go and find a servant of Allah, who would instruct him in such knowledge as he had not already got. He was to take a fish with him. The place where he was to meet his mysterious Teacher would be indicated by the fact that the fish would disappear when he got to that place. The fish is the emblem of the fruit of secular knowledge, which merges itself in divine knowledge at the point where human intelligence is ready for the junction of the two. But the mere merger of secular knowledge does not in itself produce divine knowledge. The latter has to be sought patiently.

2409. When they came to the Junction of the Seas, Moses forgot about the fish, and his attendant forgot to tell him of the fact that he had seen the fish escaping into the sea in a marvellous way. They passed on, but the stages now became heavier and heavier, and more fatiguing to Moses. So when our old knowledge is exhausted, and we come to the brink of new knowledge, we have a feeling of strangeness, heaviness, and difficulty, especially when we want to pass the new knowledge by and do not make it our own. Some refreshment, even if it be in our old traditional way, is required to sustain us. But we must retrace our steps, and seek the accredited repository of the knowledge which is our quest. It is our business to seek him out. We shall not find him without effort.

2410. The attendant actually saw the fish swimming away in the sea, and yet "forgot" to tell his master. In his case the "forgetting" was more than forgetting. Inertia had made him refrain from telling the important news. In such matters inertia is almost as bad as active spite, the suggestion of Satan. So new knowledge or spiritual knowledge is not only passed by in ignorance, but sometimes by culpable negligence.

On their footsteps, following
(The path they had come).

2411. One of Our servants: his name is not mentioned in the Qur'ān, but Tradition gives it as Khidr. Round him have gathered a number of picturesque folk tales, with which we are not here concerned. Khidr means "Green": his knowledge is fresh and green, and drawn out of the living sources of life for it is drawn from Allah's own Presence. He is a mysterious being, who had to be sought out. He has the secrets of the paradoxes of Life, which ordinary people do not understand, or understand in a wrong sense, as we shall see further on. The nearest equivalent figure in the literature of the People of the Book is Melchizedek or Melchisedek (the Greek form in the New Testament). In Gen. xiv. 18-20, he appears as king of Salem, priest of the Most High God: he blesses Abraham, and Abraham gives him tithes. St. Paul allegorises him in his Epistle to the Hebrews (v. 6-10; vii. 1-10): "he was without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days nor end of life". That is to say, he appeared mysteriously: neither his parentage nor his pedigree is known, and he seems to live for all time. These qualities are also attributed to Khidr in popular Muslim tradition. (R).

2412. Khidr had two special gifts from Allah: (1) Mercy from His own Presence, and (2) Knowledge from His own Presence. The first freed him from the ordinary incidents of daily human life, and the second entitled him to interpret the inner meaning and mystery of events, as we shall see further on. Much could be and has been written about this from the mystic point of view.

2413. Moses, not understanding the full import of what he was asking, makes a simple request. He wants to learn something of the special Knowledge which Allah bestowed on Khidr.

2414. Khidr smiles, and says that there will be many things which Moses will see with him, which Moses will not completely understand and which will make Moses impatient. The highest spiritual knowledge often seems paradoxical to those who have not the key to it.

2415. Khidr does not blame Moses. Each one of us can only follow out our own imperfect lights to the best of our judgement, but if we have Faith, we are saved many false steps.

69. Moses said: "Thou wilt Find me, if Allah so will, (Truly) patient: nor shall I Disobey thee in aught."²⁴¹⁶

٦٩- قَالَ سَتَجِدُنِي إِن شَاءَ اللَّهُ صَابِرًا وَلَا أَعْصِي لَكَ أَمْرًا ۝

70. The other said: "If then Thou wouldst follow me, Ask me no questions About anything until I Myself speak to thee Concerning it."

٧٠- قَالَ فَإِنِ اتَّبَعْتَنِي فَلَا تَسْأَلْنِي عَنْ شَيْءٍ حَتَّى أُحْدِثَ لَكَ مِنْهُ ذِكْرًا ۝

SECTION 10.

71. So they both proceeded: Until, when they were In the boat, he scuttled it.²⁴¹⁷ Said Moses: "Hast thou Scuttled it in order To drown those in it? Truly a strange thing Hast thou done!"

٧١- فَأَنْطَلَقَا حَتَّى إِذَا رَكِبَا فِي السَّفِينَةِ خَرَقَهَا ۖ قَالَ أَخَرَقْتَهَا لِتُغْرِقَ أَهْلَهَا ۚ لَقَدْ جِئْتَ شَيْئًا إِمْرًا ۝

72. He answered: "Did I not Tell thee that thou canst Have no patience with me?"

٧٢- قَالَ أَلَمْ أَقُلْ إِنَّكَ لَنُ تُسْتَطِيعَ مَعِيَ صَبْرًا ۝

73. Moses said: "Rebuke me not For forgetting, nor grieve me By raising difficulties In my case."

٧٣- قَالَ لَا تَأْتِنِي بِمَا نَسِيتُ وَلَا تَزِدْهُنِي مِنْ أَمْرِي عُسْرًا ۝

74. Then they proceeded: Until, when they met A young man, he slew him.²⁴¹⁸ Moses said: "Hast thou Slain an innocent person Who had slain none? Truly a foul (unheard-of) thing Hast thou done!"

٧٤- فَأَنْطَلَقَا حَتَّى إِذَا لَقِيَا غُلَامًا فَقَتَلَهُ ۖ قَالَ أَقْتَلْتُ نَفْسًا زَكِيَّةً بِغَيْرِ نَفْسٍ ۖ لَقَدْ جِئْتَ شَيْئًا ثَكْرًا ۝

2416. Moses had Faith. He adopts the true attitude of the learner to the Teacher, and promises to obey in all things, with the help of Allah. The Teacher is doubtful, but permits him to follow him on condition that he asks no questions about anything until the Teacher himself mentions it first.

2417. The explanation follows in 18:79.

2418. The explanation follows in 18:80-81.

75. He answered: "Did I not
Tell thee that thou canst
Have no patience with me?"

76. (Moses) said: "If ever I
Ask thee about anything
After this, keep me not
In thy company: then wouldst
Thou have received (full) excuse
From my side."

77. Then they proceeded:
Until, when they came
To the inhabitants of a town,
They asked them for food,
But they refused them²⁴¹⁹
Hospitality. They found there
A wall on the point of Falling down, but he
Set it up straight.
(Moses) said: "If thou
Hadst wished, surely thou
Couldst have exacted some Recompense for it!"²⁴²⁰

78. He answered: "This is
The parting between me
And thee: now will I
Tell thee the interpretation
Of (those things) over which
Thou wast unable
To hold patience."²⁴²¹

79. As for the boat,
It belonged to certain
Men in dire want:
They plied on the water:
I but wished to render it

٤٥- قَالَ أَلَمْ أَقُلْ لَكَ إِنَّكَ لَنْ
تَسْتَطِيعَ مَعِيَ صَبْرًا ○

٤٦- قَالَ إِنْ سَأَلْتُكَ عَنْ شَيْءٍ
بَعْدَ هَذَا فَلَا تُصِيبْنِي
قَدْ بَلَغْتَ مِنْ لَدُنِّي عُذْرًا ○

٤٧- فَأَنْطَلَقَا حَتَّى إِذَا أَتَيَا
أَهْلَ قَرْيَةٍ اسْتَطْعَمَا أَهْلَهَا
فَانْبَؤَا أَنْ يُضَيِّفُوهُمَا
فَوَجَدَا فِيهَا جِدَارًا
يُرِيدُ أَنْ يَنْقَضَ فَأَقَامَهُ
قَالَ لَوْ شِئْتَ لَتَخذْتَ عَلَيْهِ أَجْرًا ○

٤٨- قَالَ هَذَا فِرَاقُ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنِكَ
سَأُنَبِّئُكَ بِتَأْوِيلِ
مَا لَمْ تَسْتَطِعْ عَلَيْهِ صَبْرًا ○

٤٩- أَمَّا السَّفِينَةُ فَكَانَتْ لِمَسْكِينٍ
يَعْمَلُونَ فِي الْبَحْرِ فَأَرْدَتْ

2419. The inhabitants were churlish. They broke the universal Eastern rule of hospitality to strangers, and thus showed themselves beyond the pale of ordinary human courtesies. Note that they would have been expected to offer hospitality of themselves, unasked. Here Moses and his companion actually had to ask for hospitality and were refused point-blank.

2420. As they were refused hospitality, they should, as self-respecting men, have shaken the dust of the town off their feet, or shown their indignation in some way. Instead of that, Khidr actually goes and does a benevolent act. He rebuilds for them a falling wall, and never asks for any compensation for it. Perhaps he employed local workman for it and paid them wages, thus actually benefiting a town which had treated him and his companion so shabbily! Moses is naturally surprised and asks, "Could you not at least have asked for the cost?"

2421. The story and the interpretation are given with the greatest economy of words. It would repay us to search for the meaning in terms of our own inner and outer experience.

Unserviceable, for there was
After them a certain king
Who seized on every boat
By force.²⁴²²

أَنْ أَعْيَبَهَا وَكَانَ وَرَاءَهُمْ قَلْبُ

His parents were people
Of Faith, and we feared
That he would grieve them
By obstinate rebellion
And ingratitude (to Allah and man).²⁴²³

۸۰- وَأَمَّا الْغُلَامُ فَكَانَ أَبَوَاهُ
مُؤْمِنَيْنِ فَخَشِينَا
أَنْ يُرْهِقَهُمَا طُغْيَانًا وَكُفْرًا ۝

81. "So we desired that
Their Lord would give them
In exchange (a son)
Better in purity (of conduct)
And closer in affection.²⁴²⁴

۸۱- فَأَرَدْنَا أَنْ يُبْدِلَهُمَا رَبُّهُمَا
خَيْرًا مِمَّنْهُ زَكَاةً وَأَقْرَبَ رُحْمًا ۝

82. "As for the wall,
It belonged to two youths,
Orphans, in the Town;
There was, beneath it,
A buried treasure, to which
They were entitled: their father
Had been a righteous man.²⁴²⁵

۸۲- وَأَمَّا الْجِدَارُ فَكَانَ لِغُلَامَيْنِ
يَتِيمَيْنِ فِي الْمَدِينَةِ وَكَانَ تَحْتَهُ
كَنْزٌ لَهُمَا وَكَانَ أَبُوهُمَا صَالِحًا ۝

2422. They went on the boat, which was plying for hire. Its owners were not even ordinary men who plied for trade. They had been reduced to great poverty, perhaps from affluent circumstances, and deserved great commiseration, the more so as they preferred an honest calling to begging for charity. They did not know, but Khidr did, that the boat, perhaps a new one, had been marked down to be commandeered by an unjust king who seized on every boat he could get—it may have been, for warlike purposes. If this boat had been taken away from these self-respecting men, they would have been reduced to beggary, with no resources left them. By a simple act of making it unseaworthy, the boat was saved from seizure. The owners could repair it as soon as the danger was past. Khidr probably paid liberally in fares, and what seemed an unaccountably cruel act was the greatest act of kindness he could do in the circumstances.

2423. This seemed at first sight even a more cruel act than scuttling the boat. But the danger was also greater. Khidr knew that the youth was a potential parricide. His parents were worthy, pious people, who had brought him up with love. He had apparently gone wrong. Perhaps he had already been guilty of murders and robberies and had escaped the law by subtleties and fraud. See next note.

2424. The son was practically an outlaw—a danger to the public and a particular source of grief to his righteous parents. Even so, his summary capital punishment would have been unjustified if Khidr had been acting on his own. But Khidr was not acting on his own: see the latter part of the next verse. The plural "we" also implies that he was not acting on his own. He was acting on higher authority and removing a public scourge, who was also a source of extreme sorrow and humiliation to his parents. His parents are promised a better-behaved son who would love them and be a credit to them.

2425. The wall was in a ruinous state. If it had fallen, the treasure buried beneath it would have been exposed and would certainly have been looted, among so churlish and selfish a people. See n. 2419 above. The treasure had been collected and buried by a righteous man. It was not, in any sense of the word, ill-gotten gains: it was buried expressly in the interests of the orphans by their father before his death. It was intended that the orphans should grow up and safely take possession of their heritage. It was also expected that they would be righteous men like their father, and use the treasure in good works and in advancing righteousness among an otherwise wicked community. There was thus both public and private interests involved in all the three incidents. In the second incident Khidr uses the word "we", showing that he was associating in his act the public authorities of the place, who had been eluded by the outlaw.

So thy Lord desired that
They should attain their age²⁴²⁶
Of full strength and get out
Their treasure—a mercy
(And favour) from thy Lord.
I did it not of my own²⁴²⁷
Accord. Such is the interpretation
Of (those things) over which
Thou wast unable
To hold patience.”

فَأَرَادَ رَبُّكَ أَنْ يَبْلُغَا
أَشَدَّهُمَا وَيُخْرِجَا كَنْزَهُمَا
رَحْمَةً مِّنْ رَبِّكَ
وَمَا فَعَلْتُهُ عَنْ أَمْرِي ذَلِكَ تَأْوِيلُ
مَا لَمْ تَسْطِعْ عَلَيْهِ صَبْرًا

C. 137. — Three episodes in the life of a great king.
(18:83-110.) Dhu al Qarnayn illustrated how power
And opportunities should be used in the service
Of Allah: he punished the guilty indeed,
But was kind to the righteous; he left
Primitive people their freedom of life;
And he protected industrious people from grasping
Neighbours. But he relied upon Allah, and made them
Remember the Day of Judgement, when all
Will see the Truth and receive the Punishments
And Rewards earned in their present Life.

SECTION 11.

83. They ask thee concerning
Dhu al Qarnayn.²⁴²⁸ Say,
“I will rehearse to you
Something of his story.”

۸۳- وَيَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ الْقَرْنَيْنِ قُلْ
سَأَتْلُو عَلَيْكُم مِّنْهُ ذِكْرًا

84. Verily We established his power
On earth, and We gave him
The ways and the means
To all ends.²⁴²⁹

۸۴- إِنَّا مَكَّنَّا لَهُ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَآتَيْنَاهُ
مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ سَبَبًا

2426. Age of full strength: Cf. 17:34 and n. 2218.

2427. Those who act, not from a whim or a private impulse of their own, but from higher authority, have to bear the blame, with the vulgar crowd, for acts of the greater wisdom and utility. In human affairs many things are inexplicable, which are things of the highest wisdom in the Universal Plan.

2428. Literally, “the Two-horned One”, the King with the Two Horns, or the Lord of the Two Epochs. Who was he? In what age, and where did he live? The Qur’ān gives us no material on which we can base a positive answer. Nor is it necessary to find an answer, as the story is treated as a Parable. Popular opinion identifies Dhu al Qarnayn with Alexander the Great. An alternative suggestion is an ancient Persian King, or a prehistoric Himyarite King. See a brief account of the controversy in Appendix VI printed at the end of this Sūrah.

Dhu al Qarnayn was a most powerful king, but it was Allah, Who, in His universal Plan, gave him power and provided him with the ways and means for his great work. His sway extended over East and West, and over people of diverse civilisations. He was just and righteous, not selfish or grasping. He protected the weak and punished the unlawful and the turbulent. Three of his expeditions are described in the text, each embodying a great ethical idea involved in the possession of kingship or power.

2429. Great was his power and great were his opportunities (“ways and means”), which he used for justice and righteousness. But he recognised that his power and opportunities were given to him as a trust by Allah. He had faith, and did not forget Allah.

85. One (such) way he followed,

٨٥- فَاتَّبَعَ سَبِيلًا ۝

86. Until, when he reached
The setting of the sun,²⁴³⁰
He found it set
In a spring of murky water:
Near it he found a People:
We said: "O Dhu al Qarnayn!
(Thou hast authority,) either
To punish them, or
To treat them with kindness."²⁴³¹

٨٦- حَتَّىٰ إِذَا بَلَغَ مَغْرِبَ الشَّمْسِ
وَجَدَهَا تَغْرُبُ فِي عَيْنٍ حَمِئَةٍ
وَوَجَدَ عِنْدَهَا قَوْمًا قُلْنَا يَا الْقَارَنِيُّ
إِمَّا أَنْ تُعَذِّبَ وَإِمَّا أَنْ تَتَّخِذَ فِيهِمْ
حُسْنًا ۝

87. He said: "Whoever doth wrong,
Him shall we punish; then
Shall he be sent back²⁴³²
To his Lord; and He will Punish him with a punishment
Unheard-of (before).

٨٧- قَالَ أَمَّا مَنْ ظَلَمَ فَسَوْفَ نَعَذِّبُهُ
ثُمَّ يُرَدُّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِ
فَيُعَذِّبُهُ عَذَابًا نُّكْرًا ۝

88. "But whoever believes,
And works righteousness—
He shall have a goodly
Reward, and easy will be
His task as we order it
By our command."²⁴³³

٨٨- وَأَمَّا مَنْ آمَنَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا
فَلَهُ جَزَاءٌ الْحُسْنَىٰ وَسَنَقُولُ
لَهُ مِنْ أَمْرٍ يُسْرًا ۝

89. Then followed he (another) way.

٨٩- ثُمَّ اتَّبَعَ سَبِيلًا ۝

2430. This is the first of the three episodes here mentioned, his expedition to the west. "Reaching the setting of the sun" does not mean the extreme west, for there is no such thing. West and East are relative terms. It means a western expedition terminated by a "spring of murky water." This has puzzled Commentators, and they have understood this to mean the dark, tempestuous sea. If Dhu al Qarnayn is Alexander the Great, the reference is easily understood to be the Lychnitis (now Ochrida), west of Macedonia. It is fed entirely by underground springs in a limestone region, where the water is never very clear. (See Appendix VI at the end of the Sūrah).

2430. He had great power and great opportunity. He got authority over a turbulent and unruly people. Was he going to be severe with them and chastise them, or was he going to seek peace at any price, i.e., to wink at violence and injustice so long as it did not affect his power? He chose the better course, as described in the next verse. To protect the weak and the innocent, he punished the guilty and the headstrong, but he remembered always that the true Punishment would come in the Hereafter—the true and final justice before the throne of Allah.

2432. Through most powerful among kings, he remembered that his power was but human, and given by Allah. His punishments were but tentative, to preserve the balance of this life as he could appraise it. Even if his punishment was capital ("wrongdoer sent back to his Lord") it was nothing compared to the dire consequences of sin, in the final Justice of Allah.

2433. He never said like Pharaoh, "I am your Lord Most High!" (79:24). On the contrary, his punishments were humbly regulated as not being final, and he laid more stress on the good he could do to those who lived normal lives in faith and righteousness. His rule was easy to them: he imposed no heavy tasks because of his power, but gave every opportunity to rich and poor for the exercise of virtue and goodness. Such is the spiritual lesson to be learned from the first episode.

90. Until, when he came
To the rising of the sun,²⁴³⁴
He found it rising
On a people for whom
We had provided
No covering protection²⁴³⁵
Against the sun.

٩٠- حَتَّىٰ إِذَا بَلَغَ مَطْلِعَ الشَّمْسِ
وَجَدَهَا تَطْلُعُ عَلَىٰ قَوْمٍ
لَّمْ نَجْعَلْ لَهُم مِّن دُونِهَا سِتْرًا ۝

91. (He left them) as they were:
We completely understood
What was before him.²⁴³⁶

٩١- كَذَٰلِكَ
وَقَدْ أَحْطَيْنَا بِمَا لَدَيْهِ خُبْرًا ۝

92. Then followed he (another) way,

٩٢- ثُمَّ أَتْبَعَهُ سَبِيلًا ۝

93. Until, when he reached
(A tract) between two mountains,²⁴³⁷
He found, beneath them, a people
Who scarcely understood a word.²⁴³⁸

٩٣- حَتَّىٰ إِذَا بَلَغَ بَيْنَ السَّادَتَيْنِ
وَجَدَ مِنْ دُونِهِمَا قَوْمًا
لَّا يَكَادُونَ يَفْقَهُونَ قَوْلًا ۝

94. They said: "O Dhu al Qarnayn!
The Gog and Magog (people)²⁴³⁹
Do great mischief on earth:
Shall we then render thee
Tribute in order that

٩٤- قَالُوا يَا ذَا الْقَرْنَيْنِ إِنَّ يَأْجُوجَ
وَمَاجُوجَ مُفْسِدُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ
فَهَلْ نَجْعَلُ لَكَ خَرْجًا عَلَىٰ أَنْ

2434. We now come to the second episode. This is an expedition to the east. "Rising of the sun" has a meaning corresponding to "setting of the sun" in 18:86. as explained in n. 2430.

2435. The people here lived very simple lives. Perhaps the climate was hot, and they required neither roofs over their heads, nor much clothing to protect them from the sun. What did he do with them? See next note.

2436. They were a primitive people. He did not fuss over their primitiveness, but left them in the enjoyment of peace and tranquillity in their own way. In this he was wise. Power is apt to be intolerant and arrogant, and to interfere in everything that does not accord with its own glorification. Not so Dhu al Qarnayn. He recognised his own limitations in the sight of Allah: man never completely understands his own position, but if he devoutly looks to Allah, he will live and let live. This is the spiritual lesson from the second episode.

2437. The geography of the place (if geography is relevant in a parable story) is discussed in Appendix VI at the end of this Sūrah.

2438. It does not mean that they had no speech. It means that they did not understand the speech of the Conqueror. But they had parleys with him (through interpreters), as is evident from the verses following (18:94-98).

2439. Who were the Gog and Magog people? This question is connected with the question, who was Dhu al Qarnayn? Some discussion on the question will be found in Appendix VI at the end of this Sūrah.

What we are mainly concerned with is the spiritual interpretation. The Conqueror had now arrived among a people who were different in speech and race from him, but not quite primitive, for they were skilled in the working of metals, and could furnish blocks (or bricks) or iron, melt metals with bellows or blowpipes, and prepare molten lead (18:96). Apparently they were a peaceable and industrious race, much subject to incursions from wild tribes who are called Gog and Magog. Against these tribes they were willing to purchase immunity by paying the Conqueror tribute in return for protection. The permanent protection they wanted was the closing of a mountain gap through which the incursions were made.

- Thou mightest erect a barrier
Between us and them?
95. He said: "(The power) in which
My Lord had established me
Is better (than tribute):²⁴⁴⁰
Help me therefore with strength
(And labour): I will Erect a stronger barrier
Between you and them:
96. "Bring me blocks of iron."²⁴⁴¹
At length, when he had Filled up the space between
The two steep mountainsides,
He said, "Blow (with your bellows)"
Then, when he had made²⁴⁴²
It (red) as fire, he said:
"Bring me, that I may Pour over it, molten lead."
97. Thus were they made
Powerless to scale it
Or to dig through it.²⁴⁴³
98. He said: "This is
A mercy from my Lord:²⁴⁴⁴
But when the promise

- تَجْعَلُ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَهُمْ سَدًّا ۝
- ٩٥- قَالَ مَا مَكَّنِّي فِيهِ رَبِّي
خَيْرٌ فَأَعِينُونِي بِقُوَّةٍ
أَجْعَلَ بَيْنَكُمْ وَبَيْنَهُمْ رَدْمًا ۝
- ٩٦- أَتُونِي زُبَرَ الْحَدِيدِ
حَتَّىٰ إِذَا سَاوَىٰ بَيْنَ الصَّدَفَيْنِ
قَالَ انْفُخُوا ۝
حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَعَلَهُ نَارًا ۝
قَالَ أَتُونِي أَفْرَغْ عَلَيْهِ قَطْرًا ۝
- ٩٧- فَمَا اسْطَاعُوا أَنْ يَظْهَرُوهُ
وَمَا اسْتَطَاعُوا لَهُ نَقْبًا ۝
- ٩٨- قَالَ هَذَا رَحْمَةٌ مِنْ رَبِّي ۖ فَإِذَا جَاءَ وَعْدُ

2440. Dhu al Qarnayn was not greedy and did not want to impose a tribute to be carried away from an industrious population. He understood the power which Allah had given him, to involve duties and responsibilities on his part — the duty of protecting his subjects without imposing too heavy a taxation on them. He would provide the motive force and organising skill. Would they obey him and provide the material and labour, so that they could close the gap with a strong barrier, probably with well-secured gates? The word radm, translated "Barrier," does not necessarily mean a wall, but rather suggests a blocked door or entrance.

2441. I understand the defences erected to have been a strong barrier of iron, with iron Gates. The jambs of the Gates were constructed with blocks or bricks of iron, and the interstices filled up with molten lead, so as to form an impregnable mass of metal. It may be that there was a stone wall also, but that is not mentioned. There was none in the Iron Gate near Bukharā; see Appendix VI at the end of his Sūrah.

2442. Made it (red) as fire: what does "it" refer to? Probably to the iron, either in sheets or blocks, to be welded with molten lead.

2443. The iron wall and gates and towers were sufficiently high to prevent their being scaled and sufficiently strong with welded metal to resist any attempt to dig through them.

2444. After all the effort which Dhu al Qarnayn has made for their protection, he claims no credit for himself beyond that of discharging his duty as a ruler. He turns their attention to Allah, Who has provided the ways and means by which they can be helped and protected. But all such human precautions are apt to become futile. The time must come when they will crumble into dust. Allah has said so in His Revelation; and His word is true.

And so the spiritual lesson from the third episode is: Take human precautions and do all in your power to protect yourselves from evil. But no protection is complete unless you seek the help and grace of Allah. The best of our precautions must crumble to dust when the appointed Day arrives.

Of my Lord comes to pass,
He will make it into dust;

2445. And so we pass on to the Last Days before the Great Summons comes from Allah. All human barriers will be swept away. There will be tumultuous rushes. The Trumpet will be blown, and the Judgement will be set on foot.

2446. If men had scoffed at Faith and the Hereafter, their eyes will be opened now, and they will see the terrible Reality.

2447. Those very men who refused to see the many Signs of Allah which in this world convey His Message and to hear the Word of the Lord when it came to them, will then see without any mistake the consequences fully brought up before them.

2449. Many people have such a smug sense of self-righteousness that while they go on doing wrong, they think that they are acquiring merit. So, in charity, all the elements that make for outward show or selfishness (as to get some worldly advantage) nullify the deed of charity. In the same way, hypocrites sometimes affect to be surprised that their declared effort for somebody's good is not appreciated, when they are really seeking some hidden gain or false glory for themselves. The sincere are only those who believe in their spiritual responsibility and act in Allah's sight.

2450. What weight can be attached to works behind which the motives are not pure, or are positively evil? They are either wasted or count against those who seek to pass them off as meritorious!

2451. False motives, pretence, deception, and hypocrisy, flourish because people do not take the higher life seriously. In effect they treat it as a jest. Signs and Messengers are sent as a special and personal Mercy from Allah, and for such things the first person singular is used as in this verse, even when it involves a sudden transition from the first person plural as in the last verse.

2452. Firdaws in Persian means an enclosed place, a park. In technical theological language the word is used for the inner circle of Heaven, or the highest Heaven, the destination of those who perfectly fulfil both requirements, viz.: a sound faith, and perfectly righteous conduct. Small faults in either respect are forgiven; the Mercy of Allah steps in. (R).

2453. The Words and Signs and Mercies of Allah are in all Creation, and can never be fully set out in human language, however extended our means may be imagined to be.

Sooner would the ocean be
Exhausted than would the words
Of my Lord, even if we
Added another ocean
Like it, for its aid."

110. Say: "I am but a man
Like yourselves, (but)
The inspiration has come
To me, that your God is
One God: whoever expects
To meet his Lord, let him
Work righteousness, and,
In the worship of his Lord,
Admit no one as partner."²⁴⁵⁴

2454. Righteousness and true respect for Allah—which excludes the worship of anything else, whether idols, or deified men, or forces of nature, or faculties of man, or Self—these are the criteria of true worship.

APPENDIX VI.

Who was Dhu al Qarnayn?
(18:83-98.)

As stated in my n. 2428 to 18:83, I do not consider that historical or geographical considerations have much bearing on a story treated as a Parable, as Dhu al Qarnayn's story is. Indeed all stories or narrations are referred to in the Qur'ān as Parables, for their spiritual meaning. Heated controversies or dogmatic assertions as to precise dates, personalities, or localities, seem to me to be out of place. But a great deal of literature has been piled up among our writers on the subject, and it seems desirable to set down a few notes as to the different views that have been expressed.

What is the meaning of the name or title Dhu al Qarnayn — “Lord of two Qarns”? “Qarn” may mean: (1) a horn in the literal sense, as in the case of a ram or bull; (2) a horn in a metaphorical sense, as in English, the horns of a crescent, or by a further metaphor (not used in English), the horns of a kingdom or territory, two portions at opposite ends; (3) by another metaphor, a summit, a lock of hair, typifying strength, a crest such as Eastern kings wear on their diadems; (4) referring to time, an Epoch, an Age, a Generation. Meaning (1) is inapplicable to a man or a great King; but see the next paragraph about Alexander the Great. The other three meanings may be applicable, as implying: (2) Lord of East and West, Lord of wide territory or of two kingdoms; (3) Lord of two crests on his diadem, typifying two kingdoms, or a rank superior to that of an ordinary king; (4) Lord of more than one Epoch: one whose power and influence extend far beyond his lifetime.

If we accept the popular identification of Dhu al Qarnayn with Alexander, all the three latter designations would be applicable to him, as he was lord of the West and the East, lord of the Greek States united for the first time (Hellenic Captain-General) and of the widely extended Persian Dominion which included all Western Asia, Egypt, Central Asia, Afghanistan, and the Punjab (at least portions). He is represented on his coins with two horns on his head: he considered himself a son of Jupiter Ammon (who had the two horns of a ram), with a divine mission. He revolutionised the history of Europe, Asia, and Africa (Egypt), and his influence lasted for many generations after his death at the young age of 33. He lived from B.C. 356 to 323, but his name was one to conjure with for many centuries after him. It was not only on account of his political power, but his cultural influences. Through his conquests, Greek art gave the impulse to Gandhara art in Central Asia and Northwest India. The city of Alexandria which he founded in Egypt became the cultural centre, not only for Greece and Rome, but for Judaism and Christianity, and retained its supremacy till the sixth century of the Christian era. Justinian closed its schools of philosophy in 529. Its philosophic and scientific schools spread their influence over even a wider area than the Mediterranean basin.

Now the generality of the world of Islam have accepted Alexander the Great as the one meant by the epithet Dhu al Qarnayn. But some of our 'Ulamā' have raised doubts about it and made other suggestions. One is that it was not the Macedonian Alexander the Great, but an earlier prehistoric king contemporary with Abraham; because, they say Dhu al Qarnayn was a man of Faith (18:88,98), while Alexander the Great was a Pagan and believed in Grecian gods. An identification with a supposed prehistoric king, about whom nothing is known, is no identification at all. On the other hand, all that is known about Alexander the Great shows that he was a man of lofty ideals. He died over three centuries before the time of Jesus, but that does not mean he was not a man of Faith, for Allah revealed Himself to men of all nations in all ages. Alexander was a disciple of the philosopher Aristotle, noted for his pursuit of sound Truth in all departments of thought. Alexander's reference to Jupiter Ammon may have been no more than a playful reference to the superstitions of his time. Socrates spoke of the Grecian gods, and so did Aristotle and Plato; but it would be wrong to call them idolaters or men without Faith. In the Ethiopic traditional stories of Alexander the Great, he is represented as a great prophet.

Another suggestion made is that Dhu al Qarnayn was an ancient king of Persia. A king of Persia is referred to as a Ram with two horns in the Book of Daniel (8:3) in the Old Testament. But in the same Book, the Ram with the two horns was smitten, cast down to the ground, and stamped upon by a he-goat with one horn (8:7-8). There is nothing in our literature to suggest that Dhu al Qarnayn came to any such ignominious end. Nor is the Book of Daniel an authority worth consideration. Its authenticity is very doubtful. There is no question that it is a patchwork, as parts of it are in the Aramaic (or Chaldee) language and parts in Hebrew, and there are in it a number of Greek words. The Septuagint version contained large additions. "Daniel"—whoever the writer or writers were—refers to historical Persian kings. If it is argued that it was some old prehistoric Persian king who built the Iron Gates (18:96) to keep out the Gog and Magog tribes (18:94), this is no identification at all. There is no unanimity about the identity of the Iron Wall, or the Gog and Magog tribes. Both these subjects will be referred to presently.

Another suggestion made is that he was some old prehistoric Himyarite king from Yemen, about whom nothing else is known. This, again, is no identification at all.

The question of Yājūj and Mājūj (Gog and Magog) and the iron Barrier built to keep them out is of some interest. It is practically agreed that they were the wild tribes of Central Asia which have made inroads on settled kingdoms and Empires at various stages of the world's history. The Chinese Empire suffered from their incursions and built the Great Wall of China to keep out the Manchus and Mongols. The Persian Empire suffered from them at various times and at various points. Their incursions into Europe in large hordes caused migrations and displacements of population on an enormous scale, and eventually broke up the Roman Empire. These tribes were known vaguely to the Greeks and Romans as "Scythians", but that term does not help us very much, either ethnically or geographically.

If we could locate the iron barrier or iron gates referred to in 18:96, we should have a closer idea of the tribes whom the barrier was meant to keep out. It is obvious that the Great Wall of China is out of the question. Begun in the third century B.C. and continued later, it covers the enormous length of 1,500 miles, and goes up the hills and down the valleys, with towers 40 feet high at intervals of 200 yards. Its average height is 20 to 30 feet. It is built of stone and earth. There is no particular point in it which can be identified with the iron barrier in the text. No one has suggested that Dhu al Qarnayn was a Chinese Emperor, and none of the great Conquerors of Western Asia can be credited with the building of the Chinese Wall.

The Barrier in the text must have been more in the nature of iron gates than an iron wall. Two Iron Gates, geographically far apart, have been suggested in the alternative. Sometimes they have been mixed up by writers not strong in geography. Both of them have local associations with the name of Alexander the Great. Both are near a town Derbend, and have borne the name of Bāb al Ḥadīd (Arabic for "Iron Gate"). Let us examine the case of each in turn.

The best known in modern times is at the town and seaport of Derbend in the middle of the western coast of the Caspian Sea. It is now in Soviet territory, in the district of Daghistan. Before the southern expansion of Russia in 1813 it belonged to Persia. A spur of Mount Caucasus here comes up north, close to the sea. The Wall in question is 50 miles long, with an average height of 29 feet. As Azerbaijan (in Persia) is not far from this place, some writers have mixed up the Derbend Iron Gate with Azerbaijan, and some with the Caucasian town of Kharz (Kars), which is to the south of the Caucasus. There are local traditions here, and in the Astrakhan region, at the mouth of the river Volga, higher up the Caspian, connecting this Caucasian Iron Gate with the name of Alexander, but there are good reasons why we should reject this as the site of the Iron Gate in the Quranic story. (1) This does not correspond exactly to the description in 18:96 ("the space between the steep mountain sites"); the gap is between the mountain and the sea. (2) Alexander the Great (assuming that Dhu al Qarnayn is Alexander), is not known to have crossed the Caucasus. (3) There is an Iron Gate which corresponds exactly to the description, in a locality which we know Alexander to have visited. (4) In the early days, when Muslims spread to all parts of the world, local legends were started by ignorant people connecting the places they knew with places referred to in the Qur'ān.

We now come to the Iron Gate which corresponds exactly to the Quranic description, and has the best claim to be connected with Alexander's story. It is near another Derbend in Central Asia, Hissar District, about 150 miles southeast of Bukhārā. A very narrow defile, with overhanging rocks, occurs on the main route between Turkestan and India: latitude 38°N; longitude 67°E. It is now called in Turkish Buzghol-Khana (Goat-house), but was formerly known as the Iron Gate (Arabic, Bāb al Hadīd; Persian, Dar-i-āhanī; Chinese T'ie-men-kuan. There is no iron gate there now, but there was one in the seventh century, when the Chinese traveller Hiouen Tsiang saw it on his journey to India. He saw two folding gates cased with iron hung with bells. Nearby is a lake named Iskandar Kul, connecting the locality with Alexander the Great. We know from history that Alexander, after his conquest of Persia and before his journey to India, visited Sogdiana (Bukhārā) and Maracanda (Samarqand). We also know from Muqaddasī, the Arab traveller and geographer, who wrote about A.H. 375 (A.C. 985-6) that the 'Abbāsī Khalīfa Wāthiq (842-846 A.C.) sent out a mission to Central Asia to report on this Iron Gate. They found the defile 150 yards wide: on two jambs, made with bricks of iron welded together with molten lead, were hung two huge gates, which were kept closed. Nothing could correspond more exactly with the description in 18:95-96.

If, then, the Barrier in 18:95-98 refers to the Iron Gate near Bukhārā, we are able to proceed to a consideration of the Gog-Magog people with some confidence. They were the Mongol tribes on the other side of the Barrier, while the industrious men who did not understand Dhu al Qarnayn's language were the Turks, with their agglutinative language, so different from the languages then spoken in Western Asia. The Barrier served its purpose for the time being. But the warning that the time must come when it must crumble to dust has also come true. It has crumbled to dust. Long since, the Mongols pushed through on their westward journey, pushing the Turks before them, and the Turks became a European Power and still have a footing in Europe. We need not bother about the legends of the Gog and Magog people. They were reputed to be giants, and two tiny hills in flat Cambridgeshire are derisively called the Gog-Magog hills! Similarly the statues of Gog and Magog in the Guildhall in London, which M.M.A. takes so seriously, only remind us how legends are apt to grow and get transported to strange places. In the Alexander legends of medieval Europe, Gog and Magog are said to have come with 400,000 men to the help of Porus whom Alexander defeated, and to have fled after that defeat. They fled to the mountains, and Alexander built a wall with brass gates to prevent their irruptions. See Paul Meyer, Alexandre le Grand dans la littérature française du Moyen Age: Paris, 1886; Vol. 2, pp. 386-389.

Personally, I have not the least doubt that Dhu al Qarnayn is meant to be Alexander the Great, the historic Alexander, and not the legendary Alexander, of whom more presently. My first appointment after graduation was that of Lecturer in Greek history. I have studied the details of Alexander's extraordinary personality in Greek historians as well as in modern writers, and have since visited most of the localities connected with his brief but brilliant career. Few readers of Quranic literature have had the same privilege of studying the details of his career. It is one of the wonders of the Qur'ān, that, spoken through an Ummī's mouth, it should contain so many incidental details which are absolutely true. The more our knowledge increases, the more we feel this. There are little touches which need not have been mentioned. They come in incidentally like the incidental remarks of a person full of knowledge, who does not intend to put forward these points but whose fulness of knowledge brings them in inevitably.

One such point occurs in the mention of Alexander's westward journey (18:86). He saw the sun set in a piece of murky water which is described as a "Spring". Most Commentators have understood the "spring" to be the sea, and the "murky water" to be its dark-blue water. Nizāmī, in his Romance of Alexander, takes Alexander right west along North Africa to Andalusia and the Atlantic Ocean. There is no historic proof that Alexander ever reached the Atlantic. But he was of course familiar with the deep-blue waters of the Mediterranean. The Mediterranean interpretation may pass if we had not a closer explanation. Alexander's first exploits were when he was a mere boy, in the reign of his father Phillip. The region of Illyricum was due west of Macedonia, and Macedonia's first expansion was in that direction. The town of Lychnis was annexed to Macedonia and thus the western frontier of Macedonia was secured. The northern frontier towards the Danube had already been secured, and the lesson he subsequently gave to Thebes secured him against attack from the Greek States to the south, and prepared the way for his great march east against the Persian Empire. To the west of the town of Lychnis is a lake 170 square miles in area, fed by underground springs that issue through limestone rocks and give out murky water. Both town and lake are now called Ochrida, about 50 miles west of Monastir. The water is so dark that the river which forms the outlet of the lake to the north is called the Black Drin. Looking at the sunset from the town, the observer would see the sun set in a pool of murky water (18:86). It was a question before the boy Alexander—the dreamy, impulsive, fearless rider—whether he would put the barbarous Illyricans to the sword or show them mercy. He showed true discrimination and statesmanship. He punished the guilty but showed kindness to the innocent, and thus consolidated his power in the west. This I construe to be the meaning of 18:86-87; otherwise these verses do not seem to be perfectly clear.

Another point may be noted. The three episodes mentioned are the journey to the west, the journey to the east, and the journey to the Iron Gate. The journey to the west I have just explained. The journey to the east was to the Persian Empire. Here he found a people who lived in the open and wore little clothing. This might apply to people who live in an inland place in the latitude of Persepolis or Multani. He left them alone as they were (18:91). He was not warring against populations: he was warring against proud but effete Persian Empire. He left them as they were, with their local institutions, and under their local chiefs. In feeling, he treated them as his own, not as aliens. In some things, he himself adopted their ways. His followers misunderstood him. But Allah understood, for He approves of all things that lead to Unity among mankind.

The direction of the third journey is not mentioned. The Commentators suggest the north, but they might with better reason have suggested the south, as Alexander visited Egypt. But the visit to the Iron Gate was to the East—a continuation of his journey east. That is why the direction is not mentioned again. Here his mission was different. He had to protect a peaceful industrious population, whom perhaps the Persian Empire had failed to protect, against turbulent and restless invaders. He helped them to protect themselves, but warned them that all human precautions, though good and necessary, are vain without Allah's help.

Each of the episodes mentioned is historical. But the pomp and glitter of military conquest are not mentioned. On the contrary, spiritual motives are revealed and commended. We need not know or learn any history or geography or science or psychology or ethics to understand them. But the more real knowledge we have, the more completely shall we understand them and the lessons to be drawn from them. The earthly journeys are treated as mere symbols to show us the evolution of a great and noble soul which achieved so much in a short earthly life.

His career was so extraordinary that it impressed his contemporaries as a world event. It undoubtedly was one of the greatest world events in history. Legends began to grow up round his name. In many cases the legends overlaid the history. Today the world is thrilled by Sir Ayrel Stein's identification of Aornos, a very small geographical detail in a great career full of lessons, in political, ethical, and religious wisdom. But the generations immediately following Alexander's period wrote and transmitted all sorts of wonderful legends that passed current in East and West. The philosopher Kallisthenes had been with Alexander in Asia. Under his name was produced a Greek book in Alexandria some time before the second century of the Christian era. It was translated into Latin in the third century. Translations were subsequently made into most of the European languages. In Chaucer's time (1340-1400) these Alexander legends were known to every "wight that hath discrecion" (The Monk in Cantebury Tales).

Alexandria was a focus of Christian and Jewish learning for some centuries. The Christians also made Alexander a saint. The Jews carried the Alexander cycle into the East. Our Persian poet Jāmī (A.H. 535-599, A.C. 1141-1203) worked it up into his epic the Iskandar-nāma. He is careful to show the historical or semi-historical and the ethical parts separately. The one relates to action or exploits (Iqbāl) and the other to wisdom (Khīrad). He had the advantage of the Quranic story before him. That story mentions three historical episodes incidentally, but draws our attention to matters of the weightiest spiritual significance, and that is the chief thing to note in the story.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 19—MARYAM

The spiritual growth of man as an individual soul having been explained in S. 17. as beginning with the first principles of moral conduct and in S. 18. as being dependent upon our realisation of the brevity and mystery of this life and the true use of power as in the story of Dhu al Qarnayn, we now pass on the story of individual Messengers of Allah in their personal relations with their environment—Yahyā with his father Zakarīya, Jesus with his mother Mary; Abraham with his unbelieving father, Moses with his brother Aaron, Ismā'il with his family, and Idrīs in the high station to which he was called. Seeing how these great ones fitted into the scheme of life, man is condemned for his want of faith, or for degrading his faith to superstition, and warned of the Hereafter.

In chronology, it was revealed before the first resort of the batch of Muslims to Abyssinia, say seven years before Hijrah.

Summary—Zakarīya was anxious to have an heir to carry on Allah's work in a world of unrighteousness, and Yahyā was given to him (19:1-15, and C. 138).

Mary the mother of Jesus was maligned by her people, but Jesus comforted her and was good to her (19:16-40, and C. 139).

Abraham was persecuted for his Faith by his people, including his unbelieving father, but he withdrew from them, and was blessed; Moses was helped by his brother Aaron; Ismā'il brought up his family in piety; and Idrīs was truthful and pious in a high station: they showed the way; yet men will not learn the good of life (19:41-65, and C. 140).

Man should not disbelieve in the Hereafter, nor sully his faith by false notions about Allah (19:68-98, and C. 141).

C. 138.—Men of God show their qualities
(19:1-15.) In their private relationships as much
As in their public ministry. Zakarīya
Was anxious, in a world of unrighteousness,
To find a successor to continue his godly
Errand. He was given a son, Yahyā,
Who heralded Jesus, and lived a life
Of wisdom, gentle love, and purity.

٥- وَاِنِّى خِفْتُ الْمَوَالِىَ

2455. This is the only Sūrah which begins with these five Abbreviated Letters, Kāf, Hā, Yā, 'Ayn, Sād. For Abbreviated Letters generally, see Appendix I.

As stated in my note 25, such Letters are Symbols, of which the true meaning is known to Allah alone. We should not be dogmatic about any conjectures that we make. According to the interpretation of the last letter Sād, suggested in n. 989 to 7:1. I should be disposed to accept Sād with the meaning of Qisās, i.e., stories of the Prophets. The main figures referred to here are: Zakariya, Yahyā, Maryam, 'Isā, and Ibrāhīm: the others are mentioned but incidentally. The strong letter in ZaKarīya is K; in Ibrāhīm. H; in YāhYā and perhaps MarYam, Y; and in 'Isā—'A ('Ayn). H also comes in Hārūn (Aaron), and the Arabic Yā' comes in all the names including Ismā'il and Idrīs.

I offer this suggestion with some diffidence. The suggestion of the Tafsīr Kabīr is that the letters stand for attributes of Allah: K. for Kāfī (the One sufficient in Himself); H. for Hādī (He who guides); Y. for Yad (Hand as a symbol of Power and Authority; Cf. 48:10, "The Hand of Allah is above their hands"); 'A. for Alīm (the All-Knowing); and S for Sādiq (The True One).

2456. The Mercy of Allah to Zakarīya was shown in many ways: (1) in the acceptance of his prayer; (2) in bestowing a son like Yahyā; and (3) in the love between father and son, in addition to the work which Yahyā did as Allah's Messenger for the world. Cf. 3:38-41 and notes. There the public ministry was the point stressed; here the beautiful relations between the son and the father.

2457. In secret: because he feared that his own family and relatives were going wrong (19:5), and he wanted to keep the lamp of Allah burning bright. He could not very well mention the fear about his colleagues (who were his relations) in public.

2458. This preface shows the fervent faith of Zakarīya. Zakarīya was a priest of the Most High Allah. His office was the Temple, and his relatives were his colleagues. But he found in them no true spirit of the service of Allah and man. He was filled with anxiety as to who would uphold the godly ideas he had in mind, which were strange to his worldly colleagues.

(Will do) after me:
But my wife is barren:
So give me an heir²⁴⁵⁹
As from Thyself—

فَهَبْ لِي مِنْ لَدُنْكَ وَلِيًّا ۝

6. "(One that) will (truly)
Represent me, and represent²⁴⁶⁰
The posterity of Jacob;
And make him, O my Lord!
One with whom Thou art
Well-pleased!"

يَرْثُنِي وَيُرثُ
مِنْ آلِ يَعْقُوبَ ۖ
وَأَجْعَلْهُ رَبِّ رَضِيًّا ۝

7. (His prayer was answered):
"O Zakariyyā We give thee
Good news of a son:
His name shall be Yahyā:
On none by that name
Have We conferred distinction before."²⁴⁶¹

يَذْكُرِيَا إِنَّا نَبَشِّرُكَ
بِعُلْمٍ اسْمُهُ يَحْيَىٰ
لَمْ نَجْعَلْ لَهُ مِنْ قَبْلُ سَمِيًّا ۝

8. He said: "O my Lord!
How shall I have a son,
When my wife is barren
And I have grown quite decrepit
From old age?"

قَالَ رَبِّ أَنَّى يَكُونُ لِي غُلَامٌ
وَكَانَتْ أُمْرَاتِي عَاقِرًا
وَقَدْ بَلَغْتُ مِنَ الْكِبَرِ عِتِيًّا ۝

9. He said: "So (it will be):²⁴⁶²
Thy Lord saith, 'That is Easy for Me: I did

قَالَ كَذَلِكَ ۚ قَالَ رَبُّكَ هُوَ عَلَىٰ هَيْنٍ

2459. His was not merely a vulgar desire for a son. If it had been, he would have prayed much earlier in his life, when he was a young man. He was too full of true piety to put merely selfish things into his prayers. But here was a public need, in the service of the Lord. He was too old, but could he perhaps adopt a child—who would be an heir "as from Allah?" (See n. 380 to 3:38).

2460. It is true that an heir inherits property, but his higher duty is to represent in everything the personality of him from whom he inherits. It is doubtful whether Zakariyyā had any worldly property. But he had character and virtue, as a man of God, and this he wanted to transmit to his heir as his most precious possession. It was almost the most precious possession of the posterity of Jacob. The people around him had fallen away from Allah's Message. Could his heir, like him, try and renew it?

2461. This was John the Baptist, the forerunner of Jesus. In accordance with his father's prayer he, and Jesus for whom he prepared the way, renewed the Message of Allah, which had been corrupted and lost among the Israelites. The Arabic form Yahyā suggests "Life". The Hebrew form is Johanan, which means "Jehovah has been Gracious". Cf. Ḥanāna in verse 13 below. It does not mean that the name was given for the first time, for we read of a Johanan the son of Careah in II Kings, xxv. 23, an otherwise obscure man. It means that Allah had, for the first time, called one of His elect by that name.

2462. Who is the "He" in this clause? As I have construed it, following the majority of Commentators, it means the angel who brought the message from Allah. Cf. 19:21 below. But some Commentators construe it to refer to Zakariyyā. In that case the meaning will be: Zakariyyā after a little reflection said (in his wonder) "Sol", i.e. "Can it really be so? Can I really have a son in my old age?" The speech following, "Thy Lord saith," etc., will then be that of the angel-messenger.

Indeed create thee before,
When thou hadst been nothing!"²⁴⁶³

وَقَدْ خَلَقْنَاكَ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَلَمْ تَكُ شَيْئًا ۝

10. (Zakarīya) said: "O my Lord!
Give me a Sign."²⁴⁶⁴
"Thy Sign," was the answer,
"Shall be that thou
Shalt speak to no man
For three nights,²⁴⁶⁵
Although thou art not dumb."

۱۰- قَالَ رَبِّ اجْعَلْ لِي آيَةً ۖ
قَالَ آيَتُكَ
أَلَّا تُكَلِّمَ النَّاسَ ثَلَاثَ لَيَالٍ سَوِيًّا ۝

11. So Zakarīya came out
To his people
From his chamber:
He told them by signs
To celebrate Allah's praises
In the morning
And in the evening.

۱۱- فَخَرَجَ عَلَى قَوْمِهِ مِنَ الْمِحْرَابِ
فَأَوْحَى إِلَيْهِمْ أَنْ سَبِّحُوا
بُكْرَةً وَعَشِيًّا ۝

12. (To his son came the command):²⁴⁶⁶
"O Yahyā! take hold
Of the Book with might":
And We gave him Wisdom²⁴⁶⁷
Even as a youth.

۱۲- يٰحٰمِي خُذِ الْكِتٰبَ بِقُوَّةٍ ۖ
وَآتَيْنَاهُ الْحِكْمَ صَبِيًّا ۝

2463. Every man was nothing just before he was created, i.e., his personality was called into being by Allah. Even if there are material processes in forming the body, in accordance with the laws of nature, the real creative force is in Allah. But here there is a subtler meaning. John was the harbinger of Jesus, preparing the way for him: and this sentence also prepares us for the more wonderful birth of Jesus himself: see verse 21 below. Everything is possible with Allah.

2464. The "Sign", I understand, was not in order to convince Zakariya that the Lord's promise was true, for he had faith; but it was a symbol by which he was to show in his conduct that he was to conform to his new destiny as the father of Yahyā who was to come. Yahyā was to take up the work, and Zakariya was to be silent, although the latter was sound in body and there was nothing to prevent him from speaking.

2465. Compare this verse with 3:41. The variations are interesting. Here it is "for three nights": there it is "for three days". The meaning is the same, for a day is a period of 24 hours. But the point of view is different in each case. There it was from the point of view of the Ummah or Congregation, among whom he worked by day; here the point of view is that of his individual soul, which spent the nights in prayer and praise. Notice again that at the end of the next verse, we have here, "In the morning and in the evening", and at the end of 3:41, "In the evening and in the morning"—showing again that the point of view is reversed.

2466. Time passes. The son is born. In this section of the Sūrah the centre of interest is Yahyā, and the instruction is now given to him. 'Keep fast hold of Allah's revelation with all your might': for an unbelieving world had either corrupted or neglected it, and Yahyā (John the Baptist) was to prepare the way for Jesus, who was coming to renew and re-interpret it.

2467. Hukm, translated Wisdom, implies something more than Wisdom; it is the Wisdom or Judgement that is entitled to judge and command, as in the matter of denouncing sin.

13. And pity (for all creatures)
As from Us, and purity:²⁴⁶⁸
He was devout,

۱۳- وَحَنَانًا مِّن لَّدُنَّا وَغَرُورًا
وَكَانَ تَقِيًّا ۝

14. And kind to his parents,
And he was not overbearing
Or rebellious.

۱۴- وَبِرًّا بِوَالِدَيْهِ
وَلَمْ يَكُنْ جَبَّارًا عَصِيًّا ۝

15. So Peace on him
The day he was born
The day that he dies,
And the day that he
Will be raised up
To life (again)!²⁴⁶⁹

۱۵- وَسَلَامٌ عَلَيْهِ يَوْمُ وُلْدٍ
وَيَوْمِ مَمُوتٍ
وَيَوْمِ يُبْعَثُ حَيًّا ۝

C. 139. — Next comes the story of Jesus and his mother
(19:16-40.) Mary. She gave birth, as a virgin, to Jesus.
But her people slandered and abused her
As a disgrace to her lineage. Her son
Did defend her and was kind to her. He
Was a servant of Allah, a true Prophet,
Blessed in the gifts of Prayer and Charity,
But no more than a man: to call him
The son of Allah is to derogate from Allah's
Majesty, for Allah is High above all
His Creatures, the Judge of the Last Day.

SECTION 2.

16. Relate in the Book
(The story of) Mary,²⁴⁷⁰
When she withdrew
From her family
To a place in the East.²⁴⁷¹

۱۶- وَإِذْ كُنَّا فِي الْكِتَابِ مَرْيَمَ
إِذَا نَبَدَتْ مِنْ أَهْلِهَا مَكَانًا شَرْقِيًّا ۝

2468. John the Baptist did not live long. He was imprisoned by Herod, the tetrarch (provincial ruler under the Roman Empire), whom he had reproved for his sins, and eventually beheaded at the instigation of a woman with whom Herod was infatuated. But even in his young life, he was granted (1) wisdom by Allah, for he boldly denounced sin: (2) gentle pity and love for all Allah's creatures, for he moved among the humble and lowly, and despised "soft raiment": and (3) purity of life, for he renounced the world and lived in the wilderness. All his work he did in his youth. These things showed themselves in his conduct, for he was devout, showing love to Allah and to Allah's creatures, and more particularly to his parents (for we are considering that aspect of his life): this was also shown by the fact that he never used violence, from an attitude of arrogance, nor entertained a spirit of rebellion against divine Law. (R).

2469. This is spoken as in the lifetime of Yahyā. Peace and Allah's Blessings were on him when he was born; they continue when he is about to die an unjust death at the hands of a tyrant; and they will be specially manifest at the Day of Judgement.

2470. Cf. the story of Mary as related in 3:42-51. Here the whole theme is different: it is the personal side of the spiritual experiences of the worshippers of Allah in relation to their families or environment.

2471. To a private eastern chamber, perhaps in the Temple. She went into privacy, from her people and from people in general, for prayer and devotion. It was in this state of purity that the angel appeared to her in the shape of a man. She thought it was a man. She was frightened, and she adjured him not to invade her privacy.

17. She placed a screen
(To screen herself) from them;
Then We sent to her
Our angel, and he appeared
Before her as a man
In all respects.

١٧- فَأَتَّخَذَتْ مِنْ دُونِهِمْ حِجَابًا
فَأَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْهَا رُوحَنَا
فَتَمَثَّلَ لَهَا بَشَرًا سَوِيًّا ۝

18. She said: "I seek refuge
From thee to (Allah)
Most Gracious: (come not near)
If thou dost fear Allah."

١٨- قَالَتْ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ
بِالرَّحْمَنِ مِنْكَ إِنْ كُنْتَ تَقِيًّا ۝

19. He said: "Nay, I am only
A messenger from thy Lord,
(To announce) to thee
The gift of a holy son."²⁴⁷²

١٩- قَالَ إِنَّمَا أَنَا رَسُولُ رَبِّكِ
لِيَهَبَ لَكِ غُلَامًا زَكِيًّا ۝

20. She said: "How shall I
Have a son, seeing that
No man has touched me,
And I am not unchaste?"

٢٠- قَالَتْ أَنَّى يَكُونُ لِي غُلَامٌ
وَلَمْ يَمَسِّنِي بَشَرٌ وَلَمْ أَكُ بَغِيًّا ۝

21. He said: "So (it will be):
Thy Lord saith, 'That is Easy for Me: and (We Wish) to appoint him
As a Sign unto men
And a Mercy from Us':²⁴⁷³
It is a matter
(So) decreed."²⁴⁷⁴

٢١- قَالَ كَذَلِكَ قَالَ رَبُّكِ
هُوَ عَلَى هَيْئٍ وَلِنَجْعَلَهُ
آيَةً لِلنَّاسِ وَرَحْمَةً مِنَّا
وَكَانَ أَمْرًا مَقْضِيًّا ۝

22. So she conceived him,
And she retired with him
To a remote place.²⁴⁷⁵

٢٢- فَحَمَلَتْهُ فَانْتَبَدَتْ بِهِ مَكَانًا خَصِيًّا ۝

2472. Allah had destined her to be the mother of the holy Prophet Jesus Christ, and now had come the time when this should be announced to her.

2473. The mission of Jesus is announced in two ways (1) he was to be a Sign to men; his wonderful birth and wonderful life were to turn an ungodly world back to Allah: and (2) his mission was to bring solace and salvation to the repentant. This, in some way or other, is the case with all prophets of Allah, and it was pre-eminently so in the case of the holy Prophet Muhammad. But the point here is that the Israelites, to whom Jesus was sent, were a hardened race, for whom the message of Jesus was truly a gospel of Mercy.

2474. For anything that Allah wishes to create, He says "Be," and it is (Cf. 3:47). There is no interval between His decree and its accomplishment, except such as He imposes by His decree. Time may be only a projection of our own minds on this world of relativity.

2475. The annunciation and the conception, we may suppose, took place in Nazareth (of Galilee), say 65 miles north of Jerusalem. The delivery took place in Bethlehem about 6 miles south of Jerusalem. It was a remote place, not only with reference to the distance of 71 miles, but because in Bethlehem itself the birth was in an obscure corner under a palm tree, from which perhaps the babe was afterwards removed to a manger in a stable.

23. And the pains of childbirth
Drove her to the trunk
Of a palm tree:
She cried (in her anguish):
"Ah! would that I had
Died before this! would that
I had been a thing
Forgotten and out of sight!"²⁴⁷⁶

٢٣- فَاجَاءَهَا النَّخَاضُ
إِلَى جَذْعِ النَّخْلَةِ
قَالَتْ يَلَيْتَنِي مِتُّ قَبْلَ هَذَا
وَكُنْتُ نَسِيًّا مَنْسِيًّا ۝

24. But (a voice) cried to her
From beneath the (palm tree):
"Grieve not! for thy Lord
Hath provided a rivulet
Beneath thee;

٢٤- فَنَادَاهَا مِنْ تَحْتِهَا
أَلَا تَحْزَنِي قَدْ جَعَلَ رَبُّكِ تَحْتَكِ سَرِيًّا ۝

25. "And shake towards thyself
The trunk of the palm tree;
It will let fall
Fresh ripe dates upon thee."²⁴⁷⁷

٢٥- وَهَزَيْتِ إِلَيْكِ جَذْعَ النَّخْلَةِ
تُسْقِطُ عَلَيْكِ رُطَبًا جَنِيًّا ۝

26. "So eat and drink
And cool (thine) eye."²⁴⁷⁸
And if thou dost see
Any man, say, 'I have Vowed a fast to (Allah)
Most Gracious, and this day
Will I enter into no talk
With any human being'"²⁴⁷⁹

٢٦- فَكُلِي وَاشْرَبِي وَقَرِّي عَيْنًا ۖ فَأَمَّا كُنُوتُ
مِنَ الْبَشَرِ أَحَدًا ۖ فَقُولِي إِنِّي
نَذَرْتُ لِلرَّحْمَنِ صَوْمًا
فَلَنْ أَكَلِمَ الْيَوْمَ أَنْسِيًّا ۝

27. At length she brought
The (babe) to her people,
Carrying him (in her arms).
They said: "O Mary!

٢٧- فَأَتَتْ بِهِ قَوْمَهَا تَحْمِلُهُ
قَالُوا يَمْرُؤُ

2476. She was but human, and suffered the pangs of an expectant mother, with no one to attend to her. The circumstances being peculiar, she had gotten far away from her people.

2477. Unseen Providence had seen that she should not suffer from thirst or from hunger. The rivulet provided her with water also for ablutions.

2478. Cool thine eye: An idiom for "comfort thyself and be glad". The literal meaning should not, however, be lost sight of. She was to cool her eyes (perhaps full of tears) with the fresh water of the rivulet and take comfort that a remarkable babe had been born to her. She was also to look around, and if any one came near, was to decline all conversation. It was quite true: she was under a vow, and could not talk to any one.

2479. She was to decline all conversation with man or woman, on the plea of a vow to Allah. The "fast" here does not mean abstinence literally from eating and drinking. She had just been advised to eat the dates and drink of the stream. It means abstinence from the ordinary household meals, and indeed from human intercourse generally.

Truly an amazing thing
Hast thou brought!²⁴⁸⁰

لَقَدْ جِئْتَ شَيْئًا فَرِيًّا ۝

28. "O sister of Aaron!²⁴⁸¹
Thy father was not
A man of evil, nor thy
Mother a woman unchaste!"

۲۸- يَا أُخْتَ هَارُونَ مَا كَانَ أَبُوكِ
امْرَأًا سَوْءًا وَمَا كَانَتْ أُمُّكَ بَغِيًّا ۝

29. But she pointed to the babe.²⁴⁸²
They said: "How can we
Talk to one who is
A child in the cradle?"

۲۹- فَأَشَارَتْ إِلَيْهِ قَالُوا كَيْفَ
نُكَلِّمُ مَنْ كَانَ فِي الْمَهْدِ صَبِيًّا ۝

30. He said: "I am indeed
A servant of Allah:
He hath given me
Revelation and made me
A prophet;

۳۰- قَالَ إِنِّي عَبْدُ اللَّهِ
الَّذِي الْكُتِبَ عَلَيَّ النَّبِيُّ ۝

31. "And He hath made me
Blessed wheresoever I be,
And hath enjoined on me
Prayer and Charity as long
As I live:²⁴⁸³

۳۱- وَجَعَلَنِي مُبَارَكًا أَيْنَ مَا كُنْتُ
وَأَوْصَانِي بِالصَّلَاةِ وَالزَّكَاةِ مَا
دُمْتُ حَيًّا ۝

32. "(He) hath made me kind
To my mother, and not
Overbearing or miserable;²⁴⁸⁴

۳۲- وَبَرًّا بِوَالِدَتِي وَلَمْ يَجْعَلْنِي جَبَّارًا
شَقِيًّا ۝

2480. The amazement of the people knew no bounds. In any case they were ready to think the worst of her, as she disappeared from her kin for some time. But now she comes, shamelessly parading a babe in her arms! How she had disgraced the house of Aaron, the fountain of priesthood! We may suppose that the scene took place in the Temple in Jerusalem, or in Nazareth.

2482. What could Mary do! How could she explain? Would they, in their censorious mood, accept her explanation? All she could do was to point to the child, who, she knew, was no ordinary child. And the child came to her rescue. By a miracle he spoke, defended his mother, and preached — to an unbelieving audience. See 3:46, and n. 388.

2483. There is a parallelism throughout the accounts of Jesus and Yahyā, with some variations. Both the parallelisms and the variations are interesting. For instance Jesus declares at the very outset that he is a servant of Allah, thus negating the false notion that he was Allah or the son of Allah. The greatness of Yahyā is described in 19:12-13 in terms that are not applied to Jesus, but the verses 19:14-15 as applied to Yahyā are in almost identical terms with those applied to Jesus here (19:32-33). Devotion in Prayer and Charity is a good description of the Church of Christ at its best, and pity, purity, and devotion in Yahyā are a good description of the ways leading to Prayer and Charity, just as John led to Jesus.

2484. Overbearing violence is not only unjust and harmful to those on whom it is practised; it is perhaps even more harmful to the person who practises it, for his soul becomes turbid, unsettled, and ultimately unhappy and wretched — the state of those in Hell. Here the negative qualities are "not overbearing or miserable." As applied to John they were "not overbearing or rebellious." John bore his punishment from the State without any protest or drawing back.

33. "So Peace is on me
The day I was born,
The day that I die,
And the Day that I
Shall be raised up
To life (again)"!²⁴⁸⁵

36. Verily Allah is my Lord

38. How plainly will they see
And hear, the Day that
They will appear before Us!

۳۸- أَسْمِعْ بِهِمْ وَأَبْصُرْ يَوْمَ يَأْتُونَنَا

2485. Cf. 19:15, and n. 2469. Christ was not crucified (4:157). (R).

2486. The disputations about the nature of Jesus Christ were vain, but also persistent and sanguinary. The modern Christian churches have thrown them into the background, but they would do well to abandon irrational dogmas altogether.

2487. Begetting a son is a physical act depending on the needs of men's animal nature. Allah Most High is independent of all needs, and it is derogatory to Him to attribute such an act to Him. It is merely a relic of pagan and anthropomorphic materialist superstitions.

2488. As opposed to the crooked superstitions which take refuge in all sorts of metaphysical sophistries to prove three in one and one in three. In the Qur'ān there is no crookedness (18:1). Christ's teaching was simple, like his life, but the Christians have made it crooked.

2489. Judgement: the word in the original is Mashhad, which implies many things: (1) the time or place where evidence is taken, as in a Court of Judgement; (2) the time or place where people are produced (to be judged); and (3) the occasion for such production for the taking of evidence. A very expressive phrase for the Day of Judgement.

But the unjust today

39. But warn them of the Day
Of Distress,²⁴⁹¹ when
The matter will be determined:
For (behold,) they are negligent
And they do not believe!

Thereon: to Us will they
All be returned.

تَعْبُدُ مَا لَا يَسْمَعُ وَلَا يُبْصِرُ
وَلَا يُغْنِي عَنْكَ شَيْئًا ○

2490. Cf. 1:22, and that whole passage, where the Resurrection is described.

2491. Hasrah: Sighs, sighing, regrets, distress.

2492. Cf. 3:180, n. 485; 15:23 n. 1964. Material property passes from one to another: when one dies another inherits it. Allah gives life and death, and all that survives after physical death goes back to Allah, the original source of all things.

2493. The reference to Abraham here is in relation to his tender solicitude for his father, who had not received the light of Unity, and to whom Abraham wanted to be a guide and friend.

43. "O my father! to me
Hath come knowledge which
Hath not reached thee:²⁴⁹⁴
So follow me: I will guide
Thee to a Way that
Is even and straight.²⁴⁹⁵

٢٣- يَا أَبَتِ إِنِّي قَدْ جَاءَنِي مِنَ الْعِلْمِ مَا
لَمْ يَأْتِكَ فَاتَّبِعْنِي أَهْدِكَ
صِرَاطًا سَوِيًّا ۝

44. "O my father! serve not
Satan: for Satan is
A rebel against (Allah)
Most Gracious.²⁴⁹⁶

٢٤- يَا أَبَتِ لَا تَعْبُدِ الشَّيْطَانَ
إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ كَانَ لِلرَّحْمَنِ عَصِيًّا ۝

45. "O my father! I fear
Lest a Penalty afflict thee²⁴⁹⁷
From (Allah) Most Gracious,
So that thou become
To Satan a friend."

٢٥- يَا أَبَتِ إِنِّي أَخَافُ أَنْ يُمَسِّكَ عَذَابٌ
مِّنَ الرَّحْمَنِ فَتَكُونَ لِلشَّيْطَانِ وَلِيًّا ۝

46. (The father) replied: "Dost thou
Hate my gods, O Abraham?
If thou forbear not, I will
Indeed stone thee:
Now get away from me
For a good long while!"²⁴⁹⁸

٢٦- قَالَ أَرَأَيْتَ أَنْتَ عَنْ إِلَهِي
يَا بُرْهِيمُ لَبِنَ لَمْ تَنْتَهُ لَأَرْجُمَنَّكَ
وَأَهْجُرْنِي مَلِيًّا ۝

47. Abraham said: "Peace be
On thee: I will pray
To my Lord for thy forgiveness:²⁴⁹⁹

٢٧- قَالَ سَلَامٌ عَلَيْكَ
سَأَسْتَغْفِرُكَ رَبِّي ۝

2494. Some are more receptive to Light than others. It is their duty and privilege to guide and point to the right Way.

2496. The rebellion is all the more heinous and inexcusable, considering that Allah is Most Just, Most Merciful, Most Gracious.

2497. To entertain a feeling of friendliness, instead of aversion, to Evil, is in itself a degradation of our nature, a Penalty which Allah imposes on our deliberate rejection of the Truth. And the friendliness to Evil also implies the sharing of the outlawry of Evil.

2498. Note the gentle persuasive tone of Abraham in his speeches in 19:42-45 (for we may suppose those sentences to sum up a long course of arguments) and in 19:47-48, contrasted with the brusque and repellent tone of the father's reply in this verse. The one was the outcome of the true Light which had come to Abraham from Allah, as the other was the outcome of Pagan arrogance and the worship of brute force. The spiritual lesson from this episode of Abraham's life may be stated in four propositions: (1) the pious son is dutiful to his father and wishes him well in all things, material and spiritual; (2) if the father refuses Allah's Light, the son will do his utmost to bring such Light to the father; (3) having received the Light, the son will never renounce that Light, even if he has to forfeit his father's love and renounce his home; (4) even if the father repels him and turns him out, his answer will be a soft answer, full of love and forgiveness on the one hand, but firmness on behalf of Truth on the other.

2499. Cf. 9:114, where this promise of Abraham to pray for his father is referred to, and its limitations pointed out.

For He is to me
Most Gracious.

إِنَّهُ كَانَ بِنِي حَفِيًّا ۝

48. "And I will turn away
From you (all) and from those Whom ye invoke besides Allah:
I will call on my Lord:
Perhaps, by my prayer to my
Lord,
I shall be not unblest!"²⁵⁰⁰

۴۸- وَأَعْتَزِلْكُمْ وَمَا تَدْعُونَ

عَسَىٰ إِلَّا أَكُونُ بِدُعَاءِ رَبِّي شَقِيًّا ۝

49. When he had turned away
From them and from those Whom they worshipped besides

Isaac and Jacob, and each one
Of them We made a

۴۹- فَلَمَّا اعْتَزَلَهُمْ وَمَا يَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ

وَكُلًّا جَعَلْنَا نَبِيًّا ۝

50. And We bestowed
Of Our Mercy on them,
And We granted them
Lofty honour on the tongue²⁵⁰²
Of truth.

۵۰- وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُمْ مِنْ رَحْمَتِنَا
وَجَعَلْنَا لَهُمْ لِسَانَ صِدْقٍ عَلِيًّا ۝

SECTION 4.

51. Also mention in the Book
(The story of) Moses:
For he was specially chosen,
And he was a messenger
And a prophet.²⁵⁰³

۵۱- وَادْكُرْ فِي الْكِتَابِ مُوسَىٰ
إِنَّهُ كَانَ مَخْلُصًا
وَكَانَ رَسُولًا نَبِيًّا ۝

2500. Abraham left his father and the home of his fathers (Ur of the Chaldees) and never returned. He left because he was turned out, and because it was not possible for him to make any compromise with what was false in religion. In return for abuse, he spoke gentle words. And he expressed his fervent hope that at least he (Abraham) would have Allah's blessing in reply to his prayers. Here was a prefigurement of another Hijrah many centuries later! In both cases the prayer was abundantly fulfilled.

2501. Isaac and Isaac's son Jacob are mentioned here as carrying on one line of Abraham's traditions. The other line was carried on by Ismā'il, who is mentioned independently five verses lower down, as his line got special honour in the Holy Prophet of Islam. That is why his mention comes after that of Moses Cf. 21:72.

2503. Moses was (1) especially chosen, and therefore prepared and instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, in order that he might free his people from Egyptian bondage; there may also be a reference to Moses's title of Kalīm Allah, the one to whom Allah spoke without the intervention of angels: see 4:164, and n. 670); (2) he was a prophet (nabi), in that he received inspiration; and (3) he was a messenger (rasūl) in that he had a Book of Revelation, and an Ummah or organised Community, for which he instituted laws. (R).

52. And We called him
From the right side²⁵⁰⁴
Of Mount (Sinai), and made
Him draw near to Us,
For mystic (converse).

٥٢- وَنَادَيْنَاهُ مِنْ جَانِبِ الطُّورِ الْأَيْمَنِ
وَقَرَّبْنَاهُ نَجِيًّا ۝

53. And, out of Our Mercy,²⁵⁰⁵
We gave him his brother
Aaron, (also) a prophet.

٥٣- وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُ مِنْ رَحْمَتِنَا
أَخَاهُ هَارُونَ نَبِيًّا ۝

54. Also mention in the Book
(The story of) Ismā'īl:
He was (strictly) true
To what he promised,²⁵⁰⁶
And he was a messenger
(And) a prophet.

٥٤- وَاذْكُرْ فِي الْكِتَابِ إِسْمَاعِيلَ
إِنَّهُ كَانَ صَادِقَ الْوَعْدِ
وَكَانَ رَسُولًا نَبِيًّا ۝

55. He used to enjoin
On his people Prayer
And Charity, and he was
Most acceptable in the sight
Of his Lord.²⁵⁰⁷

٥٥- وَكَانَ يَأْمُرُ أَهْلَهُ بِالصَّلَاةِ وَالزَّكَاةِ
وَكَانَ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِ مَرْضِيًّا ۝

56. Also mention in the Book
The case of Idrīs:²⁵⁰⁸

٥٦- وَاذْكُرْ فِي الْكِتَابِ إِدْرِيسَ ۝

2504. The incident here I think refers to the incidents described more fully in 20:9-36; a reference may also be made to Exod. iii. 1-18 and iv. 1-17. The time is when Moses (with his family) was travelling and grazing the flocks of his father-in-law Jethro, just before he got his commission from Allah. The place is somewhere near Mount Sinai (Jabal Mūsā). Moses sees a Fire in the distance, but when he goes there, he hears a voice that tells him it is sacred ground. Allah asked him to put off his shoes and to draw near, and when he went near, great mysteries were revealed to him. He was given his commission, and his brother Aaron was given to him to go with him and aid him. It is after that that he and Aaron went and faced Pharaoh in Egypt, as narrated in 7:103-144, etc. The right side of the mountain may mean that Moses heard the voice from the right side of the mountain as he faced it: or it may have the figurative meaning of "right" in Arabic, i.e., the side which was blessed or sacred ground. (R).

2505. Moses was diffident, and reluctant to go to Pharaoh as he had an impediment in his tongue, and he asked that his brother Aaron should be associated with him in his mission. Allah in His Mercy granted his request: 20:25-36.

2506. Ismā'īl was Dhabīh Allah, i.e., the chosen sacrifice of Allah in Muslim tradition. When Abraham told him of the sacrifice, he voluntarily offered himself for it, and never flinched from his promise, until the sacrifice was redeemed by the substitution of a ram under Allah's commands. He was the fountainhead of the Arabian Ummah, and in his posterity came the Prophet of Allah. The Ummah and the Book of Islam reflect back the prophethood on Ismā'īl.

2507. An acceptable sacrifice: see last note.

2508. Idrīs is mentioned twice in the Qur'ān, viz.: here and in 21:85, where he is mentioned among those who patiently preserved His identification with the Biblical Enoch, who "walked with God" (Gen. v. 21-24), may or may not be correct. Nor are we justified in interpreting verse 57 here as meaning the same thing as in Gen. v. 24 ("God took him"), that he was taken up without passing through the portals of death. All we are told is that he was a man of truth and sincerity, and a prophet, and that he had a high position among his people. It is this point which brings him in the series of men just mentioned: he kept himself in touch with his people, and was honoured among them. Spiritual progress need not cut us off from our people, for we have to help and guide them. He kept to truth and piety in the highest station.

He was a man of truth
(And sincerity), (and) a prophet:

إِنَّهُ كَانَ صِدِّيقًا نَبِيًّا ۝

57. And We raised him
To a lofty station.

هـ- وَرَفَعْنَاهُ مَكَانًا عَلِيًّا ۝

58. Those were some
Of the prophets on whom
Allah did bestow His Grace—
Of the posterity of Adam,
And of those whom We Carried (in the Ark)
With Noah, and of
The posterity of Abraham²⁵⁰⁹
And Israel—of those Whom We guided and chose;
Whenever the Signs
Of (Allah) Most Gracious
Were rehearsed to them,²⁵¹⁰
They would fall down
In prostrate adoration
And in tears.

هـ- أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ أَنْعَمَ اللَّهُ
عَلَيْهِمْ مِّنَ النَّبِيِّينَ مِمَّنْ ذُرِّيَّةَ آدَمَ
وَمِمَّنْ حَمَلْنَا مَعَ نُوحٍ
وَمِمَّنْ ذُرِّيَّةَ إِبْرَاهِيمَ
وَإِسْرَءِيلَ وَمِمَّنْ هَدَيْنَا وَاجْتَبَيْنَا
إِذَا تَتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ
آيَاتُ الرَّحْمَنِ
خَرُّوا سُجَّدًا وَبُكِيًّا ۝

59. But after them there followed
A posterity who missed
Prayers and followed after lusts:
Soon, then, will they
Face Destruction — ²⁵¹¹

هـ- فَخَلَفَ مِنْ بَعدِهِم خَلْفٌ أَضَاعُوا
الصَّلَاةَ وَاتَّبَعُوا الشَّهَوَاتِ فَسُوفَ يَلْقَوْنَ
عَذَابًا ۝

60. Except those who repent
And believe, and work
Righteousness: for these
Will enter the Garden
And will not be wronged
In the least—

٦٠- إِلَّا مَن تَابَ وَآمَنَ وَعَمِلَ
صَالِحًا فَأُولَئِكَ يَدْخُلُونَ الْجَنَّةَ
وَلَا يُظْلَمُونَ شَيْئًا ۝

61. Gardens of Eternity, those
Which (Allah) Most Gracious
Has promised to His servants

٦١- جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ الَّتِي وَعَدَ الرَّحْمَنُ
عِبَادَهُ ۝

2509. The earlier generations are grouped into three epochs from a spiritual point of view: (1) from Adam to Noah, (2) from Noah to Abraham, and (3) from Abraham to an indefinite time, say to the time when the Message of Allah was corrupted and the need arose for the final Messenger of Unity and Truth. Israel is another name for Jacob.

2510. The original is in the Aorist tense, implying that the "Posterity" alluded to includes not only the messengers but their worthy followers who are true to Allah and uphold His standard.

2511. This selfish godless posterity gains the upper hand at certain times but, even then there is always a minority who see the error of their ways, repent and believe, and live righteous lives. They are not penalised in the Hereafter because they were associated with the ungodly in time. They reap the full reward of their faith and righteousness.

In the Unseen: for His promise
Must (necessarily) come to pass.

بِالْغَيْبِ إِنَّهُ كَانَ وَعْدُهُ مَأْتِيًا ۝

62. They will not there hear
Any vain discourse, but
Only salutations of Peace:²⁵¹²
And they will have therein
Their sustenance,²⁵¹³ morning
And evening.

۶۲- لَا يَسْمَعُونَ فِيهَا لَغْوًا إِلَّا سَلَامًا
وَلَهُمْ رِزْقُهُمْ فِيهَا
بَكْرَةً وَعَشِيًا ۝

63. Such is the Garden which
We give as an inheritance
To those of Our Servants
Who guard against evil.

۶۳- تِلْكَ الْجَنَّةُ الَّتِي نُورِثُ
مِنْ عِبَادِنَا مَنْ كَانَ تَقِيًا ۝

64. (The angels say:)²⁵¹⁴
"We descend not but
By command of thy Lord:
To Him belongeth what is
Before us, and what is Behind us, and what is Between: and thy Lord
Never doth forget"—

۶۴- وَمَا نُنْزِلُ إِلَّا بِأَمْرِ رَبِّكَ
لَهُ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِينَا وَمَا
خَلْفَنَا وَمَا بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ
وَمَا كَانَ رَبُّكَ نَسِيًّا ۝

65. "Lord of the heavens
And of the earth,
And of all that is
Between them: so worship Him,
And be constant and patient
In His worship: knowest thou
Of any who is worthy
Of the same Name as He?"²⁵¹⁵

۶۵- رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا فَاعْبُدْهُ
وَاصْطَبِرْ لِعِبَادَتِهِ
هَلْ تَعْلَمُ لَهُ سَمِيًّا ۝

2512. Salām, translated "Peace", has a much wider signification. It includes (1) a sense of security and permanence, which is unknown in this life; (2) soundness, freedom from defects, perfection, as in the word salim; (3) preservation, salvation, deliverance, as in the word sallama; (4) salutation, accord with those around us; (5) resignation, in the sense that we are satisfied and not discontented; besides (6) the ordinary meaning of Peace, i.e., freedom from any jarring element. All these shades of meaning are implied in the word Islām. (R).

2514. We are apt to be impatient of the evils we see around us. We may give of our best service to Allah, and yet see no results. In our human short-sightedness we may complain within ourselves. But we must not be impatient. The angels of Grace come not haphazardly, but by command of Allah according to His Universal Will and Purpose. Allah does not forget. If things are delayed, it is in accordance with a wise providence, which cares for all. Our plain duty is to be patient and constant in His service. (R).

2515. The more we taste of the truth and mystery of life, the more do we realise that there is no one to be mentioned in the same breath as Allah. He is above all names. But when we think of His beautiful qualities, and picture them to ourselves by names which give us some ideas of Him, we can search the whole wide world of our imagination, and we shall not find another to be compared with Him in name or quality. He is the One: praise be to Him!

- C. 141. — Why should man disbelieve in the Hereafter?
 (19:60-98.) We all must pass through the fire of temptation.
 But Allah Most Gracious will save us
 If we accept Him and do right. Sin
 May have its respite, but must run
 To its own destruction. We must not
 Dishonour Allah by holding false
 And monstrous ideas of Him. Glory
 To Him that He cares for all His creatures!

SECTION 5.

66. Man says: "What!
 When I am dead, shall I
 Then be raised up alive?"
67. But does not man
 Call to mind that We
 Created him before
 Out of nothing?
68. So, by thy Lord,
 Without doubt, We shall gather
 Them together, and (also)
 The Evil Ones (with them);²⁵¹⁶
 Then shall We bring them
 Forth on their knees
 Round about Hell;²⁵¹⁷
69. Then shall We certainly
 Drag out from every sect
 All those who were worst
 In obstinate rebellion
 Against (Allah) Most Gracious.
70. And certainly We know best
 Those who are most worthy
 Of being burned therein.

٦٦- وَيَقُولُ الْإِنْسَانُ
 إِذَا مَا مِتُّ لَسَوْفَ أُخْرَجُ حَيًّا ۝

٦٧- أَوَلَا يَذْكُرُ الْإِنْسَانُ أَنَّا
 خَلَقْنَاهُ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَلَمْ يَكُ شَيْئًا ۝

٦٨- قَوْرَبِكَ لَنُخْشِرَنَّهُمْ
 وَالشَّيْطِينَ ثُمَّ لَنُخْضِرَنَّهُمْ
 حَوْلَ جَهَنَّمَ جِثِيًّا ۝

٦٩- ثُمَّ لَنَنْزِعَنَّ مِنْ كُلِّ شِيعَةٍ
 أَيُّهُمْ أَشَدُّ عَلَى الرَّحْمَنِ عِتِيًّا ۝

٧٠- ثُمَّ لَنَحْنُ أَعْلَمُ بِالَّذِينَ
 هُمْ أَوْلَىٰ بِهَا صِلِيًّا ۝

2516. The disbelief in a future state is not merely a philosophic doubt, but a warped will, a disingenuous obstinacy in face of our inner spiritual instincts and experiences. We were nothing before. Cannot the same Allah who created us out of nothing also continue our personality? But if we refuse to accept His light and guidance, our state will grow worse and worse. We shall be deprived of His grace. We shall be herded with the Evil Ones. In utter humiliation we shall be faced with all the consequences of our refusal of Truth.

2517 Round about Hell: There are many ways leading to evil, and people get to it from all round. Hence the mention of the seven Gates of Hell: see 15:44, and n. 1977. (R).

71. Not one of you but will²⁵¹⁸
Pass over it: this is,
With thy Lord, a Decree
Which must be accomplished.

٤١- وَإِنْ مِنْكُمْ إِلَّا وَارِدُهَا
كَانَ عَلَى رَبِّكَ حَتْمًا مَقْضِيًّا ۝

72. But We shall save those
Who guarded against evil,
And We shall leave
The wrongdoers therein,
(Humbled) to their knees.

٤٢- ثُمَّ نُنْجِي الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا
وَنَذَرُ الظَّالِمِينَ فِيهَا جِثِيًّا ۝

73. When Our Clear Signs
Are rehearsed to them,
The Unbelievers say to those
Who believe, "Which of the two Sides is best in point of
Position? which makes the best
Show in Council?"²⁵¹⁹

٤٣- وَإِذَا تَتْلَى عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتُنَا بَيِّنَاتٍ
قَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَمْ
الْفَرِيقَيْنِ خَيْرٌ مَقَامًا وَآخَسُنْ
نَدِيًّا ۝

74. But how many (countless)
Generations before them
Have We destroyed,
Who were even better
In equipment and in glitter
To the eye?

٤٤- وَكَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ
مِنْ قَرْنٍ هُمْ أَحْسَنُ
أَثْنًا وَرَهَاءًا ۝

75. Say: "If any man go
Astray, (Allah) Most Gracious
Extends (the rope) to them.
Until, when they see
The warning of Allah (being Fulfilled)—either in punishment²⁵²⁰
Or in (the approach of)
The Hour—they will
At length realise who is

٤٥- قُلْ مَنْ كَانَ فِي الضَّلَالَةِ
فَلْيَمْدُدْ لَهُ الرَّحْمَنُ مَدًّا ۖ
حَتَّىٰ إِذَا رَأَوْا مَا يُوعَدُونَ إِمَّا الْعَذَابَ
وَإِمَّا السَّاعَةَ ۖ
فَسَيَعْلَمُونَ مَنْ هُوَ

2518. Three interpretations are possible: (1) The general interpretation is that every soul must pass through or by or over the Fire. Those who have had Taqwā (see n. 26 to 2:2) will be saved by Allah's Mercy, while unrepentant sinners will suffer the torments in ignominy. (2) If we refer the pronoun "you" to those "in obstinate rebellion" in verse 69 above, both leaders and followers in sin, this verse only applies to the wicked. (3) Some refer this verse to the Bridge over Hell, the Bridge Ṣirāṭ, over which all must pass to their final Destiny. This Bridge is not mentioned in the Qur'ān. (R).

2520. Allah's warning is that every evil deed must have its punishment, and that there will be a Hereafter, the Day of Judgement, or the Hour, as it is frequently called. The punishment of evil often begins in this very life. For instance, over-indulgence and excesses of all kinds bring on their Nemesis quite soon in this very life. But some subtler forms of selfishness and sin will be punished—as every evil will be punished—in its own good time, as the Hour approaches. In either case, the arrogant boasting sinners will realise that their taunt—who is best in position and in forces? (19:73)—is turned against themselves.

Worst in position, and (who)
Weaker in forces!

شَرُّ مَكَانًا وَأَضْعَفُ جُنْدًا ۝

76. "And Allah doth advance
In guidance those who seek
Guidance: and the things
That endure. Good Deeds,²⁵²¹
Are best in the sight
Of thy Lord, as rewards,
And best in respect of
(Their) eventual returns."

۞ وَيَزِيدُ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ اهْتَدَوْا هُدًى
وَالْبَقِيَّةُ الصَّالِحَاتُ

وَخَيْرٌ مَرَدًا ۝

77. Hast thou then seen
The (sort of) man who
Rejects Our Signs, yet
Says: "I shall certainly
Be given wealth and children?"²⁵²²

۞ أَقْرَأَيْتَ الَّذِي كَفَرَ بِآيَاتِنَا
وَقَالَ لَأَوْتَيْنَ مَالًا وَلَدًا ۝

78. Has he penetrated to
The Unseen, or has he Taken a contract with (Allah) Most Gracious?

۞ أَظْلَمَ الْغَيْبِ أَمْ
اتَّخَذَ عِنْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ عَهْدًا ۝

79. Nay! We shall record
What he says, and We Shall add and add
To his punishment.²⁵²³

۞ كَلَّا سَنَكْتُبُ مَا يَقُولُ وَ
نُضْفِي لَهُ مِنَ الْعَذَابِ مَدًّا ۝

80. To Us shall return²⁵²⁴
All that he talks of,
And he shall appear
Before Us bare and alone.

۞ وَذُرِّيَّتُهُ مَا يَقُولُ
وَيَأْتِينَا فَرْدًا ۝

81. And they have taken
(For worship) gods other than

۞ وَاتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ آلِهَةً

2521. These lines are the same as in 18:46 (second clause), (where see n. 2387), except that the word maradda (eventual returns) is here substituted for amal (hope). The meaning is practically the same: but "hope" is more appropriate in the passage dealing with this world's goods, and "eventual returns" in the passage dealing with sinner's specific investments and commitments in worldly position and organised cliques.

2522. Besides the man who boasts of wealth and power in actual possession, there is a type of man who boasts of getting them in the future and builds his worldly hopes thereon. Is he sure? He denies Allah, and His goodness and Mercy. But all good is in the hands of Allah. Can such a man then bind Allah to bless him when he rejects faith in Allah? Or does he pretend that he has penetrated the mysteries of the future? For no man can tell what the future holds for him.

2523. Such a man deserves double punishment—for rejecting Allah, and for his blasphemies with His Holy Name.

2524. Literally, "We shall inherit", Cf. 19:40 and n. 2492. Even if the man had property and power, it must go back to the source of all things, and the man must appear before the Judgement Seat, alone and unaccompanied, stripped of all the things from which he expected so much!

Like thirsty cattle
Driven down to water — ²⁵²⁸

87. None shall have the power

۝۸۷ لَا يَنْبَلِغُونَ الشَّفَاعَةَ إِلَّا مَنِ
اتَّخَذَ عِنْدَ الرَّحْمَنِ عَهْدًا ۝

2525. 'Izza = exalted rank, power, might, the ability to impose one's will or to carry out one's will.

2526. Cf. 10:28-30, where the idols deny that they knew anything of their worship, and leave their worshippers in the lurch; and 5:119, where Jesus denies that he asked for worship, and leaves his false worshippers to the punishment or the mercy of Allah.

2528. Note the contrast between the saved and the doomed. The one march with dignity like honoured ones before a king, and the other rush in anguish to their punishment like a herd of cattle driven down by thirst to their watering place. Note the metaphor of the water. They rush madly for water but are plunged into the Fire!

88. They say: "(Allah) Most
Gracious
Has begotten a son!

٨٨- وَقَالُوا اتَّخَذَ الرَّحْمَنُ وَلَدًا ۚ

89. Indeed ye have put forth
A thing most monstrous!²⁵²⁹

٨٩- لَقَدْ جِئْتُمْ شَيْئًا إِدًّا ۚ

90. As if the skies are ready
To burst, the earth
To split asunder, and
The mountains to fall down
In utter ruin.

٩٠- يَكَادُ التَّمُوتُ يَتَفَطَّرْنَ مِنْهُ
وَتَنْشَقُّ الْأَرْضُ
وَتَخِرُّ الْجِبَالُ هَدًّا ۚ

91. That they should invoke
A son for (Allah) Most Gracious.

٩١- أَنْ دَعَوْا لِلرَّحْمَنِ وَلَدًا ۚ

92. For it is not consonant
With the majesty of (Allah)
Most Gracious that He Should beget a son.²⁵³⁰

٩٢- وَمَا يَنْبَغِي لِلرَّحْمَنِ
أَنْ يَتَّخِذَ وَلَدًا ۚ

93. Not one of the beings
In the heavens and the earth
But must come to (Allah)
Most Gracious as a servant.

٩٣- إِنْ كُلُّ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
إِلَّا آتِي الرَّحْمَنِ عَبْدًا ۚ

94. He does take an account
Of them (all), and hath Numbered them (all) exactly.²⁵³¹

٩٤- لَقَدْ أَحْصَاهُمْ وَعَدَّهُمْ عَدًّا ۚ

95. And every one of them
Will come to Him singly
On the day of Judgement.

٩٥- وَكُلُّهُمْ آتِيهِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ فَرْدًا ۚ

96. On those who believe
And work deeds of righteousness,

٩٦- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ

2529. The belief in Allah begetting a son is not a question of words or of speculative thought. It is a stupendous blasphemy against Allah. It lowers Allah to the level of an animal. If combined with the doctrine of vicarious atonement, it amounts to a negation of Allah's justice and man's personal responsibility. It is destructive of all moral and spiritual order, and is condemned in the strongest possible terms.

2530. This basic principle was laid down early in the argument (19:35). It was illustrated by a reference to the personal history of many messengers, including Jesus himself, who behaved justly as men to their kith and kin and humbly served Allah. The evil results of such superstitions were pointed out in the case of many previous generations which went to their ruin by dishonouring Allah. And the argument is now rounded off towards the close of the Sūrah.

2531. Allah has no sons or favourites or parasites, such as we associate with human beings. On the other hand every creature of His gets His love, and His cherishing care. Every one of them, however humble, is individually marked before His Throne of Justice and Mercy, and will stand before Him on his own deserts.

Will (Allah) Most Gracious
Bestow Love.²⁵³²

سَيَجْعَلُ لَهُمُ الرَّحْمَنُ وُدًّا ۝

97. So have We made
The (Qur'ān) easy
In thine own tongue,
That with it thou mayest give
Glad tidings to the righteous,
And warnings to people
Given to contention.

۹۷- فَأَتَيْنَا يَسْرُنَا بِلسَانِكَ
لِنُبَشِّرَ بِهِ الْمُتَّقِينَ وَنُنْذِرَ بِهِ قَوْمًا
لِّكَا ۝

98. But how many (countless)
Generations before them²⁵³³
Have We destroyed? Canst thou
Find a single one of them
(Now) or hear (so much
As) a whisper of them?

۹۸- وَكَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ مِنْ قَرْنٍ
هَلْ تُحِصُّ مِنْهُمْ مِنْ أَحَدٍ
أَوْ تَسْمَعُ لَهُمْ رِكْزًا ۝

2532. His own love, and the love for man's fellow creatures, in the world and in the Hereafter. Goodness breeds love and peace, and sin breeds hatred and contention.

2533. Cf. 19:74, from which this sentence is brought up as a reminiscence, showing the progress of sin, the Guidance which Allah gives to the good, the degradation of blasphemy, the respite granted, and the final End, when personal responsibility will be enforced.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 20—ṬĀ HĀ

The chronology of the Sūrah has some significance: it has some relation to the spiritual lessons which it teaches.

It was used with great effect in that remarkable scene which resulted in 'Umar's conversion, and which took place about the seventh year before the Hijrah.

The scene is described with dramatic details by Ibn Hishām. 'Umar had previously been one of the greatest enemies and persecutors of Islam. Like his blood-thirsty kinsmen the Quraysh, he meditated slaying the Prophet, when it was suggested to him that there were near relations of his that had embraced Islam. His sister Fāṭima and her husband Sa'īd were Muslims, but in those days of persecution they had kept their faith secret. When 'Umar went to their house, he heard them reciting this Sūrah from a written copy they had. For awhile they concealed the copy. 'Umar attacked his sister and her husband, but they bore the attack with exemplary patience, and declared their faith. 'Umar was so struck with their sincerity and fortitude that he asked to see the leaf from which they had been reading. It was given to him: his soul was touched, and he not only came into the Faith but became one of its strongest supporters and champions.

The leaf contained some portion of the Sūrah, perhaps the introductory portion. The mystic letters Ṭā Hā are prefixed to this Sūrah. What do they mean? The earliest tradition is that they denote a dialectical interjection meaning "O man!" If so, the title is particularly appropriate in two ways. (1) It was a direct and personal address to a man in a high state of excitement, tempted by his temper to do grievous wrong, but called by Allah's Grace, as by a personal appeal, to face the realities, for Allah knew his inmost secret thoughts (20:7): the revelation was sent by Allah, Most Gracious, out of His Grace and Mercy (20:5). (2) It takes up the story from the last Sūrah, of man as a spiritual being and illustrates it in further details. It tells the story of Moses in the crisis of his life when he received Allah's Commission and in his personal relation with his mother, and how he came to be brought up in the Pharaoh's house, to learn all the wisdom of the Egyptians, for use in Allah's service, and in his personal relations with Pharaoh, whom we take to be his adoptive father (28:9). It further tells the story of a fallen soul who misled the Israelites into idolatry, and recalls how man's Arch-enemy Satan caused his fall. Prayer and praise are necessary to man to cure his spiritual blindness and enable him to appreciate Allah's revelation. (R).

Summary—The revelation of Allah (the Qur'ān) is not an occasion of distress, but is a gift of mercy from Allah Most Gracious (20:1-8, and C. 142).

How Moses was first chosen, and led to his mission to Pharaoh with his brother Aaron (20:9-36, and C. 143).

How the mother of Moses was directed to cast the infant Moses into the river, to be brought up in Pharaoh's house under Allah's own supervision, in order to preach to Pharaoh and declare Allah's glory (20:37-76, and C. 144).

How Moses was directed to lead his people and quell their rebellious spirit, and how that spirit was stirred up by Sāmīrī (20:77-104, and C. 145).

On the Day of Judgement personal responsibility will be enforced, and Allah's Truth acknowledged: man should guard against Adam's enemy, Satan, and should renounce vanities, purify himself with prayer and praise, and await the call to Allah (20:105-135, and C. 146).

C. 142. —Allah's revelation is not an occasion
(20:1-8.) For man's distress: it is a Message
To show that Allah the All-Knowing sits
On the throne of Mercy and guides all affairs.
There is no god but He; to Him
Belong all the Most Beautiful Names.

وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا وَمَا تَحْتَ الثَّرَىٰ٠

٧- وَإِنْ تَجْهَر بِالْقَوْلِ فَآتَهُ يَعْلَمُ

2534. For an explanation see the Introduction to this Sūrah. If the meaning is "O man!", that is itself a mystic meaning, as explained, but the letters form a word and would not be classified strictly as Abbreviated Letters: see n. 25 to 2:1. This, however, is a question of classification and does not affect the meaning. This is conjectural, and no one can be dogmatic about it.

2535. Allah's revelation may cause some human trouble for two reasons: (1) it checks man's selfishness and narrowness of view, and (2) it annoys the wicked and causes them to jeer and persecute. These are mere incidental things, due to man's own shortcomings. As far as the trouble is concerned, the revelation is meant to give a warning, so that persecutors may be reclaimed, (and of course for men of faith it is comfort and consolation, though that point does not arise in this context).

2536. Cf. 10:3, n. 1386. If things seem to be wrong in our imperfect vision on this earth, we must remember that Allah, Who encompasses all Creation and sits on the throne of Grace and Mercy, is in command, and our Faith tells us that all must be right. Allah's authority is not like an authority on earth, which may be questioned, or which may not last. His authority is "firmly established".

2537. An exhaustive definition of everything we can conceive of—what is in the heavens, on the earth, or between, or within the bowels of the earth.

What is secret and what
Is yet more hidden.²⁵³⁸

C. 143. — The story of how Moses was chosen and told (20:9-36.) Of his mission, has a high mystic meaning.

He was true to his family and solicitous
For their welfare. Encamped in the desert,
He saw a fire far off. Approaching,
He found it was holy ground. Allah
Did reveal Himself to him, so
That he saw life in things lifeless,
And light in his glorified Hand, that shone
White with light divine. Armed
With these Signs he was told to go forth
On his mission. But he thought of his brother
Aaron, and prayed that Allah might join him
In his mission, and his prayer was granted.

9. Has the story of Moses²⁵⁴⁰

10. Behold, he saw a fire:²⁵⁴¹
So he said to his family,
"Tarry ye; I perceive
A fire; perhaps I can
Bring you some burning brand

۝-۱۰ اِذْ رَا نَارًا فَقَالَ لِاَهْلِهِ
امْكُثُوْا اِنِّىْ اَنْتَبِهُ نَارًا
لَعَلَّىْ اْتِيْكُمْ مِنْهَا بِخَبَرٍ

2538. There are two implications. (1) Whatever you profess, or say aloud, gives no information to Allah: He knows not only what is secret and perhaps unknown to others, but what people take special care to conceal. (2) It does you no good to make insincere professions: your hidden motives are known to Him, Who alone matters. (3) If you read the Word of Allah, or if you pray to Allah, it is not necessary to raise your voice: in either case, Allah will judge you by your inner thoughts which are like an open book to Him.

2539. Cf. 17:110 and n. 2322. Allah is all-in-all, and the most beautiful things we can think of are referable to Him. His names refer to His attributes which are like titles of Honour and Glory. (R).

2540. The story of Moses in its different incidents is told in many places in the Qur'ān, and in each case the phase most appropriate in the context is referred to or emphasised. In 2:49-61, it was a phase from the religious history of mankind; in 7:103-162, it was a phase from the story of the 'Ummah (or nation) of Israel, and the story was continued to the times after Moses; in 17:101-103, we have a picture of the decline of a soul in the arrogance of Pharaoh; here, in 20:9-24, we have a picture of the rise of a soul in the commission given to Moses from Allah; in 20:25-36, we have his spiritual relationship with his brother Aaron; in 20:37-40, we have his spiritual relation with his mother and sister, and his upbringing; in 20:41-76, we have his spiritual combat with Pharaoh; and in 20:77-98, we have his spiritual combat with his own people, the Israelites. For other incidents, consult the Index.

2541. A fire: It appeared like an ordinary fire, which always betokens the presence of men in a desert or a lonely place. Moses made for it alone, to fetch the wherewithal for making a fire for his family, and perhaps to find some direction as to the way, from the people he should meet there. But it was not an ordinary fire. It was a Burning Bush: a Sign of the Glory of Allah.

Therefrom, or find some guidance

11. But when he came
To the fire, a voice
Was heard: “O Moses!

12. “Verily I am thy Lord!

13. “I have chosen thee:
Listen, then to the inspiration

14. “Verily, I am Allah:

And establish regular prayer
For celebrating My praise.

۱۶- فَلَا يَصُدُّكَ عَنْهَا مَنْ لَا يُؤْمِنُ بِهَا

2542. The spiritual history of Moses begins here. It was his spiritual birth. His physical life, infancy, and upbringing are referred to later on, to illustrate another point. Moses, when he grew up, left the palace of Pharaoh and went to the Midianite people, in the Sinai peninsula. He married among them, and was now travelling with his family and his flocks, when he was called to his mission by Allah. He went to look for a fire for comfort and guidance. He found a higher and holier comfort and guidance. The whole passage is full of portent meaning, which is reflected in the short rhymed verses in the original. (R).

2543. The shoes are to be put off as a mark of respect. Moses was now to put away his mere worldly interests, and anything of mere worldly utility, he having been chosen by Allah, the Most High. (R).

2544. This was the valley just below Mount Sinai, where subsequently he was to receive the Law. In the parallel mystic meaning, we are selected by trials in this humble life, whose valley is just as sacred and receives Allah's glory just as much as the heights of the Mount (Ṭūr) if we but have the insights to perceive it.

2545. The first need is to mend our lives and worship and serve Allah, as in the last verse. The next is to realise the meaning of the Hereafter, when every soul will get the meed of its conduct in this life.

2546. Ukhhfī may mean either “keep it hidden”, or “make it manifest”, and the Commentators have taken, some one meaning and some the other. If the first is taken, it means that the exact hour or day when the Judgement comes is hidden from man; if the second, it means that the fact of the Judgement to come is made known, that man may remember and take warning. I think that both meanings are implied. (R).

- But follow their own
Lusts, divert thee therefrom,²⁵⁴⁷
Lest thou perish!"
17. "And what is that
In thy right hand,
O Moses?"
18. He said, "It is²⁵⁴⁸
My rod: on it
I lean; with it
I beat down fodder
For my flocks; and
In it I find
Other uses."
19. (Allah) said, "Throw it,
O Moses!"
20. He threw it, and behold!
It was a snake,
Active in motion.²⁵⁴⁹
21. (Allah) said, "Seize it
And fear not: We
Shall return it at once
To its former condition". . .
22. "Now draw thy hand²⁵⁵⁰
Close to thy side:
It shall come forth white
(And shining), without harm
(Or stain)—as another Sign—
- وَاتَّبَعْ هَوَاهُ فَنُرْذِي ۝
۱۷- وَمَا تِلْكَ بِيَمِينِكَ يُمُوسَى ۝
۱۸- قَالَ هِيَ عَصَايَ أَتَوَكَّؤُا عَلَيْهَا
وَأَهْشُرُ بِهَا عَلَى غَنَمِي
وَلِي فِيهَا مَأْرَبٌ أُخْرَى ۝
۱۹- قَالَ اَلْقَهَا يُمُوسَى ۝
۲۰- فَالْقَهَا فَإِذَا هِيَ حَيَّةٌ تَسْعَى ۝
۲۱- قَالَ خُذْهَا وَلَا تَخَفْ ۚ

۲۲- وَاضْمِرْ يَدَكَ إِلَى جَنَاحِكَ تَخْرُجُ
بَيْضَاءَ مِنْ غَيْرِ سُوءٍ آيَةً أُخْرَى ۝

2547. Moses had yet to meet the formidable opposition of the arrogant Pharaoh and his proud Egyptians, and later, the rebellion of his own people. In receiving his commission, he is warned of both dangers. This relates to man's own soul: when once the light reaches him let him hold fast to it, lest he perish. He will be beset with dangers of all kinds around him: the worst will be the danger of unbelieving people who seem to thrive on their selfishness and in following their own vain desires! (R).

2548. Now comes the miracle of the rod. First of all, the attention of Moses himself is drawn to it, and he thinks of the ordinary uses to which he puts it in his daily life. (R).

2549. Cf. 7:107, where a different word (thu'bān is used for "snake", and the qualifying adjective is "plain (for all to see)". The scene there is before Pharaoh and his magicians and people: the object is to show the hollowness of their magic by a miracle: the rod appears before them as a long and creeping, writhing serpent. Here there is a symbol to present Allah's Mystery to Moses's mind and understanding: the rod becomes a Hayy (a live snake), and its active motion is what is most to be impressed on the mind of Moses, for there were no other spectators. So the highest spiritual mysteries can be grasped, with Allah's gift of insight, from the most ordinary things of daily use. Once they are grasped, there is no question of fear. They really are the virtues of this life lifted up to the glorious spiritual plane.

2550. The second of the greater Miracles shown to Moses was the "White (shining) Hand". Ordinarily, when the skin becomes white, it is a sign of disease, leprosy or something loathsome. Here there was no question of disease: on the contrary, the hand was glorified, and it shone as with a divine light. Such a miracle was beyond Egyptian or human magic. (R).

23. "In order that We May show thee

24. "Go thou to Pharaoh,²⁵⁵¹

27. "And remove the impediment²⁵⁵³
From my speech.

٢٧- وَاخْلُصْ عُقْدَةً مِنْ لِسَانِي ۝

28. "So they may understand

29. "And give me a Minister

32. "And make him share

٣٢- وَاشْرِكْهُ فِيْ اَمْرِي ۝

33. "That we may celebrate²⁵⁵⁵
Thy praise without stint,

٣٣- كُنْ سُبْحَانَكَ كَثِيْرًا ۝

2551. Moses, having been spiritually prepared now gets his definite commission to go to Pharaoh and point out the error of his ways. So inordinate was Pharaoh's vanity that he had it in his mind to say: "I am your Lord Most High!" (79:24).

2552. The breast is reputed to be the seat of knowledge and affections. The gift of the highest spiritual insight is what he prays for first. Cf. 94:1. This was the most urgent in point of time. There are three other things he also asks for: viz., (1) Allah's help in his task, which at first appears difficult to him; (2) the gift of eloquence, and the removal of the impediment from his speech; and (3) the counsel and constant attendance with him of his brother Aaron, whom he loved and trusted, for he would otherwise be alone among the Egyptians.

2553. Literally, "Loosen a knot from my tongue".

2554. Literally, "Strengthen my back with him". A man's strength lies in his back and backbone so that he can stand erect and boldly face his tasks.

2555. The requests that Moses makes are inspired, not by earthly but by spiritual motives. The motive, expressed in the most general terms, is to glorify Allah, not in an occasional way, but systematically and continuously, "without stint." The clauses in this verse and the next, taken together, govern all the requests he makes, from verse 25 to verse 32.

34. "And remember Thee
Without stint:

٣٤- وَنَذْكُرَكَ كَثِيرًا ۝

35. "For Thou art He
That (ever) regardeth us."²⁵⁵⁶

٣٥- إِنَّكَ كُنْتَ بِنَا بَصِيرًا ۝

36. (Allah) said: "Granted
Is thy prayer, O Moses!"

٣٦- قَالَ قَدْ أُوتِيتَ سُؤْلَكَ يٰمُوسَى ۝

C. 144. — From his birth was Moses prepared for his task.
(20:37-76.) His mother received guidance, so that Allah's purpose might be fulfilled. Moses
Was brought up in Pharaoh's palace and trained
In all the learning of Egypt. Yet he drank
The Love of his people in his mother's milk.
Adventures and trials he had, including
His stay with the Midianites—until
He was called to his double mission: to preach
To Pharaoh and the Egyptians, and to free
His own people. So he and Aaron went
To Pharaoh, who rejected Allah and His Signs,
But appointed a trial of strength between
His magicians and Moses. Moses won;
And the Truth of Allah was accepted
By some Egyptians, but not by Pharaoh.

37. "And indeed We conferred
A favour on thee
Another time (before).

٣٧- وَلَقَدْ مَنَّا عَلَيْكَ مَرَّةً أُخْرَى ۝

38. "Behold! We sent²⁵⁵⁷
To thy mother, by inspiration,
The message:

٣٨- إِذْ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَىٰ أُمِّكَ مَا يُوحَىٰ ۝

39. "'Throw (the child)
Into the chest, and throw
(The chest) into the river:

٣٩- أَنْ أَقْذِفِيهِ فِي الْكَلْبُوتِ
فَأَقْذِفِيهِ فِي الْيَمِّ ۝

2556. The celebration of Allah's praise and remembrance is one form of showing gratitude on the part of Moses for the Grace which Allah had bestowed upon him.

2557. The story is not told, but only those salient points recapitulated which bear on the spiritual upbringing and work of Moses. Long after the age of Joseph, who had been a Wazīr to one of the Pharaohs, there came on the throne of Egypt a Pharaoh who hated the Israelites and wanted them annihilated. He ordered Israelite male children to be killed when they were born. Moses's mother hid him for a time, but when further concealment was impossible, a thought came into her mind that she should put her child into a chest and send the chest floating down the Nile. This was not merely a foolish fancy of hers. It was Allah's Plan to bring up Moses in all the learning of the Egyptians, in order that that learning itself should be used to expose what was wrong in it and to advance the glory of Allah. The chest was floated into the river Nile. It flowed on into a stream that passed through Pharaoh's Garden. It was picked up by Pharaoh's people and the child was adopted by Pharaoh's wife. See 28:4-13.

The river will cast him
Up on the bank, and he
Will be taken up by one
Who is an enemy to Me
And an enemy to him'.²⁵⁵⁸
But I cast (the garment
Of) love over thee from Me.²⁵⁵⁹
And (this) in order that
Thou mayest be reared
Under Mine eye."²⁵⁶⁰

فَلْيُلْقِهِ الْيَمُّ بِالسَّاحِلِ
يَأْخُذْهُ عَدُوٌّ لِّي وَعَدُوٌّ لَهُ
وَأَلْقَيْتُ عَلَيْكَ مَحَبَّةً مِنِّي

40. "Behold! thy sister goeth forth
And saith. 'Shall I show you
One who will nurse
And rear the (child)?'²⁵⁶¹
So We brought thee back
To thy mother, that her eye²⁵⁶²
Might be cooled and she
Should not grieve.
Then thou didst slay²⁵⁶³
A man, but We saved thee
From trouble, and We tried
Thee in various ways.
Then didst thou tarry

2558. Pharaoh was an enemy to Allah, because he was puffed up and he blasphemed, claiming to be God himself. He was an enemy to the child Moses, because he hated the Israelites and wanted to have their male children killed; also because Moses stood for Allah's revelation to come.

2559. Allah made the child comely and lovable, and he attracted the love of the people who, on general grounds, would have killed him.

2561. We may suppose that the anxious mother, after the child was floated on the water, sent the child's sister to follow the chest from the bank and see where and by whom it was picked up. When it was picked up by Pharaoh's own family and they seemed to love the child, she appeared like a stranger before them, and said, "Shall I search out a good wet nurse for the child, that she may rear the child you are going to adopt?" That was exactly what they wanted. She ran home and told her mother. The mother was delighted to come and fold the infant in her arms again and feed it at her own breast, and all openly and without any concealment.

2562. The mother's eyes had, we may imagine, been sore with scalding tears at the separation from her baby. Now they were cooled: a phrase meaning that her heart was comforted.

2563. Years passed. The child grew up. In outward learning he was of the house of Pharaoh. In his inner soul and sympathy he was of Israel. One day, he went to the Israelite colony and saw all the Egyptian oppression under which Israel laboured. He saw an Egyptian smiting an Israelite, apparently with impunity. Moses felt brotherly sympathy and smote the Egyptian. He did not intend to kill him, but in fact the Egyptian died of the blow. When this became known, his position in Pharaoh's household became impossible. So he fled out of Egypt, and was only saved by Allah's grace. He fled to the Sinai Peninsula, to the land of the Midianites, and had various adventures. He married one of the daughters of the Midianite chief, and lived with the Midianites for many years, as an Egyptian stranger. He had many trials and temptations, but he retained his integrity of character.

A number of years
With the people of Midian.²⁵⁶⁴
Then didst thou come hither
As ordained, O Moses!

45. They (Moses and Aaron) said:
"Our Lord! We fear lest
He hasten with insolence"²⁵⁶⁹

۞ قَالَا رَبَّنَا إِنَّا أَتَيْنَاكَ أَن يَغْرُطَ عَلَيْنَا

2565. We may suppose that Moses had fled alone to the land of Midian, and that he had now come alone (with his family but not with his brother) to Ṭuwā, as described in n. 2542 above. When he was honoured with his mission, and was granted his request that his brother Aaron should accompany him, we may suppose that he took steps to get Aaron to come to him, and their meeting was in Ṭuwā. Some time may be supposed to have elapsed before they were in Egypt, and then they prayed, and received these directions in their Egyptian home.

Aaron was either an elder or a younger brother—we are not told which. In either case he was born when the ban on Israelite new-born babes was not in operation. Moses had been out of touch with him, and it speaks greatly for his family affection that he remembered him and prayed for his comradeship in the most serious spiritual work of his life.

2566. Their mission was in the first instance to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians, and then to lead Israel out of Egypt.

2567. Compare the same phrase in 20:24. Having glanced at the early life of Moses we come back now to the time when Moses's actual ministry begins. The earlier personal story of Moses is rounded off.

2568. So far Pharaoh, in his inordinate vanity, had forgotten himself and forgotten how small a creature he was before Allah. This was to be brought to his recollection, so that he might perhaps repent and believe, or at least be deterred by fear from "transgressing all bounds". Some men eschew wrong from sincere love of Allah and understanding of their fellow-men, and some (of coarser minds) from the fear of consequences. Even the latter conduct may be a step to the former.

2569. They were now in Egypt (see n. 2565 above) and therefore in the power of the Pharaoh. The local atmosphere called for the greatest courage and firmness on their part to carry out the dangerous mission which had been entrusted to them.

Against us, or lest he Transgress all bounds."

46. He said: "Fear not:
For I am with you:
I hear and see (everything).

47. "So go ye both to him,
And say, 'Verily we are
Messengers sent by thy Lord:
Send forth, therefore, the Children
Of Israel with us, and
Afflict them not:²⁵⁷⁰
With a Sign, indeed,
Have we come from thy Lord!
And Peace to all
Who follow guidance!²⁵⁷¹

48. "'Verily it has been revealed
To us that the Penalty
(Awaits) those who reject
And turn away.'"

49. (When this message was delivered),
(Pharaoh) said: "Who then,
O Moses, is the Lord²⁵⁷²
Of you two?"

50. He said: "Our Lord is
He Who gave to each
(Created) thing its form
And nature, and further,
Gave (it) guidance."²⁵⁷³

2570. The Children of Israel were subjected to all sorts of oppression and indignities. They were given hard tasks; their leaders were unjustly beaten; they were forced to make bricks without straw; and they "groaned in bondage" (Exod. v. 6-19, vi. 5).

2571. Allah, in His infinite Mercy, always offers Peace to the most hardened sinners, even those who are warring against Him. But, as stated in the next verse, their defiance cannot go on with impunity indefinitely. The punishment must inevitably come for sin, whether the sinner is great or small.

2572. Notice how subtly Pharaoh rejects the implication in Moses's speech, in which Moses had referred to "thy Lord" (verse 47). Pharaoh implicitly repudiates the suggestion that the Allah who had sent Moses and Aaron could possibly be Pharaoh's Lord. He asks insolently, "Who is this Lord of yours, of Whom ye speak as having sent you?"

2573. The answer of Moses is straightforward, dignified, and illuminating. He will not dispute about "my Lord" or "your Lord", the God of Israel, or the God of Egypt. He and his brother were proud to serve "our Lord," but He was the universal Lord and Cherisher, the One and Only God, Who had created all beings and all things. It was from Him that each created thing derived its form and nature, including such free will and power as man had got. He, Pharaoh, was subject to the same condition. In order that the free will should be rightly exercised, Allah had given guidance through His Messengers, and His Signs. Moses and Aaron stood as such Messengers, with such Signs. Will Pharaoh now understand and do right?

51. (Pharaoh) said: "What then

2574. But Pharaoh was not the man to accept teaching from the despised Israelite—one, too, who in his eyes was a renegade from the higher Egyptian civilisation. "If", he says in effect, "there is only one God, to Whom all things are referred, this is a new religion. What of the religion of our ancestors? Were they wrong in worshipping the Egyptian gods? And if they were wrong, are they in misery now? He wanted to trap Moses into scathing denunciations of his ancestors, which would at once have deprived him of the sympathy or the hearing of the Egyptian crowd.

2575. Moses did not fall into the trap. He remembered the injunction given to him to speak mildly (20:44). He speaks mildly, but does not in any way whittle down the truth. He said in effect: 'Allah's knowledge is perfect, as if, with men, it were a record. For men may make mistakes or may not remember, but Allah never makes mistakes and never forgets. But Allah is not only All-Knowing: He is also All-Good. Look around you: the whole earth is spread out like a carpet. Men go to and fro in it freely. He sends abundance of water from the skies, which comes down in Nile floods and fertilises the whole soil of Egypt, and feeds men and animals.'

2576. Sabīl means not only a road, but would include water-roads or channels, and in modern conditions, airways—in fact all means of communication.

2577. This seems to be outside the speech of Moses, and connects itself with the following verses 54-56, as part of the Word of Allah, expanding the speech of Moses and explaining the working of Allah's Providence in nature.

2578. Azuwāj: we might translate here (as in 15:88) by "classes" instead of "pairs"; but as sex in plants seems to be referred to elsewhere (see 13:3. and n. 1804), I translate "pairs".

٥٩- قَالَ مَوْعِدُكُمْ يَوْمَ الزَّيْنَةِ
وَإِنَّ يُخْشَرُ النَّاسُ تَطْهِى ○

2579. This verse ought really to go into the last Section.

2580. This is a sort of general introduction to the confrontation between Moses and Pharaoh. The Signs are not only the countering of the fraudulent magic of Egypt with real miracles, but the subsequent Plagues (not mentioned here) and the Crossing of the Red Sea by Israel. (R).

2581. The Egyptians accused Moses of a design to deprive them of their land, and of exercising black magic. Both charges were palpably false. What Moses wanted to do was to free his people from bondage. The Egyptians had all the power in their possession; they wished to use the Israelites as untouchable helots; and anyone who wanted to mitigate this injustice was branded as a dreadful person who wished to deprive them of their lawful rights. As to magic, the Egyptians judged Moses by themselves. They practised sorcery to deceive the people. They accused the Prophet of Allah of doing the same, though both his outlook and the source of his strength were altogether different.

2582. Suwan: literally, 'equal, even.' It has been construed to mean: (1) a place equally distant for both sides, a central place, or (2) equally convenient to both sides, or (3) an open level plain, where the people can collect with ease. All these are possible meanings, but the one I have adopted is more comprehensive, and includes the others, viz.: (4) a place where both sides shall have even chances, "a fair place", as Palmer laconically translates it.

2583. A great day of a Temple Festival, when the temples and streets were decorated, and people were on holiday, free from work. Moses makes this appointment in order to collect as large a number as possible, for his first duty is to preach the Truth. And he apparently did it with some effect with some Egyptians (20:70, 72-76), though the Pharaoh and his high and mighty officers rejected the Truth and afterwards paid the Penalty.

60. So Pharaoh withdrew:
He concerted his plan,²⁵⁸⁴
And then came (back).
61. Moses said to them:
"Woe to you! Forge not
Ye a lie against Allah,
Lest He destroy you (at once)
Utterly by chastisement:
The forger must suffer²⁵⁸⁵
Frustration!"
62. So they disputed, one with
Another, over their affair,
But they kept their talk secret.²⁵⁸⁶
63. They said: "These two
Are certainly (expert) magicians:
Their object is to drive you
Out from your land
With their magic, and
To do away with your
Most cherished institutions."²⁵⁸⁷
64. "Therefore concert your plan.
And then assemble
In (serried) ranks:
He wins (all along) today
Who gains the upper hand."²⁵⁸⁸
65. They said: "O Moses!
Whether wilt thou

٦٥- قَالُوا يَسُوْفَىٰ أِمَّا

2584. Pharaoh was apparently taken aback at Moses appointing a solemn day of public Festival, when there would be a large concourse and there would sure to be some people not in the Court clique, who might be critical of Pharaoh's own sorcerers. But probably there was something more in their dark counsels, something unfair and wicked, to which Moses refers in his speech in the next verse.

2585. Moses had some idea of their trickery and deceit. They would palm off their fraudulent magic as coming from Allah or from their gods! He warns them that their tricks will stand exposed, and their hopes will be defeated.

2586. They knew that they had here to deal with no ordinary man, but a man with powers above what they could conceive of. But evil always thinks evil. Judging Moses and Aaron by their own standards, they thought that these two were also tricksters, with some tricks superior to their own. All they had to do was to stand together, and they must win. I construe 20:63-64 to be their private talk among themselves, followed by their open challenge to Moses in 20:65.

2587. Cf. 20:104. 'Your most cherished institutions,' i.e., 'your ancestral and time-honoured religion and magic'. Muthlā, feminine of Amthāl, most distinguished, honoured, cherished. Ṭarīqah = way of life, institutions, conduct.

2588. Presumably Pharaoh was in this secret conference, and he promises the most lavish rewards to the magicians if they overcome Moses. See 7:114. That—but I think more than that—is implied. That day was to be the crisis: if they won then, they would win all along, and Moses and his people would be crushed.

That thou throw (first)

To throw?"

67. So Moses conceived
In his mind
A (sort of) fear. ²⁵⁹⁰

٦٧- فَأَوْجَسَ فِي نَفْسِهِ خِيفَةً مُوسَى ۝

68. We said, "Fear not!
For thou hast indeed
The upper hand:

٦٨- قُلْنَا لَا تَخَفْ إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْأَعْلَى ۝

69. "Throw that which is
In thy right hand:
Quickly will it swallow up
That which they have faked:
What they have faked
Is but a magician's trick:
And the magician thrives not,
(No matter) where he goes." ²⁵⁹¹

٦٩- وَالَّتِي مَا فِي يَمِينِكَ
تَلْقَفْ مَا صَنَعُوا إِنَّمَا صَنَعُوا كَيْدٌ سَیِّئٌ
وَلَا يُفْلِحُ السَّاحِرُ حَيْثُ أَتَى ۝

70. So the magicians were Thrown down to prostration:
They said, "We believe
In the Lord of Aaron and Moses". ²⁵⁹²

٧٠- فَأُلْقِيَ السَّحَرَةُ سُجَّدًا
قَالُوا آمَنَّا بِرَبِّ هَارُونَ وَمُوسَى ۝

71. (Pharaoh) said: "Believe ye
In Him before I give

This must be your leader,

٧١- قَالَ أَمُنْتُمْ لَهُ قَبْلَ أَنْ أَدْنِ لَكُمْ
إِلَّاهَ لِكَبِيرُكُمْ ۝

2589. Their bag of tricks was so clever that it imposed upon all beholders. Their ropes and their rods were thrown, and seemed to move about like snakes. So realistic was the effect that even Moses felt the least bit of doubt in his own mind. He of course had no tricks, and he relied entirely on Allah.

2590. The concerted attack of evil is sometimes so well-contrived from all points that falsehood appears and is acclaimed as the truth. The believer of truth is isolated, and a sort of moral dizziness creeps over his mind. But by Allah's grace Faith asserts itself, gives him confidence, and points out the specific truths which will dissipate and destroy the teeming brood of falsehood.

2591. The meaning may be either (1) that falsehood and trickery may have their day, but they cannot win everywhere, especially in the presence of Truth, or (2) that trickery and magic must come to an evil end.

2592. Cf. this passage with 7:120-126 and the notes thereon.

Who has taught you magic!²⁵⁹³
 Be sure I will cut off
 Your hands and feet
 On opposite sides, and I
 Will have you crucified
 On trunks of palm trees:
 So shall ye know for certain
 Which of us can give

2593. Pharaoh accuses his sorcerers who have been converted, of having been in league with Moses all the time, and in fact of having been led and taught by him! So arrogance and evil cannot conceive of Allah's worlds and worlds of beauty and truth beyond its own narrow vision! It is truly blind, and its very cleverness deludes it to wander far from the truth.

2594. Clear Signs: the miracles, the personality of the Messengers of Allah, the logic of events as they unfolded themselves, and the light of inner conviction in their own conscience. There are, in addition, the Signs and Proofs of Allah in nature, which are referred to in many places, e.g., 20:53-54.

2595. Thus was the first part of the mission of Moses—that to the Egyptians—fulfilled. See n. 1083 to 7:126; also Appendix V.

2596. The magic, mummery, and deceptions which pertained to Egyptian Pagan religion became a creed, a State article of faith, to which all citizens were compelled to bow, and to which its priests were compelled actively to practise. And Pharaoh was at the head of the whole system—the high priest or the supreme god. With justice, therefore, do the converted magicians lay the blame on Pharaoh, effectively negating Pharaoh's disingenuous charge that they had been in league with Moses.

These falsehoods and deceptions—combined in many cases with horrid cruelties, open and secret—were common to many Pagan systems. Some of them have been investigated in detail in Sir John G. Frazer's Golden Bough.

2597. The verses 20:74-76 are best construed as comments on the story of the converted Egyptians who had "purified themselves (from evil)". But some construe them as a continuation of their speech.

C. 145. — The people of Israel were rescued from bondage
(20:77-104.) And led on their way to the Promised Land.
Allah's Grace gave them light and guidance, but they Rebelled under the leadership of one
Called the Sāmiri: he melted the gold
Of their jewels and made an idol—a calf
For their worship—a thing without life or power.
Moses destroyed the idol, and cursed
The man who led the people astray.

2598. As the Egyptian magicians had done when they confessed the One True God.

2599. Time passes and at last Moses is commanded to leave Egypt with his people by night. They were to cross the Red Sea into the Sinai Peninsula. They were told to have no fear of Pharaoh or of the sea or of the unknown desert country of Sinai into which they were going. They crossed dry-shod, while Pharaoh, who came in pursuit with his troops, was overwhelmed by the sea. He and his men all perished. There is no emphasis on this episode here. But the emphasis is laid on the hard task which Moses had with his own people after he had delivered them from the Egyptian bondage.

2600. It is the duty of kings and leaders to give the right lead to their people. Instead of that, the evil ones among them lead them astray, and are the cause of the whole of a people perishing.

2601. Right side: Cf. 19:52, and n. 2504, towards the end. The Arabian side of Sinai (Jabal Mūsā) was the place where Moses first received his commission before going to Egypt, and also where he received the Law after the Exodus from Egypt.

2602. Cf. 2:57 and n. 71; and 7:160. I should like to construe this not only literally but also metaphorically. 'Allah has looked after you and saved you. He has given you ethical and spiritual guidance. Enjoy the fruits of all this, but do not become puffed up and rebellious (another meaning in the root ṭaghā): otherwise the Wrath of Allah is sure to descend on you.'

2603. This gives the keynote to Moses's constant tussle with his own people, and introduces immediately afterwards the incident of the golden calf.

2604. This was when Moses was up on the Mount for forty days and forty nights: 2:51 and n. 66. Moses had left the elders of Israel with Aaron behind him: Exod. xxiv. 14. While he was in a state of ecstatic honour on the Mount, his people were enacting strange scenes down below. They were tested and tried, and they failed in the trial. They made a golden image of a calf for worship, as described below. See also 7:148-150 and notes.

84. He replied: "Behold, they are
Close on my footsteps:
I hastened to Thee,
O my Lord,

85. (Allah) said: "We have tested
Thy people in thy absence:

2605. Who was this Sāmīrī? If it was his personal name, it was sufficiently near the meaning of the original root word to have the definite article attached to it: Cf. the name of the khalīfah Mu'tasim (Al-Mu'tasim). What was the root for "Sāmīrī"? If we look to old Egyptian, we have Shemer = A stranger, foreigner (Sir E. A. Wallis Budge's Egyptian Hieroglyphic Dictionary. 1920, p. 815 b). As the Israelites had just left Egypt, they might quite well have among them an Egyptianised Hebrew bearing that nickname. That the name Shemer was subsequently not unknown among the Hebrews is clear from the Old Testament. In I Kings, xvi. 24 we read that Omri, king of Israel, the northern portion of the divided kingdom, who reigned about 903-896 B.C., built a new city, Samaria, on a hill which he bought from Shemer, the owner of the hill, for two talents of silver. See also Renan: History of Israel, ii. 210. For a further discussion of the word, see n. 2608 below.

2606. There are two promises referred to in this verse, the promise of Allah and the promise of the people of Israel. They form one Covenant, which was entered into through their leader Moses. See 20:80, and 2:63, n. 78. Allah's promise was to protect them and lead them to the Promised Land, and their promise was to obey Allah's Law and His commandments.

2607. Cf. Exod. xii. 35-36: the Israelites, before they left Egypt, borrowed from the Egyptians "jewels of silver and jewels of gold, and raiment"; and "they spoiled the Egyptians" i.e., stripped them of all their valuable jewelry. Note that the answer of the backsliders is disingenuous in various ways. (1) The Sāmīrī was no doubt responsible for suggesting the making of the golden calf, but they could not on that account disclaim responsibility for themselves; the burden of the sin is on him who commits it, and he cannot pretend that he was powerless to avoid it. (2) At most the weight of the gold they carried could not have been heavy even if one or two men carried it, but would have been negligible if distributed. (3) Gold is valuable, and it is not likely that if they wanted to disburden themselves of it, they had any need to light a furnace, melt it, and cast it into the shape of a calf.

2608. See n. 2605 about the Sāmīrī. If the Egyptian origin of the root is not accepted, we have a Hebrew origin in "Shomer" a guard, watchman, sentinel; allied to the Arabic Samara, yasmuru, to keep awake by night, to converse by night: samir, one who keeps awake by night. The Sāmīrī may have been a watchman, in fact or by nickname.

2609. See n. 1113 to 7:148, where the same words are used and explained.

2610. See n. 1114 to 7:148.

2611. Moses has forgotten: i.e., 'forgotten both us and his god. He has been gone for so many days. He is searching for a god on the Mount when his god is really here!' This is spoken by the Sāmīrī and his partisans, but the people as a whole accepted it, and it therefore becomes their speech.

2612. This is a parenthetical comment. How blind the people were! They had seen Signs of the true living God, and yet they were willing to worship a dead image! The true living God had spoken in definite words of command, while this calf could only emit some sounds of lowing, which were themselves contrived by the fraud of the priests. This image could do neither good nor harm, while Allah was the Cherisher and Sustainer of the Universe, Whose Mercy was unbounded and Whose Wrath was terrible.

2613. "Resist this temptation: you are being tested in this. Do not follow after the semi-Egyptian Sāmīrī, but obey me."

2614. The Bible story makes Aaron the culprit, which is inconsistent with his office as the high priest of Allah and the right hand of Moses. See n. 1116 to 7:150. Our version is more consistent, and explains, through the example of the Sāmīrī, the lingering influences of the Egyptian cult of Osiris the bull-god.

2615. Obviously Aaron's speech in the last verse, and the rebels' defiance in this verse, were spoken before the return of Moses from the Mount.

And threw it (into the calf):

فَنَبَذْتُهَا

2616. The rebels had so little faith that they had given Moses up for lost, and never expected to see him again.

2617. Moses, when he came back, was full of anger and grief. His speech to Aaron is one of rebuke, and he was also inclined to handle him roughly: see next verse. The order he refers to is that stated in 7:142. “Act for me amongst my people: do right, and follow not the way of those who do mischief.”

2619. This reply of Aaron's is in no way inconsistent with the reply as noted in 7:150. On the contrary, there is a dramatic aptness in the different points emphasised on each occasion. In S. 7 we were discussing the Ummah of Israel, and Aaron rightly says: “The people did indeed reckon me as naught, and went near to slay me!” In adding, “Let not the enemies rejoice over my misfortune” he is referring by implication to his brother's wish to maintain unity among the people. Here the unity is the chief point to emphasise: we are dealing with the Sāmīrī as mischief-monger, and he could best be dealt with by Moses, who proceeds to do so.

2620. Moses now turns to the Sāmīrī, and the Sāmīrī's reply in the next verse sums up his character in a few wonderful strokes of character-painting. The lesson of the whole of this episode is the fall of a human soul that nominally comes to Allah's Truth in a humble position but makes mischief when and as it finds occasion. It is no less dangerous and culpable than the arrogant soul, typified by Pharaoh, which gets into high places and makes its leadership the cause of ruin of a whole nation.

Thus did my soul suggest

97. (Moses) said: "Get thee gone!

قَدْ سَبَقَ ۚ وَقَدْ آتَيْنَاكَ

2621. This answer of the Sāmīrī is a fine example of unblushing effrontery, careful evasion of issues, and invented falsehoods. He takes upon himself to pretend that he had far more insight than anybody else: he saw what the vulgar crowd did not see. He saw something supernatural. "The Messenger" is construed by many Commentators to mean the angel Gabriel. Rasūl (plural, rusul) is used in several places for "angels" e.g., in 11:69, 77; 19:19; and 35:1. But if we take it to mean the Messenger Moses, it means that the Sāmīrī saw something sacred or supernatural in his footprints: perhaps he thinks a little flattery would make Moses forgive him. The dust became sacred, and his throwing it into the calf's image made the calf utter a lowing sound! As if that was the point at issue! He does not answer the charge of making an image for worship. But finally, with arrogant effrontery, he says, "Well, that is what my soul suggested to me, and that should be enough!"

2622. He and his kind were to become social lepers, untouchables; perhaps also sufficiently arrogant to hold others at arm's length, and say "Noli me tangere" (touch me not).

2623. Namely, the promised Wrath of Allah: see 20:81; 89:25.

2624. The cast effigy was re-melted and destroyed. Thus ends the Sāmīrī's story, of which the lessons are indicated n. 2620 above. It may be interesting to pursue the transformations of the word Sāmīrī in later times. For its origin see notes 2605 and 2608 above. Whether the root of Sāmīrī was originally Egyptian or Hebrew does not affect the later history. Four facts may be noted. (1) There was a man bearing a name of that kind at the time of Moses, and he led a revolt against Moses and was cursed by Moses. (2) In the time of King Omri (903-896 B.C.) of the northern kingdom of Israel, there was a man called Shemer, from whom, according to the Bible, was bought a hill on which was built the new capital of the kingdom, the town of Samaria. (3) The name of the hill was Shomer (= watchman, vigilant guardian), and that form of the name also appears as the name of a man (see II Kings xxii.21); some authorities think the town was called after the hill and not after the man (Hastings's Encyclopedia of Religions and Ethics), but this is, for our present purposes, immaterial. (4) There was and is a dissenting community of Israelites called Samaritans, who have their own separate Pentateuch and Targum, who claim to be the true Children of Israel, and who hold the Orthodox Jews in contempt as the latter hold them in contempt: they claim to be the true guardians (Shomerim) of the Law, and that is probably the true origin of the name Samaritan, which may go further back in time than the foundation of the town of Samaria. I think it is probable that the schism originated from the time of Moses, and that the curse of Moses on the Sāmīrī explains the position.

His fall, and will he yet be blind

2625. Thus superceding previous revelations; for this (the Qur'ān) is direct from Allah, and is not a second-hand exposition on other men's authority.

2626. Cf. 6:31. If people are so immersed in the evanescent falsehoods of this life to turn away from the True and the Eternal, they will have a rude awakening when the Judgement comes. These very things that they thought so enjoyable here—taking advantage of others, material self-indulgence, nursing grievances instead of doing good, etc., etc.—will be a grievous burden to them that day, which they will not be able to escape or lighten.

2627. Zurqa = having eyes different from normal colour, which in the East is black and white: having blue eyes, or eyes afflicted with dimness or blindness, or squint; hence metaphorically, blear-eyed (with terror).

2628. Faced with eternity, they will realise that their life on this earth, or the interval between their sin and their punishment, had a duration which practically amounted to nothing. They express this by the phrase "ten days", but their wiser heads think that even this is an over-estimate. It was but a brief day!

2629. Cf. 20:63 and n. 2587. Note that it is the shrewdest and most versed in Life who will say this, because they will be the first to see the true situation.

To the Signs of Allah? Nay—but let
Not Evil make you impatient: the Prize
Of the Hereafter is better than aught
Of the glitter of this life: wait in Faith,
And the End will show the triumph
Of Truth, Goodness, and Righteousness.

SECTION 6.

105. They ask thee concerning²⁶³⁰
The Mountains: say, "My Lord
Will uproot them and scatter
Them as dust:"²⁶³¹

١٠٥- وَيَسْأَلُونَكَ عَنِ الْجِبَالِ فَقُلْ
يَنْسِفُهَا رَبِّي نَسْفًا ۝

106. "He will leave them as plains
Smooth and level;"

١٠٦- فَيَذَرُهَا قَاعًا صَفْصَفًا ۝

107. "Nothing crooked or curved
Wilt thou see in their place."

١٠٤- لَا تَرَىٰ فِيهَا عِوَجًا وَلَا أَمْتًا ۚ

108. On that Day will they follow
The Caller²⁶³² (straight): no
crookedness
(Can they show) him: all sounds²⁶³³
Shall humble themselves in
The Presence of (Allah) Most
Gracious:
Nothing shalt thou hear
But the tramp of their feet
(As they march).

١٠٨- يَوْمَئِذٍ يَتَّبِعُونَ الدَّاعِيَ لَا عِوَجَ لَهُ
وَخَشَعَتِ الْأَصْوَاتُ
لِلرَّحْمَنِ
فَلَا تَسْمَعُ
إِلَّا هَسًا ۝

109. On that Day shall no
Intercession avail

١٠٩- يَوْمَئِذٍ لَا تَنْفَعُ الشَّفَاعَةُ

2630. In the last verse, it was the deceptiveness and relativity of Time that was dealt with. Here we come to the question of space, solidity, bulk. The question was actually put to the Holy Prophet: what will become of the solid Mountains, or in the English phrase, "the eternal hills"? They are no more substantial than anything else in this temporal world. When the "new world", (13:5) of which Unbelievers doubted, is actually in being, the mountains will cease to exist. We can imagine the scene of judgement as a level plain, in which there are no ups and downs and no places of concealment. All is straight and level, without corners, mysteries, or lurking doubts.

2631. The one word nasafa carries the ideas of (1) tearing up by the roots, (2) scattering like chaff or dust, and (3) winnowing. Its twofold repetition here intensifies the meaning.

2632. The Caller: the angel whose voice will call and direct all souls. (R).

2633. A beautiful personification of hushed Sound. First there is the loud blast of the Trumpet. Then there is the stillness and hush of awe and reverence: only the tramp of the ranks marching along will be heard. (R).

- Except for those for whom²⁶³⁴
Permission has been granted
By (Allah) Most Gracious
And whose word is Acceptable to Him.
110. He knows what (appears
To His creatures as) before
Or after or behind them:²⁶³⁵
But they shall not compass it
With their knowledge.
111. (All) faces shall be humbled
Before (Him)— the Living,
The Self-Subsisting, Eternal:
Hopeless indeed will be
The man that carries
Iniquity (on his back).²⁶³⁶
112. But he who works deeds
Of righteousness, and has faith,
Will have no fear of harm
Nor of any curtailment²⁶³⁷
(Of what is his due).
113. Thus have We sent this
Down—an Arabic Qur'ān—
And explained therein in detail
Some of the warnings,
In order that they may
- إِلَّا مَنْ أَدْنٰ لَهُ الرَّحْمٰنُ
وَرَضِيَ لَهُ قَوْلًا ۝
- ۱۱۰- يَعْۡلَمُ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ
وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ
وَلَا يُحِيطُوۡنَ بِهِ عِلْمًا ۝
- ۱۱۱- وَعَنَتِ الْوُجُوۡهُ
لِلْحَيِّ الْقَيُّوۡمِ
وَقَدْ خَابَ مَنۡ حَمَلَ ظُلْمًا ۝
- ۱۱۲- وَمَنۡ يَّعْمَلۡ مِّنَ الصَّٰلِحٰتِ وَهُوَ
مُؤْمِنٌ
فَلَا يَخۡفُ ظُلْمًا وَلَا هَضۡمًا ۝
- ۱۱۳- وَكَذٰلِكَ اَنۡزَلْنٰهُ قُرۡاٰنًا عَرَبِيًّا
وَوَضَّعْنٰ فِيۡهِ مِّنَ الْوَعِيۡدِ
لَعَلَّهُمۡ

2634. Cf. 2:255 in the Verse of the Throne. Here man is in the accusative case governed by tanfa'u, and it is better to construe as I have done. That is, intercession will benefit no one except those for whom Allah has granted permission, and whose word (of repentance) is true and sincere, and therefore acceptable to Allah. Others construe: no intercession will avail, except by those to whom Allah has granted permission, and whose word (of intercession) is acceptable to Allah. In that case the two different clauses have no distinct meanings.

2635. Cf. 2:255 and n. 297. The slight difference in phraseology (which I have tried to preserve in the Translation) will be understood as beauty when we reflect that here our attention is directed to the Day of Judgement, and in 2:255 the wording is general, and applies to our present state also.

2636. The metaphor of the burden of sin which the unjust carry on their backs is referred to in 20:100-101 (see n. 2626), in 6:31, and in other passages. Note that all faces, those of the just as well as of the unjust, will be humbled before Allah: the best of us can claim no merit equal to Allah's Grace. But the just will have Hope: while the unjust, now that the curtain of Reality has risen, will be in absolute Despair!

2637. See the last note. Unlike the unjust, the righteous, who have come with Faith, will now find their Faith justified: not only will they be free from any fear of harm, but they will be rewarded to the full, or, as has been said in other passages, where His bounty rather than His justice is emphasised, they will get more than their due reward (3:27; 39:10).

Fear Allah, or that it may Cause their remembrance
(of Him).²⁶³⁸

114. High above all is Allah,
The King, the Truth!
Be not in haste
With the Qur'ān before
Its revelation to thee²⁶³⁹
Is completed, but say,
"O my Lord! advance me
In knowledge

115. We had already, beforehand,²⁶⁴⁰
Taken the covenant of Adam,
But he forgot: and We found
On his part no firm resolve.

SECTION 7.

116. When We said to the angels,
"Prostrate yourselves to Adam",
They prostrated themselves, but not
Iblīs: he refused.

117. Then We said: "O Adam!
Verily, this is an enemy
To thee and thy wife:
So let him not get you
Both out of the Garden,
So that thou are landed
In misery."²⁶⁴¹

يَتَّقُونَ أَوْ يُحْدِثْ لَهُمْ ذِكْرًا ۝

رَبِّ زِدْنِي عِلْمًا ۝

١١٥- وَلَقَدْ عَهِدْنَا إِلَىٰ آدَمَ مِنْ قَبْلِ

١١٦- وَإِذْ قُلْنَا لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ اسْجُدُوا لِآدَمَ

١١٧- فَقُلْنَا يَا آدَمُ إِنَّ هَذَا عَدُوٌّ
لَكَ وَلِزَوْجِكَ فَلَا يُخْرِجَنَّكَمَا
مِنَ الْجَنَّةِ فَتَشْقَى ۝

2638. The Qur'ān is in clear Arabic, so that even an unlearned people like the Arabs might understand and profit by its warnings, and the rest of the world may learn through them, as they did in the first few centuries of Islam and may do again when we Muslims show ourselves worthy to explain and exemplify its meaning. The evil are warned that they may repent: the good are confirmed in their Faith and strengthened by their remembrance of Him.

2639. Allah is above every human event or desire. His purpose is universal. But He is the Truth, the absolute Truth: and His kingdom is the true kingdom, that can carry out its will. That Truth unfolds itself gradually, as it did in the gradual revelation of the Qur'ān to the Holy Prophet. But even after it was completed in a volume, its true meaning and purpose only gradually unfold themselves to any given individual or nation. No one should be impatient about it. On the contrary, we should always pray for increase in our own knowledge, which can never at any given moment be complete.

2640. The spiritual fall of two individual souls, Pharaoh and the Sāmirī, having been referred to, the one through overweening arrogance, and the other through a spirit of mischief and false harking back to the past, our attention is now called to the prototype of Evil who tempted Adam, the original Man, and to the fact that though man was clearly warned that Evil is his enemy and will effect his ruin, he showed so little firmness that he succumbed to it at once at the first opportunity.

2641. See last note. The story is referred to, in order to draw attention to man's folly in rushing into the arms of Evil, though he had been clearly forewarned.

118. "There is therein (enough provision)
For thee not to go hungry²⁶⁴²
Nor to go naked,"

١١٨- إِنَّ لَكَ أَلًا
تَجُوعٌ فِيهَا وَلَا تَعْرِى ۝

119. "Nor to suffer from thirst,
Nor from the sun's heat."

١١٩- وَأَنْتَ لَا تَطْمَئِنُّ فِيهَا وَلَا تَضْحَى ۝

120. But Satan whispered evil
To him: he said, "O Adam!
Shall I lead thee to
The Tree of Eternity²⁶⁴³
And to a kingdom
That never decays?"

١٢٠- فَوَسْوَسَ إِلَيْهِ الشَّيْطَانُ قَالَ يَادَا
هَلْ أَدُلُّكَ عَلَى شَجَرَةٍ مُخْلَدٍ
وَمُلْكٍ لَا يَبْئَلُ ۝

121. In the result, they both
Ate of the tree, and so
Their nakedness appeared²⁶⁴⁴
To them: they began to sew
Together, for their covering,
Leaves from the Garden:
Thus did Adam disobey
His Lord, and allow himself²⁶⁴⁵
To be seduced.

١٢١- فَأَكَلَا مِنْهَا فَبَدَتْ لَهُمَا سَوْآتُهُمَا
وَطَفَقَا يَخْصِفْنَ عَلَيْهِمَا مِنْ ذُرُقِ
الْجَنَّةِ
وَعَصَى آدَمُ رَبَّهُ فَغَوَى ۝

122. But his Lord chose him
(For His Grace): He turned
To him, and gave him guidance.

١٢٢- ثُمَّ اجْتَبَاهُ رَبُّهُ فَتَابَ
عَلَيْهِ وَهَدَى ۝

123. He said: "Get ye down,
Both of you — all together,²⁶⁴⁶

١٢٣- قَالَ اهْبِطَا مِنْهَا جَمِيعًا

2642. Not only had the warning been given that Evil is an enemy to man and will effect his destruction, but it was clearly pointed out that all his needs were being met in the Garden of Happiness. Food and clothing, drink and shelter, were amply provided for.

2643. The suggestion of the Evil One is clever, as it always is: it is false, and at the same time plausible. It is false, because (1) that felicity was not temporary, like the life of this world, and (2) they were supreme in the Garden, and a "kingdom" such as was dangled before them would only add to their sorrows. It was plausible, because (1) nothing had been said to them about Eternity, as the opposite of Eternity was not yet known, and (2) the sweets of Power arise from the savour of Self, and Self is an alluring (if false) attraction that misleads the Will.

2644. Hitherto they were clothed in the garb of Innocence and knew no evil. Now, when disobedience to Allah had sullied their soul and torn off the garment of their Innocence, their sullied Self appeared to themselves in all its nakedness and ugliness, and they had to resort to external things (leaves of the Garden) to cover the shame of their self-consciousness.

2645. Adam had been given the will to choose, and he chose wrongly, and was about to be lost in the throng of the evil ones, when Allah's Grace came to his aid. His repentance was accepted, and Allah chose him for His Mercy, as stated in the next verse.

2646. The little variations between this passage and 2:38 are instructive, as showing how clearly the particular argument is followed in each case. Here iḥbiṭū ('get ye down') is in the dual number, and refers to the two individual souls, our common ancestors: in 2:38 iḥbiṭū is in the plural number, to include all mankind and Satan, for the argument is about the collective life of man. On the other hand, "all together" includes Satan, the spirit of evil, and the enmity "one to another" refers to the eternal feud between Man and Satan, between our better nature and Evil.

From the Garden, with enmity
One to another: but if,
As is sure, there comes to you
Guidance from Me, whosoever
Follows My guidance, will not
Lose his way, nor fall²⁶⁴⁷
Into misery.

بَعْضُكُمْ لِبَعْضٍ عَدُوٌّ
فَإِمَّا يَأْتِيَنَّكُمْ مِنِّي هُدًى
فَمَنِ اتَّبَعَ هُدَايَ
فَلَا يَضِلُّ وَلَا يَشْقَى ○

124. "But whosoever turns away
From My Message, verily
For him is a life narrowed
Down, and We shall raise
Him up blind on the Day²⁶⁴⁸
Of Judgement."

۱۲۴- وَمَنْ أَعْرَضَ عَن ذِكْرِي
فَإِنَّ لَهُ مَعِيشَةً ضَنْكًا وَنَحْشُرُهُ
يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ أَعْمَى ○

125. He will say: "O my Lord!
Why hast thou raised me
Up blind, while I had Sight (before)?"²⁶⁴⁹

۱۲۵- قَالَ رَبِّ لِمَ حَشَرْتَنِي
أَعْمَى وَقَدْ كُنْتُ بَصِيرًا ○

126. (Allah) will say: "Thus
Didst thou, when Our Signs
Came unto thee, disregard
Them: so wilt thou,
This day, be disregarded."²⁶⁵⁰

۱۲۶- قَالَ كَذَلِكَ أَتَتْكَ آيَاتُنَا فَنَسِيتَهَا
وَكَذَلِكَ الْيَوْمَ تُنْسَى ○

127. And thus do We recompense
Him who transgresses beyond bounds
And believes not in the Signs
Of his Lord: and the Penalty
Of the Hereafter is far more
Grievous and more enduring.²⁶⁵¹

۱۲۷- وَكَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي مَنْ أَسْرَفَ
وَلَمْ يُؤْمَرْ بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِ
وَلَعَذَابُ الْآخِرَةِ أَشَدُّ وَأَبْقَى ○

2647. For the same reason as in the last note, we have the consequences of Guidance to the individual, viz.: being saved from going astray or from falling into misery and despair. In 2:38, the consequences expressed, though they apply to the individual, are also appropriate taken collectively: "on them shall be no fear, nor shall they grieve."

2648. Again, as in the last two verses, there is a variation from the previous passage (2:39). The consequences of the rejection of Allah's guidance are here expressed more individually: a life narrowed down, and a blindness that will persist beyond this life. "A life narrowed down" has many implications: (1) it is a life from which all the beneficent influences of Allah's wide world are excluded; (2) it is a life for Self, not for all; (3) in looking exclusively to the "good things" of this life, it misses the true Reality.

2649. Because Allah gave him physical sight in this life for trial, he thinks he should be favoured in the real world, the world that matters! He misused the physical sight and made himself blind for the other world.

2650. 'You were deliberately blind to Allah's Signs: now you will not see Allah's favours, and will be excluded from his Grace.'

2651. Blindness in the world of enduring Reality is far worse than physical blindness in the world of probation.

131. Nor strain thine eyes in longing
For the things We have given
For enjoyment to parties
Of them, the splendour
Of the life of this world,
Through which We test them:
But the provision of thy Lord²⁶⁵⁶
Is better and more enduring.

١٣١- وَلَا تَمُدَّنَّ عَيْنَيْكَ إِلَىٰ مَا مَتَّعْنَا بِهِ
أَزْوَاجًا مِنْهُمْ زَهْرَةً
الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا لِنَفْتِنَهُمْ فِيهِ
وَرِزْقُ رَبِّكَ خَيْرٌ وَأَبْقَىٰ ○

132. Enjoin prayer on thy people,
And be constant therein.
We ask thee not to provide²⁶⁵⁷
Sustenance: We provide it
For thee. But the (fruit of)
The Hereafter is for Righteousness.

١٣٢- وَأْمُرْ أَهْلَكَ بِالصَّلَاةِ وَاصْطَبِرْ عَلَيْهَا
لَا تَسْأَلْكَ رِزْقًا نَحْنُ نَرْزُقُكَ
وَالْعَاقِبَةُ لِلتَّقْوَىٰ ○

133. They say: "Why does he not²⁶⁵⁸
Bring us a Sign from His Lord?" Has not
A Clear Sign come to them
Of all that was
In the former Books
Of revelation?

١٣٣- وَقَالُوا لَوْلَا
يَأْتِينَا بِآيَةٍ مِنْ رَبِّهِ
أَوَلَمْ نَأْتِهِمْ بَيِّنَةٍ
وَمَا فِي الصُّحُفِ الْأُولَىٰ ○

134. And if We had inflicted
On them a penalty before this,²⁶⁵⁹
They would have said:
"Our Lord! If only Thou
Hadst sent us a messenger,
We should certainly have followed
Thy Signs before we were
Humbled and put to shame."

١٣٤- وَلَوْ أَنَّا أَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ بِعَذَابٍ مِنْ
قَبْلِهِ لَقَالُوا رَبَّنَا لَوْلَا أَرْسَلْتَ
إِلَيْنَا رَسُولًا فَنَتَّبِعَ
آيَاتِكَ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ نَذَلَّ وَنُخْزَىٰ ○

2656. The good things of this life make a brave show, but they are as nothing compared with the good of the Hereafter. Both are provided by Allah, but the former are given to the just and the unjust as a test and trial, and in any case will pass away: while the latter come especially from Allah for his devoted servants, and are incomparably of more value and will last through eternity.

2657. Sustenance, in the sense of the ordinary needs of life, the man of Allah does not worry about. That is provided by Allah for all, the just and the unjust. But the special provision, the real Sustenance, the spiritual fruit, is for a righteous life in the service of Allah.

2658. The question or plea of the Unbelievers is disingenuous. Many Signs have come with this Revelation. But the one that should have appealed to those who believed in former revelations and should have convinced them was what was in their own books

2659. If the Signs mentioned in the last note did not convince them, it would mean that they were not true to their own faith. They were not straight with themselves. In justice they should have been punished for their falsehood. But they were given further respite. Or they would again have argued in a circle, and said: "If only Allah had sent us a living messenger we should have believed!" The living messenger they flout because they want a Sign. The Sign they wish to ignore, because they want a living messenger!

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 21—AL ANBIYĀ

The last Sūrah dealt with the individual story (spiritual) of Moses and Aaron, and contrasted it with the growth of evil in individuals like the Pharaoh and the Sāmirī, and ended with a warning against Evil, and an exhortation to the purification of the soul with prayer and praise. This Sūrah begins with the external obstacles placed by Evil against such purification, and gives the assurance of Allah's power to defend men, illustrating this with reference to Abraham's fight against idolatry, Lot's fight against injustice and failure to proclaim Allah's glory by making full use of man's God-given faculties and powers, that of Job against impatience and want of self-confidence, that of Ismā'īl, Idrīs, and Dhul Kifl against want of steady perseverance, that of Dhā al Nūn against hasty anger, that of Zakarīya against spiritual isolation, and that of Mary against the lusts of this world. In each allusion there is a special point about the soul's purification. The common point is that the Prophets were not, as the vulgar suppose, just irresistible men. They had to win their ground inch by inch against all kinds of resistance from evil.

The chronology of this Sūrah has no significance. It probably dates from the middle of the Makkan period of inspiration.

Summary—Man treats, as he has always treated, the serious things of life with jest or contempt; but the Judgement must come, and Truth must triumph (21:1-29, and C. 147).

Unity of Design, and certainty of Allah's Promise: Allah's protection and mercy, and His justice (21:30-50, and C. 148).

How Abraham triumphed over idols, as did others among Allah's chosen ones over various forms of evil (21:51-93, and C. 149).

Work righteousness while it is yet time, for the Judgement will come, and only the righteous will inherit (21:94-112, and C. 150).

C. 147. — Men may lightly treat Allah's Signs
 (21:1-29.) As jests, but the Judgement must come
 Inevitably. His Message is true,
 And delivered by Allah's Prophet, as from
 Man to men. Truth must triumph
 And all false gods and false worship
 Must come to naught: for Allah is One,
 And His Truth has been one throughout the ages.

Sūrah 21.

Al Anbiyā' (The Prophets)

*In the Name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Closer and closer to mankind²⁶⁶²
Comes their Reckoning: yet they
Heed not and they turn away.
2. Never comes (aught) to them
Of a renewed Message²⁶⁶³
From their Lord, but they
Listen to it as in jest —
3. Their hearts toying as with
Trifles. The wrongdoers conceal²⁶⁶⁴
Their private counsels, (saying),
"Is this (one) more than
A man like yourselves?
Will ye go to witchcraft
With your eyes open?"²⁶⁶⁵
4. Say:²⁶⁶⁶ "My Lord
Knoweth (every) word (spoken)²⁶⁶⁷
In the heavens and on earth:
He is the One that heareth
And knoweth (all things)."

2662. Every minute sees them nearer to their doom, and yet they are sadly heedless, and even actively turn away from the Message that would save them.

2663. In each age, when the Message of Allah is renewed, the very people who should have known better and welcomed the renewal and the sweeping away of human cobwebs, either receive it with amused self-superiority, which later turns into active hostility, or with careless indifference.

2664. Allah's Message is free and open, in the full light of day. His enemies plot against it in secrecy, lest their own false motives be exposed. Their jealousy prevents them from accepting a "man like themselves" as a teacher or warner or guide.

2665. Literally, "in a state in which you (actually) see (that it is witchcraft)". When Allah's Messenger is proved to be above them in moral worth, in true insight, in earnestness and power of eloquence, they accuse him of witchcraft, a word which may mean nothing, or perhaps some mysterious deceitful arts.

2666. Notice that in the usual Arabic texts (that is, according to the Qirā'ah of Hafs) the word qāla is here and in 21:112 below, as well as in 23:112, spelt differently from the usual spelling of the word in other places (e.g., in 20:125-126). Qul is the reading of the Bayṣrah Qirā'ah, meaning, "Say thou" in the imperative. If we construe "he says", the pronoun refers to "this (one)" in the preceding verse, viz.: the Prophet. But more than one Commentator understands the meaning in the imperative, and I agree with them. The point is merely one of verbal construction. The meaning is the same in either case. See n. 2948 to 23:112. (R).

2667. Every word, whether whispered in secret (as in 21:3 above) or spoken openly, is known to Allah. Let not the wrongdoers imagine that their secret plots are secret to the Knower of all things.

5. "Nay," they say, "(these are)

2668. The charges against Allah's inspired Messenger are heaped up "Magic!" says one: that means, "We don't understand it!" Says another, "Oh! but we know! he is a mere dreamer of confused dreams!" If the "dreams" fit in with real things and vital experience, another will suggest, "Oh yes! why drag in supernatural agencies? he is clever enough to forge it himself!" Or another suggests, "He is a poet! Poets can invent things and say them in beautiful words!" Another interposes, "What we should like to see is miracles, like those we read of in stories of the Prophets of old!"

2669. 'If such miracles as you read of failed to convince Unbelievers of old, what chance is there that these Unbelievers will believe? Miracles may come, but they are not cures for Unbelief.'

2670. See 16:43 and n. 2069. This answers the Unbelievers' taunt, "he is just a man like ourselves!" True, but all messengers sent by Allah were men, not angels or another kind of beings, who could not understand men or whom men could not understand.

2671. As men they were subject to the laws governing the physical bodies of men. They ate and drank, and their bodies perished in death.

2672. But, however difficult (or impossible) their mission may have appeared to them, or to the world at first, they won through eventually, even those who seemed to have been defeated. Examples are given in the latter part of this Sūrah, especially in 21:51-93. They were delivered from the Wrath which overtook the Unbelievers, as were those with them who accepted Allah's Message and placed themselves in conformity with His Will and Plan. That is the meaning of "whom We pleased".

10. We have revealed for you
(O men!) a book in which
Is a Message for you:
Will ye not then understand?

2673. When they had every chance of repentance and reform, they rejected Allah's Message, and perhaps even put up an open defiance. When they actually began to feel the Wrath coming, they began to flee, but it was too late! Besides, where could they flee to from the Wrath of Allah? Hence the ironical appeal to them in the next verse: better go pack your luxuries and what you thought were your permanent homes! Cf. Christ's saying in the present Gospel of St. Matthew (iii. 7): "O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the Wrath to come?"

2674. See last note. 'You thought your homes so comfortable: why don't you go back to them? You will be called to account. Perhaps there may be rewards to be given you, who knows?' This irony is itself the beginning of the Punishment, but the ungodly now see how wrong they had been. But their sighs and regrets now avail them nothing. It is too late. They are lost, and nothing can save them.

2675. The two similes present two different aspects of the lamentations of the ungodly. When they really see the Wrath to come, there is a stampede, but where can they go to? Their lamentation is now the only mark of their life. But it dies away, as corn vanished from a field that is being mown, or as a dying fire is slowly extinguished! They do not die. They wish they were dead! (78:40).

16. Not for (idle) sport did We²⁶⁷⁶

2676. The Hindu doctrine of Līla, that all things were created for sport, is here negated. But more: with Allah we must not associate any ideas but those of Truth. Righteousness, Mercy, Justice, and the other attributes implied in His Beautiful Names. He does not jest nor play with His creatures.

2677. If such an idea as that of play or pastime had been possible with regard to Allah, and if He had wished really to indulge in pastime, He would have done it with creatures of Light nearest to Him, not with the lowly material creation that we see around us.

2678. Such as that (1) Allah has partners (21:22), or (2) that He has gotten a son (21:26), or (3) has daughters (16:57), or any other superstitions derogatory to the dignity and glory of Allah.

2679. The pure angelic hosts, whom we imagine to be glorious creatures of light, high in the spiritual world, near the Throne of Allah Himself, are yet His creatures, and serve Him without ceasing, and are proud to do so. Such is the majesty of Allah Most High.

2680. The different kinds of false gods whom people raise from their imagination are now referred to. In verses 21-23, the reference is to the gods of the earth, whether idols or local godlings, or deified heroes, or animals or trees or forces of the nature around us, which men have from time to time worshipped. These, as deities, have not life except what their worshippers give them.

2681. The answer of course is "no". No one but Allah can raise the dead to life. The miracle in the story of Jesus (3:49 and 5:113) was "by Allah's leave". It was a miracle of Allah, not one of Jesus by his own power or will.

2682. After the false gods of the earth (verse 21), are mentioned the false gods in the heavens and the earth, like those in the Greek Pantheon (verse 22), who quarrelled and fought and slandered each other and made their Olympus a perfect bear-garden!

2683. Allah is Self-Subsisting. All His creatures are responsible to Him and dependent on Him there is no other being to whom He can be responsible or on whom He can be dependent.

2684. See above, n. 2682, where two kinds of false worship are noted. Now we are warned against a third danger, the worship of false gods of any sort. Pagan man is prolific of creating abstract images for worship, including Self or abstract Intelligence or Power. In verse 26 below is mentioned a fourth kind of false worship, which imagines that Allah begets sons or daughters.

2685. This verse should be read with the next. All reason revolts against the idea of conflicting gods, and points to Unity in Creation and Unity in Godhead. This is not only the Message of Islam ("those with me") but the message of all prophets who came before the Holy Prophet Muhammad ("those before me"), and the line of prophets was closed with him. The Message given to every prophet in all ages was that of Unity as the fundamental basis of Order and Design in the world, material, moral, and spiritual.

C. 148. — Look at Allah's Creation: contemplate
(21:30-50.) Its unity of Design and benevolence
Of Purpose. Death must come to all,
But life and faith are not objects of ridicule.
Truth will outlast all mockery: 'tis Allah
Who calls, because he cares for you,
And on His Judgement Seat will weigh
Each act, each thought, each motive, great
Or small, with perfect justice. Come,
Ye all, reject not His blessed Message.

2686. This refers both to the Trinitarian superstition that Allah has begotten a son, and to the Arab superstition that the angels were daughters of Allah. All such superstitions are derogatory to the glory of Allah. The prophets and angels are no more than servants of Allah: they are raised high in honour, and therefore they deserve our highest respect, but not our worship.

2687. They never say anything before they receive Allah's command to say it, and their acts are similarly conditioned. This is also the teaching of Jesus as reported in the Gospel of St. John (xii. 49-50): "For I have not spoken of myself: but the Father which sent me. He gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. And I know that His commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak." If rightly understood, "Father" has the same meaning as our "Rabb", Sustainer and Cherisher, not Begetter or Progenitor.

2688. Cf. 20:109. "Acceptable" means that they have conformed to the Will of Allah and obeyed His Law, thus winning the stamp of His approval.

2689. They: the usual interpretation refers the pronoun to the servants of Allah who intercede: it may also refer to those on whose behalf the intercession is made: they do not take it as a matter of course, but stand in due awe and reverence of Allah's great glory and mercy.

32. And We have made

٣٢- وَجَعَلْنَا السَّمَاءَ سَقْفًا مَحْفُوظًا^ط

2691. About 72 percent of the surface of our Globe is still covered with water, and it has been estimated that if the inequalities of the surface were all levelled, the whole surface would be under water, as the mean elevation of land sphere-level would be 7,000-10,000 feet below the surface of the ocean. This shows the predominance of water on our Globe. That all life began in the water is also a conclusion to which our latest knowledge in biological science points. Apart from the fact that protoplasm, the original basis of living matter, is liquid or semi-liquid and in a state of constant flux and instability, there is the fact that land animals, like the higher vertebrates, including man, show, in their embryological history, organs like those of fishes, indicating the watery origin of their original habitat. The constitution of protoplasm is about 80 to 85 percent water.

2692. Cf. 16:15 and n. 2038. Lest it should shake with them: here "them" refers back to "they" at the end of the preceding verse, meaning "Unbelievers". It might be mankind in general, but the pointed address to those who do not realise and understand Allah's mercies is appropriate, to drive home to them the fact that it is Allah's well-ordered providence that protects them normally from cataclysms like earthquakes, but that they could for their iniquities be destroyed in an instant, as the 'Ād and the Thamūd were destroyed before them. As pointed out in n. 2691 above, if the surface of the earth were levelled up, it would all be under water, and therefore the firm mountains are a further source of security for life which has evolved in terrestrial forms. Though the mountains may seem impassable barriers, yet Allah's providence has provided broad passes between them to afford highways for human communications.

2693. In both the literal and the figurative sense. Literally, these natural mountain highways direct men in the way they should go. Figuratively, these wonderful instances of Allah's providence should turn men's thoughts to the true guidance of Allah in life and spiritual progress.

2694. Canopy well-guarded: the heavens form a canopy that is secure from falling down: they also form a sublime spectacle and a Mystery that man can only faintly reach. Perhaps also the mystery of spiritual life is metaphorically hinted at. Cf. also 15:17.

2696. Life on this planet without death has not been granted to any man. The Khidhr legends are popular tales. His life without death on this earth is nowhere mentioned in the Qur'ān. The taunt of the Unbelievers at the Holy Prophet was therefore futile. Could any of them live without death at some time or other? Could they name any one who did?

2698. To the godly man the issue between false worship and true worship is a very serious matter. To the sceptics and unbelievers it is only a joke. They take it lightly, and laugh at the godly ones. They not only laugh at him, but they blaspheme when the name of the One True God is mentioned. The reply to this is in the next verse.

2699. Haste is the very bone and marrow of man. If he is granted respite for his own sake, in order that he may have a further chance of repentance and coming back to Allah, he says impatiently and incredulously: "Bring on the Punishment quickly, that I may see if what you say is true!" Alas, it is too true! When the Punishment actually comes near and he sees it, he will not want it hastened. He will want more time and further delay! Poor creature of haste!

2700. They would not be so unreasonable if they only realised the terrible future for them! The Fire will envelop them on all sides, and no help will then be possible. Is it not best for them now to turn and repent? The Punishment may come too suddenly, as is said in the next verse.

2701. The same verse occurs at 6:10, where see n. 843. 'What they are mocking at now will be in a position to mock them in due time.'

2703. Ashaba: to join as a companion: with 'an or min it has also the meaning of to defend or remove from someone. The full signification is best understood if paraphrased: 'they are not fit to be mentioned in the same breath with Us, nor can they be defended from Us.'

2704. 'Umr, or 'Umur: age, generation, period, time, life. Here "period" is most appropriate, as it covers many generations, "these men and their fathers."

2705. Cf. 13:41 and n. 1865. The particular signification is that Islam spread from the outer borders, social and geographical, gradually inwards. The social fringe was the humbler people, such as slaves and poor men. The geographical reference is to Madīnah and tribes away from the Makkah centre. The proud and unbelieving Quraysh were the last to come in when the circle was gradually drawn tighter and tighter around them. The general signification applies to all times. Allah's Truth makes its way first among the poor and the lowly, those whose minds are unsoiled by prejudices of false pride or false knowledge, but it gradually hems in the obstinate, until it prevails in the end.

2707. Not the smallest action, word, thought, motive, or predilection but must come into the account of Allah. Cf. Browning (in Rabbi Ben Ezra): "But all, the world's coarse thumb and finger failed to plumb, So passed in making up the main account; All instincts immature, All purposes unsure, That weighed not as his work, yet swelled the man's account; Thoughts hardly to be packed Into a narrow act, Fancies that broke through language and escaped; All I could never be, All, men ignored in me, This, I was worth to God, Whose wheel the pitcher shaped."

2708. The literalism of Sale has here excelled itself: he translates, "and there will be sufficient accountants with us"! What is meant is that when Allah takes account, His accounting will be perfect: there will be no flaw in it, as there may be in earthly accountants, who require other people's help in some matters of account which they do not understand for want of knowledge of that particular department they are dealing with. Allah's knowledge is perfect, and therefore his justice will be perfect also; for He will not fail to take into account all the most intangible things that determine conduct and character. See last note. There is no contradiction between this and 18:104-105, where it is said that men of vain words, i.e., shallow hypocritical deeds, will have no weight attached to their deeds. In fact the two correspond.

2709. Cf. 2:53 and n. 68, where the meaning of Furqān is discussed. Here three things are mentioned as given to Moses and Aaron: (1) The Criterion for judgement; this might well be the wonderful Proofs they saw of Allah's goodness and glory from which they could have no doubt as to Allah's will and command; (2) the Light; this was the inner enlightenment of their soul, such as comes from inspiration; and (3) the Message, the book, the original book of Moses, which Aaron as his lieutenant would also use as a guide for his people.

2710. Note the three kinds of fear mentioned in 21:48-49. Taqwā is the fear of running counter to the will of Allah; it is akin to the love of Him; for we fear to offend those we love; it results in right conduct, and those who entertain it are "those who would do right". Then there is Khashyah, the fear of Allah, lest the person who entertains it may be found, in his inmost thoughts, to be short of the standard which Allah wished for him; this is also righteous but in a less high degree than Taqwā which is akin to love. And thirdly, there is the fear of consequences on the Day of Judgement (ishfaq); this also may lead to righteousness, but is on a still lower plane. Perhaps the three correspond to the Criterion, the Light, and the Message (or Warning) of the last verse.

2711. Here is a Prophet and a Book, greater than Moses and his Book. Are you going to reject him and it? (R).

 David sought justice, and sang Allah's praises;

2712. Rushd: right conduct, corresponding in action to the quality expressed in the epithet Ḥanīf (sound or true in Faith) applied to Abraham in 2:135 and elsewhere.

2713. Hence Abraham's title "Friend of Allah" (Khalīl Allah): 4:125.

2714. Reference is made to Abraham in many places. In 19:42-49 it was with reference to his relations to his father: the problem was how a righteous man should deal with his father, when his duty to his father conflicts with his duty to Allah. Here the problem is: how a righteous man should deal with evil and overcome it; how he should fight against evil, and if he is subjected to the fire of persecution, how his firmness draws Allah's Mercy, and the very trouble he is placed in becomes his comfort and joy.

Or are you one

2715. Abraham looked at life with a serious eye, and his people took it light-heartedly. He was devoted to Truth, and they cared more for ancestral custom. In the conflict, he seemed to be in their power. But he was fearless, and he triumphed by Allah's Grace.

2717. He wants to convince them of the powerlessness of their idols. But he does not do it underhandedly. He tells them that he is going to do something when once they are gone and their backs are turned to the idols—as much as to say that the idols are dependent on their care and attention. Apparently the people are amused and want to see what he does. So they leave him to his own devices.

2718. He was enacting a scene, to make the people ashamed of worshipping senseless sticks and stones. He left the biggest idol untouched and broke the others to pieces, as if a fight had taken place between the idols, and the biggest has smashed the others. Would they turn to the surviving idol and ask him how it all happened?

2719. Different groups of people are speaking. Those who were not present at Abraham's speech in verse 57 ask, "who has done this?" Those who were, at once name him, whereupon a formal council of the people was held, and Abraham was arraigned.

62. They said, "Art thou
The one that did this

These (idols) do not speak!"

66. (Abraham) said, "Do ye then
Worship, besides Allah,
Things that can neither
Be of any good to you
Nor do you harm?"

٦٦- قَالَ أَفَتَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ

67. "Fie upon you, and upon²⁷²³
The things that ye worship

No sense?"...

٦٧- أَفِ لَكُمْ وَلِمَا تَعْبُدُونَ
مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ ۝

2720. They asked him the formal question. There was no mystery about it. He had already openly threatened to do something to the idols, and people who had heard his threats were there. He now continues his ironic taunt to the idol-worshippers. 'You ask me! Why don't you ask the idols? Doesn't it look as if this big fellow has smashed the smaller ones in a quarrel?' If they do not ask the idols, they confess that the idols have not the intelligence enough to answer! This argument is developed in verses 64-67. Note that while the false worshipper laughed at his earnestness, he pays them back with a grim practical joke, which at the same time advances the cause of Truth.

2721. Abraham's biting irony cut them to the quick. What could they say? They turned to each other. Some among them thought he had the best of the argument. They were not keen on idolatry, and they told their fellows that it was useless arguing with Abraham. They all hung their heads in shame. But presently they thought they would face out Abraham, and take his words literally. They said, "You know quite well that idols do not speak!" This was precisely what Abraham wanted them to say, and he delivered his final blow! See n. 2723 below.

2722. Literally, "they were turned down on their heads" which may suggest a metaphorical somersault, i.e., they recovered from their dawning shame for idolatry and were prepared to argue it out with the youth Abraham. But I think there is a better authority for the interpretation I have adopted.

2723. As soon as they admitted in so many words that the idols could not speak, Abraham delivered his final attack: 'Then why do you worship useless impotent creatures?' After that, there remains nothing but the argument of violence, which they proceed to exercise, being the party in power. 'Burn him at the stake' is an easy cry! But it was not Abraham that suffered: it was his persecutors (21:70).

68. They said, "Burn him
And protect your gods,
If ye do (anything at all)!"

٦٨- قَالُوا احْرَقُوْهُ وَاَنْصُرُوْا الْاِلٰهَتَكُمْ

70. Then they sought a stratagem
Against him: but We Made them the ones

2724. The nature of fire, by all the physical laws of matter, is to be hot. The supremacy of mind over matter is a phrase much used, but the supremacy of the spiritual over the material is not so commonly understood. And yet it is the greatest factor in the estimate of Reality. The material is ephemeral and relative. The spiritual is eternal and absolute. Through all the fire of persecution and hatred Abraham remained unhurt. The fire became cool, and a means of safety for Abraham.

2725. Can we form any idea of the place where he passed through the furnace, and the stage in his career at which this happened? He was born in Ur of the Chaldees, a place on the lower reaches of the Euphrates, not a hundred miles from the Persian Gulf. This was the cradle, or one of the cradles, of human civilisation. Astronomy was studied here in very ancient times, and the worship of the sun, moon, and stars was the prevailing form of religion. Abraham revolted against this quite early in life, and his argument is referred to in 6:74-82. They also had idols in their temples, probably idols representing heavenly bodies and celestial winged creatures. He was still a youth (21:60) when he broke the idols. This was stage No. 2. After this he was marked down as a rebel and persecuted. Perhaps some years passed before the incident of his being thrown into the Fire (21:68-69) took place, or the incident may be only allegorical. Traditionally the Fire incident is referred to a king called Nimrūd, about whom see n. 1565 to 11:69. If Nimrūd's capital was in Assyria, near Nineveh (site near modern Mosul), we may suppose either that the king's rule extended over the whole of Mesopotamia, or that Abraham wandered north through Babylonia to Assyria. Various stratagems were devised to get rid of him (21:70), but he was saved by the mercy of Allah. The final break came when he was probably a man of mature age and could speak to his father with some authority. This incident is referred to in 19:41-48. He now left his ancestral lands, and avoiding the Syrian desert, came to the fertile lands of Aram or Syria, and so south to Canaan, when the incident of 11:69-76 and the adventures of his nephew Lūṭ took place. It is some years after this that we may suppose he built the Ka'bah with Ismā'īl (2:124-29), and his prayer in 14:35-41 may be referred to the same time. His visit to Egypt (Gen. xii 10) is not referred to in the Qur'ān.

2726. As they could not get rid of him by open punishment, they tried secret plans, but were foiled throughout. It was not he that lost, but they. On the contrary, he left them and prospered and became the progenitor of great peoples.

2727. The land of Aram or Syria, which in its widest connotation includes Canaan or Palestine, Syria is a well-watered fertile land, with a Mediterranean sea-coast, on which the famous commercial cities of Tyre and Sidon were situated. Its population is very mixed, as it has been a bone of contention between all the great kingdoms and empires of Western Asia and Egypt, and European interest in it dates from the most ancient times. (R).

We listened to his (prayer)

۞ وَنُوحًا إِذْ نَادَى مِنْ قَبْلُ

2728. Nāfilah has many meanings: (1) booty; (2) extra work or prayer; (3) extra or additional gift; (4) grandson. The two last implications are implied here. Not only was Abraham given a son in his old age; he was given not only Isaac, but several sons, the chief being Ismā'il and Isaac, who both joined in burying him (Gen. xxv. 9); and he also saw grandsons. Ismā'il is specially mentioned later (21:85) apart from Isaac's line, on account of his special importance for Islam.

2729. The spiritual lesson from this passage may be recapitulated. The righteous man makes no compromise with evil. If the votaries of evil laugh at him he pays them in their own coin, but he stands firmly by his principles. His firmness causes some confusion among the followers of evil, and he openly declares the faith that is in him. They try, openly and secretly, to injure or kill him, but Allah protects him, while evil perished from its own excesses.

2730. Lot's people were given to unspeakable abominations. His mission was to preach to them. He withstood Evil, but they rejected him. They were punished, but he and his followers were saved. See 15:61-74, 11:77-82, and 7:80-84.

2731. The contemporaries of Noah were given to Unbelief, oppression of the poor, and vain disputations. He carried Allah's Message to them, and standing fast in faith, built the Ark, in which he was saved with his followers from the Flood, while the wicked were drowned. See 11:25-48.

2732. The sheep, on account of the negligence of the shepherd, got into a cultivated field (or vineyard) by night and ate up the young plants or their tender shoots, causing damage, to the extent of perhaps a whole year's crop. David was king, and in his seat of judgement he considered the matter so serious that he awarded the owner of the field the sheep themselves in compensation for his damage. The Roman Law of the Twelve Tables might have approved this decision, and on the same principle was built up the Deodand doctrine of English Law, now obsolete. His son Solomon, a mere boy of eleven, thought of a better decision, where the penalty would better fit the offence. The loss was the loss of the fruits or produce of the field or vineyard: the corpus of the property was not lost. Solomon's suggestion was that the owner of the field or vineyard should not take the sheep altogether but only detain them long enough to recoup his actual damage, from the milk, wool, and possibly young of the sheep, and then return the sheep to the shepherd. David's merit was that he accepted the suggestion, even though it came from a little boy: Solomon's merit was that he distinguished between the corpus and income, and though a boy, was not ashamed to put his case before his father. But in either case it was Allah Who inspired the true realisation of justice. He was present and witnessed the affair, as He is present everywhere.

2733. Whatever is in the heavens and the earth celebrates the praises of Allah: 17:44; 57:1; 16:48-50. Even the "thunder repeateth His praises"; 13:13. All nature ever sings the praises of Allah. David sang in his Psalms, cxlviii. 7-10: "Praise the Lord from the earth, ye... mountains and all hills... creeping things and flying fowl!" All nature sings to Allah's glory, in unison with David, and angels, and men of God. Cf. 34:10 and 38:18-19. (R).

2734. The making of coats of mails is attributed to David. It is defensive armour, and therefore its discovery and supply is associated with deeds of righteousness in 34:10-11, in contrast with the deadly weapons which man invents for offensive purposes. Indeed, all fighting, unless in defence of righteousness is mere "violence."

2735. David's good work then was: (1) he was open to learn wisdom wherever it came from; (2) he sang the praises of Allah, in unison with all nature; (3) he made defensive armour. But all these things he did, because of the faculties which Allah had given him, and we must be grateful for this and for all things to Allah.

2736. Cf. 34:12, and 38:36-38. This has been interpreted to mean that Solomon had miraculous power over the winds, and could make them obey his order. Rationalists say that he had naval power on the Mediterranean, and through the Gulf of 'Aqaba on the Red Sea, and that he therefore figuratively commanded the winds, and we may say the same of airmen at the present day. In any case the power behind was, and is, from Allah, Who has granted man intelligence and the faculties by which he can tame the more unruly forces of nature.

2738. As in n. 2736, the literalists and the rationalists take different views. The former say that Solomon had power over supernatural beings of evil, whom he compelled to dive for pearls and do other hard tasks. Rationalists refer this to hostile unruly races whom he subjected to his sway. It was Allah's power ultimately, Who granted him wisdom. Solomon tamed evil with Wisdom.

2739. Job (Ayūb) was a prosperous man, with faith in Allah, living somewhere in the northeast corner of Arabia. He suffers from a number of calamities; his cattle are destroyed, his servants slain by the sword, and his family crushed under his roof. But he holds fast to his faith in Allah. As a further calamity he is covered with loathsome sores from head to foot. He loses his peace of mind, and he curses the day he was born. His false friends come and attribute his affliction to sin. These "Job's comforters" are no comforters at all, and he further loses his balance of mind, but Allah recalls to him all His mercies, and he resumes his humility and gives up self-justification. He is restored to prosperity, with twice as much as he had before; his brethren and friends come back to him; he had a new family of seven sons and three fair daughters. He lived to a good old age, and saw four generations of descendants. All this is recorded in the Book of Job in the Old Testament. Of all the Hebrew writings, the Hebrew of this Book comes nearest to Arabic. The account given in the Biblical sources and the image that it projects of Prophet Job is decidedly different from that found in the Qur'ān and the Hadith, which present him as a prophet and a brilliant example of dignified patience becoming of a great Prophet of Allah ever trustful in Him and His promises. Nothing could be further from the truth than saying that he lost his peace of mind or resorted to curses during the period of his trial. (R).

2740. Job is the pattern of humility, patience, and faith in Allah. It was with these weapons that he fought and conquered evil.

2741. Ismā'īl is mentioned specially, apart from the line which descended through Isaac (21:72), as he was the founder of a separate and greater Ummah. His sufferings began in infancy (see n. 160 to 2:158); but his steady constancy and submission to the will of Allah were specially shown when he earned the title of "Sacrifice to Allah" (see n. 2506 to 19:54). That was the particular quality of his constancy and patience.

2742. For Idrīs see n. 2508 to 19:56. He was in a high station in life, but that did not spoil him. He was sincere and true, and that was the particular quality of his constancy and patience.

2743. Dhu al Kifl would literally mean "possessor of, or giving, a double requital or portion"; or else, "one who used a cloak of double thickness," that being one of the meanings of Kifl. The Commentators differ in opinion as to who is meant, why the title is applied to him, and the point of his being grouped with Ismā'īl and Idrīs for constancy and patience. I think the best suggestion is that afforded by Karsten Niebuhr in his Reisebeschreibung nach Arabien, Copenhagen, 1778, 2:264-266, as quoted in the Encyclopaedia of Islam under "Dhu al Kifl". He visited Meshed 'Alī in Irāq, and also the little town called Kefil, midway between Najaf and Hilla (Babylon). Kefil, he says, is the Arabic form of Ezekiel. The shrine of Ezekiel was there, and the Jews came to it on a pilgrimage.

If we accept "Dhu al Kifl" to be not an epithet, but an Arabicised form of "Ezekiel", it fits the context. Ezekiel was a prophet in Israel who was carried away to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar after his second attack on Jerusalem (about B.C. 599). His Book is included in the English Bible (Old Testament). He was chained and bound, and put into prison, and for a time he was dumb (Ezekiel, iii. 25-26). He bore it all with patience and constancy, and continued to reprove boldly the evils in Israel. In a burning passage he denounces false leaders in words which are eternally true: "Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flocks? Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, you kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock. The diseased have yet not strengtheneded, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken. . .", etc. (Ezekiel, xxxiv. 2-4).

Dhu al Kifl is again mentioned in 38:48 along with Ismā'īl and Elisha.

وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ الْوَارِثِينَ ۝

2744. Dhū al Nūn, "the man of the Fish or the Whale", is the title of Jonah (Yūnus), because he was swallowed by a large Fish or Whale. He was the prophet raised to warn the Assyrian capital Nineveh. For Nineveh see n. 1478 to 10:98. His story is told in 37:139-149. When his first warning was unheeded by the people, he denounced Allah's wrath on them. But they repented and Allah forgave them for the time being. Jonah, meanwhile, departed in wrath, discouraged at the apparent failure of his mission. He should have remained in the most discouraging circumstances, and relied on the power of Allah; for Allah had power both over Nineveh and over the Messenger He had sent to Nineveh. He went away to the sea and took a ship, but apparently the sailors threw him out as a man of bad omen in a storm. He was swallowed by a big Fish (or Whale), but in the depth of the darkness, he cried to Allah and confessed his weakness. The "darkness" may be interpreted both physically and spiritually; physically, as the darkness of the night and the storm and the Fish's body; spiritually as the darkness in his soul, his extreme distress in the situation which he had brought on himself. Allah Most Gracious forgave him. He was cast out ashore; he was given the shelter of a plant in his state of physical and mental lassitude. He was refreshed and strengthened, and the work of his mission prospered. Thus he overcame all his disappointment by repentance and Faith, and Allah accepted him.

2745. See 19:2-15, and 3:38-41. Zakariyā was a priest; both he and his wife were devout and punctilious in their duties. They were old, and they had no son. He was troubled in mind, not so much by the vulgar desire to have a son to carry on his line, but because he felt that his people were not unselfishly devout, and there would be no sincere work for Allah unless he could train some one himself. He was given a son Yahyā (John the Baptist), who added to the devout reputation of the family, for he is called "noble, chaste, and a prophet," (3:39). All three, father, mother, and son, were made worthy of each other, and they repelled evil by their devout emulation in virtue.

2746. 'It is not that I crave a personal heir to myself; all things go back to Thee, and Thou art the best of inheritors: but I see no one around me sincere enough to carry on my work for Thee; wilt Thou give me one whom I can train?'

90. So We listened to him:

(21:94-112.) While yet there's time: for with Judgement
The door will be closed to repentance.
No false gods of fancy can help.
The Righteous will have no fear; for them

2747. Aslahā = to improve, to mend, to reform, to make better. Here, with reference to Zakarīya's wife, the signification is twofold: (1) that her barrenness would be removed, so that she could become a mother; and (2) her spiritual dignity should be raised in becoming the mother of John the Baptist; and by implication his also, in becoming the father of John.

2748. Mary, the mother of Jesus, chastity was her special virtue: with a son of virgin birth, she and Jesus became a miracle to all nations. That was the virtue with which they (both Mary and Jesus) resisted evil.

2749. Ummah: this is best translated by Brotherhood here. "Community", "race", and "nation", and "people" are words which import other ideas and do not quite correspond to "Ummah". "Religion" and "Way of Life" are derived meanings, which could be used in other passages, but are less appropriate here. Our attention has been drawn to people of very different temperaments and virtues, widely different in time, race, language, surroundings, history, and work to be performed, but forming the closest brotherhood as being men and women united in the highest service of Allah. They pre-figure the final and perfected Brotherhood of Islam.

2750. Allah's Message was and ever is one; and His Messengers treated it as one. It is people of narrower views who come later and trade on the earlier names, that break up the Message and the Brotherhood into jarring camps and sects.

A new world, which they will inherit.
This was Allah's Message of old, and the same
Is Allah's Message renewed: for Allah
Is one, and so is His Message, proclaimed
For all, freely and in loving Truth.

2751. Allah gives credit for every act of righteousness, however small: when combined with sincere Faith in Allah, it becomes the stepping stone to higher and higher things. It is never lost.

2752. But when wickedness comes to such a pass that the Wrath of Allah descends, as it did on Sodom, the case becomes hopeless. The righteous were warned and delivered before the Wrath descended. But those destroyed will not get another chance, as they flouted all previous chances. They will only be raised at the approach of the Day of Judgement.

2753. For Gog and Magog see n. 2439 to 18:92. Their geographical position was discussed in Appendix VI. Here I do not think we are concerned with their geographical position. The name stands for wild and lawless tribes who will break their barriers and swarm through the earth. This will be one of the prognostications of the approaching Judgement.

2754. Cf. 14:42.

99. If these had been gods,
They would not have got

Their lot, nor will they
There hear (aught else).

What their souls desired,
In that will they dwell.
103. The Great Terror will²⁷⁵⁷
Bring them no grief:
But the angels will meet them

104. The Day that We roll up

- ١٠٤- يَوْمَ نَطْوِي السَّمَاءَ كَطَيِّ السِّجِلِّ لِلْكُتُبِ

2755. The ultimate proof of Truth and Falsehood will be that Truth will endure and come to its own, while Falsehood will be destroyed. And so the men who worshipped Truth will come to their own, while those who worshipped Falsehood will be in a Fire of Punishment they could scarcely have imagined before. In that state there will be nothing but regrets and sighs and groans, and these evil sounds will drown everything else.

2756. In contrast to the misery of those who rejected Truth and Right, will be the happiness of those who accepted it. Their record does not lag behind: in fact it goes before. Our Deeds go before our journey in this life is completed. What then is Judgement? It is instantaneous: it will all be decided in the twinkling of any eye (16:77). The good will not hear the least sound of the groans of evil. Their true soul's desires will be fulfilled—not temporarily as in this world, but in a permanent form.

2757. The Judgement and balancing of accounts will be a mighty Terror to the evil doers. But it will cause, to the righteous, not grief or anxiety, but hope and happiness, for now they will be in a congenial atmosphere, and will see the fulfilment of their ideals in the meeting and greeting of the angels, preparatory to their enjoyment of the supreme Bliss—seeing the Face of Allah.

2758. The world—the universe—as we know it, will be folded up like a scroll of parchment, for it will have done its work. If Allah created all this world out of nothing, He can create an entirely new heaven and a new earth, on a plane of which we can form no conception in our present life. And He will do so, for that is His promise.

Some Commentators understand Sijill to be the name of the Recording Angel who closes the Book of a man's Deeds after the man's death.

2759. Zabūr: the Book of the Psalms of David. The name of David is expressly mentioned in connection with the Zabūr in 4:163 and 17:55, although there the indefinite article is applied to the word as meaning a Book of Scripture. See Psalms xxv. 13, "his seed shall inherit the earth": xxxvii. 11, "the meek shall inherit the earth" (quoted by Jesus in Matt. v. 3); and xxxvii. 29, "the righteous shall inherit the land." (R).

2760. The same promise occurs in the Pentateuch, Exod. xxxii. 13, "they shall inherit it (the land) forever."

2761. The culmination of Allah's Revelation is in the Qur'ān, which confirms previous scriptures, corrects the errors which men introduced into them, and explains many points in detail for all who seek right worship and service to Allah—whether they inherit the previous Books ("People of the Book") or not. It is a universal Message.

2762. There is no question now of race or nation, of a "chosen people" or the "seed of Abraham"; or the "seed of David"; or of Hindu Arya-varia; of Jew or Gentile, Arab or Ajam (Persian), Turk or Tārik, European or Asiatic, White or Coloured; Aryan, Semitic, Mongolian, or African; or American, Australian, or Polynesian. To all men and creatures other than men who have any spiritual responsibility, the principles universally apply.

2764. 'If you do not realise the significance of the Message, I at least have done my duty. I have given the Good News for the Righteous and the Warning for the Unjust, without favour or partiality, and without abating one jot of the truth, openly and squarely for all. Do not ask me when the Good News and the Warning will be fulfilled. That is for Allah to decide, not for me or for you to know.'

2765. The Messenger of Allah freely and impartially teaches all how to carry out Allah's Will and live a good life. If some of them are hypocrites and come into the Ummah (Brotherhood) from baser motives and not the pure motives of the love of Allah, their motives and conduct will be judged by Allah and not by men.

2766. In the same way if men who come into the Brotherhood from pure motives and yet feel aggrieved that those outside are better off from a worldly point of view, they are wrong. It may be that the fleeting enjoyment of this world's goods is but a trial, and they should be grateful for being saved from temptation.

2767. See above, n. 2666 to 21:4. The better reading is "Say" in the imperative, rather than "He (the Prophet) said (or says)" in the indicative mood. Note that, on that construction, there are three distinct things which the Prophet is asked to say: viz.: (1) the statement in verses 109-11, addressed to those who turn away from the Message; (2) the prayer addressed to Allah in the first part of verse 112; and (3) the advice given indirectly to the Believers, in the second part of verse 112. I have marked these divisions by means of inverted commas.

2768. That is, Allah's judgement as between the Teacher and those who refused the Message, or between the righteous and those who taunt them for their poverty, will be the true one, and both the Teacher and the Ummah must leave the judgement to Allah.

2769. Blasphemy is a dreadful sin. We must guard ourselves from it. But as regards others, if we cannot prevent it, we must pray to Allah for assistance and not rely upon carnal weapons.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 22—AL HAJJ

We now come to a new series of four Sūrahs, dealing with the environments and methods contributing to our spiritual progress, as the last five Sūrahs dealt with the Messengers who came in various ways to proclaim the Truth and conquer evil. See Introduction to S. 17.

The subject matter of this particular Sūrah is concerned mainly with the spiritual implications of the Sacred House, the Pilgrimage, the Sacrifice, Striving and Fighting in defence of Truth when attacked, and other acts that make for Unselfishness and uproot Falsehood.

On the chronology of this Sūrah, opinion is divided. Some parts were probably revealed in the latter Makkan period, and some in Madīnah. But the chronological question has no significance here.

Summary—Importance of the spiritual Future, and need of firmness in Faith: help for Truth and punishment for Evil (22:1-25, and C. 151).

Purity, Prayer, Humility, and Faith are implied in the Pilgrimage; in solemn Sacrifice we express our gratitude and reverence to Allah, and our desire to share food with our poorer brethren; Striving and Fighting in defence of Truth when attacked are necessary as tests of self-sacrifice (22:26-48, and C. 152).

The promptings of Evil may hinder the work of Allah's Prophet, but that work must triumph, and the Mercy and Truth of Allah must be established; therefore serve Allah humbly, and He will protect and help you (22:49-78, and C. 153).

C. 151. — Will not mankind take warning
 (22:1-25.) From the dreadful consequences of Evil
 Clearly proclaimed to them? Will they Dispute about Allah and the Life of the Future?
 They have only to look around and within them,
 And they will see vestiges of the Plan
 And Purpose of Allah. Let them not halt
 Between Good and Evil: Allah's Message as well
 As his Messenger must win against all Obstacles. Only the evil will be brought
 To shame and agony. The good—whose speech
 Is pure and conduct worthy of praise—
 Will have a meed of refinement, beauty, and bliss.

Sūrah 22.

Al Hajj (The Pilgrimage)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ﴿ mankind! Fear your Lord!
For the convulsion of the Hour
(Of Judgement) will be
A thing terrible!²⁷⁷⁰

2. The Day ye shall see it,
Every mother giving suck
Shall forget her suckling babe,
And every pregnant female
Shall drop her load (unformed):
Thou shall see mankind
As in a drunken riot,²⁷⁷¹
Yet not drunk: but dreadful
Will be the Wrath of Allah.

3. And yet among men
There are such as dispute
About Allah, without knowledge,
And follow every evil one
Obstinate in rebellion!

4. About the (Evil One)
It is decreed that whoever
Turns to him for friendship,
Him will he lead astray,
And he will guide him
To the Penalty of the Fire.²⁷⁷²

الْحَزْنُ السَّابِعُ عَشَرَ سُورَةُ الْحَجِّ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- يَأَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اتَّقُوا رَبَّكُمُ
إِنَّ زُلْزَلَةَ السَّاعَةِ شَيْءٌ عَظِيمٌ ۝

۲- يَوْمَ تَرَوْهَا نَذْهَلُ كُلَّ مُرْضِعَةٍ عَمَّا
أَرْضَعَتْ
وَتَضَعُ كُلُّ ذَاتِ حَمْلٍ حَمْلَهَا
وَتَرَى النَّاسَ سُكَرَىٰ وَهَهُم بِسُكْرَىٰ
وَلَكِنَّ عَذَابَ اللَّهِ شَدِيدٌ ۝

۳- وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَنْ يُجَادِلُ
فِي اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ وَيَتَّبِعُ كُلَّ شَيْطَانٍ
مُّرِيدٍ ۝

۴- كُتِبَ عَلَيْهِ أَنَّهُ مَنْ
تَوَلَّاهُ فَأَتَتْهُ يُضِلُّهُ
وَيَهْدِيهِ إِلَىٰ عَذَابِ السَّعِيرِ ۝

2770. As an introduction to the spiritual meaning of various symbolic acts in this life, the serious issues involved are indicated by showing how terrible the consequences will be for those who disobey Allah's Will. The terror will only be for those who rebel and disobey: the righteous will not suffer from it, but on the contrary will be greeted by angels with joy (21:103).

2771. Three metaphors are used for the extreme terror which the Awful Day will inspire. (1) No mother abandons the baby at her breast in the greatest danger; yet that will happen in this Dreadful Hour. (2) An expectant mother carries the young life within her with great pride and hope: "hope" is the actual word used in Urdu for this physical state; yet the terror will overpower the hope at this "Hour", and nature's working will be reversed. (3) Men ordinarily retain their self-possession except under intoxicants; here, without intoxication, they will be driven to frenzy with terror.

2772. Even after the warnings, there are men who are such fools as to turn away from Allah who created them and cherishes them with His love and care; they become outlaws in His Kingdom, making friends with Evil, which is a rebel in Allah's Kingdom.

5. ⑤ mankind! if ye have
A doubt about the Resurrection,²⁷⁷³
(Consider) that We created you
Out of dust, then out of
Sperm, then out of a leech-like
Clot, then out of a morsel
Of flesh, partly formed²⁷⁷⁴
And partly unformed, in order
That We may manifest
(Our Power) to you;
And We cause whom We will²⁷⁷⁵
To rest in the wombs
For an appointed term,
Then do We bring you out
As babes, then (foster you)
That ye may reach your age
Of full strength; and some
Of you are called to die,
And some are sent back
To the feeblest old age,
So that they know nothing
After having known (much).²⁷⁷⁶
And (further), thou seest
The earth barren and lifeless,
But when We pour down
Rain on it, it is stirred
(To life), it swells,
And it puts forth every kind
Of beautiful growth in pairs.²⁷⁷⁷

هـ- يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ إِن كُنْتُمْ فِي رَيْبٍ مِّنَ الْبَعْثِ
فَإِنَّا خَلَقْنَاكُمْ مِّن تُرَابٍ
ثُمَّ مِّن نُّطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ مِّن عَلَقَةٍ
ثُمَّ مِّن مُّضْغَةٍ مُّخَلَّقَةٍ
وَغَيْرِ مُخَلَّقَةٍ لِّنُبَيِّنَ لَكُمْ
وَنُقَرِّرُ فِي الْأَرْحَامِ مَا نَشَاءُ إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى
ثُمَّ نُخْرِجُكُمْ طِفْلًا ثُمَّ لَتَبَلَّغُوا أَشَدَّكُمْ
وَمِنْكُمْ مَّن يُتَوَقَّىٰ
وَمِنْكُمْ مَّن يُرَدُّ إِلَىٰ أَزْدَلِ الْعُمُرِ
لَكَيْلَا يَعْلَمَ مِن بَعْدِ عِلْمٍ شَيْئًا
وَتَرَىٰ الْأَرْضَ هَامِدَةً
فَإِذَا أَنزَلْنَا عَلَيْهَا الْمَاءَ
اهْتَزَّتْ وَرَبَتْ
وَأُنبِتْنَا مِن كُلِّ زَوْجٍ بَهِيجٍ ۝

2773. If they really have doubts in their minds about the life after death, they have only to turn their attention, either to their own nature, or to the nature around. How wonderful is their own physical growth, from lifeless matter, to seed, fertilised ovum, fetus, child, youth, age, and death! How can they doubt that the Author of all these wonderful stages in their life here can also give them another kind of life after the end of this life? Or, if they look at external nature, they see the earth dead and barren, and Allah's fertilising showers bring it to life, growth, and beauty in various forms. The Creator of this great pageant of Beauty can surely create yet another and a newer world.

2774. The stages of a man's physical growth from nothing till he completes the cycle of this life are described in words whose accuracy, beauty, and comprehensiveness can only be fully understood by biologists. Parallel to the physical growth, may be understood man's inner growth, also by stages and by Allah's creative artistry.

2775. That is, a male or a female child, a fair or an ugly child, a good or a rebellious child, etc., involving countless mysteries of genetics and heredity.

2776. Cf. 16:70. In that passage the mystery of our life was used to illustrate Allah's abundant mercies and favours to us. Here it is used to illustrate Allah's power in giving us a future Life of even greater promise.

2777. A beautiful nature passage so pregnant in meaning that the earnest student wonders what magic and truth have been conveyed in so few words. M. P.'s Egyptian colleague, Prof. Ghamrawi (see M. P.'s note on this passage) was but expressing the feelings of every careful student of the Qur'an. The "subtlety and wealth of meaning" are indeed marvellous.

6. This is so, because Allah
Is the Reality: it is He
Who gives life to the dead,
And it is He Who has
Power over all things.²⁷⁷⁸
7. And verily the Hour will come:
There can be no doubt
About it, or about (the fact)
That Allah will raise up
All who are in the graves.
8. Yet there is among men
Such a one as disputes
About Allah, without knowledge,
Without guidance, and without
A Book of Enlightenment — ²⁷⁷⁹
9. (Disdainfully) bending his side,
In order to lead (men) astray
From the Path of Allah:
For him there is disgrace²⁷⁸⁰
In this life, and on the Day
Of Judgement We shall
Make him taste the Penalty
Of burning (Fire).
10. (It will be said): "This is
Because of the deeds which
Thy hands sent forth,
For verily Allah is not
Unjust to His servants."²⁷⁸¹

٦- ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ
وَأَنَّهُ يُحْيِي الْمَوْتَى
وَأَنَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ۝

٧- وَأَنَّ السَّاعَةَ آتِيَةٌ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهَا
وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ يَبْعَثُ مَنْ فِي الْقُبُورِ ۝

٨- وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَنْ يُجَادِلُ فِي اللَّهِ بِغَيْرِ
عِلْمٍ
وَلَا هُدًى وَلَا كِتَابٍ مُنِيرٍ ۝

٩- ثَانِيَ عِطْفِهِ لِيُضِلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
لَهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا خِزْيٌ وَنَذِيرُهُ يَوْمَ
الْقِيَامَةِ عَذَابُ الْحَرِيقِ ۝

١٠- ذَلِكَ بِمَا قَدَّمَتْ يَدَاكَ
وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ لَيْسَ بِظَالِمٍ لِّلْعَمِيدِ ۝

بِ

2778. All these beautiful and well-articulated pageants of life and nature point to the Reality behind them, i.e., Allah. They will perish, but He is eternal. They are but shadows; the substance (if such a word may be used) is in Him. They are shifting and illusory, in the sense that they have neither permanency nor independent existence. But they have a sort of secondary reality in the sense in which a shadow is a real reflection from substance. No Power or Existence has any meaning except as a reflection of Allah's ineffable Glory.

2779. For "Book of Enlightenment" see 3:184 and n. 490. I understand "knowledge" to mean here their human knowledge or intelligence, "guidance" to mean divine guidance, such as comes from Allah or prophets of Allah or a revelation from Allah, and the "Book of Enlightenment" to mean the fundamental guide to good conduct, the clear rules laid down in all Dispensations to help men lead good lives. The "Book of Enlightenment" may mean a revealed Book in which case "Guidance" would refer to divine guidance through a prophet of Allah. (R).

2780. Some Commentators think this refers to Abū Jahl, but the words are perfectly general, and this type of man is common in all ages. The same may be said about verse 3 above: Commentators give the immediate reference to one Al Naḍr ibn Ḥārith.

2781. 'What you suffer is the consequence of your own sinful deeds; Allah is just; He is not unjust in the least to any of His creatures'. (R).

SECTION 2.

11. There are among men
Some who serve Allah,
As it were, on the verge;²⁷⁸²
If good befalls them, they are,
Therewith, well content; but
If a trial comes to them,
They turn on their faces:
They lose both this world
And the Hereafter: that
Is loss for all to see!

١١- وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يَعْبُدُ اللَّهَ عَلَى حَرْفٍ
فَإِنْ أَصَابَهُ خَيْرٌ اطْمَأَنَّ بِهِ
وَإِنْ أَصَابَتْهُ فِتْنَةٌ انْقَلَبَ عَلَى وَجْهِهِ
خَسِرَ الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةَ
ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْخُسْرَانُ الْمُبِينُ ○

12. They call on such deities,²⁷⁸³
Besides Allah, as can neither
Hurt nor profit them:
That is straying far indeed
(From the Way)!

١٢- يَدْعُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مَا لَا
يَضُرُّهُ وَمَا لَا نَنْفَعُهُ
ذَلِكَ هُوَ الضَّلَالُ الْبَعِيدُ ○

13. (Perhaps) they call on one
Whose hurt is nearer²⁷⁸⁴
Than his profit: evil, indeed,
Is the patron, and evil
The companion (for help)!

١٣- يَدْعُوا لِمَن ضَرُّهُ أَقْرَبُ مِنْ نَفْعِهِ
لَيْئَسَ الْمَوْلَى وَلَيْئَسَ الْعَشِيرُ ○

14. Verily Allah will admit
Those who believe and work
Righteous deeds, to Gardens,
Beneath which rivers flow:
For Allah carries out
All that He plans.²⁷⁸⁵

١٤- إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُدْخِلُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا
الصَّالِحَاتِ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَفْعَلُ مَا يُرِيدُ ○

15. If any think that Allah
Will not help him
(His Messenger) in this world

١٥- مَنْ كَانَ يَظُنُّ أَنَّ لَن يَنْصُرَهُ اللَّهُ
فِي الدُّنْيَا

2782. They are men whose minds are not firm: they will have faith, if all goes well with them, but as soon as they are tried, they are found wanting. They differ from hypocrites. It is not fraud or double dealing that is their sin: it is a weak mind, petty standards of judging right by success, a selfishness that gives nothing but asks for all, a narrow-mindedness that does not go beyond petty mundane calculations—a "nicely calculated less or more" of the good things of this world. They fail in both worlds and their failure in this world is patent for every on-looker.

2783. To such minds religion does not mean high endeavour, self-sacrifice for noble ends, the recognition of Allah's infinite world, but just a small concession to formalism, perhaps a present to an idol (literal or figurative), perhaps attendance at worship if it can be done without trouble! It is false gods they worship, and the more they worship, the more they stray.

2784. Such false worship is not always neutral, bringing neither harm nor good. Perhaps the harm comes first, and there is no help from Allah. Such minds are themselves demoralised, and render themselves unfit for help!

2785. Allah is both true to His promise, and He has power to give full effect to His Will and Plan.

And the Hereafter, let him
Stretch out a rope
To the ceiling and cut (himself)²⁷⁸⁶
Off: then let him see
Whether his plan will remove
That which enrages (him)!

16. Thus have We sent down²⁷⁸⁷
Clear Signs: and verily
Allah doth guide whom
He will!

17. Those who believe (in the Qur'ān),
Those who follow the Jewish (scriptures),
And the Sabians,²⁷⁸⁸ Christians,
Magians,²⁷⁸⁹ and Polytheists—
Allah will judge between them
On the Day of Judgement:
For Allah is witness
Of all things.

18. Seest thou not that
To Allah bow down in worship
All things that are
In the heavens and on earth — ²⁷⁹⁰

وَالْآخِرَةِ
فَلْيَمْدُدْ بِسَبَبٍ إِلَى السَّمَاءِ ثُمَّ لِيَقْطَعْ
فَلْيَنْظُرْ هَلْ يُذْهِبَنَّ كَيْدَهُ مَا يَغِيظُ ○

١٦- وَكَذَلِكَ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ آيَاتٍ بَيِّنَاتٍ
وَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَهْدِي مَنْ يُرِيدُ ○

١٧- إِنْ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَالَّذِينَ هَادُوا
وَالصَّبِيَّانَ وَالنَّصَارَى وَالْمَجُوسَ وَالَّذِينَ
أَشْرَكُوا إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَفْصِلُ بَيْنَهُمْ
يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ
شَهِيدٌ ○

١٨- أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَسْجُدُ لَهُ
مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ

2786. There is some difference of opinion as to the interpretation of this verse. Most Commentators are agreed that the pronoun "him" in the second line ("will not help him") refers to the Holy Prophet, and that the "any" in the first line refers to his enemies, who wished to see him destroyed and removed from the scene of his labours. Ibn 'Abbās, whom I have followed here, and whom a great number of Commentators follow, construes the later clauses in the sense given in the text. Freely paraphrased, it means: if the enemies of Allah's Messenger are enraged at his successes, let them fix a rope to their ceiling and hang themselves. Samā' is thus rendered by the word "ceiling". If Samā' is rendered by the word "heaven" (the usual meaning), the paraphrase would be: if the enemies of Allah's Messenger are enraged at the help he gets from heavens, let them stretch a rope to heaven and see if they can cut off the help that way!—in other words, they are fools if they think they can intercept Allah's help by their petty devices!

2787. Instead of plotting against Allah's Messenger, the Unbelievers should observe the Clear Signs which he has brought and obey and follow the Guidance which comes from Allah according to the Laws which He has fixed by His Holy Will and Plan.

2788. For Sabians, see n. 76 to 2:62. They are also referred to in 5:72. In both those passages, the Muslims are mentioned with the Jews, Christians, and Sabians, as receiving Allah's protection and mercy. Here, besides the four religions, there is further mention of Magians and Polytheists: it is not said that they would receive Allah's Mercy, but only that Allah will judge between the various forms of faith. (R).

2789. This is the only place where the Magians (Mayūs) are mentioned in the Qur'ān. Their cult is a very ancient one. They consider Fire as the purest and noblest element, and worship it as a fit emblem of Allah. Their location was the Persian and Median uplands and the Mesopotamian valleys, their religion was reformed by Zardusht (date uncertain, about B.C. 600?). Their scripture is the Zend-Avesta, the bible of the Pārsīs. They were "the Wise men of the East" mentioned in the Gospels. (R).

2790. Cf. 21:79, and n. 2733. All created things, animate and inanimate, depend on Allah for their existence, and this dependence can be construed as their Sajda or bowing down in worship. Their very existence proclaims their dependence. How can they be objects of worship? For haqqa in this verse, Cf. 15:64, n. 1990.

The sun, the moon, the stars;
The hills, the trees, the animals;
And a great number among
Mankind? But a great number
Are (also) such as are Fit for Punishment: and such
As Allah shall disgrace—
None can raise to honour:
For Allah carries out
All that He wills.²⁷⁹¹

وَالشَّمْسُ وَالْقَمَرُ وَالنُّجُومُ وَالْجِبَالُ وَالشَّجَرُ
وَالْدَّابُّ وَكَثِيرٌ مِّنَ النَّاسِ ۖ وَكَثِيرٌ
حَقٌّ عَلَيْهِ الْعَذَابُ ۖ
وَمَن يُهِنِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِن مُّكْرِمٍ ۖ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَفْعَلُ مَا يَشَاءُ ۝

19. These two antagonists dispute²⁷⁹²
With each other about their Lord:
But those who deny (their Lord)—
For them will be cut out
A garment of Fire:
Over their heads will be
Poured out boiling water.

١٩- هَذَانِ خَصْمَانِ اخْتَصَمُوا فِي رَبِّهِمْ
فَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا قُطِعَتْ لَهُمْ
ثِيَابٌ مِّن نَّارٍ ۖ
يُصَبُّ مِنْ فَوْقِ رُءُوسِهِمُ الْحَمِيمُ ۖ

20. With it will be scalded
What is within their bodies,
As well as (their) skins.²⁷⁹³

٢٠- يَصْهَرُ بِهِ مَا فِي بُطُونِهِمْ وَالْجُلُودُ ۖ

21. In addition there will be
Maces of iron (to punish) them.²⁷⁹⁴

٢١- وَلَهُمْ مَقَامِعٌ مِّنْ حَدِيدٍ ۝

22. Every time they wish
To get away therefrom,
From anguish, they will be Forced back therein, and
(It will be said), "Taste ye
The Penalty of Burning!"

٢٢- كُلَّمَا أَرَادُوا أَنْ يَخْرُجُوا مِنْهَا
مِنْ غَيْمٍ أَعِيدُوا فِيهَا ۖ
وَذُوقُوا عَذَابَ الْحَرِيقِ ۖ

SECTION 3.

23. Allah will admit those
Who believe and work righteous deeds.

٢٣- إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُدْخِلُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا
الطَّاهِرَاتِ

2791. Cf. 22:16. There the argument was that those who work in harmony with Allah's Law and Will will get their reward, for Allah always carries out His Plan. Here is the parallel argument: those who defy Allah's Will must suffer pain and disgrace, for Allah is well able to carry out His Will.

2792. Two antagonists: i.e., parties of antagonists, viz., Men of Faith, who confess their Lord and seek to carry out His Will, and Men who deny their Lord and defy His Will.

2793. The punishment, expressed in physical terms, will be all-pervading, not merely superficial.

2794. Read this with the next verse. There will be no escape from the final Punishment adjudged after the time of repentance is past.

To Gardens beneath which²⁷⁹⁵
Rivers flow: they shall be
Adorned therein with bracelets
Of gold and pearls; and
Their garments there
Will be of silk.

جَدَّتْ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ
يُحَلَّونَ فِيهَا مِنْ أَسَاوِرَ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ وَ
لَوْلُؤَا وَلِبَاسُ مُمْ فِيهَا خَيْرٌ ۝

24. For they have been guided
(In this life) to the purest
Of speeches; they have been
Guided to the Path of Him
Who is Worthy of (all) Praise.

۲۴- وَهَدُّوا إِلَى الْقَيْبِ مِنَ الْقَوْلِ
وَهَدُّوا إِلَى صِرَاطِ الْحَمِيدِ ۝

25. As to those who have rejected
(Allah), and would keep back
(men)
From the Way of Allah, and
From the Sacred Mosque, which
We have made (open) to (all)
men—
Equal is the dweller there
And the visitor from the country—
And any whose purpose therein
Is profanity or wrongdoing—²⁷⁹⁶
Them will We cause to taste
Of a most grievous Penalty.

۲۵- إِنَّ الدِّينَ كَفَرُوا وَيَصُدُّونَ عَنْ
سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
وَالْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ الَّذِي جَعَلْنَاهُ لِلنَّاسِ
سَوَاءً الْعَاكِفُ فِيهِ وَالْبَادِ
وَمَنْ يُرِدْ فِيهِ بِالْحَادِ بِظُلْمٍ
ثَذِّقْهُ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْيَوْمِ ۝

- C. 152. — For our spiritual growth are provided
(22:26-48.) Symbols and means of expression in our ordinary Lives. Such is the pilgrimage, meant
To gather men and women from far and near
To share in sacrifice, and prayer and praise,
In an age-old centre of worship. The sacrifices,
Too, are symbols of Piety of Heart,
A longing to share with fellow-men
In the bounties of Allah. In the Fight for Truth
Is tested our purity of motive, unselfishness
Of aim, and devotion to Right at the cost
Of Self. Fearless must we fight: for Truth
Has often been flouted, but must finally win.

2795. In 22:14 above, was described the meed of the Righteous as compared with the time-servers and those who worshipped false gods (vv. 10-13): here we have the case of those who were persecuted, abused, prevented from entering the Ka'bah and deprived of all that makes life smooth, agreeable, and comfortable. For them the meed is described in metaphors that negative all these afflictions: costly adornments (as against being stripped of home and property), purity of speech (as against the abuse they received), the Path of the Lord of Praise (as against the fierce and malignant persecution to which they were subjected).

2796. All these were enormities of which the Pagan clique in power in Makkah were guilty before and during the Hijrah.

SECTION 4.

26. Behold! We gave the site,²⁷⁹⁷
To Abraham, of the (Sacred)
House,
(Saying): "Associate not anything
(In worship) with Me;
And sanctify My House
For those who compass it round,²⁷⁹⁸
Or stand up,
Or bow, or prostrate themselves
(Therein in prayer).

٢٦- وَإِذْ بَوَّأْنَا لِإِبْرَاهِيمَ مَكَانَ الْبَيْتِ
أَنْ لَا تُشْرِكَ بِي شَيْئًا

2797. The site of Makkah was granted to Abraham (and his son Ismā'il) for a place of worship that was to be pure (without idols, the worship being paid to Allah, the One True God) and universal, without being reserved (like Solomon's Temple of later times) to any one People or Race. (R).

2798. Cf. 2:125. Note that here the word qā'imūn (who stand up for prayer) occurs in place of ākifīn (who use it as a retreat). In practice the meaning is the same. Those who go for a retreat to the Ka'bah stay there for the time being.

2799. When the Pilgrimage was proclaimed, people came to it from every quarter, near and far, on foot and mounted. The "lean camel" coming after a fatiguing journey through distant mountain roads typifies the difficulties of travel, which Pilgrims disregard on account of the temporal and spiritual benefits referred to in the next verse.

2800. There are benefits both for this our material life and for our spiritual life. Of the former kind are those associated with social intercourse which furthers trade and increases knowledge. Of the latter kind are the opportunities of realising some of our spiritual yearnings in sacred associations that go back to the most ancient times. Of both kinds may be considered the opportunities which the Pilgrimage provides for strengthening our international Brotherhood.

2801. The three special days of Hajj are the 8th, 9th, and 10th of the month of Dhu al Hijjah, and the two or three subsequent days of Tashrīq; see the rites explained in n. 217 to 2:197. But we may ordinarily include the first ten days of Dhu al Hijjah in the term.

2802. The great day of commemorative Sacrifice ('Id al Adhā) is the 10th of Dhu al Hijjah: the meat then killed is meant to be eaten for food and distributed to the poor and needy. (R).

29. "Then let them complete
The rites prescribed²⁸⁰³
For them, perform their vows,²⁸⁰⁴
And (again) circumambulate
The Ancient House."

٢٩- ثُمَّ لِيَقْضُوا تَفَثَهُمْ وَلِيُؤْتُوا نَذْرَهُمْ

30. Such (is the Pilgrimage):

2803. Tafath — the superfluous growth on one's body, such as nails, hair, etc., which is not permitted to remove in Ihrām. These may be removed on the 10th day, when the Hajj is completed: that is the rite of completion.

2804. The spirit of Pilgrimage is not completed by the performance of the outward rites. The Pilgrim should carry in mind some vow or spiritual service and endeavour to perform it. Then comes the final Tawāf.

2805. The general food prohibitions will be found in 2:173, 5:4-5, and 6:121, 138-146. They are meant for health and cleanliness, but the worst abominations to shun are those of false worship and false speech. Here the question is about food during Pilgrimage. Lawful meat but not game is allowed.

2806. A parable full of meaning. The man who falls from the worship of the One True God, is like a man who falls from heaven. His being taken up with false objects of worship is like the falling man being picked up in the air by birds of prey. But the false objects of worship cannot hold him permanently in their grip. A fierce blast of wind — the Wrath of Allah — comes and snatches him away and throws him into a place far, far away from any place he could have imagined — into the hell of those who defied Allah. (R).

2807. Sha'ā'ir, symbols, signs, marks by which something is known to belong to some particular body of men, such as flags. In 2:158 the word was applied to Ṣafā and Marwah: see n. 160 there. Here it seems to be applied to the rites of sacrifice. Such sacrifice is symbolic: it should betoken dedication and piety of heart. See below, 22:37.

(In the sacrifice of animals),
Such (honour) should come truly
From piety of heart.

2808. In them: in cattle, or animals offered for sacrifice. It is quite true that they are useful in many ways to man, e.g., camels in desert countries are useful as mounts or for carrying burdens, or for giving milk, and so for horses and oxen; and camels and oxen are also good for meat, and camel's hair can be woven into cloth; goats and sheep also yield milk and meat, and hair or wool. But if they are used for sacrifice, they become symbols by which men show that they are willing to give up some of their own benefits for the sake of satisfying the needs of their poorer brethren.

2809. Ilā = towards, near. The actual sacrifice is not performed in the Ka'bah, but at Minā, five or six miles off, where the Pilgrims encamp: see n. 217 to 2:197. Thumma = then, finally, in the end; i.e., after all the rites have been performed, Ṭawāf, Ṣafā, and Marwah, and 'Arafāt.

2810. This is the true end of sacrifice, not propitiation of higher powers, for Allah is One, and He does not delight in flesh or blood (22:37), but a symbol of thanksgiving to Allah by sharing meat with fellow-men. The solemn pronouncement of Allah's name over the sacrifice is an essential part of the rite.

2811. The good news: i.e., the Message of Allah, that He will accept in us the sacrifice of self for the benefit of our fellow-men.

We have bestowed upon them.²⁸¹²

٣٧- لَنْ يَنَالَ اللَّهُ لُحُومُهَا وَلَا دِمَاؤُهَا
وَلَكِنْ يَنَالُهُ التَّقْوَى مِنْكُمْ
كَذَلِكَ سَخَّرَهَا لَكُمْ
لِتَشْكُرُوا اللَّهَ عَلَى مَا هَدَىٰكُمْ

2812. Some qualities of Allah's devotees are mentioned here, in ascending order: (1) Humility before Allah makes them receptive, and prepares them to listen to Allah's Message; (2) fear of Allah, which is akin to love, touches their heart, and penetrates through their inmost being; (3) they are not afraid of anything in mortal life; they take their trials patiently, and they go on in a course of righteousness with constancy; (4) their prayer now is not matter of form, but a real communion with Allah, with a sense of confidence such as a faithful servant feels in the presence of a kind and loving master; and (5) gratitude to Allah, as shown by practical acts of charity to all fellow-creatures.

2813. See n. 2808 to 22:33 above. What was expressed in general terms is applied here more particularly to camels, the most precious and useful animals of Arabia, whose mode of slaughter for sacrifice is different from that of smaller animals: the special word for such sacrifice is Naḥr (108:2).

2814. There are ethics in begging, as in charity. No approval is given to arrogant and insolent begging, though the relief of distress of all kinds, deserved and undeserved, is included in charity. But those who beg with humility and those who receive gifts with gratitude and contentment are both mentioned for special attention. Charity should not be given for show, or to get rid of importunate demands. It should find out real needs and meet them.

2815. The essence of sacrifice has been explained in n. 2810. No one should suppose that meat or blood is acceptable to the One True God. It was a Pagan fancy that Allah could be appeased by blood sacrifice. But Allah does accept the offering of our hearts, and as a symbol of such offer, some visible institution is necessary. He has given us power over the brute creation, and permitted us to eat meat, but only if we pronounce His name at the solemn act of taking life, for without this solemn invocation, we are apt to forget the sacredness of life. By the invocation we are reminded that wanton cruelty is not in our thoughts, but only the need of food. Now if we further deny ourselves the greater part of the food (some theologians fix the proportion at three-quarters or two-thirds) for the sake of our poorer brethren in solemn assembly in the precincts of the Haram (sacred territory), our symbolic act finds practical expression in benevolence, and that is the virtue sought to be taught. We should be grateful to Allah for His guidance in this matter, in which many Peoples have gone wrong, and we should proclaim the true doctrine, so that virtue and charity may increase among men.

And proclaim the Good News
To all who do right.

38. Verily Allah will defend
(From ill) those who believe:
Verily, Allah loveth not
Any that is a traitor
To faith, or shows ingratitude.

2816. Several translators have failed to notice that yugātalūna (in the best-approved texts) is in the passive voice, "against whom war is made"—not "who take arms against the unbelievers" as Sale translates it. The clause "and verily... their aid" is parenthetical. Verse 40 connects on with "they are wronged". The wrong is indicated: 'driven by persecution from their home, for no other reason than that they worshipped the One True God'. This was the first occasion on which fighting—in self-defence—was permitted. This passage therefore undoubtedly dates from Madīnah.

2817. Cf. 2:251, where the expression is used in connection with David's fight against the Philistines. To allow a righteous people to fight against a ferocious and mischief-loving people was fully justified. But the justification was far greater here, when the little Muslim community was not only fighting for its own existence against the Makkah Quraysh, but for the very existence of the Faith in the One True God. They had as much right to be in Makkah and worship in the Ka'bah as the other Quraysh; yet they were exiled for their Faith. It affected not the faith of one particular people. The principle involved was that of all worship, Jewish or Christian as well as Muslim, and of all foundations built for pious uses.

2818. 'Azīz means Exalted in power, rank, dignity; Incomparable; Full of might and majesty; Able to enforce His Will. The last signification is the one that predominates here.

2819. "Enjoining the right and forbidding the wrong" is an essential duty of the Muslim Ummah and one of the main purposes for which it has been raised. (See 3:104, 110; 9:71, 111-112., 22:41). (Eds.).

2820. It is nothing new if the Prophet of Allah is accused of imposture. This was done in all ages: e.g., Noah (7:64); Hūd the prophet of the 'Ād people (7:66); Ṣāliḥ the prophet of the Thamūd (7:76); Abraham (21:55); Lūṭ (7:82); Shu'aib the prophet of the Madyan people (7:85) and also of the Companions of the Wood (15:78). The case of Moses is mentioned apart, as his people survived to the time of our Prophet and survive to the present, and they frequently rebelled against Moses (2:49-61).

2821. Were they the same as the Companions of the Wood? See n. 2000 to 15:78.

C. 153. — The power of Evil is in insidious suggestions:
(22:49-78.) They are only a trial to those whose hearts
Are inclined to evil, but Truth doth shine
The nobler for the Believers, by the grace

2824. In a dry country like Arabia, a well stands as a symbol for a living, flourishing population, and many place-names mean "the well of so-and-so" e.g., Bīr 'Alī, a village just south of Madīnah, the quality of whose drinking water is famous, or Abyār Ibn Ḥassān, a noted stopping place on the road from Makkah to Madīnah, about 92 miles from Madīnah.

2825. The word for "heart" in Arabic speech imports both the seat of intelligent faculties and understanding as well as the seat of affections and emotions. Those who reject Allah's Message may have their physical eyes and ears, but their hearts are blind and deaf. If their faculties of understanding were active, would they not see the Signs of Allah's Providence and Allah's Wrath in nature around them and in the cities and ruins if they travel intelligently?

2826. If Allah gives respite, those to whom it is given have a real chance of repentance and amendment. He will not curtail His promise of respite. But on the other hand He has promised to call everyone to account for his deeds, and this involves justice and punishment for sin. This promise will also come true. It is foolish to try to hasten it. Time with Him is nothing. We keep count of time for our relative calculations. His existence is absolute, and not conditioned by Time or Place. What we call a thousand years may be nothing more than a day or a minute to Him.

2827. The argument begun in 22:45 is now rounded off and closed.

And guidance of Allah. Martyrs who give
 Their all in the cause of Allah will find

 فَيَنسَخُ اللَّهُ مَا يُلْقِي الشَّيْطَانُ

2828. It is the Messenger's duty to convey the warning in the clearest terms to the wicked. It is not part of his duty to coerce them or judge them, or bring on the Punishment for them. That only rests with Allah. But the warning itself is full of Mercy: for it gives the highest hope to the repentant sinner who turns and comes to Allah.

2829. The "sustenance" must be construed in the widest sense, spiritual as well as intellectual and physical. The reward of righteousness is far more generous than any merit there may be in the creature following the Will of his Creator.

2830. It will not be in their power to frustrate Allah's Plan; all they will do is go further and further down in their spiritual state, deeper and deeper into their Hell.

2831. Prophets and messengers (the distinction is explained in n. 2503 to 19:51) are but human. Their actions are righteous and their motives pure, but in judging things from a human point of view, the suggestion may come to their mind (from Satan) that it would be good to have power or wealth or influence for furthering Allah's cause, or that it may be good to conciliate some faction which may be irreconcilable. In fact, in Allah's Plan, it may be the opposite. Allah, in His mercy and inspiration, will cancel any false or vain suggestions of this kind, and confirm and strengthen His own Commands and make known His Will in His Signs or revelations.

And Allah will confirm (And establish) His Signs:
For Allah is full of knowldge

وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ۝

53. That He may make
The suggestions thrown in
By Satan, but a trial²⁸³³
For those in whose hearts
Is a disease and who are²⁸³⁴
Hardened of heart: verily
The wrongdoers are in a schism
Far (from the Truth):

هـ- لِيَجْعَلَ مَا يُلْقِي
الشَّيْطَانُ فِتْنَةً لِلَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ
مَّرَضٌ وَالْقَاسِيَةِ قُلُوبُهُمْ
وَإِنَّ الظَّالِمِينَ لَفِي شِقَاقٍ بَعِيدٍ ۝

54. And that those on whom²⁸³⁵
Knowledge has been bestowed may learn
That the (Qur'ān) is the Truth
From thy Lord, and that they May believe therein, and their hearts
May be made humbly (open)
To it: for verily Allah is
The Guide of those who believe,
To the Straight Way.

هـ- وَلِيُعَلِّمَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ
أَنَّهُ الْحَقُّ مِنْ رَبِّكَ
فَيُؤْمِنُوا بِهِ فَتُخْبِتَ لَهُ قُلُوبُهُمْ
وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَهَادِ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ۝

55. Those who reject Faith
Will not cease to be²⁸³⁶
In doubt concerning (Revelation)
Until the Hour (of Judgement)
Comes suddenly upon them,
Or there comes to them
The Penalty of a Day of Disaster.

هـ- وَلَا يَزَالُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فِي مِرْيَةٍ مِنْهُ
حَتَّى تَأْتِيَهُمُ السَّاعَةُ بَغْتَةً
أَوْ يَأْتِيَهُمْ عَذَابٌ يَوْمٍ عَقِيمٍ ۝

2832. This clause and the similar clause as the end of the next verse are parenthetical.

2833. If any suggestion comes to the human mind that is not in accordance with Allah's Will and Plan, it has two opposite effects: to evil minds it is a trial and a temptation from the Evil One, but to the mind well-instructed in Faith, it stands self-condemned at once, and becomes a means of strengthening the Faith and stimulating redoubled efforts to conform to the Will of Allah.

2834. Cf. 2:10. I understand the "disease in the heart" to be an earlier state of curse, which leads in an intensified form to a complete "hardening of the heart".

2835. The last clause in the last verse was parenthetical. Treat this clause as parallel with the first clause in verse 53, "that he may make", etc. Both will then connect with "Allah will confirm (and establish) His Signs" in verse 52. See n. 2833 above.

2836. The penalty of deliberately rejecting Faith is that the person doing so closes the channels of Mercy that flow from Allah. He will always be subject to doubts and superstitions, until the time comes when all earthly scales fall from his spiritual eyes. But then there will be no time for Repentance: it will be too late to profit by the guidance of Allah given through Revelation.

56. On that Day the Dominion²⁸³⁷
Will be that of Allah:
He will judge between them:
So those who believe
And work righteous deeds will be
In Gardens of Delight.

٥٦- الْمَلِكُ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلَّهِ يَحْكُمُ بَيْنَهُمْ
فَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ فِي
حَدِّتِ النَّعِيمِ ۝

57. And for those who reject Faith
And deny Our Signs,
There will be a humiliating
Punishment.

٥٧- وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا
فَأُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُّهِينٌ ۝

SECTION 8.

58. Those who leave their homes
In the cause of Allah,
And are then slain or die—
On them will Allah bestow verily
A goodly Provision:²⁸³⁸
Truly Allah is He Who
Bestows the best Provision.

٥٨- وَالَّذِينَ هَاجَرُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
ثُمَّ قُتِلُوا أَوْ مَاتُوا
لَيَرْزُقَنَّهُمُ اللَّهُ رِزْقًا حَسَنًا
وَلَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَهُ خَيْرُ الرَّازِقِينَ ۝

59. Verily He will admit them
To a place with which
They shall be well pleased:
For Allah is All-Knowing,
Most Forbearing.²⁸³⁹

٥٩- لَيُدْخِلَنَّهُمْ مُّدْخَلًا يَرْضَوْنَ
وَلَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَعَلِيمٌ حَلِيمٌ ۝

60. That (is so). And if one
Has retaliated to no greater
Extent than the injury he received,
And is again set upon
Inordinately, Allah will help
Him: for Allah is One

٦٠- ذَلِكَ وَمَنْ عَاقَبَ
بِشَيْءٍ مَّا عُوِّقَ بِهِ
ثُمَّ بَغَىٰ عَلَيْهِ لَيَنْصُرْنَاهُ اللَّهُ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ

2837. Such power as Evil has over those who yield to it (17:62-64) will then be gone, as the respite granted to Satan will be over, and Allah's Kingdom will be established.

2838. Rizq: sustenance, provision. I have preferred the latter word here, because after death we can only think of rizq in a large metaphorical sense, i.e., all the provision necessary to equip the person for a full and happy Future Life, and also, I think, a provision for his dependants and near and dear ones in this life. (R).

2839. Martyrdom is the sacrifice of life in the service of Allah. Its reward is therefore even greater than that of an ordinarily good life. The martyr's sins are forgiven by the very act of martyrdom, which implies service and self-surrender in the highest sense of the word. Allah knows all his past life but will forbear from calling him to account for things that should strictly come into his account.

That blots out (sins)
And forgives (again and again)²⁸⁴⁰

61. That is because Allah merges
Night into Day, and He
Merges Day into Night, and
Verily it is Allah Who hears
And sees (all things).²⁸⁴¹

62. That is because Allah — He²⁸⁴²
Is the Reality; and those
Besides Him whom they invoke —
They are but vain Falsehood:
Verily Allah is He, Most High,
Most Great.²⁸⁴³

63. Seest thou not that Allah
Sends down rain from the sky,
And forthwith the earth
Becomes clothed with green?
For Allah is He Who
understands²⁸⁴⁴
The finest mysteries, and
Is well-acquainted (with them).

لَعَفُوْهُ عَفْوَرٌ ۝

٦١- ذٰلِكَ بِاَنَّ اللّٰهَ يُوْجِبُ الْاَيْلَ فِي النَّهَارِ

بَصِيْرٌ ۝

٦٢- ذٰلِكَ بِاَنَّ اللّٰهَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ
وَاَنَّ مَا يَدْعُوْنَ مِنْ دُوْنِهٖ هُوَ الْبَاطِلُ
وَاَنَّ اللّٰهَ هُوَ الْعَلِيُّ الْكَبِيْرُ ۝

٦٣- اَلَمْ تَرَ اَنَّ اللّٰهَ اَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَآءً
فَتَخْضِبُ الْاَرْضَ مُخْضَرَةً ۚ
اِنَّ اللّٰهَ لَطِيْفٌ خَبِيْرٌ ۝

2840. Ordinarily Muslims are enjoined to bear injuries with patience and return good for evil (23:96). But there are occasions when human feelings get the better of our wise resolutions, or when, in a state of conflict or war, we return "as good as we get". In that case our retaliation is permissible, provided the injury we inflict is not greater than that we receive. After such retaliation, we are even, but if the other side again acts aggressively and goes beyond all bounds in attacking us, we are entitled to protection from Allah in spite of all our faults; for Allah is One that blots out our sins, and forgives again and again.

2841. To some it may appear strange or even irreconcilable that Allah should be both Merciful and Just: that He should both protect His devotees and yet ask for their self-sacrifice; that he should command them to return good for evil, and yet permit retaliation under certain restrictions. But such thoughts are short-sighted. Do they not see many inconsistencies in all Life, all Nature, and all Creation? Why, even in such simple phenomena as Night and Day, the one merges into the other, and no one can tell when precisely the one begins and the other ends. Yet we can see in a rough sort of way that the one gives rest and the other activity, that the one reveals the beauties of the starry heavens and the other the splendour of the sun. In countless ways we can see there the wisdom and the fine artistry of Allah. And there are subtle nuances and mergings in nature that our intelligence can hardly penetrate. Now human life and human relations are far more complicated, and it is Allah alone Who can see all the subtle distinctions and hear the cries of all His creatures, in a world which Tennyson described as "red in tooth and claw".

2842. The emphatic construction calls attention to the fact that Allah is the only abiding Reality. All else is like shadows that will pass away.

2843. See n. 2841 above. Our vain imaginings, groundless doubts, foolish subtleties, and false worship should all give place to trust and faith in the one and only Reality.

2844. Latīf, as a name of Allah, is as difficult to define in words as the idea it seeks to represent is difficult to grasp in our minds. It implies: (1) fine, subtle (the basic meaning); (2) so fine and subtle as to be imperceptible to human sight; (3) so pure as to be incomprehensible; (4) with sight so perfect as to see and understand the finest subtleties and mysteries; (5) so kind and gracious as to bestow gifts of the most refined kind; extraordinarily gracious and understanding. No. 4 is the predominant meaning here and in 12:100; Nos. 2 and 3 in 6:103; and No. 5 in 42:19; but every shade of meaning must be borne in mind in each case, as a subsidiary factor in the spiritual melody.

64. To Him belongs all that is
In the heavens and on earth:
For verily Allah—He is
Free of all wants,
Worthy of all praise.²⁸⁴⁵

٦٣- لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ
وَلَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَهُوَ الْغَنِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ ۝

SECTION 9.

65. Seest thou not that Allah
Has made subject to you (men)
All that is on the earth,
And the ships that sail²⁸⁴⁶
Through the sea by His command?
He withholds the sky (rain)²⁸⁴⁷
From falling on the earth
Except by His leave:
For Allah is Most Kind
And Most Merciful to man.

٦٥- أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ سَخَّرَ لَكُم
مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَالْفُلَاقَ تَجْرِي فِي الْبَحْرِ
بِأَمْرِهِ وَيُمْسِكُ السَّمَاءَ أَنْ تَقَعَ عَلَى
الْأَرْضِ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِهِ ۚ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِالنَّاسِ لَرَّؤُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ ۝

66. It is He Who gave you life,
Will cause you to die,
And will again give you
Life: truly man is
A most ungrateful creature!

٦٦- وَهُوَ الَّذِي أَحْيَاكُم ثُمَّ يُمَيِّتُكُمْ
ثُمَّ يُخْيِيكُم ۚ إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لَكَفُورٌ ۝

67. To every People have We Appointed rites and ceremonies²⁸⁴⁸
Which they must follow:
Let them not then dispute
With thee on the matter,

٦٧- لِكُلِّ أُمَّةٍ جَعَلْنَا مَنَسَكًا
هُم نَاسِكُوهُ فَلَا يُبَاذِرُكَ فِي الْأَمْرِ

2845. Each of the verses 22:61-63 mentioned two attributes of Allah with reference to the contents of that verse. This verse now sums up the whole argument, and the two attributes with which it closes sum up the idea by which we can understand Allah's goodness. Allah's loving kindness and mercies are not like those of human creatures who all depend upon one another, and often expect some kindness or recognition in return. Allah is above all wants and depends in no way whatever on His creatures. His mercies have therefore a special quality, which we cannot describe except by gratefully singing the praises of Allah. Cf. 2:267.

2846. Land and sea have been made subject to man by Allah's command, so that man can develop his life freely on earth.

2847. Samā' means (1) something high, (2) a roof, a ceiling, (3) the sky, the canopy of heaven, (4) cloud or rain. I understand the last meaning here, though most authorities seem to render it by some such word as "sky". If we understand rain here, we have a complete picture of the three elements in which man lives—land, air and sea. Rain is also appropriate for mention with Allah's kindness and mercy. He regulates the rain for man's benefit.

2848. Rites and ceremonies may appear to be an unimportant matter compared with "weightier matters of the Law" and with the higher needs of man's spiritual nature. But they are necessary for social and religious organisation, and their effect on the individual himself is not to be despised. In any case, as they are visible external symbols, they give rise to the most heated controversies. Such controversies are to be deprecated. That does not mean that our rites and ceremonies are to be made light of. Those in Islam rest on the highest social and religious needs of man, and if we are convinced that we are on the Right Way, we should invite all to join us, without entering into controversies about such matters.

But do thou invite (them)
To thy Lord: for thou art
Assuredly on the Right Way.

68. If they do wrangle with thee,
Say, "Allah knows best
What it is ye are doing."²⁸⁴⁹
69. "Allah will judge between you
On the Day of Judgement
Concerning the matters in which Ye differ."²⁸⁵⁰
70. Knowest thou not that
Allah knows all that is
In heaven and on earth?
Indeed it is all
In a record, and that
Is easy for Allah.²⁸⁵¹
71. Yet they worship, besides Allah,
Things for which no authority
Has been sent down to them,
And of which they have (Really) no knowledge:
For those that do wrong
There is no helper.²⁸⁵²
72. When Our Clear Signs
Are rehearsed to them,
Thou wilt notice a denial²⁸⁵³
On the faces of the Unbelievers!
They nearly attack with violence
Those who rehearse Our Signs

2849. 'You are only wrangling about matters about which you have no knowledge nor any deep religious feeling. The springs of your conduct are all open before Allah, and He will judge you.'

2850. 'You not only find fault with the very few and simple rites and ceremonies in Islam: you, outside Islam, have no rites and ceremonies which you are yourselves agreed upon, either as Christians or as Jews, or one compared with the other.'

2851. We human beings can only think of knowledge being accurately and permanently preserved by means of a record. Allah's knowledge has all the qualities of a perfect record, and it is moreover complete and comprehensive. This is not difficult for Him from whom flows all knowledge and intelligence.

2852. When plain common-sense shows the absurdity of false worship, behind which there is neither knowledge, intelligence, nor authority (quite the contrary), who or what can help the false misguided creatures who dishonour Allah by false worship?

2853. Munkar: (1) a refusal to accept something offered; (2) a denial of something stated or pointed out; (3) a feeling of disapproval or active aversion, or disgust.

76. He knows what is before them
And what is behind them:

۝-يَعْلَمُ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ ۚ

2854. There is irony here. 'You think Allah's revelations and Signs are distasteful to you! There will be something far more distasteful to you if you do not repent! What do you say to the inevitable Punishment?'

2855. Both idols and their worshippers are poor, foolish, feeble creatures!

2856. No one who descends to the base forms of false worship can have a true idea of Allah. Allah has all power, and He is fully able to carry out every part of His Will and Plan. He is exalted above all in power and dignity. Cf. 22:40 and n. 2818 for the full meaning of 'Aziz.

2857. Men are chosen as Messengers to ordinary men; for ordinary men will not be able to understand and be in communion with beings so refined as angels. But angels are sent as Messengers to Allah's chosen prophets, to convey the Message from time to time. In either case they are chosen by Allah, are subject to Allah's Will, and should not be worshipped as gods.

2858. As Allah regards the humblest of His creatures and hears their prayer, He sends men messengers out of their own brethren (see last note), and to such messengers He communicates the highest spiritual Truths through His angels.

And to Allah go back

So establish regular Prayer,
Give regular Charity,
And hold fast to Allah!
He is your Protector—
The best to protect
And the Best to help!

وَاعْتَصِمُوا بِاللَّهِ هُوَ مَوْلَاكُمْ
فَنِعْمَ الْمَوْلَى وَنِعْمَ النَّصِيرُ ۝

2859. Time, before or behind, may be of some importance to men. They may dispute as to what was the first Message, and what is the last Message. To Allah this question of priority and posteriority is of no consequence. All questions go back ultimately to him and are judged on their merits.

2860. Prosper: in a spiritual sense, both in this life and the Hereafter.

2861. As far as the striving is concerned with Jihād in the narrow sense, see the limitations in n. 204 to 2:190 and n. 205 to 2:191. But the words are perfectly general and apply to all true and unselfish striving for spiritual good.

2862. The Jews were hampered by many restrictions, and their religion was racial. Christianity, as originally preached, was a hermit religion: "sell whatsoever thou hast" (Mark x. 21): "take no thought for the morrow" (Matt. vi. 34). Islam, as originally preached, gives freedom and full play to man's faculties of every kind. It is universal, and claims to date from Adam: father Abraham is mentioned as the great Ancestor of those among whom Islam was first preached (Jews, Christians, and Arab Quraysh).

2863. Before: see Abraham's prayer in 2:128. In this revelation: in this very verse, as well as in other places.

2864. See 2:143, and notes 143 and 144. As the Prophet is a guide and exemplar among us, so Muslims ought to be exemplars amongst mankind. The best witness to Allah's Truth are those who show its light in their lives.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 23—AL MU'MINŪN

This Sūrah deals with the virtues which are the seed-bed of Faith, especially in an environment in which Truth is denied and its votaries insulted and persecuted. But Truth is One and must prevail. Those who do wrong will be filled with vain regrets when it is too late for repentance.

It belongs to the late Makkan period.

Summary.—Faith, coupled with humility in prayer, charity, abstinence from vanity and from indulgence in appetites, and strict probity, must lead to final success, even though people mock and accuse the righteous of false motives, as did the contemporaries of Noah, of Moses, and of Jesus (23:1-50, and C. 154).

The prophets of Allah and the righteous form one Brotherhood, but those who make schisms and refuse to believe have ample evidence pointing to Truth and the goodness and greatness of Allah (23:51-92, and C. 155).

Evil must be repelled by goodness and faith in Allah; for the future life is sure, and those who disbelieve will wish for another chance when it is too late (23:93-118, and C. 156).

C. 154. — Faith leads to humility, avoidance
 (23:1-50.) Of vanity in word and deed, charity,
 Contenance, faithful observance
 Of trusts and covenants, and devout
 Approach to Allah—surest steps
 To Bliss. Man carries in himself
 Proofs of Allah's Providence; the same
 Story is told if he looks at nature
 Around him; and the long line of Teachers
 Sent by Allah shows Allah's special care
 Of humanity. What though they were Rejected and scorned, maligned and persecuted?
 Allah's Truth won through, as it always will.

1. The Believers must
(Eventually) win through — ²⁸⁶⁵
2. Those who humble themselves ²⁸⁶⁶
In their prayers;
3. Who avoid vain talk;
4. Who are active in deeds
Of charity;
5. Who abstain from sex, ²⁸⁶⁷
6. Except with those joined
To them in the marriage bond,
Or (the captives) whom
Their right hands possess — ²⁸⁶⁸
For (in their case) they are
Free from blame,
7. But those whose desires exceed
Those limits are transgressors —

٧- فَمَنْ ابْتَغَىٰ وَرَاءَ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْعَادُونَ ۝

2865. Aflaha: win through, prosper, succeed, achieve their aims or obtain salvation from sorrow and all evil. This verse connects on with verses 10 and 11 below. The success or victory may come in this world, but is certain and lasting in the world to come.

2866. Humility in prayer as regards (1) their estimate of their own worth in Allah's presence, (2) as regards their estimate of their own powers or strength unless they are helped by Allah, and (3) as regards the petitions they offer to Allah.

2867. The Muslim must guard himself against every kind of sex abuse or sex perversion. The new psychology associated with the name of Freud traces many of our hidden motives to sex, and it is common knowledge that our refinement or degradation may be measured by the hidden workings of our sex instincts. But even the natural and lawful exercise of sex is restricted to the marriage bond, under which the rights of both parties are duly regulated and maintained.

2868. This is further explained and amplified in 4:25. It will be seen there that the status of a captive when raised to freedom by marriage is the same as that of a free woman as regards her rights, but more lenient as regards the punishment to be inflicted if she falls from virtue.

8. Those who faithfully observe
Their trusts and covenants;²⁸⁶⁹
9. And who (strictly) guard²⁸⁷⁰
Their prayers—
10. These will be the heirs,²⁸⁷¹
11. Who will inherit Paradise:
They will dwell therein
(Forever).
12. فَإِنَّا We did create
From a quintessence (of clay);²⁸⁷²
13. Then We placed him
As (a drop of) sperm
In a place of rest,²⁸⁷³
Firmly fixed;

- ۞ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِأَمْتِهِمْ وَعَهْدِهِمْ رِعُونَ ۞
- ۞ وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ عَلَى صَلَاتِهِمْ حَافِظُونَ ۞
- ۞ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْوَارِثُونَ ۞
- ۞ الَّذِينَ يَرْتَوْنَ الْفِرَادُوسَ هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ ۞
- ۞ وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ سُلَالَةٍ مِنْ طِينٍ ۞
- ۞ ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَاهُ نُطْفَةً فِي قَرَارٍ مَكِينٍ ۞

2869. Trusts may be express or implied. Express trusts are those where property is entrusted or duties are assigned by some one to some other whom he trusts, to carry out either immediately or in specified contingencies, such as death. Implied trusts arise out of power, or position, or opportunity; e.g., a king holds his kingdom on trust from Allah for his subjects: the Afghan official phrase for their kingdom used to be Dawlat-i-Khudā-dād ('God-given kingdom'). The subject of covenants, express and implied, has been discussed in n. 682 to 5:1. Covenants create obligations, and express and implied trusts and covenants taken together cover the whole field of obligations.

2870. In verse 2 we were directed to the spirit of humility and earnestness in our prayers. Here we are told how necessary the habit of regular prayer is to our spiritual well-being and development, as it brings us closer to Allah, and thus sums up the light of the seven jewels of our Faith, viz.: (1) humility, (2) avoidance of vanity, (3) charity, (4) sex purity, (5) fidelity to trusts, and (6) to covenants, and (7) an earnest desire to get closer to Allah.

2871. Cf. 21:105, where it is said that the righteous will inherit the earth. In the first verse of this Sūrah, the final success or victory is referred to. Truth will prevail even on this earth, but it may not be for any individual men of righteousness to see it: it may be in the time of their heirs and successors. But in the life to come, there is no doubt that every man will see the fruit of his life here, and the righteous will inherit heaven, in the sense that they will attain it after their death here.

2872. In this beautiful passage, Allah's creative work, as far as man is concerned, is recapitulated, in order to show man's real position in this life, and the certainty of the future: to which he was referred for his reward in verses 10-11 above. For the various stages of creation, see n. 120 to 2:117. Here we are not concerned with the earliest stage, the creation of primeval matter out of nothing. It is also a process of creation when inorganic matter becomes living matter. Thus inorganic constituents of the earth are absorbed into living matter by way of food and living matter reproduces itself by means of sperm. This is deposited in the ovum and fertilises it and rests for a time in security in the mother's womb. The first change in the fertilised ovum is the conversion into a sort of clot of thickly congealed blood; the zygote cells grow by segmentation; then the mass gradually assumes shape in its growth as a foetus. From the lump develop bones and flesh and organs and a nervous system. So far man's growth is like that of an animal, but a further process takes place which makes the infant animal into the infant man. This is the breathing of Allah's spirit into him (15:29): that process need not be precisely at a given point of time. It may be a continuous process parallel to that of physical growth. The child is born: it grows; it decays and dies; but after death another chapter opens for the individual, and it is to remind us of this most momentous chapter that the previous stages are recapitulated.

2873. The growth in the foetal stage is silent and unseen. The foetus is protected in the mother's womb like a king in a castle; it is firmly fixed, and gets the protection of the mother's body, on which it depends for its own growth until birth.

14. Then We made the sperm
Into a clot of congealed blood;
Then of that clot We made
A (foetus) lump; then We
Made out of that lump
Bones and clothed the bones
With flesh; then We developed
Out of it another creature.²⁸⁷⁴
So blessed be Allah,
The Best to create!

١٣- ثُمَّ خَلَقْنَا النُّطْفَةَ عَلَقَةً
فَخَلَقْنَا الْعَلَقَةَ مُضْغَةً فَخَلَقْنَا الْمُضْغَةَ
عِظْمًا فَكَسَوْنَا الْعِظْمَ لَحْمًا
ثُمَّ أَنشَأْنَاهُ خَلْقًا آخَرَ
فَتَبَارَكَ اللَّهُ أَحْسَنُ الْخَالِقِينَ ۝

15. After that, at length
Ye will die.²⁸⁷⁵

١٥- ثُمَّ إِنَّكُمْ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ لَنَيِّتُونَ ۝

16. Again, on the Day
Of Judgement, will ye be
Raised up.

١٦- ثُمَّ إِنَّكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ تُبْعَثُونَ ۝

17. And We have made, above you,
Seven tracts;²⁸⁷⁶ and We
Are never unmindful
Of (Our) Creation.²⁸⁷⁷

١٧- وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا فَوْقَكُمْ سَبْعَ طَرَائِقَ
وَمَا كُنَّا عَنْ الْخَلْقِ غَافِلِينَ ۝

18. And We send down water
From the sky according to²⁸⁷⁸
(Due) measure, and We cause it

١٨- وَأَنزَلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً بِقَدَرٍ

2874. From a mere animal, we now consider man as man. Is it not a Sign of wonder in itself that from dry dust (turāb, 22:5) or inorganic matter should be made protoplasm (moist clay or organic matter); from it should grow a new animal life; and out of it should grow human life, with all its capacities and responsibilities? Man carries within himself Signs of Allah's wisdom and power, and he can see them every day in the universe around him.

2875. Our physical death in this mortal life seems to make a break. But if it were the end of all, our life becomes meaningless. Our own instinct tells us that it cannot be so, and Allah assures us that there will be a resurrection for judgement.

2876. Tarā'iq: tracts, roads, orbits, or paths of motion in the visible heavens. These seven are regular and clearly marked to our eyes, in the immense space that we see around us. We must go to astronomy to form any plausible theories of these motions. But their simplest observation gives us a sublime view of beauty, order, and grandeur in the universe. The assurance given in the next clause, that Allah cares for us and all His Creation, calls our attention to Allah's goodness, which is further illustrated in the subsequent verses.

2877. Allah's care for His Creation is ceaseless. A few examples of His care for our physical well-being are given in verses 18-22, and for our spiritual well-being, in Sections 2 to 5.

2878. Normally the rain comes well distributed; it soaks into the soil; the moisture is retained for a long time in all high grounds; it soaks and penetrates through many layers of soil and forms the architecture of physical geography; the retentive powers of higher soil enable rivers to flow perennially even where, as in India, the rainfall is seasonal and confined to a few months in the year. Another form in which water comes down from the sky according to due measure is in snow and hail: these also have their place in the economy of air and soil. Were it not for snow and glaciers in the higher mountain regions, some of the rivers would fail in their abundant flow. As wonderful as the supply of water and moisture is its drainage. It returns to the sea and air in all sorts of ways, and the formation of mist and clouds repeats the cycle. Were it not for the drainage and the clearance of the waters, we should have floods and waterlogging, as happens when the normal processes of nature are temporarily obstructed. The same thing happens when the rain comes down in other than due measure. These abnormal conditions also have their value. But how grateful should man be for Allah's gifts in the ceaseless processes of nature on such an enormous scale!

To soak in the soil;
And We certainly are able
To drain it off (with ease).

19. With it We grow for you
Gardens of date palms
And vines; in them have ye
Abundant fruits: and of them
Ye eat (and have enjoyment) — 2879

20. Also a tree springing
Out of Mount Sinai, 2880
Which produces oil,
And relish for those
Who use it for food.

21. And in cattle (too) ye
Have an instructive example: 2881
From within their bodies
We produce (milk) for you
To drink; there are, in them,
(Besides), numerous (other)
Benefits for you;
And of their (meat) ye eat;

22. And on them, as well as
In ships, ye ride.

SECTION 2

23. (Further, We sent a long line
Of prophets for your instruction). 2882
We sent Noah to his people: 2883

فَأَسْكَنَهُ فِي الْأَرْضِ
وَإِنَّا عَلَى ذَهَابٍ بِهِ لَقَادِرُونَ ۝

١٩- فَأَنْشَأْنَا لَكُمْ بِهِ جَنَّاتٍ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا
وَأَعْنَابٌ لَكُمْ فِيهَا فَوَاكِهُ كَثِيرَةٌ
وَمِنْهَا تَأْكُلُونَ ۝

٢٠- وَشَجَرَةً تَخْرُجُ مِنْ طُورِ سَيْنَاءَ
تَنْبُتُ بِالذِّهْنِ وَصِبْغٍ لِلْكَالِينَ ۝

٢١- وَإِنَّ لَكُمْ فِي الْأَنْعَامِ لَعِبْرَةً
نُسْقِيكُمْ مِمَّا فِي بُطُونِهَا
وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا مَنَافِعُ كَثِيرَةٌ
وَمِنْهَا تَأْكُلُونَ ۝

٢٢- وَعَلَيْهَا وَعَلَى الْفُلْكِ تُحْمَلُونَ ۝

٢٣- وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ

2879. Cf. 7:19 and n. 776 to 5:69.

2880. For Arabia the best olives grow round about Mount Sinai. The fig, the olive, Mount Sinai, and the sacred city of Makkah are mentioned together in association in 95:1-3, where we shall consider the mystic meaning. Olive oil is an ingredient in medicinal ointments and in ointments used for religious ceremonies such as the consecration of kings. It has thus a symbolic meaning. If used for food, the olive has a delicious flavour. Cf. also 24:35, where the olive is called a Blessed Tree, and n. 3000.

2881. ʾIbrah: the root meaning of the verb is "to interpret, to expound, or instruct", as in 12:43; the noun means an interpretation, or example or Sign that instructs, as here and in 16:66, or gives a warning, as in 3:13. From cattle we get milk and meat; also from their skins we make leather for shoes, boots, straps, saddlery, and numerous other uses; from camel's hair and sheep's wool we weave cloth, hangings, carpets, etc.: from the horns of cattle we make cups and articles of ornament or use; and camels, horses, donkeys, mules, etc., are used for riding, carrying loads, or drawing vehicles.

2882. The material gifts having been mentioned, which we receive from a wise and kindly Providence, our attention is now directed to Allah's Providence in spiritual matters. He sent Teachers to instruct and guide us, and though they were mocked, rejected, and accused of falsehood and selfishness, they were protected by Allah, and Allah's Truth at length prevailed.

2883. "People" here is almost equivalent to "contemporaries".

He said, "O my people!
Worship Allah! Ye have
No other god but Him.
Will ye not hear (Him)?"²⁸⁸⁴

فَقَالَ يَقُومُوا عِبُدُوا اللَّهَ
مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ إِلَهٍ غَيْرُهُ أَفَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ○

24. The chiefs of the Unbelievers
Among his people said:
"He is no more than a man
Like yourselves: his wish is
To assert his superiority
Over you: if Allah had wished²⁸⁸⁵
(To send messengers),
He could have sent down
Angels: never did we hear
Such a thing (as he says),
Among our ancestors of old."

٢٤- فَقَالَ الْمَلَأُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ قَوْمِهِ

أَنْ يَتَفَضَّلَ عَلَيْكُمْ وَلَوْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ

25. (And some said): "He is²⁸⁷⁸

٢٥- إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا رَجُلٌ بِهِ جِنَّةٌ
فَتَرَبَّصُوا بِهِ حَتَّى حِينٍ ○

26. (Noah) said: "O my Lord!
Help me; for that they
Accuse me of falsehood!"

٢٦- قَالَ رَبِّ انصُرْنِي بِمَا كُنْتُ بَاطِلًا ○

27. So We inspired him
(With this message); "Construct
The Ark within Our sight²⁸⁸⁷
And under Our guidance: then
When comes Our command,
And the fountains of the earth²⁸⁸⁸
Gush forth, take thou on board
Pairs of every species, male²⁸⁸⁹
And female, and thy family—

٢٧- فَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْهِ أَنْ اصْنَعْ
الْفُلْكَ بِأَعْيُنِنَا وَوَحْيُنَا
فَإِذَا جَاءَ أَمْرُنَا وَفَارَ التَّنْزِيرُ
فَأَسْلَفْ فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ زَوْجَيْنِ اثْنَيْنِ
وَأَهْلَكَ

2884. Cf. 7:59. To fear Allah is to lead righteous lives and eschew evil.

2885. They attribute altogether wrong motives to him (such as they would have actuated themselves), in saying that he was trying to establish his own personal superiority over them by his preaching. Then they accuse him of falsehood in claiming to bring a message of Allah. "If", they say, "Allah had wished to send us messengers, He would have sent angels, not a man like ourselves and from among ourselves. Our ancestors did not worship One God: why should we?"

2886. I construe this to be a speech of another group among them. They thought he was mad, and best left alone. His madness would run out, or he would come to an evil end.

2887. Cf. this whole passage with 11:35-48, and notes thereon.

2888. See n. 1533 to 11:40, where the word Tannūr is explained.

2889. See n. 1534 to 11:40.

إِنْ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ إِلَهٍ غَيْرُهُ
أَفَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ۝

2894. If this refers to any particular prophet, it must be Hūd whose mission was to the 'Ad people, or to Šāliḥ, whose mission was to the Thamūd people. That is the sequence after Noah in S. 11:50-60 and 61-68. But I think that as the name is not mentioned, we are to understand in general the type of post-Flood prophets until we come later on to Moses and Jesus. The object here is not to recount the stories, but to show that the resistance of the wicked made no difference to the triumph of Allah's Holy Truth.

SECTION 3.

33. And the chiefs
Of his people, who disbelieved
And denied the Meeting
In the Hereafter, and on whom
We had bestowed the good things
Of this life, said: "He is
No more than a man
Like yourselves: he eats
Of that of which ye eat,
And drinks of what ye drink.
34. "If ye obey a man
Like yourselves, behold,
It is certain ye will be lost.²⁸⁹⁵
35. "Does he promise that
When ye die and become dust
And bones, ye shall be Brought forth (again)?
36. "Far, very far is that
Which ye are promised!
37. "There is nothing but
Our life in this world!
We shall die and we live!²⁸⁹⁶
But we shall never
Be raised up again!
38. "He is only a man
Who invents a lie
Against Allah, but we
Are not the ones
To believe in him!"²⁸⁹⁷
39. (The prophet) said:
"O my Lord! help me:

٣٣- وَقَالَ الْمَلَأُ مِنْ قَوْمِهِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
وَكَذَّبُوا بِلِقَاءِ الْآخِرَةِ وَأُثِرْنَاهُمْ فِي
الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا مَا هَذَا إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِثْلُكُمْ
يَأْكُلُ مِمَّا تَأْكُلُونَ مِنْهُ
وَيَشْرَبُ مِمَّا تَشْرَبُونَ ۝

٣٤- وَلَئِنْ أَطَعْتُمْ بَشَرًا مِثْلَكُمْ
إِنَّكُمْ إِذَا لَخَسِرُونَ ۝

٣٥- أَيْعِدُكُمْ أَنْتُمْ أَنْتُمْ إِذَا مِتُّمْ وَكُنْتُمْ تُرَابًا
وَعِظَامًا أَنْتُمْ تُخْرَجُونَ ۝

٣٦- هَيْهَاتَ هَيْهَاتَ لِمَا تُوعَدُونَ ۝

٣٧- إِنَّ هِيَ إِلَّا حَيَاتُنَا الدُّنْيَا
نَمُوتُ وَنَحْيَا
وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمَبْعُوثِينَ ۝

٣٨- إِنَّ هُوَ إِلَّا رَجُلٌ افْتَرَى عَلَى اللَّهِ
كَذِبًا وَمَا نَحْنُ لَهُ بِمُؤْمِنِينَ ۝

٣٩- قَالَ رَبِّ انصُرْنِي

2895. The type of the narrow Sybarite, who enjoys the good things of this life, denies a future life, and is jealous of any one who presumes to widen his horizon, is here described in a few masterly strokes. He is bored by any mention of the serious things beyond his ken. What good is it, he says, to talk about the future? Enjoy the present. The gain is all in the present: the loss is all in the future.

2896. They seem to say: "There is no future life: that we shall die is certain; that we have this life is certain: some die, some are born, some live; and so the cycle continues: but how can dead men be raised to life?"

2897. "He is only a fool, and invents things, and attributes them to Allah's inspiration! We are too wise to believe such things!"

For that they accuse me
Of falsehood.”²⁸⁹⁸

40. (Allah) said: “In but
A little while, they
Are sure to be sorry!”²⁸⁹⁹

41. Then the Blast²⁹⁰⁰ overtook them
With justice, and We made them
As rubbish of dead leaves²⁹⁰¹
(Floating on the stream of Time)!
So away with the people
Who do wrong!

42. Then We raised after them
Other generations.

43. No people can hasten
Their term, nor can they Delay (it).

44. Then sent We Our messengers
In succession: every time
There came to a people
Their messenger, they accused him
Of falsehood: so We made
Them follow each other
(In punishment): We made them
As a tale (that is told):²⁹⁰²
So away with a people
That will not believe!

45. Then We sent Moses
And his brother Aaron,
With Our Signs and
Authority manifest,²⁹⁰³

بِمَا كَذَّبُوۡنَ ۝

۴۰- قَالَ عَمَّا قَلِيۡلٍ
لَّيۡصِبۡحَنَّٰ نَدِمِيۡنَ ۝

۴۱- فَآخَذَ تَهُمُ الصَّيۡحَةُ بِٱلْحَقِّ
فَجَعَلَنَاهُمۡ غُثَآءً فَبَعۡدَ ٱلۡقَوۡمِ الظَّٰلِمِيۡنَ

۴۲- ثُمَّ أَنۡشَأْنَا مِنۢ بَعۡدِهِمۡ قُرُونًا ٰٔخَرِيۡنَ

۴۳- مَا تَسۡبِقُ مِنۡ أَمۡةٍ أَجَلَهَا وَمَا
يَسۡتَآخِرُونَ ۝

۴۴- ثُمَّ أَرۡسَلْنَا رُسُلَنَا تَتَرَا
كُلَّمَا جَآءَ أُمَّةً رَّسُولُهَا كَذَّبُوۡهُ
فَاتَّبَعَنَآ بَعۡضُهُمۡ بَعۡضًا
وَجَعَلَنَاهُمۡ أَحَادِيثَ
فَبَعۡدَ ٱلۡقَوۡمِ ٱلۡيَٰؤُمِنُونَ ۝

۴۵- ثُمَّ أَرۡسَلْنَا مُوسَىٰ وَآخَاهُ هَارُونَ
بِآيَاتِنَا وَسُلۡطٰنٍ مُّبِيۡنٍ ۝

2898. See above, 23:26. Every prophet is maligned and persecuted: it is always the same story with them, told in different ways.

2899. When the Punishment comes, they will be sorry for themselves, but it will be too late then.

2900. See 11:66, and notes 1563 and 1561.

2901. Ghuthā': rubbish of dead leaves, or scum floating on a torrent.

2902. Their habitations and their organisation have been wiped out. What remains is merely a vague story of their existence, a tale that is told. Where their name remains, which is not always the case, it is only a byword, suggesting all that is unstable and ephemeral—"to point a moral and adorn a tale".

2903. Moses and Aaron had a twofold mission: (1) to Pharaoh and his Court, which failed because of Egyptian arrogance; (2) to the Israelites, for whom the Law was received on Mount Sinai, but they repeatedly rebelled against Allah. In both cases there were miracles ("Clear Signs") and other proofs which showed that they came at Allah's command and were inspired by His authority.

46. To Pharaoh and his Chiefs:
But these behaved insolently:
They were an arrogant people.

٣٦- إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَئِهِ
فَاسْتَكْبَرُوا وَكَانُوا قَوْمًا عَالِينَ ۝

47. They said: "Shall we believe
In two men like ourselves?
And their people are subject²⁹⁰⁴
To us!"

٣٧- فَقَالُوا أَنُؤْمِنُ بِرِشْرَئِئِنَا
وَقَوْمِهِمَا لَنَا عِبْدُونَ ۝

48. So they accused them
Of falsehood, and they became
Of those who were destroyed.

٣٨- فَكَذَّبُوهُمْ فَكَانُوا مِنَ الْمُهْلَكِينَ ۝

49. And We gave Moses
The Book, in order that
They might receive guidance.²⁹⁰⁵

٣٩- وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ
لَعَلَّهُمْ يَهْتَدُونَ ۝

50. And We made
The son of Mary
And his mother
As a sign:²⁹⁰⁶
We gave them both
Shelter on high ground,
Affording rest and security
And furnished with springs.²⁹⁰⁷

٤٠- وَجَعَلْنَا ابْنَ مَرْيَمَ
وَأُمَّهُ آيَةً
وَآوَيْنَاهُمَا إِلَىٰ رَبْوَةٍ
ذَاتِ قَرَارٍ وَمَعِينٍ ۝

C. 155. — The Brotherhood of Truth is one in all ages:
(23:51-92.) It is narrow men who create sects.

Let them not think that the goods
Of this world can shield them from evil
Or its consequences. Allah's Truth and His Messenger
Can be known to all: for He in His Mercy
Has given us faculties and judgement, if we Would but use them. The Message is not
New: all Creation proclaims it: High
Above all is the Lord of Glory Supreme!

2904. Racial arrogance made the Egyptians say, 'These men belong to a race which we hold in subjection as our slaves: how can we accept them as messengers of Allah?'

2905. Here the reference is to the second part of the mission of Moses, that to the Israelites, which the Israelites rendered ineffective by their want of faith. See n. 2903 above.

2906. The virgin birth of Jesus was a miracle both for him and his mother. She was falsely accused of unchastity, but the child Jesus triumphantly vindicated her by his own miracles (19:27-33), and showed by his life the meanness of the calumny against his mother.

2907. There is no need to look far for the place where mother and child were given secure shelter. It is described in 19:22-26. It was the place to which she withdrew to be delivered when the time drew near. There was a fruitful palm tree, evidently on high ground, for beneath it flowed a spring. She retired there in seclusion, and she and her child rested there until it was time for her to go to her people with her child.

SECTION 4.

51. ﴿ ye messengers! enjoy²⁹⁰⁸
(All) things good and pure,
And work righteousness:
For I am well-acquainted
With (all) that ye do.
52. And verily this Brotherhood
Of yours is a single
Brotherhood.²⁹⁰⁹
And I am your Lord
And Cherisher: therefore
Fear Me (and no other).
53. But people have cut off
Their affair (of unity),
Between them, into sects:
Each party rejoices in that
Which is with itself.²⁹¹⁰
54. But leave them
In their confused ignorance
For a time.
55. ﴿ Do they think that because
We have granted them abundance
Of wealth and sons,
56. We would hasten them
On in every good? Nay
They do not understand.²⁹¹¹
57. ﴿ Verily those who live
In awe for fear of their Lord;
58. Those who believe
In the Signs of their Lord;

٥١- يٰٓاَيُّهَا الرُّسُلُ كُلُّوْا مِنَ الطَّيِّبٰتِ
وَاعْمَلُوْا صٰلِحًا
اِنِّىۤ بِمَا تَعْمَلُوْنَ عَلِيْمٌ ۝

٥٢- وَاِنَّ هٰذِهِۦ اُمَّتُكُمْ اُمَّةً وَّاحِدَةً
وَ اَنَا رَبُّكُمْ فَاتَّقُوْنِ ۝

٥٣- فَتَقَطَّعُوْا اَمْرَهُمْ بَيْنَهُمْ زُبُرًا
كُلُّ حِزْبٍ بِمَا لَدَيْهِمْ فَرِحُوْنَ ۝

٥٤- فَذَرُوْهُمْ فِىۤ غَمْرَتِهِمْ حَتّٰى حِيْنٍ ۝

٥٥- اَيَحْسَبُوْنَ اَنْ اُنٰسِدَهُمْ بِهٖ
مِنْ مَّالٍ وَّ بَنِيْنَ ۝

٥٦- نُّسَارِعُ لَهُمْ فِى الْخَيْرٰتِ
بَلْ لَا يَشْعُرُوْنَ ۝

٥٧- اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ هُمْ مِنْ خَشْيَةِ رَبِّهِمْ مُّشْفِقُوْنَ

٥٨- وَالَّذِيْنَ هُمْ بِآيٰتِ رَبِّهِمْ يُؤْمِنُوْنَ ۝

2908. Literally, "eat". See n. 776 to 5:69. The prophets of Allah do not pose as ascetics, but receive gratefully all Allah's gifts, and show their gratitude by their righteous lives. (R).

2909. Cf. 21:92-93. All prophets form one Brotherhood: their Message is one, and their religion and teaching are one: they serve the One True God, Who loves and cherishes them; and they owe their duty to Him and Him alone.

2910. The people who began to trade on the names of the prophets cut off that unity and made sects; and each sect rejoices in its own narrow doctrine, instead of taking the universal teaching of Unity from Allah. But this sectarian confusion is of man's making. It will last for a time, but the rays of Truth and Unity will finally dissipate it.

2911. Worldly wealth, power, and influence may be but trials. Let not their possessors think that they are in themselves things that will necessarily bring them happiness.

59. Those who join not (in worship)
Partners with their Lord;
60. And those who dispense
Their charity with their hearts²⁹¹²
Full of fear, because
They will return to their Lord—
61. It is these who hasten
In every good work,
And these who are
Foremost in them.
62. On no soul do We Place a burden greater
Than it can bear.²⁹¹³
Before Us is a record
Which clearly shows the truth.²⁹¹⁴
They will never be wronged.
63. But their hearts are
In confused ignorance²⁹¹⁵
Of this; and there are,
Besides that, deeds of theirs,²⁹¹⁶
Which they will (continue)
To do—
64. Until, when We seize
In Punishment those of them
Who received the good things
Of this world, behold,
They will groan in supplication!
65. (It will be said):
“Groan not in supplication
This day; for ye shall
Certainly not be helped by Us.

٥٩- وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ بِرَبِّهِمْ لَا يُشْرِكُونَ ۝

٦٠- وَالَّذِينَ يُؤْتُونَ مَا آتَوْا وَقُلُوبُهُمْ وَجَلَةٌ
أَنَّهُمْ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ رَاجِعُونَ ۝

٦١- أُولَٰئِكَ يُسْرِعُونَ فِي الْخَيْرَاتِ
وَهُمْ لَهَا سَابِقُونَ ۝

٦٢- وَلَا تَكُلِفُ نَفْسًا إِلَّا وُسْعَهَا
وَلَدَيْنَا كِتَابٌ يَنْطِقُ بِالْحَقِّ
وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ ۝

٦٣- بَلْ قُلُوبُهُمْ فِي غَتْرَةٍ مِّنْ هَذَا
وَلَهُمْ أَعْمَالٌ مِّنْ دُونِ ذَلِكَ
هُمْ لَهَا عَمِلُونَ ۝

٦٤- حَتَّىٰ إِذَا أَخَذْنَا مُتْرَفِيهِم بِالْعَذَابِ
إِذَا هُمْ يُجْرُونَ ۝

٦٥- لَا تَجْعُرُوا الْيَوْمَ
إِنَّكُمْ مِّنَّا لَا تُنصَرُونَ ۝

2912. Their hearts are full of reverence for Allah and fear lest their charity or their hearts be not good enough for acceptance before their Lord; for they have the certainty of a future life, in which they will stand before the Judgement Seat. They fear for their own worthiness, but they hope in Faith.

2913. Cf. 2:286 and n. 339.

2914. The record speaks clearly, and shows exactly what each soul has done and thought, and what is due to it in justice. The worst will receive full justice. The best will receive far more than their due: 28:84.

2915. This is said of the Unbelievers who rejected Faith and rejoiced in the vanities of this world. In spite of the proclamation of Truth, they are doubtful of the future Life and Judgement.

2916. In addition to their rejection of Faith, they have against them positive deeds of wrongdoing, from which, on account of their contempt of the Light from Allah, they will not desist until they are sharply pulled up for punishment: and then repentance will be too late!

66. "My Signs used to be
Rehearsed to you, but ye
Used to turn back
On your heels —
67. "In arrogance: talking nonsense
About the (Qur'ān), like one
Telling fables by night."²⁹¹⁷
68. Do they not ponder over
The Word (of Allah), or
Has anything (new) come
To them that did not
Come to their fathers of old?²⁹¹⁸
69. Or do they not recognise
Their Messenger, that they Deny him?
70. Or do they say, "he is Possessed"? Nay, he has Brought them the Truth,
But most of them
Hate the Truth.
71. If the Truth had been
In accord with their desires,
Truly the heavens and the earth,
And all beings therein
Would have been in confusion²⁹¹⁹
And corruption! Nay, We
Have sent them their admonition,
But they turn away
From their admonition.
72. Or is it that thou
Askest them for some²⁹²⁰

٦٦- قَدْ كَانَتْ آيَاتِي تُنْشَلَى عَلَيْكُمْ
فَكُنْتُمْ عَلَى أَعْقَابِكُمْ تَنْكُصُونَ ۝

٦٧- مُسْتَكْبِرِينَ ۖ
بِهِ سِمًا تَهْجُرُونَ ۝

٦٨- أَفَلَمْ يَذَرُوا الْقَوْلَ
أَمْ جَاءَهُمْ مَا لَمْ يَأْتِ آبَاءَهُمُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ۝

٦٩- أَمْ لَمْ يَعْرِفُوا رَسُولَهُمْ
فَهُمْ لَهُ مُنْكَرُونَ ۝

٧٠- أَمْ يَقُولُونَ بِهِ جِنَّةٌ ۚ
بَلْ جَاءَهُمُ بِالْحَقِّ
وَأَكْثَرُهُمُ لِلْحَقِّ كِرْهُونَ ۝

٧١- وَلَوْ أَتَبَعَ الْحَقُّ أَهْوَاءَهُمْ
لَفَسَدَتِ السَّمَوَاتُ وَالْأَرْضُ وَمَنْ
فِيهِنَّ ۚ

بَلْ آتَيْنَاهُمْ بِذِكْرِهِمْ
فَهُمْ عَنْ ذِكْرِهِمْ مُعْرِضُونَ ۝

٧٢- أَمْ سَأَلْتَهُمُ

2917. Sāmīr: one who remains awake by night, one who passes the night in talk or in the recital of stories of romances, a favourite amusement in the Days of Ignorance.

2918. If they ponder over the matter, they will find that Allah's Message to humanity is as old as Adam. It is good for all ages. It never grows old, and it is never new.

2919. Allah is All-Wise and All-Good, and His architecture of the universe is on a perfect Plan. If these poor, low, selfish, ignorant creatures were to plan it according to their hearts' desires, it would be a dreadful world, full of confusion and corruption.

2920. This is the last of the questions, beginning with 23:68 above, showing the absurdity of the position taken up by the Unbelievers. (1) The Message of Allah is as old as humanity; why do they fight shy of it? (2) They have known their Prophet to be true and righteous: why do they deny him? (3) Is it madness to bring the bitter Truth before them? (4) Does the Prophet ask any worldly reward from them? If not, why do they reject his unselfish efforts for their own good?

Recompense? But the recompense
Of thy Lord is best:
He is the Best of those
Who give sustenance.

73. But verily thou callest them
To the Straight Way;

74. And verily those who
Believe not in the Hereafter
Are deviating from that Way.

75. If We had mercy on them
And removed the distress²⁹²¹
Which is on them, they
Would obstinately persist
In their transgression,
Wandering in distraction
To and fro.

76. We inflicted Punishment²⁹²²
On them, but they
Humbled not themselves
To their Lord, nor do they Submissively entreat (Him)!—

77. Until We open on them
A gate leading to
A severe Punishment: then
Lo! they will be plunged
In despair therein!²⁹²³

SECTION 5.

78. It is He Who has created
For you (the faculties of)

خُرْجًا فُخْرًا لِّرَبِّكَ خَيْرٌ ۖ
وَهُوَ خَيْرُ الرَّزَاقِينَ ۝

٢٣- وَإِنَّكَ لَتَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ۝

٢٤- وَإِنَّ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ
عَنِ الصِّرَاطِ لَكُنُوبُونَ ۝

٢٥- وَلَوْ رَحِمْنَاهُمْ وَكَشَفْنَا مَا بِهِمْ مِنْ
ضُرٍّ
لَّجَبُوا فِي طُغْيَانِهِمْ
يَعْمَهُونَ ۝

٢٦- وَلَقَدْ أَخَذْنَاهُمْ بِالْعَذَابِ
فَمَا اسْتَكَانُوا لِرَبِّهِمْ
وَمَا يَتَضَرَّعُونَ ۝

٢٧- حَتَّىٰ إِذَا فَتَحْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ بَابًا
ذَا عَذَابٍ شَدِيدٍ
إِذَا هُمْ فِيهِ مُبْلِسُونَ ۝

٢٨- وَهُوَ الَّذِي أَنشَأَ لَكُمُ

2921. The reference is to a very severe famine felt in Makkah, which was attributed by the Unbelievers to the presence of the Holy Prophet among them and his preaching against their gods. As this is a Makkah Sūrah, the famine referred to must be that described by Ibn Kathīr as having occurred in the 8th year of the Mission, say about four years before the Hijrah. There was also a post-Hijrah famine, which is referred to by Bukhārī, but that was a later event.

2922. Some Commentators understand the battle of Badr to be meant here: if so, this particular verse would be of the Madīnah period. But it is better to understand it as referring to the same "distress" as in the preceding verse, or to punishments in general, which obstinate sinners refuse to take as warnings given to them to mend their ways and turn in repentance to Allah.

2923. Cf. 6:44. If the little trials in the present life will not open their eyes, will great trials do so? Unfortunately they only cause in the wicked a feeling of despair. In the final Punishment after the Judgement, it will be too late for them to repent, and despair will be their only lot.

Hearing, sight, feeling²⁹²⁴
And understanding: little thanks
It is ye give!

79. And He has multiplied you
Through the earth, and to Him
Shall ye be gathered back.

80. It is He Who gives
Life and death, and to Him
(Is due) the alternation²⁹²⁵
Of Night and Day:
Will ye not then understand?

81. On the contrary they say
Things similar to what
The ancients said.²⁹²⁶

82. They say: "What! When we
Die and become dust and bones,
Could we really be Raised up again?"

83. "Such things have been promised
To us and to our fathers
Before! They are nothing
But tales of the ancients!"

84. Say: "To whom belong
The earth and all beings therein?
(Say) if ye know!"

85. They will say, "To Allah!"
Say: "Yet will ye not Receive admonition?"²⁹²⁷

2924. As elsewhere, "heart" is to be understood as the seat both of feeling and intelligence. 'All the means by which knowledge can be gathered, judgement formed, and goodness cultivated, are provided for you by Allah. If you were grateful, you would use those in His service, which is expressed in your service to your fellow men. But instead you ignore these gifts, question Allah's Providence, and blaspheme against Him!'

2925. The alternation of Night and Day stands here as a symbol for all the beneficent processes of Nature provided by Allah for the comfort and growth of man's outer and inner life.

2926. And they are the more culpable, as they have received a later and more complete revelation. Why should they now stand on the primitive ideas of their ancestors?

2927. If their argument is that such things about a future life cannot be known or proved, they are referred to the things which are actually before them. The tangible things of the earth — can they postulate their order or government except by a Power of Force or Energy outside them? They will admit that there is such a Power or Force or Energy. We call it Allah. Go a step further. We see a sublime Universe in the heavens above, stretching far, far beyond our ken. They will admit its existence and its grandeur. We ask them to entertain a feeling of reverence for the Power behind it, and to understand their own littleness and their dependence upon that Power.

2928. Cf. 9:129.

2929. See n. 2927 above. 'If this great and glorious Universe inspires you with awe, surely the Power behind is more worthy of your awe, especially if you compare your dependence and its dependence upon Him.'

2930. The order and unity of purpose in the Universe argue unity of design and goodness in its Maker. Is it not then sheer madness for you to run after fancies and fail to understand and obey His Will? It is delusion in you to seek other than Allah.'

2931. Cf. 17:42. The multiplicity of gods is intellectually indefensible, considering the unity of Design and Purpose in His wonderful Universe.

2932. To suppose that Allah has a son or a family or partners or companions is to have a low idea of Allah, Who is high above all such relationships. He is the One True God, and there can be none to compare with Him.

- C. 156. — Let us eschew evil, but not
 (23:93-118.) Pay back evil in its own coin,
 However great the temptation: no chance
 Will there be to retrieve our conduct,
 Once death cuts us off. Then we shall only
 Have to wait for Judgement: none can pass
 That Barrier: our deeds will be weighed,
 And happy those whose good weighs more
 In the scale than ill. Only Faith and Goodness
 Will prevail in the end: so glory to the Lord
 Of the Throne exalted, of Mercy and Honour!

SECTION 6.

93. Say: "O my Lord!
 If Thou wilt show me
 (In my lifetime) that which
 They are warned against—²⁹³³
94. "Then, O my Lord! put me not
 Amongst the people
 Who do wrong!"
95. And We are certainly able
 To show thee (in fulfilment)
 That against which they are warned.
96. Repel evil with that²⁹³⁴
 Which is best: We are
 Well-acquainted with
 The things they say.
97. And say "O my Lord!
 I seek refuge with Thee

٩٣- قُلْ رَبِّ
 إِنَّمَا تُرِيدُنِي مَا يُوعَدُونَ ۝

٩٤- رَبِّ فَلَا تَجْعَلْنِي فِي الْقَوْمِ

٩٥- وَلَآئِنَّا عَلَىٰ أَنْ تُرِيدَكَ

٩٦- اُدْفَعْ بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ السَّيِّئَةِ
 نَحْنُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يَصِفُونَ ۝

٩٧- وَقُلْ رَبِّ أَعُوذُ بِكَ

2933. In the first instance, this applied to the Holy Prophet. His subsequent Hijrah from Makkah and the eventual overthrow of the Makkan oligarchy amply prove the fulfilment of the prophecy. But in general meaning it applies to all. We are taught that evil will be visited with a terrible punishment, not only in a future life, but in this life when its cup is full and the time comes for punishment in Allah's Plan. If it has to come while we are still on the scene of this life, we are asked to pray that we may not be found in the company of those who draw such punishment on themselves. In other words we must eschew the society of evil ones.

2934. Whether people speak evil of you, in your presence or behind your back, or they do evil to you in either of those ways, all is known to Allah. It is not for you to punish. Your best course is not to do evil in your turn, but to do what will best repel the evil. Two evils do not make a good. Cf. 41:34, n. 4504.

From the suggestions
Of the Evil Ones.²⁹³⁵

99. (In Falsehood will they be)²⁹³⁶
Until, when death comes
To one of them, he says:
"O my Lord! send me back"²⁹³⁷
(To life)–

٩٩- حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءَ أَحَدَهُمُ الْمَوْتُ

100. "In order that I may

It is but a word he says"—²⁹³⁹
Before them is a Partition²⁹⁴⁰
Till the Day they are
Raised up.

١٠٠- لَعَلِّي أَعْمَلُ صَالِحًا فِيمَا تَرَكْتُ

101. Then when the Trumpet
Is blown, there will be
No more relationships
Between them that day,
Nor will one ask after another!²⁹⁴¹

١٠١- فَإِذَا نُفِخَ فِي الصُّورِ
فَلَا أَنْسَابَ بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ
وَلَا يَتَسَاءَلُونَ ۝

2935. But in any case, shun evil for yourself, and you cannot do this without seeking the help and protection of Allah. Not only must you shun all promptings of evil, but you must shun its proximity. It may be that in retaliating on evil, or even in your curiosity to discover what evil is, you may fall into evil yourself. You should avoid going near it or anything which brings it near to you. And in this matter you should seek Allah's help.

2936. This verse I think connects on with 23:90 above. Though Allah proclaims His Truth everywhere, the wicked cling to Falsehood until they face the reality of Death.

2937. The verb for "send me back" is in the plural in Arabic, which is construed either (1) as an emphatic form, as if the singular were repeated, or (2) as a plural of respect, though such a plural is not ordinarily used in addressing Allah, or (3) as a plural addressed to the angels, after the address to Allah in "O my Lord!"

2938. The unrighteous will ask for another chance. But it will be too late then. The time for repentance will then have passed.

2939. Their request will mean nothing. It will be treated merely as an empty word of excuse. They had plenty of chances in this life. Not only did they reject them, but they did not even believe in Allah or ask for His assistance.

2940. Barzakh: a partition, a bar or barrier; the place or state in which people will be after death and before Judgement. Cf. 25:53 and 55:20. Behind them is the barrier of death, and in front of them is the Barzakh, partition, a quiescent state until the judgement comes.

2941. The old relationships of the world will then be dissolved. Each soul will stand on its merits.

102. Then those whose balance
(Of good deeds) is heavy—
They will attain salvation:²⁹⁴²
103. But those whose balance
Is light, will be those
Who have lost their souls;²⁹⁴³
In Hell will they abide.
104. The Fire will burn their faces,
And they will therein
Grin, with their lips displaced.²⁹⁴⁴
105. "Were not My Signs rehearsed

Treat them as falsehoods?"
106. They will say: "Our Lord!
Our misfortune overwhelmed

And we became a people
Astray!
107. "Our Lord! Bring us out
Of this: if ever we return
(To evil), then shall we be Wrongdoers indeed!"
108. He will say: "Be ye
Driven into it (with ignominy)!
And speak ye not to Me!"²⁹⁴⁶
109. "A part of My servants

2942. Good and evil deeds will be weighed against each other. If the good deeds prevail, the soul will attain falāḥ, i.e., prosperity, well-being, bliss, or salvation; if the contrary, there will be the misery and anguish of Hell.

2943. The loss or perdition will not mean that they will die and feel no more: 14:17. The punishment will mean nothing, if there was no sensibility, but total annihilation.

2944. That is to say, their faces will be disfigured with anguish, and their lips will quiver and fall out of place, exposing their teeth.

2945. 'The evil in us conquered us; it was our misfortunes that we surrendered to evil, and went astray.' They forget that it was by their own deliberate choice that they surrendered to evil, and they are reminded in verses 109-110 of the ridicule with which they covered godly men in their life on earth.

2946. After their flouting of Allah's Signs and their mockery of godly men on earth, they have forfeited their right to plead for mercy before Allah's Throne.

- For Thou art the Best
Of those who show mercy!
110. "But ye treated them
With ridicule, so much so
That (ridicule of) them made

Ye were laughing at them!
111. "I have rewarded them
This day for their patience
And constancy: they are indeed
The ones that have achieved
Bliss. . ."
112. He will say:²⁹⁴⁸ "What number
Of years did ye stay
On earth?"
113. They will say: "We stayed
A day or part of a day:²⁹⁴⁹
But ask those who
Keep account."
114. He will say: "Ye stayed
Not but a little—
If ye had only known!
115. "Did ye then think
That We had created you
In jest, and that ye
Would not be brought back
To Us (for account)?"²⁹⁵⁰

۱۱۴- قُلْ إِنْ لَبِثْتُمْ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا

۱۱۵- أَفَحَسِبْتُمْ أَنَّمَا خَلَقْنَاكُمْ
عِبَاهَا وَأَنَّكُمْ إِلَيْنَا لَا تُرْجَعُونَ ۝

2947. Literally, 'they make you forget My Message'. The ungodly were so occupied in the backbiting and ridicule of the godly that the godly themselves became the unconscious cause of the ungodly forgetting the warnings declared by Allah against those who do not treat His Signs seriously. Thus evil often brings about its own ruin through the instrumentality of those whom it would make its victims.

2949. The question and answer about Time imply two things. (1) The attention of the ungodly is drawn to the extremely short time of the life in this world, compared to the eternity which they face: they are made to see this, and to realise how mistaken they were in their comparative valuation of things spiritual and things material. (2) Time, as we know it now, will have faded away and appear as almost nothing. It is just a matter relative to this life of temporary probation. Cf. the experience of the Companions of the Cave: 18:19.

2950. Allah's Creation is not without a high serious purpose. It is not vain, or for mere play or sport. As far as man is concerned, the highest issues for him hang on his behaviour in this life. "Life is real, life is earnest, And the grave is not its goal", as Longfellow truly says. We must therefore earnestly search out Allah's Truth, encouraged by the fact that Allah's Truth is also, out of His unbounded mercy, searching us out and trying to reach us.

116. Therefore exalted be Allah,
The King, the Reality:
There is no god but He,
The Lord of the Throne
Of Honour!
117. If anyone invokes, besides Allah,
Any other god, he has
No authority therefor;
And his reckoning will be
Only with his Lord!²⁹⁵¹
And verily the Unbelievers
Will fail to win through!²⁹⁵²
118. So say: "O my Lord!
Grant Thou forgiveness and mercy!
For Thou art the Best
Of those who show mercy!"

١١٦- فَتَعَالَى اللَّهُ الْمَلِكُ الْحَقُّ
لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ
رَبُّ الْعَرْشِ الْكَرِيمِ
١١٧- وَمَنْ يَدْعُ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ
لَا بُرْهَانَ لَهُ بِهِ
فَأَنَّمَا حِسَابُهُ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِ
إِنَّهُ لَا يُفْلِحُ الْكَافِرُونَ
١١٨- وَقُلْ رَبِّ اغْفِرْ وَارْحَمْ
وَأَنْتَ خَيْرُ الرَّحِيمِينَ

بَ

2951. Not with any one else whatever, as Allah is the Eternal Reality. If men, out of the figments of their imagination, fancy other gods, they will be rudely undeceived. And Allah is Lord, i.e., our Cherisher as well as our Creator. In spite of all our shortcomings and our rebellions, He will forgive us if we go to Him not on our merits but on His grace. (R).

2952. See the same word used in describing the contrast with the Believers, in the first verse of this Sūrah. Righteousness must win and all opposition to it must fail. Thus the circle of the argument is completed.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 24—AL NŪR

The environmental and social influences which most frequently wreck our spiritual ideals have to do with sex and especially with its misuse, whether in the form of unregulated behaviour, or false charges or scandals, or breach of the refined conventions of personal or domestic privacy. Our complete conquest of all pitfalls in such matters enables us to rise to the higher regions of Light and of God-created Nature. This subject is continued in the next Sūrah. (R).

As the reprobation of false slanders about women (24:11-20) is connected with an incident that happened to 'Ā'ishah in A. H. 5-6 that fixes the chronological place of this Madīnah Sūrah.

Summary—Sex offences should be severely punished, but the strictest evidence should be required, and false slanderers are also worthy of punishment. Light talk about women is reprobated (24:1-26, and C. 157).

Privacy should be respected, and the utmost decorum should be observed in dress and manners (24:27-34, and C. 158).

Parable of Light and Darkness: order and obedience in Nature point to the spiritual duty of man (24:35-37, and C. 159).

Domestic manners and manners in public or collective life all contribute to the highest virtues, and are part of our spiritual duties leading up to Allah (24:58-64, and C. 160).

C. 157.—Chastity is a virtue, for men and women,
 (24:1-26.) Whether joined in marriage, or single,
 Or widowed. The punishment for offences
 In such matters should be public. No less
 Grave is the launching of false charges
 Or rumours against the fair reputation
 Of women, or the spreading of such
 Slanders, or the facile belief in them.
 Evil is ever spreading its net.
 Good men and women should ever be
 On their guard, and pray for Allah's grace and mercy.

Sūrah 24.

Al Nūr (The Light)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. A Sūrah which We
Have sent down and²⁹⁵³
Which We have ordained:
In it have We sent down
Clear Signs, in order that
Ye may receive admonition.
2. The woman and the man
Guilty of adultery or fornication — ²⁹⁵⁴
Flog each of them
With a hundred stripes:²⁹⁵⁵
Let not compassion move you
In their case, in a matter
Prescribed by Allah, if ye believe
In Allah and the Last Day:
And let a party
Of the Believers
Witness their punishment.²⁹⁵⁶
3. Let no man guilty of Adultery or fornication marry
Any but a woman
Similarly guilty, or an Unbeliever:
Nor let any but such a man
Or an Unbeliever
Marry such a woman:

الجزء الثامن عشر سُوْرَةُ النُّوْرِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- سُوْرَةُ أَنْزَلْنَاهَا وَفَرَضْنَاهَا
وَأَنْزَلْنَا فِيهَا آيَاتٍ بَيِّنَاتٍ
لَعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُونَ ○

٢- الزَّانِيَةُ وَالزَّانِي
فَأَجْلِدُوا كُلَّ وَاحِدٍ مِّنْهُمَا مِائَةَ جَلْدَةٍ
وَلَا تَأْخُذْكُمْ بِهِمَا رَأْفَةٌ
فِي دِينِ اللَّهِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ
تُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ وَلِيَشْهَدَ
عَذَابُهُمَا طَائِفَةٌ مِّنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ○

٣- الزَّانِي إِنْ لَّا يَنْكِحْ إِلَّا زَانِيَةً أَوْ مُشْرِكَةً
وَالزَّانِيَةُ إِنْ لَّا يَنْكِحْ إِلَّا زَانٍ أَوْ مُشْرِكٌ

2953. It must not be thought that the checking of sex offences or of minor improprieties, that relate to sex or privacy, are matters that do not affect spiritual life in the highest degree. These matters are intimately connected with spiritual teaching such as Allah has sent down in this Sūrah. The emphasis is on "We": these things are not mere matters of convenience, but Allah has ordained them for our observance in life.

2954. Zinā includes sexual intercourse between a man and a woman not married to each other. It therefore applies both to adultery (which implies that one or both of the parties are married to a person or persons other than the ones concerned) and to fornication, which, in its strict signification, implies that both parties are unmarried. The law of marriage and divorce is made easy in Islam, so that there may be less temptation for intercourse outside the well-defined incidents of marriage. This makes for greater self-respect for both man and woman. Other sex offences are also punishable, but this Section applies strictly to Zinā as above defined. [Although Zinā covers both fornication and adultery, in the opinion of Muslim jurists, the punishment laid down here applies only to un-married persons. As for married persons, their punishment, according to the Sunnah of the Prophet (peace be on him), is stoning to death. (Eds.).]

2955. Cf. 4:15, and n. 523.

2956. The punishment should be open, in order to be a deterrent.

To the Believers such a thing
Is forbidden.²⁹⁵⁷

وَحَرَّمَ ذَلِكَ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ○

4. And those who launch
A charge against chaste women,
And produce not four witnesses
(To support their allegations)—
Flog them with eighty stripes;
And reject their evidence²⁹⁵⁸
Ever after: for such men
Are wicked transgressors—

٤- وَالَّذِينَ يَرْمُونَ الْمُحْصَنَاتِ ثُمَّ لَمْ
يَأْتُوا بِأَرْبَعَةِ شُهَدَاءَ فَاجْلِدُوهُمْ ثَمَانِينَ
جَلْدَةً وَلَا تَقْبَلُوا لَهُمْ شَهَادَةً أَبَدًا
وَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْفَاسِقُونَ ○

5. Unless they repent thereafter²⁹⁵⁹
And mend (their conduct);
For Allah is Oft-Forgiving,
Most Merciful.

٥- إِلَّا الَّذِينَ تَابُوا مِنْ بَعْدِ ذَلِكَ وَأَصْلَحُوا
فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ○

6. And for those who launch
A charge against their spouses,
And have (in support)
No evidence but their own—²⁹⁶⁰

٦- وَالَّذِينَ يَرْمُونَ أَزْوَاجَهُمْ
وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُمْ شُهَدَاءُ إِلَّا أَنْفُسُهُمْ

2957. Islam commands sex purity, for men and for women, at all times— before marriage, during marriage, and after the dissolution of marriage. Those guilty of illicit practices are shut out of the marriage circle of chaste men and women.

2958. The most serious notice is taken of people who put forward slanders or scandalous suggestions about women without adequate evidence. If anything is said against a woman's chastity, it should be supported by evidence twice as strong as would ordinarily be required for business transactions, or even in murder cases. That is, four witnesses would be required instead of two. Failing such preponderating evidence, the slanderer should himself be treated as a wicked transgressor and punished with eighty stripes. Not only would he be subjected to this disgraceful form of punishment, but he would be deprived of the citizen's right of giving evidence in all matters all his life, unless he repents and reforms, in which case he can be readmitted to be a competent witness. (The verse lays down the punishment for slandering "chaste women"; which by consensus of opinion also covers slandering chaste men. Chaste women have been specially mentioned, according to Commentators, because slandering them is more abhorrent. (Eds.).

2959. The punishment of stripes is inflicted in any case for unsupported slander. But the deprivation of the civic right of giving evidence can be cancelled by the man's subsequent conduct, if he repents, shows that he is sorry for what he did, and that he would not in future support by his statement anything for which he has not the fullest evidence. Secular courts do not enforce these principles, as their standards are lower than those which good Muslims set for themselves, but good Muslims must understand and act on the underlying principles, which protect the honour of womanhood. Abū Hanifa considers that neither the stripes nor the incompetence for giving future evidence is cancelled by repentance, but only the spiritual stigma of being "wicked transgressors". This of course is the more serious punishment, though it cannot be enforced in the Courts.

2960. The case of married persons is different from that of outsiders. If one of them accuses the other of unchastity, the accusation partly reflects on the accuser as well. Moreover, the link which unites married people even where differences supervene, is sure to act as a steady influence against the concoction of false charges of unchastity particularly where divorce is allowed (as in Islam) for reasons other than unchastity. Suppose a husband catches a wife in adultery. In the nature of things four witnesses—or even one outside witness—would be impossible. Yet after such an experience it is against human nature that he can live a normal married life. The matter is then left to the honour of the two spouses. If the husband can solemnly swear four times to the fact, and in addition invoke a curse on himself if he lies, that is prima facie evidence of the wife's guilt. But if the wife swears similarly four times and similarly invokes a curse on herself, she is in law acquitted of the guilt. If she does not take this step, the charge is held proved and the punishment follows. In either case the marriage is dissolved, as it is against human nature that the parties can live together happily after such an incident.

Their solitary evidence
(Can be received) if they Bear witness four times
(With an oath) by Allah
That they are solemnly
Telling the truth;

فَشَهَادَةُ أَحَدِهِمْ

7. And the fifth (oath)
(Should be) that they solemnly
Invoke the curse of Allah
On themselves if they Tell a lie.

وَالْخَامِسَةُ أَنَّ لَعْنَتَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ

8. But it would avert
The punishment from the wife,
If she bears witness
Four times (with an oath)
By Allah, that (her husband)
Is telling a lie;

٨- وَيَذَرُوا عَنْهَا الْعَذَابَ
أَنْ تَشْهَدَ أَرْبَعُ شَهَدَاتٍ بِاللَّهِ
إِنَّهُ لَمِنَ الْكَذِبِينَ ○

9. And the fifth (oath)
Should be that she solemnly
Invokes the wrath of Allah
On herself if (her accuser)
Is telling the truth.

٩- وَالْخَامِسَةُ أَنَّ غَضَبَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهَا
إِنْ كَانَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ○

10. If it were not

On you, and that Allah
Is Oft-Returning,
Full of Wisdom—

وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ تَوَّابٌ
حَكِيمٌ ○

SECTION 2.

11. Those who brought forward²⁹⁶²
The lie are a body

١١- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ جَاءُوا بِالْإِفْكِ عُصْبَةٌ

2961. Cf. 24:11-14, and n. 2962, which illustrates the matter by a concrete instance.

2962. The particular incident here referred to occurred on the return from the expedition to the Banū Muṣṭaliq, A.H. 5-6. When the march was ordered, 'Ā'ishah was not in her tent, having gone to search for a valuable necklace she had dropped. As her litter was veiled, it was not noticed that she was not in it, until the army reached the next halt. Meanwhile, finding the camp had gone, she sat down to rest, hoping that some one would come back to fetch her when her absence was noticed. It was night, and she fell asleep. Next morning she was found by Ṣafwān, a Muhājir, who had been left behind in the camp expressly to pick up anything inadvertently left behind. He put her on his camel and brought her, leading the camel on foot. This gave occasion to enemies to raise a malicious scandal. The ringleader among them was the chief of the Madīnah Hypocrites, 'Abdullah ibn Ubayy, who is referred to in the last clause of this verse. He had other sins and enormities to his debit, and he was left to the spiritual punishment of an unrepentant sinner, for he died in that state. The minor tools were given the legal punishment of the law, and after penitence mended their lives. They made good.

Among yourselves: think it not
To be an evil to you;
On the contrary it is good²⁹⁶³
For you: to every man
Among them (will come
The punishment) of the sin
That he earned, and to him²⁹⁶⁴
Who took on himself the lead
Among them, will be
A Penalty grievous.

مِنْكُمْ لَا تَحْسَبُوهُ شَرًّا لَّكُمْ
بَلْ هُوَ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ
لِكُلِّ امْرِئٍ مِنْهُمْ مَا اكْتَسَبَ مِنَ الْإِثْمِ
وَالَّذِي تَوَلَّى كِبْرَهُ مِنْهُمْ
لَهُ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ ٥

12. Why did not the Believers—
Men and women²⁹⁶⁵—when ye
Heard of the affair—put
The best construction on it
In their own minds
And say, "This (charge)
Is an obvious lie"?

١٢- لَوْلَا إِذْ سَمِعْتُمُوهُ
ظَنَّ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتُ بِأَنْفُسِهِمْ
خَيْرًا
وَقَالُوا هَذَا إِفْكٌ مُبِينٌ ٥

13. Why did they not bring
Four witnesses to prove it?²⁹⁶⁶
When they have not brought
The witnesses, such men,
In the sight of Allah
(Stand forth) themselves as liars!

١٣- لَوْلَا جَاءُوا عَلَيْهِ بِأَرْبَعَةِ شُهَدَاءَ
فَإِذَا لَمْ يَأْتُوا بِالشَّهَدَاءِ
فَالْيَمْلِكُ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ هُمُ الْكَذِبُونَ ٥

14. Were it not for the grace
And mercy of Allah on you,
In this world and the Hereafter,
A grievous penalty would have
Seized you in that ye rushed
Glibly into this affair.²⁹⁶⁷

١٤- وَلَوْلَا فَضْلُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَتُهُ
فِي الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ
لَمَسَّكُمْ فِي مَا أَفَضْتُمْ فِيهِ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ ٥

15. Behold, ye received it
On your tongues.

١٥- إِذْ تَلَقَّوْنَهُ بِأَلْسِنَتِكُمْ

2963. It is the worse for a scandal to be whispered about with bated breath, than that it should be brought into the light of day and disproved.

2964. The ringleader: see n. 2962 above.

2965. Both men and women were involved in spreading the scandal. Their obvious duty was to put the best, not the worst, construction on the acts of one of the "mothers of the Believers".

2966. If any persons took it seriously, it was their duty to search for and produce the evidence, in the absence of which they themselves became guilty of slander.

2967. Cf. 24:10 above. It was Allah's mercy that saved them from many evil consequences, both in this life and in the Hereafter—in this life, because the Prophet's wise measures nipped in the bud any incipient estrangements between those nearest and dearest to him, and from a spiritual aspect in that the minor agents in spreading the scandal repented and were forgiven. No doubts and divisions, no mutual distrust, were allowed to remain in their hearts after the whole matter had been cleared up.

And said out of your mouths
Things of which ye had
No knowledge; and ye thought
It to be a light matter,
While it was most serious
In the sight of Allah.²⁹⁶⁸

وَقَالُوا لَوْ كُنَّا نَسْمَعُ أَوْ نَعْقِلُ مَا كُنَّا فِي
أَفْوَاهِكُمْ بِمَا لَيْسَ لَكُم بِهِ
عِلْمٌ وَتَحْسَبُونَهُ هَيِّئًا ۖ
وَهُوَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ عَظِيمٌ ۝

16. And why did ye not
When ye heard it, say?—
"It is not right of us
To speak of this:
Glory to Thee (our Lord) this is
A most serious slander!"²⁹⁶⁹

۱۶- وَلَوْلَا إِذْ سَمِعْتُمُوهُ قُلْتُمْ
مَا يَكُونُ لَنَا أَنْ نَتَكَلَّمَ بِهَذَا ۖ
سُبْحَانَكَ هَذَا بُهْتَانٌ عَظِيمٌ ۝

17. Allah doth admonish you,
That ye may never repeat
Such (conduct), if ye
Are (true) Believers.

۱۷- يَعْظُمُ اللَّهُ أَنْ تَعُودُوا لِمِثْلِهِ أَبَدًا
إِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ۝

18. And Allah makes the Signs
Plain to you: for Allah
Is full of knowledge and wisdom.

۱۸- وَيُبَيِّنُ اللَّهُ لَكُمُ الْآيَاتِ
وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ حَكِيمٌ ۝

19. Those who love (to see)
Scandal published broadcast
Among the Believers, will have
A grievous Penalty in this life
And in the Hereafter: Allah
Knows, and ye know not.²⁹⁷⁰

۱۹- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُحِبُّونَ أَنْ تَشِيعَ الْفَاحِشَةُ
فِي الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ فِي
الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةِ وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ وَأَنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ ۝

20. Were it not for the grace
And mercy of Allah on you,

۲۰- وَلَوْلَا فَضْلُ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَتُهُ

2968. There are three things here reprobated by way of spiritual teaching: (1) if others speak an evil word, that is no reason why you should allow it to defile your tongue; (2) if you get a thought or suspicion which is not based on your certain knowledge, do not give it currency by giving it expression; and (3) others may think it is a small matter to speak lightly of something which blasts a person's character or reputation: in the eyes of Allah it is a most serious matter in any case, but specially when it involves the honour and reputation of pious women.

2969. The right course would have been to stop any further currency of false slanders by ignoring them and at least refusing to help in their circulation. The exclamation "Subhānaka", "Praise to Thee (O Allah)", or "Glory to Allah!" is an exclamation of surprise and disavowal as much as to say, "We do not believe it! And we shall have nothing to do with you, O false slanderers!"

2970. What mischiefs can be planned by Evil to delude simple folk who mean no harm in their own minds but who by thoughtlessness are deluded step by step to become the instruments of Evil, may not be known to the most instructed of men, but it is all known to Allah. Man should therefore always be on his guard against the traps of Evil, and it is only Allah's grace that can save him.

And that Allah is
Full of kindness and mercy,
(Ye would be ruined indeed).²⁹⁷¹

وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ رَءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ ۝

SECTION 3.

21. ۞ ye who believe!
Follow not Satan's footsteps:
If any will follow the footsteps
Of Satan, he will (but) command
What is shameful and wrong:
And were it not for the grace
And mercy of Allah on you,
Not one of you would ever²⁹⁷²
Have been pure: but Allah
Doth purify whom He pleases:²⁹⁷³
And Allah is One Who
Hears and knows (all things).

۲۱- يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَتَّبِعُوْا خُطُوٰتِ
الشَّيْطٰنِ ۚ وَ مَنْ يَتَّبِعْ خُطُوٰتِ الشَّيْطٰنِ
فَاِنَّهٗ يَاْمُرُ بِالْفَحْشَآءِ وَ الْمُنْكَرِ ۚ وَلَوْ لَا
فَضْلُ اللّٰهِ عَلٰيْكُمْ وَ رَحْمَتُهٗ مَا مَرَكٰ
مِنْكُمْ مِنْ اَحَدٍ اَبَدًا ۚ وَلٰكِنَّ اللّٰهَ
يُرَكِّىْ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ ۚ وَ اللّٰهُ سَمِيْعٌ عَلِيْمٌ ۝

22. Let not those among you
Who are endued with grace
And amplitude of means²⁹⁷⁴
Resolve by oath against helping
Their kinsmen, those in want,

۲۲- وَلَا يَأْتِلْ اُولُو الْفَضْلِ مِنْكُمْ
وَ السَّعَآءُ اَنْ يُّوْتُوْا
اُولٰٓئِ الْقُرْبٰى وَ الْمَسْكِيْنِ

2971. Note the refrain that comes four times in this passage. "Were it not for the grace and mercy of Allah. . ." Each time it has a different application. (1) In 24:10, it was in connection with the accusation of infidelity by one of the spouses against the other: they were both reminded of Allah's mercy and warned against suspicion and untruth. (2) In 24:14, the Believers were told to be wary of false rumours lest they should cause pain and division among themselves: it is Allah's grace that keeps them united. (3) Here is an admonition for the future: there may be conspiracies and snares laid by Evil against simple people: it is Allah's grace that protects them. (4) In 24:21, the general warning is directed to the observation of purity in act and in thought, concerning one's self and concerning others: it is only Allah's grace that can keep that purity spotless, for He hears prayers and knows of all the snares that are spread in the path of the good.

2972. See last note.

2973. Spotless purity in thought, word, and deed, includes the disposition to put the best construction on the motives of others, so that we ascribe no evil motive to the seeming indiscretions of virtuous people. Such a high standard can only come by the grace of Allah, Who hears all prayers and knows all the temptations to which human nature is subject. His Will and Plan make both for spiritual protection and spiritual peace, and we must place ourselves trustingly in His hands.

2974. The immediate reference was to Abū Bakr, the father of 'Ā'ishah. He was blessed both with spiritual grace from Allah and with ample means, which he always used in the service of Islam and of Muslims. One of the slanderers of 'Ā'ishah turned out to be Miṣṭah, a cousin of Abū Bakr, whom he had been in the habit of supporting. Naturally Abū Bakr wished to stop that aid, but according to the highest standards of Muslim ethics he was asked to forgive and forget, which he did, with the happiest results to the peace and unity of the Muslim community. But the general application holds good for all time. A generous patron should not, in personal anger, withdraw his support even for serious faults if the delinquent repents and mends his ways. If Allah forgives us, who are we to refuse forgiveness to our fellows?

And those who have left
Their homes in Allah's cause:
Let them forgive and overlook,
Do you not wish
That Allah should forgive you?
For Allah is Oft-Forgiving,
Most Merciful.

وَالْمُهَاجِرِينَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَلْيَعْفُوا
وَلْيَصْفَحُوا أَلَا تُحِبُّونَ أَنْ يَغْفِرَ اللَّهُ
لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ٢١

23. Those who slander chaste women,
Indiscreet but believing,²⁹⁷⁵
Are cursed in this life
And in the Hereafter:
For them is a grievous Penalty—

٢٣- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَرْمُونَ الْمُحْصَنَاتِ
الْغَافِلَاتِ الْمُؤْمِنَاتِ لَعُنُوا فِي الدُّنْيَا
وَالْآخِرَةِ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ عَظِيمٌ ٢٢

24. On the Day when their tongues,
Their hands, and their feet
Will bear witness against them²⁹⁷⁶
As to their actions.

٢٤- يَوْمَ تَشْهَدُ عَلَيْهِمْ أَلْسِنَتُهُمْ وَأَيْدِيهِمْ
وَأَرْجُلُهُمْ بِمَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ٢٣

25. On that Day Allah
Will pay them back
(All) their just dues,
And they will realise
That Allah is
The (very) Truth,
That makes all things manifest.²⁹⁷⁷

٢٥- يَوْمَئِذٍ يُوفِّيهِمُ اللَّهُ دِينَهُمُ الْحَقَّ
وَيَعْلَمُونَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ
هُوَ الْحَقُّ الْمُبِينُ ٢٤

26. Women impure are for men
impure,
And men impure for women
impure,
And women of purity
Are for men of purity,
And men of purity

٢٦- الْمُحْشَشَاتُ لِلْغَيْبَاتِ
وَالْغَيْبَاتُ لِلْغَيْبَاتِ وَالطَّيِّبَاتُ
لِلطَّيِّبِينَ وَالطَّيِّبُونَ

2975. Good women are sometimes indiscreet because they think of no evil. But even such innocent indiscretion lands them, and those who hold them dear, in difficulties. Such was the case with 'Ā'ishah, who was in extreme pain and anguish for a whole month because of the slanders spread about her. Her husband and her father were also placed in a most awkward predicament, considering their position and the great work in which they were engaged. But unprincipled people, who start false slanders, and their unthinking tools who help in spreading such slanders, are guilty of the gravest spiritual offence, and their worst punishment is the deprivation of Allah's grace, which is the meaning of a state of Curse.

2976. Our own limbs and faculties are the strongest witness against us if we misuse them for evil deeds instead of using them for the good deeds for which they were given to us.

2977. All that we thought of hiding will be clear as day before Allah's Judgement Seat, because He is the very essence of Truth and Reality. He is the true Light (24:35), of which all physical light is merely a type or reflection.

Are for women of purity:
These are not affected
By what people say:²⁹⁷⁸
For them there is forgiveness,
And a provision honourable.²⁹⁷⁹

لِلطَّيِّبَاتِ أُولَئِكَ مُبَرَّءُونَ مِمَّا يَقُولُونَ
لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَرِزْقٌ كَرِيمٌ

C. 158. — Privacy in the home is a nature of virtue:
(24:27-34.) Respect it with dignity and decorum. Guard
Your eyes and thoughts with rules of modesty
In dress and manners: and learn from these
To keep your spiritual gaze from straying
To any but Allah. True marriage should teach
Us charity and purity, and such
Are the virtues which lead us to the Light
Sublime which illuminates the world.

SECTION 4.

27. Q ye who believe!
Enter not houses other than
Your own, until ye have Asked permission and saluted
Those in them: that is Best for you, in order that
Ye may heed (what is seemly).²⁹⁸⁰

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَدْخُلُوا بُيُوتًا
غَيْرَ بُيُوتِكُمْ
حَتَّى تَسْتَأْذِنُوا وَتُسَلِّمُوا عَلَى أَهْلِهَا
ذَلِكَ خَيْرٌ لَكُمْ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُونَ

28. If ye find no one²⁹⁸¹
In the house, enter not
Until permission is given

وَإِنْ لَمْ تَجِدُوا فِيهَا أَحَدًا فَلَا تَدْخُلُوهَا
حَتَّى يُؤْذَنَ لَكُمْ

2978. The pure consort with the pure, and the impure with the impure. If the impure, out of the impurity of their thoughts, or imaginations, impute any evil to the pure, the pure are not affected by it, but they should avoid all occasions for random talk.

2979. Forgiveness for any indiscretion which they may have innocently committed, and spiritual provisions of protection against the assaults of Evil. It is also meant that the more evil ones attempt to defame or slander them, the more triumphantly will they be vindicated and provided with the physical and moral good which will advance their real life.

2981. That is, if no one replies: there may be people in the house not in a presentable state. Or, even if the house is empty, you have no right to enter it until you obtain the owner's permission, wherever he may be. The fact of your not receiving a reply does not entitle you to enter without permission. You should wait, or knock twice or three times, and withdraw in case no permission is received. If you are actually asked to withdraw, as the inmates are not in a condition to receive you, you should a fortiori withdraw, either for a time, or altogether, as the inmates may wish you to do. Even if they are your friends, you have no right to take them by surprise or enter against their wishes. Your own purity of life and conduct as well as of motives is thus tested.

To you: if ye are asked
To go back, go back:
That makes for greater purity
For yourselves: and Allah
Knows well all that ye do.

29. It is no fault on your part
To enter houses not used
For living in, which serve
Some (other) use for you:²⁹⁸²
And Allah has knowledge
Of what ye reveal
And what ye conceal.

30. Say to the believing men
That they should lower
Their gaze and guard²⁹⁸³
Their modesty: that will make
For greater purity for them:
And Allah is well acquainted
With all that they do.

31. And say to the believing women
That they should lower
Their gaze and guard²⁹⁸⁴
Their modesty; that they Should not display their Beauty and ornaments²⁹⁸⁵ except
What (must ordinarily) appear
Thereof; that they should Draw their veils over

وَأَنْ قِيلَ لَكُمْ ارْجِعُوا فَارْجِعُوا
هُوَ أَزْكَىٰ لَكُمْ وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ عَلِيمٌ ۝

٢٩- لَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ جُنَاحٌ أَنْ تَدْخُلُوا بُيُوتًا
غَيْرَ مَسْكُونَةٍ فِيهَا مَتَاعٌ لَّكُمْ
وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا تُبْدُونَ وَمَا تَكْتُمُونَ ۝

٣٠- قُلْ لِلْمُؤْمِنِينَ يَغْضُوا مِنْ
أَبْصَارِهِمْ وَيَحْفَظُوا فُرُوجَهُمْ
ذَٰلِكَ أَزْكَىٰ لَهُمْ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ خَبِيرٌ بِمَا يَصْنَعُونَ ۝

٣١- وَقُلْ لِلْمُؤْمِنَاتِ يَغْضُضْنَ
مِنْ أَبْصَارِهِنَّ وَيَحْفَظْنَ فُرُوجَهُنَّ
وَلَا يُبْدِينَ زِينَتَهُنَّ إِلَّا مَا ظَهَرَ
مِنْهَا وَلْيَضْرِبْنَ بِخُمُرِهِنَّ عَلَىٰ

2982. The rule about dwelling houses is strict, because privacy is precious, and essential to a refined, decent, and well-ordered life. Such a rule of course does not apply to houses used for other useful purposes, such as an inn or caravanserai, or a shop, or a warehouse. But even here, of course, implied permission from the owner is necessary as a matter of common-sense. The question in this passage is that of refined privacy, not that of rights of ownership.

2983. The rule of modesty applies to men as well as women. A brazen stare by a man at a woman (or even at a man) is a breach of refined manners. Where sex is concerned, modesty is not only "good form": it is not only to guard the weaker sex, but also to guard the spiritual good of the stronger sex.

2984. The need for modesty is the same in both men and women. But on account of the differentiation of the sexes in nature, temperaments, and social life, a greater amount of privacy is required for women than for men, especially in the matter of dress and the uncovering of the bosom.

2985. Zīnat means both natural beauty and artificial ornaments. I think both are implied here, but chiefly the former. The woman is asked not to make a display of her figure or appear in undress except to the following classes of people: (1) her husband, (2) her near relatives who would be living in the same house, and with whom a certain amount of negligé is permissible: (3) her women, i.e., her maid-servants, who would be constantly in attendance on her: some Commentators include all believing women; it is not good form in a Muslim household for women to meet other women, except when they are properly dressed; (4) slaves, male and female, as they would be in constant attendance; but this item would now be blank, with the abolition of slavery; (5) old or infirm men-servants; and (6) infants or small children before they get a sense of sex. Cf. also 33:59.

Their bosoms and not display
 Their beauty except
 To their husbands, their fathers,
 Their husbands' fathers, their sons,
 Their husbands' sons,
 Their brothers or their brothers' sons,

Or their sisters' sons,
 Or their women, or the slaves
 Whom their right hands
 Possess, or male servants
 Free of physical needs,
 Or small children who
 Have no sense of the shame
 Of sex; and that they
 Should not strike their feet
 In order to draw attention
 To their hidden ornaments.²⁹⁸⁶
 And O ye Believers!
 Turn ye all together
 Towards Allah, that ye
 May attain Bliss.²⁹⁸⁷

32. Marry those among you
 Who are single,²⁹⁸⁸ or
 The virtuous ones among
 Your slaves, male or female:
 If they are in poverty,
 Allah will give them
 Means out of His grace:
 For Allah encompasseth all,²⁹⁸⁹
 And He knoweth all things.

33. Let those who find not
 The wherewithal for marriage
 Keep themselves chaste, until

جُيُوبَهُنَّ
 وَلَا يُبْدِينَ زِينَتَهُنَّ إِلَّا
 لِبُعُولَتِهِنَّ أَوْ آبَائِهِنَّ أَوْ آبَاءِ
 بُعُولَتِهِنَّ أَوْ أَبْنَاءِهِنَّ أَوْ أَبْنَاءِ
 بُعُولَتِهِنَّ أَوْ إِخْوَانِهِنَّ
 أَوْ بَنِي إِخْوَانِهِنَّ أَوْ
 أَخَوَاتِهِنَّ أَوْ نِسَاءَتِهِنَّ أَوْ مَا
 مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُنَّ أَوِ التَّابِعِينَ غَيْرِ أُولَى
 الْإِرْبَةِ مِنَ الرِّجَالِ أَوِ الطِّفْلِ الَّذِينَ لَمْ
 يَظْهَرُوا عَلَى عَوْرَتِ النِّسَاءِ وَلَا
 يَضْرِبْنَ بِأَرْجُلِهِنَّ لِيُعْلَمَ مَا يُخْفِينَ
 مِنْ زِينَتِهِنَّ وَتُوبُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ
 جَمِيعًا أَيُّهَا الْمُؤْمِنُونَ
 لَعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُونَ ○

۳۲- وَأَنْكِحُوا الْأَيَامَى مِنْكُمْ
 وَالصَّالِحِينَ مِنْ عِبَادِكُمْ وَإِمَائِكُمْ
 إِنْ يَكُونُوا فُقَرَاءَ يُغْنِهِمُ اللَّهُ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ
 وَاللَّهُ وَاسِعٌ عَلِيمٌ ○

۳۳- وَلْيَسْتَعْفِفِ الَّذِينَ لَا يَجِدُونَ نِكَاحًا حَتَّى

2986. It is one of the tricks of showy or unchaste women to tinkle their ankle ornaments, to draw attention to themselves.

2987. While all these details of the purity and good form of domestic life are being brought to our attention, we are clearly reminded that the chief object we should hold in view is our spiritual welfare. All our brief life on this earth is a probation, and we must make our individual, domestic, and social life all contribute to our holiness, so that we can get the real success and bliss which is the aim of our spiritual endeavour. (R).

2988. The subject of sex ethics and manners brings us to the subject of marriage. "Single" (ayāmā, plural of Ayyim) here means any one not in the bond of wedlock, whether unmarried or lawfully divorced, or widowed. If we can, we must marry in our own circle, but if we have not the means, there is no harm if we choose from a lower circle, provided our choice is determined by virtue. Poverty in the other party does not matter if there is virtue and love. A happily married man has the best wealth in a virtuous wife, and his very happiness makes him a better potential earner of wealth. A slave becomes free by marriage.

2989. Cf. 10:57. Allah's mercy is for all: it is not confined to a class or grade of people.

Allah gives them means²⁹⁹⁰
 Out of His grace.
 And if any of your slaves
 Ask for a deed in writing
 (To enable them to earn
 Their freedom for a certain sum),
 Give them such a deed²⁹⁹¹
 If ye know any good
 In them; yea, give them
 Something yourselves
 Out of the means which
 Allah has given to you.
 But force not your maids²⁹⁹²
 To prostitution when²⁹⁹³ they desire
 Chastity, in order that ye
 May make a gain
 In the goods of this life.
 But if anyone compels them,
 Yet, after such compulsion,
 Is Allah Oft-Forgiving,
 Most Merciful (to them).²⁹⁹⁴

يُعْنِيهِمُ اللَّهُ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ
 وَالَّذِينَ يَبْتَغُونَ الْكِتَابَ
 مِنْكُمْ فَلَكُمْ آيَاتُكُمْ
 فَكَانِبُوهُمْ إِنْ عَلِمْتُمْ فِيهِمْ خَيْرًا
 وَأَتَوْهُمْ بِمَالٍ وَاللَّهُ الَّذِي أَتَاكُمْ
 وَلَا تُكْرِهُوا فَتِيَّتَكُمْ عَلَى الْبَغَاءِ
 إِنْ أَرَدَنْ تَحْصِنًا
 لَتَبْتَغُوا عَرَضَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا
 وَمَنْ يُكْرِهْنَنَّ
 فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ مِنْ بَعْدِ إِكْرَاهِهِمْ
 غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ

34. We have already sent down
 To you verses making things Clear, an illustration from (the story
 Of) people who passed away
 Before you, and an admonition
 For those who fear (Allah).²⁹⁹⁵

۴۴- وَلَقَدْ أَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكُمْ آيَاتٍ مُبَيِّنَاتٍ
 وَمَثَلًا مِنَ الَّذِينَ خَلَوْا مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ
 وَمَوْعِظَةً لِّلْمُتَّقِينَ

2990. A Muslim marriage requires some sort of a dower for the wife. If the man cannot afford that, he must wait and keep himself chaste. It is no excuse for him to say that he must satisfy his natural cravings within or outside marriage. It must be within marriage.

2991. The law of slavery in the legal sense of the term is now obsolete. While it had any meaning, Islam made the slave's lot as easy as possible. A slave, male or female, could ask for conditional manumission by a written deed fixing the amount required for manumission and allowing the slave meanwhile to earn money by lawful means and perhaps marry and bring up a family. Such a deed was not to be refused if the request was genuine and the slave had character. Not only that, but the master is directed to help with money out of his own resources in order to enable the slave to earn his or her own liberty.

2993. I have translated "in" (literally, "if") by "when" because this is not a conditional clause but an explanatory clause, explaining the meaning of "force". "Forcing" a person necessarily means that it is against the wish or inclination of the person forced. Even if they were to give a formal consent, it is not valid because the persons concerned are in (legal, or now) economic slavery.

2994. The poor unfortunate girls, who are victims of such a nefarious trade, will yet find mercy from Allah, whose bounties extend to the lowest of His creatures.

2995. This prepares the way for the magnificent Verse of Light that follows, and its sublime meaning. (R).

C. 159. — Allah is the Light of the heavens and the earth.
 (24:35-57.) High above our petty evanescent lives,
 He illumines our souls with means that reach
 Our inmost being. Universal is
 His Light, so pure and so intense
 That grosser beings need a veil
 To take His rays: His elect are e'er
 Absorbed in prayer and praise and deeds
 Of love, unlike the children of Darkness,
 Struggling in Depths profound of vanities
 False. All Nature sings to the glory
 Of Allah, and men of fraud and hypocrisy
 Are but rebels in the Kingdom of Allah.

SECTION 5.

35. Allah is the Light²⁹⁹⁶
 Of the heavens and the earth.²⁹⁹⁷
 The parable of His Light
 Is as if there were a Niche
 And within it a Lamp:
 The Lamp enclosed in Glass;²⁹⁹⁸
 The glass as it were

٣٥- اَللّٰهُ نُورُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ
 مَثَلُ نُورِهِ كَمِشْكُوَةٍ فِيْهَا مِصْبَاحٌ
 الْمِصْبَاحُ فِيْ زُجَاجَةٍ
 الزُّجَاجَةُ كَاَنَّهَا

2996. Embedded within certain directions concerning a refined domestic and social life, comes this glorious parable of Light, which contains layer upon layer of transcendental truth about spiritual mysteries. No notes can do adequate justice to its full meaning. Volumes have been written on this subject, the most notable being Ghazālī's Mishkāṭ al Anwār. In these notes I propose to explain the simplest meaning of this passage. (R).

2997. The physical light is but a reflection of the true Light in the world of Reality, and that true Light is Allah. We can only think of Allah in terms of our phenomenal experience, and in the phenomenal world, light is the purest thing we know, but physical light has drawbacks incidental to its physical nature: e.g., (1) it is dependent on some source external to itself; (2) it is a passing phenomenon: if we take it to be a form of motion or energy it is unstable, like all physical phenomena; (3) it is dependent on space and time; its speed is 186,000 miles per second, and there are stars whose light takes thousands (or millions or billions) of years before it reaches the earth. The perfect Light of Allah is free from any such defects. (R).

2998. The first three points in the Parable centre round the symbols of the Niche, the Lamp, and the Glass. (1) The Niche (Mishkāṭ) is the little shallow recess in the wall of an Eastern house, fairly high from the ground, in which a light (before the days of electricity) was usually placed. Its height enabled it to diffuse the light in the room and minimised the shadows. The background of the wall and the sides of the niche helped throw the light well into the room, and if the wall was white-washed, it also acted as a reflector: the opening in front made the way for the light. So with the spiritual Light: it is placed high above worldly things: it has a niche or habitation of its own, in Revelation and other Signs of Allah; its access to men is by a special Way, open to all, yet closed to those who refuse its rays. (2) The Lamp is the core of the spiritual Truth, which is the real illumination; the Niche is nothing without it; the Niche is actually made for it. (3) The Glass is the transparent medium through which the Light passes. On the one hand, it protects the light from moths and other forms of low life (lower motives in man) and from gusts of wind (passions), and on the other, it transmits the light through a medium which is made up of and akin to the grosser substances of the earth (such as sand, soda, potash, etc.), so arranged as to admit the subtle to the gross by its transparency. So the spiritual Truth has to be filtered through human language or human intelligence to make it intelligible to mankind.

A brilliant star:²⁹⁹⁹
 Lit from a blessed Tree,³⁰⁰⁰
 An Olive, neither of the East
 Nor of the West,³⁰⁰¹
 Whose Oil is well-nigh
 Luminous,
 Though fire scarce touched it:³⁰⁰²
 Light upon Light!
 Allah doth set forth Parables
 For men: and Allah³⁰⁰³
 Doth know all things.

كَوْكَبٌ دُرِّيُّ يُوقَدُ مِنْ شَجَرَةٍ مُبَارَكَةٍ
 زَيْتُونَةٍ لَا شَرْقِيَّةٍ وَلَا غَرْبِيَّةٍ
 يَكَادُ زَيْتُهَا يُضِيءُ وَلَوْ لَمْ تَمْسَسْهُ نَارٌ
 نُورٌ عَلَى نُورٍ يَهْدِي اللَّهُ لِنُورِهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ
 وَيَضْرِبُ اللَّهُ الْأَمْثَالَ لِلنَّاسِ
 وَاللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ

36. (Lit is such a light)³⁰⁰⁴
 In houses, which Allah
 Hath permitted to be raised³⁰⁰⁵
 To honour; for the celebration,
 In them, of His name:
 In them is He glorified.

٣٦- فِي بُيُوتِ أَذْنِ اللَّهِ
 أَنْ تَرْفَعَهَا وَيُذَكَّرَ فِيهَا اسْمُهُ
 يُسَبِّحُ لَهُ فِيهَا

2999. The glass by itself does not shine. But when the light comes into it, it shines like a brilliant star. So men of God, who preach Allah's Truth, are themselves illuminated by Allah's Light and become like illuminating media through which that Light spreads and permeates human life.

3000. The olive tree is not a very impressive tree in its outward appearance. Its leaves have a dull greenish-brown colour, and in size it is inconspicuous. But its oil is used in sacred ceremonies and forms a wholesome ingredient of food. The fruit has a specially fine flavour. Cf. n. 2880 to 23:20. For the illuminating quality of its oil, see n. 3002 below.

3001. This mystic Olive is not localised. It is neither of the East nor the West. It is universal, for such is Allah's Light. As applied to the olive, there is also a more literal meaning, which can be allegorised in a different way. An olive tree with an eastern aspect gets only the rays of the morning sun; one with a western aspect, only the rays of the western sun. In the northern hemisphere the south aspect will give the sun's rays a great part of the day, while a north aspect will shut them out altogether, and vice versa in the southern hemisphere. But a tree in the open plain or on a hill will get perpetual sunshine by day: it will be more mature, and the fruit and oil will be of superior quality. So Allah's light is not localised or immature: it is perfect and universal.

3002. Pure olive oil is beautiful in colour, consistency, and illuminating power. The world has tried all kinds of illuminants, and for economic reasons or convenience, one replaces another. But for coolness, comfort to the eyes, and steadiness, vegetable oils are superior to electricity, mineral oils, and animal oils. And among vegetable oils, olive oil takes a high place and deserves its sacred associations. Its purity is almost like light itself: you may suppose it to be almost light before it is lit. So with spiritual Truth: it illuminates the mind and understanding imperceptibly, almost before the human mind and heart have been consciously touched by it.

3003. Glorious, illimitable Light, which cannot be described or measured. And there are grades and grades of it, passing transcendently into regions of spiritual height, which man's imagination can scarcely conceive of. The topmost pinnacle is the true prototypal Light, the real Light, of which all others were reflections; the Light of Allah. Hence the saying of the Holy Prophet about Allah's "Seventy thousand veils of Light".

3004. The punctuation of the Arabic text makes it necessary to carry back the adverbial clause, "in houses", to something in the last verse, say "Lit from a blessed Tree"—the intervening clause being treated as parenthetical.

3005. That is, in all places of pure worship; but some Commentators understand special Mosques, such as the Ka'bah in Makkah, or the Mosques in Madīnah or Jerusalem; for these are specially held in honour.

In the mornings and
In the evenings, (again and

37. By men whom neither
Traffic nor merchandise
Can divert from the Remembrance³⁰⁰⁷
Of Allah, nor from regular Prayer,
Nor from the practice
Of regular Charity:
Their (only) fear is
For the Day when
Hearts and eyes
Will be transformed³⁰⁰⁸
(In a world wholly new) —

۳۷- رَجَالٌ لَا تُلْهِيمُهُمْ تِجَارَةٌ وَلَا بَيْعٌ
عَنْ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ وَاقَامِ الصَّلَاةِ
وَلَا يُتَاءِ الزَّكَاةَ ۖ
يَخَافُونَ يَوْمًا تَتَقَلَّبُ
فِيهِ الْقُلُوبُ وَالْأَبْصَارُ ۝

38. That Allah may reward them
According to the best³⁰⁰⁹
Of their deeds, and add
Even more for them
Out of His Grace:
For Allah doth provide
For those whom He will,
Without measure.

۳۸- لِيَجْزِيَ اللَّهُ أَحْسَنَ مَا عَمِلُوا
وَيَزِيدَ هُمْ مِمَّنْ فَضْلِهِ
وَاللَّهُ يَزِدُّ مِمَّنْ يَشَاءُ
بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ ۝

39. But the Unbelievers —
Their deeds are like a mirage³⁰¹⁰
In sandy deserts, which
The man parched with thirst
Mistakes for water; until
When he comes up to it,

۳۹- وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَعْمَالُهُمْ كَسَرَابٍ
بَقِيعَةٍ يَمْسُكُهَا الظَّمْآنُ مَاءً
حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءَهُ

3006. In the evenings: the Arabic word is Āsāl, a plural of a plural, to imply emphasis: I have rendered that shade of meaning by adding the words "again and again".

3007. "Remembrance of Allah" is wider than Prayer: it includes silent contemplation, and active service of Allah and His creatures. The regular Prayers and regular Charity are the social acts performed through the organised community.

3008. Some renderings suggest the effects of terror on the Day of Judgement. But here we are considering the case of the righteous, whose "fear" of Allah is akin to love and reverence and who (as the next verse shows) hope for the best reward from Allah. But the world they will meet will be a wholly changed one.

3009. The best of the righteous do not deserve the reward that they get: all their faults are forgiven, and only their best actions are considered in the reward that they get. Nay, more! Out of the unbounded Grace of Allah even more is added to them. For in giving rewards, Allah's bounty is boundless.

3010. We have had various metaphors to give us an idea of the beneficent Light of Allah in the spiritual world. Now we have contrasted metaphors to enable us to see those who deny or refuse that Light, and are overwhelmed in utter darkness. The Light (of Allah) is an absolute Reality, and is mentioned first, and the souls that follow that Light are a reflected reality and are mentioned after the Light. On the other hand the Darkness is not a reality in itself, but a negation of reality; the reflected existences that refuse the Light are mentioned, and then their state, which is Unreality. Two metaphors are given: a mirage, in this verse, and the depths of darkness in the sea, in the next.

He finds it to be nothing:³⁰¹¹
But he finds Allah³⁰¹²
(Ever) with him, and Allah
Will pay him his account:
And Allah is swift
In taking account.

لَمْ يَجِدْهُ شَيْئًا

وَاللَّهُ سَرِيعُ الْحِسَابِ ۝

40. Or (the Unbelievers' state)
Is like the depths of darkness
In a vast deep ocean,
Overwhelmed with billow
Topped by billow,
Topped by (dark) clouds:³⁰¹³
Depths of darkness, one³⁰¹⁴
Above another: if a man
Stretches out his hand,
He can hardly see it!
For any to whom Allah
Giveth not light,
There is no light!³⁰¹⁵

SECTION 6.

41. Seest thou not that it is
Allah Whose praises all beings
In the heavens and on earth³⁰¹⁶
Do celebrate, and the birds
(Of the air) with wings³⁰¹⁷
Outspread? Each one knows
Its own (mode of) prayer

۞- أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يُسَبِّحُ
لَهُ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَالطَّيْرِ
صَفَّتْ كُلُّ قَدٍّ عِلْمَ صَلَاتِهِ

3011. The mirage, of which I have seen several instances in the Arabian deserts and in Egypt, is a strange phenomenon of illusion. It is a trick of our vision. In the language of our Parable, it rejects the Light which shows us the Truth, and deceives us with Falsehood. A lonely traveller in a desert, nearly dying of thirst, sees a broad sheet of water. He goes in that direction, lured on and on, but finds nothing at all. He dies in protracted agony.

3012. The rebel against Allah finds himself like the man deluded by a mirage. The Truth which he rejected is always with him. The mirage which he accepted leads to his destruction.

3013. What a graphic picture of darkness is the depths of the Ocean, wave upon wave, and on top of all, dense dark clouds! There is so little light even in ordinary depths of the Ocean that fishes which live there lose their eyes as useless organs. For lines 4-5 I am indebted to Gardiner's Translation of Ghazālī's Mishkāt.

3014. A contrast to "Light upon Light" in 24:35 above.

3015. The true source of Light in the world of Reality is Allah, and anyone who cuts himself off from the Light is in utter darkness indeed, for it is the negation of the only true Light, and not merely relative darkness, like that which we see, say, in the shadows of moonlight.

3016. Cf. 21:19-20.

3017. All denizens of the heavens, such as angels, all denizens of the earth (including the waters) such as man, animals, insects, fishes, etc., and all denizens of the air, such as birds, celebrate the praises of Allah. Each has his own mode of prayer and praise. It is not necessarily with words, for language (as we know it) is peculiar to man. But actions and other modes of self-expression recognise and declare the Glory of Allah.

And praise. And Allah
Knows well all that they do.

42. Yea, to Allah belongs
The dominion of the heavens
And the earth; and to Allah
Is the final goal (of all).³⁰¹⁸
43. Seest thou not that Allah
Makes the clouds move
Gently, then joins them
Together, then makes them
Into a heap?—then wilt thou
See rain issue forth³⁰¹⁹
From their midst. And He Sends down from the sky
Mountain masses (of clouds)
Wherein is hail: He strikes
Therewith whom He pleases
And He turns it away
From whom He pleases.
The vivid flash of His lightning
Well-nigh blinds the sight.
44. Is it Allah Who alternates
The Night and the Day:³⁰²⁰
Verily in these things
Is an instructive example
For those who have vision!
45. And Allah has created
Every animal from water:³⁰²¹
Of them there are some

3018. From Him we are; to Him we belong; and to Him we shall return. Not only we, but all Creation, proclaims this in the whole world.

3019. Artists, or lovers of nature, or observers of clouds will appreciate this description of cloud effects—thin clouds floating about in fantastic shapes, joining together and taking body and substance, then emerging as heavy clouds heaped up, which condense and pour forth their rain. Then the heavy dark clouds in the upper regions, that bring hail—how distinct and yet how similar! They are truly like mountain masses! And when the hailstones fall, how local their area! It hits some localities and leaves free others almost interlaced! And the lightning—how blinding flashes come from thunderous clouds! In this Book of Nature can we not see the hand of the powerful and beneficent Allah?

3020. His power, wisdom, and goodness are shown no less in the regular phenomena of nature like the succession of Day and Night, than in the seasonal or seeming irregular movements of clouds and rain and hail and lightning. Those who have the spiritual vision can read this Book of Allah with delight and instruction.

3021. Cf. 21:30 n. 2691. Protoplasm is the basis of all living matter, and "the vital power of protoplasm seems to depend on the constant presence of water" (Lowsons' Text-book of Botany, Indian Edition. London 1922, p. 23). Text books of Zoology are also clear on the point. For example, see T. J. Parker and W. A. Haswell. Textbook of Zoology, London, 1910, vol I. p. 15: "Living protoplasm always contains a large amount of water."

That creep on their bellies;
Some that walk on two legs;

For verily Allah has power
Over all things.

46. We have indeed sent down
Signs that make things manifest:
And Allah guides whom He wills

47. They³⁰²⁴ say, "We believe

And we obey": but
Even after that, some of them
Turn away: they are not (Really) Believers.

48. When they are summoned
To Allah and His Messenger,
In order that He may judge
Between them, behold, some
Of them decline (to come).

49. But if the right is³⁰²⁵
On their side, they come
To him with all submission.

50. Is it that there is
A disease in their hearts?
Or do they doubt,
Or are they in fear,
That Allah and His Messenger
Will deal unjustly with them?

3022. The creeping things include worms and lowly forms of animal life as well as reptiles (like snakes), centipedes, spiders, and insects. Where these have legs they are small, and the description of creeping or crawling is more applicable to them than that of walking. Fishes and sea-animals generally cannot be said to walk: their swimming is like "creeping on their bellies". Two-legged animals include birds and man. Most of the mammals walk on four legs. This includes the whole of the animal world

3023. In Allah's Will and Plan, the variety of forms and habits among animals is adapted to their various modes of life and stages of biological evolution.

3024. The Hypocrites, far from profiting from Allah's Light and Revelation, or declaring their open hostility, play fast and loose according to their selfish worldly aims.

3025. The Hypocrites only wanted to go to the judge who they thought was likely to give judgement in their favour. If their case was incontestable, and justice was on their side, they readily came to the Prophet, knowing that he was just and would judge in their favour, even against his own adherents. But if they had done wrong, an impartial judge was not to their taste. They would rather go to some one who would tip the balance in their favour! This form of selfishness and iniquity was not confined to the Hypocrites of Madīnah. It is common in all ages, and should be suppressed.

Nay, it is they themselves
Who do wrong.³⁰²⁶

بَلْ أُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الظَّالِمُونَ ۝

SECTION 7.

51. The answer of the Believers,
When summoned to Allah
And His Messenger, in order
That he may judge between them,
Is no other than this:
They say, "We hear and we obey":³⁰²⁷

It is such as these
That will attain felicity.³⁰²⁸

٥١- إِنَّمَا كَانَ قَوْلَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِذَا دُعُوا
إِلَى اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ لِيَحْكُمَ بَيْنَهُمْ
أَنْ يَقُولُوا سَمِعْنَا وَأَطَعْنَا
وَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ۝

52. It is such as obey
Allah and His Messenger,
And fear Allah and do
Right, that will win
(In the end).

٥٢- وَمَنْ يُطِيعِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ
وَيَخْشَ اللَّهَ وَيَتَّقْهُ
فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْفَائِزُونَ ۝

53. They swear their strongest oaths
By Allah that, if only thou
Wouldst command them, they
Would leave (their homes).³⁰²⁹
Say: "Swear ye not;
Obedience is (more) reasonable;
Verily, Allah is well acquainted
With all that ye do."

٥٣- وَأَقْسَمُوا بِاللَّهِ جَهْدَ أَيْمَانِهِمْ لَئِنْ
أَمَرْتَهُمْ لِيَخْرُجُنَّ
قُلْ لَا تَقْسِمُوا طَاعَةٌ مَعْرُوفَةٌ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ خَبِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ۝

54. Say: "Obey Allah, and obey
The Messenger: but if ye turn
Away, he is only responsible
For the duty placed on him
And ye for that placed
On you. If ye obey him,
Ye shall be on right guidance.

٥٤- قُلْ أَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ
فَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْا فَإِنَّمَا عَلَيْهِ مَا حُمِّلَ
وَعَلَيْكُمْ مَا حُمِّلْتُمْ
وَإِنْ تَطِيعُوهُ تَهْتَدُوا ۝

3026. The real fact is that their conscience smites them. They know their own iniquity, and do not wish to go before a just judge who would be open to no influence and would be sure to give a righteous decree.

3027. Cf. 2:285. Contrast with it the attitude of the Unbelievers or Hypocrites, who say aloud, "we hear", but intend in their hearts to disobey (2:93).

3028. True happiness, whether here or in the Hereafter, is not to be attained by fraud or duplicity: it is the privilege of those who listen attentively to good counsel and carry it out in their lives.

3029. Some people, especially hypocrites, give hyperbolic assurances, as did the Madīnah Hypocrites to the Holy Prophet, that they would do any bidding, even to the forsaking of their hearths and homes. To this they are ready to swear their strongest oaths, which mean nothing. They are asked to spare their oaths, and quietly do at least such unheroic duties as they are asked to do in everyday life. Idle words are not of the least value. Allah will judge by your actions, and He knows all, whether it is open or secret.

The Messenger's duty is only
To preach the clear (Message).³⁰³⁰

55. Allah has promised, to those
Among you who believe
And work righteous deeds, that
He³⁰³¹
Will, of a surety, grant them
In the land, inheritance
(Of power), as He granted it
To those before them; that
He will establish in authority
Their religion—the one
Which He has chosen for them;
And that He will change
(Their state), after the fear³⁰³²
In which they (lived), to one
Of security and peace:
'They will worship Me (alone)
And not associate aught with Me.'
If any do reject Faith
After this, they are
Rebellious and wicked.

56. So establish regular Prayer
And give regular Charity;
And obey the Messenger;
That ye may receive mercy.

57. Never think thou
That the Unbelievers
Are going to frustrate
(Allah's Plan) on earth:
Their abode is the Fire—
And it is indeed
An evil refuge!

٥٦- وَأَقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَآتُوا الزَّكَاةَ

٥٧- لَا تَحْسَبَنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا

3030. 'If you disobey Allah's commands as explained by His Prophet, you are not going to be forced. The Prophet's mission is to train your will and explain clearly all the implications of your conduct. The responsibility for your conduct rests entirely on yourselves.

3031. Three things are promised here, to those who have Faith and obey Allah's Law: (1) that they will inherit power and authority on the land, not for any selfish purposes of theirs by way of favouritism, but in order that they may maintain Allah's Law; (2) that the Religion of Right, which Allah has chosen for them, will be openly established, and will suppress all wrong and oppression; (3) that the righteous will live in peace and security, instead of having to suffer persecution, or leave their hearths and homes for the cause of Allah, or practise the rites of their Faith in secret.

3032. If this verse was revealed about the time of the Battle of the Ditch (Khandaq), also called the Battle of the Confederates (Ahzāb), A.H. 4-5, we can imagine the comfort it gave to the Muslims who were besieged in Madīnah by a force ten times their number. The Muslims then lived in a state of great suspense and danger, and under arms for days on end. (See 33:9-20). The security and authority they were promised came to them subsequently in abundant measures.

C. 160. — For a self-respecting life on earth, respect
 (24:58-64.) For others' privacy is most essential,
 In the home and abroad: but superstitions
 Are not met in intercourse amongst kin
 Or true friends. In public council never Fail to observe the most punctilious
 Form and order: your self-respect
 Demands that ye should give your Leader
 Sincere respect and all obedience.
 Ye may not know but Allah doth know
 The inwardness of things both great and small.

SECTION 8.

58. ﴿٥٨﴾ ye who believe!³⁰³³
 Let those whom your right
 hands³⁰³⁴
 Possess, and the (children) among you
 Who have not come of age³⁰³⁵
 Ask your permission (before
 They come to your presence),
 On three occasions: before
 Morning prayer; the while
 Ye doff your clothes
 For the noonday heat;
 And after the late-night prayer:
 These are your three times³⁰³⁶
 Of undress: outside these times
 It is not wrong for you
 Or for them to move about
 Attending to each other:
 Thus does Allah make clear

٥٨- يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لِيَسْتَأْذِنَكُمْ
 الَّذِينَ مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُكُمْ وَالَّذِينَ
 لَمْ يَبْلُغُوا الْحُلُمَ مِنْكُمْ ثَلَاثَ مَرَّاتٍ
 مِنْ قَبْلِ صَلَاةِ الْفَجْرِ وَحِينَ تَضَعُونَ
 ثِيَابَكُمْ مِنَ الظَّهْرِ وَ مِنْ بَعْدِ صَلَاةِ
 الْعِشَاءِ ثَلَاثُ عَوَارِثٍ لَكُمْ
 لَيْسَ عَلَيْكُمْ وَلَا عَلَيْهِمْ جُنَاحٌ بَعْدَ هُنَّ
 طَوْفُوتٍ عَلَيْكُمْ بَعْضُكُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ
 كَذَلِكَ يُبَيِّنُ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ

3033. We now come to rules of decorum within the family circle in refined society. Servants and children have rather more freedom of access, as they come and go at all hours, and there is less ceremony with them. But even in their case there are limitations. During the night, before morning prayer, i.e., before dawn, they must discreetly ask for permission before they enter, partly because they must not unnecessarily disturb people asleep, and partly because the people are then undressed. The same applies to the time for the midday siesta, and again to the time after night prayers, when people usually undress and turn in to sleep. For grown-ups the rule is stricter: they must ask permission to come in at all times (24:59).

3034. This would mean slaves in a regime of slavery. But the principle applies to all personal servants, who have to render personal service to their masters or mistresses by day and by night.

3035. I have translated "come of age" euphemistically for "attain the age of puberty".

3036. It is mark of refinement for ladies and gentlemen not to be slipshod or vulgarly familiar, in dress, manners, or speech; and Islam aims at making every Muslim man or woman, however humble in station, a refined gentleman or lady, so that he or she can climb the ladder of spiritual development with humble confidence in Allah, and with the cooperation of his brothers and sisters in Islam. The principles here laid down apply, if they are interpreted with due elasticity, even if social and domestic habits change, with changes in climate or in racial and personal habits. Punctilious self-respect and respect for others, in small things as well as great, are the keynotes in the simple rules of etiquette.

The Signs to you: for Allah

In one afflicted with illness,³⁰⁴²

٦١- لَيْسَ عَلَى الْأَعْمَى حَرْجٌ وَلَا عَلَى
الْأَعْرَجِ حَرْجٌ وَلَا عَلَى الْمَرِيضِ حَرْجٌ

3037. Children among you: i.e., in your house, not necessarily your own children. All in the house, including the stranger within your gate, must conform to these wholesome rules.

3038. Those senior to them: literally, those before them, i.e., those who have already become grown-up before these children attain their age. It is suggested that each generation as it grows up should follow the wholesome tradition of its predecessors. While they were children, they behaved like children: when they grow up, they must behave like grown-ups.

3039. The refrain connects up this verse with the last verse, whose meaning is completed here. The slight variation ("His Signs" here, against "the Signs" there) shows that this verse is more personal, as referring to children who have now become responsible men and women.

3040. For elderly women in the home the rules of dress and decorum are not so exacting as for younger women, but they are also enjoined to study modesty, both because it is good in itself, and as an example to the younger people.

3042. There were various Arab superstitions and fancies which are combated and rejected here. (1) The blind, or the halt, or those afflicted with serious disease were supposed to be objects of divine displeasure, and as such not fit to be associated with us in meals in our houses: we are not to entertain such a thought, as we are not judges of the causes of people's misfortunes, which deserve our sympathy and kindness. (2) It was considered unbecoming to take meals in the houses of near relatives: this taboo is not approved. (3) A simple superstition about houses in our possession but not in our actual occupation is disapproved. (4) If people think they should not fall under obligation to casual friends, that does not apply to a sincere friend, in whose company a meal is not to be rejected, but welcomed. (5) If people make a superstition either that they should always eat separately, or that they must always eat in company, as some people weary of their own company think, either of them is wrong. Man is free and should regulate his life according to needs and circumstances. (R).

Nor in yourselves, that ye
Should eat in your own houses,
Or those of your fathers,
Or your mothers, or your brothers,
Or your sisters, or your father's brothers

Or your father's sisters,
Or your mother's brothers,
Or your mother's sisters,
Or in houses of which
The keys are in your possession,
Or in the house of a sincere
Friend of yours: there is
No blame on you, whether
Ye eat in company or Separately. But if ye
Enter houses, salute each other —
A greeting or blessing
And purity as from Allah,³⁰⁴³
Thus does Allah make clear
The Signs to you: that ye
May understand.³⁰⁴⁴

62. Only those are Believers,
Who believe in Allah and
His Messenger: when they are
With him on a matter
Requiring collective action,³⁰⁴⁵
They do not depart until
They have asked for his leave:
Those who ask for thy leave
Are those who believe in Allah
And His Messenger; so when
They ask for thy leave,

فَإِذَا اسْتَأْذَنُوكَ لِبَعْضِ شَأْنِهِمْ
فَأَذْنِ لَّيْسَ

3043. The shades of meaning in Salām are explained in n. 2512 to 19:62. Here, we were first told that we might accept hospitality and good fellowship in each other's houses. Now we are told what spirit should animate us in doing so. It should not be a spirit only of self-satisfaction in a worldly sense. It should rather be a spirit of good will in the highest spiritual sense of the term—purity of motives and purity of life, as in the sight of Allah. Cf. Dante in the Paradiso (iii. 85): "In His will is our Peace."

3044. See notes 3039 and 3041 above. The refrain comes again, in a different form, closing the argument from a different point of view.

3045. Matter requiring collective action: anything that affects the Community as a whole: Jumu'ah and 'Id prayers are periodical occasions of this kind, but what is meant here is, I think, joint consultations with a view to joint undertakings, such as Jihād, or some kind of organisation in peace.

Whom thou wilt,⁵⁰⁴⁶ and ask
Allah for their forgiveness:⁵⁰⁴⁷
For Allah is Oft-Forgiving,
Most Merciful.

سِئْتِ مِنْهُمْ وَاسْتَغْفِرْ لَهُمْ اللَّهُ

63. Deem not the summons
Of the Messenger among yourselves
Like the summons of one³⁰⁴⁸
Of you to another: Allah
Doth know those of you
Who slip away under shelter
Of some excuse: then
Let those beware who
Withstand the Messenger's order,
Lest some trial befall them,³⁰⁴⁹
Or a grievous Penalty
Be inflicted on them.

٢٢- لَا تَجْعَلُوا دُعَاءَ الرَّسُولِ بَيْنَكُمْ
كَدُعَاءِ بَعْضِكُمْ بَعْضًا

لِوَإِذَا قُلْتُمْ لِلَّذِينَ
يُخَالِفُونَ عَنْ أَمْرٍ أَنْ تُصِيبَهُمْ فِتْنَةٌ
أَوْ يُصِيبَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ○

64. Be quite sure that
To Allah doth belong
Whatever is in the heavens
And on earth. Well doth He
Know what ye are intent upon:³⁰⁵⁰
And one day they will be Brought back to Him, and He
Will tell them the truth
Of what they did.³⁰⁵¹
For Allah doth know
All things.

۶۴- اَلَا اِنَّ لِلّٰهِ

قَدْ يَعْلَمُ مَا اَنْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ
وَيَوْمَ يُزْجَعُونَ اِلَيْهِ فَيُنْتَبِهُهُمْ
بِمَا عَمِلُوا
وَاللّٰهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيْمٌ ۝

3046. That is, those to whom, in the exercise of your impartial discretion, you think it expedient to give leave. "Will", unless the context shows otherwise, means "right will", not a will without any definite principle behind it.

3047. In important matters of general consultation, even though leave of absense is given on sufficient excuse, it implies some defect in duty on the part of the person to whom the leave is given, and therefore the need of forgiveness from Him to Whom we owe duty in a perfect measure.

3048. Three significations are possible. One is that adopted in the Translation, which agrees with the view of most Commentators. Another would be: 'Do not think that the prayer of the Prophet of Allah is like your ordinary requests to another: the Prophet's prayer will be about serious matters and will be accepted by Allah.' A third interpretation would be: 'Do not address the Prophet familiarly as you would address one another: use proper terms of respect for him.'

3049. The "trial" is understood to be some misfortune in this life, and the "grievous Penalty" to be the punishment in the Hereafter.

3050. The condition or position you are in, the motives which actuate you, and the ends you have in view.

3051. Things misunderstood or maligned, falsely praised or held in honour, or fraudulently shown to be good when they are evil—everything will be revealed in its true light on the Day of Final Judgement.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 25—AL FURQĀN)

This Sūrah further develops the contrast between Light and Darkness, as symbolical of knowledge and ignorance, righteousness and sin, spiritual progress and degradation. It closes with a definition of the deeds by which the righteous are known in the environment of this world.

It is mainly an early Makkan Sūrah, but its date has no significance.

Summary—Allah's highest gift to man is that He has furnished a Criterion for judgement between right and wrong—in His revelation, which teaches us the true significance of our eternal Future (25:1-20, and C. 161).

Those who do not use that Criterion will be full of woe when the Judgement comes, for Allah gave full warning at all times (25:21-44, and C. 162).

In the contrasts of shade and sun, night and day, death and life, and the whole ordering of Allah's Creation, men may learn of Allah Most Gracious; and the virtues of the righteous respond to Allah's care for them (25:45-77, and C. 163).

C. 161. — Among the highest and greatest of the gifts of Allah
(25:1-20.) Is His Revelation, which is the Criterion
By which we may judge between right
And wrong—between false and true worship,
Between the Message that comes from Allah
And the forgeries of men, between the Real
In our eternal Future and the Fancies
By which we are misled. The Prophets of Allah
Come as men to live among men and guide them.

Sūrah 25.

Al Furqān (The Criterion)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Blessed³⁰⁵² is He Who
Sent down the Criterion³⁰⁵³
To His servant, that it³⁰⁵⁴
May be an admonition
To all creatures—

2. He to Whom belongs
The dominion of the heavens
And the earth: no son
Has He begotten, nor has He
A partner in His dominion:
It is He Who created
All things, and ordered them
In due proportions.³⁰⁵⁵

3. Yet have they taken,³⁰⁵⁶
Besides Him, gods that can Create nothing but are themselves
Created; that have no control
Of hurt or good to themselves;
Nor can they control Death
Nor Life nor Resurrection.

الْبُحْرَةُ الثَّامِنُ عَشَرَ سُورَةُ الْفُرْقَانِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- تَبَارَكَ الَّذِي نَزَّلَ الْفُرْقَانَ
عَلَى عَبْدِهِ لِيَكُونَ لِلْعَالَمِينَ نَذِيرًا ۝

٢- الَّذِي لَهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ
وَالْأَرْضِ وَلَمْ يَتَّخِذْ وَلَدًا وَلَمْ يَكُنْ
لَهُ شَرِيكٌ فِي الْمُلْكِ وَخَلَقَ
كُلَّ شَيْءٍ فَقَدْ رَءَاهُ تَقْدِيرًا ۝

٣- وَاتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ آلِهَةً
لَا يَخْلُقُونَ شَيْئًا وَهُمْ يُخْلَقُونَ وَلَا
يَمْلِكُونَ أَنْ نَنْفُسَهُمْ صُرًا وَلَا نَنْفَعًا وَلَا
يَمْلِكُونَ مَوْتًا وَلَا حَيَاةً وَلَا نُشُورًا ۝

3054. The pronoun in yakūna may refer to Furqān (the Criterion) or the 'Abd (the Holy Prophet). In either case the ultimate meaning is the same. The Qur'ān is the standing Criterion for judgement between right and wrong.

3055. The majesty of Allah and His independence of all wants or help are mentioned, to show how exceedingly great is His goodness in revealing His Will to us.

3056. This is the first great distinction taught by the Criterion: to know the attribute of the true God, as against the false fancies of men. (R).

4. But the Misbelievers say:
"Naught is this but a lie³⁰⁵⁷
Which he has forged,
And others have helped him
At it." In truth it is they
Who have put forward
An iniquity and a falsehood.
5. And they say: "Tales of
The ancients, which he has caused
To be written: and they
Are dictated before him
Morning and evening."³⁰⁵⁸
6. Say: "The (Qur'ān) was sent down
By Him Who knows
The Mystery (that is) in the heavens³⁰⁵⁹
And the earth: verily He
Is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful."
7. And they say: "What sort
Of a messenger is this,
Who eats foods, and walks
Through the streets? Why
Has not an angel
Been sent down to him
To give admonition with him?"³⁰⁶⁰

۴- وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِنَّ هَذَا إِلَّا
إِفْكٌ
افْتَرَاهُ وَآعَانَهُ عَلَيْهِ قَوْمٌ آخَرُونَ
فَقَدْ جَاءُوا ظُلُمًا وَزُورًا ۝

۵- وَقَالُوا أَسَاطِيرُ الْأَوَّلِينَ اكْتَتَبَهَا
فَہِی تُمْلٰی عَلَیْہِ
بُكْرَةً وَّآصِيلًا ۝

۶- قُلْ أَنْزَلَهُ الَّذِی یَعْلَمُ
السِّرِّ فِی السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
إِنَّہٗ كَانَ غَفُوْرًا رَّحِیْمًا ۝

۷- وَقَالُوا مَالِ هَٰذَا الرَّسُوْلِ
یَأْكُلُ الطَّعَامَ وَیَمْشِی فِی الْأَسْوَاقِ
لَوْلَا أَنْزَلَ إِلَیْہِ مَلَكٌ
فَیَكُوْنُ مَعَهُ نَذِیْرًا ۝

3057. Ifk, which I have translated as a "lie" may be distinguished from zūr at the end of this verse, translated "falsehood". The "lie" which the enemies attributed to the Holy Prophet of Allah was supposed to be something which did not exist in reality, but was invented by him with the aid of other people: the implication was that (1) the Revelation was not a revelation but a forgery, and that (2) the things revealed e.g., the news of the Hereafter, the Resurrection, the Judgement, the Bliss of the Righteous and the sufferings of the Evil, were fanciful and had no basis in fact. Delusion is also suggested. The reply is that, so far from that being the case, the facts were true and the charges were false (zūr)— the falsehood being due to the habits of iniquity for which the Misbelievers' whole mental and spiritual attitude was responsible. (R).

3058. In their misguided arrogance they say: 'We have heard such things before: they are pretty tales which have come down from ancient times; they are good for amusement, but who takes them seriously? When the beauty and power of the Revelation are pointed out, and its miracle as coming from an unlearned man, they again hint at other men who wrote them, though they could not produce any one who could write anything like it.

3059. The answer is that the Qur'ān teaches spiritual knowledge of what is ordinarily hidden from men's sight, and such knowledge can only come from Allah, to Whom alone is known the Mystery of the whole Creation. In spite of man's sin and shortcomings, He forgives, and He sends His most precious gift, i.e., the revelation of His Will.

3060. This is another objection: 'He is only a man like us: why is not an angel sent down, if not by himself, at least with him?' The answer is: angels would be of no use to men as Messengers, as they and men would not understand each other, and if angels came, it might cause more confusion and wonder than understanding in men's minds. Cf. 21:7-8, 27:94-95. The office of an angel is different. A teacher for mankind is one who shares their nature, mingles in their life, is acquainted with their doings, and sympathises with their joys and sorrows.

8. "Or (why) has not a treasure
Been bestowed on him, or
Why has he (not) a garden
For enjoyment?"³⁰⁶¹ The wicked
Say: "Ye follow none other
Than a man bewitched."³⁰⁶²

9. See what kinds of companions
They make for thee!
But they have gone astray,
And never a way will they
Be able to find!³⁰⁶³

SECTION 2.

10. Blessed is He Who,³⁰⁶⁴
If that were His Will,
Could give thee better (things)
Than those—Gardens beneath
which³⁰⁶⁵
Rivers flow; and He could Give thee Palaces (secure
To dwell in).
11. Nay, they deny the Hour
(Of the Judgement to come):³⁰⁶⁶
But We have prepared
A Blazing Fire for such
As deny the Hour:

٨- أَوْ يُلْقَى إِلَيْهِ كَنْزٌ أَوْ تَكُونُ لَهُ جَنَّةٌ
يَأْكُلُ مِنْهَا وَقَالَ الظَّالِمُونَ إِن تَتَّبِعُونَ
إِلَّا رَجُلًا مَّسْحُورًا ۝

٩- اُنْظُرْ كَيْفَ ضَرَبُوا لَكَ الْأَمْثَالَ
فَضَلُّوا فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ سَبِيلًا ۝

١٠- تَبَارَكَ الَّذِي إِنْ شَاءَ
جَعَلَ لَكَ خَيْرًا
مِنْ ذَلِكَ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا
الْأَنْهَارُ وَيَجْعَلُ لَكَ قُصُورًا ۝

١١- بَلْ كَذَّبُوا بِالسَّاعَةِ
وَأَعْتَدْنَا لِلْكَافِرِينَ سَاعًا ۝

3061. Literally, 'that he may eat out of it'. As shown in n. 775 to 5:69, akala (to eat) has a comprehensive meaning, implying enjoyment of all kinds, physical, social, mental and moral, and spiritual. Here the garden itself stands for a type of the amenities of life: its fruits would be available for eating, in coolness for rest and refreshment, its waters and its landscape for aesthetic delight.

3062. Cf. 17:47. This speech, of the wicked or the ungodly, is meant to be even more bitter than that of the Misbelievers. It makes out the Teacher to be a demented fool.

3063. The charges the enemies made against the Messenger of Allah recoiled on those who made them. The Messenger was vindicated, and went from strength to strength, for Allah's Truth will always prevail. The men who perversely leave the way of truth, righteousness, and sincerity, have not only missed the Way, but on account of their perversity they will never be able to find any way by which they can get back to Truth.

3064. Cf. above, 25:1 The reminiscent phrase shows that the first argument, about the Revelation and Prophethood, is completed, and we now pass on to the contrast, the fate of the rejecters of both.

3065. This phrase is usually symbolical of the Bliss in the Hereafter. If it were Allah's Plan, He could give his Messengers complete felicity and power in this life also. Instead of being persecuted, mocked, driven out of their homes, and having to exert their utmost powers of body, mind, and character to plant the flag of Truth in an unbelieving world, they could have lived in ease and security. But that would not have given the real lessons they came to teach struggling humanity by their example.

3066. Denying the Hour of Judgement means denying the power of Justice and Truth to triumph; it means asserting the dominion of Evil. But the Reality itself will punish them, as shown in the following verses.

12. When it sees them
From a place far off,
They will hear its fury
And its raging sigh.³⁰⁶⁷
13. And when they are cast,
Bound together, into a
Constricted place therein, they
Will plead for destruction
There and then!³⁰⁶⁸
14. "This day plead not
For a single destruction:
Plead for a destruction oft-repeated!"
15. Say: "Is that best, or
The eternal Garden, promised³⁰⁶⁹
To the righteous? For them,
That is a reward as well
As a goal (or attainment).³⁰⁷⁰
16. "For them there will be
Therein all that they wish for:
They will dwell (there) for aye:
A promise to be prayed for
From thy Lord."³⁰⁷¹
17. The Day He will gather
Them together as well as Those whom they worship
Besides Allah, He will ask³⁰⁷²
"Was it ye who led

١٢- إِذَا رَأَوْهُم مِّن مَّكَانٍ بَعِيدٍ
سَمِعُوا لَهَا تَغَيُّظًا وَزَفِيرًا ۝

١٣- وَإِذَا أُلْقُوا مِنْهَا مَكَانًا ضَيِّقًا

١٤- لَا تَدْعُوا الْيَوْمَ ثُبُورًا وَاحِدًا

١٥- قُلْ أَذَلِكَ خَيْرٌ أَمْ جَنَّةُ الْخُلْدِ

١٧- وَيَوْمَ يَحْشُرُهُمْ وَمَا يَعْبُدُونَ
مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ فَيَقُولُ أَأَنْتُمْ أَضَلَلْتُمْ

3067. For zafir, a deep emission of breath or a sigh, see n. 1607 to 11:106. Here the Fire is personified. It is raging with hunger and fury, and as soon as it sees them from ever so far, it emits a sigh of desire. Till then they had not realised their full danger. Now, just as their heart begins to tremble with terror, they are bound together—like with like—and cast into the roaring flames!

3068. Anything—total annihilation—would be better than the anguish they will suffer. But no annihilation will be granted to them. One destruction will not be enough to wipe out the intensity of their anguish. They will have to ask for many destructions, but they will not get them!

3069. Shifting the scene back to this life, they may fairly be asked: "Here is the result of the two courses of conduct: which do you prefer?"

3070. To the righteous, the final Bliss will in one sense be a reward. But the word "reward" does not truly represent facts, for two reasons: (1) the Bliss will be greater than they deserved; and (2) righteousness is its own reward. The best way of expressing the result would be to say that their highest Wish will now have been attained; the goal will have been reached; they will be in Allah's Presence. That is salvation in the highest.

3071. That is the sort of thing—the Goal of Allah's Presence—to be prayed for from Allah, and not ephemeral things, even though they may be good. And that is the sort of thing that Allah has promised and undertaken to give.

3072. The question is as in a Court of Justice, to convince those who stand arraigned.

These My servants astray.
Or did they stray
From the Path themselves?"

18. They will say: "Glory to Thee!
Not meet was it for us
That we should take
For protectors others besides
Thee:³⁰⁷³

But Thou didst bestow,
On them and their fathers,
Good things (in life), until
They forgot the Message:
For they were a people
(Worthless and) lost."

19. (Allah will say): "Now
Have they proved you liars
In what ye say: so
Ye cannot avert (your penalty)³⁰⁷⁴
Nor (get) help." And whoever
Among you does wrong,
Him shall We cause to taste
Of a grievous Penalty.

20. And the messengers whom We Sent before thee were all
(Men) who ate food
And walked through the streets:³⁰⁷⁵
We have made some of you
As a trial for others:³⁰⁷⁶

١٩- فَقَدْ كَذَّبْتُمْ بِمَا تَقُولُونَ

٢٠- وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا قَبْلَكَ مِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ

فِي الْأَسْوَاقِ وَجَعَلْنَا بَعْضَكُمْ لِبَعْضٍ فِتْنَةً

3073. The creatures of Allah who were worshipped will prove that they never asked for worship: on the contrary they themselves worshipped Allah and sought the protection of Allah and of none but Allah. Cf. 46:5-6. They will go further and show that the false worshippers added ingratitude to their other sins: for Allah bestowed abundance on them, and they blasphemed against Allah. They were indeed "worthless and lost", for the word būr bears both significations.

3074. The argument is as in a court of justice. If the false worshippers plead that they were misled by those whom they falsely worshipped, the latter will be confronted with them and will prove that plea to be false. No help can be got from them, and the penalty cannot then be averted. After all these things are thus explained in detail beforehand, all ungodly men should repent and turn to Allah. False worship is here identified with sin, for sin is disobedience to Allah, and arises from a wrong appreciation of Allah's attributes and His goodness to His creatures. The sinful man refuses, in his conduct, to serve Allah: he serves other things than Allah. (R)

3075. Cf. above, 25:7.

3076. In Allah's universal Plan, each unit or thing serves a purpose. If some are rich, the poor should not envy them: it may be that the rich man's proximity is itself a trial of their value. If some are poor, the righteous rich should not despise or neglect them: it may be that their coming within their sight is a trial for the real feeling of charity or brotherly love in the rich. If A is bad-tempered or persecutes or ill-uses B, it may be an opportunity for B to show his patience or humility or his faith in the ultimate prevalence of justice and truth. Whatever our experiences with other human beings may be, we must make them subserve the ends of our spiritual improvement and perhaps theirs too.

Will ye have patience?
For Allah is One Who
Sees (all things).

- C. 162. — Woe to the misbelievers who arrogantly
(25:21-44.) Demand to see Allah, yet reject
His Signs! The Judgement will come,
And then they will see, too late, how evil
Casts nothing but treacherous snares for man.
Slowly comes Allah's Revelation, in ways
Most conducive to man's enlightenment.
Men in their folly reject the most obvious
Signs of Allah. Let them mock! Soon
Will they know! Alas! men ruled by self-impulse
Are worse than brute beasts to guide or controll

SECTION 3.

21. Such as fear not
The meeting with Us³⁰⁷⁷
(For Judgement) say:
"Why are not the angels
Sent down to us, or
(Why) do we not see³⁰⁷⁸
Our Lord?" Indeed they
Have an arrogant conceit
Of themselves, and mighty
Is the insolence of their impiety!

لَقَدْ اسْتَكْبَرُوا فِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ

22. The Day they see the angels—
No joy will there be
To the sinners that Day:
The (angels) will say:
"There is a barrier
Forbidden (to you) altogether!"³⁰⁷⁹

۲۲- يَوْمَ يَرَوْنَ الْمَلَائِكَةَ
لَا بُشْرَى يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْجُرِمِينَ

23. And We shall turn
To whatever deeds they did
(In this life), and We shall

۲۳- وَقَدْ مَنَّآ إِلَى مَا عَمِلُوا مِنْ عَمَلٍ

3077. The blasphemers who have given up all Faith and laugh at the Hereafter: nothing is sacred to them: their arrogance and insolence are beyond all bounds.

3078. Cf. 2:55. The Israelites in the time of Moses demanded to see Allah. But they were dazed with thunder and lightning even as they looked on. Indeed death would have been their fate, had it not been for the mercy of Allah.

3079. They will not be allowed to enjoy any of the felicity or peace which will be the normal state of the new world of Reality. Their own past will stand as a barrier to shut them off.

Make such deeds as floating dust
Scattered about.³⁰⁸⁰

فَجَعَلْنَاهُ هَبَاءً مَنْثُورًا ۝

24. The Companions of the Garden
Will be well, that Day,
In their abode, and have
The fairest of places for repose.³⁰⁸¹

۲۴- أَصْحَابُ الْجَنَّةِ يَوْمَئِذٍ خَيْرٌ مُسْتَقَرًّا

25. The Day the heaven shall be
Rent asunder with clouds,³⁰⁸²
And angels shall be sent down,
Descending (in ranks) —

26. That Day, the dominion
As of right and truth,
Shall be (wholly) for (Allah)³⁰⁸³
Most Merciful: it will be
A Day for dire difficulty
For the Misbelievers.

۲۶- أَلَمَلِكُ يَوْمَئِذٍ
الْحَقُّ لِلرَّحْمَنِ
وَكَانَ يَوْمًا عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ عَسِيرًا ۝

27. The Day that the wrongdoer
Will bite at his hands,
He will say, "Oh! would that
I had taken a (straight) path
With the Messenger!"³⁰⁸⁴

۲۷- وَيَوْمَ يَعْصُ الظَّالِمُ عَلَى يَدَيْهِ

28. "Ah! woe is me!
Would that I had never Taken such a one

۲۸- يَوَيْلَئِي يَلَيْتَنِي
لَمْ أَتَّخِذْ فُلَانًا خَلِيلًا ۝

29. "He did lead me astray
From the Message (of Allah)
After it had come to me!

۲۹- لَقَدْ أَضَلَّنِي عَنِ الذِّكْرِ بَعْدَ إِذْ
جَاءَنِي ۝

3080. The false hopes they built on in this life, and the deeds they did under the shadow of such false hopes will be dissipated if they were dust flying about in the wind. They will have no value whatever.

3081. The barrier which will shut out the evil ones will not exist for the righteous, who will have an abode of bliss and repose, for they will be in the Garden of Allah's Good Pleasure.

3082. It will be a new world, and the symbolism to describe it must necessarily draw upon our present experience of the finest things in nature. The sky, which now appears remote and unpeopled will be rent asunder. There will appear clouds of glory—angels and spiritual Lights of all grades and ranks—and the true majesty and goodness of Allah will be visible as it should be in reality, and as it is not now, on account of "our muddied vesture of decay". (R).

3083. See last note.

3084. The words are general, and for us the interest is in a general sense. A man who actually receives the Truth and is on the right path is all the more culpable if he is diverted from that path by the machinations of a worldly friend. The particular person whom some Commentators mention in this connection was one 'Uqbah who received the light of Islam, but was misled afterwards by a worldly friend into apostasy and blasphemy. He came to an evil end afterwards.

Ah! the Evil One is
But a traitor to man!³⁰⁸⁵

30. Then the Messenger will say:
"O my Lord! Truly
My people took this Qur'ān
For just foolish nonsense."³⁰⁸⁶

31. Thus have We made
For every prophet an enemy
Among the sinners: but enough
Is thy Lord to guide
And to help.³⁰⁸⁷

32. Those who reject Faith
Say: "Why is not the Qur'ān
Revealed to him all at once?
Thus (is it revealed), that We
May strengthen thy heart³⁰⁸⁸
Thereby, and We have
Rehearsed it to thee in slow,
Well-arranged stages, gradually.

33. And no question do they Bring to thee but We Reveal to thee the truth
And the best explanation
(thereof).³⁰⁸⁹

وَكَانَ الشَّيْطَانُ لِلْإِنْسَانِ خَذُولًا ۝

۳۰- وَقَالَ الرَّسُولُ يَا رَبِّ إِنَّ
قَوْمِي اتَّخَذُوا هَذَا الْقُرْآنَ مَهْجُورًا ۝

۳۱- وَكَذَلِكَ جَعَلْنَا لِكُلِّ نَبِيٍّ عَدُوًّا
مِّنَ الْمُجْرِمِينَ وَكَفَى

۳۲- وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
لَوْلَا نُزِّلَ عَلَيْهِ الْقُرْآنُ جُمْلَةً وَاحِدَةً
كَذَلِكَ لِنُثَبِّتَ بِهِ فُؤَادَكَ
وَرَتَّلْنَاهُ تَرْتِيلًا ۝

۳۳- وَلَا يَأْتُونَكَ بِمَثَلٍ
إِلَّا جِئْنَاكَ بِالْحَقِّ وَأَحْسَنَ تَفْسِيرًا ۝

3085. The seductive wiles of the Evil One are merely meant for snares. There is fraud and treachery in them. The deceived ones are left in the lurch after the way of escape is made impossible for them

3086. "My people" are of course the unbelieving Quraysh. They treated the Qur'ān as foolish nonsense i.e., something to be discarded. But they were only a handful of people whose vested interests were touched by the beneficent reforms initiated by Islam. They soon passed away, and all Arabic-speaking or Arabic-understanding people have considered the Qur'ān as a treasury of Truths expressed in the most beautiful possible language, with a meaning that grows deeper with research. (R).

3087. It is the nature of sin to be hostile to truth and righteousness, but such hostility will not harm the righteous and need cause no misgiving because Allah will guide and help those who work in His cause. And what could be better or more effective than His guidance and help?

3088. Three reasons are given for the gradual revelation of the Qur'ān. (1) "To strengthen thy heart": the tremendous task of winning the Arab nation, and, through them, the whole world, to Islam, required superhuman patience, constancy, and firmness, and these qualities were strengthened by the gradual promulgation of solutions to each difficulty as it arose. (2) "Slow, well-arranged stages": though the stages were gradual, as the occasion demanded from time to time, in the course of twenty-three years, the whole emerged, when completed, as a well-arranged scheme of spiritual instruction, as we have seen in following the arrangement of the Sūrah. (3) Questions put and answers given: see next note.

3089. Divine knowledge is a fathomless ocean. But glimpses of it can be obtained by any individuals sincerely searching for the Truth. Their progress will be in grades. If they ask questions, and answers are then furnished to them, they are more likely to apprehend the Truth, as they have already explored the part of the territory in which they are interested. In the same way, when concrete questions arise by the logic of events, and they are answered not only for the occasion, but from a general stand-point, the teaching has a far greater chance of penetrating the human intelligence and taking shape in practical conduct. And this is the usual way of instruction in the Qur'ān.

34. Those who will be gathered

They will be in an evil
Plight, and as to Path,
Most astray. ³⁰⁹¹

SECTION 4.

His brother Aaron with him
As Minister; ³⁰⁹²
36. And We commanded: "Go ye
Both, to the people who
Have rejected our Signs:"
And those (people) We destroyed
With utter destruction.
37. And the people of Noah —
When they rejected the messengers,
We drowned them,
And We made them
As a Sign for mankind; ³⁰⁹³
And We have prepared
For (all) wrongdoers
A grievous Penalty —
38. And also 'Ād and Thamūd,
And the Companions ³⁰⁹⁴

۲۴- الَّذِينَ يُخْشَرُونَ عَلَىٰ وُجُوهِهِمْ إِلَىٰ

3090. That is, in ignominy.

3091. This verse may be compared and contrasted with 25:24 above. Here the argument is rounded off about the distinction between the Good and Evil in their final Destiny. The Good are to have "the fairest of places for repose", and in contrast, the Evil are, "as to Path, most astray". They have no repose, and their wanderings lead nowhere.

3092. Cf. 20:29, and the whole passage there, which is merely referred to here, to show how previous Prophets were treated, but how they stuck fast to the Criterion given, to distinguish between Good and Evil.

3094. Commentators are not clear as to who the "Companions of the Rass" were. The root meaning of "rass" is an old well or shallow water-pit. Another root connects it with the burial of the dead. But it is probably the name of a town or place. The "Companions of the Rass" may well have been the people of Shu'ayb, as they are here mentioned with the 'Ād, the Thamūd, and Lot's people, and the people of Shu'ayb are mentioned in a similar connection in 26:176-190 and in 9:84-95. Shu'ayb was the prophet of the Madyan people in the northwest of Arabia, where many old wells are found. There is however, an oasis town al Rass in the district of Qasim in Middle Najd, about thirty-five miles southwest of the town of 'Unayzah, reputed to be the central point of the Arabian Peninsula, and situated midway between Makkah and Basrah. See Doughty's Arabia Deserta, thin paper one-volume edition, London 1926, II. 435 and Map. Lat. 26°N., and Long. 43°E.

3095. This refers to Lot's story and the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, the wicked cities of the plain near the Dead Sea, by a shower of brimstone. The site lies on the highway between Arabia and Syria. Cf. 15:74, 76, and n. 1998.

3096. "Path" (Sabīl) is almost equivalent here to conduct or way of life.

3097. The man who worships his own passions or impulses or desires is the most hopeless to teach or lead or guide. If it were anything else the matter with him, the Teacher could argue with him. But Reason cannot prevail over blind passion. It is vain to hope that such a man could be led, until his mad desires are killed. No one could undertake any responsibility for him, for he obeys no law and follows no advice. He is worse than brute beasts, which may not understand, but at least follow the wholesome instincts implanted in them by Allah. The lawless man has killed his instincts and is unwilling to submit to guidance.

44. Or thinkest thou that most

They are only like cattle; —
Nay, they are worse astray
In Path.

٣٤- أَمْ تَحْسَبُ أَنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ يَسْمَعُونَ

C. 163. — But the Signs of Allah are everywhere
(25:45-77.) In creation. The Sun and the Shadow,
The Day and the Night, the Wind and the Rain —
All things in nature are symbols, and point
To the Law Divine, and the destiny, good
Or ill, of man. Will he not learn
And put his trust in Him, the Merciful?
His true servants ever adore him
In humility and fear of wrong, in faith
And just moderation in life, in respect
For duties owed to Allah and men
And self, in avoidance of all that is false
Or futile, in strict and grateful attention
To Allah's Message, and in the wish
To put themselves and their families
In the van of those who love and honour Allah.

SECTION 5.

45. Hast thou not turned³⁰⁹⁸

٣٥- أَلَمْ تَر إِلَى رَبِّكَ كَيْفَ مَدَّ الظِّلَّ
وَلَوْ شَاءَ جَعَلَهُ سَاكِنًا
ثُمَّ جَعَلْنَا الشَّمْسُ عَلَيْهِ دَلِيلًا ۝

3098. We saw in 24:35 that Allah is the Light of the heavens and the earth. We have now, another sublime passage, in which we are asked to contemplate the Glory of Allah by a parable of the subtle play of Light and Shade in Allah's creation. (R).

3099. In our artificial life and surroundings we fail to see some of the finest mysteries of Light and Shade. We praise, and rightly so, the wonderful colours of sunset. We see, particularly in climates more northerly than that of India, the subtle play of Light and Shade in the twilights succeeding sunsets. If we were as assiduous in seeing sunrises and the play of Light and Shade preceding them, we should see phenomena even more impressive, as the early morning seems to us more holy than any other time in the twenty-four hours of the sun's daily journey. There is the first false dawn, with its curious uncertain light and the curious long uncertain shadows which it casts. Then there are the streaks of black in the East, succeeded by the true dawn, with its delicate tones of colours, and light and shade. The light of this true or false Dawn is not given by the direct rays of the sun. In a sense it is not light, but the shadows or reflections of light. And they gradually merge into actual sunrise, with its more substantial or more defined shadows, which we can definitely connect with the sun.

3100. The morning shadows are long but more definite, and their length and direction are seen to be guided by the sun. But they change insensibly every second or fraction of a second.

46. Then We draw it in³¹⁰¹
Towards Ourselves—
A contraction by easy stages.³¹⁰²

48. And He it is Who sends

His Mercy, and We send down

٣٨- وَهُوَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ الرِّيحَ

49. That with it, We may give
Life to a dead land,
And slake the thirst

Cattle and men in great numbers.

٣٩- لِنُخْجِي بِهِ بَلَدًا مَيِّتًا
وَنُسْقِيَهُ مِمَّا خَلَقْنَا أَنْعَامًا
وَإِنَاسًا كَثِيرًا ○

3101. As the sun rises higher and higher, the shadows contract. In regions where the sun actually gets to the zenith at noon, there is no shadow left at that time. Where does it go? It was but a shadow cast by a substance and it gets absorbed by the substance which produced it. (R).

3102. Let us now reverently turn our vision (as far as we are able) to the symbolic meaning. Allah is the Light. All things in creation -- whether concrete or abstract -- are but shadows, depending on His Light. All shadows are not equal. He gives length or size of substance to such as He pleases. And some shadows almost become reflected lights, like the light of the false or the true Dawn. Such are holy men, in all kinds of gradations. The shadows are constantly in a state of flux; so are all things in Creation, all things we see or covet in this life. Allah, if He wills, can give some of them greater fixity or comparative stability. (R).

3103. Here the symbolism presents a fresh point of view. It is still a contrast between Light and Shade; but the shade of Night is as a Robe to cover and screen us and give us Repose from activity; and the Light of Day is for striving, work, activity. Or again, the Night is like Death, our temporary Death before Judgement, the time during which our senses are sealed in Sleep; and the Day is like the renewal of Life at the Resurrection.

3105. Rain water (in pure air) is not only pure water distilled in air and sky, but it is the best purifying and sanitating agent on the largest scale known to us.

3106. The whole cycle of water — sea, clouds, rain or hail or snow, rivers, and sea again — is a remarkable illustration of the processes of nature making Allah's providence visible to us. The salts of the sea sanitize and purify all the filth that pours into it. Water action, in the form of rain, frost, glaciers, rivers, lakes, etc., is responsible for the building up and configuration of the crust of the earth, and is the chief agent in physical geography. A parched desert quickly comes to life under the action of water. All drinking water, whether derived from rivers, canals, lakes, reservoirs, springs, wells, or waterworks of any kind, are ultimately traceable to rain. The connection of life with water is intimate. The physical basis of life itself, protoplasm, is, in great part, water: see 25:54 below.

50. And We have distributed
The (water) amongst them, in order³¹⁰⁷
That they may celebrate
(Our) praises, but most men
Are averse (to aught) but³¹⁰⁸
(Rank) ingratitude.

٥٠- وَلَقَدْ صَرَّفْنَاهُ بَيْنَهُمْ

Of population,³¹⁰⁹

٥١- وَلَوْ شِئْنَا

52. Therefore listen not
To the Unbelievers, but strive
Against them with the utmost
Strenuousness, with the (Qur'an).³¹¹⁰

٥٢- فَلَا تُطِيعِ الْكَافِرِينَ وَجَاهِدْهُمْ
بِهِ جِهَادًا كَبِيرًا ۝

53. It is He Who has
Let free the two bodies

One palpable and sweet,
And the other salt and bitter;

٥٣- وَهُوَ الَّذِي مَرَجَ الْبَحْرَيْنِ
هَذَا عَذْبٌ فُرَاتٌ
وَهَذَا مِلْحٌ أُجَاجٌ ۝

3107. The water is distributed all over the world, in order that all life may receive its support, according to its needs. In 25:48-50, we have the argument of contrasts stated in another way. Water is life, and is made available to sustain life all over the world: this is a physical fact which all can see. But water is also the symbol of spiritual life, whose sustaining principle is the Will of Allah as made known to us through Revelation. It sometimes comes to us in our inward or spiritual storms. Many violent unsettlements of the spirit are but heralds of the refreshing showers of spiritual understanding that come in their wake. They purify our souls, and produce spiritual Life even where there was a parched spiritual desert before. They continue to sustain us in our normal spiritual Life out of the reservoirs of Allah's Revelation, which are open to all, and well-distributed in time and space. The universality of distribution is again referred to in the following verse.

3108. In contrast to Allah's abounding Mercy is man's base ingratitude: another symbolic contrast between Light and Darkness, or Water and Drought.

3109. Allah's Message has been distributed to all nations. If it had been necessary, a Prophet could have been sent to every town and village. But Allah's Plan is different. He has sent His Light to every heart, through His Signs in man's conscience, in Nature, and in Revelation.

3110. The distribution of Allah's Signs being universal, the Prophet of Allah pays no heed to carping critics who reject Faith. He wages the biggest Jihād of all, with the weapon of Allah's Revelation. (R).

3111. Maraja: literally, let free or loose cattle for grazing. Baḥrayn: two seas, or two bodies of flowing water: for baḥr is applied both to the salt sea and to rivers. In the world taken as a whole, there are two bodies of water, viz., (1) the great salt Ocean, and (2) the bodies of sweet water fed by rain, whether they are rivers, lakes, or underground springs: their source in rain makes them one, and their drainage, whether above ground or underground, eventually to the Ocean, also makes them one. They are free to mingle, and in a sense they do mingle, for there is a regular watercycle: see n. 3106 above: and the rivers flow constantly to the sea, and tidal rivers get sea water for several miles up their estuaries at high tide. Yet in spite of all this, the laws of gravitation are like a barrier or partition set by Allah, by which the two bodies of water as a whole are always kept apart and distinct. In the case of rivers carrying large quantities of water to the sea, like the Mississippi or the Yangtse-Kiang, the river water with its silt remains distinct from sea water for a long distance out to sea. But the wonderful Sign is that the two bodies of water, though they pass through each other, remain distinct bodies, with their distinct functions.

Yet has He
Made a barrier between them,
A partition that is forbidden
To be passed.³¹¹²

وَجَعَلَ بَيْنَهُمَا بَرْزَخًا
وَحِجْرًا مَحْجُورًا ۝

54. It is He Who has
Created man from water:³¹¹³
Then has He established
Relationships of lineage³¹¹⁴
And marriage: for thy Lord
Has power (over all things).

۝۴- وَهُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ مِنَ الْمَاءِ بَشَرًا
فَجَعَلَهُ نَسَبًا
وَصِهْرًا ۝ وَكَانَ رَبُّكَ قَدِيرًا ۝

55. Yet do they worship,
Besides Allah, things that can Neither profit them nor
Harm them: and the Misbeliever
Is a helper (of Evil),
Against his own Lord!³¹¹⁵

۝۵- وَيَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ
مَا لَا يَنْفَعُهُمْ وَلَا يَضُرُّهُمْ
وَكَانَ الْكَافِرُ عَلَىٰ رَبِّهِ ظَهِيرًا ۝

56. But thee We only sent
To give glad tidings
And admonition.

۝۶- وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ إِلَّا مُبَشِّرًا وَنَذِيرًا ۝

57. Say: "No reward do I
Ask of you for it but this:
That each one who will
May take a (straight) Path
To his Lord."

۝۷- قُلْ مَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ إِلَّا
مَنْ شَاءَ أَنْ يَتَّخِذَ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِ سَبِيلًا ۝

3112. In Allah's overall scheme of things, bodies of salt and sweet water, which are adjoining and yet separate, have significant functions. Weaving a harmonious fabric out of these different fibres shows both Allah's power and wisdom. Incidentally, this verse points to a fact which has only recently been discovered by science. This fact relates to the oceans of the world: they meet and yet each remains separate for Allah has placed "a barrier, a partition" between them. (Eds.).

3113. The basis of all living matter in the physical world, protoplasm, is water: Cf. 24:45 and 21:30, and notes thereon.

3114. Water is a fluid, unstable thing: yet from it arises the highest form of life known to us in this world—man. And man has not only the functions and characteristics of the noblest animals, but his abstract relationships are also typical of his highest nature. He can trace lineage and pedigree, and thus remember and commemorate a long line of ancestors, to whom he is bound by ties of piety, which no mere animal can do. Further, there is the mystic union in marriage: it is not only like the physical union of animals, but it gives rise to relationships arising out of the sexes of individuals who were not otherwise related to each other. These are physical and social facts. But behind them, again, is the symbolic lesson of spiritual contrasts: as there is a long way to go between water and man, so there is a long way to go between an ordinary man and him who is lifted up to divine Light. As opposite sexes, though different in function, are one and contribute to each other's happiness, so persons of diverse talents may unite in the spiritual world for their own highest good and in the service of Allah.

3115. Here is the highest contrast of all—material things which are inert, and Allah, Whose goodness and power are supreme; Faith and Unfaith, meriting glad tidings and admonition; the selfish man who is self-centered, and the man of God, who works for others without reward.

58. And put thy trust
In Him Who lives
And dies not; and celebrate
His praise; and enough is He
To be acquainted with
The faults of His servants—³¹¹⁶

٥٨- وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى الْحَيِّ الَّذِي
لَا يَمُوتُ وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِهِ
وَكَفَى بِهِ عَذَابُهُ خَبِيرًا ۝

59. He Who created the heavens
And the earth and all
That is between, in six days,³¹¹⁷
And is firmly established
On the Throne (of authority):³¹¹⁸
Allah, Most Gracious:
Ask thou, then, about Him
Of any acquainted (with such things).³¹¹⁹

٥٩- الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا
بَيْنَهُمَا فِي سِتَّةِ أَيَّامٍ
ثُمَّ اسْتَوَى عَلَى الْعَرْشِ الرَّحْمَنُ
فَسْأَلْ بِهِ خَبِيرًا ۝

60. When it is said to them,
"Adore ye (Allah) Most Gracious!",
They say, "And what is (Allah)
Most Gracious? Shall we adore
That which thou commandest us?"
And it increases their flight
(From the Truth).³¹²⁰

٦٠- وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمْ اسْجُدُوا لِلرَّحْمَنِ
قَالُوا وَمَا الرَّحْمَنُ
أَسْجُدُ لِمَا تَأْمُرُنَا
وَزَادَهُمْ نُفُورًا ۝

SECTION 6.

61. Blessed is He Who made
Constellations in the skies,
And placed therein a Lamp³¹²¹
And a Moon giving light;

٦١- تَبَارَكَ الَّذِي جَعَلَ فِي السَّمَاءِ بُرُوجًا
وَجَعَلَ فِيهَا سِرَاجًا وَقَمَرًا مُنِيرًا ۝

3116. Allah knows our faults better than we or anyone else. It is no use hiding anything from Him. We must put our trust completely in Him. His care is for all, and He is Allah Most Gracious.

3117. Cf. 7:54 and n. 1031.

3118. See n. 1386 to 10:3.

3119. The argument is about the question, "in whom shall we put our trust?" Worldly men put their trust in worldly things: the righteous man only in Allah. The true distinction will be quite clear from a ray of divine knowledge. If you do not see it all clearly, ask of those who possess such knowledge.

3120. Those who have no spiritual Light cannot understand this precept about putting all our trust in Allah. It seems to them foolish. They have no faith, or but a superficial faith. They may possibly pronounce the name of Allah on their lips, but they cannot understand the full significance of His title of Rahmān (Most Gracious). Perhaps they are afraid on account of their sins; perhaps they do not see how unbounded is the mercy of Allah. Such men are contrasted against the true servants of Allah, who are described below in 25:63-75.

3121. The glorious Lamp of the skies is the Sun; and next to him is the Moon, which gives borrowed light. The Constellations of course, include the Signs of the Zodiac, which mark the path of the planets in the heavens.

62. And it is He Who made
The Night and the Day
To follow each other:
For such as have the will³¹²²
To celebrate His praises
Or to show their gratitude.

۶۲- وَهُوَ الَّذِي جَعَلَ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ خِلْفَةً
لِّمَنۢ أَرَادَ أَنۢ يَّدۡكُرَ
أَوْ أَرَادَ شُكُورًا ۝

63. And the servants of (Allah)
Most Gracious are those
Who walk on the earth
In humility, and when the ignorant³¹²³
Address them, they say,
"Peace!";

۶۳- وَعِبَادُ الرَّحْمٰنِ الَّذِينَ
يَمْشُونَ عَلَى الْأَرْضِ هَوْنًا
وَإِذَا خَاطَبَهُمُ الْجَاهِلُونَ
قَالُوا سَلَامًا ۝

64. Those who spend the night
In adoration of their Lord
Prostrate and standing;³¹²⁴

۶۴- وَالَّذِينَ يَبِيتُونَ لِرَبِّهِمْ سُجَّدًا
وَقِيَامًا ۝

65. Those who say: "Our Lord!
Avert from us the Wrath
Of Hell, for its Wrath
Is indeed an affliction
grievous—³¹²⁵

۶۵- وَالَّذِينَ يَقُولُونَ رَبَّنَا
اصْرِفْ عَنَّا عَذَابَ جَهَنَّمَ ۚ
إِنَّ عَذَابَهَا كَانَ غَرَامًا ۝

66. "Evil indeed is it
As an abode, and as
A place to rest in";³¹²⁶

۶۶- إِنَّهَا سَاءَتْ مُسْتَقَرًّا وَمُقَامًا ۝

67. Those who, when they spend,
Are not extravagant and not

۶۷- وَالَّذِينَ إِذَا أَنفَقُوا لَمْ يُسْرِفُوا وَلَمْ

3122. The scenes of the phenomenal world are Signs of the Self-Revelation of Allah, for those who understand and who have the will to merge their wills with His. This they do (1) by praising Him, which means understanding something of His nature, and (2) by gratitude to Him, which means carrying out His Will, and doing good to their fellow creatures. These two attitudes of mind and heart give rise to various consequences in their lives, which are detailed in the following verse.

3123. Ignorant: in a spiritual sense. Address: in the aggressive sense. Their humility is shown in two ways: (1) to those in real search of knowledge, they give such knowledge as they have and as the recipients can assimilate; (2) to those who merely dispute, they do not speak harshly, but say "Peace!", as much as to say, "May it be well with you, may you repent and be better"; or "May Allah give me peace from such wrangling"; or "Peace, and Good-bye: let me leave you!".

3124. Humble prayer brings them nearer to Allah.

3125. This is a prayer of humility: such a person relies, not on any good works which he may have done, but on the Grace and Mercy of Allah: and he shows a lively sense of the Day of Judgement, when every action will weigh for or against a soul.

3126. The misery which results from sin is not only grievous to live in ("an abode") but also grievous "to rest in" or "to stand in", if it be only for a short time.

- Niggardly, but hold a just (balance)
Between those (extremes);³¹²⁷
68. Those who invoke not,
With Allah, any other god,
Nor slay such life as Allah
Has made sacred, except
For just cause, nor commit³¹²⁸
Fornication — and any that does
This (not only) meets punishment
69. (But) the Penalty on the Day
Of Judgement will be doubled
To him, and he will dwell
Therein in ignominy —³¹²⁹
70. Unless he repents, believes
And works righteous deeds,
For Allah will change
The evil of such persons
Into good, and Allah is
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful,³¹³⁰
71. And whoever repents and does good
Has truly turned to Allah
With an (acceptable)
conversion —
72. Those who witness no falsehood³¹³¹
And, if they pass by futility,³¹³²

يَقْتُرُوا وَكَانَ بَيْنَ ذَلِكَ قَوَامًا ۝

٦٨- وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَدْعُونَ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ
وَلَا يَقْتُلُونَ النَّفْسَ الَّتِي حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ إِلَّا
بِالْحَقِّ وَلَا يَزْنُونَ
وَمَنْ يَفْعَلْ ذَلِكَ يَلْقَ أَثَامًا ۝

٦٩- يُضَاعَفْ لَهُ الْعَذَابُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ
وَيَخْلُدُ فِيهِ مُهَانًا ۝

٧٠- إِلَّا مَنْ تَابَ وَآمَنَ وَعَمِلَ عَمَلًا
صَالِحًا فَأُولَٰئِكَ يُبَدِّلُ اللَّهُ سَيِّئَاتِهِمْ
حَسَنَاتٍ وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا ۝

٧١- وَمَنْ تَابَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا
فَإِنَّهُ يُتَوَبُّ إِلَى اللَّهِ مَتَابًا ۝

٧٢- وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَشْهَدُونَ الشُّرُورَ
وَإِذَا امْرَأُوا بِالْغَوْرِ

3127. In ordinary spending, this is a wise rule. But even in charity, in which we give of our best, it is not expected that we should be extravagant, i.e., that we should either do it for show (to impress other people), or do it thoughtlessly, which would be the case if we "rob Peter to pay Paul". We should certainly not be niggardly, but we should remember everyone's rights, including our own, and strike a perfectly just balance between them.

3128. Here three things are expressly condemned: (1) false worship, which is a crime against Allah; (2) the taking of life, which is a crime against our fellow creatures; and (3) fornication, which is a crime against our self-respect, against ourselves. Every crime is against Allah, His creatures, and ourselves, but some may be viewed more in relation to one than to another. The prohibition against taking life is qualified: "except for just cause": e.g., in judicial punishment for murder, or in self-preservation, which may include not only self-defense in the legal sense, but also the clearing out of pests, and the provision of meat under conditions of Halāl: see n. 698 to 5:5. After this comes a long parenthesis, which ends with verse 71, below.

3129. The three crimes just mentioned are specially detestable and infamous, and as ignominy will be added to other punishments, the penalty will be double that of ordinary punishment.

3130. But even in the case of great crimes, if there is true repentance as tested by a changed life in conduct, Allah's Mercy is available, and it will transform the repentant's nature from evil to good.

3131. Witness no falsehood has two significations, both implied in this passage: (1) those who give no evidence that is false; and (2) those who do not assist in anything which implies fraud or falsehood.

3132. There is not only condemnation of positive falsehood or of being mixed up with things implying falsehood, but futilities — vain random talk, unedifying jokes, useless show, etc. — are all condemned. If a good man finds himself in such an affair, he must withdraw from it in an honourable, dignified way, not in a fussy arrogant way.

They pass by it
With honourable (avoidance);

مَرُّوا كِرَامًا ۝

73. Those who, when they are
Admonished with the Signs
Of their Lord, droop not down³¹³³
At them as if they were
Deaf or blind;

۞-۴۳ وَالَّذِينَ إِذَا ذُكِّرُوا بِآيَاتِ رَبِّهِمْ
لَمْ يَخْرُجُوا عَلَيْهَا صُتًّا وَعُمُيَانًا ۝

74. And those who pray,
"Our Lord! Grant unto us
Wives and offspring who will be
The comfort of our eyes,³¹³⁴
And give us (the grace)
To lead the righteous."³¹³⁵

۞-۴۴ وَالَّذِينَ يَقُولُونَ رَبَّنَا هَبْ لَنَا
مِنْ أَزْوَاجِنَا ذُرِّيَّتًا قُرَّةَ أَعْيُنٍ
وَاجْعَلْنَا لِلْمُتَّقِينَ إِمَامًا ۝

75. Those are the ones who
Will be rewarded with
The highest place in heaven,
Because of their patient constancy:
Therein shall they be met
With salutations and peace,

۞-۴۵ أُولَئِكَ يُجْزَوْنَ
الْعُرْفَةَ بِمَا صَبَرُوا
وَيُلَقَّوْنَ فِيهَا تَحِيَّةً وَسَلَامًا ۝

76. Dwelling therein – how beautiful
An abode and place of rest!

۞-۴۶ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا حَسُنَتْ مُسْتَقَرًّا وَمُقَامًا ۝

77. Say (to the Rejecters):
"My Lord is not uneasy
Because of you if ye call not on Him;³¹³⁶
But ye have indeed rejected
(Him), and soon will come
The inevitable (punishment)!"

۞-۴۷ قُلْ مَا يَعْزُبُ عَنْ رَبِّي
لَوْلَا دُعَاؤُكُمْ
فَقَدْ كَذَّبْتُمْ فَسَوْفَ يَكُونُ لِزَامًا ۝

3133. Kharra may mean: to fall down, to snore, to droop down as if the person were bored or inattentive, or did not wish to see or hear or pay attention.

3134. We must also pray for the maintenance of Allah's Law after us, through our wives and descendants: in our eyes they should not be mere accidents or play things, but a real comfort and fulfilment of our spiritual longings. Perhaps, through them, as well as through ourselves, we may, by Allah's grace, be able to give a lead for truth and righteousness.

3135. Let us recapitulate the virtues of the servants of Allah: (1) they are humble and forbearing to those below them in spiritual worth; (2) they are constantly, by adoration, in touch with Allah; (3) they always remember the Judgement in the Hereafter; (4) they are moderate in all things; (5) they avoid treason to Allah, to their fellow creatures, and to themselves; (6) they give a wide berth not only to falsehood but to futility; (7) they pay attention, both in mind and manner, to the Signs of their Lord; (8) their ambition is to bring up their families in righteousness and to lead in all good. A fine code of individual and social ethics, a ladder of spiritual development, open to all.

3136. Let not the wicked think that it causes Allah any annoyance or uneasiness if they do not serve or worship Him. He is high above all needs. But He turns in His Mercy to all who call on Him. For those who arrogantly reject Him, the evil consequences of their rejection are inevitable, and must soon come to pass. (R).

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 26—AL SHU'ARĀ'

This Surah begins a new series of four Surahs (26 – 29), which illustrate the contrast between the spirit of Prophecy and spiritual Light and the reactions to it in the communities among whom it appeared, by going back to old Prophets and the stories of the Past, as explained in the Introduction to S. 17.

In this particular Sūrah we have the story of Moses in his fight with Pharaoh and of Pharaoh's discomfiture. Other Prophets mentioned are Abraham, Noah, Hud, Ṣāliḥ, Lūṭ, and Shu'ayb. The lesson is drawn that the Qur'ān is a continuation and fulfilment of previous Revelations, and is pure Truth, unlike poetry of vain poets.

Chronologically the Sūrah belongs to the middle Makkan period, when the contact of the Light of Prophecy with the milieu of Pagan Makkah was testing the Makkans in their most arrogant mood.

Summary—The conflict of Unbelief with Truth is vain: so was the conflict of Pharaoh with Moses: Pharaoh's magicians bowed to the Truth, and Pharaoh and his hosts were drowned (26:1-69, and C. 164).

Nor did Abraham's people gain anything by their resisting of the Truth he preached, and Noah's people perished by their Unbelief (26:70-122, and C. 165).

Hud warned his people against reliance on their material strength and Ṣāliḥ against sacrilege, but in both cases the evil ones were brought low (26:123-159, and C. 166).

Lūṭ had to deal with unspeakable crimes, and Shu'ayb against dishonest dealings and mischief: their teaching was rejected, but the rejecters were wiped out (26:160-191, and C. 167).

So, when the spirit of Prophecy came to Makkah, it was resisted by the votaries of evil: but Truth is not like vain poetry, and must triumph at last (26:192-277, and C. 168).

C. 164. — Allah's Plan works unceasingly: His Light
(26:1-69.) Shines none the less brightly, because some Reject it or mock at it. Moses was freed
From all fear when Allah gave him His Signs
And sent him to Pharaoh: he boldly
Proclaimed the Message, and won the wise ones
Of Egypt: the rejecters, with Pharaoh, perished,
And their heritage passed to worthier hands.

Sūrah 26.

Al Shu'arā' (The Poets)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Ṭā' Sīn Mīm.³¹³⁷
2. These are Verses of the Book
That makes (things) clear.³¹³⁸
3. It may be thou frettest
Thy soul with grief, that they³¹³⁹
Do not become Believers.
4. If (such) were Our Will,³¹⁴⁰
We could send down to them
From the sky a Sign,
To which they would bend
Their necks in humility.
5. But there comes not
To them a newly-revealed
Message from (Allah) Most
Gracious,
But they turn away therefrom.
6. They have indeed rejected
(The Message):

الجزء التاسع عشر سُوْرَةُ الشُّعْرَاءِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- طسّم

٢- تِلْكَ آيَاتُ الْكِتَابِ الْمُبِينِ

٣- لَعَلَّكَ بِأَعْيُنِكَ
أَلَّا يَكُونُوا مُؤْمِنِينَ

٤- إِنْ شَاءَ نَزَّلْنَا عَلَيْهِم مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ آيَةً
فَطَلَتُ اعْنَاقَهُمْ لَهَا خُضُعِينَ

٥- وَمَا يَأْتِيهِمْ مِّنْ ذِكْرٍ مِّنَ الرَّحْمَنِ
مُحْدِثٍ إِلَّا كَانُوا عَنْهُ مُعْرِضِينَ

٦- فَقَدْ كَذَّبُوا

3137. This is a combination of three Abbreviated Letters, as to which, generally, see Appendix I, printed at the end of S. 2. This particular combination occurs here and at the head of S. 28, while the intervening Sūrah 27 has it in the synopated form Ṭā' Sīn. None of the explanatory conjectures which I have seen carries conviction for me. If the letters stand for Ṭur al Sīnīn (Mount Sinai) and Mūsā (Moses), whose story fills a large part of this Sūrah, why is the letter Mīm omitted in S. 27, where the same meaning would apply? There is, however, one fact to which I should like to draw attention. There are eleven sections in this Sūrah, and eight of them end with the word Rahīm (with the final Mīm). The three exceptions are sections 2 and 3, and section 11. But sections 2 and 3 are part of the story of Moses, which is completed in section 4, and that ends with "Rahīm". The main argument in section 11 ends at verse 217, which ends with Rahīm. We can say that the whole Sūrah is based on a refrain in the word "Rahīm". Whether this has any bearing on our present enquiry I cannot say. My own position is that where we have material, we should pursue our researches, but we should never be dogmatic in such matters, as some Mysteries can never be solved by mere research.

3138. Cf. 5:17, and n. 716. The comparison of Allah's revelations with Light is continued.

3139. "They" are the Pagans of Makkah. From a human point of view it was a great disappointment to Allah's Messenger in the middle period of his Makkan ministry that the Makkans could not be brought to believe in the Truth.

3140. If it had been Allah's Will and Plan to force people's will, He could quite easily have forced the Makkans. But His Will and Plan work differently. His revelation is meant to train man's own will so that it conforms to Allah's beneficent purpose.

So they will know soon (enough)
the truth
Of what they mocked at!³¹⁴¹

فَسَيَاتِيَهُمْ أَتَبَوْا مَا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ

7. Do they not look
At the earth — how many
Noble things of all kinds
We have produced therein?³¹⁴²

أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا إِلَى الْأَرْضِ
كَمْ أُنْبِتْنَا فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ زَوْجٍ كَرِيمٍ

8. Verily, in this is a Sign:
But most of them
Do not believe.
9. And verily, thy Lord
Is He, the Exalted in Might,³¹⁴³
Most Merciful.

إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً
وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ

وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ

SECTION 2.

10. Behold, thy Lord called³¹⁴⁴
Moses: "Go to the people
Of iniquity —

وَرَأَى نَادَى رَبُّكَ مُوسَى
أَنْ أَتَيْتَ الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ

11. "The people of Pharaoh:
Will they not fear Allah?"

قَوْمَ فِرْعَوْنَ أَلا يَتَّقُونَ

12. He said: "O my Lord!
I do fear that they
Will charge me with falsehood:

قَالَ رَبِّ
إِنِّي أَخَافُ أَنْ يُكَذِّبُونِ

13. "My breast will be straitened,³¹⁴⁵
And my speech may not go
(Smoothly): so send unto Aaron.

وَيَضِيقُ صَدْرِي وَلَا يَنْطَلِقُ لِسَايَ
فَأَرْسِلْ إِلَى هَارُونَ

3141. They may laugh at Allah's Message of righteousness, but they will soon see the power of Truth and realise the real significance of the movement which they opposed. Where were the Pagans of Makkah after Badr, and still more, after the bloodless surrender of Makkah? The meaning may be applied universally throughout history.

3142. If evil has a little run in this life, let them not run away with the notion that the world is for evil. They have only to look around at the physical and moral world around them, and they would be undeceived. But they are blind and without the Faith (the Light) which would open their eyes.

3143. One Who is able to carry out all His Will and Plans. See n. 2818 to 22:40.

3145. As we should say in English, "My heart would fail me, and my tongue cleave to my mouth." Moses had an impediment of speech, and his mission was risky: see next note. But Allah's Plan works in wondrous ways. Aaron was given to assist him in his mission, and Moses's shortcomings were transformed by Allah's grace into power, so that he became the most powerful leader of Israel.

14. And (further), they have
A charge of crime against me;³¹⁴⁶
And I fear they may Slay me."

١٣- وَلَهُمْ عَلَى ذَنْبٍ
فَأَخَافُ أَنْ يَقْتُلُونَنِي ۝

16. "So go forth, both of you,
To Pharaoh, and say:

3146. Moses was brought up in the palace of Pharaoh, as narrated in his personal story in 20:39-40 and n. 2563. When he was grown-up he saw an Egyptian smiting an Israelite, and as the Israelites were being generally oppressed by the Egyptians, Moses's anger was roused, and he slew the Egyptian. He then fled to the Midianite country in the Sinai peninsula, where he received the divine commission. But the charge of slaying the Egyptian was hanging against him. He was also apparently irascible. But Allah's grace cured his temper and he became wise; his impediment in speech, for he stood up boldly to speak to Pharaoh; and his fear, for he dared the Egyptians with Allah's Signs, and they were afraid of him.

3147. There is a little play of wit here on the part of Pharaoh. When Moses speaks of the "Lord and Cherisher of the Worlds", Pharaoh says: "Who cherished you? Did we not bring you up as a child? Did you not grow up among us?" By implication Pharaoh suggests that he is the cherisher of Moses, and in any case Pharaoh laid claim to godhead himself.

3148. Further, Pharaoh reminds Moses of his having slain the Egyptian, and taunts him: "You are not only a murderer: you are an ungrateful wretch" (using kāfir again in a double sense) "to have killed one of the race that brought you up!"

20. Moses said: "I did it
Then, when I was
In error."³¹⁴⁹

٢٠- قَالَ فَعَلْتُهَا
إِذَا وَأَنَا مِنَ الضَّالِّينَ ۝

21. "So I fled from you (all)
When I feared you;³¹⁵⁰
But My Lord has (since)
Invested me with judgement
(And wisdom) and appointed me
As one of the messengers.

٢١- فَقَرَرْتُ مِنْكُمْ لَمَّا خِفْتُكُمْ
فَوَهَبَ لِي رَبِّي حُكْمًا
وَجَعَلَنِي مِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ۝

22. "And this is the favour³¹⁵¹
With which thou dost
Reproach me—that you
Hast enslaved the Children
Of Israel!"

٢٢- وَتِلْكَ نِعْمَةٌ تَسْتُهَا عَلَى
أَنْ عَبَّدْتَ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ ۝

23. Pharaoh said: "And what Is the 'Lord and Cherisher
Of the Worlds?'"³¹⁵²

٢٣- قَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ وَمَا رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝

24. (Moses) said: "The Lord
And Cherisher of the heavens
And the earth, and all between—
If ye want to be Quite sure."

٢٤- قَالَ رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا
بَيْنَهُمَا
إِنْ كُنْتُمْ مُوقِنِينَ ۝

25. (Pharaoh) said to those Around: "Do ye not listen
(To what he says)?"³¹⁵³

٢٥- قَالَ لِمَنْ حَوْلَهُ أَلَا تَسْمَعُونَ ۝

3149. What is Moses's reply? He is no longer afraid. He tells the whole truth, extenuating nothing in his own favour. "Yes I did it: but I did it under an error." There are three implications in this: "(1) I was wrong in doing it in a temper and in being hasty: (2) I was wrong in taking the law into my own hands, but I repented and asked for Allah's pardon (28:15-16): (3) that was a time when I was under your influence, but since then I am a changed man, as Allah has called me."

3150. He accounts for all his movements, much more than Pharaoh had asked for. He has nothing to hide. At that time, he was under the influence of fear, and he had fled from him. Now he is serving Allah, the Lord of the Worlds. He has no fear: he is a messenger.

3151. Pharaoh had called Moses ungrateful and reproached him with all the favours which Moses had received from the Egyptians. "What favours?" he says: "Do you count it also as a favour to me that you have enslaved my brethren the Children of Israel?" Moses was now speaking as a Prophet of Allah, not as an individual. Any individual favours he may have received were blotted out by the oppression of his people. (R).

3152. Moses having eliminated all personalities, the argument now comes up to the highest plane of all—the attributes of Allah and His mercies. Moses had put forward this before, as implied in verse 16 above, but Pharaoh had twisted it into personalities. Now we come back to the real issue. It may have been in the same sitting, or it may have been in a later sitting. (R).

3153. Moses had stirred up the wrath of Pharaoh, both by putting forward the name of the One True God as against Pharaoh's pretended godhead, and by suggesting that any man of judgement would understand Allah's majesty. While Pharaoh turns to his people in indignation, Moses drives the nail in further: "He is the God of the heavens and the earth and all between: therefore He is also your God, and the God of your fathers from the beginning. Any other pretensions are false!"

26. (Moses) said: "Your Lord
And the Lord of your fathers
From the beginning!"
27. (Pharaoh) said: "Truly
Your messenger who has been Sent to you is
A veritable madman!"³¹⁵⁴
28. (Moses) said: "Lord of the East
And the West, and all between!
If ye only had sense!"
29. (Pharaoh) said: "If thou
Dost put forward any god
Other than me, I will Certainly put thee in prison!"³¹⁵⁵
30. (Moses) said: "Even if I
Showed you something
Clear (and) convincing?"³¹⁵⁶
31. (Pharaoh) said: "Show it then
If thou tellest the truth!"
32. So (Moses) threw his rod,
And behold, it was
A serpent, plain (for all to see)!
33. And he drew out his hand,
And behold, it was white
To all beholders!³¹⁵⁷

٢٦- قَالَ رَبُّكُمْ وَرَبُّ آبَائِكُمُ الْأَوَّلِينَ

٢٧- قَالَ إِنَّ رَسُولَكُمْ الَّذِي
أُرْسِلَ إِلَيْكُمْ لَمَجْنُونٌ ۝

٢٨- قَالَ رَبُّ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ وَمَا
بَيْنَهُمَا إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْقِلُونَ ۝

٢٩- قَالَ لَئِنْ آتَخَذْتَ إِلَهًا غَيْرِي
لَجُعَلَتِكَ مِنَ الْمَسْجُونِينَ ۝

٣٠- قَالَ أَوْ لَوْ جِئْتُكَ بِشَيْءٍ مُبِينٍ ۝

٣١- قَالَ فَأْتِ بِهِ إِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ۝

٣٢- فَأَلْقَى عَصَاهُ فَإِذَا هِيَ ثُعْبَانٌ مُبِينٌ ۝

٣٣- وَنَزَعَ يَدَهُ فَإِذَا هِيَ بَيْضَاءُ
لِلنَّظِيرِينَ ۝

3154. Pharaoh is further perturbed. In reply to Moses's statement that Allah, the One True God is also the God of the Egyptians and Pharaoh also, Pharaoh says sarcastically to his Court: "Look at this 'Messenger' of yours; he seems to be mad!" But Moses is not abashed. He boldly says what is the truth: "It is you who are mad! The God of Whom I preach is the universal Lord—of the East and of the West. He reigns wherever you go!" (R).

3155. Now we come to the crisis. Pharaoh threatens Moses with prison for treason. Moses remains calm and still argues: "What if I show you a miracle? Will it convince you that I am not mad, and that I have behind me the Lord of all the Worlds?"

3156. The Egyptians were addicted to magic and sorcery, which was mostly false. If a true miracle were shown to them, would they believe? Perhaps they would see the hollowness of their own magic. In fact this actually happened with the Egyptian sorcerers themselves and perhaps with the commonalty. But Pharaoh and his Court were too arrogant, and battered too much on frauds to yield to Truth.

3157. Cf. 7:107-8. See the whole passage there, and the notes thereon.

SECTION 3.

34. (Pharaoh) said to the Chiefs³¹⁵⁸
Around him "This is indeed
A sorcerer well-versed:
35. "His plan is to get you out
Of your land by his sorcery;
Then what is it ye counsel?"
36. They said; "Keep him
And his brother in suspense
(For a while), and dispatch
To the Cities heralds to collect—
37. "And bring up to thee
All (our) sorcerers well-versed."
38. So the sorcerers were got Together for the appointment
Of a day well-known,³¹⁵⁹
39. And the people were told:
"Are ye (now) assembled?—
40. "That we may follow³¹⁶⁰
The sorcerers (in religion)
If they win?"
41. So when the sorcerers arrived,
They said to Pharaoh:
"Of course—shall we have
A (suitable) reward³¹⁶¹
If we win?"
42. He said: "Yea, (and more)—
For ye shall in that case

- ٤٢- قَالَ نَعَمْ وَإِنَّكُمْ إِذَا

3158. In 7:109 it is the Chiefs who say this. The fact is that it was a general consultation, and this was the general feeling, expressed in words by each to the others.

3159. A day well-known: a solemn day of festival: see 20:59. The object was to get together as large a concourse of people as possible. It was confidently expected that the Egyptian sorcerers with all their organisation would win with their tricks against these amateur Israelites, and so the State cult of the worship of Pharaoh would be fastened on the necks of the people more firmly than ever.

3160. See the last note. The people are to come and witness the triumph of the State religion, so that they may become the more obedient to Pharaoh and more compliant with the demands of the priests. The State religion included magic and the worship of Pharaoh.

3161. There was no such thing as pure loyalty to an exploiting ruler like this Pharaoh. The sorcerers, who were probably also priests, were venal, and they hoped to establish their own hold on both king and people by further enrichment of themselves and their order.

فَلَسَوْفَ تَعْلَمُونَ
لَأُقَطِّعَنَّ أَيْدِيَكُمْ وَأَرْجُلَكُمْ
مِنْ خِلَافٍ

3162. The euphemism implies a taunt, as if Moses had said: "I know about your tricks! You pretend to throw ropes and rods, and make people believe they are snakes. But now come on!"

3163. Though Pharaoh claimed to be a god, it is not likely that those nearest to him—his priests and sorcerers—believed such a thing! But it was a game of mutual pretence before the world. And so they appeal to his "divine" power.

3164. The sorcerers' ropes and rods seemed to have become serpents, but the rod of Moses was mightier than all of them and quickly swallowed them up. So truth is more powerful than tricks and will expose and destroy them.

3165. The sorcerers knew that they had met something very different from their tricks. Allah's spirit worked on them and they professed the True God. As they represented the intelligence of the community, it may be presumed that they carried the intelligence of Egypt with them and perhaps some of the commonalty, who were impressed by the dramatic scene! Hence Pharaoh's anger, but it is the beginning of his decline!

And I
Will cause you all
To die on the cross!"

50. They said: "No matter!
For us, we shall but
Return to our Lord!

51. "Only, our desire is
That our Lord will
Forgive us our faults,
That we may become
Foremost among the Believers!"³¹⁶⁶

Furiously against us;

Amplly forewarned."

57. So We expelled them³¹⁶⁸
From gardens, springs,

٥٦- وَإِنَّا لَجَمِيعٌ حَذِرُونَ ۝

٥٧- فَأَخْرَجْنَاهُمْ مِنْ جَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُونٍ ۝

3167. The rest of the story—of the plagues of Egypt—is passed over as not germane to the present argument. We come now to the story of the Israelites leaving Egypt, pursued by Pharaoh. Here again there are three contrasts: (1) the blind arrogance of the Egyptians, against the development of Allah's Plan; (2) the Faith of Moses, against the fears of his people; and (3) the final deliverance of the seed of righteousness, against the destruction of the host of brute force.

3168. In deference to almost unanimous authority I have translated this passage (verses 58-60) as if it were a parenthetical statement of Allah's purpose. Personally I prefer another construction. According to that, verses 58-59 will be part of Pharaoh's proclamation: "We have dispossessed the Israelites from everything good in the land, and made them our slaves"; and verse 60 only will be parenthetical: "Poor ignorant men! You may oppress those who are helpless, but We (i.e. Allah) have declared that they shall inherit all these things", as they certainly did (for a time) in the Land of Promise, Palestine.

62. (Moses) said: "By no means!
My Lord is with me!
Soon will He guide me!"³¹⁷¹
٦٢- قَالَ كَلَّا إِنَّ مَعِيَ رَبِّي سَيَهْدِينِ ۝
63. Then We told Moses
By inspiration: "Strike
The sea with thy rod."
So it divided, and each
Separate part became
Like the huge, firm mass
Of a mountain.
٦٣- فَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَىٰ مُوسَىٰ أَنْ اصْرِبْ
بِعَصَاكَ الْبَحْرَ ۖ
فَانْفَلَقَ فَكَانَ كُلُّ فِرْقٍ
كَالظُّلُمِ الْعَظِيمِ ۝
64. And We made the other
Party approach thither.³¹⁷²
٦٤- وَارْزُقْنَاهُمَ الْآخَرِينَ ۝
65. We delivered Moses and all
Who were with him;
٦٥- وَأَنْجَيْنَا مُوسَىٰ وَمَنْ مَعَهُ أَجْمَعِينَ ۝
66. But We drowned the others.
٦٦- ثُمَّ أَغْرَقْنَا الْآخَرِينَ ۝

3169. The Children of Israel certainly inherited the gardens, springs, treasures, and honourable positions in Palestine after many years' wanderings in the wilderness. But when they were false to Allah, they lost them again, and another people (the Muslims) inherited them when they were true in Faith. These latter not only inherited Palestine but also Egypt, and the old Pharaonic power and institutions were lost forever. Of such things: literally, "of them".

3170. The story is here resumed after the parenthesis of verses 58-60.

3171. Guide me: i.e., show me some way of escape from danger. This actually happened, for Pharaoh's host was drowned. The faith of Moses stands in strong contrast to the fears of his people.

3172. The miracle was twofold: (1) Moses with his people passed safely through the sea; and (2) Pharaoh and his great host were drowned in the sea.

67. Verily in this is a Sign:
But most of them
Do not believe.³¹⁷³

٦٧- وَإِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً

C. 165. — Abraham patiently argued with his people
(26:70-122.) About Allah's Truth; prayed for wisdom
And righteousness, for himself, his father,
And future generations; and taught Truth
About the Hereafter. Noah preached
To a world of Unfaith, and would not reject
The humble and lowly: his arrogant rejecters
Were brought low: in him and his following
Were vindicated Allah's righteous Purpose and Mercy.

Found our fathers doing
Thus (what we do)."

٧٤- قَالُوا بَلْ وَجَدْنَا آبَاءَنَا كَذَلِكَ
يَفْعَلُونَ

3173. As it was then, so it is now. In spite of the obvious Signs of Allah, people who are blind in their obstinate resistance to Truth accomplish their own destruction, while humble, persecuted men of Faith are transformed by the Light of Allah, and obtain salvation.

3174. Nothing that the powers of Evil can do, will ever defeat the merciful Purpose of Allah. Evil, in resisting good, will effect its own destruction.

3175. For the argument of this Sūrah the incidents in Abraham's life are not relevant and are not mentioned. What is mentioned is: (1) the steps by which he taught about the sin of false worship, in the form of a Dialogue; (2) the aims of a righteous man not only for his individual life, but for his ancestors and posterity, in the form of a Prayer; and (3) a picture of the Future Judgement, in the form of a vision. (1) is covered by verses 70-82; (2) by 83-87; and (3) by 88-102.

3176. They want to show their true and assiduous devotion. But Abraham goes at once to the heart of the matter by asking: "To whom is your devotion paid? Is the object worthy of it?"

٨٣- رَبِّ هَبْ لِي حُكْمًا وَأَلْحِقْنِي
بِالضَّالِّحِينَ ۝

٨٤- وَاجْعَلْ لِي لِسَانَ صِدْقٍ فِي
الْآخِرِينَ ۝

٨٥- وَاجْعَلْنِي مِنْ وَرَثَةِ جَنَّةِ النَّعِيمِ ۝

3177. 'The things that you worship are enemies to mankind: let me testify from my own personal experience: they are enemies to me: they can do me no good, but would lead me astray. Contrast with their importance or their power of mischief the One True God Whom I worship: He created me and all the Worlds; He cherishes me and guides me; He takes care of me; and when I die, He will give me new life; He will forgive me and grant me final Salvation. Will you then come to this true worship? How can you doubt, after seeing the contrast of the one with the other? Is it not as the contrast between Light and Darkness?'

3178. Having shown clearly the distinction between the False and the True, Abraham now shows in the form of a Prayer what his inmost wishes are. (1) He wants his soul enlightened with divine wisdom, and (2) his heart and life filled with righteousness; (3) he will not be content with working for himself or his own generation; his view extends to all future generations; (4) and of course he wishes to attain the goal of the righteous, the Garden of the Bliss of the Divine Countenance; but he is not content with this; for (5) he wants his father and relatives to share in his spiritual joy, so that he can proudly see all whom he can reach, in an honourable station (contrasted with disgrace) on the Day of Judgement.

3179. Cf. 19:50. The whole of the passage about Abraham there may be compared with this passage.

86. "Forgive my father, for that
He is among those astray;
87. "And let me not be
In disgrace on the Day
When (men) will be raised up—
88. "The Day whereon neither³¹⁸⁰
Wealth nor sons will avail,
89. "But only he (will prosper)
That brings to Allah
A sound heart;
90. "To the righteous, the Garden
Will be brought near,³¹⁸¹
91. "And to those straying in Evil,
The Fire will be placed
In full view;
92. "And it shall be said
To them: 'Where are
The (gods) ye worshipped—
93. "Besides Allah? Can they
Help you or help themselves?'
94. "Then they will be thrown
Headlong into the (Fire)—
They and those straying³¹⁸²
In Evil,
95. "And the whole hosts
Of Iblīs together.
96. "They will say there
In their mutual bickerings:

٨٦-وَاعْفُرْ لِأَبِي إِنَّهُ كَانَ مِنَ الضَّالِّينَ ۝

٨٧-وَلَا تُخْزِنِي يَوْمَ يُبْعَثُونَ ۝

٨٨-يَوْمَ لَا يَنْفَعُ مَالٌ وَلَا بَنُونَ ۝

٨٩-إِلَّا مَنْ أَتَى اللَّهَ بِقَلْبٍ سَلِيمٍ ۝

٩٠-وَأُزْلِفَتِ الْجَنَّةُ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ ۝

٩١-وَبُرْزَخَتِ الْجَحِيمُ لِلْغَوِينَ ۝

٩٢-وَقِيلَ لَهُمْ أَيْنَمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْبُدُونَ ۝

٩٣-مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ هَلْ يَنْصُرُونَكُمْ أَوْ
يَنْتَصِرُونَ ۝

٩٤-فَلْيَكْبِتُوا فِيهَا
هُمُ وَالْعَاُونَ ۝

٩٥-وَجُنُودُ إِبْلِيسَ أَجْمَعُونَ ۝

٩٦-قَالُوا وَهُمْ فِيهَا يَخْتَصِمُونَ ۝

3180. Now we have a vision of the Day of Judgement. Nothing will then avail except a pure heart; all sorts of the so-called "good deeds" of this world, without the motive of purity, will be useless. The contrast of the Garden of Bliss with the Fire of Misery will be plainly visible. Evil will be shown in its true colours— isolated, helpless, cursing and despairing, and all chances will then have been lost.

3181. The Good will only see good (the Garden of Bliss), and the Evil will only see evil (the Fire of Hell). This type of contrast is shown to us in the world of our spiritual sense even in this life.

3182. The false gods, being devils or personified false fancies, will all be involved in the punishment of Hell, together with their worshippers, and the ultimate sources of evil, the hosts of Iblīs or Satan.

97. "By Allah, we were truly
In an error manifest.³¹⁸³
98. "When we held you as equals
With the Lord of the Worlds;
99. "And our seducers were
Only those who were
Steeped in guilt.³¹⁸⁴
100. "Now, then, we have none
To intercede (for us),
101. "Nor a single friend
To feel (for us).
102. "Now if we only had
A chance of return,
We shall truly be
Of those who believe!"³¹⁸⁵
103. Verily in this is a Sign
But most of them
Do not believe.
104. And verily thy Lord
Is He, the Exalted in Might,
Most Merciful.

SECTION 6.

105. The people of Noah rejected
The messengers.

٩٧- تَاللّٰهِ اِنْ كُنَّا لَفِي ضَلٰلٍ مُّبِيْنٍ ۝

٩٨- اِذْ سَوَّيْكُمْ رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ۝

٩٩- وَ مَا اَضَلَّنَا اِلَّا الْمَجْرُمُوْنَ ۝

١٠٠- فَمَا لَنَا مِنْ شَافِعِيْنَ ۝

١٠١- وَلَا صَدِيْقٍ حَسِيْمٍ ۝

١٠٢- فَلَوْ اَنْ لَّنَا كَرْهٌ
فَنَكُوْنُ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ۝

١٠٣- اِنَّ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰيَةً ۖ
وَمَا كَانَ اَكْثَرُهُمْ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ ۝

١٠٤- وَاِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيْزُ الرَّحِيْمُ ۝

١٠٥- كَذَّبَتْ قَوْمُ نُوْحٍ الْمُرْسَلِيْنَ ۝

3183. Error manifest: 'our error is now plainly manifest, but it should have been manifest to us before it was too late, because the Signs of Allah were always around us'. This will be said by the ungodly, whose eyes will then be fully opened.

3184. They now see that the people who seduced them were themselves evil and subject to the penalties of evil, and their seductions were frauds. They feel that they ought to have seen it before, for who would deliberately follow the paths of those condemned to misery and punishment? How simple they were not to see the true character of their seducers, though they had been warned again and again against them! It was their own folly that made them accept such obviously false guidance!

3185. This apparent longing for a chance of return is dishonest. If they were sent back, they would certainly return to their evil ways: 6:27-28. Besides, they have had numerous chances already in this life, and they have used them for mischief or evil.

106. Behold, their brother Noah³¹⁸⁶
Said to them: "Will ye not
Fear (Allah)?

١٠٦- اِذْ قَالَ لَهُمُ اخُوهُمْ نُوحٌ اَلَا
تَتَّقُوْنَ ۝

107. "I am to you a messenger
Worthy of all trust:³¹⁸⁷

١٠٧- اِنِّىْ لَكُمْ رَسُوْلٌ اَمِيْنٌ ۝

108. "So fear Allah, and obey me.

١٠٨- فَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَاَطِيعُوْنِ ۝

109. "No reward do I ask
Of you for it: my reward
Is only from the Lord
Of the Worlds:

١٠٩- وَاَمَّا اَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ اَجْرٍ
اِنْ اَجْرِىْ اِلَّا عَلَى رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ۝

110. "So fear Allah, and obey me."³¹⁸⁸

١١٠- فَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَاَطِيعُوْنِ ۝

111. They said: "Shall we Believe in thee when it is
The meanest that follow thee?"³¹⁸⁹

١١١- قَالُوْا اَنْتُمْ مِنْ لَّدُنْكَ
وَاتَّبَعَكَ الْاَزْدَلُوْنَ ۝

112. He said: "And what
Do I know as to
What they do?

١١٢- قَالَ وَاَمَّا عَلٰى بِمَآ كَانُوْا يَعْمَلُوْنَ ۝

113. "Their account is only
With my Lord, if ye
Could (but) understand.

١١٣- اِنْ حِسَابُهُمْ اِلَّا عَلَى رَبِّىْ
لَوْ تَشْعُرُوْنَ ۝

114. "I am not one to drive away
Those who believe."³¹⁹⁰

١١٤- وَمَا اَنَا بِطَارِدِ الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ ۝

3186. Noah's generation had lost all faith and abandoned themselves to evil. They had rejected the Message of messengers previously sent to the world. Noah was sent to them as one of themselves ("their brother"). His life was open before them: he had proved himself pure in heart and conduct (like the Holy Prophet of Arabia long after him), and worthy of every trust. Would they fear Allah and follow his advice? They could see that he had no ends of his own to serve. Would they not listen to him?

3187. Amīn = one to whom a trust had been given, with several shades of meaning implied: e.g., (1) worthy of trust, (2) bound to deliver his trust, as a prophet is bound to deliver his Message, (3) bound to act entirely as directed by the trust, as a prophet is bound to give only the Message of Allah, and not add anything of his own, and (4) not seeking any interest of his own.

3188. Note the repetition rounds off the argument. See n. 3186 above.

3189. The leaders of the people are speaking, as the Quraysh leaders spoke in the time of the Holy Prophet. "We know that thou hast been trustworthy in thy life. But look at the 'rag tag and bob tail' that follow thee! Dost thou expect us to be like them or to be classed with them?" His answer was: "I know nothing against them; if they have done any wrong, or are only hypocrites, they are answerable to Allah; how can I drive them away from me, seeing that I am expressly sent to admonish all people?"

3190. Cf. 11:29. All people who have faith have the right to come and listen to Allah's Word and receive Allah's Mercy, whether they are publicans and sinners, "Harihans" and "low-caste" men, men of "superior" or "inferior" races. The Prophet of Allah welcomes them all, as His Message had to shine before the whole world. (R).

115. "I am sent only
To warn plainly in public." ١١٥- إِنْ أَنَا إِلَّا نَذِيرٌ مُّبِينٌ ۝
116. They said: "If thou
Desist not, O Noah!
Thou shalt be stoned
(to death)."³¹⁹¹ ١١٦- قَالُوا لَئِنْ لَمْ تَنْتَهِ يُونُحُ
لَتَكُونَنَّ مِنَ الْمَرْجُومِينَ ۝
117. He said: "O my Lord!
Truly my people have
Rejected me. ١١٧- قَالَ رَبِّ إِنَّ قَوْمِي كَذَّبُونِ ۝
118. "Judge thou, then, between me
And them openly, and deliver
Me and those of the Believers
Who are with me." ١١٨- فَافْتَحْ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَهُمْ فَتْحًا وَنَجِّنِي
وَمَنْ مَعِيَ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ۝
119. So We delivered him
And those with him,
In the Ark filled
(With all creatures).³¹⁹² ١١٩- فَأَنْجَيْنَاهُ وَمَنْ مَعَهُ
فِي الْفُلِّ الْمَشْحُونِ ۝
120. Thereafter We drowned those
Who remained behind. ١٢٠- ثُمَّ أَغْرَقْنَا بَعْدَ الْبَاقِينَ ۝
121. Verily in this is a Sign:
But most of them
Do not believe.³¹⁹³ ١٢١- إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً ۚ
وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ۝
122. And verily thy Lord
Is He, the Exalted in Might,
Most Merciful. ١٢٢- وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ۝

C. 166. — The 'Ad were addicted to arrogance;
(26:123-159.) They exulted in material strength
And possessions, and had no faith but in force:
They were brought low, as were the Thamūd,
Who gave way to extravagance, and were guilty

3191. Two other cases occur to me where prophets of Allah were threatened with death by stoning: one was Abraham (19:46), and the other was Shu'ayb (11:91). In neither case did the threats deter them from carrying out their mission. On the contrary, the threats recoiled on those who threatened. So also did it happen in the case of Noah and the Holy Prophet.

3192. The story of Noah's Flood is told in 11:36-48. Here, the point emphasised is Noah's patience and constancy against threats, and the triumph and preservation of Allah's truth even though the world was ranged against it.

3193. This and the following verse run like a refrain throughout this Sūrah, and give the keynote to the subject matter: how the Message of Allah is preached, how it is rejected in all ages, and how it triumphs at last, through the Mercy of Allah. See 26:8-9, 68-69, 103-104, here (121-122), 139-140, 158-159, 174-175, and 190-191. (R).

Of sacrilege in destroying a symbol
Of justice and fair-dealing: their repentance
Was too late: they were blotted out
Of the earth for the mischief they had made.

SECTION 7.

123. The 'Ād (people) rejected³¹⁹⁴
The messengers.

١٢٣- كَذَّبَتْ عَادُ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ۝

124. Behold, their brother Hūd
Said to them: "Will ye not
Fear (Allah)?

١٢٤- اِذْ قَالَ لَهُمْ أَخُوهُمْ هُودٌ
اَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ۝

125. "I am to you a messenger
Worthy of all trust:³¹⁹⁵

١٢٥- اِنِّى لَكُمْ رَسُولٌ اَمِيْنٌ ۝

126. "So fear Allah and obey me.

١٢٦- فَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَاَطِيعُوْنَ ۝

127. "No reward do I ask
Of you for it: my reward
Is only from the Lord
Of the Worlds.

١٢٧- وَمَا اَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ اَجْرٍ ۚ
اِن اَجْرِىْ اِلَّا عَلَى رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ۝

128. "Do ye build a landmark
On every high place
To amuse yourselves?³¹⁹⁶

١٢٨- اَتَبْنُونَ بُيُوْتًا رِّيعَ اِيَّاهُ تَعْبَثُوْنَ ۝

129. "And do ye get for yourselves
Fine buildings in the hope
Of living therein (forever)?

١٢٩- وَتَتَّخِذُوْنَ مَصَانِعَ لَعَلَّكُمْ
تُخْلَدُوْنَ ۝

130. "And when ye exert
Your strong hand,
Do ye do it like men
Of absolute power?³¹⁹⁷

١٣٠- وَاِذَا بَطَشْتُمْ
بَطَشْتُمْ جَبَّارِيْنَ ۝

3194. See n. 1040 to 7:65 for the 'Ād people and their location. Here, the emphasis is on the fact that they were materialists believing in brute force, and felt secure in their fortresses and resources, but were found quite helpless when Allah's Message came and they rejected it.

3195. See n. 3187 to 26:107 above.

3196. Any merely material civilisation prides itself on show and parade. Its votaries scatter monuments for all sorts of things in conspicuous places—monuments which commemorate deeds and events which are forgotten in a few generations! Cf. Shelley's poem on Ozymandias: "I am Ozymandias. King of Kings! Look on my works, ye mighty, and despair!... Boundless and bare the lonely and level sands stretch far away!"

3197. "Without any responsibility or consideration for those who come within your power?"

131. "Now fear Allah, and obey me."³¹⁹⁸

١٣١- فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا ۚ

132. "Yea, fear Him Who
Has bestowed on you
Freely all that ye know."³¹⁹⁹

١٣٢- وَاتَّقُوا الَّذِي أَمَدَّكُمْ بِمَا
تَعْلَمُونَ ۚ

133. "Freely has He bestowed
On you cattle and sons—

١٣٣- أَمَدَّكُمْ بِأَنْعَامٍ وَبَنِينَ ۚ

134. "And Gardens and Springs.

١٣٤- وَجَدَّتِ وَعُيُونٌ ۚ

135. "Truly I fear for you
The Penalty of a Great Day."³²⁰⁰

١٣٥- إِنِّي أَخَافُ عَلَيْكُمْ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ ۚ

136. They said: "It is the same
To us whether thou
Admonish us or be not
Among (our) Admonishers!"³²⁰¹

١٣٦- قَالُوا سَوَاءٌ عَلَيْنَا أَوَعِظْتَ أَمْ لَمْ
تَكُنْ مِنَ الْوَاعِظِينَ ۚ

137. "This is no other than
A customary device
Of the ancients,"³²⁰²

١٣٧- إِنَّ هَذَا إِلَّا خُلُقُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ۚ

138. "And we are not the ones
To receive Pains and Penalties!"

١٣٨- وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمُعَذَّبِينَ ۚ

139. So they rejected him,
And We destroyed them.
Verily in this is a Sign:
But most of them
Do not believe.

١٣٩- كَذَّبُوهُ فَأَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ
إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً ۚ
وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ۚ

140. And verily thy Lord
Is He, the Exalted in Might,
Most Merciful.

١٤٠- وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ۚ

3198. See n. 3188 above.

3199. The gifts are described generally, immaterial and material. "All that ye know" includes not only material things, but knowledge and the faculties by which knowledge may be used for human well-being, all that makes life beautiful and refined. "Cattle" means wealth generally, and "sons" means population and man-power. "Gardens and Springs" are things that contribute to the delight and pleasure of man.

3200. "But you have misused all those gifts, and you will suffer the inevitable penalties for your misuse and for your ingratitude."

3201. "We are not going to attend to you whether you preach to us or not." The construction of the second clause, "or be not among our admonishers" is a rapier cut at Hūd, as if they had said: "Oh yes! we have heard plenty of admonishers like you!" See the next verse.

3202. They said, as many of our modern enemies of religion say, "you are only reviving an ancient superstition, a dope of the crowd; there is no such thing as a Hereafter, or the sort of punishments you announce!"

SECTION 8.

141. The Thamūd (people) rejected³²⁰³
The messengers.
142. Behold, their brother Ṣāliḥ
Said to them: "Will you not
Fear (Allah)?
143. "I am to you a messenger
Worthy of all trust.
144. "So fear Allah, and obey me.
145. "No reward do I ask
Of you for it: my reward
Is only from the Lord
Of the Worlds.
146. "Will ye be left secure,
In (the enjoyment of) all
That ye have here?—
147. "Gardens and Springs,
148. "And cornfields and date palms
With spathes near breaking³²⁰⁴
(With the weight of fruit)?
149. "And ye carve houses
Out of (rocky) mountains
With great skill.
150. "But fear Allah and obey me;
151. "And follow not the bidding
Of those who are extravagant — ³²⁰⁵

١٤١- كَذَّبَتْ ثَمُودُ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ۝

١٤٢- اِذْ قَالَ لَهُمُ اخُوهُمْ صَالِحٌ

١٤٤- فَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَاَطِيعُوْنِ ۝

١٤٥- وَمَا اَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ اَجْرٍ

١٥٠- فَاتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَاَطِيعُوْنَ ۝

١٥١- وَلَا تُطِيعُوْا اَمْرَ الْمُسْرِفِيْنَ ۝

3203. For the Thamūd people see n. 1043 to 7:73. They were great builders in stone and a people with agricultural wealth, but they were an exclusive people and oppressed the poor. The point emphasised here is: "How long will your wealth last, especially if you depress your own people and dishonour Allah's Signs by sacrilege?" The inscriptions on the Thamūd remains of rock-cut buildings in Al Hijr are described in Appendix VII at the end of this Sūrah.

3204. The date palm flowers on a long spathe: when the flowers develop into fruit, the heavy ones hang with the load of fruit. The Thamūd evidently were proud of their skill in producing corn and fruit and in hewing fine dwellings out of rocks, like the later dwellings of Roman times in the town of Petra.

3205. They are told: "All your skill is very well; but cultivate virtue and do not follow the ways of those who put forward extravagant claims for men's powers and material resources, or who lead lives of extravagance in luxury and self-indulgence; that makes mischief: but the door to repentance is open: will you repent?"

152. "Who make mischief in the land,
And mend not (their ways)."
153. They said: "Thou art only
One of those bewitched!³²⁰⁶
154. "Thou art no more than
A mortal like us:
Then bring us a Sign,
If thou tellest the truth!"
155. He said: "Here is
A she-camel: she has³²⁰⁷
A right of watering,
And ye have a right
Of watering, (severally)
On a day appointed.
156. "Touch her not with harm,
Lest the Penalty
Of a Great Day
Sieve you."
157. But they hamstrung her:
Then did they become
Full of regrets.³²⁰⁸
158. But the Penalty seized them.
Verily in this is a Sign:
But most of them
Did not believe.
159. And verily thy Lord
Is He, the Exalted in Might,
Most Merciful.

C. 167. — The task of Lot was a hard one: his mission
(26:160-191.) Was to people addicted to crimes abominable.
His reasoning with them was in vain: it only
Excited their wrath. They threatened to cast

3206. They think he is talking like a madman, and they say so.

3207. For this she-camel, see n. 1044 to 7:73. The she-camel was to be a Sign and a test case. Would they respect her rights of watering (and pasturage)?

3208. Their regrets were too late. They had themselves asked for a Sign. The Sign had been given them in the she-camel, which their prophet Šālih had put forward as a test case. Would they, through that symbol, respect the law of equity by which all people had rights in water and in the gifts of nature? They refused to respect that law, and committed sacrilege by deliberately killing the she-camel. They themselves came to an evil end.

Him out, but were themselves overwhelmed
In disaster. Shu'ayb had to rebuke fraud
And commercial dishonesty: he met only
Ridicule, but the just and fair dealing
He preached was vindicated in the end.

SECTION 9.

160. The people of Lūt rejected³²⁰⁹
The messengers.

Of you for it: my reward
Is only from the Lord
Of the Worlds.

١٦٤- وَمَا اَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ اَجْرٍ
اِنْ اَجْرِىْ اِلَّا عَلَى رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ۝

165. "Of all the creatures
In the world, will ye
Approach males,

١٦٥- اَتَاْتُوْنَ الذُّكْرَانَ مِنَ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ۝

166. "And leave those whom Allah
Has created for you
To be your mates?
Nay, ye are a people
Transgressing (all limits)!"

١٦٦- وَتَذَرُوْنَ مَا خَلَقَ لَكُمْ رَبُّكُمْ
مِنْ اَزْوَاجِكُمْ
بَلْ اَنْتُمْ قَوْمٌ عٰدُوْنَ ۝

167. They said. "If thou desist not
O Lūt! thou wilt assuredly
Be cast out!"³²¹⁰

١٦٧- قَالُوْا لَئِنْ لَمْ تَنْتَهِ يٰلُوطُ
لَتَكُوْنَنَّ مِنَ الْمُخْرَجِيْنَ ۝

3209. The story of Lūt (Lot) will be found in 7:80-84: see n. 1049. Here the point is that the people of the Cities of the Plain were shamelessly addicted to vice against nature, and Lūt's warning only exasperated them, until they were destroyed by a shower of brimstone.

3210. Their threat to cast him out has a grim significance in what actually happened. They were destroyed where they were, and he was glad to escape the dreadful Punishment according to the warning he had received.

168. He said: "I do detest³²¹¹
Your doings."
169. "O my Lord! deliver me
And my family from
Such things as they do!"
170. So We delivered him
And his family—all
171. Except an old woman³²¹²
Who lingered behind.
172. But the rest We destroyed
Utterly.
173. We rained down on them
A shower (of brimstone):³²¹³
And evil was the shower
On those who were admonished
(But heeded not)!
174. Verily in this is a Sign:
But most of them
Do not believe.
175. And verily thy Lord
Is He, the Exalted in Might,
Most Merciful.

SECTION 10.

176. The Companions of the Wood³²¹⁴
Rejected the messengers.
177. Behold, *Shu'ayb*³²¹⁵ said to them:
"Will ye not fear (Allah)?"
178. "I am to you a messenger
Worthy of all trust.

١٦٨- قَالَ إِنِّي لِعَمَلِكُمْ مِنَ الْقَالِينَ ۝

١٦٩- رَبِّ نَجِّنِي وَاهْلِي مِمَّا يَعْمَلُونَ ۝

١٧٠- فَجَعَلْنَاهُ وَاهْلَهُ أَجْمَعِينَ ۝

١٧١- إِلَّا عَجُوزًا فِي الْغَدِيرِينَ ۝

١٧٢- ثُمَّ دَمَرْنَا الْآخَرِينَ ۝

١٧٣- وَأَمْطَرْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ مَطَرًا ۝
فَسَاءَ مَطَرُ الْمُنْذَرِينَ ۝

١٧٤- إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَةً ۝
وَمَا كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ ۝

١٧٥- وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الرَّحِيمُ ۝

١٧٦- كَذَّبَ أَصْحَابُ لَيْكَةِ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ۝

١٧٧- إِذْ قَالَ لَهُمْ شُعَيْبٌ أَلَا تَتَّقُونَ ۝

١٧٨- إِنِّي لَكُمْ رَسُولٌ أَمِينٌ ۝

3211. He was only among them from a stern sense of duty. The whole atmosphere there was detestable to him, and he was glad to escape when duty no longer demanded his presence there. He prayed for deliverance from such surroundings.

3212. This was Lūṭ's wife, who lingered behind and was among those who perished. See n. 1051 to 7:83.

3213. See n. 1052 to 7:84.

3214. See n. 2000 to 15:78.

3215. For Shu'ayb see n. 1054 to 7:85.

179. "So fear Allah and obey me.

180. "No reward do I ask
Of you for it: my reward
Is only from the Lord
Of the Worlds.

181. "Give just measure,³²¹⁶
And cause no loss
(To others by fraud).

182. "And weigh with scales
True and upright.

183. "And withhold not things
Justly due to men,
Nor do evil in the land,
Working mischief.

184. "And fear Him Who created
You and (Who created)
The generations before (you)"

185. They said: "Thou art only
One of those bewitched!

186. "Thou art no more than
A mortal like us,
And indeed we think
Thou art a liar!"³²¹⁷

187. "Now cause a piece
Of the sky to fall on us,
If thou art truthfull!"³²¹⁸

188. He said: "My Lord
Knows best what ye do."³²¹⁹

١٧٩- فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا ۝

١٨٠- وَمَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ ۚ
إِنْ أَجْرِيَ إِلَّا عَلَىٰ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝

١٨١- أَوْفُوا الْكَيْلَ وَلَا تَكُونُوا مِنَ
الْمُخْسِرِينَ ۝

١٨٢- وَزِنُوا بِالْقِسْطَاسِ الْمُسْتَقِيمِ ۝

١٨٣- وَلَا تَبْخُسُوا النَّاسَ أَشْيَاءَهُمْ ۚ
وَلَا تَعْتُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ مُفْسِدِينَ ۝

١٨٤- وَاتَّقُوا الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ
وَالْجِبِلَّ الْأَوَّلِينَ ۝

١٨٥- قَالُوا إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ مِنَ الْمُسْتَضَرِّينَ ۝

١٨٦- وَمَا أَنْتَ إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِثْلُنَا
وَإِنْ نَطَّلُكَ لَكِنَ الْكَذِبِيِّنَ ۝

١٨٧- فَاسْقِطْ عَلَيْنَا كِسْفًا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ
إِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ۝

١٨٨- قَالَ رَبِّي أَعْلَمُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ۝

3216. They were a commercial people, but they were given to fraud, injustice, and wrongful mischief (by intermeddling with others). They are asked to fear Allah and follow His ways: it is He Who also created their predecessors among mankind, who never prospered by fraud and violent wrongdoing, but only justice and fair dealing.

3217. They deny that he is a prophet or that they are doing wrong, or that any former generations behaved differently. They think they are the true exponents of human nature, and that such as he—idealists—are mere madmen.

3218. 'If you really claim any real contact with Allah, let us see if you can bring down a piece of the sky to fall on us!'

3219. The challenge to bring down a piece of the sky was merely empty bravado, on the part of those who had called him a liar. But Shu'ayb does not insult them. He merely says: "Allah is the best judge of your conduct: what more can I say?" And Allah did punish them.

189. But they rejected him.
Then the punishment
Of a day of overshadowing
gloom³²²⁰
Seized them, and that was
The Penalty of a Great Day.³²²¹

١٨٩- فَكَذَّبُوهُ
فَاَخَذَهُمْ عَذَابُ يَوْمِ الظُّلُمَةِ
اِنَّهٗ كَانَ عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيْمٍ ۝

190. Verily in that is a Sign:
But most of them
Do not believe.

١٩٠- اِنَّ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَايَةً
وَمَا كَانَ اَكْثَرُهُمْ مُّؤْمِنِيْنَ ۝

191. And verily thy Lord
Is He, the Exalted in Might,
Most Merciful.³²²²

١٩١- وَاِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَهٗوَ الْعَزِيْزُ الرَّحِيْمُ ۝

C. 168. — Thus the Truth of Allah must win against folly
(26:192-227.) And falsehood. The Spirit of Inspiration
And Faith brought down the Qur'ān to the mind
Of the Holy Prophet, that he might teach
In noble Arabic speech, and through it
Reach the world. If obstinate rebels
Do resist the Message, their day is brief:
With humble, gentle kindness it must make
Its way to all, nearest and farthest.
It is not like the vain words of poets false,
Wandering without a goal: it is Truth,
That fills the heart which trusts in Allah.

SECTION 11.

192. Verily this is a Revelation³²²³
From the Lord of the Worlds:

١٩٢- وَاِنَّهٗ لَتَنْزِيْلُ رَبِّ الْعٰلَمِيْنَ ۝

193. With it came down
The Spirit of Faith and Truth—³²²⁴

١٩٣- نَزَلَ بِهٖ الرُّوْحُ الْاَمِيْنُ ۝

3220. Perhaps a shower of ashes and cinders accompanying a volcanic eruption. If these people were the same as the Midianites, there was also an earthquake. See 7:91 and n. 1063.

3221. It must have been a terrible day of wholesale destruction—earthquake, volcanic eruption, lava, cinders and ashes and rumbling noises to frighten those whose death was not instantaneous.

3222. See above, n. 3193 to 26:121.

3223. The hostile reception of some of the previous Messengers having been mentioned, the special characteristics of the Qur'ān are now referred to, to show (1) that it is true, and (2) that its rejection by the Makkan Pagans was of a piece with the previous experience in the history of man: vested interests resist Truth, but it conquers.

3224. Rūḥ al Amīn, the epithet of Gabriel, who came with the inspired Messages to the Holy Prophet, is difficult to render in a single epithet in translation. In n. 3187 to 26:107 I have described some of the various shades of meaning attached to the adjective Amīn as applied to a Prophet. A further signification as attached to the Spirit of Inspiration is that it is the very quintessence of Faith and Truth, unlike the lying spirits which delude men with falsehood. On the whole, I think "the Spirit of Faith and Truth" will best represent the original here.

194. To thy heart and mind,³²²⁵
That thou mayest admonish
195. In the perspicuous
Arabic tongue.
196. Without doubt it is (announced)
In the revealed Books³²²⁶
Of former peoples.
197. Is it not a Sign
To them that the Learned
Of the Children of Israel
Knew it (as true)?³²²⁷
198. Had We revealed it
To any of the non-Arabs,
199. And had he recited it
To them, they would not
Have believed in it.³²²⁸
200. Thus have We caused it
To enter the hearts
Of the Sinners.³²²⁹
201. They will not believe
In it until they see
The grievous Penalty;

١٩٣- عَلَىٰ قَلْبِكَ لِتَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُنذِرِينَ ۝

١٩٥- بِلِسَانٍ عَرَبِيٍّ مُّبِينٍ ۝

١٩٦- وَإِنَّهُ لَفِي زُبُرِ الْأَوَّلِينَ ۝

١٩٧- أَوَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُمْ آيَةٌ
أَن يَعْلَمَهُ عُلَمَاءُ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ ۝

١٩٨- وَلَوْ نَزَّلْنَاهُ عَلَىٰ بَعْضِ الْأَعْجَمِينَ ۝

١٩٩- فَقَرَأَهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مَا كَانُوا بِهِ
مُؤْمِنِينَ ۝

٢٠٠- كَذَٰلِكَ سَلَكْنَاهُ فِي قُلُوبِ الْجَاهِلِينَ ۝

٢٠١- لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِهِ حَتَّىٰ يَرُوا الْعَذَابَ
الْأَلِيمَ ۝

3225. Qalb (Heart) signifies not only the seat of the affections, but also the seat of the memory and understanding. The process of inspiration is indicated by the impression of the divine Message on the inspired one's heart, memory, and understanding, from which it was promulgated in human speech to the world. In this case the human speech was the perspicuous Arabic tongue, which would be plainly intelligible to the audience who would immediately hear it and be through them transmitted to all the world.

3226. The word Zubur, used here, is plural of Zabūr, which is mentioned in the Qur'an as the Book revealed to the Prophet Dāwūd. It has also been used in the Qur'an in the generic sense of "Book" (54:52). Here the word refers to the earlier Revelations. (Eds.).

3227. Many of the Jewish Doctors recognised the Holy Prophet's Message as a Message from Allah, e.g., 'Abdullāh ibn Salām and Mukhayrīq. The latter was a man of property, which he left for Islam. (There were also Christian monks and learned men who recognised the Prophet's mission.)

3228. The turn of Arabia having come for receiving Allah's Revelation, as was foretold in previous Revelations, it was inevitable that it should be in the Arab tongue through the mouth of an Arab. Otherwise it would have been unintelligible, and the Arabs could not have received the Faith and become the vehicles for its promulgation as actually happened in history.

3229. "Thus" I think means through the medium of the Arabic language and the Arab people. The Qur'an penetrated through their language and their hearts. If the hardhearted among them did not believe, they will see when the Penalty comes, how grievous a mistake they made. For the Penalty must come; even when they least expected it. They will be caught saying or thinking, "There is plenty of time; we can get another respite," when already it will have become too late for them to turn over a new leaf.

202. But the (Penalty) will come
To them of a sudden,
While they perceive it not;

٢٠٢- فَيَأْتِيَهُمْ بَغْتَةً وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ۚ

203. Then they will say:
"Shall we be respited?"

٢٠٣- فَيَقُولُوا هَلْ نَحْنُ مُنْظَرُونَ ۚ

204. Do they then ask
For Our Penalty to be
Hastened on?³²³⁰

٢٠٤- أَفَبِعَذَابِنَا يَسْتَعْجِلُونَ ۚ

205. Seest thou? If We do
Let them enjoy (this life)
For a few years,

٢٠٥- أَفَرَأَيْتَ إِنْ مَتَّعْنَاهُمْ سِنِينَ ۚ

206. Yet there comes to them
At length the (Punishment)
Which they were promised!

٢٠٦- ثُمَّ جَاءَهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يُوعَدُونَ ۚ

207. It will profit them not
That they enjoyed (this life)!

٢٠٧- مَا أَغْنَىٰ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَسْتَعْوُونَ ۚ

208. Never did We destroy
A population, but had
Its warners—

٢٠٨- وَمَا أَهْلَكْنَا مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ إِلَّا لَهَا
مُنْذِرُونَ ۚ

209. By way of reminder;
And We never are unjust.³²³¹

٢٠٩- ذِكْرًا وَمَا كُنَّا ظَالِمِينَ ۚ

210. No evil ones have brought³²³²
Down this (Revelation):

٢١٠- وَمَا تَنْزَلَتْ بِهِ الشَّيَاطِينُ ۚ

211. It would neither suit them
Nor would they be able (To produce it).

٢١١- وَمَا يَنْبَغِي لَهُمْ وَمَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ ۚ

3230. While some sinners out of negligence postpone the day of repentance till it is too late, others more bold actually ask out of bravado that Allah's Punishment should be brought down on them at once, as they do not believe in Allah or His Punishment! The answer to them is: It will come soon enough—too soon, they will think, when it comes! Cf. 22:47 and notes.

3231. Allah will grant much respite to sinners, for He is Most Gracious and Merciful. But all this respite will profit them nothing if they are merely immersed in the vanities of this world. Again and again, in spite of their rebellion and their rejection, does Allah send warnings and warners before the final Punishment of Justice. For Allah knows human weakness, and He will never be unjust in the least.

3232. When anything extraordinary happens, there are always people desirous of putting the worst construction on it, and saying that it is the work of the evil ones, the devils. So when the Qur'ān came with its Message in wondrous Arabic, its enemies could only account for its power by attributing it to evil spirits! Such a beneficent message can never suit the purposes of the evil ones, nor would it be in their power to produce it. In fact Good and Evil are poles asunder, and Evil cannot even hear words of Good, of tender Pity for sinners and Forgiveness for the penitent!

212. Indeed they have been removed
Far from even (a chance of)
Hearing it.

٢١٢- إِنَّهُمْ عَنِ السَّمْعِ لَمْعَزُولُونَ ۝

213. So call not on any
Other god with Allah,
Or thou wilt be among
Those under the Penalty.

٢١٣- فَلَا تَدْعُ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ
فَتَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُعَذِّبِينَ ۝

214. And admonish thy nearest
Kinsmen,

٢١٤- وَأَنْذِرْ عَشِيرَتَكَ الْأَقْرَبِينَ ۝

215. And lower thy wing³²³³
To the Believers who Follow thee.

٢١٥- وَأَخْفِضْ جُنَاحَكَ لِمَنِ اتَّبَعَكَ
مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ۝

216. Then if they disobey thee,
Say: "I am free (of responsibility)
For what ye do!"³²³⁴

٢١٦- فَإِنْ عَصَوْكَ
فَقُلْ إِنِّي بَرِيءٌ مِمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ ۝

217. And put thy trust
On the Exalted in Might,
The Merciful—

٢١٧- وَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى الْعَزِيزِ الرَّحِيمِ ۝

218. Who seeth thee standing
Forth (in prayer),

٢١٨- الَّذِي يَرِيكَ حِينَ تَقُومُ ۝

219. And thy movements among
Those who prostrate themselves.³²³⁵

٢١٩- وَتَقَلُّبِكَ فِي السُّجُودِ ۝

220. For it is He
Who heareth and knoweth
All things.

٢٢٠- إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ ۝

3233. That is, be kind, gentle, and considerate with them, as a highflying bird is when she lowers her wing to her offspring. Cf. 17:24 and n. 2205, and 15:88 and n. 2011.

3234. "Disobey thee" implied that they did something wrong, for the Holy Prophet commanded what was right and forbade what was wrong. If, then, any of his flock did wrong the responsibility was not his, for he, like a good shepherd, tried to keep them right. What was he then to do? He would continue his teaching. But if any of them went so far wrong as to try to injure their own Teacher, Leader and guide, there was nothing for him to fear. His trust was only in Allah and Allah sees and appraises all men's actions at their true worth.

3235. Literally, the standing and prostration are postures of Muslim prayer: the Holy Prophet was equally earnest, sincere, and zealous in prayer for himself and for all his people. The Prophet's behaviour was exemplary in all the turns of fortune, and however foolish men may cavil, his purity and uprightness are fully known to Allah. (R).

221. Shall I inform you,
(O people!), on whom it is
That the evil ones descend?³²³⁶

٢٢١- هَلْ أَنْبِئُكُمْ عَلَىٰ مَنْ تَنْزَلُ
الشَّيَاطِينُ ۚ

222. They descend on every
Lying, wicked person,

٢٢٢- تَنْزَلُ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ آفَاكٍ أَثِيمٍ ۚ

223. (Into whose ears) they pour
Hearsay vanities, and most
Of them are liars.

٢٢٣- يُلْقُونَ السَّمْعَ وَالْأُذُنَ كَذِبُونَ ۚ

224. And the Poets—³²³⁷
It is those straying in Evil,
Who follow them:

٢٢٤- وَالشُّعَرَاءُ يَتَّبِعُهُمُ الْغَاوُونَ ۚ

225. Seest thou not that they
Wander distractedly in every Valley?—

٢٢٥- أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّهُمْ فِي كُلِّ وَادٍ يَهِيمُونَ ۚ

226. And that they say
What they practise not?—

٢٢٦- وَأَنَّهُمْ يَقُولُونَ مَا لَا يَفْعَلُونَ ۚ

227. Except those who believe,³²³⁸
Work righteousness, engage much
In the remembrance of Allah,
And defend themselves only after
They are unjustly attacked.
And soon will the unjust³²³⁹
Assailants know what vicissitudes
Their affairs will take!

٢٢٧- إِلَّا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
وَذَكَرُوا اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا
وَانْتَصَرُوا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا ظَلَمُوا وَسَيَعْلَمُ
الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا أَيَّ مُنْقَلَبٍ يَنْقَلِبُونَ ۚ

3236. To people who maliciously suggested that the Holy Prophet was possessed or inspired by evil spirits (26:210 above) the reply had already been made, but it is now declared that the suggestion is itself the work of Evil. Behind such suggestions are lying and wickedness, or at best some half-truths caught up in hearsay and twisted so as to show Allah in an evil light.

3237. The Poets: to be read along with the exceptions mentioned in verse 227 below. Poetry and other arts are not in themselves evil, but may, on the contrary, be used in the service of religion and righteousness. But there is a danger that they may be prostituted for base purposes. If they are insincere ("they say what they do not") or are divorced from actual life or its goodness or its serious purpose, they may become instruments of evil or futility. They then wander about without any set purpose, and seek the depths (valleys) of human folly rather than the heights of divine light.

3238. Poetry and the fine arts which are to be commended are those which emanate from minds steeped in the Faith, which try to carry out in life the fine sentiments they express in their artistic work, aim at the glory of Allah rather than at self-glorification or the fulsome praise of men with feet of clay, and do not (as in Jihād) attack anything except aggressive evil. In this sense a perfect artist should be a perfect man. Perfection may not be attainable in this life, but it should be the aim of every man, and especially of one who wishes to become a supreme artist, not only in technique but in spirit and essentials. Among the commendable poets contemporary with the Holy Prophet may be mentioned Ḥassān and Labīd: the latter had the honour of being one of the seven whose poems were selected for "hanging" (the Mu'allaqāt) in the Days of Ignorance.

3239. These were the scurrilous rhymsters, who were doomed to come to an evil end.

APPENDIX VII.

Thamūd Inscriptions at al Ḥijr (26:141-159; 15:80-84; and 7:73-79).

Mr. C.M. Doughty travelled in Northwestern Arabia and Najd in the 1880's, and his book Arabia Deserta forms one of the most notable of Arabian travel books. It was first published in two volumes by the Cambridge University Press in 1888, and has recently gone through several editions. The edition I have used is the unabridged one-volume edition printed in London in 1926. The references in this Appendix should be understood to refer to that edition.

Doughty travelled on the old Pilgrim Caravan from Damascus as far as Madā'in Šāliḥ, and then parted company with the Pilgrims and turned into Najd. Madā'in Šāliḥ (the Cities of Šāliḥ), is one of the stations on the Syrian Pilgrim route, about 180 miles north of Madīnah. Tabūk, to which the Holy Prophet led an expedition in A.H. 9 (see Introduction to S. 9.), is about 170 miles farther to the northwest, and Ma'ān Junction about 150 miles still farther. Madā'in Šāliḥ's was also an important station on the prehistoric gold and frankincense (bakhūr) route between Yemen and Egypt or Syria. In sacred history it marks the ruined site of the Thamūd people to whom the prophet Šāliḥ was sent, whose she-camel was a symbolic Sign and is connected with Šāliḥ's history. See n. 3208 to 26:155-157. To the west and northwest of Madā'in Šāliḥ are three Ḥarrāt or tracts of volcanic land covered with lava, stretching as far as Tabūk.

This is how Doughty describes his first view of Madā'in Šāliḥ, approaching from the northwest. "At length in the dim morning twilight, as we journeyed, we were come to a sandy brow and a straight descending place betwixt cliffs of sandstones. There was some shouting in the forward, and Aswad bid me look up, 'this was a famous place, Mabrak al Nāqah'" (the kneeling place of the she-camel of Šāliḥ. "It is short, at first steep, and issues upon the plain of Al Ḥijr, which is Madā'in Šāliḥ; where the sun coming up showed the singular landscape of this valley plain, encompassed with might sandstone precipices (which here resemble ranges of city walls, fantastic towers, and castle buildings), and upon them lie high shouldering sand drifts. The bottom is sand, with much growth of desert bushes; and I perceived some thin sprinkled volcanic drift. Westward is seen the immense mountain blackness, terrible and lowering, of the Ḥarrāt." (Arabia Deserta, p. 83, vol. I.)

Doughty took some rubbings of some of the Inscriptions which were accessible to him and they were studied by the great Semitic scholar M. Ernest Renan and published by the Académie des Inscriptions et Belles-Lettres. Renan's Report in French is printed as an Appendix to Chapters IV, V and VI of Arabia Deserta (pp. 180-187, vol. I) and M. le Marquis de Vogüé's Note (also in French) on the Nabataean sculptured Architecture at Madā'in Šāliḥ at pp. 620-623, vol. I.

The general result of these studies may be summarised. The sculpture and architecture are found to be of the same kind as the Nabataean monuments at Petra (for which see n. 1043 to 7:73). At Petra there are no dated Inscriptions preserved, but at Madā'in Šāliḥ we have several. There are at Madā'in Šāliḥ perhaps 100 sepulchral rock-hewn chambers, in some of which are found human bones and remains, showing that the Nabataeans knew the art of embalming, and used linen of the same kind as was used in ancient Egypt. The tombs are dedicated in perpetuity to named families, and the named Nabataean kings have, each, the epithet "loving his people". There are flat side-pilasters, and the figures of four-footed beasts, eagles, and other birds are discernible. Besides the sepulchral chambers, there is a great Hall or Council Chamber (Dīwān), 25ft. x 27ft. x 13ft. This may have been a Temple. The gods worshipped there were those whose names we know from other Nabataean sources—Dusares, Martaba, Allāt, Manāt, Ka'īs, and Hubal. Allāt, Manāt, and Hubal are also known to us in connection with the idols of the Pagan Quraysh of the Times of Ignorance. It is interesting to find the word Mesjeda (Arabic Masjid) already used here for "place of worship". Triads of stones were worshipped as gods.

The Inscriptions have dates from 3 B.C. to 79 A.C. Within this short period of 82 years we can see something of the development of Semitic palaeography. The writing becomes more and more cursive with the years. We have here a central point between Old Armenian, Square Hebrew, Palmyran, Sinaitic, Kūfī and Naskh.

We may treat the Nabataeans as historical, as we have established dates. The Thamūd were prehistoric, and occupied sites which were afterwards occupied by the Nabataeans and others. The kneeling place of Ṣāliḥ's she-camel (Mabrak al Nāqah) and the well of the she-camel (Bīru al Nāqah), and a number of local names keep alive the race memory of an ancient Arabic people and their prophet Ṣāliḥ.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 27—AL NAML

This Sūrah is cognate in subject to the one preceding it and the two following it. Its chronological place is also in the same group of four, in the middle Makkan period.

Here there is much mystic symbolism. Wonders in the physical world are types of greater wonders in the spiritual world. The Fire, the White Hand, and the Rod, in the story of Moses; the speech of birds, the crowds of Jinns and men pitted against a humble ant, and the Hoopoe and the Queen of Sheba, in Solomon's story; the defeat of the plot of the nine wicked men in the story of Ṣāliḥ; and the crime of sin with open eyes in the story of Lūṭ—lead up to the lessons of true and false worship and the miracles of Allah's grace and revelation.

Summary—Wonderful in Revelation, like the Fire which Moses saw, which was a glimpse of Allah's Glory, and His Miracles, which searched out those who refused Faith in spite of the light they had received (27:1-14, and C. 169).

Solomon knew the speech of Birds and had hosts of Jinns and men; yet the wise ant had ample defence against them: the Hoopoe who was absent at his muster, was yet serving him: the Queen of Sheba had a kingdom, but it submitted with conviction to the Wisdom of Solomon and the Kingdom of Allah (27:15-44, and C. 170).

Fools ascribe ill-luck to godliness as in Ṣāliḥ's story, or fall into the lusts with their eyes open, as in Lūṭ's story; but their plots and their rage will be foiled by Allah (27:45-58, and C. 171).

Allah's glory and goodness are supreme over all Creation: Unfaith will yield to Faith in the final adjustment of values: so follow Revelation, serve Allah, and trust in Him, (27:59-93, and C. 172).

C. 169.—Revelation shows us a glimpse of the spiritual
(27:1-14.) World, guides us in this life, and gives us
The Hope of eternal Bliss in the Hereafter.
It works a complete transformation in us,
As it did with Moses when he saw
The mystic Fire and was given the Signs
With which to reclaim a people lost
In superstition and sin, and proud of sin.

3240. See n. 3137 to 26:1.

3241. Revelation is here presented in three aspects: (1) it explains things, the attributes of Allah, our own position, and the spiritual world around; (2) it directs us to right conduct and keeps us from evil; and (3) to those who have Faith and accept its guidance, it gives the good news of forgiveness, purification, and the achievement of salvation. (R).

3242. Those who reject Allah and follow Evil have a good conceit of themselves. Their deeds are pleasing to no one else. As they have rejected Allah's guidance, they are allowed to embrace their own self-conceit, and given further respite for repentance. But they follow their own whims and wander about in distraction, as they have no standards such as guide the godly.

3243. The account will then be made up, and they will be found to be terribly in loss. They will be the worst in loss, for all their self-complacency.

7. Behold! Moses said³²⁴⁴
To his family: "I perceive

Was heard: "Blessed are those³²⁴⁵

9. "O Moses! Verily,

10. "Now do thou throw they rod!"³²⁴⁶
But when he saw it
Moving (of its own accord)
As if it had been a snake,
He turned back in retreat,
And retraced not his steps:
"O Moses!" (it was said)
"Fear not: truly, in My presence,
Those called as messengers
Have no fear — ³²⁴⁷

3244. Cf. 20:9-24. Both there and here there is a reference to the dawn of Revelation in the heart of Moses. The points there emphasised will be found in the notes to that passage. Here the emphasis is on the wonderful nature of the Fire and the wonderful way in which Moses was transformed at the touch of spiritual Light. He was travelling in the Sinai desert with his family. Seeking ordinary light, he came upon a Light which took him to the highest mysteries of Allah. No doubt all his inner history had prepared him for his great destiny. It is the inner history that matters, and not the place or the position of a man in the eyes of his ordinary fellows.

3245. Those: in the original the pronoun is in the singular, "man"; which is often used with a plural meaning. The Commentators usually construe it to mean that this was not a physical fire, but it was the glory of the Angels, a reflection of the Glory of Allah. Hence the exclamation at the end of the verse.

3246. Moses was now transported into an entirely new world. What he had taken to be an ordinary fire was a dream of the spiritual world—rays from the angels of light. The desert in which he had been was the lower life stripped of its ornaments, leading to the divine light of Sinai. Through that Light he heard the Voice of the Source of Wisdom and Power. His own rod or staff was no longer the dead piece of wood that had hitherto supported him. It became instinct with life, a life that moved, and had the power of offence and defence in it, as all living Good must have in its fight with Evil. His own transformation is described in the next note.

3247. In this great, new, wonderful world, that was opening out to Moses, he had to get his vision adjusted to his new surroundings, as an ordinary man has to adjust his sight before he can see into any very strong light that is new to him. The staff which had become alive as a snake frightened him: yet it was to be his own instrument of work in his new mission. All fear was to be cast out of his mind, as befitted a man chosen by Allah.

C. 170. — No less were David and Solomon versed
(27:15-44.) In knowledge and mystic wisdom. Even Solomon could appreciate the wisdom
Of the humble Ant. He used all his power
And resources in extending the Kingdom
Of Allah. In wonderful ways did he lead
The Queen of Sheba to the Light of the Faith
Of Unity, and confirmed her in pure
Worship, the worship of the Lord of the Worlds.

3248. His slaying the Egyptian (n. 3146 to 26:14), however defensible from certain aspects, was yet something from his past that had to be washed off, and Allah, Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful, did it out of His abounding Grace. Nay, more; he was given a pure, Radiant Hand, as a Sign of his personal transformation, as stated in the next verse.

3249. Cf. 20:22. There the expression is: "Draw thy hand close to thy side." As far as the physical act is concerned, the expressions there and here mean the same thing. Moses had a loose-fitting robe. If he put his hand within the folds of the robe, it would go to his bosom on the side of his body opposite to that from which the hand came: i.e., if it was his right hand it would go to the left side of his bosom. But the difference of expression has little spiritual significance. The bosom here stands for his innermost being, which was being so transformed with divine light as to lend the radiance to his hand also, his instrument of action. The hand comes out white and radiant without a stain. Ordinarily if the skin becomes white it is a sign of disease or leprosy. Here it was the opposite. It was a sign of radiance and glory from the higher Light.

3250. The nine Signs: see n. 1091 to 7:133.

3251. The Signs should have clearly opened the eyes of any persons who honestly examined them and thought about them. Those who rejected them were perverse and were going against their own light and inner conviction. That was the aggravating feature of their sin.

إِنَّ هَذَا هُوَ الْفَضْلُ الْمُبِينُ ۝

17. And before Solomon were marshalled
His hosts—of Jinns and men

١٧- وَحِشْرَ لِّسُلَيْمَانَ
جُنُودَهُ مِنَ الْجِنِّ وَالْإِنسِ

3252. Cf. 21:78-82. "Knowledge" means such knowledge as leads up to the higher things in life, the Wisdom that was shown in their decisions and judgements, and the understanding that enabled them to fulfil their mission in life. They were both just men and prophets of Allah. The Bible, as we have it, is inconsistent: on the one hand it calls David "a man after God's own heart" (1 Samuel, xiii. 14, and Acts xiii. 22); and the Christians acclaim Christ as a son of David; but on the other hand, horrible crimes are ascribed to him, which, if he had committed them, would make him a monster of cruelty and injustice. About Solomon, too, while he is described as a glorious king, there are stories of his lapses into sin and idolatry. The Muslim teaching considers them both to be men of piety and wisdom, and high in spiritual knowledge.

3253. They ascribed, as was proper, their knowledge, wisdom, and power to the only true Source of all good, Allah.

3254. The point is that Solomon not only inherited his father's kingdom but his spiritual insight and the prophetic office, which do not necessarily go from father to son.

3255. Speech of Birds. The spoken word in human speech is different from the means of communication which birds and animals have between each other. But no man can doubt that they have means of communication with each other, if he only observes the orderly flight of migratory birds or the regulated behaviour of ants, bees, and other creatures who live in communities. The wisdom of Solomon and others like him (he speaks of "we") consisted in understanding these things—in the animal world and in the lower fringes of human intelligence.

3256. A little of all things: Solomon was a king of power and authority; outside his kingdom he had influence among many neighbouring peoples: he had knowledge of birds, and beasts and plants: he was just and wise, and understood men: and above all, he had spiritual insight, which brought him near to Allah. Thus he had something of all kinds of desirable gifts. And with true gratitude he referred them to Allah, the Giver of all gifts.

And birds, and they were all
Kept in order and ranks. ³²⁵⁷

وَالطَّيْرِ فَهُمْ يُوزَعُونَ ○

18. At length, when they came
To a (lowly) valley of ants,
One of the ants said:
"O ye ants, get into
Your habitations, lest Solomon
And his hosts crush you
(Under foot) without knowing it." ³²⁵⁸

١٨- حَتَّىٰ إِذَا أَتَوْا عَلَىٰ وَادِ النَّمْلِ
قَالَتْ نَمْلَةٌ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّمْلُ ادْخُلُوا
مَسْكِنَكُمْ لَا يَحْطِبَنَّكُمْ سُلَيْمَانُ وَجُنُودُهُ
وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ○

19. So he smiled, amused
At its speech; and he said:
"O my Lord! so order me
That I may be grateful
For Thy favours, which Thou
Hast bestowed on me and ³²⁵⁹
On my parents, and that
I may work the righteousness
That will please Thee: ³²⁶⁰
And admit me, by Thy Grace,
To the ranks of Thy Righteous Servants." ³²⁶¹

١٩- فَتَبَسَّمَ ضَاحِكًا مِّن قَوْلِهَا وَقَالَ
رَبِّ أَوْزِعْنِي أَنْ أَشْكُرَ
نِعْمَتَكَ الَّتِي أَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيَّ
وَعَلَىٰ وَالِدَيَّ وَأَنْ أَعْمَلَ صَالِحًا
تَرْضَاهُ وَأَدْخِلْنِي بِرَحْمَتِكَ
فِي عِبَادِكَ الصَّالِحِينَ ○

20. And he took a muster
Of the Birds; and he said:

٢٠- وَتَقَفَّدَ الطَّيْرَ فَقَالَ

3257. Besides the literal meaning, there are two symbolical meanings. (1) All his subjects of varying grades of intelligence, taste, and civilisation, were kept in due order and cooperation by his discipline, justice, and good government. (2) The gifts of various kinds, which he possessed (see last note), he used in proper order and coordination, as they were a well disciplined army, thus getting the best possible results from them.

3258. This verse and the next, read together, suggest the symbolical meaning as predominant. The ant, to outward appearances, is a very small and humble creature. In the great pomp and circumstances of the world, it may be neglected or even trampled on by a people who mean it no harm. Yet, by its wisdom, it carries on its own life within its own sphere ("habitations") unmolested, and makes a useful contribution to the economy of the world. So there is room for the humblest people in the spiritual world.

3259. The counterpart to the position of the humble ant is the position of a great king like Solomon. He prays that his power and wisdom and other gifts may be used for righteousness and for the benefit of all around him. The ant being in his thoughts, we may suppose that he means particularly in his prayer that he may not even unwittingly tread on humble beings in his preoccupation with the great things of the world.

3260. The righteousness which pleases the world is often very different from the righteousness which pleases Allah. Solomon prays that he may always take Allah's Will as his standard, rather than the standards of men.

3261. In the Kingdom of Allah, righteousness is the badge of citizenship. And although there are great and noble grades (see n. 586 to 4:69), the base of that citizenship is the universal brotherhood of righteousness. The greatest in that Kingdom are glad and proud to pray for that essential badge.

"Why is it I see not

مِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ وَلَهَا عَرْشٌ عَظِيمٌ ○

24. "I found her and her people

۲۴- وَجَدْتُهَا وَقَوْمَهَا

3262. Solomon was no idle or easy-going king. He kept all his organisation strictly up to the mark, both his armies literally and his forces (metaphorically). His most mobile arm was the Birds, who were light on the wing and flew and saw everything like efficient scouts. One day he missed the Hoopoe in his muster. The hoopoe is a light, graceful creature, with elegant plumage of many colours, and a beautiful yellow crest on his head, which entitles him to be called a royal bird.

3263. Sabā' may reasonably be identified as the Biblical Sheba (1 Kings x. 1-10). It is further referred to in the Sūrah called after its name: 34:15-20. It was a city in Yemen, said to have been three days' journey (say 50 miles) from the city of Ṣan'ā. A recent German explorer, Dr. Ham Helfritz, claims to have located it in what is now Ḥadhramawt territory. The famous dam of Ma'rib made the country very prosperous, and enabled it to attain a high degree of civilisation ("provided with every requisite" in the next verse). The Queen of Sheba therefore rightly held up her head high until she saw the glories of Solomon.

3264. The Queen of Sheba (by name Bilqīs in Arabian tradition) came apparently from Yemen, but she had affinities with Abyssinia and possibly ruled over Abyssinia also. The Habasha tribe (after whom Abyssinia was named) came from Yemen. Between the southern coast of Yemen and the northeastern coast of Abyssinia there are only the Straits of Bāb al Mandab, barely twenty miles across. In the 10th or 11 century B.C. there were frequent invasions of Abyssinia from Arabia, and Solomon's reign of 40 years is usually synchronised with B.C. 992 to 952. The Sabaeen and Himyarite alphabets in which we find the south Arabian pre-Islamic inscriptions, passed into Ethiopic, the language of Abyssinia. The Abyssinians possess a traditional history called "The Book of the Glory of Kings" (Kebra Negast), which has been translated from Ethiopic into English by Sir E. A. Wallis Budge (Oxford, 1932). It gives an account of the Queen of Sheba and her only son Menyelek I, as founders of the Abyssinian dynasty. (R).

3265. Provided with every requisite: I take this to refer not only to the abundance of spices and gems and gold in her country, but to sciences and arts, and perhaps the spiritual possibilities which made her accept the religion of Unity and Truth (27:44).

28. "Go thou, with this letter
Of mine, and deliver it
To them: then draw back

٢٨- اذْهَبْ بِكِتَابِي هَذَا فَاَلْقِهِ إِلَيْهِمْ
ثُمَّ تَوَلَّ

3266. The ancient religions of the people of Sabā' (the Himyar or Sabaeans) consisted in the worship of the heavenly bodies, the sun, the planets, and the stars. Possibly the cult was connected with that of Chaldea, the homeland of Abraham: see 6:75-79 and notes thereon. Yemen had easy access to Mesopotamia and the Persian Gulf by way of the sea, as well as with Abyssinia. That accounts for the Christians of Najrān and the Jewish dynasty of kings (e.g., Dhu Nuwās, d. 525 A.C.) who persecuted them in the century before Islam—also for the Christian Abyssinian Governor Abrahah and his discomfiture in the year of the Prophet's birth (S. 105), say 570 A.C. Jewish-Christian influences were powerful in Arabia in the sixth century of the Christian era.

The religion of these Sabaeans (written in Arabic with a Sīn) should not be confounded with that of the Ṣābiān (with a Ṣād), as to whom see n. 76 to 2:62.

3267. The false worship of the Sabaeans is here exposed in three ways: (1) that they were self-satisfied with their own human achievements, instead of looking up to Allah; and (2) that the light of the heavenly bodies which they worshipped was only dependent on the true Light of Allah, which extends over heaven and earth; the Creator should be worshipped rather than His Creation; and (3) Allah knows the hidden secrets of men's minds as well as the objects which they openly profess: are false worshippers really only worshipping their own selves or the "sins they have a mind to" and are therefore afraid to go to Allah, Who knows all?

3268. The messenger (Hoopoe) is a pious bird, as befits a messenger of Solomon. After mentioning the false worship of the Sabaeans, he pronounces the Creed of Unity, and emphasises Allah's attribute as Lord of the Throne of Glory supreme, in order to make it clear that whatever may be the magnificence of a human throne such as he has described (in verse 25), he is not in any way misled from his loyalty to Solomon, the exponent of the true Religion of Liberty.

3269. Solomon does not doubt his messenger's pleas that he has scouted a new country, but wants to test whether he has loosened the rein of imagination in describing its splendours or its worship.

From them, and (wait to) see
What answer they return”...

29. (The Queen) said: “Ye chiefs!
Here is—delivered to me—
A letter worthy of respect.

30. “It is from Solomon, and is
(As follows): ‘In the name³²⁷⁰
Of Allah, Most Gracious
Most Merciful:

31. “ ‘Be ye not arrogant
Against me, but come
To me in submission
(To the true Religion).’ ”

SECTION 3.

32. She said: “Ye chiefs!
Advise me in (this)
My affair: no affair
Have I decided
Except in your presence.”

33. They said: “We are endued
With strength, and given
To vehement war:
But the command is
With thee; so consider
What thou wilt command.”

34. She said: “Kings, when they³²⁷¹
Enter a country, despoil it,
And make the noblest
Of its people its meanest
Thus do they behave.

عَنْهُمْ فَأَنْظِرْ مَاذَا يَرْجِعُونَ ٥

٢٩- قَالَتْ يَا أَيُّهَا الْمَلَأُ
إِنِّي أُتِيَ الْإِنْقَى إِلَيَّ كِتَابٌ كَرِيمٌ ٥

٣٠- إِنَّهُ مِنْ سُلَيْمَانَ وَإِنَّهُ
بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ ٥

٣١- أَلَا تَعْلَمُونَ عَلَىٰ
وَأَتُونِي مُسْلِمِينَ ٥

عَلَىٰ

٣٢- قَالَتْ يَا أَيُّهَا الْمَلَأُ أَفْتُونِي فِي أَمْرِي
مَا كُنْتُ قَاطِعَةً أَمْرًا
حَتَّىٰ تَشْهَدُونِ ٥

٣٣- قَالُوا نَحْنُ أَوْلُوا قُوَّةً
وَأَوْلُوا بِأَيِّ شَيْءٍ يُدْعَىٰ وَالْأَمْرُ إِلَيْكَ
فَأَنْظِرْنِي مَاذَا تَأْمُرِينَ ٥

٣٤- قَالَتْ إِنَّ الْمُلُوكَ إِذَا دَخَلُوا قَرْيَةً
أَفْسَدُوهَا وَجَعَلُوا أَعِزَّةَ أَهْلِهَا أَذِلَّةً
وَكَذَٰلِكَ يَفْعَلُونَ ٥

3270. Solomon expressly begins his letter with the formula of the true and universal Religion of Unity, and he invites to the true Faith the new people with whom he establishes honourable relations, not for worldly conquest but for the spreading of the Light of Allah.

3271. The character of Queen Bilqīs, as disclosed here, is that of a ruler enjoying great wealth and dignity, and the full confidence of her subjects. She does nothing without consulting her Council, and her Council are ready to carry out her commands in all things. Her people are manly, loyal, and contented, and ready to take the field against any enemy in their country. But their queen is prudent in policy, and is not willing to embroil her country in war. She has the discrimination to see that Solomon is not like ordinary kings who conquer by violence. Perhaps in her heart she has a ray of divine light already, though her people are yet Pagans. She wishes to carry her people with her in whatever she does, because she is as loyal to them as they are to her. An exchange of presents would probably establish better relations between the two kingdoms. And perhaps she anticipates some spiritual understanding also, a hope which was afterwards realised. In Bilqīs we have a picture of womanhood, gentle, prudent, and able tame the wilder passions of her subjects. (R).

35. "But I am going to send Him a present, and (wait) To see with what (answer) Return (my) ambassadors."

٣٥- وَإِنِّي مُرْسِلَةٌ إِلَيْهِمْ بِهَدِيَّةٍ
فَنظِرَةً يُحَرِّجُهُمُ الْمُرْسَلُونَ ○

36. Now when (the embassy) came To Solomon, he said:
"Will ye give me abundance In wealth? But that which Allah has given me is better Than that which He has Given you! Nay it is ye Who rejoice in your gift!"³²⁷²

٣٦- فَلَمَّا جَاءَ سُلَيْمَنُ قَالَ
اتَّبِعُوا كُنْ بِمَا لِيَ فَمَا
آتَى اللَّهُ خَيْرٌ مِمَّا آتَاكُمْ
بَلْ أَنْتُمْ بِهَدِيَّتِكُمْ تَفْرَحُونَ ○

37. "Go back to them, and be sure We shall come to them With such hosts as they Will never be able to meet: We shall expel them From there in disgrace, And they will feel Humbled (indeed)."

٣٧- ارْجِعْ إِلَيْهِمْ فَلَنَأْتِيَنَّهُمْ
بِجُنُودٍ لَّا دَفْعَ لَهَا
وَلَنُخْرِجَنَّهُمْ مِنْهَا أَذِلَّةً
وَهُمْ صَاغِرُونَ ○

38. He said (to his own men):
"Ye Chiefs! which of you Can bring me her throne³²⁷³ Before they come to me In submission?"

٣٨- قَالَ يَا أَيُّهَا الْمَلَأُ أَيُّكُمْ يَأْتِينِي
بِعَرْشِهَا قَبْلَ أَنْ يَأْتُونِي مُسْلِمِينَ ○

39. Said an 'Ifrīt,³²⁷⁴ of the Jinns:
"I will bring it to thee Before thou rise from thy Council: indeed I have Full strength for the purpose, And may be trusted."

٣٩- قَالَ عِفْرِيتٌ مِّنَ الْجِنِّ أَنَا آتِيكَ بِهِ
قَبْلَ أَنْ تَقُومَ مِنْ مَّقَامِكَ
وَإِنِّي عَلَيْهِ لَقَوِيٌّ أَمِينٌ ○

3272. Poor Bilqīs! she thought she had arranged with womanly tact to conciliate Solomon, and at the same time pacify her warlike subjects! But the effect of the embassy with presents was the very opposite. Solomon took it as an insult that she should send her presents instead of her submission to the true Religion! He flung back the presents at her, as much as to say, "Let these baubles delight your own hearts! Allah has blessed me with plenty of worldly goods, and something infinitely better, viz.: His Light and Guidance! Why do you say nothing about that? Will you only understand the argument of armies and violence?" Or perhaps his speech was only meant for the Sabaean crowd. For when she actually came, he treated her kindly, and she accepted the religion of Unity.

3273. The throne is symbolical of power and dignity. So far her throne was based on material wealth: Solomon is going to alter it to a basis of Faith and the Religion of Unity.

3274. 'Ifrīt: a large, powerful jinn, reputed to be wicked and crafty: hence he is anxious to be recognised as one that "could be trusted".

40. Said one who had knowledge³²⁷⁵
Of the Book: "I will
Bring it to thee within
The twinkling of any eyel"
Then when (Solomon) saw it
Placed firmly before him,
He said: "This is
By the grace of my Lord! —³²⁷⁶
To test me whether I am
Grateful or ungratefull
And if any is grateful,
Truly his gratitude is (a gain)
For his own soul; but if
Any is ungrateful, truly
My Lord is Free of All Needs,
Supreme in Honour!"³²⁷⁷
41. He said: "Transform her throne
Out of all recognition by her:
Let us see whether she
Is guided (to the truth)³²⁷⁸
Or is one of those who Receive no guidance."
42. So when she arrived,
She was asked, "Is this Thy throne?" She said,

٣٠- قَالَ الَّذِي عِنْدَهُ عِلْمٌ مِّنَ الْكِتَابِ
أَنَا أَنبِئُكَ بِهِ قَبْلَ أَنْ يَرْتَدَّ إِلَيْكَ طَرْفُكَ
فَلَمَّا رَأَاهُ مُسْتَقَرًّا عِنْدَهُ
قَالَ هَذَا مِنْ فَضْلِ رَبِّي
لِيَبْلُوَنِي أَأَشْكُرُ أَمْ أَكْفُرُ
وَمَن شَكَرَ فَإِنَّمَا يَشْكُرُ لِنَفْسِهِ
وَمَن كَفَرَ
فَإِنَّ رَبِّي غَنِيٌّ كَرِيمٌ

٣١- قَالَ نَكُونُوا لَهَا عَرْشَهَا
نَنْظُرُ أَتَهْتَدِي
أَمْ تَكُونُ مِنَ الَّذِينَ لَا يَهْتَدُونَ

٣٢- فَلَمَّا جَاءَتْ قِيلَ أَهَكَذَا
عَرْشُكَ قَالَتْ

3275. The symbolic meaning still continues. The big 'Ifrīt had boasted of his brute strength, and his reliability. But this is not enough to transform a power (throne) based on materialism into one based on inward knowledge, knowledge of the heart and spirit, the sort of knowledge that comes from the Book of the Grace of Allah, the spirit of truth and benevolence which is the invisible magic of Prophets of Allah. Even if worldly power and common honesty may be able to effect some good, it will take a comparatively long time, while the magic of spiritual love acts instantaneously. Solomon was thankful to Allah for he had men endowed with such power, and he had the throne of Bilqīs transported to his Court and transformed as he desired, without Bilqīs even knowing it. (R).

3276. If Solomon had been ungrateful to Allah, i.e., if he had worked for his own selfish or worldly ends, he could have used the brute strength of 'Ifrīt to add to his worldly strength and glory. Instead, he uses the higher magic of the Book—or the Spirit—to transform the throne of Bilqīs for her highest good, which means also the highest good for her subjects, by the divine Light. He had the two alternatives, and he chooses the better, and he thus shows his gratitude to Allah for the Grace He had given him.

3278. The throne having been transformed, it will be a test to see whether Bilqīs recognises it as her own and accepts it of her own free will as her own, or rejects it as something alien to her, something she will not accommodate herself to. So in our life. We get used to certain habits and customs and certain ways of thought. Allah's message comes to transform us and set us on a different kind of throne, with our own active and willing consent. If we are wise, we feel honoured and grateful. If we are "obstinately rebellious", we reject it as not our own, and pine for the old slavery, as the Israelites pined for Egypt when they were under Allah's guidance in the wilderness.

It was just like this;³²⁷⁹
And knowledge was bestowed
On us in advance of this,
And we have submitted
To Allah (in Islam)."

43. And he diverted her³²⁸⁰
From the worship of others
Besides Allah: for she was (Sprung) of a people
That had no faith.

44. She was asked to enter³²⁸¹
The lofty Palace: but
When she saw it, she
Thought it was a lake
Of water, and she (tucked up)
Her skirts), uncovering her legs.
He said: "This is
But a palace paved
Smooth with slabs of glass."
She said: "O my Lord!
I have indeed wronged³²⁸²
My soul: I do (now)
Submit (in Islam), with Solomon,
To the Lord of the Worlds."

C. 171. — In Ṣāliḥ's pure preaching the evil Thamūd
(27:45-58.) Found omens of ill to themselves: in secret
They plotted to take his life, and like cowards

3279. Bilqīs stands the test. She knows it was her throne, yet not exactly the same, for it was now much better. And she is proud of her good fortune, and acknowledges, for herself and her people, with gratitude, the light which was given to them by Allah, by which they recognised Allah's prophet in Solomon and received the true Religion with all their will and heart and soul.

3280. Some Commentators and Translators adopt an alternative construction for the last clause of the last verse and the first clause of this verse. They understand the former to be spoken by Solomon and to mean, 'we had knowledge of Allah's Message and accepted it before her.' They understand the latter to mean, 'the worship of others besides Allah diverted her (from the true Religion).' If we accept the construction adopted in this Translation, the visit to Solomon confirmed the true Faith of Bilqīs and prevented her from lapsing into her ancestral false worship.

3281. Bilqīs, having been received with honour on her arrival, and having accepted the transformation of her throne, placed presumably in an outer building of the Palace, is asked to enter the great Palace itself. Its floor was made of slabs of smooth polished glass, that glistened like water. She thought it was water, and tucked up her clothes to pass through it, showing her bare feet and ankles. This was a very undignified position for a woman, especially one of the position of a Queen. Solomon immediately undeceived her, and told her the real facts, when she felt grateful, and joined herself with Solomon in praising Allah.

3282. In symbolic language, a new entrant into the Palace of divine knowledge, may yet carry in his mind many of the illusions of the lower world. the transparent crystal of Truth he may yet mistake for the unstable water of worldly vanity, which soils the vestments of those who paddle in it. This leads to many undignified positions and mistakes. But a gentle leader points out the truth. Instead of resenting it, the new entrant is grateful, acknowledges his own mistake freely and frankly, and heartily joins with the Teacher in the worship of Allah, the Source of all truth and knowledge.

They made a league to cover their crime
 With lies. Lo! on themselves recoiled
 The plot: they perished in utter ruin.
 The men admonished by Lūt were false
 To themselves: they insulted the nature given
 Them by Allah, and mocked the Message of Purity.
 Lo! they were buried in a shower of brimstone!

SECTION 4.

45. He sent (aforetime),
 To the Thamūd, their brother³²⁸³
 Ṣāliḥ, saying: "Serve Allah";
 But behold, they became
 Two factions quarrelling
 With each other.

٣٥- وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَى ثَمُودَ أَخَاهُمْ

 good?"³²⁸⁴

٣٦- قَالَ يَقَوْمِ لِمَ تَسْتَعْجِلُونَ

 لَوْ لَا تَسْتَغْفِرُونَ اللَّهَ لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُونَ ○

47. They said: "Ill omen
 Do we augur from thee
 And those that are with thee".
 He said: "Your ill omen
 Is with Allah, yea, ye are
 A people under trial."³²⁸⁵

٣٧- قَالُوا أَظْهَرَ نَايِكَ وَبَيْنَ مَعَكَ
 قَالَ طَرَفُكُمْ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ
 بَلْ أَنْتُمْ قَوْمٌ تُفْتَنُونَ ○

48. There were in the City
 Nine men of a family
 Who made mischief in the land,
 And would not reform.³²⁸⁶

٣٨- وَكَانَ فِي الْمَدِينَةِ تِسْعَةُ رَهْطٍ
 يُفْسِدُونَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَلَا يُصْلِحُونَ ○

3285. All evil unpunished is not evil condoned, but evil given a chance for reform. They are on trial, by the mercy of Allah. What they call "ill omen" is really the just punishment for their ill-deeds, and that punishment rests with Allah.

3286. They had made up their minds to wage a relentless war against justice. They did not destroy justice, but justice destroyed them.

49. They said: "Swear
A mutual oath by Allah
That we shall make
A secret night attack
On him and his people,³²⁸⁷
And that we shall then
Say to his heir (when he Seeks vengeance): 'We were not Present at the slaughter
Of his people, and we are
Positively telling the truth.' "

٣٩- قَالُوا تَقَاسَمُوا بِاللّٰهِ
لَنَنبِئَنَّهُ وَاهْلَهُ
ثُمَّ لَنَقُولَنَّ لَوْ يَدَّيْنَاهُ مَا شَهِدْنَا مَهْلِكَ
اهْلِهِ
وَإِنَّا لَصٰدِقُوْنَ ۝

50. They plotted and planned,³²⁸⁸
But We too planned,
Even while they perceived it not.

٥٠- وَ مَكْرُوْا مَكْرًا وَّ مَكْرَنَا مَكْرًا
وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُوْنَ ۝

51. Then see what was the end
Of their plot!—this,
That We destroyed them
And their people, all (of them).

٥١- فَانْظُرْ كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ مَكْرِهِمْ
اِنَّا دَمَرْنَاهُمْ وَقَوْمَهُمْ اَجْمَعِيْنَ ۝

52. Now such were their houses—
In utter ruin—because
They practised wrongdoing.
Verily in this is a Sign
For people of knowledge.

٥٢- فَبَلَكَ بُيُوْتُهُمْ خَاوِيَةً بِمَا ظَلَمُوْا
اِنَّ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَاٰيَةً لِّقَوْمٍ يَعْلَمُوْنَ ۝

53. And We saved those
Who believed and practised
Righteousness.

٥٣- وَ اُنْجَيْنَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَكَانُوْا يَتَّقُوْنَ ۝

54. (He also sent) Lūt³²⁸⁹
(As a messenger): behold,
He said to his people,
"Do ye do what is shameful
Though ye see (its iniquity)?

٥٤- وَلُوْطًا اِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهٖ
اَتَاْتُوْنَ الْفٰحِشَةَ
وَاَنْتُمْ تَبْصُرُوْنَ ۝

3287. A most dastardly plot, because (1) it was to be secret, (2) by night, (3) taking their victims unawares, and (4) because careful provision was made that they should all tell lies together, saying that they knew nothing about it, in order to evade the vengeance which Šālih's heirs (if any were left) or his tribe might want to exact! And yet such were exactly the plots laid against the Holy Prophet himself.

3288. Cf. 3:54. Their secret plotting is all known to Allah, but of Allah's just and beneficent plans they know nothing. And the wicked must come to an evil end.

3289. The story of Lūt is referred to elsewhere. The passages to which reference may be made here are: 26:160-175, and 7:80-84. But the point emphasised here is that the crime of the Cities of the Plain was against their own nature, and they saw its enormity, and yet they indulged in it. Can degradation go further? His wife was not apparently a Believer. Her previous sympathy with the sinful people "destined her" (verse 57 below) to a miserable end, as she lagged behind and shared in the destruction of her kinsfolk.

55. Would ye really approach men
In your lusts rather than Women? Nay, ye are
A people (grossly) ignorant!³²⁹⁰

٥٥- اَيُّكُمْ لَتَأْتُونَ الرِّجَالَ شَهْوَةً مِّنْ
دُونِ النِّسَاءِ بَلْ اَنْتُمْ قَوْمٌ تَجْهَلُونَ ٥

56. But his people gave
No other answer but this:
They said, "Drive out
The followers of Lūt from
Your city: these are Indeed men who want
To be clean and pure!"³²⁹¹

٥٦- فَمَا كَانَ جَوَابَ قَوْمِهِ اِلَّا
اَنْ قَالُوا اُخْرِجُوْا
اِلَ لُّوطٍ مِّنْ قَرْيَتِكُمْ
اِنَّهُمْ اَنَاسٌ يَّتَطَهَّرُوْنَ ٥

57. But We saved him
And his family, except
His wife: her We destined
To be of those
Who lagged behind.

٥٧- فَاَنْجَيْنَاهُ وَاَهْلَهُ اِلَّا امْرَاَتَهُ
فَدَّرَنَاهَا مِنَ الْغَابِرِينَ ٥

58. And We rained down on them
A shower (of brimstone):
And evil was the shower
On those who were admonished
(But heeded not)!

٥٨- وَامْطَرْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ مَطَرًا
فَسَاءَ مَطَرُ الْمُنْذَرِينَ ٥

C. 172. — Allah's goodness and mercy are manifest
(27:59-93.) Through all nature and in the heart and conscience
Of man. He alone knows all: our knowledge
Can at best be partial. Yet we can travel
Through space and time and see how Evil
Never prospered. Allah teaches us good,
But how can we see if we make ourselves blind?
At the end of all things shall we know how small
Is our state, but for Allah's Grace: let us bow
To His Will and accept His true guidance:
Let us praise Him and trust Him—now and forever!

3290. The ignorance referred to here is the spiritual ignorance, the ignorance of how grossness and sins that bring shame on their own physical and moral nature are doomed to destroy them: it is their own loss. That they knew the iniquity of their sins has already been stated in the last verse. That knowledge makes their spiritual ignorance all the more culpable, just as a man consciously deceiving people by half-truths is a greater liar than a man who tells lies inadvertently.

3291. Cf. 7:82-84. Instead of being ashamed on account of the consciousness of their own guilt, they attack the pure ones with their sarcasm, as if not they but the pure ones were in the wrong, trying to set them on the right way.

SECTION 5.

59. Say: Praise be to Allah,
And Peace on His servants³²⁹²
Whom He has chosen
(For His Message). (Who)
Is better?—Allah or
The false gods they associate
(With Him)?

٥٩- قُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ وَسَلَامٌ عَلَىٰ عِبَادِهِ
الَّذِينَ اصْطَفٰٓ
اَللّٰهُ خَيْرٌ اَمَّا يُشْرِكُوْنَ ۝

60. Or, who has created³²⁹³
The heavens and the earth,
And who sends you down
Rain from the sky?
Yea, with it We cause
To grow well-planted orchards
Full of beauty and delight:
It is not in your power
To cause the growth³²⁹⁴
Of the trees in them. (Can there be Another) god besides Allah?
Nay, they are a people
Who swerve from justice.

٦٠- اَمَّنْ خَلَقَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضَ
وَاَنْزَلَ لَكُم مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ مَآءً
فَاَنْبَتْنَا بِهِۦ حَدَآئِقَ ذَاتَ بَهْجَةٍ
مَا كَانَ لَكُمْ اَنْ تُنْبِتُوْا شَجَرَهَا
ءَالِهَةٌ مَّعَ اللّٰهِ
بَلْ هُمْ قَوْمٌ يَعْدِلُوْنَ ۝

61. Or, who has made the earth
Firm to live in; made
Rivers in its midst; set
Thereon mountains
immovable,³²⁹⁵

٦١- اَمَّنْ جَعَلَ الْاَرْضَ قَرَارًا
وَجَعَلَ فِيْهَا اَنْهَارًا وَجَعَلَ لَهَا تَوَاسِيًّٰى

3292. Allah's revelation having been described as Light, Guidance, and Mercy, we ought all to be grateful to Allah for vouchsafing His revelation. We ought also to appreciate the services of Allah's Messengers, who are chosen to deliver His Message: we ought to send salutations of Peace on them, instead of plotting, as the wicked do, for their removal or persecution, or banishment or death, for these Prophets of Allah undergo every kind of hardship and forego every kind of advantage or pleasure in life for serving mankind. And Allah is truth and goodness, and all our fancies of false worship are falsehoods and evils. Shall we prefer falsehood and evil to truth and goodness? (R).

3294. To make a single seed germinate and grow into a tree is beyond man's power. When it comes to a great well-laid-out garden of beauty and delight, no one would think it grew up of itself without a gardener's consummate art. And the orchard is more than the trees in it: there is design and beauty in their arrangement; proper spaces have to be left between them for the growth of their roots, for the aeration of the soil beneath them, and for the penetration of air and sunlight between their branches. How can anyone then think of the wonderful universe as a whole, without thinking of the far higher Unity of Design, the evidence of the One True Allah? (R).

3295. Cf. 16:15 and notes 2038 and 2039. The terra firma, the flowing water, and the cycle of water circulation—sea, vapour, clouds, rain, rivers, and sea again—all one and yet all distinct, with a sort of wonderful barrier between salt water and fresh water: can man see all this and yet be ignorant of Allah?

And made a separating bar
Between the two bodies³²⁹⁶
Of flowing water?
(Can there be another) god
Besides Allah? Nay, most
Of them know not.

Distressed when it calls
On Him, and who relieves³²⁹⁷

Besides Allah? Little it is That ye heed!

۞-۶۲- أَمَّنْ يُجِيبُ الْمُضْطَرَّ إِذَا دَعَاهُ

۞-۶۴- أَمَّنْ يَبْدَأُ الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُ

عَالَهُ مَعَ اللَّهِ
قُلْ هَاتُوا بُرْهَانَكُمْ إِن كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ۝

3296. Cf. 25:53 and notes 3111 and 3112.

3297. Besides the evidence of external nature, there is still more intimate evidence in man's inner conscience and heart. Allah listens to man's cry of agony and relieves his suffering, and He has given him superiority over other creation on this earth, through his mind and soul. Is man then going to run after inferior beings and forget Allah?

3298. Cf. 6:165, n. 988.

3299. Cf. 25:48, n. 3104. After external nature, our attention was drawn to our inner consciousness; after that, it is drawn here to our social and collective life, in which we use the forces of nature for international intercourse, trade, agriculture, production, and economic well-being generally. In the next verse, we are asked to contemplate creation from its primeval stages, through its intermediate processes, to the final Destiny in a new creation—a new heaven and a new earth.

3300. Cf. 10:34, and n. 1428.

3301. Sustenance: of course in the spiritual as well as the material sense.

3302. All the arguments point to the Unity of Allah: there is none whatever against it.

65. Say: None in the heavens
Or on earth, except Allah,
Knows what is hidden:³³⁰³
Nor can they perceive
When they shall be raised
Up (for Judgement).
66. Still less can their knowledge
Comprehend the Hereafter: nay,
They are in doubt and uncertainty
Thereanent; nay, they are blind
Thereunto!³³⁰⁴
- SECTION 6.
67. The Unbelievers say: "What!
When we become dust—
We and our fathers—shall we Really be raised (from the dead)?"
68. "It is true we were promised
This—we and our fathers
Before (us): these are nothing
But tales of the ancients."
69. Say: "Go ye through the earth
And see what has been
The end of those guilty
(Of sin)."³³⁰⁵
70. But grieve not over them,
Nor distress thyself
Because of their plots.³³⁰⁶
71. They also say: "When will
This promise (come to pass)?
(Say) if ye are truthful."

٦٥- قُلْ لَا يَعْلَمُ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ

٧٠- وَلَا تَحْزَنْ عَلَيْهِمْ
وَلَا تَكُنْ فِي ضَيْقٍ مِمَّا يَمْكُرُونَ ○

٧١- وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَى هَذَا الْوَعْدُ
إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ○

3303. The existence of Allah is certain. But nothing else can be known with certainty to our knowledge. He has told us of the Hereafter, and therefore we know it is true. But those who do not believe in Allah—what knowledge or certainty can they have? Even when it is actually coming, they will not have the sense to perceive it.

3304. The Unbelievers are generally materialists, who cannot go beyond the evidence of their physical senses. As to a spiritual vision of the future, their physical senses would only leave them in doubt and uncertainty, while their rejection of the spiritual Light makes them blind altogether to the spiritual world.

3305. Even if the Unbelievers are willing to take any mystic doctrine, they have only to observe what has actually happened on the earth, and they will see that evil always came to an evil end, and that Truth and righteousness ultimately won.

3306. Cf. 16:127, and n. 2164. The righteous need not worry over the unjust. The plots of the unjust can never defeat or deflect the purpose of Allah.

72. Say: "It may be that
Some of the events which
Ye wish to hasten on
May be (close) in your pursuit!"³³⁰⁷

73. But verily thy Lord is
Full of grace to mankind:
Yet most of them are ungrateful.

74. And verily thy Lord knoweth
All that their hearts do hide,
As well as all that
They reveal.

75. Nor is there aught

Or earth, but is (recorded)³³⁰⁸
In a clear record.

76. Verily this Qur'ān doth explain
To the Children of Israel

77. And it certainly is
A Guide and a Mercy

٤٨- إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَقْضِي بَيْنَهُمْ بِحُكْمِهِ
وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْعَلِيمُ ○

3307. The Unbelievers—or even men of halfhearted faith—may say, "Why worry over distant future events? Take the day as it comes!" But that is a fallacy. Judgement is certain, and it may be that this very hour may be the hour of doom for any given individual. This is the hour of repentance and amendment. For Allah wishes well to all mankind in spite of their ingratitude.

3308. Cf. 22:70, 36:12, 57:22. [Eds.].

3309. The Jews had numerous sects. Some were altogether out of the pale, e.g., the Samaritans, who had a separate Tawrah of their own: they hated the other Jews and were hated by them. But even in the orthodox body, there were several sects, of which the following may be mentioned: (1) the Pharisees, who were literalists, formalists, and fatalists, and had a large body of traditional literature, with which they overlaid the Law of Moses; (2) the Sadducees, who were rationalists, and seemed to have doubted the doctrine of the Resurrection or of a Hereafter; (3) the Essenes, who practised a sort of Communism and Asceticism and prohibited marriage. About many of their doctrines they had bitter disputes, which were settled by the Qur'ān, which supplemented and perfected the Law of Moses. It also explained clearly the attributes of Allah and the nature of Revelation, and the doctrine of the Hereafter.

3310. 'Decree': hukm: the disputes between rival sects can only be settled by the Decree of Allah—(1) in the form of a Revelation, as was done by the Qur'ān, or (2) by the logic of events, for hundreds of sects have been extinguished and forgotten in the course of time, and (3) in the Decree of Judgement in the Hereafter, when all warring sects will at length see their errors.

79. So put thy trust in Allah:

81. Nor canst thou be a guide

٨١- وَمَا أَنْتَ بِهَادٍ الْعُمْيَ عَنْ ضَلَالَتِهِمْ

82. And when the Word is³³¹²

٨٢- وَإِذَا وَقَعَ الْقَوْلُ عَلَيْهِمْ

SECTION 7.

83. One Day We shall gather
Together from every people

Our Signs, and they shall
Be kept in ranks—

٨٣- وَيَوْمَ نَخْشُرُ مِنْ كُلِّ أُمَّةٍ

3311. The Prophet's responsibility was to preach and show the way. Men and women of good will had faith and accepted the Message. But he was not responsible for the obstinacy and perversity of men who turned away from Allah's Signs and rejected the Truth.

3312. The Word: the Decree or Sentence, the Decision to end the respite and restore the true values of right and wrong in a new world: their cup of iniquity will then have been full.

3313. The Beast will be one of the Signs of the Last Day to come, before the present World passes away and the new World is brought into being. In symbolic language it would represent gross Materialism. It will be the embodiment of fat worldly triumph, which will appeal to a misguided and degenerate world, because such a corrupt world will have no assured belief in the Signs of Allah or in spiritual Light. It will itself be a Sign or Portent, closing the door or repentance. I do not know whether this Beast has any reference to the symbolism in chapter xii of the Book of Revelation, which closes the New Testament. If taklimuhum is read instead of tukallimuhum, it would mean that the Beast would wound them, symbolically, that Materialism would produce its own Nemesis.

84. Until, when they come
(Before the Judgement Seat),
(Allah) will say: "Did ye
Reject My Signs, though ye³³¹⁴
Comprehended them not
In knowledge, or what
Was it ye did?"

٨٤- حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءُو
قَالَ أَكْذَبْتُمْ بِآيَاتِي وَلَمْ
تَحِيطُوا بِهَا عِلْمًا أَمَّا ذَا كُنْتُمْ
تَعْمَلُونَ ○

85. And the Word will be³³¹⁵
Fulfilled against them, because
Of their wrongdoing, and they
Will be unable to speak

٨٥- وَوَقَعَ الْقَوْلُ عَلَيْهِمْ بِمَا

86. See they not that We

That believe!

٨٦- أَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّا جَعَلْنَا اللَّيْلَ

87. And the Day that the Trumpet
Will be sounded—then will be
Smitten with terror those
Who are in the heavens,
And those who are on earth,
Except such as Allah will please
(To exempt): and all shall come
To His (Presence) as beings
Conscious of their lowliness.³³¹⁷

٨٧- وَيَوْمَ يُنْفَخُ فِي الصُّورِ
فَقَرَعَمَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَنْ فِي

88. Thou seest the mountains
And thinkest them firmly fixed:³³¹⁸

٨٨- وَتَرَى الْجِبَالَ تَحْسَبُهَا جَامِدَةً

3314. The charge against them will be: 'You had no knowledge, and yet you arrogantly rejected My Signs: is that true, or have you any plea in your defence?'

3315. There will be no plea, because the charge will be only too true. The Decree will be passed and executed.

3316. Night, Day, Rest, and Light: both in the literal and the symbolic sense. Any one with a scrap of faith or spiritual insight could see that the Night is a blessing when used for rest and a curse when used to cover ignorance or sin; and that the Day is for work and enlightenment, and its misuse is gross ingratitude to Allah. Or, understand Truth and practise Righteousness while it is yet Light and the Message of Allah is here to guide you: for there comes the Night when Endeavour will cease and there will be no room for Repentance.

3317. Arrogance will flee with Ignorance, and Self will see itself in its true place—that of humility and lowliness—when the scales of ignorance fall from its eyes.

3318. This is so in the present phase of phenomenal things, both literally and figuratively. There seems nothing more firm or fixed or permanent than the "eternal hills": yet when the new order of things comes and the new World is brought into being, they will be as flimsy and insubstantial as clouds. So, in the revelation of things in the spiritual World, persons or things or ideas that seem so great and so firmly established now will pass away like mere fancies and give way to the Reality of Allah.

But they shall pass away
As the clouds pass away:
(Such is) the artistry of Allah,
Who disposes of all things³³¹⁹
In perfect order: for He is Well acquainted with all that ye do.

وَهُنَّ تَمْوِجُ السَّحَابِ

And they will be secure
From terror that Day.

91. For me, I have been
Commanded to serve the Lord³³²²
Of this City, Him Who has
Sanctified it and to Whom (Belong) all things:
And I am commanded
To be of those who bow
In Islam to Allah's Will—

٩١- إِنَّمَا أُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَعْبُدَ رَبَّ
هَذِهِ الْبَلَدِ الَّذِي حَرَّمَهَا
لَهُ كُلُّ شَيْءٍ
وَأُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ ○

92. And to rehearse the Qur'ān:³³²³
And if any accept guidance,

٩٢- وَأَنْ أَتْلُو الْقُرْآنَ فَمِنْ أُمَّتِي

3319. Atqana: to arrange or dispose of things with art, or so as to obtain the most perfect results. The present phenomenal world and the Future that is to be, all have a definite object and purpose in the Plan of Allah, Who knows perfectly what we are, what we do, what we think, and what we need. Who can praise His artistry enough?

3320. Headlong: it may be that the very things of which we were proudest, which we considered foremost in our present order of the world, will be the first to go into the Fire, as they are but the window-dressing (i.e., faces) of Evil.

3321. There will be no punishment except such as has been deserved by actual conduct in the present life of probation.

3322. The Lord of this City. This was spoken in Makkah, say about the 5th year before the Hijrah, when the Holy Prophet and his adherents were being persecuted as enemies to the cult of Makkah. So far from being against the true spirit of the Holy City of Makkah, it was actually in furtherance of that spirit, which had been overlaid by the idolatries and abominations of the Pagan Quraysh. They are told that the new Teaching is from the Lord of Makkah itself, the One True God, Who had sanctified it in the time of Abraham. Lest they should think that it was a local or tribal or narrow cult, it is added that He is not only Lord of this city, but Lord of the Worlds, "to Whom belong all things". It is a universal message: but how sad it would be if the Makkans, among whom it came first, were to reject it?

3323. The duty of the Prophet and his adherents was, first, to accept Islam and become themselves shining examples of Allah's grace and mercy, as they in fact were, and secondly to preach that message and spread that Light to all around. It was not for them to force it on unwilling people: for any who rejected it would find their own spiritual loss in such rejection. But they must clearly warn them of the consequences.

They do it for the good
Of their own souls,
And if any stray, say:
"I am only a Warner".

93. And say: "Praise be to Allah,
Who will soon show you³³²⁴
His Signs, so that ye
Shall know them"; and thy Lord
Is not unmindful
Of all that ye do.³³²⁵

فَأَنذَرْتُكُمْ لِيَهْتَدِي لِنَفْسِهِ وَمَنْ ضَلَّ فَقُلْ

٩٣- وَقُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ سَيُرِيكُمْ
آيَاتِهِ فَتَعْرِفُونَهَا
وَمَا رَبُّكَ بِغَافِلٍ عَمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ ۝

3324. In a few years after that, many wonderful things happened that removed the doubts of the doubters and confirmed the faith of the Believers. They showed how the logic of events proved the true mission of the holy Prophet. Other things some minds may not be able to grasp. But the logic of events is for all to see.

3325. Trials and tribulations, persecution and exile, and the patient endurance and constancy with which they were met by the Believers—all are known to Allah and will be credited to their spiritual account.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 28—AL QASAS

This Sūrah continues the subject of Revelation and its reception by those to whom it is sent. But it emphasises new points: how the recipient of inspiration is prepared for his high destiny, even in the growth of his ordinary life, and how the rejection of Allah's Message by groups of men or by individuals is caused by overweening arrogance or avarice. The plight of those who reject the Truth is contrasted with the reward of the righteous.

With the possible exception of a few verses, it belongs to the late Makkan period, just preceding the Hijrah.

Summary—Pharaoh was arrogant and unjust, but Allah's Plan was to strengthen the weak: in infancy Moses was prepared for his mission; in youth he trusted in the Lord and was guided; in his exile he found help and love; and when he was called, he was supported by Allah (28:1-42, and C. 173).

So was the Holy Prophet Muḥammad fed spiritually by Allah's Grace, and his Revelation was recognised by those who knew the earlier Revelations: it came to an old and sacred Centre, to warn those seduced by this world's life (28:43-60, and C. 174).

The Future is with those who repent, have faith, and do good: for all Mercy and Truth are with Allah (28:61-75, and C. 175).

But men puffed up with wealth, like Qārūn, will come to an evil end, while the lowly and the righteous will attain Allah's Mercy (28:76-88, C. 176).

C. 173.—Allah's Messengers are men, and win through good life
 (28:1-42.) By Allah's Grace and their Faith. So Moses
 Was saved from the Tyrant's wrath in infancy,
 And reared in the Tyrant's own den, but gently
 In a mother's love. In youth was he endowed
 With wisdom and knowledge; strength and the will
 To do right. In sorrow or misfortune
 He trusted on Allah and opened his heart
 To Him. On self-imposed exile he won
 Love by his chivalry and confidence by Truth.
 In his mission he triumphed over arrogant .
 Wrong by his meekness, patience, and Faith.
 So good follows good, and Evil must fall.
 Cursed, loathed, disgraced, and despised.

3326. See n. 3137 to 26:1.

3327. See n. 3138 to 26:2.

3328. The part of the story of Moses told here is how Moses and his mother were guided in the child's infancy, that even as he grew up, he might be prepared for his high destiny; how in youth he trusted Allah in the most awkward situations and sought his help; how he fled into exile, and yet found love and support because of his well-doing; and how, when he was called to his mission, he received Allah's favour, which defeated all the plots of his enemies. Thus Allah's Plan works continuously in the web of events. Those who have faith will thus see the hand of Allah in everything and welcome the light that comes to them by Revelation. With such a Faith there is no room for Chance or blind Fate. (R).

3330. What Pharaoh wished was to crush them. But Allah's Plan was to protect them as they were weak, and indeed to make them custodians and leaders in His Faith, and to give them in inheritance a land "flowing with milk and honey". Here they were established in authority for such time as they followed Allah's Law. As regards Pharaoh and his ministers and hosts, they were to be shown that they would suffer, at the hands of the Israelites, the very calamities against which they were so confidently taking precautions for themselves.

To make them leaders (in faith)
And make them heirs,

6. To establish a firm place
For them in the land,
And to show Pharaoh, Hāmān,³³³¹
And their hosts, at their hands,
The very things against which
They were taking precautions.³³³²

7. So We sent this inspiration
To the mother of Moses:
"Suckle (thy child), but when
Thou hast fears about him,
Cast him into the river,³³³³
But fear not nor grieve:
For We shall restore him
To thee, and We shall make Him one of Our messengers."

8. Then the people of Pharaoh
Picked him up (from the river):
(It was intended) that (Moses)
Should be to them an adversary
And a cause of sorrow:³³³⁴
For Pharaoh and Hāmān
And (all) their hosts were
Men of sin.

9. The wife of Pharaoh said:
"(Here is) a joy of the eye,³³³⁵

وَجَعَلَهُمْ آيَةً ۖ وَجَعَلَهُمُ الْوَارِثِينَ ۝

٦- وَثَبَّحْنَاهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ

٧- وَأَوْحَيْنَا إِلَىٰ أُمِّ مُوسَىٰ
أَنْ أَرْضِعِيهِ ۖ فَإِذَا خِفْتِ عَلَيْهِ

٨- فَالْتَقَطَهُ آلُ فِرْعَوْنَ

إِنَّ فِرْعَوْنَ وَهَامَانَ

٩- وَقَالَتِ امْرَأَتُ فِرْعَوْنَ قُرْتُ عَيْنٍ

3331. Hāmān was evidently Pharaoh's minister, not to be confounded with a Hāmān who is mentioned in the Old Testament (Esther iii. 1), as a minister of Ahasuerus (Xerxes) King of Persia, the same who invaded Greece, and ruled from B.C. 485 to 464.

3332. Pharaoh was trying to kill the Israelites. Instead, the Plagues of Egypt, invoked by Moses, killed thousands of Egyptians (7:133, and notes 1091-92), because "they were steeped in arrogance,—a people given to sin." In pursuing the Israelites in their fight, Pharaoh and his army were themselves overwhelmed in the sea.

3333. The Egyptian midwives had orders to kill Israelite babies. Moses was saved from them, and his mother nursed the infant at her breast herself. But when the danger of discovery was imminent, she put him into a chest or basket, and floated him on the river Nile. It flowed by the King's palace, and the chest with the baby was picked up, as related further on. The mother had no cause to fear or grieve afterwards, as the child grew up under her tender care and became afterwards one of the Prophets of Allah.

3334. This was the Plan of Providence; that the wicked might cast a net round themselves by fostering the man who was to bring them to naught and be the instrument of their punishment—or (looking at it from the other side) that Moses might learn all the wisdom of the Egyptians in order to expose all that was hollow and wicked in it.

3335. He was a darling to look at, and Pharaoh had apparently no son, but only a daughter, who afterwards shared his throne. This is on the supposition that the Pharaoh was Thothmes I (see Appendix IV. S. 7).

For me and for thee:
Slay him not. It may be
That he will be of use
To us, or we may adopt
Him as a son." And they Perceived not (what they Were doing)!³³³⁶

10. But there came to be
A void in the heart
Of the mother of Moses:
She was going almost to Disclose his (case), had We
Not strengthened her heart
(With faith), so that she Might remain a (firm) believer.³³³⁷

11. And she said to the sister
Of (Moses), "Follow him",
So she (the sister) watched him
In the character of a stranger.
And they knew not.

12. And We ordained that he Refused suck at first, until (His sister came up
And) said: "Shall I
Point out to you the people
Of a house that will nourish
And bring him up for you³³³⁸
And be sincerely attached
To him?" . . .

13. Thus did We restore him
To his mother, that her eye
Might be comforted, that she Might not grieve, and that
She might know that the promise

١٣- فَرَدَدْنٰہٗ اِلَیْ اُمِّہٖ کَیْ تَقَرَّ عَیْنُہَا وَ

3336. In all life Providence so orders things that Evil is defeated by its own weapons. Not only is it defeated, but it actually, though unwittingly, advances the cause of Good! In non-religious language this is called the work of the Ironic Fates. If Thomas Hardy had not made Napoleon the Puppet of Fate in his "Dynasts", he could well have taken Pharaoh as an illustration of the Irony of Fate, or, as we should prefer to call it, the working of the Universal Plan of Allah. (R).

3337. The mother's heart felt the gaping void at parting from her son; but her Faith in Allah's Providence kept her from betraying herself.

3338. For you: i.e., on your behalf. Thus Moses got the benefit of his mother's milk (symbolical of all the traditions and spiritual heritage of his ancestry and his people) as well as the prestige and the opportunities of being brought up in the royal family, with the best of teachers to teach him Egyptian wisdom. In addition, there was the comfort to his mother.

Of Allah is true; but Most of them do not understand.³³³⁹

SECTION 2.

14. When he reached full age,
And was firmly established³³⁴⁰
(In life), We bestowed on him
Wisdom and knowledge: for thus
Do We reward those
Who do good.

15. And he entered the City
At a time when its people³³⁴¹
Were not watching: and he Found there two men fighting—
One of his own people,
And the other, of his foes.
Now the man of his own
People appealed to him
Against his foe, and Moses
Struck him with his fist³³⁴²
And made an end of him.
He said: "This is a work
Of Evil (Satan): for he is
An enemy that manifestly
Misleads!"

16. He prayed: "O my Lord!
I have indeed wronged my soul!
Do Thou then forgive me!"

اللَّهُ حَقٌّ وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ٥

١٤- وَلَمَّا بَلَغَ أَشُدَّهُ
وَاسْتَوَىٰ آتَيْنَاهُ حُكْمًا وَعِلْمًا
وَكَذَٰلِكَ نَجْزِي الْمُحْسِنِينَ ٥

١٥- وَدَخَلَ الْمَدِينَةَ عَلَىٰ حِينٍ غَفْلَةٍ
مِّنْ أَهْلِهَا فَوَجَدَ فِيهَا رَجُلَيْنِ يَقْتَتِلَانِ
هَٰذَا مِنْ شِيعَتِهِ وَهَٰذَا مِنْ عَدُوِّهِ
فَاسْتَعَاثَ الَّذِي مِنْ شِيعَتِهِ عَلَى الَّذِي
مِنْ عَدُوِّهِ
فَوَكَرَهُ مُوسَىٰ فَقَضَىٰ عَلَيْهِ
قَالَ هَٰذَا مِنْ عَمَلِ الشَّيْطَانِ
إِنَّهُ عَدُوٌّ مُّضِلٌّ مُّبِينٌ ٥

١٦- قَالَ رَبِّ إِنِّي ظَلَمْتُ نَفْسِي
فَاغْفِرْ لِي

3339. Allah's promise is always true, but short-sighted people, if they are a little thwarted in their plan, do not understand that Allah's wisdom, power, and goodness are far more comprehensive than any little plans which they may form.

3340. Full age may be taken to be mature youth, say between 18 and 30 years of age. By that time a person is fully established in life: his physical build is completed, and his mental and moral habits are formed. In this case, as Moses was good at heart, true and loyal to his people, and obedient and just to those among whom he lived, he was granted wisdom and knowledge from on high, to be used for the times of conflict which were coming for him. His internal development being complete, he now goes out into the outer world, where he is again tried and proved, until he gets his divine commission.

3341. That may have been either the time of the noontide siesta, when all business is suspended even now in Egypt, or the time of night, when people are usually asleep. The latter is more probable, in view of verse 18 below. But there is also another suggestion. A guest in a Palace is not free to wander about at will in the plebeian quarters of the City at all sorts of hours, and this applies even more to an inmate of the Palace brought up as a son. Moses was therefore visiting the City privately and eluding the guards. His object may have been to see for himself how things were going on; perhaps he had heard that his people were being oppressed, as we may suppose that he had retained contact with his mother.

3342. His object was apparently to strike him so as to release the Israelite, not to kill the Egyptian. In fact he killed the Egyptian. This was unfortunate in more ways than one. His visit to the City was clandestine; he had taken the side of the weaker and despised party; and he had taken the life of an Egyptian. He was full of regrets and repentance, and he prayed to Allah, and obtained Allah's forgiveness.

So (Allah) forgave him: For He Is the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

فَغَفَرْلَهُ ۚ إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ ۝

17. He said: "O my Lord!
For that Thou hast bestowed
Thy Grace on me, never Shall I be a help
To those who sin!"³³⁴³

۱۷- قَالَ رَبِّ بِمَا أَنْعَمْتَ عَلَيَّ
فَلَنْ أَكُونَ ظَهِيرًا لِلْمُجْرِمِينَ ۝

18. So he saw the morning
In the City, looking about,
In a state of fear, when
Behold, the man who had,
The day before, sought his help
Called aloud for his help
(Again). Moses said to him:
"Thou art truly, it is clear,
A quarrelsome fellow!"³³⁴⁴

۱۸- فَأَصْبَحَ فِي الْمَدِينَةِ خَائِفًا يَتَرَقَّبُ
فَإِذَا الَّذِي اسْتَنْصَرَهُ بِالْأَمْسِ
يَسْتَصْرِخُهُ
قَالَ لَهُ مُوسَى
إِنَّكَ لَغَوِيٌّ مُبِينٌ ۝

19. Then, when he decided to lay
Hold of the man who was³³⁴⁵
An enemy to both of them,
That man said: "O Moses!
Is it thy intention to slay me
As thou slewest a man
Yesterday? Thy intention is None other than to become
A powerful violent man
In the land, and not to be
One who sets things right!"³³⁴⁶

۱۹- فَلَمَّا أَنْ أَرَادَ أَنْ يَبْطِشَ بِالَّذِي
هُوَ عَدَاؤُ لَهُمَا
قَالَ لِمُوسَى أَتُرِيدُ أَنْ تَقْتُلَنِي
كَمَا قَتَلْتَ نَفْسًا بِالْأَمْسِ ۖ إِنْ تُرِيدُ
إِلَّا أَنْ تَكُونَ جَبَّارًا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا
تُرِيدُ أَنْ تَكُونَ مِنَ الْمَصْلُحِينَ ۝

3343. He takes a conscious and solemn vow to dedicate himself to Allah, and to do nothing that may in any way assist those who were doing wrong. This was his general idea, but no plan had yet shaped itself in his mind, until a second catastrophe brought matters to a head, and he was plunged in adventure.

3344. The man was an Israelite. But Moses was himself in a distracted mood, for the reasons given in n. 3342 above, and he was exasperated at this public appeal to him again.

3345. When Moses considered further that the Egyptian was unjust and that the Egyptian was an enemy to Israel generally (including both Moses and the man assaulted), he was going to intervene again, when he received a double warning, one from the Egyptian who was fighting, and the other from some man (Israelite or Egyptian) who was friendly to him, as explained below. We may suppose that after the first day's fight, there had been a great deal of talk in the bazaars, both among Israelites and Egyptians. Probably the Israelites were elated at finding a champion—perhaps more elated than they should have been, and in a provocative mood, which deserved Moses' rebuke. Probably the Egyptians had discussed who this new champion was, and had already appraised the Palace, to which Moses had not dared to return.

3346. The Egyptian saw the tactical advantage of his position. In effect he said: 'We have found out all about you. You live in the Palace, and yet you come clandestinely and kill our Egyptians. Are you going to do the same with me? You are nothing but a bully! And you talk of setting things right! That is what you should do if you were true to your salt!'

20. And there came a man,
Running, from the furthest end³³⁴⁷
Of the City. He said:
"O Moses! the Chiefs
Are taking counsel together
About thee, to slay thee
So get thee away, for I
Do give thee sincere advice."

٢٠- وَجَاءَ رَجُلٌ مِنْ أَقْصَا الْمَدِينَةِ يَسْعَى
قَالَ يُمُوسَى إِنَّ الْمَلَائِكَةَ يَتَرَوْنَكَ
لَيَقْتُلُونَكَ فَأَخْرِجْ
لِيُكَلِّمَكَ مِنَ النَّصِيحِينَ ۝

21. He therefore got away
therefrom,³³⁴⁸
Looking about, in a state
Of fear. He prayed:
"O my Lord! save me
From people given to wrongdoing."

٢١- فَخَرَجَ مِنْهَا خَائِفًا يَتَرَقَّبُ
قَالَ رَبِّ انْجِنِي
مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ۝

SECTION 3.

22. Then, when he turned his face
Towards (the land of) Madyan,³³⁴⁹
He said: "I do hope
That my Lord will show me
The smooth and straight Path."

٢٢- وَلَمَّا تَوَجَّهَ تِلْقَاءَ مَدْيَنَ
قَالَ عَلَىٰ رَبِّي أَنِّي هُدِيْتُ سَوَاءَ
السَّبِيلِ ۝

23. And when he arrived at
The watering (place) in
Madyan,³³⁵⁰
He found there a group
Of men watering (their flocks),
And besides them he found
Two women who were keeping
Back (their flocks). He said:

٢٣- وَلَمَّا وَرَدَ مَاءَ مَدْيَنَ
وَجَدَ عَلَيْهِ أُمَّةٌ مِنَ النَّاسِ يَسْقُونَ
وَوَجَدَ مِنْ دُونِهِمُ امْرَأَتَيْنِ تَذُودَانِ
قَالَ

3347. Apparently rumours had reached the Palace, a Council had been held, and the death of Moses had been decreed!

3348. Moses saw that his position was now untenable, both in the Palace and in the City, and indeed anywhere in Pharaoh's territory. So he suffered voluntary exile. But he did not know where to go to. His mind was in a state of agitation. But he turned to Allah and prayed. He got consolation, and felt that after all it was no hardship to leave Egypt, where there was so much injustice and oppression.

3349. East of Lower Egypt, for about 300 miles, runs the Sinai Peninsula, bounded on the south by the Gulf of Suez, and on the north by what was the Isthmus of Suez, now cut by the Suez Canal. Over the Isthmus ran the highroad to Palestine and Syria, but a fugitive could not well take that road, as the Egyptians were after him. If he could, after crossing the Isthmus, plunge into the Sinai desert, east or southeast, he would be in the Midianite territory, where the people would be Arabs and not Egyptians. He turned thither, and again prayed to Allah for guidance.

3350. The first thing that a wanderer in a desert would make for would be an oasis where he could get water from a spring or well, the shade of trees against the scorching sun, and some human company. The Midianite watering place was probably a deep well, as surface springs are rare in sandy desert, where the water level is low, unless there was a hill from which issued a spring.

"What is the matter with you?"
They said: "We cannot water
(Our flocks) until the shepherds
Take back (their flocks):
And our father is
A very old man."³³⁵¹

مَا خَطْبُكُمْ أَهْلُ

24. So he watered (their flocks)
For them; then he turned back
To the shade, and said:
"O my Lord!
Truly am I
In (desperate) need
Of any good
That Thou dost send me!" . . .³³⁵²

۲۴- فَسَقَى لَهُمْ

رَبِّ إِنِّي لَمَأْزُورٌ فِي

25. Afterwards one of the (damsels)
Came (back) to him, walking
Bashfully. She said: "My father
Invites thee that he may
Reward thee for having watered³³⁵³
(Our flocks) for us." So when
He came to him and narrated
The story, he said:
"Fear thou not: (well) hast thou

۲۵- فَجَاءَتْهُ إِحْدَاهُمَا تَمْشِي عَلَى اسْتِحْيَاءٍ
قَالَتْ إِنَّ أَبِي يَدْعُوكَ لِيَجْزِيَكَ أَجْرَ
مَا سَقَيْتَ لَنَا
فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُ وَقَصَّ عَلَيْهِ الْقِصَصَ قَالَ
لَا تَحْزَنْ

3351. Here is a pretty little idyll, told in the fewest and most beautiful words possible. Moses arrives at an oasis in the desert, weary and travel-worn, with his mind full of anxiety and uncertainty owing to his recent experiences in Egypt. He was thirsty and would naturally seek water. At the well or spring he found shepherds (or perhaps goat-herds) watering their flocks. As a stranger it was not for him to thrust himself among them. He waited under the shade of a tree until they should finish. He noticed two damsels, also waiting, with their flocks, which they had come to water. His chivalry was roused. He went at once among the goat-herds, made a place for the flocks of the damsels, gave them water, and then resumed his place in the shade. They were modest maidens, and had given him in three Arabic words the key of the whole situation. 'Abūnā shaykhun kabīrun: our father is very old man, and therefore cannot come to water the flocks; we therefore do the work; we could not very well trust ourselves among these men.'

3352. The maidens are gone, with smiles on their lips and gratitude in their hearts. What were the reflections of Moses as he returned to the shade of the tree? He returned thanks to Allah for the bright little vision which he had just seen. Had he done a good deed? Precious was the opportunity he had had. He had slaked his thirst. But he was a homeless wanderer and had a longing in his soul, which he dared not put into words. Those shepherds were no company for him. He was truly like a beggar in desperate need. For any little good that came his way, he was grateful. But what was this?—this vision of a comfortable household, presided over by an old man rich in flocks and herds, and richer still in two daughters, as modest as they were beautiful? Perhaps he would never see them again! But Providence was preparing another surprise for him.

3353. Scarcely had he rested, when one of the damsels came back, walking with bashful grace! Modestly she gave her message, 'My father is grateful for what you did for us. He invites you, that he may thank you personally, and at least give some return for your kindness.'

Escaped from unjust people."³³⁵⁴

26. Said one of the (damsels):
 "O my (dear) father! engage³³⁵⁵
 Him on wages: truly the best
 Of men for thee to employ is
 The (man) who is strong and trusty" . . .³³⁵⁶

27. He said: "I intend to wed
 One of these my daughters
 To thee, on condition that
 Thou serve me for eight years;³³⁵⁷
 But if thou complete ten years,
 It will be (grace) from thee.
 But I intend not to place
 Thee under a difficulty:
 Thou wilt find me,
 Indeed, if Allah wills,
 One of the righteous."

نَجَوْتَ مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ○

٣٦- قَالَتْ إِحْدَاهُمَا يَا أَبَتِ اسْتَأْجِرْهُ

 سَتَجِدُنِي إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ○

3354. Nothing could have been more welcome than such a message, and through such a messenger. Moses went of course, and saw the old man. He found such a well-ordered patriarchal household. The old man was happy with his daughters and they with him. There was mutual confidence. They had evidently described the stranger to him in terms which made his welcome a foregone conclusion. On the other hand Moses had allowed his imagination to paint the father in something of the glorious colours in which his daughters had appeared to him like an angelic vision. The two men got to be friends at once. Moses told the old man his story—who he was, how he was brought up, and what misfortunes had made him quit Egypt. Perhaps the whole household, including the daughters, listened breathlessly to his tale. Perhaps their wonder and admiration were mingled with a certain amount of pity—perhaps with some more tender feeling in the case of the girl who had been to fetch him. Perhaps the enchantment which Desdemona felt in Othello's story was working on her. In any case the stranger had won his place in their hearts. The old man, the head of the household, assured him of hospitality and safety under his roof. As one with a long experience of life he congratulated him on his escape. 'Who would live among unjust people? It is as well you are free of them!'

3355. A little time passes. A guest after all cannot stay forever. They all felt that it would be good to have him with them permanently. The girl who had given her heart to him had spoken their unspoken thoughts. Why not employ him to tend the flocks? The father was old, and a young man was wanted to look after the flocks. And—there may be other possibilities.

3356. Strong and trusty: Moses had proved himself to be both, and these were the very qualities which a woman most admires in the man she loves.

3357. A little time passed, and at length the father broached the subject of marriage. It was not for the fugitive to suggest a permanent tie, especially when, in the wealth of this world, the girl's family was superior, and they had an established position, while he was a mere wanderer. The father asked if he would marry one of the daughters and stay with them for at least eight years, or if he liked, ten years, but the longer term was at his option. If he brought no dower, his service for that period was more than sufficient in lieu of dower. The particular girl intended was no doubt tacitly settled long before, by the mutual attraction of the young hearts themselves. Moses was glad of the proposal, and accepted it. They ratified it in the most solemn manner, by appealing to Allah. The old man, knowing the worth of his son-in-law, solemnly assured him that in any event he would not take advantage of his position to be a hard task-master or to insist on anything inconsistent with Moses's interests, should a new future open out to him. And a new and glorious future was awaiting him after his apprenticeship.

28. He said: 'Be that (the agreement)
Between me and thee:
Whichever of the two terms
I fulfil, let there be
No ill-will to me.
Be Allah a witness
To what we say.'³³⁵⁸

٢٨- قَالَ ذَلِكَ بَيْنِي وَبَيْنَكَ
أَيُّمَا الْأَجَلَيْنِ قَضَيْتُ فَلَا عُدْوَانَ عَلَيَّ
وَاللَّهُ عَلَى مَا نَقُولُ وَكِيلٌ ۝

SECTION 4.

29. Now when Moses had fulfilled
The term, and was travelling³³⁵⁹
With his family, he perceived
A fire in the direction
Of Mount Ṭur. He said
To his family: "Tarry ye;
I perceive a fire; I hope
To bring you from there
Some information, or a burning
Firebrand, that ye may
Warm yourselves."³³⁶⁰

٢٩- فَلَمَّا قَضَىٰ مُوسَى الْأَجَلَ وَسَارَ بِأَهْلِهِ
آنَسَ مِنْ جَانِبِ الطُّورِ نَارًا
قَالَ لِأَهْلِهِ امْكُثُوا
إِنِّي آنَسْتُ نَارًا لَّعَلِّي آتِيكُمْ مِنْهَا بِخَبَرٍ
أَوْ جَذْوَةٍ مِنَ النَّارِ لَعَلَّكُمْ تَصْطَلُونَ ۝

30. But when he came
To the (Fire), a voice
Was heard from the right bank
Of the valley, from a tree³³⁶¹
In hallowed ground:
"O Moses! Verily
I am Allah, the Lord
Of the Worlds. . .

٣٠- فَلَمَّا أَتَاهَا نُودِيَ
مِنْ شَاطِئِ الْوَادِ الْأَيْمَنِ
فِي الْبُقْعَةِ الْمُبَارَكَةِ مِنَ الشَّجَرَةِ
أَنْ يُمُوسَى إِنِّي أَنَا اللَّهُ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝

3358. In patriarchal society it was not uncommon to have a marriage bargain of this kind conditional on a certain term of service. In this case the episode conveys two lessons. (1) A man destined to be a messenger of Allah is yet a man, and must pass through the ups and downs of life like any other man: only he will do it with more grace and distinction than other men. (2) The beautiful relations in love and marriage may themselves be a preparation for the highest spiritual destiny that may await a Messenger of Allah. A woman need not necessarily be a snare and a temptation: she may be the understanding help-mate that the Lady Khadījah was to the Holy Prophet.

3359. The episode in the desert, full of human interest, now closes, and we come to the threshold of the sacred Call to the divine ministry of Moses. Here we may compare this passage with that in 27:7-14 and previous passages. In this passage we are told, after reference to Moses's preparation for his high destiny, of the particular sin of Arrogance and Sacrilege of which Pharaoh was guilty (28:38-39, how it was punished, and with what instruments in the hands of Moses and Pharaoh. The notes on the earlier passage should be read, as explanations already given need not now be repeated. (R).

3360. Note how the transition is effected from the happy earthly life of Moses (with its previous earthly storm and stress) to the new spiritual storm and stress of his prophetic mission.

3361. We are to suppose the appearance of a bush burning but not consumed (Exod. iii 2), a device adopted by the Scottish Church in its armorial bearings. Scotland apparently took that emblem and motto (Nes tamen consumebatur, 'nevertheless it was not consumed') from the Synod of the Reformed Church of France, which had adopted it in 1583. (I am indebted for this information to the Rev. D.Y. Robertson, Chaplain of the Church of Scotland in Simla, India). The real explanation of the Burning Bush will be found in 27:8. n. 3245: it was not a fire, but a reflection of the Glory of God.

31. "Now do thou throw thy rod!"
But when he saw it
Moving (of its own accord)
As if it had been a snake,
He turned back in retreat,
And retraced not his steps:
"O Moses!" (it was said),
"Draw near, and fear not:
For thou art of those
Who are secure."³³⁶²

٣١- وَأَنْ أَلْقِ عَصَاكَ فَلَمَّا رَآهَا
تَهْتَزُّ كَأَنَّهَا جَانٌّ
وَلَّى مُدْبِرًا وَلَمْ يُعَقِّبْ
يُوسَى أَقْبِلْ وَلَا تَخَفْ
إِنَّكَ مِنَ الْآمِنِينَ ○

32. "Move thy hand into
Thy bosom, and it will
Come forth white without stain
(Or harm), and draw thy hand
Close to thy side
(To guard) against fear."³³⁶³
Those are the two credentials
From thy Lord to Pharaoh
And his Chiefs: for truly
They are a people
Rebellious and wicked."

٣٢- أَسْلُكْ يَدَكَ فِي جَيْبِكَ
تَخْرُجُ بَيْضًا مِنْ غَيْرِ سُوءٍ
وَاضْمُرْ إِلَيْكَ جَنَاحَكَ مِنَ الظَّهْمِ
فَذَلِكَ بُرْهَانُ مِنْ رَبِّكَ إِلَى فِرْعَوْنَ وَ
مَلَائِهِ
إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَوْمًا فَاسِقِينَ ○

33. He said: "O my Lord!
I have slain a man
Among them, and I fear"³³⁶⁴
Lest they slay me.

٣٣- قَالَ رَبِّ إِنِّي قَتَلْتُ
مِنْهُمْ نَفْسًا فَأَخَافُ أَنْ يُقَتِّلُونِ ○

43. "And my brother Aaron—
He is more eloquent in speech
Than I: so send him
With me as a helper,
To confirm (and strengthen) me:
For I fear that they may
Accuse me of falsehood."

٤٣- وَأَخِي هَارُونُ هُوَ أَفْصَحُ مِنِّي لِسَانًا
فَأَرْسَلْهُ مَعِيَ زَوْجًا مَصْدُوقًا
إِنِّي أَخَافُ أَنْ يُكَذِّبُونِ ○

3362. The verbal meaning is: "you have nothing to fear from what appears to be a snake: it is a snake, not for you, but for Pharaoh." But there is a deeper meaning besides. Moses had now been called to a higher and spiritual mission. He had to meet the hatred of the Egyptians and circumvent their trickery and magic. He had now the security of Faith: in all dangers and difficulties Allah would guide and protect him, for he was actually in Allah's service, one of the Elect.

3363. Literally, "draw thy wing close to thy side, (away) from fear". When a bird is frightened, it ruffles its wings and prepares to fly away, but when it is calm and composed, it sits with its wings drawn close to its sides, showing a mind secure from danger: Cf. also n. 2550 to 20:22.

3364. It is not that Moses is not reassured from all fear on account of the apparent snake which his rod had become, or from the sacred and unfamiliar surroundings in which he found himself. On this point his heart had been completely assured. But he is still new to his mission, and the future is obscure to his mind. Pharaoh was after him, to take his life, and apparently with good cause, because one of Pharaoh's men had been slain at his hands. And now he is commanded to go to Pharaoh and rebuke him and his Chiefs. The inner doubts and difficulties of his human mind he frankly lays before his Lord, and asks for a little human and visible support, which is granted him at once, viz.: the help of his brother Aaron.

35. He said: "We will certainly Strengthen thy arm through Thy brother, and invest you both With authority, so they Shall not be able to³³⁶⁵ Touch you: with Our Signs Shall ye triumph—you two As well as those Who follow you."³³⁶⁶

٣٥- قَالَ سَتَشُدُّ عَضُدَكَ بِأَخِيكَ
وَجَعَلُوكُمَا سُلْطَانًا
فَلَا يَصِلُونَ إِلَيْكُمَا بِآيَاتِنَا
أَنْتُمَا وَمَنِ اتَّبَعَكُمَا الْغَالِبُونَ ○

36. When Moses came to them With Our Clear Signs, they said; "This is nothing but sorcery³³⁶⁷ Faked up: never did we Hear the like among our fathers Of old!"³³⁶⁸

٣٦- فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ مُوسَى بِآيَاتِنَا بَيِّنَاتٍ قَالُوا
مَا هَذَا إِلَّا سِحْرٌ مُفْتَرًى
وَمَا سَمِعْنَا بِهَذَا فِي آبَائِنَا الْأَوَّلِينَ ○

37. Moses said: "My Lord Knows best who it is That comes with guidance From Him and whose End Will be best in the Hereafter: Certain it is that The wrongdoers will not prosper."³³⁶⁹

٣٧- وَقَالَ مُوسَى رَبِّي أَعْلَمُ
بِمَنْ جَاءَ بِالْهُدَى مِنْ عِنْدِهِ
وَمَنْ تَكُونُ لَهُ عَاقِبَةُ الدَّارِ
إِنَّهُ لَا يَفْلَحُ الظَّالِمُونَ ○

38. Pharaoh said: "O Chiefs! No god do I know for you³³⁷⁰ But myself: therefore, O Hāmān! light me a (kiln To bake bricks) out of clay,

٣٨- وَقَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ يَا أَيُّهَا الْمَلَأَ مَا عَلِمْتُ
لَكُمْ مِنْ إِلَهٍ غَيْرِي
فَاوقِدْ لِي يَهَامَنَّ عَلَى الْطِينِ

3365. To touch you: to approach you anywhere near, in the wonders and Signs that you will show them under the divine authority with which you are invested.

3366. The potency of Allah's Light is such that its divine rays reach the humblest of those who seek after Him. The Prophets can certainly work wonders, but their sincere followers in Faith can do so also in their own spheres. Wonders may appeal to people, but they are not the highest Signs of Allah's workings and they are around us every day in our lives.

3367. This is what Moses was thinking of when he had said: "They may accuse me of falsehood". To accuse the purest Truth of lying is a favourite trick of those whose chief stock in trade is deception and sorcery and catching the attention of the vulgar by arts adapted to their ignorant minds!

3368. 'As to this higher talk of the worship of the One true God, why, our ancestors have worshipped power and patronage, as concentrated in Pharaoh, from the most ancient times!'

3369. Cf. 6:135. The only argument in such a case is an appeal to Allah and to the ultimate Future. Both of these appeals require Faith. But even if you do not rely on anything so high, you can see that Falsehood or evils crystallised in ancestral customs are not going to do any one any good.

3370. Pharaoh claimed, himself, to be God—not only one god among many, but the only god: "I am your Lord Most High": 79:24. At any rate he did not see why his people should worship any one but him.

- And build me a lofty³³⁷¹
Palace, that I may mount up
To the god of Moses:
But as far as I am concerned,
I think (Moses) is a liar!"
39. And he was arrogant and insolent
In the land, beyond reason—
He and his hosts: they thought
That they would not have
To return to Us!³³⁷²
40. So We seized him
And his hosts, and We
Flung them into the sea:³³⁷³
Now behold what was the End
Of those who did wrong!
41. And We made them (but)
Leaders inviting to the Fire;
And on the Day of Judgement
No help shall they find.
42. In this world We made
A Curse to follow them:³³⁷⁴
And on the Day of Judgement
They will be among
The loathed (and despised).

C. 174. — As with Moses, so with the Prophet Muḥammad:
(28:43-60.) Revelation was given to him, by which
He knew and understood, and led men and was kind.
He was a Mercy to men, sent by Allah, to warn
Those in sin, and, by precept and example,
To bring the Light to their very doors.

3371. I understand his speech to his minister Hāmān to be sarcastic. But some Commentators have taken it very seriously and imagined that he actually thought of reaching the heavens by building lofty towers.

3372. They did not believe in the Hereafter. They did not understand that every deed must have its inevitable consequence, good, or evil, unless the Grace of Allah intervenes to save us from ourselves!

3373. Pharaoh and his hosts were drowned in the sea in their pursuit of the Israelites: see 7:130-136. They are the type of men who lead—only to Destruction. They invite, not to Peace and Happiness, but to the Fire of Wrath, mutual Envy, and Hatred.

3374. Power and patronage may be lauded by sycophants and selfish place-hunters; but when they are misused, and when their exposure causes their fall, they suffer ignominy even in this life. If they manage to escape exposure while alive, it often happens that they are found out after their death, and the curses of many generations follow those whose oppressions and wrongdoing spoiled the fair face of Allah's earth. But even this is nothing to the true Punishment that will come in the Hereafter. There, true values will be restored, and some of the highest and mightiest will be in the lowest depths of degradation.

Those who had spiritual eyes rejoiced.
And walked in Allah's ancient Way, now reopened,
Valuing the things of the Spirit as Allah's
Own gifts, to be their possession forever!

SECTION 5.

43. ~~He~~ He did reveal to Moses
The Book after We had Destroyed the earlier generations,
(To give) Insight to men,
And Guidance and Mercy,
That they might receive admonition.³³⁷⁵

45. But We raised up (new)
Generations, and long were the ages³³⁷⁷
That passed over them;
But thou wast not a dweller

Rehearsing Our Signs to them;
But it is We Who send
Messengers (with inspiration).³³⁷⁸

٣٥- وَلَكِنَّا أَنْشَأْنَا قُرُونًا

وَمَا كُنْتَ ثَاوِيًا فِي أَهْلِ مَدْيَنَ
تَتْلُو عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتِنَا
وَلَكِنَّا كُنَّا مُرْسِلِينَ ○

3375. After the destruction of the Pharaonic Tyranny and other similar Tyrannies before them, Allah began a new age of Revelation, the age of Moses and his Book. Humanity began as it were with a clean slate again. It was a full Revelation (or Sharī'ah) which may be looked at from three points of view: (1) as Light or Insight for men, so that they should not grope in darkness; (2) as a Guide to show them the Way, so that they should not be misled into wrong Paths; and (3) as a Mercy from Allah, so that by following the Way they may receive Allah's Forgiveness and Grace. In 6:91, we have a reference to Light and Guidance in connection with the Revelation of Moses, and in 6:154 we have a reference to Guidance and Mercy in the same connection. Here all three are combined, with the substitution of Baṣā'ir for Nūr. Baṣā'ir is the plural of Baṣīrah, and also be translated Proofs, as I have done in 6:104 Cf. also 7:203, n. 1175, where the word is translated "Lights".

3376. The Sinai Peninsula is in the northwest corner of Arabia. But the reference here is, I think, to the western side of the valley of Tūwā. Mount Tūr, where Moses received his prophetic commission, is on the western side of the valley.

3377. That is, there were many generations that passed between Moses and the holy Prophet. Yet he knew by inspiration of the events of those times. Even if he had lived then, he could not have known the events that took place among the Midianites, except by inspiration, as he did not dwell among them.

3378 'Though thou wast not among the Midianites, Our inspiration has told thee of the momentous events that took place among them when Moses was with them. This is itself a Sign that should make thy people understand.'

46. Nor wast thou at the side
Of (the Mountain of) Ṭur
When We called (to Moses).
Yet (art thou sent)
As a Mercy from thy Lord,
To give warning to a people³³⁷⁹
To whom no warner had come
Before thee: in order that
They may receive admonition.

۴۶- وَمَا كُنْتَ بِجَانِبِ الطُّورِ
إِذْ نَادَيْنَا وَلَكِنْ رَحْمَةً مِّن رَّبِّكَ
لِتُنذِرَ قَوْمًا مَّا أَتَاهُمْ مِّن نَّذِيرٍ
مِّن قَبْلِكَ لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ ۝

47. If (We had) not (sent thee
To the Quraysh)—in case
A calamity should seize them
For (the deeds) that their hands
Have sent forth, they might say:
“Our Lord! why didst Thou not³³⁸⁰
Send us a messenger? We Should then have followed
The Signs and been amongst
Those who believe!”

۴۷- وَلَوْ لَا أَن تُصِيبَهُمْ مُصِيبَةٌ
بِمَا قَدَّمَتْ أَيْدِيهِمْ
فَيَقُولُوا رَبَّنَا لَوْلَا
أَرْسَلْتَ إِلَيْنَا رَسُولًا
فَنَتَّبِعَ آيَاتِكَ وَنَكُونُ مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ۝

48. But (now), when the Truth
Has come to them from Ourselves,
They say, “Why are not
(Signs) sent to him, like
Those which were sent to Moses?”³³⁸¹
Do they not then reject
(The Signs) which were formerly
Sent to Moses? They say:
“Two kinds of sorcery,
Each assisting the other?”³³⁸²

۴۸- فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمُ الْحَقُّ مِنْ عِنْدِنَا
قَالُوا لَوْلَا أُوتِيَ مِثْلَ
مَا أُوتِيَ مُوسَىٰ
أَوَلَمْ يَكْفُرُوا بِمَا أُوتِيَ مُوسَىٰ مِنْ قَبْلُ
قَالُوا سِحْرَانِ تَظَاهَرَا ۖ

3379. This people was the Quraysh. ‘Though thou didst not see how Moses was invested with the prophetic office at Mount Ṭur, thou hast had similar experience thyself, and We have sent thee to the Quraysh to warn them of all their sins, and to repent and come into the Faith’.

3380. Now that a warner has come among them with all the authority that previous Messengers possessed and with all the knowledge which can only come by divine inspiration, they have no excuse left whatever. They cannot say, “No warner came to us.” If any evil comes to them, as the inevitable result of their ill-deeds, they cannot blame Allah and say that they were not warned. Cf. 20:134.

3381. When a Revelation is sent to them, in the Qur’ān, adapted to all their needs and the needs of the time they live in, they hark back to antiquity. The Holy Prophet was in many respects like Moses, but the times in which he lived were different from the times of Moses, and his age did not suffer from the deceptions of sorcery, like that of Moses. The remedies which his age and future ages required (for his Message was universal) were different. His miracle of the Qur’ān was different and most permanent than the Rod and the Radiant-White Hand of Moses. But supposing that the Quraysh had been humoured in their insincere demands, would they have believed? Did they believe in Moses? They were only put up by the Jews to make objections which they themselves did not believe in.

3382. Moses was called a sorcerer by the Egyptians, and the wonderful words of the Qur’ān were called sorcery by the Quraysh. As the Qur’ān confirmed the Message of Moses, the Quraysh objectors said that they were in collusion. The Quraysh did not believe in Allah’s Revelation at all.

And they say: "For us,
We reject all (such things)!"

وَقَالُوا إِنَّا بِحَيْثُ كَفَرُوا

49. Say: "Then bring ye
A Book from Allah,
Which is a better Guide
Than either of them,
That I may follow it!
(Do), if ye are truthfull!"

۴۹- قُلْ فَأْتُوا بِكِتَابٍ مِّنْ عِندِ اللَّهِ
هُوَ أَهْدَىٰ مِنْهُمَا
اتَّبِعْهُ إِن كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ۝

50. But if they hearken not³³⁸³
To thee, know that they
Only follow their own lusts:
And who is more astray
Than one who follows his own
Lusts, devoid of guidance
From Allah? For Allah guides not
People given to wrongdoing.

۵۰- فَإِن لَّمْ يَسْتَجِيبُوا لَكَ فَاعْلَمْ أَنَّهُمْ
يَتَّبِعُونَ أَهْوَاءَهُمْ وَمَنْ أَضَلُّ مِمَّنْ
اتَّبَعَ هَوَاهُ يَغْیِرْ هُدًى مِّنَ اللَّهِ ۖ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ ۝

SECTION 6.

51. Now have We caused
The Word to reach them
Themselves, in order that
They may receive admonition³³⁸⁴

۵۱- وَلَقَدْ وَصَّلْنَا لَهُمُ الْقَوْلَ
لَعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ ۝

52. Those to whom We sent
The Book before this—they
Do believe in this (Revelation);

۵۲- الَّذِينَ آتَيْنَاهُمُ الْكِتَابَ مِن قَبْلِهِ
مُؤْمِنِينَ بِهِ يَوْمَئِذٍ ۝

53. And when it is recited
To them, they say: "We Believe therein, for it is
The Truth from our Lord:
Indeed we have been Muslims
(Bowing to Allah's Will)
From before this."³³⁸⁵

۵۳- وَإِذَا يُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ قَالُوا
أَمَّا بِنَايَةِ إِنَّهُ الْحَقُّ مِن رَّبِّنَا
إِنَّا كُنَّا مِن قَبْلِهِ مُسْلِمِينَ ۝

3383. They were challenged to produce something better, to be a guide in life. But as they could not, it was evident that their objections were fractious. They were only following their own selfish lusts of power, monopoly, and exploitation of the poor and ignorant. How can such people receive guidance?

3384. Before this the Quraysh might have said that the Word of Allah had come to the Hebrews in their tongue or in Greek, which was used by the Hebrews in the time of Jesus. Now that Word is brought to their own doors, in their own Arabic tongue, by a man of their own race and family. Surely they have no excuse now for remaining strangers to the higher moral and spiritual law.

3385. There were Christians and Jews who recognised that Islam was a logical and natural development of Allah's revelations as given in earlier ages, and they not only welcomed and accepted Islam, but claimed, and rightly, that they had always been Muslims. In that sense Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, and Jesus had all been Muslims. (R).

54. Twice will they be given³³⁸⁶
Their reward, for that they
Have persevered, that they avert
Evil with Good, and that
They spend (in charity) out of
What We have given them.

٥٤- أُولَٰئِكَ يُؤْتَوْنَ أَجْرَهُم مَّرَّتَيْنِ بِمَا صَبَرُوا وَيَدْرَءُونَ بِالْحَسَنَةِ السَّيِّئَةَ ۚ وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ يُنْفِقُونَ ۝

55. And when they hear vain talk,
They turn away therefrom
And say: "To us our deeds,
And to you yours;³³⁸⁷
Peace be to you: we Seek not the ignorant."

٥٥- وَإِذَا سَمِعُوا اللَّغْوَ أَعْرَضُوا عَنْهُ وَقَالُوا لَنَا أَعْمَالُنَا وَلَكُمْ أَعْمَالُكُمْ ۖ سَلَامٌ عَلَيْكُمْ لَا نَبْتَغِي الْجَاهِلِينَ ۝

56. It is true thou wilt not
Be able to guide every one³³⁸⁸
Whom thou lovest; but Allah
Guides those whom He will
And He knows best those
Who receive guidance.

٥٦- إِنَّكَ لَا تَهْدِي مَنْ أَحْبَبْتَ وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ يَهْدِي مَنْ يَشَاءُ ۚ وَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْمُهْتَدِينَ ۝

57. They say: "If we were
To follow the guidance with thee,
We should be snatched away³³⁸⁹
From our land." Have We not
Established for them a secure
Sanctuary, to which are brought
As tribute fruits of all kinds—
A provision from Ourselves?
But most of them understand not.

٥٧- وَقَالُوا لَئِنْ تَتَّبِعِ الْهُدَىٰ مَعَكَ نَتَّخِظَنَّ مِنْ أَرْضِنَا ۚ أَوَلَمْ نُكَلِّمْ لَهُمْ حَرَمًا آمِنًا يُتَجَبَّىٰ إِلَيْهِ ثَمَرَاتُ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ رَّزَقًا مِّنْ لَّدُنَّا وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ۝

3386. Their credit is twofold, in that before they knew Islam, they followed the earliest Law in truth and sincerity, and when they were offered Islam, they readily recognised and accepted it, suffered in patient perseverance for its sake, and brought forth the fruits of righteousness.

3387. The righteous do not encourage idle talk or foolish arguments about things sacred. If they find themselves in some company in which such things are fashionable, they leave politely. Their only rejoinder is: "We are responsible for our deeds, and you for yours; we have no ill-will against you; we wish you well and that is why we wish you to know of the knowledge we have received; after that knowledge you cannot expect us to go back to the Ignorance which we have left."

3388. The immediate occasion for this was the death of Abū Ṭālib, an uncle whom the Holy Prophet loved dearly and who had befriended and protected him. The Prophet was naturally anxious that he should die in the profession of the true Faith, but the pagan Quraysh leaders persuaded him to remain true to the faith of his fathers. This was an occasion of disappointment and grief to the Prophet. We are told that in such circumstances we should not grieve. All whom we love do not necessarily share our views or beliefs. We must not judge. Allah will guide whom He pleases and as He pleases. He alone knows the true inwardness of things.

3389. Some Quraysh said: "We see the truth of Islam, but if we abandon our people, we shall lose our hold on the land, and other people will dispossess us." The answer is twofold, one literal and the other of deeper import. (1) 'Your land? Why, the sanctuary of Makkah is sacred and secure because Allah has made it so, If you obey Allah's Word, you will be strengthened, not weakened.' (2) 'Makkah is the symbol of the Fortress of Spiritual Well-being. The Fruit of every Deed comes or should come as a tribute to Spiritual Well-being. What are you afraid of? It is Allah's Fortress. The more you seek Allah, the stronger you are in the Fortress.'

58. And how many populations
We destroyed, which exulted
In their life (of ease and plenty)!
Now those habitations of theirs,
After them, are deserted —
All but a (miserable) few!
And We are their heirs!³³⁹⁰

٥٨- وَكَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ بَطِرَتْ
مَعِيشَتَهَا
فَتِلْكَ مَسْكِنُهُمْ لَمْ تَكُنْ مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ
إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ۖ وَكُنَّا لَنْحُسِّنُ الْوَارِثِينَ ۝

59. Nor was thy Lord the one
To destroy a population until
He had sent to its Centre
A messenger, rehearsing to them
Our Signs: nor are We Going to destroy a population
Except when its members
Practise iniquity.

٥٩- وَمَا كَانَ رَبُّكَ مُهْلِكَ الْقُرَى
حَتَّى يَبْعَثَ فِي أُمِّهَا رَسُولًا يَتْلُو عَلَيْهِمْ
آيَاتِنَا ۚ وَمَا كُنَّا مُهْلِكِي الْقُرَى
إِلَّا وَأَهْلِهَا ظَالِمُونَ ۝

60. The (material) things which
Ye are given are but
The conveniences of this life
And the glitter thereof;³³⁹¹
But that which is with Allah
Is better and more enduring:
Will ye not then be wise?

٦٠- وَمَا أُوتِيتُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ
فَمَتَاعُ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا ۖ وَزِينَتُهَا
وَمَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ خَيْرٌ وَأَبْقَى
أَفَلَا تَعْقِلُونَ ۝

C. 175. — Material good is nothing compared (28:61-75.) To the spiritual. In the Hereafter
No plea 'that others misled' will avail.
Each soul must answer for itself.
Whether it honoured Allah alone
Or worshipped something else,
And whether it received or rejected
The Teachers sent by Allah. The Wisdom
And Plan of Allah are beyond all praise:
And mercy and truth proceed from Him,
And there is no other — none — besides Him.

3390. A life of ease and plenty is nothing to boast of. Yet people or cities or civilisations grow insolently proud of such things. There were many such in the past, which are now mere names! Their very sites are deserted in most cases, or buried in the debris of ages. Indo-Pakistan subcontinent is full of such sites nearly everywhere. The sites of Harappa and Mohenjo Daro are the most ancient hitherto unearthed in Pakistan, and they are themselves in layers covering centuries of time! And how many more there may be, of which we do not know even names! Fatehpur-Sikri was a magnificent ruin within a single generation. And there are thousands of Qasbas once flourishing and now reduced to small villages or altogether deserted. But Allah is merciful and just. He does not destroy or degrade a people until they have had full opportunities of turning in repentance to Him and they have deliberately rejected His Law and continued in the practice of iniquity.

3391. The good things in this life have their uses and serve their convenience. But they are fleeting and their value is infinitely lower than that of Truth and Justice and Spiritual Well-being, the gifts which come as it were from the very Presence of Allah. No wise soul will be absorbed in the one and neglect the other, or will hesitate for a moment if it comes to a choice between them.

SECTION 7.

61. Are (these two) alike?—
One to whom We have made
A goodly promise, and who
Is going to reach its (fulfilment).³³⁹²
And one to whom We have Given the good things of this Life, but who, on the Day
Of Judgement, is to be among Those brought up (for punishment)?

٦١- أَفَمَنْ وَعَدْنَاهُ وَعْداً حَسَناً
فَهُوَ لَا يَتَذَكَّرُ أَلَيْسَ لَهُ مُجْتَنِبَةٌ

ثُمَّ هُوَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ مِنَ الْمُحْضَرِينَ ○

62. That Day (Allah) will
Call to them, and say:
“Where are My ‘partners’?—
Whom ye imagined (to be such)?”

٦٢- وَيَوْمَ يُنَادِيهِمْ فَيَقُولُ
أَيْنَ شُرَكَائِيَ الَّذِينَ كُنْتُمْ تَزْعُمُونَ ○

63. Those against whom the charge³³⁹³
Will be proved, will say:
“Our Lord! These are the ones
Whom we led astray:
We led them astray, as we
Were astray ourselves: we free
Ourselves (from them) in Thy presence:
It was not us they worshipped.”³³⁹⁴

٦٣- قَالَ الَّذِينَ حَقَّ عَلَيْهِمُ الْقَوْلُ
رَبَّنَا هَؤُلَاءِ الَّذِينَ أَغْوَيْنَا
أَغْوَيْنَاهُمْ كَمَا أَغْوَيْنَا
تُبْرَأْنَا إِلَيْكَ مَا كَانُوا
إِِلَانَا يَعْبُدُونَ ○

64. It will be said (to them):
“Call upon your ‘partners’
(For help)”: they will call
Upon them, but they will not
Listen to them; and they
Will see the Penalty (before them);
(How they will wish)

٦٤- وَتَقِيلُ أَدْعُوا شُرَكَاءَكُمْ
فَدَعَوْهُمْ فَلَمْ يَسْتَجِيبُوا لَهُمْ
وَرَأَوْا الْعَذَابَ

3392. The two classes of people are: (1) those who have faith in the goodly promise of Allah to the righteous, and who are doing everything in life to reach the fulfilment of that promise, i.e., those who believe and work righteousness, and (2) those who are ungrateful for such good things in this life as Allah has bestowed on them, by worshipping wealth or power or other symbols or idols of their fancy, i.e., those who reject Faith and lead evil lives, for which they will have to answer in the Hereafter. The two classes are poles asunder, and their future is described below.

3393. This and the next verse are concerned with the examination of those who neglected truth and righteousness and went after the worship of false gods, viz., their own lusts. These were the “partners” they associated with Allah. Insofar as they were embodied in false or wicked leaders, the leaders will disown responsibility for them. ‘We ourselves went wrong, and they followed our example, because it suited them: they worshipped, not us, but their own lusts.’

3394. Cf. 10:28. False worship often names others, but really it is the worship of the Self. The others whom they name will have nothing to do with them when the awful Penalty stands in the sight of both. Then each wrongdoer will have to look to his own case. The wicked will then realise the gravity of the situation and wish that they had accepted the true guidance of Allah’s Messengers.

- 'If only they had been
Open to guidance!'
65. That Day (Allah) will³³⁹⁵
Call to them, and say:
"What was the answer
Ye gave to the messengers?"
66. Then the (whole) story that day
Will seem obscure to them³³⁹⁶
(Like light to the blind)
And they will not be able
(Even) to question each other.
67. But any that (in this life)
Had repented, believed, and worked
Righteousness, will have hopes
To be among those who
Achieve salvation.
68. Thy Lord does create and choose³³⁹⁷
As He pleases: no choice
Have they (in the matter):
Glory to Allah! and far
Is He above the partners
They ascribe (to Him)!
69. And thy Lord knows all
That their hearts conceal
And all that they reveal.³³⁹⁸
70. And He is Allah: there is
No god but He. To Him
Be praise, at the first
And at the last:
- لَوْ أَنَّهُمْ كَانُوا يَهْتَدُونَ ○
- ٦٥- وَيَوْمَ يُنَادِيهِمْ فَيَقُولُ
مَاذَا أَجَبْتُمُ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ○
- ٦٦- فَعَيَّيْتُ عَلَيْهِمُ الْآثَانَ يَوْمَئِذٍ
فَهُمْ لَا يَتَسَاءَلُونَ ○
- ٦٧- فَأَمَّا مَنْ تَابَ وَآمَنَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا
فَعَسَىٰ أَن يَكُونَ مِنَ الْمُفْلِحِينَ ○
- ٦٨- وَرَبُّكَ يَخْلُقُ مَا يَشَاءُ وَيَخْتَارُ
مَا كَانَ لَهُمُ الْخِيَرَةُ
سُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ وَتَعَالَىٰ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ○
- ٦٩- وَرَبُّكَ يَعْلَمُ مَا تُكِنُّ صُدُورُهُمْ
وَمَا يُعْلِنُونَ ○
- ٧٠- وَهُوَ اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ
لَهُ الْحُكْمُ فِي الْأُولَىٰ وَالْآخِرَةِ

3395. Now we come to the examination of those who rejected or persecuted Allah's Messengers on the earth. It may be the same men as those mentioned in 28:62-64, but this is a different count in the charge.

3396. In their utter confusion and despair their minds will be blank. The past will seem to them unreal, and the present unintelligible, and they will not even be able to consult each other, as every one's state will be the same.

3397. As He pleases: according to His own Will and Plan. Allah is not dependent on other people for advice or help. He has no partners. All creation is an act of His Will, and no one can direct Him how or why certain things should be, because He is supreme in wisdom and knowledge. He chooses His messengers also by His own unfettered choice. Inspiration or spiritual knowledge and dignity cannot be judged by our relative or temporary standards. Worldly greatness or even wisdom do not necessarily go with spiritual insight.

3398. Men may form all sorts of vain wishes or conceal their designs. But Allah's Will is supreme, and nothing can withstand its fulfilment.

For Him is the Command,
And to Him shall ye
(All) be brought back.

وَلَهُ الْحُكْمُ وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ○

71. Say: See ye? If Allah
Were to make the Night³³⁹⁹

Who can give you enlightenment?
Will ye not then hearken?

فِيهِ أَفَلَا تُبْصِرُونَ ○

73. It is out of His Mercy
That He has made for you
Night and Day—that ye
May rest therein, and that
Ye may seek of His Grace—
And in order that ye
May be grateful.

٤٣- وَمِنْ رَحْمَتِهِ جَعَلَ لَكُمُ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ

وَلِتَبْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِهِ
وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ ○

74. The Day that He will³⁴⁰¹
Call on them, He will say:

٤٤- وَ يَوْمَ يُنَادِيهِمْ فَيَقُولُ

3399. In the physical world the Night and Day are both blessings, the one for rest and the other for work, and the alternation itself is one of the mercies of Allah, and none but He can give us these blessings. If we were perpetually resting, or screened from the light, our faculties would be blunted and we should be worse than dead. If we were perpetually working, we should be tired, and we should also be dead in another way. This daily miracle keeps us alive and prepares us, in this our probationary life, for our final destiny in the Hereafter. So in the spiritual world. Some kinds of ignorance—such as ignorance of what is coming in the future—are necessary to conserve our powers and give rest to our minds and spirits, but if we were to remain ignorant perpetually, we should be spiritually dead. In the same way our spiritual strivings require periodical alternations to rest in the form of attention to our temporal concerns: hence the justification of a good and pure life on the plane of this earth also. Also, in the world's history, there are periods when a living messenger stimulates intense spiritual activity, and periods when it is comparatively quiescent (the so-called Dark Ages); but both are examples of the working of Allah's Plan of wisdom and mercy. But this applies only up to the Day of Judgement. After that we shall be on another plane altogether.

3400. In verse 71 was mentioned a "perpetual Night," for which the faculty of "hearkening" was appropriate, as all light was shut out. In this verse a perpetual Day is mentioned, for which the faculty of "seeing" is appropriate. Through many doors can the higher knowledge enter our souls. Shall we not use each of them as the occasion demands?

3401. Cf. 28:62 above. The reminiscence of the words closes and rounds off the argument of this Section.

"Where are my partners?
Whom ye imagined (to be such)?"

C. 176. — Men puffed up with wealth, like Qārūn,

إِنْ مَقَاتِلُهُمْ لَتَنُوْا

3402. Cf. 4:41. The Prophet from each People or Nation will bear testimony that he preached the true gospel of Unity, and the People who rejected him will be asked to show the Proof or authority on which they rejected him: Cf. 2:111.

3403. In that new world, Allah will be the only Truth or Reality, and all the fancies or lies, which had been invented in this world of reflected or relative truths mixed with illusions, will have vanished, and left those who relied on them in the lurch. Cf. 6:24.

3404. Qārūn is identified with the Korah of the English Bible. His story is told in Num. xvi. 1-35. He and his followers, numbering 250 men, rose in rebellion against Moses and Aaron, on the ground that their position and fame in the congregation entitled them to equality in spiritual matters with the Priests—that they were as holy as any, and they claimed to burn incense at the sacred Altar reserved for the Priests. They had an exemplary punishment: "the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods: they, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation."

3405. Qārūn's boundless wealth is described in the Midrashim, or the Jewish compilations based on the oral teachings of the Synagogues, which however exaggerate the weight of the keys to be the equivalent of the load of 300 mules!

A body of strong men:³⁴⁰⁶
Behold, his people said to him:
"Exult not, for Allah loveth not
Those who exult (in riches).

77. "But seek, with the (wealth)
Which Allah has bestowed on thee,
The Home of the Hereafter,³⁴⁰⁷
Nor forget thy portion in this
World: but do thou good,
As Allah has been good

۷۹- فَخَرَجَ عَلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ فِي زِينَتِهِ
قَالَ الَّذِينَ يُرِيدُونَ

3406. 'Uṣṣah: a body of men, here used indefinitely. It usually implies a body of 10 to 40 men. The old-fashioned keys were big and heavy, and if there were hundreds of treasure chests, the keys must have been a great weight. As they were travelling in the desert, the treasures were presumably left behind in Egypt, and only the keys were carried. The disloyal Qārūn had left his heart in Egypt, with his treasures.

3407. That is, 'spend your wealth in charity and good works. It is Allah Who has given it to you, and you should spend it in Allah's cause. Nor should you forget the legitimate needs of this life, as misers do, and most people become misers who think too exclusively of their wealth. If wealth is not used properly, there are three evils that follow: (1) its possessor may be a miser and forget all claims due to himself and those about him; (2) he may forget the higher needs of the poor and needy, or the good causes which require support; and (3) he may even misspend on occasions and cause a great deal of harm and mischief.' Apparently Qārūn had all three vices.

3408. He was so blind and arrogant that he thought that his own merit, knowledge, and skill or cleverness had earned him his wealth, and that now, on account of it, he was superior to everybody else and was entitled to ride rough-shod over them. Fool!—he was soon pulled up by Allah.

3409. Even Qārūn was given a long run of enjoyment with his fabulous wealth before he had to be removed for the mischief he was doing.

The Life of this World:
 "Oh! that we had the like
 Of what Qārūn has got!

 مِنْ عِبَادِهِ وَيَقْدِرُ
 لَوْ لَا أَن مَنَّ اللَّهُ

3410. When he was in the hey-day of his glory, worldly people envied him and thought how happy they would be if they were in his place. Not so the people of wisdom and discernment. They knew a more precious and lasting wealth, which is described in the next verse.

3411. See n. 3404 above. Cf. also 16:45 and n. 2071. Besides the obvious moral in the literal interpretation of the story, that material wealth is fleeting and may be a temptation and a cause of fall, there are some metaphorical implications that occur to me. (1) Qārūn was with Israel in the wilderness, even his material wealth was of no use to him there; he had the mere empty keys; material wealth has no value in itself, but only a relative and local value. (2) In body he was with Israel in the wilderness, but his heart was in Egypt with its fertility and its slavery. Such is the case of many hypocrites, who like to be seen in righteous company but whose thoughts, longings, and doings are inconsistent with such company. (3) There is no good in this life but comes from Allah. To think otherwise is to set up a false god besides Allah. Our own merits are so small that they should never be the object of our idolatry. (4) If Qārūn on account of his wealth was setting himself up in rivalry with Moses and Aaron, he was blind to the fact that spiritual knowledge is far above any little cleverness in worldly affairs. Mob-leaders have no position before spiritual guides.

3412. Provision or Sustenance, both literally and figuratively: wealth and material things in life as well as the things that sustain our higher and spiritual faculties. The rabble, that admired Qārūn's wealth when he was in worldly prosperity, now sees the other side of the question and understands that there are other gifts more precious and desirable, and that these may actually be withheld from men who enjoy wealth and worldly prosperity. In fact it is false prosperity, or no prosperity in the real sense of the word, which is without spiritual well-being.

Was gracious to us, He
Could have caused the earth
To swallow us up! Ah!
Those who reject Allah
Will assuredly never prosper.”

3413. High-handedness or arrogance, as opposed to submission to the Will of Allah, Islam. Mischief, as opposed to doing good, bringing forth fruits of righteousness. It is the righteous who will win in the end.

3414. A good deed has its sure reward, and that reward will be better than the merits of the doer. An evil deed may be forgiven by repentance, but in any case will not be punished with severer penalty than justice demands.

3415. That is: order in His wisdom and mercy that the Qur’ān should be revealed, containing guidance for conduct in this life and the next, and further ordered that it should be read out and taught and its principles observed in practice. It is because of this teaching and preaching that the Holy Prophet was persecuted, but as Allah sent the Qur’ān, He will see that those who follow it will not eventually suffer, but be restored to happiness in the Place of Return, for which see next note.

3416. Place of Return: (1) a title of Makkah; (2) the occasion when we shall be restored to the Presence of our Lord. It is said that this verse was revealed at Juhfa, on the road from Makkah to Madīnah, a short distance from Makkah, on the Hijrah journey. The Prophet was sad at heart, and this was given as consolation to him. If this was the particular occasion, the general meaning would refer the Place of Return to the occasion of the Resurrection, when all true values will be restored, however they may be disturbed by the temporary interference of Evil in this life.

3417. Allah knows the true from the false, and if we are persecuted for our Faith and attacked or spoken ill of because we dare to do right, our surest refuge is an appeal to Allah rather than to men.

إِلَّا رَحْمَةً مِنْ رَبِّكَ
فَلَا تَكُونَنَّ ظَهِيرًا لِلْكَافِرِينَ

٨٧- وَلَا يَصُدُّكَ عَنْ آيَاتِ اللَّهِ
بَعْدَ إِذْ أُنْزِلَتْ إِلَيْكَ
وَادْعُ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ
وَلَا تَكُونَنَّ مِنَ الْمُشْرِكِينَ

٨٨- وَلَا تَدْعُ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ
لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ
كُلُّ شَيْءٍ هَالِكٌ إِلَّا وَجْهَهُ
لَهُ الْحُكْمُ وَإِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ

3418. Revelation and the preaching of Truth may in the beginning bring persecution, conflict, and sorrow in its train; but in reality it is the truest mercy from Allah, which comes even without our expecting it, as it came to the Prophets without their consciously asking for it. This is proved in the history of Moses related in this Sūrah, and the history of the Holy Prophet which it is meant to illustrate.

3419. If Allah's Message is unpalatable to Evil and is rejected by it, those who accept it may (in their natural human feelings) sometimes wonder that such should be the case, and whether it is really Allah's Will that the conflict which ensues should be pursued. Any such hesitation would lend unconscious support to the aggressions of evil and should be discarded. The servant of Allah stands forth boldly as his Mujāhid (fighter of the good fight), daring all, and knowing that Allah is behind him.

3420. The soldier of Allah, having taken up the fight against Evil, and knowing that he is in touch with the true Light, never yields an inch of ground. He is always to the fore in inviting others to his own ranks, but he himself refuses to be with those who worship anything else but Allah.

3421. This sums up the lesson of the whole Sūrah. The only Eternal Reality is Allah. The whole phenomenal world is subject to flux and change and will pass away, but He will endure forever. (R).

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 29—AL 'ANKABŪT

This Sūrah is the last of the series begun with S. 17, in which the growth of the spiritual man as an individual is considered, especially illustrated by the way in which the great Prophets were prepared for their work and received their mission, and the nature of Revelation in relation to the environments in which it was promulgated. (See Introduction to S. 17). It also closes the sub-series beginning with S. 26, which is concerned with the spiritual Light, and the reactions to it at certain periods of spiritual history. (See Introduction to S. 26.)

The last Sūrah closed with a reference to the doctrine of the Ma'ād, or final Return of Man to Allah. This theme is further developed here, and as it is continued in the subsequent three Sūrahs all bearing the Abbreviated Letters, "Alif Lām Mīm", it forms a connecting link between the present series and those three Sūrahs.

In particular, emphasis is laid here on the necessity of linking actual conduct with the reception of Allah's revelation, and reference is again made to the stories of Noah, Abraham, and Lot among the Prophets, and the stories of Madyan, 'Ād, Thamūd, and Pharaoh among the rejecters of Allah's Message. This world's life is contrasted with the real Life of the Hereafter.

Chronologically the main Sūrah belongs to the late Middle Makkan period, but the chronology has no significance except as showing how clearly the vision of the Future was revealed long before the Hijrah, to the struggling Brotherhood of Islam.

Summary—Belief is tested by trial in life and practical conduct: though Noah lived 950 years, his people refused Faith, and Abraham's generation threatened to burn Abraham (29:1-27, and C. 177).

Lot's people not only rejected Allah's Message but publicly defied him in sin: the 'Ād and the Thamūd had intelligence but misused it, and Qārūn, Pharaoh, and Hāmān perished for their overweening arrogance: they found their worldly power as frail as a spider's web (29:28-44, and C. 178).

The Qur'ān as a revelation stands on its own merits and is a Sign: it teaches the distinction between Right and Wrong, and shows the importance and excellence of the Hereafter (29:45-69, and C. 179).

C. 177. — Faith must be tested in the conflicts
(29:1-27.) Of practical life, but Good can never
Be submerged. On the contrary, Allah
Will wash off all stains from those
Who strive, and admit them to the Fellowship
Of the Righteous. Not so are the hypocrites
And those who reject Faith. Their hearts
Are diseased, and they will not accept
The right though a Noah preached it to them
For a thousand years, or an Abraham
Reasoned with them on Allah's most wonderful
Providence. But the true will ever search out
The Truth, and Truth will always prevail.

Sūrah 29

Al 'Ankabūt (The Spider)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious
Most Merciful.*

1. *Alif Tām Mīm.*³⁴²²

2. Do men think that
They will be left alone
On saying, "We believe",³⁴²³
And that they will not
Be tested?

3. We did test those
Before them, and Allah will Certainly know³⁴²⁴ those who are
True from those who are false.

4. Do those who practise
Evil think that they
Will get the better of Us?
Evil is their judgement!³⁴²⁵

5. For those whose hopes are
In the meeting with Allah³⁴²⁶
(In the Hereafter, let them strive);
For the Term (appointed)

الْجُزْءِ الْعَشْرُونَ سُوْرَةُ الْعَنْكَبُوْتِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- اَلَمْ

٢- اَحَسِبَ النَّاسُ اَنْ يَتْرَكُوْا
اَنْ يَقُوْلُوْا اٰمَنَّا وَهُمْ لَا يُفْتَنُوْنَ ۝

٣- وَلَقَدْ فَتَنَّا الَّذِيْنَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ فَلَيَعْلَمَنَّ
اللّٰهُ الَّذِيْنَ صَدَقُوْا وَلَيَعْلَمَنَّ الْكٰذِبِيْنَ ۝

٤- اَمْ حَسِبَ الَّذِيْنَ يَعْمَلُوْنَ السَّيِّئٰتِ
اَنْ يَّسْبِقُوْنَآ سَآءَ مَا يَحْكُمُوْنَ ۝

٥- مَنْ كَانَ يَرْجُوْا لِقَاءَ اللّٰهِ
فَاِنَّ اَجَلَ

3422. For these Abbreviated Letters see n. 25 to 2:1. We are asked to contrast, in our present life the real inner life against the outer life, and learn from the past about the struggles of the soul which uphold Allah's Truth, against the environment of evil which resists it, and to turn our thoughts to the Ma'ād, or man's future destiny in the Hereafter.

3423. Mere lip profession of Faith is not enough. It must be tried and tested in the real turmoil of life. The test will be applied in all kinds of circumstances, in individual life and in relation to the environment around us, to see whether we can strive constantly and put Allah above Self. Much pain, sorrow, and self-sacrifice may be necessary, not because they are good in themselves, but because they will purify us, like fire applied to a goldsmith's crucible to burn out the dross.

3424. The word "know" is used here more in the sense of testing than of acquiring knowledge. Allah is All-Knowing: He needs no test to increase His own knowledge, but the test is to burn out the dross within ourselves, as explained in the last note.

3425. If the enemies of Truth imagine that they will "be first" by destroying Truth before it takes root, they are sadly at fault, for their own persecution may help to plant Allah's Truth more firmly in men's hearts.

3426. The men of Faith look forward to Allah. Their quest is Allah, and the object of their hopes is the meeting with Allah. They should strive with might and main to serve Him in this life, for this life is short, and the Term appointed for their probation will soon be over.

By Allah is surely coming:³⁴²⁷
And He hears and knows
(All things).

اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ الْحَيُّ الْقَيُّومُ ۝

6. And if any strive (with might
And main), they do so
For their own souls:³⁴²⁸
For Allah is free of all
Needs from all creation.

۝ وَمَنْ جَاهَدَ فَإِنَّمَا يُجَاهِدُ لِنَفْسِهِ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَغَنِيٌّ عَنِ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝

7. Those who believe and work
Righteous deeds—from them
Shall We blot out all evil
(That may be) in them,³⁴²⁹
And We shall reward
Them according to
The best of their deeds.

۝ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
لَنُكَفِّرَنَّ عَنْهُمْ سَيِّئَاتِهِمْ
وَلَنَجْزِيَنَّهُمْ أَحْسَنَ الَّذِي كَانُوا
يَعْمَلُونَ ۝

8. We have enjoined on man
Kindness to parents: but if
They (either of them) strive
(To force) thee to join
With Me (in worship)
Anything of which thou hast
No knowledge,³⁴³⁰ obey them not.
Ye have (all) to return
To Me, and I will Tell you (the truth)
Of all that ye did.³⁴³¹

۝- وَوَضَعْنَا لِلْإِنْسَانِ بِوَالِدَيْهِ حُسْنًا
وَإِنْ جَاهَدَاكَ لِتُشْرِكَ بِي
مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِهِ عِلْمٌ فَلَا تُطِعْهُمَا
إِلَىٰ مَرْجِعِكُمْ
فَأُنَبِّئُكُم بِمَا كُنتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ۝

3427. The Term (ajal) may signify: (1) the time appointed for death, which ends the probation of this life; (2) the time appointed for this life, so that we can prepare for the Hereafter; the limit will soon expire. In either case the ultimate meaning is the same. We must strive now and not postpone anything for the future. And we must realise and remember that every prayer we make to Allah is heard by Him, and that every unspoken wish or motive of our heart, good or bad, is known to Him, and goes to swell our spiritual account.

3428. All our striving enures to our own spiritual benefit. When we speak of serving Allah, it is not that we confer any benefit on Him. For He has no needs, and is independent of all His Creation. In conforming to His Will, we are seeking our own good, as in yielding to evil we are doing harm to ourselves.

3429. In striving to purify our Faith and Life, we are enabled to avoid the consequences of our misdeeds for Allah will forgive any evil in our past, purify any tendencies towards evil which we may have inherited from that past, and help to the attainment of a Future based on the best of what we have done rather than on the poor average of our own merits. The atonement or expiation is by Allah's Mercy, not by our merits or the merits or sacrifices of anyone else. (R).

3430. That is, no certainty, in virtue of the spiritual light. In matters of faith and worship, even parents have no right to force their children. They cannot and must not hold up before them any worship but that of the One True God.

3431. Children and parents must all remember that they all have to go before Allah's tribunal, and answer, each for his own deeds. In cases where one set of people have lawful authority over another set of people (as in the case of parents and children), and the two differ in important matters like that of Faith, the latter are justified in rejecting authority: the apparent conflict will be solved when the whole truth is revealed to all eyes in the Final Judgement.

9. And those who believe
And work righteous deeds—
Them shall We admit
To the company of the Righteous.³⁴³²
10. Then there are among men
Such as say: "We believe
In Allah"; but when they suffer
Affliction in (the cause of) Allah,
They treat men's oppression
As if it were the Wrath
Of Allah! And if help
Comes (to thee) from thy Lord,
They are sure to say,³⁴³³
"We have (always) been
With you!" Does not Allah
Know best all that is
In the hearts of all Creation?
11. And Allah most certainly knows
Those who believe, and as certainly
Those who are Hypocrites.³⁴³⁴
12. And the Unbelievers say
To those who believe:
"Follow our path, and we
Will bear (the consequences)³⁴³⁵
Of your faults." Never
In the least will they
Bear their faults: in fact
They are liars!

٩- وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
لَنُدْخِلَنَّهُمْ فِي الصَّالِحِينَ ○

١٠- وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يَقُولُ آمَنَّا
بِاللَّهِ فَإِذَا أُوْذِيَ فِي اللَّهِ
جَعَلَ فِتْنَةَ النَّاسِ كَعَذَابِ اللَّهِ
وَلَئِنْ جَاءَ نَصْرٌ مِّن رَّبِّكَ
لَيَقُولُنَّ إِنَّا كُنَّا مَعَكُمْ
أَوْ لَيْسَ اللَّهُ بِأَعْلَمَ بِمَا فِي صُدُورِ
الْعَالَمِينَ ○

١١- وَلَيَعْلَمَنَّ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
وَلَيَعْلَمَنَّ الْمُنَافِقِينَ ○

١٢- وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
اتَّبِعُوا سَبِيلَنَا وَلْنَحْمِلْ خَطِيئَتَكُمْ
وَمَا هُمْ بِمُحْمِلِينَ مِنْ خَطِيئَتِهِمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ
إِنَّهُمْ كَاذِبُونَ ○

3432. The picking up again of the words which began verse 7 above shows that the same subject is now pursued from another aspect. The expiation or reward which was first spoken of is not so much a tangible thing as a restoration of status. The striving in righteous deeds will restore fallen man to the society of the Righteous—the ideal Fellowship described in 4:69 and n. 586.

3433. Cf. 9:56, and other passages where the cunning of the Hypocrites is exposed. The man who turns away from Faith in adversity and only claims the friendship of the Faithful when there is something to be gained by it, is worthy of a double condemnation: first because he rejected Faith and Truth, and secondly because he falsely pretended to be one of those whom he feared or hated in his heart. But nothing in all Creation is concealed from Allah.

3435. Besides the hypocrite there is another type of man who openly scoffs at Faith. 'Take life as we take it,' he says: 'we shall bear your sins.' As if they could! Each soul bears its own burdens, and no one else can bear them. The principle also applies to the type of man who preaches vicarious atonement, for, if followed to its logical conclusion, it means both injustice and irresponsibility, and puts quite a different complexion on the nature of sin.

13. They will bear their own
Burdens, and (other) burdens
Along with their own,³⁴³⁶
And on the Day of Judgement
They will be called to account
For their falsehoods.

١٣- وَلَيَحْمِلُنَّ أَثْقَالَهُمْ
وَأَثْقَالًا مَعَ أَثْقَالِهِمْ وَلَيُسْأَلُنَّ يَوْمَ
الْقِيَامَةِ عَمَّا كَانُوا يَفْعَلُونَ ۝

SECTION 2.

14. He (once) sent Noah
To his people, and he tarried
Among them a thousand years³⁴³⁷
Less fifty: but the Deluge
Overwhelmed them while they (Persisted in) sin.

١٤- وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ فَلَبِثَ
فِيهِمْ أَلْفَ سَنَةٍ إِلَّا خَمْسِينَ عَامًا
فَأَخَذَهُمُ الطُّوفَانُ وَهُمْ ظَالِمُونَ ۝

15. But We saved him
And the Companions
Of the Ark, and We made
The (Ark) a Sign
For all Peoples!

١٥- فَأَنْجَيْنَاهُ وَأَصْحَابَ السَّفِينَةِ
وَجَعَلْنَاهَا آيَةً لِلْعَالَمِينَ ۝

16. And (We also saved)
Abraham: behold, he said³⁴³⁸
To his people: "Serve Allah
And fear Him: that
Will be best for you —
If ye understand!

١٦- وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ إِذْ قَالَ
لِقَوْمِهِ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ وَاتَّقُوهُ
ذَلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ إِن كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ۝

17. "For ye do worship idols
Besides Allah, and ye invent
Falsehood. The things that ye
Worship besides Allah have
No power to give you sustenance:

١٧- إِنَّمَا تَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ أَوْثَانًا وَتَخْلُقُونَ إِفْكًا إِنَّ الَّذِينَ تَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ
دُونِ اللَّهِ لَا يَنْفَعُونَكُمْ لَكُمْ رِزْقًا

3436. Besides the burdens of their own infidelity, they will bear the burden of deluding others with falsehood.

3437. The story of Noah and his Flood is not told here. It is told in other places: e.g., see 11:25-48 or 26:105-22. It is only referred to here to point out that Noah's period lasted a long time, 950 years. (Cf. Gen. ix. 28-29, where his whole age is declared to have been 950 years, of which 350 years were after the Flood). In spite of this long period, his contemporaries failed to listen, and they were destroyed. but the story of the Ark remains an everlasting Sign and Warning to mankind — a Sign of deliverance to the righteous and of destruction to the wicked.

3438. The story of Abraham has been told in various phases in different passages. The ones most germane to the present passage are: 21:51-72 (his being cast into the fire and being saved from it); and 19:41-49 (his voluntary exile from the home of his fathers). Here the story is not told but is referred to in order to stress the following points: (1) Abraham's people only responded to his preaching by threatening to burn him (29:16-18, 24); (2) evil consorts with evil but will have a rude awakening (29:25); (3) the good adhere to the good, and are blessed (29:26-27). Note that the passage 29:19-23 is a parenthetical comment, though some Commentators treat a portion of it as part of Abraham's speech.

Then seek ye sustenance³⁴³⁹
From Allah, serve Him,
And be grateful to Him:
To Him will be your return.

فَابْتَغُوا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ الرِّزْقَ وَاعْبُدُوهُ
وَاشْكُرُوا لَهُ ۖ إِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ۝

18. "And if ye reject (the Message),
So did generations before you:
And the duty of the messenger
Is only to preach publicly
(And clearly)."

۱۸- وَإِنْ تَكْذِبُوا فَقَدْ كَذَّبَ أُمَمٌ مِّنْ
قَبْلِكُمْ
وَمَا عَلَى الرَّسُولِ إِلَّا الْبَلَاغُ الْبَيِّنُ ۝

19. See they not how Allah
Originates creation, then³⁴⁴⁰
Repeats it: truly that
Is easy for Allah.

۱۹- أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا كَيْفَ يُبْدِئُ اللَّهُ الْخَلْقَ
ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُ ۚ إِنَّ ذَٰلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ ۝

20. Say: "Travel through the earth"³⁴⁴¹
And see how Allah did
Originate creation; so will
Allah produce a later creation:
For Allah has power
Over all things.

۲۰- قُلْ سِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَانظُرُوا كَيْفَ
بَدَأَ الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ اللَّهُ يُنشِئُ النَّشْأَةَ الْآخِرَةَ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ۝

21. "He punishes whom He pleases,
And He grants mercy to whom
He pleases, and towards Him
Are ye turned."³⁴⁴²

۲۱- يُعَذِّبُ مَن يَشَاءُ وَيَرْحَمُ مَن
يَشَاءُ ۖ وَإِلَيْهِ تُقْلَبُونَ ۝

3439. Sustenance: in the symbolic as well as the literal sense. Seek from Allah all that is necessary for your upkeep and development, and for preparing you for your future Destiny. Lay all your hopes in Him and in no one else. Dedicate yourselves to His worship. He will give you all that is necessary for your growth and well being, and you should show your gratitude to Him by conforming your will entirely to His.

3440. The originating of creation is the creation of primeval matter. The repetition of the process of creation goes on constantly, for at every moment new processes are being called into being by the creative power of Allah, and according to His Laws. And the final creation as far as man is concerned will be in the Ma'ād, when the whole world as man sees it will be entirely newly created on a different plane. As far as Allah is concerned, there is nothing final—no first and last, for He is infinite. He was before our First and will be after our Last, and if there is any meaning in these relative terms, He is the real First and the real Last.

3442. I think ilayhi tuqlabūn is better translated "towards Him are ye turned" than "towards Him will be your return", as it implies not only the return of man to Allah in the Hereafter (turja'un in verse 17 above) but also the fact explained in verse 22 that man's needs are always to be obtained from Allah: man cannot frustrate Allah's designs, and can have no help or protection except from Allah: man has always to face Allah, whether man obeys Allah or tries to ignore Allah. Man will never be able to defeat Allah's Plan. According to His wise Will and Plan, He will grant His grace or withhold it from man.

22. "Not on earth nor in heaven
Will ye be able (fleeing)
To frustrate (His Plan),
Nor have ye, besides Allah,
Any protector or helper."

۲۲- وَمَا أَنْتُمْ بِمُجِيزِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَ
لَا فِي السَّمَاءِ وَمَا لَكُمْ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ مِنْ
دَلِيلٍ وَلَا نَصِيرٍ ۝

SECTION 3.

23. Those who reject the Signs
Of Allah and the Meeting
With Him (in the Hereafter)—
It is they who shall despair
Of My mercy: it is they³⁴⁴³
Who will (suffer)
A most grievous Penalty.

۲۳- وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ وَلِقَائِهِ
أُولَٰئِكَ يَكْسِبُونَ مِنْ رَحْمَتِي
وَأُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ۝

24. So naught was the answer
Of (Abraham's) people except
That they said: "Slay him
Or burn him." But Allah
Did save him from the Fire.³⁴⁴⁴
Verily in this are Signs
For people who believe.

۲۴- فَمَا كَانَ جَوَابَ قَوْمِهِ إِلَّا
أَنْ قَالُوا اقْتُلُوهُ أَوْ حَرِّقُوهُ
فَأَنْجَاهُ اللَّهُ مِنَ النَّارِ
إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ۝

25. And he said: "For you,
Ye have taken (for worship)
Idols besides Allah, out of Mutual love and regard³⁴⁴⁵
Between yourselves in this life;
But on the Day of Judgement
Ye shall disown each other
And curse each other:
And your abode will be

۲۵- وَقَالَ إِنَّمَا اتَّخَذْتُمْ
مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ أَوْثَانًا مَمْدُودَةً
بَيْنَكُمْ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا
ثُمَّ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ يَكْفُرُ بَعْضُكُمْ بِبَعْضٍ
وَيَلْعَنُ بَعْضُكُمْ بَعْضًا وَأُمَّا أُولَٰئِكَ

3443. The emphasis is on "they" (ūlā'ika). It is only the people who ignore or reject Allah's Signs and reject a Hereafter, that will find themselves in despair and suffering. Allah's mercy is open to all, but if any reject His Mercy, they must suffer.

3444. See 21:66-70. Abraham was cast into the fire, but he was unhurt, by the grace of Allah. So righteous people suffer no harm from the plots of the wicked. But they must leave the environment of evil even if they have to forsake their ancestral home, as Abraham did.

3445. In sin and wickedness there is as much log-rolling as in politics. Evil men humour each other and support each other; they call each other's vice by high-sounding names. They call it mutual regard or friendship or love; at the lowest, they call it toleration. Perhaps they flourish in this life by such arts. But they deceive themselves, and they deceive each other. What will be their relations in the Hereafter? They will disown each other when each has to answer on the principle of personal responsibility. Each will accuse the others of misleading him, and they will curse each other. But there will then be no help, and they must suffer in the Fire.

The Fire, and ye shall have None to help."

26. But Lūṭ had faith in him:³⁴⁴⁶
He said: "I will leave
Home for the sake of
My Lord: for He is Exalted in Might, and Wise."

27. And We gave (Abraham)
Isaac and Jacob, and ordained
Among his progeny
Prophethood³⁴⁴⁷
And Revelation, and We
Granted him his reward
In this life; and he was
In the Hereafter (of the company)
Of the Righteous.³⁴⁴⁸

النَّارُ وَمَا لَكُم مِّن تَصَرُّفٍ ۝

٢٦- فَأَمَّن لَّهُ لُوطٌ وَقَالَ إِنِّي
مُهَاجِرٌ إِلَىٰ رَبِّي
إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ۝

٢٧- وَوَهَبْنَا لَهُ إِسْحَاقَ وَيَعْقُوبَ وَجَعَلْنَا
فِي ذُرِّيَّتِهِ النَّبُوَّةَ وَالْكِتَابَ
وَأَتَيْنَاهُ أَجْرَهُ فِي الدُّنْيَا
وَإِنَّهُ فِي الْآخِرَةِ لَمِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ۝

C. 178. — Worldly power cannot through sin
(29:28-44.) Defy the right, as was proved in the ministry
Of Lūṭ; nor can Intelligence misused
Stand in the place of Allah's Light; nor
Can boastful insolence do aught
But dig its own grave. The strength
And skill, the beauty and power, of this world's Life are no more than a Spider's Web,
Flimsy before the force of the eternal
Verities that flow from Allah Supremel

28. And (remember) Lūṭ: behold,
He said to his people:
"Ye do commit lewdness,
Such as no people in Creation³⁴⁴⁹
(Ever) committed before you.

٢٨- وَلُوطًا إِذْ قَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ
إِنكُم تَفْعَلُونَ الْفَاحِشَةَ
مَا سَبَقَكُمْ بِهَا مِنْ أَحَدٍ مِّنَ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝

3446. Lūṭ was a nephew of Abraham. He adhered to Abraham's teaching and faith and accepted voluntary exile with him, for Abraham left the home of his fathers in Chaldaea and migrated to Syria and Palestine, where Allah gave him increase and prosperity, and a numerous family, who upheld the flag of Unity and the Light of Allah.

3447. Isaac was Abraham's son and Jacob his grandson, and among his progeny was included Ismā'īl the eldest son of Abraham. Each of these became a fountainhead of Prophecy and Revelation. Isaac and Jacob through Moses, and Ismā'īl through the Holy Prophet Muḥammad. Jacob got the name of "Israel" at Bethel: Gen. 32; 28; 35:10; and his progeny got the title of "The Children of Israel".

3448. Cf. 29:9, and 4:69, n.586.

3449. Cf. 7:80. A discreet reference is made to their unspeakable crimes, which were against the laws of nature.

29. "Do ye indeed approach men,
And cut off the highway?—³⁴⁵⁰
And practise wickedness
(Even) in your councils?"
But his people gave no answer
But this: they said:
"Bring us the Wrath of Allah
If thou tellest the truth."³⁴⁵¹

٢٩- أَتَيْتُكُمْ لَتَأْتُونَ الرِّجَالَ وَتَقْطَعُونَ
السَّبِيلَ ۚ وَتَأْتُونَ فِي نَادِيَكُمُ الْمُنْكَرَ
فَمَا كَانَ جَوَابَ قَوْمِهِ إِلَّا أَنْ قَالُوا ائْتِنَا
بِعَذَابِ اللَّهِ إِنْ كُنْتَ مِنَ الصَّادِقِينَ ۝

30. He said: "O my Lord!
Help Thou me against people
Who do mischief!"

٣٠- قَالَ رَبِّ انصُرْنِي
عَلَى الْقَوْمِ الْمُفْسِدِينَ ۝

SECTION 4.

31. When Our Messengers came
To Abraham with the good news,³⁴⁵²
They said: "We are indeed
Going to destroy the people
Of this township:³⁴⁵³ for truly
They are (addicted to) crime."

٣١- وَلَمَّا جَاءَتْ رُسُلُنَا إِبْرَاهِيمَ بِالْبُشْرَى
قَالُوا إِنَّا مُهْلِكُوا أَهْلَ هَذِهِ الْقَرْيَةِ إِنَّ
أَهْلَهَا كَانُوا ظَالِمِينَ ۝

32. He said: "But there is Lūṭ there." They said:
"Well do we know who
Is there: we will certainly
Save him and his following—
Except his wife: she is
Of those who lag behind!"³⁴⁵⁴

٣٢- قَالَ إِنْ فِيهَا لُوطًا قَالُوا
نَحْنُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنْ فِيهَا ۖ إِنَّ
لَنَنْجِيَنَّهٗ وَأَهْلَهُ
إِلَّا امْرَأَتَهُ ۖ كَانَتْ مِنَ الْغَابِرِينَ ۝

3450. They infested highways and committed their horrible crimes not only secretly, but openly and publicly, even in their assemblies. Some Commentators understand "cutting off the highway" to refer to highway robberies; this is possible, and it is also possible that the crimes in their assemblies may have been injustice, rowdiness, etc. But the context seems to refer to their own special horrible crime, and the point here seems to be that they were not ashamed of it and that they practised it publicly. Degradation could go no further.

3451. This is another instance of their effrontery, in addition to that mentioned in 7:82: the two supplement each other. Here the point emphasised is that they did not believe in Allah or His Punishment, and dared Allah's Prophet Lūṭ to bring about the Punishment if he could. And it did come and destroy them.

3452. See 11:69-76. The angels, who were coming on the mission to destroy the people who were polluting the earth with their crimes, called on their way on Abraham to give the good news of the birth of a son to him in his old age. When they told him their destination, he feared for his nephew who he knew was there. They reassured him and then came on to Lūṭ.

3453. By translating "township" I imply the two neighbouring populations of Sodom and Gomorrah, who had already gone too far in their crime, their shamelessness, and their defiance, to profit by any mercy from Allah.

3454. She was not loyal to her husband. Tradition says that she belonged to the wicked people, and was not prepared to leave them. She had no faith in the mission either of her husband or of the angels who had come as his guests.

33. And when Our Messengers
Came to Lūt, he was
Grieved on their account,
And felt himself powerless³⁴⁵⁵
(To protect) them: but they said:
"Fear thou not, nor grieve:
We are (here) to save thee
And thy following, except
Thy wife: she is
Of those who lag behind.

٣٣- وَلَمَّا أَن جَاءَتْ رُسُلُنَا لُوطًا
سِئَاءَ بِهِمْ وَضَاقَ بِهِمْ ذَمْرًا
وَقَالُوا لَا تَخَفْ وَلَا تَحْزَنْ
إِنَّا مُنَجُّوكَ وَأَهْلَكَ إِلَّا
أَمْرَاتَكَ كَانَتْ مِنَ الْغَابِرِينَ ۝

34. "For we are going to
Bring down on the people
Of this township a Punishment³⁴⁵⁶
From heaven, because they
Have been wickedly rebellious."

٣٤- إِنَّا مُنْزِلُونَ عَلَى أَهْلِ
هَذِهِ الْقَرْيَةِ رِجْزًا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ
بِمَا كَانُوا يَفْسُقُونَ ۝

35. And We have left thereof
An evident Sign,³⁴⁵⁷
For any people who (Care to) understand.

٣٥- وَلَقَدْ تَرَكْنَا مِنْهَا آيَةً بَيِّنَةً
لِّقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ ۝

36. To the Madyan (people)
(We sent) their brother Shu'ayb.
Then he said: "O my people!
Serve Allah, and fear the Last
Day: nor commit evil
On the earth, with intent
To do mischief."

٣٦- وَإِلَى مَدْيَنَ أَخَاهُمْ شُعَيْبًا
فَقَالَ لِقَوْمِهِ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ وَارْجُوا الْيَوْمَ
الْآخِرَ
وَلَا تَعْتَدُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ مُفْسِدِينَ ۝

37. But they rejected him:
Then the mighty Blast³⁴⁵⁸
Seized them, and they lay
Prostrate in their homes
By the morning.

٣٧- فَكَذَّبُوهُ فَخَذَّ يَهُمُ الرَّجْفَةُ
فَاصْبَحُوا فِي دَارِهِمْ جَثِيمِينَ ۝

3455. This part of the story may be read in greater detail in 11:77-83.

3456. The Punishment was a rain of brimstone, which completely overwhelmed the Cities, with possibly an earthquake and a volcanic eruption (see 11:82).

3457. The whole tract on the east side of the Dead Sea (where the Cities were situated) is covered with sulphureous salts and is deadly to animal and plant life. The Dead Sea itself is called in Arabic the Baḥr Lūt (the sea of Lot). It is a scene of utter desolation, that should stand as a Symbol of the Destruction that awaits Sin.

3458. The story of Shu'ayb and the Madyan people is only referred to here. It is told in 11:84-95. Their besetting sin was fraud and commercial immorality. Their punishment was a mighty Blast, such as accompanies volcanic eruptions. The point of the reference here is that they went about doing mischief on the earth, and never thought of the Ma'ād or the Hereafter, the particular theme of this Sūrah. The same point is made by the brief references in the following two verses to the 'Ād and the Thamūd, and to Qārūn, Pharaoh, and Hamān, though the besetting sin in each case was different. The Midianites were a commercial people and trafficked from land to land; their frauds are well described as spreading "mischief on the earth".

38. (Remember also) the 'Ād
And the Thamūd (people):³⁴⁵⁹
Clearly will appear to you
From (the traces) of their buildings
(Their fate): the Evil One
Made their deeds alluring³⁴⁶⁰
To them, and kept them back
From the Path, though they
Were gifted with Intelligence
And Skill.

۳۸- وَعَادًا وَثَمُودًا
وَقَدْ تَبَيَّنَ لَكُمْ مِنْ مَسْكِنِهِمْ^٣
وَنَزَيَّنَ لَهُمُ الشَّيْطَانُ أَعْمَالَهُمْ
فَصَدَّاهُمْ عَنِ السَّبِيلِ
وَكَانُوا مُسْتَبْصِرِينَ^٤

39. (Remember also) Qārūn,³⁴⁶¹
Pharaoh, and Hāmān: there came
To them Moses with Clear Signs,
But they behaved with insolence
On the earth; yet they
Could not overreach (Us).

۳۹- وَقَارُونَ وَفِرْعَوْنَ وَهَامَانَ^٥
وَلَقَدْ جَاءَهُمْ مُوسَى بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ
فَاسْتَكْبَرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا كَانُوا اسْمِعِينَ^٦

40. Each one of them We seized
For his crime: of them,
Against some We sent
A violent tornado (with showers³⁴⁶²
Of stones); some were caught
By a (mighty) Blast;³⁴⁶³ some
We caused the earth³⁴⁶⁴
To swallow up; and some
We drowned (in the waters):³⁴⁶⁵
It was not Allah Who
Injured (or oppressed) them:

۴۰- فَكُلًّا أَخَذْنَا بِذَنْبِهِ^٧
فَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِ حَاصِبًا^٨
وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ أَخَذَتْهُ الصَّيْحَةُ^٩
وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ خَسَفْنَا بِهِ الْأَرْضَ^{١٠}
وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ أَغْرَقْنَا^{١١}
وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيُظْلِمَهُمْ

3459. For the 'Ād people see 7:65-72, and n. 1040, and for the Thamūd, 7:73-79, and n.1043. The remains of their buildings show (1) that they were gifted with great intelligence and skill; (2) that they were proud of their material civilisation; and (3) their destruction argues how the greatest material civilisation and resources cannot save a People who disobey Allah's moral law.

3460. They were so arrogant and self-satisfied, that they missed the higher purpose of life, and strayed clean away from the Path of Allah. Though their intelligence should have kept them straight, Evil made them crooked and led them and kept them astray.

3461. For Qārūn see 28:76-82; Pharaoh is mentioned frequently in the Qur'ān, but he is mentioned in association with Hāmān in 28:6; for their blasphemous arrogance and defiance of Allah see 28:38. They thought such a lot of themselves, but they came to an evil end.

3462. For hāṣib (violent tornado with showers of stones), see 17:68: this punishment as inflicted on the Cities of the Plain, to which Lot preached (54:34). Some Commentators think that this also applied to the 'Ād, but their punishment is described as by a violent and unseasonable cold wind (41:16; 54:19 and 69:6), such as blows in sand storms in the Aḥqāf, the region of shifting sands which was in their territory.

3463. For ṣayḥah (Blast) see 11:67 and n. 1561, as also n. 1047 to 7:78 and n. 1996 to 15:73. This word is used in describing the fate of (1) the Thamūd (11:67); Madyan (11:94); the population to which Lūṭ preached (15:73); and the Al Hijr (15:3), part of the territory of the Thamūd; also in the Parable of the City to which came the three Prophets, who found a single believer (36:29).

3464. This was the fate of Qārūn: see 28:81. Cf. also 16:45 and n. 2071.

3465. This was the fate of the hosts of Pharaoh and Hāmān (28:40) as well as the wicked generation of Noah (26:120).

They injured (and oppressed)
Their own souls.

3466. The Spider's house is one of the wonderful Signs of Allah's creation. It is made up of fine silk threads spun out of silk glands in the spider's body. There are many kinds of spiders and many kinds of spider houses. Two main types of houses may be mentioned. There is the tubular nest or web, a silk-lined house or burrow with one or two trap doors. This may be called his residential or family mansion. Then there is what is ordinarily called a spider's web, consisting of a central point with radiating threads running in all directions and acting as tie-beams to the quasi-circular concentric threads that form the body of the web. This is his hunting box. The whole structure exemplifies economy in time, material, and strength. If an insect is caught in the net, the vibration set up in the radiating threads is at once communicated to the spider, who can come and kill his prey. In case the prey is powerful, the spider is furnished with poison glands with which to kill his prey. The spider sits either in the centre of the web or hides on the underside of a leaf or in some crevice, but he always has a single thread connecting him with his web, to keep him in telephonic communication. The female spider is much bigger than the male, and in Arabic the generic gender of Ankabūt is feminine.

3467. Most of the facts in the last note can be read into the Parable. For their thickness, the spider's threads are very strong from the point of view of relativity, but in our actual world they are flimsy, especially the threads of the gossamer spider floating in the air. So is the house and strength of the man who relies on material resources however fine or beautiful relatively; before the eternal Reality they are as nothing. The spider's most cunning architecture cannot stand against a wave of man's hand. His poison glands are like the hidden poison in our beautiful worldly plants which may take various shapes but have seeds of death in them.

3468. The last verse told us that men, out of spiritual ignorance, build their hopes on flimsy unsubstantial things (like the spider's web) which are broken by a thousand chance attacks of wind and weather or the actions of animals or men. If they cannot fully grasp their own good, they should seek His Light. To Him everything is known — men's frailty, their false hopes, their questionable motives, the false gods whom they enthrone in their midst, the mischief done by the neglect of Truth, and the way out for those who have entangled themselves in the snares of Evil. He is All-Wise and is able to carry out all He wills, and they should turn to Him.

3469. Parables seem simple things, but their profound meaning and application can only be understood by those who seek knowledge and by Allah's grace attain it.

44. Allah created the heavens

45. Recite what is sent³⁴⁷¹

Regular Prayer: for Prayer
Restrains from shameful

وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا تَصْنَعُونَ ۝

46. And dispute ye not
With the People of the Book,
Except with means better³⁴⁷²
(Than mere disputation), unless
It be with those of them

٣٥- وَلَا تَجَادِلُوا أَهْلَ الْكِتَابِ
إِلَّا بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ ۚ
إِلَّا الَّذِينَ

3470. Cf. 6:73 and n. 896. In all Allah's Creation, not only is there evidence of intelligent Purpose, fitting all parts together with wisdom, but also of supreme Goodness and cherishing Care, by which all needs are satisfied and all the highest and truest cravings fulfilled. These are like beckoning signals to lead on those who pray and search in Faith, those who with the most intense desire of their soul can pray, as in Cardinal Newman's Hymn, "Lead, kindly Light! Amid the encircling gloom, lead Thou me on!"

3471. The tilāwat of the Qur'ān implies: (1) rehearsing or reciting it, and publishing it abroad to the world; (2) reading it to ourselves; (3) studying it to understand it as it should be studied and understood (2:121); (4) meditating on it so as to accord our knowledge and life and desires with it. When this is done, it merges into real Prayer, and Prayer purges us of anything (act, plan, thought, motive, words) of which we should be ashamed or which would work injustice to others. Such Prayer passes into our inmost life and being, for then we realise the Presence of Allah, and that is true dhikr (or remembrance), for remembrance is the bringing to mind of things as present to us which might otherwise be absent to us. And that is the greatest thing in life. It is subjective to us: it fills our consciousness with Allah. For Allah is in any case always present and knows all.

3472. Mere disputations are futile. In order to achieve our purpose as true standard-bearers for Allah, we shall have to find true common grounds of belief, as stated in the latter part of this verse, and also to show by our urbanity, kindness, sincerity, truth, and genuine anxiety, for the good of others, that we are not cranks or merely seeking selfish or questionable aims.

Who inflict wrong (and injury);³⁴⁷³

47. And thus³⁴⁷⁵ (it is) that We

 As also do some of these³⁴⁷⁷
 (Pagan Arabs): and none

۴۷- وَكَذَلِكَ أَنْزَلْنَا إِلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ
 فَالَّذِينَ آتَيْنَاهُمُ الْكِتَابَ يُؤْمِنُونَ بِهِ
 وَمِنْ هَؤُلَاءِ مَنْ يُؤْمِنُ بِهِ
 وَمَا يَجْحَدُ بِالْإِيتِنَاءِ إِلَّا الْكَافِرُونَ ○

48. And thou wast not (able)
 To recite a Book before
 This (Book came), nor art thou
 (Able) to transcribe it

۴۸- وَمَا كُنْتَ تَتْلُو مِنْ قَبْلِهِ مِنْ
 كِتَابٍ وَلَا تَخُطُّهُ

3473. Of course those who are deliberately trying to wrong or injure others will have to be treated firmly, as we are guardians of each other. With them, there is little question of finding common ground or exercising patience, until the injury is prevented or stopped.

3474. That is, the religion of all true and sincere men of Faith is, or should be, one; and that is the ideal of Islam.

3475. It is in this spirit that all true Revelation comes from Allah. Allah is One, and His Message cannot come in one place or at one time to contradict His Message in another place or at another time in spirit, though there may be local variations according to the needs or understanding of men at any given time or place.

3476. The sincere Jews and Christians found in the Holy Prophet a fulfillment of their own religion. For the names of some Jews who recognised and embraced Islam, see n. 3227 to 26:197. Among the Christians, too, the Faith slowly won ground. Embassies were sent by the Holy Prophet in the 6th and 7th years of the Hijrah to all the principal countries around Arabia, viz., the capital of the Byzantine Empire (Constantinople), the capital of the Persian Empire (Madā'in), the Sāsānian capital known to the West by the Greek name of Ctesiphon, (about thirty miles south of modern Baghdād), Syria, Abyssinia, and Egypt. All these (except Persia) were Christian countries. In the same connection, an embassy was also sent to Yamāmah in Arabia itself (east of the Hijāz) where the Banū Hanīfah tribe was Christian, like the Hārith tribe of Najrān who voluntarily sent an embassy to Madīnah. All these countries except Abyssinia eventually became Muslim, and Abyssinia itself has a considerable Muslim population now and sent some Muslim converts to Madīnah in the time of the Prophet himself. As a generalisation, it is true that the Jewish and the Christian peoples as they existed in the seventh century of the Christian era have been mainly absorbed by Islam, as well as the lands in which they predominated. Remnants of them built up new nuclei. The Roman Catholic Church conquered new lands among the northern (Germanic) Pagans and the Byzantine Church among the eastern (Slavonic) Pagans, and the Protestantism of the 16th century gave a fresh stimulus to the main ideas for which Islam stands, viz., the abolition of priesthood, the right of private judgement, the simplification of ritual, and the insistence upon the simple, practical, everyday duties of life.

3477. The Pagan Arabs also gradually came in until they were all absorbed in Islam.

50. Yet they say: "Why

۵۰- وَقَالُوا لَوْلَا أُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ آيَاتٌ مِنْ

51. And is it not enough

۵۱- أَوَلَمْ يَكْفِهِمْ أَنَّا
أَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْكَ الْكِتَابَ يُتْلَى عَلَيْهِمْ
إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَرَحْمَةً وَذِكْرَى
لِقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ۝

3478. The Holy Prophet was not a learned man. Before the Qur'an was revealed to him, he never claimed to proclaim a Message from Allah. He was not in the habit of preaching eloquent truths as from a Book, before he received his Revelations, nor was he able to write or transcribe with his own hand. If he had had these worldly gifts, there would have been some plausibility in the charge of the talkers of vanities that he spoke not from inspiration but from other people's books, or that he composed the beautiful verses of the Qur'an himself and committed them to memory in order to recite them to people. The circumstance in which the Qur'an came bear their own testimony to its truth as from Allah.

3479. "Knowledge" ('ilm) means both power of judgement in discerning the value of truth and acquaintance with previous revelations. It implies both literary and spiritual insight. To men so endowed, Allah's revelations and Signs are self-evident. They commend themselves to their hearts, minds, and understandings, which are typified in Arabic by the word ṣadr, "breast".

3480. Cf. the last clause of verse 47 above. There the argument was that the rejection of the Qur'an was a mark of Unbelief. Now the argument is carried a stage farther. Such rejection is also a mark of injustice, a deliberate perversity in going against obvious Signs, which should convince all honest men.

3481. See last note. In the Qur'an, as said in verse 49, are Signs which should carry conviction to all honest hearts. And yet the Unbelievers ask for Signs! They mean some special kinds of Signs or Miracles, such as their own foolish minds dictate. Everything is possible for Allah, but Allah is not going to humour the follies of men or listen to their disingenuous demands. He has sent a Messenger to explain His Signs clearly, and to warn them of the consequences of rejections. Is it not enough?

3482. The perspicuous Qur'an, as explained in detail by Allah's Messenger, in conjunction with Allah's Signs in nature and in the hearts of men, should be enough for all. It is mere fractious opposition to demand vaguely something more. Cf. also 6:124, and n. 946.

SECTION 6.

52. Say: "Enough is Allah
For a Witness between me
And you: He knows
What is in the heavens³⁴⁸³
And on earth. And it is
Those who believe in vanities
And reject Allah, that
Will perish (in the end).³⁴⁸⁴

٥٢- قُلْ كَفَىٰ بِاللّٰهِ بَيْنِي
وَبَيْنَكُمْ شَهِيدًا يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَ
الْاَرْضِ ۚ وَالَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا بِالْبَاطِلِ وَكَفَرُوْا
بِاللّٰهِ اُولٰٓئِكَ هُمُ الْخٰسِرُوْنَ ۝

53. They ask thee
To hasten on the Punishment³⁴⁸⁵
(For them): had it not been
For a term (of respite)
Appointed, the Punishment
Would certainly have come
To them: and it will Certainly reach them—
Of a sudden, while they Perceive not!

٥٣- وَيَسْتَعْجِلُوْنَكَ بِالْعَذٰبِ
وَلَوْ لَا اَجَلٌ مُّسَمًّى
لَّجَآءَهُمُ الْعَذٰبُ
وَلَيَاْتِيَنَّهُمْ بَغْتَةً
وَهُمْ لَا يَشْعُرُوْنَ ۝

54. They ask thee
To hasten on the Punishment:³⁴⁸⁶
But, of a surety,
Hell will encompass
The rejecters of Faith!—

٥٤- يَسْتَعْجِلُوْنَكَ بِالْعَذٰبِ
وَإِنَّ جَهَنَّمَ لَمُحِيْطَةٌۢ بِالْكَٰفِرِيْنَ ۝

55. On the Day that
The Punishment shall cover them
From above them and
From below them,³⁴⁸⁷
And (a Voice) shall say:

٥٥- يَوْمَ يَغْشَاهُمْ الْعَذٰبُ
مِّنْ فَوْقِهِمْ وَمِنْ تَحْتِ اَرْجُلِهِمْ
وَيَقُوْلُ

3483. The test of a Revelation is whether it comes from Allah or not. This is made clear by the life and teachings of the Messenger who brings it. No fraud or falsehood can for a moment stand before Allah. All the most hidden things in heaven and earth are open before him.

3484. If Truth is rejected, Truth does not suffer. It is the rejecters who suffer and perish in the end.

3485. Cf. 22:47 and n. 2826. The rejecters of Faith throw out a challenge out of bravado: "Let us see if you can hasten the punishment on us!" This is a vain taunt. Allah's Plan will take its course, and he can neither be delayed nor hastened. It is out of His Mercy that He gives respite to sinners—in order that they may have a chance of repentance. If they do not repent, the Punishment must certainly come to them—and on a sudden, before they perceive that it is coming! And then it will be too late for repentance.

3486. The challenge of the wicked for Punishment was answered in the last verse by reference to Allah's merciful Respite, to give chances of repentance. It is answered in this verse by an assurance that if no repentance is forthcoming, the Punishment will be certain and of an all-pervasive kind. Hell will surround them on all sides, and above them and below them.

3487. Cf. a similar phrase in 6:65.

"Taste ye (the fruits)
Of your deeds!"³⁴⁸⁸

56. ﴿ My servants who believe!
Truly, spacious is My Earth:³⁴⁸⁹
Therefore serve ye Me—
(And Me alone)!

57. Every soul shall have
A taste of death:³⁴⁹⁰
In the end to Us
Shall ye be brought back.

58. But those who believe
And work deeds of righteousness—
To them shall We give
A Home in Heaven—³⁴⁹¹
Lofty mansions beneath which
Flow rivers—to dwell therein
For aye—an excellent reward
For those who do (good)!—

59. Those who persevere in patience,
And put their trust
In their Lord and Cherisher,

60. ﴿ How many are the creatures
That carry not their own³⁴⁹²

وَعَلٰى رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُوْنَ ○

٦٠- وَكَآيِنٍ مِّنْ دَآبَّةٍ لَا تَحْمِلُ

3488. This is not merely a reproach, but a justification of the Punishment. "It is you who brought it on yourselves by your evil deeds: blame none but yourselves. Allah's Mercy gave you many chances: His Justice has now overtaken you."

3489. There is no excuse for any one to plead that he could not do good or was forced to evil by his circumstances and surroundings, or by the fact that he lived in evil times. We must shun evil and seek good, and Allah's Creation is wide enough to enable us to do that, provided we have the will, the patience, and the constancy to do it. It may be that we have to change our village or city or country; or that we have to change our neighbours or associates; or to change our habits or our hours, our position in life or our human relationships, or our callings. Our integrity before Allah is more important than any of these things, and we must be prepared for exile (or Hijrah) in all these senses. For the means with which Allah provides us for His service are ample, and it is our fault if we fail.

3490. Cf. 3:185, n. 451, and 21:35 and n. 2697. Death is the separation of the soul from the body when the latter perishes. We should not be afraid of death, for it only brings us back to Allah. The various kinds of hijrah or exile, physical and spiritual, mentioned in the last note, are also modes of death in a sense: what is there to fear in them?

3491. The goodly homes mentioned in 16:41 referred to this life, but it was stated there that the reward of the Hereafter would be greater. Here the simile of the Home is referred to Heaven: it will be beautiful: it will be picturesque, with the sight and sound of softly murmuring streams: it will be lofty or sublime: and it will be eternal.

3492. If we look at the animal creation, we see that many creatures seem almost helpless to find their own food or sustain their full life, being surrounded by many enemies. Yet in the Plan of Allah they find full sustenance and protection. So does man. Man's needs—as well as helplessness—are by many degrees greater. Yet Allah provides for him as for all His creatures. Allah listens to the wish and cry of all His creatures and He knows their needs and how to provide for them all. Man should not therefore hesitate to suffer exile or persecution in Allah's Cause.

Sustenance? It is Allah
Who feeds (both) them and you,
For He hears and knows
(All things).

رَزَقَهَا اللَّهُ يَرْزُقُهَا وَإِيَّاكُمْ ۖ
وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ ۝

61. If indeed thou ask them³⁴⁹³
Who has created the heavens
And the earth and subjected³⁴⁹⁴
The sun and the moon
(To His Law), they will Certainly reply, "Allah".
How are they then deluded
Away (from the truth)?

ۖ وَلَئِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ
وَالْأَرْضَ وَسَخَّرَ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ
لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ ۚ
فَأَنَّى يُؤْفَكُونَ ۝

62. Allah enlarges the sustenance
(Which He gives) to whichever
Of His servants He pleases:³⁴⁹⁵
And He (similarly) grants
By (strict) measure, (as He pleases):
For Allah has full knowledge
Of all things.

ۖ اللَّهُ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ
لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ
وَيَقْدِرُ لَهُ ۚ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ۝

63. And if indeed thou ask them³⁴⁹⁶
Who it is that sends down
Rain from the sky,
And gives life therewith
To the earth after its death,
They will certainly reply,
"Allah!" Say, "Praise be
To Allah!" but most
Of them understand not.

ۖ وَلَئِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ نَزَّلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ
مَاءً فَأَحْيَا بِهِ الْأَرْضَ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَوْتِهَا
لَيَقُولُنَّ اللَّهُ ۚ قُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ ۚ
بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْقِلُونَ ۝

3493. Cf. 23:84-89. "Them" in both passages refers to the sort of inconsistent men who acknowledge the power of Allah, but are deluded by false notions into disobedience of Allah's Law and disregard of Allah's Message.

3494. Cf. 13:2, and 23:85. The perfect order and law of Allah's universe should be Signs to man's intelligence to get his own will into tune with Allah's Will; for only so can he hope to attain his full development.

3495. Cf. 13:26. Unequal gifts are not a sign of chaos in Allah's universe. Allah provides for all according to their real needs and their most suitable requirement, according to His perfect knowledge and understanding of His creatures.

3496. In 29:61 above, the point was that there is a certain type of man that realises the power of Allah, but yet goes after false ideas and false worship. Here the point is that there is another type of man to whom the goodness of Allah is made clear by rain and the gifts of nature and who realises the daily, seasonal, and secular changes which evidence Allah's goodness in giving us life (physical and spiritual) and reviving us after we seem to die,—and who yet fails to draw the right conclusion from it and to make his own life true and beautiful, so that when his period of probation in this transitory life is ended, he can enter into his eternal heritage. Having come so far such men fail at the crucial stage. At that stage they ought to have praised and glorified Allah, and accepted His Grace and Light, but they show their want of true understanding by failing to profit by Allah's gifts.

SECTION 7.

64. What is the life of this world
But amusement and play?³⁴⁹⁷
But verily the Home

Life indeed, if they but knew.
65. Now, if they embark
On a boat, they call
On Allah, making their devotion
Sincerely (and exclusively) to
Him;³⁴⁹⁸
But when He has delivered
Them safely to (dry) land,
Behold, they give a share
(Of their worship to others)!
66. Disdaining ungratefully Our gifts,
And giving themselves up³⁴⁹⁹

Will they know.
67. Do they not then see
That We have made
A Sanctuary secure, and that
Men are being snatched away
From all around them?³⁵⁰⁰
Then, do they believe in that
Which is vain, and reject
The Grace of Allah!

٦٦- لِيَكْفُرُوا بِمَا آتَيْنَاهُمْ وَلِيَسْتَمْتَعُوا

٦٧- أَوْ لَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّا جَعَلْنَا حَرَمًا مَأْمُونًا

أَنْبِيَاءَ بَاطِلٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ
وَبِنِعْمَةِ اللَّهِ يَكْفُرُونَ ○

3497. Cf. 6:32. Amusement and play have no lasting significance except as preparing us for the serious work of life. So this life is but an interlude, a preparation for the real Life, which is in the Hereafter. This world's vanities are therefore to be taken for what they are worth; but they are not to be allowed to deflect our minds from the requirements of the inner life that really matters.

3498. Cf. 7:29, where I have slightly varied the English phrase according to the context. It was shown in the last verse that the life of this world is fleeting, and that the true life—that which matters—is the Life in the Hereafter. In contrast with this inner reality is now shown the shortsighted folly of man. When he faces the physical dangers of the sea, which are but an incident in the phenomenal world, he actually and sincerely seeks the help of Allah; but when he is safely back on land, he forgets the Realities, plunges into the pleasures and vanities of fleeting phenomena, and his devotion, which should be given exclusively to Allah, is shared by idols and vanities of his own imagination. (R).

3499. Such folly results in the virtual rejection (even though it may not be express) of Allah and His Grace. It plunges man into the pleasures and vanities that merely delude and are bound to pass away. This delusion, however, will come to an end when the true Reality of the Hereafter will shine forth in all its splendour.

3500. If they want evidences of their folly in the phenomenal world itself, they will see sacred Sanctuaries where Allah's Truth abides safely in the midst of the Deluge of broken hopes, disappointed ambitions and unfulfilled plans in the world around. The immediate reference was to the Sanctuary of Makkah and the gradual progress of Islam in the districts surrounding the Quraysh in the midst of the trying Makkan period. But the general application holds good for all times and places.

68. And who does more wrong³⁵⁰¹
 Than he who invents
 A lie against Allah
 Or rejects the Truth
 When it reaches him?
 Is there not a home
 In Hell for those who Reject Faith?

٦٨- وَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ افْتَرَى عَلَى اللَّهِ
 كَذِبًا أَوْ كَذَّبَ بِالْحَقِّ لَمَّا جَاءَهُ
 أَلَيْسَ فِي جَهَنَّمَ مَثْوًى
 لِّلْكَافِرِينَ ۝

69. And those who strive³⁵⁰²
 In Our (Cause)—We will Certainly guide them
 To Our Paths:³⁵⁰³
 For verily Allah
 Is with those
 Who do right.

٦٩- وَالَّذِينَ جَاهَدُوا
 فِينَا لَنَهْدِيَنَّهُمْ سُبُلَنَا
 وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَمَعَ الْمُحْسِنِينَ ۝

3501. Cf. 6:21. Even from a worldly point of view those who reject Allah's Truth are at a disadvantage. But those who deliberately invent lies and set up false gods for worship—what punishment can we imagine for them except a permanent deprivation of Allah's grace, and a home in Hell? (R).

3502. Strive in Our Cause. All that man can do is to strive in Allah's Cause. As soon as he strives with might and main, with constancy and determination, the Light and Mercy of Allah come to meet him. They cure his defects and shortcomings. They provide him with the means by which he can raise himself above himself. They point out the Way, and all the Paths leading up to it. See next note.

3503. The Way of Allah (ṣirāṭ al Mustaqīm) is a Straight Way. But men have strayed from it in all directions. And there are numerous Paths by which they can get back to the Right Way, the way in which the purity of their own nature, and the Will and Mercy of Allah, require them to walk. All these numerous Paths become open to them once they give their hearts in keeping to Allah and work in right Endeavour (jihād) with all their mind and soul and resources. Thus will they get out of the Spider's web of this frail world and attain to eternal Bliss in the fulfilment of their true Destiny.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 30—AL RŪM

This Sūrah, as remarked in the Introduction to the last Sūrah, deals with the question of Ma'ād or the Final End of Things, from various points of view. In the last Sūrah, we saw that Revelation was linked up with Life and Conduct, and Time (looking backwards and forwards) figured forth the frailty of this Life. In this Sūrah the Time theme and its mystery are brought into relation with human history in the foreground and the evolution of the world in all its aspects in the background. The corruption introduced by man is cleared away by Allah, Whose Universal Plan points to the Hereafter. We shall see that the next two Sūrahs (31 and 32) present the theme in other aspects. All four are introduced with the Abbreviated Letters Alif, Lām, Mīm, which (without being dogmatic) I have suggested as symbolical of the Past, Present and Future.

The chronology of this Sūrah is significant. It was revealed about the 7th or 6th year before the Hijrah, corresponding to 615-16 of the Christian era, when the tide of Persian conquest over the Roman Empire was running strong, as explained in Appendix VIII (to follow this Sūrah). The Christian Empire of Rome had lost Jerusalem to the Persians, and Christianity had been humbled in the dust. At that time it seemed outside the bounds of human possibility, even to one intimately acquainted with the inner resources and conditions of the Persian and Roman armies and empires, that the tables would be turned and the position reversed within the space of eight or nine years. The pro-Persian Pagan Quraysh rejoiced exceedingly, and redoubled their taunts and persecution against the Holy Prophet, whose Message was a renewal of the Message of Christ preached in Jerusalem. Then was this passage 30:1-6 revealed, clearly foreshadowing the final defeat of Persia (Appendix VIII, 14-16) as a prelude to the destruction of the Persian Empire. There is no doubt about the prophecy and its fulfilment. For the exulting Pagans of Makkah laid a heavy wager against the fulfilment of the prophecy with Abū Bakr, and they lost it on its fulfilment.

But the rise and fall even of such mighty empires as the Persian and Roman Empires, were but small events on the chequerboard of Time, compared to a mightier movement that was taking birth in the promulgation of Islam. In the seventh or sixth year before the Hijrah, and for a year or two after the Hijrah, Islam was struggling in the world like the still small voice in the conscience of humanity. It was scarcely heeded, and when it sought to insist upon its divine claim, it was insulted, assaulted, persecuted, boycotted, and (as it seemed) suppressed. The agony of Ṭā'if (two years before the Hijrah) and the murder-plot on the eve of the Hijrah were yet to come. But the purpose of Allah is not to be thwarted. Badr (A.H. 2 = A.C. 624), rightly called the critical Day of Decision, began to redress the balance of outward events in early Islam; in the same year in which Issus (Appendix VIII, 16) began to redress the balance of outward events in Perso-Roman relations. Mightier events were yet to come. A new inner World was being created through Islam. The spiritual Revolution was an infinitely greater moment in world history. The toppling down of priestcraft and false worship, the restoration of simplicity in faith and life, the rehabilitation of this life as the first step to the understanding of the Hereafter, the displacement of superstition and hair-splitting theology by a spirit of rational enquiry and knowledge, and the recognition of the divine as covering not merely an isolated thing called "Religion" but the whole way of Life, Thought, and Feeling—this was and is the true Message of Islam and its mission. Its struggle—its fight—continues, but it is not without effect, as may be seen in the march of centuries in world history.

Summary.—The ebb and flow of worldly power—as symbolised in the conflict of the Persian and Roman Empires—are but outward events: the deeper meaning is in the working of Allah's Universe—how Good and Evil reach their final End (30:1-19, and C. 180).

The changes and changing variety in Allah's Creation, physical, moral, and spiritual, yet point to Unity in Nature and Religion: man should not break away from that Unity, but glorify Him, the One, for there is none like unto Him (30:20-40, and C. 181).

The hands of men have wrought corruption and mischief: but Allah purifies the moral world as He does the world of physical nature, strengthening the weak and pulling down the mighty in due season: wait therefore in patience and constancy, and be not depressed (30:41-60, and c. 182).

C. 180. — Great Empires rise and fall, conquer
(30:1-19.) And are conquered, as happened
To Rome and Persia: but the true Decision
Is with Allah, Who will make the righteous
Rejoice. Men may see but the outward
Crust of things, but in truth the End
Of things is all-in-all. In His own
Good time He will separate good from evil:
Praise and glory to Him forever!

Sūrah 30.

Al Rūm (The Romans)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Ālīf Lām Mīm.³⁵⁰⁴
2. The Roman Empire³⁵⁰⁵
Has been defeated —
3. In a land close by:
But they, (even) after
(This) defeat of theirs,
Will soon be victorious — ³⁵⁰⁶
4. Within a few years.³⁵⁰⁷
With Allah is the Decision.
In the Past
And in the Future:
On that Day shall
The Believers rejoice — ³⁵⁰⁸
5. With the help of Allah.
He helps whom He will,³⁵⁰⁹
And He is Exalted in Might,
Most Merciful.

الْفَجَاءُ الْحَادِي وَالْعَشْرُونَ سُورَةُ الرُّومِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- اَلَمْ

٢- غُلِبَتِ الرُّومُ

٣- فِيْ اَدْنٰى الْاَرْضِ
وَهُمْ قٰلٌ بَعْدَ غَلِبِهِمْ سَيَغْلِبُوْنَ

٤- فِيْ بَضْعِ سِنِيْنَ
لِلّٰهِ الْاَمْرُ مِنْ قَبْلُ وَمِنْ بَعْدُ
وَيَوْمَئِذٍ يُفْرِغُ السُّوْمُوْنَ

٥- يَنْصُرُ اللّٰهُ يَنْصُرُ مَنْ يَّشَآءُ
وَهُوَ الْعَزِيْزُ الرَّحِيْمُ

3504. See n. 25 to 2:1 and Introduction to this Sūrah.

3505. The remarkable defeats of the Roman Empire under Heraclius and the straits to which it was reduced are reviewed in Appendix VIII (to follow this Sūrah). It was not merely isolated defeats; the Roman Empire lost most of its Asiatic territory and was hemmed in on all sides at its capital, Constantinople. The defeat, "in a land close by" must refer to Syria and Palestine. Jerusalem was lost in 614-15 A.C., shortly before this Sūrah was revealed.

3506. The Pagan Quraysh of Makkah rejoiced at the overthrow of Rome by Persia. They were pro-Persian, and in their heart of hearts they hoped that the nascent movement of Islam, which at that time was, from a worldly point of view, very weak and helpless, would also collapse under their persecution. But they misread the true Signs of the times. They are told here that they would soon be disillusioned in both their calculations, and it actually so happened at the battle of Issus in 622 (the year of Hijrah) and in 624, when Heraclius carried his campaign into the heart of Persia (see Appendix VIII) and the Makkah Quraysh were beaten off at Badr.

3507. Bid'un in the text means a short period—a period of from three to nine years. The period between the loss of Jerusalem (614-15) by the Romans and their victory at Issus (622) was seven years, and that to the penetration of Persia by Heraclius was nine years. See last note.

3508. See n. 3506 and Appendix VIII. The battle of Badr (2 A.H. = 624 A.C.) was a real time of rejoicing for the Believers and a time of disillusionment for the arrogant Quraysh, who thought that they could crush the whole movement of Islam in Madīnah as they had tried to do in Makkah, but they were signally repulsed. See n. 352 to 3:13.

3509. Whom He will. As explained elsewhere, Allah's Will or Plan is not arbitrary: it is full of the highest wisdom. His Plan is formed in mercy, so as to safeguard the interests of all his creatures, against the selfish aggrandizement of any section against them. And He is able to carry out His Plan in full, and there is no power that can stop or delay His Plan.

6. (It is) the promise of Allah.³⁵¹⁰
Never does Allah depart
From His promise:
But most men understand not.

٦- وَعَدَ اللَّهُ لَا يُخْلِفُ اللَّهُ وَعْدَهُ
وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ○

7. They know but the outer³⁵¹¹
(Things) in the life
Of this world: but
Of the End of things³⁵¹²
They are heedless.

٧- يَعْلَمُونَ ظَاهِرًا مِّنَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا
وَهُمْ عَنِ الْآخِرَةِ هُمْ غَفِلُونَ ○

8. Do they not reflect
In their own minds?
Not but for just ends³⁵¹³
And for a term appointed,
Did Allah create the heavens
And the earth, and all
Between them: yet are there
Truly many among men
Who deny their meeting³⁵¹⁴
With their Lord
(At the Resurrection)!

٨- أَوَلَمْ يَتَفَكَّرُوا فِي أَنفُسِهِمْ
مَا خَلَقَ اللَّهُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ
وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا إِلَّا بِأَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى
وَإِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ النَّاسِ
بِلِقَائِ رَبِّهِمْ لَكَاذِبُونَ ○

9. Do they not travel
Through the earth, and see
What was the End
Of those before them?
They were superior to them
In strength: they tilled
The soil and populated it
In greater numbers than these
Have done: there came to them

٩- أَوَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ
فَيَنْظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِن
قَبْلِهِمْ كَانُوا أَشَدَّ مِنْهُمْ قُوَّةً
وَآثَارُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَعَمَرُوهَا أَكْثَرَ مِنَّا
عَمَرُوهَا وَجَاءَتْهُمْ

3510. The promise refers to the Decision of all things by the Command of Allah, Who will remove all troubles and difficulties from the path of His righteous Believers, and help them to rejoice over the success of their righteous Cause. This refers to all times and all situations. The righteous should not despair in their darkest moments, for Allah's help will come. Ordinarily men are puffed up if they score a seeming temporary success against the righteous, and do not realise that Allah's Will can never be thwarted.

3511. Men are misled by the outward show of things, though the inner reality may be quite different. Many seeming disasters are really godsendings if we only understood.

3513. Cf. 15:85. Here the argument is about the ebb and flow of worldly power, and the next clause is appropriately added, "and for a term appointed". Let not any one who is granted worldly power or advantage run away with the notion that it is permanent. It is definitely limited in the high Purpose of Allah, which is just and true. And an account will have to be given of it afterwards on basis of strict personal responsibility.

3514. It is therefore all the more strange that there should be men who not only forget themselves but even deny that there is a return to Allah or an End or Hereafter, when a full reckoning will be due for this period of probation. They are asked to study past history, as in the next verse.

Their messengers with Clear
(Signs).³⁵¹⁵
(Which they rejected, to their Own destruction): it was not
Allah who wronged them, but
They wronged their own souls.

رُسُلَهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ
فَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيَظْلِمَهُمْ
وَلَكِنْ كَانُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ يَظْلِمُونَ ۝

10. In the long run
Evil in the extreme³⁵¹⁶
Will be the End of those
Who do evil; for that
They rejected the Signs
Of Allah, and held them up
To ridicule.

۱۰- ثُمَّ كَانَ عَاقِبَةَ الَّذِينَ أَسَاءُوا السُّوْأَى
أَنْ كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ
وَكَانُوا بِهَا يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ ۝

SECTION 2.

11. It is Allah Who begins
(The process of) creation;³⁵¹⁷
Then repeats it; then
Shall ye be brought back
To Him.
12. On the Day that
The Hour will be established,³⁵¹⁸
The guilty will be
Struck dumb with despair.

۱۱- اللَّهُ يَبْدَأُ الْخَلْقَ ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُ
ثُمَّ إِلَيْهِ تُرْجَعُونَ ۝

۱۲- وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ
يُنَبِّئُ الْمُجْرِمُونَ ۝

3515. Let not any generation think that it is superior to all that went before it. We may be "heirs to all the ages, in the foremost files of times." That is no reason for arrogance, but on the contrary adds to our responsibility. When we realise what flourishing cities and kingdoms existed before, how they flourished in numbers and prosperity, what chances they were given, and how they perished when they disobeyed the law of Allah, we shall feel a sense of humility, and see that it was rebellion and self-will that brought them down. Allah was more than just. He was also merciful. But they brought about their own ruin.

3516. The Arabic superlative feminine, referring to the feminine noun 'Āqibah, I have translated by "Evil in the extreme". In this life good and evil may seem to be mixed up, and it may be that some things or persons that are evil get what seem to be good rewards or blessings, while the opposite happens to the good. But this is only a temporary appearance. In the long run Evil will have its own evil consequences, multiplied cumulatively. And this, because Evil not only rejected Allah's Message of Good but laughed at Good and misled others.

3517. Nothing exists of its own accord or fortuitously. It is Allah Who originates all creation. What appears to be death may be only transformation; for Allah can and does recreate. And His creative activity is continuous. Our death is but a phenomenal event. What we become after death is the result of a process of recreation by Allah, Who is both the source and the goal of all things. When we are brought back to him, it will be as conscious and responsible beings, to receive the consequences of our brief life on this earth.

3518. The Hour will be established: in due time the Hour will come when Judgement will be established, and the seeming disturbance of balance in this world will be redressed. Then the Good will rejoice, and the Guilty, faced with the Realities, will lose all their illusions and be struck dumb with despair.

13. No intercessor will they have
Among their "Partners";³⁵¹⁹
And they will (themselves)
Reject their "Partners".
14. On the Day that
The Hour will be established—
That Day shall (all men)³⁵²⁰
Be sorted out.
15. Then those who have believed
And worked righteous deeds,
Shall be made happy
In a Mead of Delight.
16. And those who have rejected
Faith and falsely denied
Our Signs and the meeting
Of the Hereafter—such
Shall be brought forth to Punishment.
17. So (give) glory to Allah,
When ye reach eventide³⁵²¹
And when ye rise
In the morning;
18. Yea, to Him be praise,
In the heavens and on earth;
And in the late afternoon
And when the day
Begins to decline.
19. It is He Who brings out
The living from the dead,

١٣- وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهُمْ مِنْ شُرَكَائِهِمْ شُفَعَاءُ
وَكَانُوا بِشُرَكَائِهِمْ كَافِرِينَ ○

١٤- وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ
يَوْمَئِذٍ يَتَفَرَّقُونَ ○

١٥- فَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
فَهُمْ فِي رَوْضَةٍ يُحْبَرُونَ ○

١٦- وَأَمَّا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا
وَلِقَاءِ الْآخِرَةِ
فَأُولَئِكَ فِي الْعَذَابِ مُحْضَرُونَ ○

١٧- فَسُبْحَنَ اللَّهِ حِينَ تُمْسُونَ
وَحِينَ تُصْبِحُونَ ○

١٨- وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
وَعَشِيًّا وَحِينَ تُظْهِرُونَ ○

١٩- يُخْرِجُ الْحَيَّ مِنَ الْمَيِّتِ

3519. False worship will then appear in its true colours. Anything to which we offered the worship due to Allah alone, will vanish instead of being of any help. Indeed the deluded false worshippers, whose eyes will now be opened, will themselves reject their falsehoods, as the Truth will now shine with unquestioned splendour.

3520. In the fullness of time good and evil will all be sorted out and separated. The good will reach their destination of felicity in rich and luscious, well-watered meadows, which stand as the type of all that is fair to see and pleasant to feel. The evil will no longer imagine that they are enjoying good fortune, for the testing time will be over, and the grim reality will stare them in the face. They will receive their just Punishment. (R).

3521. The special times for Allah's remembrance are so described as to include all our activities in life—when we rise early in the morning, and when we go to rest in the evening; when we are in the midst of our work, at the decline of the sun, and in the late afternoon. It may be noted that these are all striking stages in the passage of the sun through our terrestrial day, as well as stages in our daily working lives. On this are based the hours of the five canonical prayers afterwards prescribed in Madīnah; viz., (1) early morning before sunrise (Fajr); (2) when the day begins to decline, just after noon (Zuhr); (3) in the late afternoon, say midway between noon and sunset (ʿAsr); and (4) and (5) the two evening prayers, one just after sunset (Maghrib), and the other after the evening twilight has all faded from the horizon, the hour indicated for rest and sleep (ʿIshā). Cf. 11:114, nn. 1616-17; 17:78-79, n. 2275; 20:130, n. 2655.

And brings out the dead³⁵²²
 From the living, and Who Gives life to the earth³⁵²³
 After it is dead:
 And thus shall ye be
 Brought out (from the dead).

وَيُخْرِجُ الْمَيِّتَ مِنَ الْحَيِّ
 وَيُحْيِي الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا
 وَكَذَلِكَ تُخْرَجُونَ ۝

C. 181. — Allah's Signs are many, and so are His mysteries:
 (30:20-40.) Yet each does point to His Unity, Goodness,
 Power, and Mercy. There is none like
 Unto Him. His teaching is one, and men
 That split up His standard Religion
 Are but following their own lusts. Ungrateful
 Are they to give part-worship to others,
 When all worship and praise and glory
 Are due to Him and Him alone,
 In Whom we have our life and being!

SECTION 3.

20. Among His Signs is this,
 That He created you³⁵²⁴
 From dust; and then—
 Behold, ye are men
 Scattered (far and wide)!

۝۲۰ وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ تُرَابٍ
 ثُمَّ إِذَا أَنْتُمْ بَشَرٌ تَنْتَشِرُونَ ۝

21. And among His Signs
 Is this, that He created
 For you mates from among³⁵²⁵
 Yourselves, that ye may
 Dwell in tranquillity with them,³⁵²⁶

۝۲۱ وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ خَلَقَ
 لَكُمْ مِنْ أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا
 لِتَسْكُنُوا إِلَيْهَا

3522. Cf. 10:31. From dead matter Allah's creative act produces life and living matter, and even science has not yet been able to explain the mystery of life. Life and living matter again seem to reach maturity and again die, as we see every day. No material thing seems to have perpetual life. But again we see the creative process of Allah constantly at work, and the cycle of life and death seems to go on.

3524. Cf. 18:37 and n. 2379. In spite of the lowly origin of man's body, Allah has given him a mind and soul by which he can almost compass the farthest reaches of Time and Space. Is this not enough for a miracle or Sign? From a physical point of view, see how man, a creature of dust, scatters himself over the farthest corners of the earth!

3525. This refers to the wonderful mystery of sex. Children arise out of the union of the sexes. And it is always the female sex that brings forth the offspring, whether female or male. And the father is as necessary as the mother for bringing forth daughters.

3526. Cf. 7:189. Unregenerate man is pugnacious in the male sex, but rest and tranquillity are found in the normal relations of a father and mother dwelling together and bringing up a family. A man's chivalry to the opposite sex is natural and God-given. The friendship of two men between each other is quite different in quality and temper from the feeling which unspoilt nature expects as between men and women. There is a special kind of love and tenderness between them. And as woman is the weaker vessel, that tenderness may from a certain aspect be likened to mercy, the protecting kindness which the strong should give to the weak.

And He has put love
And mercy between your (hearts):
Verily in that are Signs
For those who reflect.

وَجَعَلَ بَيْنَكُمْ مَوَدَّةً وَرَحْمَةً
إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يَتَفَكَّرُونَ

22. And among His Signs
Is the creation of the heavens
And the earth, and the variations³⁵²⁷
In your languages
And your colours; verily
In that are Signs
For those who know.

۲۲- وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقُ السَّمَوَاتِ
وَالْأَرْضِ وَاخْتِلَافُ لِّسَانِكُمْ
وَالْوَانِكُمْ
إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّلْعَالَمِينَ

23. And among His Signs
Is the sleep that ye take
By night and by day,³⁵²⁸
And the quest that ye
(Make for livelihood)
Out of His Bounty: verily
In that are Signs
For those who hearken.³⁵²⁹

۲۳- وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ مَنَامُكُمْ بِاللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ
وَابْتِغَاؤُكُمْ
مِّنْ فَضْلِهِ
إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يَسْمَعُونَ

3527. The variations in languages and colours may be viewed from the geographical aspect or from the aspect of periods of time. All mankind was created of a single pair of parents; yet they have spread to different countries and climates and developed different languages and different shades of complexions. And yet their basic unity remains unaltered. They feel in the same way, and are all equally under Allah's care. Then there are the variations in time. Old languages die out and new ones are evolved. New conditions of life and thought are constantly evolving new words and expressions, new syntactical structures, and new modes of pronunciation. Even old races die, and new races are born.

3528. If we consider deeply, sleep and dreams, the refreshment we get from sleep to wakefulness as well as from wakefulness to sleep, as also the state of our thoughts and feelings and subconscious self in these conditions, are both wonderful and mysterious. Normally, we sleep by night and do our ordinary work "in quest of the Bounty of Allah" by day. But sleep and rest may come and be necessary by day, and we may have to work by night. And our work for our livelihood may pass by insensible transitions to our work or thought or service of a higher and spiritual kind. These processes suggest a background of things which we know but vaguely, but which are as much miracles as other Signs of Allah.

3529. From verse 20 to verse 25 are mentioned a series of Signs or Miracles, which should awaken our souls and lead us to true Reality if we try to understand Allah. (1) There is our own origin and destiny, which must necessarily be our subjective starting-point: "I think; therefore I am": no particular exertion of our being is here necessary (30:20). (2) The first beginnings of social life arise through sex and love: see 4:1, and n. 506; to understand this in all its bearing, we must "reflect" (30:21). (3) The next point is to understand our diversities in speech, colour, etc., arising from differences of climate and external conditions; yet there is unity beneath that diversity, which we shall realise by extended knowledge (30:22). (4) Next we turn to our psychological conditions, sleep, rest, visions, insight, etc.; here we want teaching and guidance, to which we must hearken (20:23). (5) Next, we must approach the higher reaches of spiritual hopes and fears, as symbolised by such subtle forces of nature as lightning and electricity, which may kill the foolish or bring prosperity in its train by rain and abundant harvests; to understand the highest spiritual hopes and fears so symbolised, we want the highest wisdom (30:24). (6) And lastly, we may become so transformed that we rise above all petty, worldly, ephemeral things: Allah calls to us and we rise, as from our dead selves to a Height which we can only describe as the Heaven of stability: here no human processes serve, for the Call of Allah Himself has come (30:25-27).

24. And among His Signs,
He shows you the lightning,
By way both of fear³⁵³⁰
And of hope, and He sends
Down rain from the sky
And with it gives life to
The earth after it is dead:
Verily in that are Signs
For those who are wise.
25. And among His Signs is this,
That heaven and earth
Stand by His Command:³⁵³¹
Then when He calls you,
By a single call, from the earth,
Behold, ye (straightway) come forth.
26. To Him belongs every being
That is in the heavens
And on earth: all are³⁵³²
Devoutly obedient to Him.
27. It is He Who begins
(The process of) creation;³⁵³³
Then repeats it; and
For Him it is most easy.
To Him belongs the loftiest³⁵³⁴

٢٤- وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ يُرِيكُمْ الْبَرْقَ
خَوْفًا وَطَمَعًا وَيُنْزِلُ
مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَيُخْرِجُ بِهِ الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ
مَوْتِهَا
إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِّقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ ○

٢٥- وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ تَقُومَ السَّمَاءُ وَالْأَرْضُ
بِأَمْرِهِ ثُمَّ إِذَا دَعَاكُمْ دَعْوَةً مِّنَ الْأَرْضِ
إِذَا أَنْتُمْ تَخْرُجُونَ ○

٢٦- وَلَهُ مَن فِي السَّمَوَاتِ
وَالْأَرْضِ كُلٌّ لَهُ قَانِتُونَ ○

٢٧- وَهُوَ الَّذِي يَبْدَأُ الْخَلْقَ
ثُمَّ يُعِيدُهُ
وَهُوَ أَهْوَنُ عَلَيْهِ وَلَهُ الْمَثَلُ الْأَعْلَى

3530. See last note, item (5). Cf. 13:12. To towards lightning and thunder appear as terrible forces of nature: lightning seems to kill and destroy where its irresistible progress is not assisted by proper lightning-conductors. But lightning is also a herald of rain-bearing clouds and showers that bring fertility and prosperity in their train. This double aspect is also symbolical of spiritual fears and hopes—fears lest we may not be found receptive or worthy of the irresistible perspicuous Message of Allah, and hopes that we may receive in the right spirit and be blessed by its mighty power of transformation to achieve spiritual well-being. Note that the repetition of the phrase "gives life to the earth after it is dead" connects this verse with verse 19 above: in other words, the Revelation, which we must receive with wisdom and understanding, is a Sign of Allah's own power and mercy, and is vouchsafed in order to safeguard our own final Future.

3531. In the physical world, the sky and the earth, as we see them, stand unsupported, by the artistry of Allah. They bear witness to Allah, and in—that our physical life depends on them—the earth for its produce and the sky for rain, the heat of the sun, and other phenomena of nature—they call to our mind our relation to Allah Who made them and us. How can we then be so dense as not to realise that our higher Future—our Ma'ād—is bound up with the call and the mercy of Allah!

3532. All nature in Creation not only obeys Allah, but devoutly obeys Him, i.e., glories in its privilege of service and obedience. Why should we not do likewise? It is part of our original unspoiled nature, and we must respond to it, as all beings do, by their very nature.

3533. Cf. 30:11 above, where the same phrase began the argument about the beginning and end of all things being with Allah. This has been illustrated by reference to various Signs in Creation, and now the argument is rounded off with the same phrase.

3534. Allah's glory and Allah's attributes are above any names we can give them. Human language is not adequate to express them. We can only form some idea of them at our present stage by means of Similitudes and Parables. But even so, the highest we can think of falls short of the true Reality. For Allah is higher and wiser than the highest and wisest we can think of.

Similitude (we can think of)
In the heavens and the earth:
For He is Exalted in Might,
Full of wisdom.

فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ۝

SECTION 4.

28. He does propound
To you a similitude
From your own (experience):³⁵³⁵
Do ye have partners
Among those whom your right hands
Possess, to share as equals
In the wealth We have³⁵³⁶
Bestowed on you? Do ye
Fear them as ye fear³⁵³⁷
Each other? Thus do We
Explain the Signs in detail
To a people that understand.³⁵³⁸
29. Nay, the wrongdoers (merely)
Follow their own lusts,
Being devoid of knowledge
But who will guide those Whom Allah leaves astray?³⁵³⁹
To them there will be
No helpers.
30. So set thou thy face
Steadily and truly to the Faith:³⁵⁴⁰

۲۸- ضَرَبَ لَكُمْ مَثَلًا مِّنْ أَنفُسِكُمْ
هَلْ لَّكُمْ مِّنْ مَّا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُكُمْ
مِّنْ شُرَكَاءَ فِي مَّا رَزَقْتَكُمْ
فَأَنْتُمْ فِيهِ سَوَاءٌ
تَخَافُونَهُمْ كَخِيفَتِكُمْ أَنفُسَكُمْ
كَذَلِكَ نُفَصِّلُ الْآيَاتِ لِقَوْمٍ يَعْقِلُونَ ۝

۲۹- بَلِ اتَّبَعَ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا أَهْوَاءَهُمْ
بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ
فَسَنُيْهِدِي مَنْ أَضَلَّ اللَّهُ
وَمَا لَهُمْ مِّنْ نَّاصِرِينَ ۝

۳۰- فَأَقِمْ وَجْهَكَ لِلدِّينِ حَنِيفًا

3535. One way in which we can get some idea of the things higher than our own plane is to think of Parables and Similitudes drawn from our own lives and experience. And such a Similitude or Parable is offered to us now about false worship. See next note.

3536. Allah is far higher above His Creation than any, the highest, of His creatures can be above any, the lowest, of His creatures. And yet would a man share his wealth on equal terms with his dependents? Even what he calls his wealth is not really his own, but given by Allah. It is "his" in common speech by reason merely of certain accidental circumstances. How then can men raise Allah's creatures to equality with Allah in worship?

3537. Men fear each other as equals in a state of society at perpetual warfare. To remove this fear they appoint an authority among themselves—a King or sovereign authority whom they consider just—to preserve them from this fear and give them an established order. But they must obey and revere this authority and depend upon this authority for their own tranquillity and security. Even with their equals there is always the fear of public opinion. But men do not fear, or obey, or revere those who are their slaves or dependents. Man is dependent on Allah. And Allah is the Sovereign authority in an infinitely higher sense. He is in no sense dependent on us, but we must honour and revere Him and fear to disobey His Will or His Law. "The fear of Allah is the beginning of wisdom."

3538. Cf. 6:55, and 7:32, 174, etc.

3539. The wrongdoers—those who deliberately reject Allah's guidance and break Allah's Law—have put themselves out of the region of Allah's mercy. In this they have put themselves outside the pale of the knowledge of what is for their own good. In such a case they must suffer the consequences of the personal responsibility which flows from the grant of a limited free will. Who can then guide them or help them?

3540. For Hanif see n. 134 to 2:135. Here "true" is used in the sense in which we say, "the magnetic needle is true to the north." Those who have been privileged to receive the Truth should never hesitate or swerve, but remain constant, as men who know.

(Establish) Allah's handiwork
according
To the pattern on which
He has made mankind:
No change (let there be)
In the work (wrought)³⁵⁴¹
By Allah: that is
The standard Religion:³⁵⁴²
But most among mankind
Understand not.

فَطَرَتِ اللَّهُ الَّتِي فَطَرَ النَّاسَ عَلَيْهَا
لَا تَبْدِيلَ لِخَلْقِ اللَّهِ

31. Turn ye back in repentance³⁵⁴³
To Him, and fear Him:
Establish regular prayers,
And be not ye among those
Who join gods with Allah—

۝-۳۱ مُنِيبِينَ إِلَيْهِ وَاتَّقُوهُ
وَأَقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ وَلَا تَكُونُوا مِنَ
الشَّارِكِينَ ۝

32. Those who split up
Their Religion, and become (Mere) Sects—each party
Rejoicing in that which³⁵⁴⁴
Is with itself!

۝-۳۲ مِنَ الَّذِينَ فَتَرُوا دِينَهُمْ وَكَانُوا
شِيعَاً
كُلُّ حِزْبٍ بِمَا لَدَيْهِمْ فَرِحُونَ ۝

33. When trouble touches men,
They cry to their Lord,³⁵⁴⁵
Turning back to Him
In repentance: but when
He gives them a taste

۝-۳۳ وَإِذَا مَسَّ النَّاسَ ظُرُّهُمْ دَعَوْا رَبَّهُمْ
مُنِيبِينَ إِلَيْهِ
ثُمَّ إِذَا أَذَاهُمْ

3541. As turned out from the creative hand of Allah, man is innocent, pure, true, free, inclined to right and virtue, and endowed with true understanding about his own position in the Universe and about Allah's goodness, wisdom, and power. That is his true nature, just as the nature of a lamb is to be gentle and of a horse is to be swift. But man is caught in the meshes of customs, superstitions, selfish desires, and false teaching. This may make him pugnacious, unclean, false, slavish, hankering after what is wrong or forbidden, and deflected from the love of his fellow-men and the pure worship of the One True God. The problem before spiritual Teachers is to cure this crookedness, and to restore human nature to what it should be under the Will of Allah.

3542. In 9:36, I translated Dīn qayyim as "straight usage." Here the meaning is wider, as it includes the whole life, thoughts and desires of man. The "standard Religion," or the Straight Way is thus contrasted with the various human systems that conflict with each other and call themselves separate "religions" or "sects" (see verse 32 below). Allah's standard Religion is one, as God is One.

3543. "Repentance" does not mean sackcloth and ashes, or putting on a gloomy pessimism. It means giving up disease for health, crookedness (which is abnormal) for the Straight Way, the restoration of our nature as Allah created it from the falsity introduced by the enticements of Evil. To revert to the simile of the magnetic needle (n. 3540 above), if the needle is held back by obstructions, we must restore its freedom, so that it points true again to the magnetic pole.

3544. A good description of self-satisfied sectarianism as against real Religion. See n. 3542 above.

3545. Cf. 10:12. It is trouble, distress, or adversity that makes men realise their helplessness and turns their attention back to the true Source of all goodness and happiness. But when they are shown special Mercy—often more than they deserve—they forget themselves and attribute it to their own cleverness, or to the stars, or to some false ideas to which they pay court and worship, either to the exclusion of Allah or in addition to the lip-worship which they pay to Allah. Their action in any case amounts to gross ingratitude; but in the circumstances it looks as if they had gone out of their way to show ingratitude.

Of Mercy as from Himself.
Behold, some of them
Pay part-worship to
Other gods besides their Lord—

مِنْهُ رَحْمَةً
إِذَا فَرِيقٌ مِنْهُمْ بِرَبِّهِمْ يُشْرِكُونَ ٣٣

34. (As if) to show their ingratitude
For the (favours) We have Bestowed on them! Then enjoy
(Your brief day); but soon
Will ye know (your folly).³⁵⁴⁶

لِيَكْفُرُوا بِمَا آتَيْنَاهُمْ ٣٤
فَتَسْتَعْتَبُوا فَسُوفَ تَعْلَمُونَ ٣٥

35. Or have We sent down
Authority to them, which
Points out to them³⁵⁴⁷
The things to which
They pay part-worship?

أَمْ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ عَلَيْهِمْ سُلْطَانًا
فَهُوَ يَتَكَلَّمُ بِمَا كَانُوا بِهِ يُشْرِكُونَ ٣٥

36. When We give men
A taste of Mercy,³⁵⁴⁸
They exult thereat:
And when some evil
Afflicts them because of
What their (own) hands
Have sent forth, behold,
They are in despair!

وَإِذَا آذَقْنَاهُ النَّاسَ رَحْمَةً فَرِحُوا بِهَا
وَإِنْ تُصِبْهُمْ سَيِّئَةٌ
بِمَا قَدْ مَنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ
إِذَا هُمْ يَقْنَطُونَ ٣٦

37. See they not that Allah
Enlarges the provision and
Restricts it, to whomsoever³⁵⁴⁹
He pleases? Verily in that
Are Signs for those who believe.

أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ
لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيَقْدِرُ
إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ لِقَوْمٍ يُؤْمِنُونَ ٣٧

3546. Cf. 16:54. They are welcome to their fancies and false worship, and to the enjoyment of the pleasures of this Life, but they will soon be disillusioned. Then they will realise the true values of the things they neglected and the things they cultivated.

3547. Their behaviour is exactly as if they were satisfied within themselves that they were entitled or given a licence to worship God and Mammon. In fact the whole thing is their own invention or delusion.

3548. Cf. 30:33. In that passage the unreasonable behaviour of men in sorrow and in affluence is considered with reference to their attitude to Allah: in distress they turn to Him, but in prosperity they turn to other things. Here the contrast in the two situations is considered with reference to men's inner psychology: in affluence they are puffed up and unduly elated, and in adversity they lose all heart. Both attitudes are wrong. In prosperity men should realise that it is not their merits that deserve all the Bounty of Allah, but that it is given out of Allah's abundant generosity; in adversity they should remember that their suffering is brought on by their own folly and sin, and humbly pray for Allah's grace and mercy, in order that they may be set on their feet again. For, as the next verse points out, Allah gives opportunities, gifts, and the good things of life to every one, but in greater or lesser measure, and at some time or other, according to His All-Wise Plan, which is the expression of His Holy and benevolent Will.

3549. Cf. 28:82 and n. 3412. Also see last note. Allah's grant of certain gifts to some, as well as His withholding of certain gifts from others, are themselves Signs (trial or warnings) to men of faith and understanding.

38. So give what is due
To kindred, the needy,
And the wayfarer.
That is best for those
Who seek the Countenance,³⁵⁵⁰
Of Allah, and it is they
Who will prosper.³⁵⁵¹

۳۸- فَأْتِ ذَا الْقُرْبَىٰ حَقَّهُ وَالْيَتَامَىٰ
ابْنَ السَّبِيلِ ذَٰلِكَ خَيْرٌ لِلَّذِينَ

وَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ○

39. That which ye lay out
For increase through the property
Of (other) people, will have³⁵⁵²
No increase with Allah:
But that which ye lay out
For charity, seeking
The Countenance of Allah,³⁵⁵³
(Will increase): it is
These who will get
A recompense multiplied.

۳۹- وَمَا آتَيْتُم مِّن رِّبَا لِّيَرْبُوَ فِي أَمْوَالِ
النَّاسِ فَلَا يَرْبُوا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ
وَمَا آتَيْتُم مِّن زَكَاةٍ
تُرِيدُونَ وَجْهَ اللَّهِ
فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْمُضْعِفُونَ ○

40. It is Allah who has Created you: further, He has Provided for your sustenance;
Then He will cause you
To die; and again He will Give you life. Are there
Any of your (false) "Partners"³⁵⁵⁴
Who can do any single
One of these things?
Glory to Him! and High
Is He above the partners³⁵⁵⁵
They attribute (to Him)!

۴۰- اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ ثُمَّ رَزَقَكُمْ
ثُمَّ يُيَسِّتُكُمْ ثُمَّ يُحْيِيكُمْ
هَلْ مِنْ شُرَكَائِكُمْ
مَنْ يَفْعَلُ مِنْ ذَٰلِكُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ
سُبْحَنَهُ وَتَعَالَىٰ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ○

3550. For Wajh (Face, Countenance), see n. 114 to 2:112. Also see 6:52.

3551. In both this life and the next. See n. 29 to 2:5.

3552. Ribā' (literally 'usury' or 'interest') is prohibited, for the principle is that any profit which we should seek should be through our own exertions and at our own expense, not through exploiting other people or at their expense, however we may wrap up the process in the spacious phraseology of high finance or City jargon. But we are asked to go beyond this negative precept of avoiding what is wrong. We should show our active love for our neighbourhood by spending our own substance or resources or the utilisation of our own talents and opportunities in the service of those who need them. Then our reward or recompense will not be merely what we deserve. It will be multiplied to many times more than our strict account. According to Commentators this verse specially applies to those who give to others, whether gifts or services, in order to receive from them greater benefits in return. Such seemingly good acts are void of any merit and deserve no reward from Allah since He knows the real intention behind such ostensibly good deeds. (R).

3553. Seeking the "Face" or "Countenance" of Allah, i.e., out of our pure love for the true vision of Allah's own Self. See also n. 3550 above.

3554. The person or thing or ideas to which we give part-worship, while our whole and exclusive worship is due to Allah, are the "Partners" we set up. Do we owe our existence to them? Do they sustain our being? Can they take or give back to us? Certainly not. Then how foolish of us to give them part-worship!

3555. Cf. 10:8 and similar passages.

- C. 182. — The result of Evil is Evil. So
 (30:41-60.) Mischief spreads, but Allah will restore
 The balance in the End. He did create
 All things pure, and will purge and purify,
 As He does the physical world with Winds.
 Destruction awaits those that break
 His Harmony and Law: it will come when least
 Expected. Let the righteous wait and endure
 With constancy, for Evil is shaky,
 With no faith in itself and no roots,
 And is doomed to perish utterly.

SECTION 5.

41. Mischief has appeared
 On land and sea because
 Of (the deed) that the hands
 Of men have earned.³⁵⁵⁶
 That (Allah) may give them
 A taste of some of their
 Deeds: in order that they³⁵⁵⁷
 May turn back (from Evil).
42. Say: "Travel through the earth
 And see what was the End
 Of those before (you):
 Most of them worshipped³⁵⁵⁸
 Others besides Allah."
43. But set thou thy face
 To the right Religion,
 Before there comes from Allah
 The Day which there is³⁵⁵⁹

٣١-ظَهَرَ الْفَسَادُ فِي الْبَرِّ وَالْبَحْرِ
 بِمَا كَسَبَتْ أَيْدِي النَّاسِ
 لِيُذِيقَهُمْ بَعْضَ الَّذِي عَمِلُوا
 لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ○

٣٢-قُلْ سِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ
 فَانظُرُوا كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ
 قَبْلُ كَانَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ مُشْرِكِينَ ○

٣٣-فَاقِمْ وَجْهَكَ لِلدِّينِ الْقَيِّمِ
 مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَأْتِيَ يَوْمٌ

3556. Allah's Creation was pure and good in itself. All the mischief or corruption was introduced by Evil, viz., arrogance, selfishness, etc. See n. 3541 to 30:30 above. As soon as the mischief has come in, Allah's mercy and goodness step in to stop it. The consequences of Evil must be evil, and this should be shown in such partial punishment as "the hands of men have earned," so that it may be a warning for the future and an invitation to enter the door of repentance.

3557. The ultimate object of Allah's justice and punishment is to reclaim man from Evil, and to restore him to the pristine purity and innocence in which he was created. The Evil introduced by his possession of a limited free will should be eliminated by the education and purification of man's own will. For, with his will and motives purified, he is capable of much greater heights than a creature not endowed with any free will.

3558. If you contemplate history and past experience (including spiritual experience), you will find that evil and corruption tended to destroy themselves, because they had false idols for worship, false standards of conduct, and false goals of desire.

3559. We should recover the balance of what has been upset by Evil and Falsehood before it is too late. For a Day will surely come when true values will be restored and all falsehood and evil will be destroyed. Nothing but repentance and amendment can avert the consequences of Evil. When the Day actually comes, repentance will be too late: for the impassable barrier between Evil and Good will have been fixed, and the chance of return to Allah's pattern will have been lost.

No chance of averting:
On that Day shall men
Be divided (in two).³⁵⁶⁰

لَا مَرَدَّ لَهُ مِنَ اللَّهِ
يَوْمَئِذٍ يَصُدُّ عَنْهُمْ ۝

44. Those who reject Faith
Will suffer from that rejection:
And those who work righteousness
Will spread their couch
(Of repose) for themselves
(In heaven):

۴۴- مَنْ كَفَرَ فَعَلَيْهِ كُفْرُهُ ۖ
وَمَنْ عَمِلْ صَالِحًا
فَلَا نُفْسَ لَهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ دُونَ ۝

45. That He may reward those
Who believe and work righteous
Deeds, out of His Bounty.³⁵⁶¹
For He loves not those
Who reject Faith.³⁵⁶²

۴۵- لِيَجْزِيَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
مِنْ فَضْلِهِ
إِنَّهُ لَا يُحِبُّ الْكَافِرِينَ ۝

46. Among His Signs is this,³⁵⁶³
That He sends the Winds,
As heralds of Glad Tidings,
Giving you a taste
Of His (Grace and) Mercy—³⁵⁶⁴
That the ships may sail
(Majestically) by His Command
And that ye may seek³⁵⁶⁵
Of His Bounty: in order
That ye may be grateful.

۴۶- وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ يُرْسِلَ الرِّيَّاحَ
مُبَشِّرَاتٍ
وَلِيُنْذِرَكُمْ مِنْ رَحْمَتِهِ
وَلِتَجْرِيَ الْفُلُكُ بِأَمْرِهِ وَلِتَبْتَغُوا
مِنْ فَضْلِهِ وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ ۝

3560. The sharp division will then have been accomplished between the unfortunate ones who rejected Truth and Faith and will suffer for their rejection, and the righteous ones who will attain Peace and Salvation: see next verse. Note that the state of the Blessed will not merely be a passive state. They will actively earn and contribute to their own happiness: "they will spread their couch of repose for themselves."

3561. Though the repose and bliss will have been won by the righteous by their own efforts, it must not be supposed that their own merits were equal to the reward they will earn. What they will get will be due to the infinite Grace and Bounty of Allah.

3562. In form this clause is (there as elsewhere) negative, but it has a positive meaning: Allah loves those who have faith and trust in Him, and will, out of His Grace and Bounty, reward them in abundant measure.

3563. The theme of Allah's artistry in the physical and the spiritual world was placed before us above in 30:20-27. Then, in verse 28-40, we were shown how man and nature were pure as they came out of the hand of Allah, and how we must restore this purity in order to fulfil the Will and Plan of Allah. Now we are told how the restorative and purifying agencies were sent by Allah Himself—in both the physical and the spiritual world.

3564. Cf. 7:57 and n. 1036 and 25:48 and n. 3104.

3565. In the physical world, the winds not only cool and purify the air, and bring the blessings of rain, which fertilises the soil, but they help international commerce and intercourse among men through seaways and now by airways. Those who know how to take advantage of these blessings of Allah prosper and rejoice, while those who ignore or fail to understand these Signs perish in storms. So in the spiritual world: heralds of glad tidings were sent by Allah in the shape of Messengers: those who profited by their Message prospered in spiritual gain, and those who ignored or opposed the Clear Sign perished spiritually: see next verse.

47. We did indeed send,
Before thee, messengers
To their (respective) peoples,
And they came to them
With Clear Signs: then,
To those who transgressed,
We meted out Retribution:
And it was due from Us
To aid those who believed.
48. It is Allah Who sends
The Winds, and they raise³⁵⁶⁶
The Clouds: then does He Spread them in the sky
As He wills, and break them
Into fragments, until thou seest
Raindrops issue from the midst
Thereof: then when He has
Made them reach such³⁵⁶⁷
Of His servants as He wills,
Behold, they do rejoice!—
49. Even though, before they received
(The rain)—just before this—
They were dumb with despair!
50. Then contemplate (O man!)
The memorials of Allah's Mercy!—
How He gives life³⁵⁶⁸
To the earth after
Its death: verily the Same
Will give life to the men
Who are dead: for He
Has power over all things.

٣٤- وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ رُسُلًا إِلَى
قَوْمِهِمْ
فَجَاءَهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ
فَأَنفَقْنَا مِنَ الَّذِينَ أَجْرُمُوا
وَكَانَ حَقًّا عَلَيْنَا نَصْرُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ۝

٣٨- اللَّهُ الَّذِي يُرْسِلُ الرِّيحَ فَتُثِيرُ سَحَابًا
فَيَبْسُطُهُ فِي السَّمَاءِ
كَيْفَ يَشَاءُ وَيَجْعَلُهُ كِسْفًا
فَتَرَى الْوَدْقَ يَخْرُجُ مِنْ خِلَالِهِ
فَإِذَا أَصَابَ بِهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ
إِذَا هُمْ يَسْتَبْشِرُونَ ۝

٣٩- وَإِنْ كَانُوا مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يُنْزَلَ
عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ قَبْلِهِ لَكِبْلِيسِينَ ۝

٥٠- فَانْظُرْ إِلَى أَثَرِ رَحْمَتِ اللَّهِ
كَيْفَ يُحْيِي الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا
إِنَّ ذَلِكَ لَمِنْ أَمْرِ الْمَوْتِ
وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ۝

3566. Again the Parable of the Winds is presented from another aspect, both physical and spiritual. In the physical world, see their play with the Clouds; how they suck up the moisture from terrestrial water, carry it about in dark clouds as needed, and break it up with rain as needed. So Allah's wonderful Grace draws up men's spiritual aspirations from the most unlikely places and suspends them as dark mysteries according to His Holy Will and Plan; and when His Message reaches the hearts of men even in the smallest fragments, how its recipients rejoice, even though before it, they were in utter despair!

3567. See last note.

3568. After the two Parables about the purifying action of the Winds and their fertilising action, we now have the Parable of the earth that dies in winter or drought and lives again in spring or rain, by Allah's Grace: so in the spiritual sphere, man may be dead and may live again by the Breath of Allah and His Mercy if he will only place himself in Allah's hands.

51. And if We (but) send
A Wind from which³⁵⁶⁹
They see (their tilth)
Turn yellow—behold,
They become, thereafter,
Ungrateful (Unbelievers)!

٥١- وَلَئِنْ أَرْسَلْنَا رِيحًا
فَرَأَوْهُ مُصْفَرًّا لَّظَلُّوا مِنْ بَعْدِهِ
يَكْفُرُونَ ○

52. So verily thou canst not
Make the dead to hear;³⁵⁷⁰
Nor canst thou make
The deaf to hear
The call, when they show
Their backs and turn away.

٥٢- فَإِنَّكَ لَا تَسْمِعُ الْمَوْتَى
وَلَا تَسْمِعُ الصُّمَّ الدُّعَاءَ
إِذَا وَلُّوْا مُدْبِرِينَ ○

53. Nor canst thou lead back
The blind from their straying;³⁵⁷¹
Only those wilt thou make
To hear, who believe
In Our Signs and submit
(Their wills in Islam).

٥٣- وَمَا أَنْتَ بِهَادٍ الْعُمَى عَنْ ضَلَالَتِهِمْ
إِنْ تَسْمِعُ إِلَّا مَنْ يُؤْمِنُ
بِآيَاتِنَا فَهُمْ مُسْلِمُونَ ○

SECTION 6.

54. It is Allah Who
Created you in a state
Of (helpless) weakness, then
Gave (you) strength after weakness,
Then, after strength, gave (you)
Weakness and a hoary head:³⁵⁷²

٥٤- اللَّهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ ضَعْفٍ
ثُمَّ جَعَلَ مِنْ بَعْدِ ضَعْفٍ قُوَّةً
ثُمَّ جَعَلَ مِنْ بَعْدِ قُوَّةٍ ضَعْفًا وَشَيْبَةً

3569. Another Parable from the forces of nature. We saw how the Winds gladdened, vivified, and enriched those who utilised them in the right spirit. But a wind might be destructive to tilth in certain circumstances: so the blessings of Allah may—by the wrongdoers resisting and blaspheming—bring punishment to the wrongdoers. Instead of taking the punishment in the right spirit—in the spirit in which Believers of Allah take their misfortunes—the Unbelievers curse and deepen their sin!

3570. The marvels of Allah's creation can be realised in a general way by every one who has a disposition to allow such knowledge to penetrate his mind. But if men, out of perversity, kill* the very faculties which Allah has given them, how can they then understand? Besides the men who deaden their spiritual sense, there are men who may be likened to the deaf, who lack one faculty but to whom an appeal can be made through other faculties, such as the sense of sight: but if they turn their backs and refuse to be instructed at all, how can the Truth reach them?

3571. See last note. Then there is the case of men about whom the saying holds true, that none are so blind as those who will not see. They prefer to stray in the paths of wrong and of sensory pleasures. How can they be guided in any way? The only persons who gain by spiritual teaching are those who bring a mind to it—who believe and submit their wills to Allah's Will. This is the central doctrine of Islam.

3572. What was said before about the people who make Allah's teaching "of none effect" does not mean that Evil will defeat Allah. On the contrary, we are asked to contemplate the mysteries of Allah's wisdom with another Parable. In our physical life we see how strength is evolved out of weakness and weakness out of strength. The helpless babe becomes a lusty man in the pride of manhood, and then sinks to a feeble old age: and yet there is wisdom in all these stages in the Universal Plan. So Allah carries out His Plan in the spiritual world "as He wills", i.e., according to His Will and Plan, and none can gainsay it. And His Plan is wise and can never be frustrated.

He creates as He wills,
And it is He Who has
All knowledge and power.

يَخْلُقُ مَا يَشَاءُ وَهُوَ الْعَلِيمُ الْقَدِيرُ ۝

55. On the Day that
The Hour (of reckoning)
Will be established,³⁵⁷³
The transgressors will swear
That they tarried not
But an hour: thus were
They used to being deluded!

٥٥- وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ يُقْسِمُ الْمُجْرِمُونَ
مَا لَبِثُوا غَيْرَ سَاعَةٍ
كَذَلِكَ كَانُوا يُؤْفَكُونَ ۝

56. But those endued with knowledge
And faith will say:
"Indeed ye did tarry,
Within Allah's Decree,
To the Day of Resurrection,
And this is the Day³⁵⁷⁴
Of Resurrection: but ye—
Ye were not aware!"

٥٦- وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ وَالْإِيمَانَ
لَقَدْ لَبِثْتُمْ فِي كِتَابِ اللَّهِ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْبَعْثِ
فَهَذَا يَوْمُ الْبَعْثِ
وَلَكِنِّكُمْ كُنْتُمْ لَا تَعْلَمُونَ ۝

57. So on that Day no excuse
Of theirs will
Avail the Transgressors,³⁵⁷⁵
Nor will they be invited (then)
To seek grace (by repentance).

٥٧- فَيَوْمَئِذٍ لَا يَنْفَعُ الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا مَعِدَّتُهُمْ
وَلَا هُمْ يُسْتَعْتَبُونَ ۝

58. Verily We have propounded
For men, in this Qur'ān,
Every kind of Parable:
But if thou bring to them
Any Sign, the Unbelievers³⁵⁷⁶
Are sure to say, "Ye

٥٨- وَلَقَدْ ضَرَبْنَا لِلنَّاسِ فِي هَذَا
الْقُرْآنِ مِنْ كُلِّ مَثَلٍ وَلَئِنْ جِئْتَهُمْ
بِآيَةٍ لَيَقُولَنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا إِنْ

3573. Whatever the seeming inequalities may be now—when the good appear to be weak and the strong seem to oppress—will be removed when the balance will be finally redressed. That will happen in good time—indeed so quickly that the Transgressors will be taken by surprise. They were deluded by the fact that what they took to be their triumph or their freedom to do what they liked was only a reprieve, a "Term Appointed", in which they could repent and amend and get Allah's Mercy. Failing this, they will then be up against the Penalties which they thought they had evaded or defied.

3574. The men of knowledge and faith knew all along of the true values—of the things of this ephemeral life and the things that will endure and face them at the End—unlike the wrongdoers who were content with falsehoods and were taken by surprise, like ignorant men, when they faced the Realities.

3575. It will be no use for those who deliberately rejected the clearest warnings in Allah's Message to say: "Oh we did not realise this!" The excuse will be false, and it would be unreasonable to suppose that they would then be asked to seek Grace by repentance. It will then be too late.

3576. Things of the highest moment have been explained in the Qur'ān from various points of view, as in this Sūrah itself, by means of parables and similitudes drawn from nature and from our ordinary daily life. But whatever the explanation, however convincing it may be to men who earnestly seek after Truth, those who deliberately turn their backs to Truth can find nothing convincing. In their eyes the explanations are mere "vain talk" or false arguments.

Do nothing but talk vanities."

59. Thus does Allah seal up³⁵⁷⁷
The hearts of those
Who understand not.

60. So patiently persevere: for
Verily the promise of Allah
Is true: nor let those³⁵⁷⁸
Shake thy firmness, who have (Themselves) no certainty of faith.

أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا مُبْطِلُونَ ○

٥٩- كَذَلِكَ يَطْبَعُ اللَّهُ عَلَى قُلُوبِ الَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ○

٦٠- فَأَصْبِرْ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ وَلَا يَسْتَخِفَّتْ الَّذِينَ لَا يُوقِنُونَ ○

3577. When an attitude of obstinate resistance to Truth is adopted, the natural consequence (by Allah's Law) is that the heart and mind get more and more hardened with every act of deliberate rejection. It becomes more and more impervious to the reception of Truth, just as a sealed envelope is unable to receive any further letter or message after it is sealed. Cf. also 2:7 and n. 31.

3578. The Prophet of Allah does not slacken in his efforts or feel discouraged because the Unbelievers laugh at him or persecute him or even seem to succeed in blocking his Message. He has firm faith, and he knows that Allah will finally establish His Truth. He goes on in his divinely entrusted task, with patience and perseverance, which must win against the levity of his opponents, who have no faith or certainty at all to sustain them. (R).

APPENDIX VIII.

FIRST CONTACT OF ISLAM WITH WORLD MOVEMENTS

The contemporary Roman and Persian Empires (see 30:2-7 and notes)

The conflict between the Byzantine Emperor Heraclius and the Persian King Khasrau Parwīz (Chosroes II) is referred to in Sūrah 30. (Al Rūm). It will therefore be convenient now to review very briefly the relations of those two great empires and the way in which they gradually decayed before the rising sun of Islam. The story has not only a political significance, but a deep spiritual significance in world history.

2. If we take the Byzantine Empire as a continuation of the Empire that grew out of the Roman Republic, the first conflict took place in B.C. 53, when the Consul Crassus (famous for his riches) was defeated in his fight with the Parthians. If we go back further, to the time of the Greek City-States, we can refer back to the invasion of Greece by Xerxes in B.C. 480-479 and the effective repulse of that invasion by sea and land by the united cooperation of the Greek States. The Persian Empire in those days extended to the western (Mediterranean) coast of Asia Minor. But as it included the Greek cities of Asia Minor, there was constant intercourse in war and peace between Persia and the Hellenic (Greek) world. The cities in Greece proper had their own rivalries and jealousies, and Greek cities or parties often invoked the aid of the Great King (Shahinshah of Persia) against their opponents. By the Peace of Antalcidas, B.C. 387, Persia became practically the suzerain power of Greece. This was under the Achaemenian Dynasty of Persia.

3. Then came the rise of Macedonia and Alexander's conquest of the Persian Empire (B.C. 330). This spread the Hellenic influence as far east as Central Asia, and as far south as Syria (including Palestine), Egypt, and Northern Africa generally. Rome in its expansion westwards reached the Atlantic, and in its expansion eastwards absorbed the territories of Alexander's successors, and became the mistress of all countries with a Mediterranean seacoast. The nations of the Roman Empire "insensibly melted away into the Roman name and people" (Gibbon, chap. ii).

4. Meanwhile there were native forces in Persia which asserted themselves and established (A.C. 10) the Dynasty of the Arsacids (Ashkāniān). This was mainly the outcome of a revolt against Hellenism, and its spearpoint was in Parthia. The Arsacids won back Persia proper, and established the western boundary of Persia in a line drawn roughly from the eastern end of the Black Sea southwards to the Euphrates at a point northeast of Palmyra. This would include the region of the Caucasus (excluding the Black Sea coast) and Armenia and Lower Mesopotamia, in the Persian Empire. This was the normal boundary between Persia and the Roman Empire until the Islamic Empire wiped out the old Monarchy of Persia and a great part of the Byzantine Empire, and annexed Egypt, Palestine, Syria, and gradually Asia Minor, finally extinguishing the whole of the Byzantine Empire.

5. Another stage in Persian history was reached when the Arsacids were overthrown and the Sāsānians came into power under Ardashir I, A.C. 225. The Sāsānian Empire was, in a sense, a continuation of the Achaemenian Empire, and was a reaction against the corruptions of the Zoroastrian religion which had crept in under the Parthian Dynasty of the Arsacids. But the religious reforms were only partial. There was some interaction between Christianity and the Zoroastrian religion. For example, the great mystic Mānī, who was a painter as well as a religious leader, founded the sect of Manichaeism. He flourished in the reign of Shāpūr I (A.C. 241-272) and seems to have preached a form of Gnostic faith, in which Alexandrian philosophy was mixed with Christian doctrine and the old Persian belief in the dual principle of Good and Evil. The Sasānians failed to purify religion and only adhered to fire-worship in arrogance, luxury, sensuality, and monopoly of power and privilege, which it is the office of Religion to denounce and root out. That office was performed by Islam.

6. When the seat of the Roman Empire was transferred to Constantinople (Byzantium) in the time of Constantine (A.C. 330), the conflict between Rome and Persia became more and more frequent. The true Peninsula of Arabia was never conquered either by Rome or by Persia, although its outlying parts were absorbed in either the one or the other at various times. It is interesting to notice that the Roman Emperor Philip (A.C. 244-249) was a born Arab and that the architecture of the Nabataeans in the city of Petra and in Hījr shows a mixture of Roman, Greek, Egyptian, and indigenous Arab cultures.

7. Arabia received the cultural influences of Persia and the Byzantine Empire, but was a silent spectator of their conflicts until Islam was brought into the main currents of world politics.

8. The Yemen coast of Arabia, which was easily accessible by sea to Persia, was the battleground between the Persian Empire and the Abyssinian Empire just across the Red Sea. Abyssinia and Arabia had had cultural and political relations for many centuries. Amharic, the ruling language of Abyssinia, is closely allied with Arabic, and the Amharic people went as colonists and conquerors from Arabia through Yemen. Shortly before the birth of the Holy Prophet, Abyssinia had been in occupation of Yemen for some time, having displaced a Jewish dynasty. The Abyssinians professed the Christian religion, and although their Church was doctrinally separate from the Byzantine Church, there was a great deal of sympathy between the Byzantines and the Abyssinians on account of their common Christian religion. One of the Abyssinian viceroys in Yemen was Abrahah, who conceived the design of destroying the Temple at Makkah. He led an expedition, in which elephants formed a conspicuous feature, to invade Makkah and destroy the Ka'bah. He met a disastrous repulse, which is referred to in the Qur'ān (Sūrah 105). This event was in the year of the Prophet's birth, and marks the beginning of the great conflict which enabled Arabia eventually to obtain a leading place among the nations of the world. The year usually given for the Prophet's birth is 570 A.C., though the date must be taken as only approximate, being the middle figure between 569 and 571, the extreme possible limits. The Abyssinians having been overthrown, the Persians were established in Yemen, and their power lasted there until about the 7th year of the Hijrah (approximately 628 A.C.), when Yemen accepted Islam.

9. The outstanding event in Byzantine history in the 6th century was the reign of Justinian (527-565) and in Persian history the reign of Anawshīrwān (531-579). Justinian is well-known for his great victories in Africa and for the great Digest he made of Roman Law and Jurisprudence. In spite of the scandalous life of his queen Theodora, he occupies an honourable place in the history of the Roman Empire. Anawshīrwān is known in Persian history as the "Just King". They were contemporary rulers for a period of 34 years. In their time the Roman and Persian Empires were in close contact during peace and war. Anawshīrwān just missed being adopted by the Roman Emperor. If the adoption had come off, he would have become one of the claimants to the Byzantine throne. He invaded Syria and destroyed the important Christian city of Antioch in 540-541. It was only the able defence of Belisarius, the Roman general, which saved the Roman Empire from further disasters in the east. On the other hand the Turanian Avars, driven in front of the Turks, had begun the invasion of Constantinople from the western side. Justinian made an alliance with the Abyssinians as a Christian nation, and the Abyssinians and the Persians came to conflict in Yemen. Thus world conditions were hemming in Arabia on all sides. It was Islam that not only saved Arabia but enabled it to expand and to play a prominent part in world history after the annihilation of the Persian Empire and the partial destruction of the Byzantine Empire.

10. The sixth century of the Christian era and the first half of the seventh century were indeed a marvellous period in the world's history. Great events and transformations were taking place throughout the then known world. We have referred to the Roman Empire and the Persian Empire which dominated the civilised portions of Europe, Africa and Western Asia. The only two other countries of note in history in those days were India and China. In India there was the glorious period of Harsha Vardhana (606-647 A.C.), in which art, science, and literature flourished, political power was on a healthy basis, and religious enquiry was bringing India and China into closer relationship. The famous Chinese Buddhist traveller Yuang-Chwang (or Yuang-Tsang or Hsuan-Tsang) performed his pious pilgrimage to India in 629-45. In China, the glorious T'ang Dynasty was established in 618. The Chinese art of that Dynasty led the world. In political power, China extended from the Pacific in the east to the Persian Gulf on the west. There was unity and peace, and China – hitherto more or less isolated – received ambassadors from Persia, Constantinople, Magadha, and Nepal, in 643. But all this pomp and glitter had in it the seeds of decay. Persia and Byzantium collapsed in the next generation. India was in chaos after Harsha's death. The Chinese Empire could not long remain free from the "Barbarians": the Great Wall, begun in the the third century B.C., was soon to be out of date. By about 683 the Khitans from the northwest and the Tibetans from the south were molesting China. The Germans, the Goths and the Vandals were pressing further and further into the Roman Empire. From Asia, the Avars and the Turks were pressing both on the Romans and the Persians, and sometimes playing off the one against the other. The simpler and less sophisticated nations, with their ruder but more genuine virtues, were gaining ground. Into all that welter came the Message of Islam, to show up, as by galvanic action, the false from the truth, the empty from the eternal, the decrepit and corrupt from the vigorous and pure. The ground of History was being prepared for the New Birth in Religion.

11. Anawshīrwān was succeeded on the Persian throne by an unworthy son Hurmuz (579-590). Had it not been for the talents of his able General Bahrām, his Empire would have been ruined by the invasions of the Turks on one side and the Romans on the other. Eventually Bahrām rebelled, and Hurmuz was deposed and killed. His son Khusraw Parwīz (Chosroes II) took refuge with the Byzantine Emperor Maurice, who practically adopted him as a son and restored him to the Persian throne with Roman arms. Khusraw reigned over Persia from 590 to 628. It was to him that the Holy Prophet addressed one of his letters, inviting him to Islam towards the end of his life. It is not certain whether the letter was actually delivered to him or to his successor, as it is not easy to calculate precisely synchronous dates of the Christian era with those of the earliest years of the Hijrah era.

12. In Arabic and Persian records the term Kisrā refers usually to Khusraw Parwīz (Chosroes II) and sometimes to Khusraw Anawshīrwān (Chosroes I), while the term Khusraw is usually treated as generic – as the title of the Kings of Persia generally. But this is by no means always the case. "Kisrā" is an Arabic form of "Khusraw". The name of Anawshīrwān has been shortened from the time of Firdawsī onwards to Nūshīrwān. The Pehlevi form is Anoshek-ruwān, "of immortal soul".

13. The Roman Emperor Maurice (582-602) had a mutiny in his army, and his capital revolted against him. The army chose a simple centurion called Phocas as Emperor and executed Maurice himself. The usurper Phocas ruled from 602 to 610, but his tyranny soon disgusted the Empire. Heraclius, the governor (exarch) of a distant province in Africa, raised the standard of rebellion, and his young son, also called Heraclius, was sent to Constantinople to depose Phocas and assume the reins of power. It was this younger Heraclius, who ascended the throne of Constantinople in 610 and ruled till 642, who figures in Muslim history as Hiraql.

14. Khusraw Parwīz called himself the son of the Emperor Maurice. During his refuge at Constantinople he had married a Byzantine wife. In Nizāmī's Romance she is known as Maryam. According to some historians she was a daughter of the Emperor Maurice, but Gibbon throws doubt on that relationship. In any case, he used the resources of the Persian Empire to fight the usurper Phocas. He invaded the Byzantine Empire in 603. The war between the Persians and the Romans became a national war and continued after the fall of Phocas in 610. The Persians had sweeping victories, and conquered Aleppo, Antioch, and the chief Syrian cities, including Damascus in 611. Jerusalem fell to their arms in 614-615, just 8 to 7 years before the sacred Hijrah. The city was burnt and pillaged, the Christians were massacred, the churches were burnt, the burial place of Christ was itself insulted, and many relics, including the "true Cross" on which the Christians believed that Christ had been crucified, were carried away to Persia. The priests of the Persian religion celebrated an exultant triumph over the priests of Christ. In this pillage and massacre the Persians were assisted by crowds of Jews, who were discontented with the Christian domination, and the Pagan Arabs to whom any opportunity of plunder and destruction was in itself welcome. It is probably this striking event—this victory of the Persians over the Roman Empire—which is referred to in Sūrah 30 (Al Rūm) of the Qur'ān. The Pagan Arabs naturally sided with the Persians in their destructive zeal, and thought that the destruction of the Christian power of Rome would also mean a setback to the Message of the Prophet, the true successor of Jesus. For our Holy Prophet had already begun his mission and the promulgation of Allah's Revelation in A.C. 610. While the whole world believed that the Roman Empire was being killed by Persia, it was revealed to him that the Persian victory was short-lived and that within a period of a few years the Romans would conquer again and deal a deadly blow to the Persians. The Pagan Arabs, who were then persecuting the Holy Prophet in Makkah, hoped that their persecution would destroy the Holy Prophet's new Revelation. In fact both their persecution and the deadly blows aimed by the Persians and the Romans at each other were instruments in Allah's hands for producing those conditions which made Islam thrive and increase until it became the predominant power in the world.

15. The Persian flood of conquest did not stop with the conquest of Jerusalem. It went on to Egypt, which was also conquered and annexed to the Persian Empire in 616. The Persian occupation reached as far as Tripoli in North Africa. At the same time another Persian army ravaged Asia Minor and reached right up to the gates of Constantinople. Not only the Jews and Pagan Arabs, but the various Christian sects which had been persecuted as heretics by the Romans, joined in the fray and helped the Persians. The condition of Heraclius became indeed pitiable. With all these calamities, he had to deal with the Avars who were attacking from the other side of Constantinople, which was practically in a state of siege. Famine and pestilence added to the horrors of the situation.

16. In these desperate circumstances Heraclius conceived a brilliant plan. He knew that the Persians were weak in sea-power. He used his sea-power to attack them in the rear in 622 (the year of the Hijrah). He transported his army by sea through the Aegean Sea to the bay just south of the Taurus Mountains. He fought a decisive battle with the Persians at Issus, in the same plain in which Alexander the Great had defeated the Persians of his day in his famous march to Syria and Egypt. The Persians were taken by surprise and routed. But they had still a large force in Asia Minor, which they could have brought into play against the Romans if Heraclius had not made another and equally unexpected dash by sea from the north. He returned to Constantinople by sea, made a treaty with the Avars, and with their help kept the Persians at bay around the capital. Then he led three campaigns, in 623, 624 and 625, along the southern shore of the Black Sea and took the Persians again in the rear in the region round Trebizond and Kars. Through Armenia, he penetrated into Persia and got into Mesopotamia. He was now in a position to strike at the very heart of the Persian Empire. A decisive battle was fought on the Tigris near the city of Mosul in December 627. Before this battle, however, he had taken care to get the alliance of the Turks and with their help to relieve Constantinople in 626 against the Persians and the treacherous Avars who had then joined the Persians.

17. Heraclius celebrated his triumph in Constantinople in March 628. Peace was then made between the two Empires on the basis of the status quo ante. Heraclius, in pursuance of a vow he had made, went south in the autumn to Emessa (Himş) and from there marched on foot to Jerusalem to celebrate his victories, and restore to its place the Holy Cross which had been carried away by the Persians and was returned to the Emperor as a condition of peace. Heraclius's route was strewn with costly carpets, and he thought that the final deliverance had come for his people and his empire. Either on the way, or in Jerusalem, he met a messenger from the Holy Prophet, carrying a letter inviting him to the True Faith as renewed in the living Messenger of the age. He apparently received the message with courtesy. But he did not realise the full import of the new World which was being shaped according to Allah's plans, and the future that was opening through the new Revelation. Perhaps in his heart he felt impressed by the story which he had heard from the Arabs about the Holy Prophet, but the apparent grandeur of his empire and the pride of his people prevented him from openly accepting the renewed Message of Allah. He caused a search to be made for any Arab who was sufficiently acquainted with the Prophet to tell him something about him. Abū Sufyān was then trading in a caravan in Syria. He was a cousin of the Prophet, and belonged to the Umayyah branch of the family. He was sent for to Jerusalem (Aelia Capitolina).

18. When Abū Sufyān was called to the presence of Heraclius, the Emperor questioned him closely about this new Prophet. Abū Sufyān himself was at that time outside Islam and really an enemy of the Prophet and his Message. Yet the story he told—of the truth and sincerity of the Holy Prophet, of the way in which the poor and the lowly flocked to him, of the wonderful increase of his power and spiritual influence, and the way in which people who had once received the Light never got disillusioned or went back to their life of ignorance, and above all the integrity with which he kept all his covenants—made a favourable impression on the mind of Heraclius. That story is told in dramatic detail by Bukhārī and other Arabian writers.

19. The relations of the Persian Monarch with Islam were different. He—either Khusraw Parwīz or his successor—received the Holy Prophet's messenger with contumely and tore up his letter. "So will his kingdom be torn up," said the Holy Prophet when the news reached him. The Persian Monarch ordered his Governor in Yemen to go and arrest the man who had so far forgotten himself as to address the grandson of Anawshīrwān on equal terms. When the Persian Governor tried to carry out his Monarch's command, the result was quite different from what the great Persian King of Kings had expected. His agent accepted the truth of Islam, and Yemen was lost as a province to the Persian Empire and became a portion of the new Muslim State. Khusraw Parwīz died in February 628. He had been deposed and imprisoned by his own cruel and undutiful son, who reigned only for a year and a half. There were nine candidates for the Persian throne in the remaining four years. Anarchy reigned supreme in the Sāsānian Empire, until the dynasty was extinguished by the Muslim victory at the battle of Madā'in in 637. The great and glorious Persian monarchy, full of pride and ambition, came to an ignominious end, and a new chapter opened for Persia under the banner of Islam.

20. The Roman Empire itself began to shrink gradually, losing its territory, not to Persia, but to the new Muslim Power which absorbed both the ancient Empires. This Power arose in its vigour to proclaim a new and purified creed to the whole world. Already in the last seven years of Heraclius's reign (635-642) several of the provinces nearest to Arabia had been annexed to the Muslim Empire. The Muslim Empire continued to spread on, in Asia Minor to the north and Egypt to the south. The Eastern Roman Empire became a mere shadow with a small bit of territory round its capital. Constantinople eventually surrendered to the Muslims in 1453.

21. That was the real end of the Roman Empire. But in the wonderful century in which the Prophet lived, another momentous Revolution was taking place. The Roman Pontificate of Gregory the Great (590-604) was creating a new Christianity as the old Christianity of the East was slowly dying out. The Patriarch of Constantinople had claimed to be the Universal Bishop, with jurisdiction over all the other bishops of Christendom. This had been silently but gradually questioned by the Popes of Rome. They had been building up a liturgy, a church organisation and a body of discipline for the clergy, different from those of the Holy Orthodox Church. They had been extending their spiritual authority in the Barbarian provinces of Gaul and Spain. They had been amassing estates and endowments. They had been accumulating secular authority in their own hands. Pope Gregory the Great converted the Anglo-Saxon invaders of Great Britain to his form of Christianity. He protected Italy from the ravages of the Franks and Lombards and raised the See of Rome to the position of a Power which exercised ample jurisdiction over the Western world. He was preparing the way for the time when one of his successors would crown under his authority the Frankish Charlemagne as Emperor of Rome and of the West (A.C. 800), and another of his successors would finally break away from the Orthodox Church of Constantinople in 1054 by the Pope's excommunication of the Patriarch of Constantinople and the Greeks. (See the last paragraph in Appendix V.)

References: Among Western writers, the chief authority is Gibbon's Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire: mainly chapters 40-42, and 45-46; I have given references to other chapters in the body of this Appendix: his delineation of the characters of Heraclius and Chosroes II is brief but masterly. L. Drapeyron's French monograph, L'Empereur Heraclius (Paris, 1869) throws further light on an interesting personality. A.J. Butler's Arab Conquest of Egypt (Oxford, 1902) gives a good account of Heraclius. The famous French dramatist Corneille has left a play of Heraclius, but it turns more on an intricate and imaginary plot in the early life of Heraclius than on the character of Heraclius as Emperor. Nizāmī, in his Khusraw-o-Shīrīn (971 H. = 1175-66 A.D.) makes a reference at the end of his Romance to the Holy Prophet's letter to the Persian King, and does attempt in the course of the Romance a picture of the King's character. He is a sort of wild Prince Hal before he comes to the throne. Shīrīn is an Armenian princess in love with Khusraw; she marries Khusraw after the death of his first wife Maryam, daughter of the Roman Emperor, and mother of the undutiful son who killed Khusraw and siezed his throne. Among the other Eastern writers, we find a detailed description of the interview of Abū Sufyān in Bukhārī's Ṣaḥīḥ (book on the beginning of Inspiration): the notes in the excellent English translation of Muḥammad Asad (Leopold Weiss) are helpful. Ṭabarī's History is as usual valuable. Mīrkhond's (Khāwind-Shāh) Rawḍah al Ṣafā' (translated by Rehatsek) will give English readers a summary (at second hand) of the various Arabic authorities. Mawlāna Shiblī's otherwise excellent Sīrah al Nabī is in this respect disappointing. Mawlāna Zafar 'Alī's Ghalaba-i-Rūm (Urdu, Lahore, 1926) is interesting for its comments.

A note on the Persian capitals may be interesting. So long as Persia was under the influence of the Semitic Elamites, the chief residence of the rulers was at Sūsa, near the modern Dizful, about 50 miles northeast of Shūstar. In the Medic or Median period (say B.C. 700 to 550) the capital was, as we should expect, in the highlands of Media, in Ecbatana, the site of the modern city of Hamadān, 180 miles west of modern Tīhrān. Ecbatana remained even in Sāsānian times the summer capital of Persia. With the Achaemenians (B.C. 550 to 330) we come to a period of full national and imperial life. Sūsa was the chief Achaemenian capital from the time of Darius I onwards, though Persepolis (Istakhr) in the mountain region near modern Shīrāz, and about 40 miles northeast of Shīrāz, was used as the city of royal burial. Alexander himself, as Ruler in Persia, died in Babylon. Later, when the centre of gravity moved north and northeast, other sites were selected. The Arsacids (Ashkāniān) or Parthians were a tribal power, fitly called in Arabic the mulūk al Ṭawā'if, and had probably no fixed or centralised capital. The Sāsānian took over a site where there were a number of cities, among which were Ctesiphon and Seleucia on opposite banks of the river Tigris. This site is about 45 miles north of the old site of Babylon and 25 miles below the later city of Baghdād. Ctesiphon and Seleucia were Greek cities founded by one of Alexander's successors. Seleucia being named after Seleucus.

This complex of seven cities was afterwards called by the Arabic name of Madā'in ("the Cities"). The Takht-i-Kisrā (or Arch of Ctesiphon) still stands in a ruinous condition on this site. This seems to have been the chief capital of the Sāsānians at the Arab conquest, which may be dated either from the battle of Qādisīyah or that of Madā'in (both fought in 637 A.D.), after which Persia which then included 'Iraq came into the Muslim Empire. The 'Abbāsī Empire built Baghdad for its capital under Manṣūr in 762 A.D. When that Empire was broken up in 1258 A.D., there was some confusion for two centuries. Then a national Persian Empire, the Ṣafawī (1499-1736) arose, and Shāh Salīm established his capital in the northwest corner in Ṭabrīz. Shāh 'Abbās the Great (1587-1628) had his capital at the more central city of Iṣpāhān (or Iṣfahān). After the Ṣafawī dynasty confusion reigned again for about four decades, when the Afghans were in the ascendant. When the Qāchār (or Qājār) dynasty (1795-1925) was firmly established under Agha Muḥammad Khān. Tīhrān (Tehran), near the Caspian, where his family originated, became the capital, and it still remains the capital under the modern Pehlevi Dynasty.

APPENDIX IX.

COMPARATIVE CHRONOLOGY OF THE EARLY YEARS OF ISLAM

(See paras. 8 and 11 of Appendix VIII.)

The dates after the Hijrah, when given according to the Arabian Calendar, can usually be calculated exactly according to other Calendars, but it is not possible to synchronise exactly the earliest dates of the Arabian Calendar with the dates of the Christian Calendar, and for two reasons. In the first place, there seems to have been some discrepancy between the Calendars in Madīnah and in Makkah. In the second place, the Arabian Calendar was roughly luni-solar, before the years of the Farewell Pilgrimage (Dhu al Hijjah, 10 H. = March 632). The Pagan Arabs were in the habit of counting months by the appearance of the moon, but irregularly intercalating a month once in about three years to bring the calendar up into conformity with the seasons. They did not do it on any astronomical calculations or on any system, but just as it suited their own selfish purposes, thus often upsetting all the old-established conventions about the months of peace and security from war and thus getting an unfair advantage for the clique in power in Makkah over their enemies (see my n. 1295 to 9:36). Unless exact mathematical calculations are applied and reduced to a well-established system, there is apt to be confusion, and this can well be taken advantage of by arbitrary cliques in power. After the Holy Prophet's adoption of the purely lunar calendar for ecclesiastical purposes, there is no confusion. Every date after A.H. 10 is exactly convertible into a corresponding date in any other accurate calendar. Wustenfeld's and other Comparative Tables of Muslim and Christian dates may therefore be relied upon for dates after A.H. 10, but much caution is necessary in synchronisation for earlier dates.

Mawlānā Shibli, in his Sīrah al Nabī, Vol. I, p. 124 (edition of 1336 H., 1918 C.), adopts for the Prophet's Birthday the date 20th April 571, following Maḥmūd Pāshā. They go on the basis of an astronomical event, the total eclipse of the sun that was visible in Madīnah on the day that the Prophet's son Ibrāhīm was taken to the mercy of Allah. But there is no agreement among the authorities as to the exact date either by the Christian or the Arabian Calendar. Shibli, following Maḥmūd Pāshā, takes the date of the eclipse to be the 7th November 632. Muir (Life, ed. 1923, p. 429), assumes some date in June or July 631. L. Caetani (Chronographica Islamica, A.H. 10) gives the date of the eclipse as 4th or 5th July 631, which he synchronises with the 28th or 29th of Rabī' 1, A.H. 10, but he quotes authorities for the death of Ibrāhīm as on the 16th June 631, synchronising it with the 10th of Rabī' 1, A.H. 10. There is something wrong here, as the death and the eclipse occurred on the same day. Wāqidī gives the month as Rabī' 1, A.H. 10, and gives Ibrāhīm a life of 15 months. But if Abū Dāwūd and Bayhaqī are correct, Ibrāhīm lived only 2 months and 10 days, and as his date of birth is given in Dhu al Hijjah A.H. 8, the date of death according to these authorities would be in Rabī' 1, A.H. 9. On a review of all the authorities I feel inclined to accept the date for the eclipse and death of Ibrāhīm as 28th or 29th of Rabī' 1, A.H. 10 = 4th or 5th July 631. But this cannot be asserted with certainty. The French work of reference, L'art de verifier les dates, Paris 1818 (Vol. I, p. 310), gives the date of the solar eclipse as the 3rd of August 631, 2:30 P.M. and according to the system adopted in that book, the corresponding Hijrah date would be the 28th Rabī' 2, A.H. 10.

Even if this particular date was certain and exact, a certain amount of uncertainty remains in counting dates backwards. Most authorities assume a purely lunar year of 354 days for working backwards. Probably the Muslims in Madīnah counted in this way even before the lunar year was fixed exactly in A.H. 10. But the mass of Pagan Arabs in Makkah and elsewhere probably were all the time intercalating a month roughly once in three years, as has been stated before, until their power was utterly destroyed by the conquest of Makkah; and therefore precise exactitude in pre-Conquest date or in the counting of people's ages in years before 8-10 A.H. is unattainable. See a note on this subject in Margoliouth's Life of the Prophet (p. xix. of the 3rd edition) and in Muir's Life (p. x. of the 1923 edition).

The date of the actual Hijrah as given in Caetani may be accepted as Sept.-Oct. 622, being in the month of Rabī' 1. If the ninth of that month would be accepted as the date of departure from the cave of Thawr, the best synchronised date would be the 22nd of September 622 C. But as the first month of the Arab year was (and is) Muḥarram, the Hijrah year 1 is counted as beginning on the 15th or 16th July 622 (= 1 Muḥarram A.H. 1). The formal adoption of the Hijrah era in official documents date from the Khilāfah of 'Umar—from the year 17-18 H. according to Ṭabarī.

Sir Wolseley Haig's Comparative Tables of Muḥammadan and Christian Dates (London, Luzac, 1932), gives in a handy form three comparative Tables which enable the synchronisation of Hijrah years from A.H. 1 to A.H. 1421. The main table for these years was printed earlier at the end of S. Haīm's New English-Persian Dictionary, Tehran, 1931. The exact title of Wustenfeld's German Tables is: Wustenfeld-Mahler, Vergleichungs-Tabellen, Leipzig, 1926 (2nd edition).

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 31—LUQMĀN

The argument of the Final End of Things is here continued from another point of view. What is Wisdom? Where shall it be found? Will it solve the mysteries of Time and Nature, and that world higher than physical Nature, which brings us nearer to Allah? "Yes," is the answer: "if, as in the advice of Luqmān the Wise, human wisdom looks to Allah in true worship, ennobles every act of life with true kindness, but avoids the false indulgence that infringes the divine law—and in short follows the golden mean of virtue." And this is indicated by every Sign in nature.

The chronology of this Sūrah has no significance. In the main, it belongs to the late Makkan period.

Summary—The earnest seekers after righteousness receive guidance, unlike the seekers after vanity, who perish: all Creation bears witness to this: Wisdom, as expounded by Luqmān the Wise, is true service to Allah, and consists in moderation (31:1-19, and C. 183).

True Wisdom is firm and enduring, and discerns Allah's Law in the working of His Creation: it looks to the Final End of Things, whose mystery is only known to Allah (31:20-34, and C. 184).

C. 183. — What is the Book of Wisdom? It is (31:1-19.) A Guide and a Mercy to men, and teaches
 Them how to attain Bliss. Allah's Mercies
 Are infinite: how can man deny them?
 Luqmān the Wise taught grateful worship
 Of the One True God, and the service of men.
 Beginning with Parents; every good deed
 Is known to Allah and is brought to account.
 So walk in the Golden Mean, and serve
 Him with constancy and firmness of purpose.

Those who purchase idle tales,³⁵⁸⁴
Without knowledge (or meaning),
To mislead (men) from the Path
Of Allah and throw ridicule
(On the Path): for such
There will be a humiliating
Penalty.

اُولَٰئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُّهِينٌ

3579. See n. 25 to 2:1 and Introduction to S. 30.

3580. This Sūrah relates to Wisdom and the Qur'ān is appropriately called the Wise Book, or the Book of Wisdom. In verse 12 below there is a reference to Luqmān the Wise. "Wise" in this sense (Hakīm) means not only a man versed in knowledge human and divine, but one carrying out in practical conduct (amal) the right course in life to the utmost of his power. His knowledge is correct and practical, but not necessarily complete: for no man is perfect. Such an ideal involves the conception of a man of heroic action as well as of deep and workman-like knowledge of nature and human nature—not merely dreams or speculation. That ideal was fulfilled in a most remarkable degree in the Holy Prophet, and in the sacred Book which was revealed through him. "The Wise Book" (Kitāb al hakīm) is one of the title of the Qur'ān.

3581. A guide to all, and, to those who accept its guidance, a source of mercy leading them to Salvation.

3582. The righteous are distinguished here by three marks, which are summed up in the phrase "doers of good", viz.: (1) they yearn towards Allah in duty, love and prayer, (2) they love and serve their fellow-men in charity, (3) they win peace and rest for themselves in the assured hope of the Future.

3583. They get the blessings because they submit their will to Allah's Will and receive His guidance. They will do well in this life (from the highest standpoint) and will reach their true Goal in the Future.

3584. Life is taken seriously by men who realise the issues that hang upon it. But there are men of a frivolous turn of mind who prefer idle tales to true Realities and they are justly rebuked here. In the time of the Holy Prophet there was a pagan Naḍr ibn al Hārith who preferred Persian romance to the Message of Allah, and turned away ignorant men from the preaching of Allah's Word.

7. When Our Signs are rehearsed
To such a one, he turns³⁵⁸⁵
Away in arrogance, as if
He heard them not, as if
There were deafness in both
His ears: announce to him
A grievous Penalty.
8. For those who believe
And work righteous deeds,
There will be Gardens
Of Bliss —
9. To dwell therein. The promise
Of Allah is true: and He
Is Exalted in power,³⁵⁸⁶ Wise.
10. He created the heavens
Without any pillars that ye³⁵⁸⁷
Can see; He set
On the earth mountains³⁵⁸⁸
Standing firm, lest it
Should shake with you;
And He scattered through it
Beasts of all kinds.³⁵⁸⁹
We send down rain³⁵⁹⁰
From the sky, and produce
On the earth every kind
Of noble creature, in pairs.³⁵⁹¹

٧- وَإِذَا تُلِيَتْ عَلَيْهِ آيَاتُنَا
وَلَّى مُسْتَكْبِرًا
كَأَن لَّمْ يَسْمَعْهَا كَأَنَّ فِي أُذُنَيْهِ وَقْرًا
فَنَبِّئْهُ بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ۝

٨- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
لَهُمْ جَنَّاتُ النَّعِيمِ ۝

٩- خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقًّا
وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ۝

١٠- خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ بِغَيْرِ عَمَدٍ تَرَوْنَهَا
وَأَلْقَى فِي الْأَرْضِ رَوَاسِيَ
أَنْ تَمِيدَ بِكُمْ
وَبَثَّ فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ دَابَّةٍ
وَأَنْزَلْنَا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً فَأَنْبَتْنَا
فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ ثَمَرٍ ذَكَرْنَاهُ ۝

3585. Such men behave as if they had heard nothing of serious import, or laugh at serious teaching. The loss will be their own. They will miss the higher things of life and be left out of Allah's blessings. Ignorance and arrogance are in most cases the causes of their fall.

3586. He is Exalted in power, and can carry out His Will, and nothing can stop the carrying out of His promise. He is also infinitely Wise: His promise is therefore full of meaning: it is not merely without purpose; it has a place in the Universal Plan.

3587. Cf. 13:2 and n. 1800.

3588. Cf. 16:15 and n. 2038.

3589. Cf. 2:164 and n. 166.

3590. Note the change of the pronoun at this stage in the verse. Before this, Allah was spoken of in the third person. "He", and the acts of Creation referred to were acts that, in the main, were completed when the universe as we see it came into being, though its slow age-long evolution continues. After this, Allah speaks in the first person "We"—the plural of honour, as explained before (see n. 56 to 2:38); and the processes spoken of are those that go on continually before us, as in the case of rain and the growth of the vegetable kingdom. In some way the creation of the heavens and the earth and animal life on it may be considered impersonal to man, while the processes of rain and vegetation may be considered in special personal relationship to him.

3591. I think that sex life in plants is referred to, as in 13:3, where see n. 1804, though the pairs here may refer to animals also. "Noble" (karīm) may refer to the more beneficent plants and trees (and animals), which Allah has created for man's use.

11. Such is the Creation of Allah:
Now show Me³⁵⁹² what is there
That others besides Him
Have created; nay, but
The Transgressors are
In manifest error.

۱۱- هَذَا خَلْقُ اللَّهِ
فَأَنذَرْتُ مَاذَا خَلَقَ الَّذِينَ مِن دُونِهِ
بَلِ الظَّالِمُونَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ۝

SECTION 2.

12. He bestowed (in the past)
Wisdom on Luqmān:³⁵⁹³
"Show (thy) gratitude to Allah."
Any who is (so) grateful
Does so to the profit
Of his own soul; but if
Any is ungrateful, verily³⁵⁹⁴
Allah is free of all wants,
Worthy of all praise.

۱۲- وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا لُقْمَانَ الْحِكْمَةَ
أَنِ اشْكُرْ لِلَّهِ
وَمَن يَشْكُرْ فَإِنَّمَا يَشْكُرُ لِنَفْسِهِ
وَمَن كَفَرَ
كَانَ اللَّهُ غَنِيًّا حَمِيدٌ ۝

13. Behold, Luqmān said³⁵⁹⁵
To his son by way of Instruction: "O my son!
Join not in worship
(Others) with Allah: for False worship is indeed
The highest wrongdoing."

۱۳- وَإِذْ قَالَ لُقْمَانُ لِابْنِهِ وَهُوَ
يُعِظُهُ يَبْنَى لَا تُشْرِكْ بِاللَّهِ
إِنَّ الشِّرْكَ لَظُلْمٌ عَظِيمٌ ۝

14. And We have enjoined on man
(To be good) to his parents:
In travail upon travail
Did his mother bear him,

۱۴- وَوَضَيْنَا لِلْإِنْسَانِ بِوَالِدَيْهِ
حَمَلَتُهُ أُمُّهُ وَهَنًا عَلَى وَهْنٍ

3592. The transition from "We" in the last verse to "Me" in this verse means a still more personal relation to Allah; (see n. 56 to 2:38): as we are now asked about the true worship of Allah, as against the false worship of others besides Allah.

3593. The sage Luqmān, after whom this Sūrah is called, belongs to Arab tradition. Very little is known of his life. He is usually associated with a long life, and his title is Mu'ammār (the long-lived). He is referred by some to the age of the 'Ād people, for whom see n. 1040 to 7:65. He is the type of perfect wisdom. It is said that he belonged to a humble station in life, being a slave or a carpenter, and that he refused worldly power and a kingdom. Many instructive apologues are credited to him, similar to Aesop's Fables in Greek tradition. The identification of Luqmān and Aesop has no historical foundation, though it is true that the traditions about them influenced each other.

3594. Cf. 14:7. The basis of moral Law is man's own good, and not any benefit to Allah, for Allah is above all needs, and "worthy of all praise"; i.e., even in praising Him, we do not advance His glory. When we obey His Will, we bring our position into conformity with our own nature as made by Him.

3595. Luqmān is held up as a pattern of wisdom, because he realised the best in a wise life in this world, as based upon the highest Hope in the inner life. To him, as in Islam, true human wisdom is also divine wisdom: the two cannot be separated. The beginning of all wisdom, therefore, is conformity with the Will of Allah (31:12). That means that we must understand our relations to Him and worship Him aright (31:13). Then we must be good to mankind, beginning with our own parents (31:14). For the two duties are not diverse, but one. Where they appear to conflict, there is something wrong with the human will (see n. 3597).

And in years twain³⁵⁹⁶
Was his weaning: (hear
The command), "Show gratitude
To Me and to thy parents:
To Me is (thy final) Goal.

وَفِصْلُهُ فِي عَامَيْنِ
أَنْ أَشْكُرْ لِي وَلِوَالِدَيْكَ
إِلَى الْمَصِيرِ ۝

15. "But if they strive³⁵⁹⁷
To make thee join
In worship with Me
Things of which thou hast
No knowledge, obey them not;
Yet bear them company
In this life with justice
(And consideration), and follow
The way of those who
Turn to Me (in love):³⁵⁹⁸
In the End the return
Of you all is to Me,
And I will tell you
The truth (and meaning)³⁵⁹⁹
Of all that ye did."

۱۵- وَإِنْ جَاهَدَاكَ عَلَى أَنْ تُشْرِكَ بِي
مَا لَيْسَ لَكَ بِهِ عِلْمٌ
فَلَا تُطِعْهُمَا
وَصَاحِبُهُمَا فِي الدُّنْيَا مَعْرُوفًا
وَاتَّبِعْ سَبِيلَ مَنْ أَنْابَ إِلَيَّ
ثُمَّ إِلَيَّ مَرْجِعُكُمْ
فَأُنَبِّئُكُمْ بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ۝

16. "O my son!" (said Luqmān),³⁶⁰⁰
"If there be (but) the weight
Of a mustard seed and
It were (hidden) in a rock,³⁶⁰¹

۱۶- يَبْنِيَنَّ إِنَّمَا إِنْ تَكُ مِثْقَالَ حَبَّةٍ
مِنْ خَرْدَلٍ فَتَكُنْ فِي صَخْرَةٍ

3596. The set of milk teeth in a human child is completed at the age of two years, which is therefore the natural extreme limit for breast-feeding. In our artificial life the duration is much less.

3597. Where the duty to man conflicts with the duty to Allah, it means that there is something wrong with the human will, and we should obey Allah rather than man. But even here, it does not mean that we should be arrogant or insolent. To parents and those in authority, we must be kind, considerate, and courteous, even where they command things which we should not do and therefore disobedience becomes our highest duty.

The worship of things other than Allah is the worship of false things, things which are alien to our true knowledge, things that go against our own pure nature as created by Allah.

3598. In any apparent conflict of duties our standard should be Allah's Will, as declared to us by His command. That is the way of those who love Allah and their motive in disobedience to parents or human authority where disobedience is necessary by Allah's Law, is not self-willed rebellion or defiance, but love of Allah, which means the true love of man in the highest sense of the word. And the reason we should give is, "Both you and I have to return to Allah: therefore not only must I follow Allah's Will, but you must command nothing against Allah's will."

3599. These conflicts may appear to us strange and puzzling in this life. But in Allah's Presence we shall see their real meaning and significance. It may be that that was one way in which our true mettle could be tested: for it is not easy to disobey and love man at the same time.

3600. Verses 14-15 are not the direct speech of Luqmān but flow by way of commentary on his teaching. He was speaking as a father to his son, and he could not very well urge respect for himself and draw the son's attention to the limitations of that obedience. These verses may be supposed to be general directions flowing from Luqmān's teaching to men, and not directed to his son, though in either case, as Luqmān received wisdom from Allah, it is divine principles that are enunciated.

3601. The mustard seed is proverbially a small, minute thing, that people may ordinarily pass by. Not so Allah. Further emphasis is laid by supposing the mustard seed to be hidden beneath a rock or in the cleft of a rock, or to be lost in the spaciousness of the earth or the heavens. To Allah everything is known, and He will bring it forth; i.e., take account of it.

Or (anywhere) in the heavens or
On earth. Allah will bring it
Forth: for Allah understands³⁶⁰²
The finer mysteries, (and)
Is well-acquainted (with them).

أَوْفَى السَّمَوَاتِ أَوْ فَى الْأَرْضِ يَأْتِ بِهَا
اللَّهُ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَطِيفٌ خَبِيرٌ ٥

17. "O my son! establish
Regular prayer, enjoin what is
Just, and forbid what is wrong;
And bear with patient constancy
Whate'er betide thee; for this
Is firmness (of purpose)
In (the conduct of) affairs.

١٧- يٰبُنَىَّ أَقِمِ الصَّلَاةَ
وَأْمُرْ بِالْمَعْرُوفِ وَأَنْهَ عَنِ الْمُنْكَرِ
وَاصْبِرْ عَلَى مَا أَصَابَكَ
إِنَّ ذَلِكَ مِنْ عَزْمِ الْأُمُورِ ٦

18. "And swell not thy cheek³⁶⁰³
(For pride) at men,
Nor walk in insolence
Through the earth:
For Allah loveth not
Any arrogant boaster.

١٨- وَلَا تَصْغَرَ خَدَّكَ لِلنَّاسِ
وَلَا تَمْشِ فِى الْأَرْضِ مَرَحًا
إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يُحِبُّ كُلَّ مُخْتَالٍ فَخُورٍ ٧

19. "And be moderate
In thy pace, and lower³⁶⁰⁴
Thy voice; for the harshest
Of sounds without doubt
Is the braying of the ass."

١٩- وَاقْصِدْ فِى مَشْيِكَ وَاعْضَضْ مِنْ
صَوْتِكَ إِنْ أَنْكَرَ
الْأَصْوَاتِ لَصَوْتُ الْحَمِيرِ ٨

C. 184. — True Wisdom sees Allah's boundless Bounties
(31:20-34.) To man, and how all nature is made
To serve man's ends. It is due from us
To know our place, discern the limits
Of our knowledge, and see how far above us
Is Allah's Wisdom, and His Law. Let us not Deceive ourselves. The end of all things
Will come, but the When and the How are known
To Allah alone, to Whom be all Praise!

3602. For Latīf as a title applied to Allah, see n. 2844 to 22:63.

3603. The word "cheek" in English, too, means arrogance or effrontery, with a slightly different shade added, viz.: effrontery from one in an inferior position to one in a superior position. The Arabic usage is wider, and includes smug self-satisfaction and a sense of lofty superiority.

3604. The "Golden Mean" is the pivot of the philosophy of Luqmān as it is the philosophy of Aristotle and indeed of Islam. And it flows naturally from a true understanding of our relation to Allah and His universe and to you fellow-creatures, especially man. In all things be moderate. Do not go the pace, and, do not stand stationary or slow. Do not be talkative and do not be silent. Do not be loud and do not be timid or half-hearted. Do not be too confident, and do not be cowed down. If you have patience, it is to give you constancy and determination, that you may bravely carry on the struggle of life. If you have humility, it is to save you from unseemly swagger, not to curb your right spirit and your reasoned determination.

SECTION 3.

20. Do ye not see
That Allah has subjected³⁶⁰⁵
To your (use) all things
In the heavens and on earth,
And has made His bounties
Flow to you in exceeding Measure, (both) seen and unseen?³⁶⁰⁶
Yet there are among men
Those who dispute about Allah,
Without knowledge and without
Guidance, and without a Book.³⁶⁰⁷
To enlighten them!
21. When they are told to follow
The (Revelation) that Allah
Has sent down, they say:
"Nay, we shall follow
The ways that we found
Our fathers (following)."³⁶⁰⁸
What! even if it is
Satan beckoning them
To the Penalty
Of the (Blazing) Fire?
22. Whoever submits
His whole self to Allah,
And is a doer of good,
Has grasped indeed
The most trustworthy handhold;³⁶⁰⁹
And with Allah rests the End³⁶¹⁰
And Decision of (all) affairs.

٢٠- أَلَمْ تَرَوْا أَنَّ اللَّهَ سَخَّرَ
لَكُمْ قَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ
وَأَسْبَغَ عَلَيْكُمْ نِعَمَهُ ظَاهِرَةً وَبَاطِنَةً
وَمِنَ النَّاسِ مَن يُجَادِلُ فِي اللَّهِ
بِغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ وَلَا هُدًى
وَلَا كِتَابٍ مُّنِيرٍ ۝

٢١- وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمُ اتَّبِعُوا مَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ
قَالُوا بَلْ نَتَّبِعُ
مَا وَجَدْنَا عَلَيْهِ آبَاءَنَا
أَوَلَوْ كَانَ الشَّيْطَانُ يَدْعُوهُمْ
إِلَى عَذَابِ السَّعِيرِ ۝

٢٢- وَمَن يُسَلِّمْ وَجْهَهُ إِلَى اللَّهِ
وَهُوَ مُحْسِنٌ
فَقَدْ اسْتَسْلَكَ بِالْعُرْوَةِ الْوُثْقَىٰ
وَرَأَىٰ إِلَى اللَّهِ عَاقِبَةَ الْأُمُورِ ۝

3605. Allah's Creation is independent of man. But Allah, in His infinite mercy, has given man the faculty to subdue the forces of nature and to penetrate through high mysteries with his powers of reason and insight. But this is not merely a question of power. For in His Universal Plan, all are safeguarded. But man's destiny, as far as we can see, is noble to the highest degree.

3606 Allah's grace and bounties work for us at all times. Sometimes we see them, and sometimes we do not. In things which we can apprehend with our senses, we can see Allah's grace, but even in them, sometimes it works beyond the sphere of our knowledge. In the inner or spiritual world, sometimes, when our vision is clear, we can see it working, and often we are not conscious of it, but it works all the same.

3607. Such men lack knowledge, as they make no use of their intellects but are swayed by their passions; they lack guidance, as they are impatient of control; and the fruits of revelation, or spiritual insight, do not reach them, as they reject Faith and Revelation.

3608. They do not realise that in the spiritual world, as in the physical world, there is constant progress for the live ones: they are spiritually dead, as they are content to stand on ancestral ways, many of them evil, and leading to perdition.

3609. Cf. 2:256 and n. 301.

3610. Cf. 22:41. Everything goes back to Allah. He is our final Goal, as He is the final Goal of all things.

23. But if any reject Faith,
Let not his rejection
Grieve thee: to Us³⁶¹¹
Is their Return, and We Shall tell them the truth
Of their deeds: for Allah
Knows well all that is
In (men's) hearts.
24. We grant them their pleasure
For a little while:³⁶¹²
In the end shall We Drive them to
A chastisement unrelenting.
25. If thou ask them,
Who it is that created
The heavens and the earth,³⁶¹³
They will certainly say,
"Allah". Say: "Praise be to Allah."³⁶¹⁴
But most of them
Understand not.
26. To Allah belong all things
In heaven and earth: verily
Allah is He (that is)
Free of all wants,
Worthy of all praise.³⁶¹⁵

۲۳- وَمَنْ كَفَرَ فَلَا يَحْزُنكَ كُفْرُهُ
إِنَّا مَرْجِعُهُمْ
فَنُنَبِّئُهُم بِمَا عَمِلُوا
إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ

۲۴- نَبِّئُهُمْ قَلِيلًا
ثُمَّ نَضْطَرُّهُمْ إِلَىٰ عَذَابٍ غَلِيظٍ

۲۵- وَلَكِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَ
السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ لَيَقُولُنَّ
اللَّهُ قُلِ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ
بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

۲۶- لِلَّهِ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْغَنِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ

3611. The man of God should not grieve because people reject Faith. He should do his duty and leave the rest to Allah. Every soul must return to Allah for his reckoning. Allah knows everything, and his Universal Plan is full of wisdom.

3612. Cf. 2:126. The respite in this life is of short duration. The ultimate Penalty of Evil is such as cannot be quenched. Cf. 14:17. It will be too late then to repent.

3613. Cf. 23:84-89, and 29:61 and n. 3493. Men will acknowledge that Allah created the heavens and the earth, and yet fail to understand the love and goodness of Allah in continuing to cherish and maintain them with His gifts. Even if they allow this, they sometimes yet fall short of the corollary, that He is the only One to be worshipped, and run after their own false gods in the shapes of their fancies and lusts. They do not do the duties which, if they rightly understood their own nature and position, they should take a delight in doing.

3614. This ejaculation expresses our satisfaction that at least this is recognised — that the Creator of the whole world is Allah. It is a pity that they do not go further and recognise other facts and duties (see the last note).

3615. Cf. above, 31:12. There was begun the argument about showing gratitude to Allah, introducing Luqmān's teaching and philosophy. Such gratitude is shown by our understanding His love and doing our duty to Him by serving our fellow-men. For Allah Himself is Free from all wants and is in no way dependent on our service. That argument has been illustrated in various ways. But now we are told that it can never be completed, for no human tongue or human resources can be adequate either to praise him or to expound His Word.

27. And if all the trees
On earth were pens
And the Ocean (were ink),
With seven Oceans behind it
To add to its (supply),
Yet would not the Words³⁶¹⁶
Of Allah be exhausted
(In the writing): for Allah
Is Exalted in power,
Full of Wisdom.
28. And your creation
Or your resurrection
Is in no wise but
As an individual soul:³⁶¹⁷
For Allah is He Who
Hears and sees (all things).
29. Seest thou not that
Allah merges Night into Day³⁶¹⁸
And He merges Day into Night;
That He has subjected the sun
And the moon (to His Law),
Each running its course
For a term appointed; and
That Allah is well acquainted
With all that ye do?
30. That is because Allah is
The (only) Reality, and because
Whatever else they invoke³⁶¹⁹

۞ وَلَوْ أَنَّ مَا فِي الْأَرْضِ مِنْ شَجَرَةٍ
أَفَلَاةٌ وَالْبَحْرِ يَدُّهُ
مِنْ بَعْدِهِ سَبْعَةُ أَبْحُرٍ
مَا نَفِدَتْ كَلِمَاتُ اللَّهِ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزِيزٌ حَكِيمٌ ۝

۞ مَا خَلَقَكُمْ وَلَا بَعَثَكُمْ
إِلَّا كَنَفْسٍ وَاحِدَةٍ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ سَمِيعٌ بَصِيرٌ ۝

۞ أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يُولِجُ اللَّيْلَ فِي النَّهَارِ
وَيُولِجُ النَّهَارَ فِي اللَّيْلِ
وَسَخَّرَ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ
كُلٌّ يَجْرِي إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى
وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ ۝
۳۰ ذَٰلِكَ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْحَقُّ
وَأَنَّ مَا يُدْعَوْنَ

3616. Words of Allah: His wonderful Signs and Commandments are infinite and cannot be expressed if all the trees were made into pens, and all the wide Ocean, multiplied seven times, were made into ink. Any Book of His Revelation would deal with matters which man can understand and use in his life: there are mysteries beyond mysteries that man can never fathom. Nor would any praise that we could write with infinite resources be adequate to describe His power, glory, and wisdom.

3617. Allah's greatness and infinitude are such that He can create and cherish not only a whole mass, but each individual soul, and He can follow its history and doings until the final Judgement. This shows not only Allah's glory and omniscience and omnipotence: it also shows the value of each individual soul in His eyes, and lifts individual responsibility right up into relations with Him.

3618. Cf. 22:61 and n. 2841. Even when we can form a conception of Allah's infinitude by His dealings with each individual in His Creation as in verse 28 above, it is still inadequate. What is an individual himself? What is his relation to the universal Laws of Allah? In outer nature we can see that there is no clear-cut line between night and day: each merges into the other. Yet the sun and the moon obey definite laws. Though they seem to go on forever. Yet their existence and duration themselves are but an atom in Allah's great universe. How much more "merging" and imperceptible gradation there is in the inner and spiritual world? Our actions themselves cannot be classified and ticketed and labelled when examined in relation to motives and circumstances. Yet they are like an open book before Allah.

3619. Cf. 22:62 and note 2842 and 2843. All the wonderful complexities, gradations, and nuances, that we find in Creation, are yet blended in one harmonious whole, that obeys Law and exemplifies Order. They therefore point to the One True God. He is the only Eternal Reality. Anything put up in competition or equality with Him is only Falsehood, for He is higher and greater than anything we can imagine. (R).

Besides Him is Falsehood;
And because Allah—He is
The Most High, Most Great.

31. Seest thou not that
The ships sail through
The Ocean by the grace
Of Allah?—that He may
Show you of His Signs?
Verily in this are Signs
For all who constantly persevere³⁶²⁰
And give thanks.

۳۱- أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ الْفُلُكَ تَجْرِي
فِي الْبَحْرِ بِنِعْمَتِ اللَّهِ

32. When a wave covers them
Like the canopy (of clouds),
They call to Allah,
Offering Him sincere devotion,³⁶²¹
But when He has delivered them
Safely to land, there are
Among them those that halt³⁶²²
Between (right and wrong).
But none reject Our Signs
Except only a perfidious
Ungrateful (wretch)!

۳۲- وَإِذَا غَشِيَهُمْ مَوْجٌ كَالظُّلُمِ
دَعَا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ ۚ
فَلَمَّا بَلَغَهُمُ الْبَرْقُفُهُمْ مُقْتَصِدُونَ
وَمَا يَمْجِدُ بِآيَتِنَا

33. O mankind! do your duty
To your Lord, and fear
(The coming of) a Day
When no father can avail
Aught for his son, nor
A son avail aught
For his father.³⁶²³
Verily, the promise of Allah

۳۳- يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اتَّقُوا رَبَّكُمُ وَاحْشَوْا
يَوْمًا لَا يَجْزِي وَالِدٌ عَنْ وَلَدِهِ
وَلَا مَوْلُودٌ هُوَ جَارٌ عَنْ وَالِدِهِ شَيْئًا
إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ

3620. Even the things that man makes are, as using the forces of Nature, evidence of the grace of Allah. Who has subdued these wonderful forces to the use of man. But this gift of mastery can only be understood and appreciated by constant perseverance, combined with a recognition of the divine gifts ("giving thanks"). Ṣabbār is an intensive form of ṣabr and I have indicated it by the adverb "constantly".

3621. Cf. 7:29. Unlike the people mentioned in the last verse, who constantly seek Allah's help and give thanks for His mercies by using them aright and doing their duty, there is a class of men whose worship is merely inspired by terror. When they are in physical danger—the only kind of danger they appreciate—e.g., in a storm at sea, they genuinely think of Allah. But once the danger is past, they become indifferent or wish to appear good while dallying with evil. See next verse.

3622. They halt between two opinions. They are not against good, but they will not eschew evil. They are a contrast to those who "constantly persevere and give thanks". But such an attitude amounts really to "perfidious ingratitude".

3623. On the Day of Reckoning no one can help another. The most loving father cannot help his son or be a substitute for him, and vice versa. Each will have his own personal responsibilities.

Is true: let not then
This present life deceive you,
Nor let the Chief Deceiver³⁶²⁴
Deceive you about Allah.

حَقٌّ فَلَا تُغَرِّقُوا الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا
وَلَا يَغَرِّقْكُمْ بِاللَّهِ الْغُرُورُ ۝

34. Verily the knowledge
Of the Hour is
With Allah (alone).
It is He Who sends down
Rain, and He Who knows
What is in the wombs.³⁶²⁵
Nor does anyone know
What it is that he will
Earn on the morrow;³⁶²⁶
Nor does anyone know
In what land he is
To die. Verily with Allah
Is full knowledge and He
Is acquainted (with all things).³⁶²⁷

۳۴- إِنْ اللَّهَ عِنْدَهُ عِلْمُ السَّاعَةِ
وَيُنْزِلُ الْغَيْثَ وَيَعْلَمُ مَا فِي الْأَرْحَامِ
وَمَا تَدْرِي نَفْسٌ
مَّاذَا تَكْسِبُ غَدًا
وَمَا تَدْرِي نَفْسٌ بِأَيِّ أَرْضٍ تَمُوتُ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ خَبِيرٌ ۝

3624. The Chief Deceiver is the Power of Evil. It may make us forget that Time is fleeting and delude us by suggesting that the Reckoning may not come, whereas it is certain to come, because Allah's promise is true. We must not play with Time nor be deceived by appearances. The Day may come today or tomorrow or when we least expect it.

3625. The question of Knowledge or Mystery governs both clauses here, viz.: Rain and Wombs. In fact it governs all the five things mentioned in this verse: viz. (1) The Hour; (2) Rain; (3) the Birth of a new Life (Wombs); (4) our Physical Life from day to day; (5) our Death. See n. 3627 below. As regards Rain we are asked to contemplate how and when it is sent down. The moisture may be sucked up by the sun's heat in the Arabian Sea or the Red Sea or the Indian Ocean near East Africa, or in the Lake Region in Central Africa. The winds drive it hither and thither across thousands of miles, or it may be, only short distances. "The wind bloweth where it listeth." No doubt it obeys certain physical Laws established by Allah, but how these Laws are interlocked, one with another! Meteorology, gravity, hydrostatics and dynamics, climatology, hygrometry, and a dozen other sciences are involved, and no man can completely master all of them, and yet this relates to only one of the millions of facts in physical nature, which are governed by Allah's Knowledge and Law. The whole vegetable kingdom is primarily affected by Rain. The mention of Wombs brings in the mystery of animal life, embryology, sex, and a thousand other things. Who can tell—to take man alone—whether the child conceived is male or female, how long it will remain in the womb, whether it will be born alive, what sort of new individual it will be—a blessing or a curse to its parents, or to Society?

3626. "Earn" here, as elsewhere, means not only "earn one's livelihood" in a physical sense but also to reap the consequences (good or ill) of one's conduct generally. The whole sentence practically means: "no man knows what the morrow may bring forth."

3627. See the five Mysteries summed up in n. 3625 above. The Argument is about the mystery of Time and Knowledge. We are supposed to know things in ordinary life. But what does that knowledge amount to in reality? Only a superficial acquaintance with things. And Time is even more uncertain. In the case of rain, which causes vegetable life to spring up, or in the case of new animal life, can we answer with precision questions as to When or How or Wherefore? So about questions of our life from day to day or of our death. These are great Mysteries, and full knowledge is with Allah only. How much more so in the case of the Ma'ād, the Final House, when all true values will be restored and the balance redressed? It is certain, but the When and the How are known to Allah alone.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 32—AL SAJDAH

This short Sūrah closes the series of four Alif, Lām, Mīm Sūrahs, which began with the 29th. Its theme is the mystery of Creation, the mystery of Time and the mystery of the Ma'ād (the Final End) as viewed through the light of Allah's revelation. The contemplation of these mysteries should lead to Faith and the adoration of Allah. In chronology it belongs to the middle Makkan period and is therefore a little earlier than the last, but its chronology has no significance.

Summary—The mystery of Creation, the mystery of Time, and the mystery of the End of Things are but known by external symbols to man: Revelation brings faith and humble adoration, and is a blessing like Rain, which brings life to dead soil (32:1-30, and C. 185).

C. 185.—How can Unbelievers realise the Mystery
 (32:1-30.) Of Revelation? They do not even
 See the marvel and Mystery of Time
 And Allah's Creation, and how they were themselves
 Created! If they could but see how the End
 Will shape itself—how the Good will be sorted out
 From Evil! The two are not equal in Goal.
 Clear are the Signs and the Revelation of Allah—
 In nature, history, and the Message of His living
 Prophets. If they learn not now, alas!
 It will be too late when Time's wings are furled.

3628. See 1:25 to 2:1, and Introduction to S. 30.

3629. By the time of the Holy Prophet the earlier Book of Revelation had been corrupted by human ignorance or selfishness or fraud, or misinterpreted or lost altogether. There were sects violently disputing with each other as to their true meaning. Such doubts had to be set at rest and they were set at rest by the revelation of the Qur'ān. The Quranic inspiration came directly from Allah, the Lord of the Worlds, and did not consist merely of human conjecture or a reconstructed philosophy, in which there is always room for doubt or dispute. Cf. also 2:2.

3630. The force of "or" (am in Arabic) is that the only alternative to the acceptance of the Book as a divine revelation is the supposition that it was a forgery by the Holy Prophet. But this supposition is absurd on the face of it because (1) the Quraysh, his critics, knew him to be an honest and truthful man; (2) he was unlettered, and such a Book would have been beyond his powers as a simple unlettered Arab, unless Allah inspired it; and (3) there was a definite reason for its coming as it did, because the Arabs had received no Messenger before him and Allah has sent Messengers to every nation.

3631. The Arabs very much needed guidance for themselves, and the advent of a World Prophet through them was what might have been expected in view of the past course of Allah's Revelations.

3632. Six Days: see n. 1031, to 7:54. The "Day" does not mean a day as we reckon it, viz.: one apparent course of the sun round the earth, for it refers to conditions which began before the earth and the sun were created. In verse 5 below, a Day is compared to a thousand years of our reckoning, and in 70:4 to 50,000 years. These figures "as we reckon" have no relation to "timeless Time", and must be taken to mean very long Periods, or Ages, or Aeons. See further 41:9-12, and notes.

 Ye have none, besides Him,

8. And made his progeny
 From a quintessence

ح- ثُمَّ جَعَلَ نَسْلَهُ مِنْ سُلَالَةٍ

3633. Cf. 3:3, n. 1386. Allah created the World as we see it in six great Stages. But after the initial creation, He is still in authority and directs and controls all affairs. He has not delegated His powers to others, and Himself retired. Also see 7:54.

3634. How could the immense mystery of Time behind our ideas of it be enforced on our minds better? Our Day may be a thousand or fifty thousand years, and our years in proportion. In the immense Past was Allah's act of creation: it still continues, for He guides, rules, and controls all affairs: and in the immense Future all affairs will go up to Him, for He will be the Judge, and His restoration of all values will be as a Day or an Hour or the Twinkling of an eye; and yet to our idea it will be a thousand years!

3635. Allah's attributes, then, may be summed up with reference to knowledge, Power, and Mercy. Where our knowledge is partial and uncertain, His is complete and certain. Where our power often falls short of the carrying out of our will, or needs the help of Time, His is complete and counters ours with His Will. Where our mercy seems to be bounded by or opposed to justice, His is absolute and unconditioned.

3636. Allah's creation in itself is good; it is beautiful in proper proportions, and adapted for the functions it has to perform. There is no evil or disorder in it. Such evil or disorder as creeps in is due to man's will (as far as the world of man is concerned), and spiritual Teaching is directed to train and cure that will and bring it into conformity with the Universal Order and Plan.

3637. Man is asked to contemplate his own humble beginning. His material body (apart from life) is a piece of earth or clay, which is another term for primeval matter. Matter is therefore the first stage, but even matter was not self-created. It was created by Allah.

Of the nature of

In due proportion, and breathed

10. And they say: "What!

Nay, they deny the Meeting
With their Lord!

11. Say: "The Angel of Death,

Then shall ye be brought Back to your Lord."

٩- ثُمَّ سَوَّاهُ
وَنَفَخَ فِيهِ مِنْ رُوحِهِ

١٠- وَقَالُوا إِذَا ضَلَلْنَا فِي الْأَرْضِ

١١- قُلْ يَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى الْمَوْتِ الَّذِي
وُكِّلَ بِكُمْ ثُمَّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكُمْ تُرْجَعُونَ ۝

3638. Then comes life and the reproduction of life. We are still looking at the purely physical aspect, but it is now a stage higher; it is an animal. Its reproduction is through the sperm or semen, which is a quintessence of every part of the body of man. Yet it issues from the same part of his body as the urine, and is therefore despicable in man's sight. It is a living cell or cells, summing up so much ancestral life-history. Cf. 23:12, and n. 2872.

3639. The third stage is indicated by "fashioned him in due proportion". Cf. 15:29. After the fertilisation of the ovum by the sperm, an individual life comes into existence, and it is gradually fashioned into shape; its limbs are formed; its animal life begins to function; all the beautiful adaptations come into play. The fourth stage here mentioned is that of distinctive Man, into whom Allah's spirit is breathed. Then he rises higher than animals.

3640. As a complete man he gets the higher faculties. The five animal senses I understand to be included in the third stage. But in the fourth stage he rises higher and is addressed in the second person, "you," instead of the third person "him". He has now the spiritual counterpart of hearing (i.e., the capacity to hear Allah's Message) and seeing (i.e., the inner vision), and feeling the nobler heights of love and understanding the bearings of the inner life (both typified by the Heart). Yet with all these gifts, what thanks does unregenerate or corrupted man give to Allah?

3641. Cf. 13:5. It has been the cry of Materialists and Sceptics through the ages not only to bound their horizon with this brief life, but to deny dogmatically that there can be a future life. Though this is against the professed principles of Sceptics, in practice they take up that attitude. Here "they" refers to those "who give little thanks" to Allah, mentioned in the last verse. The argument used against them is: if Allah can produce such a wonderful creation the first time, why can He not make it again? That points to the possibility: our own general inner hope and expectation of a future life, coupled with Faith in Allah's work, is the ground of our certainty.

3642. If death is certain, as it is, and this life by itself in no way satisfies our instincts and expectations, we may be sure that the agency which separates our soul from our bodies will bring us into the new world. If we believe in a soul at all—the very foundation of Religion—we must believe in a Future, without which the soul has no meaning.

SECTION 2.

12. If only thou couldst see
When the guilty ones
Will bend low their heads

15. Only those believe
In Our Signs, who, when
They are recited to them

١٥- إِنَّمَا يُؤْمِنُ بِآيَاتِنَا الَّذِينَ إِذَا

3643. In life on the new plane, there will be no room for deception or self-deception. The most hardened sinner will see the truth and the justice of the Day of Account. He will wish he could be sent back, but it will be too late. The world as we know it will have already passed away.

3644. Could evil have been averted? Certainly everything is in Allah's power. If it had been His Will and Plan, He could have created a world in which there would have been no choice or will in any of His creatures. But that was not His Will and Plan. In the world as we see it, man has a certain amount of choice and free will. That being so, He has provided Signs and means of instruction for man, in order that man's will may be straight and pure. A necessary corollary will be Punishment for the infractions of His Law. That Punishment must come to pass, for Allah's Word is true and must be fulfilled.

3645. Cf. 11:119, n. 1623, and 7:18, and see last note. Jinns are the evil spirits that tempt men, and the men who will suffer punishment will be those who have succumbed to their temptations.

3646. Cf. n. 1029 to 7:51. "Forget" here is in the sense of "to ignore deliberately, to reject with scorn". In the sense of mistake or defect of knowledge it is inapplicable to the All-Perfect Being, for we are expressly told, "My Lord never errs, nor forgets": 20:52.

3647. In adoration: Sujudan, or in a posture of prostration, expressive of deep humility and faith. This is the keyword of the Sūrah, which bears the title of Al Sajdah. All the Signs of Allah lead our thoughts upwards towards Him, and when they are expounded, our attitude should be one of humble gratitude to Allah. At this passage it is usual to make a prostration. (R).

3648. Junūb: sides, on which men sleep and turn in their sleep: I have translated this "limbs" for shortness. Holy men and women "breathless with adoration" shun soft, comfortable beds, and luxurious sleep. Their limbs are better exercised in offices of devotion and prayer, especially by night. Commentators specially refer this to Prayers called Tahajjud, which are offered after midnight in the small hours of the morning, in twelve Rak'āt.

3649. In Fear and Hope: in spiritual fear lest their dedication to Allah should not be sufficiently worthy to be accepted, and a spiritual longing or hope that their shortcomings will be overlooked by the Mercy of Allah. And their adoration is not shown only in Prayer, but also in practical Service and Charity, out of whatever gifts they may have received from Allah.

3650. Delights of the eye: an idiom for that which pleases most and gives most satisfaction. In our present state we can scarcely imagine the real Bliss that will come to us in the Future.

3651. The Future of the two classes—the Blessed and the Wicked—is described in verses 19:22.

3652. A home brings before our minds a picture of peace and happiness. When to it are added honour and hospitality, it adds further to the idea of happiness.

3653. Cf. 22:22. Just as the Garden is a type of Bliss, so is the Fire a type of Penalty and suffering. There will be no getting away from it. What will be the thoughts of those who had earned it? "We used to reject the idea of the Consequences as mere chimera: and now we find it to be true!" What will be their feelings then? How will they like it!

3654. The final Penalty is to come in the Hereafter. There is no doubt about it. But before it comes, a minor Penalty comes in this very life. It may be in some kind of misfortune, or it may be in the pangs of a tortured conscience or secret sorrow. But this minor Penalty may be really a mercy, as it gives them a chance of repentance and amendment.

3655. The worst and most hardened sinner is the man to whom Allah's Signs are actually brought home and who yet prefers Evil and turns away from the Light of Allah. The Signs may be in the words and guidance of a great Teacher or in some minor sorrow or warning, which he disregards with contumely. Or it may be a catastrophic blow to his conscience, which should open his eyes, but from which he deliberately refuses to profit. The penalty—the Nemesis—must necessarily come eventually.

3656. The Book is not here co-extensive with Revelation. Moses had, revealed to him, a Law, a shari'ah, which was to guide his people in all the practical affairs of their life. Jesus, after him, was also inspired by Allah: but his Injil or Gospel contained only general principles and not a Code or shari'ah. The Holy Prophet was the next one to have a shari'ah or "Book" in that sense: for the Qur'an contains both a Code and general principles. This Sūrah is a Makkan Sūrah. The Code came later in Madīnah. But he is given the assurance that will also have a Code, to supersede the earlier Law, and complete the Revelation of Allah.

3657. Its reaching (thee): liqā'ihī. Commentators differ as to the construction of the pronoun hi, which may be translated either "its" or "his". I construe it to refer to "the Book", as that gives the most natural meaning, as explained in the last note.

3658. The series of Judges, Prophets, and Kings in Israel continued to give good guidance, in accordance with Allah's Law, as long as the people continued in Faith and Constancy (persevering patience). When that condition ceased, Allah's grace was withdrawn and the people broke up into wrangling sects and practically suffered national annihilation.

3659. These wrangles and disputes among them will continue until the Day of Judgement, but meantime a new Ummah (that of Islam) will arise and take its place, with a universal and unified Message for mankind.

3660. If a nation gone astray could only learn from the history of earlier nations that were destroyed for their evil! They could see vestiges of them in their daily goings to and fro: the Jews could see vestiges of the Philistines, Amalekites, etc. in Palestine, and the pagan Arabs, of the 'Ad and Thamūd in Arabia.

3661. Listen: i.e., listen to the warnings conveyed in Allah's Signs. Notice how naturally the transition is effected from the physical to the spiritual—from the ruined physical vestiges of ungodly nations on this earth to the more intangible signs conveyed by History and Revelation. Here the sense of Hearing is mentioned, both in its physical and its metaphysical or spiritual aspect. In the next verse the sense of Sight is mentioned in both aspects.

3662. Again, as in the last verse, there is an easy transition from the physical to the spiritual. In physical nature there may be parched soil, which is to all intents and purposes dead. Allah sends rain, and the dead soil is converted into living land producing rich crops of fodder and corn, nuts and fruits, to satisfy the hunger of man and beast. So in the spiritual world. The dead man is revived by Allah's grace and mercy through His Revelation. He becomes not only an asset to himself but to his dependents and those around him.

٣٠- فَاعْرِضْ عَنْهُمْ وَانْتَظِرْ

3663. The verse begins with "do they not see?" (a wa lam yaraw), a physical act. It ends with "have they not the vision?" (afalā yubṣirūn), a matter of spiritual insight. This is parallel to the two kinds of "hearing" or "listening", explained in n. 3661 above.

3664. The Unbelievers may say: "If all this which you say is true, tell us when this final restoration of Realities, Life and true Values will come about." The answer is: "If you mean that you will postpone your repentance and reform till then, it will be no use: it will be too late for repentance, and no respite will be granted then: this is the Respite, and this is your chance."

3665. Read 6:158 and n. 984 as commentary on this. There it is said to the Unbelievers: "Wait ye: we too are waiting." Here the Righteous one is told: "Wait (thou): they too are waiting." The reversal of the order is appropriate: in each case the person (or persons) addressed is mentioned first. Cf. also 7:71.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 33—AL AḤZĀB

The series of mystic Sūrahs beginning with S. 26 having been closed with the last Sūrah, we now come back to the hard facts of this life. Two questions are mainly considered here, viz., (1) the attempt by violence and brute force to crush the truth, and (2) the attempt by slander or unseemly conduct, to poison the relations of women with men.

As regards the first, the story of Al Aḥzāb or the Confederates, who tried to surround and annihilate the Muslim community in Madīnah, is full of underhand intrigues on the part of such diverse enemies as the Pagan Quraysh, the Jews (Banū Nadīr) who had been already expelled from Madīnah for their treachery, the Ghāṭfān tribe of Bedouin Arabs from the interior, and the Jewish tribe of Banū Qurayẓah in Madīnah. This was the unholy Confederacy against Islam. But though they caused a great deal of anxiety and suffering to the beleaguered Muslims, Islam came triumphantly out of the trial and became more firmly established than ever.

The Quraysh in Makkah had tried all sorts of persecution, boycott, insult, and bodily injuries to the Muslims, leading to their partial hijrah to Abyssinia and their Hijrah as a body to Madīnah. The first armed conflict between them and the Muslims took place at Badr in Ramaḍān A.H. 2, when the Quraysh were signally defeated. (See n. 352 to 3:13). Next year (Shawwāl A.H. 3) they came to take revenge on Madīnah. The battle was fought at Uḥud, and though the Muslims suffered severely, Madīnah was saved and the Makkans had to return to Makkah with their object frustrated. Then they began to make a network of intrigues and alliances, and besieged Madīnah with a force of 10,000 men in Shawwāl and Dhu al Qa'dah A.H. 5. This is the siege of the Confederates referred to in 33:9-27, which lasted over two weeks: some accounts give 27 days. It caused much suffering, from hunger, cold, an unceasing shower of arrows, and constant general or concentrated assaults. But it ended in the discomfiture of the Confederates, and established Islam firmer than ever. It was a well-organised and formidable attack, but the Muslims had made preparations to meet it. One of the preparations, which took the enemy by surprise, was the Trench (Khandaq) dug round Madīnah by the Prophet's order and under the supervision of Salmān the Persian. The siege and battle are therefore known as the Battle of the Trench or the Battle of the Confederates.

As regards the position and dignity of the ladies of the Prophet's Household and the Muslim women generally, salutary principles are laid down to safeguard their homes and protect them from slander and insult. The ladies of the Household interested themselves in social work and work of instruction for the Muslim women, and Muslim women were being trained more and more in community service. Two of them (the two Zaynabs) devoted themselves to the poor. The nursing of the wounded on or by the battlefield was specially necessary in those days of warfare. The Prophet's daughter Fāṭimah, then aged about 19 to 20, lovingly nursed her father's wounds at Uḥud (A.H. 3): Rufaydah nursed Sa'd ibn Mu'ādh wounds at the Siege of Madīnah by the Confederates (A.H. 5): and in the Khaybar expedition (A.H. 7) Muslim women went out from Madīnah for nursing service.

A portion of this Sūrah sums up the lessons of the Battle of the Trench and must have been revealed some time after that Battle (Shawwāl A.H. 5). The marriage with Zaynab referred to in verse 37 also took place in the same year. Some portions (e.g., verse 27, see n. 3705) were probably revealed in A.H. 7 after the Khaybar settlement.

Summary—The pagan customs in human relationships should be abandoned, and men and women should be held in honour according to natural relationships and spiritual positions (33:1-8, and C. 186).

The Battle of the Trench and its lessons: hypocrites and their fears: Truth and noble examples to be followed (33:9-27, and C. 187).

High position and seemly conduct for the Prophet's wives: unhappy marriages (like Zaynab's) not to be perpetuated on false scruples: Prophet's wives to be treated kindly and gently (33:28-52, and C. 188).

Respect due to Prophet and his family: slander to be avoided and punished: guard your words and your responsibilities (33:53-73, and C. 189).

C. 186. — The issue of all things depends
(33:1-8.) On Allah alone: we must put our trust
On Him as the Guardian of all things, both great
And small: call things by their right names.
If false relationships by custom or superstition
Do harm to men or women, shun them.
The spiritual Guide is more than Father:
The ladies of his household are Mothers
To the Believers—in rank, dignity, and duty.
The Guide will have to give an account
In the Hereafter, and how the Truth was received
Which he was charged to proclaim to men.

3666. The fifth year A.H. was a critical year in the external history of early Islam, and this Sūrah must be read in the light of the events that then took place. As explained in the Introduction, the Grand Confederacy against Islam came and invested Madīnah and failed utterly. It consisted of the Makkān Unbelievers, the desert Arabs of Central Arabia, the Jews previously expelled for treachery from Madīnah, the Jews remaining in Madīnah, and the Hypocrites led by 'Abd Allah ibn Ubayy, who have already been described in 9:43-110. Their bond of union was the common hatred of Islam and it snapped under the reserves they met. It is important to note three points. (1) The Jews as a body now lost their last chance of bearing the standard of Islam: the best of them had already accepted the renewal of Allah's Message. (2) A definite status was given to the Prophet's household, after the slanders on 'Ā'ishah had been stilled (24:11-26), and the true position of the Mothers of the Believers had been cleared. (3) A further exposition of the purity of sexual relations was given, based on the story of Zaynab, the "Mother of the Poor". These points will be referred to in later notes.

3667. In the most adverse circumstances, in the midst of the assaults of Evil, the plots of treason and hypocrisy, the darts of slander and false charges, and stupid superstitions and taboos, the Prophet of Allah should steer his course steadily according to Allah's Law and not fear human evil, in whatever form it appears. Men may misjudge, but Allah knows all. Men may try to overthrow Good, but Wisdom is with Allah. (R).

3668. We must wholly trust Allah: He is the true and efficient Guardian of all interests. Cf. 4:81, and n. 600.

3669. Two hearts in his (one) breast: two inconsistent attitudes: such as serving Allah and Mammon; or subscribing to both Truth and Superstition; or hypocritically pretending one thing and intending another. Such a thing is against Allah's Law and Will. Apart from the condemnation of general hypocrisy, two pagan customs of the Times of Ignorance are mentioned, and their iniquity pointed out. See the notes 3670 and 3671. Nor can a man love two women with equal love; hence the injustice of marrying more than one wife; see the second clause in 4:3. (R).

He made your wives whom
Ye divorce by *Zihār*³⁶⁷⁰

5. Call them by (the names

6. The Prophet is closer

وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا ٥

٦- النَّبِيُّ أَوْلَىٰ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ مِنْ

3670. This was an evil Arab custom, by which the husband selfishly deprived his wife of her conjugal rights and yet kept her to himself like a slave without her being free to remarry. He pronounced words importing that she was like his mother. After that she could not demand conjugal rights but was not free from his control and could not contract another marriage. See also 58:1-5, where this is condemned in the strongest terms and punishment is promised for it. A man sometimes said such words in a fit of anger: they did not affect him, but they degraded her position.

3671. If a man called another's son "his son", it might create complications with natural and normal relationships if taken too literally. It is pointed out that it is not only a façon de parler in men's mouths, and should not be taken literally. The truth is the truth and cannot be altered by men's adopting "sons". "Adoption" in the technical sense is not allowed in Muslim Law. Those who have been "wives of your sons proceeding from your loins" are within the Prohibited Degrees of marriage; 4:23; but this does not apply to "adopted" sons.

3672. Freedmen were often called after their master's name as the "son of so and so". When they were slaves, perhaps their fathers' names were lost altogether. It is more correct to speak of them as the Mawlā of so and so. But Mawlā in Arabic might also imply a close relationship of friendship: in that case, too, it is better to use the right term instead of the term "son". "Brother" is not objectionable because "Brotherhood" is used in a wider sense than "fatherhood", and is not likely to be misunderstood.

3673. What is aimed at is to destroy the superstition of erecting false relationships to the detriment or loss of true blood relations. It is not intended to penalise an unintentional slip in the matter, and indeed even if a man deliberately calls another his son or father, who is not his son or father, out of politeness or affections, 'Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful'. It is the action of mischievous parties which is chiefly reprehended, if they intend false insinuations. A mere mistake on their part does not matter. (R).

8. That (Allah) may question
 The (Custodians) of Truth concerning

لِيَسْأَلَ الصَّادِقِينَ عَنْ

3674. In spiritual relationships the Prophet is entitled to more respect and consideration than blood-relations. The Believers should follow him rather than their fathers or mothers or brothers, where there is conflict of duties. He is even nearer—closer to our real interests—than our own selves. In some Qirā'ahs, like that of Ubayy ibn Ka'ab, occur also the words "and he is a father of them", which imply his spiritual relationship and connect on with the words "and his wives are their mothers". Thus his spiritual fatherhood would be contrasted pointedly with the repudiation of the vulgar superstition of calling any one like Zayd ibn Ḥārthah by the appellation Zayd ibn Muḥammad (33:40): such an application is really disrespectful of the Prophet.

3675. See last note. This Sūrah establishes the dignity and position of the Holy Prophet's wives, who had a special mission and responsibility as Mothers of the Believers. They were not to be like ordinary women: they had to instruct women in spiritual matters, visit and minister to those who were ill or in distress, and do other kindly offices in aid of the Prophet's mission.

3676. No man should deprive his blood-relations of such rights of maintenance and property as they might have. The community of Believers, inhabitants of Madīnah and those who had migrated to Madīnah from Makkah, also had their mutual rights, but they were not to be put forward as an excuse to defeat the prior rights of natural relationships. In the early Madīnah days, Anṣār were allowed to inherit from Muhājirs whose natural relations had not emigrated, but this practice was discontinued when normal relations were reestablished between Makkah and Madīnah.

3677. Cf. 3:81. There is an implied covenant on all created things to follow Allah's Law, which is the law of their being: see 5:1. But there is a special implied covenant with all Prophets, strict and solemn, that they shall carry out their mission, proclaim Allah's Truth without fear or favour, and be ever ready in His service in all circumstances. That gives them their position and dignity as explained in the last verse, and their tremendous responsibilities in respect of the people whom they come to instruct and lead to the right Path.

3678. The men to whom Allah's Truth has been committed for promulgation will be asked in the Hereafter how the Truth fared in the world—how it was received, who opposed it, and who assisted it. Like all trustees, they will have to give a full account of their trust. Allah knows all, and it will not add to His information. But it will be evidence for and against those to whom it was preached, so that the responsibility of those who dishonoured it may be duly enforced. The primary custodians of spiritual Truth are the Prophets, but in descending degrees all men to whom Allah's Message comes are included.

3679. In this verse is summed up the beginning and the end of the fateful struggle of the Siege of Madīnah in A.H. 5. The composition of the unhallowed Confederacy that came to destroy Islam is referred to in the Introduction. They came with a force of ten to twelve thousand fighting men, an unprecedented army for that time and country. The battle is known as the Battle of the Trench.

3680. After a close investment of two to four weeks, during which the enemy were disheartened by their ill success, there was a piercing blast of the cold east wind. It was a severe winter, and February can be a very cold month in Madīnah, which is about 3,000 feet above the sea level. The enemy's tents were torn up, their fires were extinguished, the sand and rain beat in their faces, and they were terrified by the portents against them. They had already well nigh fallen out amongst themselves, and beating a hasty retreat, they melted away. The Madīnah fighting strength was no more than 3,000, and the Jewish tribe of the Banū Qurayzah who were in their midst was a source of weakness as they were treacherously intriguing with the enemy. And further there were the Hypocrites: see n. 3666 above. But there were hidden forces that helped the Muslims. Besides the forces of nature there were moral forces—mutual distrust and bickering in the enemy camp, and on the other side, perfect discipline among the real Muslims, and the superb leadership of the Holy Prophet.

3681. Allah sees everything. Therefore we may conclude that the discipline and moral fervour of the Muslims, as well as the enemy's insincerities, intrigues, and reliance on brute force, were all contributory causes to his repulse, under Allah's dispensation. There were many hidden causes which neither party saw clearly.

10. Behold! they came on you

Below you, and behold,
The eyes became dim
And the hearts gaped³⁶⁸²
Up to the throats,
And ye imagined various

3682. The psychology of the combatants is described with matchless vigour in the Holy Test. The onrush of the enemy was really tremendous. The Trench round Madīnah was between the defenders and the huge attacking force, which had some high ground behind them "above you": when any of them came through the valley or over the Trench they seemed to come from below. The showers of arrows and stone on both sides must also have seemed to come from the air.

3683. Before this year's mass attack on Madīnah, the Muslims had successfully reached the Syrian border on the north, and there were hopes of reaching Yemen in the south. The Holy Prophet had seen signs of expansion and victory for the Muslims. Now that they were shut within the Trench on the defensive, the Hypocrites taunted them with having indulged in delusive hopes. But the event showed that the hopes were not delusive. They were realised beyond expectations in a few years.

3684. All the fighting men of Madīnah had come out of the City and camped in the open space between the City and the Trench that had been dug all round. The disaffected Hypocrites sowed defeatist rumours and pretended to withdraw for the defence of their homes, though their homes were not exposed, and were fully covered by the vigilant defensive forces inside the Trench.

14. And if an entry had
Been effected to them³⁶⁸⁵
From the sides of the (City),
And they had been
Incited to sedition,
They would certainly have Brought it to pass, with
None but a brief delay!
15. And yet they had already
Covenanted with Allah not to turn
Their backs, and a covenant³⁶⁸⁶
With Allah must (surely)
Be answered for.
16. Say: "Running away will not
Profit you if ye are Running away from death³⁶⁸⁷
Or slaughter: and even if (Ye do escape), no more
Than a brief (respite)
Will ye be allowed to enjoy!"
17. Say: "Who is it that can Screen you from Allah
If it be His wish
To give you Punishment
Or to give you Mercy?"³⁶⁸⁸
Nor will they find for themselves,
Besides Allah, any protector
Or helper.
18. Verily Allah knows those
Among you who keep back

- ١٥- وَلَقَدْ كَانُوا عَاهَدُوا اللَّهَ مِنْ قَبْلُ

- ١٨- قَدْ يَعْلَمُ اللَّهُ الْمَعْرُوقِينَ مِنْكُمْ

3685. The brunt of all the fighting was on the north side, but the whole Trench was guarded. At one or two points enemy warriors did break within the circuit of the Trench, but they were soon disposed of. 'Ali particularly distinguished himself in many fights, wearing the Prophet's own sword and armour. If any of the enemy had been able to penetrate into the City, the disaffected element, which was only sitting on the fence, would have risen against the Muslims at once—with no delay except what might have been necessary to put on their armour and arms.

3686. Apparently, after the battle of Uhud, certain men who had then shown cowardice were forgiven on undertaking that they would behave better next time. A solemn promise made to the Messenger of Allah is a promise to Allah, and it cannot be broken with impunity.

3687. The coward in a fight does not usually save himself from death. He is subject, after desertion, to the fury both of the enemy and of his own side for cowardice and desertion. Assuming that he did escape with his life, where could he go to? The brand of cowardice will be on him, and he will be subject to the vengeance of his own people. In any case, his life would be in ignominy and would be brief, and he would have lost irretrievably the meed of valour.

3688. It is still worse if the cowardice or desertion is shown in a Cause, which because of the high issues of truth and justice, may be called the Cause of Allah. How can anyone escape Allah's Punishment? And in the same way, how can anyone prevent another from obtaining Allah's mercy by repentance and amendment? The better path, therefore, is to stand firm in Allah's Way, and if you fail through human weakness, to repent and seek Allah's Mercy. Cf. 33:24, and n. 3698 below.

(Men) and those who say
To their brethren, "Come along
To us", but come not
To the fight except
For just a little while,

Then when fear comes,
Thou wilt see them looking

Hovers death: but when
The fear is past,

أُولَئِكَ لَمْ يُؤْمِنُوا فَأَحْبَطَ اللَّهُ أَعْمَالَهُمْ

Have not withdrawn; and if
The Confederates should come

٢٠- يَحْسَبُونَ الْأَحْزَابَ لَمْ يَذْهَبُوا
وَلِنْ يَأْتِ الْأَحْزَابُ
يَوَدُّوْا لَوْ أَنَّهُمْ بَادُونَ فِي الْأَعْرَابِ

3689. Ashihhatan: covetous, grasping, niggardly. Here the meaning is twofold: (1) they spare themselves in the fight as compared with you; they are niggardly with themselves as against you; they contribute little either in personal effort or with their money and resources; and (2) they covet any gains made or booty won, on the part of the real fighters.

3690. In time of danger, they would look to the Holy Prophet for protection, and keep themselves snugly from the fight. When the danger is past, they will come and brag and wrangle and show their covetousness or greed for gain though they gave of themselves but sparingly.

3691. Even any good they may have done becomes vain because of their motives of envy, greed, and covetousness and their cowardice.

3692. It is not surprising that men's deeds fall as it were dead because there is no pure motive behind them. For men it may be difficult to probe motives, but it is easy for Allah, Whom hypocrisy or false show can never deceive.

3693. This completes the picture of the psychology of the Hypocrites, begun in verse 12. Let us analyse it. (1) When they first saw the enemy they were already in a defeatist mood, and thought all was over (verse 12). (2) Not content with disloyalty themselves, they tried to infect others, who made paltry excuses to withdraw from the fight (verse 13). (3) They were ready to betray the City to the enemy if the enemy had gained entrance (verse 14). (4) They forgot all the promises of fidelity which they had previously sworn (verse 15). (5) In their paltry calculations they forgot that cowardice in war does not pay (verses 16-17). (6) Without taking much part in the actual defence, they were ready to talk glibly and claim a lion's share in the fruits of the victory (verses 18-19). (7) Even when the enemy had withdrawn, their cowardly minds were still afraid that the enemy would return, and were already meditating what they would do in that case; perhaps they would dwell in the deserts and spy on Madīnah from a safe distance: and if caught in Madīnah they would fight little and intrigue much.

It was a miracle that with such men in their midst, the Holy Prophet and his band won through.

Seeking news about you
(From a safe distance);
And if they were
In your midst, they
Would fight but little.

SECTION 3.

21. He have indeed
In the Messenger of Allah
A beautiful pattern (of conduct)
For any one whose hope is³⁶⁹⁴
In Allah and the Final Day,
And who engages much³⁶⁹⁵
In the praise of Allah.

22. When the Believers saw
The Confederate forces
They said: "This is
What Allah and His
Messenger³⁶⁹⁶
Had promised us, and Allah
And His Messenger told us
What was true." And it
Only added to their faith
And their zeal in obedience.

23. Among the Believers are men
Who have been true to
Their Covenant with Allah:
Of them some have
completed³⁶⁹⁷
Their vow (to the extreme),
And some (still) wait:
But they have never changed
(Their determination) in the least:

٢٢- وَلَمَّا رَأَى الْمُؤْمِنُونَ الْأَحْزَابَ
قَالُوا هَذَا مَا وَعَدَنَا اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ
وَصَدَقَ اللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ
وَمَا زَادَهُمْ إِلَّا إِيمَانًا
وَتَسْلِيمًا ۝

٢٣- مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ رِجَالٌ
صَدَقُوا مَا عَاهَدُوا اللَّهَ عَلَيْهِ
فَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ قَضَىٰ نَجْبَهُ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ
يَنْتَظِرُ
وَمَا بَدَّلُوا بَدِيلًا ۝

3694. We now have the psychology of the Believers—God-fearing men, led by that pattern of men and of leaders, Muhammad.

3695. Cf. 26:227: see especially the last clause of that verse in a Makkan Sūrah, which was amply fulfilled in Madīnah.

3696. This is in contrast to what the Hypocrites said in verse 12 above. The divine promise of help and success is contingent upon our striving and faith. Nothing comes to the poltroon and the sceptical idler. Dangers and difficulties, and conflict with Evil, are foretold us, and we must meet them with fortitude and courage.

3697. In the fight for Truth were (and are) many who sacrificed their all—resources, knowledge, influence, life itself—in the Cause, and never wavered. If they won the crown of martyrdom, they were blessed. Such a one was Sa'ad ibn Mu'adh, the chief of the Aws tribe, the intrepid standard-bearer of Islam, who died of a wound he had received in the Battle of the Trench. Other heroes fought valiantly and lived, always ready to lay down their lives. Both classes were staunch, they never changed or wavered.

24. That Allah may reward
The men of Truth for Their Truth, and punish
The Hypocrites if that be³⁶⁹⁸
His Will, or turn to them
In Mercy: for Allah is
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

٢٣- لِيَجْزِيَ اللَّهُ الصَّادِقِينَ بِصِدْقِهِمْ
وَلِيُعَذِّبَ الْمُنَافِقِينَ إِن
شَاءَ أَوْ يَتُوبَ عَلَيْهِمْ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا ۝

25. And Allah turned back
The Unbelievers for (all)
Their fury: no advantage³⁶⁹⁹
Did they gain: and enough
Is Allah for the Believers
In their fight. And Allah
Is full of Strength, Able
To enforce His Will.³⁷⁰⁰

٢٤- وَرَدَّ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِغَيْظِهِمْ
لَمْ يَنَالُوا خَيْرًا ۚ
وَكَفَى اللَّهُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ الْقِتَالَ
وَكَانَ اللَّهُ قَوِيًّا عَزِيزًا ۝

26. And those of the people³⁷⁰¹
Of the Book who aided
Them—Allah did take them
Down from their strongholds³⁷⁰²
And cast terror into
Their hearts, (so that)³⁷⁰³

٢٥- وَأَنْزَلَ الَّذِينَ ظَاهَرُوهُمْ مِنْ أَهْلِ
الْكِتَابِ مِنْ صَيَاصِيهِمْ
وَقَذَفَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ الرُّعْبَ

3698. Before the Throne of Allah's Mercy there is always room for repentance and forgiveness, even after treason and crime: but the forgiveness will be according to Allah's Will and Plan, which will judge the penitent's sincerity and capacity for good to the nicest degree in his favour. Cf. also 33:17 above.

3699. In spite of the mighty preparations and the great forces which the Makkans, in concert with the Central Arabian Bedouins, the discontented Jews, and the treacherous Hypocrites, brought to the siege of Madīnah, all their plans were frustrated. Their fury availed them nothing. They departed in hot haste. This was the last and dying effort. The initiative thereafter lay with the forces of Islam.

3700. For the meaning of 'Azīz, see n. 2818 to 22:40.

3701. The reference is to the Jewish tribe of the Banū Qurayzah. They counted among the citizens of Madīnah and were bound by solemn engagements to help in the defence of the city. But on the occasion of the Confederate siege by the Quraysh and their allies, they intrigued with the enemies and treacherously aided them. Immediately after the siege was raised and the Confederates had fled in hot haste, the Prophet turned his attention to the treacherous "friends" who had betrayed his City in the hour of danger.

3702. The Banū Qurayzah (see last note) were filled with terror and dismay when Madīnah was free from the Quraysh danger. They shut themselves up in their castles about three or four miles to the east (or north east) of Madīnah, and sustained a siege of 25 days, after which they surrendered, stipulating that they would abide by the decision of their fate at the hands of Sa'ad ibn Mu'ādh, chief of the Aws tribe, with which they had been in alliance.

3703. Sa'ad applied to them the Jewish Law of the Old Testament, not as strictly as the case warranted. In Deut. xx 10-18, the treatment of a city "which is very far off from thee" is prescribed to be comparatively more lenient than the treatment of a city "of the people, which the Lord thy God does give thee for an inheritance," i.e., which is near enough to corrupt the religion of the Jewish people. The punishment for these is total annihilation: "thou shall save alive nothing that breatheth" (Deut. xx. 16). The more lenient treatment for faroff cities is described in the next note. According to the Jewish standard, then, the Banū Qurayzah deserved total extermination—of men, women, and children. They were in the territory of Madīnah itself, and further they had broken their engagements and helped the enemy.

Some ye slew, and some³⁷⁰⁴
Ye made prisoners.

27. And He made you heirs
Of their lands, their houses,
And their goods,
And of a land which³⁷⁰⁵
Ye had not frequented

Power over all things.

۲۷- وَأَوْثَقَكُمْ أَرْضَهُمْ وَأَيْمَانَهُمْ

C. 188. — The Prophet's household is not for worldly
(33:28-52.) Ends: his consorts have a place
And dignity beyond ordinary women
They must recite and proclaim the Signs
Of Allah. For women have spiritual virtues
And duties like unto men. Allah decrees,
No unhappy wedlock: fear not
To dissolve such and provide what is right
And fitting for the service of Allah. High
Is the Prophet's positions, and he must order
His household as best befits his work
And duties. Allah doth watch all things.

SECTION 4.

28. ﴿ Prophet! say
To thy Consorts:
"If it be that ye desire
The life of this world,

۲۸- يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ قُلْ لِّأَزْوَاجِكَ
إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُرِيدْنَ الْحَيَاةَ الدُّنْيَا

3704. Sa'ad adjudged them the mildest treatment of the "far-off" cities which is thus described in the Jewish Law: "Thou shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword: but the women and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, even all the spoil thereof, shalt thou take unto thyself, and thou shalt eat the spoil of thine enemies, which the Lord thy God hath given thee" (Deut. xx. 13-14). The men of the Qurayzah were slain: the women were sold as captives of war: and their lands and properties were divided among the Muhājirs.

3705. If this part of the Sūrah was revealed after the autumn of the Hijrah year 7, it refers to the result of the Khaybar expedition of that autumn. Khaybar is a Harrah or volcanic tract, well-watered with many springs issuing from its basaltic rocks. It has a good irrigation system and produces good harvests of grain and dates in its wet valleys, while the outcrop of rocks in the high ground affords sites for numerous fortresses. At present it is inhabited chiefly by men of the race of Bilāl (the Abyssinian) who played a prominent part in the expedition. It is a sort of island in the deserts on the outskirts of Najd. In the Holy Prophet's time there were Jewish colonies settled here, but they were a source of constant trouble, especially after the Siege of Madīnah. It became a nest of all the hostile Jewish elements expelled for their treachery from elsewhere. Its capital, Khaybar, is about 90 miles due north of Madīnah. Its inhabitants offered some resistance, and 'Alī, though he had just risen from a bed of illness, performed prodigies of valour. After its surrender, a land settlement was made, which retained the cultivators of the soil on the land, but brought them under control, so that no further focus of active hostility should remain near Madīnah. The terms of the settlement will be found in Wāqidi.

And its glitter, — then come!³⁷⁰⁶
I will provide for your
Enjoyment and set you free
In a handsome manner.”

29. But if ye seek Allah
And His Messenger, and
The Home of the Hereafter,
Verily Allah has prepared
For the well-doers amongst you³⁷⁰⁷
A great reward.

30. O Consorts of the Prophet
If any of you were guilty
Of evident unseemly
conduct,³⁷⁰⁸
The Punishment would be Doubled to her, and that
Is easy for Allah.³⁷⁰⁹

وَزَيَّنَّهٗمَا فَمَتَّعَالَيْنِ اٰمَتَّعَكُنْ

۳۰- يٰۤاَيُّهَا النِّسَاءُ الَّذِيْنَ مَنَ يٰۤاَتِ مِنْكُمْ بِفَاحِشَةٍ

وَكَانَ ذٰلِكَ عَلَى اللّٰهِ يَسِيْرًا ۝

3706. We now come to the subject of the position of the Consorts of Purity (azwāj muṭahharāt), the wives of the Holy Prophet. Their position was not like that of ordinary women or ordinary wives. They had special duties and responsibilities. The only youthful marriage of the Holy Prophet was his first marriage — that with Khadījah, the best of women and the best of wives. He married her fifteen years before he received the call to Prophethood; the married life lasted for twenty-five years, and their mutual devotion was of the noblest, judged by spiritual as well as social standards. During her life he had no other wife, which was unusual for a man of his standing among his people. When she died, his age was 50, and but for two considerations, he would probably never have married again, as he was most abstemious in his physical life. The two considerations which governed his later marriages were: (1) compassion and clemency, as when he wanted to provide for suffering widows, who could not be provided for in any other way in that stage of society; some of them, like Sawdā', had issue by their former marriage, requiring protection; (2) help in his duties of leadership, with women, who had to be instructed and kept together in the large Muslim family, where women and men had similar social rights. 'Ā'ishah, daughter of Abū Bakr, was clever and learned, and in Hadīth she is an important authority on the life of the Prophet. Zaynab, daughter of Khuzaymah, was specially devoted to the poor: she was called the "Mother of the Poor". The other Zaynab, daughter of Jahsh, also worked for the poor, for whom she provided from the proceeds of her manual work, as she was skilled in leather work. But all the Consorts in their high position had to work and assist as Mothers of the Ummah. Theirs were not idle lives, like those of Odalisques, either for their own pleasure or the pleasure of their husband. They are told here that they had no place in the sacred Household if they merely wished for ease or worldly glitter. If such were the case, they could be divorced and amply provided for.

3707. They were all well-doers. But being in their exalted position, they had extra responsibility, and they had to be specially careful to discharge it. In the same way, their reward would be "great", for higher services bring higher spiritual satisfaction, though they were asked to deny themselves some of the ordinary indulgences of life.

3708. Evident unseemly conduct: i.e., proved misconduct, as opposed to false slanders from enemies. Such slanders were of no account, but if any of them had behaved in an unseemly manner, it would have been a worse offence than in the case of ordinary women, on account of their special position. Of course none of them were in the least guilty.

3709. Cf. 33:19 and n. 3692. The punishment in this life for a married woman's unchastity is very severe: for adultery, public flogging with a hundred stripes, under 24:2; or for lewdness (see 4:15) imprisonment; or stoning to death for adultery, according to certain precedents established in Canon Law. But here the question is not about this kind of punishment or this kind of offence. Even minor indiscretions, in the case of women who were patterns of decorum, would have been reprehensible; and the punishment in the Hereafter is on a higher plane, which we can scarcely understand. But Allah can appreciate every shade of motive in us. More or less is possible there, which might not be possible in the rough and ready law which we administer here.

31. But any of you that is
Devout in the service of
Allah and His Messenger,
And works righteousness—
To her shall We grant
Her reward twice³⁷¹⁰; and We
Have prepared for her
A generous Sustenance.³⁷¹¹

۳۱- وَمَنْ يَّقْنُتْ مِنْكُمْ لِلَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ
وَتَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا
لُوْنَهَا أَجْرَهَا مَرَّتَيْنِ
وَأَعْتَدْنَا لَهَا رِزْقًا كَرِيمًا ۝

32. O Consorts of the Prophet!
Ye are not like any
Of the (other) women:³⁷¹²
If ye do fear (Allah),
Be not too complaisant
Of speech, lest one
In whose heart is
A disease should be moved
With desire: but speak ye
A speech (that is) just.³⁷¹³

۳۲- يٰۤاَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ
لَسْتُنَّ كَالنِّسَاءِ اِنْ اَتَّقَيْتُنَّ
فَلَا تَخْضَعْنَ بِالْقَوْلِ
فَيُطْمَعِ الَّذِي فِي قَلْبِهِ مَرَضٌ
وَقُلْنَ قَوْلًا مَعْرُوفًا ۝

33. And stay quietly in
Your houses, and make not
A dazzling display, like
That of the former Times
Of Ignorance: and establish Regular Prayer, and give
Regular Charity; and obey³⁷¹⁴
Allah and His Messenger.
And Allah only wishes
To remove all abomination
From you, ye Members³⁷¹⁵

۳۳- وَاقْرُنْ فِي بُيُوتِكُنَّ وَلَا تَبَرَّجْنَ
تَبَرُّجَ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ الْأُولَى
وَأَقِمْنَ الصَّلَاةَ وَآتِينَ الزَّكَاةَ وَأَطِعْنَ
اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ
إِنَّمَا يُرِيدُ اللَّهُ لِيُذْهِبَ عَنْكُمُ الرِّجْسَ أَهْلَ

3710. Twice, i.e., once as a righteous woman and again as a Mother of the Believers, serving the believing women and thus showing her devotion to Allah and His Prophet.

3711. Sustenance: in the spiritual sense: all that is necessary to sustain her in happiness in her future life.

3712. This is the core of the whole passage. The Prophet's Consorts were not like ordinary women, nor was their marriage an ordinary marriage, in which only personal or social considerations enter. They had a special position and special responsibilities, in the matter of guiding and instructing women who came into the fold of Islam. Islam is a Way of Life, and the Muslims are a family: women have as much place in Islam as men, and their intimate instruction must obviously be through women.

3713. While they were to be kind and gentle to all, they were to be guarded on account of their special position lest people might misunderstand or take advantage of their kindness. They were to make no vulgar worldly displays as in the times of Paganism.

3714. Obedience to Allah's Law sums up all duties. Regular Prayer (seeking nearness to Allah) and Regular Charity (doing good to fellow-creatures) are mentioned as specially symbolical of our Religion.

3715. Notice the transition in this clause to the masculine gender, while before this the verbs and pronouns were in the feminine gender as referring to the Consorts. The statement in this clause is now more general including (besides the Consorts) the whole family, namely Fāṭimah the daughter, 'Alī the son-in-law, and their sons Ḥasan and Ḥusayn, the beloved grandsons of the Prophet. The masculine gender is used generally, in speaking of a mixed assembly of men and women.

Of the Family, and to make
You pure and spotless.

34. And recite³⁷¹⁶ what is Rehearsed to you in your
Homes, of the Signs of Allah
And His Wisdom:
For Allah understands
The finest mysteries and
Is well-acquainted (with them).³⁷¹⁷

Who fast (and deny themselves),
For men and women who
Guard their chastity, and
For men and women who

3716. The verb is udhkurna, feminine gender, as referring to the Azawaj again. It means not only "remember" but "recite", "teach", "make known", "publish", the Message which ye learn at home from the Holy Prophet, the fountain of spiritual knowledge. The "Signs of Allah" refer specifically to the verses of the Qur'ān, and Wisdom to the resulting instruction derived therefrom.

3617. Cf. 22:63 and n. 2844. Allah's understanding is perfect in every detail, however minute. Therefore use His Revelation for every phase of life.

3618. Islam, or submitting our will to Allah's Will, includes all the virtues, as particularly specified in this verse. See n. 3720.

3619. A number of Muslim virtues are specified here, but the chief stress is laid on the fact that these virtues are as necessary to women as to men. Both sexes have spiritual as well as human rights and duties in an equal degree, and the future "reward" of the Hereafter, viz., Spiritual Bliss, is provided for the one as for the other.

3720. The virtues referred to are: (1) Faith, hope, and trust in Allah, and in His benevolent government of the world; (2) devotion and service in practical life; (3) love and practice of truth, in thought and intention, word and deed; (4) patience and constancy, in suffering and in right endeavour; (5) humility, the avoidance of an attitude of arrogance and superiority; (6) charity, i.e., help to the poor and unfortunate ones in life, a special virtue arising out of the general duty of service (No. 2); (7) self-denial, typically in food, but generally in all appetites; (8) chastity, purity in sex life, purity in motive, thought, word, and deed; and (9) constant attention to Allah's Message, and cultivation of the desire to get nearer to Allah.

36. It is not fitting
For a Believer, man or woman,
When a matter has been decided
By Allah and His Messenger,
To have any option
About their decision:³⁷²¹
If anyone disobeys Allah
And His Messenger, he is indeed
On a clearly wrong Path.

٣٧- وَإِذْ تَقُولُ لِلَّذِي

زَوَّجْنَاكَهَا

3721. We must not put our own wisdom in competition with Allah's wisdom. Allah's decree is often known to us by the logic of facts. We must accept it loyally, and do the best we can to help in our own way to carry it out. We must make our will consonant to the Allah's Will. (R).

3722. This was Zayd, son of Hārithah, one of the first to accept the faith of Islam. He was freedman of the Holy Prophet, who loved him as a son and gave him in marriage to his own cousin Zaynab. The marriage however turned out unhappy. See next note.

3723. Zayd's marriage with the Prophet's cousin Zaynab, daughter of Jahsh, did not turn out happy. Zaynab the high-born looked down upon Zayd the freedman who had been a slave. And he was not comely to look at. Both were good people in their own ways, and both loved the Prophet, but there was mutual incompatibility, and this is fatal to married life. Zayd wished to divorce her, but the Prophet asked him to hold his hand, and he obeyed. She was closely related to the Prophet; he had given a handsome marriage gift on her marriage to Zayd; and people would certainly talk if such a marriage was broken off. But marriages are made on earth, not in heaven, and it is no part of Allah's Plan to torture people in a bond which should be a source of happiness but actually is a source of misery. Zayd's wish—indeed the mutual wish of the couple—was for the time being put away, but it became eventually an established fact, and everybody came to know of it. (R).

3724. All actual facts are referred to Allah. When the marriage is unhappy, Islam permits the bond to be dissolved, provided that all interests concerned are safeguarded. Apparently there was no issue here to be considered. Zaynab had to be considered, and she obtained the dearest wish of her heart in being raised to be a Mother of the Believers, with all the dignity and responsibility of that position. See n. 3706 to 33:28 above.

3725. The 'iddah or period of waiting after divorce (2:28, and n. 254) was duly completed.

 And Allah has full knowledge
 Of all things.

۴۰- مَا كَانَ مُحَمَّدٌ أَبَا أَحَدٍ مِنْ رِجَالِكُمْ
 وَلَكِنْ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ
 وَخَاتَمَ النَّبِيِّينَ
 وَكَانَ اللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمًا ۝

3726. The Pagan superstition and taboo about adopted sons had to be destroyed. See 33:4-5 and notes 3671-3672 above.

3727. See n. 3724 above.

3728. The next clause is parenthetical. Those words then connect on with verse 39. Among the people of the Book there was no taboo about adopted sons, as there was in Pagan Arabia.

3729. Allah's ordering of the world is always full of wisdom. Even our unhappiness and misery may actually have a great meaning for ourselves or others or both. If our first Plan seems to fail, we must not murmur and repine, but retrieve the position by adopting a course which appears to be the best position in the light of our duties as indicated by Allah. For Allah's Plan is framed on universal principles that cannot be altered by human action.

3730. Our responsibility is to Allah, not to men. Men's opinions may have a bearing in our own interpretation of duty, but when that duty is clear, our only course is to obey Allah rather than men.

3731. When a document is sealed, it is complete, and there can be no further addition. The Holy Prophet Muḥammad closed the long line of Messengers. Allah's teaching is and will always be continuous, but there has been and will be no Prophet after Muḥammad. The later ages will want thinkers and reformers, not Prophets. This is not an arbitrary matter. It is a decree full of knowledge and wisdom, "for Allah has full knowledge of all things."

SECTION 6.

41. ﴿Ye who believe!

And do so often;
42. And glorify Him

43. He it is Who sends³⁷³²
Blessings on you, as do

شَٰهِدًا وَّاَوْمَبِشْرًا وَّاَنذِيْرًا ۝

٣٦- وَدٰعِيًّا اِلَى اللّٰهِ بِاِذْنِهٖ

3732. Blessings: good wishes and mercies. Allah wishes well to all His creatures, and His angels carry out His work, for their will is in all things His Will. His chief and everlasting blessing is that He gives us a knowledge of the spiritual world, and helps us towards its attainment. For the symbolic meaning of Light and Darkness, see 24:35-40, and notes.

3733. His Mercies are for all His creatures, but for those who believe and trust in Him, there are special mercies, "a generous Reward" as in the next verse.

3734. The Prophet was sent by Allah in five capacities. Three are mentioned in this verse, and the other two in the verse following. (1) He comes as a Witness to all men about the spiritual truths which had been obscured by ignorance or superstition, or by the dust of sectarian controversy. He did not come to establish a new religion or sect. He came to teach Religion. He is also a witness to Allah about men's doings and how they receive Allah's Message; see 4:41 and n. 560. (2) He comes as a Bearer of the Glad Tidings of the Mercy of Allah. No matter how far men may have transgressed, they have hope if they believe, repent, and live a good life. (3) He also comes as a Warner to those who are heedless. This life will not last. There is a Future Life, and that is all-important. See next note.

3735. See last note. The two other capacities in which the Prophet was sent are here specified. (4) He comes as one who has a right to invite all men to repentance and the forgiveness of sins; but he does this, not of his own authority, but by the permission and authority given to him by Allah. This is said lest people may deny the Prophet as they did with other Prophets before him. The personal responsibility of each individual remains, but the Prophet can lead him on to the Right and help him. (5) The Prophet also comes as a Light of a Lamp (Sirāṭ) to illuminate the whole world. In 71:16 and elsewhere the same word (Sirāṭ) is used for the sun. The comparison is apt. When the sun appears, all the lesser lights pale before his light. And the Message of Islam, i.e., of the Universal Religion, is to diffuse Light everywhere.

And as a Lamp
Spreading Light.

47. Then give the glad tidings
To the Believers, that
They shall have from Allah
A very great Bounty.³⁷³⁶

48. And obey not (the behests)
Of the Unbelievers
And the Hypocrites,
And heed not their annoyances,³⁷³⁷
But put thy trust in Allah.
For enough is Allah
As a Disposer of affairs.

49. ﴿ ye who believe!
When ye marry believing
women,
And then divorce them
Before ye have touched them,
No period of 'Iddah³⁷³⁸
Have ye to count
In respect of them:
So give them a present,³⁷³⁹
And set them free
In a handsome manner.³⁷⁴⁰

50. ﴿ Prophet! We have Made lawful to thee³⁷⁴¹
Thy wives to whom thou

فَمَا لَكُمْ عَلَيْهِنَّ مِنْ عِدَّةٍ تَعْتَدُونَهَا
فَتَتَّعُوهُنَّ
وَتَرْجُوهُنَّ سَرَاحًا جَبِينًا ۝

٥٠- يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِنَّا أَحْلَلْنَا لَكَ
أَزْوَاجَكَ الَّتِي

3736. The light of Islam is the Biggest Bounty possible and if they truly understand it, they should glory in it.

3737. Men of little or no Faith will often lay down the law and tell better men than themselves what to do. In case of refusal they shower insults and injuries. No attention is to be paid to them. It is their way. All will be right under the government of Allah.

3738. See n. 254 to 2:228. The 'Iddah counts for three monthly courses, or if there are no courses, for three months; see 65:4.

3739. This present is held, by some, to be in addition to the half dower due to them under 2:237. If the dower had not been fixed, the gift would presumably be larger, and it would absorb the gift prescribed in 2:236.

3740. The gift should be given with good grace, and the freedom of the woman should not be interfered with in any way. If she chooses to marry again immediately, no obstacle should be placed in her path. On no pretext should she be allowed to remain doubtful about her freedom.

3741. This introduces no new exemption or privilege. Verses 50-52 merely declare the points in which, on account of the special circumstances (see n. 3706 above), the Prophet's marriages differed from those of ordinary Muslims. This is considered under four heads, which we shall examine in the four notes following.

Hast paid their dowers;³⁷⁴²
 And those whom thy
 Right hand possesses out of
 The prisoners of war whom³⁷⁴³
 Allah has assigned to thee;
 And daughters of thy paternal Uncles and aunts, and daughters
 Of thy maternal uncles
 And aunts, who migrated³⁷⁴⁴
 (From Makkah) with thee;
 And any believing woman
 Who dedicates her soul
 To the Prophet if the Prophet³⁷⁴⁵
 Wishes to wed her—this
 Only for thee, and not
 For the Believers (at large):
 We know what We have
 Appointed for them as to³⁷⁴⁶
 Their wives and the captives
 Whom their right hands
 Possess—in order that³⁷⁴⁷
 There should be no difficulty

أَنْتِ أَجُورُهُنَّ
وَمَا مَلَكَتْ يَمِينُكَ مِنْ أَمَاءِ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكَ
وَبَدَنْتِ عَمَكَ وَبَدَنْتِ عَمَّتِكَ
وَبَدَنْتِ خَالَكَ وَبَدَنْتِ خَلَّتِكَ الَّتِي
هَاجَرْنَ مَعَكَ
وَأَمْرًا مُؤْمِنَةً إِنْ وَهَبْتُ نَفْسَهَا
لِلنَّبِيِّ إِنْ أَرَادَ النَّبِيُّ أَنْ يَسْتَكْحِمَهَا
خَالِصَةً لَكَ مِنْ دُونِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ
قَدْ عَلِمْنَا مَا فَرَضْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ فِي أَزْوَاجِهِمْ
وَمَا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُمْ
لِكَيْلَا يَكُونَ عَلَيْكَ حَرَجٌ

3742. Head 1. Marriage with dower (4:4): this is the universal Muslim marriage. The difference in the Prophet's case was that there was no limitation to the number of four (4:3), and women of the People of the Book (5:6) were not among his wives, but only Believers. These points are not expressly mentioned here, but are inferred by his actual practice. Obviously women who are expected to instruct other women in Islam must be Muslims.

3743. Head 2. Women Prisoners of War: the same remark as the last note. The point does not now arise, as the whole condition and incidents of war have been altered and slavery has been abolished by international agreement.

3744. Head 3. These are first cousins, and not within the Prohibited Degrees of Marriage (see 4:23-24). These are specially mentioned here by way of limitation. None of them could marry the Prophet unless she had performed the Hijrah with him. If she had not so performed it in spite of her close relationship, she could not be credited with any great fervour for Islam, or be considered suitable for instructing other women in Islam.

3745. Head 4. A believing woman who dedicates her soul to the Prophet: obviously this case, like the last, is only applicable to the Prophet, and is hedged around with the limitations that the Prophet considers it a suitable and proper case of true service to the community, and not merely a sentimental woman's freak. Some Commentators think there was no such case. But others, with whom I agree, think that this applies to Zaynab bint Khuzaymah, who had dedicated herself to the poor and was called the Mother of the Poor (Umm al masākīn). Similarly, the last head might possibly refer to Zaynab bint Jahsh, who was a daughter of the Prophet's paternal aunt, herself a daughter of 'Abd al Muttalib.

3746. The ordinary law of Muslim marriage will be found chiefly in 2:221-235, 4:19-25, 4:34-35, and 5:6.

3747. The words "this only for thee. . .right hands possess" are parenthetical, and the words "in order that . . ." connect on with the previous clauses beginning with "O Prophet, We have made lawful . . .wishes to wed her"

For Thee. And Allah is
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.³⁷⁴⁸

51. Thou mayest defer (the turn³⁷⁴⁹

And Allah is All-Knowing,

وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ
وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلِيمًا حَلِيمًا ۝

3748. Marriage is an important relationship not only in our physical life, but in our moral and spiritual life, and its effects extend not only to the parties themselves but to children and future generations. A number of special problems arise according to special circumstances. Every man and woman must seriously consider all sides of the question and must do the best in his or her power to temper instincts and inclinations with wisdom and guidance from Allah. Allah wishes to make every one's path easy, for He is indeed "Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful".

3749. In 4:3 it is laid down that more than one wife is not permissible "If ye fear that ye shall not be able to deal justly with them". In a Muslim household there is no room for a "favourite wife" in the sense that such a wife is recipient of favours denied to other wives. In the special circumstances of the Prophet there were more than one, and he usually observed the rule of equality with them, in other things as well as in the rotation of conjugal rights. But considering that his marriages, after he was invested with the Prophetic office, were mainly dictated by other than conjugal or personal considerations (see n. 3706, 33:28), the rotation could not always be observed, though he observed it as much as possible. This verse absolved him from absolute adherence to a fixed rotation. There are other interpretations, but I agree with most of the Commentators in the view I have explained. (R).

3750. Where the rotation was, for some reason, interfered with, it was permissible, by another interference with the usual rotation, to bring satisfaction to one who had been previously set aside. This was not only permitted, but commended, as tending to remove dissatisfaction and cheer and comfort the eyes and hearts of those who were disappointed in their turn.

3751. Cooling the eyes: an Arabic idiom for cheering and comforting eyes which yearn to see those they love. A verse of Zeb al Nisā', daughter of the Mughal Emperor Awrangzeb, may be rendered thus:

"My heart is glad whenever lover-wise
I dwell upon thy beauties and thy grace!
But how can I content my hungry eyes,
That ask continually to see thy face?"

3752. There was not much in the way of worldly goods or satisfaction that the Prophet could give them: see 33:28 above. But he was kind, just, and true — the best of men to his family, and they all clung to him.

3753. Our human hearts, however good on the whole, may yet, in their motives, have possibly some baser admixture. The feminine hearts are not more immune in this respect than the masculine. But everything is known and understood by Allah, Who will in His Mercy make allowances for our human weaknesses. His title of "Most Forgiving" (Ḥalīm) also gives His devoted worshippers the cue: why should we not also forbear with the faults and weaknesses of our neighbours and fellow-creatures?

52. It is not lawful for thee
 (To marry more) women³⁷⁵⁴
 After this, nor to change
 Them for (other) wives,
 Even though their beauty

 Thy right hand should

 And Allah doth watch

 Will come when all Evil will be punished.
 Fear Allah, and always speak the word
 That leads to Right. Arduous is the Quest
 Of Mankind's high and noble Destiny—
 Beyond the reach of other creatures:
 Let man but strive in Faith, and fulfil
 Allah's Trust—by the grace and mercy of Allah.

SECTION 7.

53. ﴿٥٣﴾ ye who Believe!
 Enter not the Prophet's houses—
 Until leave is given you —³⁷⁵⁵
 For a meal, (and then)
 Not (so early as) to wait
 For its preparation: but when
 Ye are invited, enter;
 And when ye have taken
 Your meal, disperse,
 Without seeking familiar talk.

٥٣- يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَدْخُلُوا

 وَلَكِنْ إِذَا دُعِيتُمْ فَادْخُلُوا
 فَإِذَا طَعِمْتُمْ فَانْشَرُوا
 وَلَا مُسْتَأْنِسِينَ لِحَدِيثٍ

3754. This was revealed in A.H. 7. After that the Prophet did not marry again, except the handmaiden, Mary the Copt, who was sent as a present by the Christian Muqawqas of Egypt. She became the mother of Ibrāhīm, who died in his infancy.

3755. The rules of refined social ethics are as necessary to teach today as it was with the rude Arabs whom the Holy Prophet had to teach in his day. Those mentioned in this verse may be briefly recapitulated thus: (1) Enter not a friend's house without permission; (2) if invited to dine, don't go too early; you are asked to dine, not to wait for the preparation of the food; (3) be there at the time appointed, so that you enter when you are expected and invited; (4) after the meal, don't get familiar with your host, especially if there is a great distance between him and you; (5) don't waste time in tittle-tattle, causing inconvenience and perhaps annoyance to your host; (6) understand what is proper behaviour for you, he may be too polite to ask you to depart. All this has a spiritual as well as a social bearing: respect and delicate consideration for others are among the highest virtues.

Such (behaviour) annoys
The Prophet: he is ashamed
To dismiss you, but
Allah is not ashamed
(To tell you) the truth.

And when ye
Ask (his ladies)³⁷⁵⁶
For anything ye want
Ask them from before

For greater purity for
Your hearts and for theirs.

Nor is it right for you³⁷⁵⁷
That ye should annoy³⁷⁵⁸
Allah's Messenger, or that
Ye should marry his widows
After him at any time.
Truly such a thing is
In Allah's sight an enormity.

54. Whether ye reveal anything³⁷⁵⁹
Or conceal it, verily
Allah has full knowledge
Of all things.

3756. The actual manner of showing respect to ladies may be different in different circumstances. But it is an essential principle of good society to show the greatest deference to them. To the "Mothers of the Believers" this respect was due in an exceptional degree.

3757. Considering his position, the Holy Prophet deserved to be respected before all other men and nothing should be done to cause him the least harm and annoyance. This applied not only during his lifetime, but it applies now, because his teaching and personality are alive to us. It was not fitting that his widows, both for their own position and for the position of the Prophet, should be married by other men after him. And this mark of respect was duly observed in history.

3758. "Annoy": Adha' may equally mean to vex, to cause hurt or injury, to insult, to ill-treat by slander or unseemly conduct, or hurt the feelings of (someone). The Prophet came with a divine mission to teach and reclaim the world, and he is entitled to the respect of all, even of those who do not consciously acknowledge his mission, for his mission works constantly like the forces of nature. In a minor degree the "Mothers of the Believers" are also entitled to respect.

3759. Respect or opposition may be shown overtly or in devious hidden ways. All good and evil are open before Allah, and He will take due account of everything.

3760. This refers back to the Hijāb (screen) portion of verse 53 above. The list of those before whom the Prophet's wives could appear informally without a screen is their fathers, sons, brothers, brothers' or sisters' sons, serving women, and household slaves or servants. Commentators include uncles (paternal and maternal) under the heading of "fathers". Their women is held to mean all women who belonged to the Muslim community: other women were in the position of strangers, whom they received not so intimately, but with the formality of a screen as in the case of men. Compare with this list and the wording here the list and the wording in 24:31, which applies to all Muslim women. In the list here, husbands and husbands' relatives are not necessary to be mentioned, as we are speaking of a single household, that of the central figure in Islam, nor men-servants nor children, as there were none. In the wording note that for Muslim women generally, no screen or Hijāb (Pardah) is mentioned, but only a veil to cover the bosom, and modesty in dress. The screen was a special feature of honour for the Prophet's household, introduced about five or six years before his death.

3761. Allah and His angels honour and bless the Holy Prophet as the greatest of men. We are asked to honour and bless him all the more because he took upon himself to suffer the sorrow and afflictions of this life in order to guide us to Allah's Mercy and the highest inner Life.

3763. Cf. 4:112. In that passage we were told that anyone who was himself guilty but accused an innocent man of his guilt, was obviously placing himself in double jeopardy; first, for his own original guilt, and secondly for the guilt of a false accusation. Here we take two classes of men instead of two individuals. The men and women of faith (if they deserve the name) and doing all they can to serve Allah and humanity. If they are insulted, hurt, or annoyed by those whose sins they denounce, the latter suffer the penalties of a double guilt, viz., their sins to start with, and the insults or injuries they offer to those who correct them. Instead of resenting the preaching of Truth, they should welcome it and profit by it.

61. They shall have a curse³⁷⁶⁹
On them: wherever they
Are found, they shall be

٦١- مَلْعُونِينَ ۖ إِنَّهُمْ لَكَاذِبُونَ

3764. This is for all Muslim women, those of the Prophet's household, as well as the others. They were asked to cover themselves with outer garments when walking around. (R).

3765. Jilbāb, plural jalābīb: an outer garment: a long gown covering the whole body, or a cloak covering the neck and bosom.

3766. The object was not to restrict the liberty of women but to protect them from harm and molestation. In the East and the West a distinctive public dress of some sort or another has always been a badge of honour or distinction, both among men and women. This can be traced back to the earliest civilisations. Assyrian Law in its palmiest days (say, 7th century B.C.), enjoined the veiling of married women and forbade the veiling of slaves and women of ill-fame: see Cambridge Ancient History, III, 107.

3767. That is, if a Muslim woman sincerely tries to observe this rule, but owing to human weakness falls short of the ideal, then "Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful". (R).

3768. It was necessary to put down all kinds of unseemly conduct in the Prophet's City. And here is the warning in the plainest terms. And the warning had its effect. The "Hypocrites" were men who pretended to be in Islam but whose manners and morals were anti-Islamic. Those "with diseased hearts" may have been the ones that molested innocent women. "Those who stirred up sedition" put false rumours in circulation to excite the crowd. Alas! we must ask ourselves the question: "Are these conditions present among us today?"

3769. They will be deprived of the blessing and guidance of Allah. They sought to cause disorder in Allah's world—moral as well as material, but they will themselves be destroyed. Those who become outlaws, rebels against the Law, will themselves be destroyed by the Law. Capital punishment is the only adequate punishment for treason and crimes of sustained concerted violence—for the protection of the hearths and homes of innocent citizens and the honour of their women.

٦٧- وَقَالُوا رَبَّنَا إِنَّا أَطَعْنَا

3770. The Jewish Law was much more severe: see notes 3703 and 3704 to 33:26. That severity is mitigated in Islam. But it is a universal principle that any element which deliberately refuses to obey law and aggressively tries to subvert all order in society, secretly and openly, must be effectively suppressed, for the preservation of the life and health of the general community.

3771. Cf. 7:187 and n. 1159, where the idea is further explained. The knowledge of the Final Hour is with Allah alone. The fact of its coming is certain: the exact time when it will come has not been revealed. If it were, it would disturb our thoughts and life. "Heavy were its burden through the heavens and the earth." But at any given moment it cannot be far distant. In theological language, each individual's death is a Final Hour, a Qiyāmah Ṣughrā (Lesser Day of Judgement). In that sense it is not the same for all individuals, and is certainly always near. "In the midst of life we are in death", as the Anglican Prayer-Book says in its Burial Service.

3772. The face is the expression of their Personality, their Self; and turning upside down is a sign of degradation and ignominy. When the Retribution comes, the evil ones will be humiliated, and they will wish that they had followed right guidance when they had the chance. They will then fall to accusing their leaders who misled them. But they forget their own personal responsibility.

And they misled us

وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ ذُنُوبَكُمْ
وَمَنْ يُطِيعِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ فَقَدْ

3773. Cf. 25:69 and n. 3129, and 11:20 and n. 1515. The double Penalty invoked will be because (1) they were wrong themselves and (2) they misled others.

3774. The people of Moses often vexed him and rebelled against him and against Allah's Law. Here the reference seems to be to Num. xii. 1-13. It is there said that Moses's own sister Miriam and his brother Aaron spoke against Moses because Moses had married an Ethiopian woman. Allah cleared Moses of the charge of having done anything wrong: "My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all mine house." Miriam was afflicted with leprosy for seven days as a punishment, after which she was forgiven, as also was Aaron. This is the Old Testament story. The Holy Prophet was also attacked because of his marriage with Zaynab bint Jahsh, but not by his own circle; his motives were of the highest and were completely vindicated as we have seen above.

3775. We must not only speak the truth as far as we know it, but we must always try to hit the right point; i.e., we must not speak unseasonably, and when we do speak, we must not beat about the bush, but go straight to that which is right, in deed as well as in word. Then Allah will make our conduct right and cure any defects that there may be in our knowledge and character. With our endeavour directed straight to the goal, we shall be forgiven our errors, shortcomings, faults, and sins of the past.

فَأَرْقُوزًا عَظِيمًا ۝

72. We did indeed offer
The Trust³⁷⁷⁷ To the Heavens
And the Earth
And the Mountains;³⁷⁷⁸
But they refused³⁷⁷⁹
To undertake it,³⁷⁸⁰

۞- إِنَّا عَرَضْنَا الْأَمَانَةَ عَلَى السَّمَوَاتِ
وَالْأَرْضِ وَالْجِبَالِ
كَابِرِينَ أَنْ يُحْمِلْنَهَا

3776. This is salvation, the attainment of our real spiritual desire or ambition, as we are on the highway to nearness to Allah.

3777. The Trust is something given to a person, over which he has a power of disposition: he is expected to use it as directed or expected, but he has the power to use it otherwise. There is no trust if the trustee has no power, and the trust implies that the giver of the trust believes and expects that the trustee would use it according to the wish of the creator of the trust, and not otherwise.

3778. What is the meaning of the offer of the Trust to the Heavens, the Earth, and the Mountains? Cf. 59:21, where the hypothetical sending down of the Qur'ān to the Mountains is mentioned, and it is mentioned that such Parables are put forth in order to aid men to reflection. We may therefore take the Mountains, the Earth, and the Heavens as symbolical. The mountains stand for firmness and stability: they have been created for this quality, and they are always true to that quality. An earthquake or a volcano has to do with movements within the earth's crust: it has nothing to do with the Mountain's will. In fact it has no free will of any kind: there is no question of any Trust here. If we take the Earth as a whole, as a part of the solar system or a compendium of the terrestrial Nature we see around us, it obeys the fixed laws of Allah, and there is no Will or Trust. If we take the Heavens either as celestial space, or as symbolical of the Angels, they absolutely obey Allah's Will and law: they have no will of their own.

3779. The Heavens, the Earth, and the Mountains, i.e., other creatures of Allah, besides man, refused to undertake a Trust or a responsibility, and may be imagined as happy without a choice of good or evil being given through their will. In saying that they refused, we imply a will, but we limit it by the statement that they did not undertake to be given a choice between good and evil. They preferred to submit their will entirely to Allah's Will, which is All-Wise and Perfect, and which would give them far more happiness than a faculty of choice, with their imperfect knowledge. Man was too audacious and ignorant to realise this, and the result has been that man as a race has been disrupted: the evil ones have betrayed the trust and brought Punishment on themselves, though the good have been able to rise far above other Creation, to be the muqarrabīn, the nearest ones to Allah: 56:11 and 56:88. What can be higher than this for any creature?

It follows incidentally from this that the Heavens and the Earth were created before man was created, and this is in accordance with what we know of the physical world in science: man came on the scene at a comparatively late stage.

3780. Hamala: to undertake, bear, carry (the Trust or responsibility), to be equal to it. This is the ordinary meaning, and the majority of Commentators construe so. But some understand it to mean "to carry away, run away with, to embezzle (the thing entrusted); hence to be false to the Trust, to betray the Trust." In that case the sense of verses 72-73 would be: "Allah offered the Trust to other creatures, but they refused, lest they should betray it, being afraid from that point of view: but man was less fair to himself: in his ignorance he accepted and betrayed the trust, with the result that some of his race became Hypocrites and Unbelievers and were punished, though others were faithful to the Trust and received Allah's Mercy." The resulting conclusion is the same under both interpretations.

Being afraid thereof:
But man undertook it — ³⁷⁸¹
He was indeed unjust³⁷⁸²
And foolish —

وَأَشْفَقْنَا مِنْهَا وَحَمَلَهَا الْإِنْسَانُ إِنَّهُ
كَانَ ظَلُومًا جَهُولًا ۝

73. (With the result) that
Allah has to punish³⁷⁸³
The Hypocrites, men and women,
And the Unbelievers, men
And women, and Allah turns
In Mercy to the Believers,³⁷⁸⁴
Men and women: for Allah
Is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

٤٣- لِيُعَذِّبَ اللَّهُ
الْمُنَافِقِينَ وَالْمُنَافِقَاتِ وَالشَّارِكِينَ وَالشَّارِكَاتِ
وَيُؤْتِيَ اللَّهُ عَلَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ
وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا ۝

3781. See 2:30-34 and notes. Allah intended a very high destiny for man, and placed him in his uncorrupted state even above the angels, but in his corruption he made himself even lower than the beasts. What was it that made man so high and noble? The differentiating quality which Allah gave man was that Allah breathed something of His own spirit into man (32:9; 15:29 and n. 1968; and other passages). This meant that man was given a limited choice of good and evil, and that he was made capable of Forbearance, Love, and Mercy. And in himself man summed up Allah's great world: man is in himself a microcosm.

3782. That man should undertake the God-like attributes (in however small a degree) of Will, Forbearance, Love, and Mercy, brought him nearer to Allah than was possible for any other creature of Allah. This was part of Allah's Will and Plan, but little did man realise then what a tremendous task he was undertaking or question himself whether he would be equal to it. Zalūm (translated "unjust") and Jahūl (ignorant) are both in the Arabic intensive form; as much as to say, 'man signally failed to measure his own powers or his own knowledge'. But Allah's Grace came to his assistance. Where man did his best, he won through by Allah's Grace, even though man's Best was but a poor Good.

How did man generically undertake this great Responsibility, which made him Vicegerent of Allah (2:30)? Here comes in the mystic doctrine of a Covenant, expressed or implied, between Allah and Humanity. See 7:172-73 and notes 1146-1148, also 5:1 and n. 682. A Covenant (Mīthāq) necessarily implies Trust, and its breach necessarily implies Punishment.

3783. Man's generic Covenant, which flowed from his exercising the option given him, choosing Will, Forbearance, Love, and Mercy, made it necessary that breach of it should carry its own punishment. Breach of it is here classed under two heads: those who betray their Trust act either as Hypocrites or as Unbelievers. Hypocrites are those who profess Faith but bring not forth the fruits of Faith. Unbelievers are those who openly defy Faith, and from whom therefore no fruits of Faith are to be expected.

3784. Those who remain firm to their Faith and their Covenant (see notes 3781-82) will receive the aid of Allah's Grace; their faults and weaknesses will be cured: and they will be made worthy of their exalted Destiny. For Allah is Oft-Returning and Most Merciful.

So ends a Sūrah which deals with the greatest complications and misunderstandings in our throbbing life here below, and points upwards to the Great Achievement, the highest Salvation.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 34—SABA'

Now we begin a series of Sūrahs S. 34 to S. 39 which recapitulate some of the features of the spiritual world. This Sūrah leads off with emphasis on Allah's Mercy and Power and Truth. Then (in S. 35.) we are told how angels manifest the Power of Allah, and how different is Good from Evil and Truth from Falsehood. S. 36 is devoted to the Holy Prophet and the Qur'ān that came through him. In S. 37 the emphasis is on the snares of the Evil One; in S. 38, on the conquest of evil by wisdom and power as in the case of David and Solomon, and by Patience and Constancy as in the case of Job; and in S. 39, on the Final Judgement, which will sort out Faith from Unfaith and give to each its due.

The chronology has here no significance. This Sūrah belongs to the early Makkan period.

Summary—No Good or Truth is ever lost: Human Power and Prosperity are fleeting; but Allah's Power and Justice endure, and will enforce personal responsibility on man on the Last Day (34:1-30, and C. 190).

Faith and Unfaith will eventually find their true places and true values; Falsehood has no power; Truth is with Allah (34:31-54, and C. 191).

C. 190. —Allah's Mercy and Power endure forever:
 (34:1-30.) Man should understand and not resist
 Allah's Revelation. Human wisdom and Power,
 As given to David, were only for establishing Righteousness. Human glory, like Solomon's
 Rested on slender foundations. Saba'
 But enjoyed her fair and prosperous state
 As long as she obeyed the Law
 Of Allah, but perished for unrighteousness.
 Learn, then, that the Mercy and Power, Wisdom
 And Justice, of Allah are beyond all comparison.
 Do right and prepare for the Final Day.

Sūrah 34.

الجزء الثاني والعشرون سُورَةُ سَبَأٍ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي
لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ
وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ فِي الْآخِرَةِ
وَهُوَ الْحَكِيمُ الْحَكِيمُ ۝

۲- يَعْلَمُ مَا يَلْجِئُ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا يُخْرِجُ مِنْهَا
وَمَا يَنْزِلُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ وَمَا يَعْرُبُ فِيهَا
وَهُوَ الرَّحِيمُ الْغَفُورُ ۝

۳- وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَا تَأْتِينَا
السَّاعَةُ قُلْ بَلَى

3784-A. Saba': see S. 34:15.

3785. All Creation declares His Praises, i.e., manifests His Mercy and Power, Goodness and Truth — all the sublime attributes summed up in His Most Beautiful Names (7:180 and 17:110 and notes). For man, to contemplate these is in itself a Revelation. This sentiment opens five Sūrahs of the Qur'ān evenly distributed, viz., 1, 4., 18, 34, and 35. Here the point most emphasised is that His wisdom and mercy comprehend all things, extended in space or in time—here and everywhere, now and evermore. (R).

3786. An ignorant man may think that water absorbed in the soil or seed sown beneath the sod is lost, but it replenishes numerous rills and streams, and feeds and sustains numerous roots and forms of life, and throws up all kinds of vegetable life. So with things that come out of the earth who can count the myriad forms of herbs and trees that grow and perish, and yet sustain a continuous life for ages and ages? Yet these are symbolical of other things or entities beyond time or space, and beyond physical form. We see the birth and death of the animal part of man: when he is buried beneath the soil, the ignorant man thinks there is an end of him. But what countless stages still lie before him for his inner and spiritual life? And so with the Platonic Forms of Things: Goodness, Virtue, Mercy, and the various functions of the soul. They are never lost, but go up to Allah.

3787. The vapours that rise from the earth and ascend to the sky descend again as rain and snow and as symbols of Allah's Mercy. So are the prayers of the devout and the call of those in agony for help and light, answered by the descent of mercy and guidance, help and light from the Throne of Majesty. The imagery indicated in the last note can be worked out to moral and spiritual forces, and they all centre in Allah. Do not forget that, just as there is the element of Mercy, so there is an element of Justice and Punishment—in the physical forces as well as in the moral and spiritual forces, all centering in Allah.

3788. The last two verses prepared us to realise the positions of Unbelievers in Allah's great Universe. They are the discord in the universal harmony of Prayer and Praise. Their existence is due to the grant of a limited free will, the Trust which the Unbelievers have betrayed (see 33:72 and notes). But they must and will be eliminated: see verse 5 below. For there is nothing more certain in the world, physical, moral and spiritual, than that every cause, great or small, must have it corresponding consequences.

But most surely,
By my Lord,³⁷⁸⁹ it will come
Upon you—by Him
Who knows the unseen—
From Whom is not hidden
The least little atom
In the Heavens or on earth:
Nor is there anything less
Than that, or greater, but
Is in the Record Perspicuous:³⁷⁹⁰

وَمَا رَبِّي لِتَأْتِيَنَا كَمُ
عَلِيمُ الْغَيْبِ لَا يَعْرُبُ عَنْهُ مِنْقَالُ ذَرَّةٍ
فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَلَا فِي الْأَرْضِ
وَلَا أَصْغَرُ مِنْ ذَلِكَ وَلَا أَكْبَرُ
إِلَّا فِي كِتَابٍ مُبِينٍ ۝

4. That He may reward
Those who believe and work
Deeds of righteousness: for such
Is Forgiveness and a
Sustenance³⁷⁹¹
Most Generous."

۴- لِيَجْزِيَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
أُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَرِزْقٌ كَرِيمٌ ۝

5. But those who strive
Against Our Signs, to frustrate³⁷⁹²
Them—for such will be
A Penalty—a Punishment
Most humiliating.

۵- وَالَّذِينَ سَعَوْا فِي آيَاتِنَا مُجْرِبِينَ
أُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ
مِنْ رِجْزِ الْيَوْمِ ۝

6. And those to whom³⁷⁹³
Knowledge has come see
That the (Revelation) sent down
To thee from thy Lord—
That is the Truth,
And that it guides
To the Path of the Exalted
(In Might), Worthy
Of all praise.

۶- وَيَرَى الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ
الَّذِي أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْكَ مِنْ رَبِّكَ
هُوَ الْحَقُّ وَيَهْدِي
إِلَى صِرَاطٍ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَمِيدِ ۝

3789. The strongest emphasis and the most perfect assurance of certainty are indicated by reference to the authority of Allah Himself, the Ruler of the Day of Judgement.

3790. In the symbolical language of our own human experiences, a record is more enduring than memory: in fact (if properly preserved) it is perpetual. If, further, it is expressed in clear language, without any obscurity, it can always be read with perfect precision and without any doubt whatever. Apply these qualities, free from human defects, to Allah's laws and decrees. They are unerring and enduring. Everything, greater or small, will receive due recognition—a Reward for Good and Punishment for Evil.

3791. Sustenance: Spiritual in things spiritual, and physical in things physical. It implies not only the satisfaction of desire, but the provision of means for sustaining the ground won and for winning more ground in the march of progress.

3792. Cf. 22:51. Allah's Plan cannot be frustrated. It is those who work against it, who will be eliminated and destroyed.

3793. Against the doubts and vain imaginings of the Ignorant is the certainty of knowledge of the Enlightened: that Allah reveals Himself, and that His Revelation is true and leads to the Path of true Guidance. That Path is the Path of Allah, Who, in His infinite love and Mercy, is Worthy of all Praise.

It is possible to connect this with the "Record Perspicuous" in verse 3 above: "it is perspicuous.. for the Enlightened do see.."

7. The Unbelievers say
(In ridicule): "Shall we
Point out to you a man³⁷⁹⁴
That will tell you,
When ye are all scattered
To pieces in disintegration,
That ye shall (then be Raised) in a New Creation?

٧- وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
هَلْ نَدُوكُمْ عَلَىٰ رَجُلٍ
يُنَبِّئُكُمْ إِذَا أُمِرْتُمْ كُلٌّ مِّمَّنِّي
إِنَّكُمْ لَفِي خَلْقٍ جَدِيدٍ ۝

8. "Has he invented a falsehood
Against Allah, or has
A spirit (seized) him?"—³⁷⁹⁵
Nay, it is those who
Believe not in the Hereafter,
That are in (real) Penalty,
And in farthest Error.

٨- أَفَتَرَىٰ عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا أَمْ بِهِ جِنَّةٌ
بَلِ الَّذِينَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ بِالْآخِرَةِ فِي
الْعَذَابِ
وَالضَّلَالِ الْبَعِيدِ ۝

9. See they not what is
Before them and behind them,
Of the sky and the earth?³⁷⁹⁶
If We wished, We could
Cause the earth to swallow³⁷⁹⁷
Them up, or cause a piece
Of the sky to fall upon them.³⁷⁹⁸
Verily in this is a Sign
For every devotee that
Turns to Allah (in repentance).

٩- أَفَلَمْ يَرَوْا إِلَىٰ مَا بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَمَا خَلْفَهُمْ
مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ
إِنْ شَاءَ نَحْنُصِفْ بِهِمُ الْأَرْضَ
أَوْ نَنْقِطَ عَلَيْهِمْ كَSَفًا مِّنَ السَّمَاءِ
إِنَّ فِي ذَٰلِكَ لَآيَةً لِّكُلِّ عَبْدٍ مُّنِيبٍ ۝

10. He bestowed Grace aforetime
On David from Ourselves:³⁷⁹⁹

١٠- وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا دَاوُدَ مِنَّا فَضْلًا

3794. This is a taunt against the Holy Prophet, and it is applicable to all who preach the doctrine of a Future Life. How is it possible, say the Unbelievers, that when a man's body is reduced to dust and scattered about, the man should rise again and become a new Creation? They add that such a preacher is inventing a deliberate falsehood or is demented.

3795. The answer is: the Future Life is the truest of all Truths; so far is the man who teaches it from being demented, that it is those who deny it, that lack knowledge and are in real jeopardy for their souls; for they persecute Truth and must not only suffer defeat, but go farther and farther from Realities and thus suffer the worst hallucinations about the spiritual world.

3796. The men who walk in spiritual darkness and laugh at a Hereafter have but to observe the Power of Allah in the nature around them. He Who created the heavens and the earth and sustains them can surely make a new Creation! And the cosmic Laws which are so just and inevitable should surely give them an idea of the inexorable Justice that must redress all balance.

3797. Cf. 16:45, and n. 2071. Who are these puny creatures—sceptics that question the might and majesty of Allah?

3798. Cf. 26:187. this was actually a challenge hurled at Shu'ayb and a shower of ashes and cinders came from above and overwhelmed the challengers!

3799. Cf. 21:79-80, and notes 2733-34. David had the gift of song and sacred music, and this is shown in his Psalms. All nature—hills and birds—sing and echo back the Praise of Allah.

"O ye Mountains! sing ye
Back the Praises of Allah
With him! and ye birds
(Also)! And We made
The iron soft for him — ³⁸⁰⁰

يُجْبِلُ أَوْبَى
مَعَهُ وَالْطَّيْرُ
وَالنَّالُ الْحَدِيدُ

11. (Commanding), "Make thou
Coats of mail, balancing well³⁸⁰¹
The rings of chain armour,
And work ye righteousness;³⁸⁰²
For be sure I see
(Clearly) all that ye do."

اِنَّ اَنْ اَعْمَلُ سِبْغَتٍ وَقَدَّرُ فِي التَّرْدِ
وَاَعْمَلُوا صَالِحًا
لِي بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ ۝

12. And to Solomon (We Made) the Wind (obedient):³⁸⁰³
Its early morning (stride)
Was a month's (journey),
And its evening (stride)
Was a month's (journey);
And We made a Font³⁸⁰⁴
Of molten brass to flow
For him; and there were
Jinns that worked in front³⁸⁰⁵
Of him, by the leave
Of his Lord, and if any
Of them turned aside
From Our command, We Made him taste

وَلِسُلَيْمَانَ الرِّيحَ
عُدُوْهَا شَهْرٌ
وَرَوْاحُهَا شَهْرٌ
وَأَسْلَمْنَا لَهُ الْفُطْرُ
وَمِنَ الْجِنِّ مَن يَعْمَلُ بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ
بِإِذْنِ رَبِّهِ
وَمَنْ يُزِغْ مِنْهُمْ عَنْ أَمْرِنَا
لَنَذِقْهُ

3800. Iron or steel is hard stuff: but in the hands of a craftsman it becomes soft and pliable, and with it can be made instruments for the defence of righteousness. These, in the literal sense, are coats of mail, and defensive armour, and the manufacture of them is traditionally attributed to David. (R).

3801. Coats of chain armour have to be made with cunning art, if the chains are to fit into each other and the whole garment is to be worn in comfort in fierce warfare.

3802. Note the transition from the singular, "make them coats of mail", to the plural "and work ye righteousness". The first is addressed to David, who was the artificer of defensive armour: and the second is addressed to him and his whole people. He made the armour, but it was to be worn not only by him but all the warriors. But he and his people were to be careful to see that they did not deviate from the paths of righteousness. Fighting is a dangerous weapon and may well degenerate (as it so often does) into mere violence. They were to see that this should not happen, and they were told that Allah was watching over them all with personal solicitude implied in the singular pronoun "I".

3803. Cf. 21:81-82, n. 2736, and 38:36-38. See also 27:38-39. The winds are swift and can cover in a short morning's or evening's flight the distance it takes a whole month to cover on foot or by bullock cart. In our own day, with air speeds of 400 miles and more per hour, this seems a moderate statement.

3804. In the Old Testament, II. Chronicles, Chapters iii., and iv., are described the various costly materials with which Solomon's Temple was built, and it was furnished with vessels, candlesticks, lamps, censers, etc. "Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out" (II. Chronicles, iv. 18). "Also he made a molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height thereof: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about" (II. Chronicles, iv. 2). The receptacle or "sea" or Font was made of molten brass: presumably it contained flowing water for washing with.

3805. See 27:17, and n. 3257. (R).

Images, Basins,
As large as Reservoirs,
And (cooking) Cauldrons fixed

Sons of David, with thanks!
But few of My servants

14. Then, when We decreed
(Solomon's) death, nothing

Worm of the earth, which Kept (slowly) gnawing away
At his staff: so when he Fell down, the Jinns saw³⁸⁰⁹
Plainly that if they had

مِنْ عَذَابِ السَّعِيرِ

۱۳- يَعْمَلُونَ لَهُ مَا يَشَاءُ مِنْ مَحَارِبَ

وَقَلِيلٌ مِنْ عِبَادِيَ الشَّكُورُ

۱۴- فَلَمَّا قَضَيْنَا عَلَيْهِ الْمَوْتَ
مَا دَلَّهُمْ عَلَى مَوْتِهِ
إِلَّا دَابَّةُ الْأَرْضِ
تَأْكُلُ مِنْسَأَتَهُ
فَلَمَّا خَرَّ تَبَيَّنَتْ الْإِجْنُ
أَنْ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ الْغَيْبَ مَا لَبِثُوا

3806. Mihrāb (Plural Maḥārib), translated "arch", may be applied to any fine, elevated, spacious architectural structure. As the reference here is to the Temple of Solomon, the word "arches" is I think most appropriate. "Arches" would be structure Ornaments in the Temple. Images would be like the images of oxen and Cherubim mentioned in II. Chronicles, iv. 3 and iii. 14; the Basins (II. Chronicles iv. 22) were perhaps huge dishes round which many men could sit together and eat, according to ancient Eastern custom, while the cooking Cauldrons or Pots (II. Chronicles, iv. 16), were fixed in one place, being so large in capacity that they could not be moved about. Indian readers will get some idea of them from the huge cooking Degs, which they use in the 'Urs at Ajmir Sharif.

3807. The building of the Temple was a great event in Israelite history. The motto here given is "Work!": for only that would justify the maintenance of the Kingdom of David, which reached its zenith under Solomon. Without work, both literally, and figuratively for "righteous deeds", all that glory and power would be out of place, and it fell away in a few generations, with the decline of the moral spirit which was at its back.

3808. This allegory illustrates three points: (1) however great and glorious human power and grandeur may be, it is only for a time, and it may fade away even before people know of its decline; (2) the most remarkable events may be brought to light, not by a flourish of trumpets, but by a humble individual, unknown and unseen, who works imperceptibly and undermines even so strong a thing as a staff, on which a great man may lean; (3) work done by men merely on the basis of brute strength or fear, as in the case of the Jinns, will not endure. This is brought up in strong contrast against the Power and Majesty of Allah, which will endure, which cannot be sapped, and which can only be fully appreciated by a training of the will and heart. In the same way, in David's story above, his mighty strength as a warrior (see 2:251) and his skill in making armour are only to be valued when used, as it was used, in the service of Allah, in righteous works (34:11).

3809. The Jinns looked upon their work as a Penalty, and so it became to them. The people who worked at the Temple of Solomon as the People of David worked and gloried in their work as a thanksgiving to Allah, and their work became sanctified. The Jinns knew nothing of hidden secrets; they only saw the obvious, and had not even the significance of the little worm that slowly gnawed away Solomon's staff.

وَأَثَلٍ وَشَيْءٍ مِّنْ سِدْرٍ قَلِيلٍ ۝

3810. This is the same city and territory in Yemen as is mentioned in 27:22: see note there as to its location. There the period was the time of Solomon and Queen Bilqīs. Here it is some centuries later. It was still a happy and prosperous country, amply irrigated from the Ma'ārib dam. Its road or perhaps its canals, were skirted by gardens on both sides, right and left: at any given point you always saw two gardens. It produced fruit, spices, and frankincense, and got the name of Araby the Blest for that part of the country.

3811. The land was fair to look upon: the people happy and prosperous: and they enjoyed the blessings of Allah, Who is Gracious and does not punish small human faults or weaknesses.

3812. Into that happy Garden of Eden in Arabia Felix (Araby the Blest) came the insidious snake of Unfaith and Wrongdoing. Perhaps the people became arrogant of their prosperity, or of their science, or of their skill in irrigation engineering, in respect of the wonderful works of the Dam which their ancestors had constructed. Perhaps they got broken up into rich and poor, privileged and unprivileged, high-caste and low-caste, disregarding the gifts and closing the opportunities given by Allah to all His creatures. Perhaps they broke the laws of the very Nature which fed and sustained them. The Nemesis came. It may have come suddenly, or it may have come slowly. The pent-up waters of the eastern side of the Yemen highlands were collected in a high lake confined by the Dam of Ma'ārib. A mighty flood came: the dam burst: and it has never been repaired since. This was a spectacular crisis: it may have been preceded and followed by slow dessication of the country.

3813. "Arim" (= Dams or Embankments) may have been a proper noun, or may simply mean the great earthworks lined with stone, which formed the Ma'ārib dam, of which traces still exist. The French traveller T.J. Arnaud saw the town and ruins of the Dam of Ma'ārib in 1843, and described its gigantic works and its inscriptions: See Journal Asiatique for January 1874: the account is in French. For a secondary account in English, see W.B. Harris, Journey Through Yemen, Edinburgh, 1893. The dam as measured by Arnaud was two miles long and 120 ft. high. The date of its destruction was somewhere about 120 A.C., though some authorities put it much later.

3814. The flourishing "Garden of Arabia" was converted into a waste. The luscious fruit trees became wild, or gave place to wild plants with bitter fruit. The feathery leaved tamarisk, which is only good for twigs and wattle-work, replaced the fragrant plants and flowers. Wild and stunted kinds of thorny bushes, like the wild Lote tree, which were good for neither fruit nor shade, grew in place of the pomegranates, the date palms, and the grapevines. The lote tree belongs to the family Rhamnaceae, Zizyphus Spina Christi, of which (it is supposed) Christ's crown of thorns was made, allied to the Zizyphus Jujuba, or ber tree of India. Wild, it is shrubby, thorny and useless. In cultivation it bears good fruit, and some shade, and can be thornless, thus becoming a symbol of heavenly bliss: 56:28.

أَسْفَارِنَا وَظَلَمُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ
فَجَعَلْنَاهُمْ أَحَادِيثَ

3815. Kafūr: intensive form: "those who deliberately and continuously reject Allah and are ungrateful for His Mercies, as shown by their constant wrongdoing."

3816. An instance is now given of the sort of covetousness on the part of the people of Saba', which ruined their prosperity and trade and cut their own throats. The old Frankincense route was the great Highway (imām mubīn 15:79; sabīl muqīm, 15:76) between Arabia and Syria. Through Syria it connected with the great and flourishing Kingdoms of the Euphrates and Tigris valleys on the one hand and Egypt on the other, and with the great Roman Empire round the Mediterranean. At the other end, through the Yemen Coast, the road connected, by sea transport, with India, Malaya, and China. The Yemen-Syria road was much frequented, and Madā'in Sālih was one of the stations on that route, and afterwards on the Pilgrim route: see Appendix VII to S. 26. Syria was the land on which Allah "had poured his blessings", being a rich fertile country, where Abraham had lived: it includes the Holy Land of Palestine. The route was studded in the days of its prosperity with many stations (cities) close to each other, on which merchants could travel with ease and safety, "by night and by day". The close proximity of stations prevented the inroads of highwaymen.

3817. Said: in this and other places in the Qur'ān, "language" is used for thought or deed. The Commentators call it the "Language of actual facts" (zabān ḥāl) as opposed to the "language of words" (zabān qāl).

3819. The people of Saba' were given every chance. They had prosperity, skill, trade and commerce, and a healthy and beautiful country. They also had, apparently, great virtues, and as long as they remained true to their virtues, i.e., to the Law of Allah, they remained happy and contented. But when they became covetous and selfish, and became jealous of other people's prosperity instead of rejoicing in it, they fell from grace and declined. It may be that the climate changed, the rainfall became scantier, perhaps on account of the cutting down of hill forests: trade routes changed, on account of the people falling off in the virtues that make men popular: behind all the physical causes was the root-cause, that they began to worship mammon, self, greed, or materialism. They fell into the snare of Satan. They gradually passed out of history, and became only a name in a story. Moral: it is only Allah's Mercy that can give true happiness or prosperity, and happiness or prosperity is only a snare unless used for the highest service of Allah and man.

SECTION 3.

22. Say: "Call upon other (gods)³⁸²²
Whom ye fancy, besides Allah:
They have no power—
Not the weight of an atom—
In the heavens or on earth:³⁸²³
No (sort of) share have they
Therein, nor is any of them
A helper to Allah.

۝۲۲ قُلْ اِدْعُوا الَّذِينَ زَعَمْتُمْ مِّنْ دُونِ

فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَلَا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا لَهُمْ فِيهِمَا
مِّنْ شَرِكٍ وَمَا لَهُ مِنْهُمْ مِّنْ ظَهِيرٍ ۝

23. "No intercession can avail
In His Presence, except for those³⁸²⁴

۝۲۳ وَلَا تَنْفَعُ الشَّفَاعَةُ عِندَهُ إِلَّا

3820. Cf. 17:62. Satan out of arrogance had said, when he asked for respite from the Most High: "I will bring (Adam's) descendants under my sway, all but a few." This was now proved true on the Saba' people. He had no power to force them. It was their own will that went wrong and put them into his power.

3821. Might test: the word in the original is might know. It is not that Allah does not know all. Why does He want to test? It is in order to help us subjectively, to train our will, to put us definitely the question, "Will you obey Allah or other than Allah?" Cf. n. 467 to 3:154.

3822. Other objects of worship, such as Self, or Money, or Power, or things we imagine will bring us luck or prosperity, though they can do nothing of the kind.

3823. The false gods have no power whatever either in heaven or on earth, either in influencing our spiritual life or our ordinary worldly life. To suppose that they have some share, or that they can give some help to Allah, even though Allah is Supreme, is both false and blasphemous. Allah is One and Supreme, without sharer, helper, or equal.

3824. Cf. 20:109, n. 2634, where I have explained the two possible modes of interpretation. Each soul is individually and personally responsible. And if there is any intercession, it can only be by Allah's gracious permission. For the Day of Judgement will be a terrible Day, or Day of Wrath (Dies irae) according to the Latin hymn, when the purest souls will be stupefied at the manifestation of Allah's Power. See next note.

For whom He has granted Permission. So far (is this
The case) that, when terror
Is removed from their hearts³⁸²⁵
(At the Day of Judgement, then)
Will they say, 'What is it
That your Lord

commanded?'³⁸²⁶

They will say: 'That which is
True and just; and He is
The Most High, Most Great'."

24. Say: "Who gives you³⁸²⁷
Sustenance, from the heavens
And the earth?" Say:
"It is Allah; and certain it is
That either we or ye³⁸²⁸
Are on right guidance
Or in manifest error!"

25. Say: "Ye shall not be
Questioned as to our sins,³⁸²⁹
Nor shall we be questioned
As to what ye do."

26. Say: "Our Lord will gather us
Together and will in the end
Decide the matter between us
(And you) in truth and justice:³⁸³⁰

لَسَنَ أَؤْذِنُ لَهُ
حَتَّىٰ إِذَا فُزِّعَ عَنْ قُلُوبِهِمْ
قَالُوا مَاذَا قَالَ رَبُّكُمْ
قَالُوا الْحَقَّ
وَهُوَ الْعَلِيُّ الْكَبِيرُ ○

٢٣- قُلْ مَنْ يُزِيْرُكُمْ مِّنَ السَّمٰوٰتِ
وَالْاَرْضِ قُلِ اللّٰهُ
وَإِنَّا أَوْ اِيَّاكُمْ لَعَلَّ هٰدِي
أَوْ فِي ضَلٰلٍ مُّبِيْنٍ ○

٢٥- قُلْ لَا تُسْأَلُونَ عَمَّا أَجْرَمْنَا
وَلَا نُسْأَلُ عَمَّا تَعْمَلُونَ ○

٢٦- قُلْ يَجْمَعُ بَيْنَنَا رَبُّنَا
ثُمَّ يَفْتَحُ بَيْنَنَا بِالْحَقِّ

3825. "Their hearts": the pronoun "their" refers to the angels nearest to Allah. On the Day of Judgement there will be such an irresistible manifestation of Power that even they will be silent for a while, and will scarcely realise what is happening. They will question each other, and only thus will they regain their bearings. Or "their" may refer to those who seek intercession.

3826. In their mutual questionings they will realise that Allah's Judgement, as always, is right and just. Does this mean that no sort of intercession is required?

3827. There are six propositions introduced here with the word "Say", at verses 22, 24, 25, 26, 27, and 30. They clearly explain the doctrine of Unity (verse 22), the Mercy of Allah (verse 23), man's Personal Responsibility (verse 25), the Final Justice of Allah (verse 26), Allah's Power and Wisdom (verse 27), and the Inevitability of the Judgement, by which the true values will be restored (verse 30).

3828. Right and Wrong, Good and Evil, are incompatible, one with another. In this matter we can make no compromise. It is true that in men there may be various degrees of good or evil mixed together, and we have to tolerate men as our fellow-creatures, with all their faults and shortcomings. But this does not mean that we can worship Allah and Mammon together. Wrong is the negation of Right as light is of darkness. Though there may be apparently varying depths of darkness, this is only due to the imperfection of our vision: it is varying strengths of light as perceived by our relative powers of sight. So we may perceive the Light of Allah in varying degrees according to our spiritual vision. But in simple questions of Right and Wrong, we are faced by the Categorical Imperative.

3829. Therefore do not prosecute us, or bring personal animus to bear on us. We must do our duty in declaring the universal Message, which is for you as much as for us.

3830. Human controversies are vain and inconclusive. If you put your trust in Allah and we put our trust in Allah, we belong to one Brotherhood, and we shall see the perfect Truth finally when the Time comes.

And He is the One to decide,
The One Who knows all."

۲۷- قُلْ أَرُونِي الَّذِينَ

29. They say: "When will this

30. Say: "The appointment to you
Is for a Day, which ye
Cannot put back for an hour³⁸³³
Nor put forward."

۳۰- قُلْ لَكُمْ مِيعَادُ يَوْمٍ لَا تَسْتَأْخِرُونَ

C. 191. — Unfaith has no stable foundations to rest on:
(34:31-54.) Misleaders and misled will all be responsible
For their deeds. True values are not to be judged
By the seeming good of this Life: true Good
Will come to its own in the End, however
Derided and scorned in the period of Trial.
Revelation and the Mission of the men of Allah
Will stand every test. Allah's Truth will endure,
While Falsehood will perish, and its votaries find
The door of Repentance closed in the End.

3831. Wisdom and Power only belong to Allah. If you put your trust in other things, they will fail you, because they do not exist—as objects of worship. All else that you set your hearts upon will and must fail you, because they cannot in any wise be brought in to rivalry with Allah.

3832. Allah's Revelation, through the Holy Prophet, was not meant for one faith or tribe, one race or set of people. It was meant for all mankind, to whom, if they turn to Allah, it is a Message of the glad tidings of His Mercy, and if they do not turn to Him, it is a warning against sin and the inevitable Punishment. That the Punishment does not come immediately (as far as they perceive) is no reason for doubting it. It has been declared in clear and unequivocal terms, and nothing can be more certain. Why delay? Why ask carping questions? Why not profit by the Message, turn to Allah in repentance, and bring forth the fruits of righteousness?

3833. When that Day actually arrives, your period of probation will have passed. It will be too late. Now is the time for action and spiritual profit.

SECTION 4.

31. The Unbelievers say:

"We shall neither believe
In this scripture nor in (any)
That (came) before it."³⁸³⁴
Couldst thou but see when
The wrongdoers will be made
To stand before their Lord,
Throwing back the word

On one another! Those who
Had been despised will say
To the arrogant ones:³⁸³⁶
"Had it not been for you,
We should certainly
Have been believers!"

32. The arrogant ones will say
To those who had been despised:

"Was it we who kept you
Back from Guidance after
It reached you? Nay, rather,
It was ye who transgressed."³⁸³⁷

33. Those who had been despised
Will say to the arrogant ones:

"Nay! it was a plot
(Of yours) by day and by night:³⁸³⁸
Behold! ye (constantly) ordered us
To be ungrateful to Allah

۝۳۳ وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ اسْتَضَعُّوا لِلَّذِينَ
اسْتَكْبَرُوا بَلْ مَكْرُ الْيَلِيلِ وَالنَّهَارِ
إِذْ تَأْمُرُونَنَا أَنْ نَكْفُرَ بِاللَّهِ

3834. To the Pagans all scriptures are taboo, whether it be the Qur'ān or any Revelation that came before it. The people of the Book despised the Pagans, but in their arrogant assumption of superiority, prevented them, by their example, from accepting the latest and most universal Scripture when it came in the form of the Qur'ān. This relative position of men who fancy themselves on their knowledge, and men whom they despise but exploit and mislead, always exists on this earth. I have mentioned the people of the Book and the Pagan Arabs merely by way of illustration.

3835. One disbelief is as bad as another. There is little to choose between them. But when the final account will be taken, there will be mutual recriminations between the one and the other.

3836. The Pagans will naturally say to the people of the Book: "You misled us; you had previous Revelations, and you should have known how Allah sent His Messengers; had it not been for your bad example, we should have received Allah's Revelation and become Believers." Or the humble followers will say this to their leaders, or those less gifted will say to those by whom they were misled and exploited. The dichotomy is between such as pretentiously held their heads high in the world and such as they profited by but held in contempt.

3837. In the mutual reproaches between the misleaders and the misled ones, there will be a grain of truth on both sides, and yet both were guilty in not realising their own personal responsibility.

3838. The more intelligent ones who exploit the weaker ones are constantly plotting night and day to keep the latter ignorant and under their thumb. They show them the ways of Evil, because by that means they are more in their power.

And to attribute equals to Him!³⁸³⁹

They will declare (their)

For their (ill) Deeds.

34. Never did We send
A Warner to a population,
But the wealthy ones among them³⁸⁴¹
Said: "We believe not
In the (Message) with which Ye have been sent."

35. They said: "We have more
In wealth and in sons,³⁸⁴²
And we cannot be punished."

36. Say: "Verily my Lord enlarges
And restricts the Provision³⁸⁴³
To whom He pleases, but
Most men understand not."

SECTION 5.

37. It is not your wealth
Nor your sons, that will

٣٧- وَمَا أَمْوَالُكُمْ وَلَا أَوْلَادُكُمْ
بِالْبَقِي تُقَرَّبُكُمْ عِنْدَنَا

3839. If all men worshipped the true God, and none but Him, they could not on the one hand be trampled upon, and on the other hand they could not be unjust. It is in the worship of false ideals or false gods that alluring structures of fraud and injustice are built up.

3840. Cf. 10:54, and n. 1445. All these mutual recriminations would be swallowed up in the general realisation of the Truth by both sides in the Hereafter. They would be prepared openly to declare their repentance, but it would be too late. The yoke of slavery to Evil will be on their necks. Allah's justice put it there, but what else could it do? Their own sins will cry out against them and hold them under their yokes.

3841. Whenever the Message of Allah comes, the vested interests range themselves against it. Worldly power has made them arrogant: worldly pleasures have deadened their sensibility to Truth. They reject the Message because it attacks their false position.

3842. Their arrogance is openly based on their worldly power and position, their family influence, and the strength of their man-power. Turn back again to the contrast drawn between the arrogant ones and those whom they despised, in verses 31-33.

3843. Provision (or Sustenance): good things of all kinds in this life, material goods as well as power, opportunities, influence, mental gifts, etc. These do not necessarily all go to the good, nor is their denial to be interpreted to mean that it is a withdrawal of Allah's favour. Very often the contrary is the case. Their distribution is in accordance with the Universal Plan and Purpose, which is All-Wise and All-Good, but ignorant people cannot understand this.

3844. The true test of progress in spiritual life is to be measured by other things than material wealth and influence. What we have to ask ourselves is: are we the least bit nearer to Allah?

In degree: but only
Those who believe and work
Righteousness—these are
The ones for whom there is
A multiplied Reward³⁸⁴⁵
For their deeds, while
Secure they (reside)
In the dwellings on high!³⁸⁴⁶

38. Those who strive against
Our Signs, to frustrate them,³⁸⁴⁷
Will be given over
Into Punishment.

39. Say: "Verily my Lord enlarges
And restricts the Sustenance³⁸⁴⁸
To such of His servants
As He pleases: and nothing
Do ye spend in the least

Replaces it: for He is³⁸⁴⁹
The Best of those who
Grant Sustenance.

40. One Day He will
Gather them all together,
And say to the angels,³⁸⁵⁰
"Was it you that these Men used to worship?"

41. They will say, "Glory to Thee!
Our (tie) is with Thee—

رُفِقَى إِلَّا مَنْ أَمَنَّ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا
فَأُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ جَزَاءُ الضَّعِيفِ

٣٨- وَالَّذِينَ يَسْعَوْنَ فِي آيَاتِنَا مُعْجِزِينَ

٣٩- قُلْ إِنْ رَزَقْنِي رَبِّي نَبْطُ الرِّزْقِ لَنْ يَشَاءَ
مِنْ عِبَادِهِ وَيَقْدِرُ لَهُ
وَمَا أَنْفَقْتُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَهُوَ يُخْلِفُهُ

٤٠- وَيَوْمَ يَحْشُرُهُمْ جَمِيعًا
ثُمَّ يَقُولُ لِلْمَلَائِكَةِ
أَهَؤُلَاءِ إِيَّاكُمْ كَانُوا يَعْبُدُونَ ○

٤١- قَالُوا سُبْحَانَكَ أَنْتَ وَلِيِّنَا

3845. Cf. 30:39. All worldly goods are but a shadow that will pass away. Its intrinsic and eternal value is small. But those who work righteousness in Faith are on the true path of self-development. The rewards they will get will be intimately more than their merits entitle them to. For they will partake of the boundless Bounties of Allah.

3846. Their happiness will not only be great in quantity ("multiplied"), but it will be of a specially sublime quality ("dwellings on high"), and it will endure without any chance of its loss or diminution ("secure they reside").

3847. Cf. 34:3, where the argument was urged that human efforts to defeat Allah's Plan will only bring humiliation to those who indulge in them. Here the argument is rounded off by the statement that such efforts, besides their failures, will land them in an abyss of punishment contrasted with the "dwellings on high" of the blessed ones.

3848. Cf. 34:36, above, and n. 3843.

3849. Even in the seeming inequality of distribution of the good things of life, Allah has a wise and merciful purpose: for nothing arises by chance. He is the best to give us, now and evermore, just those things which subserve our real needs and advance our inner development.

3850. Here we have the case of the worship of angels or supposed Powers of Allah, or supposed beneficent spirits that men turn to instead of worshipping the true God. In fact these are mere names to the false worshippers. It is not the Good that they worship but the Evil, which leads them astray.

As Protector³⁸⁵¹—not with them.
Nay, but they worshipped
The Jinns:³⁸⁵² most of them
Believed in them."

42. So on that Day

43. When Our Clear Signs
Are rehearsed to them,
They say, "This is only
A man who wishes
To hinder you from the (worship)³⁸⁵⁴
Which your fathers practised."
And they say, "This is Only a falsehood invented!"
And the Unbelievers say
Of the Truth when it comes
To them. "This is nothing
But evident magic!"

٣٣- وَإِذَا تُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتُنَا بَيِّنَاتٍ

وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلْحَقِّ لَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ
إِنْ هَذَا إِلَّا سِحْرٌ مُّبِينٌ ○

3851. Walī in Arabic may mean Friend either in the sense of Protector and Benefactor or in the sense of the Beloved. The tie of benevolence, confidence, and friendship is implied, either active or passive. The angels first proclaim their dependence on Allah and their need of His protection, and then disclaim any idea of their having protected or encouraged the false worshippers to worship beings other than Allah. They go further, and suggest that when men pretended to worship angels, they worshipped, not angels, but Jinns. See next note.

3853. The supposed "rivals" of Allah—the false things whereon men set their hopes and fears—will have no power whatever when true values are restored; and the Fire—the Penalty—which they doubted or derided, will become the dominating thing in their experience.

3854. Apart from the worship of Evil in the guise of the Powers of Light, there is another form of false worship, which depends on ancestral tradition. "Why" it is said "should we not do as our fathers did?" They reject a new prophet of Truth simply because his teaching does not agree with the ways of their ancestors. The answer to this is given in verse 44 below. But meanwhile the rejectors objection to new Truth is stated in three forms: (1) our ancestors knew nothing of this: (2) The story of inspiration is false; it is merely an invention; we do not believe in inspiration: (3) when in some particular points, the new Truth does work wonders in men's hearts, they account for it by saying it is magic. The third objection is merely traditional. What is magic? If it is merely deception by the fact that the Messenger who comes with new spiritual Truth is acknowledged to be truthful in other relations of life: why should he be false where his preaching brings him no gain but much sorrow and persecution? For the ancestral objection see next note.

44. But We had not given
Them Books which they could
Study, nor sent messengers³⁸⁵⁵
To them before thee
As Warners.

۴۴- وَمَا آتَيْنَاهُمْ مِنْ كُتُبٍ يَدْرُسُونَهَا
وَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْهِمْ قَبْلَكَ مِنْ نَذِيرٍ

45. And their predecessors rejected
(The Truth); these have
Not received a tenth
Of what We had granted³⁸⁵⁶
To those: yet when they rejected
My messengers, how (terrible)
Was My rejection (of them)!

۴۵- وَكَذَّبَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ
وَمَا بَلَغُوا مِعْشَارَ مَا آتَيْنَاهُمْ
فَكَذَّبُوا رُسُلِي
فَكَيْفَ كَانَ نَكِيرِي

SECTION 6.

46. Say: "I do admonish you
On one point: that ye
Do stand up before Allah—
(It may be) in pairs,³⁸⁵⁷
Or (it may be) singly—
And reflect (within yourselves):
Your Companion is not³⁸⁵⁸
Possessed: he is no less
Than a Warner to you,
In face of a terrible
Penalty."

۴۶- قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَعِظُكُمْ بِوَاحِدَةٍ
أَنْ تَقُومُوا لِلَّهِ مِثْلَ خُفٍّ
ثُمَّ تَتَفَكَّرُوا
مَا بِصَاحِبِكُمْ مِنْ حِثَّةٍ
إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا نَذِيرٌ لَكُمْ
بَيْنَ يَدَيْ عَذَابٍ شَدِيدٍ

47. Say: "No reward do I
Ask of you: it is (all)
In your interest: my reward³⁸⁵⁹

۴۷- قُلْ مَا سَأَلْتُكُمْ مِنْ أَجْرٍ فَهُوَ لَكُمْ
إِنْ أَجْرِي

3855. The ancestors (as in the case of the Arabs of the Times of Ignorance) had received no revelation of the clear kind which a messenger and a Book bring them. This is a reason for welcoming, not for rejecting, new Truth.

3856. Passing to Peoples before the immediate ancestors, the People of the Book, or the People of Saba' and 'Ad and Thamūd, had received favours and gifts, power and wealth, ten times more than were enjoyed by the Pagan Quraysh. Yet when they turned away from them, and what terrible consequences descended on them when they lost Allah's Grace! This should make everyone humble, not least the posterity of Muḥammad the Messenger if they forsake Allah's Truths! For they have received a higher Teaching!

3857. A crowd mentality is not the best for the perception of the final spiritual truths. For these, it is necessary that each soul should commune within itself with earnest sincerity as before Allah: if it requires a Teacher, let it seek out one, or it may be that it wants the strengthening of the inner convictions that dawn on it, by the support of a sympathiser or friend. But careful and heartfelt reflection is necessary to appraise the higher Truths.

3858. Note that in verses 46, 47, 48, 49 and 50, arguments are suggested to the Prophet, by which he can convince any right-thinking man of his sincerity and truth. Here the argument is that he is not possessed or out of his mind. If he is different from ordinary men, it is because he had to give a warning of a terrible spiritual danger to the men whom he loves but who will not understand his Message.

3859. Cf. 10:72. The second argument is that he has nothing to gain from them. His message is for their own good. He is willing to suffer persecution and insult, because he has to fulfil his mission from Allah.

Is only due from Allah:
And He is Witness
To all things."

إِلَّا عَلَى اللَّهِ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدٌ ۝

48. Say: "Verily my Lord
Doth cast the (mantle
Of) Truth (over His servants) — ³⁸⁶⁰
He that has full knowledge
Of (all) that is hidden."

۞-قُلْ إِنْ مَرَّيْنِي يَقْدِرُ
بِالْحَقِّ عَلَامُ الْغُيُوبِ ۝

49. Say: "The Truth has arrived,
And Falsehood neither creates³⁸⁶¹
Anything new, nor restores Anything."

۞-قُلْ جَاءَ الْحَقُّ
وَمَا يُبْدِئُ الْبَاطِلُ وَمَا يُعِيدُ ۝

50. Say: "If I am astray,
I only stray to the loss
Of my own soul: but if
I receive guidance, it is ³⁸⁶²
Because of the inspiration
Of my Lord to me:
It is He Who hears
All things, and is (ever) near."

۞-قُلْ إِنْ ضَلَلْتُ فَإِنَّمَا أَضِلُّ عَلَى نَفْسِي
وَإِنْ اهْتَدَيْتُ فَبِمَا يُوحِي إِلَيَّ رَبِّي
إِنَّهُ سَمِيعٌ قَرِيبٌ ۝

51. If thou couldst but see
When they will quake
With terror; but then
There will be no escape³⁸⁶³
(For them), and they will be
Seized from a position
(Quite) near.

۞-وَلَوْ تَرَى إِذْ فِرْعَوْنُ
كَلا فَوْتَ
وَأُخِذُوا مِنْ مَكَانٍ قَرِيبٍ ۝

3860. Allah's Truth is so vast that no man in this life can compass the whole of it. But Allah in His mercy selects His servants on whom it is cast like a mantle. They see enough to be able to teach their fellow men. It is through that mantle—that mission received from Allah—that a messenger can speak with authority to men. He cannot explain the exact mystery of inspiration, but he knows it is from Allah, and this is his third argument.

3861. The fourth argument is that the Truth is final: it does not come and go: it creates new situations and new developments, and if by chance it seems to be defeated for a time, it comes back and restores the true balance—unlike Falsehood, which by its very nature is doomed to perish: 17:81. The Prophet's credentials are known by the test of Time. This was already becoming apparent to discerning eyes when this Sūrah was revealed in Makkah, but it became clear to the whole world with the story of Islām's progress in Madīnah.

3862. If it could possibly be supposed that the Prophet was a self-deceived visionary, it would affect him only, and could not fail to appear in his personality. But in fact he was steady in his constancy and Faith, and he not only went from strength to strength, but won the enduring and wholehearted love and devotion of his nearest and dearest and of those who most came into contact with him. How was this possible, unless he had the Truth and the inspiration of Allah behind him? This is the fifth and last argument in this passage.

3863. After the arguments for the reality and triumph of Truth, we are asked to contemplate the position of the opposers of Truth when Truth is established. They will be struck with terror: For Truth is all-compelling. They will wish they could get away from that position, but that would be impossible. They will not be able to move far; they will be held fast to the consequences of their own earlier conduct. They will be caught quite close to the point of their departure from Truth.

52. And they will say,
 "We do believe (now)
 In the (Truth)"; but how³⁸⁶⁴
 Could they receive (Faith)
 From a position (so) far off—

٥٢- وَقَالُوا اٰمَنَّا بِهِ
 وَاَتٰى لَهُمُ التَّنٰوُسُ مِنْ مَّكَانٍ بَعِيْدٍ ۝

53. Seeing that they did reject
 Faith (entirely) before, and
 That they (continually) cast³⁸⁶⁵
 (Slanders) on the Unseen
 From a position far off?

٥٣- وَقَدْ كَفَرُوْا بِهِ مِنْ قَبْلُ
 وَيَقْذِفُوْنَ بِالْغَيْبِ مِنْ مَّكَانٍ بَعِيْدٍ ۝

54. And between them
 And their desires,
 Is placed a barrier,³⁸⁶⁶
 As was done in the past
 With their partisans:³⁸⁶⁷
 For they were indeed
 In suspicious (disquieting)
 doubt.³⁸⁶⁸

٥٤- وَحِيْلَ بَيْنَهُمْ وَبَيْنَ مَا يَشْتَهُوْنَ
 كَمَا فُعِلَ بِاَشْيَاعِهِمْ مِّنْ قَبْلُ
 اِنَّهُمْ كَانُوْا فِيْ شَكٍّ مَُّرِيْبٍ ۝

3864. They will now profess their faith in Truth, but of what value will such a profession be? Faith is a belief in things unseen: now everything is plain and open before them. The position in which they could have received Faith is left far off behind them, when Truth was struggling and asked for help or asylum, and they cruelly, arrogantly, insultingly repudiated Truth.

3866. What they desire is to suppress Truth and to indulge in the satisfaction of their own evil, selfish motives. They will be baulked in both, and that itself will be their anguish and punishment. That had always been the law in the eternal struggle between Right and Wrong. Cf. Shakespeare, (Troilus and Cressida. i. 3. 116). "Right and wrong. Between whose endless jar justice resides." All partisans of such cliques have always suffered the same fate.

3867. Note that verses 51-54 are a powerful description of the conflict between right and wrong, and may be understood in many meanings. (1) The description applies to the position in the final Hereafter, as compared with the position in this life. (2) It applies to the position of triumphant Islam in Madīnah and later, as compared with the position of persecuted Islam in its early days in Makkah. (3) It applies to the reversal of the position of right and wrong at various phases of the world's history, or of (4) individual history.

3868. Cf. 14:9, and see n. 1884.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 35—FĀṬĪR

See Introduction to the last Sūrah.

This Sūrah deals with the mystery of Creation and its maintenance, with various forces typified by the wings of Angels. Whether we look to outer nature or to man, Allah's Grace proclaims His Glory, and protects His votaries from Evil.

It is an early Makkan Sūrah, but its chronology has no significance.

Summary—The forces which maintain Creation, as typified by angels, were themselves created by Allah, to Whom alone all praise is due: all else is naught (35:1-26, and C. 192).

All good is from Allah: who then will choose Evil, and reach the doom that goes with Evil? (35:27-45, and C. 193).

C. 192. — Allah is the source of all things: all Power,
 (35:1-26.) Wisdom, Beauty, and Truth flow from Him.
 It is Evil that deceives and plots in the dark.
 All knowledge is with Allah. The things
 That are good and pure and true are not
 As the things that are evil, deceitful, and false.
 Allah is free of all needs: it is we
 That need Him: let us seek His love and live.
 His Message will save us from wrong, while dark
 Is the fate of those who reject Him.
 Praise and glory to Him, the Cherisher of all!

Sūrah 35.

Fāṭir (The Originator of Creation)

الْجُزْءُ الثَّانِي وَالْعِشْرُونَ سُورَةُ فَاطِرٍ

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. Praise be to Allah,³⁸⁶⁹
Who created (out of nothing)³⁸⁷⁰
The heavens and the earth,
Who made the angels³⁸⁷¹
Messengers with wings—
Two, or three, or four (Pairs):
He adds to Creation³⁸⁷²
As He pleases: for Allah
Has power over all things.

۱- اَلْحَمْدُ لِلّٰهِ فَاطِرِ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ
جَاعِلِ الْمَلٰٓئِكَةَ رُسُلًا اُولٰٓئِىْ اَجْنَحَةٍ
مَّثْنٰی وَثَلٰثَ وَرُبْعَۃٍ
يَزِيْدُ فِى الْخَلْقِ مَا يَشَآءُ
اِنَّ اللّٰهَ عَلٰى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيْرٌ ۝

2. What Allah out of His Mercy
Doth bestow on mankind
There is none can withhold:
What He doth withhold,
There is none can grant,³⁸⁷³
Apart from Him:

۲- مَا يَفْتَحِ اللّٰهُ لِلنَّاسِ مِنْ رَحْمَةٍ
فَلَا مُمْسِكٍ لَهَا ۚ وَمَا يُنْسِكُ
فَلَا مُرْسِلَ لَهُ مِنْ بَعْدِهَا ۚ

3869. See n. 3785 to 34:1. When we praise Allah, it means that we understand and bring to mind that His glory and power are exercised for the good of His Creation, and this is the subject matter of the Sūrah.

3870. As man's knowledge of the processes of nature advances, he sees how complex is the evolution of matter itself, leaving out the question of Life and the spiritual forces, which are beyond the ken of experimental science. But this knowledge itself becomes a sort of "veil of Light"; man becomes so conscious of the proximate causes, that he is apt, in his pride, to forget the primal Cause, the Cause of Causes, the ultimate Hand of Allah in Creation. And then, Creation is such a complex process; see some of the ideas involved explained by different words in n. 120 to 2:117. The word fatarā here used means the creation of primeval matter, to which further creative processes have to be added by the Hand of Allah, or Allah "adds to His Creation as He pleases", not only in quantity, but in qualities, function, relations, and variations in infinite ways.

3871. The grosser ideas which men have of angels must be dismissed from our minds. They are beings expressive of qualities or powers, which may be typified by "wings". We need not suppose that angelic "wings" have muscles and feathers, like the wings of birds. If they had, how could there be three, or any odd number? We may suppose "two, three, or four" to refer to pairs of wings. But we must not suppose "two, three, or four" to express precise numbers, for in sacred literature we find mention of angels with six hundred wings. And we can imagine angels with just one pair of wings. They are Messengers or Instruments of Allah's Will, and may have a few or numerous Errands entrusted to them. Cf. the description of the Spirit of Inspiration in 26:193, and of the spirits or angels for executing the Commands of Allah in 79:1-5.

3872. See n. 3870 above, where the complexities of the creative processes is referred to. Allah's creation did not stop at some past time: it continues, for He has all power, and His mercies are ever poured forth without stint.

3873. As Allah is the Creator and Sustainer of all beings and things, so does His Kindness extend to all Creatures. No one can intercept Allah's mercies and gifts. Whatever is His Will and Plan and Purpose He can and does carry out. And if from any creature He withholds any particular gifts, there is no other person or power that can give those gifts. But such withholding is not arbitrary. He is full of wisdom and goodness, and every act of His, whether He withholds or gives, is full of kindness and mercy to His creatures.

And He is the Exalted
In Power, Full of Wisdom.

وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ۝

3. ۞ men! call to mind
The grace of Allah unto you!
Is there a Creator, other³⁸⁷⁴
Than Allah, to give you
Sustenance from heaven
Or earth? There is
No god but He: how
Then are ye deluded
Away from the Truth?
4. And if they reject thee,
So were messengers rejected³⁸⁷⁵
Before thee: to Allah
Go back for decision
All affairs.
5. O men! certainly
The promise of Allah³⁸⁷⁶
Is true. Let not then
This present life deceive you,³⁸⁷⁷
Nor let the Chief Deceiver
Deceive you about Allah.
6. Verily Satan is an enemy
To you: so treat him³⁸⁷⁸
As an enemy. He only
Invites his adherents,
That they may become
Companions of the Blazing Fire.

۝-۳ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ اذْكُرُوا نِعْمَتَ اللَّهِ عَلَيْكُمْ
هَلْ مِنْ خَالِقٍ غَيْرُ اللَّهِ
يَرْزُقُكُمْ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ
لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ ۚ
فَاقْبَلُوا تَوَكُّونَ ۝

۝-۴ وَإِنْ يَكْذِبُواكَ فَقَدْ كَذَّبَتْ رُسُلٌ مِنْ
تَبْلِكَ
وَالِلَّهِ تُرْجَعُ الْأُمُورُ ۝

۝-۵ يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ
حَقٌّ فَلَا تَغُرَّنَّكُمُ الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا
وَلَا يَغُرَّنَّكُمْ بِاللَّهِ الْغُرُورُ ۝

۝-۶ إِنَّ الشَّيْطَانَ لَكُمْ عَدُوٌّ فَاتَّخِذُوهُ عَدُوًّا
إِنَّمَا يَدْعُوا حِزْبَهُ
لِيَكُونُوا مِنْ أَصْحَابِ السَّعِيرِ ۝

3874. As the primal Cause of all things is Allah, an appeal is made to man to turn to Allah instead of running after false fancies. Allah is not only the source, but the centre of all life and activity, and all affairs return to Him. The world is sustained, and human life is sustained, by Allah's grace and providence. "Sustenance" is to be taken, in Quranic language, for all that helps to maintain and develop every aspect of life, physical and spiritual. It would be the height of folly, then, for man to ignore Allah's gracious Message, as explained in His Revelation.

3875. And yet there will be human perversity which will reject the True and accept the False. The Prophet of Allah is not discouraged by this, as everything ultimately returns to Allah, and we must trust His Wisdom in His Universal Plan. (R).

3876. In verse 3 above the appeal was on the basis of the Past and the Present; now the appeal is on the basis of the Future. Allah's grace has promised us the Garden of Bliss; His justice has promised us the Fire of Suffering. Both promises are certain to be fulfilled. On which side shall we range ourselves?

3877. Cf. 31:33 and n. 3624. The deception of Evil takes two forms. (1) The seductive temptations of this world may deceive us into forgetting the Hereafter. (2) The Arch-Enemy himself may so blind our spiritual vision that we may say with him, "Evil! be thou my good!" We may be misled by easy stages. Are we on our guard?

3878. Evil is our enemy and should be treated as such. It is really foreign to our nature, however much it may disguise itself to deceive us as our friend, or a part of our nature. Personifying the Spirit of Evil, we may say that he wants us to share in his own damnation. Shall we allow ourselves to fall into his snare?

7. For those who reject Allah,³⁸⁷⁹
Is a terrible Penalty: but
For those who believe
And work righteous deeds,
Is Forgiveness, and
A magnificent Reward.

۞-الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ
وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَأَجْرٌ كَبِيرٌ ۝

SECTION 2.

8. Is he, then, to whom
The evil of his conduct
Is made alluring, so
That he looks upon it³⁸⁸⁰
As good, (equal to one
Who is rightly guided)?
For Allah leaves to stray
Whom He wills, and guides
Whom He wills. So
Let not thy soul go out
In (vainly) sighing after them:
For Allah knows well
All that they do!

۸-أَفَسَنُزِنُ لَهُ سُوءُ عَمَلِهِ
قِرَاءَةً حَسَنًا
فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ يُضِلُّ مَنْ يَشَاءُ
وَيَهْدِي مَنْ يَشَاءُ ۝
فَلَا تَذْهَبْ نَفْسُكَ عَلَيْهِمْ حَسْرَتٍ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمٌ بِمَا يَصْنَعُونَ ۝

9. It is Allah Who sends
Forth the Winds, so that
They raise up the Clouds,³⁸⁸¹
And We drive them
To a Land that is dead,
And revive the earth therewith
After its death: even so
(Will be) the Resurrection!

۹-وَاللَّهُ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ الرِّيحَ
فَتُثِيرُ سَحَابًا
فَسُقْنَاهُ إِلَى بَلَدٍ مَيِّتٍ فَأَحْيَيْنَاهُ الْأَرْضَ
بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا ۚ كَذَٰلِكَ النُّشُورُ ۝

3879. To reject Allah is to reject all the good which He has implanted in our nature. Are we going to be false to the true Pattern according to which He created us, and suffer the consequences? Or are we going to be true to that Pattern and achieve the high and noble Destiny intended for us?

3880. Cf. n. 3877 above. When a stage is reached at which a man accepts Evil as his Good, his case is hopeless. Can such a man profit by preaching or guidance? He has himself deliberately rejected all guidance. Such a man is best left to stray. Perhaps, even in the paths in which he is straying, some sudden flash of light may come to him! That may be as Allah wills in His holy and wise Purpose and Plan. But the man of God is not to worry or feel disheartened by such men's attitude. He must go on tilling the soil that is open to him. For Allah's Plan may work in all sorts of unexpected ways, as in the allegory in the next verse. (R).

3881. The allegory here is double. (1) Dry, unpromising soil may seem, to all intents and purposes, dead; there is no source of water near; moisture is sucked up by the sun's heat in a far-off ocean, and clouds are formed; winds arise; it seems as if the wind "bloweth as it listeth", but it is really Allah's Providence that drives it to the dead land; the rain falls, and behold! there is life and motion and beauty everywhere! So in the spiritual world. Allah's Revelation is His Mercy and His Rain; there may be the individual resurrection (Nushūr) or unfolding of a soul. (2) So again, may be the general Resurrection (Nushūr), the unfolding of a new World in the Hereafter, out of an old World that is folded up and dead (Takwīr, S. 81).

10. If any do seek
For glory and power —³⁸⁸²
To Allah belong
All glory and power.
To Him mount up
(All) Words of Purity:
It is He Who exalts
Each Deed of Righteousness.
Those that lay Plots³⁸⁸³
Of Evil—for them
Is a Penalty terrible;
And the plotting of such
Will be void (of result).

١- مَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ الْعِزَّةَ
فَلِلّٰهِ الْعِزَّةُ جَمِيعًا
إِلَيْهِ يَصْعَدُ الْكَلِمُ الطَّيِّبُ
وَالْعَمَلُ الصَّالِحُ يَرْفَعُهُ
وَالَّذِينَ يَبْكُرُونَ السَّيِّئَاتِ
لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ
وَمَكْرُ أُولَئِكَ هُوَ يُبْزَوْرُ ۝

11. And Allah did create³⁸⁸⁴
You from dust;
Then³⁸⁸⁵ from a sperm drop;
Then He made you
In pairs. And no female
Conceives, or lays down
(Her load), but with His Knowledge. Nor is a man
Long-lived granted length
Of days, nor is a part
Cut off from his life,
But is in a Decree³⁸⁸⁶
(Ordained). All this
Is easy for Allah.³⁸⁸⁷

١١- وَاللّٰهُ خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ تُرَابٍ
ثُمَّ مِنْ نُّطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ جَعَلَكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا
وَمَا تَحْمِلُ مِنْ أُنْثَىٰ وَلَا تَضْمُ
إِلَّا بِعِلْمِهِ ۚ وَمَا
يُعْتَرُ مِنْ مُّعْتَرٍ
وَلَا يَنْقُصُ مِنْ عُمُرِهِ ۚ إِلَّا فِي كِتَابٍ
إِنَّ ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ ۝

3882. Good and Evil are to be distinguished sharply. No good is ever lost: it goes up to the Throne of Allah. The humblest Good, in word or deed, is exalted to high rank. If man seeks for mere glory and power, there is no such thing apart from Allah. But seeking Allah, we attain to the highest glory and power.

3883. It is the nature of Evil to work underground, to hide from the Light, to plot against Righteousness: but Evil inevitably carries its own punishment. Its plots must fail miserably. And eventually Evil itself is to be blotted out.

3884. Cf. 18:37 and n. 2379; 22:5 and n. 2773; and 30:20 and n. 3524. Here the argument is that man's physical origin is lowly; his physical body is but dust; his life-sperm issues from a part of his body which he hides and considers as a place of shame; and the mystery of sex shows that no one individual among mankind is sufficient for himself. Glory and power and knowledge are not in him, but in Allah, from Whom alone he derives any glory, or power, or knowledge that he possesses.

3885. "Then" in this and the following clause refers, not to stages of time, but to stages in the argument. It is almost equivalent to "further", "also", and "in addition".

3886. Things that appear most secret and mysterious to man are all known and ordained by Allah. They are all subject to Allah's Laws and Decrees. The mystery of human birth (see n. 3625 to 31:34), the mystery of sex, the mystery of Life and Death and many other things, seem to man inexplicable. But they are all ordained by Allah, and their reasons are fully known to Him.

3887. Man's knowledge may be acquired laboriously and may be a burden to him. Allah's knowledge is different; it is no task or burden to Him. Cf. 33:19 and 30.

12. Nor are the two bodies³⁸⁸⁸
Of flowing water alike—
The one palatable, sweet,
And pleasant to drink,
And the other, salty
And bitter. Yet from each
(Kind of water) do ye
Eat flesh fresh and tender,³⁸⁸⁹
And ye extract ornaments³⁸⁹⁰
To wear; and thou seest
The ships therein that plough
The waves, that ye may
Seek (thus) of the Bounty
Of Allah that ye
May be grateful.

١٢- وَمَا يَسْتَوِي الْبَحْرَانِ
هَذَا عَذْبٌ فُرَاتٌ سَائِغٌ شَرَابُهُ
وَهَذَا مِلْحٌ أُجَاجٌ
وَمِنْ كُلِّ تَاكُلُونَ لَحْمًا طَرِيًّا
وَتَسْتَخْرِجُونَ حِلْيَةً تَلْبَسُونَهَا
وَتَرَى الْفُلَ فِيهِ مَوَاحِرُ
يَتَّبِعُوا مِنَ فَضْلِهِ
وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَشْكُرُونَ

13. He merges Night into Day,³⁸⁹¹
And He merges Day
Into Night, and He has
Subjected the sun and
The moon (to His Law):³⁸⁹²
Each one runs its course
For a term appointed.
Such is Allah your Lord:³⁸⁹³
To Him belongs all Dominion.
And those whom ye invoke

١٣- يُؤَلِّجُ الْبَيْلَ فِي النَّهَارِ وَيُؤَلِّجُ النَّهَارَ
فِي الْبَيْلِ وَسَخَّرَ الشَّمْسَ وَالْقَمَرَ
كُلٌّ يَجْرِي لِأَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى
ذَلِكُمُ اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ لَهُ الْمُلْكُ
وَالَّذِينَ تَدْعُونَ

3888. See 25:53 and notes 3111 and 3112. The great salt Ocean with its seas and gulfs is all one; and the great masses of sweet water in rivers, lakes, ponds, and underground springs are also one; and each is connected with the other by the constant circulation going on, which sucks up vapours, carries them about in clouds or atmospheric moisture, and again brings them condensed into water or snow or hail to mingle with rivers and streams and get back into the Ocean.

3889. For this whole passage see 26:14 and notes 2034 and 2035. Both from the sea and from rivers and lakes we get fish, of which some kinds have a flesh particularly fresh and tender, and of a most delicate flavour.

3890. Such as pearls and coral from the sea, and such delicately tinted stones as the Aqiq (carnelian), the agate, the goldstone, or other varieties of quartz pebbles found in riverbeds, and considered as gems. Many such are found in the Ken river in Banda District (in India). Some river sands also yield minute quantities of gold. In large navigable rivers and big lakes like those of North America, as well as in the sea, there are highways for shipping and commerce. (R).

3891. Cf. 22:61. The phases of Light in nature may have other uses. But for man they mark periods of rest and activity, and have great influence on his physical, moral, and spiritual life.

3892. Cf. 13:2. The sun and the moon mark phases of light, and serve man during the periods of the day and night. The sun marks the seasons, and is the source of heat and energy and physical life for the whole solar system. The sun and the moon run according to fixed laws, and they will continue to do so, not forever, but for the period appointed for their duration by Allah.

3893. Allah's might and majesty, and Allah's goodness and wisdom, having been shown by a few examples, it follows that it is folly to seek or worship any other power but Allah. It only throws off man into false paths, and takes him farther and farther away from the Truth.

Besides Him have not
The least power.³⁸⁹⁴

14. If ye invoke them,
They will not listen
To your call, and if³⁸⁹⁵
They were to listen,
They cannot answer
Your (prayer). On the Day
Of Judgement they will reject³⁸⁹⁶
Your "Partnership". And none,
(O man!) can tell thee³⁸⁹⁷
(The Truth) like the One
Who is acquainted with all things.

SECTION 3.

15. Q ye men! It is
Ye that have need
Of Allah: but Allah is³⁸⁹⁸
The One Free of all wants,
Worthy of all praise.

16. If He so pleased, He Could blot you out
And bring in
A New Creation

17. Nor is that (at all)
Difficult for Allah.³⁸⁹⁹

3894. Qitmīr: the thin, white skin that covers the date stone. It has neither strength nor texture, and has no value whatever. Any one relying on any power other than that of Allah relies on nothing whatever. The Qitmīr is worse than the proverbial "broken reed". Cf. 4:53 and 4:124, where the word naqir, 'the groove in a date stone', is used similarly for a thing of no value or significance.

3895. False or imaginary objects of worship serve no purpose whatever. They cannot hear; if they could hear, they could not grant prayers or petitions. In fact, if they are real creatures, such as angels or deified human beings, they will very rightly repudiate any such worship as brings them into competition or "partnership" with Allah. See next note.

3896. Cf. 10:28 and n. 1418; also 34:40-41. No false ideas or false impressions will remain when true values are restored. Why not then accept the Truth now in this life, and get on to the true path of Grace?

3897. None can tell you the Truth better than He Who is All-Wise and All-Knowing. Why not accept His Message and receive His guidance?

3898. What is man that Allah should care for him, instruct him, and send him special messengers to warn him of danger and harm? It is man that depends on Allah and has need of Him every moment of his life. Allah has no need of him, but He bestows His Grace on him as on all His creatures, out of His unbounded Mercy and loving kindness. If it were Allah's Will, He could blot out man for his rebellion and create an entirely new world.

3899. There is no limit to Allah's creative power, nor is His creative energy anything rare or unusual. This is the force of the word ʿazīz here. Allah's creative energy is exercised every moment, and it is the normal condition in the universe.

sun:

3900. Bearer: hāmilatun: feminine in Arabic, as referring to the soul (nafs), as in 6:164.

3901. Natural relationship may be considered as a reasonable cause or opportunity for bearing each other's burdens. For example, a mother or a father might offer to die for her or his child, and vice versa. But this does not apply to spiritual matters. There the responsibility is strictly personal and cannot be transferred to another. In 29:13 we are told that the misleaders "will bear other burdens along with their own": but the context shows that the "other" burdens are the burdens of deluding the others with their falsehoods. Both sins are their own, viz., their original sin, and the sin of deluding the others. But the responsibility will be doubled.

3902. Bil ghayb: unseen in the adverbial sense. The man, who, though he does not see Allah, so realises Allah's Presence in himself as if he saw Him, is the man of genuine Faith, and for him Allah's Revelation comes through many channels and is always fruitful.

3903. Prayer is one of the means of purifying ourselves of lower motives in life, for in prayer we seek the Presence of Allah; but the purity which we seek is for our own souls: we confer no favour on Allah or on any Power in the spiritual world, as some imagine who make "gifts" to Allah. In any case the destination of all is to Allah.

3904. Now we are offered some contrasts between those who obey Allah's Law and are thus citizens of Allah's Kingdom and those who are rebels against Allah's Kingdom and are thus outlaws. How can they be considered alike? The godly are like those who see, as contrasted with those who are blind; and their motives and actions are like the purest and highest Light, contrasted with the depths of darkness; or, to take another metaphor, their lives are like the genial and warmth-giving heat of the sun, which benefits all who come within its influence, contrasted with the chilly shadows of gloom in which no vegetation flourishes. (R).

22. Nor are alike those³⁹⁰⁵

And as a warner:

So did their predecessors,
To whom came their messengers

Was My rejection (of them)!

٢٦- ثُمَّ أَخَذْتُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
فَكَيْفَ كَانَ نَكِيرِ ۝

3905. The final contrast between the Living and the Dead; those whose future has in it the promise of growth and fulfilment, and those who are inert and on the road to perish. With Allah everything is possible: He can give Life to the Dead. But the human Teacher should not expect that people who are (spiritually) dead and buried will by any chance hear his call.

3906. The function of a Prophet is to preach Allah's Truth, to point out the right Way, to show men the need of repentance, and to warn them against the dangers which they incur by living a life of evil. He cannot compel them to accept the Truth or listen to the Message.

3907. It is Allah Who sends the Revelation. While there is warning in it for the heedless, there is good news (in Christian terms, the gospel) for those who listen and repent. The warning always came to all peoples before punishment.

3908. The three things here mentioned are also mentioned in 3:184, where I have explained the meaning in n. 490. All spiritual teaching centres round the evidences of Allah in our lives, the sublime teaching of men of God, and the rules and laws which guide holy living. (R).

3909. Cf. 22:44 and 34:45. The rejecters of Allah hardly realise the terrible consequences to them individually and collectively, if Allah's grace is withdrawn from them and they are left to perish in their own sins and wrongdoing.

- C. 193.—Man can see by his own experience
 (35:27-45.) What infinite shades and grades of colour
 There are in nature. So are there grades
 In the spiritual world. The Good and the True
 Understand Allah, Who knows and watches
 Over all His creatures. The Good will reach
 Eternal Bliss, while the Evil will find
 No helper. Arrogance and plotting will be
 The undoing of Evil: its doom
 Is sure, if it fails to profit by the respite
 Granted by the All-Merciful Allah.

SECTION 4.

27. Seest thou not that
 Allah sends down rain
 From the sky? With it
 We then bring out produce
 Of various colours.³⁹¹⁰
 And in the mountains
 Are tracts white and red,³⁹¹¹
 Of various shades of colour,
 And black intense in hue.
28. And so amongst men
 And crawling creatures and cattle,
 Are they of various colours.³⁹¹²
 Those truly fear Allah,
 Among His Servants,
 Who have knowledge:³⁹¹³

٢٧- أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ أَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ

 مُخْتَلِفٌ أَلْوَانُهَا وَغَرَابِيبُ سُودٌ ۝

٢٨- وَمِنَ النَّاسِ وَالْأَنْعَامِ
 مُخْتَلِفٌ أَلْوَانُهُ كَذَلِكَ
 إِنَّمَا يَخْشَى اللَّهَ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ الْعُلَمَاءُ

3910. Everyone can see how Allah's artistry produces from rain the wonderful variety of crops and fruits—golden, green, red, yellow, and showing all the most beautiful tints we can think of. And each undergoes in nature the gradual shading off in its transformation from the raw stage to the stage of maturity.

3911. These wonderful colours and shades of colours are to be found not only in vegetation but in rocks and mineral products. There are the white veins of marble and quartz or of chalk, the red laterite, the blue basaltic rocks, the ink-black flints, and all the variety, shade, and gradation of colours. Speaking of mountains, we think of their "azure hue" from a distance, due to atmospheric effects, and these atmospheric effects lead our thoughts to the glories of clouds, sunsets, the zodiacal lights, the aurora borealis, and all kinds of Nature's gorgeous pageantry.

3912. In the physical shapes of human and animal life, also, we see variations in shades and gradations of colours of all kinds. But these variations and gradations, marvellous though they be, are as nothing compared with variations and differences in the inner or spiritual world. See next note.

3913. In outer nature we can, through colours, understand and appreciate the finest shades and gradations. But in the spiritual world that variation or gradation is even more subtle and more comprehensive. Who can truly understand it? Only Allah's servants, who know, i.e., who have the inner knowledge which comes through their acquaintance with the spiritual world—it is such people who truly appreciate the inner world, and it is they who know that the fear of Allah is the beginning of wisdom. For such fear is akin to appreciation and love—appreciation of all the marvellous beauties of Allah's outer and inner world ("Allah is Exalted in Might") and love because of his Grace and Kindness ("Oft-Forgiving"). But Allah's forgiveness extends to many who do not truly understand Him.

For Allah is Exalted in Might,
Oft-Forgiving.

إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزِيزٌ غَفُورٌ ۝

29. Those who rehearse the Book
Of Allah, establish regular Prayer,
And send (in Charity)³⁹¹⁴
Out of what We have provided
For them, secretly and openly,
Hope for a Commerce³⁹¹⁵
That will never fail:

۲۹- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَتْلُونَ كِتَابَ اللَّهِ وَأَقَامُوا
الصَّلَاةَ وَأَنفَقُوا مِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ
سِرًّا وَعَلَانِيَةً يَرْجُونَ تِجَارَةً
لَّنْ تَبُورَ ۝

30. For He will pay them
Their meed, nay, He will Give them (even) more
Out of His Bounty:
For He is Oft-Forgiving,³⁹¹⁶
Most Ready to appreciate
(service).³⁹¹⁷

۳۰- لِيُوفِّيَهُمْ أُجُورَهُمْ
وَيَزِيدَهُم مِّن فَضْلِهِ
إِنَّهُ غَفُورٌ شَكُورٌ ۝

31. That which We have revealed
To thee of the Book
Is the Truth—confirming
What was (revealed) before it:
For Allah is assuredly—
With respect to His servants—
Well acquainted and³⁹¹⁸
Fully-Observant.

۳۱- وَالَّذِي أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ مِنَ الْكِتَابِ
هُوَ الْحَقُّ مُصَدِّقًا لِّمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِعِبَادِهِ
لَخَبِيرٌ بَصِيرٌ ۝

3914. The man of God takes Allah's Revelation ("the Book") to heart, ever seeks to get closer and closer to Allah ("regular Prayer"), and in doing so, is moved more and more to practical Charity for his fellow-creatures. He is not ashamed of his Charity ("openly"), but he does not do it to be seen of men ("secretly"): he just does what is necessary for his fellow-creatures, whether people talk about it or not.

3915. Here is a metaphor from commerce. The good man's Charity comes not merely out of superfluities, but out of "what Allah has provided" for him. He therefore recognises two things: (1) that his wealth (literal and metaphorical) is not his absolutely, but that it is given to him by Allah: and (2) that he must deny himself the use of some of it, as a merchant puts by some of his wealth to invest as capital. Only, the godly man's Commerce will never fail or fluctuate; because Allah guarantees him the return, and even adds something to the return out of His own Bounty. That is, Allah gives more than ever our merits deserve.

3916. No man is perfect. Everyone has his faults. But when a man tries his best in the service of Allah, his faults are blotted out, and he is treated as if he had committed no faults: "for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, and ready to appreciate service".

3918. All Revelation is one. The Qur'ān therefore confirms the main and uncorrupted features of previous revelations. It must be so, because Allah is fully cognisant of the needs of every age and people; and therefore His Message, while it meets those needs, must in essence be the same. His Messengers did not meet each other as men; but their contact with Allah through inspiration unified their Message. And He cares for and watches over all men, and He knows fully what their needs are, even better than they know themselves.

32. Then³⁹¹⁹ We have given
The Book for inheritance
To such of Our servants
As We have chosen:
But there are among them³⁹²⁰
Some who wrong their own
Souls; some who follow
A middle course; and some
Who are, by Allah's leave,
Foremost in good deeds;
That is the highest Grace.

٣٢- ثُمَّ أَوْرَثْنَا الْكِتَابَ الَّذِينَ
اصْطَفَيْنَا مِنْ عِبَادِنَا
فَمِنْهُمْ ظَالِمٌ لِنَفْسِهِ
وَمِنْهُمْ مُقْتَصِدٌ
وَمِنْهُمْ سَابِقٌ بِالْخَيْرَاتِ بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ
ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَضْلُ الْكَبِيرُ ۝

33. Gardens of Eternity will they³⁹²¹
Enter: therein will they
Be adorned with bracelets³⁹²²
Of gold and pearls;
And their garments there
Will be of silk.

٣٣- جَنَّاتٌ عَدْنٍ يَدْخُلُونَهَا
يُحَلَّوْنَ فِيهَا مِنْ أَسَاوِرَ مِنْ ذَهَبٍ وَلُؤْلُؤًا
وَلِبَاسُهُمْ فِيهَا حَرِيرٌ ۝

34. And they will say:
"Praise be to Allah,
Who has removed from us
(All) sorrow: for our Lord
Is indeed Oft-Forgiving
Ready to appreciate (service):"³⁹²³

٣٤- وَقَالُوا الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي
أَذْهَبَ عَنَّا الْحَزْنَ
إِنَّ رَبَّنَا لَغَفُورٌ شَكُورٌ ۝

3919. The force of "then" is that of finality. The Qur'ān is the last Book revealed. Or it may be here to point the contrast between "to thee" in the last verse, i.e., the Holy Prophet, in contradistinction to the People of Islam, who inherited the Book after him.

3920. The custodians of the Qur'ān after the Holy Prophet were the People of Islam. They were chosen for the Book, not in any narrow sense, but in the sense that the Book was given for their age and they were charged to obey it and preserve and propagate it, so that all mankind should receive the Message. But it does not follow that they are all true and faithful to their charge, as indeed we see too painfully around us today. Just as mankind was chosen collectively to be Vicegerents for Allah, and yet some among mankind fell into evil—even so, some in the house of Islam fail to follow the Light given to them, and thus "wrong their own souls". But some follow a middle course; in their case "the spirit is indeed willing, but the flesh is weak": their intentions are good, but they have much to learn yet of the true Muslim life and Muslim virtues. Then there is a third class: they may not indeed be perfect, but both their intentions and their conduct are sound, and they form an example to other men: they are "foremost" in every good deed. They are so, not by their own merits, but by the Grace of Allah. And they have reached the highest Achievement—the salvation, which is typified by the various metaphors that follow.

3921. "The Garden" signifies their environment: all they see about them will give them comfort, rest, and satisfaction, and a feeling of beauty and dignity. The jewels and clothes signify their personal external state: here, again, everything will give them a sense of beauty and dignity, comfort, rest, and satisfaction. And finally, most important of all, comes their internal state, where again they will have the same sense of beauty, dignity, comfort, rest, and satisfaction: this is indicated by their words of Praise (verses 34-35).

3922. Cf. 18:31 and 22:23.

3923. Cf. above, 35:30. Note how beautifully the argument is rounded off. In verse 30 they were told that "Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Ready to appreciate service". Now they have reached the Goal, and they have found the Promise profoundly true. All their hopes are fulfilled, and their sorrows ended.

35. "Who has, out of His Bounty,
Settled us in a Home
That will last: no toil
Nor sense of weariness³⁹²⁴
Shall touch us therein."
36. But those who reject (Allah)—
For them will be
The Fire of Hell:³⁹²⁵
No term shall be determined
For them, so they should die,
Nor shall its Penalty
Be lightened for them.
Thus do We reward
Every ungrateful one!
37. Therein will they cry
Aloud (for assistance):
"Our Lord! Bring us out:³⁹²⁶
We shall work righteousness,³⁹²⁷
Not the (deeds) we used
To do!"—"Did We not
Give you long enough life
So that he that would
Should receive admonition?
And (moreover) the warner
Came to you. So taste ye³⁹²⁸
(The fruits of your deeds):
For the Wrongdoers
Their is no helper."

SECTION 5.

38. Verily Allah knows
(All) the hidden things

٣٥- الَّذِي أَحَلَّنَا دَارَ الْمَقَامَةِ مِنْ فَضْلِهِ
لَا يَسْتُنَا فِيهَا نَصَبٌ
وَلَا يَمَسُّنَا فِيهَا لُغُوبٌ ۝

٣٦- وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَهُمْ نَارُ جَهَنَّمَ
لَا يُقْضَىٰ عَلَيْهِمْ فَيَمُوتُوا
وَلَا يُخَفَّفُ عَنْهُمْ مِنْ عَذَابِهَا
كَذَٰلِكَ نَجْزِي كُلَّ كَفُورٍ

٣٧- وَهُمْ يَصْطَرِخُونَ فِيهَا
رَبَّنَا أَخْرِجْنَا نَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا
غَيْرَ الَّذِي كُنَّا نَعْمَلُ
أَوَلَمْ نُعَمِّرْكُم
مَا يَتَذَكَّرُ فِيهِ مَنْ تَذَكَّرَ
وَجَاءَكُمُ التَّنْذِيرُ
فَلَا تُؤْمِنُوا فَمَا لِلظَّالِمِينَ مِنْ نَصِيرٍ

٣٨- إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَلِيمُ غَيْبٍ

3924. In case it should be thought that perpetual happiness might cloy or be dull, as would be the case in this life, it is added—as the experience of those who attain that state—that it is not so on that plane of existence. Not only is there Joy, but it remains fresh and leads to no weariness.

3925. The "Fire" is the opposite of the "Garden". Instead of there being comfort, rest, and satisfaction in their environment, there will be pain, suffering and anguish. Instead of there being dignity there will be humiliation. And there will be no hope of its termination or abatement, not even a hope of annihilation.

3926. Cf. 23:107. Not only will their surroundings be the opposite of those in Heaven: their internal state will be one of humiliation, of piteous and fruitless appeals, of vain regrets for a past that cannot be recalled, and vain sighs for a future whose gates they have themselves barred. If they were sent back, they would relapse to their sins. Cf. 6:28.

3927. Cf. 7:53. Their hankering after another chance, after having deliberately rejected all chances, will have no basis of reason in it.

3928. They had a long enough respite for repentance and amendment. And moreover, besides all the other sources, in nature, history, and their own hearts, by which they could learn of the Right, they had the actual teaching and warning of a messenger whose words spoke directly to them. In the circumstances the Penalty is only the fruit of their own conduct.

Of the heavens and the earth:³⁹²⁹
Verily He has full knowledge
Of all that is
In (men's) hearts.

39. He it is that has made
You inheritors in the earth:³⁹³⁰
If, then, any do reject
(Allah), their rejection (works)
Against themselves: their rejection³⁹³¹
But adds to the odium
For the Unbelievers
In the sight of their Lord:
Their rejection but adds
To (their own) undoing.

40. Say: "Have ye seen"³⁹³²
(These) 'Partners' of yours
Whom ye call upon
Besides Allah? Show me
What it is they have created
In the (wide) earth.
Or have they a share
In the heavens? Or
Have We given them a Book
From which they (can derive)
Clear (evidence)?—Nay,
The wrongdoers promise
Each other nothing but delusions.

السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
إِنَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ

۳۹- هُوَ الَّذِي جَعَلَكُمْ خَلَائِفَ فِي الْأَرْضِ
فَمَنْ كَفَرَ فَعَلَيْهِ كُفْرُهُ
وَلَا يَزِيدُ الْكَافِرِينَ كُفْرُهُمْ
عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ إِلَّا مَقْتًا
وَلَا يَزِيدُ الْكَافِرِينَ كُفْرُهُمْ
إِلَّا خَسَارًا

۴۰- قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ شُرَكَاءَكُمُ
الَّذِينَ تَدْعُونَ مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ
أَرُونِي مَا ذَا خَلَقُوا مِنَ الْأَرْضِ
أَمْ لَهُمْ شِرْكٌ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ
أَمْ آتَيْنَهُمْ كِتَابًا فهُمْ عَلَى بَيِّنَةٍ مِنْهُ
بَلْ إِنْ يَتَّبِعُ الظَّالِمُونَ بَعْضُهُمْ بَعْضًا
إِلَّا غُرُورًا

3929. Everything that exists is known to Allah: not only concrete things, but feelings, motives, plans, and acts of the will in the human breast.

3930. Inheritors: khalā'if. In two senses: (1) as Vicegerents of Allah on earth, and (2) as successors to previous people who forfeited their rights by wrongdoing. The honour and dignity of (1) and the examples of the past in (2) should have kept them straight and made them truly grateful. See also 6:165 and n. 988

3931. Their rejection and ingratitude only causes injury to themselves. They lose all honour and incur odium in the sight of Allah, and they complete their own undoing.

3932. The people who enthrone in their hearts for worship anything besides Allah may well be asked a few questions. Some of such questions are indicated in the text with terse precision: (1) Have you seen these gods of yours? Do they exist? "Seeing" of course does not necessarily mean physical sight. We do not see the air, but no one doubts that it exists. And the air is a physical substance. There are forces that we know exist, but we do not see them. To us, who have Faith, Allah is a truer Reality than anything else that we know, including ourselves. Can the false worshippers say that of any of their false gods? (2) Have your gods created or originated anything on earth? You may worship power or wealth, but that is a scramble for things as between selfish men. Power or wealth does not create new men or new worlds. (3) Have they a share in the ordering of the heavens? "The heavens" may mean what you see in the physical universe of astronomy, or the still subtler inner life. Obviously your false gods fail there. (4) Or have these false gods a book or revelation from the Supreme God, with clear evidence, to give them authority to teach men? The Prophets or Messengers of Allah have such authority, and they bring evidence of the One True God. The fact is that falsehood is falsehood, however much one form of it may support another by delusions.

41. It is Allah Who sustains
The heavens and the earth,³⁹³³
Lest they cease (to function):
And if they should fail,
There is none—not one—
Can sustain them thereafter:
Verily He is Most Forbearing,³⁹³⁴
Oft-Forgiving.

٣١- إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُسَيِّدُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ
أَنْ تَزُولَا لَهُ وَلَكِنَّ زَالَتَا
إِنْ أَمْسَكَهُمَا مِنْ أَحَدٍ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ
إِنَّهُ كَانَ حَلِيمًا غَفُورًا ۝

42. They swore their strongest oaths
By Allah that if a warner
Came to them, they would
Follow his guidance better³⁹³⁵
Than any (other) of the Peoples:
But when a warner came
To them, it has only
Increased their flight
(From righteousness)—

٣٢- وَأَقْسَمُوا بِاللَّهِ جَهْدَ أَيْمَانِهِمْ
لَئِنْ جَاءَهُمْ نَذِيرٌ
لَيَكُونُنَّ أَهْدَى مِنْ أَحَدٍ الْأُمَمِ
فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ نَذِيرٌ
مَّا زَادَهُمْ إِلَّا تَفُورًا ۝

43. On account of their arrogance
In the land and their
Plotting of Evil,³⁹³⁶
But the plotting of Evil
Will hem in only
The authors thereof. Now
Are they but looking for
The way the ancients³⁹³⁷
Were dealt with? But

٣٣- اسْتَكْبَارًا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَكْرَ السَّيِّئِ
وَلَا يَحِيقُ الْمَكْرُ السَّيِّئِ
إِلَّا بِأَهْلِهِ
فَهَلْ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا سُنَّتَ الْأَوَّلِينَ

3933. The universe, as we know it, shows not only evidence of initial designs, but also the working of an intelligent Providence, which constantly sustains it. That is Allah. If you could imagine that removed, what is there to keep it going? There would only be chaos.

3934. Allah's world goes on according to the laws and decrees established by Him. There are occasional lapses and deviations on the part of His creatures. But He does not punish every petty fault. One of His merciful qualities is that of repeated forbearance and forgiveness.

3935. Cf. 6:157. In the first instance this referred to the Quraysh. Their attitude to the People of the Book had been one of lofty superiority or of insincere excuses. They twitted the Jews and Christians with deviating from their own lights and their own revelations; and for themselves, they said they had received no direct revelation from Allah, or they would have shown themselves the most amenable to discipline, the most ready to follow Allah's Law. This was before the Holy Prophet received his mission from Allah. When he received it and announced it, they turned away from it. They fled from it and put a greater and greater distance between it and themselves. But this is the way of all sinners. They find much to carp at in others, and much to excuse in themselves. But when all grounds for excuse are removed, they will be found, not nearer, but farther and farther away from truth and righteousness.

3936. Two causes are mentioned why the Truth is refused acceptance. (1) Unregenerate man is arrogant, and Truth and Righteousness expose all his pretences. (2) He hopes, by underhanded plots, to undermine Truth and destroy it; but he is caught in his own snares, while Truth marches forward triumphant.

3937. In all history, men who followed evil were dealt with in three stages by Allah: (1) He was forbearing and merciful, and gave them respite; (2) He sent them admonition through his messengers, or His Signs, or His revelation; (3) He dealt out justice and punishment. At any given moment, those given to iniquity may well be asked: "Are you going to wait through all these stages or are you going at once to repent, obtain forgiveness, and walk in the ways of righteousness?"

No change wilt thou find
In Allah's way (of dealing):³⁹³⁸
No turning off wilt thou
Find in Allah's way (of dealing).

فَلَنْ تَجِدَ لِسُنَّتِ اللَّهِ تَبْدِيلًا ۚ
وَلَنْ تَجِدَ لِسُنَّتِ اللَّهِ تَحْوِيلًا ۝

44. Do they not travel
Through the earth, and see³⁹³⁹
What was the End
Of those before them —
Though they were superior
To them in strength?
Nor is Allah to be frustrated
By anything whatever
In the heavens
Or on earth: for He
Is All-Knowing, All-Powerful.

۴۴- أَوَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا
كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ
وَكَانُوا أَشَدَّ مِنْهُمْ قُوَّةً
وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيُعْجِزَهُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ
فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَلَا فِي الْأَرْضِ
إِنَّهُ كَانَ عَلِيمًا قَدِيرًا ۝

45. If Allah were to punish³⁹⁴⁰
Men according to what
They deserve, He would not
Leave on the back
Of the (earth) a single³⁹⁴¹
Living creature: but He Gives them respite
For a stated Term:
When their Term expires,
Verily Allah has in His sight³⁹⁴²
All His servants.

۴۵- وَلَوْ يُؤَاخِذُ اللَّهُ النَّاسَ بِمَا كَسَبُوا
مَا تَرَكَ عَلَى ظُهُورِهِمْ ذَرْبًا
وَلَكِنْ يُؤَخِّرُهُمْ إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى
فَإِذَا جَاءَ أَجَلُهُمْ
فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ بِعِبَادِهِ بَصِيرًا ۝

3938. Allah's Laws are fixed, and His ways of dealing with those who follow iniquity are the same in all ages. Our human will may falter or turn away from its course, but Allah's Will ever follows its course and cannot be turned away by any cause whatever.

3939. Cf. 30:9. If no other argument will convince men who follow evil, let them travel through space or time, and learn from the experience of others. Evil always came to an evil end. Let not any one individual or generation think that it could escape by some special trick or power. Far wiser and more powerful men were personally brought to account for their iniquities.

3940. Cf. 16:61. There would be no salvation for any of us if we went merely on our deserts. It is Allah's mercy that saves us and helps us to a better and better life until we attain the goal of our existence.

3941. A single living creature. This may refer to man, the living crawling creature, with so many possibilities and yet so many weaknesses. But it may mean all creatures literally, as the life of this planet more or less centres round the life of man. He has been given dominion on this earth, and in his state of purity he is Allah's vicegerent.

3942. Has in His sight all creatures: i.e., to deal with, according to His Laws of Forbearance, Mercy and Justice: see n. 3937 above. The respite does not mean that any one escapes His vigilant eye. All will be dealt with according to their deeds, with justice tempered with mercy.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 36—YĀ SĪN

See Introduction to S. 34. This particular Sūrah is devoted to the Holy Prophet and the Revelation which he brought. The Abbreviated Letters Yā Sīn are usually construed as a title of the Holy Prophet. But it is not permissible to be dogmatic about the meaning of Abbreviated Letters. See Appendix I after S. 2. This Sūrah is considered to be "the heart of the Qur'ān", as it concerns the central figure in the teaching of Islam and the central doctrine of Revelation and the Hereafter. As referring to the Hereafter, it is appropriately read in solemn ceremonies after death.

In chronology it belongs to the middle or early Makkan period.

In S. 37:130 (a cognate Sūrah) occurs the word Ilyāsīn: see n. 4115-A.

Summary—The Qur'ān is full of wisdom, and those are unfortunate who cannot profit by it: Parable of the City that defied—all but one—the Messengers of Grace and Mercy (36:1-32, and C. 194).

Various Signs of Allah in nature and Revelation (36:33-50, and C. 195).

The Resurrection and the Hereafter (36:51-83, and C. 195).

C. 194.—The wisdom of Revelation—the Qur'ān received
 (36:1-32.) Through the Holy Prophet—is a guide
 To the Straight Path, and a warning against
 The terrible state in which the yokes
 Of Sin enslave us. The righteous receive it
 With joy, for they believe in the Hereafter.
 Behold, there was once a City, to which
 Came two righteous men with the Gospel of Truth,
 But they were rejected and persecuted: they were joined
 By a third. But the City refused to believe
 Or to turn from iniquity. Only one man was found
 In its outskirts, to bear witness to Truth,
 Faith, and Righteousness, and he did suffer
 Martyrdom. He attained Peace, but mourned
 For his people, in that they shut the gates
 Of Salvation and Allah's Mercy on themselves.
 Alas for man's short-sighted folly in defying
 The Grace that would shield and deliver him!

Sūrah 36.

Yā Sīn

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful*

1. *Yā Sīn.*³⁹⁴³
2. By the Qur'ān,³⁹⁴⁴
Full of Wisdom —
3. Thou art indeed
One of the messengers,
4. On a Straight Way.
5. It is a Revelation³⁹⁴⁵
Sent down by (Him),
The Exalted in Might,
Most Merciful,
6. In order that thou mayest
Admonish a people,
Whose fathers had received³⁹⁴⁶
No admonition, and who
Therefore remained heedless
(Of the Signs of Allah).
7. The Word is proved true³⁹⁴⁷
Against the greater part of them;
For they do not believe.

الجزء الثاني والعشرون سوره يس

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- يَس ٓ

٢- وَالْقُرْآنِ الْحَكِيمِ ٓ

٣- إِنَّكَ لَمِنَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ ٓ

٤- عَلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ ٓ

٥- تَنْزِيلَ

الْعَزَائِرِ الرَّحِيمِ ٓ

٦- لِيُنْذِرَ قَوْمًا

مَّا أُنْذِرَ آبَاؤُهُمْ

فَهُمْ غَافِلُونَ ٓ

٧- لَقَدْ حَقَّ الْقَوْلُ عَلَى أَكْثَرِهِمْ

فَهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ٓ

3943. Some Commentators take Yā to be the vocative article, and Sīn to be the abbreviation of Inṣān, Sīn being the only "Firm Letter" in the word. In that case it would be an address to man. "O man!" But "man" in this connection is understood to mean the Leader of man, the noblest of mankind, Muḥammad, the Prophet of Allah. For this Sūrah deals mainly with the Holy Prophet and his Message. But no dogmatic assertion can be made about the Abbreviated Letters, for which see Appendix I, following S. 2. Yā Sīn is usually treated as a title of the Holy Prophet.

3944. The best credentials of the Holy Prophet are: (1) the revelation which he brought ("the Qur'ān"), and the heroic unselfish life which he led ("on a Straight Way"). The appeal is therefore made on the testimony of these two facts.

3945. The Revelation again is characterised by two attributes which we find most helpful in contemplating about Allah. It has force and power: for Allah is Exalted in Might and able to enforce His Will. And it brings a Message of hope and mercy; for Allah is Most Merciful. By its characteristics we know that the Qur'ān is from Allah. (R).

3946. The Quraysh had received no Prophet before, and therefore one of themselves was made the vehicle for the universal Message to the whole world. See C. 12-15.

3947. Cf. 7:30, and n. 1012; also 17:16, and n. 2193. If people deliberately and obstinately refuse "to believe", i.e., to receive guidance and admonition, the result must be that Allah's grace and mercy are withdrawn from them. Their own perversity inevitably blocks up all channels for their correction.

8. We have put yokes³⁹⁴⁸
Round their necks
Right up to their chins,
So that their heads are Forced up (and they cannot see).
9. And We have put
A bar in front of them³⁹⁴⁹
And a bar behind them,
And further, We have Covered them up; so that
They cannot see.
10. The same is it to them³⁹⁵⁰
Whether thou admonish them
Or thou do not admonish
Them: they will not believe.
11. Thou canst but admonish³⁹⁵¹
Such a one as follows
The Message and fears
The (Lord) Most Gracious,
unseen:³⁹⁵²
Give such a one, therefore,³⁹⁵³

٨- إِنْآ جَعَلْنَاهُمْ أَغْلَالًا
رَّهْمًا إِلَى الْأَذْقَانِ
فَهُمْ مُّقْمَحُونَ ○

٩- وَجَعَلْنَا مِنْ بَيْنِ أَيْدِيهِمْ سَدًّا
وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِمْ سَدًّا
فَأَغْشَيْنَاهُمْ فَهُمْ لَا يُبْصِرُونَ ○

١٠- وَسَاءَ عَلَيْهِمْ أَنْذَرْتَهُمْ
أَمْ لَمْ تُنذِرْهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ○

١١- إِنَّمَا تُنذِرُ مَنِ اتَّبَعَ الذِّكْرَ
وَخَشِيَ الرَّحْمَنَ الْغَيْبَ
فَبَشِّرْهُ

3948. Man's misdeeds inevitably call forth the operation of Allah's Law, and therefore the result is in Quranic language attributed to Allah. The result of man's willful disobedience is now described in a series of metaphors. (1) Refusal of Allah's Light means less and less freedom of action for man: the yoke of sin is fastened round man's neck, and it gets more and more tightened, right up to the chin. (2) The head is forced up and kept in a stiff position, so that the mind becomes befogged. Moral obliquity taints the intellect. According to the Sanskrit proverb, "When destruction comes near, understanding is turned upside down." According to the Latin proverb, "Whom God wishes to destroy, He first makes demented." In other words, iniquity not only is folly, but leads deeper and deeper into folly, narrowness of vision, and blindness to the finer things of life. (3) This state of deprivation of Grace leads to such a decline in spiritual vitality that the victim can neither progress nor turn back, as explained in the next verse.

3949. Their retreat is cut off and their progress is impossible. Further the Light that should come from above is cut off, so that they become totally devoid of any hope, and the last gleam of any spiritual understanding is extinguished in them.

3950. When the stage just described is reached, revelation or spiritual teaching ceases to have any value for them. Why then preach? The answer is given in the verses following.

3951. Cf. 35:18. As far as those are concerned, who have obstinately delivered themselves to evil, the preaching of Allah's Message has no appeal, because their own will shuts them out. But there are others who are anxious to hear Allah's Message and receive Allah's grace. They love Allah and fear to offend against His Holy Law, and their fear is not merely superficial but deep-seated: for while they do not yet see Allah, nor do other people see them, they have the same sense of Allah's presence as if they saw Him, and their religion is not a mere pose, 'to be seen of men'.

3952. See n. 3902 to 35:18. Unseen is here adverbial: their reverence for Allah is unaffected by the fact that they do not see him, or that other people do not observe them, because their attitude arises out of a genuine love for Allah.

3953. To such persons the Messenger of Allah comes as a gospel or good news: because it shows them the way of forgiveness for anything wrong in their past, and it gives them the promise of a full reward in the future—generous beyond any deserts of their own, but arising out of Allah's unbounded Bounty.

Good tidings, of Forgiveness
And a Reward most generous.

12. Verily We shall give life³⁹⁵⁴
To the dead, and We record
That which they sent before
And that which they leave³⁹⁵⁵
Behind, and of all things
Have We taken account
In a clear Book³⁹⁵⁶
(Of evidence).

SECTION 2.

13. Set forth to them,
By way of a parable,
The (story of) the Companions³⁹⁵⁷
Of the City. Behold,
There came messengers to it.
14. When We (first) sent
To them two messengers,
They rejected them:
But We strengthened them³⁹⁵⁸
With a third: they said,
"Truly, we have been sent
On a mission to you."

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱۲- اِنَّا نَحْنُ مُخِي السَّوْتِ

وَنَكْتُبُ مَا قَدَّمُوا وَآثَارَهُمْ

وَكُلَّ شَيْءٍ أَحْصَيْنَاهُ

فِي إِمَامٍ مُبِينٍ

۱۳- وَاضْرِبْ لَهُم مَّثَلًا أَصْحَابَ الْقَرْيَةِ

إِذْ جَاءَهَا الْمُرْسَلُونَ

۱۴- إِذْ أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْهِمُ اثْنَيْنِ

فَكَذَّبُوهُمَا فَعَبَّوْا وَنَالُوا بِمَلَائِكَتِنَا تَبَالُؤًا

إِنَّا إِلَيْنَا كُمْ مُرْسَلُونَ

3954. All this is possible, because there is the assurance of a Hereafter, in which Allah will be all-in-all, and evil will no longer bestride the world, as the term of its respite will have expired.

3955. Our deeds, good and bad, go to Allah's Judgement Seat before us. They will of course be brought to our account; but our account will also be swelled by the example we left behind us and the consequences of our deeds, that will come into play or continue to operate after our earthly life had ceased. Our moral and spiritual responsibility is therefore much wider than as affects our own person.

3956. Cf. 2:124, and n. 124. All our account will be exactly preserved as in a book of record.

3957. Many of the classical Commentators have supposed that the City referred to was Antioch. Now Antioch was one of the most important cities in North Syria in the first century of the Christian era. It was a Greek city founded by Seleucus Nicator, one of the successors of Alexander, about 300 B.C. in memory of his father Antiochus. It was close to the sea, and had its seaport at Seleucia. Soon after Christ his disciples successfully preached there, and they "were called Christians first in Antioch", Acts, xi. 26. It afterwards became the seat of a most important Bishopric of the Christian Church. In the story told here "by way of a parable", the City rejected the Message, and the City was destroyed: 36:29. Following Ibn Kathīr, I reject the identification with Antioch decisively. No name, or period, or place is mentioned in the text. The significance of the story is in the lessons to be derived from it as a parable, for which see the next note. That is independent of name, time, or place.

3958. Allah sends His messengers or teachers of Truth by ones and twos, and where the opposition is great and He considers it necessary, he supports them with others. Their mission is divine, but they do not claim to be more than men. This is used by the unjust and the ungodly as if it were a reproach, whereas it should commend them to men, for mankind is glorified by such commission and by Allah's Self-revelation. The Message is clearly expressed in human language, but because it exposes all evil, men think it unlucky, as it checks their selfishness. It is often the poorest and most despised of mankind, from the outskirts or "farthest parts of the City", that accept the Message and are willing to work and die for it. The stiff-necked resist and accomplish their own destruction.

15. The (people) said: "Ye are
Only men like ourselves;³⁹⁵⁹
And (Allah) Most Gracious
Sends no sort of revelation:³⁹⁶⁰
Ye do nothing but lie."

16. They said: "Our Lord doth
Know that we have been sent
On a mission to you:³⁹⁶¹

17. "And our duty is only
To proclaim the clear
Message."³⁹⁶²

18. The (people) said "For us,
We augur an evil omen³⁹⁶³
From you: if ye desist not,
We will certainly stone you,
And a grievous punishment
Indeed will be inflicted
On you by us."

19. They said: "Your evil omens
Are with yourselves:³⁹⁶⁴
(Deem ye this an evil omen),
If ye are admonished?
Nay, but ye are a people
Transgressing all bounds!"³⁹⁶⁵

١٥- قَالُوا مَا أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُنَا
وَمَا أَنْزَلَ الرَّحْمَنُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ
إِنْ أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا تَكْذِبُونَ ○

١٦- قَالُوا رَبُّنَا يَعْلَمُ
إِنَّا إِلَيْكُمْ لَمُرْسَلُونَ ○

١٧- وَمَا عَلَيْنَا إِلَّا الْبَلَاةُ الْمُبِينُ ○

١٨- قَالُوا إِنَّا تَطَيَّرْنَا بِكُمْ
لَئِنْ لَمْ تَنْتَهُوا لَنَرْجُمَنَّكُمْ
وَلَيَمَسَّنَّكُم مِّنَّا عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ○

١٩- قَالُوا طَائِرُكُمْ مَعَكُمْ
إِئِنْ ذُكِّرْتُمْ
بَلْ أَنْتُمْ قَوْمٌ مُّسْرِفُونَ ○

3959. Cf. Acts, xiv. 15, where Paul and Barnabas say, in the city of Lystra near the modern Konia, "We also are men with like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities. . ."

3960. They not only reject the mission of the particular messengers, but they deny the possibility of Allah's sending such mission. Note how they convict themselves of inconsistency by using Allah's name "Most Gracious", even though they may mean it ironically!

3961. Just as a Messenger whose credentials are doubted can refer to the authority granted by his Principal, as the highest proof of his mission, so these messengers of Allah invoke the authority of Allah in proof of their mission. In effect they say: "The knowledge of Allah is perfect, and He knows that our mission is from Him; if you do not, it is your own misfortune." (R).

3962. Then they proceed to explain what their mission is. It is not to force them but to convince them. It is to proclaim openly and clearly Allah's Law, which they were breaking—to denounce their sins and to show them the better path. If they were obstinate, it was their own loss. If they were rebellious against Allah, the punishment rested with Allah.

3963. Tā'ir means a bird. Like the Roman augurs, the Arabs had a superstition about deriving omens from birds. Cf. the English word auspicious, from the Latin avis, a bird, and specio, I see. From Tā'ir (bird) came taṭayyara, or uṭayyara, to draw evil omens. Because the prophets of Allah denounced evil, the evildoers thought that they brought ill-luck to them. As a matter of fact any evil that happened to them was the result of their own ill-deeds. Cf. 7:131, where the Egyptians ascribed their calamities to the ill-luck brought by Moses: and 27:47, where the Thamūd ascribed ill-luck to the preaching of Ṣāliḥ.

3964. 'What ye call omens arise from your own ill-deeds. Do you suppose that a man who comes to warn you and teach you the better way brings you ill-luck? Fie upon you!

3965. To call Good evil and accuse of falsehood men of truth who come unselfishly to bring the message of the beneficent Mercy of Allah, is the very height of extravagance and transgression.

20. Then there came running,
From the farthest part
Of the City, a man,³⁹⁶⁶
Saying, "O my People
Obey the messengers:

٢٠- وَجَاءَ مِنْ أَقْصَا الْمَدِينَةِ
رَجُلٌ يَسْعَى قَالَ يٰقَوْمِ
اتَّبِعُوا الْمُرْسَلِينَ ۝

21. "Obey those who ask
No reward of you
(For themselves), and who have Themselves received Guidance.³⁹⁶⁷

٢١- اتَّبِعُوا مَنْ لَا يَسْأَلُكُمْ أَجْرًا
وَهُمْ مُّهْتَدُونَ ۝

22. "It would not be reasonable
In me if I did not
Serve Him Who created me,³⁹⁶⁸
And to Whom ye shall
(All) be brought back.

٢٢- وَمَالِيَ لَا أُعْبِدُ الَّذِي
فَطَرَنِي
وَالِيَهُ تُرْجَعُونَ ۝

23. "Shall I take (other) gods
Besides Him? If (Allah)
Most Gracious should
Intend some adversity for me,³⁹⁶⁹
Of no use whatever
Will be their intercession
For me, nor can they Deliver me.

٢٣- ءَأَتَّخِذُ مِنْ دُونِهِ آلِهَةً
إِنْ يُرِيدَنَّ الرَّحْمَنُ بِضُرٍّ
لَا تُغْنِي عَنِّي شَفَاعَتُهُمْ شَيْئًا
وَلَا يُنْقِذُونِ ۝

24. "I would indeed,
If I were to do so,
Be in manifest Error.

٢٤- إِنْ
إِذَا لَفِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ ۝

3966. While the wealthy, influential, and fashionable men in the City were doubtful of Allah's providence and superstitiously believed in Chance and evil omens, the Truth was seen by a man in the outskirts of the City, a man held in low esteem by the arrogant. He had believed, and he wanted his City to believe. So, in Arabia, when the arrogant chiefs of the Quraysh exiled the Holy Prophet, it was men from Madīnah and from the outskirts, who welcomed him, believed in him, and supported his mission in every way.

3967. Prophets do not seek their own advantage. They serve Allah and humanity. Their hope lies in the good pleasure of Allah, to Whose service they are devoted. Cf. 10:72; 12:104; etc.

3968. The argument throughout is that of intense personal conviction for the individual himself, coupled with an appeal to his people to follow that conviction and get the benefit of the spiritual satisfaction which he has himself achieved. He says in effect: 'how is it possible for me to do otherwise than to serve and adore my Maker? I shall return to Him, and so will you, and all this applies to you as much as to me.' Note how effective is the transition from the personal experience to the collective appeal.

3969. The next plea is that for exclusive service to Allah. 'Suppose it were proper to worship other gods—Mammon, Self, or imaginary deities set up as idols—yet of what benefit would that be? All power is in Allah. In His universal Plan, He may think fit to give me some sorrow or punishment: would these subordinate deities be able to help me or intercede for me with Him? Not at all. What use would they be? In fact I should obviously be going astray—wandering from the true Path.'

25. "For me, I have faith
In the Lord of you (all):³⁹⁷⁰
Listen, then, to me!"

٢٥- إِنْ أَنَا أَمِنْتُ
بِرَبِّكُمْ فَأَسْمَعُونِ

26. It was said: "Enter thou³⁹⁷¹
The Garden." He said:
"Ah me! Would that
My People knew (what I know)!—

٢٦- قِيلَ ادْخُلِ الْجَنَّةَ قَالَ
يَلَيْتَ قَوْمِي يَعْلَمُونَ

27. "For that my Lord³⁹⁷²
Has granted me Forgiveness
And has enrolled me
Among those held in honour!"

٢٧- بِمَا غَفَر لِي رَبِّي
وَجَعَلَنِي مِنَ الْمَكْرُمِينَ

28. And We sent not down
Against his People, after him,
Any hosts from heaven,
Nor was it needful
For Us so to do.

٢٨- وَمَا أَنزَلْنَا عَلَى قَوْمِهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ
مِنْ جُنْدٍ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ
وَمَا كُنَّا مُنْزِلِينَ

29. It was no more than
A single mighty Blast,³⁹⁷³
And behold! they were (like ashes)³⁹⁷⁴
Quenched and silent.

٢٩- إِنْ كَانَتْ إِلَّا صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً
فَإِذَا هُمْ خِمُودُونَ

3970. Again a transition from the assured personal conviction to the appeal to all to profit by the speaker's experience. 'I have found the fullest satisfaction for my soul in Allah. He is my God, but He is your God also. My experience can be yours also. Will you not follow my advice, and prove for yourselves that the Lord is indeed good?'

3971. This godly and righteous man entered into the Peace of Allah, typified by the Garden of Rest and Beauty. Perhaps it is implied that he suffered martyrdom. But even then his thoughts were always with his People. He regretted their obstinacy and want of understanding, and wished even then that they might repent and obtain salvation, but they were obdurate and suffered for their sins as we learn from verses 28-29 below.

3972. This man was just a simple honest soul, but he heard and obeyed the call of the prophets and obtained his spiritual desire for himself and did his best to obtain salvation for his people. For he loved his people and respected his ancestral traditions as far as they were good, but had no hesitation in accepting the new Light when it came to him. All his past was forgiven him and he was raised to dignity and honour in the Kingdom of Heaven.

3973. Allah's Justice or Punishment does not necessarily come with pomp and circumstance, nor have the forces of human evil or wickedness the power to require the exertion of mighty spiritual forces to subdue them. A single mighty Blast—either the rumbling of an earthquake, or a great and violent wind—was sufficient in this case. Cf. 11:67 and n. 1561 (which describes the fate of the Thamūd; also, n. 3463 to 29:40.

3974. Cf. 21:15. They had made a great deal of noise in their time, but they were reduced to silence, like spent ashes.

30. Ah! alas for (My) servants!
There comes not a messenger
To them but they mock him!³⁹⁷⁵

٣٠- يَحْزَنُهُ عَلَى الْعِبَادِ مَا يَأْتِيهِمْ مِنْ
رَّسُولٍ إِلَّا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ ○

31. See they not how many
Generations before them
We destroyed? Not to them³⁹⁷⁶
Will they return:

٣١- أَلَمْ يَرَوْا كَمْ أَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ مِنَ
الْقُرُونِ أَنَّهُمْ إِلَيْهِمْ لَا يَرْجِعُونَ ○

32. But each one of them
All—will be brought
Before Us (for judgement).

٣٢- وَإِنْ كُلٌّ لَّنَّا جَمِيعٌ لَدَيْنَا مُحْضَرُونَ ع

C. 195. — Are there not Signs enough around you
(36:33-50.) To bear witness to Allah, and His saving Grace?
The earth dies and revives; there are mysteries
Of Life and Sex, of Light and the Stars
And Planets in heaven, that follow
Their orbits by Law and in harmony!
There are the ships and the modes of transport
By which man can conquer the forces
Around him with God-given Gifts!
Learn the Law of Goodness from them
And believe in the Hereafter; it will come
When least expected. Be prepared for Allah!

SECTION 3.

33. آ Sign for them
Is the earth that is dead:³⁹⁷⁷
We do give it life,
And produce grain therefrom,
Of which ye do eat.

٣٣- وَإِذْ لَّهُمُ الْأَرْضُ الْمَيْتَةُ ۚ
أَحْيَيْنَاهَا وَأَخْرَجْنَا مِنْهَا حَبًّا
فِيْنَهُ يَأْكُلُونَ ○

3975. Cf. 6:10 and many other passages of similar import. Ignorant men mock at Allah's prophets, or anyone who takes Religion seriously. But they do not reflect that such levity reacts on themselves. Their own lives are ruined and they cease to count. If they study history, they will see that countless generations were destroyed before them because they did not take Truth seriously and undermined the very basis of their individual and collective existence.

My servants is here equivalent to "men". Allah regrets the folly of men, especially as He cherishes them as His own servants.

3976. Not to them will they return. What do the pronouns them and they refer to? Commentators and translators have construed them differently, and some of them evade the question. To my mind the best construction seems to be: the generations which we have destroyed before the people addressed ('do they not see?') will not be restored to the people addressed; generations (qurān) standing for the periods of prosperity and good fortune enjoyed by the ancestors. They have all been wiped out; they will never be restored, but all people will be brought before the Judgement Seat for giving an account of their deeds.

3977. . Lest anyone should say, 'if they are destroyed, how can they be brought before the Judgement Seat' a symbol is pointed to. The earth is to all intents and purposes dead in the winter, but Allah revives it in the spring. Cf. 2:164, 30:19, and many other passages to that effect.

34. And We produce therein
Orchards with date palms³⁹⁷⁸
And Vines, and We cause
Springs to gush forth therein:

٣٢- وَجَعَلْنَا فِيهَا جَدَّتٍ مِّنْ نَّخِيلٍ
وَأَعْنَابٍ وَفَجْرْنَا فِيهَا مِنَ الْعُيُونِ ۝

35. That they may enjoy³⁹⁷⁹
The fruits of this (artistry):
It was not their hands³⁹⁸⁰
That made this:
Will they not then give thanks?

٣٥- لِيَأْكُلُوا مِنْ ثَمَرِهِ
وَمَا عَمِلَتْهُ أَيْدِيهِمْ
أَفَلَا يَشْكُرُونَ ۝

36. Glory to Allah, Who created
In pairs all things that³⁹⁸¹
The earth produces, as well as
Their own (human) kind
And (other) things of which
They have no knowledge.

٣٦- سُبْحَانَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ الْأَزْوَاجَ كُلَّهَا
مِمَّا تَنْثِيثُ الْأَرْضِ وَمِنْ أَنْفُسِهِمْ
وَمِمَّا لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ۝

37. And a Sign for them
Is the Night: We withdraw³⁹⁸²
Therefrom the Day, and behold
They are plunged in darkness;

٣٧- وَإِذْ لَّهُمُ اللَّيْلُ نَسْلَخُ مِنْهُ النَّهَارَ
فَإِذَا هُمْ مُظْلِمُونَ ۝

38. And the Sun
Runs its course
For a period determined³⁹⁸³
For it; that is

٣٨- وَالشَّمْسُ تَجْرِي
لِمُسْتَقَرٍّ لَّهَا ۚ ذَلِكَ

3978 Date palms and vines stand as symbols for fruit trees of all kinds, these being the characteristic fruits of Arabia. Grain was mentioned in the last verse; fruit is mentioned now. All that is necessary for food and the satisfaction of the choicest palate is produced from what looks like inert soil, fertilised by rain and springs. Here is wonderful evidence of the artistry and providence of Allah.

3979. Literally, ea' (akala). Cf. 7:19, n. 1004 and 5:69, n. 776. The same wide meaning of profit, satisfaction, and enjoyment may be attached to the word "eat" in verse 33 above.

3980. Man may till the soil and sow the seed, but the productive forces of nature were not made by man's hands. They are the handiwork and artistry of Allah, and are evidence of Allah's providence for His creatures. See n. 3978 above.

3981. The mystery of sex runs through all creation—in man, in animal life, in vegetable life and possibly in other things of which we have no knowledge. Then there are pairs of opposite forces in nature, e.g., positive and negative electricity, etc. The atom itself consists of a positively charged nucleus of proton, surrounded by negatively charged electrons. The constitution of matter itself is thus referred to pairs of opposite energies.

3982. Withdrawing the Day from the Night: is a striking phrase and very apt. The Day or the Light is the positive thing. The Night or Darkness is merely negative. We cannot withdraw the negative. But if we withdraw the real thing, the positive, which filled the void, nothing is left but the void. The whole of this section deals with Signs and Symbols—things in the physical world around us, from which we can learn the deepest spiritual truths if we earnestly apply ourselves to them.

3983. Mustaqarr may mean: (1) a limit of time, a period determined, as in 6:67, or (2) a place of rest or quiescence; or (3) a dwelling place, as in 2:36. I think the first meaning is best applicable here; but some Commentators take the second meaning. In that case the simile would be that of the sun running a race while it is visible to us, and taking a rest during the night to prepare itself to renew its race the following day. Its stay with the antipodes appears to us as its period of rest.

The decree of (Him),
The exalted in Might,
The All-Knowing.

تَقْدِيرُ الْعَزِيزِ الْعَلِيمِ

39. And the Moon—
We have measured for it³⁹⁸⁴
Mansions (to traverse)
Till it returns
Like the old (and withered)
Lower part of a date stalk³⁹⁸⁵

۴۹- وَالْقَمَرَ قَدَرْنَاهُ مَنَازِلَ
حَتَّىٰ عَادَ
كَالْعُرْجُونِ الْقَدِيمِ

40. It is not permitted
To the Sun to catch up³⁹⁸⁶
The Moon, nor can
The Night outstrip the Day:
Each (just) swims along³⁹⁸⁷
In (its own) orbit
(According to Law).

۴۰- لَا الشَّمْسُ يَنْبَغِي لَهَا أَنْ تُدْرِكَ
الْقَمَرَ وَلَا اللَّيْلُ سَابِقُ النَّهَارِ
وَكُلٌّ فِي فَلَكٍ يَسْبَحُونَ

41. And a Sign for them
Is that We bore³⁹⁸⁸
Their race (through the Flood)
In the loaded Ark;

۴۱- وَآيَةٌ لَهُمْ أَنَّا حَمَلْنَا
ذُرِّيَّتَهُمْ فِي الْفُلِّ الْمَشْحُونِ

42. And We have created
For them similar (vessels)³⁹⁸⁹
On which they ride.

۴۲- وَخَلَقْنَا
لَهُمْ مِنْ مِثْلِهِ مَا يَرْكَبُونَ

3984. The lunar mansions are the 28 divisions of the Zodiac, which are supposed to make the daily course of the moon in the heavens from the time of the new moon to the time when the moon fades away in its "inter-lunar swoon", an expressive phrase coined by the poet Shelley.

3986. Though the sun and the moon both traverse the belt of the Zodiac, and their motions are different, they never catch up each other. When the sun and the moon are on the same side and on a line with the earth there is a solar eclipse, and when on opposite sides in a line, there is a lunar eclipse, but there is no clash. Their Laws are fixed by Allah, and form the subject of study in astronomy. Similarly Night and Day follow each other, but being opposites cannot coincide, a fit emblem of the opposition of Good and Evil, Truth and Falsehood: see also n. 3982 above.

3988. Besides the beauty of the Night, with the stars and the planets "swimming" in their rounded courses according to perfect Law, suggesting both symmetry and harmony, there are other Signs touching closely the life of man himself, projected through Time, in the past history of his race and in his own personal experience. The past history of his race takes us to the story of the Flood, which is symbolical of the deliverance of man from the forces of nature. Noah's Ark is the symbol of that deliverance. But the symbol still remains as a memorial: the Ark was a "Sign to all Peoples"; 29:15. Man's own personal experience is appealed to in every ship afloat; see next note.

3989. The stately ships sailing through the seas, heavier than air, yet carrying man and his goods safely and smoothly across the waters, are another Sign for man. Ships are not mentioned, but (vessels) like the Ark: they would cover all kinds of seacraft, but also the modern aircraft, which "swims" through air instead of through water.

43. If it were Our Will,³⁹⁹⁰
We could drown them:
Then would there be
No helper (to hear
Their cry), nor could
They be delivered

۴۳- وَإِنْ نَشَاءُ نُغْرِقْهُمْ
فَلَا صَرِيحَ لَهُمْ
وَلَا هُمْ يُنْقَذُونَ ۝

44. Except by way of Mercy
From Us, and by way
Of (worldly) convenience
(To serve them) for a time.³⁹⁹¹

۴۴- إِلَّا رَحْمَةً مِنَّا وَ
مَتَاعًا إِلَىٰ حِينٍ ۝

45. When they are told,
"Fear ye that which is ³⁹⁹²
Before you and that which
Will be after you, in order
That ye may receive Mercy,"
(They turn back).

۴۵- وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمُ اتَّقُوا مَا بَيْنَ
أَيْدِيكُمْ وَمَا خَلْفَكُمْ
لَعَلَّكُمْ تُرْحَمُونَ ۝

46. Not a Sign come to them
From among the Signs³⁹⁹³
Of their Lord, but they
Turn away therefrom.

۴۶- وَمَا تَأْتِيهِمْ مِنْ آيَةٍ مِنْ آيَاتِ
رَبِّهِمْ إِلَّا كَانُوا عَنْهَا مُعْرِضِينَ ۝

47. And when they are told,
"Spend ye of (the bounties)³⁹⁹⁴
With which Allah
Has provided you." the Unbelievers
Say to those who believe:
"Shall we then feed those

۴۷- وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمُ أَنْفِقُوا
مِمَّا رَزَقَكُمُ اللَّهُ
قَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اطْعِمُوهُمْ

3990. Were it not that Allah gives man the intelligence and ingenuity to construct and manage seacraft and aircraft, the natural laws of gravity would lead to the destruction of any who attempted to pass through sea or air. It is the gift (mercy) of Allah that saves him.

3991. Cf. 16:80. Allah has given man all these wonderful things in nature and utilities produced by the skill and intelligence which Allah has given to man. Had it not been for these gifts, man's life would have been precarious on sea or land or in the air. It is only Allah's Mercy that saves man from destruction for man's own follies, and that saving or the enjoyment of these utilities and conveniences he should not consider as eternal: they are only given for a time, in this life of probation.

3992. Man should consider and beware of the consequences of his past, and guard against the consequences in his future. The present is only a fleeting moment poised between the past and the future, and gone even while it is being mentioned or thought about. Man should review his whole life and prepare for the Hereafter. If he does so, Allah is Merciful: He will forgive, and give strength for a better and higher life in the future. But this kind of teaching does not suit those steeped in this ephemeral life. They are bored, and turn away from it, to their own loss.

3993. The Signs of Allah are many, in His great world—in nature, in the heart of man, and in the Revelation sent through His messengers. They turn away from all of them, as a man who has ruined his eyesight turns away from the light.

3994. To selfish men, the good may make an appeal, and say: "Look Allah has given you wealth, or influence, or knowledge, or talent. Why not spend some of it in charity, i.e., for the good of your fellow-creatures?" But the selfish only think of themselves and laugh such teaching to scorn.

Whom, if Allah had so willed,³⁹⁹⁵
He would have fed, (Himself)?—
Ye are in nothing
But manifest error.”

مَنْ لَوْ يَشَاءُ اللَّهُ أَطْعَمَهُ ۖ
إِنْ أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ۝

48. Further, they say, “When Will this promise (come to pass),³⁹⁹⁶
If what ye say is true?”

۞- وَيَقُولُونَ مَتَى هَذَا الْوَعْدُ
إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ۝

49. They will not (have
To) wait for aught
But a single Blast:
It will seize them while
They are yet disputing
Among themselves!

۞- مَا يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً
تَأْخُذُهُمْ
وَهُمْ يَخِصِّسُونَ ۝

50. No (chance) will they then
Have, by will, to dispose (Of their affairs), nor
To return to their own people!

۞- فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ تَوْصِيَةً
وَلَا إِلَىٰ أَهْلِهِمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ۝

C. 196. — When the Day comes, men will be taken
(36:51-83.) Aback. The Judgement Seat will be established.
Blessed will be those who attain Salvation:
Their Joy, Satisfaction, and Peace will be crowned
With nearness to their Lord!
Alas for the Sinful, who deliberately
Followed Evil: their own nature
And actions will speak against them:
They will face the realities of Punishment!
Both Revelation and Nature are eloquent
In instructing man for his own good
In the Hereafter, which will come
As a certainty. Praise and Glory to Allah!

3995. They are too full of themselves to have a corner in their hearts for others. “If,” they say, “Allah gave them nothing, why should we?” There is arrogance in this as well as blasphemy: arrogance in thinking that they are favoured because of their merits, and blasphemy in laying the blame of other people's misfortunes on Allah. They further try to turn the tables on the Believers by pretending that the Believers are entirely on the wrong track. They forget that all men are on probation and trial: they hold their gifts on trust; those apparently less favoured, in that they have fewer of this world's goods, may be really more fortunate, because they are learning patience, self-reliance, and the true value of things ephemeral which is apt to be very much exaggerated in men's eyes.

3996. In addition to the arrogance and blasphemy referred to in the last note, they not only refuse Faith, but they taunt the men of Faith as if the man of Faith were dealing in falsehood: “If there is a Hereafter, tell us when it will be!” The answer is: “It will come sooner than you expect; you will yet be disputing about things of Faith and neglecting your opportunities in Life, when the Hour will sound, and you will have not time even to make your disposition in this life: you will be cut off from everyone whom you thought to be near and dear to you, or able to help you!”

SECTION 4.

51. The trumpet shall be³⁹⁹⁷
Sounded, when behold!
From the sepulchres (men)
Will rush forth
To their Lord!

٥١- وَنُفِخَ فِي الصُّورِ
فَإِذَا هُمْ مِنَ الْأَجْدَاثِ
إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ يَنْسِلُونَ ○

52. They will say: "Ah!
Woe unto us! Who
Hath raised us up
From our beds of repose?"...³⁹⁹⁸
(A voice will say):
"This is what (Allah)
Most Gracious had promised,
And true was the word
Of the messengers!"

٥٢- قَالُوا يٰوَيْلَنَا مَنْ
بَعَثَنَا مِنْ مَرْقَدِنَا ۚ
هٰذَا مَا وَعَدَ الرَّحْمَنُ
وَصَدَقَ الْمُرْسَلُونَ ○

53. It will be no more
Than a single Blast,³⁹⁹⁹
When lo! they will all
Be brought up before Us!

٥٣- إِنْ كَانَتْ إِلَّا صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً
فَإِذَا هُمْ جَمِيعٌ لَّدَيْنَا مُحْضَرُونَ ○

54. Then, on that Day,
Not a soul will be
Wronged in the least,⁴⁰⁰⁰
And ye shall but
Be repaid the meeds
Of your past Deeds.

٥٤- فَالْيَوْمَ لَا تظْلَمُ نَفْسٌ شَيْئًا
وَلَا تُجْزَوْنَ
إِلَّا مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ○

55. Merely the Companions⁴⁰⁰¹
Of the Garden shall

٥٥- إِنْ أَصْحَابَ الْجَنَّةِ

3997. Traditionally, the angel who will sound the Trumpet is Isrāfīl, but the name does not occur in the Qur'ān. The Trumpet is mentioned in many places: e.g., 6:73; 78:18, etc.

3998. The dead will rise as in a stupor, and they will be confused in the new conditions! They will gradually regain their memory and their personality. They will be reminded that Allah in His grace and mercy had already announced the Hereafter in their probationary lives, and the word of Allah's messengers, which then seemed so strange and remote, was true and was now being fulfilled!

3999. Time and Space, as we know them here, will be no more. The whole gathering will be as in the twinkling of any eye. Cf. 36:49 above.

4000. The Judgement will be on the highest standard of Justice and Grace. Not the least merit will go unrewarded, though the reward will be for the righteous far more than their deserts. No penalty will be extracted but that which the doer himself by his past deeds brought on himself. Cf. 28:84.

4001. We now have the symbolism for the indescribable Bliss of the Hereafter, in the four verses, 55-58. Notice the subtle gradation in the description. First, in this verse, we have the nature of the mise en scene and the nature of the joy therein. It will be a Garden i.e., everything agreeable to see and hear and feel and taste and smell; our bodily senses will have been transformed, but we can imagine something corresponding to them in our spiritual being: delightfully green lawns and meadows, trees and shrubs: the murmur of streams and the songs of birds: the delicate texture of flowers and leaves and the shapes of beauty in clouds and mist; the flavours of fruits; and the perfumes of flowers and scents. The joy in the Garden will be an active joy, without fatigue: whatever we do in it, every employment in which we engage there, will be a source of joy without alloy.

- That Day have joy
In all that they do;
56. They and their associates⁴⁰⁰²
Will be in groves
Of (cool) shade, reclining
On Thrones (of dignity);
57. (Every) fruit (enjoyment)⁴⁰⁰³
Will be there for them;
They shall have whatever
They call for;
58. "Peace!"—a Word⁴⁰⁰⁴
(Of salutation) from a Lord
Most Merciful!
59. "And O ye in sin!"⁴⁰⁰⁵
Get ye apart this Day!
60. "Did I not enjoin⁴⁰⁰⁶
On you, O ye children
Of Adam, that ye
Should not worship Satan;

الْيَوْمَ فِي شُغْلٍ فَكِهِونَ ۝

٥٦- هُمْ وَأَزْوَاجُهُمْ فِي ظِلِّ
عَلَى الْأَرَائِكِ مُتَكُونُونَ ۝

٥٧- لَهُمْ فِيهَا فَاكِهَةٌ
وَلَهُمْ مَا يَدْعُونَ ۝

٥٨- سَلَامٌ
قَوْلًا مِنْ رَبِّ رَحِيمٍ ۝

٥٩- وَامْتَاَزُوا الْيَوْمَ أَيُّهَا الْمُجْرِمُونَ ۝

٦٠- أَلَمْ أَعْهَدْ إِلَيْكُمْ يَبْنَى
أَدَمَ أَنْ لَا تَعْبُدُوا الشَّيْطَانَ ۝

4002. Secondly, the joy or happiness is figured to be, not solitary, but shared—shared by associates like those whom we imagine in spiritual Love or Marriage; in whose fair faces "some ray divine reflected shines" (Jamī): whose society is enjoyed in homes of happiness, situated in soothing shade, and furnished with thrones of dignity and peace.

4003. Thirdly, besides any external conditions of Bliss, the Bliss in the Hereafter has an inner quality, expressed by the word fākihah. The root fākihah means 'to rejoice greatly', to be full of merriment'. The ordinary meaning of 'fruit' attached to fākihah is derived from the idea that the flavour of choice, ripe fruit, delights the heart of man. Just as akala (to eat) is used for 'enjoyment', (5:69, n. 776 and 13:35, n. 1854), so fākihah, 'fruit', stands here for that specially choice enjoyment, which goes with a fastidious and well-cultivated taste. In other words, it suggests that highest kind of joy which depends upon the inner faculty rather than any outward circumstance. This is further emphasised by the second clause: "they shall have whatever they call for". Again using the language of this life, the musician's heaven will be full of music; the mathematician's will be full of mathematical symmetry and perfection; the artist's will be full of beauty of form, and so on.

4004. Fourthly, we reach the highest grade of bliss, the mystic salutation "Peace!" from Allah Most Merciful. Cf. 10:10. That Word sums up the attainment of the final Goal. For it explains the nature of the Most High—He is not only a Lord and Cherisher, but a Lord Whose supreme glory is Mercy, Peace, and Harmony!

4005. Notice how this finely balanced passage, after reaching the summit of sublimity in describing the state of the Blessed, in the word Salām, gradually takes us down to contemplate the state of the Sinners in a graduated descent.

In the first place, it refers to their negative state, their state of isolation. From this Day of Judgement, they will no longer have the chance of being with the Blessed and perhaps of profiting spiritually by that proximity. The first feature of the Day of Judgement is that it is a Day of Separation—of sorting out. Each soul now finds its own true level, as the period of probation is over.

4006. Secondly, there is a gentle reproach to the wrongdoers, more in sorrow than in anger. They are addressed as "children of Adam", to emphasise two facts, (1) that they have disgraced their ancestry, for Adam after his Fall repented and was forgiven, and the high Destiny of mankind has been the prize open to all his descendants, and (2) that Allah Most Merciful has throughout the ages continued to warn mankind against the snares laid by Satan, the avowed enemy of man, and that Allah's Grace was ever on the watch to help all to freedom from those snares.

Blotted out their eyes; | ۞ وَلَوْ نَشَاءُ لَطَمَسْنَا عَلَىٰ أَعْيُنِهِمْ |

4008. Fourthly, it is pointed out that they were given Understanding (ʿaql), so that by their own faculties they could have judged their own best interests, and yet they betrayed or misused those faculties, and deliberately threw away their chance! And not only a few, but so many! They went gregariously to ruin in spite of the individual care which their Lord and Cherisher bestowed on them!

4009. Fifthly, the naked fact is now placed before them—the Hell—the state of damnation, which they could so easily have avoided!

4010. As they deliberately and persistently rejected all teaching, guidance, and warnings, they are now told to experience the Fire of Punishment, for it is but the consequence of their own acts.

4011. The ungodly will now be dumbfounded. They will be unable to speak or offer any defence. (The consequences of all acts, which follow according to Allah's Law, are, in Quranic language, attributed to Allah). But their silence will not matter. Their own hands and feet will speak against them. "Hands and feet" in this connection are symbolical of all the instruments for action which they were given in this life, including their faculties and opportunities. The same extended meaning is to be understood for "eyes" in the following verse. Cf. also 41:20-21, where eyes, ears, and skins are all mentioned as bearing witness against such as misused them.

4012. If it had been Our Will: i.e., if such had been the Will and Plan of Allah. If Allah had not intended to give man his limited free will, or power of choice, the case would have been different: there would have been no moral responsibility which could have been enforced. They could have had no sight or intelligence, and they could not have been blamed for not seeing or understanding. But such is not the case.

Then should they have
Run about groping for the Path,
But how could they have seen?

فَاسْتَبَقُوا الصِّرَاطَ
فَأَنَّى يُبْصِرُونَ ٥٧

67. And if it had been
Our Will, We could
Have transformed them
(To remain) in their places;⁴⁰¹³
Then should they have been Unable to move about,
Nor could they have returned
(After error).

٥٦- وَلَوْ نَشَاءُ
لَسَخْنَاهُمْ عَلَىٰ مَكَانَتِهِمْ
فَمَا اسْتَفَاعُوا أَصْفًا
وَلَا يَرْجِعُونَ ٥٨

SECTION 5.

68. If We grant long life
To any, We cause him
To be reversed in nature;⁴⁰¹⁴
Will they not then understand?

٥٨- وَمَنْ نُّعِذْهُ نُغَلِّبْهُ فِي الْخَلْقِ
أَفَلَا يَعْقِلُونَ ٥٩

69. We have not instructed
The (Prophet) in Poetry;⁴⁰¹⁵
Nor is it meet for him:
This is no less than
A Message and a Qur'ān
Making things clear:

٥٩- وَمَا عَلَّمْنَاهُ الشِّعْرَ
وَمَا يَتَّبِعِي لَهُ إِنَّمَا هُوَ إِلَّا
ذِكْرٌ وَقُرْآنٌ مُّبِينٌ ٦٠

70. That it may give admonition
To any (who are) alive;⁴⁰¹⁶

٦٠- لِيُنْذِرَ مَنْ كَانَ حَيًّا

4013. If Allah's Plan had been to grant no limited freedom of choice or will to men, He could have created them quite different, or could have transformed them into stationary creatures, either in physical form as in the case of trees, or in moral or spiritual qualities, where there was no possibility either of progress or deterioration. Man would then have been unable to reach the heights of grandeur which are now open to him, or, if he goes wrong, to return through the door of repentance and mercy, and still pursue his path of ascent. But it was Allah's Plan to give man all these privileges, and man must shoulder all the responsibilities that go with them.

4014. This connects on with the last verse. Everything is possible with Allah. If you doubt how man can be transformed from his present nature, contemplate the transformations he already undergoes in his present nature at different ages. As a child, his powers of mind and body are still undeveloped. As he grows, they grow, and certain moral qualities, such as courage, daring, the will to conquer, unfold themselves. In extreme old age these are again obscured, and a second childhood supervenes. The back of the man who walked proudly straight and erect is now bent. If the transformations take place even in his present nature and constitution, how much easier was it for Allah to cast him in an immobile mould? But Allah granted him instead the high possibilities and responsibilities referred to in the last note.

4015. Cf. 26:224 and n. 3237. Here "Poetry" is used as connoting fairy tales, imaginary descriptions, things futile, false, or obscure, such as decadent Poetry is, whereas the Qur'ān is a practical guide, true and clear.

4016. "Alive", both in English and Arabic, means not only "having physical life", but having all the active qualities which we associate with life. In religious language, those who are not responsive to the realities of the spiritual world are no better than those who are dead. The Message of Allah penetrates the hearts of those who are alive in the spiritual sense.

4017. Cf. 28:63. If people reject Truth and Faith after they have been admonished and warned, the charge against them, of willful rebellion, is proved. They cannot then plead either ignorance or inadvertence.

4018. If they are blind to other Signs of Allah, they can at least see the simple homely things of life in which they receive so many benefits from Allah's mercy. How is it that wild animals can be domesticated, and in domestication can be so useful to man? Man can use them for riding or for draught; he can use their flesh for food and drink their milk; he can use their hair or wool. Cf. 16:66, 80; and 23:21-22.

4019. Such as skins for leather, furs for warmth, sheep's wool or camel's hair for blankets or textiles, musk for perfume, and so on.

Life Who created them
For the first time!"⁴⁰²⁵

٧٣- قُلْ يُحْيِيهَا الَّذِي أَنشَأَهَا أَوَّلَ مَرَّةٍ

4021. There is some difference of opinion among Commentators as to the exact meaning to be attached to this clause. As I understand it, the meaning seems to be this. Man is apt to forget or turn away from the true God, the source of all the good which he enjoys, and to go after imaginary powers in the shape of gods; heroes, men, or abstract things like Science or Nature or Philosophy, or superstitious things like Magic, or Good Fortune or Ill-Fortune, or embodiments of his own selfish desires. He thinks that they might help him in this Life or in the Hereafter (if he believes in a Hereafter). But they cannot help him: on the contrary all things that are false will be brought up and condemned before Allah's Judgement Seat, and the worshippers of the Falsehoods will also be treated as a troop favouring the Falsehoods and therefore worthy of condemnation. The Falsehoods, therefore, instead of helping them, will contribute to their condemnation.

4022. If men are so foolish as to reject Allah, let not the men of Allah grieve over it. They should do their duty, and leave the rest to Allah. Allah knows all the open and secret motives that sway the wicked and His Plan must ultimately prevail, however much appearances may be against it at any given time.

4023. Man's disobedience and folly are all the more surprising, seeing that—apart from Allah's greatness and mercy—man is himself such a puny creature, created out of something that is less than a drop in the vast ocean of Existence. Yet man has the hardihood to stand out and dispute with his Maker, and institute idle comparisons as in the next verse!

4024. That is, man thinks that Allah is like His creatures, who at best have very limited powers, or man draws idle parallels like that mentioned at the end of this verse. 'Who can give life to dry bones, and decomposed ones at that?' Man certainly cannot, and no power in nature can do that. But why compare the powers and capacities of Allah's creatures with the powers and capacities of the Creator? The first creation—out of nothing—is far more difficult for us to imagine than a second or subsequent process for which there is already a basis. And Allah has power over all things.

4025. Allah's creative artistry is evident in every phase of nature, and it works every minute or second. The more man understands himself and the things within his reach, the more he realises this. How foolish, then, for anyone to set imaginary limits to Allah's power? There are more ways of creation than are dreamt of in man's imagination.

4026. Even older and more primitive than the method of striking fire against steel and flint is the method of using twigs of trees for the purpose. In the E.B., 14th edition, 9:262, will be found a picture of British Guyana boys making a fire by rotating a stick in a round hole in a piece of wood lying on the ground. The Arab method was to use a wooden instrument called the Zinād. It consisted of two pieces to be rubbed together. The upper was called the 'Afār or Zand, and the lower the Markh. The markh is a twig from a kind of spreading tree, the Cynanchuin viminalis, of which the branches are bare, without leaves or thorns. When they are tangled together, and a wind blows, they get ignited and strike fire (Lane's Arabic Lexicon). In modern Arabic Zand is by analogy applied to the flint piece used for striking fire with steel.

4027. Cf. 89:27. Which is the more difficult to create—man, or the heavens and the earth, with all creatures? Allah created the heavens and the earth, with all creatures, and He can create worlds and worlds like these in infinity. To him it is small matter to raise you up for the Hereafter!

4028. And His creation is not dependent on time, on instruments or means, or any conditions whatsoever. Existence waits on His Will, or Plan, or Intention. The moment He wills a thing, it becomes His Word or Command, and the thing forthwith comes into existence. Cf. 2:177; 16:40, n. 2066; etc.

4029. All things were created by Allah; are maintained by Him; and will go back to Him. But the point of special interest to man is that man will also be brought back to Allah and is answerable to Him, and to Him alone. This Message is the core of Revelation; it explains the meaning of the Hereafter; and it fitly closes a Sūrah specially connected with the name (Yā Sīn) of the Holy Prophet.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 37—AL ŠAFFĀT

As explained in the Introduction to S. 34, this is the fourth of a series of Sūrahs in which the mysteries of the spiritual world are manifested in different ways, tending to the defeat and final extirpation of Evil. The defeat of Evil is throughout connected with Revelation, and here the ranged fight is illustrated by a reference to the angels in heaven and to the earlier Prophets in our earthly history, from Noah to Jonah. In chronology, this Sūrah belongs to the early middle Makkan period.

Summary—Through all the mysteries of the heavens and the earth, there is a sorting out of the evil against the good: their final destinations contrasted (37:1-74, and C. 197).

Peace and victory came to Noah, Abraham, Moses and Aaron, Ilyās and Lūṭ, in their conflict with Evil (37:75-138, and C. 198).

So was it with Jonah when he glorified Allah. But men will ascribe to Allah what is unworthy of Him: Allah's Prophets strive for His glory, and shall be victorious (37:139-182, and C. 199).

C. 197. — Allah is One, the Source and Centre
(37:1-74.) Of all affairs, and we must work
In discipline, harmony, and unity
To put down Evil. The Hereafter
Is sure, when personal responsibility
Will be enforced. For the true
And sincere servants of Allah,
There will be the highest Bliss,
Unmixed and everlasting:
For those who defy Allah's Law
There will be the deepest enduring
Misery. Which will men choose?

Sūrah 37.

Al Ṣāffāt (Those Ranged in Ranks)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ⁴⁰³⁰ By those who range
Themselves in ranks, ⁴⁰³¹

2. And so are strong

3. And thus proclaim

4. Verily, verily, your God

5. Lord of the heavens
And of the earth,
And all between them,

٥- رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا

4030. At a later stage, we shall study the general meaning of the adjurations in the Qur'ān indicated by the particle wa. See App. XI. Here we may note that the last Sūrah (Yā Sīn) practically began with the adjuration "by the Qur'ān, full of wisdom", emphasising the fact that Revelation was the evidence by which we could learn the highest wisdom of the spiritual world. Here our attention is called in three verses or clauses, to three definite attitudes which illustrate the triumph of Good and the frustration of Evil. See the notes following.

4031. Two questions arise: (1) are the doers of the three things noted in verses 1-3 the same persons, whose actions or qualities are differently described, or are they three distinct sets of persons? (2) in either case, who are they? As to (1) the most authoritative view is that the three clauses describe the same set of persons in different aspects. As to (2) some take them to refer to angels, and others understand by them the good men, the men of God, who strive and range themselves in Allah's service. The words are perfectly general, and I interpret them to refer to both classes. The feminine form is grammatically used in Arabic idiom for the indefinite plural. In 37:165 below, the word ṣāffūn is used in the definite plural, and seems to be spoken by these beings, angels or men of God or both, according to how we interpret this verse.

4032. The three acts in verses 1-3 are consecutive, as shown by the particle fa. I understand them to mean that angels and good men (1) are ever ready to range themselves in ranks in the service of Allah and work in perfect discipline and accord at all times; (2) that they check and frustrate evil wherever they find it and they are strengthened in doing so by their discipline and their ranging themselves in ranks; and (3) that this service furthers the Kingdom of Allah and proclaims His Message and His glory to all creation.

4033. That divine Message is summed up in the gospel of Divine Unity, on which the greatest emphasis is laid: "verily, verily your God is One". It is a fact intimately connected with our own life and destiny. 'Your Lord is one Who cares for you and cherishes you; you are dear to Him. And He is One: it is only He that you have to look to, the source of all goodness, love, and power. You are not the sport of many contending forces or blind chances. There is complete harmony and unity in heaven and you have to put yourselves into unison with it — by discipline in ranks, by unity of plan and purpose in repelling evil, and by concerted action in promoting the Kingdom of God.' Here is the mystery of the manifold variety of creation pointing to the absolute Unity of the Creator.

فَاتَّبَعَهُ شَهَابٌ ثَائِبٌ ۝

4034. Allah is the Lord of everything that exists –the heavens and the earth, and all between them'. He is the Lord of the Mashariq – of every point at the rising of the sun. As the Commentators tell us, there are in the solar year only two equinoctial days, when the sun rises due east: on every other the sun rises at a shifting point either north or south of due east. In 7:137 we have mashariq al ardi wa magharibahā, where the plural of the words for East and West is negligible, as the conjunction of the two embraces all points. The same may be said of 70:40, where Allah is called "Lord of all points in the East and the West". If we are speaking of longitudes, they may embrace all latitudes. In 55:17 Allah is called "Lord of the two Easts and the two Wests", referring to the extreme points in either case. A cursory reader may ask, why is only the East referred to here? The reply is that it is not so much the East as the rising of the sun, on which stress is laid. The Arabic mashriq or mashariq is close enough to the root word sharaqa, to suggest, not so much the East as the rising of the sun, especially when the plural form is used. The glorious sun rises from different points, as seen by us, but it illuminates the whole heaven and earth. It is an emblem of Unity.

4035. Cf. 67:8-9. [Eds.].

4037. Verses 7-11 seem to refer to shooting stars. Cf. 15:17-18, and notes 1951-53. The heavens typify not only beauty but power. The Good in Allah's world is guarded and protected against every assault of Evil. The Evil is not part of the heavenly system: it is a thing in outlawry, merely a self-willed rebellion—"cast away on every side, repulsed under a perpetual penalty" (verses 8-9).

4038. We can form a mental picture of the Court of the Most High, in the highest heaven, conforming to the highest idea we can form of goodness, beauty, purity, and grandeur. The Exalted Assembly of angels is given some knowledge of the Plan and Will of Allah. Evil is altogether foreign to such an atmosphere, but is actuated by feelings of jealousy and curiosity. It tries to approach by stealth and overhear something from the august Assembly. It is repulsed and pursued by a flaming fire, of which we can form some idea in our physical world by the piercing trail of a shooting star.

4039. See last note and Cf. 15:18 and notes 1953-54.

4040. Their: "they" are the doubters, the evil ones, the deniers of Allah's grace and mercy, who laugh at Revelation and disbelieve in a Hereafter. Are they more important or more difficult to create than the wonderful variety of beings in Allah's spacious Creation? Do they forget their own lowly state, as having been created from muddy clay?

4041. Cf. 6:2; 7:12; 32:7; etc.

4043. Although the Hereafter, and the spiritual life of which it is a corollary, are the most solid facts in our intelligent existence, materialists deny them. They cannot believe that they could have any existence beyond the grave—still less their ancestors who died ages and ages ago: how could they ever come to life again?

4044. They are assured that the future life is a solid fact, but that it will be in very different conditions from those they know now. All their present arrogance will have been humbled in the dust. There will be another plane, in which souls will have experiences quite different from those in their probationary life here. In that life the virtues they lacked will count, and the arrogance they hugged will be brought low.

Truth ye (once) denied!"

٢١- هَذَا يَوْمٌ
الْفَصْلِ الَّذِي كُنْتُمْ بِهِ تُكَذِّبُونَ

SECTION 2.

22. "Bring ye up",
It shall be said,
"The wrongdoers
And their wives,⁴⁰⁴⁸
And the things they worshipped —

٢٢- أُحْشَرُوا الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا
وَأَزْوَاجَهُمْ وَمَا كَانُوا يَعْبُدُونَ

23. "Besides Allah,
And lead them to the Way
To the (Fierce) Fire!

٢٣- مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ
فَاهْدُوهُمْ إِلَى صِرَاطِ الْجَحِيمِ

24. "But stop them,⁴⁰⁴⁹
For they must be asked:

٢٤- وَقِفُوهُمْ إِنَّهُمْ مَسْئُولُونَ

25. "What is the matter
With you that ye
Help not each other?"⁴⁰⁵⁰

٢٥- مَا لَكُمْ لَا تَنْصُرُونَ

4045. Cf. 36:29, 49, and 53.

4046. Their spiritual blindness will then leave them. But they will be surprised at the suddenness of their disillusion.

4047. The Day of Judgement is the day of sorting out. Cf. 36:59. Good and evil will finally be separated, unlike the apparently inexplicable conditions in the present probationary life, when they seem to be mixed together.

4048. That is, if their wives were also wrongdoers. They are separately mentioned, because the Arabic phrase for "wrongdoers" is of the masculine gender. All the associates in wrongdoing will be marshalled together. There will be personal responsibility: neither husband nor wife can lay the blame on the other.

4049. The scene here is after judgement. As, in an earthly tribunal, the prisoner or his advocate is asked why sentence should not be pronounced upon him, so here those who are proved to have been guilty of wrong are allowed to consider if anything or anyone can help them. Then comes the exposure of the misleaders.

4050. Obviously no one can stand and intercede, for it is a question of personal responsibility for each soul. No one can help another.

26. Nay, but that day they Shall submit (to Judgement);⁴⁰⁵¹

٢٦- بَلْ هُمْ الْيَوْمَ مُسْتَسْلِمُونَ ○

27. And they will turn to
One another, and question
One another.

٢٧- وَاقْبَلْ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ
يَتَسَاءَلُونَ ○

28. They will say: "It was ye
Who used to come to us
From the right hand
(Of power and authority)!"⁴⁰⁵²

٢٨- قَالُوا اانْتُمْ
كُنْتُمْ تَأْتُونَنَا عَنِ الْيَمِينِ ○

29. They will reply: "Nay, ye
Yourselves had no Faith!"⁴⁰⁵³

٢٩- قَالُوا بَلْ لَمْ تَكُونُوا مُؤْمِنِينَ ○

30. "Nor had we any authority
Over you. Nay, it was
Ye who were a people
In obstinate rebellion!

٣٠- وَمَا كَانَ لَنَا عَلَيْكُمْ مِنْ سُلْطٰنٍ
بَلْ كُنْتُمْ قَوْمًا طٰغِيْنَ ○

31. "So now has been proved true,⁴⁰⁵⁴
Against us, the Word
Of our Lord that we Shall indeed (have to) taste
(The punishment of our sins):

٣١- فَحَقَّ عَلَيْنَا قَوْلُ رَبِّنَا
اِنَّآ لَذٰلِقٰنَ ○

32. "We led you astray: for truly⁴⁰⁵⁵
We were ourselves astray."

٣٢- فَاغْوٰىكُمْ اِنَّا كُنَّا غٰوِيْنَ ○

4051. All the previous arrogance of this life will be gone, but they will face each other, and those who were given a false lead, as in the story of Pharaoh (Cf. 20:79), will question their misleaders as in the following verses.

4052. This is the mutual recrimination of the sinners — those who sinned, against those whose instigation or evil example led them into sin. The misleaders in the life here below often used their power and influence to spread evil. The "right hand" is the hand of power and authority. Instead of using it for righteous purposes, they used it for evil, — selfishly for their own advantage, and mischievously for the degradation of others.

4053. But the fact that others mislead, or that evil example is before us, does not justify us in falling from right conduct. Faith should save us from the fall. But if we have ourselves no Faith — in righteousness, or a future life, or the reality of Allah's Law, how can we blame others? The misleaders can well say, "You will be judged according to your misdeeds!" The responsibility is personal, and cannot be shifted on the other. The others may get a double punishment, — for their own evil, and for misleading their weaker brethren. But the weaker brethren cannot go free from responsibility of their own deeds; for evil means a personal rebellion against Allah, if we believe in a personal God. Evil has no authority over us, except insofar as we deliberately choose it.

4054. Allah's decree of justice requires that every soul should taste the consequences of its own sins, and that decree must be fulfilled. No excuses can serve. It is only Allah's mercy that can save.

4055. Further, the misleaders can well urge against those who reproach them for misleading them: "How could you expect anything better from us? You were warned by Allah's Message that we were astray."

33. Truly, that Day, they will
(All) share in the Penalty.
34. Verily that is how We Shall deal with Sinners.
35. For they, when they were Told that there is
No god except Allah, would
Puff themselves up with Pride,⁴⁰⁵⁶
36. And say: "What! Shall we Give up our gods
For the sake of
A Poet possessed?"⁴⁰⁵⁷
37. Nay! he has come
With the (very) Truth,
And he confirms (the Message
Of) the messengers (before him).⁴⁰⁵⁸
38. Ye shall indeed taste
Of the Grievous Penalty—
39. But it will be no more
Than the retribution⁴⁰⁵⁹
Of (the Evil) that ye
Have wrought—
40. But the sincere (and devoted)
Servants of Allah—
41. For them is a Sustenance⁴⁰⁶⁰
Determined,⁴⁰⁶¹

- ٣٣- فَإِنَّهُمْ يَوْمَئِذٍ فِي الْعَذَابِ مُشْتَرِكُونَ
- ٣٤- إِنْ أَتَاكَ نَفْعٌ بِالْمُجْرِمِينَ
- ٣٥- إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا إِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمْ
لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ
- ٣٦- وَيَقُولُونَ إِنَّمَا لَنَا تَارِكُوا إِلَهَتِنَا
لِشَاعِرٍ فُجِّنُونِ
- ٣٧- بَلْ جَاءَ بِالْحَقِّ
وَصَدَّقَ الْمُرْسَلِينَ
- ٣٨- إِنَّكُمْ لَذَاقُوا الْعَذَابَ الْأَلِيمَ
- ٣٩- وَمَا تُنْجِرُونَ
إِلَّا مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ
- ٤٠- إِلَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْمُخْلَصِينَ
- ٤١- أُولَئِكَ لَهُمْ رِزْقٌ مَعْلُومٌ

4056. Selfish arrogance was the seed of sin and rebellion: 2:34 (of Satan); 27:39 (of Pharaoh); etc. It is that kind of arrogance which prevents man from mending his life and conduct. When he speaks of ancestral ways, or public opinion, or national honour, he is usually thinking of himself or of a small clique which thrives on injustice. The recognition of Allah, the one true God, as the only standard of life and conduct, the Eternal Reality, cuts out Self, and is therefore disagreeable to Sin. If false gods are imagined, who themselves would have weaknesses that fit in with sin, they give countenance to evils, and it becomes difficult to give them up, unless Allah's grace comes to our assistance. (R).

4057. Possessed of an evil spirit, or mad. Such was the charge which the Unbelievers sometimes levelled at the Holy Prophet in the early stages of his preaching.

4058. The message of Islam, so far from being "mad" or in any way peculiar, is eminently conformable to reason and the true facts of nature as created by Allah. It is the Truth in the purest sense of the term, and confirms the Message of all true Messengers that ever lived.

4059. Justice demands that those who sow evil should reap the fruit, but the punishment is due to their own conduct and not to anything external to themselves.

4060. Sustenance: metaphorical sense, correlated with the Fruits mentioned below: see next verse.

4061. Determined: Ma'lūm: the reward of the Blessed will not be a chance or a fleeting thing. It will follow a firm Decree of Allah, on principles that can be known and understood.

42. Fruits (Delights);⁴⁰⁶² and they (Shall enjoy) honour and dignity,
43. In Gardens of Felicity,
44. Facing each other
On Thrones (of dignity):
45. Round will be passed
To them a Cup
From a clear-flowing fountain,
46. Crystal-white, of a taste
Delicious to those
Who drink (thereof),
47. Free from headiness;⁴⁰⁶³
Nor will they suffer
Intoxication therefrom.
48. And besides them will be
Chaste women; restraining
Their glances, with big eyes ⁴⁰⁶⁴
(Of wonder and beauty).
49. As if they were ⁴⁰⁶⁵
(Delicate) eggs closely guarded.
50. Then they will turn to
One another and question
One another.⁴⁰⁶⁶

٣٢- فَوَاكِهُ وَهُمْ مُكْرَمُونَ ۝

٣٣- فِي جَنَّاتِ النَّعِيمِ ۝

٣٤- عَلَى سُرُرٍ مُتَقَابِلِينَ ۝

٣٥- يُطَافُ عَلَيْهِمْ بِكَأْسٍ
مِنْ مَعِينٍ ۝

٣٦- بَيضَاءَ لَذَّةٍ لِلشَّارِبِينَ ۝

٣٧- لَا فِيهَا غَوْلٌ
وَلَا هُمْ عَنْهَا يُنْزَفُونَ ۝

٣٨- وَعِنْدَهُمْ قَصِيرَاتُ
الْظُّرُفِ عِينٌ ۝

٣٩- كَأَنَّهُنَّ بَيْضٌ مَكْنُونٌ ۝

٤٠- فَاقْبَلْ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ
يَتَسَاءَلُونَ ۝

4062. Fruits: Cf. 36:57, and n. 4003. The spiritual Delights are figured forth from parallel experiences in our present life, and follow an ascending order: Food and Fruits; Gardens of Bliss, (with all their charm, design, greenery, birds' songs, fountains, etc.); the Home of Happiness and Dignity, with congenial company seated on Thrones; Delicious Drinks from crystal Springs, for social pleasure; and the society of Companions of the opposite sex, with beauty and charm but none of the grossness too often incidental to such companionship in this life.

4063. The passing round of the social cup, as in the case of other pleasures, is without any of the drawbacks and evil accompaniments of the pleasures of this world, which are taken as types. In drink there is no intoxication: in fruit there is no satiety. Cf. Dante: "The bread of Angels upon which One liveth here and grows not sated by it." (Paradiso, Canto II., Longfellow's translation.)

4064. In the emblem used here, again, the pure type of chaste womanhood is figured. They are chaste, not bold with their glances: but their eyes are big with wonder and beauty, prefiguring grace, innocence, and a refined capacity of appreciation and admiration.

4065. This is usually understood to refer to the delicate complexion of a beautiful woman, which is compared to the transparent shell of eggs in the nest, closely guarded by the mother-bird; the shell is warm and free from stain. In 55:58 the phrase used is "like rubies and coral", referring to the red or pink of a beautiful complexion.

4066. Cf. above, 37:27, where the same phrase is used in the reverse conditions. In each case there is a going back to the earlier memories or experiences of this life.

51. One of them will start
The talk and say:
"I had an intimate
Companion (on the earth),⁴⁰⁶⁷

٥١- قَالَ قَائِلٌ مِّنْهُمْ
إِنِّي كَانَ لِي قَرِينٌ ۝

52. "Who used to say,
'What! art thou amongst those
Who bear witness to
The truth (of the Message)?

٥٢- يَقُولُ أَإِنَّكَ
لَمِنَ الْمُصَدِّقِينَ ۝

53. "'When we die and become
Dust and bones, shall we
Indeed receive rewards
And punishments?'"

٥٣- عِذَا مِتْنَا وَكُنَّا تُرَابًا وَعِظَامًا
إِنَّا لَنَكُونُونَ ۝

54. (A voice) said: "Would ye
Like to look down?"

٥٤- قَالَ هَلْ أَنْتُمْ مُطَّلِعُونَ ۝

55. He looked down
And saw him
In the midst of the Fire.⁴⁰⁶⁸

٥٥- فَاطْلَمَ
فَرَأَاهُ فِي سَوَاءِ الْجَحِيمِ ۝

56. He said: "By Allah!
Thou wast little short
Of bringing me to perdition!

٥٦- قَالَ تَاللَّهِ
إِنْ كَذَّبْتُ لَكُلِّدْرِينَ ۝

57. "Had it not been for
The Grace of my Lord,⁴⁰⁶⁹
I should certainly have been
Among those brought (there)!

٥٧- وَلَوْلَا رَحْمَةُ رَبِّي
لَكُنْتُ مِنَ الْمُخْضَرِّينَ ۝

58. "Is it (the case) that
We shall not die,

٥٨- أَفَمَا نَحْنُ بِمَيِّتِينَ ۝

59. "Except our first death,
And that *we*⁴⁰⁷⁰
Shall not be punished?"

٥٩- إِلَّا مَوْتَنَا الْأُولَى
وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمُعَذَّبِينَ ۝

4067. This companion was a sceptic, who laughed at Religion and a Hereafter. How the tables are now turned! The devout man backed up his Faith with a good life and is now in Bliss: the other was a cynic and made a mess of his life, and is now burning in the Fire.(R)

4068. He is allowed a peep into the state which he so narrowly escaped by the grace of Allah.

4069. And he gratefully acknowledges his shortcomings: "I should have been a sinner just like this, but for the grace of Allah!" He sees that if he had erred it would have been no excuse to plead the other man's example. He had Faith and was saved, to walk in the path of righteousness.

4070. After he realises the great danger from which he narrowly escaped, his joy is so great that he can hardly believe it! Is the danger altogether past now? Are the portals of death closed forever? Is he safe now from the temptations which will bring him to ruin and punishment?

60. Verily this is
The supreme achievement!⁴⁰⁷¹
61. For the like of this
Let all strive,
Who wish to strive.
62. Is that the better entertainment
Or the Tree of Zaqqūm?⁴⁰⁷²
63. For We have truly
Made it (as) a trial⁴⁰⁷³
For the wrongdoers.
64. For it is a tree
That springs out
Of the bottom of Hellfire:
65. The shoots of its fruit-stalks
Are like the heads
Of devils:
66. Truly they will eat thereof⁴⁰⁷⁴
And fill their bellies therewith.
67. Then on top of that
They will be given
A mixture made of Boiling water.

٦٠- إِنَّ هَذَا لَهِوَ الْقَوْمِ الْعَظِيمِ ۝

٦١- لِيَسْتَلِ هَذَا
فَلْيَعْمَلَ الْعَمَلُونَ ۝

٦٢- أَذَلِكَ خَيْرٌ تُزَلُّ لَهُ أَمْ شَجَرَةُ الزَّقُّومِ ۝

٦٣- إِنَّا جَعَلْنَاهَا فِتْنَةً لِلظَّالِمِينَ ۝

٦٤- إِنَّهَا شَجَرَةٌ
تَخْرُجُ فِي أَصْلِ الْجَحِيمِ ۝

٦٥- طَلْعُهَا
كَأَنَّهُ رُءُوسُ الشَّيَاطِينِ ۝

٦٦- فَإِنَّهُمْ لَا يَكْلُونُ مِنْهَا قَدَأُلُونُ مِنْهَا الْبُطُونَ ۝

٦٧- ثُمَّ إِنَّ لَهُمْ عَلَيْهَا
لَشَوْبًا مِّنْ حَيِّمٍ ۝

4071. The answer is: Yes. "Beyond the flight of Time, Beyond the realm of Death. There surely is some blessed clime, Where Life is not a breath!" In the words of Longfellow this was an aspiration on this earth. In the Hereafter it is a realisation!

Some interpret verses 60-62 as a continuation of the speech of the man in heaven. The meaning would in that case be the same.

4072. Cf. 17:60, n. 2250. This bitter tree of Hell is a symbol of the contrast with the beautiful Garden of heaven with its delicious fruits.

4073. This dreadful bitter Tree of Hell is truly a trial to the wrongdoers. (1) It grows at the bottom of Hell; (2) even its fruit-stalks, which should have been tender, are like the heads of devils; (3) its produce is eaten voraciously; (4) on top of it is a boiling mixture to cut up their entrails (see next note); and (5) every time they complete this round of orgies they return to the same game. A truly lurid picture, but more lurid in reality are the stages in spiritual Evil. (1) It takes its rise in the lowest depths of corrupted human nature; (2) its tenderest affections are degraded to envy and hate; (3) the appetite for Evil grows with what it feeds on; (4) its "cures" serve but to aggravate the disease; and (5) the chain of evil is unending; one round is followed by another in interminable succession.

4074. The parable of fruits and drinks in the contrasted fortunes of the Good and the Evil is further elaborated in 47:15, where the boiling water given to the evil ones cuts up their entrails.

68. Then shall their return⁴⁰⁷⁵
Be to the (Blazing) Fire.
69. Truly they found their fathers
On the wrong Path;
70. So they (too) were rushed⁴⁰⁷⁶
Down on their footsteps!
71. And truly before them,
Many of the ancients
Went astray—
72. But We sent aforetime,⁴⁰⁷⁷
Among them, (messengers)
To admonish them—
73. Then see what was
The End of those who⁴⁰⁷⁸
Were admonished
(but heeded not)—
74. Except the sincere (and devoted)⁴⁰⁷⁹
Servants of Allah.

٧٨- ثُمَّ إِنَّهُمْ رُجِعُهُمْ إِلَى الْجَحِيمِ ۝

٧٩- إِنَّهُمْ أَفْوَا أَبَاءَهُمْ ضَالِّينَ ۝

٨٠- فَهُمْ عَلَىٰ أَثَرِهِمْ يُهْرَعُونَ ۝

٨١- وَلَقَدْ ضَلَّ قَبْلَهُمْ
أَكْثَرُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ۝

٨٢- وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا فِيهِمْ مُنْذِرِينَ ۝

٨٣- فَأَنْظُرْ كَيْفَ
كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُنْذَرِينَ ۝

٨٤- إِلَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْمُخْلَصِينَ ۝

C. 198. — The Prophets of Allah formed a series
(37:75-138.) That worked in Allah's service to instruct
Their fellow-men. In case of distress
Allah helped and delivered them. Men did flout
And persecute them, but they carried out
Their mission with constancy; and Allah's Purpose
Always won, to the destruction of Evil.
So was it in the story of Noah and the Flood,

4075. When they eat of the zaqqūm in the lowest depths of hell, they are apparently brought up to drink of the mixture as a further punishment, after which they go back to repeat the round.

4076. A grim reproach. 'You found your fathers doing wrong; and you must rush headlong in their footsteps to perdition!'

4077. It is human to err. The error is forgiven if there is repentance and amendment. The point is that Allah in His mercy at all times in history sent messengers and teachers to give His Message, and men deliberately rejected that Message.

4078. It is on the reception or rejection of Allah's teachings and guidance that judgement will come. In this world itself, see what is the teaching of history. Unrighteousness and wrongdoing never prosper in the long run.

4079. But there is always a band of sincere and devoted men who serve Allah, and the highest spiritual life is open to them.

Note that this verse occurs at 37:40 above, where the argument of the difference between the fates of the righteous and the unrighteous was begun. Here it is rounded off with the same phrase, and now we proceed to take illustrations from the early Prophets.

Of Abraham the True, of Ismā'il
 Ready for self-sacrifice, of Isaac
 The righteous, of Moses and Aaron, of Elias
 And Lot: all men of Faith, who receive
 The blessings of posterity and Peace
 And Salutation from Allah Most Gracious.

4080. Cf. 21:76-77. The story of Noah occurs in many places; here the point is that when men gird themselves against evil, Allah protects them, and Evil cannot triumph against Allah's Plan.

4081. The Deluge, the Flood of Noah. The main story will be found in 11:25-48.

4082. Noah's posterity survived the Flood in the Ark, while the rest perished.

4083. His name is remembered forever, commencing a new era in religious history. Note that the words in verses 78-81, with slight modifications, form a sort of refrain to the following paragraphs about Abraham, Moses, and Elias, but not about Lot and Jonah. Lot was a nephew of Abraham, and may be supposed to belong to the story of Abraham. Jonah's career nearly ended in a tragedy for himself, and his people got a further lease of power "for a time" (37:148). And both Lot and Jonah belong to a limited local tradition.

4084. The story of the Flood is found in some form or other among all nations, and not only among those who follow the Mosaic tradition. In Greek tradition the hero of the flood is Deukalion, with his wife Pyrrha; in Hindu tradition (Shatapatha Brāhmaṇa and Mahābhārata) it is the sage Manū and the Fish. The Chinese tradition of a great Flood is recorded in Shū-King. Among American Indians the tradition was common to many tribes.

82. Then the rest We overwhelmed
In the Flood.

٨٢. ثُمَّ أَغْرَقْنَا الْآخَرِينَ ۝

83. Merely among those Who followed his Way
Was Abraham.⁴⁰⁸⁵

٨٣. وَإِن مِّن شَيْعَةٍ لِّإِبْرَاهِيمَ ۝

84. Behold, he approached his Lord
With a sound heart.⁴⁰⁸⁶

٨٤. إِذْ جَاءَ رَبَّهُ بِقَلْبٍ سَلِيمٍ ۝

85. Behold, he said to his father
And to his people, "What
Is that which ye worship?"

٨٥. إِذْ قَالَ لِأَبِيهِ وَقَوْمِهِ
مَاذَا تَعْبُدُونَ ۝

86. "Is it a Falsehood—
Gods other than Allah
That ye desire?"⁴⁰⁸⁷

٨٦. أَوْفَكَ
لِلْهَةِ دُونَ اللَّهِ تُرِيدُونَ ۝

87. "Then what is your idea
About the Lord of the Worlds?"⁴⁰⁸⁸

٨٧. فَمَا ظَنُّكُمْ بِرَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝

88. Then did he cast
A glance at the Stars,

٨٨. فَتَنَظَّرَ نَظْرَةً فِي النُّجُومِ ۝

89. And he said, "I am
Indeed sick (at heart)!"⁴⁰⁸⁹

٨٩. فَقَالَ إِنِّي سَقِيمٌ ۝

90. So they turned away
From him, and departed.

٩٠. فَتَوَلَّوْا عَنْهُ مُدْبِرِينَ ۝

91. Then did he turn
To their gods and said,

٩١. فَرَأَى إِلَى إِلَهِتِهِمْ فَقَالَ

4085. The main story will be found in 21:51-73; but the episode about his readiness and that of his son to submit to the most extreme form of self-sacrifice under trial (in verses 102-107 below) is told here for the first time, as this Sūrah deals with the theme, "Not my will, but Thine be done!" In "followed his way", the pronoun "his" refers to Noah, "he", of verse 81 above.

4086. "A sound heart"; qalb salīm: a heart that is pure, and unaffected by the diseases that afflict others. As the heart in Arabic is taken to be not only the seat of feelings and affections, but also of intelligence and resulting action, it implies the whole character. Cf. Abraham's title of Ḥanīf (the True); 2:135 and n. 134. Cf. also 26:89: "only he will prosper who brings to Allah a sound heart."

4087. False worship—worship of idols or stars or symbols, or Mammon or Self—is due either to false and degrading conceptions of Allah, or to a sort of make-believe, where practice is inconsistent with knowledge or ignores the inner promptings of Conscience. Abraham's challenge to his people is: 'Are you fools or hypocrites?'

4088. 'Do you not realise that the real Creator is One—above all the forms and superstitions that you associate with Him?'

4089. The grief was really preying on his mind and soul, that he should be associated with such falsehoods. His father himself was among the chief supporters of such falsehoods, and his people were given up wholly to them. He could not possibly share in their mummeries, and they left him in disgust. Then he made his practical protest in the manner narrated in 21:56-64.

4091. With the right hand: as the right hand is the hand of power, the phrase means that he struck them with might and main and broke them.

4092. His action was a challenge, and he drives home the challenge now with argument. 'Do you worship your own handiwork? Surely worship is due to Him Who made you and made possible your handiwork!'

4093. The argument of Abraham was so sound that it could not be met by argument. In such cases Evil resorts to violence, or secret plotting. Here there was both violence and secret plotting. The violence consisted in throwing him into a blazing Furnace. But by the mercy of Allah the fire did not harm him (21:69), and so they resorted to plotting. But the plotting, as the next verse (37:98) shows, was a boomerang that recoiled on their own heads.

4094. Cf. 21:71. Their plot against the righteous Abraham failed. Abraham migrated from the country (Chaldea, Babylon, and Assyria) and prospered in Syria and Palestine. It was his persecutors that suffered humiliation.

4095. This was the Hijrah of Abraham. He left his people and his land, because the Truth was dearer to him than the ancestral falsehoods of his people. He trusted himself to Allah, and under Allah's guidance he laid the foundations of great peoples. See n. 2725 to 21:69.

4096. This was in the fertile land of Syria and Palestine. The boy thus born was, according to Muslim tradition, (which however is not unanimous on this point), the first-born son of Abraham, viz., Ismā'īl. The name itself is from the root Sami'a, to hear, because Allah had heard Abraham's prayer (verse 100). Abraham's age when Ismā'īl was born was 86 (Gen. xvi. 16).

4097. The boy's character was to be Ḥalīm, which I have translated "ready to suffer and forbear". This title is also applied to Abraham (in 9:114 and 11:75). It refers to the patient way in which both father and son cheerfully offered to suffer any self-sacrifice in order to obey the Command of Allah. See next verse.

4098. Where did this vision occur? The Muslim view is that it was in or near Makkah. Some would identify it with the valley of Minā, six miles north of Makkah, where a commemoration sacrifice is annually celebrated as a rite of the Hajj on the tenth of Dhu al Hijjah, the 'Id of Sacrifice, in memory of this Sacrifice of Abraham and Ismā'īl (see n. 217 to 2:197). Others say that the original place of sacrifice was near the hill of Marwah (the companion hill to Safā, 2:158), which is associated with the infancy of Ismā'īl.

4099. At what stage in Abraham's history did this occur? See n. 2725 to 21:69. It was obviously after his arrival in the land of Cannan and after Ismā'īl had grown up to years of discretion. Was it before or after the building of the Ka'bah (2:127)? There are no data on which this question can be answered. But we may suppose it was before that event, and that event may itself have been commemorative.

4100. Note that the sacrifice was demanded of both Abraham and Ismā'īl. It was a trial of the will of the father and the son. By way of trial the father had the command conveyed to him in a vision. He consulted the son. The son readily consented, and offered to stand true to his promise if his self-sacrifice was really required. The whole thing is symbolical. Allah does not require the flesh and blood of animals (22:37), much less of human beings. But he does require the giving of our whole being to Allah, the symbol of which is that we should give up something very dear to us, if Duty requires that sacrifice. (R).

4101. Our version may be compared with the Jewish-Christian version of the present Old Testament. The Jewish tradition, in order to glorify the younger branch of the family, descended from Isaac, ancestor of the Jews, as against the elder branch, descended from Ismā'īl, ancestor of the Arabs, refers this sacrifice to Isaac (Gen. xxii. 1-18). Now Isaac was born when Abraham was 100 years old (Gen. xxi. 5), while Ismā'īl was born to Abraham when Abraham was 86 years old (Gen. xvi. 16). Ismā'īl was therefore 14 years older than Isaac. During his first 14 years Ismā'īl was the only son of Abraham; at no time was Isaac the only son of Abraham. Yet, in speaking of the sacrifice, the Old Testament says (Gen. xxii. 2): 'And He said, Take now thy son, thine only son Issac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of Moriah: and offer him there for a burnt offering. . . ' This slip shows at any rate which was the older version, and how it was overlaid, like the present Jewish records, in the interests of a tribal religion. The "land of Mōriah" is not clear: it was three days' journey from Abraham's place (Gen. xxii. 4). There is less warrant for identifying it with the hill of Moriah on which Jerusalem was afterwards built than with the hill of Marwah which is identified with the Arab tradition about Ismā'īl.

4102. In the Biblical version Isaac's consent is not taken: in fact Isaac asks, 'where is the lamb for sacrifice?' and is told that 'God would provide it'. It is a complete human sacrifice like those to Moloch. In our version it is as much a sacrifice by the will of Ismā'īl as by that of Abraham. And in any case it is symbolic: "this was obviously a trial"; "thou hast already fulfilled thy vision": etc.

4103. The adjective qualifying "sacrifice" here, ʿazīm, (great, momentous) may be understood both in a literal and a figurative sense. In a literal sense it implies that a fine sheep or ram was substituted symbolically. The figurative sense is even more important. It was indeed a great and momentous occasion, when two men, with concerted will, "ranged themselves in the ranks" of those to whom self-sacrifice in the service of Allah was the supreme thing in life. In this sense, said Jesus, "he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it", (Matt. x. 39). (R).

4105. Isaac was Abraham's second son, born of Sarah, when Abraham was 100 years of age. See n. 4101. He was also blessed and became the ancestor of the Jewish people. See next note.

4106. So long as the Children of Israel upheld the righteous banner of Allah, they enjoyed Allah's blessing and their history is a portion of sacred history. When they fell from grace, they did not stop Allah's Plan: they injured their own souls.

4107. The story of Moses is told in numerous passages of the Qur'ān. The passages most illustrative of the present passage will be found in 28:4 (oppression of the Israelites in Egypt) and 20:77-79 (the Israelites triumphant over their enemies when the latter were drowned in the Red Sea).

4108. What could have been a greater calamity to them than that they should have been held in slavery by the Egyptians, that their male children should have been killed and their female children should have been saved alive for the Egyptians?

4109. The Israelites were delivered by three steps mentioned in verses 114, 115, and 116 respectively; but the consummation of Allah's favour on them was (verses 117-118) the Revelation given to them, which guided them on the Straight Way, so long as they preserved the Revelation intact and followed its precepts. The three steps were: (1) the divine commission to Moses and Aaron; (2) the deliverance from bondage; and (3) the triumphant crossing of the Red Sea and the destruction of Pharaoh's army.

4110. Mustabīn has a slightly different force from Mubīn. I have translated the former by "which helps to make things clear", and the latter by "which makes things clear"—apt descriptions as applied to the Tawrah and the Qur'ān.

4111. See above, 37:78-81 and n. 4083.

4112. See n. 905 to 6:85. Elias is the same as Elijah, whose story will be found in the Old Testament in 1 Kings xvii-xix. and 2 Kings i-ii. Elijah lived in the reign of Ahab (B.C. 896-874) and Ahaziah (B.C. 874-872), kings of the (northern) kingdom of Israel or Samaria. He was a prophet of the desert, like John the Baptist—unlike our Holy Prophet, who took part in, controlled, and guided all the affairs of his people. Both Ahab and Ahaziah were prone to lapse into the worship of Ba'l, the sun-god worshipped in Syria. That worship also included the worship of nature-powers and procreative powers, as in the Hindu worship of the Lingam, and led to many abuses. King Ahab had married a princess of Sidon, Jezebel, a wicked woman who led her husband to forsake Allah and adopt Ba'l-worship. Elijah denounced all Ahab's sins as well as the sins of Ahaziah and had to flee for his life. Eventually, according to the Old Testament (2 Kings, ii-11) he was taken up in a whirlwind to heaven in a chariot of fire after he had left his mantle with Elisha the prophet. (R).

4113. For Ba'l-worship see last note.

4114. They persecuted him and he had to flee for his life. Eventually he disappeared mysteriously; see n. 4112.

4115-A. Ilyāsīn may be an alternative form of Ilyās: Cf. Saynā'a (23:20) and Sīnīn (95:2). Or it may be the plural of Ilyās, meaning "such people as Ilyās".

4116. The best illustration of this passage about Lūṭ will be found in 7:80-84. He was a prophet sent to Sodom and Gomorrah, Cities of the Plain, by the Dead Sea. The inhabitants were given over to abominable crimes, against which he preached. They insulted him and threatened to expel him. But Allah in His mercy saved him and his family, with one exception, (see the following note), and then destroyed the Cities.

4117. Cf. 7:83, and n. 1051. Lot's wife had no faith: she lagged behind, and perished in the general ruin.

4118. Cf. 15:76, and 1998. The tract where they lay is situated on the highway to Syria where the Arab caravans travelled regularly, "by day and by night". Could not future generations learn wisdom from the destruction of those who did wrong?

4119. For illustrative passages, see 21:87-88, n. 2744, and 67:48-50. Jonah's mission was to the city of Nineveh, then steeped in wickedness. He was rejected and he denounced Allah's wrath on them, but they repented and obtained Allah's forgiveness. But Jonah "departed in wrath" (21:87), forgetting that Allah has Mercy as well as forgiveness. See the notes following, Cf. 10:98, n. 1478.

4120. Jonah ran away from Nineveh like a slave from captivity. He should have stuck to his post and merged his own will in Allah's Will. He was hasty, and went off to take a ship. As if he could escape from Allah's Plan!

4121. The ship was fully laden and met foul weather. The sailors, according to their superstition, wanted to find out who was responsible for the ill-luck: a fugitive slave would cause such ill-luck. The lot fell on Jonah, and he was cast off.

4122. The rivers of Mesopotamia have some huge fishes. The word used here is Hūt, which may be a fish or perhaps a crocodile. If it were in an open northern sea, it might be a whale. The locality is not mentioned: in the Old Testament he is said to have taken ship in the port of Joppa (now Jaffa) in the Mediterranean (Jonah. i. 3), which would be not less than 600 miles from Nineveh. The Tigris river, mentioned by some of our Commentators, is more likely, and it contains some fishes of extraordinary size.

4123. See n. 4120.

4124. "But he cried through the depths of darkness, 'There is no god but Thee; glory to Thee! I was indeed wrong!'" (21:87).

144. He would certainly have Remained inside the Fish⁴¹²⁵

So We permitted them

١٤٨- فَاٰمَنُوْا
فَسَخَّعْنٰهُمْ اِلٰی حَبِیْنٍ ۝

149. Now ask them their opinion:⁴¹²⁹
Is it that thy Lord
Has (only) daughters, and they
Have sons?—

١٤٩- فَاسْتَغْفِرْهُمْ
اَلرَّبِّکَ الْبَنَاتُ وَلَهُمُ الْبَنُوْنَ ۝

150. Or that We created
The angels female, and they
Are witnesses (thereto)?

١٥٠- اَمْ خَلَقْنَا
الْمَلٰٓئِکَةَ اِنَاثًا وَهُمْ شٰهِدُوْنَ ۝

4125. This is just the idiom. This was to be the burial and the grave of Jonah. If he had not repented, he could not have got out of the body of the creature that had swallowed him, until the Day of Resurrection, when all the dead would be raised up.

4126. Cf. 37:89 above. His strange situation might well have caused him to be ill. He wanted fresh air and solitude. He got both in the open plain, and the abundantly shady Gourd Plant or some fruitful tree like it gave him both shade and sustenance. The Gourd is a creeper that can spread over any roof or ruined structure.

4127. The city of Nineveh was a very large city. The Old Testament says: "Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey" (Jonah, iii. 3); "wherein are more than six score thousand persons" (Jonah, iv. 11). In other words its circuit was about 45 miles, and its population was over a hundred and twenty thousand inhabitants.

4128. They repented and believed, and Nineveh got a new lease of life. For the dates to which Jonah may be referred, and the vicissitudes of the City's history as the seat of the Assyrian Empire, see notes 1478-79 to 10:98.

The lessons from Jonah's story are: (1) that no man should take upon himself to judge of Allah's wrath or Allah's mercy; (2) that nevertheless Allah forgives true repentance, whether in a righteous man, or in a wicked city; and (3) that Allah's Plan will always prevail, and can never be defeated.

4129. We begin a new argument here. The Pagan Arabs called angels daughters of Allah. They themselves were ashamed of having daughters, and preferred to have sons, to add to their power and dignity. See 16:57-59, and n. 2082. Yet they invented daughters for Allah!

151. Is it not that they Say, from their own invention,

But they are liars!
153. Did He (then) choose⁴¹³¹
Daughters rather than sons?

With you? How judge ye?
155. Will ye not then

4130. Any attribution to Allah of ideas derogatory to His Oneness and His supreme height above all creatures is likely to degrade our own conception of Allah's Universal Plan, and is condemned in the strongest terms.

4131. There is the strongest irony in this passage.

4132. The angels are at least pure beings engaged in the service of Allah. But the Pagan superstitions not only connect them with Allah as daughters but even connect Allah by relationship with all kinds of spirits, good or evil! In some mythologies the most evil powers are gods or goddesses as if they belonged to the family of Allah the Creator and had some semblance of equality with Him! This, too, is repudiated in the strongest terms.

For Jinns see n. 929 to 6:100.

4133. Those sincere in devotion to Allah never ascribe such degrading ideas to Allah.

169. "We should certainly have
Been Servants of Allah,⁴¹³⁷
Sincere (and devoted)!"

١٦٩- لَكُنَّا عِبَادَ اللَّهِ الْمُخْلِصِينَ ۝

4134. Evil has no power over faith, truth, and sincerity. Such power as it has is over those who deliberately put themselves in the way of Destruction. It is their own will that leads them astray. If they were fortified against Evil by Faith, Patience, and Constancy, Evil would have no power to hurt them. Allah would protect them.

4135. To round off the argument of the Sūrah we go back to the idea with which it began. Those who range themselves in ranks for the united service of Allah (see above, 37:1 and n. 4031)—whether angels or men of God—are content to keep their ranks and do whatever service is assigned to them. It is not for them to question Allah's Plan, because they know that it is good and that it will ultimately triumph. Any seeming delays or defeats do not worry them. Nor do they ever break their ranks.

4136. There were the sceptics or Unbelievers—primarily the Pagan Arabs, but in a more extended sense, all who doubt Allah's providence or revelation.

4137. Such men take refuge in ancestral tradition. 'If our forefathers had had an inkling of Revelation or miracles, or had worshipped as we are now taught to worship, we should gladly have accepted. Or if they had had anything of the miracles which other nations of old are said to have received, we could then have accepted.' But now stronger and more convincing proofs have come to them in the Qur'ān in their own tongue, and they doubt and reject it.

170. But (now that the Qur'ān
Has come), they reject it;
But soon will they know!⁴¹³⁸

Were warned (and heeded not)!

١٤٧- فَإِذَا انزَلَ بِسَاحَتِهِمْ

4138. Allah's Truth will manifest itself against all odds, and the whole world will see.

4139. The victory will be the victory of Allah's Truth by the forces of Allah, but every soldier in the army of Truth, who has done his duty, will be entitled to claim a share in the victory.

4140. Addressed in the first instance to the Holy Prophet, but good for all time. He was not to be discouraged by his initial failures. Soon came victory to him from Allah. So is it always in the struggles of truth and righteousness. The righteous can afford to ignore opposition, confident in the strength which comes from the Grace of Allah.

4141. Watch and wait, for the Right must come to its own.

4142. The last verse enjoined Patience under the attacks of Evil, in the knowledge that evil must be conquered at last. Evil may perhaps turn back scoffingly and say. 'If a punishment is to come, why not bring it on now? Why indeed? The answer is: when it comes, it will come like a rush by night when the enemy is overpowered, when he least expects it: when the day dawns, it is a sorry plight in which the enemy finds himself. Cf. 22:47, and n. 2826: and 26:204, n. 3230.

4143. See last note. The parable is that of an enemy camp in a plain, which is surprised and destroyed by a night attack from the hills. Evil is the plight of any survivors in the morning. Their regrets will be all the more poignant if they had had some sort of a warning before hand and had paid no heed to it!

178. So turn thou away⁴¹⁴⁴
From them for a little while,
179. And watch (how they fare)
And they soon shall see
(How thou farest)!
180. Glory to thy Lord,⁴¹⁴⁵
The Lord of Honour
And Power! (He is free)
From what they ascribe
(To Him)!
181. And Peace on the Messengers
182. And Praise to Allah,
The Lord and Cherisher
Of the Worlds.

١٨١- وَسَلَامٌ عَلَى الْمُرْسَلِينَ ۝

١٨٢- وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝

4144. This and the following verse repeat verses 174-75 (with a slight verbal alteration). The argument in verses 176-77 brought in a new point. When that is finished, the repetition carries us back to the main argument, and rounds off the whole Sūrah.

4145. This and the following two verses recapitulate: (1) Glory, Honour, and Power belong to Allah; (2) No one is equal to Him; (3) He sends Messengers and revelations, and His aid will overcome all obstacles; for (4) He loves and cherishes all His Creation.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 38—ṢĀD

For the place of this Sūrah in the series of six, dealing with some of the mysteries of the spiritual world, see Introduction to S. 34.

This Sūrah, both in chronology and subject matter, is cognate to S. 37, and carries forward the same argument. But here the emphasis is laid on the working of earthly power when combined with spiritual power, and it is pointed out how much more significant (and real) spiritual power is. For this reason the illustrative stories are mainly those of David and Solomon who were kings as well as prophets, and a parallel is suggested with the unfolding public life of our Holy Prophet.

Summary—Worldly and evil men are surprised at the renewal of Truth and Righteousness: but righteousness has more power than worldly strength, as is seen in the story of kings like David, who had both (38:1-26, and C. 201).

So also Solomon loved the Lord more than worldly power, which may be good but may be misused by evil men; so also Job and other men of power and insight, chose the path of final bliss rather than final misery (38:27-64, and C. 201).

So also in the case of the final Messenger; his Gospel of Unity must triumph over all Jealousy and Arrogance in God's good time (38:65-88, and C. 202).

C. 200. — Self-glory and Separatism, these (38:1-26.) Are among the roots of Evil, also Envy
 And Suspicion. Not all the combinations
 Of Evil can for a moment reverse
 Allah's Purpose or His Justice. David,
 Endowed with worldly Power and the Virtues
 Had yet to purge himself of the thought
 Of Self-glory, which he did; and thus
 He became one of those nearest to Allah.

Sūrah 38.

Ṣād

3. How many generations

4. So they wonder

4146. Ṣād is a letter of the Arabic alphabet. It is used here as an Abbreviated Letter, for which see Appendix I (at the end of Sūrah 2:). See also the second para. of n. 989 to 7:1 for this particular letter. No dogmatism is permissible in trying to interpret Abbreviated Letters. But it is suggested that it may stand for Qaṣas ("Stories"), in which the dominant consonant is ṣ. For this Sūrah is concerned mainly with the stories of David and Solomon as illustrative of the relative positions of spiritual and worldly power. Sale's note: "It may stand for Solomon": is a real howler: for in Arabic the letter Ṣād does not occur at all in the name of Solomon.

4147. Full of admonition: the word dhikr is far more comprehensive than any single word or phrase that I can think of in English: it implies (1) remembrance in a spirit of reverence; (2) recital, celebrating the praises of God; (3) teaching, admonition, warning; (4) Message, Revelation, as in Ahl al dhikr, "those who possess the Message" 16:43, and n. 2069). In Sūfī phraseology it implies mystical enlightenment, both the aspiration and the attainment, for in the highest spiritual atmosphere, the two are one. Devotional exercises are also called dhikr, with reference to meaning (2) above.

4148. The great root of Evil and Unbelief is Self-glory or Arrogance, as is pointed out in several places with regard to Satan: cf, below, 38:74-76. This leads to Envy and Separatism, or a desire to start a peculiar doctrine or sect of one's own, instead of a desire to find common grounds of belief and life, which lead to the Religion of Unity in Allah. This teaching of Unity was what the Pagans objected to in the Holy Prophet (verse 5 below)

4149. Teaching, Warning, Signs have been given by Allah to all nations and at all times, and yet nations have rebelled and gone wrong and suffered destruction. If only later generations could learn that wrongdoing results in self-destruction! For the justice of Allah merely carries out the result of their own choice and actions. At any time during their probation they could repent and obtain mercy, but their "Self-glory and Separatism" stand in the way. Ultimately they do cry for a way of escape, but it is then too late.

8. "What! Has the Message

But they are in doubt

٨- أُنْزِلَ عَلَيْهِ الذِّكْرُ مِنْ بَيْنِنَا^٥
بَلْ هُمْ فِي شَكٍّ

4150. Their wonder is only stimulated. They are full of envy and spite against one of themselves who has been chosen by Allah to be His Messenger, and they vent their spite by making all sorts of false accusations. The man who was pre-eminent for truth and conscientious consideration, they call "a sorcerer and a liar"!

4151. And what is the offence of the Messenger of Unity? That he has made all their fantastic gods disappear: that in place of chaos he has brought harmony; that in place of conflict he brings peace! It is a wonderful thing, but not in the sarcastic sense in which the Unbelievers scoff at it!

4153. 'Whatever may have been the case in the past', they said, 'our own immediate ancestors worshipped these idols in Makkah, and why should we give them up? Self-complacency was stronger with them than Truth; and so they call Truth "a made-up tale"! Some Commentators interpret millat akhīrah to refer to the last religion preached before Islam, viz. Christianity, which had itself departed from Monotheism to Trinity. (R).

4154. Here comes in envy. 'If a Message had to come, why should it come to him, the orphan son of 'Abd Allah, and not to one of our own great men?'

Concerning My (own) Message!⁴¹⁵⁵
Nay, they have not yet
Tasted My Punishment!

9. Or have they the Treasures

The Grantor of Bounties

10. Or have they the dominion

And all between? If so,
Let them mount up⁴¹⁵⁷
With the ropes and means
(To reach that end)!
11. But there — will be⁴¹⁵⁸

12. Before them (were many

And 'Ād, and Pharaoh
The Lord of Stakes,⁴¹⁶⁰
13. And Thamūd, and the People

4155. They have no clear idea of how Allah's Message comes! It is not a worldly thing to be given to anyone. It is a divine thing requiring spiritual preparation. If they close their eyes to it now, it will be brought home to them when they taste the consequences of their folly!

4156. If they set themselves to judge Allah, have they anything to show comparable to Allah's Mercy and Power! He has both in infinite measure. Who are they to question the grant of His Mercy and Revelation to His own Chosen One?

4157. Weak and puny creatures though they are, they dare to raise their heads against the Omnipotent, as if they had dominion over Creation and not He! If they had any power, let them mount up to heaven and use all the means they have to that end, and see how they can frustrate Allah's Purpose!

4158. Of course they cannot frustrate Allah's Purpose. In that world — the spiritual world — they will be ignominiously routed, even if they form the strongest confederacy of the Powers of Evil that ever could combine. Cf. the last clause of verse 13 below.

4159. In their day, Noah's contemporaries, or the 'Ād and the Thamūd, so frequently mentioned, or Pharaoh the mighty king of Egypt, or the people to whom Lot was sent (Cf. 37:85-82; 7:65-73; 7:103-137; 7:80-84) were examples of arrogance and rebellion against Allah: they rejected the divine Message brought by their messengers, and they all came to an evil end. Will not their posterity learn their lesson?

4160. The title of Pharaoh, "Lord of the Stakes", denotes power and arrogance, in all or any of the following ways: (1) the stake makes a tent firm and stable, and is a symbol of firmness and stability; (2) many stakes mean a large camp and a numerous army to fight; (3) impaling with stakes was a cruel punishment resorted to by the Pharaohs in arrogant pride of power.

4161. Companions of the Wood: see 15:78, and n. 2000.

4162. Cf. above, verse 11, and n. 4258.

4163. Cf. 15:64, n. 1990; and 22:18.

4164. Cf. 36:29, n. 3973.

4165. Fawāq: delay, the interval between one milking of a she-camel, and another, either to give her a breathing space or to give her young time to suck—or perhaps the milker to adjust his fingers. Such an interval will be quite short. The derived meaning is that when the inevitable punishment for sin arrives, it will not tarry, but do its work without delay.

4166. Cf. 26:204 and n. 3230. Those who do not believe in the Hereafter say ironically: "Let us have our punishment and sentence now: why delay it?" The last verse and the next verse supply the commentary. As to those who mock, they will find out the truth soon enough, when it is too late for repentance or mercy. As to the prophets of Allah, who are mocked, they must wait patiently for Allah to fulfil His Plan: even men who had worldly strength and power, like David, had to exercise infinite patience when mocked by their contemporaries.

4167. David was a man of exceptional strength, for even as a raw youth, he slew the Philistine giant Goliath. See 2:249-252, and notes 286-87. Before that fight, he was mocked by his enemies and chidden even by his own elder brother. But he relied upon Allah, and won through, and afterwards became king.

4168. See n. 2733 to 21:79. All nature sings in unison and celebrates the praises of Allah. David was given the gift of music and psalmody, and therefore the hills and birds are expressed as singing Allah's praises in unison with him. The special hours when the hills and groves echo the songs of birds are in the evening and at dawn, when also the birds gather together, for those are respectively their roosting hours and the hours of their concerted flight for the day.

لَهُ تِسْعٌ وَتِسْعُونَ نَعْجَةً وَلِيَ نَعْجَةٌ وَاحِدَةٌ
فَقَالَ

4169. Note the mutual echo between this verse and verse 17 above. The Arabic awwāb is common to both, and it furnishes the rhyme or rhythm of the greater part of this Sūrah, thus echoing the main theme: 'Turn to Allah in Prayer and Praise, for that is more than any worldly power or wisdom.'

4170. Cf. n. 2732 to 21:79 for David's sound judgement in decisions; he could also express himself aptly, as his Psalms bear witness.

4171. This story or Parable is not found in the Bible, unless the vision here described be considered as equivalent to Nathan's parable in II Samuel, 11 and 12. Baydāwī would seem to favour that view, but other Commentators reject it. David was a pious man, and he had a well-guarded private chamber (miḥrāb) for Prayer and Praise.

4172. David was used to retiring to his private chamber at stated times for his devotions. One day, suddenly, his privacy was invaded by two men, who had obtained access by climbing over a wall. David was frightened at the apparition. But they said: "We have come to seek thy justice as king: we are brothers, and we have a quarrel, which we wish thee to decide."

4173. The brother who was most aggrieved said: "This my brother has a flock of ninety-nine sheep, and I have but one; yet he wants me to give up my one sheep to his keeping; and moreover he is not even fair-spoken. He talks like one meditating mischief, and he has not even the grace to ask as an equal, of one sharing in a business or inheritance. What shall I do?"

To my care,' and is (moreover)
Harsh to me in speech."

24. (David) said: "He has
Undoubtedly wronged thee⁴¹⁷⁴
In demanding thy (single) ewe
To be added to his (flock
Of) ewes; truly many
Are the Partners (in business)⁴¹⁷⁵
Who wrong each other:
Not so do those who believe
And work deeds of righteousness,
And how few are they?" . . .
And David gathered that We
Had tried him: he asked
Forgiveness of his Lord,⁴¹⁷⁶
Fell down, bowing
(In prostration), and turned
(To Allah in repentance)^{4176-A}.

25. So We forgave him
This (lapse): he enjoyed,
Indeed, a Near Approach to Us,
And a beautiful Place
Of (final) Return.

26. O David! We did indeed
Make thee a vicegerent⁴¹⁷⁷
On earth: so judge thou Between men in truth (and justice):

اَكْفَلْنِيهَا وَعَزَّنِي فِي الْخِطَابِ ○

٢٣- قَالَ لَقَدْ ظَلَمَكَ
بِسْؤَالِ تَعَجَّتِكَ إِلَى زَعَايِهِ
وَإِنَّ كَثِيرًا مِّنَ الْخُلَطَاءِ لَيَبْغِي بَعْضُهُمْ
عَلَى بَعْضٍ
إِلَّا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
وَقَلِيلٌ مَّا هُمْ
وَظَنَّ دَاوُدُ أَنَّمَا فَتَنَّاهُ
فَاسْتَغْفَرَ رَبَّهُ وَخَرَّ رَاكِعًا وَأَنَابَ ○

٢٥- فَغَفَرْنَا لَهُ ذَلِكَ
وَإِنَّ لَهُ عِنْدَنَا لَزُلْفَى
وَحُسْنَ مَّآبٍ ○

٢٦- يٰدَاوُدُ إِنَّا جَعَلْنَاكَ خَلِيفَةً فِي الْأَرْضِ
فَاخْكُمْ بَيْنَ النَّاسِ بِالْحَقِّ

4174. The circumstances were mysterious, the accusation was novel; it was not clear why the unjust brother should also have come with the complainant, risking his life in climbing the wall to evade the guard, and he certainly said nothing. David took them literally, and began to preach about the falsehood and the fraud of men, who should be content with what they have, but who always covet more. (R).

4175. Especially, said David, is it wrong for brothers or men in partnership to take advantage of each other; but how few are the men who are righteous? He had in mind his own devotions and justice. But lo and behold! the men disappeared as mysteriously as they had come. It was then that David realised that his visions had been a trial or temptation—a test of his moral or spiritual fibre! Great though he was as a king, and just though he was as a judge, the moment that he thought of these things in self-pride, his merit vanished. In himself he was as other men; it was Allah's grace that gave him wisdom and justice, and he should have been humble in the sight of Allah.

4176. Judged by ordinary standards, David had done no wrong; he was a good and just king. Judged by the highest standard of those nearest to Allah (Muqarrabūn, 56:11), the thought of self-pride and self-righteousness had to be washed off from him by his own act of self-realisation and repentance. This was freely accepted by Allah, as the next verse shows.

4176-A. Some commentators say that David's fault here was his hastiness in judging before hearing the case of the other party. When he realised his lapse, he fell down in repentance. [Eds.].

4177. Cf. 2:30, and n. 47. David's kingly power, and the gifts of wisdom, justice, psalmody, and prophethood were bestowed on him as a trust. These great gifts were not to be a matter of self-glory.

Nor follow thou the lusts
(Of thy heart), for they will
Mislead thee from the Path⁴¹⁷⁸
Of Allah: for those who
Wander astray from the Path
Of Allah, is a Penalty Grievous,
For that they forget
The Day of Account.

وَلَا تَتَّبِعِ الْهَوَىٰ
فَيُضِلَّكَ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَضِلُّونَ عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ
بِمَا نَسُوا يَوْمَ الْحِسَابِ

C. 201. — For just ends was the world created.
(38:27-64.) Solomon, in the midst of his worldly power
And glory, never forgot Allah, nor Job
In the midst of afflictions; nor other men
Of Power and Vision, whose patience and constancy
Brought them nearer to Allah. So should
All the righteous strive to win
The final Bliss, for truly grievous
Are the woes of Evil in the final Account.

SECTION 3.

27. Not without purpose did We⁴¹⁷⁹
Create heaven and earth
And all between! That
Were the thought of Unbelievers!
But woe to the Unbelievers
Because of the Fire (of Hell)!

۲۷- وَمَا خَلَقْنَا السَّمَاءَ وَالْأَرْضَ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا
بَاطِلًا ۚ ذَٰلِكَ ظَنُّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
قَوْلُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنَ النَّارِ

28. Shall We treat those
Who believe and work deeds⁴¹⁸⁰
Of righteousness, the same
As those who do mischief
On earth? Shall We treat

۲۸- أَمْ نَجْعَلُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
كَالْمُفْسِدِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ
أَمْ نَجْعَلُ

4178. As stated in 4171 above, this vision and its moral are nowhere to be found in the Bible. Those who think they see a resemblance to the Parable of the prophet Nathan (2 Samuel, xii. 1-17) have nothing to go upon but the mention of the "one ewe" here and the "one little ewe-lamb" in Nathan's Parable. The whole story is here different, and the whole atmosphere is different. The Biblical title given to David, "a man after God's own heart" is refuted by the Bible itself in the scandalous tale of heinous crimes attributed to David in chapters xi. and xii. of 2 Samuel, viz., adultery, fraudulent dealing with one of his own servants, and the contriving of his murder. Further, in chapter xiii, we have the story of rapes, incest, and fratricide in David's own household! The fact is that passages like these are mere chroniques scandaleuses, i.e., narratives of scandalous crimes of the grossest character. The Muslim idea of David is that of a man just and upright, endowed with all the virtues, in whom even the least thought of self-elation has to be washed off by repentance and forgiveness. (R).

4179. Cf. 3:191. Unbelief is the subjective negation of a belief in Order, Beauty, Purpose, and Eternal Life. Unbelief is to Faith as Chaos is to Cosmos, as the Fire of Misery is to the Garden of Bliss.

4180. The reference to the Hereafter at the end of verse 26 above is of a piece with the whole tenor of this Sūrah, which deals with the superiority of the spiritual kingdom and the Hereafter. If there were no Hereafter, how could you reconcile the inequalities of this world? Would not the Unbelievers be right in acting as if all Creation and all life were futile? But there is a Hereafter and Allah will not treat the Good and Evil alike. He is just and will fully restore the balance disturbed in this life.

Those who guard against evil,
The same as those who
Turn aside from the right?

الْمُتَّقِينَ كَالْفُجَّارِ ۝

29. (Here is) a Book which
We have sent down
Unto thee, full of blessings,⁴¹⁸¹
That they may meditate
On its Signs, and that
Men of understanding may Receive admonition.

۲۹- كِتَابٌ أَنْزَلْنَاهُ لَكَ
مُبَارَكٌ لِيَذَّكَّرُوا أَيَّتَنَّهُ
وَلِيَتَذَكَّرُوا أُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ ۝

30. To David We gave
Solomon (for a son) —⁴¹⁸²
How excellent in Our service!
Ever did he turn (to Us)!

۳۰- وَوَهَبْنَا لِذَاوُدَ سُلَيْمَانَ
نِعْمَ الْعَبْدُ إِنَّهُ أَوَّابٌ ۝

31. Behold, there were brought⁴¹⁸³
Before him, at eventide,
Coursers of The highest breeding,⁴¹⁸⁴
And swift of foot;

۳۱- إِذْ عُرِضَ عَلَيْهِ بِالْعَشِيِّ
الْضَفِينُ الْجَيَادُ ۝

32. And he said, "Truly
Do I love the love⁴¹⁸⁵
Of Good, with a view
To the glory of my Lord"—

۳۲- فَقَالَ إِنِّي أَحْبَبْتُ حُبَّ الْخَيْرِ
عَنْ ذِكْرِ رَبِّي ۝

4181. Revelation is not a mere chance or haphazard thing. It is a real blessing— among the greatest that Allah has bestowed on man. By meditation on it in an earnest spirit man may learn of himself, and his relation to nature around him and to Allah the Author of all. Men of understanding may, by its help, resolve all genuine doubts that there may be in their minds, and learn the true lessons of spiritual life.

4182. The greatest in this life have yet need of this spiritual blessing: without it all worldly good is futile. Referring back to the story of David, we are now introduced to Solomon, who was a great king but greater still because he served Allah and turned to Him. The Qur'ān, unlike the Old Testament, represents Solomon as a righteous king, not as an idolator, doing "evil in the sight of the Lord" (1 Kings, xi. 6).

4183. The passages about David and Solomon have been variously interpreted by the Commentators. The versions which I have suggested have good authority behind them, though I have followed my own judgement in filling in the details.

4184. Ṣāfināt: literally, horses that stand, when at ease, on three legs, firmly planted, with the hoof of the fourth leg resting lightly on the ground. This would imply breeding and a steady temper, to match with the quality of swiftness mentioned in the next clause.

4185. The story is not found in the Old Testament. I interpret it to mean that, like his father David, Solomon was also most meticulous in not allowing the least motive of self to be mixed up with his spiritual virtues. He was fond of horses: he had great armies and wealth; but he used them all in Allah's service. Cf. 27:19, n. 3259; 27:40, n. 3276, etc. His battles were not fought for lust of blood, but as jihād in the cause of righteousness. His love of horses was not like that of a mere race-goer or of a warrior: there was a spiritual element in it. He loved by a kind of love which was spiritual—the love of the highest Good.

Some commentators interpret this verse saying that Solomon, peace be upon him, was so engrossed in the inspection of his fine horses that he completely forgot to say his 'Asr prayer before the sunset. In the light of this interpretation the verse may be translated: "And he said, Truly did I prefer the good things (of this world) to the remembrance of my Lord". (R).

Until (the sun) was hidden
In the veil (of Night):⁴¹⁸⁶

حَتَّى تَوَارَتْ بِالْحِجَابِ ۝ تَفَتَّةٌ

33. "Bring them back to me."
Then began he to pass⁴¹⁸⁷
His hand over (their) legs
And their necks.

۝۳۳ رُدُّوْهَا عَلٰی فُطْفِقٍ مَّسْحًا بِالسُّوقِ
وَالْأَعْنَاقِ ۝

34. And We did try⁴¹⁸⁸
Solomon: We placed
On his throne a body⁴¹⁸⁹
(Without life): but he did turn
(To Us in true devotion):

۝۳۴ وَلَقَدْ فَتَنَّا سُلَيْمٰنَ
وَالْقَيْنٰ عَلٰی كُرْسِيِّهٖ جَسَدًا
ثُمَّ اَنَابَ ۝

35. He said: "O my Lord!
Forgive me,⁴¹⁹⁰ and grant me⁴¹⁹¹
A Kingdom which,
(It may be), suits not
Another after me:
For Thou are the Grantor⁴¹⁹²
Of Bounties (without measure).

۝۳۵ قَالَ رَبِّ اغْفِرْ لِيْ وَهَبْ لِيْ مُلْكًا
لَّيْسَ بِنِعْمَتِيْ لِأَحَدٍ مِّنْ بَعْدِيْ
إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْوَهَّابُ ۝

4186. His review of his fine horses was interrupted by his evening devotion, but he resumed it after his devotions.

4187. Like all lovers of horses, he patted them on their necks and passed his hand over their forelegs and was proud of having them—not as vanities but as a "lover of Good". In the light of the alternative interpretation this verse would mean that upon missing 'Asr prayer, Solomon, peace be upon him, was so upset and sorry that he asked for the horses to be brought back to him and then "he fell to slashing with his sword their legs and necks", that is, he slaughtered them in expiation of his lapse seeking the forgiveness and pleasure of Allah. (R).

4188. What was the trial of Solomon? All the power, wealth, and glory, which were given to him were a spiritual trial to him. They might have turned another man's head, but he was staunch and true, and while he enjoyed and used all the power he had—over spirits, men, and the forces of nature, (see below), he kept his mind steady to the service of Allah Cf. 8:28, where "your possessions and your progeny" are declared to be "but a trial".

4189. The body (without life) on his throne has been variously interpreted. The interpretation that appeals to me most is that his earthly power, great as it was, was like a body without a soul, unless it was vivified by Allah's spirit. But Solomon did turn to Allah in true devotion, and his real power lay there. He did his best to root out idolatry, and he completed the Temple in Jerusalem for the worship of the One True God. Cf. his conversion of Bilqīs the Queen of Sheba, 27:40, n. 3276. See also 7:148, where the same word jasad is used in connection with the image of a calf which the Israelites had set up for worship in the absence of Moses. Men may worship worldly Power as they may worship an idol, and there is great temptation in such Power, though Solomon withstood such temptation.

I do not think that a reference to 34:14 (n. 3808) will fit the context here. (R).

4190. The seeking of worldly Power, even if intended to be used for Allah's service, has a little of Self in it. It may be quite legitimate and even meritorious in ordinary men, but even the thought of it in a Prophet is to be apologised for. See a similar idea in the case of David explained in n. 4176 to 37:24 above.

4191. He asked for a Power that he would not misuse, though others might not be able to refrain from misusing it—such as power over forces of nature or forces of violence (see the next three verses).

4192. Cf. 38:9, above.

36. Then We subjected the Wind⁴¹⁹³
To his power, to flow
Gently to his order,
Whithersoever he willed —

٣٦- فَسَخَرْنَا لَهُ الرِّيحَ
تَجْرِي بِأَمْرِهِ رُخَاءً حَيْثُ أَصَابَ ۝

37. As also the evil ones,⁴¹⁹⁴
(Including) every kind
Of builder and diver —

٣٧- وَالشَّيْطِينَ كُلَّ بَنَّاءٍ وَغَوَّاصٍ ۝

38. As also others bound⁴¹⁹⁵
Together in fetters.

٣٨- وَآخَرِينَ مُقَرَّنِينَ فِي الْأَصْفَادِ ۝

39. "Such are Our Bounties:

بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ ۝

40. And he enjoyed, indeed,⁴¹⁹⁷
A Near Approach to Us,
And a beautiful Place
Of (final) Return.

٤٠- وَإِنَّ لَهُ عِنْدَنَا لَزُلْفَىٰ

SECTION 4.

41. Commemorate Our Servant
Job,⁴¹⁹⁸
Behold he cried to his Lord:
"The Evil One has afflicted
Me with distress⁴¹⁹⁹ and suffering!"

٤١- وَادْكُرْ عَبْدَنَا أَيُّوبَ إِذْ نَادَىٰ رَبَّهُ
إِنِّي مَسْنِي الشَّيْطَانُ بِضُضٍّ وَعَذَابٍ ۝

4193. Cf. 21:81, and n. 2736.

4194. Cf. 21:82, and n. 2738. Cf. also 34:12-13 and notes there: in the latter passage the spirits mentioned are called Jinns. The divers were probably those employed in pearl fisheries.

4195. Cf. 14:49, where the same expression "bound together in fetters" is applied to Sinners on the Day of Judgement.

4196. Allah bestowed such abundant powers and bounties on Solomon that they could not be counted or measured: and he was free to give away anything he liked or keep anything he liked. In this was great temptation for an ordinary man. Solomon as a prophet withstood it and asked to be forgiven for power and such a kingdom as others might not be able to use lawfully. His earthly kingdom went to pieces after his death. But his name and fame endure. And what is more, he obtained a place among the Nearest Ones to Allah. See next verse.

4197. The same words are used of David in 38:25 above, thus symmetrically closing the argument about the two greatest kings in Israel.

4198. For this passage, verses 41-44, Cf. 21:83-84.

4199. The distress was of many kinds, physical, mental, and spiritual. See n. 2739 to 21:83. He suffered from loathsome sores; he lost his home, his possessions, and his family; and almost his balance of mind. But he did not lose Faith but turned to Allah (see verse 44 below), and the recuperative process began.

42. (The command was given:)
"Strike with thy foot:⁴²⁰⁰
Here is (water) wherein
To wash, cool and refreshing
And (water) to drink."
43. And We gave him (back)
His people and doubled
Their number—as a Grace⁴²⁰¹
From Ourselves, and a thing
For commemoration, for all
Who have Understanding.
44. "And take in thy hand
A little grass, and strike⁴²⁰²
Therewith: and break not (Thy oath)." Truly We found Him full of patience and constancy,
How excellent in Our service!⁴²⁰³
Ever did he turn (to Us)!
45. And commemorate Our Servants
Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob,
Possessors of Power and Vision.⁴²⁰⁴
46. Verily We did choose them
For a special (purpose)—
Proclaiming the Message
Of the Hereafter.

٣٦- إِنَّا أَخْلَصْنَاهُمْ بِخَالِصَةٍ

4200. The recuperative process having begun, he was commanded to strike the earth or a rock with his foot, and a fountain or fountains gushed forth—to give him a bath and clean his body, to refresh his spirits, and to give him drink and rest. This is a fresh touch, not mentioned in S. 21 or in the Book of Job, but adding beautifully to our realisation of the picture.

4201. Cf. 21:84, and notes 2739-2740.

4202. In his worst distress Job was patient and constant in faith, but apparently his wife was not. According to the book of Job (ii. 9-10), "Then said his wife unto him, dost thou still retain thine integrity? Curse God, and die. But he said unto her, thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips." He must have said in his haste to the woman that he would beat her: he is asked now to correct her with only a wisp of grass, to show that he was gentle and humble as well as patient and constant.

4203. Cf. 38:30 above, where similar words are spoken of Solomon. Patience and constancy are also a form of service, if our attitude is due to an active faith in Allah, and not mere passivity. So Milton in his Sonnet: "They also serve who only stand and wait."

4204. In the last Sūrah (37:83-113), Abraham and Isaac (and by implication Jacob) were mentioned as resisting Evil and winning through. Here they are mentioned as men with spiritual power and vision, Israelite patriarchs, who bore witness to the Gospel of the Hereafter, and were therefore a blessing to their people, for they taught the Truth.

47. They were, in Our sight,
Truly, of the company
Of the Elect and the Good.
48. And commemorate Ismā'īl,⁴²⁰⁵
Elisha, and Dhu al Kifl:
Each of them was
Of the company of the Good.
49. This is a Message

4205. Ismā'īl, the Patriarch of the Arab race, was also mentioned (37:101-107) as a pattern of self-sacrifice, now he is mentioned in the company of the Good, i.e., of those who were a blessing to their people. Here he is bracketed with Elisha (for whom see n. 906 to 6:86), and Dhu al Kifl (for whom see n. 2743 to 21:85). All these three were examples of constancy and patience under suffering.

4206. Some of the pre-eminent examples of the Elect and the Good having been mentioned, we have now a reference to the Righteous as a body (rank and file as well as leaders) and their future in the Hereafter as won by victory over Evil.

4207. The Final bliss will not be a hole-and-corner thing, a pale reflection of some Palace or Retreat, where mystery reigns behind closed doors. Its doors will be open, and its inmates will be free to go in and out as they will, because their wills will be purified and brought into accord with the Universal Law.

4208. See n. 4003 to 36:57. The free Gardens are types of satisfaction in external surroundings: the comfortable reclining thrones, the fruit and the drink are types of the soul's individual satisfaction; and the society of pure-minded companions, of equal ages, in the type of a soul's social satisfaction.

4209. Cf. 37:48 and n. 4064, and 36:56, n. 4002. As we conceive happiness in this life, it is not complete if it is only solitary. How we hanker after some one who can share in our highest joy! That feeling is also figured here.

4210. To make the metaphor of social happiness complete, we want companionship of equal age. Age and youth cannot be happy together. It is not suggested that in the Timeless state figured here, there will be old age; but if it is possible to conceive of temperamental differences then, the company will be so arranged that it will be congenial. Or we can accept the type of youth and freshness as common to all in that happy state.

4211. This is in parallel contrast to the state of the Blessed in 38:49 above.

4212. Cf. 14:29. This continues the parallel contrast to the state of the Blessed already described.

4213. Cf. 10:4, and n. 1390. The conjunction of the boiling fluid with the dark, murky, intensely cold fluid heightens the effect of the Penalty. In place of harmony, there is the discord of extreme opposites. And the discord is not confined to this. It runs through the whole idea of Hell. See the next verse.

4214. The wonder is that so many people should embrace Evil, and in so much hurry and eagerness! Here they may be welcomed by the leaders of Evil, but in the final state it will be the opposite of welcome. They will be followed with reproaches and curses.

4215. It is the nature of Evil to shift the blame to others. The followers will reproach the leaders, but none can escape personal responsibility for his own acts and deeds!

Now evil is (this) place
To stay in!"

C. 202. — The Gospel of Unity is the true cure
(38:65-88.) For Evil: for it gives the good news
Of Allah's Power Supreme, and His Mercy
And Forgiveness again and again. It warns
Us to avoid Evil, for Evil arose
From selfish Pride and Rebellion. No power
Has it over Allah's servants, sincere
And true: while Revelation comes
As a gift free to all Allah's Creation.

SECTION 5.

65. Say: "Truly am I
A Warner: no god
Is there but the One

٦٥- قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَنَا مُنذِرٌ ۚ وَمَا مِن إِلَهِ إِلَّا

4216. Cf. 7:38, and n. 1019. See also 11:20. The evil ones now vent their spite on others. Here they ask for a double penalty for their misleaders, but they forget their own personal responsibility. In the next verse, they express their surprise that others have escaped the torments, which they themselves have earned.

4217. The bad ones: i.e., the ones whom they (evil ones) ridiculed as fools sure to come to an evil end, because they refused to join in with the evil ones on their plots. The values are now reversed. The good ones are among the Blessed, and are to be seen in the 'Bed of Misery'. The ridicule is now against the evil ones.

4218. The mutual recriminations and spite are themselves a part of the Penalty, for such feelings increase their unhappiness.

God, Supreme and Irresistible — 4219	اللَّهُ الْوَاحِدُ الْقَهَّارُ ٥
66. "The Lord of the heavens And the earth, and all Between—Exalted in Might, Able to enforce His Will, ⁴²²⁰ Forgiving again and again." ⁴²²¹	۶۶- رَبُّ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا الْعَزِيزُ الْغَفَّارُ ٥
67. Say: "That is a Message Supreme (above all)—	۶۷- قُلْ هُوَ نَبَأٌ عَظِيمٌ ٥
68. "From which ye Do turn away! ⁴²²²	۶۸- أَنْتُمْ عَنْهُ مُعْرِضُونَ ٥
69. "No knowledge have I Of the Chiefs on high, When they discuss (Matters) among themselves." ⁴²²³	۶۹- مَا كَانَ لِي مِنْ عِلْمٍ بِالْمَلَائِكَةِ إِذْ يَخْتَصِمُونَ ٥
70. "Only this has been revealed To me: that I am To give warning Plainly and publicly." ⁴²²⁴	۷۰- إِنْ يُؤْتَىٰ إِلَيْنَا آتَانَا نَذِيرٌ مُبِينٌ ٥
71. Behold, thy Lord said ⁴²²⁵	۷۱- إِذْ قَالَ رَبُّكَ

4219. Cf. 12:39, where Joseph preaches to the men in prison. The one supreme Message of importance to mankind was (and is) the Unity of Allah: that He is the Creator and Sustainer of all: that His Will is supreme: that He can carry out His Will without question, and no powers of Evil can defeat it; and that He forgives by His grace again and again. This Message the Holy Prophet came to deliver, and he delivered it.

4220. In n. 2818 to 22:40, I have explained the full import of ʿAzīz as a title applied to Allah, and I have expressed two of the leading ideas involved, in the two lines here. The argument in this Sūrah turns upon the contrast between earthly Power and the Divine Power: the one is impotent and the other is supreme.

4221. Ghaffār is the emphatic intensive form, and I have accordingly translated it as "Forgiving again and again". Cf. 20:82.

4222. The Message which is of supreme import to mankind—from that they turn away. Instead of profiting by it, they turn away to side issues, or unprofitable speculation: such as: what is the origin of Evil; when will Judgement come? etc.

4223. The hierarchy in Heaven, under Allah's command, discuss questions of high import in the Universe. Those are not necessarily revealed to men, except insofar as it is good for men to know, as in verses 71-85 below. But the chief thing for man is to know that Allah is Most Merciful, that He forgives again and again, and that Evil has no power over those who trust in Allah.

4224. Two things are implied in Mubīn: (1) that the warning should be clear and perspicuous; there should be no mincing of matters, no ambiguity, no compromise with evil, 7:184; (2) that the warning should be delivered publicly, before all people, in spite of opposition and persecution, 26:115. Both these ideas I have tried to express in this passage.

4225. Two passages may be compared with this: viz.: (1) 2:30-39, where merely the first stages of the Rebellion against Allah and its consequences to mankind are mentioned, and (2) 15:29-40, where the further intrusion of evil in man's life here below is referred to, and an assurance is given that Evil will have no power except over those who yield to it. The latter is the passage most relevant here, as we are now dealing with the power of Revelation to defeat the machinations of Evil.

To the angels: "I am
About to create man
From clay:⁴²²⁶

72. "When I have fashioned him
(In due proportion) and breathed
Into him of My spirit,⁴²²⁷
Fall ye down in obeisance
Unto him."

73. So the angels prostrated
themselves,
All of them together:

74. Not so Iblīs: he
Was haughty, and became⁴²²⁸
One of those who reject Faith.

75. (Allah) said: "O Iblīs!
What prevents thee from
Prostrating thyself to one
Whom I have created
With My hands?⁴²²⁹
Art thou haughty?
Or art thou one⁴²³⁰
Of the high (and mighty)
ones?"

76. (Iblīs) said: "I am better
Than he: Thou createdst
Me from fire, and him
Thou createdst from clay."

77. (Allah) said: "Then get thee
Out from here: for thou
Art rejected, accursed.

٤٣- فَسَجَدَ الْمَلَكَةُ كُلُّهُمْ أَجْمَعُونَ ۝

٤٦- قَالَ أَنَا خَيْرٌ مِّنْهُ خَلَقْتَنِي

٤٧- قَالَ فَاهْرُجْ مِنْهَا
فَإِنَّكَ رَجِيمٌ ۝

4226. This shows that the material world round us was created by Allah before Allah fashioned man and breathed of His soul into him. Geology also shows that man came on the scene at a very late stage in the history of this planet.

4227. See n. 1968 to 15:29, where the spiritual significance of this is explained.

4228. Arrogance (self-love) is thus the root of Evil and of Unfaith.

4229. Man, as typified by Adam, is in himself nothing but frail clay. But as fashioned by Allah's creative power into something with Allah's spirit breathed into him, his dignity is raised above that of the highest creatures.

4230. If, then, Satan refuses, it is a rebellion against Allah. It arises from arrogance or haughtiness, an exaggerated idea of Self. Or, it is asked, are you really sufficiently high in rank to dispute with the Almighty? Of course he was not.

78. "And My Curse shall be
On thee till the Day⁴²³¹
Of Judgement."
79. (Iblīs) said: "O my Lord!
Give me then respite⁴²³²
Till the Day
The (dead) are raised."
80. (Allah) said: "Respite then
Is granted thee —
81. "Till the Day
Of the Time Appointed."⁴²³³
82. (Iblīs) said: "Then,
By Thy Power,⁴²³⁴ I will
Put them all in the wrong —⁴²³⁵
83. "Except Thy Servants
Amongst them, sincere
And purified (by Thy grace)."
84. (Allah) said: "Then
It is just and fitting —⁴²³⁶
And I say what is
Just and fitting —
85. "That I will certainly fill⁴²³⁷
Hell with thee
And those who follow thee —
Every one."

4231. See n. 1972 to 15:35, where it is explained why the respite is to the Day of Judgement. The whole of that passage in S. 15 forms a good commentary on this.

4232. For the significance of the respite see n. 1973 to 15:36.

4233. It is not an indefinite respite. It is for a period definitely limited, while this our Probation lasts in this world. It is part of the test as to how we use our limited free will. After that, our whole existence will be on a different plane. The good will have been sorted out, the chain of consequences of the present world will be broken, and "a new Creation" will have taken the place of the present World.

4234. This phrase, this oath of Satan, is a fresh point introduced in this passage, because here we are dealing with Power—the Power of Good contrasted with Evil—the spiritual Power of Allah as contrasted with the power that we see in our earthly affairs. Satan acknowledges that even his power, such as it is, has no reality except insofar as it is permitted to operate by Allah in Allah's wise and universal Plan, and that it cannot harm the true and sincere worshippers of Allah.

4235. See n. 1974 to 15:39.

4236. Cf. n. 1990 to 15:64.

4237. Cf. 7:18; 7:179, and 11:119. n. 1623. The punishment of defiance, and rebellion is inevitable and just, and the followers who chose to identify themselves with the disobedience must suffer as well as the leaders. Cf. 10:33

86. Say: "No reward do I ask⁴²³⁸
Of you for this (Qur'ān),
Nor am I a pretender.⁴²³⁹

۸۶- مَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ أَجْرٍ
وَمَا أَنَا مِنَ الْمُتَكَلِّفِينَ ۝

87. "This is no less than
A Message to (all)⁴²⁴⁰
The Worlds.

۸۷- إِنَّ هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ لِلْعَالَمِينَ ۝

88. "And ye shall certainly
Know the truth of it (all)⁴²⁴¹
After a while."

۸۸- وَلَتَعْلَمُنَّ نَبَأَهُ بَعْدَ حِينٍ ۝

4238. Cf. 25:57; 26:109; and many other passages. The prophet of Allah neither seeks nor expects any reward from men. On the contrary he suffers much at their hands. He is unselfish and offers his services under Allah's inspiration. He is satisfied with the hope "that each one who will may take a straight Path to his Lord." That is his reward. And the reward he hopes for from Allah is similarly unselfish. He earnestly hopes to win His Good Pleasure—or, to use another metaphor, "to see His Face."

4239. Mutakallif: a man who pretends to things that are not true, or declares as facts things that do not exist, one who takes upon himself tasks to which he is not equal. True prophets are not people of that kind.

4240. So far from there being any false or selfish motive in the Message proclaimed in Revelation, it is a healing mercy to all mankind. More, it is in accord with all parts of Allah's Creation, and makes us kin with all Creation, the handiwork of the One True God.

4241. There may be many things which we in our "muddy vesture of decay" may not fully understand or take in. If we only follow the right Path, we shall arrive at the Goal in the Hereafter, and then everything will be clear to us.

INTRODUCION TO SŪRAH 39—AL ZUMAR

This is the last of the series of six Sūrahs beginning with S. 34, which deal with the mysteries of the spiritual world, as leading up to the Ma'ād, or the Hereafter. See Introduction to S. 34.

Its subject matter is how Creation in its great variety is yet sorted out in Groups or Classes, all governed by one Plan, and created and sustained by One God, Who will separate Good from Evil at the last Day. The word zumar occurs in verses 71 and 73.

Its chronology has no significance. It belongs to the later Makkan period.

Summary—The variety in Creation yet points to the unity of Plan: there is only One God: to Him is due all worship and from Him flow all Justice and Grace (39:1-21, and C. 203).

There is unity in Revelation, and guidance comes from Allah alone: turn to Him only, for all else is false (39:22-52, and C. 204). God's Mercy is all-embracing: despair not: seek it before it is too late: for Judgement and Justice will come for certain (39:53-75, and C. 205).

C. 203. — To Allah is due sincere devotion, and to Him
 (39:1-21.) Alone: there is none like unto Him.
 All nature obeys His laws, and our own
 Growth and life proclaim Him Lord
 And Cherisher. How can we blaspheme?
 We must serve Him, the One, the True,
 With sincere devotion, and follow His Law
 In its highest meaning: or else the loss
 Is our own. All nature proclaims
 Aloud His Grace and Loving-kindness.

Sūrah 39.

Al Zumar (Crowds)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. The revelation
Of this Book
Is from Allah,⁴²⁴²
The Exalted in Power,
Full of Wisdom.
2. Verily it is We Who have Revealed the Book to thee
In Truth: so serve Allah,
Offering Him sincere devotion.
3. Is it not to Allah⁴²⁴³
That sincere devotion
Is due? But those who Take for protectors others
Than Allah (say): "We only
Serve them in order that
They may bring us nearer⁴²⁴⁴
To Allah." Truly Allah
Will judge between them
In that wherein they differ.⁴²⁴⁵
But Allah guides not
Such as are false
And ungrateful.
4. Had Allah wished
To take to Himself

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

٣- أَلَا لِلَّهِ الدِّينُ الْخَالِصُ

٤- لَوْ أَرَادَ اللَّهُ أَنْ يَتَّخِذَ

4242. In connection with Revelation two qualities of Allah are mentioned: (1) that He is All-Powerful and can carry out His Will in spite of all opposition; and (2) that He is full of knowledge and wisdom. The first answers those who question how Allah can send Revelation to man; the second explains that true wisdom consists in carrying out Allah's Will as revealed to us.

4243. In many Signs in Creation as described below, there yet is a clear indication of the unity of Plan, pointing to the Unity of the Creator. Worship of service is due to none but Him. And He wants exclusive and sincere devotion.

4244. Worshippers of Idols or of deities other than Allah, e.g., saints or perhaps Wealth and Power, Science or Selfish Desire, may pretend that these are symbols that may get them nearer to their self-development, nearer to the goal of their life, nearer to Allah, but they are altogether on the wrong track.

4245. This departure of theirs from true worship, this divergence from the right way, produces endless disputations and sects. Allah will judge between them. But if they are determined to go after falsehoods and forget the gratitude and service which they owe to Allah, and Allah alone, they are putting themselves on a Path where they will get no guidance. They are cutting themselves off from revealed Truth.

يَخْلُقُكُمْ فِي بُطُونِ
أُمَّهَاتِكُمْ

4246. It is blasphemy to say that Allah begot a son. If that were true, He should have had a wife (6:101), and His son would have been of the same kind as Himself; whereas Allah is One, with no one else like unto Him (112:4). Begetting is an animal act which goes with sex. How can it be consistent with our conception of One who is above all Creatures? If such a blasphemous thought were possible, as that Allah wanted some one else to help Him, He could have chosen the best of His creatures instead of lowering Himself to an animal act. But glory to Allah! He is above such things! His Unity is the first thing that we have to learn about Him. As He is Omnipotent, He requires no creatures to help Him or bring other creatures to Him.

4247. Cf. 6:73, and n. 896.

4248. His Power is equalled by His Mercy. Who can there be like unto Him?

4249. Cf. 4:1, and n. 504.

4250. See 6:143-4, where four kinds of cattle are mentioned in pairs in connection with certain Arab superstitions which are there condemned. Here the same four kinds are mentioned as representative of domesticated cattle given by Allah as useful to man. These are sheep, goats, camels, and oxen. In Arab idiom the horse is not included among "cattle".

For the wisdom and goodness of Allah in granting man dominion over cattle, see 36:71-73.

8. When some trouble toucheth man,⁴²⁵⁶
He crieth unto his Lord,
Turning to Him in repentance:

٨- وَإِذَا مَسَّ الْإِنْسَانَ ضُرٌّ دَعَا رَبَّهُ مُنِيبًا إِلَيْهِ

4251. See 22:5, where the gradual physical growth of man in several successive stages is mentioned as one of the Signs of Allah's creative Power and cherishing care.

4252. The three veils of darkness which cover the unborn child are: the caul or membrane, the womb, and the hollow in which the womb is enclosed. But we might understand "three" in a cumulative rather than a numerical sense.

4253. It is clear that you owe your very existence and your maintenance, growth, and preservation, to Allah; how is it that you are turned away by chance things from Him? (R).

4255. Cf. 6:164. The account is between you and Allah. No one else can take your burdens or carry your sins. Vicarious atonement would be unjust. You have to return to Allah in the Hereafter. You will find that He knows all that you did in this life, and its full significance. He will explain to you even better than you can understand yourself, because all your secret hidden motives which you sometimes tried to ignore yourself, are fully known to Him.

4256. Cf. 10:12. Trouble and adversity often bring a man to his bearings. But if He is not firm and constant, he forgets the lessons which life is meant to teach him. As soon as he gets a little prosperity, he forgets that it is from Allah, and attributes it to something which may only be a secondary cause, e.g., his own efforts or the Powers of Nature, or something which he has invented and made into a god, e.g., idols or fate. Allah is the Ultimate Cause of all things. To set up rivals to Him in this way is not only wrong and degrading to the false worshipper himself, but misleads countless ignorant people, who may not be able to make allowances for the figures of speech or the symbolism by which subtler minds can explain away falsehoods.

But when He bestoweth
A favour upon him
As from Himself, (man)
Doth forget what he cried
And prayed for before,
And he doth set up
Rivals unto Allah,
Thus misleading others
From Allah's Path.
Say, "Enjoy thy blasphemy"⁴²⁵⁷
For a little while:
Verily thou art (one)
Of the Companions of the Fire!"

ثُمَّ إِذَا خَوَّلَهُ نِعْمَةً مِّنْهُ
نَسِيَ مَا كَانَ يَدْعُو إِلَيْهِ مِنْ قَبْلُ
وَجَعَلَ لِلَّهِ أَنْدَادًا
لِّيُضِلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ
قُلْ تَمَتَّعْ بِكُفْرِكَ قَلِيلًا ۖ
إِنَّكَ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ النَّارِ ۝

9. Is one who worships devoutly
During the hours of the night⁴²⁵⁸
Prostrating himself or standing
(In adoration), who takes heed
Of the Hereafter, and who
Places his hope in the Mercy
Of his Lord—(like one
Who does not)? Say:
"Are those equal, those who know
And those who do not know?
It is those who are
Endued with understanding
That receive admonition."⁴²⁵⁹

۹- أَمَّنْ هُوَ قَانِتٌ آنَاءَ اللَّيْلِ
سَاجِدًا وَقَائِمًا يُحْذِرُ الْآخِرَةَ
وَيَرْجُو رَحْمَةَ رَبِّهِ
قُلْ هَلْ يَسْتَوِي الَّذِينَ يَعْلَمُونَ
وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ۚ
إِنَّمَا يَتَذَكَّرُ أُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ ۝

SECTION 2.

10. Say: "O ye
My servants who believe!
Fear your Lord."⁴²⁶⁰
Good is (the reward)
For those who do good
In this world.

۱۰- قُلْ يٰعِبَادِ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اتَّقُوا رَبَّكُمْ
لِلَّذِينَ أَحْسَنُوا
فِي هَذِهِ الدُّنْيَا حَسَنَةٌ

4257. Those who practise and those who teach evil and blasphemy may seem to flourish in this world. But their satisfaction will be of very short duration. They are treading all the while the Path that leads to the Fire of Perdition.

4258. Cf. 3:113-117. It is a great thing when a man gets into the attitude of humble devotion to Allah. To him the Hereafter is a real thing, and he prepares for it with good works. He does not build his hopes on the vanities of this world, but on Allah's Grace and Mercy. Such a man is "endued with understanding" and receives Allah's Message with fervour and alacrity. He is not to be compared with the cynic or the unbeliever, who knows nothing of the real value of the inner life.

4259. Cf. 3:19.

4260. The "fear of Allah" (Taqwā) is explained in n. 26 to 2:2. See also n. 2912 to 23:60. The fear of Allah is akin to love, for it means that we are afraid to displease Him.

Spacious is Allah's earth!⁴²⁶¹
Those who patiently persevere
Will truly receive
A reward without measure!"

وَأَرْضُ اللَّهِ وَاسِعَةٌ
إِنَّمَا يُؤْتِي الضَّيِّقُونَ أَجْرَهُمْ بِغَيْرِ حِسَابٍ

11. Say: "Verily, I am commanded
To serve Allah
With sincere devotion;

۱۱- قُلْ إِنِّي أُمِرْتُ أَنْ أَعْبُدَ اللَّهَ
مُخْلِصًا لَهُ الدِّينَ ۝

12. "And I am commanded
To be the first⁴²⁶²
Of those who bow
To Allah in Islam."

۱۲- وَأُمِرْتُ
لِأَنْ أَكُونَ أَوَّلَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ ۝

13. Say: "I would, if I⁴²⁶³
Disobeyed my Lord,
Indeed have fear
Of the Penalty
Of a Mighty Day."

۱۳- قُلْ إِنِّي أَخَافُ
إِنْ عَصَيْتُ رَبِّي
عَذَابَ يَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ ۝

14. Say: "It is Allah I serve,
With my sincere
(And exclusive) devotion:

۱۴- قُلِ اللَّهُ أَعْبُدُ مُخْلِصًا لَهُ دِينِي ۝

15. "Serve ye what ye will⁴²⁶⁴
Besides Him." Say:
"Truly, those in loss
Are those who lose
Their own souls
And their People⁴²⁶⁵
On the Day of Judgement:
Ah! that is indeed
The (real and) evident Loss!"

۱۵- فَاعْبُدُوا مَا شِئْتُمْ مِنْ دُونِهِ قُلْ
إِنَّ الْخَاسِرِينَ الَّذِينَ خَسِرُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ
وَأَهْلِيهِمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ
أَلَا ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْخُسْرَانُ الْمُبِينُ ۝

4261. Cf. 29:56 and n. 3489. We must always do right. We cannot plead that the circumstances in which we find ourselves force our hands. If our home conditions do not allow us to act according to the Faith that is in us, we must be prepared to suffer ostracism or even exile.

4262. Cf. 6:14. "The first" need not necessarily be chronological: it may also refer to the first rank in zeal, and in readiness to suffer for the Cause.

4263. Cf. 6:15. The worst penalty in a spiritual sense is the Displeasure of Allah, just as the highest achievement, the fulfilment of all desire, is the attainment of Allah's Good Pleasure: 6:16.

4264. This is not a command or permission but a reproach and warning. The address of the Prophet of Allah may be paraphrased thus: 'Whatever happens I will follow the command of Allah. He has revealed Himself, and I know that He is One, supreme over all creatures. Him alone will I serve. Is there any so ignorant as to seek anyone else? Let him do so and see the results. The loss will be his own. For he falls from Grace into Evil.' (R).

4265. The cult of Evil results in the destruction of all that is best and most valuable in us, as well as poisons all the affections which link us to our families, and people, in the Final Adjustment, which we call the Day of Judgement.

16. They shall have Layers⁴²⁶⁶
Of Fire above them,
And Layers (of Fire)
Below them: with this
Doth Allah warn off⁴²⁶⁷
His Servants: "O My Servants!
Then fear ye Me!"

١٣- لَهُمْ مِنْ فَوْقِهِمْ ظُلَلٌ مِنَ النَّارِ
وَمِنْ تَحْتِهِمْ ظُلَلٌ
ذَٰلِكَ يُخَوِّتُ اللَّهُ بِهِ عِبَادَهُ
يُوعِبَادُ فَاتَّقُونِ ۝

17. Those who eschew Evil —
And fall not into⁴²⁶⁸
Its worship — and turn
To Allah (in repentance) —
For them is Good News:
So announce the Good News
To My Servants —

١٤- وَالَّذِينَ اجْتَنَبُوا الطَّاغُوتَ أَنْ يَعْبُدُوهَا
وَأَنَابُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ لَهُمُ الْبُشْرَى
فَبَشِّرْ عِبَادِ ۝

18. Those who listen
To the Word,
And follow
The best (meaning) in it:⁴²⁶⁹
Those are the ones
Whom Allah has guided, and those
Are the ones endued
With understanding.

١٥- الَّذِينَ يَسْتَمِعُونَ الْقَوْلَ
فَيَتَّبِعُونَ أَحْسَنَهُ
أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ هَدَى اللَّهُ
وَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْوَالِدُونَ ۝

19. Is, then, one against whom
The decree of Punishment
Is justly due (equal
To one who eschews evil)?⁴²⁷⁰

١٦- أَقَمَنْ حَقٌّ عَلَيْهِ كَلِمَةُ الْعَذَابِ ۝

4267. But Allah does not leave mankind without warning. Man has been granted a limited amount of free will, and in order to help him in its right use, all the consequences of his action are clearly explained to him. To those who will listen to Reason are given arguments which can be apprehended by their own intelligence; to those who are swayed by affections and emotions, an appeal is made in the name of the Love of Allah; to those who understand nothing but fear, the warning is conveyed by a portrayal of the dreadful consequences of wrongdoing.

4268. There is always the danger that Evil may seize us even if we approach it out of mere curiosity. If we take an interest in it we may become its worshippers or slaves. The wise man eschews it altogether, and so he enrolls among the Servants of Allah, and gets the good news of His Mercy and Good Pleasure.

4269. The Commentators construe this clause in two alternative ways. (1) If "word" be taken as any word, the clause would mean that good men listen to all that is said and choose the best of it. (2) If "word" be taken to mean Allah's Word, it would mean that they should listen reverently to it, and where permissive and alternative courses are allowed for those who are not strong enough to follow the higher course, those "endued with understanding" should prefer to attempt the higher course of conduct. For example, it is permitted (within limits) to punish those who wrong us, but the nobler course is to repel evil with good (23:96), we should try to follow the nobler course. I prefer the latter construction: it accords better with my interpretation of the last verse: see n. 4268.

4270. If a man is already steeped in sin and has rejected Allah's Grace, how can we expect Revelation to work in his soul?

Wouldst thou, then, deliver
One (who is) in the Fire?

أَفَأَنْتَ تُنْقِذُ مَنْ فِي النَّارِ

20. But it is for those
Who fear their Lord,
That lofty mansions, ⁴²⁷¹
One above another,
Have been built:
Beneath them flow
Rivers (of delight): (such is)
The Promise of Allah:
Never doth Allah fail in
(His) promise. ⁴²⁷²

لَكِنَّ الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا رَبَّهُمْ لَهُمْ
عُرُشٌ مِّنْ فَوْقِهَا عُرُشٌ مَّبْنِيَّةٌ
تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ
وَعَدَ اللَّهُ
لَا يُخْلِفُ اللَّهُ الْوَعْدَ

21. Seest thou not that Allah
Sends down rain from
The sky, and leads it
Through springs in the earth? ⁴²⁷³
Then He causes to grow,
Therewith, produce of various
Colours: then it withers;
Thou wilt see it grow yellow;
Then He makes it
Dry up and crumble away.
Truly, in this, is
A Message of remembrance to
Men of understanding.

أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ أَنْزَلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً
فَسَلَكَهُ يَنَابِيعٌ فِي الْأَرْضِ
ثُمَّ يُخْرِجُ بِهِ زَرْعًا مُخْتَلِفًا أَلْوَانُهُ
ثُمَّ يَهْبِئُ فَتَأْوِيهِ أَصْفَرًا
ثُمَّ يَجْعَلُهُ حُمَاطًا
إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ
لَذِكْرًا لِّأُولِي الْأَلْبَابِ

- C. 204. — What distance separates the man
(39:22-52.) Whose heart is melted by the Message
Of Allah and enlightened by His Light,
And him who rejects Revelation! Allah
Teaches men by Parables: straight
Is His Word and clear. Any doubts in the minds
Of men will be resolved after Death:
Even now, Allah's Signs are enough: no other
Can guide. Death and his twin brother,

4271. Cf. 29:58, and 34:37. The idea of heaven here is that of a Home of sublimity and beauty, with a picturesque outlook, such as we would describe in this life by the type of a palace by gently-flowing streams. The mansions will also suggest generous space and architectural beauty, tiers upon tiers piled one upon another.

4272. Mī'ād: the time, place and manner of the fulfilment of a Promise. Allah's promise will be fulfilled in all particulars better than we can possibly imagine.

4273. The circuit of water, by which the rain falls from the clouds, is absorbed through the earth, and flows through rivers or underground streams to the sea, where it again rises as vapour and forms clouds, was explained in notes 311-12 to 25:53. Here our attention is drawn to one portion of the process. The rain fructifies the soil and the seeds. Produce of various kinds is raised. The harvest ripens and is gathered in. The plants wither, dry up, and crumble away. Men and animals are fed. And the circuit starts again in another season. Here is a Sign of the Grace and Goodness of Allah, clear to those who understand.

Sleep, are in the hands of Allah: to Him
Is our Goal. He will judge in the End.
His Will is all-in-all. No other thing
Can be of any account before His Law.

SECTION 3.

22. Is one whose heart
Allah has opened to Islam,⁴²⁷⁴
So that he has received
Enlightenment from Allah,
(No better than one
hardhearted)?
Woe to those whose hearts
Are hardened against celebrating⁴²⁷⁵
The praises of Allah! They
Are manifestly wandering
(In error)!

٢٢- أَفَمَنْ شَرَحَ اللَّهُ صَدْرَهُ لِلْإِسْلَامِ
فَهُوَ عَلَى نُورٍ مِّنْ رَبِّهِ
فَوَيْلٌ لِلْقَاسِيَةِ
قُلُوبُهُمْ مِّنْ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ
أُولَٰئِكَ فِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ٥

23. Allah has revealed
(From time to time)
The most beautiful Message
In the form of a Book,
Consistent with itself,⁴²⁷⁶
(Yet) repeating (its teaching
In various aspects):⁴²⁷⁷
The skins of those who
Fear their Lord tremble⁴²⁷⁸
Thereat: then their skins

٢٣- اللَّهُ نَزَّلَ أَحْسَنَ الْحَدِيثِ كِتَابًا
مُّتَشَابِهًا مَّثَالً
تَقْشَعِرُّ مِنْهُ جُلُودُ الَّذِينَ
يَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُمْ
ثُمَّ تَكَلِّينُ جُلُودُهُمْ

4274. Those who listen to Allah's Message find at each stage Allah's Grace helping them more and more to expand their spiritual understanding and to receive Allah's light, so that they travel farther and farther to their Goal in the Path of Truth and Righteousness. They are not to be compared to those who shut out Allah's Light from their hearts. See next note.

4275. Just as there is spiritual progress for those who seek Allah, so there is more and more spiritual retrogression for those who close their hearts to Allah. Their hearts get hardened, and they allow less and less Allah's Grace to penetrate within. But it is obvious that they flounder on the Way, and cannot walk with the firm steps of those of assured Faith.

4276. Is Mutashābih here to be understood in the same sense as in 3:77 See n. 347. The better opinion is that there is a slightly different shade of meaning here, as suggested by the context. In the earlier passages, it was opposed to Muḥkam: here it is contrasted or compared to Mathānī. The root meaning is: 'having something similar; working by analogy or allegory, or parable; having its parts consistent with each other'. The last meaning I adopt here. The Qur'ān was revealed in parts at different times. And yet its parts all conform to each other. There is no contradiction or inconsistency anywhere. (R).

4277. Mathānī: Cf. 15:87, where we have translated "oft-repeated": "The seven oft-repeated (verses)". See n. 2008 to that passage. Here the meaning is similar, but the context gives a different colour to it, as is seen in the translation.

4278. The skin is the outer integument of the body. It receives the first shock from the impact of anything unusual, and it trembles and its hair stands on end under excitement. So in spiritual matters the first stimulation from Allah's Message is external. Those who receive Faith do it as it were with tremor and not with apathy. But the next stage is that it penetrates their outer nature and goes right into their hearts. Their whole nature is "softened" to receive the beneficent Message, and it transforms them through and through.

And their hearts do soften
To the celebration of Allah's praises. Such is
The guidance of Allah:
He guides therewith
Whom He pleases,⁴²⁷⁹ but such
As Allah leaves to stray,
Can have none to guide.

وَقُلُوبُهُمْ إِلَىٰ ذِكْرِ اللَّهِ ذَٰلِكَ هُدَىٰ اللَّهِ
يَهْدِي بِهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ
وَمَنْ يُضِلِلِ اللَّهُ
فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ هَادٍ ۝

24. Is, then, one who
Has to fear the brunt
Of the Penalty on the Day
Of Judgement (and receive it)
On his face,⁴²⁸⁰ (like one Guarded therefrom)? It will
Be said to the wrongdoers:
"Taste ye (the fruits
Of) what ye earned!"⁴²⁸¹

۲۴- أَلَمْ يَنْتَقِ
بُوجْهِهِ سُوءَ الْعَذَابِ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ
وَقِيلَ لِلظَّالِمِينَ
ذُوقُوا مَا كُنْتُمْ تَكْسِبُونَ ۝

25. Those before them (also)
Rejected (revelation), and so
The Punishment came to them
From directions they did not
Perceive.⁴²⁸²

۲۵- كَذَّبَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ
فَآتَاهُمُ الْعَذَابُ
مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَشْعُرُونَ ۝

26. So Allah gave them
A taste of humiliation
In the present life,⁴²⁸³
But greater is the Punishment
Of the Hereafter,
If they only knew!

۲۶- فَأَذَاقَهُمُ اللَّهُ الْخِزْيَ
فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا
وَلَعَذَابُ الْآخِرَةِ أَكْبَرُ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ ۝

4279. "Whom He pleases" and "leaves to stray" are explained fully in n. 2193 to 16:93. See also 16:4 and n. 1875.

4280. The unrepentant Sinners will receive the full Penalty on the Day of Judgement. They will receive it full in the face, i.e., their whole being will be affected by it. Their hands (figuratively) will be tied, and they cannot therefore use their hands to ward off the Penalty of the Fire: in any case their hands will not have the power to ward it off. Are such helpless people to be compared for a moment with people who have received Grace and are therefore guarded from all harm and danger? Certainly not. To the evil the fruit of their deed, and to the good the grace of their Lord!

4281. That is, of all their misdeeds, all the evil which they did in the world.

4282. Cf. 16:26. They will be punished from quarters or in ways they do not perceive. From their Unbelief and Rebellion they think they derive great advantages, but they suddenly find out, when too late, that that which they exulted in was the cause of their undoing.

4283. Cf. 2:114. Sin often brings disgrace and humiliation in this life, but the greater and truer punishment is in the Hereafter. But men often do not know the inwardness of this matter. If they flourish here for a time, they think they will escape the real consequences in the Hereafter. Or if they suffer little harm here, they think that will make up the Penalty, and they will escape the Hereafter. Both ideas are wrong.

27. We have put forth
For men, in this Qur'ān
Every kind of Parable,⁴²⁸⁴
In order that they
May receive admonition.
28. (It is) a Qur'ān
In Arabic,⁴²⁸⁵ without any
Crookedness (therein):⁴²⁸⁶
In order that they
May guard against Evil.
29. Allah puts forth a Parable —
A man belonging to many⁴²⁸⁷
Partners at variance with each other,
And a man belonging entirely
To one master: are those two
Equal in comparison?
Praise be to Allah!⁴²⁸⁸
But most of them
Have no knowledge.
30. Truly thou wilt die⁴²⁸⁹
(One day), and truly they
(Too) will die (one day).
31. In the End will ye
(All), on the Day
Of Judgement, settle your disputes⁴²⁹⁰
In the presence of your Lord.

٢٧- وَلَقَدْ ضَرَبْنَا لِلنَّاسِ فِي هَٰذَا الْقُرْآنِ
مِنْ كُلِّ مَثَلٍ
لَّعَلَّهُمْ يَتَذَكَّرُونَ ۝

٢٨- قُرْآنًا عَرَبِيًّا غَيْرَ ذِي عِوَجٍ
لَّعَلَّهُمْ يَتَّقُونَ ۝

٢٩- ضَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا
رَّجُلًا فِيهِ شُرَكَاءُ مُتَشَاكِسُونَ
وَرَجُلًا سَلَمًا لِّرَجُلٍ
هَلْ يَسْتَوِينَ مَثَلًا الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ
بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ۝

٣٠- إِنَّكَ مَيِّتٌ
وَأِنَّهُمْ مَيِّتُونَ ۝

٣١- ثُمَّ إِنَّكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ
عِنْدَ رَبِّكُمْ تَخْتَصِمُونَ ۝

ع

4284. Men can only understand high spiritual truths by parables and similitudes and these are given abundantly in the Qur'ān. The object is, not merely to tell stories, but to teach lessons of spiritual wisdom.

4285. Previous revelations had been in other languages. Now the revelation was given in Arabia in Arabic itself, the language of the country which all could understand. And it is a beautiful language, straight and flexible, and fit to be the vehicle of sublime truths. Cf. C. 12.

4286. See 18:1 and n. 2326. Cf. also 7:45, n. 1024; and 19:36, n. 2488.

4287. The difference between the creed of Polytheism and the Gospel of Unity is explained by the analogy of two men. One belongs to many masters; the masters disagree among themselves, and the poor man of many masters has to suffer from the quarrel of his many masters: it is an impossible and unnatural position. The other serves only one master, his master is good, and does all he can for his servant; the servant can concentrate his attention on his service; he is happy himself and his service is efficiently performed. Can there be any doubt as to (1) which of them is the happier, and (2) which of them is in a more natural position? No man can serve two, still less, numerous masters.

4288. Allah is praised that He has put us, not under gods many and lords many, but has, out of His infinite Mercy, allowed us direct approach to Him, the One, the True, the Eternal.

4289. Even the prophets are not exempt from bodily death, much less the righteous, but they live in their beneficent work and the memories they leave behind them. All men have to die, good and alike. But there is a life after death, and in that life all the unexplained things about which people dispute in this world will be made clear in the presence of Allah.

4290. See last note.

SECTION 4.

32. Who, then, doth more wrong
Than one who utters
A lie concerning Allah,⁴²⁹¹
And rejects the Truth
When it comes to him!
Is there not in Hell⁴²⁹²
An abode for blasphemers?

٣٢- فَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنْ كَذَبَ عَلَى اللَّهِ
وَكَذَبَ بِالْصِّدْقِ إِذْ جَاءَهُ
أَلَيْسَ فِي جَهَنَّمَ
مَثْوًى لِلْكَافِرِينَ ○

33. And he who brings the Truth
And he who confirms⁴²⁹³
(And supports) it—such are
The men who do right.

٣٣- وَالَّذِي جَاءَ بِالصِّدْقِ وَصَدَّقَ بِهِ
أُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُتَّقُونَ ○

34. They shall have all
That they wish for,⁴²⁹⁴
In the presence of their Lord:
Such is the reward
Of those who do good:

٣٤- لَهُمْ مَا يَشَاءُونَ
عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ
ذَلِكَ جَزَاءُ الْمُحْسِنِينَ ○

35. So that Allah will Turn off from them
(Even) the worst in their deeds⁴²⁹⁵
And give them their reward
According to the best
Of what they have done.

٣٥- لِيُكَفِّرَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ أَسْوَأَ الَّذِي عَمِلُوا
وَيَجْزِيَهُمْ أَجْرَهُمْ بِأَحْسَنِ الَّذِي
كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ○

4291. When the creature deliberately adopts and utters falsehoods against his own Creator, in spite of the Truth being brought, as it were, to his very door by Allah's Signs, what offence can we imagine more heinous than this? In Christian theology this is the blasphemy "against the Holy Ghost" spoken of in Matt. xii. 31-32: "whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man", (Christ), "it shall be forgiven him; but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come".

4292. Cf. 2:151; 16:29 [Eds.].

4293. This is true of the Prophet, and all men of God and all righteous persons. Anyone who preaches the Truth and brings home Allah's Signs to men is performing the duty of a right and noble life. In this he confirms the teaching of all previous men of God. Anyone who supports and confirms such a teacher is also doing his duty and on the right way. (R).

4294. At that stage their wills will have been purified, and they could wish for nothing that they could not or should not have. And it will be as "in the presence of their Lord". If an earthly king gives a decoration, how much greater is the honour when the investiture takes place by the king himself personally?

4295. The conjunction (Lām in Arabic, translated "so that") indicates here the results, not the purpose. Allah's Reward is so bounteous, that if we truly and sincerely put our will into His keeping, He will remove the consequences not only of our minor faults but of the worst of our sins, and judge us according to the very best of our deeds.

36. Is not Allah enough⁴²⁹⁶
For His servant? But
They try to frighten thee
With other (gods) besides Him!
For such as Allah leaves
To stray, there can be
No guide.

٣٦- أَلَيْسَ اللَّهُ بِكَافٍ عَبْدَهُ
وَيُخَوِّفُونَكَ بِالَّذِينَ مِنْ دُونِهِ
وَمَنْ يَضِلَّ اللَّهُ
فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ هَادٍ

4296. The righteous man will find Allah enough for all the protection he needs, all the rest and peace he craves for, and all the happiness he can imagine. If the evil ones wish to frighten him with false gods, he knows that that is mere superstition. In the case of idols to whom worship is paid, this is easily intelligible. But there are other false gods which men worship—wealth, power, science, selfish desire, and so on. The idea may occur to them: "this is the right course, but what will men say?" or "shall I lose my case if I tell the truth?" or "will it ruin my chances if I denounce sin in high places?" All such false gods will only mislead and leave their victims in the lurch. The worship of them will lose them the Grace of Allah, which wants to guide and comfort all who seek Allah.

4297. On the other hand if anyone holds fast to Allah's Truth, nothing can mislead or betray him.

4298. Allah's Power can protect, and will defeat all plots against His Will, as well as punish Evil when it gets beyond bounds.

4299. Cf. 29:61; also n. 2927 to 23:85. Most worshippers of false gods are neither atheists nor sceptics. They admit the existence of Allah as an abstract proposition, but it has not come into their hearts and souls: it has not been translated into their lives. They run after false worship on account of ancestral custom or on account of their thoughtlessness or false environment, or on account of their own selfish desires or limited outlook. To them is addressed the argument: 'Ultimately your false gods can do nothing for you: why not turn to the One True God, on Whom you depend, and Who can give you Grace and Mercy, Justice and Punishment?'

4300. Cf. 33:17.

4301. Cf. 12:67, and 14:12. Allah alone is He Who will and can discharge any trust put in Him. All other things will fail. Therefore those who put their trust in anything should put their trust in Allah.

4302. Cf. 11:121 and n. 1624-A.

4303. Cf. 11:93. The two clauses, about those who suffer a Penalty of ignominy and those on whom descends a lasting Penalty, apparently refer to the same person in two different aspects: (1) they suffer shame, and (2) their punishment endures.

4304. Revelation is sent by Allah through His messenger, but it is for all. It is given in order that men and women may be taught Righteousness. It is given in Truth: there is no pretence about it. It is for their own good. If they reject it and follow Evil, the loss is their own.

4305. Allah's messengers do all they can to teach mankind. But they cannot force men's wills. If men reject their teaching, the account of the rejecters is with Allah. Cf. 6:107, and n. 935.

4306. The mystery of life and death, sleep and dreams, is a fascinating enigma, of which the solution is perhaps beyond the ken of man. A vast mass of superstition as well as imaginative and psychological literature has grown up about it. But the simplest and truest religious doctrine is laid down here in a few words. In death we surrender our physical life, but our soul does not die; it goes back to a plane of existence in which it is more conscious of the realities of the spiritual world: "Allah takes the soul".

وَلَا يَعْقِلُونَ ○

٣٣- قُلْ لِلَّهِ الشَّفَاعَةُ جَمِيعًا
لَهُ الْمُلْكُ

4307. Cf. 6:60. What is sleep? As far as animal life is concerned, it is the cessation of the working of the nervous system, though other animal functions, such as digestion, growth, and the circulation of the blood, continue, possibly at a different pace. It is the repose of the nervous system, and in this respect it is common to man and animals, and perhaps even to plants, if, as is probable, plants have a nervous system. The mental processes (and certainly volition) are also suspended in sleep, except that in ordinary dreams there is a medley of recollections, which often present vividly to our consciousness things that do not or cannot happen in nature as we know it in our coordinated minds. But there is another kind of dream which is rarer—one in which the dreamer sees things as they actually happen, backwards or forwards in time, or in which gifted individuals see spiritual truths otherwise imperceptible to them. How can we explain this? It is suggested that our soul or personality—that something which is above our animal life—is then in a plane of spiritual existence akin to physical death (see last note), when we are nearer to Allah. In poetic imagery, Sleep is "twin-brother to Death".

4308. Sleep being twin-brother to Death, our souls are for the time being released from the bondage of the flesh. Allah takes them for the time being. If, as some do, we are to die peacefully in sleep, our soul does not come back to the physical body, and the latter decays and dies. If we still have some period of life to fulfil according to Allah's decree, our soul comes back to the body, and we resume our functions in this life.

4309. If we contemplate these things, we can see more clearly many spiritual truths: e.g. (1) that our bodily life and death are not the whole story of our existence; (2) that in our bodily life we may be dead to the spiritual world, and in our bodily death, may be our awakening to the spiritual world; (3) that our nightly Sleep, besides performing the function of rest to our physical life, gives us a foretaste of what we call death, which does not end our personality; and (4) that the Resurrection is not more wonderful than our daily rising from Sleep, "twin-brother to Death".

4310. Let alone worship, men should not rely upon any power or person other than Allah to help them out or intercede for them. When it is idols, they are poor lifeless things which have obviously neither power nor intelligence. But even prophets or saints or heroes have no power to intercede except as Allah wills and permits. See next note.

4311. For Shafā'ah (Intercession, Advocacy) see 2:255; 10:3; 20:109, n. 2634; and 21:28, n. 2688. It follows that no one can intercede with Allah, except (1) by Allah's permission, and (2) for those who have prepared themselves by penitence for Allah's acceptance. Even in earthly Courts, Advocacy is not permitted to anyone; the Advocate must be granted the position of Advocate before he can plead before the judge. Nor can it be supposed that a plea for forgiveness or mercy can be put forward except on grounds recognised by equity and justice.

4314. The mysteries of life and death, of worship and spiritual growth, are matters of high moment, which it may be difficult for us to apprehend in this present life. It is no use arguing about them and plunging in endless controversies. The proper attitude is to appeal to Allah humbly to accept our purified hearts and Faith, in the firm hope that everything which is now vague to us will be cleared up in the Hereafter, and to pray to Him for His guidance and mercy.

4315. Cf. 13:18. Those who reject Allah's Message must realise that the time will come when they will wish they had sacrificed everything in the cause of Truth and Righteousness. It will be too late then. Why not examine the matter seriously now and accept Allah's Grace and Light?

4316. This something will be beyond anything they can conceive of in this life. Just as the righteous will then attain a bliss which no human imagination can conceive of now, so the unrighteous will be in a misery of which they can form no conception now. See next note.

4319. Cf. 39:8 above.

4320. Cf. 38:78, and n. 3408. Prosperity may be a trial as much as adversity.

4321. Cf. 16:34.

4322. It is the same story through the ages. People laugh at Truth, persecute Truth, and try to destroy Truth. But Allah's Plan is never to be frustrated. It will be carried out, and only the enemies of Truth will accomplish their own undoing. So it happened in Arabia: so will it happen always and everywhere.

4323. Cf. 28:82. Allah's gifts are given to all men—to some in a greater degree than to others. But it is all done according to His wise Plan, for His Will is just and looks to the good of all creatures. No one should therefore be puffed up in prosperity or cast down in adversity. Prosperity does not necessarily mean merit on man's part, nor adversity the reverse. Thinking men bear in mind the large Plan—which is visible in all Allah's Signs.

4325. The exhortation in brief is: 'Repent and work righteousness, before it becomes too late'. No help will come to you when the Judgement is actually established and you stand before the Judgement Seat.

4326. Cf. 39:18, and n. 4269. Allah's Command meets the weakness of His weakest servants, and only asks that His servants should surrender their selfish will to Allah's Will. In divine compassion, therefore, we are allowed to do just what we can, even though our standard should fall short of the highest assistance. But we must do so in this life—and at once, as soon as the Word penetrates our mind or understanding. We must not delay a moment, for the Judgement may come at any time, suddenly, before we even perceive where we are.

4327. Many kinds of sighs and regrets will then assail us. In the first place, we shall see our shortcomings: we were negligent when we should have been serious: we mocked when we should have tried to learn and understand. But it will be too late then to retrieve our position.

4328. In the second place, we might be inclined to say, 'I wish I had received warning or guidance'. But this would not be true, because the warning and guidance are being conveyed in the clearest manner in Allah's Revelation. That is the force of 'lest it should say'. It could have said so, had it not seen that the objection is clearly anticipated in the call to repent and in the warning about the Hereafter.

4329. In the third place, when we stand face to face with the Penalty of our own deeds, we might say, 'I wish I had another chance'. But not one, but many, chances are being given, especially when we are told (verse 53 above): 'Despair not of the Mercy of Allah: for Allah forgives all sins: for He is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful'. The force of 'lest it should say' here is the same as explained in the last note.

4330. The reply explains how all such pleas have been anticipated and met. It was deliberate rejection that will deserve and meet its consequences. It is further explained that the motive of sin, as with Satan, was haughtiness and Self. (R).

4331. Cf. 2:34. The example of the arch-sinner illustrates what happens, to a minor degree, to every kind of sinner.

4334. Mafāzah: place or state of safety or salvation, place or state of victory or achievement; accomplishment of wish or desire. This is contrasted against the frustration, failure, and perdition of the children of evil — what may be called damnation in theological phraseology.

4335. Allah has not only created all the Worlds, but He maintains them and cares for them. He does not sit apart from His world. Everything depends upon Him.

4336. Allah has nothing to lose by the rebellion or disobedience of His creatures. It is they who lose, because they go counter to their own nature, the beautiful mould in which Allah created them.

4337. Order me: there is great irony here. The Prophet of Allah turns to his critics and says: "You arrogate to yourselves the right to order me how to worship! But who are you? You are only ignorant men! My commission is from Allah. It is the same as came to Prophets of Allah before me in all ages, viz., (1) that the only Truth is in the Gospel of Unity; and (2) that if you worship other things and turn away from Allah, your life will be wasted and all your probation will have been of no account. On the Day of Judgement
The whole of the earth
Will be but His handful,⁴³⁴²
And the heavens will be
Rolled up in His right hand:
Glory to Him!
High is He above
The Partners they attribute
To Him!

68. The Trumpet will (just)
Be sounded, when all
That are in the heavens
And on earth will swoon,⁴³⁴³
Except such as it will
Please Allah (to exempt).
Then will a second one
Be sounded, when, behold,
They will be standing
And looking on!

4339. Cf. 5:6. False worship means that we run after fruitless things, and the main purpose of our spiritual lives is lost.

4340. To "give thanks" is to show by our conduct that we esteem the gifts of Allah and will use them in His service.

4341. Cf. 6:91, and n. 909; and 22:74. In running after false gods or the powers of nature they have forgotten that all creatures are as nothing before Allah.

4343. Ṣa'īqa implies the idea of a swoon, or loss of all consciousness of being; it implies a cessation of the normal functioning of the usual powers of life or feeling. With the first Trumpet of the Resurrection, the whole world will cease to be in the form and the relations which we see now: there will be a new heaven and a new earth, see 14:48, n. 1925; human souls will for the time being be dazed and lose all memory or consciousness of time or place or personality. With the second one, they will stand in a new world; they will see with clearer vision than ever before; and judgement will proceed. (R).

69. And the Earth will shine
With the glory of its Lord:⁴³⁴⁴
The Record (of Deeds)

The prophets and the witnesses
Will be brought forward;
And a just decision⁴³⁴⁵

Will be: “True: but

4344. It will be a new Earth. All traces of injustice or inequality, darkness or evil, will have gone. There will be the one universal Light, the Glory of Allah, which will now illuminate all. Falsehood, pretence, and illusion will have disappeared. Everything will be seen in its true light.

4345. It is in such a scene of Reality that Judgement will be held. Before the Throne of Allah, the book of each man's deeds and motives will be placed wide open, which all may see; the Prophets and Preachers of Truth and the martyrs who gave their lives or made their real sacrifices in the cause of Truth, will be in the Court, to give evidence; and the decision pronounced will be absolutely just, for the Judge will not only be just, but He will know every fact and circumstance, and His wisdom will give due weight to everything, great or small. (R).

4346. In an earthly court, a decision may possibly go wrong because the judge is deceived; here no deceit or mistake will be possible, for Allah knows all, and knows it better than anyone else can. (R).

4347. Crowds: this is the word which gives the keynote to the Sūrah. If the soul does not stand to its own convictions or search out the Truth by itself, it will be classed with the crowds that go to Perdition!

4348. The Keepers may be supposed to be angels, who know nothing of the conditions of evil on this earth, and are surprised at such crowds coming to the “Evil Abode.” (R).

The Decree of Punishment

72. (To them) will be said:

4349. Cf. 10:33. The answer is perhaps given by other angels: 'yes; messengers were sent to them from among themselves, to warn them and proclaim to them Mercy through repentance; but the decree of Allah, which warned them of punishment, has now come true against them, for they rebelled and were haughty; they rejected Truth, Faith, and Mercy!'

4350. As elsewhere, the root of Evil is pointed out to be in self-love and arrogance. Cf. 2:34, etc.

4351. The righteous ones will also go in crowds, and not be alone. There is now a true sorting out. Verses 73-75 are parallel in contrast to verses 71-72 above.

4352. The angels in heaven are not surprised at the advent of the good and righteous souls. They are glad; they greet them with the salutation of Peace; they congratulate them; and they welcome them in.

4353. This is said by the new arrivals in heaven. As is right, they begin with the Praises of Allah, which shows at once their satisfaction and their gratitude.

4354. In heritage: i.e. as our Portion. Cf. 3:180, and n. 485; 6:165, and n. 988. There is no question here of their passing on any property to heirs. They are the final possessors of Heaven for eternity, by the grace of Allah.

The Decision between them

 And the cry (on all sides)
 Will be, "Praise be to Allah,"⁴³⁵⁵

4355. These are the opening words of the first Sūrah, and they describe the atmosphere of the final Bliss in Heaven, in the Light of the Countenance of their Lord, The Universal Lord of all!

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 40—GHĀFIR or AL MU'MIN

This Surah is called Ḡhāfir (Forgiver, see verse 3). It is also called "The Believer" (Mu'min) from the story of the individual Believer among the people of Pharaoh, who declares his faith and looks to the Future (verses 28-45). In S. 23, called The Believers (Mu'minūn), the argument was about the collective force of Faith and virtue. Here it is about the Individual's witness to Faith and Virtue, and his triumph in the End.

We now begin a series of seven Sūrahs (40-46) to which are affixed the Abbreviated Letters Hā Mīm. Chronologically they all belong to the same period, the later Makkan Period, and they immediately follow the last Sūrah in time. About the Abbreviated Letters generally, see Appendix I at the end of S. 2. As to the precise meaning of Hā Mīm no authoritative explanation is available. If Mīm here has a signification similar to Mīm in Alif, Lām, Mīm (see n. 25 to 2), it means the End of things, the Last Day, and all these Sūrahs direct our special attention to that Hā, the emphatic guttural, in contrast with the softer breathing of Alif, may be meant to suggest that the Beginning (see n. 25 to 2:1, last paragraph) is only for the End, the Present for the Future, and to emphasise the eschatological element in Faith. But this is mere conjecture, and should be taken for no more than it is worth.

The general theme of the whole series is the relation of Faith to Unfaith, Revelation to Rejection, Goodness to Evil, Truth to Falsehood. It is shown that the first in each of these pairs is the real friend, helper, and protector of man, while the second is his enemy. The very word Ḥamīm in that sense is used in Sūrahs 40 and 41 (40:18 and 41:34), while in the other Sūrahs we have words of equivalent import, e.g. walī or naṣīr (42:8 and 31); qarīn (43:36, 38); maula (44:41); awliya' or naṣīrīn (45:19, 34); and awliya' (46:32). Is it permissible to connect the Abbreviated Letters Hā Mīm with these ideas as expressed in the word Ḥamīm?

Another suggestion worthy of consideration is that Hā stands for Ḥayy, and Mīm for Qayyūm. These are two attributes of Allah, meaning, (1) the Living, and (2) the Self-Subsisting, Eternal. The one points to Life, and Revelation, and the other to the Hereafter and Eternity; and both these matters are specially dealt with in the seven Hā Mīm Sūrahs. The first letter of Ḥayy (Hā) is appropriate for life, and the last letter of Qayyūm is appropriate for the Last Days, the Ma'ād, the Hereafter. Again, this is mere conjecture, and should not be taken for more than it is worth.

Summary—Faith is ever justified, for Allah forgives: but evil deeds must have evil fruits, for Allah knows and is just (40:1-20 and C. 206).

In all history Evil came to evil; the protest of Faith, in the midst of Evil, may be ignored; but Faith is protected by Allah, while Evil perishes (40:21-50, and C. 207).

No doubt is there of the Future Judgement; the Power, Goodness, and Justice of God are manifest; will man dispute, or will he accept the Signs before it is too late? (40:51-85, and C. 208).

C. 106.—Believe in God. For He is Perfect
(40:1-20.) In Knowledge and Power, forgives Sin
And accepts Repentance, and justly
Enforces His Law. Those who reject Him

Are but in deceit: His glory is sung
By the highest and purest. Give all devotion
To Him alone. The Day of Requital
Is ever drawing near, when Falsehood
Will vanish, and Allah's Truth and Justice
Will be established for all Eternity.

And the Confederates⁴³⁶¹

4361. Cf. 38:11-13, and n. 4158. All the hosts of wickedness collected together from history will have no power against Allah's Truth, or the Messenger of that Truth, or Allah's Holy Plan for all His Creation.

4362. Whenever a great or vital Truth is proclaimed and renewed, there are always shallow minds that are ready to dispute about it! And what petty and vain arguments they advance! They think they can discredit or condemn the Truth in this way, or render "of none effect" Allah's Plan. But they are mistaken. If they seem to succeed for a time, that is merely their trial. They may try to plan and plot against Allah's men. But their plots will fail in the long run. They will themselves be caught in their own snares. And then, how terrible will be their Punishment!

4363. Cf. 13:32.

4364. Cf. 39:71. The Decree, or Word, of Allah, by which Evil was to be judged and condemned, was proved true against these men. They are "Companions of the Fire": in other words, they are fit to live only in the environment of Evil!

4365. Cf. 39:75. (R).

4366. Cf. verse 3 above.

8. "And grant, our Lord!

SECTION 2.

10. The Unbelievers will be Addressed: "Greater was
The aversion of Allah to you⁴³⁷⁰
Than (is) your aversion
To yourselves, seeing that ye
Were called to the Faith
And ye used to refuse."

١٠- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا

11. They will say: "Our Lord!
Twice hast Thou made us⁴³⁷¹

١١- قَالُوا رَبَّنَا آمَنَّا أَثْنَتَيْنِ

4367. There is nothing selfish in prayer. We pray for all who are true and sincere. But just as Evil is catching, so Goodness is catching in another sense. The associates of the Good and those near and dear to them also share in their goodness and happiness, if only they try to walk in the same Way. And the Grace of Allah is working for all, all the time.

4368. That is the final Judgement, and any who is saved from the evil consequences of their deeds in this life will truly have been saved by Allah's Mercy, and for them it is the highest achievement they could have, the attainment of all their wishes, the fulfilment of their destiny and the noblest purpose of their Life, the supreme Salvation and Felicity.

4369. Muslim Salvation, then, is more positive than mere safety from dangers or evils: it is the complete fulfilment of the noble destiny of man in the attainment of the fullest Grace.

4370. The Unbelievers having rejected Allah's Signs, they now see how they are shut out from Grace, and they feel disgusted with themselves. How much greater was Allah's displeasure with them, when He showered mercy upon them and they yet rebelled! How could they now hope for Grace!

4371. Cf. 2:28: "How can ye reject the faith in Allah?—seeing that ye were without life, and He gave you life; then will He cause you to die, and will again bring you to life; and again to Him will ye return." Nonexistence, or existence as clay without life was equivalent to death. Then came true Life on this earth; then came physical death or the cessation of our physical life; and now at the Resurrection, is the second life.

Without life, and twice
Hast Thou given us Life!
Now have we recognised
Our sins: is there
Any way out (of this)?"

12. (The answer will be:)
"This is because, when
Allah was invoked as
The Only (object of worship),⁴³⁷²
Ye did reject Faith,
But when partners were
Joined to Him, ye believed!
The Command is with Allah,⁴³⁷³
Most High, Most Great!"

13. He it is Who showeth

Those receive admonition
Who turn (to Allah).

14. Call ye, then, upon Allah
With sincere devotion to Him,
Even though the Unbelievers⁴³⁷⁵
May detest it.

15. Raised high above ranks

(He is) the Lord

By His Command doth He

١٣- هُوَ الَّذِي يُرِيكُمْ آيَاتِهِ

١٤- فَادْعُوا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ
وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْكَافِرُونَ ۝

١٥- رَفِيعُ الدَّرَجَاتِ ذُو الْعَرْشِ
يُلْقِي الرُّوحَ مِنْ أَمْرِهِ

4372. Cf. 39:45, and n. 4313. When exclusive devotion is not rendered to Allah, there is no true understanding, in the mind of a creature, of his own true position, or of the working of the Divine Will and Purpose. How can he then hope to achieve the purpose of his life, or obtain Allah's Mercy, which is the only way to obtain release from the consequences of Sin?

4373. At the Judgement, the matter will have passed out of the stage at which further chances could have been hoped for. But in any case Allah is High above all things, Great above all that we can conceive of, both in Mercy and in Justice. The Decision will be with Him, and Him alone.

4374. Lest it should be thought that Allah's Grace did not meet the Sinner again and again and offer Allah's Mercy again and again, it is pointed out that Allah's Signs were freely vouchsafed everywhere and continuously, and that every kind of means was provided for man's "Sustenance" or growth and development, physical, mental, and spiritual. But only those could take advantage of it who turned their attention to Allah, who submitted their will to Him.

4375. Cf. 9:33.

4376. He is raised far above any rank or degree which we can imagine. It is possible also to treat Rafī' as equivalent to Rāfi', meaning that He can raise His creatures to the highest ranks and degrees in His spiritual kingdom, for He is the fountain of all honour.

To any of His servants⁴³⁷⁷

16. The Day whereon
They will (all) come forth:

In taking account.

١٧- الْيَوْمَ تُجْزَى كُلُّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ

18. Warn them of the Day
That is (ever) drawing near,
When the Hearts will

Throats⁴³⁸¹
To choke (them);

١٨- وَأَنْذِرْهُمْ يَوْمَ الْأُزْفَةِ
إِذِ الْقُلُوبُ لَدَى الْحَنَاجِرِ كَظِيمِينَ ۚ
مَا لِلظَّالِمِينَ مِنْ حَاسِمٍ

4377. The choosing of a man to be the recipient of inspiration – to be the standard bearer of Allah's Truth – is the highest honour possible in the spiritual Kingdom. And Allah bestows that honour according to His own most perfect Will and Plan, which no one can question, for He is the fountain of all honour, dignity, and authority.

4378. All men will meet together and meet their Lord at the Resurrection, no matter how far scattered they may have been in life or in death.

4379. The Kingdom of Allah – of Justice, Truth, and Righteousness – will then be fully established. Evil can then no more come into competition with Good, even in the subjective consciousness of man.

4380. Swift in several senses: (1) the time of the present life or of the interval before Judgement, i.e., before the restoration of true values, is so short as compared to Eternity, that it may be counted as negligible: in the next verse the Day is characterised as “(ever) drawing near”; (2) in spite of the great concourse of souls to be judged, the process of Judgement will be almost instantaneous, “in the twinkling of an eye” (16:77), because everything is already known to Allah; and yet not the least injustice will be done.

4381. Hearts will come right up to the Throats to choke them: an idiom implying that the whole of their life-functions will be choked up with terror. But a more subtle meaning emerges from further analysis. The heart (or the breast) is the seat of affection, emotion, and every kind of feeling, such as terror, pain, despair, etc. These things will as it were overflow right up to the throat and choke it. The throat is the vehicle for the voice; their voice will be choked, and they will be able to say nothing. The throat is the channel for food, which goes to the stomach and maintains a healthy functioning of life; the choking means that the healthy functioning will stop, and there will be nothing but woe.

C. 207. — Travel in space and time, and you
(40:21-50.) Will see that Evil came to nothing
But evil. Mighty men of old
In arrogance plotted against Allah's Truth,
But were brought low. A humble Believer
In Pharaoh's Court stood up for Truth,
And counselled his People to obey the Right:
In earnest humility did he address them.
They heard him not. But he was saved,
And they were engulfed in the Wrath of Allah.

21. Do they not travel

٢١- أَوَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا

4383. Men may be taken in by tricks that deceive with the eyes, but Allah's perfect knowledge penetrates through all mysteries. "Deceive with the eyes" may mean several things: (1) a sleight of hand (literally or figuratively) may deceive in respect of the eyes of beholders, for the things that they see do not actually happen; (2) it may be the deceiver's own eyes that play false, because, for example, they show love when hatred is meant; or (3) it may be that the eyes of the beholder play him false, in that he sees things that he should not see, and thus sins with his eyes.

4384. Here we come into the region of evil motives and thoughts which may be concealed in the hearts, breast, or mind, but which are all perfectly known to Allah.

4385. If men build their hopes or their faith in anything except the Divine Grace, they will find themselves deserted. Any pretences that they make will be known to Allah. On the other hand every single good act, or word, or motive, or aspiration of their will, will reach Allah's Throne of Mercy.

٢٤- إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَهَامٰنَ وَكَارُوْنَ
فَقَالُوا سِحْرٌ كَذٰبٌ ۝

4387. See n. 3515 to 30:9. We can learn from the history of previous nations. Many of them were more powerful, or have left finer and more imposing monuments and made a deeper impression on the world around them than any particular generation addressed. "Traces" in the text may be taken in that extended sense. And yet all this did not save them from the consequences of their sins. They were called to account and punished. None of the power or pomp or skill of which they boasted could for a moment ward off the punishment when it came in God's good time.

4388. But Allah in His Mercy always sends a Message of warning and good news through his messengers, and He gives His messengers Clear Signs and an authority that can be recognised. Among the Clear Signs are: (1) the pure and unselfish lives of the messengers; (2) the revelation of truth which they bring; (3) their influence on the course of events in their own and succeeding generations; etc. Some of these may be so remarkable that they merit the name of Miracles.

4389. This is not the story of Moses himself, so much as an introduction to the story of the one just man who believed, in the court of Pharaoh: see verse 28 below. This Sūrah's alternate title ("The Believer") refers to him.

4390. Here are three types of Unfaith, each showing a different phase, and yet all united in opposition to the Truth and Mission of Moses. (1) Pharaoh is the type of arrogance, cruelty, and reliance on brute force; cf. 28:38-39. (2) Hāmān was Pharaoh's minister (n. 3331 to 28:6; also 28:38): he was the type of a sycophant who would pander to the vanity of any man in power. (3) Qārūn excelled in his wealth, was selfish in its use, and overbearing to the poor (28:76-81, and n. 3404). They all came to an evil end eventually.

25. Now, when he came to them⁴³⁹¹
In Truth, from Us,
They said, "Slay the sons

٢٥- فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُم بِالْحَقِّ مِنْ عِنْدِنَا

وَمَا كَيْدُ الْكَافِرِينَ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ ۝

26. Said Pharaoh: "Leave me
To slay Moses; and let him
Call on his Lord!⁴³⁹³
What I fear is lest
He should change your religion,⁴³⁹⁴
Or lest he should cause
Mischief to appear
In the land!"

٢٦- وَقَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ ذَرُونِي أَقْتُلْ مُوسَى
وَلْيَدْعُ رَبَّهُ ۚ
إِنِّي أَخَافُ أَنْ يُبَدِّلَ دِينَكُمْ
أَوْ أَنْ يُظْهِرَ فِي الْأَرْضِ الْفَسَادَ ۝

27. Moses said: "I have indeed
Called upon my Lord
And your Lord⁴³⁹⁵
(For protection) from every
Arrogant one who believes not
In the Day of Account!"

٢٧- وَقَالَ مُوسَى إِنِّي عُذْتُ بِرَبِّي
وَرَبِّكُمْ مِنْ كُلِّ مُتَكَبِّرٍ لَا يُؤْمِنُ
بِيَوْمِ الْحِسَابِ ۝

4391. Verse 24 described the opposition of three types of Unfaith, which opposed Faith, in different ways, as described in the last note. Qārūn, in his overweening insolence, may well have called Moses and Aaron "sorcerers telling lies" in the Sinai desert, as he despised priests and men of God, and might cast the Egyptian reproach in their teeth as a reminiscence. Here, in verse 25, we have an episode about the time of the birth of Moses: "them" and "they" refer to Pharaoh and his Court; the "coming" of Moses here refers to the time of his birth. On that construction, "with him", lower down in their speech would be elliptical, referring to "slay the sons", as if they had said, "Kill all Israelite male children: the unknown Prophet to be born would be amongst them: so kill them all with him." In verse 26 we again skip some years and recall an episode when Moses, having got his mission, stood in Pharaoh's Court, and some of the Egyptian Commonalty were almost ready to believe in him.

4392. That is, the Israelites, for they were the custodians of Allah's Faith then. For the slaughter of Israelite children by Pharaoh, see 27:4-6, and notes.

4393. This is an episode that occurs when Moses, invested with his mission, confronts Pharaoh in his Court and preaches to him: see 20:49 and following verses; also 20:57, 63.

4394. Some of Pharaoh's people did afterwards give up the worship of Pharaoh and of the Egyptian gods and believed "in the Lord of Aaron and Moses" and in fact suffered martyrdom for the Faith of Unity: 20:70-73.

4395. The whole point of the Gospel of Unity which Moses preached was that the God of Moses and the God of Pharaoh, of Israel and Egypt, the Lord of all the Worlds, was One—Allah, the only True God See 20:49-50 and notes 2572 and 2573. (R).

SECTION 4.

28. A Believer, a man⁴³⁹⁶
 From among the people
 Of Pharaoh, who had

 But, if he is telling⁴³⁹⁷
 The Truth, then will

٢٨- وَقَالَ رَجُلٌ مُؤْمِنٌ

 وَإِنْ يَكُ صَادِقًا
 يُصِيبْكُمْ بَعْضُ الَّذِي يَعِدُكُمْ
 إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي مَنْ هُوَ

29. "O my People! yours
 Is the dominion this day:
 Ye have the upper hand⁴³⁹⁹
 In the land: but who
 Will help us from
 The Punishment of Allah,
 Should it befall us?"
 Pharaoh said: "I but
 Point out to you that
 Which I see (myself);⁴⁴⁰⁰

٢٩- يَقَوْمِ لَكُمْ الْمُلْكُ الْيَوْمَ
 ظَهَرْتُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ
 فَمَنْ يَنْصُرُنَا مِنْ بَأْسِ اللَّهِ إِنْ جَاءَنَا
 قَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ مَا أُرِيكُمْ إِلَّا مَا أَرَى

4396. There is nothing to justify the identification of this man with the man mentioned in 28:20, who warned Moses long before Moses had received his mission. On the contrary, in this passage, the man is evidently speaking after Moses had received his mission, preached to Pharaoh, and got a certain amount of success, for which Pharaoh and his people were trying to seek his life. Moses had evidently already brought his Clear Signs.

4397. A commonsense view is put before them by an Egyptian who loves his own people and does not wish them to perish in sin. "Will you kill this man for calling on Allah? Have you not seen his character and behaviour? Do you not see the 'Clear Signs' about him that bespeak his credentials? Suppose for a moment that he is a liar and pretender: he will suffer for his falsehood, but why should you turn against Allah? But suppose that he is really inspired by Allah to tell you the truth and warn you against evil, what will be your fate when Allah's Wrath descends? For it must descend if he is a true Messenger sent by Allah."

4398. This is with reference to the "Clear Signs". 'They are Signs of Allah's guidance, for Allah would never guide a man who exceeds the bounds of truth and tells you lies! Such a man is bound to be found out!'

4399. 'Do not be puffed up with arrogance because the power is in your hands at present! Do you deserve it? Will it last? If you are sinning and drawing upon yourselves Allah's Punishment, is there anything that can shield you from it?'

4400. Pharaoh's egotism and arrogance come out. 'I can see and understand everything. As I see things, so do I direct you. The Path which I see must be right, and you must follow it.'

Nor do I guide you
But to the Path of Right!"

30. Then said the man
Who believed: "O my People!
Truly I do fear
For you something like⁴⁴⁰¹
The Day (of disaster)
Of the Confederates (in sin)! — ⁴⁴⁰²

31. "Something like the fate

The 'Ād, and the Thamūd,
And those who came
After them: but Allah
Never wishes injustice⁴⁴⁰³
To His Servants.

32. "And O my People!
I fear for you a Day⁴⁴⁰⁴
When there will be
Mutual calling (and wailing) —

33. "A Day when ye

And flee: no defender
Shall ye have from Allah:
Any whom Allah leaves

To guide. . .

فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ هَادٍ ۝

4401. He appeals to past history. "Have you not heard of people who lived before you?—like the generations of Noah, the 'Ād, the Thamūd, and many more—who held together in sin against Allah's Preachers, but were wiped out for their sins?"

4402. Cf. 38:11-13, and n. 4158, also 40:5, and n. 4361.

4403. 'All these disasters happened in history, and they will happen again to you if you do not give up evil. Do not for a moment think that Allah is unjust. It is you who are deliberately preparing the disasters by your conduct.'

4404. This Day may refer to the Day of Judgement, of which three features are here referred to. (1) People may wail and call to each other, but no one can help another: each one will have his own judgement to face; (2) the wicked will then be driven to Hell from the Judgement Seat; and (3) there will be no one to help, guide, or intercede, because the grace and guidance of Allah had already been rejected. But the words are perfectly general, and are applicable to all stages at which the Wrath of Allah is manifest.

34. "And to you there came Joseph in times gone by,⁴⁴⁰⁵
With Clear Signs, but
Ye ceased not to doubt
Of the (mission) for which
He had come: at length,
When he died, ye said:
'No Messenger will Allah send⁴⁴⁰⁶

35. "(Such) as dispute about

٣٥- الَّذِينَ يُجَادِلُونَ فِي آيَاتِ اللَّهِ

36. Pharaoh said: "O Hāmān!
Build me a lofty palace,⁴⁴⁰⁸
That I may attain
The ways and means—

٣٦- وَقَالَ فِرْعَوْنُ يَهَامُّ ابْنُ ابْنِي صَرَحًا
لَعَلِّي أَبْلُغُ الْأَسْبَابَ ۝

4405. So far he has been speaking of general religious tradition. Now, as an Egyptian, addressing Egyptians, he refers to the mission of Joseph in Egypt. Joseph was not born in Egypt, nor was he an Egyptian. With what wonderful incidents he came into Egypt! What difficulties did he not surmount among his own brothers first, and in the Egyptian family which afterwards adopted him! How injustice, spite, and forgetfulness on the part of others, yet wove a spell round him and made him a ruler and saviour of Egypt in times of famine! How he preached to prisoners in prison, to Zulaykhā in her household, to the Egyptian ladies in their banquet, and to the Court of Pharaoh generally! The Egyptians profited by the material gains which came to them through him, but as a nation remained sceptical of his spiritual truths for many generations after him.

4406. See Appendix IV, p. 406, for a discussion of the interval between Joseph and Moses. Perhaps the interval was about one to three centuries, a very short period for the memory of a learned nation like the Egyptians. And yet they as a nation ignored his spiritual work, and afterwards even persecuted Israel in Egypt until Moses delivered them. They actually saw the benefits conferred by Joseph, but did not realise that Allah's Kingdom works continuously even though men ignore it. See Appendix V, pp. 408-13; for a sketch of Religion in Egypt. For such men how could the Grace and Guidance of Allah be effective in their hearts?

4407. See the last note. The arrogant transgressors having closed their hearts to the Message of Allah and to every appeal made to them, it followed by Allah's Law that their hearts were sealed up to any fresh influences for good. Cf. 7:100; also 2:7, and n. 31.

4408. Cf. 28:38, and n. 3371. There are two points to be noted here. (1) Pharaoh, in the arrogance of his materialism, thinks of the Kingdom of Heaven like a kingdom on earth; he thinks of spiritual things in terms of palaces and ladders: notice that the word asbāb (ways and means) is emphasised by repetition. (2) His sarcasm turns Moses and Allah to ridicule. Really he does not believe in anything spiritual, and he frankly states that 'for his part he thinks Moses is a liar', though other men less lofty than he (Pharaoh) may be deceived by the Clear Signs of Moses.

37. "The ways and means
Of (reaching) the heavens,
And that I may mount up
To the God of Moses:
But as far as I am concerned,
I think (Moses) is a liar!"
Thus was made alluring,⁴⁴⁰⁹
In Pharaoh's eyes,
The evil of his deeds,
And he was hindered
From the Path; and the plot⁴⁴¹⁰
Of Pharaoh led to nothing
But perdition (for him).

٣٧- أَنْسَابَ السَّمَوَاتِ

٣٩- يِقُومُ إِنَّمَا هَذِهِ الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا مَتَاعٌ

٤٠- مَنْ عَمِلَ سَيِّئَةً فَلَا يُجْزَى إِلَّا مِثْلَهَا

مِنْ ذَكَرٍ أَوْ أُنْثَىٰ وَهُوَ مُؤْمِنٌ
فَأُولَٰئِكَ يَدْخُلُونَ الْجَنَّةَ

4410. Pharaoh had plotted to slay Moses (40:26) and to kill the Children of Israel (40:25). The plot recoiled on his own head and on the head of his people who joined in the plot; for they were all drowned in the Red Sea.

4411. Note the contrast between the earnest beseeching tone of the Believer here and the hectoring tone of Pharaoh in using similar words in 40:29 above.

4412. Faith makes him see the contrast between vanities, even though they may glitter temporarily, and the eternal Good that is destined for man.

43. "Without doubt ye do call

۞ لَا جَرَمَ أَنْتُمْ تَدْعُونَنِي إِلَيْهِ

44. "Soon will ye remember
What I say to you (now).⁴⁴¹⁷
My (own) affair I commit

۞ فَسَتَذَكَّرُونَ مَا أَقُولُ لَكُمْ
وَأَفْوضُ أَمْرِي

4413. Cf. 2:212. The spiritual Good will not only last. It will be a most liberal reward, far above any merits of the recipient.

4414. It may seem strange according to the laws of this world that he should be seeking their Good while they are seeking his damnation! But that is the merit of Faith. Its mission is to rescue its enemies and Allah's enemies, as far as their will will consent!

4415. The worship of Pharaoh was but typical of Egyptian blasphemy, but it had many sides, including the worship of heroes, animals, powers of good and evil in nature, and idols of all kinds. It is this comprehensive cult which required forgiveness again and again, but Allah is Exalted in Power, and gives such forgiveness on repentance.

4416. Faith is not content with its own inner vision and conviction. It can give ample arguments. Three are mentioned here: (1) nothing but Allah is worthy of worship, either in this world of sense or in the spiritual world; (2) our Return will be to Allah, the Eternal Reality; and (3) the worship of Falsehood must necessarily lead to the Penalty of Falsehood, unless Allah's Mercy intervenes and forgives on our sincere repentance. (R).

4417. The wording suggests as if there was a plot to kill him, but he was saved, as the next verse shows. His thought to the last is with his People. 'No matter what you do to me: you will have cause to remember my admonition, when perhaps it is too late for you to repent. For my part I commit myself to the care of Allah, and my Faith tells me that all will be right.'

To Allah: for Allah (ever)
Watches over His Servants."

45. Then Allah saved him
From (every) ill that they
Plotted (against him),
But the brunt of the Penalty⁴⁴¹⁸
Encompassed on all sides
The People of Pharaoh.

46. In front of the Fire
Will they be brought,
Morning and evening:⁴⁴¹⁹
And (the Sentence will be)
On the Day that
Judgement will be established:
"Cast ye the People
Of Pharaoh into
The severest Penalty!"

47. Behold, they will dispute
With each other in the Fire!⁴⁴²⁰
The weak ones (who followed)
Will say to those who
Had been arrogant, "We but
Followed you: can ye then
Take (on yourselves) from us
Some share of the Fire?"

48. Those who had been arrogant
Will say: "We are all⁴⁴²¹
In this (Fire)! Truly,
Allah has judged
Between (His) Servants!"

إِلَى اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِصِيرٍ بِالْعِبَادِ ۝

٣٥- فَوَقَّهٗ اللَّهُ سَيِّئَاتِ مَا مَكَرُوا
وَحَاقَ بِآلِ فِرْعَوْنَ
سُوءُ الْعَذَابِ ۝

٣٦- النَّارُ يُعْرَضُونَ عَلَيْهَا
غُدُوًّا وَعَشِيًّا ۚ
وَيَوْمَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ ۚ
أَدْخِلُوا آلَ فِرْعَوْنَ
أَشَدَّ الْعَذَابِ ۝

٣٧- وَإِذْ يَتَحَايَوْنَ فِي النَّارِ
فَيَقُولُ الضَّعِيفُ الَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا
إِنَّا كُنَّا لَكُمْ تَبَعًا فَهَلْ أَنْتُمْ
مُعْتَدُونَ عَنَّا نَصِيبًا مِّنَ النَّارِ ۝

٣٨- قَالَ الَّذِينَ اسْتَكْبَرُوا
إِنَّا كُلٌّ فِيهَا ۚ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ قَدْ حَكَمَ بَيْنَ الْعِبَادِ ۝

4418. The Pharaoh of the time of Moses, and his people, suffered many calamities in this world: 7:130-136. But those were nothing to the spiritual Penalties mentioned in the next verse.

4419. When the Judgement really comes, it is not like an ordinary physical disaster. The Fire of Punishment is ever present — morning and evening — i.e., at all times. The sentence becomes final and there is no mitigation.

4420. Just as Unity, Harmony, and Peace are symbols of Truth, Bliss, and Salvation, so Reproaches, Disputes, and Disorders are symbols of Hell.

4421. Note the evasion and cynicism of the answer, befitting the character of spiritual misleaders! 'What! are we not suffering with you in the same Fire! Pray to Allah if you like! He has pronounced His Judgement!' Cf. 14:21-22.

49. Those in the Fire will say
To the Keepers of Hell:⁴⁴²²
"Pray to your Lord
To lighten us the Penalty
For a Day (at least)!"

٣٩- وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ فِي النَّارِ لِخَزَنَةِ جَهَنَّمَ
ادْعُوا رَبَّكُمْ يُخَفِّفْ عَنَّا يَوْمًا
مِّنَ الْعَذَابِ ۝

50. They will say: "Did there
Not come to you
Your messengers with Clear
Signs?"

٥٠- قَالُوا أَوَلَمْ تَكُنَّا نَأْتِيَكُم
رُسُلًا بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ ۖ

They will say: "Yes".
They will reply, "Then"⁴⁴²³
Pray (as ye like)! But
The Prayer of those Without Faith is nothing
But (futile wandering)
In (mazes of) error!"

قَالُوا بَلَىٰ ۖ
قَالُوا فَادْعُوا ۚ
يَع ۚ وَمَا دُعَاؤُ الْكَافِرِينَ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ ۝

C. 208. — Allah's grace and help are ever ready
(40:51-58.) For His servants who patiently persevere.
Let not arrogance blind the souls
Of men: the Hour of Judgement is bound
To come. The keys of Life and Death
Are in the hands of Allah. Dispute not
The Signs of Allah, but learn from History
And the world around you. Science and skill
Avail you not if the soul is dead.

SECTION 6.

51. We will, without doubt,
Help Our messengers and those
Who believe, (both)
In this world's life
And on the Day
When the Witnesses⁴⁴²⁴
Will stand forth—

٥١- إِنَّا لَنَنْصُرُ رُسُلَنَا وَالَّذِينَ
آمَنُوا فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا
وَيَوْمَ يَقُومُ الْأَشْهَادُ ۝

4422. Cf. 39:71. The poor misguided ones will turn to the angels who are their Keepers, asking them to pray and intercede for them. But the angels are set there to watch over them, not to intercede for them. In their innocence they ask, 'Did you have no warnings from messengers, men like yourselves, in your past life?'

4423. The answer being in the affirmative, they will have to tell the dreadful truth: 'This is neither the time nor the place for prayer, for mercy! And in any case, Prayer without Faith is Delusion, and must miss its mark.' Cf. 13:14.

4424. The Day of Judgement is described as "the Day when Witnesses will stand forth". This description implies two things: (1) that there man will be judged justly; his past actions and his faculties and opportunities will be witnesses as to the use he made of them (34:24); in fact he will himself be a witness against himself (6:130); and the prophets and just men will bear witness to the fact that they preached and warned men (39:69; 2:133).

52. The Day when no profit
Will it be to Wrongdoers
To present their excuses,⁴⁴²⁵
But they will (only) have
The Curse and the Home
Of Misery.
53. We did aforetime give Moses
The (Book of) Guidance,⁴⁴²⁶
And We gave the Book
In inheritance to the Children
Of Israel—
54. A Guide and a Message
To men of understanding.
55. Patiently, then, persevere:⁴⁴²⁷
For the Promise of Allah
Is true: and ask forgiveness⁴⁴²⁸
For thy fault, and celebrate
The Praises of thy Lord
In the evening
And in the morning.⁴⁴²⁹
56. Those who dispute
About the Signs of Allah
Without any authority
Bestowed on them—there is⁴⁴³⁰
Nothing in their breasts

٥٢-يَوْمَ لَا يَنْفَعُ الظَّالِمِينَ مَعَذَرَتُهُمْ
وَلَهُمُ اللَّعْنَةُ
وَلَهُمْ سُوءُ الدَّارِ ○

٥٣-وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْهُدَى
وَأَوْثَرْنَا بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ الْكِتَابَ ○

٥٤-هُدًى وَذِكْرَى لِأُولَى الْأَلْبَابِ ○

٥٥-فَاصْبِرْ إِنَّ وَعْدَ اللَّهِ حَقٌّ
وَاسْتَغْفِرْ لِنَفْسِكَ وَسَبِّحْ
بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ بِالْعَشِيِّ وَالْإِبْكَارِ ○

٥٦-إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُجَادِلُونَ فِي آيَاتِ اللَّهِ
بِغَيْرِ سُلْطَانٍ أَتَاهُمْ
إِنْ فِي صُدُورِهِمْ

4425. After the testimony mentioned in the last note, there will be no room for excuses, and if any were made, they could serve no purpose, unlike the state of matters in this world, where there is much make-believe, and Falsehood often masquerades as Truth and is accepted as such even by those who should know better.

4426. Moses was given a Revelation, and it was given in heritage to the Children of Israel, to preserve it, guide their conduct by, and hold aloft its Message; but they failed in all these particulars.

4427. The Israelites corrupted or lost their Book: they disobeyed Allah's Law; and failed to proclaim and exemplify Allah's Message. That is why the new Revelation came to the Holy Prophet. If, in the beginning, it was rejected and persecuted, there was no cause for discouragement; on the contrary, there was all the greater need for patience and perseverance.

4428. Every mortal according to his nature and degree of spiritual enlightenment falls short of the perfect standard of Allah (16:61), and should therefore ask Allah for forgiveness. What is merit in an ordinary man may be a human shortcoming in one nearest to Allah: see 38:24-25, and notes 4175-76. Prophets have a further responsibility for their People or their Ummah, and they ask in a representative capacity.

4429.Cf. 3:41. Evening and morning are the best times for contemplation and spiritual effort. But the phrase "evening and morning" may mean "at all times". (R).

4430. The Disputes are actuated by nothing but the desire for self-glory and self-aggrandizement. Their desire is not likely to receive fruition, but others should take warning from it.

But (the quest of) greatness,
Which they shall never
Attain to: seek refuge,
Then, in Allah: it is He
Who hears and sees (all things).

إِلَّا كِبْرُ
مَا هُمْ بِبَالِغِيهِ ۖ فَاسْتَعِذْ بِاللَّهِ
إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْبَصِيرُ ۝

57. Assuredly the creation⁴⁴³¹
Of the heavens
And the earth
Is a greater (matter)
Than the creation of men:
Yet most men understand not.

هـ- لَخَلْقُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
أَكْبَرُ مِنْ خَلْقِ النَّاسِ
وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ۝

58. Not equal are the blind
And those who (clearly) see:⁴⁴³²
Nor are (equal) those
Who believe and work
Deeds of righteousness, and
Those who do evil.
Little do ye learn
By admonition!

هـ- وَمَا يَسْتَوِي الْأَعْمَى وَالْبَصِيرُ ۚ
وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
وَلَا الْمُسِيءُ ۚ
قَلِيلًا مَّا تَتَذَكَّرُونَ ۝

59. The Hour will certainly come:⁴⁴³³
Therein is no doubt:
Yet most men believe not.

هـ- إِنَّ السَّاعَةَ لَأْتِيَةٌ ۖ لَا رَيْبَ فِيهَا
وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ۝

60. And your Lord says:
"Call on Me; I
Will answer your (Prayer):"⁴⁴³⁴
But those who are
Too arrogant to serve Me
Will surely find themselves
In Hell—in humiliation!"

و- وَقَالَ رَبُّكُمْ ادْعُونِي
أَسْتَجِبْ لَكُمْ ۚ
إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَسْتَكْبِرُونَ عَنْ عِبَادَتِي
سَيَدْخُلُونَ جَهَنَّمَ دُخْرِينَ ۝

4431. The heavens and the earth include mankind and all other creatures and millions of stars. Man is himself but a tiny part of creation. Why should he be so egocentric? The whole is greater than a tiny part of it. And Allah Who created the whole of the Worlds is able to do much more wonderful things than can enter the imagination of man. Why should man be arrogant and doubt the Resurrection, and take upon himself to doubt the possibility of Allah's Revelation? It is only because he has made himself blind. See next verse.

4432. The man of Faith who backs his faith by righteous conduct is like the man of clear vision, who sees things in their true perspective and walks with firm steps in the Way of Allah. The man who does evil is like a blind man: the Light of Allah is all around him, but the man has made himself blind, and he can see nothing. He has rejected Faith and cannot even learn by other people's admonition.

4433. "The Hour" is the crown and consummation of man's life on this earth—the gateway to the Hereafter.

4434. As this life is not the end of all things, and we are to have its fulfillment in the Hereafter, we have only to pray to the Lord of the Present and the Hereafter, and He will hear us, forgive us, guide us, and make our Path smooth. But Pride will have its fall—and its humiliating Punishment. Cf. 37:18.

SECTION 7.

61. It is Allah Who has⁴⁴³⁵
Made the Night for you,
That ye may rest therein,
And the Day, as that
Which helps (you) to see.
Verily Allah is Full of Grace and Bounty to men:
Yet most men give
No thanks.
62. Such is Allah, your Lord,
The Creator of all things.
There is no god but He:
Then how ye are deluded⁴⁴³⁶
Away from the Truth!
63. Thus are deluded those⁴⁴³⁷
Who are wont to reject
The Signs of Allah.
64. It is Allah Who has⁴⁴³⁸
Made for you the earth
As a resting place,⁴⁴³⁹
And the sky as a canopy,
And has given you shape —⁴⁴⁴⁰
And made your shapes
Beautiful — and has provided
For you Sustenance.⁴⁴⁴¹

٦١- اَللّٰهُ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ اللَّيْلَ
لِتَسْكُنُوا فِيْهِ
وَالنَّهَارَ مُبْصِرًا
اِنَّ اِلَهَ لَكُمْ لَدُوْهُ فَضَّلَ عَلَى النَّاسِ
وَلَكِنَّ اَكْثَرَ النَّاسِ لَا يَشْكُرُوْنَ ۝

٦٢- ذٰلِكُمُ اللّٰهُ رَبُّكُمْ خَالِقُ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ
لَّا اِلٰهَ اِلَّا هُوَ
فَاَنَّى تُؤْفَكُوْنَ ۝

٦٣- كَذٰلِكَ يُؤْفِكُ الَّذِيْنَ
كَانُوْا بِآيٰتِ اللّٰهِ يَجْحَدُوْنَ ۝

٦٤- اَللّٰهُ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْاَرْضَ
قَرَارًا وَالسَّمَاءَ بِنَاءً
وَصَوَّرَكُمُ فَاَحْسَنَ صُوْرَكُمْ
وَرَزَقَكُمْ

4435. The succession of Day and Night in our physical life is frequently appealed to, as a symbol to draw our attention to the Mercy and Bounty of Allah. If we viewed these things aright, we should serve Allah and seek Light from Him and Rest from Him, and celebrate His praises with gratitude.

4436. If we worship false gods, i.e., go after vanities, what is it that deludes us and leads us astray? What could it be but our rank ingratitude and failure to use the understanding which Allah has given us?

4437. See the last two notes. If men are deluded by Falsehoods, it is because they reject Revelation and refuse to learn from the Signs of Allah all around them.

4438. The argument in the last two verses was from man's personal experience of his physical life. In this and the next verse a parallel argument is addressed to man on a much higher plane: 'look at the spacious earth and the canopy of the sky; look at the special position you occupy above other animals that you know, in shape and form, and moral and spiritual capacities; consider your refinements in food and fruits and the higher spiritual Sustenance of which your physical food is a type; would you not indeed say that the Lord is good, and would you not glorify His Holy Name?'

4439. A resting place: I understand this to imply a temporary place of rest or sojourn, a period of probation, to be followed by the eternal Home.

4440. Cf. 7:11 and n. 996. The shape and form refer to the physical form as well as to the inborn moral and spiritual capacities of man. As regards physical form, Cf. Milton's description of Adam and Eve, "Two of far noble shape, erect and tall" (Paradise Lost, 4:288). As regards moral and spiritual capacities, they are typified by the breathing of Allah's spirit into man: 15:29.

4441. "Sustenance" all that is necessary for growth and development, physical, moral, and spiritual. Cf. n. 2105 and 16:73.

Of things pure and good—
Such is Allah your Lord.
So Glory to Allah,
The Lord of the Worlds!

65. He is the Living (One):⁴⁴⁴²
There is no god but He:
Call upon Him, giving Him
Sincere devotion. Praise be
To Allah, Lord of the Worlds!

66. Say: "I have been forbidden⁴⁴⁴³
To invoke those whom ye
Invoke besides Allah—seeing that
The Clear Signs have come
To me from my Lord;
And I have been commanded
To bow (in Islām)
To the Lord of the Worlds."

67. It is He Who has⁴⁴⁴⁴
Created you from dust,
Then from a sperm-drop,
Then from a leech-like clot;
Then does He get you
Out (into the light)
As a child; then lets you
(Grow and) reach your age
Of full strength; then
Lets you become old—
Though of you there are
Some who die before—
And lets you reach
A Term appointed;
In order that ye
May learn wisdom.

مِّنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ ۚ ذَلِكُمُ اللَّهُ رَبُّكُمْ ۝
فَتَبَرَّكَ اللَّهُ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝

٦٥- هُوَ الْحَيُّ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ
فَادْعُوهُ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ ۚ
الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝

٦٦- قُلْ إِنِّي نُهِيتُ أَنْ أَعْبُدَ الَّذِينَ
تَدْعُونَ مِن دُونِ اللَّهِ
لَمَّا جَاءَنِيَ الْبَيِّنَاتُ مِنْ رَبِّي ۚ
وَأُمِرْتُ أَنْ أُسَلِّمَ لِلرَّبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝

٦٧- هُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ مِنْ تُرَابٍ
ثُمَّ مِنْ نُّطْفَةٍ ثُمَّ مِنْ عَلَقَةٍ
ثُمَّ يُخْرِجُكُمْ طِفْلًا
ثُمَّ لِتَبْلُغُوا أَشَدَّكُمْ
ثُمَّ لَتَكُونُوا شُيُوخًا
وَمِنْكُمْ مَّنْ يُوْتَوَىٰ مِنْ قَبْلُ
وَلِتَبْلُغُوا أَجَلًا مُّسَدَّدًا
وَلَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُونَ ۝

4442. The real, self-subsisting Life is only in Him. Cf. 2:255, and n. 296. All other forms of life are but shadows compared to His perfect Light.

4443. All objects of worship besides Allah are mere delusions. To anyone who sees this clearly, through Allah's Self-revelations, the only possible course is to give up everything else, which his own inner experience as well as outer Revelation tell him is false or of a temporary nature, and to bring his own will and actions into complete unison with Allah's Will: for that is the meaning of Islam, bowing to the Will of Allah. When we bow to the Real and Everlasting, we are automatically saved from falling victims to the False and Evanescent. (R).

4444. Cf. this passage with 22:5 and notes 2773 and 2774. The various stages of man's physical life are: (1) first, simple matter (dust); (2) the sperm-drop in the father; (3) the fertilised ovum in the mother's womb; (4) out into the light, as a human child; (5) youth and full maturity; (6) decay; and (7) death. In some cases the late stages are curtailed or cut off; but in any case, a Term appointed is reached, so that the higher purpose of Allah's Will and Plan may be fulfilled in each given case, that man "may learn wisdom".

68. It is He Who gives Life ⁴⁴⁴⁵
And Death; and when He Decides upon an affair,
He says to it, "Be",
And it is.

٦٨- هُوَ الَّذِي يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ
فَإِذَا قَضَىٰ أَمْرًا
فَأَنكأ يَقُولُ لَهُ كُنْ فَيَكُونُ ۝

SECTION 8.

69. Seest thou not those
That dispute concerning
The Signs of Allah?
How are they turned away ⁴⁴⁴⁶
(From Reality)?—
70. Those who reject the Book ⁴⁴⁴⁷
And the (revelations) with which
We sent Our messengers:
But soon shall they know—
71. When the yokes (shall be) ⁴⁴⁴⁸
Round their necks,
And the chains;
They shall be dragged along—
72. In the boiling fetid fluid; ⁴⁴⁴⁹
Then in the Fire
Shall they be burned;
73. Then shall it be said
To them: "Where are
The (deities) to which
Ye gave part-worship—

٦٩- أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ يُجَادِلُونَ
فِي آيَاتِ اللَّهِ
أَنَّهُ يُصْرِفُونَهَا ۝

٧٠- الَّذِينَ كَذَّبُوا بِالْكِتَابِ وَبِمَا أَرْسَلْنَا
بِهِ رَسُولَنَا فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ ۝

٧١- إِذَا الْأَغْلالُ فِي أَعْنَاقِهِمْ وَالسَّلْسِلُ
يُسْعَبُونَ ۝

٧٢- فِي الْحَمِيمِ ثُمَّ فِي النَّارِ يُسْجَرُونَ ۝

٧٣- ثُمَّ قِيلَ لَهُمْ
أَيْنَ مَا كُنْتُمْ تُشْرِكُونَ ۝

4445. The keys of life and death are in Allah's hands. But He is not dependent on time or place or instruments or materials. All that He has to do is to say "Be", and it comes into existence. Cf. 16:40, and n. 2066; 36:82, and n. 4029. Conversely, His Will or Command is sufficient to annihilate Existence into Non-Existence (Life into Death) or determine the limits or conditions of Existence or Non-Existence.

4446. Those who dispute about the Signs of Allah which are clear to all who care to see, are merely in the mists of Unreality: Cf. 10:32.

4447. "The Book" may refer to the Holy Qur'ān or to the fundamental Revelation, the "Mother of the Book" (13:39), while the Books revealed to the messengers are the definite Revelations that came down to men from time to time.

4448. The rejection of Allah's Message, however brought, carries its own penalty. The yoke of spiritual slavery to Sin and Evil is fastened more and more firmly round the rejecter's neck, because there is no one to safeguard his freedom, and the chains of superstitions and the ugly consequences of evil restrict his freedom and the limited faculty of choice which was given by Allah to man. This process receives its climax at the Hour of Judgement.

4449. The sinner gets dragged further and further in the disgusting consequences of his evil actions, until the fire of destruction closes in upon him.

And some whose story
We have not related
To thee. It was not (Possible) for any messenger
To bring a Sign except
By the leave of Allah:
But when the Command⁴⁴⁵⁵
Of Allah issued,
The matter was decided
In truth and justice,
And there perished,
There and then, those
Who stood on Falsehoods.

وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ لَمْ نَقْصُصْ عَلَيْكَ
وَمَا كَانَ لِرَسُولٍ
أَنْ يَأْتِيَ بِآيَةٍ
إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ
فَإِذَا جَاءَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ
قُضِيَ بِالْحَقِّ
وَخَيْرَ هَذَا لِكَ السُّبُطُونَ ۝

SECTION 9.

79. It is Allah who made⁴⁴⁵⁶
Cattle for you, that ye
May use some for riding
And some for food;

۞-اللهُ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمْ الْإِنْعَامَ
لِتَرْكَبُوا مِنْهَا وَمِنْهَا تَأْكُلُونَ ۝

80. And there are (other) advantages
In them for you (besides);
That ye may through them
Attain to any need
(There may be) in your hearts;
And on them and on ships
Ye are carried.

۞-وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا مَنَافِعُ
وَلِتَبْلُغُوا عَلَيْهَا حَاجَةً
فِي صُدُورِكُمْ
وَعَلَيْهَا وَعَلَى الْفُلْكِ تُحْمَلُونَ ۝

81. And He shows you (always)⁴⁴⁵⁷
His Signs: then which
Of the Signs of Allah
Will ye deny?

۞-وَيُرِيكُمْ آيَاتِهِ ۚ فَآيٍ
أَيُّ اللَّهِ تُكْفِرُونَ ۝

4455. The Signs of Allah are everywhere, and can be seen by the discerning eye at all times. But if any extraordinary Signs are demanded by cynics or Unbelievers, they will not be granted merely because they are demanded. It is Allah's Will that issues them, not merely the desire of human beings, even if he be a Messenger of Allah. But when an extraordinary Sign does issue by the Command of Allah, it means that the cup of the iniquitous is full; that their case is decided, and their time of respite is past; and that Justice takes the place of Mercy, and evil is blotted out.

4456. Cf. 16:5-8. The fact that beasts, which in their wild state are so noxious, are, when domesticated, so useful to man, is itself one of the great and standing Signs of Allah's care for man. The great usefulness of cattle is very instructive. They serve for riding, and many of them for food; further, they are used for the plough, and they produce milk, or wool or hair; and from their carcasses man derives bones and horns for many industrial uses; but passing on to the higher aspects of life, they further social, moral, and spiritual uses as draught-animals, in that transport serves one of the fundamental purposes of civilisation, being in this respect like ships for international commerce: 30:46, and n. 3565. It is by means of human intercourse through transport that we can carry out the highest needs of our culture, "any need there may be in our hearts", i.e., in our inner being.

4457. The Signs of Allah's goodness and mercy are so numerous that it is impossible to enumerate them. Which of them can any mortal deny? This is the theme of that highly poetical Sūrah, Al Raḥmān (S. 55).

82. Do they not travel through
The earth and see what
Was the End of those Before them? They were
More numerous than these
And superior in strength⁴⁴⁵⁸
And in the traces
(They have left) in the land:
Yet all that they accomplished
Was of no profit to them.

٨٢- أَفَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا
كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ
كَانُوا أَكْثَرُ مِنْهُمْ وَأَشَدَّ قُوَّةً
وَآثَارًا فِي الْأَرْضِ
فَمَا أَغْنَى عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ○

83. For when their messengers
Came to them
With Clear Signs, they exulted⁴⁴⁵⁹
In such knowledge (and skill)
As they had; but
That very (Wrath) at which⁴⁴⁶⁰
They were wont to scoff
Hemmed them in.

٨٣- فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ رَسُولُهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ
فَرِحُوا بِمَا عِنْدَهُمْ مِنَ الْعِلْمِ
وَحَاقَ بِهِمْ
مَا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ ○

84. But when they saw
Our Punishment, they said:
"We believe in Allah—
The One God—and we
Reject the partners we used
To join with Him."

٨٤- فَلَمَّا رَأَوْا بَأْسَنَا قَالُوا
أَمْنَا بِاللَّهِ وَحْدَهُ
وَكَفَرْنَا بِمَا كُنَّا بِهِ مُشْرِكِينَ ○

85. But their professing the Faith⁴⁴⁶¹
When they (actually) saw
Our Punishment was not going

٨٥- فَلَمْ يَكُ يَنْفَعُهُمْ إِيمَانُهُمْ
لَمَّا رَأَوْا بَأْسَنَا
سُنَّتَ اللَّهِ

4458. Cf. 9:69. For any generation to take inordinate pride in its own single achievements in science or skill becomes ridiculous if we consider the broad stream of history. In the first place, men will find that a great deal of what they attribute to their own merits only became possible owing to the earlier work of their predecessors. Secondly, many of their predecessors were more numerous and mightier in power than they, although the perspective of time may have reduced the apparent depth of their influence, and the monuments which they have left behind may have suffered from the destroying hand of Time. Thirdly, and most important of all, when they forgot Allah and His inexorable Law, nothing of their own handiwork profited them: they perished in the common ruin as all vanities must perish. Cf. also 40:21 above, and n. 4387. See how the recapitulation rounds off the argument.

4459. Arrogance and an exaggerated idea of Self were at the bottom of the Evil to which they succumbed.

4460. Cf. 16:34. Nothing could stop the Justice of Allah punishing Evil. What they had ridiculed came as an inexorable fact. None of their grandeur or art or science or skill was of any use when they lost their souls!

4461. Again and again were they given chances, and again and again did they reject them. When it was too late, and in fact when it had no meaning, they offered to profess Faith. That was of no use. Allah does not accept unmeaning things of that kind. He wants to train and purify our will. For their disobedience and rebellion they perished utterly.

Of dealing with His servants

And even thus did
The rejecters of Allah
Perish (utterly)!

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 41—FUṢṢILAT or ḤA MĪM

This is the second of the series of seven Sūrahs bearing the Abbreviated Letters Ḥā Mīm, as explained in the Introduction to S. 40. To prevent confusion with other Sūrahs of the Ḥā Mīm series, the word Sajdah is sometimes added to the title, making it Ḥā Mīm al Sajdah, the double title being necessary as there is another Sūrah called Sajdah (S. 32). To avoid the double title, it is sometimes called Fuṣṣilat, from the occurrence of the word in verse 3.

The meaning of Ḥā Mīm has been explained in the Introduction to S. 40., where will also be found a note on the chronology and general theme of the seven Ḥā Mīm Sūrahs.

For this particular Sūrah the theme is that the basis of Faith and Revelation is Allah's Power and Goodness, and the fruit of both is man's righteousness and healing.

Summary.—What is Revelation and Faith, and what is man's attitude to both, and what are its consequences? (41:1-32, and C. 209).

The fruits of Faith and Unfaith, Truth and Falsehood, (41:33-54, and C. 210).

C. 209.—Revelation explains, and makes things clear;
 (41:1-32.) It gives the message of hope and mercy,
 And it warns men against the snares
 Of Evil. Deny not Allah, the Lord
 Of the Worlds, Whose glory and power
 Are shown in Creation, and His Mercy
 In Revelation. Learn from the fate
 Of the Peoples of old! Learn from the warnings
 Of your own nature: your very limbs
 And faculties, if misused, bear witness
 Against you. Repent ere it be too late.

Sūrah 41.

Fuṣṣilat (Expounded), or Hā Mīm

الْحَجُّ وَالْعِشْرُونَ سُورَةُ فَصَّلَتْ

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. *Hā Mīm.*⁴⁴⁶²

ا-حَمَّ

2. A revelation from (Allah),⁴⁴⁶³
Most Gracious, Most
Merciful—

٢-تَنْزِيلٌ مِّنَ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

3. A Book, whereof the verses
Are explained in detail—
A Qur'ān in Arabic,
For people who understand—٣-كِتَابٌ فَصَّلَتْ آيَاتُهُ
قُرْآنًا عَرَبِيًّا لِّقَوْمٍ يَعْلَمُونَ4. Giving Good News
And Admonition: yet most⁴⁴⁶⁴
Of them turn away,
And so they hear not.٤-بَشِيرًا وَنَذِيرًا
فَاعْرَضَ أَكْثَرُهُمْ فَهُمْ لَا يَسْمَعُونَ5. They say: "Our hearts are"⁴⁴⁶⁵
Under veils, (concealed)
From that to which thou
Dost invite us, and
In our ears is a deafness,
And between us and thee٥-وَقَالُوا قُلُوبُنَا فِيْ أَكِنَّةٍ
مِّمَّا تَدْعُونَا إِلَيْهِ
وَفِيْ أَذَانِنَا وَقْرٌ مِّنْ بَيْنِنَا وَبَيْنِكَ

4462. Abbreviated Letters: See Introduction to S. 40. See also n. 4382 to 40:8, and n. 4505 to 41:34.

4463. In the last Sūrah (40:2-3) the revelation was described with reference to some of the qualities of Allah from Whom it came. Here it is described mainly with reference to its subject matter. (1) It brings the Message of Grace and Mercy; (2) it is not merely a book of Dark Sayings, but everything is explained clearly and from various points of view; (3) it is in Arabic, the language of the people among whom it was first promulgated, and therefore easily intelligible to them if they take the trouble to understand; and (4) it opens the way to Forgiveness through Repentance and gives warning of all spiritual Dangers.

4464. With all the qualities mentioned in the last note, if men do not profit by its blessings, the fault lies in their will: they turn away, and thus fail to hear the voice that calls to them.

4465. The consequence of their wilful rejection is that a distance is created between Revelation and those for whom it is meant; their ears become deaf, so that the voice falls fainter and fainter on their ears: they feel a bar between themselves and the Messenger who comes to teach them. Cf. 7:25.

Is a screen: so do⁴⁴⁶⁶
Thou (what thou wilt);
For us, we shall do
(What we will!)"

6. Say thou: "I am
But a man like you:⁴⁴⁶⁷
It is revealed to me
By inspiration, that your God
Is One God: so stand
True to Him, and ask
For His forgiveness."⁴⁴⁶⁸
And woe to those who
Join gods with Allah—
7. Those who practise not
Regular Charity, and who
Even deny the Hereafter.
8. For those who believe⁴⁴⁶⁹
And work deeds of righteousness
Is a reward that will Never fail.

SECTION 2.

9. Say: Is it that ye
Deny Him Who created
The earth in two Days?⁴⁴⁷⁰

جَبَابٌ

هَلْ نَعْمَ فَاَعْمَلْ اِنَّا عَمِلُونُ ٥

٦- قُلْ اِنَّمَا اَنَا بَشَرٌ مِّثْلُكُمْ
يُوحَىٰ اِلَيَّ اَنَّمَا الْهُدَىٰ اِلَٰهُ وَاحِدٌ
فَاَسْتَقِيْمُوا اِلَيْهِ
وَاسْتَغْفِرُوهُ
وَوَيْلٌ لِّلْمُشْرِكِيْنَ ٥

٧- الَّذِيْنَ لَا يُؤْتُوْنَ الزَّكٰوةَ
وَهُمْ بِالْاٰخِرَةِ هُمْ كٰفِرُوْنَ ٥

٨- اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ
لَهُمْ اَجْرٌ غَيْرٌ مَّنْوُونٌ ٥

ع ١٥

٩- قُلْ اَسْأَلُكُمْ لِكُفْرٰوْنِ بِالَّذِيْ
خَلَقَ الْاَرْضَ فِيْ يَوْمَيْنِ

4466. This is either a superiority complex adopting the sarcastic tone of an inferiority complex, or it expresses calculated indifference to spiritual teaching. In effect it says: "Our hearts and minds are not intelligent enough to understand your noble ideas, nor our ears sufficiently acute to hear their exposition: you and we are quite different; there is a gulf between us. Why worry about us? You go your way, and we shall go ours!"

4467. The reply is in effect: that the bringer of the Message is not an angel nor a god, and so there can and ought to be no barrier between him and his hearers; but he has been chosen to bring a Message of Truth and Hope to them; they should accept the Gospel of Unity, and by Repentance obtain Allah's Grace and Forgiveness.

4468. There is nothing but pity for those who reject Truth, run after false worship, have no sympathy or charity for their fellow-men, and even deny that there is any future Life.

4469. But blessed are those who have Faith. They will have a Future and a Bliss that will never fail.

4470. This is a difficult passage, describing the primal creation of our physical earth and the physical heavens around us. If we count the two Days mentioned in this verse, the four Days, mentioned in verse 10, and the two Days mentioned in verse 12, we get a total of eight Days, while in many passages the creation is stated to have taken place in six Days: see 7:54, n. 1031; and 32:4, n. 3632. The Commentators understand the "four Days" in verse 10 to include the two Days in verse 9, so that the total for the universe comes to six Days. This is reasonable, because the processes described in verses 9 and 10 form really one series. In the one case it is the creation of the formless matter of the earth; in the other case it is the gradual evolution of the form of the earth, its mountains and seas, and its animal and vegetable life, with the "nourishment in due proportion", proper to each. Cf. also 15:19-20.

And do ye join equals
With Him? He is
The Lord of (all)
The Worlds.

وَتَجْعَلُونَ لَهُ أَنْدَادًا
ذَٰلِكَ رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝

10. He set on the (earth).
Mountains standing firm,⁴⁴⁷¹
High above it,
And bestowed blessings on
The earth, and measured therein
All things to give them
Nourishment in due proportion,
In four Days,⁴⁴⁷² in accordance
With (the needs of)
Those who seek (sustenance).⁴⁴⁷³

۱۰- وَجَعَلَ فِيهَا رَوَاسِيَ مِنْ فَوْقِهَا
وَبَرَكَ فِيهَا
وَقَدَّرَ فِيهَا أَقْوَانَهَا
فِي أَرْبَعَةِ أَيَّامٍ
سَوَاءٍ لِّلْسَّائِلِينَ ۝

11. Moreover, He Comprehended⁴⁴⁷⁴
In His design the sky,⁴⁴⁷⁵
And it had been (as) smoke:
He said to it
And to the earth:
"Come ye together,⁴⁴⁷⁶
Willingly or unwillingly."
They said: "We do come
(Together), in willing obedience."

۱۱- ثُمَّ اسْتَوَىٰ إِلَى السَّمَاءِ
وَهِيَ دُخَانٌ
فَقَالَ لَهَا وَلِلْأَرْضِ
ائْتِيَا طَوْعًا أَوْ كَرْهًا
قَالَتَا أَتَيْنَا طَائِعِينَ ۝

12. So He completed them
As seven firmaments

۱۲- فَقَضَاهُنَّ سَبْعَ سَمَوَاتٍ

4471. Cf. 13:3 and 16:15, n. 2038. High above it: the highest mountains are 29,000 feet above sea level, and the lowest depths of the bottom of the ocean are 31,600 feet below sea level, so that the vertical difference between the highest and lowest points on the solid crust of the earth is about 11.5 miles. The highland areas are the main sources of the water supply in all the regions of the earth, and vegetable and animal life depends on water supply.

4472. See n. 4470 above.

4473. Sā'ilīn may mean either (1) those who seek, or (2) those who ask or enquire. If the former meaning is adopted, the clause means that everything is apportioned to the needs and appetites of Allah's creatures. If the latter, it means that the needs of enquirers are sufficiently met by what is stated here.

4474. For istawā see n. 1386 to 10:3. Cf. also 2:29.

4475. From 79:30 it would appear as if the earth was spread out after the sky was made. In the present passage the creation of the earth and the evolution of life on our globe are mentioned first; and the making of the sky into the seven firmaments is mentioned last. The two statements are not inconsistent. It is stated here that when the sky was made into seven firmaments, it had existed previously as smoke, or vapour, or steam. The idea I derive from a collation of the relevant Quranic passages is that Allah first created primeval matter, which was as yet without order, shape, or symmetry. This state is called Chaos as opposed to Cosmos in Greek Cosmogony. The next stage would be the condensation of this primeval matter, into gases, liquids, or solids: on this subject no precise information is given us: it belongs to the realm of Physics. About the earth we are told of four stages or Days, and about the heavens, of two stages or Days. For Days see n. 4477 below. If these stages proceeded or proceed together in time, it is obvious that each stage as we know it on earth is half as long as each stage in the heavens. But these are questions of Physics, Astronomy, or Geology, not questions of Religion.

4476. I take this to mean that Allah's design in creation was not to keep heaven and earth separate, but together, as we indeed are, being part of the solar system, and travellers through space, crossing the path of several comets. And all matter created by Allah willingly obeys the laws laid down for it.

In two Days⁴⁴⁷⁷ and He Assigned to each heaven
Its duty and command.
And We adorned
The lower heaven
With lights, and (provided it)⁴⁴⁷⁸

13. But if they turn away,

Like that which (overtook)
The 'Ād and the Thamūd!"

۝۱۳ فَإِنْ أَعْرَضُوا فَقُلْ أَنذَرْتُكُمْ
ضِعْفَةَ
مِثْلِ ضِعْفَةِ عَادٍ وَثَمُودَ ۝

14. Behold, the messengers came
To them, from before them⁴⁴⁸⁰
And behind them, (preaching):
"Serve none but Allah."
They said, "If our Lord
Had so pleased, He would
Certainly have sent down angels⁴⁴⁸¹
(To preach): now we reject
Your mission (altogether)."

۝۱۴ إِذْ جَاءَهُمُ الرُّسُلُ مِنْ بَيْنِ أَيْدِيهِمْ
وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِمْ أَلَّا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا اللَّهَ ۖ
قَالُوا لَوْ شَاءَ رَبُّنَا لَأَنْزَلَ مَلَائِكَةً
فَإِنَّا بِمَا أُرْسِلْتُمْ بِهِ كَافِرُونَ ۝

4477. For "Days", which may include thousands of years, see 7:54, and n. 1031. They refer to stages in the evolution of physical nature. In the Biblical cosmogony, (Gen. i, and ii. 1-7), which reflects old Babylonian cosmogony, the scheme is apparently to be taken literally as to days and is as follows: the first day Allah created light; the second, the firmament; the third, the earth and vegetation; the fourth, the stars and plants; the fifth, fish and fowl from the sea; and the sixth, cattle, creeping things, beasts on land, and man; on the seventh day He ended His work and rested. Our scheme is wholly different. (1) Allah did not rest, and never rests. "His Throne doth extend over the heavens and the earth, and He feeleth no fatigue in guarding and preserving them"; (2) Allah's work has not ended; His activity still goes on 32:5; 7:54; (3) man in our scheme does not come in with land animals; his advent is much later; (4) our stages are not sharply divided from each other, as in the above scheme, where the stars and planets having been created on the fourth day, it is not intelligible how the first three days were counted, nor how vegetation grew on the third day. Our stages for earth and heavens are not in sequence of time for the heavens and the earth. Our six stages are broadly speaking, (1) the throwing off of our planet from cosmic matter; (2) its cooling and condensing; (3) and (4) the growth of vegetable and animal life; (5) and (6) the parallel growth of the starry realm and our solar system.

4478. Cf. 15:17, and n. 1951; also 37:609. The transition from the third person ("He completed," etc.) to the first person ("We adorned," etc.) may be noted. The act of creation is an impersonal act: the act of adornment and guarding is a personal favour to Allah's creatures.

4479. See verse 17. below.

4480. "From before them and behind them": i.e., from every side. They were warned from every point of view.

4481. Cf. 15:7, n. 1941; 6:8-9, n. 841-42. The 'Ād had more power and material civilisation than the Pagan Arabs contemporary with the Holy Prophet. But the greater the material civilisation, the greater the arrogance as the besetting sin.

15. Now the 'Ād behaved
Arrogantly through the land,
Against (all) truth and reason,⁴⁴⁸²
And said: "Who is superior
To us in strength?" What!
Did they not see that
Allah, Who created them,
Was superior to them
In strength? But they
Continued to reject Our Signs!

١٥- فَأَمَّا عَادٌ فَاسْتَكْبَرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ

And they will find
No help.

١٦- فَأَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ رِيحًا

17. As to the Thamūd,⁴⁴⁸⁴
We gave them guidance,
But they preferred blindness
(Of heart) to Guidance:
So the stunning Punishment⁴⁴⁸⁵
Of humiliation seized them,
Because of what they had earned.

١٧- وَأَمَّا ثَمُودُ فَهَدَيْنَاهُمْ

SECTION 3.

19. On the Day that
The enemies of Allah
Will be gathered together

١٩- وَيَوْمَ
يُحْشَرُ أَعْدَاءُ اللَّهِ

4482. Against (all) truth and reason: Cf. 7:33. Their estimate of their own strength was greater than was justified by facts, but if they had all the strength which they arrogated to themselves, yet how could they stand before Allah?

4483. The detailed story of the 'Ād and their besetting sin, and the preaching of their Prophet Hūd to them will be found in 26:123-140; also 7:62-72, and n. 1040. For the furious Wind, Cf. 54:19.

4484. The story of the Thamūd usually goes with that of the 'Ād. Cf. 36:140-59; also 7:73-79, and n. 1043.

4485. "The stunning Punishment": i.e., deafening noises like those of thunder and lightning; or the rumbling of a terrible earthquake. In 7:78, an earthquake is suggested: see n. 1047 to that verse. Cf. also above, 41:13.

To the Fire, they will

20. At length, when they reach
The (Fire), their hearing,
Their sight, and their skins⁴⁴⁸⁷

21. They will say to their skins:⁴⁴⁸⁸
"Why bear ye witness

٢١- وَقَالُوا الْجُلُودُ دِهْمٌ لِمَ شَهِدْتُمْ عَلَيْنَا
قَالُوا أَنْطَقَنَا اللَّهُ الَّذِي

٢٢- وَمَا كُنْتُمْ تَسْتَتِرُونَ أَنْ يَشْهَدَ عَلَيْكُمْ

٢٣- وَذَلِكُمْ ظَنُّكُمُ الَّذِي
ظَنَنْتُمْ بِرَبِّكُمْ أَرْذَلَكُمْ

4486. "Marched in ranks": to show their further humiliation; for they will be like prisoners going to Punishment.

4487. All the members of their bodies and the faculties of their minds, which they misused, will bear witness against them. Similarly, in 36:65, their hands and their feet bear witness against them. The "skin" not only includes the sense of touch (which is so often misused in sex), but also the sense of taste and the sense of smell, which are specialised forms of the organ of touch. All the sensory organs, and all their intellectual and emotional counterparts advance us by their use and pull us down by their misuse. They become tell-tale witnesses against us if abused.

4488. A new phase of their existence will now dawn on them. They used to think that if they concealed their evil deeds from the rest of the world, nothing would happen to them! But Allah can give "tongues to trees", and can make every fact in life, known and unknown to the world, contribute to the elucidation of truth and justice. "Speech" on behalf of their senses and faculties should of course be understood figuratively. When we succumb to evil, our limbs and faculties betray us.

4489. The limbs and faculties will say: "You did not seek to hide your evil from us: in fact you used us for your evil, because we were in your power. Did you not know that Allah knew everything and that our knowledge would be evidence against you?"

4490. "You now see the situation! We were given for your use and service. You misused us, to your own utter and irretrievable destruction!"

And (now) have ye become
Of those utterly lost!"

24. If, then, they have patience,⁴⁴⁹¹
The Fire will be
A Home for them!
And if they beg
To be received into favour
Into favour will they not (Then) be received

25. And We have destined
For them intimate companions⁴⁴⁹²

Alluring to them what was
Before them and behind them;⁴⁴⁹³
And the sentence among

4491. If they have patience: there is sarcasm in the meaning. "Let them not be impatient; they will soon find a home in the Fire of Hell! If they ask for grace and forgiveness then, it will be too late."

4492. Just as the idea of happiness in heaven is expressed, not only by individual satisfaction, but by congenial society, so the idea of Punishment in hell is deepened by the fact that Evil will be made to meet evil: those who made sin fair-seeming in this life will be there to share in the regrets and mutual recriminations which will make life a burden. In fact, in these Hā Mīm verses, the idea of fit companionship for the Good and uncongenial company for the Evil, runs like a thread throughout. See instruction to S. II.

4493. They painted in glowing colours the pleasures of sin in the past and the pleasure of sin in the future, thus practising a double deception, which will now be found out.

4494. Jinns: see n. 929 to 6:100. All spirits of wickedness and all men who submitted to them, in the past, were under one common sentence; and future generations who embrace evil will also join them. Cf. 6:128.

4495. The echo here of verse 23 above completes the argument from another point of view.

4496. A favourite trick of those who wish to dishonour Revelation is, not only not to listen to it themselves, but to talk loudly and insolently when it is being read, so that even the true listeners may not be able to perform their devotions. They think that they are drowning the voice of Allah: in fact they are piling up misery for themselves in the future. For Allah's voice can never be silenced.

27. But We will certainly
Give the Unbelievers a taste
Of a severe Penalty,
And We will requite them
For the worst of their deeds.⁴⁴⁹⁷

٢٧- فَلَنذِيقَنَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا
وَلَنَجْزِيَنَّهُمْ أَسْوَأَ الَّذِي كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ○

28. Such is the requital
Of the enemies of Allah—
The Fire: therein will be
For them the Eternal Home:
A (fit) requital, for
That they were wont
To reject Our Signs.

٢٨- ذَلِكَ جَزَاءُ أَعْدَاءِ اللَّهِ النَّارُ
لَهُمْ فِيهَا دَارُ الْخُلْدِ
جَزَاءُ بِمَا كَانُوا بِآيَاتِنَا يَجْحَدُونَ ○

29. And the Unbelievers will say:
"Our Lord! Show us those,⁴⁴⁹⁸
Among Jinns and men,
Who misled us: we shall
Crush them beneath our feet,
So that they become
The vilest (before all)."

٢٩- وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا رَبَّنَا أَرِنَا الَّذِينَ
أَضَلَّنَا مِنَ الْجِنِّ وَالْإِنْسِ
تَجْعَلُهُمَا تَحْتَ أَقْدَامِنَا
لِيَكُونَا مِنَ الْأَسْفَلِينَ ○

30. In the case of those Who say, "Our Lord
Is Allah", and, further,⁴⁴⁹⁹
Stand straight and steadfast,
The angels descend on them
(From time to time):
"Fear ye not!" (they suggest),
"Nor grieve! But receive
The Glad Tidings
Of the Garden (of Bliss),
That which ye were promised!

٣٠- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ قَالُوا رَبُّنَا
اللَّهُ ثُمَّ اسْتَقَامُوا
تَتَنَزَّلُ عَلَيْهِمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ
أَلَّا تَخَافُوا وَلَا تَحْزَنُوا
وَابْشِرُوا بِالْجَنَّةِ الَّتِي
كُنتُمْ تُوعَدُونَ ○

31. "We are your protectors⁴⁵⁰⁰
In this life and
In the Hereafter:

٣١- نَحْنُ أَوْلِيُّكُمْ
فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ

4497. Nothing that they can do, however outrageous, will escape its fit punishment. And to reject Allah's Signs is to shut the very door to His Grace and Mercy.

4498. It is one of the qualities of sin and all evil, that it wishes to drag down others in its own camp, and rejoices to see them humiliated and disgraced, just as, in the opposite case, the good rejoice to help and honour others and make them happy wherever they can. Cf. 6:112-113.

4499. The people who succeed in eternal Life are those who recognise and understand the one and only Eternal Reality, that is Allah, and further shape their probationary Life firmly and steadfastly on the principles of that Truth and Reality. They will have their friends and protectors in the good angels, in contrast to the evil ones, who will have no friendship or protection, but only the reproaches of the Evil Ones.

4500. "Protectors": a key-thought for the Hā Mīm Sūrahs Cf. n. 4492 to 41:25 above, and n. 4505 to 41:34 below.

Therein shall ye have
All that your souls⁴⁵⁰¹
Shall desire; therein
Shall ye have all
That ye ask for!—

وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا مَا تَشْتَهُى أَنْفُسُكُمْ
وَلَكُمْ فِيهَا مَا تَدْعُونَ ۝

32. "A hospitable gift from One⁴⁵⁰²
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful"

۝ نَزَّلَا مِنْ غَفْوَرٍ رَجِيمٍ ۝

C. 210. — The best of men is the man of Faith,
(41:33-54.) Who calls all men to share his Faith,
Whose life is pure, and whose law of life
Is the Will of Allah. Eschew all evil,
And adore Allah, and Him alone.
His Signs are everywhere, and His Message
Is the same through all the ages, a guide
And a healing to those who believe.
Dispute not, but live righteousness.
Knowledge belongs to Allah, but Falsehood
Deprives man of hope, humility,
And clear sight, and drives him to Hypocrisy. So turn to Truth, and live.

SECTION 5.

33. Who is better in speech⁴⁵⁰³
Than one who calls (men)
To Allah, works righteousness,
And says, "I am of those Who bow in Islam"?

۝ وَمَنْ أَحْسَنُ قَوْلًا مِمَّنْ دَعَا إِلَى اللَّهِ
وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا وَقَالَ إِنِّي مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ ۝

34. Nor can Goodness and Evil⁴⁵⁰⁴
Be equal. Repel (Evil)
With what is better:
Then will he between whom

۝ وَلَا تَسْتَوِ الْحَسَنَةُ وَلَا السَّيِّئَةُ
إِذْفَعُ بِالْأَبْغَىٰ هِيَ أَحْسَنُ
فَإِذَا الَّذِي بَيْنَكَ

4501. Cf. 21:102, 43:71, 52:22. [Eds.].

4502. Cf. 3:198. Through Allah's infinite Mercy and Forgiveness, they will now be in the position of guests to Host, and will receive unnumbered gifts out of all proportion to their own merits.

4503. Better in speech: i.e., speaks better counsel; or is more worthy of being listened to. That his word reaches the highest mark of human speech is evidenced by three facts: (1) that he calls all to the Truth of Allah, showing that his thoughts are not centered on himself; (2) every deed of his is righteousness, showing that there is no divergence between his preaching and his conduct; and (3) he completely associates himself with the Will of Allah, showing that he is the full embodiment of Islam. What a fine description of the Holy Prophet!

4504. You do not return good for evil, for there is no equality or comparison between the two. You repel or destroy evil with something which is far better, just as an antidote is better than poison. You foil hatred with love. You repel ignorance with knowledge, folly and wickedness with the friendly message of Revelation. The man who was in the bondage of sin, you not only liberate from sin, but make him your greatest friend and helper in the cause of Allah! Such is the alchemy of the Word of Allah! Cf. 23:96; 28:54

And thee was hatred
Become as it were
Thy friend and intimate!⁴⁵⁰⁵

وَبَيْنَهُ عَدَاوَةٌ كَأَنَّهُ وَلِيٌّ حَمِيمٌ ۝

35. And no one will be ⁴⁵⁰⁶
Granted such goodness
Except those who exercise
Patience and self-restraint—
None but persons of
The greatest good fortune.

۝-۳۵ وَمَا يُلْقِيهَا
إِلَّا الَّذِينَ صَبَرُوا
وَمَا يُلْقِيهَا إِلَّا ذُو حِظٍّ عَظِيمٍ ۝

36. And if (at any time)
An incitement to discord⁴⁵⁰⁷
Is made to thee
By the Evil One,
Seek refuge in Allah.
He is the One
Who hears and knows
All things.

۝-۳۶ وَإِنَّمَا يَنزَغَنَّكَ
مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ نَزْغٌ
فَاسْتَعِذْ بِاللَّهِ
إِنَّهُ هُوَ السَّمِيعُ الْعَلِيمُ ۝

37. Among His Signs are⁴⁵⁰⁸
The Night and the Day,
And the Sun and the Moon.
Adore not the sun
And the moon, but adore
Allah, Who created them,
If it is Him ye wish
To serve.

۝-۳۷ وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ اللَّيْلُ وَالنَّهَارُ وَالشَّمْسُ وَ
القَمَرُ ۚ لَا تَسْجُدُوا لِلشَّمْسِ وَلَا لِلْقَمَرِ
وَاسْجُدُوا لِلَّهِ الَّذِي خَلَقَهُنَّ
إِن كُنْتُمْ رَآيَاهُ تَعْبُدُونَ ۝

38. But if the (Unbelievers)
Are arrogant, (no matter):⁴⁵⁰⁹

۝-۳۸ فَإِنِ اسْتَكْبَرُوا

4505. Hamim: the keyword of the Hā Mīm Sūrahs. See n. 4500 above, and Introduction to S. 40.

4506. The moral standard referred to in the last verse can only be reached by the exercise of the highest patience and self-restraint. All sorts of human weaknesses and counsels of pseudo-wisdom and "self-respect" will keep breaking in, but resist them as suggestions of Evil (see next verse). If you reach anywhere near that high standard, you will be indeed most fortunate in a spiritual sense, for Allah's Revelation will have made you great and free.

4507. Nazagha has in it the idea of discord, slander, disharmony, as well as incitements to such disturbances in the soul. They can only proceed from evil, and should be resisted with the help of Allah. See also last note.

4508. Night and Day are opposites, and yet, by the alchemy of Allah, they can both subserve the purpose of human good, because the Night can give rest while the Day can promote activity. The Sun and the Moon are similarly complementary. So, in moral and spiritual affairs, seeming opposites may by Allah's alchemy be made to subserve the purposes of Good. They are but instruments: Allah is the Cause. Adore Allah, and not the things which He has created. Use the things which He has created, but do not adore them.

4509. It does not in any way affect Allah if men rebel against Him. It is men's own loss. Allah's glory is being celebrated night and day by angels and men who receive the privilege of approaching His presence. To them it is a delight and an honour to be in the sunshine of Truth and Happiness.

For in the presence
Of thy Lord are those
Who celebrate His praises
By night and by day.
And they never flag
(Nor feel themselves Above it).

فَالَّذِينَ عِنْدَ رَبِّكَ
يُسَبِّحُونَ لَهُ بِاللَّيْلِ وَالنَّهَارِ
وَهُمْ لَا يَسْئُمُونَ^{السجدة} ٥

39. And among His Signs
Is this: thou seest
The earth barren and desolate;⁴⁵¹⁰
But when We send down
Rain to it, it is stirred
To life and yields increase.
Truly, He Who gives life⁴⁵¹¹
To the (dead) earth
Can surely give life
To (men) who are dead.
For He has power
Over all things.

٣٩- وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ أَنْ تَرَى الْأَرْضَ خَاشِعَةً
فَإِذَا أَنْزَلْنَا عَلَيْهَا الْمَاءَ
اهْتَزَّتْ وَرَبَتْ
إِنَّ الَّذِي أَحْيَاهَا
لَمُحْيِي الْمَوْتِ
إِنَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ٥

40. Those who pervert⁴⁵¹²
The Truth in Our Signs
Are not hidden from Us.
Which is better?—he that
Is cast into the Fire,
Or he that comes safe through,
On the Day of Judgement?
Do what ye will:
Verily He seeth (clearly)
All that ye do.

٤٠- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُلْحِدُونَ فِي آيَاتِنَا لَا
يَخْفَوْنَ عَلَيْنَا أَفَسَ يُلْقَى فِي النَّارِ خَيْرٌ
أَمْ مَنْ يَأْتِيَ آمِنًا يُؤَمِّرُ الْقِيَمَةَ
إِعْمَلُوا مَا شِئْتُمْ
إِنَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ ٥

41. Those who reject the Message⁴⁵¹³
When it comes to them
(Are not hidden from Us).
And indeed it is a Book
Of exalted power.

٤١- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِالذِّكْرِ لَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ
وَإِنَّهُ لَكِتَابٌ عَزِيزٌ ٥

4510. Evil makes of the souls of men what drought makes of land: it kills life, beauty, and fruitfulness. Allah's Word in the spiritual world has the same wonderful effect as rain has on barren land; it gives life, beauty, and fruitfulness. And the effect of Allah's Word is also seen through the lives of men who repel evil with what is better. They also convert dead souls (which harbour spite and hatred) into living souls, which come into the main current of spiritual life, and help in carrying out Allah's beneficent Purpose.

4511. Why should we wonder then at the potency of Allah's Word, whether in our probationary lives here, or in the eternal life of the Hereafter.

4512. Pervert the Truth in Our Signs: either by corrupting the scriptures or turning them to false and selfish uses; or by neglecting the Signs of Allah in nature around them, or silencing His voice in their own conscience. Everything is known to Allah. Why not work for true salvation at the final Judgement?

4513. Mere rejection by men will not silence the Signs of Allah, which will work unintermittently and with the fullest potency.

42. No falsehood can approach it
From before or behind it:⁴⁵¹⁴
It is sent down
By One Full of Wisdom,
Worthy of all Praise.
43. Nothing is said to thee
That was not said
To the messengers before thee:⁴⁵¹⁵
That thy Lord has
At His command (all) Forgiveness
As well as a most Grievous Penalty.
44. Had We sent this as
A Qur'ān (in a language)⁴⁵¹⁶
Other than Arabic, they would Have said: "Why are not
Its verses explained in detail?
What! (a Book) not in Arabic?
And (a Messenger) an Arab?"
Say: "It is a guide
And a healing to those
Who believe; and for those
Who believe not, there is
A deafness in their ears,⁴⁵¹⁷
And it is blindness in their (eyes):
They are (as it were)
Being called from a place
Far distant!"

SECTION 6.

45. We certainly gave Moses
The Book aforetime: but disputes
Arose herein. Had it not

٤٢- لَا يَأْتِيهِ الْبَاطِلُ مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيْهِ

٤٣- مَا يُقَالُ لَكَ إِلَّا مَا قَدْ قِيلَ

٤٥- وَلَقَدْ آتَيْنَا مُوسَى الْكِتَابَ فَاخْتَلَفَ فِيهِ
وَلَوْ لَا

4514. Allah's Truth is fully guarded on all sides. No one can get the better of it by attacking it from before or behind it, openly or secretly, or in any way whatever.

4515. The gist of Allah's Message, now, before, and for ever, is the same: Mercy to the erring and repentant; just punishment to those who wilfully rebel against Allah.

4516. Cf. 16:103-105; 12:2; etc. It was most natural and reasonable that the Messenger being Arab, the Message should be in his own tongue, that he might explain it in every detail, with the greatest power and eloquence. Even though it was to be for the whole world, its initial exposition was thus to be in Arabic. But if people had no faith and were spiritually deaf or blind, it would not matter in what language it came.

4517. Cf. 41:5, and 6:25. They pretended that it was too deep for them, when they meant that they were superior to it! The fact was that by putting themselves in an artificially false position, they rendered themselves impervious to the Message. The voice of Revelation or the voice of conscience sounded to them as if it came from a far-off place! They themselves made themselves strangers to it.

Been for a Word⁴⁵¹⁸
That went forth before
From thy Lord, (their differences)
Would have been settled
Between them: but they Remained in suspicious
Disquieting doubt thereon.

كَلِمَةً سَبَقَتْ مِنْ رَبِّكَ

46. Whoever works righteousness
Benefits his own soul;
Whoever works evil, it is Against his own soul:
Nor is thy Lord ever
Unjust (in the least)
To His servants.

۴۶- مَنْ عَمِلَ صَالِحًا فَلِنَفْسِهِ
وَمَنْ أَسَاءَ فَعَلَيْهَا

47. To Him is referred⁴⁵¹⁹
The Knowledge of the Hour
(Of Judgement: He knows all):
No date-fruit comes out
Of its sheath, nor does
A female conceive (within
Her womb) nor bring forth
(Young), but by His Knowledge,
The Day that (Allah) will

"Where are the Partners
(Ye attributed) to Me?"
They will say, "We do

۴۷- إِلَيْهِ يُرَدُّ عِلْمُ السَّاعَةِ
وَمَا تَخْرُجُ مِنْ ثَمَرٍ مِنَ الْأَشْجَارِ
وَمَا تَحْمِلُ مِنْ أُنْثَىٰ
وَلَا تَضْمُ إِلَّا بِعِلْمِهِ
وَيَوْمَ يُنَادِيهِمْ أَيْنَ شُرَكَائِي

مَا مِنَّا مِنْ شَهِيدٍ ۝

48. The (deities) they used to invoke
Aforetime will leave them
In the lurch, and they

۴۸- وَضَلَّ عَنْهُمْ مَا كَانُوا يَدْعُونَ
مِنْ قَبْلُ

4518. Callousness and self-sufficiency in religion are often illustrated by sects like the Pharisees and Sadducees among the Jews. Where there are honest differences of opinion, they can, in Allah's Plan, lead to greater enquiry and emulation. Where the differences are fractious, there is often even then time left for repentance. In any case the Word or Decree of Allah is for the best good of all, and should not disturb Faith. Cf. 10:19. A good life, of faith and truth, is in our own interests, and the opposite against our own interests. Allah is never unjust.

4519. There are profound mysteries which the knowledge of man cannot fathom but which are all open knowledge to Allah, because He plans, guides and controls all things. The precise time of the Hour of Judgement is one of these. We are not to dispute about matters like these, which are matters of speculation as far as human intelligence is concerned. Such speculations ruined the Ummah of Moses, and set them on the arid path of doubts and controversies. Our task is to do our duty and love Allah and man (see the last two verses). Cf. also 21:4.

4520. When the final restoration of true values comes, all falsehood will be exposed openly and publicly. The false gods will vanish, and their falsehood will be acknowledged by those who had lapsed from true worship. But it will be too late then for repentance.

Will preceive that they
Have no way of escape.

49. فMan does not weary⁴⁵²¹
Of asking for good (things),
But if ill touches him,
He gives up all hope
(And) is lost in despair.

50. When We give him a taste⁴⁵²²
Of some mercy from Ourselves
After some adversity has Touched him, he is sure
To say, "This is due
To my (merit): I think not
That the Hour (of Judgement)
Will (ever) be established;
But if I am brought back
To my Lord, I have (Much) good (stored) in His sight!"
But We will show
The Unbelievers the truth
Of all that they did,
And We shall give them
The taste of a severe
Penalty.

51. فhen We bestow favours⁴⁵²³
On man, he turns away,
And gets himself remote
On his side (instead of⁴⁵²⁴ Coming to Us); and when

وَلَا يَسْأَلُ مَا لَهُمْ مِنْ مَّحِيصٍ ○

٤٩- لَا يَسْأَلُ الْإِنْسَانُ مِنْ دُعَاءِ الْخَيْرِ
وَإِنْ مَسَّهُ الْكُرْ

إِنِّي عِنْدَهُ لَلْحُسْبَىٰ

٥١- وَإِذَا أَنْعَمْنَا عَلَى الْإِنْسَانِ

4521. Not only is man prone to doubts and speculations in matters beyond his ken, thus disturbing the even tenor of his spiritual life: he is apt to run into opposite extremes in his daily experiences in this life. He is always hankering after the good things of this life. They are not all good for him. If he receives a little check, even though it may be to bring him to his bearings and turn his thoughts to higher things, he is apt to fall into despair.

4522. When men entertain false ideas of values in life, there are two or three possible attitudes they may adopt in reaction to their experiences. In the first place, their desire may be inordinate for the good things of this life, and any little check brings them into a mood of despair. See last note. In the second place, if their desire is granted, they are puffed up, and think that everything is due to their own cleverness or merit, and they forget Allah. Not only that, but they go a step further, and begin to doubt a Hereafter at all! If by chance they have a faint glimmering of the Hereafter, which they cannot help recognising, they think themselves "favoured of Heaven", because of some small favours given to them in this life by way of trial. Thus they turn all things, good or evil, away from their real purpose, because they are devoted to falsehood.

4523. The last verse and note dealt with men's distortion of the values of life. Here we come to men's ingratitude and hypocrisy. If they receive good, they go farther away from Allah, instead of coming nearer to him. If they suffer ill, they call on Allah and offer prolonged prayers, but it is not sincere devotion and therefore worthless.

Evil seizes him, (he comes)
Full of prolonged prayer!

52. Say: "See ye if^{4524-A}
The (Revelation) is (really)
From Allah, and yet do ye
Reject it? Who is more
Astray than one who
Is in a schism^{4524-B}
Far (from any purpose)?"

53. Soon will We show them
Our Signs in the (furthest)
Regions (of the earth), and^{4524-C}
In their own souls, until
It becomes manifest to them
That this is the Truth.
Is it not enough that
Thy Lord doth witness
All things?

54. Ah indeed! are they
In doubt concerning
The Meeting with their Lord?⁴⁵²⁵
Ah indeed! it is He
That doth encompass
All things!

مَسَّهُ الشَّرُّ فَذُوْ دُعَاءٍ عَرِيْضٍ ۝

۝۵۲ قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ إِنْ كَانَ مِنْ عِنْدِ اللَّهِ
تُمْ كَفَرْتُمْ بِهِ
مَنْ أَضَلُّ مِتَنَ
هُوَ فِي شِقَاقٍ بَعِيْدٍ ۝

۝۵۳ سَرُبِهِمْ إِلَيْنَا فِي
الْأَفَاقِ وَفِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ حَتَّى
يَتَبَيَّنَ لَهُمْ أَنَّهُ الْحَقُّ
أَوَلَمْ يَكْفِ بِرَبِّكَ
أَنَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدٌ ۝

۝۵۴ أَلَا إِنَّهُمْ فِي مِرْيَةٍ مِنْ لِقَاءِ رَبِّهِمْ
أَلَا إِنَّهُ
بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ مُّحِيطٌ ۝

4524-A. An argument is now addressed, of a most searching nature. Examine your own souls. See if you do not really find something unusual in Allah's Revelation! If you do, and yet you reject it, what a terrible responsibility fastens itself on you? Could anything be more foolish or more misguided than to reject a Message which is transforming the whole world?

4524-B. 'If you resist the convictions of the whole world, you are only forming a Cave or a narrow obscure sect or schism, which serves no purpose, and is unfit to live in the broad light of Universal Religion.' Cf. 2:176. n. 176.

4524-C. Allah's Truth always spreads, in its own good time, across to the uttermost ends of the earth, as it did in the case of Islam. But its intensive spread in the hearts and souls of people is even more remarkable than its extensive spread over large areas. Men like the four Companions of the Prophet — and many more — became leaders of men and arbiters of the world's fate. Madīnah, from being a focus of jarring tribes and factions that hated each other, became the seat of heroic actions and plans and the nursery of great and noble heroic deeds that resounded throughout the world. It makes no difference what men may say or do. Allah's Truth must prevail, and He knows who obstruct and who help.

4525. Short-sighted people may like to think that there may be no Judgement. But Judgement is inevitable and cannot be escaped, for Allah "doth encompass all things."

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 42—AL SHŪRĀ

This is the third Sūrah of the Ḥā Mīm series of seven Sūrahs, for which see the Introduction to S. 40.

The theme is how evil and blasphemy can be cured by the Mercy and Guidance of Allah, which come through His Revelation. Men are asked to settle their differences in patience by mutual Consultation (42:38); which explains the title of the Sūrah.

Summary—The Contrast of blasphemy and disputation against Revelation, Unity, and Faith, as relying on the Signs and the Mercy of Allah (42:1-29, and C. 211).

Evil comes through men's own deeds, of which they cannot avoid the consequences, but Guidance comes through Allah's Mercy and Revelation (42:30-53, and C. 212).

C. 211. — Inspiration is part of the Glory and Goodness
(42:1-29.) Of Allah. His Unity is shown
In His Creation; yet man will turn
To false gods, and dispute about Religion.
Faith has been one at all times,
But sects and divisions rose through selfish
Contumacy. Let all contention cease,
And conduct weighed by the just balance
Of Allah's Word. The just and the unjust
Will all be brought before Allah, Whose Mercy
And Bounty are writ large in the Signs
In His marvellous Creation—one, yet diverse!

Sūrah 42.

Al Shūrā (Consultation)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Hā Mīm,⁴⁵²⁶
2. 'Ain Sīn Qāf.⁴⁵²⁷
3. Thus doth (He) send
Inspiration to thee
As (He did) to those before thee — ⁴⁵²⁸
Allah, Exalted in Power,
Full of Wisdom.
4. To Him belongs all
That is in the heavens
And on earth: and He
Is Most High, Most Great.⁴⁵²⁹
5. The heavens are almost
Rent asunder from above them⁴⁵³⁰
(By His Glory):
And the angels celebrate
The Praises of their Lord,
And pray for forgiveness
For All beings on earth:⁴⁵³¹
Behold! Verily Allah is He,
The Oft-Forgiving,
Most Merciful.

الجزء الخامس والعشرون سُوْرَةُ الشُّرَى

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- هَمْ

٢- عَسَق

٣- كَذَلِكَ يُوحَى إِلَيْكَ
وَإِلَى الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِكَ
اللَّهُ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ

٤- لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ
وَهُوَ الْعَلِيُّ الْعَظِيمُ

٥- تَكَادُ السَّمَوَاتُ يَتَفَطَّرْنَ مِنْ فَوْقِهِنَّ
وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ يُسَبِّحُونَ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّهِمْ
وَيَسْتَغْفِرُونَ لِمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ
إِلَّا إِنْ اللَّهُ هُوَ
الْغَفُورُ الرَّحِيمُ

4526. See Introduction to S. 40, paragraphs 2-24.

4527. This Sūrah has a double set of Abbreviated Letters, one in the first verse, and one in this second verse. No authoritative explanation of this second set is available, and I refrain from speculation. See Appendix I.

4528. Inspiration is full of Power and Wisdom, and both these qualities are derived from the Power and Wisdom of Allah. Unlike human power, this Power is necessarily good and merciful; unlike human wisdom, this Wisdom is necessarily complete and indisputable.

4529. We cannot conceive the distance which separates the Most High from the highest of His creatures. Allah Most Great from the greatest of the beings that we can imagine. The highest heavens are mentioned in the next verse, as well as the noblest creatures that we can imagine, the angels.

4530. How can we conceive of sublimity and greatness in a higher degree than this, that the highest heavens are almost ready to burst asunder by His Glory, which is higher than all?

4531. The angels are the noblest and purest beings of whom we can conceive. They reflect on the one side Allah's Glory and Praise, and on the other, two other attributes of Allah, that look towards His erring creatures, viz.: Forgiveness and Mercy. The two sets of attributes are complementary. They thus proclaim in their own being and in their prayers the Greatness and unbounded Goodness of Allah.

6. And those who take
As protectors others besides
Him — ⁴⁵³²
Allah doth watch over them;
And thou art not
The disposer of their affairs.

7. Thus have We sent
By inspiration to thee
An Arabic Qur'ān: ⁴⁵³³
That thou mayest warn
The Mother of Cities ⁴⁵³⁴
And all around her—
And warn (them) of
The Day of Assembly,
Of which there is no doubt:
(When) some will be ⁴⁵³⁵
In the Garden, and some
In the Blazing Fire.

8. If Allah had so willed, ⁴⁵³⁶
He could have made them
A single people: but He Admits whom He will
To His Mercy:
And the wrongdoers
Will have no protector
Nor helper.

9. What! Have they taken
(For worship) protectors
Besides Him? But it is
Allah—He is the Protector, ⁴⁵³⁷
And it is He Who
Gives life to the dead:

٦- وَالَّذِينَ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ
اللَّهُ حَفِظٌ عَلَيْهِمْ
وَمَا أَنْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ بِوَكِيلٍ ○

٧- وَكَذَلِكَ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ قُرْآنًا عَرَبِيًّا
لِتُنْذِرَ أُمَّ الْقُرَى
وَمَنْ حَوْلَهَا
وَتُنْذِرَ يَوْمَ الْجُمُعَةِ لَا رَمِيْبَ فِيهِ
فَرِيقٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ
وَفَرِيقٌ فِي السَّعِيرِ ○

٨- وَلَوْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ لَجَعَلَهُمْ
أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً
وَلَكِنْ يَدْخُلُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ فِي رَحْمَتِهِ
وَالظَّالِمُونَ مَا لَهُمْ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ وَلَا نَصِيرٍ ○

٩- أَمْ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ
فَاللَّهُ هُوَ الْوَلِيُّ
وَهُوَ يُحْيِي الْمَوْتَى

4532. We now come to the contrast, the folly and ingratitude of man. But that cannot escape its final doom in the Universal Plan of Allah. Only Judgement rests with Allah. A Prophet is not responsible for the conduct of men, in a system which permits some limited free will and personal responsibility.

4533. The point of the Qur'ān being in Arabic is that it is plain and intelligible to the people through whom and among whom it was promulgated; see next clause.

4534. The City of Makkah. See n. 913 to 6:92. This is undoubtedly a Makkan verse. Even apart from the Qiblah, Makkah is the centre of Islam, and "all around her" is the whole world.

4535. The contrast is again emphasised, as explained in the Summary.

4536. Cf. 5:51, and n. 761. It is one of the Signs of Allah that He has made us different, that we may be tried in the exercise of our will, and that we may reach, through righteousness and Faith, our highest development, and enjoy His gifts of Mercy and Grace. But we must not become contentious, and fall into evil: we must understand our own limitations. Otherwise we shall lose His grace and protection.

4537. There can be no greater ingratitude or blasphemy than to worship false gods, or to seek protection from things that have no power, when Allah—Who has power over all things—is always seeking to protect and cherish His creatures, and placing in their way all the means for attaining the best in them.

It is He Who has power
Over all things.

وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ۝

SECTION 2.

10. Whatever it be wherein
Ye differ, the decision
Thereof is with Allah:⁴⁵³⁸
Such is Allah my Lord:
In Him I trust,
And to Him I turn.
11. (He is) the Creator
Of the heavens and
The earth: He has made
For you pairs
From among yourselves,
And pairs among cattle:⁴⁵³⁹
By this means does He
Multiply you: there is nothing
Whatever like unto Him,
And He is the One
That hears and sees (all things).
12. To Him belongs the keys
Of the heavens and the earth:
He enlarges and restricts⁴⁵⁴⁰
The Sustenance to whom
He will: for He knows
Full well all things.
13. The same religion has He Established for you as that

۱۰- وَمَا اخْتَلَفْتُمْ فِيهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَحُكْمُهُ
إِلَى اللَّهِ ذَلِكُمُ اللَّهُ رَبِّي عَلَيْهِ تَوَكَّلْتُ
وَالْيَهُ أُتِيَّبُ ۝

۱۱- فَاطَرُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَٱلْأَرْضِ
جَعَلَ لَكُم مِّنْ أَنْفُسِكُمْ أَزْوَاجًا
وَمِنَ ٱلْأَنْعَامِ أَزْوَاجًا
يَذُرُكُمْ فِيهِ
لَيْسَ كَمِثْلِهِ شَيْءٌ ۚ
وَهُوَ السَّمِيعُ ٱلْبَصِيرُ ۝

۱۲- لَهُ مَقَالِيدُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَٱلْأَرْضِ
يَبْسُطُ الرِّزْقَ لِمَن يَشَآءُ وَيَقْدِرُ
إِنَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ۝

۱۳- شَرَعَ لَكُم مِّنَ ٱلدِّينِ

4539. The mystery of sex has not only its physical aspects, but its moral and spiritual aspects, and therefore mankind is in this respect differentiated from the lower animals, and among mankind the grades and qualities are suggested by the phrase "from among yourselves". As regards cattle, they are specially mentioned among the animals, as having special relations with man and specially subserving his needs, not only in the physical sphere, but also in the matter of transport, which is the key to all civilisation and culture: Cf. 36:71-73; also 23:21-22, where they are compared to ships, the symbol of international intercourse.

4540. "Sustenance", here as elsewhere, stands for all things that support every phase of life, physical, social, intellectual, or spiritual. Cf. 10:59, n. 1447. The source of all gifts is Allah; His bounty is inexhaustible, and He gives to all; but He does not give to all in the same measure, because, out of the fullness of His knowledge and wisdom, He can judge best what is best for any of His creatures.

Which He enjoined on Noah — ⁴⁵⁴¹

That which We have sent
By inspiration to thee —
And that which We enjoined
On Abraham, Moses, and

Jesus:
Namely, that ye should remain
Steadfast in Religion, and make
No divisions therein: ⁴⁵⁴²
To those who worship
Other things than Allah,
Hard is the (way)
To which thou callest them. ⁴⁵⁴³
Allah chooses to Himself
Those whom He pleases,
And guides to Himself
Those who turn (to Him).

14. And they became divided ⁴⁵⁴⁴
Only after knowledge
Reached them — through selfish
Envy as between themselves.
Had it not been
For a Word that
Went forth before ⁴⁵⁴⁵
From thy Lord,
(Tending) to a Term appointed,
The matter would have
Been settled between them:
But truly those who have
Inherited the Book after them

مَا وَضَّيْ بِهِ نُوحًا
وَالَّذِي أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ
وَمَا وَضَّيْنَا لَهُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَمُوسَى وَعِيسَى
أَنْ أَتِمُّوا الدِّينَ وَلَا تَتَفَرَّقُوا فِيهِ
كَبُرَ عَلَى الشُّرَكِيِّ
مَا تَدْعُوهُمْ إِلَيْهِ
اللَّهُ يَجْتَبِي إِلَيْهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ
وَيَهْدِي إِلَيْهِ مَنْ يُنِيبُ ۝

۱۴- وَمَا تَفَرَّقُوا إِلَّا مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا جَاءَهُمُ
الْعِلْمُ بَغْيًا بَيْنَهُمْ
وَلَوْ لَا كَلِمَةٌ
سَبَقَتْ مِنْ رَبِّكَ
إِلَى أَجَلٍ مُسَمًّى لَفُضِيَ بَيْنَهُمْ
وَإِنَّ الَّذِينَ أُوْرِثُوا الْكِتَابَ مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ

4541. Allah's Religion is the same in essence, whether given, for example, to Noah, Abraham, Moses, or Jesus, or to our Holy Prophet. The source of unity is the revelation from Allah. In Islam it is "established" as an institution, and does not remain merely a vague suggestion.

4542. Faith, Duty, or Religion, is not a matter to dispute about. The formation of sects is against the very principle of Religion and Unity. What we should strive for is steadfastness in duty and faith, and unity among mankind.

4543. Unity, unselfishness, love for Allah and man—these things are inconsistent with selfish aggrandizement, unjust suppression of our fellow-creatures, false worship, and false conduct to our brethren. Hence the Gospel of Unity, though it is in complete accord with the pure pattern after which Allah made us, is yet hard to those who love self and falsehood. But Grace is free to all, and in His wise Plan. He will specially select Teachers to show the Way to humanity, and no one who turns to Him will lack guidance.

4544. Cf. 2:213. If you reject Truth after it has reached you, it can only be through selfish contumacy or envy.

4545. Cf. 10:19, and n. 1407. Allah's decree has allowed a certain Term during which a sinner has the chance of repentance and forgiveness. Were it not so, sin would be punished at once, and the matter would be decided straightway: So also, when people reject Truth from selfish or contumacious motives, they get rope: perchance they may repent.

Are in suspicious (disquieting)⁴⁵⁴⁶
Doubt concerning it.

لَيْفٍ شَاكٍ مِنْهُ مُرِيبٌ ۝

15. Now then, for that (reason),⁴⁵⁴⁷
Call (them to the Faith),
And stand steadfast
As thou art commanded,
Nor follow thou their vain
Desires; but say: "I believe
In the Book which
Allah has sent down;
And I am commanded
To judge justly between you.
Allah is our Lord⁴⁵⁴⁸
And your Lord: For us
(Is the responsibility for)
Our deeds, and for you
For your deeds. There is
No contention between us
And you. Allah will Bring us together,
And to Him is
(Our) final goal."

١٥- قُلْ لَكَ فَادَعُ ۖ وَاسْتَقِمْ كَمَا أُمِرْتُ
وَلَا تَتَّبِعْ أَهْوَاءَهُمْ ۚ
وَقُلْ أَمَنْتُ بِمَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ مِنْ كِتَابٍ
وَأُمرْتُ لِأَعْدِلَ بَيْنَكُمْ ۚ
اللَّهُ رَبُّنَا وَرَبُّكُمْ ۚ
لَنَا أَعْمَالُنَا وَلَكُمْ أَعْمَالُكُمْ ۚ
لَا حِجَّةَ بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَكُمْ ۚ
اللَّهُ يَجْمَعُ بَيْنَنَا ۚ
وَالَيْهِ الْمَصِيرُ ۝

16. But those who dispute
Concerning Allah after He
Had been accepted — ⁴⁵⁴⁹
Futile is their dispute
In the sight of
Their Lord: on them

١٦- وَالَّذِينَ يُحَاجُّونَ فِي اللَّهِ
مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا اسْتُجِيبَ لَهُ ۚ جَحْتُهُمْ
دَاحِضَةٌ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ وَعَلَيْهِمْ

4546. Cf. 14:9 and n. 1884. "Those who have inherited the Book" are the People of the Book, of the ages since the Book or Revelation came to them. Referring to the Jews and Christians contemporary with our Prophet, how true it is that they were broken up into hostile sects which hated and persecuted each other! Islam came to unite them, and it did. For the present phases of Christianity and Judaism are of later growth.

4547. How beautifully the mission of Islam is commended in this verse! (1) the more sectarianism and division there is in the world, the more need is there for the Gospel of Unity. (2) It must steadfastly pursue its way. (3) It must not be deflected by wordly or political motives. (4) Its faith must be directly in Allah and in Allah's Revelation. "The Book", mentioned here, covers all the revelations sent by Allah to His prophets. (5) It must judge justly between warring factions, as the Religion of Peace and Unity.

4548. The mission of Islam is further described. (6) The God whom it preaches is not an exclusive God: He is the Lord of the Worlds: to any given person, of whatever faith, 'He is your Allah, as well as mine' (7) Our faith is not a question of words; it is deeds which decide; each one of us has personal responsibility for his own conduct. (8) There is no cause of contention whatever, when we preach Unity, Truth, and the Hereafter. (9) If you have doubts, the final arbiter is Allah, and His Throne is our Goal.

4549. After He has been accepted. The disputants are the Unbelievers who pugnaciously assault the minds of Believers after the Believers have by conviction accepted Faith in Allah as leading to spiritual Light. Such disputation is futile. An inner spiritual experience can never be shaken by dialectical assaults. On the contrary such disputations recoil on the heads of those who indulge in them. Allah's Wrath is on them in this life, and the terrible Penalty of the Hereafter must inevitably follow their evil plots against Truth.

Is Wrath, and for them
Will be a Penalty
Terrible.

17. It is Allah Who has
Sent down the Book in truth,
And the Balance⁴⁵⁵⁰
(By which to weigh conduct).
And what will make thee
Realise that perhaps the Hour
Is close at hand?

18. Only those wish to⁴⁵⁵¹
Hasten it who believe not
In it: those who believe
Hold it in awe,
And know that it is
The Truth. Behold, verily
Those that dispute concerning
The Hour are far astray.

19. Gracious is Allah⁴⁵⁵²
To His servants:⁴⁵⁵³
He gives Sustenance⁴⁵⁵⁴
To whom He pleases:
And He has Power
And can carry out
His Will.

SECTION 3.

20. To any that desires
The tilth of the Hereafter,
We give increase

عَصَبٌ وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ ۝

۱۷- اَللّٰهُ الَّذِیْ اَنْزَلَ الْكِتٰبَ بِالْحَقِّ
وَالْمِيزَانَ
وَمَا یُذَرِّیْكَ
لَعَلَّ السَّاعَةَ قَرِیْبٌ ۝

۱۸- یَسْتَعْجِلُ بِهَا الَّذِیْنَ لَا یُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِهَا
وَالَّذِیْنَ اٰمَنُوْا مُشْفِقُوْنَ مِنْهَا
اَنَّهُمُ الْحَقُّ ۝ اَلَا اِنَّ الَّذِیْنَ یُسَارُوْنَ فِی
السَّاعَةِ لَفِی ضَلٰلٍ بَعِیْدٍ ۝

۱۹- اَللّٰهُ لَطِیْفٌ یَّعْبَادُهٗ
یَرْزُقُ مَنْ یَّشَآءُ
وَهُوَ الْقَوِیُّ الْعَزِیْزُ ۝

۲۰- مَنْ كَانَ یُرِیْدُ حَرْثَ الْاٰخِرَةِ نَزِدْ لَهُ

4550. Revelation is like a balance, an instrument placed by Allah in our hands, by which we can weigh all moral issues, all questions of right and wrong in conduct. We must do so constantly. For the Judgement in any given case may come at any time: it may be quite near, and we must always be prepared. The Balance may also refer to the God-given faculty by which man can judge between right and wrong.

4551. The Unbelievers do not believe in Judgement and laugh at it. They say defiantly, "If there is to be a punishment, let it come at once!" The threefold answer to this will be found in n. 1810 to 13:6. With those who believe, the case is different. They know that the Hereafter is an awful Reality, and prepare for it. They see clearly on what a wrong track the scoffers are!

4552. Latif: so kind, gracious, and understanding, as to bestow gifts finely suited to the needs of the recipients. For the various meaning of Latif, see n. 2844 to 22:63. Cf. also 12:100.

4553. "Servants" here seems to include all men, just and unjust, for Allah provided for them all.

4554. Sustenance, i.e., provision for all needs, physical, moral, spiritual, etc. "To whom He pleases" is not restrictive, but modal. 'Allah provides for all, but His provision is according to His wise Will and Plan, and not according to people's extravagant demands.' He can provide for all, because He has complete power and can carry out His Will. A further comment will be found in the next verse.

In his tilth; and to any
That desires the tilth
Of this world, We grant
Somewhat thereof, but he⁴⁵⁵⁵
Has no share or lot
In the Hereafter.

فِي حَرْثِهِ
وَمَنْ كَانَ يُرِيدُ حَرْثَ الدُّنْيَا نُؤْتِهِ مِنْهَا
وَمَا لَهُ فِي الْآخِرَةِ مِنْ نَصِيبٍ ○

21. What! Have they partners⁴⁵⁵⁶
(In godhead), who have Established for them some
Religion without the permission
Of Allah? Had it not Been for the Decree
Of Judgement, the matter
Would have been decided
Between them (at once).
But verily the wrongdoers
Will have a grievous Penalty.

٢١- أَمْ لَهُمْ شُرَكَاءُ شَرَعُوا لَهُمْ مِنَ الدِّينِ
مَا لَمْ يَأْذَنْ بِهِ اللَّهُ
وَلَوْ لَا كَلِمَةُ الْفَصْلِ
لَفُضِيَ بَيْنَهُمْ
وَإِنَّ الظَّالِمِينَ
لَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ○

22. Thou wilt see the wrongdoers⁴⁵⁵⁷
In fear on account of what
They have earned, and (the burden
Of) that must (necessarily)
Fall on them. But those
Who believe and work
Righteous deeds will be
In the luxuriant meads⁴⁵⁵⁸
Of the Gardens: they shall
Have, before their Lord,
All that they wish for.
That will indeed be
The magnificent Bounty
(Of Allah).

٢٢- تَرَى الظَّالِمِينَ مُشْفِقِينَ مِمَّا
كَسَبُوا
وَهُوَ وَاقِعٌ بِهِمْ
وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
فِي رَوْضَاتِ الْجَنَّاتِ
لَهُمْ مَا يَشَاءُونَ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ
ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَضْلُ الْكَبِيرُ ○

4555. The parable is from the efforts of the husbandman, who ploughs and prepares the soil, sows the seed, weeds in due season, and reaps the harvest. You reap as you sow. But Allah will add manifold advantages for spiritual tilth. To those who are only engrossed in the vanities of this world, something may accrue in this world, but the spiritual world is closed to them.

4556. Nothing can exist without the permission of Allah. Can people, who indulge in false worship say: "Why does Allah permit it?" The answer is: "a certain latitude is allowed with the grant of a limited form of free will. When the time for Judgement comes, the Punishment is sure." See n. 1810 to 19:6. Decree (or Word) of Judgement: See n. 1407 to 10:19.

4557. The chief feature of the punishment of wrongdoing is that the minds of the wrongdoers are haunted with terror on account of their own guilty conscience. They cannot possibly escape the weight of that terror.

4558. In contrast with the withering terror of the wrongdoers is the ease and rational happiness of those who do good. "On them shall be no fear, nor shall they grieve" (2:38). Their wills will have been purified, and they shall have all that they shall desire, "before their Lord". That is, their highest Bliss will be the sight of their Lord. No higher Bounty can they wish for.

23. That is (the Bounty) whereof⁴⁵⁵⁹
 Allah gives Glad Tidings
 To His Servants who
 Believe and do righteous deeds.
 Say: "No reward do I
 Ask of you for this
 Except the love
 Of those near of kin."⁴⁵⁶⁰
 And if anyone earns
 Any good, We shall give
 Him an increase of good
 In respect thereof: for Allah
 Is Oft-Forgiving, Most Ready⁴⁵⁶¹
 To appreciate (service).
24. What! Do they say,
 "He has forged a falsehood
 Against Allah?" But if Allah
 Willed, He could seal up⁴⁵⁶²
 Thy heart. And Allah
 Blots out Vanity, and proves
 The Truth by His Words.
 For He knows well
 The secrets of all hearts.
25. He is the One that accepts⁴⁵⁶³
 Repentance from His Servants
 And forgives sins:
 And He knows all
 That ye do.
26. And He listens to⁴⁵⁶⁴
 Those who believe and

- ٢٣- ذَلِكَ الَّذِي يُبَشِّرُ اللَّهَ عِبَادَهُ
 الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
 قُلْ لَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ أَجْرًا
 إِلَّا الْمَوَدَّةَ فِي الْقُرْبَىٰ
 وَمَنْ يَقْتَرِفْ حَسَنَةً
 نَّزِدْ لَهُ فِيهَا حُسْنًا
 إِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ شَكُورٌ ۝
- ٢٤- أَمْ يَقُولُونَ افْتَرَىٰ عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا
 فَإِنْ يَشَأْ اللَّهُ يَخْتِمْ
 عَلَىٰ قَلْبِكَ
 وَيَمْحُ اللَّهُ الْبَاطِلَ وَيُخَيِّطُ الْحَقَّ بِكَلِمَاتِهِ
 إِنَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ ۝
- ٢٥- وَهُوَ الَّذِي يَقْبَلُ التَّوْبَةَ عَنْ عِبَادِهِ
 وَيَعْفُو عَنِ السَّيِّئَاتِ
 وَيَعْلَمُ مَا تَفْعَلُونَ ۝
- ٢٦- وَيَسْتَجِيبُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا

4559. Heaven may be pictured to our minds in various forms. This is one of the highest, and Allah announces it freely to the righteous.

4560. No sort of tangible reward does the man of God ask for proclaiming the Glad Tidings of Allah. But at least he has the right to ask that his kith and kin should not persecute him and put all sorts of obstacles in his way, as did the Quraysh against the Holy Prophet. The love of kindred may be extended to mean the love of our common humanity, for all mankind are brothers descended from Adam. Everyone can understand the ordinary love of kindred. (R).

4561. Cf. 35:29-30, and notes 3915 (for increase) and 3917 (for Allah's appreciation of service).

4562. If anyone has a doubt about a prophet's mission, let him look at the prophet's life, at his work, at his character. Allah loves Truth, not Falsehood. Allah's aid goes with Truth, not with Falsehood. The beauty and power of Allah's Word cannot be found in Falsehood. The false man's heart would be sealed, not expanded to new heights, as is that of the Message-bearer of Allah.

4563. Whatever the sin. Allah's Mercy is open to sincere Repentance, at all times, until the decree of condemnation issues.

4564. To the prayers of the righteous He listens, and He gives them of His Bounty beyond their deserts. Every time they do a little good, they are increased in their goodness. Every right impulse or aspiration is strengthened and leads to progressive spiritual advancement.

Do deeds of righteousness,
And gives them increase
Of His Bounty: but
For the Unbelievers there is
A terrible Penalty.

27. If Allah were to enlarge⁴⁵⁶⁵
The provision for His Servants,
They would indeed transgress
Beyond all bounds
Through the earth;
But He sends (it) down
In due measure
As He pleases.⁴⁵⁶⁶
For He is with His Servants
Well-Aquainted, Watchful.

28. He is the One that sends down
Rain (even) after (men) have
Given up all hope,⁴⁵⁶⁷
And scatters His Mercy
(Far and wide). And He Is the Protector, Worthy
Of all Praise.

29. And among His Signs
Is the creation of
The heavens and the earth,
And the living creatures⁴⁵⁶⁸
That He has scattered
Through them:⁴⁵⁶⁹ and He

وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ وَيَزِيدُهُمْ مِنْ

٢٧- وَلَوْ بَسَطَ اللَّهُ الرِّزْقَ لِعِبَادِهِ

وَلَكِنْ يُنْزِلُ بِقَدَرٍ
مَا يَشَاءُ
إِنَّهُ بِعِبَادِهِ خَبِيرٌ بَصِيرٌ ○

٢٨- وَهُوَ الَّذِي يُنْزِلُ الْغَيْثَ مِنْ بَعْدِ
مَا قُنُطُوا
وَيَنْشُرُ رَحْمَتَهُ
وَهُوَ الْوَلِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ ○

٢٩- وَمِنْ آيَاتِهِ خَلْقُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
وَمَا بَثَّ فِيهِمَا مِنْ دَابَّةٍ
وَهُوَ

4565. It may be objected that all prayers, even of good people, are not answered. The reply is: (1) that even everyone who is good does not necessarily know what is best for him, for the values in this life are curiously distorted; and (2) on account of their want of knowledge, if everyone got all he asked for, there would be chaos and confusion, and "transgression beyond bounds through the earth", for the different interests are so intermingled and balanced that some measure must be observed in granting people's wishes. This measure is best supplied by the watchful care of Allah and His perfect knowledge of all our real needs.

4566. As He pleases is here almost equivalent to as He thinks best.

4567. That men should get such a blessing as rain when they expect it according to ordinary calculations of probabilities does not impress them, as it is a daily occurrence. But Allah's mercy is more than this. It comes to our aid even when all hope is lost, and gives us new chances and new openings where we least expect them. His quality of cherishing and protecting His creatures is always active, and what higher praise can we give?

4568. Dābbatun: beasts, living, crawling creatures of all kinds: see n. 166 to 2:164. Similarly in 24. 45, and other passages, the word is used for living creatures of all kinds, life generally, whose material basis is the mysterious thing which science calls protoplasm. The more our biological knowledge increases, the more do we marvel at the unity of Life on the one hand, and its diversity on the other.

4569. Life is not confined to our one little Planet. It is a very old speculation to imagine some life like human life on the planet Mars. Though no scientific demonstration is possible, it is reasonable to suppose that Life in some form or other is scattered through some of the millions of heavenly bodies scattered through space. What a wonderful Sign of Allah! the Almighty Who created such countless beings has surely the power to bring them together.

Has Power to gather them
Together when He wills.

Are forgiven by Allah. His Plan can never
Be frustrated. This Life is but a stage
Of convenience: live true and resist
All wrong, but learn the best way to do so.

30. Whatever misfortune

Of the things your hands⁴⁵⁷⁰
Have wrought, and for many
(Of them) He grants forgiveness.

Or to help.

۝ وَمَا أَنْتُمْ بِمُعْجِزِينَ فِي الْأَرْضِ ۚ

Motionless on the back

۝ إِنْ يَشَأْ يُسْكِنِ الرِّيحَ
فَيُظَلِّلْنَ رَوَاكِدَ عَلَى ظُهُورِهِ ۝

4570. All evil, all sorrow, all pain and affliction, are things not normal, things twisted from the pure and holy nature as created by Allah's hands. As far as man is concerned, his misfortunes are but the consequences of the things he has done, He must bear personal responsibility for them and not throw the blame on others.

4571. Every evil deed or word or thought must have its evil consequences: but if Allah forgives anything — and He forgives much — let no one imagine that he has defeated — or can defeat — Allah's Will or Plan. The only help or protection that is possible is from Allah. Cf. 29:22.

4572. The great and stately ships are appealed to again and again as being among the Signs of Allah, from many aspects. The aspect referred to here is how the great sailing ship runs prosperously as long as "the breath of heaven fill the sail", and what a miserable helpless creature she becomes when she once becomes becalmed. Students of English literature will remember the striking picture which Coleridge draws in his "Rime of the Ancient Mariner." The becalmed ship is as it were in the grip of Death because of the crime which the sailor had committed, and his mind feels psychologically the full force of the Sign. By analogy we can apply this to other craft: the steamer is not free from other dangers of the sea, nor aircraft from numerous dangers of the air.

Of the (ocean). Verily

Perseveres and is grateful.

إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَآيَاتٍ

34. Or He can cause them
To perish because of
The (evil) which (of men)
Have earned; but much
Doth He forgive.

۲۲- أَوْ يُوقِنَ أَنَّكُمْ

35. But let those know, who⁴⁵⁷⁴
Dispute about Our Signs,
That there is for them
No way of escape.

۲۵- وَيَعْلَمَ الَّذِينَ يُجَادِلُونَ فِي آيَاتِنَا
مَا لَهُمْ مِنْ مَّجِيسٍ

36. Whatever ye are given (here)
Is (but) a convenience⁴⁵⁷⁵
Of this Life: but that
Which is with Allah
Is better and more lasting:
(It is) for those who believe⁴⁵⁷⁶
And put their trust
In their Lord;

۲۶- فَمَا أَوْتِيتُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَمَتَاعُ الْحَيَاةِ
الدُّنْيَا وَمَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ خَيْرٌ وَأَبْقَى
لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
وَعَلَىٰ رَبِّهِمْ يَتَوَكَّلُونَ

37. Those who avoid the greater⁴⁵⁷⁷
Crimes and shameful deeds,
And, when they are angry
Even then forgive;

۳۷- وَالَّذِينَ يَجْتَنِبُونَ كَبِيرَ الْإِثْمِ وَ
الْفَوَاحِشَ وَإِذَا مَا غَضِبُوا هُمْ يَغْفِرُونَ

4573. If we study such Signs in the right spirit, we learn the highest lessons for our spiritual life: on the one hand, patient perseverance with reliance on Allah, and on the other a feeling or attitude of grateful thanks to Allah, that He enables us to achieve so much in spite of our shortcomings, and forgives in us so much that deserves punishment and disaster.

4574. If we treat Allah's Signs in the wrong spirit, i.e., contumaciously reject them or constantly dispute about them instead of trying to understand them, we are told that such tactics will avail us nothing: we cannot escape the consequences of our sins. The only way to escape is by repentance on our part and the grant of mercy by Allah.

4575. Any good (or ill) which is our lot is only a temporary phase to serve the convenience of this life. But there is a higher good, which comes from Allah's own Presence. Such good is both superior in quality, and more permanent. In the same way, any ills that we may suffer in this life, have reference only to the conditions of this our life of probation. The ills that we "earn" in our spiritual Life—such as deprivation of Allah's Grace—are far more momentous and permanent.

4576. The higher and more permanent gifts which come from Allah's Presence are for those who truly worship and serve Allah. These are described by nine of their characteristics: viz. (1) they have Faith: and it follows that (2) they trust in Allah, instead of running after false standards or values: (3) they eschew the more serious offences against Allah's Law, and of course keep clear of any offences against sex ("shameful deeds"); (4) while knowing that they are not themselves perfect, they are ready to forgive others, even though they are sorely tried with anger and provocation; for the rest see n. 4578.

4577. Here we are speaking of the ordinary man or woman who tries to follow Allah's Law: he or she is not perfect, but at least eschews the major breaches of conduct. For those higher in spiritual degree there is of course a stricter standard. But all are entitled to the blessing of Islam, whatever their degree.

38. Those who harken⁴⁵⁷⁸
To their Lord, and establish
Regular prayer; who (conduct)
Their affairs by mutual
Consultation;⁴⁵⁷⁹
Who spend out of what
We bestow on them
For Sustenance;
39. And those who, when
An oppressive wrong is inflicted
On them, (are not cowed
But) help and defend themselves.⁴⁵⁸⁰
40. The recompense for an injury
Is an injury equal thereto⁴⁵⁸¹

۝۳۸ وَالَّذِينَ اسْتَجَابُوا لِرَبِّهِمْ وَأَقَامُوا
الصَّلَاةَ
وَأَمْرُهُمْ شُورَى بَيْنَهُمْ
وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ يُنفِقُونَ ۝
۝۳۹ وَالَّذِينَ إِذَا أَصَابَهُمُ الْبَغْيُ
هُمْ يَنْتَصِرُونَ ۝
۝۴۰ وَجَزَاءُ سَيِّئَةٍ سَيِّئَةٌ مِّثْلُهَا ۝

4578. Continuing the enumeration of the characteristics described in n. 4576. above, we have the following further qualities in those who wish to serve Allah. (5) They are ready at all times to hearken to Allah's Signs, or to listen to the admonitions of prophets of Allah, and to follow the true Path, as they understand it: (6) they keep personal contact with Allah, by habits of Prayer and Praise; (7) their conduct in life is open and determined by mutual Consultation between those who are entitled to a voice, e.g., in private domestic affairs, as between husband and wife, or other responsible members of the household: in affairs of business, as between partners or parties interested: and in State affairs, as between rulers and ruled, or as between different departments of administration, to reserve the unity of administration: (8) they do not forget Charity, or the help due to their weaker brethren, out of the wealth or gifts or talents or opportunities, which Allah had provided for themselves: and (9) when other people use them despitefully, they are not cowed down or terrorised into submission and acceptance of evil, but stand up for their rights within the limits mentioned in verse 40. (R).

4579. Consultation. This is the keyword of the Sūrah, and suggests the ideal way in which a good man should conduct his affairs, so that, on the one hand, he may not become too egotistical, and, on the other, he may not lightly abandon the responsibilities which devolve on him as a Personality whose development counts in the sight of Allah. See the points in head (7) under n. 4578 above. This principle was applied to its fullest extent by the Holy Prophet in his private and public life, and was fully acted upon by the early rulers of Islam. Modern representative government is an attempt — by no means perfect — to apply this principle in State affairs. See my Religion Polity of Islam.

4580. This follows from the high value attached to an individual soul's Personality in Islam. Cf. last note. There are four possible situations that may arise: an individual may have to stand up against an oppressor (1) for his own trampled rights, or (2) for the rights of other within his ken; or (3) a community may have similarly to stand up for its own rights collectively; or (4) for the rights of others. Nos. 2, 3, and 4 are considered highly meritorious for all, though few have the courage or the spirit to rise to so high a standard. No. 1 is specially liable to abuse on account of man's selfishness; Nos. 2, 3 and 4 are also abused by men pretending to motives of public good when they are serving their own personal interests or idiosyncracies; hence the qualifications mentioned in the next four verses and the notes thereto.

4581. See last note. When you stand up for rights, either on private or public grounds, it may be through processes of law, or by way of private defence insofar as the law permits private action, but in all cases you must not seek a compensation greater than the injury suffered. The most you can do is to demand equal redress, i.e. a harm equivalent to the harm done to you. Even this may serve to curb your unregenerate soul, or a community bent on revenge. But the ideal mode is not to slake your thirst for vengeance, but to follow better ways leading to the reform of the offender or his reconciliation. See 41:34, and 23:96. You can take steps to prevent repetition, by physical or moral means; the best moral means would be to turn hatred into friendship by forgiveness and love. In that case the compensation or reward (if we must use such terms) is infinitely greater, for it wins the good pleasure of Allah.

But this active righting of wrongs, whether by physical or by moral or spiritual means, which are commended as better, is an antithesis to the monkish doctrine, when you are smitten on one cheek, to turn the other also. This would not suppress, but encourage wrongdoing. It is practised by none but poltroons, and is preached only by hypocrites, or men who want to make slaves or others by depriving them of the power of self-defence. It occurs in two of the four canonical Gospels (Matt. v. 39, and Luke vi. 29), but we need not therefore assume that it was preached by Jesus.

(In degree): but if a person
Forgives and makes reconciliation,
His reward is due⁴⁵⁸²
From Allah: for (Allah)
Loveth not those who
Do wrong.⁴⁵⁸³

SECTION 5.

44. For any whom Allah
Leaves astray, there is

۴۴- وَمَنْ يُضِلِلِ اللَّهُ

4582. To love Allah is the highest motive of our conduct, for it leads to the love of Allah's creatures; to win the approbation and love of Allah, is the highest reward, far transcending any compensation or satisfaction we can obtain in this life.

4583. Allah does not love those who do wrong. If, therefore, we tolerate wrong, or encourage wrong by allowing it to run rampant when we can prevent it, we fail in our duty to Allah.

4584. Such people are not to be blamed, though they are following the lower law. The blame is on those who arrogantly ride roughshod over the land, oppressing people with grievous wrong. See next verse.

4585. The fact that men seek the lower rather than the higher Law is itself a result of arrogant wrongdoing of which the type was the Pharaoh who claimed to be "your Lord Most High" and oppressed the Israelites, and kept his own people under slavery and subjection, and the false glamour of magic and deception.

4586. It is harder to be patient and forgive, and yet to get wrongs righted, as was done by the Holy Prophet, than to bluster about and "punish the guilty" or "teach them lessons". It may look like futility or lack of purpose, but in reality it is the highest and noblest form of courage and resolution. And it may carry out the purpose of reform and the suppression of evil even better than stern punishment. The gentleness of innocence often "persuades where stronger measures fail." But of course circumstances alter cases, and there is some allowance also to be made for the personal equation of the men you have to deal with: in some cases severity may be called for, but it should be from a strict judicial motive, and not merely from personal anger or spite or lower motive in disguise.

No protector thereafter.
And thou wilt see
The wrongdoers, when
In sight of the Penalty,
Say: "Is there any way⁴⁵⁸⁷
(To effect) a return?"

فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ وَلِيٍّ مِّنْ بَعْدِهِ
وَتَرَى الظَّالِمِينَ لَمَّا رَأَوْا الْعَذَابَ
يَقُولُونَ هَلْ إِلَىٰ مَرَدٍّ مِّنْ سَبِيلٍ ۚ

45. And thou wilt see them
Brought forward to the (Penalty),
In a humble frame of mind
Because of (their) disgrace,⁴⁵⁸⁸
(And) looking with a stealthy
Glance. And the Believers
Will say: "Those are indeed⁴⁵⁸⁹
In loss who have given
To perdition their own selves
And those belonging to them
On the Day of Judgement.
Behold! Truly the wrongdoers
Are in a lasting Penalty!"

٢٥- وَتَرَاهُمْ يُعْرَضُونَ عَلَيْهَا خَشِيعِينَ

وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِنَّ
الْخُسْرَيْنِ الَّذِينَ خَسِرُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ
وَأَهْلِيَهُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ
أَلَا إِنَّ الظَّالِمِينَ فِي عَذَابٍ مُّقِيمٍ ۝

46. And no protectors have they⁴⁵⁹⁰
To help them,
Other than Allah.
And for any whom Allah
Leaves to stray, there is
No way (to the Goal).

٢٦- وَمَا كَانَ لَهُمْ مِّنْ أَوْلِيَاءَ يَنْصُرُونَهُمْ
مِّنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ
وَمَنْ يُضِلِلِ اللَّهُ فَمَا لَهُ مِنْ سَبِيلٍ ۚ

47. Hearken ye to your Lord,
Before there come a Day
Which there will be
No putting back, because⁴⁵⁹¹

٢٧- اِسْمِعُوا لِرَبِّكُمْ مِّنْ قَبْلِ
أَنْ يَأْتِيَنِي يَوْمٌ لَا مَرَدَّ لَهُ

4587. When the actual consequences of evil are in sight, the foolish sinner wishes that it were possible to get back to the life of probation. But he neglected or abused it and rejected Allah's Grace all the time. How can he then be restored to a closed chapter of his life?

4588. They were very arrogant in their probationary life. Now will they be humbled to the dust. And they will be in utter despair and misery. They will not be able to see the favours and good things of the other life (Cf. 20:124-126). Even their misery, which will face them as a terrible Reality, they will only be able to look at askance, so thoroughly cowed will be their spirit.

4589. This will be their thought, and their realised experience: 'after all, any troubles and sorrows, any persecutions and taunts which they suffered in the life of probation from the enemies of truth, were of no consequence; the real loss was that revealed at the Judgement at the restoration of true values; the wicked and the arrogant have lost their own souls, and have brought to perdition all who attached themselves to them and followed their evil ways; and this Penalty is one that will endure! How much more real it is!'

4590. The argument begun in verse 44 above is here rounded off. 'If once men finally cut themselves off from Allah's guidance and care, they will have no protection whatever. All their false objects of worship will only mislead them further and further. How they will wish the fact blotted out when they are in sight of Judgement, and vainly wish for time to be reversed! They will be in the Fire, while the men whom they despised and rejected will have reached the final Goal! For them there will be no such way!'

4591. The Day of Judgement is inevitable. Allah has ordained it, and it cannot in any way be put back.

Of (the ordainment of) Allah!
That Day there will be
For you no place of refuge
Nor will there be for you
Any room for denial⁴⁵⁹²
(Of your sins)!

مِنَ اللَّهِ
مَا لَكُمْ مِنْ مَلْجَأٍ يَوْمَئِذٍ
وَمَا لَكُمْ مِنْ تَكْبِيرٍ ۝

48. If then they turn away,
We have not sent thee
As a guard over them.⁴⁵⁹³
Thy duty is but to convey
(The Message). And truly,
When We give man
A taste of a Mercy⁴⁵⁹⁴
From ourselves, he doth
Exult thereat, but
When some ill happens
To him, on account
Of the deeds which
His hands have sent forth,
Truly then is man ungrateful!

۞ فَإِنْ أَعْرَضُوا فَمَا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ عَلَيْهِمْ
حَفِيفًا ۖ إِنْ عَلَيْكَ إِلَّا الْبَلَاغُ
وَإِنَّا إِذَا أَذَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ مِنَّا رَحْمَةً
فَرِحَ بِهَا ۚ
وَإِنْ تُصِيبْهُمْ سَيْئَةٌ
بِمَا قَدْ مَتَّ أَيْدِيَهُمْ
فَإِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ كَفُورٌ ۝

49. To Allah belongs the dominion
Of the heavens and the earth.
He creates what He wills⁴⁵⁹⁵
(And plans). He bestows
(Children) male or female
According to His Will (and Plan),

۞ اللَّهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
يَخْلُقُ مَا يَشَاءُ ۖ يَهَبُ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ إِنَاثًا
وَيَهَبُ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ الذُّكُورَ ۝

4592. At Judgement no one can escape the consequences of his crimes or deeds. And no one can disavow them or deny them, or by any chance pretend that they do not apply to him.

4593. The warning is now given, that men may repent and do good, and pray for Allah's Mercy and Grace. If the warning is not heeded or is rejected, the prophet of Allah is not responsible for bringing about the Penalty or for forcing people to come to the right Path. He is not a guard set over them to free them from the need of exercising their limited free will. (R).

4594. Cf. 30:36. It is a sad reflection that men, when they receive some gift out of Allah's Mercy, exult in their good fortune and attribute it to some merit in themselves, instead of to the Grace and Mercy of Allah, thus missing the real lesson of Life. On the other hand, when they are in trouble, due to their own errors and shortcomings, they fall into despair and blame Allah, instead of blaming themselves. This is rank ingratitude. So they miss the true lesson of Life in the case also.

4595. Verses 49-50 deal, in their ordinary meaning, with Allah's creative power replete with knowledge and continued purpose, contrasted with man's instincts and gropings after knowledge. The mystery of sex and parenthood is referred to in a new light. With reference to children, a parent is often spoken of as the "author" of their being. The growth of population and the proportion of males and females in it have various sociological and psychological implications; yet how little do parents really know about them? The knowledge of science as regards the determination of sex in the embryo is practically nothing. Even if advancing knowledge threw light on what may be called the mechanical aspects of the question, the profounder problems touched by it are beyond the reach of man. Yet they are not governed by chance. Allah has a meaning and purpose in all things, and His power is complete to carry out His purpose.

50. Or He bestows both males⁴⁵⁹⁶
And females, and He leaves
Barren whom He will:
For He is full
Of knowledge and power.

٥- أَوْ يُزَوِّجُهُمْ ذُكْرَانًا وَإِنَاثًا

51. It is not fitting⁴⁵⁹⁷

٥٢- وَكَذَلِكَ أَوْحَيْنَا إِلَيْكَ
رُوحًا مِنْ أَمْرِنَا مَا كُنْتَ تَدْرِي

4596. To parents themselves it is a mystery why a male or female child is given at any birth, or how the balance of the two sexes is made up in a family or in large groups of mankind, or why in some cases the womb is barren and the would-be parents are denied the joys and responsibilities of parenthood. But each individual human soul is precious in the Plan of Allah, and all these variations, besides their reactions on parents and on society, have a purpose to fulfil in the large Plan of Allah.

4597. This leads us on to the higher spiritual meaning of verses 49-50, as leading up to verses 51-53. Man is but a speck in Allah's creation. His growth and family relationships are not by any means comparable to Allah's creative acts, whose various stages are referred to in n. 120 to 2:117, n. 916 to 6:94, and n. 923 to 6:98. That being so in the mysteries of man's daily life, how much more profound is the contrast between man and Allah in the apprehension of the higher spiritual problems concerned with Revelation? How can man be fit to speak to Allah? He is not fit. But there are three ways in which Allah, in His infinite Mercy, communicates with man, as described in verses 51-53.

4598. Allah is Most High, Most Wise: man is, in spite of his high destiny, often the lowest of the low (95:5). Yet Allah, out of His infinite Mercy and Grace, has bestowed His Revelation on man. How does it come about? Three ways are mentioned: (1) Wahyun, Inspiration: (2) from behind a veil; and (3) by the sending of a Messenger: see the notes following.

Wahyun, Inspiration, is interpreted to be of two kinds: (1) a suggestion thrown by Allah into the heart or mind of man, by which man understands the substance of the Message, whether it is a command or prohibition, or an explanation of a great truth; and (2) verbal or literal inspiration, by which the actual words of Allah are conveyed in human language. (R).

4599. Behind a veil: not of course a material veil, but the mystic veil of Light. (R).

Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim relates a tradition that the Prophet said: "His veil is Light: were He to withdraw it, then would the august splendors of His countenance surely consume everything that comes within His Sight." (R).

4600. Messenger: Rasūl: the angel Gabriel, through whom the revelations were given to the Holy Prophet. These spiritual visions, conveying the message of Revelation, are the basis of the Qur'ān.

4601. Before the receipt of his mission in his fortieth year, the Holy Prophet, though a man of steadfast virtue and purity and unflinching in his search for Truth (see C. 22-23), was yet unacquainted with Revelation in the highest sense of the term and with the certainty that comes from perfected Faith, or realised nearness to Allah. Rūḥ, which I have here translated Inspiration has also been understood by some Commentators to refer to the angel Gabriel, the vehicle of Revelation. The Light of the Qur'ān made all things clear to man, and to the world.

What was Revelation, and
What was Faith; but We
Have made the (Qur'ān)
A Light, wherewith We
Guide such of Our servants
As We will; and verily
Thou dost guide (men)⁴⁶⁰²
To the Straight Way—

مَا الْكِتَابُ وَلَا الْإِيمَانُ
وَلَكِنْ جَعَلْنَاهُ نُورًا
تَهْدِي بِهِ مَنْ نَشَاءُ مِنْ عِبَادِنَا
وَأِنَّكَ لَتَهْدِي إِلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيمٍ

53. The Way of Allah,⁴⁶⁰³
To Whom belongs
Whatever is in the heavens
And whatever is on earth.
Behold (how) all affairs
Tend towards Allah!

هـ- صِرَاطُ اللَّهِ الَّذِي
لَهُ مَا فِي السَّمٰوٰتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ
أَلَا إِلَى اللَّهِ تَصِيرُ الْأُمُورُ

4602. The Qur'ān and the inspired Prophet who proclaimed it, are here identified. They were a Guide to men, showing the Straight Way. This Way is described in various ways: for example, see 1:6, and n. 22; 18:1-2, and notes 2326-27; and 90:11-18.

4603. The most comprehensive description of the Straight Way is that it is the Way of Allah, the Way of the Universal Law; for Allah is the source, centre, and goal of all things in heaven and earth. Everything goes back to Him. According to our own understanding we make our own laws, our own standards, and our own institutions. But the ultimate test of their validity or authority is Allah's Will, as revealed to us by His Revelation.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 43—AL ZUKHRUF

This is the fourth Sūrah of the Ḥā Mīm series of seven Sūrahs. For their chronology and general theme see the Introduction to S. 40.

This Sūrah deals with the contrasts between the real glory of Truth and Revelation and the false glitter of what people like to believe and worship. It cites the examples of Abraham, Moses, and Jesus, as exposing the False and holding up the Truth. The keyword (Zukhruf, Gold Adornments) occurs in verse 38, but the idea occurs all through the Sūrah.

Summary—The Book of Revelation makes things clear, even though the ignorant and foolish mock at it and ignore Allah's Signs: it will last, while its rejecters will perish (43:1-25, and C. 213.).

Abraham exposed the falsehood of traditional worship: the glitter and adornments of this world will not last: what was the end of Pharaoh in his arrogant fight with Moses? (43:26-56, and C. 214).

Jesus was a servant of Allah, but his sectarian followers raised false disputations about him: all is known to Allah, Whose Truth will shine, in spite of unfaith (43:57-89, and C. 215).

C. 213. — Revelation makes everlasting Truths
 (43:1-25.) Clear: those who mock merely undo themselves.
 Consider the Signs of Allah's gracious kindness
 Around you, and glorify Him: attribute not
 Unworthy qualities nor any companions
 To the One True God. Seek Truth in worship
 More than mere ancestral ways,
 And shut not out Revelation's Light.

Sūrah 43.

Al Zukhruf (The Gold Adornments)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

2. By the Book that Makes things clear—

3. We have made it
A Qur'ān in Arabic,⁴⁶⁰⁵
That ye may be able

4. And verily, it is
In the Mother of the Book,⁴⁶⁰⁶
In Our Presence, high
(In dignity), full of wisdom.

5. Shall We then⁴⁶⁰⁷
Take away the Message
From you and repel (you),
For that ye are a people
Transgressing beyond bounds?

6. But how many were⁴⁶⁰⁸
The prophets We sent
Amongst the peoples of old?

4604. Abbreviated Letters: see Introduction to S. 40, paragraphs 2-4.

4605. Cf. 42:7, n. 4533.

4606. Cf. 3:7, n. 347; and 13:39, n. 1864. The Mother of the Book, the Foundation of Revelation, the Preserved Tablet (Lawh Mahfūz, 85:22), is the core or essence of Revelation, the original principle or fountainhead of Allah's Eternal and Universal Law. From this fountainhead are derived all streams of knowledge and wisdom, that flow through Time and feed the intelligence of created minds. The Mother of the Book is in Allah's own Presence, and its dignity and wisdom are more than all we can think of in the spiritual world.

4607. In vouchsafing Revelation, what an inestimable Mercy has Allah conferred on mankind! Yet so many deluded souls are ungrateful, and ignore or oppose its teaching. If it were not for His attributes of Forgiveness and Forbearing He would be justified in withdrawing that Light, but He continues to shed it, that all who will may come and be blessed by it.

4608. In spite of, or because of, man's obstinate and rebellious nature, Allah sent prophet after prophet to the peoples of old, but there was among them always a party that ridiculed them and treated Allah's Signs as naught.

7. And never came there
A prophet to them
But they mocked him.
8. So We destroyed (them)—
Stronger in power than these—
And (thus) has passed on⁴⁶⁰⁹
The Parable of the peoples
Of old.
9. If thou wert
To question them, 'Who created
The heavens and the earth?'⁴⁶¹⁰
They would be sure to reply,
'They were created by (Him),
The Exalted in Power,
Full of Knowledge'—⁴⁶¹¹
10. (Yea, the same that)⁴⁶¹²
Has made for you
The earth (like a carpet)⁴⁶¹³
Spread out, and has made
For you roads (and channels)
Therein, in order that ye
May find guidance (on the way);
11. That sends down
(From time to time)
Rain from the sky
In due measure—⁴⁶¹⁴
And We raise to life

٤- وَمَا يَأْتِيهِمْ مِنْ نَّبِيٍّ
إِلَّا كَانُوا بِهِ يَسْتَهْزِءُونَ ○

٥- فَأَهْلَكْنَا أَشَدَّ مِنْهُمْ بَطْشًا
وَمَضَىٰ مَثَلُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ○

٦- وَلَئِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ
خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ
لَيَقُولَنَّ خَلَقْنَهُنَّ
الْعَزِيزُ الْعَلِيمُ ○

١٠- الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْأَرْضَ مَهْدًا
وَجَعَلَ لَكُمُ فِيهَا سُبُلًا
لَعَلَّكُمْ تَهْتَدُونَ ○

١١- وَالَّذِي نَزَّلَ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ مَاءً بِقَدَرٍ
فَأَنْشَرْنَا بِهِ

4609. The result of rebellion was destruction. And the pagan Makkan generation contemporary with the Prophet are reminded that the peoples of old who were destroyed were, many of them, more powerful than they, and that they, in disobeying Allah's Law, were inviting the same fate for themselves. The events of the past have become Parables for the present and the future.

4610. Cf. 29:61 and n. 3493; and 31:25 and n. 3613. This class of men acknowledge Allah's Power and Allah's Knowledge or Wisdom, but do not realise Allah's infinite Mercy and care for His creatures.

4611. Note the beautiful rhetorical figure of speech here. The reply of the inconsistent men who do not follow Allah's Law is turned against themselves. When they acknowledge Allah's Power and Knowledge, their speech is interrupted, and the concomitant qualities of Allah's Mercy and care of His creatures, with pointed reference to the inconsistent ones themselves, is set out in eloquent terms, as completing what they themselves had said, and the right course of conduct is pointed out to them (verses 10-14).

4612. See last note.

4613. Cf. 20:53 and n. 2576. Mihād, a carpet or bed spread out, implies not only freedom of movement but rest also. The 'roads and channels' carry out the idea of communications and include land routes, sea routes, and airways.

4614. In due measure: i.e., according to needs, as measured by local as well as universal considerations. This applies to normal rainfall: floods and droughts are abnormal conditions, and may be called unusual manifestations of His power, fulfilling some special purpose that we may or may not understand.

Therewith a land that is

۝ ۝ وَجَعَلُوا لَهُ مِنْ عِبَادِهِ جُزْءًا
إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ
لَكَفُورٌ مُبِينٌ ۝

4615. The clause 'And We raise . . . (from the dead)' is parenthetical. Cf. 35:9, n. 3881. Note the transition from the third to the first person, to mark the Resurrection as a special act of Allah as distinguished from the ordinary processes of nature ordained by Allah.

4616. Cf. n. 2578 to 20:53. Also see 36:36, n. 3981.

4617. By analogy all means of transport, including horses, camels, ships, steamers, railways, aeroplanes, airships, etc. The domestication of animals as well as the invention of mechanical means of transport require a skill and ingenuity in man, which are referred to Allah as His gifts or endowments to man.

4618. See last note. People of understanding attribute all good to its true and original source viz.: Allah.

4619. Men of understanding, every time they take a journey on earth, are reminded of that more momentous journey which they are taking of the back of Time to Eternity. Have they tamed Time to their lawful use, or do they allow Time to run away with them wildly to where they know not? Their goal is Allah, and their thoughts are ever with Allah.

4620. As a contrast to the men of true understanding are the ungrateful blasphemous creatures, who offer a share in godhead to others besides Allah! They imagine sons and daughters to Allah, and forget the true lesson of the whole of Creation, which points to the Unity of Allah. This theme is further developed in the following Section.

SECTION 2.

16. What! Has He taken⁴⁶²¹
Daughters out of what He Himself creates, and granted
To you sons for choice?

١٦- أَمْ اتَّخَذَ مِنَّا يَخْلُقُ بَنَاتٍ
وَأَصْفَكُم بِالْبَنِينَ ○

17. When news is brought⁴⁶²²
To one of them of (the birth
Of) what he sets up
As a likeness to (Allah)
Most Gracious, his face
Darkens, and he is filled
With inward grief!

١٧- وَإِذَا بُشِّرَ أَحَدُهُمْ
بِمَا ضَرَبَ لِلرَّحْمَنِ مَثَلًا
ظَلَّ وَجْهُهُ مُسَوِّدًا
وَهُوَ كَظِيمٌ ○

18. Is then one brought up⁴⁶²³
Among trinkets, and unable
To give a clear account
In a dispute (to be Associated with Allah)?

١٨- أَوْ مَنْ يُنشِؤُا فِي الْحِلْيَةِ
وَهُوَ فِي الْخِصَامِ
غَيْرُ مُبِينٍ ○

19. And they make into females
Angels who themselves serve⁴⁶²⁴
Allah. Did they witness
Their creation? Their evidence
Will be recorded, and they
Will be called to account!

١٩- وَجَعَلُوا الْمَلَائِكَةَ الَّذِينَ هُمْ عِبَادُ الرَّحْمَنِ
إِنَاثًا أَشْهَدُوا خَلَقَهُمْ
سَنُكْتَبُ شَهَادَتَهُمْ وَيُسْأَلُونَ ○

20. ("Ah!") they say, "If
It had been the Will⁴⁶²⁵
Of (Allah) Most Gracious,

٢٠- وَقَالُوا لَوْ شَاءَ الرَّحْمَنُ

4621. To imagine goddesses (female gods) or mothers or daughters to Allah was particularly blasphemous in the mouths of people who held the female sex in contempt. Such were the pagan Arabs, and such (it is to be feared) are some of the moderns. They wince when a daughter is born to them and hanker after sons. With that mentality, how can they attribute daughters to Allah?

4622. Cf. 16:57-59 and notes. With scathing irony it is pointed out that what they hate and are ashamed of for themselves they attribute to Allah!

4623. The softer sex is usually brought up among trinkets and ornaments, and, on account of the retiring modesty which for the sex is a virtue, is unable to stand up boldly in a fight and give clear indications of the will to win. Is that the sort of quality to be associated with Allah?

4624. Angels for grace and purity may be compared to the most graceful and purest forms we know. But it is wrong to attribute sex to them. They are servants and messengers of Allah and so far from being rivals seeking worship, are always engaged in devotion and service. If any persons invent blasphemies about Allah, such blasphemies will form a big blot in their Book of Deeds, and they will be called to account for them.

4625. Worst of all in argument they resort to a dishonest sarcasm. 'We worship these deities: if Allah does not wish us to do so, why does He not prevent us?' In throwing the responsibility on Allah, they ignore the limited free will on which their whole life is based. They are really playing with truth. They are arguing against their own knowledge. They have no authority in any scripture, and indeed they are so slippery that they hold fast to no scripture at all.

We should not have
Worshipped such (deities)!"
Of that they have
No knowledge! they
Do nothing but lie!⁴⁶²⁶

مَا عَبَدْنَاهُمْ
مَا لَهُمْ بِذَلِكَ مِنْ عِلْمٍ
إِنَّهُمْ إِلَّا يَخْرُصُونَ ٥

21. What! have We given them
A Book before this,
To which they are
Holding fast?

٢١- أَمْ آتَيْنَاهُمْ كِتَابًا مِنْ قَبْلِهِ
فَلَهُمْ بِهِ مُسْتَسْكُونَ ٥

22. Nay! they say: "We found⁴⁶²⁷
Our fathers following
A certain religion,
And we do guide ourselves
By their footsteps."

٢٢- بَلْ قَالُوا إِنَّا وَجَدْنَا آبَاءَنَا
عَلَىٰ أُمَّةٍ
وَإِنَّا عَلَىٰ آثَرِهِمْ مُهْتَدُونَ ٥

23. Just in the same way,
Whenever We sent a Warner
Before thee to any people,
The wealthy ones among them⁴⁶²⁸
Said: "We found our fathers
Following a certain religion,
And we will certainly
Follow in their footsteps."

٢٣- وَكَذَلِكَ مَا أَرْسَلْنَا مِنْ قَبْلِكَ فِي
قَرْيَةٍ مِنْ تَذِيرٍ إِلَّا قَالَ مُتْرَفُوهَا
إِنَّا وَجَدْنَا آبَاءَنَا عَلَىٰ أُمَّةٍ
وَإِنَّا عَلَىٰ آثَرِهِمْ مُقْتَدُونَ ٥

24. He said: "What!⁴⁶²⁹
Even if I brought you
Better guidance than that
Which ye found
Your fathers following?"
They said: "For us,
We deny that ye (prophets)
Are sent (on a mission
At all)."

٢٤- قُلْ أَوْ لَوْ جِئْتُكُمْ بِأَهْدَىٰ
مِمَّا وَجَدْتُمْ عَلَيْهِ آبَاءَكُمْ
قَالُوا إِنَّا
بِمَا أُرْسِلْتُمْ بِهِ
كَافِرُونَ ٥

25. So We extracted retribution
From them: now see

٢٥- فَانْتَقَمْنَا مِنْهُمْ فَأَنْظُرْ

4626. Cf. 6:116.

4627. Then comes the argument about ancestral custom, which was repudiated by Abraham (see verses 26-28 below). Indeed a good reply to ancestral custom in the case of the Arabs was the example of Abraham, the True in Faith, for Abraham was the common ancestor of the Arabs and the Israelites.

4628. It is some privileged position, and not ancestral custom, which is really at the bottom of much falsehood and hypocrisy in the world. This has been again and again in religious history.

4629. The Warner or messenger pointed out the merits and the truth of his teaching, and how superior it was to what they called their ancestral customs. But they denied his mission itself or the validity of any such mission. In other words they did not believe in inspiration or revelation, and went on in their evil ways, with the inevitable result that they brought themselves to destruction.

What was the end
Of those who rejected (Truth)!

كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الْمُكَذِّبِينَ ۝

- C. 214. — If the Arabs hark back to ancestry, why not (43:26-56.) Accept the Faith of Abraham the True?
He joined not gods with Allah. Spiritual
Worth is measured by other things
Than gold or silver or the adornments
Of this world. These are but things of the hour.
The lasting gifts are those of the Hereafter.
If Israel goes back to Moses, how he
Was mocked by Pharaoh in his pride
Of power! Yet Pharaoh and his deluded
People perished: so ends the pomp
And power and vanity of this world!

SECTION 3.

26. Behold! Abraham said⁴⁶³⁰
To his father and his people:
"I do indeed clear myself
Of what ye worship:"

۲۶- وَإِذْ قَالَ إِبْرَاهِيمُ لِأَبِيهِ وَقَوْمِهِ
إِنِّي بَرَاءٌ مِّمَّا تَعْبُدُونَ ۝

27. "(I worship) only Him
Who made me, and He
Will certainly guide me."

۲۷- إِلَّا إِلَٰهِيَ فَطَرَنِي
فَإِنَّهُ سَيَهْدِينِ ۝

28. And he left it
As a Word⁴⁶³¹
To endure among those
Who came after him,
That they may turn back
(To Allah).

۲۸- وَجَعَلَهَا كَلِمَةً
بَاقِيَةً فِي عَقِبِهِ
لَعَلَّهُمْ يَرْجِعُونَ ۝

29. Yea, I have given⁴⁶³²
The good things of this life
To these (men) and

۲۹- بَلْ مَتَّعْتُ هَٰؤُلَاءِ

4630. The plea of ancestral ways is refuted by the example of Abraham, in two ways: (1) he gave up the ancestral cults followed by his father and his people, and followed the true Way, even at some sacrifice to himself; and (2) he was an ancestor of the Arabs, and if the Arabs stood on ancestral ways, why should they not follow their good ancestor Abraham, rather than their bad ancestors who fell into evil? See n. 4627 above. The incident in Abraham's story referred to here will be found in 21:51-70.

4631. A Word: i.e., the Gospel of Unity, viz., "I worship only Him Who made me", as in verse 27. This was his teaching, and this was his legacy to those who followed him. He hoped that they would keep it sacred, and uphold the standard of Unity. Cf. C. 7-8. Cf. also 37:108-111.

4632. Note the first person singular, as showing Allah's personal solicitude and care for the descendants of Abraham in both branches. The context here refers to the prosperity enjoyed by Makkah and the Makkans until they rejected the truth of Islam when it was preached in their midst by a messenger whose Message was as clear as the light of the sun.

Their fathers, until the Truth
Has come to them,
And a Messenger
Making things clear.

وَأَبَاءَهُمْ حَتَّىٰ جَاءَهُمُ الْحَقُّ
وَرَسُولٌ مُّبِينٌ ٥

30. But when the Truth came
To them, they said:
"This is sorcery, and we⁴⁶³³
Do reject it."

٣٠- وَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمُ الْحَقُّ قَالُوا
هَذَا سِحْرٌ وَإِنَّا بِهِ كَافِرُونَ ٥

31. Also, they say: "Why
Is not this Qur'ān sent
Down to some leading man
In either of the two⁴⁶³⁴
(Chief) cities?"

٣١- وَقَالُوا لَوْلَا نُزِّلَ هَذَا الْقُرْآنُ
عَلَىٰ رَجُلٍ مِّنَ الْقَرْيَتَيْنِ
عَظِيمٍ ٥

32. Is it they who would portion out
The Mercy of thy Lord?⁴⁶³⁵
It is We Who portion out
Between them their livelihood
In the life of this world:
And We raise some of them
Above others in ranks,
So that some may command
Work from others.
But the Mercy of thy Lord
Is better than the (wealth)
Which they amass.

٣٢- أَهَمْ يَقْسِمُونَ رَحْمَتَ رَبِّكَ ۖ
نَحْنُ قَسَمْنَا بَيْنَهُمْ مَّعِيشَتَهُمْ
فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا
وَرَفَعْنَا بَعْضَهُمْ فَوْقَ بَعْضٍ دَرَجَاتٍ
لِّيَتَّخِذَ بَعْضُهُمُ بَعْضًا سُلُوفًا ۖ
وَرَحْمَتُ رَبِّكَ خَيْرٌ مِّمَّا يَجْمَعُونَ ٥

33. And were it not that⁴⁶³⁶
(All) men might become

٣٣- وَلَوْلَا أَن يَكُونَ النَّاسُ

4633. When the pagan Makkans could not understand the wonderful power and authority with which the Holy Prophet preached, they called his God-given influence sorcery!

4635. That is, spiritual gifts, those connected with Revelation. What audacity or folly in them to claim to divide or distribute them among themselves? They may think they are distributing the good things of this world among themselves. In a sense that may be true, but even here, their own power and initiative are very limited. Even here it is Allah's Will on which all depends. In His wisdom Allah allows some to grow in power or riches, and command work from others, and various relative gradations are established. Men scramble for these good things of this world, but they are of no value compared to the spiritual gifts.

4636. So little value is attached in the spiritual world to silver or gold, or worldly ranks or adornments, that they would freely be at the disposal of everyone who denied or blasphemed Allah, were it not that in that case there would be too great temptation placed in the way of men, for they might all scramble to sell their spiritual life for wealth! They might have silver roofs and stairways, silver doors and thrones, and all kinds of adornments of gold. But Allah does not allow too great a temptation to be placed in the path of men. He distributes these things differently, some to unjust men, and some to just men, in various degrees, so that the possession of these is no test either of an unjust or a just life. His wisdom searches out motives far more subtle and delicate than any we are even aware of.

Of one (evil) way of life,
We would provide,
For everyone that blasphemes
Against (Allah) Most Gracious,
Silver roofs for their houses,
And (silver) stairways
On which to go up,

34. And (silver) doors
To their houses, and thrones
(Of silver) on which
They could recline,

35. And also adornments⁴⁶³⁷
Of gold. But all this
Were nothing but conveniences
Of the present life:
The Hereafter, in the sight
Of thy Lord, is
For the Righteous.

SECTION 4.

36. If anyone withdraws himself⁴⁶³⁸
From remembrance
Of (Allah) Most Gracious,
We appoint for him
An evil one, to be
An intimate companion to him.

37. Such (evil ones) really
Hinder them from the Path,⁴⁶³⁹
But they think that they
Are being guided aright!

38. At length, when (such a one)⁴⁶⁴⁰
Comes to Us, he says

أُمَّةً وَاحِدَةً
لَجَعَلْنَا لِمَن يَكْفُرُ بِالرَّحْمَنِ

۳۴- وَلِبُيُوتِهِمْ أَبْوَابًا وَسُرُورًا

۳۶- وَمَنْ يَعْشُ عَنْ ذِكْرِ

۳۷- وَإِنَّهُمْ لَيَصُدُّوهُمْ عَنِ السَّبِيلِ
وَيَحْسَبُونَ أَنَّهُمْ مُهْتَدُونَ ۝

۳۸- حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءَنَا قَالَ

4637. Adornments of gold: the keyword to this Sūrah. All false glitter and adornments of this world are as naught. They more often hinder than help.

4638. If men deliberately put away the remembrance of Allah from their minds, the natural consequence, under Allah's decree, is that they join on with evil. Like consorts with like. We can generalise evil in the abstract, but it takes concrete shape in our life companions.

4639. The downward course in evil is rapid. But the most tragic consequence is that evil persuades its victims to believe that they are pursuing good. They think evil to be their good. They go deeper and deeper into the mire, and become more and more callous. Them and they represent the generic plural of anyone who "withdraws himself from . . . Allah" (see last verse).

4640. If ever the presence of Allah is felt, or at the time of Judgement, a glimmering of truth comes to the deceived soul, and it cries to its evil companions in its agony, "Would that I had never come across thee! Would that we were separated poles apart!" But it cannot shake off evil. By deliberate choice it had put itself in its snare.

(To his evil companion):
 "Would that between me
 And thee were the distance
 Of East and West!"⁴⁶⁴¹ Ah!
 Evil is the companion (indeed)!

4641. Distance of East and West: literally, 'distance of the two Easts'. Most Commentators understand in this sense, but some construe the phrase as meaning the distance of the extreme points of the rising of the sun, between the summer solstice and the winter solstice. Cf. n. 4034 to 37:5. A good equivalent idiom in English would be "poles apart", for they could never meet.

4642. All partners in evil will certainly share in the punishment, but that is no consolation to any individual soul. Evil desires the evil of others, but that does not diminish its own torment, or get rid of the personal responsibility of each individual soul.

4643. Cf. 30:52-53. The evil go headlong into sin, and sink deeper and deeper until their spiritual faculties are deadened, and no outside help can bring them back. Allah's grace they have rejected.

4644. There is hope for a person who wanders in quest of truth, and even for one who wanders through mistake or by weakness of will. But there is none for one who, by deliberate choice, plunges into "manifest error", i.e., error which anyone can see.

4645. Cf. 8:30: "how the Unbelievers plotted against thee, to keep thee in bonds, or slay thee, or get thee out (of thy home)." They were always plotting against the Holy Prophet in his Makkan period. But even if their plots had succeeded against human beings, they could not defeat Allah's Plan, nor escape the just punishment of their deeds. Cf. also 10:46, and n. 1438.

4646. Let the wicked rage, say what they like, or do their worst: the Prophet of Allah is encouraged to go forward steadfastly in the Light given him, for he is on a Path that leads straight to Allah. (R).

SECTION 5.

46. He did send Moses⁴⁶⁴⁹
Aforetime, with Our Signs,
To Pharaoh and his Chiefs:
He said, "I am a messenger
Of the Lord of the Worlds."

٤٦- وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا مُوسَى بِآيَاتِنَا
إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ وَمَلَئِهِ

٤٨- وَمَا تَرَاهُمْ مِنْ آيَةٍ

49. And they said, "O thou⁴⁶⁵²

٤٩- وَقَالُوا يَا أَيُّهَا الشَّاحِرُ ادْعُ لَنَا رَبَّكَ

4647. Dhikrun: Message, Remembrance, Cause of remembrance, Memorial, Title for remembrance to posterity. Thus two meanings emerge, not necessarily mutually exclusive. (1) The Qur'an brings a Message of Truth and Guidance to the Prophet, and his people; (2) the Revelation of the Qur'an raises the rank of the Prophet, and the people among whom, and in whose language, it was promulgated, making them worthy of remembrance in the world's history for all time. But the honour also carried its responsibilities. All who hear it must give an account of how far they profit by it spiritually.

4648. That is, by examining their Message, and asking the learned among their real followers. It will be found that no Religion really teaches the worship of other than Allah.

4649. For the story of Moses in detail, see 7:103-137, but especially 7:104, 130-136.

4650. For the mockery of Moses and his Signs see 17:101; also below, 43:49, 52-53.

4651. Moses showed them nine Clear Signs: see n. 1091 to 7:133; also 17:101. Each one of them in its own setting and circumstances was greater than any of its "sister" Signs. The object was if possible to reclaim as many Egyptians as possible from their defiance of Allah.

4652. This speech is half a mockery, and half a ruse. In spite of their unbelief, they had fear in their minds, and in order to stop the plagues, one after another, they promised to obey Allah, and when the particular plague was removed, they again became obdurate. See 7:133-135.

- For us according to
His covenant with thee;
For we shall truly
Accept guidance.”
50. But when We removed
The Penalty from them,
Behold, they broke their word.
51. And Pharaoh proclaimed
Among his people, saying:
“O my people! Does not
The dominion of Egypt
Belong to me, (witness)⁴⁶⁵³
These streams flowing
Underneath my (palace)? What!
See ye not then?
52. “Am I not better
Than this (Moses), who
Is a contemptible wretch⁴⁶⁵⁴
And can scarcely
Express himself clearly?
53. “Then why are not⁴⁶⁵⁵
Gold bracelets bestowed
On him, or (why)
Come (not) with him
Angels accompanying him
In procession?”
54. Thus did he make
Fools of his people,
And they obeyed him:
Truly were they a people
Rebellious (against Allah).

4653. The wāw here in Arabic is the Wāw ḥālīyah: the abundant streams from the Nile flowing beneath his palace being evidence of his power, prosperity, and sovereignty. The Nile made (and makes) Egypt, and the myth of the god Osiris was a compound of the myths of the Nile and the sun. The Pharaoh, therefore, as commanding the Nile, commanded the gods who personified Egypt. He boasted of water, and he perished in water,—a fitting punishment!

4654. Being a despised Israelite in any case, and having further an impediment in his speech. See 20:27, and notes 2552-53.

4655. Gold bracelets and gold chains were possibly among the insignia of royalty. In any case they betokened wealth, and the materialists judge a man's worth by his wealth and his following and equipage. So Pharaoh wanted to see Moses, if he had any position in the spiritual kingdom, invested with gold bracelets, and followed by a great train of angels as his Knight-companions! The same kind of proofs were demanded by the materialistic Quraysh of our Holy Prophet. These were puerilities, but such puerilities go down with the crowd. Barring a few Egyptians who believed in Allah and in the Message of Moses, the rest of Pharaoh's entourage followed Pharaoh in his pursuit of revenge, and were drowned in the Red Sea.

55. When at length they⁴⁶⁵⁶
Provoked Us, We exacted
Retribution from them, and
We drowned them all.⁴⁶⁵⁷

C. 215. — If Christians go back to Jesus, he (43:57-89.) Was but a man and a servant of Allah:
He came to still the jarring sects,
Not to create a new one. He preached
The One True God, his Lord. So give up
Disputing, and join in devotion to Allah.
That is the Way to the Garden of Bliss,
But the opposite leads to the Fire. Beware!
The Truth has come, and Allah knows how you
Receive it. He is the Lord of power and mercy.
The Truth must prevail: resist it not.

57. When (Jesus) the son⁴⁶⁵⁹

Thy people raise a clamour

4656. Allah is long-suffering, and gives many and many opportunities to the most hardened sinners for repentance. But at length comes a time when His justice is provoked, and the inevitable punishment follows.

4657. Cf. 7:136.

4659. Jesus was a man, and a prophet to the Children of Israel, "though his own received him not". Some of the churches that were founded after him worshipped him as "God" and as "the son of God", as do the Trinitarian churches to the present day. The orthodox churches did so in the time of the Holy Prophet. When the doctrine of Unity was renewed, and the false worship of others besides Allah was strictly prohibited, all false gods were condemned, e.g., at 21:98. The pagan Arabs looked upon Jesus as being in the same category as their false gods, and could not see why a foreign cult, or a foreign god, as they viewed him, should be considered better than their own gods or idols. There was no substance in this, but mere mockery, and verbal quibbling. Jesus was one of the greater prophets: he was not a god, nor was he responsible for the quibbling subtleties of the Athanasian Creed.

Of disputation: yea, they
Are a contentious people.

59. He was no more than
A servant: We granted

4660. A reference to the limited mission of the prophet Jesus, whose Gospel to the Jews only survives in uncertain fragmentary forms.

4661. If it were said that the birth of Jesus without a father sets him above other prophets, the creation of angels without either father or mother would set them still higher, especially as angels do not eat and drink and are not subject to physical laws. But angels are not higher.

4662. This is understood to refer to the second coming of Jesus in the Last Days before the Resurrection, when he will destroy the false doctrines that pass under his name, and prepare the way for the universal acceptance of Islam, the Gospel of Unity and Peace, the Straight Way of the Qur'an.

4663. True wisdom consists in understanding the unity of the Divine purpose and the Unity of the Divine Personality. The man Jesus came to reconcile the jarring sects in Israel, and his true teaching was just the same as that which was expounded in a wider form by Islam. He did not claim to be God; why should not the Christians follow the doctrine of Unity rather than what has become their ancestral and traditional custom?

٤٩- الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا بِآيَاتِنَا وَكَانُوا مُسْلِمِينَ ۝

4664. In verses 26-28 an appeal is made to the pagan Arabs, that Islam is their own religion, the religion of Abraham their ancestor; in verses 46-54, an appeal is made to the Jews that Islam is the same religion as was taught by Moses, and that they should not allow their leaders to make fools of them; in verses 57-65 an appeal is made to the Christians that Islam is the same religion as was taught by Jesus, and that they should give up their sectarian attitude and follow the universal religion, which shows the Straight Way.

4665. Cf. 12:107. What is there to wait for? The Hour of Judgement may come at any moment. It will come all of a sudden before they realise that it is on them. They should make up their minds to give up misleading disputations and come to the Straight Path.

4666. The hatred and spite, which are associated with evil, will be felt with peculiar intensity in that period of agony. That itself would be a punishment, from which the righteous will be free. The righteous will have passed all perils of falling into wrong frames of mind.

4667. The devotion and service to Allah result in the soul being made free from all fear and sorrow, as regards the past, present, and future, if we may take an analogy from Time for a timeless state. Such devotion and service are shown by (1) believing in Allah's Signs, which means understanding and accepting His Will, and (2) by merging our will completely in His universal Will, which means being in tune with the Infinite, and acting in all things to further His Kingdom.

4668. The Garden is the type of all that is beautiful to eye, mind, and soul; all that is restful and in tune, a complete state of bliss, such as we can scarcely conceive of in this troubled world. Several metaphors indicate how we can try to picture that bliss to ourselves in "this muddy vesture of decay."

4669. We shall have all our near and dear ones ("wives") with us: perfected Love will not be content with Self, but like a note of music will find its melody in communion with others. The richest and most beautiful vessels will minister to our purified desires, and give complete and eternal satisfaction to our souls in every way.

4670. We shall be there, not as strangers, or temporary guests, but as heirs—made heirs in eternity because of the good lives we had led on earth.

4671. The "fruit" here links on with the last words in the last verse (72): "ye are made heirs for your (good) deeds (in life)". It is not a doctrine of "rewards", strictly so called. A reward is measured by merit, but here the bliss is beyond all merits or deserts. It is a doctrine of works and their fruits: every deed must have its inevitable consequences. At first sight it may be compared to the doctrine of "Karma", but it differs from it in postulating Allah's unbounded Mercy, and the efficacy of Repentance. (R).

4672. Literally, "shall eat". But the word akala is used in many places in the comprehensive sense of "enjoy", "have satisfaction". For example, see n. 776 to 5:69. Cf. also 7:19 and n. 1004.

4673. The wrongdoers suffer not because Allah is unjust or cruel, nor as a deterrent to others, for the probationary period will then have passed, but because their evil deeds must bear their inevitable fruit. Allah's Grace was ever ready to offer opportunities for Repentance and Forgiveness. But they rejected them. They were unjust to themselves. This is complementary to the doctrine of works and their fruits, as explained in n. 4671 above.

4674. Mālik: one who is lord or possessor; one who is in charge; applied to the Angel in charge of Hell.

4675. Cf. 20:74. Annihilation is better than agony. But wrongdoers cannot destroy the "fruits" of their actions, by asking for annihilation.

4676. We come back now to the Present — primarily to the time when Islam was being preached in Makkah, but by analogy the present time or any time. Truth is often bitter to the taste of those who live on Falsehoods and Shams and profit by them. They hate the Truth, and plot against it. But will they succeed? See next verse and note.

4677. Men cannot settle the high affairs of the universe. If they plot against the Truth, the Truth will destroy them, just as, if they accept the Truth, the Truth will make them free. It is Allah Who disposes of affairs.

4678. However secretly men may plot, everything is known to Allah. His recording Angels are by, at all times and in all places, to prepare a Record of their Deeds for their own conviction when the time comes for Judgement.

4679. The prophet of Allah does not object to true worship in any form. But it must be true: it must not superstitiously attribute derogatory things to Allah, or foster false ideas.

4680. Cf. 7:54 and n. 1032. All Power, Authority, Knowledge, and Truth are with Allah. He neither begets nor is begotten. Glory to Him!

4681. That Day of theirs: they had their Day on earth; they will have a different sort of Day in the Hereafter, according to the promise of Allah about the Resurrection and Judgement, or perhaps about Retribution in this very life! So leave them to play about with their fancies and vanities. Truth must eventually prevail!

4682. We glorify Allah, and we call His name blessed, because He has not only supreme power and authority, but because we shall return to Him and see "the Light of His Countenance" (30:38).

4683. The classical Commentators construe this clause differently. According to their construction, the clause would be translated, "except those who bear witness to the Truth, and with full knowledge." "Truth" they would construe to be the Gospel of Unity. According to them, while idols and false gods have no power of intercession, persons like Jesus, who is falsely worshipped by his misguided followers, but who himself preached the Gospel of Unity with full understanding, will have the power of intercession. This implies that we construe the singular man shahida to refer to the same person or persons as the plural hum ya'lamūn. This difficulty is removed if we construe as I have translated it. In that case "he who bears witness to the Truth" is the Holy Prophet, who came to renew the Gospel of Unity, and "they know (him)" would refer to the Quraysh, amongst whom he was brought up and among whom he earned the reputation of being a man of probity (Amin).

87. If thou ask them, Who⁴⁶⁸⁴
Created them, they will Certainly say, Allah: how
Then are they deluded

٨٧- وَلَئِنْ سَأَلْتَهُمْ مَنْ خَلَقَهُمْ

Of the (Prophet's) cry,
"O my Lord! Truly

Who will not believe!"⁴⁶⁸⁶

٨٨- وَقِيلَ لَهُ يَرْبِّ
إِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ قَوْمٌ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ۝

89. But turn away from them,
And say "Peace!"⁴⁶⁸⁷
But soon shall they know!

٨٩- فَاصْفَعْ عَنْهُمْ وَقُلْ سَلَامٌ
فَسَوْفَ يَعْلَمُونَ ۝

4684. Cf. 31:25, and n. 3613; and 39:38, and n. 4299.

4685. Commentators are divided in opinion as to the construction. The best opinion is that which I have adopted, referring back qilīhi genitive governed by 'ilm in verse 85. An alternative construction is to construe the wāw here as the wāw qasamiyah: in that case we should have to suppose some other clause as understood, in order to complete the sense.

4686. The Prophet was much troubled in mind by the Unfaith of the Quraysh: 18:6. He is here told to leave them alone for a time, for the Truth must soon prevail.

4687. Cf. 25:63, and n. 3123.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 44—AL DUKHĀN

For the chronology and the general theme of the Sūrahs of the Hā Mīm series of which this is the fifth, see the Introduction to S. 40.

The theme of this particular Sūrah is how worldly pride and power are humbled in the dust if they resist spiritual forces, and how Evil and Good find their true setting in the Hereafter.

The title word Dukhān occurs in verse 10. It means smoke or mist, and may refer to a drought or famine, as explained in the notes to that verse.

Summary—Revelation explains clearly how worldly pride and arrogance may come to naught, even at long odds, against spiritual truths (44:1-29, and C. 216).

A people may be given all blessings and may fail in its trust, as did Israel: will the Quraysh learn the lesson of Good and Evil? (44:30-59, and C. 217).

C. 216. — Blest is the night in which Allah's Message
 (44:1-29.) Comes down, as a Mercy to men, to warn them
 Against Evil. How fractious of men to ignore
 Or suppress such warnings? Proud Pharaoh
 And his Chiefs did resist Allah's authority,
 But their sins rebounded on themselves:
 They were swallowed up by the sea; and their tilth,
 Their gardens, their noble fanes and buildings,
 And all the advantages of which they boasted
 Passed to other hands. Not a tear
 Was shed over them in heaven or earth.
 Thus ends the tale of power misused.

4688. These Abbreviated Letters are discussed in the Introduction to S. 40, paragraphs 2-4.

4689. The Qur'an is its own evidence. In the last Sūrah (53:3) stress was laid on the fact that everyone could understand it. Here the stress is on the fact that it is a Message of Mercy from Allah in that it warns mankind against evil.

4690. Usually taken to be a night in the month of Ramaḍān, say the 23rd, 25th, or 27th night of that month. It is referred to as the Night of Power in 97:1-2. See also 2:185. But perhaps we need not fix it literally by the calendar. The night that a Message descends from Allah is indeed a blessed night like a day of rain for a parched land.

4691. Such an occasion is one on which divine Wisdom places before us, through Revelation, the solution of spiritual problems of the highest import to mankind.

4692. It is because Allah is the friend of the friendless and the help of the helpless that He hears all sincere prayers, and as His knowledge embraces all things, He grants to us whatever is best for us, not as we see it, but as He knows it in His perfect knowledge.

4694. The story is mainly about the Quraysh. But there is a wider meaning behind it, applicable to men generally, and at all times. As a body the Quraysh, especially in the earlier stages of the preaching of Islam, before they started persecution, received the Message with more amusement than hatred. They played about with it, and expressed doubts about it, whereas the Preacher was most earnest about it, with all his heart and soul in it, as he loved his people and wished to save them from their wickedness and folly.

4696. The “smoke” or “mist” is interpreted on good authority to refer to a severe famine in Makkah, in which men were so pinched with hunger that they saw mist before their eyes when they looked at the sky. Ibn Kathīr in his Tārīkh mentions two famines in Makkah, one in the 8th year of the Mission, say the fourth year before the Hijrah, and another about the 8th year after the Hijrah. But as either or both of these famines lasted as many as seven years, the dates are to be taken very roughly. It is even possible that the two famines were continuous, of varying severity from year to year. Bukhārī mentions only the post-Hijrah famine, which was apparently so severe that men began to eat bones and carrion. Abū Sufyān (about 8 A.H.) approached the Holy Prophet to intercede and pray for the removal of the famine, as the Pagans attributed it to the curse of the Prophet. Sūrah 23, which is also Makkan, but of later date than the present Sūrah, also refers to a famine: see 23:75, and n. 2921. As Sūrahs were not all revealed entire, but many came piecemeal, it is possible that particular verses in a given Sūrah may be of different dates from the Sūrah as a whole.

۱۷- وَلَقَدْ فَتَنَّا قَبْلَهُمْ قَوْمَ فِرْعَوْنَ
وَجَاءَهُمْ رَسُولٌ كَرِيمٌ ۝

4697. The Quraysh had before them a prophet whose purity of life was openly known to them; they themselves called him Al Amīn (worthy of all trust); he preached in their own language in words of burning eloquence and transparent clearness; yet they turned away from him and called him a madman, or one whose Message was not inspired by Allah, but written by some hidden hand (see next note)! How will the teaching of spiritual Truth make way among such unreasonable people?

4698. Tutored: see 16:103, and n. 2143.

Possessed: see 15:6, and n. 1940.

4699. Allah gives every chance to all His creatures, however rebellious. He gives them a little trial, perhaps personal, perhaps economic, to see if that would bring them to their bearings, and train their will in the right direction. Some are thus reclaimed, and some do not learn. Perhaps, for the latter, he gives them a chance by removing the trial; some are reclaimed, and some still remain obdurate. And so, in His wisdom, He allows His grace to work, again and again, until, at the last, Judgement must seize the last and irreclaimable remnant "with a mighty onslaught".

Such working of Allah's Providence is clearly visible in the story of the Quraysh. It is a pity that the economic conditions of Makkah have not been studied in detail in any of the standard biographies of the Prophet. The so-called biographies by non-Muslims, e.g., Muir's Life, do not even mention any Makkan famine or its reactions on the Quraysh mind!

4700. This reference is to the pride of Pharaoh and his Egyptians, and their fall, rather than to the story of Moses himself; just as in 44:30-33 the reference is to the blessings bestowed on Israel, contrasted with their pride, unbelief, and fall; and in 44:37, to the ancient Ḥimyar kingdom in Yemen, which similarly fell for its sins.

4701. Most honourable: this epithet is specially applied to Moses here, as expressing the truth, in contrast to the Pharaoh's false characterisation of him as "a contemptible wretch" (43:52).

18. Saying: "Restore to me⁴⁷⁰²

21. "If ye believe me not,⁴⁷⁰⁶

23. (The reply came:)

By night: for ye are
Sure to be pursued.

٢٣- فَأَنذَرْتُ بِعِبَادِي لَيْلًا

4702. The argument of Moses and his "authority manifest" will be found at 7:104-108, 120-126, 130-137. Notice how fully he assumes the authority of his office here. He claims all "servants of Allah", i.e., true worshippers, as under his protection, for his mission was both to the Egyptians and the Israelites; he asks that they should be restored to him; and he boldly denounces the Pharaoh's arrogance "as against Allah".

4703. "Worthy of all trust": Amīn, a title that applied to prophets in S. 26, e.g., see 26:107. As the Holy Prophet had historically earned that title among his own people, the reminiscences of the story of Moses apply to him in his relations with the arrogant Quraysh.

4704. It is no use their plotting his death or his vilification; for his safety is in Allah. As he truly says, "Allah is not only my Lord, but your Lord also; your responsibility arises apart from my preaching, but I preach in order to remind you of it."

4705. "Injuring me": literally "stoning me". "Stoning may be here symbolical of any injury or vilification.

4706. If you do not believe me, at least go your ways; do not add to your sins by trying to suppress me and the Message of Truth which I bring: keep out of my way.

4707. They would not even leave him alone to do his duty. So he cried to Allah, not indeed to destroy them, for a Prophet does not judge, but only Allah judges; he justified himself in prayer, that he had done his best, but they were obdurate in sin, and they were trying to oppress and injure the believers. Then came the order to march. They were to march under the cover of night, because the enemy was sure to pursue. They were to march with all believers, presumably believing Egyptians (such as were not martyred) as well as Israelites, for some Egyptians had believed: 7:121.

4708. For the passage of Moses and his following, the sea had divided: they were to pass through the gap or furrow and leave it alone, to lure on the Egyptian host, on which the sea afterwards closed in, totally destroying them.

4709. There follows a wordpicture of all the fine and enjoyable things which the ruling caste had monopolised. Now these proud monopolists were drowned in the sea, and the inheritance went to other hands.

4710. They died, "unwept, unhonoured, and unsung". They were too inordinate to be given another chance. Pharaoh had claimed to be their supreme god; and they had followed him!

4712. From degrading servitude, Israel was delivered, and taken, in spite of many rebellions and backslidings on the way, to "a land flowing with milk and honey", where later they established the glorious kingdom of David and Solomon. This was not merely fortuitous. In Allah's prescience it was to be a link in furthering the great universal Plan. But their being chosen did not mean that they could do what they liked. In that sense there is no "chosen race" before Allah. But Allah gives every race and every individual a chance, and when the race or individual fails to live up to it, he or it must fall and give place to others.

4713. Among the "Signs" given to Israel were their own Revelation under Moses, their prosperous land of Canaan, their flourishing Kingdom under David and Solomon, their prophets and teachers of Truth, and the advent of Jesus to reclaim the lost ones among them. All these were trials. When they failed in the trials, they were left to wander desolate and suffer.

4714. The cases of the Egyptians and the Israelites having been cited as great nations which fell through inordinate vanity and wrongdoing, the case is now pressed home against the Quraysh leaders in their arrogance to the Holy Prophet himself. They deny Revelation; they deny a future life, as the Sadducees did among the Jews before them; they persecute the Prophet of Allah, and those who believe in him: and they mockingly demand that their ancestors should be brought back to life, if it is true that there is a future life. They are reminded that better men than they lived in their own country of Arabia, men who had knowledge of Allah's revelation under the earliest Dispensation. See next note. They perished because of their unbelief and wrongdoing. What chance have they unless they turn and repent?

4715. Tubba' is understood to be a title or family name of Himyar kings in Yemen, of the tribe of Hamdān. The Himyar were an ancient race. At one time they seem to have extended their hegemony over all Arabia and perhaps beyond, to the East African Coast. Their earliest religion seems to have been Sabianism, or the worship of the heavenly bodies. They seem at different times, later on, to have professed the Jewish and the Christian religion. Among the Embassies sent by the Holy Prophet in A.H. 9-10 was one to the Himyar of Yemen, which led to their coming into Islam. This was of course much later than the date of this Sūrah.

4716. In prehistoric times the Ḥimyar and Yemen seem to have played a large part in Arabia and even beyond: see last note. But when they were intoxicated with power, they fell into sin, and gradually they ceased to count, not only in Arabia but even in Yemen.

4717. Cf. 21:16, and n. 2676. All creation is for a wise and just purpose. But men usually do not realise or understand it, because they are steeped in their own ignorance, folly, or passions.

4718. Day of Sorting Out, or the Day of Decision. Cf. 37:21, and n. 4047. Ignorance, prejudice, passion, spite, and selfishness, seem sometimes to flourish in this probationary life. In any case they are mixed up with knowledge, justice, common sense, love and regard for others. But the good and the evil will be sorted out and separated at the Day of Judgement. There is a time appointed for it. In Allah's good time all will come right.

4719. When that Day comes, the strictest justice will prevail. No man, however prominently he may have walked on the world's stage, can help another. He himself will need help, not the sort of logrolling help which high and low render to each other in this life, but which in the conditions of reality will be of no avail. The only things which will help will be the Mercy of Allah.

4720. Allah's Mercy will be the only thing of any efficacy: for He is both able to help ("Exalted in Might") and willing to forgive ("Most Merciful").

4721. Now follows a wordpicture of the horrors to which Evil must lead us. What human language and what figures of speech can adequately describe them?

4722. The opposite of "delicious Fruits" is the terrible tree of Zaqqūm, which is further described in 37:62-68, where see n. 4073. Also see 17:60, n. 2250.

٤٦- كَغَلِي الْحَمِيمِ

٤٧- خُذُوهُ

48. "Then pour over his head

٤٨- ثُمَّ صُبُّوا فَوْقَ رَأْسِهِ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْحَمِيمِ

49. "Taste thou (this)!
Truly wast thou

٤٩- ذُوقْ

٥١- إِنَّ الْمُتَّقِينَ فِي مَقَامٍ أَمِينٍ

٥٢- فِي جَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُونٍ

53. Dressed in fine silk⁴⁷²⁶
And in rich brocade,
They will face each other;⁴⁷²⁷

٥٣- يَلْبَسُونَ مِنْ سُنْدُسٍ وَإِسْتَبْرَقٍ
مُتَقَابِلِينَ

4723. In this particular Sūrah the besetting sin we are considering is the arrogance born of place or power, wealth or honour, as understood in this world. The punishment of ignominy looks back to the kind of sin which is to be punished.

4724. When the Punishment becomes a realised fact, how foolish will those look who doubted whether there would be a Hereafter?

4725. There will be no uncertainty, as on this earth; no danger of discontinuance; no possibility of their satisfaction being terminated?

4726. Cf. 18:31, and n. 2373.

4727. Everything will be open and in social companionship; for all the petty feelings of jealousy or exclusiveness will have passed away.

54. Moreover, We shall

٥٦- لَا يَذُوقُونَ فِيهَا الْمَوْتَ إِلَّا الْمَوْتَةَ

57. As a Bounty from thy Lord!

59. So wait thou and watch;
For they (too) are waiting.

٥٩- فَارْتَقِبْ إِنَّهُمْ مُّرْتَقِبُونَ ۝

4728. The Companions, like the scene, the dress, the outlook, and the fruit, will be beautiful. There will be life, but free from all earthly grossness. The women as well as the men of this life will attain to this indescribable bliss. (R).

4729. Hūr implies the following ideas: (1) purity; possibly the word Hawariyūn, as applied to the first Disciples of Jesus, is connected with this root; (2) beauty, especially of eyes, where the intense white of the eyeballs stands out against the intense black of the pupil, thus giving the appearance of lustre, and intense feeling: as opposed to dullness or want of expression; and (3) truth and good will.

4730. The metaphorical signification is explained in n. 4671 to 43:73.

4731. First Death: the ordinary natural death from this life, which brought them to the Garden of Felicity: there will be no further death after that. Cf. 37:59, and n. 4071.

4732. In Islam we are taught that salvation is not possible of our unaided efforts. Certainly, striving on our part is an indispensable condition: but it is the Mercy of Allah which comes to our help and keeps us from the Fire of final Punishment. This is mentioned last as the foundation on which is built our eternal felicity and our positive spiritual joys. (R).

4733. This is our idea of Salvation: the negative avoidance of all the consequences of evil, and the positive attainment of all — and more than all — that our hearts could possibly desire. For Allah's Bounty outstrips anything that our eyes have seen, or our ears have heard of, or our imagination can conceive.

4734. Easy: not only to understand, being in the Arabic tongue; but mellifluous, whose rhythm carries off our spirits to a higher spiritual plane. In another sense, it is difficult; for to get its deepest meaning, we shall have to strive hard, as the contents of this Sūrah alone will show.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 45—AL JĀTHIYAH

This is the sixth of the Hā Mīm series: for their general theme and chronology, see the Introduction to S. 40.

Summary—The title, Al Jāthiyah ('The Kneeling Down', or 'Bowing the knee'), taken from verse 28, expresses the leading idea in the Sūrah. In this life, in spite of the Signs of Allah, and the evidences of His goodness all around, men go about in Unfaith, and mocking at Faith; but the End will bring them all to their knees.

- C. 218.—The Signs of Allah are everywhere:
 (45:1-37.) His power, wisdom, and goodness are shown
 Through all Creation and in Revelation.
 How can man be so ungrateful
 As to reject true Guidance, reaping thus
 The fruits of Evil? But men of Faith
 Have patience and forgive their weaker
 Brethren, and trust in the final justice
 Of Allah. Form no sects, as was done
 Aforetime, nor make your lusts your gods:
 The future is sure, and in the hands
 Of Allah, to Whom all will bend the knee,
 When Truth will shine in all its glory.
 So praise and glory to Allah, the Lord
 And Cherisher of all the worlds!

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

فَأَحْيَا بِهِ الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ مَوْتِهَا

4735. See Introduction to S. 40, paragraphs 2-4.

4736. This verse is the same as 40:2. except that "wisdom" is here substituted in the last line for "Knowledge". This is appropriate, as in this Sūrah we are dealing with the folly of those who reject Allah and His Signs, while S. 40 dealt with the individual soul's witness to Faith and Virtue.

4737. Verses 3-5 deal with some of the points in the noble argument in 2:164, but again there are differences on account of the different context. Note that here the argument is divided into three parts, one in each verse. (1) In verse 3 we are dealing with big Signs external to ourselves, some of which are far beyond our personal experiences: for them we require Faith: they are Signs "for those who believe." For the other two see the next two notes.

4738. (2) These Signs are in our own nature and in the animals we meet with every day; here we have certainty within human limits: these are "for those of assured Faith."

4739. (3) These are our daily experiences from external things, but they affect us and our lives intimately: here are questions of deductions "for those that are wise."

4740. "Sustenance" is almost equivalent here to "rain" itself, and its revival of a dead earth, which refer symbolically to Revelation and its putting new life into a dead soul. Similarly the alternation of Night and Day, and the change of the winds, besides being Signs as wonderful phenomena of Nature, refer to spiritual ignorance and knowledge, rest and activity, and the constant beneficent changes that are going on in the world, making for the spread of the blessing of Allah's Revelation.

And in the change
Of the winds—are Signs
For those that are wise.

4741. If there are any to whom the Signs from Nature, from within their own heart and conscience, and from the voice of Revelation, are not enough to convince them, what possible kind of exposition will they accept?

2742. A soul so dead, as described in the last note, is indeed wretched. It will resort to falsehoods, in worship, in conduct, and in its attitude towards Allah. It will be obstinate, and pretend to be "above such things". It will hear the most beautiful Message but not profit by it. The loss or punishment is its own, and grievous it is!

4743. Note that in each of the verses 8-11 the Penalty is characterised by a certain description, which accords with the crime. (1) In verse 8, the man is arrogant about the Signs of Allah's love and care all around him, and his Penalty is "grievous". (2) In verse 9, he ridicules Allah's Signs, and his Penalty is "humiliating": he makes himself a ridiculous fool. (3) and (4) are described in the two following notes.

4744. (3) In verse 10 the sinner has piled up all the good things of this life, and thinks he has got plenty of helpers and protectors but all these things are of no use. On the contrary, his Penalty will be "tremendous": to correspond with the great pains which he has taken to multiply the gods of his worship.

11. This is (true) Guidance:
And for those who reject
The Signs of their Lord,
Is a grievous Penalty
Of abomination.⁴⁷⁴⁵

14. Tell those who believe,

١٤- قُلْ لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا يَغْفِرُوا لِلَّذِينَ
لَا يَرْجُونَ أَيَّامَ اللَّهِ لِيَجْزِيَ

4745. (4) In verse 11, he has flouted and rejected the specific guidance that came to him from the Word of Allah, or from the admonition of a Prophet of Allah. His Penalty is a penalty of abomination: he earns unspeakable horror and abomination from all the Righteous, and is an unclean object in the Kingdom of Heaven.

4746. Cf. 16:14 and notes thereon, especially n. 2037. The one encircling ocean of our globe is one of the most significant facts in our physical geography. Its salt water is an agent of global sanitation. The salubrious effects of sea air, with its ozone, are well known to everyone who has recouped his health by its means. Thanks to ships, the sea unites rather than divides: communications are, and have always been, more active between seacoast towns than further inland. They thus further human intercourse, and help us to seek the "Bounty of Allah", not only in a commercial but in an intellectual and spiritual sense. All this is through "Allah's command" i.e., by His beneficent ordering of the universe, and we should be grateful.

4747. Cf. 31:20, and n. 3605. The sea was only one example of Allah's cherishing care in making all things in nature available for the use of man, through the genius and faculties which He has given to man. Man should never forget that it is all "as from Him", i.e., from Allah. For is not man Allah's vicegerent on earth (2:30)?

4748. Cf. 7:54, n. 1031. The Days of Allah I interpret to mean not periods of twenty-four hours, but the stages through which Allah's Purpose works in us on bringing home to us a sense of sin and a sense of Allah's Mercy. We must be patient with those who have not yet acquired that sense. "Days of Allah" may also mean the Days of the Kingdom of Allah, when evil will be destroyed and Allah's authority will reign unquestioned.

4749. Allah will give due recompense for good or evil according to His own full Knowledge and righteous Plan, and in His own good time. (R).

مَا جَاءَهُمُ الْعِلْمُ بَغْيًا بَيْنَهُمْ
إِنَّ رَبَّكَ يَقْضِي بَيْنَهُمْ يَوْمَ

4750. "People" here may be taken to be a group of common characteristics, e.g., the righteous in contrast with the unrighteous, the oppressed in contrast with the oppressors, and so on.

4751. Ordinarily good and evil come to their own even in this world; but in any case there is the final Judgement before Allah.

4752. The argument here is similar to that in 44:32-33 but; it is more particularised here. Israel had the Revelation given through Moses, the power of judgement and command through the Kingdom of David and Solomon, and numerous prophetic warnings through such men as Isaiah and Jeremiah.

4753. "Sustenance", here as elsewhere is to be understood both in a physical and metaphorical sense. The Mosaic Law laid down rules of diet, excluding things unclean, and it laid down rules for a pure and honourable life. In this way Israel became the standard-bearer of Allah's law, thus "favoured above the nations."

4754. Cf. 10:93. The Jews were the more to blame that they fell from Grace after all the divine favours which they had enjoyed. Their schisms and differences arose from mutual envy, which was rebellious insolence against Allah. As the next verse shows, some of them (not all) rejected the mission of the Holy Prophet, also through envy that a Prophet had come among the Arabians.

4755. Cf. 2:90, and that whole passage, with its notes.

Of Judgement as to those

18. Then We put thee

But Allah is the Protector
Of the Righteous.

20. These are clear evidences⁴⁷⁵⁸

فَحْيَاهُمْ وَمَمَاتُهُمْ

4756. Sharī'ah is best translated the "right Way of Religion", which is wider than the mere formal rites and legal provisions, which mostly came in the Madīnah period, long after this Makkan verse had been revealed.

4757. That is, in thy service of Allah. Ignorant and contentious men are of no use or service to any Cause. The more you seek their help, the more do their ignorance and their contentiousness increase their own importance in their own eyes. Evil protects (or thinks it protects) evil: it has really no power of protection at all, for itself or for others. The righteous seek the protection of Allah, Who can and will protect them.

4758. The evidences of Allah's Signs should be clear to all men: to men of Faith, who accept Allah's Grace, they are a Guide and a Mercy.

4759. Three meanings can be deduced. (1) The evil ones are not in Allah's sight like the righteous ones; neither in life nor in death are they equal; in life the righteous are guided by Allah and receive His Grace, and after death His Mercy, while the others reject His Grace, and after death receive condemnation. (2) Neither are the two the same in this life and in the afterlife; if the wicked flourish here, they will be condemned in the Hereafter; if the good are in suffering or sorrow here, they will receive comfort and consolation in the Hereafter; (3) The real life of the righteous—for they have received spiritual life—is not like the nominal life of the wicked, which is really death; nor is the physical death of the righteous, which will bring them into eternal life, like the terrible death of the wicked which will bring them to eternal misery.

Ill is the judgement
That they make.

سَاءَ مَا يَحْكُمُونَ ٥

SECTION 3.

22. Allah created the heavens⁴⁷⁶⁰
And the earth for
Just ends, and in order
That each soul may find
The recompense of what
It has earned, and none
Of them be wronged.

۲۲- وَخَلَقَ اللَّهُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ
وَلِتُجْزَىٰ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ
بِمَا كَسَبَتْ وَهُمْ لَا يُظْلَمُونَ ٥

23. Then seest thou such⁴⁷⁶¹
A one as takes
As his god his own
Vain desire? Allah has,
Knowing (him as such),
Left him astray, and sealed⁴⁷⁶²
His hearing and his heart
(And understanding), and put
A cover on his sight.
Who, then, will guide him
After Allah (has withdrawn Guidance)? Will ye not
Then receive admonition?

۲۳- أَفَرَأَيْتَ مَنِ اتَّخَذَ إِلَهَهُ هَوَاهُ
وَأَضَلَّهُ اللَّهُ
عَلَىٰ عِلْمِهِ وَخَتَمَ عَلَىٰ سَمْعِهِ وَقَلْبِهِ
وَجَعَلَ عَلَىٰ بَصَرِهِ عَشْرَةً
فَمَنْ يَهْدِيهِ مِنْ بَعْدِ اللَّهِ
أَفَلَا تَذَكَّرُونَ ٥

24. And they say: "What is
There but our life
In this world?
We shall die and we live,⁴⁷⁶³
And nothing but Time
Can destroy us." But
Of that they have no
Knowledge: they merely conjecture:

۲۴- وَقَالُوا مَا هِيَ إِلَّا حَيَاتُنَا الدُّنْيَا
نَمُوتُ وَنَحْيَا وَمَا يُهْلِكُنَا إِلَّا الدَّهْرُ
وَمَا لَهُمْ بِذَلِكَ مِنْ عِلْمٍ
إِنَّ هُمْ إِلَّا يَظُنُّونَ ٥

4761. If a man follows, not the laws of Allah, which are also the laws of his own pure nature as made by Allah, but the desires of his own distorted self, as shaped by the rebellion of his will, the inevitable consequence will be the withdrawal of Allah's grace and guidance. All his faculties will then be debased, and there will be nothing to guide him, unless he turns in repentance again to Allah.

4762. Cf. 2:7 and notes.

4763. Cf. 23:37, and n. 2896. The additional touch here, "And nothing but Time can destroy us", suggests the materialist philosophy that Matter and Time are eternal backwards and forwards; and possibly also that though each individual perishes, the race lasts till Time destroys it. This is not knowledge but conjecture. Why not accept light from Him Who knows all.

25. And when Our Clear Signs are rehearsed to them, Their argument is nothing But this: they say, "Bring⁴⁷⁶⁴ (Back) our forefathers, if What ye say is true!"

٢٥- وَإِذَا تُلِيَتْ عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتُنَا بَيِّنَاتٍ

26. Say: "It is Allah Who Gives you life, then Gives you death; then He will gather you together For the Day of Judgement About which there is No doubt": but most Men do not understand.

٢٦- قُلِ اللَّهُ يُحْيِيكُمْ
ثُمَّ يُمِيتُكُمْ ثُمَّ يَجْعَلُكُمْ إِلَىٰ يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ

SECTION 4.

27. To Allah belongs The dominion of the heavens And the earth, and The Day that the Hour Of Judgement is established— That Day will the dealers⁴⁷⁶⁵ In Falsehood perish!

٢٧- وَلِلَّهِ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ

28. And thou wilt see Every sect bowing the knee:⁴⁷⁶⁶ Every sect will be called To its Record: "This Day Shall ye be recompensed For all that ye did!"

٢٨- وَتَرَىٰ كُلَّ أُمَّةٍ جَائِيَةً
كُلُّ أُمَّةٍ تُدْعَىٰ إِلَىٰ كِتَابِهَا

29. "This Our Record speaks About you with truth: For We were wont⁴⁷⁶⁷

٢٩- هَذَا كِتَابُنَا يَنْطِقُ عَلَيْكُمْ بِالْحَقِّ
إِنَّا كُنَّا

4764. Cf. 44:36. It is no argument to say, "If there is a future life, bring back our forefathers and let us see them here and now!" It is not for a man to raise the dead when and where he pleases. It is for Allah to command. And His promise is about the general Resurrection for the Day of Judgement. In His hands are the keys of life and death.

4765. These vain wranglers about the future life and deniers of the Truth may have a run in this fleeting world; but the moment the world of Reality is established, they will see what they now deny. The facts will destroy their fancies, and they themselves will find themselves humiliated and lost, for having deliberately ignored Allah's Signs and acted in opposition to His Holy Will.

4766. Bowing the knee: the key phrase of the Sūrah, and its title, Cf. 19:72. Whatever the arrogance of the wicked may be in this life, whatever exclusive sects and divisions they may form in this life, the time will come when they will humbly submit and bow the knee of the Truth. Before the Judgement Seat, when their Record is produced, they must necessarily be dumb.

4767. Cf. 44:80. Nothing misses the Recording Angel, and whatever is said in the Record is true.

The evil (fruits) of what

4769. There is arrogance as well as untruth in this pretence. The coming of Judgement has been proclaimed times out of number by every Prophet of Allah. They cannot dismiss it as a mere idea or superstition. Their object is merely an ostentatious and lofty rejection of Faith.

4770. Cf. 11:8. Their mockery will be turned against themselves, for they will be hemmed in by the very Realities which they had ignored or doubted or laughed at 4772. It is implied that 'you deliberately allowed yourselves to be deceived by the vanities of this world', or 'that you put yourselves into a position where you were deceived, for you were expressly warned against Evil'.

4773. The argument having been completed about the fruits of this life being reaped in the Ma'ād, or the Hereafter, when perfect balance will be restored and perfect Justice will reign supreme, the Sūrah closes with praise and glory to Allah, Who is not only Omnipotent but is full of Wisdom, and cherishes and cares for all His creation. We began with the remembrance of His Revelation and Mercy, and we close with the celebration of His goodness, power, and wisdom. Note how the argument is rounded off by the reminiscence of the last clause of the second verse of this Sūrah.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 46—AL AḤQĀF

This is the seventh and last Sūrah of the Ḥā Mīm series. For the general theme and chronological place of these Sūrahs see the Introduction to S. 40.

The Aḥqāf (mentioned in verse 21) are the long and winding crooked tracts of sandhills, characteristic of the country of the 'Ād people, adjoining Ḥadramawt and Yemen: see 7:65, n. 1040. These people had, at that time, probably a fertile irrigated country, but their sins brought on the calamity mentioned in 46:24-25. The lesson of this Sūrah is that if the Truth is challenged, the challenge will be duly answered, and Truth vindicated.

Summary—All Creation has a Purpose behind it: Truth and Revelation will be vindicated, and those who question it will be undone by the very means by which they set such store: the righteous should wait in patience and constancy (46:1-35, and C. 219).

C. 219. — Creation is for just ends, and Falsehood
 (46:1-35) Is but straying from the Path:
 Say what people may
 Truth carries its own vindication:
 Follow it firmly. Let age think of youth,
 And youth not turn rebellious. There are fine
 Gradations in the kingdom of Allah: then strive
 For the best. Let not pride and arrogance
 Undo you: the humble are often the best
 Recipients of Truth. All will come right
 In good time: so persevere with patient firmness
 Of purpose. Justice that seems to tarry
 Comes really on swiftest foot but sure.

4773-A. See introduction to S. 46, paragraph 2.

4774. See introduction to S. 40, paragraphs 2-4.

4775. This verse is the same as the second verse of the last Sūrah, but the theme is worked out differently in the two Sūrahs. In S. 45 was shown how deniers of Revelation will at last be humbled until they can no longer deny its truth and power. In this Sūrah is shown how Truth and Revelation will be vindicated by patience and constancy (46:35).

4776. Cf. 45:22. Many things may appear to us in the present world as strange and inexplicable. But everything made by Allah has a just purpose which must be fulfilled. Nothing in this world is permanent: everything is for an appointed term. The Word of Allah alone abides. All else will pass away after it has fulfilled its purpose. But Unbelievers refuse to face the danger of which they are warned.

4777. Some people may rush thoughtlessly into false worship, because it is the fashion or an ancestral custom, etc. They are asked to pause and see for themselves. Have the false gods or falsehood created anything? (They destroy much). Or have they any share or lot in the things we associate with the heavens—spiritual well-being, etc.?

4778. Or is there any warrant for you from any earlier revelation, assuming that you do not believe in this Revelation? Or can you point to the least scrap or remnant of real knowledge on which you can base what we condemn as your false life? No, you cannot.

Or any remnant of knowledge
(Ye may have), if ye
Are telling the truth!

"He has forged it"?

4779. As there is no argument at all in favour of your sham worship, what sense is there in it? Either your false gods are senseless stocks and stones which will never answer you to the end of Time, being themselves devoid of understanding, or they are real objects which will disown you at the last. If you worshipped Self, your own misused faculties will witness against you at the last (41:20-23). If you worshipped good men or prophets, like Jesus, they will disown you (5:119). Similarly, if you worshipped angels, they will disown you (34:40-41).

4780. When the truth is actually brought to their doors, they call it sorcery! Cf. 37:12-15, and n. 4042.

4781. 'If I forged a message from myself as one purporting to come from Allah, you would not be able to see me enjoy any of the blessings from Allah which I enjoy: you would not see me calm and relying on Allah, nor would you see me bear the reputation of being a trustworthy man. A liar comes to an evil end. But what about those who talk so glibly and freely about things which they know not? Allah knows all, and He is my witness! ۱۱-وَقَالَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا

4782. 'What is there to forge? All prophets have taught the Unity of Allah and our duty to mankind. I bring no new-fangled doctrine, but eternal truths that have been known to good men through the ages. It is to reclaim you that I have come. I do not know what will be your fate for all this callousness, nor what you will do to me. But this I know, that I am preaching truth and righteousness as inspired by Allah. My duty is only to proclaim aloud and clearly the Message entrusted to me by Allah. The rest I leave to Allah.'

4783. Another side of the argument is now presented, 'You pagan Arabs! You are puffed up with pride, though you are an ignorant nation. Among Israel there are men who understand the previous scriptures, and who find the Qur'ān and its Preacher a true confirmation of the previous scriptures. They accept Islam as a fulfillment of the revelation of Moses himself! (See Deut. xviii. 18-19). And yet you hold back, though the Qur'ān has come in your own language, in order to help you to understand. How unjust and how shameful! In that case, with what face can you seek guidance from Allah?'

4784. There were learned Jews (and Christians) who saw in the Holy Prophet the Messenger of Allah foreshadowed in previous Revelations, and accepted Islam. As this is a Makkan Sūrah we need not construe this as a reference to 'Abd Allāh ibn Salām, whose conversion was in Madīnah only two years before the Prophet's death, unless we accept this particular verse to be so late in date. The sincere Jews were in a position to understand how this Revelation fitted in with all they had learnt about Revelation.

4785. A great many of the early Muslims were in humble positions, and were despised by the Quraysh leaders. 'If such men could see any good in Islam,' they said, 'there could be no good in it: if there had been any good in it, we should have been the first to see it!' The spiritually blind have such a good conceit of themselves! As they reject it, and as the Revelation is proved to have historic foundations, they can only call it "an old, old falsehood"!

A good thing, (such men)
Would not have gone
To it first, before us!"
And seeing that they
Guide not themselves thereby,
They will say, "This is
An (old), old falsehood!"

4786. The last revealed Book which was a Code of Life (Shari'ah) was the Book of Moses: for that of Jesus was not such a Code, but merely moral precepts to sweep away the corruptions that had crept in. The Qur'ān has the same attitude to it as the teaching of Jesus had to the Law. Jesus said (Matt. v. 17): "Think not that I am come to destroy the Law or the prophets; I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil." But the corruptions took new forms in Christian Churches: an entirely new Shari'ah became necessary, and this was provided in Islam.

4787. To say, "Our Lord is Allah" is to acknowledge that we owe no service to any creature, and shall render none: Allah shall have our exclusive devotion. "To remain firm on that Path" is shown by our conduct: we prove that we love Allah and all His creatures, and will unflinchingly do our duty in all circumstances.

4788. Cf. 2:38. The phrase occurs in numerous other places, with a new application on each occasion. Here, if our claim is true that 'our Lord is Allah', what fear can possibly come to us, or what calamity can there be to cause us grief? For our Lord is our Cherisher, Defender, and Helper, our Hope and our Comfort, which can never fail.

4789. Cf. 29:8 and 31:14.

4790. In 31:14 the time of weaning was stated to be at the age of two years, i.e., 24 months. See also 2:233. That leaves six months as the minimum period of human gestation after which the child is known to be viable. This is in accordance with the latest ascertained scientific facts. The average period is 280 days, or ten times the inter-menstrual period, and of course the average period of weaning is much less than 24 months.

The maximum period of breast-feeding (2 years) is again in accordance with the time that the first dentition is ordinarily completed in a human child. The lower milk incisors in the centre come out between the 6th and 9th months; then come out the milk teeth at intervals, until the canines appear. The second molars come out at about 24 months, and with them the child has a complete apparatus of milk teeth. Nature now expects him to chew and masticate and be independent of his mother's milk completely. On the other hand it hurts the mother to feed from the breast after the child has a complete set of milk teeth. The permanent teeth begin at the sixth year, and the second molars come at 12 years. The third molars are the wisdom teeth, which may appear at 18 to 20 years, or not at all.

4791. The age of full strength (ashudd) is held to be between 18 and 30 or 32. Between 30 and 40 the man is in his best manhood. After that he begins to look to his growing issue, and rightly commends the new generation to Allah. Perhaps his spiritual faculties also gain the upper hand after 40.

4793. A godly man often has an ungodly son, who flouts all that the father held sacred, and looks upon his father himself as old-fashioned and unworthy of respect or regard. The contrast in an individual family may be matched by the contrast in the passing and the rising generations of mankind. All this happens as a passing phase in the normal evolution of mankind, and there is nothing in this to be despondent about. What we have to do is for the mature generations to bring up their successors in godly ways, and for the younger generations to realise that age and experience count for something, especially in the understanding of spiritual matters and other matters of the highest moment to man.

4794. Cf. 41:25 and n. 4494. Each individual, each generation, and each people is responsible for its own good deeds or misdeeds. The law of actions and their fruits applies: you cannot blame one for another. The only remedy lies in seeking for Allah's Grace and Mercy, not only for ourselves but for others in brotherly or fatherly love.

This verse is in balanced contrast to verse 16 above.

4795. There is fine grading in the spiritual Kingdom. Every deed, good or bad, is judged and weighed to the minutest degree, with its motives, intentions, results, and relevant circumstances. It is not a mere rough classification. The fruits of evil will be exactly according to the degree of evil. But, as stated in other passages (e.g., 28:84), the reward of good deeds will be far beyond their merits, on account of the Mercy and unbounded Bounty of Allah.

20. And on the Day that
The Unbelievers will be Placed before the Fire,
(It will be said to them):
"Ye received your good
things⁴⁷⁹⁶
In the life of the world,
And ye took your pleasure

For that ye were arrogant
On earth without just cause,
And that ye (ever) transgressed."

4796. Received your good things implies (in Arabic) grabbing at them, being greedy of them, seeking them as fleeting pleasures rather than the most serious things of life, sacrificing the spiritual for the material.

4797. They will be told: 'You took your choice, and you must pay the price. You did wrong in a rebellious spirit, and prided yourselves on your wrongdoing, not occasionally, but of set purpose and constantly. Now will you be humbled in the dust, as a fitting punishment.'

4798. Cf. 7:65, and note 1040. The point is that the Warner who was raised among the 'Ād people—as among other peoples—was not a stranger, but one of their own brethren, even as the Holy Prophet began his preaching with a call to his own brethren the Quraysh.

4799. Winding Sand-tracts: Aḥqāf: see Introduction to this Sūrah. The very things, which, under irrigation and with Allah's Grace, gave them prosperity and power, were to be their undoing when they broke Allah's Law and defied His Grace. See verses 24-26 below.

4800. They were too much wedded to their evil ways—to the false gods that they worshipped—to appreciate the sincere advice of the Prophet of Allah. They defied him and defied Allah Who had sent him. Mockingly they challenged him to bring on the threatened punishment! For they did not believe a word of what he said.

23. He said: "The Knowledge⁴⁸⁰¹

Is only with Allah: I
Proclaim to you the mission
On which I have been sent:
But I see that ye
Are a people in ignorance!"...

4801. The coming of the Punishment for evil was (and is always) certain. At what particular time it would come he could not tell. It is not for the prophet, but for Allah, to bring on the Penalty. But he saw that it was useless to appeal to them on account of the ignorance in which they were content to dwell.

4802. The Punishment came suddenly, and when they least expected it. They wanted rain, and they saw a cloud and rejoiced. Behold, it was coming towards their own tracts, winding through the hills. Their irrigation channels would be full, their fields would be green, and their season would be fruitful. But no! What is this? It is a tremendous hurricane, carrying destruction on its wings! A violent blast, with dust and sand! Its fury destroys everything in its wake! Lives lost! Fields covered with sandhills! The morning dawns on a scene of desolation! Where were the men who boasted and defied their Lord! There are only the ruins of their houses to witness to the past!

4803. Here is the figure of speech known in rhetoric as aposiopesis, to heighten the effect of the suddenness and completeness of the calamity. In the Arabic text, the verb aṣḥabū, in the third person plural, leads us to expect that we shall be told what they were doing in the morning. But no! They had been wiped out, and any small remnant had fled (see n. 1040 to 7:65). Nothing was to be seen but the ruins of their houses.

4804. The 'Ād and their successors the Thamūd were more richly endowed with the faculties of the arts, sciences, and culture than ever were the Quraysh before Islam. "Hearing and seeing" refer to the experimental faculties; the word "heart" in Arabic includes intellect, or the rational faculties, as well as the instruments of feeling and emotion, the aesthetic faculties. The Second 'Ād, or the Thamūd, have left interesting traces of their architecture in the country round the Hijr: see n. 1043 to 7:73, and notes 2002-2003 to 15:80-82.

4805. The highest talents and faculties of this world are useless in the spiritual world if we reject the laws of the spiritual world and thus become outlaws there.

4806. See n. 4770 to 45:33. They used to mock at Allah's Signs, but those were the very things which hemmed them in, and showed that they had more power and effectiveness than anything else.

4807. In Arabian history and tradition alone, to say nothing of Allah's Signs elsewhere, sin inevitably suffered its Punishment, and in various ways. Would not the later people take warning?

4808. The false things that they worshipped were figments of their imagination. If they had had any existence in fact, it was not of the kind they imagined.

4809. A company of Jinns. Nafar (company) may mean a group of from three to ten persons. For Jinns, see n. 929 to 6:100. They listened to the reading of the Qur'an with great respect. The next verse shows that they had heard of the Jewish religion, but they were impressed with the Message of Islam, and they seem to have gone back to their people to share the Good News with them. (R).

Of Jinns (quietly) listening

۴۲- وَمَنْ لَا يُجِبْ دَاْعٰى اللّٰهِ

خَلَقَ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضَ

4810. The one who invites all to Allah is the Holy Prophet. He invites us to Allah: if we believe in Allah and His Prophet, Allah will forgive us our sins on our repentance and amendment of our lives, and save us the Penalty of the future life.

4811. If a person refuses to believe the Truth, or opposes it, it has not the least effect on Allah's Holy Plan, which will go on to its completion; but it will deprive such a person of Grace and of any protection whatever; he will wander about as an outlaw in manifest helplessness.

4812. Cf. 2:255 (Verse of the Throne): "His Throne doth extend over the heavens and the earth, and He feelth no fatigue in guarding and preserving them." He Whose power is constant and unwearied in creating and preserving all things in heavens and earth can surely give life to the dead at the Resurrection.

To the dead? Yea, verily
He has power over all things.

34. And on the Day that⁴⁸¹³

"Is this not the Truth?"
They will say, "Yea,
By our Lord!"
(One will say:)

The Penalty, for that ye
Were wont to deny (Truth)!"

35. Therefore patiently persevere,
As did (all) messengers
Of inflexible purpose;
And be in no haste
About the (Unbelievers). On the Day
That they see the

Promised them, (it will be)
As if they had not

Message:⁴⁸¹⁶

بَلَّغْ
فَهَلْ يُهْلَكُ إِلَّا الْقَوْمُ الْفَاسِقُونَ ۝

4813. Cf. 46:20, where the argument was closed about the undutiful son of a good father. After that the example of the 'Ād and of the believing Jinns was cited, and now is closed that argument in similar terms.

4814. The Truth which they denied is now all too clear to them. They are out of the Light of Truth, out of the Light of Allah's Countenance. And that in itself is a terrible Penalty.

4815. All spiritual work proceeds in its own good time. We should never be impatient either about its success or about the punishment which is bound to come for those who oppose it or wish to suppress it. The inevitable punishment is spoken of as the Punishment promised. It will come so soon and so suddenly that it will appear as if there was not the delay of a single hour in a single day! Time is a great factor in our affairs in this world, but it hardly counts in the spiritual Kingdom.

4816. The Preacher's duty is to proclaim the Message in unmistakable terms. If any human beings come in the way, it will be to their own destruction; but none but rebellious transgressor will be punished. There is always hope and forgiveness for repentance and amendment.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 47—MUḤAMMAD

We have examined and followed the current arrangement of the Sūrahs according to subject matter and independently of chronology, and we have found that a logical thread runs through them. We have now finished more than five-sixths of the Qur'ān. The remaining sixth consists of short Sūrahs, but these are again grouped according to subject matter.

We begin the first of such groups with a group of three Sūrahs (47 to 49), which deal with the organisation of the Muslim Ummah or community both for external defence and in internal relations. The present Sūrah deals with the necessity of defence against external foes by courage and strenuous fighting, and dates from about the first year of the Hijrah, when the Muslims were under threat of extinction by invasion from Makkah.

Summary—Aggressive hostility to Faith and Truth should be fought firmly, and Allah will guide (47:1-19 and C. 220).

Faint-heartedness condemned; those who strive and those who turn away will be sorted out (47:20-38 and C. 221).

- C. 220. No plots against Truth or Faith will succeed:
 (47:1-19.) But those who follow both will be strengthened.
 Be firm in the fight, and Allah will guide.
 Rebellion against Allah is destruction: fidelity
 Will cool the mind and feed the heart;
 It will warm the affections and sweeten life.
 Hypocrisy carries its own doom.

Sūrah 47.

كَذَلِكَ يَضْرِبُ اللَّهُ لِلنَّاسِ أَمْثَالَهُمْ ۝

۴- فَإِذَا لَقِيتُمُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
فَضْرِبُوا الرِّقَابَ حَتَّىٰ

4817. Whatever they do will miss its mark, because Allah is the source of all energy and life. If the wicked try to persecute men or seduce them from the Truth, the result will be the opposite of what they intend.

4818. Bāl means state or condition, whether external, or of the heart and mind. Both meanings apply here. The more the wicked rage, the better will be the position of the righteous, and Allah will make it easier and easier for the righteous to love and follow the Truth.

4819. We learn the greatest spiritual lessons by parables and similitudes from things that happen in the outer world. If a man goes after a mirage or a thing that has no real existence, he can never reach his goal, while the man that follows the kindly Light from Allah that leads him on must be happier in mind, sounder in heart, and firmer in life, generally for every moment that he lives.

4820. When once the fight (Jihād) is entered upon, carry it out with the utmost vigour, and strike home your blows at the most vital points (smite at their necks), both literally and figuratively. You cannot wage war with kid gloves.

Thoroughly subdued them,
Bind a bond⁴⁸²¹
Firmly (on them): thereafter
(Is the time for) either
Generosity or ransom:⁴⁸²²
Until the war lays down
Its burdens. Thus (are ye Commanded): but if it
Had been Allah's Will,
He could certainly have exacted
Retribution from them (Himself);
But (He lets you fight)
In order to test you,⁴⁸²³
Some with others.
But those who are slain⁴⁸²⁴
In the way of Allah—
He will never let
Their deeds be lost.

5. Soon will He guide them⁴⁸²⁵
And improve their condition,

6. And admit them to
The Garden which He⁴⁸²⁶
Has announced for them.

7. Q ye who believe!
If ye will aid
(The cause of) Allah,
He will aid you,
And plant your feet firmly.

إِذَا أَثْمَنُوا مَوْتَهُمْ
فَشَدُّ وَالْوَكَاثُ
فَأَمَّا مَتَا بَعْدُ
وَأَمَّا فِدَاءٌ
حَتَّى تَضَعَ الْحَرْبُ أَوْزَارَهَا ذَٰلِكَ
وَلَوْ يَشَاءُ اللَّهُ لَا تَغْصَرُ مِنْهُمْ
وَلَكِنْ لِّيَبْلُوَ بَعْضُكُمْ بِبَعْضٍ
وَالَّذِينَ قُتِلُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
فَلَنْ يُضِلَّ أَعْمَالَهُمْ ۝

هـ- سَيَهْدِيهِمْ وَيُصْلِحُهُ بِاللَّهِ ۝

و- وَيُدْخِلُهُمُ الْجَنَّةَ
عَزَّهَا لَهُمْ ۝

هـ- يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
إِنْ تَنْصُرُوا اللَّهَ
يَنْصُرْكُمْ وَيُثَبِّتْ أَقْدَامَكُمْ ۝

4821. In the first onset there must necessarily be great loss of life; but when the enemy is fairly beaten, which means, in a Jihād, that he is not likely to seek again the persecution of Truth, firm arrangements should be made to bring him under control. I thus construe the words "bind a bond firmly (on them)"; but other have construed the words to mean, "after the enemy's numbers are fairly thinned down, prisoners may be taken". With this passage may be compared 8:67, and n. 1234.

4822. When once the enemy is brought under control, generosity (i.e., the release of prisoners without ransom) or ransom is recommended.

4823. The Believers are tested in Faith by the extent to which they are willing to make sacrifices, even to the laying down of their lives; and the enemies are tested as to whether they would repent and let the righteous live in freedom and security.

4824. There are two alternative readings, (1) qātalū, "those who fight", and (2) qutیلو, "those who are slain". The meaning under the first reading is wider, and includes that under the second. I have translated on the basis of the second reading, which is in accordance with the text of the Royal Egyptian edition.

4825. If we read "who are slain" in the last clause but one of verse 4, (see last note), "guide" would mean "guide them in their spiritual journey after death". Improve their condition: see n. 4818 above. If after death, their minds and hearts will be more and more settled and at rest, and their spiritual satisfaction greater.

4826. The Garden which He has announced for them: the state of Bliss which is declared in Revelation to be destined for those who serve Allah.

8. But those who reject (Allah—
For them is destruction,
And (Allah) will render
Their deeds astray⁴⁸²⁷
(From their mark).
9. That is because they
Hate the Revelation of Allah;
So He has made
Their deeds fruitless.⁴⁸²⁸
10. Do they not travel⁴⁸²⁹
Through the earth, and see
What was the End
Of those before them
(Who did evil)?
Allah brought utter destruction
On them, and similar (Fates await) those who Reject Allah.
11. That is because Allah
Is the Protector of those
Who believe, but
Those who reject Allah
Have no protector.

SECTION 2.

12. Verily Allah will admit
Those who believe and do
Righteous deeds, to Gardens
Beneath which rivers flow;
While those who reject Allah
Will enjoy (this world)⁴⁸³⁰
And eat as cattle eat;
And the Fire will
Be their abode.

٨- وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فَتَعْسًا لَهُمْ
وَ أَصْلًا أَعْمًا لَهُمْ ۝

٩- ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ كَرِهُوا مَا أُنْزِلَ اللَّهُ
فَأَحْبَطَ أَعْمَالَهُمْ ۝

١٠- أَفَلَمْ يَسِيرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ فَيَنْظُرُوا
كَيْفَ كَانَ عَاقِبَةُ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ
دَمَّرَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ
وَالْكَافِرِينَ أَمَثَلُهَا ۝

١١- ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ مَوْلَى الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
وَأَنَّ الْكَافِرِينَ لَا مَوْلَى لَهُمْ ۝

١٢

١٢- إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُدْخِلُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا
الصَّالِحَاتِ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ
وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
يَتَمَتَّعُونَ وَيَأْكُلُونَ كَمَا تَأْكُلُ الْأَنْعَامُ
وَالنَّارُ مَثْوًى لَهُمْ ۝

4827. See above, 47:1 and n. 4817.

4828. Their deeds are fruitless in the sense that they are in vain; they do not produce the results intended by their doers. But they will not be exempt from producing the natural consequences of evil, viz., further degradation and misery for the soul.

4829. The end of evil is evil. All past history and tradition shows that. Will not men of every generation learn that lesson? Allah helps His servants, but those who rebel against Allah have no one to help them.

4830. An apt simile. Beasts of the field eat their fill, but have no higher interests. Men who worship the world exclusively are no better: their pleasures and enjoyments rise no higher than those of the beasts of the field. They have no inkling of spiritual happiness. On the contrary, as they were endowed with spiritual faculties which they misused, they will not escape the Fire of Punishment, the Penalty of Sin.

13. And how many cities,
With more power than
Thy city which has
Driven thee out,⁴⁸³¹
Have We destroyed
(For their sins)?
And there was none
To aid them.

١٣- وَكَأَيِّنْ مِنْ قَرْيَةٍ هِيَ أَشَدُّ ثِقْوَةً
مِنْ قَرْيَتِكَ الَّتِي أَخْرَجْتِكَ
أَهْلَكْنَاهُمْ
فَلَا نَاصِرَ لَهُمْ ۝

14. Is then one who is
On a clear⁴⁸³² (Path)
From his Lord,
No better than one
To whom the evil
Of his conduct seems pleasing,
And such as follow
Their own lusts?

١٤- أَفَمَنْ كَانَ عَلَىٰ يَتْنَةٍ
مِنْ رَبِّهِ
كَمَنْ زُيِّنَ لَهُ سُوءُ عَمَلِهِ
وَاتَّبَعُوا أَهْوَاءَهُمْ ۝

15. (Here is) a Parable
Of the Garden which
The righteous are promised:
In it are rivers
Of water incorruptible;⁴⁸³³
Rivers of milk
Of which the taste
Never changes; rivers
Of wine, a joy
To those who drink;
And rivers of honey
Pure and clear. In it
There are for them
All kinds of fruits;⁴⁸³⁴
And Grace from their Lord.⁴⁸³⁵
(Can those in such Bliss)
Be compared to such as

١٥- مَثَلُ الْجَنَّةِ الَّتِي وُعدَ الْمُتَّقُونَ
فِيهَا أَنْهَارٌ مِنْ مَاءٍ غَيْرِ آسِنٍ
وَأَنْهَارٌ مِنْ لَبَنٍ
لَمْ يَتَغَيَّرْ طَعْمُهُ ۖ وَأَنْهَارٌ
مِنْ خَمْرٍ لَذَّةٍ لِلغَيْرِيبِينَ ۖ
وَأَنْهَارٌ مِنْ عَسَلٍ مُصَفًّى
وَلَهُمْ فِيهَا مِنْ كُلِّ الثَّمَرَاتِ
وَمَغْفِرَةٌ مِّنْ رَبِّهِمْ
كَمَنْ هُوَ

4831. A reference to Pagan Makkah, which drove out the Holy Prophet because of his righteousness and because he preached Repentance. The date of this Sūrah must therefore be after the Hijrah.

4832. Clear, or enlightened; a Path on which shines the Light of Allah.

4833. In this symbolism there are four kinds of drinks and all kinds of fruits; and the summing up of all spiritual delights in the "Grace from their Lord". The four kinds of drinks are: (1) delicious, cool, pure water, not like earthly water, for it never suffers corruption; (2) milk which never turns sour, whose taste is like that of fresh warm milk drawn from the udder; (3) wine, not like any wine on earth, for it leaves no headaches behind, and causes no intoxication, which is a kind of madness or poison, but is ever a joy to drink; and (4) honey, pure and clear, with no admixture of wax or any foreign substance. These drinks, again speaking metaphorically, will cool the spirit, feed the heart, warm the affections, and sweeten life. (R).

4834. See n. 4671 to 43:73. (Eds.).

4835. Grace from their Lord: that is the covering up or blotting out of sin and all that was sad or unsatisfactory in the lower life; the pure Light from the Countenance of Allah Most High: 92:20.

Shall dwell forever
In the Fire, and be given,
To drink, boiling water,
So that it cuts up⁴⁸³⁶
Their bowels (to pieces)?

خَالِدٌ فِي النَّارِ وَسُقُوا مَاءً حَمِيمًا
فَقَطَّعَ أَمْعَاءَهُمْ ۝

16. And among them are men
Who listen to thee,
But in the end, when they
Go out from thee,⁴⁸³⁷
They say to those who
Have received Knowledge,
"What is it he said
Just then?" Such are Men whose hearts Allah
Has sealed, and who
Follow their own lusts.

١٦- وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ يَسْتَمِعُ إِلَيْكَ
حَتَّىٰ إِذَا خَرَجُوا مِنْ عِنْدِكَ
قَالُوا لِلَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ
مَاذَا قَالَ أَنْفًا
أُولَٰئِكَ الَّذِينَ طَبَعَ اللَّهُ عَلَىٰ قُلُوبِهِمْ
وَاتَّبَعُوا أَهْوَاءَهُمْ ۝

17. But to those who receive⁴⁸³⁸
Guidance, He increases
The (light of) Guidance,
And bestows on them
Their Piety and Restraint
(From evil).

١٧- وَالَّذِينَ اهْتَدَوْا
زَادَهُمْ هُدًى
وَاتَّعْتَهُم تَقْوَاهُمْ ۝

18. Do they then only wait⁴⁸³⁹
For the Hour—that it
Should come on them
Of a sudden? But already
Have come some tokens⁴⁸⁴⁰
Thereof, and when it
(Actually) is on them,

١٨- فَهَلْ يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَّا السَّاعَةَ
أَنْ تَأْتِيَهُمْ بَغْتَةً
فَقَدْ جَاءَ أَشْرَاطُهَا
فَأَنَّىٰ لَهُمْ

4836. Cf. 37:66-67, and n. 4074. Just as the Bliss of the Blessed will penetrate their being through and through, so the agony of the condemned ones will penetrate their being through and through. "Bowels" besides meaning their inmost being, also suggests the seat of their feelings and affections.

4837. Cf. 10:42, and n. 1434; also 6:25, 36, and n. 857. The case here referred to is that of the Hypocrites who came to the assemblies of Islam in Madīnah and pretended to listen to the Prophet's teaching and preaching. But their heart and mind were not in learning righteousness, but in carping at things they saw and heard. When they got out, they knew nothing of the teaching, but on the contrary asked foolish and ignorant questions, such as might raise doubts.

4838. Spiritual advancement is progressive: each step makes the next ones easier and more complete.

4839. Cf. 43:66, and n. 4665.

4840. The sands of time are always running, and when a wrong is done, the time for its punishment is approaching every moment. No one should therefore wait. The time for repentance is Now at any given time. When the punishment comes, it is too late for repentance, and all admonition would be useless.

Looking to the particular time when this Sūrah was revealed, viz., about a year after the Hijrah, already there were Signs that the plans of the Pagans to crush Islam were crumbling to pieces. The Hijrah showed how much good will there was in Madīnah for the Holy Prophet of Allah, and how many people from Makkah adhered to him. The battle of Badr showed that they could hold their own against odds of three to one.

How can they benefit
Then by their admonition?

إِذَا جَاءَتْهُمْ ذِكْرُهُمْ ۝

19. Know, therefore, that
There is no god
But Allah, and ask
Forgiveness for thy fault,⁴⁸⁴¹
And for the men
And women who believe:
For Allah knows how ye⁴⁸⁴²
Move about and how
Ye dwell in your homes.

١٩- فَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ
وَاسْتَغْفِرْ لِذَنْبِكَ
وَالْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ
وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مُتَقَلَّبَكُمْ
وَمَثْوَىٰكُمْ ۝

- C. 221. — Those eager for service want the call for service;
(47:20-38.) But the hypocrites blanch at such call.
If it were not obeyed, and evil should get
The upper hand, will it not stalk arrogant
Over the land, and trample under foot
All claims of right and kinship? Fight it,
And fail not in the test of your mettle. Be bold
And establish the Flag of Righteousness
In the highest places. Thus comes Peace,
For which due sacrifice must be made.

SECTION 3.

20. Those who believe say,⁴⁸⁴³
“Why is not a Sūrah
Sent down (for us)?”
But when a Sūrah
Of basic or categorical⁴⁸⁴⁴
Meaning is revealed,
And fighting is mentioned
Therein, thou wilt see those
In whose hearts is a disease⁴⁸⁴⁵
Looking at thee with a look

٢٠- وَيَقُولُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَوْلَا نُزِّلَتْ سُورَةٌ
فَإِذَا أَنْزَلَتْ سُورَةٌ مُحْكَمَةٌ
وَذُكِرَ فِيهَا الْقِتَالُ
رَأَيْتَ الَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ مَرَضٌ
يَنْظُرُونَ إِلَيْكَ نَظَرَ

4841. Cf. 40:55, and n. 4428.

4842. The time and manner of our conducting ourselves at home and when we move about on our business are all material to the judgement of our conduct, and for every nuance in our moral and spiritual progress, we must seek Allah's help and guidance.

4843. The men of faith and loyalty are eager and anxious to get a command to serve the Cause even if it be at the sacrifice of their lives. Not so the Hypocrites, “those in whose hearts is a disease”. They are mortally afraid as mentioned below.

4844. Cf. 3:7, and n. 347. The defence of truth and righteousness at all sacrifice, when a definite and categorical command issues from the Amīr al Mu'minīn is a fundamental condition of enlistment in the cause of Allah. It is true that Punishment and Judgement belong to Allah alone; but our mettle and fidelity have to be tested, (see verse 4 above), and Allah uses human agency in human affairs. (R).

4845. Cf. 2:10. The disease is hypocrisy, disloyalty to the Cause, want of courage and of the spirit of self-sacrifice, want of true understanding.

Of one in swoon at
The approach of death.
But more fitting for them—

الْمَغْشِيِّ عَلَيْهِ مِنَ الْمَوْتِ
فَأَوْلَى لَهُمْ ۖ

21. Were it to obey
And say what is just,
And when a matter⁴⁸⁴⁶
Is resolved on, it were
Best for them if they
Were true to Allah.

٢١- طَاعَةٌ وَقَوْلٌ مَعْرُوفٌ
فَإِذَا عَزَمَ الْأَمْرُ
فَأَوْصِدْ قُوا اللَّهَ لَكَانَ خَيْرًا لَهُمْ ۖ

22. Then, is it⁴⁸⁴⁷
To be expected of you,
If ye were put in authority,
That ye will do mischief,
In the land, and break
Your ties of kith and kin?

٢٢- فَهَلْ عَسَيْتُمْ إِنْ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ
أَنْ تُفْسِدُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ
وَتَقْطَعُوا أَرْحَامَكُمْ ۖ

23. Such are the men
Whom Allah has cursed⁴⁸⁴⁸
For He has made them
Deaf and blinded their sight.

٢٣- أُولَئِكَ الَّذِينَ لَعَنَهُمُ اللَّهُ
فَاصْصَمُمْ وَأَعَلَّى أَبْصَارَهُمْ ۖ

24. Do they not then
Earnestly seek to understand
The Qur'ān, or are
Their hearts locked up
By them?

٢٤- أَفَلَا يَتَذَكَّرُونَ الْقُرْآنَ
أَمْ عَلَى قُلُوبٍ أَقْفَالُهَا ۖ

25. Those who turn back⁴⁸⁴⁹
As apostates after Guidance
Was clearly shown to them—
The Evil One has instigated
Them and buoyed them up
With false hopes.

٢٥- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ ارْتَدُّوا عَلَىٰ أَدْبَارِهِمْ
مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا تَبَيَّنَ لَهُمُ الْهُدَىٰ
الشَّيْطَانُ سَوَّلَ لَهُمْ وَأَمْلَىٰ لَهُمْ ۖ

4847. It is no use to say, as the Quraysh said, that it is not seemly to fight against kith and kin. From one point of view the stand against sin brings "not peace, but a sword". It is a case of either subduing evil or being subdued by evil. If evil gets the upper hand, it is not likely to respect ties of kith and kin. It did not in the case of the Holy Prophet and his adherents, and had to be suppressed, to bring about the conditions necessary for peace.

4848. Cursed: i.e., deprived of His Grace: left them straying, because they deliberately rejected His guidance. The result is that what they hear is as if they had not heard, and what they see is as if they had not seen. They have no desire to understand Allah's Will or Allah's Revelation—or is it that they have themselves locked and bolted their hearts and minds, so that nothing can penetrate them?

4849. Such men are entirely in the hands of Evil. They follow its suggestions, and their hopes are built on its deceptions.

26. This, because they said⁴⁸⁵⁰
To those who hate what Allah has revealed, "We
Will obey you in part
Of (this) matter"; but Allah
Knows their (inner) secrets.
27. But how (will it be)⁴⁸⁵¹
When the angels take
Their souls at death,
And smite their faces⁴⁸⁵²
And their backs?
28. This because they followed
That which called forth
The Wrath of Allah, and
They hated Allah's good pleasure;
So He made their deeds
Of no effect.
- SECTION 4.
29. Or do those in whose⁴⁸⁵³
Hearts is a disease, think
That Allah will not bring
To light all their rancour?
30. Had We so willed,
We could have shown them
Up to thee, and thou
Shouldst have known them⁴⁸⁵⁴
By their marks; but surely
Thou wilt know them

٢٦- ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ قَالُوا لِلَّذِينَ كَرِهُوا مَا
نَزَّلَ اللَّهُ سَنُطِيعُكُمْ فِي بَعْضِ الْأَمْرِ
وَ اللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ أَسْرَارَهُمْ ۝

٢٧- فَكَيْفَ إِذَا تَوَفَّتْهُمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ
يَضْرِبُونَ وُجُوهَهُمْ وَأَدْبَارَهُمْ ۝

٢٨- ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ اتَّبَعُوا مَا أَسْخَطَ اللَّهَ
وَ كَرِهُوا رِضْوَانَهُ
فَأَحْبَطَ أَعْمَالَهُمْ ۝

٢٩- أَمْ حَسِبَ الَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ مَرَضٌ
أَن لَّنْ يُخْرِجَ اللَّهُ أَضْغَانَهُمْ ۝

٣٠- وَلَوْ نَشَاءُ لَأَرَيْنَاكَهُمْ
فَلَعَرَفْتَهُمْ بِسِيمَاهُمْ
وَلَتَعْرِفَنَّهُمْ فِي

4850. They have become so impervious to facts and truths, because, without the courage to oppose Allah's Cause openly, they secretly intrigue with Allah's enemies, and say that they will follow them part of the way, and by remaining partly in the other camp, they will be far more useful as spies and half-hearted doubters than by going over altogether. If they think that this game will be successful, they are mistaken. All the inner secrets and motives of their hearts are known to Allah. Cf. 59:11.

4851. It is all very well for them to practise hypocrisy in this life. How will they feel at death, when they find that the angels know all, and touch the very spots they had taken such care to conceal?

4852. Their faces and their backs: there is a subtle metaphor. The face is what looks to the front, the side you present to the outer world; the back is what is not shown, what is hidden from the world. The hypocrites will be hit at both points. Or, the face is what they boast of, what they are proud of; the back is the skeleton in the cupboard, the things they dare not utter, but which yet haunt them. The hypocrites are hit on every side. Cf. 8:50.

4853. Cf. verse 20 above, and n. 4845. Being diseased at the very core of their being, they do not understand the simplest facts of spiritual life.

4854. Evil is not always necessarily branded in this life with a distinguishing mark or brand. But the discerning ones know. Evil is betrayed by its speech and behaviour.

By the tone of their speech!
And Allah knows
All that ye do.

لَحْنِ الْقَوْلِ
وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ أَعْمَالَكُمْ ٥

31. And We shall try you⁴⁸⁵⁵
Until We test those
Among you who strive
Their utmost and persevere
In patience; and We shall
Try your reported (mettle).⁴⁸⁵⁶

٣١- وَكَلِّبُوا نَفْسَكُمْ حَتَّى نَعْلَمَ
الْمُجَاهِدِينَ مِنْكُمْ وَالصَّابِرِينَ
وَنَبْلُوا أَخْبَارَكُمْ ٥

32. Those who reject Allah,
Hinder (men) from
The Path of Allah, and resist
The Messenger, after Guidance
Has been clearly shown to them,⁴⁸⁵⁷
Will not injure Allah
In the least, but He
Will make their deeds
Of no effect.

٣٢- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَصَدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ
اللَّهِ وَشَاقُّوا الرَّسُولَ مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا تَبَيَّنَ لَهُمُ
الْهُدَىٰ لَنْ يَضُرُّوا اللَّهَ شَيْئًا
وَسَيُحِطُّ أَعْمَالُهُمْ ٥

33. O ye who believe!
Obey Allah, and obey
The Messenger, and make
Not vain your deeds!

٣٣- يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا
الرَّسُولَ وَلَا تُبْطِلُوا أَعْمَالَكُمْ ٥

34. Those who reject Allah,⁴⁸⁵⁸
And hinder (men) from the Path
Of Allah, then die rejecting
Allah—
Allah will not forgive them.

٣٤- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَاصْطَدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
ثُمَّ مَاتُوا وَهُمْ كُفَّارٌ فَلَنْ يَغْفِرَ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ ٥

35. Be not weary and
Fainthearted, crying for peace,
When ye should be⁴⁸⁵⁹

٣٥- فَلَا تَهِنُوا وَتَدْعُوا إِلَى السَّلَامِ وَأَنْتُمْ

4855. Cf. 34:21, and n. 3821. The test and trial is for our own psychological development, to help in the exercise of such choice as has been given to us in our free will. Cf. also 3:154, and n. 467.

4856. Akhbār: the things reported of you; reputation for courage and constancy, which has to be brought to the test of facts and experience. In an epigram of Tacitus we are told of a Roman Emperor that he would have been considered in every way to have been worthy of being a ruler if only he had never ruled! So in life people may think us courageous, true, noble, and self-sacrificing; and we may consider ourselves as possessing all such virtues; but it is actual experience that will bring them to the test.

4857. Cf. verse 25 above, and verse 34 below; in verse 25 was shown the source of the evil, viz., yielding to the deceptions of the Evil One; in this verse are shown the proximate consequences of such yielding to evil, viz., failure of all we do; and in verse 34 below are shown the eternal consequences, viz., our deprivation of Allah's Grace and Mercy.

4858. See last note.

4859. To those who are trying to root out evil, and have authority to do so, the question is not of peace or conflict, but of whether Good or Evil is to prevail. They must remember the Good must ultimately prevail, and Allah's help is with those who, as far as men can, are trying to further the universal Plan. Cf. n. 4847 to verse 22 above.

فَمِنْكُمْ مَنْ يَبْخُلُ
وَمَنْ يَبْخُلْ فَإِنَّمَا يَبْخُلُ عَنْ نَفْسِهِ ۚ

4860. Cf. 6:32, and n. 855; and 29:64, and n. 3497. Amusement and play are not bad things in themselves. As preparations for the more serious life, they have their value. But if we concentrate on them, and neglect the business of life, we cannot prosper. So we must use our life in this world as a preparation for our spiritual or inner life.

4861. Complete self-sacrifice, if voluntarily offered, has a meaning: it means that the person's devotion is exclusively and completely for the Cause. But no law or rule can demand it. And a mere offer to kill yourself has no meaning. You should be ready to take risks to your life in fighting for the Cause, but you should aim at life, not death. If you live, you should be ready to place your substance and your acquisitions at the disposal of the Cause. But it is not reasonable to pauperise yourself and become a hanger-on for the Cause. Moreover, the inborn tendency to self-preservation in an average man would lead to concealment and niggardliness if all were asked for the Cause, by Law, and there would further be a feeling of bitterness and rebellion.

4863. Cf. above, verse 29. Rancour or ill-feeling, or any desire but that of devotion, should never be given a handle in a wise Law.

4864. Here the cases of the special devotee and of the average man with his human foibles are distinguished. Stinginess is not a virtue: it hurts more the finer nature of the individual practising it than it hurts the Cause. Allah is free of all wants and independent of any need that we can meet. His Cause is similarly independent of human aid. But it uses human agency for our own human advancement. The need to be able to serve Allah's cause is ours. We are the needy beggars who should claim the privilege before the Lord of Bounties unbounded. (R).

But Allah is free
 Of all wants,
 And it is ye that are needy.
 If ye turn back⁴⁸⁶⁵
 (From the Path), He will Substitute in your stead
 Another people; then they
 Would not be like you!

وَاللَّهُ الْغَنِيُّ
 وَأَنْتُمْ الْفُقَرَاءُ
 وَإِنْ تَتَوَلَّوْا يَسْتَبْدِلْ قَوْمًا غَيْرَكُمْ
 ثُمَّ لَا يَكُونُوا أَمْثَالَكُمْ ۝

4865. If we desert the Cause, the Cause will not fail. Better men than we will uphold the flag. But we should fall, and others will take our place, who are not so timid, half-hearted, or stingy. In Wordsworth's words, "High Heaven rejects the lore of nicely calculated less or more."

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 48—AL FAṬḤ

1. This is the second of the group of three Madīnah Sūrahs described in the Introduction to S. 47. Its date is fixed by the mention of the Treaty of Ḥudaybiyah, Dhu al Qa'dah A.H. 6 = Feb. 628 (see n. 1261 to 9:13).

2. Ḥudaybiyah is a plain, a short day's march to the north of Makkah, a little to the west of the Madīnah-Makkah road, as used in the Prophet's time. Six years had passed since the Prophet had left his beloved City, and it has been in the hands of the Pagan autocracy. But Islam had grown during these six years. Its Qiblah was towards the Ka'bah. The Pagans had tried to attack Islam at various times and had been foiled. By Arab custom every Arab was entitled to visit the Sacred Enclosure unarmed, and fighting of any kind was prohibited during the Sacred Months (see n. 209 to 2:194), which included the month of Dhu al Qa'dah. In Dhu al Qa'dah A.H. 6, therefore, the Prophet desired to perform the 'Umrah or lesser pilgrimage (n. 212 to 2:196), unarmed, but accompanied with his followers. A large following joined him, to the number of fourteen to fifteen hundred.

3. This was not to the liking of the Pagan autocracy at Makkah, which took alarm, and in breach of all Arab tradition and usage, prepared to prevent the peaceful party from performing the rites of pilgrimage. They marched out to fight the unarmed party. The Prophet turned a little to the west of the road, and encamped at Ḥudaybiyah, where negotiation took place. On the one hand, the Prophet was unwilling to give the Quraysh any pretended excuse for violence in the Sacred Territory; on the other, the Quraysh had learnt, by six years' bitter experience, that their power was crumbling on all sides, and Islam was growing with its moral and spiritual forces, which were also reflected in its powers of organisation and resistance. The enthusiasm with which the Covenant of Fealty was entered into under a tree in Ḥudaybiyah (48:18) by that great multitude united in devotion to their great leader, was evidence of the great power which he commanded even in a worldly sense if the Quraysh had chosen to try conclusions with him.

4. A peaceful Treaty was therefore concluded, known as the Treaty of Ḥudaybiyah. It stipulated: (1) that there was to be peace between the parties for ten years; (2) that any tribe or person was free to join either party or make an alliance with it; (3) that if a Quraysh person from Makkah, under guardianship, should join the Prophet without the guardian's permission, he (or she) should be sent back to the guardian, but in the contrary case, they should not be sent back; and (4) that the Prophet and his party were not to enter Makkah that year, but that they could enter unarmed the following year.

5. Item 3, not being reciprocal, was objected to in the Muslim camp, but it really was of little importance. Muslims under guardianship, sent back to Makkah, were not likely to renounce the blessings of Islam; on the other hand Muslims going to Makkah would be centres of influence for Islam, and it was more important that they should be allowed to remain there than that they should be sent back to Madīnah. It was impossible to think that there would be apostates or renegades to Paganism! "Look on this picture, and on that!"

6. The Muslims faithfully observed the terms of the Treaty. The following year (A.H. 7) they performed the lesser Pilgrimage in great state for three days. It is true that the Makkans later on broke the Peace in the attack which one of their allied tribes (the Banū Bakr) made on the Muslim Banū Khuzā'ah (who were in alliance with the Prophet), but this led to the conquest of Makkah and the sweeping away of the autocracy. Meanwhile Ḥudaybiyah was a great victory, morally and socially, as well as politically, and its lessons are expounded in this Sūrah, as the lessons of Badr were expounded in 8:42-48, and of Uhud in 3:121-129, 149-180.

Summary—Victory comes from cool courage, devotion, faith, and patience, as shown at Hūdaybiyah; therefore remember Allah, and follow His Prophet (48:1-29, and C. 222).

C. 222. — Victory and Help go with calmness of mind,
(48:1-29) Faith, fidelity, zeal, and earnestness,
Not with greed, lukewarmness, or timidity.
Discipline and obedience are essential
For service. The rewards for service are not
To be measured by immediate results,
But accrue in countless hidden ways
For Patience and Restraint. Be strong
Against Evil, but kind and gentle amongst Yourselves: the seed will grow and become
Strong, to your wonder and delight.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- إِنَّا فَتَحْنَا لَكَ فَتْحًا مُبِينًا ۝

الْمُؤْمِنِينَ لِيَزْدَادُوا إِيمَانًا مَعَ إِيمَانِهِمْ
وَلِلَّهِ جُنُودُ السَّمَاوَاتِ

4866. This is best referred to the Treaty of Hudaibīyah, for which see the Introduction to this Sūrah. By this Treaty the Makkan Quraysh, after many years of unrelenting conflict with Islam, at length recognised Islam as (what they thought) an equal power with themselves. In reality the door was then opened for the free spread of Islam throughout Arabia and thence through the world.

4867. See n. 4428 to 40:55, and Cf. 47:19. Any mistakes of the past were now rectified, and any future ones prevented by the free scope now offered, by the act of the Quraysh Pagans themselves, to the recognition and free promulgation of Islam.

4868. Three objects or results of the Treaty are mentioned: (1) forgiveness, which is equivalent to Mercy; (2) fulfilment of the dignity of Prophethood with the dignity of an effective and recognised position in Arabia; (3) opening up a straight way leading to Islam, by access to Makkah from next year, Makkah being the symbolic centre of Islam. These three are summed up in the comprehensive phrase "powerful (or effective) help".

4869. The results were achieved by tranquillity, calmness, and cool courage among the 1400 to 1500 unarmed men who accompanied the Prophet to Hudaibīyah and who were threatened with violence by the excited Quraysh leaders of Makkah.

4871. There are visible forces which you see in the physical world. Men fight with armed forces, and the Muslims had to defend themselves with arms also, and not without success. But social, moral, and spiritual forces were fighting for them under Allah's command, and they were the real forces that established the Message of Islam and the position of its Leader and Preacher.

وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَزِيزًا حَكِيمًا ۝

هـ- إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَاكَ شَهِيدًا

4872. This clause is coordinated to the previous clause, "That they may add Faith to their Faith". The intervening words, "For to Allah... and Wisdom" are parenthetical. The third co-ordinate clause comes in the next verse, "And that He may punish..." The skeleton construction will be, "Allah sends down calm courage to Believers in order that they may be confirmed in their Faith; that they may qualify for the Bliss of Heaven; and that the evil ones may receive the punishment they deserve."

4873. They will be encircled (or hemmed in) by Evil.

4874. That is, deprived them of His Grace, on account of their continued rejection of it.

4876. The Prophet came in order to establish Faith in Allah and true worship. We can view him in three capacities: (1) as a witness to help the weak if they were oppressed and check the strong if they did wrong; (2) as a giver of the Glad Tidings of Allah's Grace and Mercy to those who repented and lived good lives; and (3) as one who warned sinners of the consequences of their sin.

SECTION 2.

11. The desert Arabs who⁴⁸⁷⁸
Lagged behind will Say to thee:
"We were engaged in
(Looking after) our flocks
And herds, and our families:

۱۱-سَيَقُولُ لَكَ الْمُخَلَّفُونَ مِنَ الْأَعْرَابِ
شَغَلَتْنَا أَمْوَالُنَا وَأَهْلُونَا

4876-A. Assist and honour Him: most commentators agree that the pronoun 'Him' refers to Allah, while a few believe it refers to the Holy Prophet. [Eds.].

4877. In the Ḥudaybiyah negotiations, when it was uncertain whether the Quraysh would treat well or ill the Prophet's delegate to Makkah, there was a great wave of feeling in the Muslim camp of 1400 to 1500 men. They came with great enthusiasm and swore their fealty to the Prophet, by placing hand on hand according to the Arab custom: see paragraph 3 of the Introduction to this Sūrah. This in itself was wonderful demonstration of moral and material strength, a true Victory; it is called Bay'ah al Ridwān (Fealty of Allah's Good Pleasure) in Islamic History. They placed their hands on the Prophet's hand, but the Hand of Allah was above them, and He accepted their Fealty.

'Alayhu is an archaic form for 'Alayhi.

4878. When the Prophet started from Madīnah on the Makkah journey which ended in Ḥudaybiyah, he asked all Muslims to join him in the pious undertaking, and he had a splendid response. But some of the desert tribes hung back and made excuses. Their faith was but lukewarm, and they did not want to share in any trouble which the Makkans might give to the unarmed Muslims on pilgrimage. Their excuse that they were engaged in looking after their flocks and herds and their families was an afterthought, and in any case made after the return of the Prophet and his party with enhanced prestige to Madīnah.

Do thou then ask
 Forgiveness for us,"⁴⁸⁷⁹
 They say with their tongues
 What is not in their hearts.
 Say: "Who then has
 Any power at all
 (To intervene) on your behalf
 With Allah, if His Will
 Is to give you some loss⁴⁸⁸⁰
 Or to give you some profit?
 But Allah is well acquainted
 With all that ye do.

12. "Nay, ye thought that
 The Messenger and the Believers
 Would never return to
 Their families; this seemed Pleasing in your hearts,"⁴⁸⁸¹
 and
 Ye conceived an evil thought,
 For ye are a people
 Lost (in wickedness)."

13. And if any believe not
 In Allah and His Messenger,
 We have prepared,
 For those who reject Allah,
 A Blazing Fire!

14. To Allah belongs the dominion
 Of the heavens and the earth:
 He forgives whom He wills,⁴⁸⁸²
 And He punishes whom He Wills: but Allah is
 Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

فَاَسْتَغْفِرْ لَنَا
 يَقُولُونَ بِالسَّيْرِ
 مَا لَيْسَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ
 قُلْ فَمَنْ يَمْلِكُ لَكُمْ مِنْ اللَّهِ شَيْئًا
 إِنْ أَرَادَ بِكُمْ ضَرًّا
 أَوْ أَرَادَ بِكُمْ نَفْعًا
 بَلْ كَانَ اللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرًا ۝

۱۲- بَلْ ظَنَنْتُمْ أَنْ لَنْ يَنْقَلِبَ الرَّسُولُ
 وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ إِلَى أَهْلِيهِمْ أَبَدًا
 وَزُيِّنَ ذَلِكَ فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ وَظَنَنْتُمْ ظَنًّا
 السَّوْءَ ۖ وَكُنْتُمْ قَوْمًا بُورًا ۝

۱۳- وَمَنْ لَمْ يُؤْمَرْ بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ
 فَإِنَّا أَعْتَدْنَا لِلْكَافِرِينَ سَعِيرًا ۝

۱۴- وَلِلَّهِ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
 يَغْفِرُ لِمَنْ يَشَاءُ وَيُعَذِّبُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ
 وَكَانَ اللَّهُ غَفُورًا رَحِيمًا ۝

4879. They said this with their tongues, but no thought of piety was in their hearts.

4880. Their false excuse was based on a calculation of worldly profit and loss. But what about the spiritual loss in detaching themselves from the Holy Prophet or spiritual profit in joining in the splendidly loyal feelings of service and obedience which were demonstrated at Ḥudaybiyah? And in any case they need not think that all their real and secret motives were not known to Allah.

4881. Their faith was so shaky that they thought the worst would happen, and that the Makkan Quraysh would destroy the unarmed band. In their heart of hearts they would not have been sorry, because they were steeped in wickedness and rejoiced in the sufferings of others. But such persons will burn in the fire of their own disappointment.

4882. Evil must inevitably have its punishment, but there is one way of escape, viz., through repentance and the Mercy of Allah. Allah's Justice will punish, but Allah's Mercy will forgive; and the Mercy is the predominant feature in Allah's universe: "He is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful."

15. Those who lagged behind⁴⁸⁸³
(Will say), when ye (are Free to) march and take Booty (in war): "Permit us
To follow you." They wish
To change Allah's decree:
Say: "Not thus⁴⁸⁸⁴
Will ye follow us:
Allah has already declared⁴⁸⁸⁵
(This) beforehand": then they
Will say, "But ye are⁴⁸⁸⁶
Jealous of us." Nay,
But little do they understand
(Such things).

١٥- سَيَقُولُ الْمُخَلَّفُونَ إِذَا انْطَلَقْتُمْ إِلَى
مَغَانِمٍ لِتَأْخُذُواهَا ذُرُونَا نَتَّبِعْكُمْ
يُرِيدُونَ أَنْ يُبَدِّلُوا كَلِمَ اللَّهِ
قُلْ لَنْ تَتَّبِعُونَا كَذَلِكُمْ
قَالَ اللَّهُ مِنْ قَبْلُ
فَسَيَقُولُونَ بَلْ تَحْسُدُونَنَا
بَلْ كَانُوا لَا يَفْقَهُونَ إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ٥

16. Say to the desert Arabs⁴⁸⁸⁷
Who lagged behind: "Ye
Shall be summoned (to fight)
Against a people given to⁴⁸⁸⁸
Vehement war: then shall ye
Fight, or they shall submit.⁴⁸⁸⁹
Then if ye show obedience,
Allah will grant you
A goodly reward, but if
Ye turn back as ye
Did before, He will punish
You with a grievous Penalty."

١٦- قُلْ لِلْمُخَلَّفِينَ مِنَ الْأَعْرَابِ
سَتُدْعُونَ إِلَى قَوْمٍ أُولِي بَأْسٍ شَدِيدٍ
تُقَاتِلُونَهُمْ أَوْ يُسَلِّمُونَ
فَإِنْ تُطِيعُوا يُؤْتِكُمُ اللَّهُ أَجْرًا حَسَنًا
وَإِنْ تَوَلَّوْا كَمَا تَوَلَّيْتُمْ
مِنْ قَبْلُ يُعَذِّبْكُمْ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا ٥

17. No blame is there
On the blind, nor is
There blame on the lame,
Nor on one ill (if he

١٧- لَيْسَ عَلَى الْأَعْمَى حَرَجٌ
وَلَا عَلَى الْأَعْرَجِ حَرَجٌ
وَلَا عَلَى الْمَرِيضِ حَرَجٌ

4883. Now comes out another motive behind the minds of the laggards. The journey for pilgrimage had no promise of war booty. If at any future time there should be a promise of booty they would come! But that is to reverse Allah's law and decree. Jihād is not for personal gain or booty: see S. 8 and Introduction to S. 8, paragraph 2. On the contrary Jihād is hard striving, in war and peace, in the Cause of Allah.

4884. Not thus: i.e., not on those terms; not if your object is only to gain booty.

4885. See 8:1, and n. 1179.

4886. The desert Arabs loved fighting and plunder, and understood such motives for war. The higher motives seemed to be beyond them. Like ignorant men they attributed petty motives or motives of jealousy if they were kept out of the vulgar circle of fighting for plunder. But they had to be schooled, and they were schooled to higher ideas of discipline, self-sacrifice, and striving hard for a Cause.

4887. While they are reproached for their supineness in the march which led to Ḥudaybiyah, where there was danger but no prospect of booty, they are promised, if they learn discipline, to be allowed to follow the Banner of Islam where (as happened later in the Persian and Byzantine Wars) there was real fighting with formidable and well-organised armies.

4889. That is, you shall go forth to war if you learn discipline, not for booty, but for a great and noble Cause. For if your opponents submit to the Cause, there will be no fighting and no booty.

Joins not the war):
But he that obeys Allah⁴⁸⁹⁰
And His Messenger — (Allah)
Will admit him to Gardens
Beneath which rivers flow;
And he who turns back,
(Allah) will punish him
With a grievous Penalty.

يُدْخِلْهُ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ
وَمَنْ يَتَوَلَّ يُعَذِّبْهُ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا ۝

SECTION 3.

18. Allah's Good Pleasure⁴⁸⁹¹
Was on the Believers
When they swore Fealty
To thee under the Tree:⁴⁸⁹²
He knew⁴⁸⁹³ what was
In their hearts, and He Sent down Tranquillity⁴⁸⁹⁴
To them; and He rewarded
Them with a speedy Victory;⁴⁸⁹⁵

١٨- لَقَدْ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنِ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ
إِذْ يُبَايِعُونَكَ تَحْتَ الشَّجَرَةِ
فَعَلِمَ مَا فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ
فَأَنْزَلَ السَّكِينَةَ عَلَيْهِمْ
وَأَثَابَهُمْ فَتْحًا قَرِيبًا ۝

19. And many gains will they
Acquire (besides): and Allah
Is Exalted in Power,
Full of Wisdom.

١٩- وَ مَغَانِمَ كَثِيرَةً يَأْخُذُونَهَا
وَ كَانَ اللَّهُ عَزِيزًا حَكِيمًا ۝

20. Allah has promised you
Many gains that ye shall⁴⁸⁹⁶
Acquire, and He has given⁴⁸⁹⁷

٢٠- وَعَدَكُمْ اللَّهُ مَغَانِمَ كَثِيرَةً تَأْخُذُونَهَا
فَعَجَلَ لَكُمْ

4890. There may be neither fighting nor booty. But all who obey the righteous Imām's call to Jihād with perfect discipline will get the Rewards of the Hereafter. The blind, the maimed, and the infirm will of course be exempted from active compliance with the Call, but they can render such services as are within their power, and then they will not be excluded from the reward.

4891. The noun from the very raḍīya is riḍwān (Good Pleasure); hence the name of this Bay'ah, Bay'ah al Riḍwān, the Fealty of Allah's Good Pleasure: see n. 4877 to 48:10.

4892. The great ceremony of the Fealty of Allah's Good Pleasure took place while the Holy Prophet sat under a tree in the plain of Ḥudaybīyah. (R).

4893. Or tested: see n. 4855 to 47:31.

4894. Sakīnah = Peace, calm, sense of security and confidence, tranquillity. Cf. above 48:4, and n. 4869. The same word is used in connection with the battle of Ḥunayn in 9:26, and in connection with the Cave of Thawr at an early stage in the Hijrah: 9:40.

4895. The Treaty of Ḥudaybīyah itself was a "speedy Victory": it followed immediately after the Bay'ah.

4896. The gains so far seen from the Bay'ah and their calm and disciplined behaviour were certainly great; but greater still were to follow in the spiritual sense, in the rapid spread of Islam, in the clearance from the Sacred House of the idolatrous autocracy, and in the universal acceptance of the Message of Allah in Arabia.

4897. The first fruits of the Bay'ah were the victory or treaty of Ḥudaybīyah, the cessation for the time being of the hostility of the Makkan Quraysh, and the opening out of the way to Makkah. These things are implied in the phrase. "He has restrained the hands of men from you."

You these beforehand; and
He has restrained the hands
Of men from you; that it
May be a Sign for⁴⁸⁹⁸
The Believers, and that
He may guide you
To a Straight Path;

هَذِهِ وَكَفَّ أَيْدِيَ النَّاسِ عَنْكُمْ
وَلِتَكُونَ آيَةً لِّلْمُؤْمِنِينَ
وَيَهْدِيَكُمْ صِرَاطًا مُّسْتَقِيمًا ۝

21. And other gains (there are),
Which are not within⁴⁸⁹⁹
Your power, but which
Allah has compassed: and Allah
Has power over all things.

۲۱- وَأُخْرَى لَّمْ تَقْدِرُوا عَلَيْهَا
قَدْ أَحَاطَ اللَّهُ بِهَا ۖ
وَكَانَ اللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرًا ۝

22. If the Unbelievers
Should fight you, they would⁴⁹⁰⁰
Certainly turn their backs;
Then would they find
Neither protector nor helper.

۲۲- وَلَوْ قَاتَلَكُمُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
لَوَلَّوْا الْأَذْوَارَ
ثُمَّ لَا يَجِدُونَ وِلِيًّا وَلَا نَصِيرًا ۝

23. (Such has been) the practice⁴⁹⁰¹
(Approved) of Allah already
In the past: no change
Wilt thou find in
The practice (approved) of Allah.

۲۳- سُنَّةَ اللَّهِ الَّتِي
قَدْ خَلَتْ مِن قَبْلُ ۖ
وَلَنُجِدَ لِسُنَّةِ اللَّهِ تَبْدِيلًا ۝

24. And it is He Who
Has restrained their hands
From you and your hands
From them in the midst⁴⁹⁰²
Of Makkah, after that He Gave you the victory
Over them. And Allah sees
Well all that you do.

۲۴- وَهُوَ الَّذِي كَفَّ أَيْدِيَهُمْ
عَنكُمْ وَأَيْدِيَكُمْ عَنْهُمْ بِبَطْنِ مَكَّةَ
مِنْ بَعْدِ أَنْ أَظْفَرَكُمْ عَلَيْهِمْ ۖ
وَكَانَ اللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرًا ۝

4898. Ḥudaybiyah (in both the Bay'ah and the Treaty) was truly a sign post for the Believers: it showed the solidarity of Islam, and the position which the Muslims had won in the Arab world.

4899. Other gains: these are usually referred to the later victories of Islam, but we must view them not merely in their political or material aspect, but chiefly in the rise of Islam as a world power morally and spiritually.

4900. Their morale was not truly broken.

4901. Cf. 33:62.

4902. Little incidents had taken place that might have plunged the Quraysh and the Muslims from Madīnah into a fight. On the one hand, the Quraysh were determined to keep out the Muslims, which they had no right to do: and on the other hand, the Muslims, though unarmed, had sworn to stand together, and if they had counter-attacked they could have forced their entrance to the Ka'bah, the centre of Makkah. But Allah restrained both sides from anything that would have violated the Peace of the Sanctuary, and after the Treaty was signed, all danger was past.

25. They are the ones who Denied revelation and hindered
you
From the Sacred Mosque
And the sacrificial animals,⁴⁹⁰³
Detained from reaching their Place of sacrifice. Had there
Not been believing men
And believing women whom
Ye did not know that⁴⁹⁰⁴
Ye were trampling down
And on whose account
A crime would have accrued
To you without (your) knowledge,
(Allah would have allowed you
To force your way, but
He held back your hands)
That He may admit
To His Mercy whom He will.⁴⁹⁰⁵
- If they had been⁴⁹⁰⁶
Apart, We should
Certainly have punished
The Unbelievers among them
With a grievous punishment.

٢٥- هُمُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
وَصَدُّوكُمْ عَنِ الْمَسْجِدِ الْحَرَامِ
وَالْهَدْيِ مَعَكُوفًا
أَنْ يَبْلُغَ مَحَلَّهُ
وَلَوْلَا رِجَالٌ مُؤْمِنُونَ وَنِسَاءٌ مُؤْمِنَاتٌ
لَمْ تَعْلَمُوهُمْ أَنْ تَطَؤُوهُمْ
فَتُصِيبَكُمْ مِنْهُمْ مَعَرَّةٌ
بَغَيْرِ عِلْمٍ
لِيُدْخِلَ اللَّهُ فِي رَحْمَتِهِ
مَنْ يَشَاءُ
لَوْ تَزَيَّلُوا
لَعَذَّبْنَا الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْهُمْ
عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا ○

26. While the Unbelievers
Got up in their hearts
Heat and cant—the heat⁴⁹⁰⁷
And cant of Ignorance—

٢٦- إِذْ جَعَلَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ
الْحَمِيَّةَ حَمِيَّةَ الْجَاهِلِيَّةِ

4903. The Muslims from Madīnah had brought the animals for sacrifice with them, and had put on the Ihrām or pilgrim's garb (see n. 217 to 2:197), but they were not only prevented from entering Makkah, but were also prevented from sending the sacrificial animals to the place of sacrifice in Makkah, as they could have done under 2:196. The sacrifice was therefore actually offered at Hudaibiyah.

4904. There were at the time in Makkah believing Muslims, men and women, and the faith of some of them was unknown to their brethren from Madīnah. Had a fight taken place in Makkah, even though the Muslims had been successful, they would unwittingly have killed some of these unknown Muslims, and thus would unwittingly have been guilty of shedding Muslim blood. This was prevented by the Treaty.

4905. Allah works according to His wise and Holy Will and Plan, and not according to what seems to us, in the excitement of human life, to be the obvious course of things. By preventing a fight He saved many valuable lives, not only of Muslims but also of some who became Muslims afterwards and served Islam. He grants His Mercy on far higher standards than man in his limited horizon can see.

4906. If the party from Madīnah could have distinguished Muslims from non-Muslims among the Makkans, they might have been allowed to enter and punish the pagan Quraysh for their inordinate vanity and gross breach of the unwritten law of the land. But in the actual circumstances the best solution was the Treaty of Hudaibiyah.

4907. While the Unbelievers were blustering and excited, and meticulously objected to introductory words such as "In the name of Allah, Most Gracious, Most Merciful, from Muhammad, the Prophet of Allah" (they did not like the titles), the Prophet remained calm and collected, and got the substance of their demands embodied in the Treaty without worrying about words. Even though the terms of the Treaty appeared to the companions, at first, to be unfair to Muslims, they remained faithful to their Leader and showed trust in his better judgement, a trust that was vindicated by the events that followed. (R).

Allah sent down His Tranquillity⁴⁹⁰⁸
To his Messenger and to
The Believers, and made them
Stick close to the command
Of self-restraint; and well
Were they entitled to it⁴⁹⁰⁹
And worthy of it.
And Allah has full knowledge
Of all things.

SECTION 4.

27. Truly did Allah fulfil
The vision for His Messenger:⁴⁹¹⁰
Ye shall enter the Sacred
Mosque, if Allah wills,
With minds secure, heads shaved,
Hair cut short, and without fear.
For He knew what ye
Knew not, and He granted,
Besides this, a speedy victory.⁴⁹¹¹

28. It is He Who has sent
His Messenger with Guidance
And the Religion of Truth,
To proclaim it over
All religion: and enough
Is Allah for a Witness.⁴⁹¹²

29. Muḥammad is the Messenger
Of Allah; and those who are
With him are strong
Against Unbelievers, (but)
Compassionate amongst each other.⁴⁹¹³

فَأَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ سَكِينَتَهُ

٢٧- لَقَدْ صَدَقَ اللَّهُ رَسُولَهُ الرُّؤْيَا بِالْحَقِّ
لَتَدْخُلَنَّ السَّجْدَ الْحَرَامَ إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ
أَمِنِينَ مُخْلِقِينَ دُؤُسَكُمْ وَمُقَصِّرِينَ لَا
تَخَافُونَ فَعَلِمَ مَا لَمْ تَعْلَمُوا
فَجَعَلَ مِنْ ذَلِكَ فَتْحًا قَرِيبًا ۝

٢٨- هُوَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ رَسُولَهُ بِالْهُدَى
وَدِينِ الْحَقِّ لِيُظْهِرَهُ عَلَى
الدِّينِ كُلِّهِ وَكَفَى بِاللَّهِ شَهِيدًا ۝

٢٩- مُحَمَّدٌ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ
وَالَّذِينَ مَعَهُ أَشِدَّاءُ عَلَى الْكُفَّارِ
رُحَمَاءُ بَيْنَهُمْ

4908. Cf. above 48:18, and n. 4894.

4909. It = Tranquillity. Their calmness amid much provocation was a gift of Allah; they had earned a right to it by their obedience and discipline, and showed themselves well worthy of it.

4910. The Prophet had had a dream that he had entered the Sacred Mosque at Makkah, just before he decided on the journey which resulted in the Treaty of Ḥudaybiyah. By it he and his people could enter next year without the least molestation and in the full customary garb, with head shaved or hair cut short, and all the customary minor rites of pilgrimage.

4911. See above, 48:18, and n. 4895.

4912. The divine disposition of events in the coming of Islam and its promulgation by the Holy Prophet are themselves evidence of the truth of Islam and its all-reaching character; for there is nothing which it has not influenced. See also 61:9, n. 5442.

4913. Cf. 9:128. The devotees of Allah wage unceasing war against evil, for themselves, and for others; but to their own brethren in faith—especially the weaker ones—they are mild and compassionate: they seek out every opportunity to sympathise with them and help them.

Thou wilt see them bow
And prostrate themselves
(In prayer), seeking Grace
From Allah and (His) Good
Pleasure.⁴⁹¹⁴

On their faces are their
Marks, (being) the traces⁴⁹¹⁵
Of their prostration.
This is their similitude
In the Tawrah;⁴⁹¹⁶
And their similitude
In the Gospel is⁴⁹¹⁷
Like a seed which sends
Forth its blade, then
Makes it strong; it then
Becomes thick, and it stands
On its own stem, (filling)
The sowers with wonder
And delight. As a result,⁴⁹¹⁸
It fills the Unbelievers
With rage at them.
Allah has promised those
Among them who believe
And do righteous deeds
Forgiveness,
And a great Reward.

تَرَاهُمْ رُكَّعًا سُجَّدًا
يَبْتَغُونَ فَضْلًا مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَرِضْوَانًا
سِيمَاهُمْ فِي وُجُوهِهِمْ مِّنْ أَثَرِ السُّجُودِ
ذَٰلِكَ مَثَلُهُمْ فِي التَّوْرَةِ ۖ
وَمَثَلُهُمْ فِي الْإِنْجِيلِ ۖ
كَزَّرَعٍ
أَخْرَجَ شَطْئَهُ فَآزَرَهُ
فَأَسْتَغْلَظَ فَاسْتَوَىٰ
عَلَىٰ سَوْقِهِ
يُغِيبُ الزُّرَّاعَ
لِيَغْنِظَ بِهِمُ الْكُفَّارَ
وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
مِنْهُمْ مَّغْفِرَةً وَأَجْرًا عَظِيمًا ۖ

4914. Their humility is before Allah and His Prophet and all who have authority from Allah, but they yield no power or pomp, nor do they worship worldly show or glitter. Nor is their humility before Allah a mere show for men.

4915. The traces of their earnestness and humility are engraved on their faces, i.e., penetrate their inmost being, the face being the outward sign of the inner man. If we take it in its literal sense, the traces might mean the marks left by repeated prostration on their foreheads. Moreover, a good man's face alone shows in him the grace and light of Allah; he is gentle, kind and forbearing, ever helpful, relying on Allah and possessing 'a blessed Peace and Calmness' (i.e., sakīnah: cf. 48:26; 48:18, n. 4894) that can come from no other source. (R).

4916. In the Book of Moses, which is now found in a corrupt form in the Pentateuch, the posture of humility in prayer is indicated by prostration: e.g., Moses and Aaron "fell upon their faces", Num. xvi. 22.

4917. The similitude in the Gospel is about how the good seed is sown and grows gradually, even beyond the expectation of the sower: "the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth now how; for the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear"; Mark, iv. 27-28. Thus Islam was preached by the Holy Prophet; the seed seemed to human eyes lost in the ground; but it put forth its shoot, and grew, and became strong, until it was able to stand on its own legs, and its worst enemies recognised its existence and its right to live. Note how much more complete the parable is in the Qur'ān. The mentality of the sowers of the seed is expressed in beautiful terms: its growth and strength filled them "with wonder and delight."

4918. I construe the particle "li" as expressing not the object, but the result. The result of the wonderful growth of Islam in numbers and strength was that its enemies were confounded, and raged furiously within their own minds, a contrast to the satisfaction, wonder, and delight of the Prophet and his Companions. The pronoun in "rage at them" of course refers to the Prophet and his Companions, and goes back to the earlier words, "on their faces" etc.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 49—AL ḤUJURĀT

This is the third of the group of three Madīnah Sūrahs, which began with S. 47. See the Introduction to that Sūrah.

Its subject matter is the manners to be observed by the members of the rapidly-growing Muslim community, among themselves and towards its Leader. The keyword "Ḥujurāt" (Chambers) occurs in verse 4.

Its date is referred to the Year of Deputations, A.H. 9, when a large number of deputations of all kinds visited Madīnah to offer their allegiance to Islam.

Summary—A community must show its respect to its Leader in all forms of behaviour; quarrels are unseemly and should be composed; manners spring from morals; and mutual respect and confidence are a duty and a privilege in Islam (49:1-18, and C. 223).

C. 223.—Respectful behaviour to the Leader, in manner,
 (49:1-18) Voice, and demeanour, are the bonds and cement
 Of an organised community. The whispers
 Of rumours should be tested, and selfish impatience
 Should be curbed to discipline. All quarrels
 Should be composed, if necessary by the force
 Of the community, but with perfect
 Fairness and justice. Ridicule, taunts,
 And biting words, should be avoided,
 In presence or in absence. Suspicion
 And spying are unworthy of men who believe.
 All men are descended from one pair:
 Their honour depends, not on race, but
 On righteousness. Faith is not a matter
 Of words, but of accepting Allah's Will
 And striving in His Cause. The coming
 Into Islam confers no favour on others,
 But is itself a favour and a privilege,
 A guidance for those who are true and sincere.

Sūrah 49.

Al Hujurāt (The Chambers)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ﴿١﴾ ye who believe!
Put not yourselves forward⁴⁹¹⁹
Before Allah and His Messenger;
But fear Allah: for Allah
Is He Who hears
And knows all things.

2. ﴿٢﴾ ye who believe!
Raise not your voices⁴⁹²⁰
Above the voice of the Prophet,
Nor speak aloud to him
In talk, as ye may
Speak aloud to one another,
Lest your deeds become⁴⁹²¹
Vain and ye perceive not.

3. Those that lower their voice
In the presence of
Allah's Messenger—their hearts
Has Allah tested for piety:⁴⁹²²
For them is Forgiveness
And a great Reward.

4. ﴿٤﴾ Those who shout out⁴⁹²³
To thee from without

الْجُزْءُ السَّادِسُ وَالْعِشْرُونَ سُوْرَةُ الْحُجُرَاتِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا لَا تَقْدِمُوْا
بَيْنَ يَدَيِّ اللّٰهِ وَرَسُوْلِهِ وَاَتَقُوا اللّٰهَ
اِنَّ اللّٰهَ سَمِيْعٌ عَلِيْمٌ ۝

٢- يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا
لَا تَرْفَعُوْا اَصْوَاتَكُمْ فَوْقَ صَوْتِ النَّبِيِّ
وَلَا تَجْهَرُوْا لَهُ بِالْقَوْلِ كَجَهْرِ بَعْضِكُمْ لِبَعْضٍ
اَنْ يَّخْبَطَ اَعْمَالُكُمْ وَاَنْتُمْ لَا تَشْعُرُوْنَ ۝

٣- اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ يَغْضُوْنَ اَصْوَاتَهُمْ عِنْدَ
رَسُوْلِ اللّٰهِ اُولٰٓئِكَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنَتْ حَنَ اللّٰهُ
قُلُوْبُهُمْ لِلتَّقْوٰى لَهُمْ مَّغْفِرَةٌ وَّاَجْرٌ عَظِيْمٌ ۝

٤- اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ يُنَادُوْنَكَ

4919. Several shades of meaning are implied: (1) do not make yourselves conspicuous in word or deed when in the presence of Allah (e.g. in a Mosque, or at Prayers or religious assemblies); (2) do not anticipate in word or deed what your Leader (Allah's Messenger) may say or do; (3) do not be impatient, trying to hasten things before the time is ripe, of which the best Judge is Allah, Who speaks through His Messenger. Be reverent in all things, as in the presence of Allah: for He hears and sees all things. (4) Look to the Qur'ān and the Sunnah of the Prophet (peace be on him) for guidance and let nothing else take precedence over them. (R).

4920. It is bad manners to talk loudly before your Leader. Some ill-mannered people so raise their voices as to drown the voice of their Leader, in conversation or in Council.

4921. Such rudeness may even destroy the value of such services as they may otherwise have been able to render, and all this without their even realising the harm they were doing to the Cause.

4923. To shout aloud to your Leader from outside his Chambers shows disrespect both for his person, his time, and his engagements. Only ignorant fools would be guilty of such unseemly behaviour. It is more seemly of them to wait and bide their time until he is free to come out and attend to them. But, in the Court of a spiritual King, much is forgiven that is due to lack of knowledge and understanding. In the earthly Court, ignorance of the Law excuseth no man. If a man behaved in that way to the General of an army or the Governor of a Province, not to speak of an earthly King, he would be laid hands on by the Guard, and could never gain the access he desires.

The Inner Apartments^{4923-A} —
Most of them lack understanding.

5. If only they had patience
Until thou couldst
Come out to them,
It would be best
For them: but Allah is
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

6. Q ye who believe!
If a wicked person comes⁴⁹²⁴
To you with any news,
Ascertain the truth, lest
Ye harm people unwittingly,
And afterwards become
Full of repentance for
What ye have done.

7. And know that among you⁴⁹²⁵
Is Allah's Messenger: were he,
In many matters, to follow
Your (wishes), ye would
Certainly fall into misfortune:
But Allah has endeared⁴⁹²⁶
The Faith to you, and
Has made it beautiful
In your hearts, and He
Has made hateful to you
Unbelief, wickedness, and Rebellion: such indeed are
Those who walk in righteousness —

8. A grace and favour
From Allah; and Allah
Is full of Knowledge
And Wisdom,

4923-A. Al Hujurāt: "The Inner Apartments" or "The Chambers."

4924. All tittle-tattle or reports — especially if emanating from persons you do not know — are to be tested, and the truth ascertained. If they were believed and passed on, much harm may be done, of which you may have cause afterwards to repent heartily. Scandal or slander of all kinds is here condemned. That about women is specially denounced: 24:11-20; 23-26.

4925. The messenger of Allah, if he consults his friends and associates, should not be expected to follow their advice in all matters. The judgement and responsibility are his: he sees farther than the rest, and he is not swayed by personal feeling as others may be. (R).

4926. Fortunate indeed was the generation among whom the Prophet of Allah walked in his daily life. His example was inspiring. Their inner Faith was dear to them; it was a thing to be proud of in their innermost hearts; and they loved discipline, obedience, and righteousness. No wonder all their other disadvantages were neutralised, and they went from strength to strength. Nothing but the Grace of Allah could have brought about such a result.

9. If two parties among⁴⁹²⁷
The Believers fall into
A quarrel, make ye peace
Between them: but if
One of them transgresses
Beyond bounds against the other,
Then fight ye (all) against
The one that transgresses
Until it complies with
The command of Allah;
But if it complies, then
Make peace between them
With justice, and be fair:
For Allah loves those
Who are fair (and just).

10. The Believers are but
A single Brotherhood:⁴⁹²⁸
So make peace and
Reconciliation between your
Two (contending) brothers;
And fear Allah, that ye
May receive Mercy.

11. O ye who believe!

Laugh at others:

4927. Individual quarrels are easier to compose than group quarrels, or, in the modern world, national quarrels. But the collective community of Islam should be supreme over groups or nations. It would be expected to act justly and try to compose the quarrel, for peace is better than fighting. But if one party is determined to be the aggressor, the whole force of the community is brought to bear on it. The essential condition of course is that there should be perfect fairness and justice and respect for the highest principles; for Islam takes account of every just and legitimate interest without separating spiritual from temporal matters. The League of Nations failed because these essentials were absent and today the United Nations fails for the same reason. (R).

4928. The enforcement of the Muslim Brotherhood is the greatest social ideal of Islam. On it was based the Prophet's Sermon at his last pilgrimage, and Islam cannot be completely realised until this ideal is achieved.

4929. Mutual ridicule ceases to be fun when there is arrogance or selfishness or malice behind it. We may laugh with people, to share in the happiness of life: we must never laugh at people in contempt or ridicule. In many things they may be better than ourselves!

And made you into

4930. Defamation may consist in speaking ill of others by the spoken or written word, or in acting in such a way as to suggest a charge against some person whom we are not in a position to judge. A cutting, biting remark or taunt of sarcasm is included in the word lamaza. An offensive nickname may amount to defamation, but in any case there is no point in using offensive nicknames, or names that suggest some real or fancied defect. They ill accord with the serious purpose which Muslims should have in life. For example, even if a man is lame, it is wrong to address him as "O lame one!" It causes him pain, and it is bad manners. So in the case of the rude remark, "the black man".

4931. Most kinds of suspicion are baseless and to be avoided, and some are crimes in themselves: for they do cruel injustice to innocent men and women. Spying, or enquiring too curiously into other people's affairs, means either idle curiosity, and is therefore futile, or suspicion carried a stage further, which almost amounts to sin. Back-biting also is a brood of the same genus. It may be either futile but all the same mischievous, or it may be poisoned with malice, in which case it is a sin added to sin.

4932. No one would like even to think of such an abomination as eating the flesh of his brother. But when the brother is dead, and the flesh is carrion, abomination is added to abomination. In the same way we are asked to refrain from hurting people's feelings when they are present; how much worse is it when we say things, true or false, when they are absent!

4933. This is addressed to all mankind and not only to the Muslim brotherhood, though it is understood that in a perfected world the two would be synonymous. As it is, mankind is descended from one pair of parents. Their tribes, races, and nations are convenient labels by which we may know certain differing characteristics. Before Allah they are all one, and he gets most honour who is most righteous.

Nations and tribes, that
Ye may know each other
(Not that ye may despise
(Each other). Verily
The most honoured of you
In the sight of Allah
Is (he who is) the most
Righteous of you.
And Allah has full knowledge
And is well-acquainted
(With all things).

١٦- قُلْ أَتُعَلِّمُونَ اللَّهَ بِدِينِكُمْ
وَاللَّهُ يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ

4934. The desert Arabs were somewhat shaky in their faith. Their hearts and minds were petty, and they thought of petty things, while Islam requires the complete submission of one's being to Allah. See next verse. Some of the failings of the desert Arabs are described in 48:11-15. But the reference here is said to be to the Banū Asad, who came to profess Islam in order to get charity during a famine.

4935. 'This is what ye ought to prove if your faith has any meaning, but ye only say it with your tongues.'

4936. 'You say (or perhaps even think) that you are Muslims, but where are the fruits of your Faith? Allah knows the innermost motives and secrets of your heart, and you cannot deceive Him by attaching a certain label to yourselves.' Alas! that this answer to the desert Arabs is true of so many others in our own times!

And on earth: He has
Full knowledge of all things.

17. They impress on thee⁴⁹³⁷

Have embraced Islam.
Say, "Count not your Islam
As a favour upon me:

Be true and sincere.

18. "Verily Allah Knows⁴⁹³⁸

Sees well all
That ye do."

١٧- يَمْشُونَ عَلَيْكَ أَنْ أَسْلَمُوا
قُلْ لَا تَمُنُوا عَلَيَّ إِسْلَامَكُمْ
بَلِ اللَّهُ يَمُنُّ عَلَيْكُمْ
أَنْ هَدَاكُمْ لِلْإِيمَانِ
إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ۝

١٨- إِنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ غَيْبَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ وَاللَّهُ بَصِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ۝

4937. Islam in itself is a precious privilege. By accepting it we confer no favour on its preacher or on any community. If the acceptance is from the heart, it is a great favour done to those who accept, that the Light of Allah has entered their hearts and they have received guidance.

4938. This does not mean that we should seek petty motives in newcomers into the House of Islam. That would indeed be harbouring suspicions or allowing curiosity to spy out motives, which would be a crime under 49:12. We should be true, sincere, and devoted ourselves, and leave the case of others to Allah, from Whose eyes nothing is hidden.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 50—QĀF

We now come to a group of seven Makkan Sūrahs (50-56), dealing with Allah's revelation through nature, through history, and through the mouths of the Prophets, and pointing to the Hereafter. We saw that the last group of three (47—49) dealt with the external and internal relations of the Ummah when formed. In the present group our attention is more particularly directed to aspects eschatological—the Future before us when this life is done.

This particular Sūrah belongs to the early Makkan period. After an appeal to nature and to the fate of wicked peoples in history, it removes as it were the veil (verse 22) from the Future after death.

Summary—Sceptics can look up to the heavens above and to Nature around them, as well as to the fate of sin in the history of the past: will they doubt Allah's Revelation when the veil is lifted? (59:1-29, and C. 224).

A vision of the Day of Recompense and the Day of Reality (50:30-45, and C. 225).

C. 224.—The Prophet's credentials are the Revelation
 (50:1-29.) He brings. Let them not wonder at the Message
 Or at the News of the Hereafter. They have but
 To look at the starry heavens and at Nature
 Around them to see Allah's goodness and His power
 To bring life out of the dead, and to punish
 All wrong. Every deed, word, and thought are in
 The eternal Record. Death will open
 Your eyes and make you see Realities.
 Then will every action bear
 Its due fruit, and no soul can shift
 Its responsibility on to another.

Sūrah 50.

Qāf ⁴⁹³⁹

الجزء السادس والعشرون سُورَةُ قَافٍ

In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. Qāf:⁴⁹³⁹

By the Glorious⁴⁹⁴⁰ Qur'ān
(Thou art Allah's Messenger).

١- قَافٍ تَا

وَالْقُرْآنِ الْمَجِيدِ ٥

2. But they wonder that⁴⁹⁴¹

There has come to them
A Warner from among Themselves.

٢- بَلْ عَجِبُوا أَنْ جَاءَهُمْ

مُنْذِرٌ مِنْهُمْ

So the Unbelievers say:
"This is a wonderful thing!

فَقَالَ الْكَافِرُونَ هَذَا شَيْءٌ عَجِيبٌ ٥

3. "What! When we die⁴⁹⁴²

And become dust, (shall we Live again?) That is
A (sort of) Return
Far (from our understanding)."

٣- إِذَا مِتْنَا

وَكُنَّا تُرَابًا ٥

ذَلِكَ رَجْعٌ بَعِيدٌ ٥

4. We already know

How much of them⁴⁹⁴³
The earth takes away:
With Us is a Record
Guarding (the full account).

٤- قَدْ عَلِمْنَا مَا تَنْقُصُ الْأَرْضُ مِنْهُمْ

وَعِنْدَنَا كِتَابٌ حَفِيظٌ ٥

5. But they deny the truth
When it comes to them:

ه- بَلْ كَذَّبُوا بِالْحَقِّ لَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ

4939. This is an Abbreviated Letter. For Abbreviated Letters generally, see Appendix I. This particular Abbreviated Letter Qāf occurs only here as a single letter, and in combination at the beginning of S. 42, where I was unable to explain the full combination. Here the Qāf is taken by several Commentators to represent Quḍīyah al Amr, "the matter has been decreed," with reference to the eschatological trend of the Sūrah. Allah knows best.

4940. Maḥīd (translated "Glorious") is one of the beautiful appellations of the Qur'ān. Its glory is that of the rising sun: the more it rises on your mental and spiritual horizon, the more you are lost in admiration of its glory. Its meanings are manifest and inexhaustible. The greater your experience, the more light is your spiritual eye able to bear. And in that glory is a beauty that none can tell who has not experienced it in his soul. It is in itself the proof of the mission of the Holy Prophet.

4941. In a sense their wonder is natural: do we wonder at the glorious sun? In another sense it is unnatural: what should we say of a man who fails to see in broad daylight?

4943. The earth only corrupts and takes away the body when they are dead; it has no power over the soul. The full account of the soul's doings is in Allah's Record.

4944. If they deny what has been made clear to them, their minds must necessarily get into confusion. All nature declares the glory and goodness of Allah. Revelation explains the inequalities of this life and how they will be redressed in the Hereafter. If they do not accept this, they are not in a logical position. They cannot reconcile the known with the unknown.

4945. The greatest philosophers have found a difficulty in understanding the sceptical position when they contemplate the wonder and mystery of the skies with all the countless beautiful stars and planets and lights in them, and laws of order, motion, and symmetry, that respond to the highest mathematical abstractions without a flaw. Can blind Chance get rise to such conditions?

4946. Cf. 13:3; and 15:19 and n. 1955. The earth is round, and yet it appears stretched out as a vast expanse, like a carpet kept steady with the weight of the mountains.

4947. Cf. 22:5, and n. 2777. Sex in plants may be hinted at : see n. 1804 to 13:3.

4948. For all these things go into his very heart and soul. He loves to contemplate them, to remember them for himself as evidence of Allah's goodness and glory, and to mention and proclaim them, in the form of Psalms, Hymns, or Zikrs. (R)

4949. A beautiful nature passage. How graphic and unforgettable to anyone who has seen a spring and summer in an Arabian oasis!

11. As sustenance for

SECTION 2.

16. It was We Who Created man, and We know
What dark suggestions his soul⁴⁹⁵²
Makes to him: for We
Are nearer to him
Than (his) jugular vein.

١٦- وَ لَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ
وَنَعْلَمُ مَا تُوَسْوِسُ بِهِ نَفْسُهُ وَ نَحْنُ
أَقْرَبُ إِلَيْهِ مِنْ حَبْلِ الْوَرِيدِ ○

4950. Just the names of the peoples of Arabian tradition who were punished for their sins are mentioned; their stories will be found elsewhere. For the People of Noah, see 11:25-48 and other passages. For the Companions of the Rass, see 25:38 and n. 3094; for the 'Ād and the Thamūd, see 26:123-158, and other passages; for Pharaoh and his People, see 2:49-50 and other passages; for the Brethren of Lūṭ, see 7:80-84, and other passages; for the Companions of the Wood, see 15:78-79, and n. 2000; and for the People of Tubba', see 44:37 and n. 4715.

4951. Cf. 46:33, and n. 4912.

4952. Allah created man, and gave him his limited free will. Allah knows inmost desires and motives of man even better than man does himself. He is nearer to a man than the man's own jugular vein. The jugular vein is the big trunk vein, one on each side of the neck, which brings the blood back from the head to the heart. The two jugular veins correspond to the two carotid arteries which carry the blood from heart to the head. As the blood-stream is the vehicle of life and consciousness, the phrase "nearer than the jugular vein" implies that Allah knows more truly the innermost state of our feeling and consciousness than does our own ego.

17. Behold, two (guardian angels)⁴⁹⁵³
Appointed to learn (his doings)
Learn (and note them),
One sitting on the right
And one on the left.

١٧- اِذْ يَتَلَفَّى الْمَتَلَفِّينَ
عَنِ الْيَمِينِ وَعَنِ الشِّمَالِ قَعِيدٌ ۝

18. Not a word does he⁴⁹⁵⁴
Utter but there is
A sentinel by him,
Ready (to note it).

١٨- مَا يُلْفِظُ مِنْ قَوْلٍ
إِلَّا لَدَيْهِ رَقِيبٌ عَتِيدٌ ۝

19. And the stupor of death⁴⁹⁵⁵
Will bring truth (before
His eyes): "This was
The thing which thou
Wast trying to escape!"

١٩- وَجَاءَتْ سَكْرَةُ الْمَوْتِ بِالْحَقِّ ۖ
ذَلِكَ مَا كُنْتَ مِنْهُ تَحِيدُ ۝

20. And the Trumpet⁴⁹⁵⁶
Shall be blown:
That will be the Day
Whereof Warning (had been given).

٢٠- وَنُفِخَ فِي الصُّورِ
ذَلِكَ يَوْمُ الْوَعْدِ ۝

21. And there will come forth
Every soul: with each
Will be an (angel) to drive,⁴⁹⁵⁷
And an (angel) to Bear witness.

٢١- وَجَاءَتْ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ
مَعَهَا سَائِقٌ وَشَهِيدٌ ۝

4954. Then each "word" spoken is taken down by a "sentinel" (raqīb). This has been construed to mean that the sentinel only records words, not thoughts which are not uttered. Thoughts may be forgiven if not uttered, and still more if they do not issue in action. At the stage at which we clothe a thought in words, we have already done an action. The Recorders mentioned in the last verse make a complete Record, in order to supply motives and springs of action, which will affect the degrees or status in the spiritual Hereafter. The three together, individuals or kinds, make the honourable Recorders, Kirāman Kātibīn, (plural, not dual number) mentioned in 72:11.

4955. What is stupor or unconsciousness to this probationary life will be the opening of the eyes to the spiritual world: for Death is the Gateway between the two. Once through that Gateway man will realise how the things which he neglected or looked upon as remote are the intimate Realities, and the things which seemed to loom large in his eyes in this world were shadows that have fled. The things we wanted to avoid are the things that have really come to pass. Both Good and Evil will realise the Truth now in its intensity.

4956. The next stage will be the Judgement, heralded with the blowing of the Trumpet. Every soul will then come forth.

4957. Several interpretations are possible, leading to the same truth, that the Judgement will be set up; the Record will be produced; the good and bad deeds will speak for and against; and complete justice will be done, each act leading to its own due fruit. (1) The (angel) to drive and the (angel) to bear witness may be the Recording Angels of the left and the right (verse 17); or (2) it may not be angels, but the evil deeds will drive like task-masters, and the good deeds will bear witness for the soul on trial; or (3) his misused limbs and faculties will drive him to his doom, while his well-used limbs and faculties will witness for him.

22. (It will be said:)
 "Thou wast heedless
 Of this; now have We
 Removed thy veil,
 And sharp is thy sight⁴⁹⁵⁸
 This Day!"
23. And his Companion⁴⁹⁵⁹ will say:
 "Here is (his record) ready
 With me!"
24. (The sentence will be:)
 "Throw, throw⁴⁹⁶⁰ into Hell
 Every contumacious Rejecter,
 (Of Allah)!—
25. "Who forbade what was good,
 Transgressed all bounds,
 Cast doubts and suspicions;
26. "Who set up another god
 Beside Allah: throw him
 Into a severe Penalty."
27. His Companion⁴⁹⁶¹ will say:
 "Our⁴⁹⁶² Lord! I did not
 Make him transgress,⁴⁹⁶³
 But he was (himself)
 Far astray."

٢٢- لَقَدْ كُنْتَ فِي غَفْلَةٍ مِّنْ هَذَا
 فَكَشَفْنَا عَنْكَ غِطَاءَكَ
 فَبَصُرَكَ الْيَوْمَ حَدِيدٌ ۝

٢٣- وَقَالَ قَرِينُهُ
 هَذَا مَا لَدَيَّ عَتِيدٌ ۝

٢٤- أَلْقِيَا فِي جَهَنَّمَ
 كُلَّ كَفَّارٍ عَنِيدٍ ۝

٢٥- مَنَاعٍ لِلْخَيْرِ
 مُعْتَدٍ مُّرِيْبٍ ۝

٢٦- الَّذِي جَعَلَ مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ
 فَأَلْقِيهِ فِي الْعَذَابِ الشَّدِيدِ ۝

٢٧- قَالَ قَرِينُهُ
 رَبَّنَا مَا أَطْغَيْتُهُ
 وَلَكِنْ كَانَ فِي ضَلَالٍ بَعِيدٍ ۝

4958. The clearness of vision will now be even greater: see n. 4955 above.

4959. Qarīn: Companion. If we take No. 1 of the constructions suggested in n. 4957, the Companion will be one of the Recording Angels mentioned above, in verse 21, perhaps the one that drives; or perhaps the third one mentioned in verse 18, for he has the Record ready with him. If we take any of the other constructions mentioned in n. 4957, it will be the evil deeds or the misused faculties. In any case it will be the factors on whose testimony his conviction will be based.

4960. The original for "throw", here and in verse 26 below, is in the dual number, which some Commentators explain by saying that the dual form is used for emphasis, as if the verb ("throw, throw") were twice repeated. Examples of this are found in Arabic. But is it possible that the dual refers to the two angels mentioned in verses 17 and 21? In that case the Companions in verse 27 will be the third one mentioned in verses 18 and 23. In any case the third one will be the one on whose Record the sentence will be passed.

4961. See last note. But some people understand by "Companion" here an evil associate in the world, an evil one who misled.

4962. Our Lord. One man speaks: "I did not", etc. Yet he uses the plural pronoun in saying, "Our Lord". This is beautifully appropriate, as he is speaking so as to include the person to be judged: as if he were to say, "Thou art my Lord, or the Lord of us angels or of all Creation, but Thou art his Lord also, for Thou didst cherish him and warn him, and he owed duties to Thee."

4963. Neither the Recording Angels nor the misused limbs and faculties, nor anything else whatever was responsible for the Evil: it was the personal responsibility of the Doer himself, with his free will.

28. He will say: 'Dispute not⁴⁹⁶⁴
With each other
In My Presence:
I had already in advance
Sent you⁴⁹⁶⁵ Warning.

٢٨- قَالَ لَا تَخْتَصِمُوا لَدَيَّ
وَقَدْ قَدْ مُتُ إِلَيْكُمْ بِالْوَعِيدِ ۝

29. "The Word changes not
Before Me, and I do not
The least injustice
To My Servants."⁴⁹⁶⁶

٢٩- مَا يَبْدَلُ الْقَوْلُ لَدَيَّ
وَمَا أَنَا بِظَلَّامٍ لِلْعَبِيدِ ۝

C. 225. — As Goodness has possibilities unlimited,
(50:30-45.) So has Evil in the opposite direction.
To those who bring a heart unsullied
And to Allah devoted, will be Peace,
Security, and Eternal Life—the Rays
From Allah's own Presence. Adore ye Allah
And pay no heed to whispers of Doubt
And Evil: these must vanish at Judgement,
When Truth and Justice reign supreme.

SECTION 3.

30. One Day We will Ask Hell, "Art thou
Filled to the full?"⁴⁹⁶⁷
It will say, "Are there
Any more (to come)?"

٣٠- يَوْمَ نَقُولُ لِجَهَنَّمَ هَلِ
أَمْتَلَأَتْ
وَتَقُولُ هَلْ مِنْ مَزِيدٍ ۝

31. And the Garden⁴⁹⁶⁸
Will be brought nigh

٣١- وَأُزْلِفَتِ الْجَنَّةُ

4964. It is suggested that sinners whose Record is black, driven into a corner, accuse others of misleading them: the others may be Recorders, or their faculties or opportunities or surroundings or their associates in the world, or anything but themselves. Such recriminations are not allowed in the Court of Judgement.

4965. Besides, personal responsibility had already been clearly preached to them in Allah's Message, and they had been warned of the consequences. "You" is in the plural number: 'all of you who are before the Judgement Seat had clear warning of the consequences of your conduct.'

4966. 'Abd has two plurals: (1) 'Abīd, as here, means all Servants of Allah, i.e., all his creatures; (2) 'Ibād has the further connotation of Servants of Allah, devoted to his service; I have translated it in many cases by the word "devotees". The Sentence before the Judgement Seat is pronounced with perfect justice: it does not change, and requires no change; the inevitable consequences of sin must follow; the time for Mercy is past.

4967. As the capacity of Good is unlimited, so is the capacity of Evil—unlimited. Hell is personified and asked, "Art thou sated to the full?" It replies, "If there are more to come, let them come." It is not satisfied.

4968. In this life, the ideals of the spirit, the accomplishments of the things in our hearts and our hopes, seem to be ever so far, seem even to recede as we think we come nearer. Not so in the Hereafter. The fruits of righteousness will no longer be in the distance. They will be realised. They will seem themselves to approach the Righteous.

To the Righteous—no more
A thing distant.

لِلْمُتَّقِينَ غَيْرَ بَعِيدٍ ۝

32. (A voice will say:)
"This is what was
Promised for you—
For everyone who turned⁴⁹⁶⁹
(To Allah) in sincere repentance,
Who kept (His Law),

۝۳۲ هَذَا مَا تُوْعَدُونَ
لِكُلِّ آوَابٍ
حَفِیْظٍ ۝

33. "Who feared (Allah)
Most Gracious unseen,⁴⁹⁷⁰
And brought a heart
Turned in devotion (to Him):

۝۳۳ مَنْ خَشِيَ الرَّحْمَنَ الْغَیْبِ
وَجَاءَ بِقَلْبٍ مُنِیبٍ ۝

34. "Enter ye therein
In Peace and Security;⁴⁹⁷¹
This is a Day
Of Eternal Life!"

۝۳۴ ادْخُلُوهَا بِسَلَامٍ
ذَٰلِكَ یَوْمُ الْاِخْلَادِ ۝

35. There will be for them
Therein all that they wish—
And more besides
In Our Presence.⁴⁹⁷²

۝۳۵ لَهُمْ فَاِیْشَاءُ وَاَوْفَوْا
وَلَدَيْنَا مَزِیْدٌ ۝

36. But how many
Generations before them
Did We destroy (for their Sins)—stronger in power⁴⁹⁷³
Than they? Then did they Wander through the land:
Was there any place
Of escape (for them)?

۝۳۶ وَكَمْ اَهْلَكْنَا قَبْلَهُمْ مِنْ قَرْنٍ
هُمُ اشَدُّ مِنْهُمْ بَطْشًا
فَنَقَّبُوا فِي الْبِلَادِ
هَلْ مِنْ مَّخِیْصٍ ۝

4969. The description of the Righteous is given in four masterly clauses: (1) those who turned away from Evil in sincere repentance; (2) those whose new life was good and righteous; (3) those who in their innermost hearts and in their most secret doings were actuated by God-fearing love, the fear that is akin to love in remembering Allah under His title of "Most Gracious"; and (4) who gave up their whole heart and being to Him.

4970. Cf. 36:11 and n. 3952; and 35:18, and n. 3902.

4971. The true meaning of Islam: peace, security, salutation, and accord with Allah's Plan in all Eternity.

4972. To get all that our purified wishes and desires comprehend may seem to sum up final Bliss; but there is something still wanting, which is supplied by the Presence of Allah, the Light of His Countenance.

4973. While virtue and righteousness will accomplish their final goal, what will be the End of Sin? Let the past tell its story. Many powerful and arrogant generations were swept away, to stray in the paths of misery, without any way of escape from the consequences of their sin. This was already seen in the life of this world. In the world to come, it will be worse, as already stated in verses 24-26 above.

37. Verily in this⁴⁹⁷⁴
Is a Message
For any that has
A heart and understanding
Or who gives ear and
Earnestly witnesses (the truth).
38. He created the heavens⁴⁹⁷⁵
And the earth and all
Between them in Six Days,⁴⁹⁷⁶
Nor did any sense
Of weariness touch Us.⁴⁹⁷⁷
39. Bear, then, with patience,
All that they say,
And celebrate the praises
Of thy Lord, before⁴⁹⁷⁸
The rising of the sun
And before (its) setting,
40. And during part
Of the night, (also,)
Celebrate His praises
And (so likewise)
After the postures⁴⁹⁷⁹
Of adoration.

۞-۳۷ إِنَّ فِيْ ذٰلِكَ لَذِكْرٰی

۳۸- وَلَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضَ
وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا فِيْ سِتَّةِ اَيَّٰمٍ
وَمَا مَسَّنَا مِنْ لَّغْوٍ ۝

۳۹- فَاَصْبِرْ عَلٰی مَا يَقُوْلُوْنَ
وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ
قَبْلَ طُلُوْعِ الشَّمْسِ وَقَبْلَ الْغُرُوْبِ ۝

۴۰- وَ مِنْ اِلَيْلٍ
فَسَبِّحْهُ وَ
اَدْبَارَ السُّجُوْدِ ۝

4974. As Christ said (Matt. xi 15), "he that hath ears to hear, let him hear". These are matters of high moment. Many spiritual lessons can be learnt from these things by anyone who has the heart and understanding to apply to Allah's teaching and can give genuine thought to what he sees, as a witness does who has to swear to the facts on his oath.

4975. Allah's creation of the heavens and the earth in long stages or periods of time, as we count time, shows how things evolve in their own good time. We must therefore be patient if Good does not seem to come to its own according to our ideas. Our will should merge itself in Allah's Will, and we should praise Him, realising that He is All-Good and that all adjustments will be in the Hereafter.

4976. Cf. 7:54, n. 1031; and 41:12, n. 4477.

4978. Allah should be remembered at all times. But the best time for individual adoration is early in the morning before sunrise, late in the day before sunset, and a portion of the night, when there is stillness in the air, and man's spirit loves to commune with things spiritual. Those who would connect this with the five canonical prayers, instituted at a later stage in Madīnah, would take the Fajr for the prayer before sunrise, the Zuhr and the ʿAṣr for the afternoon prayers before sunset and the Maghrib and the 'Ishā' for the night prayers.

4979. The general meaning of after the postures of adoration would be the contemplation and remembrance of Allah after prayers. Those who would connect this passage with the five canonical prayers understand these further prayers "following the sujūd or postures of adoration" to mean the extra or supernumerary prayers known as nafl, also the use of the Rosary or the fingers in remembering the Names of Allah.

41. And listen for the Day⁴⁹⁸⁰
When the Caller will call
Out from a place
Quite near—⁴⁹⁸¹

٣٠- وَاسْتَمِعْ يَوْمَ يُنَادِ الْمُنَادُ

42. The Day when they will Hear a (mighty) Blast⁴⁹⁸²
In (very) truth: that
Will be the Day
Of Resurrection.

٣١- يَوْمَ يَسْمَعُونَ الصَّيْحَةَ بِالْحَقِّ
ذَٰلِكَ يَوْمُ الْخُرُوجِ ۝

43. Verily it is We Who Give Life and Death;
And to Us is
The Final Goal—

٣٢- إِنَّا نَحْنُ نُحْيِي وَنُمِيتُ
وَالْإِلَهَاءُ الصَّيْدُ ۝

44. The Day when
The Earth will be⁴⁹⁸³
Rent asunder, from (men)
Hurrying out: that will be
A gathering together—
Quite easy for Us.⁴⁹⁸⁴

٣٣- يَوْمَ تَشَقَّقُ الْأَرْضُ عَنْهُمْ سِرَاعًا
ذَٰلِكَ حَشَرٌ
عَلَيْنَا يَسِيرٌ ۝

45. We know best what they⁴⁹⁸⁵
Say; and thou art not
One to overawe them
By force. So admonish
With the Qur'an such
As fear My Warning!

٣٤- نَحْنُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يَقُولُونَ
وَمَا أَنْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ بِجَبَّارٍ
فَذَكِّرْ بِالْقُرْآنِ مَنْ يَخَافُ وَعِيدِ ۝

4980. The Day of Resurrection, when the Call to the souls to arise and come to the Judgement Seat will be immediately answered, and they will arise and come forth. Cf. 36:49-53, and notes 3997 and 3999.

4981. In the life of this world it seemed all so remote. In the new life at the Resurrection it will all be so near; for there will be neither time nor space as we know them here.

4982. The word Al Sayḥatūn (mighty Blast) is used for the Resurrection (as here) or for the sudden punishment of the guilty on this earth, as in 11:67, where see further references.

4983. Men will hurry out from all corners of the earth to answer the call, and the earth itself will be rent asunder. In 25:25 the imagery used was the heaven being rent asunder, and angels coming out in ranks: see n. 3082 Cf. also 84:1-4.

4984. It may seem to our material imaginations a difficult task to collect together the souls of all sorts of men, who died in all sorts of conditions at different times, but it will be a different kind of world and creation altogether, and to Allah all things are not only possible but easy.

4985. People may throw all sorts of doubts about the Judgement and the Hereafter. The Prophet's task is not to force them to accept anything. His task is to deliver the Message of the Qur'ān, and admonish those who are spiritually fit and ready to receive admonition and to prepare themselves for the new and higher life destined for man.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 51—AL DHĀRIYĀT

This is an early Makkan Sūrah, the second of the seven Sūrahs forming a group dealing with Revelation and the Hereafter. See Introduction to S. 50. This Sūrah deals with the varying ways in which Truth prevails irresistibly even against all human probabilities. (R).

Summary--The winds may blow and scatter, lift and rush, or divide in all directions; but the Truth and Promise of Allah are sure and stable, whereof you may see Signs both around and within you (51:1-23, and C. 226).

Past events and what you see before you point to the unfailing consequences of all you do: Allah, of His Grace, sends you a Reminder: the loss is your own if you reject and deny (51:24-60, and C. 227).

C. 226. — Various are the ways of working we see
 (51:1-23.) In Allah's world—strong and gentle, scattering
 And uniting: through it all runs a Purpose
 True and stable, which we all shall see fulfilled
 On the Day of Judgement and Justice, which Must inevitably come to pass: give up
 False doctrines, which agree not among themselves
 Or with facts. For evil must end in evil,
 And good in joy and felicity. The good
 Worship Allah and serve Allah's creatures:
 Those needing help are ever in their thoughts.
 They see Signs of Allah in all things in heaven
 And earth, and in their own hearts and minds.

Sūrah 51.

Al Dhāriyāt (The Winds That Scatter)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. By the (Winds)⁴⁹⁸⁶
That scatter broadcast;⁴⁹⁸⁷
2. And those that⁴⁹⁸⁸
Lift and bear away
Heavy weights;
3. And those that⁴⁹⁸⁹
Flow with ease
And gentleness;
4. And those that⁴⁹⁹⁰
Distribute and apportion
By Command—
5. Verily that which ye⁴⁹⁹¹
Are promised is true;

الجزء السادس والعشرون سُورَةُ الذَّرِّيَّاتِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- وَالذَّرِّيَّاتِ ذُرُّوْا ۝

۲- فَالْحُمِلَتِ وُقُرًّا ۝

۳- فَالْجُرَيْتِ يُسْرًا ۝

۴- فَالْمَقْسَمِ أَمْرًا ۝

۵- إِنَّمَا تُوعَدُونَ لَصَادِقٌ ۝

4986. Four agencies are mentioned in verses 1 to 4 as evidences or types or symbols of the certainty and unity of a Truth described in verses 5-6. What these agencies are is described by certain adjectival participles, the noun understood being usually taken to be "Winds": the word for Wind (Rīḥ) being feminine in Arabic. Some Commentators however understand other nouns as being implied, e.g., angels in all four verses, or different things in each of the four verses. Whatever the agencies are, their different modes of working are evidence of the power and goodness of Allah, the Unity of His Plan, and the certainty of Good and Evil reaching their own destined ends, when Judgement and Justice will have given each one his due. (R).

4987. Winds may blow strong, and scatter particles of dust far and wide; but they do not diminish by one jot the substance of Allah's material creation; on the contrary they help to readjust things. They reshape the configuration of the earth; in the vegetable kingdom they carry seeds about and plant new seeds in old soils; in the region of air they produce mighty changes in temperature and pressure that affect animal and vegetable life; they carry the moisture of equatorial Africa to the parched plains of India; and so on. Yet they are just one little agency showing Allah's working in the material world. So in the spiritual world. Revelation works mighty changes; it may be resisted, but the resistance will be swept away; it ever points to the one Great Final Event, "to which the whole Creation moves".

4988. The things that lift and bear away heavy weights may be the Winds that carry the heavy rain clouds or that sweep off every resistance from their path, or it may be the heavy moisture-laden clouds themselves. So works Revelation: it lifts and sweeps away the burdens of custom, superstition, or man's inertia, and ever leads onwards to the destined End.

4989. These may be Winds that fill the sails of ships with gentle and favourable breezes, that carry men and merchandise to their destinations. Or they may be the ships themselves, whose smooth motion through the waters is described in many places by the verb jarā, "to flow", e.g., cf. 2:164.

4990. These may be Winds (or other agencies) that distribute and apportion moisture or rain or atmospheric pressure to other blessings of Allah—not haphazard but by fixed laws, i.e., according to the Command of their Lord. So with Revelation. Its blessings are distributed all around, and it produces its marvelous effects sometimes in the most unlikely places and ways.

4991. That which ye are promised: the Promise of Allah about Mercy and Forgiveness to the Penitent, and Justice and Penalty to the Rebellious; the promise of the Hereafter; the promise that all does not end here, but that there is a truer and more lasting world to come, for which this is but a preparation.

4992. Dīn = the giving to each person his precise and just due; this is implied in Judgement and Justice. All the inequalities of this life are to be redressed.

4993. The study of the numerous regular orbits of the planets and irregularly regular orbits of comets, and the various motions, visible or invisible, of the fixed stars or revolving stars, form in themselves a network of knowledge or science, of a highly technical nature; the highest astronomy or mathematics can only barely reach its fringe. But these have all a fixed Plan and Purpose under Allah's Dispensation. In them variety leads to Unity. In contrast look at the confused medley of doctrines, views, and dicta put forward by the Sceptics, as described in the next verse.

4994. Qawl = saying, word, theory, doctrine. Mukhtalif = differing, various, inconsistent with itself, discordant. No theory or doctrine based on a denial of a Hereafter can be consistent with spiritual facts as we know them, or with Allah's Goodness, Justice, and Mercy.

4995. Some Commentators draw from this a rigid doctrine of Calvinistic Predestination or Determinism, which I do not think is fairly deducible from the words. “Yu'fak” should I think be translated “will be or would be deluded”, meaning “have the wish or desire to be”, and not “must necessarily be deluded by eternal predestination”. The word occurs in many places in the Qur'ān: e.g., Cf. 5:78, or 9:30.

4996. They are in great spiritual danger: yet they care not.

4997. They used to say scoffingly, “if there is to be punishment for our sins, let it come at once!” When it comes, they will know what a terrible thing it is! Cf. 26:204 n. 3230.

15. As to the Righteous,
They will be in the midst
Of Gardens and Springs,⁴⁹⁹⁸

١٥- إِنَّ الْمُتَّقِينَ
فِي جَنَّاتٍ وَعُيُونٍ ۝

16. Taking joy in the things
Which their Lord gives them,
Because, before then, they
Lived a good life.

١٦- اخْذِينَ مَا آتَاهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ
إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ مُحْسِنِينَ ۝

17. They were in the habit⁴⁹⁹⁹
Of sleeping but little
By night,

١٧- كَانُوا قَلِيلًا مِّنَ اللَّيْلِ مَا
يَهْجَعُونَ ۝

18. And in the hours
Of early dawn,
They (were found) praying
For Forgiveness;⁵⁰⁰⁰

١٨- وَبِالْأَسْحَارِ
هُمْ يَسْتَغْفِرُونَ ۝

19. And in their wealth
And possessions (was remembered)
The right of the (needy),
Him who asked, and him
Who (for some reason) was⁵⁰⁰¹
Prevented (from asking).

١٩- وَفِي أَمْوَالِهِمْ

20. On the earth
Are Signs for those
Of assured Faith,

٢٠- وَفِي الْأَرْضِ آيَاتٌ لِّلْمُوقِنِينَ ۝

21. As also in your own⁵⁰⁰²
Selves: will ye not
Then see?

٢١- وَفِي أَنْفُسِكُمْ
أَفَلَا تُبْصِرُونَ ۝

4998. Gardens and Springs are the two most frequent symbols for the highest satisfaction and bliss.

4999. They were engaged most of the night in worship and in the planning of good deeds. They preferred activity to idleness, the service of Allah and His creatures to the indulgence of Self.

5000. They were up early before dawn, ready for their devotions. The praying for Forgiveness and Mercy does not necessarily imply that they had committed fresh sins. Indeed they began the day with such devotions, showing their great humility before Allah and their anxious care for others, for whom they prayed as much as for themselves. See the last sentence of n. 21 to 1:5.

5001. True charity remembers not only those in need who ask, but also those who are prevented by some reason from asking. The man of true charity seeks out the latter. There may be various reasons which prevent a man from asking for help: (1) he may be ashamed to ask, or his sense of honour may prevent him from asking; (2) he may be so engrossed in some great ideal that he may not think of asking; (3) he may even not know that he is in need, especially when we think of wealth and possessions in a spiritual sense, as including spiritual gifts and talents; (4) he may not know that you possess the things that can supply his needs; and (5) he may be a dumb and helpless creature, whether a human being or a dumb animal, or any creature within your ken or power. Charity in the higher sense includes all help, from one better endowed to one less well endowed. Cf. n. 179 to 2:177; also 2:273-274, and notes 322 and 323.

5002. The Signs and Evidence of Allah are in all nature and within the body and soul of man, if man has but the spiritual eyes to see. Cf. 41:53.

22. And in heaven is⁵⁰⁰³
Your Sustenance, as (also)
That which ye are promised.

۲۲- وَفِي السَّمَاءِ رِزْقُكُمْ
وَمَا تُوْعَدُونَ ۝

23. Then, by the Lord⁵⁰⁰⁴
Of heaven and earth,
This is the very Truth,
As much as the fact
That ye can speak
Intelligently to each other.

۲۳- فَوَرَبِّ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ
إِنَّهُ لَحَقُّ مِثْلٍ
مَا أَنتُمْ تَنْطِقُونَ ۝

C. 227. — Even Abraham the True had need to be told (51:24-60) Before he could realise the purpose of Allah.
Clear Signs were sent for warning, as, of old,
To Pharaoh, the 'Ād, the Thamūd, and the people
Of Noah, and the warning inevitably came
To pass. Our Signs are for your instruction.
Heed them and learn by them. Those who believe
Find profit in their lives: those who reject
Or deny—alas! they learn not from the past.
Woe unto them! The loss is their own!

SECTION 2.

24. Has the story⁵⁰⁰⁵
Reached thee, of the honoured
Guests of Abraham?

۲۴- هَلْ أَتَاكَ حَدِيثُ
ضَيْفِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ الْمُكْرَمِينَ ۝

25. Behold, they entered⁵⁰⁰⁶
His presence, and said:
"Peace!" He said, "Peace!"
(And thought, "These seem)
Unusual people."⁵⁰⁰⁷

۲۵- إِذْ دَخَلُوا عَلَيْهِ فَقَالُوا سَلَامًا
قَالَ سَلَامٌ
قَوْمٌ مُنْكَرُونَ ۝

5003. "Sustenance", here as elsewhere, includes physical sustenance, as well as spiritual sustenance. Similarly heaven or sky has both the physical and the spiritual meaning. The physical sustenance grows from rain from the sky; the spiritual sustenance comes from divine aid, grace, and mercy, and includes the Good News and the Warning which come from Revelation about the Hereafter.

5004. Attention having been called to the Signs or Evidences of Allah's working on the earth, within ourselves, and in the heavens, in verses 20-22, an appeal is made to our own inner conscience, in the name of the Lord of heaven and earth, to acknowledge and act up to the truth of Revelation, and turn to the spiritual Realities. For they are as real as our own conscious and self-intelligent existence, on which is based all our knowledge. As a philosopher (Descartes) has said: "I think; therefore I am."

5005. Cf. 11:69-73 and notes, where further details of the story will be found. Cf. also 15:51-56.

5006. They were angels, who appeared suddenly before him at his tent door in the guise of men, and saluted him with the salutation of peace. He returned the salutation, but felt, from their appearance and their manner, that they were unusual, not ordinary, strangers.

5007. Munkar: unknown, uncommon, unusual, not customary, (hence by derived meaning, not applicable here, not fair or just): opposite in both primary and secondary meanings to ma'rūf, well-known, usual, customary, just. Cf. 15:62.

26. Then he turned quickly⁵⁰⁰⁸
To his household, brought
Out a fatted calf,

٢٦- قَرَأَ إِلَى أَهْلِهِ
فَجَاءَ بِوَجْلٍ سَمِينٍ ۝

27. And placed it before them . . .
He said, "Will ye not Eat?"

٢٧- فَقَرَّبَهُ إِلَيْهِمْ
قَالَ أَلَا تَأْكُلُونَ ۝

28. (When they did not eat).
He conceived a fear of them.
They said, "Fear not,"
And they gave him
Glad tidings of a son
Endowed with knowledge.

٢٨- فَأَوْجَسَ مِنْهُمْ خِيفَةً ۖ
قَالُوا لَا تَخَفْ
وَبَشَّرُوهُ بِغُلَامٍ عَلِيمٍ ۝

29. But his wife came forward⁵⁰⁰⁹
(Laughing) aloud: she smote
Her forehead and said:
"A barren old woman!"

٢٩- فَأَقْبَلَتِ امْرَأَتُهُ فِي صَرَخَةٍ
فَضَكَّتْ وَجْهَهَا وَقَالَتْ عَجُوزٌ عَقِيمٌ ۝

30. They said, "Even so⁵⁰¹⁰
Has thy Lord spoken:
And He is full
Of Wisdom and Knowledge."

٣٠- قَالُوا كَذَلِكَ قَالَ رَبُّكَ
إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْحَكِيمُ الْعَلِيمُ ۝

31. (Abraham) said: "And what,
O ye Messengers,
Is your errand (now)?"

٣١- قَالَ فَمَا خَطْبُكُمْ
إِنَّهَا الْمُرْسَلُونَ ۝

32. They said, "We have
Been sent to a people
(Deep) in sin—

٣٢- قَالُوا إِنَّا أُرْسِلْنَا إِلَى قَوْمٍ
مُجْرِمِينَ ۝

5008. They seemed unusual strangers, but he said nothing and quietly proceeded to perform the rites of hospitality. He brought a roast fatted calf and placed it before them to eat. But the strangers did not eat (11:70). This disconcerted him. According to the laws of hospitality, a stranger under your roof is under your protection, but if he refuses to eat, he refuses your hospitality and keeps himself free from any ties of guest and host. "What were their designs?" thought Abraham, and he felt some distrust. But they were angels and could not eat. They declared themselves, and announced the birth to Abraham of a son endowed with wisdom—in other words that Abraham was to be the head of a long line of Prophets! (15:53).

5009. Abraham's wife Sarah was old and barren. This news seemed to her too good to be true. She came forward, laughed aloud (11:71), struck her forehead with her hands, indicative of her amusement and incredulity as "a barren old woman": 11:72.

5010. The angels said: "What may sound improbable to human beings will yet come to pass if Allah commands. And Allah thy Lord has spoken. So shall it be. For all His promises are full of wisdom and knowledge." So the angels on that occasion. But the application is for all time and to all human affairs. Never despair. However much Truth may be in the shade, it will shine with full splendour. And the Judgement will come, when good will come to its own!

33. "To bring on, on them,
(A shower of) stones
Of clay (brimstone),⁵⁰¹¹
34. "Marked as from thy Lord⁵⁰¹²
For those who trespass
Beyond bounds."
35. Then we evacuated⁵⁰¹³
Those of the Believers
Who were there,
36. But We found not there
Any just (Muslim) persons
Except in one house:⁵⁰¹⁴
37. And We left there
A Sign for such as
Fear the Grievous Penalty.⁵⁰¹⁵
38. And in Moses⁵⁰¹⁶
(Was another Sign):
Behold, We sent him
To Pharaoh, with authority
Manifest.
39. But (Pharaoh) turned back
With his Chiefs, and said,
"A sorcerer, or
One possessed!"

- ٣٣- لَنُرْسِلَ عَلَيْهِمْ
حِجَارَةً مِّن طِينٍ ۝
- ٣٤- مُسَوَّمَةً عِندَ رَبِّكَ
لِلْمُسْرِفِينَ ۝
- ٣٥- فَأَخْرَجْنَا
مَن كَانَ فِيهَا مِنَ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ۝
- ٣٦- فَمَا وَجَدْنَا فِيهَا
غَيْرَ بَيْتٍ مِّنَ السَّالِينَ ۝
- ٣٧- وَتَرَكْنَا فِيهَا آيَةً
لِّلَّذِينَ يَخَافُونَ الْعَذَابَ الْأَلِيمَ ۝
- ٣٨- وَفِي مُوسَى
إِذْ أَرْسَلْنَاهُ إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ بِسُلْطَنٍ مُّبِينٍ ۝
- ٣٩- فَتَوَلَّىٰ بِرُكْنِهِ وَقَالَ
مَجْرُؤٌ كَاذِبٌ ۝

5011. Cf. 11:82, and n. 1052 to 7:84. The angels' errand of mercy to Abraham (to announce the succession of godly men in his line) was coupled with their errand of justice and punishment to the people of Lūt, the people of Sodom and Gomorrah, who were deep in the most abominable and unnatural sins. So Allah's Mercy and Justice go hand in hand in all human affairs. Faith has nothing to fear, and wickedness has only to turn and repent, to obtain Allah's Mercy.

5012. Cf. 11:83, and n. 1580. Every crime has its due punishment as marked out in the decrees of Allah.

5013. The only just or righteous persons found in Sodom and Gomorrah (Cities of the Plain by the Dead Sea) were in the house of Lūt, who was the Prophet sent to call them to repentance. He and his believing family and adherents were told to leave in due time, and the wicked were destroyed in a shower of brimstone.

5014. That was the house of Lūt; and even there, his wife had no faith: she disobeyed the Command and perished: 11:81, n. 1577.

5015. The Grievous Penalty: that is, the Final Judgement. The destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah in this life is taken as the type of the Final Judgement. The vestiges can be seen—as a Sign and a Warning—in the sulphury plain round the Dead Sea: Cf. 15:79.

5016. Cf. 44:127-31. The story of Moses and Pharaoh is here just referred to. The points emphasised here are: (1) that Moses had manifest authority, yet Pharaoh doubted; (2) that Pharaoh's reliance was on his Chiefs and his forces, but they could not help when his doom came; and (3) that in the most extraordinary and incredible ways (judged by ordinary human standards), his arrogance and his reliance on his Chiefs and forces were his undoing.

40. So We took him
And his forces, and
Threw them into the sea:
And his was the blame.⁵⁰¹⁷
41. And in the 'Ād (people)⁵⁰¹⁸
(Was another Sign):
Behold, We sent against them
The devastating Wind:
It left nothing whatever
That it came up against,
But reduced it to ruin
And rottenness.
42. It left nothing whatever
That it came up against,
But reduced it to ruin
And rottenness.
43. And in the Thamūd⁵⁰¹⁹
(Was another Sign):
Behold, they were told,
"Enjoy (your brief day)⁵⁰²⁰
For a little while!"
44. But they insolently defied⁵⁰²¹
The Command of their Lord:
So the stunning noise⁵⁰²²
(Of an earthquake) seized
Them, even while they
Were looking on.
45. Then they could not
Even stand (on their feet),⁵⁰²³
Nor could they help themselves.

٣٠- فَآخَذْنَاهُ وَجُنُودَهُ
فَنَبَذْنَاهُمْ فِي الْيَمِّ وَهُوَ مُلِيمٌ ۝

٣١- وَفِي عَادٍ
إِذْ أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمُ الرِّيحَ الْعَقِيمَ ۝

٣٢- مَا تَذَكَّرُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ أَتَتْ عَلَيْهِ
إِلَّا جَعَلَتْهُ كَالْزَمِيمِ ۝

٣٣- وَفِي ثَمُودَ
إِذْ قِيلَ لَهُمْ
تَمَتَّعُوا حَتَّىٰ حِينٍ ۝

٣٤- فَعَتَوْا عَنْ أَمْرِ رَبِّهِمْ
فَأَخَذَتْهُمُ الصَّيْقَةُ
وَهُمْ يَنْظُرُونَ ۝

٣٥- فَمَا اسْتَطَاعُوا مِنْ قِيَامٍ
وَمَا كَانُوا مُنْتَصِرِينَ ۝

5017. The ungodly Egyptians were all destroyed, but the chief blame lay on Pharaoh for misleading them. Pharaoh's punishment was just. He could not blame anyone else. And certainly no one can blame the course of Allah's Justice, for Allah was long-suffering, and gave him many chances to repent.

5018. Cf. 46:21-26. The point here is that the 'Ād were a gifted people: Allah had given them talents and material wealth: but when they defied Allah, they and all their belongings were destroyed in a night, by a hurricane which they thought was bringing them the rain to which they were looking forward. How marvelously Allah's Providence works, to help the good and destroy the wicked!

5019. See the story of the Thamūd and their prophet Ṣāliḥ in 7:73-79. Here the point is the suddenness of their punishment and its unexpected nature.

5020. Ṣāliḥ, their prophet, gave them three days' clear warning for repentance (11:65). But they heeded him not. On the contrary they flouted him and continued in their evil courses.

5021. They had already defied the order to preserve the She-camel, which was symbolical of the grazing rights of the common people: see 11:64-65 and n. 1560. They continued to flout the warnings of the prophet until the earthquake came on them with a stunning noise and buried them where they were: 7:78; and 11:67.

5022. Ṣā'iqaḥ: a stunning sound like that of thunder and lightning (2:55); such a sound often accompanies an earthquake (see 41:17, n. 4485, and 7:78 and n. 1047).

5023. They were swept off in the earthquake.

46. So were the People⁵⁰²⁴
Of Noah before them:
For they wickedly transgressed.

٣٦- وَقَوْمَ نُوحٍ مِّن قَبْلُ
إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَوْمًا فَسِيقِينَ ۝

SECTION 3.

47. With the power and skill⁵⁰²⁵
Did We construct
The Firmament:
For it is We Who create
The vastness of Space.

٣٧- وَالسَّمَاءَ بَنَيْنَاهَا بِأَيْدٍ
وَإِنَّا لَمُوسِعُونَ ۝

48. And We have spread out
The (spacious) earth:
How excellently
We do spread out!

٣٨- وَالْأَرْضَ فَرَشْنَاهَا
فَنِعْمَ الْبَهِدُونَ ۝

49. And of everything
We have created pairs:⁵⁰²⁶
That ye may receive
Instruction.

٣٩- وَمِنْ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ خَلَقْنَا زَوْجَيْنِ
لَعَلَّكُمْ تَذَكَّرُونَ ۝

50. Hasten ye then (at once)⁵⁰²⁷
To Allah: I am from Him
A Warner to you,
Clear and open!

٤٠- فَهَيِّئْهُنَّ إِلَى اللَّهِ
إِنِّي لَكُمْ مِنْهُ نَذِيرٌ مُبِينٌ ۝

5024. The generation of Noah was swept away in the Flood for their sins: 7:59-64. The point is that such a flood seemed so unlikely to them that they thought Noah was "wandering in his mind" when he delivered Allah's Message: 7:60.

5025. If you do not wish to go back to the wonderful things of the past, which show the power and goodness of Allah, and His justice supreme over all wrongdoing, look at the wonderful things unfolding themselves before your very eyes! (1) The space in the heavens above! Who can comprehend it but He Who made it and sustains it? (2) The globe of the earth under your feet! How great its expanse seems over sea and land, and spread out for you like a wonderful carpet or bed of rest! (3) All things are in twos: sex in plants and animals, by which one individual is complementary to another; in the subtle forces of nature, Day and Night, positive and negative electricity, forces of attraction and repulsion: and numerous other opposites, each fulfilling its purpose, and contributing to the working of Allah's Universe: and in the moral and spiritual world, Love and Aversion, Mercy and Justice, Striving and Rest, and so on — all fulfilling their functions according to the Artistry and wonderful Purpose of Allah. Everything has its counterpart, or pair, or complement. Allah alone is One, with none like Him, or needed to complement Him. These are noble things to contemplate. And they lead us to a true understanding of Allah's Purpose and Message.

5026. See (3) in the last note. Cf. 36:36, n. 3981.

5027. If you understand Nature and yourselves aright, you will know that Allah is all-in-all, and you will fly at once to Him. This is the teaching which the Prophet of Allah has come to give you, in clear terms and openly to all.

51. And make not another⁵⁰²⁸
An object of worship
With Allah:
I am from Him
A Warner to you,
Clear and open!

٥١- وَلَا تَجْعَلُوا مَعَ اللَّهِ إِلَهًا آخَرَ
إِنِّي لَكُمْ فَرِيضٌ
نَذِيرٌ مُّبِينٌ ۝

52. Similarly, no messenger came
To the Peoples before them,
But they said (of him)
In like manner,
"A sorcerer, or
One possessed"⁵⁰²⁹

٥٢- كَذَلِكَ مَا أَتَى الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ مِنْ
رُسُلٍ إِلَّا قَالُوا
سَاحِرٌ أَوْ مُجُنُونٌ ۝

53. Is this the legacy⁵⁰³⁰
They have transmitted,
One to another?
Nay, they are themselves
A people transgressing
Beyond bounds!

٥٣- اتَّوَصَّوْا
بِهِ
بَلْ هُمْ قَوْمٌ طَٰغُونَ ۝

54. So turn away⁵⁰³¹
From them: not thine
Is the blame.

٥٤- فَتَوَلَّ عَنْهُمْ
فَمَا أَنْتَ بِمَلُومٍ ۝

55. But teach (thy Message):
For teaching benefits
The Believers.

٥٥- وَذَكِّرْ
فَإِنَّ الذِّكْرَ يَنْفَعُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ۝

56. I have only created⁵⁰³²
Jinns and men, that
They may serve Me.

٥٦- وَمَا خَلَقْتُ الْجِنَّ وَالْإِنْسَ
إِلَّا لِيَعْبُدُونِ ۝

5028. Verses 50 and 51, ending with the same clause to emphasise the connection between the two, should be read together. The Prophet's mission was (and is): (1) to show us the urgent need for repentance; and (2) to wean us from the precipice of false worship. The one convinces us of sin and opens the door to the Mercy of Allah; the other cures us of the madness of paying court to idle or worthless objects of desire: for in the worship of Allah, the One True God, is included the best service to ourselves and our fellow-creatures. If fully understood, this sums up the whole duty of man: for it leads us by the right Path to the love of Allah and the love of man and of all creatures.

5029. They said this of Moses: 51:39. And they said this of the Holy Prophet: 38:4; 44:14.

5030. There is a tradition of Evil as there is a tradition of Good. The ways of Evil in dealing with the teachers of Truth are similar in all ages. But such evil traditions would have no effect, were it not that the generation following them is itself ungodly, "transgressing beyond bounds."

5031. When the Prophet freely proclaims his Message, it is not his fault if obstinate wickedness refuses to listen. He can leave them alone, but he should continue to teach for the benefit of those who have Faith.

5032. Creation is not for idle sport or play: 21:16. Allah has a serious Purpose behind it, which, in our imperfect state, we can only express by saying that each creature is given the chance of development and progress towards the Goal, which is Allah. Allah is the source and centre of all power and all goodness, and our progress depends upon our putting ourselves into accord with His Will. This is His service. It is not of any benefit to Him: (see the next two verses)—it is for our own benefit.

57. No Sustenance do I require⁵⁰³³
Of them, nor do I
Require that they should Feed Me.

٥٧- مَا أُرِيدُ مِنْهُمْ مِنْ رِزْقٍ
وَمَا أُرِيدُ أَنْ يُطْعَمُونِ ○

58. For Allah is He Who Gives (all) Sustenance —
Lord of Power —⁵⁰³⁴
Steadfast (forever).

٥٨- إِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الرَّزَّاقُ
ذُو الْقُوَّةِ الْمَتِينُ ○

59. For the wrongdoers,
Their portion is like
Unto the portion of their⁵⁰³⁵
Fellows (of earlier generations):
Then let them not ask Me
To hasten (that portion)!

٥٩- فَإِنَّ لِلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا ذُنُوبًا
مِثْلَ ذُنُوبِ أَصْحَابِهِمْ
فَلَا يَسْتَعْجِلُونَ ○

60. Woe, then, to the Unbelievers,
On account of that Day⁵⁰³⁶
Of theirs which they
Have been promised!

٦٠- قَوْلٍ لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ يَوْمِهِمْ
الَّذِي يُوعَدُونَ ○

5033. Sustenance: in both the literal and the figurative sense: so also "Feed Me" at the end of the verse. Allah is independent of all needs. It is therefore absurd to suppose that He should require any Sustenance, and still more absurd to suppose that we can feed Him! The gifts, the Sustenance, the goodness, all come from His side.

5034. Allah commands all power; therefore any power we seek must be from Him. And His power is steadfast, the same today as yesterday, and forever. Therefore His help is always sure.

5035. Each generation, that acts like any of its predecessors, must meet a similar fate. If the wicked came to an evil end in the past, the same results will follow in the present and the future. The punishment will come suddenly enough: let them not in mockery ask that it should be hastened.

5036. That is, their eternal Punishment in the Hereafter, as well as any punishment that may come to them in this life.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 52—AL TŪR

This is the third of the group of seven Makkan Sūrahs described in the Introduction to S. 50.

It is, like its predecessor, an early Makkan Sūrah. The points here emphasised are: that Revelation is in accord with all Allah's Signs, including previous Revelations, and that the Hereafter is inevitable, and we must prepare for it.

Summary—All Signs of Allah, including previous Revelations, point to the inevitable consequences of ill-deeds and good deeds: how can people deny or ignore the Message of Revelation? (52:1-49, and C. 228).

C. 228.—By the sacred Symbols—of the Mount
 (52:1-49.) Sublime, the Eternal Record on an open
 Scroll, the House of Worship thronged
 With men, the Canopy blue of unfathomed
 Heights, and the boundless Ocean with
 Its resistless tidal Swell—all acts
 Of men must have their inevitable fruits.
 New worlds will be born with the Day of Doom:
 New values established by Allah's Decree.
 Consumed will be Evil in the fire of Reality:
 And Good will come to its own—in personal
 And social Bliss, but most in the full
 Realisation that Allah is good, the Beneficent,
 The Merciful. . . Proclaim, then, the praises
 Of the Lord, nor heed the slanders of Ignorance
 Or Spite: for the Lord Who created will cherish;
 His plan will overthrow the puny plots
 Of men. Hold firm with patience in Faith
 In the Hereafter, and sing His praises
 Even in the busy marts of this world,
 But chiefly in the stillness of the Night
 And the holy hour of Dawn as the Stars
 Retreat, singing glory to the Maker
 Of their own most glorious Sun.

Sūrah 52.

Al Tūr (The Mount)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. By the Mount (of Revelation);⁵⁰³⁷
2. By a Decree Inscribed⁵⁰³⁸
3. In a Scroll unfolded;
4. By the much-frequented Fane;⁵⁰³⁹
5. By the Canopy Raised High;⁵⁰⁴⁰
6. And by the Ocean⁵⁰⁴¹

الْحُجَّةُ السَّابِعَةُ وَالْعِشْرُونَ سُورَةُ الطُّورِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- وَالطُّورِ ۝

٢- وَكِتَابٍ مُّسْتَوٍ ۝

٣- فِي رَقٍّ مَنْشُورٍ ۝

٤- وَالْبَيْتِ الْمَعْمُورِ ۝

٥- وَالتَّقْفِ الرَّفُوعِ ۝

٦- وَالْبَحْرِ ۝

5037. The adjuration is by five things which we shall presently explain. An appeal is made to these five Signs in verses 1 to 6, and the certainty of future events is asserted in the most emphatic terms in verses 7 to 28, in three parts, viz., the coming of judgement and the passing away of this phenomenal world (verses 7-10); the future ill consequences of ill-deeds done (verses 11-16); and future attainment of bliss and complete realisation of Allah's love and mercy (verses 17-28).

5038. See last note. The five Signs to which appeal is made are: (1) the Mount (of Revelation), verse 1; (2) the Decree Inscribed, verses 2-3; (3) The Much-frequented Fane, verse 4; (4) the Canopy Raised High, verse 5; and (5) the Ocean filled with Swell, verse 6.

Let us examine these in detail. Each of them has a figurative and a mystic meaning. (1) The Mount is the sublime world of Revelation. In the case of Moses it is typified by Mount Sinai: Cf. 95:2, where it is mentioned in juxtaposition to the sacred territory of Makkah, 95:3. In the case of Jesus it is the Mount of Olives: Cf. 95:1, and also Matt. xxiv. 3-51, where Jesus made his striking pronouncement about the Judgement to come. In the case of Muhammad, it is the Mountain of Light, where the divine inspiration made him one with the spiritual world: Cf. C. 31, and n. 11 (2). The Decree Inscribed is Allah's Eternal Decree. When it becomes Revelation to man, it is further described as "inscribed", reduced to writing; and as it is made clear to the intelligence of man, it is further described as "in a scroll unfolded", that is, spread out so that everyone who has the will can seek its guidance.

5039. See the last two notes. (3) "The much-frequented Fane" (or House) is usually understood to mean the Ka'bah, but in view of the parallelism noted in the last note, it may be taken generally to mean any Temple of House of Worship dedicated to the true God. It would then include the Tabernacle of the Israelites in the wilderness, the Temple of Solomon, the Temple in which Jesus worshipped, and the Ka'bah which the Holy Prophet purified and rededicated to true worship. These would be only illustrations. Other concrete places of worship would be included, and in a more abstract meaning, the heart of man, which craves, with burning desire, to find and worship Allah. The Fane is "much-frequented" as there is a universal desire in the heart of man to worship Allah, and his sacred Temples draw large crowds of devotees.

5040. (4) "The Canopy Raised High" is the canopy of heaven, to whose height or sublimity no limit can be assigned by the mind of man. It is Nature's Temple, in which all Creation worships Allah—the Symbol in which the material and the visible merges into the spiritual and the intuitional.

5041. (5) The Ocean—the vast, limitless, all encircling Ocean—is the material symbol of the universal, unlimited, comprehensive nature of the invisible spiritual world. It is expressed to be masjūr, full of a mighty swell, boiling over, poured forth all over the earth, as if overwhelming all landmarks; Cf. 81:6—a fitting description of the final disappearance of our temporal world in the supreme establishment of the Reality behind it.

Filled with Swell— ⁵⁰⁴²	السُّجُورِ
7. Verily, the Doom of thy Lord Will indeed come to pass—	۞ إِنَّ عَذَابَ رَبِّكَ لَوَاقِعٌ ۝
8. There is none Can avert it—	۞ مَالَهُ مِنْ دَافِعٍ ۝
9. On the Day when ⁵⁰⁴³ The firmament will be In dreadful commotion.	۞ يَوْمَ تَمُورُ السَّمَاءُ مَوْرًا ۝
10. And the mountains will fly Hither and thither. ⁵⁰⁴⁴	۞ وَتَسِيرُ الْجِبَالُ سَيْرًا ۝
11. Then woe that Day To those that treat (Truth) as Falsehood— ⁵⁰⁴⁵	۞ فَوَيْلٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْكَذِبِينَ ۝
12. That play (and paddle) In shallow trifles.	۞ الَّذِينَ هُمْ فِي خَوْضٍ يَلْعَبُونَ ۝
13. That Day shall they be Thrust down to the Fire Of Hell, irresistibly.	۞ يَوْمَ يُدْعَوْنَ إِلَىٰ نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ دَعَاً ۝
14. "This", it will be said, ⁵⁰⁴⁶ "Is the Fire—which ye Were wont to deny!	۞ هَذِهِ النَّارُ الَّتِي كُنْتُمْ بِهَا تُكَذِّبُونَ ۝

5042. This completes the five Signs or Symbols by which man may know for certain of the Judgement to come. Note that they are in a descending order—the highest, or most remote from man's consciousness, being mentioned first, and that nearest to man's consciousness being mentioned last. The truth of Revelation; its embodiment in a Prophet's Message given in human language; the universal appeal of divine worship; the starry world above; and the encircling Ocean, full of life and motion below—all are evidences that the Day of Allah will finally come, and nothing can avert it. (R).

5043. The Day of Judgement is typified by two figures. (1) "The firmament will be in dreadful commotion." The heavens as we see them suggest to us peace and tranquillity, and the power of fixed laws which all the heavenly bodies obey. This will all be shaken in the rise of the new spiritual world. Cf. Matt. xxvi. 29: "Immediately after the tribulation of those days... the powers of the heavens shall be shaken." For (2) see next note.

5044. (2) The mountains are a type of firmness and stability. But things that we think of as firm and stable in this material life will be shaken to pieces, and will be no more substantial than a mirage in a desert. Cf. 78:20.

5045. That Day will be a Day of Woe to the wrongdoers described in two aspects, the rebels against Allah and Allah's Truth, just as it will be a Day of Joy and Thanksgiving to the Righteous, who are described in three aspects in verses 17 to 28. The rebels are here described as being those who openly defied Truth and plunged into wrongdoing, or who trifled with truth, who jested with serious matter, who had not the courage to plunge openly into wrongdoing but who secretly took profit out of it, who wasted their life in doubts and petty quibbles. It is difficult to say which attitude did more harm to themselves and to others. Both are aspects of deep-seated sin and rebellion. But the mercy of Allah was open to all if they had repented and amended their lives.

5046. In face of the Realities, it will be borne in on them how wrong it was for them in this life to deny or forget that every wicked thought or deed had its own retributive chain of consequences.

15. "Is this then a fake,⁵⁰⁴⁷
Or is it ye that
Do not see?

١٥- أَفَسِحْرٌ هَذَا
أَمْ أَنْتُمْ لَا تَبْصُرُونَ ۝

16. "Burn ye therein:
The same is it to you
Whether ye bear it
With patience, or not:⁵⁰⁴⁸
Ye but receive the recompense
Of your (own) deeds."

١٦- إِصْلَوْهَا
فَأَصْبِرُوا أَوْ لَا تَصْبِرُوا سَوَاءٌ عَلَيْكُمْ
إِنَّمَا تُجْزَوْنَ مَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ۝

17. As to the Righteous,⁵⁰⁴⁹
They will be in Gardens,
And in Happiness—

١٧- إِنَّ السَّاقِينَ
فِي جَنَّاتٍ وَنَعِيمٍ ۝

18. Enjoying the (Bliss) which
Their Lord hath bestowed
On them, and their Lord
Shall deliver them from
The Penalty of the Fire.

١٨- فَلَهِمْ فِيهَا
وَقَدْ لَهُمْ رَبُّهُمْ عَذَابُ الْجَحِيمِ ۝

19. (To them will be said:)⁵⁰⁵⁰
"Eat and drink ye,
With profit and health,⁵⁰⁵¹
Because of your (good) deeds."

١٩- كُلُوا وَاشْرَبُوا هَنِيئًا
بِمَا كُنْتُمْ تَعْمَلُونَ ۝

20. They will recline (with ease)
On Thrones (of dignity)
Arranged in ranks,⁵⁰⁵²

٢٠- مُتَكِبِينَ عَلَى سُرُرٍ
مَقْصُوفَةٍ ۝

5047. Perhaps they had said that the Hereafter was a fake, mere old wives' tales! If they had given serious thought to the Signs of Allah, they would have been saved from that serious spiritual blindness: then they will see that the fault was their own, and that the warnings of the messengers of Truth were nothing but pure Truth.

5048. At that stage they will have no justification for anger or impatience; for their whole position will have been due to their own conduct and their rejection of Allah's Grace. Nor will there be time for patience or repentance, for their period of probation will then have been over.

5049. The Righteous will be in Bliss far beyond their merits: their sins and faults will be forgiven by the grace of Allah, which will save them from the penalties which they may have incurred from human frailty. It will be their own effort or striving which will win them Allah's grace: see verse 19 below. But the fruits will be greater than they could strictly have earned.

5050. The bliss of the Righteous is described in three aspects: (1) their individual bliss, verses 17-20; (2) their social bliss, verses 21-24; and (3) their satisfaction in the dissipation of past shadows, and their full understanding of the goodness of Allah, verses 25-28.

5051. Individual satisfaction is expressed in three types or figures of speech. (1) eating and drinking. (2) thrones of dignity, and (3) the joy of individual companionship. But the eating and drinking will not be like the physical acts, which are subject to drawbacks, such as excess, aftereffects and satiety: here there will be pure health, profit, and enjoyment. So about the other two: see the notes following.

Cf. with this the symbolical description of heaven in 37:40-49: while the general account is the same, special phases are brought out in two passages to correspond with the context.

5052. Every one will have a Throne of dignity, but it does not follow that the dignity will be the same. Every one's Personality will be purified but it will not be merged into one general sameness.

And We shall join them
To Companions, with beautiful
Big and lustrous eyes.⁵⁰⁵³

وَرَوْحُهُمْ مُخَوَّر عَيْنٍ ٥

21. And those who believe
And whose families⁵⁰⁵⁴ follow
Them in Faith—to them
Shall We join their families:
Nor shall We deprive them
(Of the fruit) of aught
Of their works:
(Yet) is each individual
In pledge for his deeds.⁵⁰⁵⁵

۲۱- وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَاتَّبَعَتْهُمْ ذُرِّيَّتُهُمْ
بِإِسْنٍ
الْحَقْنَابِهِمْ ذُرِّيَّتَهُمْ
وَمَا آَلَتْهُمْ مِنْ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ
كُلٌّ أُمْرٍ بِمَا كَسَبَ رَهِيْنٌ ٥

22. And We shall bestow
On them, of fruit and meat,⁵⁰⁵⁶
Anything they shall desire.

۲۲- وَآمَدْنَاهُمْ بِفَاكِهَةٍ وَلَحْمٍ
مِمَّا يَشْتَهُونَ ٥

23. They shall there exchange,
One with another,
A (loving) cup
Free of frivolity,⁵⁰⁵⁷
Free of all taint
Of ill.

۲۳- يَتَنَازَعُونَ فِيهَا كَأْسًا
لَا لَغْوٍ فِيهَا
وَلَا تَأْسِيْمٌ ٥

24. Round about them will serve,
(Devoted) to them,

۲۴- وَيَطُوفُ عَلَيْهِمْ غِلْمَانٌ لَهُمْ

5054. Dhurriyyah: literally, progeny, offspring, family: applied by extension to mean all near and dear ones whether related or not. Love is unselfish, and works not merely, or chiefly, for Self, but for others; provided the others have Faith and respond according to their capacities or degrees, they will be joined on to the Head of the Group, even though on individual merits their rank might be less. This applies specially to a Prophet and his Ummah (or following).

5055. As already explained in the last note, though the love poured out by Prophets, ancestors, descendants, friends, or good men and women, will secure for their loved ones the enjoyment of their society, it is an indispensable condition that the loved ones should also, according to their lights, have shown their faith and their goodness in deeds. Each individual is responsible for his conduct. In the kingdom of heaven there is no boasting of ancestors or friends. But it is part of the satisfaction of the good ones who poured out their love that those who were in any way worthy to receive their love should also be admitted to their society, and this satisfaction shall in no wise be diminished to them.

5056. Note that this verse is embedded in the midst of the description of social bliss; the individual bliss figured by meat and drink has already been mentioned in verse 19 above. The social pleasure will be of any kind or quantity they shall desire, but their desires will then be purified, just as their pleasures will be on a different plane. (R).

5057. Drinking or loving cups, in our life on this earth, are apt to be misused in two ways: (1) they may be occasions for mere frivolity or the wasting of time; (2) they may lead to evil thoughts, evil suggestions, evil talk, or evil deeds. (R).

Youths (handsome) as Pearls⁵⁰⁵⁸

25. They will advance⁵⁰⁵⁹
To each other, engaging
In mutual enquiry.

۲۵- وَأَقْبَلَ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ

26. They will say: "Aforetime,
We were not without fear
For the sake of our people."⁵⁰⁶⁰

۲۶- قَالُوا إِنَّا كُنَّا قَبْلُ

27. "But Allah has been good
To us, and has delivered us
From the Penalty
Of the Scorching Wind."⁵⁰⁶¹

۲۷- فَسَنَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْنَا
دَوْقَنَا عَذَابِ السُّمُورِ ۝

28. "Truly, we did call
Unto Him from of old:
Truly it is He,
The Beneficent, the Merciful!"⁵⁰⁶²

۲۸- إِنَّا كُنَّا مِنْ قَبْلُ نَدْعُوهُ
إِنَّهُ هُوَ الْبَرُّ الرَّحِيمُ ۝

SECTION 2.

29. Therefore proclaim thou⁵⁰⁶³
The praises (of thy Lord):
For by the Grace
Of thy Lord, thou art
No (vulgar) soothsayer, nor
Art thou one possessed.

۲۹- فَذَكِّرْ
فَمَا أَنْتَ بِنِعْمَةِ رَبِّكَ
بِكَاهِنٍ وَلَا مَجْنُونٍ ۝

5058. Maknūn: well-guarded, kept close, concealed from exposure: the beautiful nacreous lustre of Pearls is disfigured by exposure to gases, vapours, or acids; when not actually in use they are best kept in closed caskets, guarded from deteriorating agencies. (R).

5059. The third—and the highest—stage of Bliss, after individual Bliss and social Bliss, is the satisfaction of looking to the Past without its shadows and realising to the full in the Present the goodness of Allah. See n. 5050. This, again, is shared in mutual converse and confidence.

5060. A man may be good, and may with limits have found goodness in his own spiritual life, but may have anxieties about his family or friends whom he loves. All such shadows are removed in heaven by the Grace of Allah, and he is free to dwell in it in this confidential converse with other men similarly circumstanced.

5061. "Us" includes the good man or woman and all whom he or she cared for. This would be an ever-expanding circle, until it includes all mankind through Teachers like the Chosen One. The "Scorching Wind" is the type of haste, arrogance, and fire, such as entered into the composition of Jinns: 15:27. The destiny of man is to attain to calm, peace, security, the Garden of Bliss.

5062. 'Before this, we called upon Him, in faith that He is good: now we know in our inmost souls that He is indeed good—the Beneficent, the Merciful.' This is the climax of the description of Heaven.

5063. The greatest of the Prophets was called a soothsayer, i.e., one who tells fortunes by divination, or a madman possessed of some evil spirit, or a poet singing spiteful satires. Much more may lesser men be called by such names because they proclaim the Truth. They should go on in spite of it all. (R).

30. Or do they say—
“A Poet! we await
For him some calamity⁵⁰⁶⁴
(Hatched) by Time!”
31. Say thou: “Await ye!—
I too will wait⁵⁰⁶⁵
Along with you!”
32. Is it that their faculties
Of understanding urge them⁵⁰⁶⁶
To this, or are they
But a people transgressing⁵⁰⁶⁷
Beyond bounds?
33. Or do they say,
“He fabricated the (Message)”⁵⁰⁶⁸
Nay, they have no faith!
34. Let them then produce
A recital like unto it—
If (it be) they speak
The Truth!
35. Where they created of nothing,⁵⁰⁶⁹
Or were they themselves
The creators?

٣٠- أَمْ يَقُولُونَ شَاعِرٌ
تَتَرَبَّصُّ بِهِ رَيْبَ الْمُنُونِ ۝

٣١- قُلْ تَرَبَّصُوا
فَإِنِّي مَعَكُمْ مِنَ الْمُرِصِينَ ۝

٣٢- أَمْ تَأْمُرُهُمْ أَحْلَامُهُمْ بِهَذَا
أَمْ هُمْ قَوْمٌ طَاغُونَ ۝

٣٣- أَمْ يَقُولُونَ تَقَوَّلَهُ
بَلْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ۝

٣٤- فَلْيَأْتُوا بِحَدِيثٍ مِثْلِهِ
إِنْ كَانُوا صَادِقِينَ ۝

٣٥- أَمْ خُلِقُوا مِنْ غَيْرِ شَيْءٍ
أَمْ هُمُ الْخَالِقُونَ ۝

5064. If a spiteful poet foretells evil calamities for men, men can afford to laugh at him, hoping that Time will bring about its revenge, and spite will come to an evil end. For the various meanings of Rayb, see n. 1884 to 14:9. Some Commentators suggest Death as the Calamity hatched by Time.

5065. Cf. 9:52. If the wicked wait or look for some calamity to befall the preacher of Truth, the preacher of Truth can with far more justice await the decision of the issue between him and his persecutors. For he stands for right, and Allah will support the right.

5066. It may be that the persecutors of Truth are ignorant, and their deficient faculties of understanding mislead them, but it is more often the case that they are perverse rebels against the law of Allah, defending their own selfish interests, and preventing those whom they oppress, from getting justice.

5068. As an alternative to the charges of being a soothsayer or a madman or a disgruntled poet, there is the charge of a forger or fabricator applied to the Prophet of Allah when he produces his Message. This implies that there can be no revelation or inspiration from Allah. Such an attitude negatives Faith altogether. But if this is so can they produce a work of man that can compare with the inspired Word of Allah? They cannot. Cf. 10:37-39, and 17:88.

5069. Were they created of nothing? Three possible alternative meanings are suggested by the Commentators, according to the meaning we give to the Arabic preposition min = of, by, with, for. (1) ‘Were they created by nothing? Did they come into existence of themselves? Was it a mere chance that they came into being?’ (2) ‘Were they created as men out of nothing? Was there not a wonderful seed, from which their material growth can be traced, as the handiwork of a wise and wonderful Creator? Must they not then seek His Will?’ (3) ‘Were they created for nothing, to no purpose? If they were created for a purpose, must they not try to learn that purpose by understanding Allah’s Revelation?’

36. Or did they create
The heavens and the earth?
Nay, they have
No firm belief.⁵⁰⁷⁰

٣٦- أَمْ خَلَقُوا السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ
بَلْ لَا يُوقِنُونَ ۝

37. Or are the Treasures
Of thy Lord with them,⁵⁰⁷¹
Or are they managers
(Of affairs)?

٣٧- أَمْ عِنْدَهُمْ خَزَائِنُ رَبِّكَ
أَمْ هُمُ الْمُضَيِّطُونَ ۝

38. Or have they a ladder,⁵⁰⁷²
By which they can (climb
Up to heaven and) listen
(To its secrets)? Then let
(Such a) listener of theirs
Produce a manifest proof.

٣٨- أَمْ لَهُمْ سُلَّمٌ
يَسْتَعِينُونَ فِيهِ ۝
فَلْيَأْتِ مُسْتَعِينُهُمْ بِسُلْطَانٍ مُبِينٍ ۝

39. Or has He only daughters⁵⁰⁷³
And ye have sons?

٣٩- أَمْ لَهُ الْبَنَاتُ وَلَكُمْ الْبَنُونَ ۝

40. Or is it that thou
Dost ask for a reward,⁵⁰⁷⁴
So that they are burdened
With a load of debt?—

٤٠- أَمْ تَسْأَلُهُمْ أَجْرًا
فَهُمْ مِنْ مَغْرَمٍ مُثْقَلُونَ ۝

41. Or that the Unseen⁵⁰⁷⁵
Is in their hands,
And they write it down?

٤١- أَمْ عِنْدَهُمُ الْغَيْبُ
فَهُمْ يَكْتُبُونَ ۝

42. Or do they intend
A plot (against thee)?⁵⁰⁷⁶

٤٢- أَمْ يُرِيدُونَ كَيْدًا ۝

5070. They obviously did not create the wonders of the starry heavens and the fruitful globe of the earth. But they can assign no definite cause to explain it, as they have no firm belief on the subject themselves.

5071. Cf. 6:50, and n. 867. The Treasures of Allah's Knowledge are infinite. But the doubters and unbelievers have no access to them, much less can the doubters and unbelievers manage the wonders of this world. Must they not therefore seek grace and revelation from Allah?

5072. Cf. 6:35: a reference to the Pagan belief that by means of a material ladder a man might climb up to heaven and learn its secrets!

5074. The Prophets of Allah ask for no reward to preach the Message of Allah and direct men to the right Path. Why then do men shun them and persecute those who seek to bring blessings to them?

5075. The Unseen in the spiritual world is a subject of Revelation, though it works through the common everyday life of man. The men who reject Revelation simply because it is outside their own experience ought on the contrary to try to learn about it and seek to understand it.

5076. Shallow men who plot against Good are themselves the willing victims of insidious plots laid by Evil.

But those who defy Allah
Are themselves involved
In a Plot!

فَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
هُمْ الْمَكِيدُونَ ۝

43. Or have they a god⁵⁰⁷⁷
Other than Allah?
Exalted is Allah
Far above the things
They associate with Him!

۝-۴۳ أَمْ لَهُمْ آلَٰهٌ غَيْرُ اللَّهِ
سُبْحَنَ اللَّهِ عَمَّا يُشْرِكُونَ ۝

44. Where they to see
A piece of the sky⁵⁰⁷⁸
Falling (on them), they
Would (only) say: "Clouds
Gathered in heaps!"

۝-۴۴ وَإِنْ يَرَوْا كِسْفًا مِنَ السَّمَاءِ سَاقِطًا
يَقُولُوا سَحَابٌ مَرْكُومٌ ۝

45. So leave them alone
Until they encounter
That Day of theirs,
Wherein they shall (perform)
Swoon (with terror)—⁵⁰⁷⁹

۝-۴۵ فَذَرُهُمْ حَتَّىٰ يُلَاقُوا يَوْمَهُمُ الَّذِي
فِيهِ يُصْعَقُونَ ۝

46. The Day when their plotting
Will avail them nothing
And no help shall be Given them.

۝-۴۶ يَوْمَ لَا يُغْنِي عَنْهُمْ كَيْدُهُمْ شَيْئًا
وَلَا هُمْ يُنصَرُونَ ۝

47. And verily, for those
Who do wrong, there is Another punishment besides this:⁵⁰⁸⁰
But most of them
Understand not.

۝-۴۷ وَإِنَّ لِلَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا
عَذَابًا دُونَ ذَلِكَ
وَلَكِنَّ أَكْثَرَهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ۝

48. Now await in patience
The command of thy Lord:

۝-۴۸ وَاصْبِرْ لِحُكْمِ رَبِّكَ

5077. This is the final and decisive question: Is there really any god other than Allah the One True God? Every argument points to the negative. A series of questions has been asked pointing to the negative of the superstitions of the godless. The gospel of Unity, Revelation, and the Hereafter had thus been preached by a searching examination of the position of the Unbelievers. And the Sūrah ends with an exhortation to leave alone those who will not believe because they wish not to believe, and to let Time work out the web and pattern of Allah's Plan.

5078. In 26:187, Shu'ayb, the Prophet of Allah, is challenged by the Companions of the Wood "to cause a piece of sky to fall on us, if thou art truthful." Such a challenge, in some form or other, is addressed to all Prophets of Allah. It is mere defiance. It has no meaning. If a piece of the sky were to fall on them, it would not convince them, for they would only say: "These are only clouds gathered in heaps." They do not wish to believe. Otherwise there are ample Signs and Evidences of Allah's Plan in Creation and in man's own heart.

5079. That is, the Day of Judgement. Cf. 39:68, and n. 4343.

5080. The final Judgement is for all. But in addition, wrongdoers have to fear a retribution or punishment in this very life, an open punishment through external events or, at least the bitter pangs of conscience within.

For verily thou art
In Our eyes:⁵⁰⁸¹
And celebrate the praises
Of thy Lord the while
Thou standest forth,⁵⁰⁸²

49. And for part of the night⁵⁰⁸³
Also praise thou Him—
And at the retreat⁵⁰⁸⁴
Of the stars!

فَإِنَّكَ بِأَعْيُنِنَا
وَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ حِينَ تَقُومُ ۚ

۞ وَمِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَسَبِّحْهُ
وَإِدْبَارَ النُّجُومِ ۚ

5081. The messenger of Allah must strive his utmost to proclaim the Message of Allah: as for results, it is not for him to command them. He must wait patiently, in the knowledge that he is not forgotten by Allah, but is constantly under Allah's eyes—under His loving care and protection. And he must glorify Allah's name, as he is a standard-bearer of Allah's Truth.

5082. The translators and Commentators nearly all understand taqūmu in the sense of rising up from sleep. But the rendering I have given is consistent with Quranic usage. In 26:218, we have the same two words hīna taqūmu, meaning "standing forth (in prayer)". In 57:25, we have liyaqūma al nāsu bilqisṭi, which obviously means "that men may stand forth in justice," i.e., do all their business in justice. In 78:38, we have yaqūmu used for the angels standing forth in ranks.

On my rendering the meaning will be: 'celebrate Allah's praises when you stand forth in prayer, or at all times when you go about your business; but also for part of the night and at early dawn when worldly life is at a standstill.'

5083. It is not necessary to understand this for any particular canonical prayers. It is good to spend a part of the night in prayer and praise: Cf. 23:6. And the Dawn is a daily recurring miracle of nature, full of spiritual influences and "testimony": Cf. 17:78-79.

5084. Idbār al nujūm: the retreat of the stars: the glorious hour of early dawn. In 113:1, we seek Allah's protection as "Lord of the Dawn".

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 53—AL NAJM

This is an early Makkan Sūrah, and is the fourth of the series of seven which were described in the Introduction to S. 50.

The particular theme of this Sūrah is that Revelation is not an illusion: the illusion is in the minds of those who doubt and have false ideas of Allah: Allah is the source and goal of all things.

In some Sūrahs the consecutive arrangement is shown or suggested by a cue-word. Here the cue-word is "star", corresponding to "stars" in the last verse of the last Sūrah. So in 46:1, the words: "Exalted in Power, Full of Wisdom": are carried forward from the last verse of S. 45, and indeed the same words occur in the first verse of S. 45. So, again the words: "Most Merciful, Oft-Forgiving"; in 34:2, refer back to the words: "Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful": in the last line of S. 33. In S. 54:1, the nearness of Judgement recalls the same idea at the end of the previous Sūrah (53:57). Other examples will also be found.

Summary—The impression received by the Prophet in revelation is neither error on his part nor deception by others, nor does he speak from selfish motives: it comes clearly from Allah, Who is not what the vain imaginations of men conceive: He is All-in-All, First and Last, Lord of all, Ample in forgiveness (53:10-32, and C. 229).

Those who turn away are petty and ignorant, not knowing that Allah is the source and goal of all things—in men, in nature, and in the events of history: therefore serve ye Him (53:33-62, and C. 230).

C. 229.— True revelation is not a process
 (53:1-32.) Either of error or deception, nor does
 The Prophet speak from himself as he desires.
 It is Allah's inspiration, true, without doubt.
 It is reality—the inner reality
 Of heaven as far as knowledge can reach,
 Not the false ideas and idols that men
 Construct for themselves, names without truth
 Behind them. The goal of all things is Allah,
 As He is the One from Whom starts Reality.
 No other can e'er intercede except
 As He wills. He made us, and knows all
 That we are. It is not for us to justify Ourselves, but to offer ourselves as we are.

Sūrah 53.

Al Najm (The Star)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. By the Star⁵⁰⁸⁵
When it goes down—
2. Your Companion is neither⁵⁰⁸⁶
Astray nor being misled,
3. Nor does he say (aught)
Of (his own) Desire.
4. It is no less than
Inspiration sent down to him:
5. He was taught by one⁵⁰⁸⁷
Mighty in Power,
6. Endued with Wisdom:
For he appeared
(In stately form)
7. While he was in
The highest part⁵⁰⁸⁸
Of the horizon:

الْجُزْءُ السَّابِعُ وَالْعِشْرُونَ سُورَةُ النَّجْمِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- وَالنَّجْمِ إِذَا هَوَىٰ ۝

۲- مَا ضَلَّ صَاحِبُكُمْ وَمَا غَوَىٰ ۝

۳- وَمَا يَنْطِقُ عَنِ الْهَوَىٰ ۝

۴- إِنْ هُوَ إِلَّا وَحْيٌ يُوحَىٰ ۝

۵- عَلَّمَهُ شَدِيدُ الْقُوَىٰ ۝

۶- ذُو مِرَّةٍ ۖ فَاسْتَوَىٰ ۝

۷- وَهُوَ بِالْأُفُقِ الْأَعْلَىٰ ۝

5085. Najm is interpreted in various ways. As most commonly accepted, it means either a Star generically, or the close cluster of seven stars known as the Pleiades in the Constellation Taurus, which the sun enters about the 21st of April every year. In mid-April, or a little later, the beautiful cluster would set just after the sun, after having gradually ascended the sky in the winter months. In late May, or a little later, it would rise just before the sun. In its western aspects, it might be considered a spring constellation. To open-air nations (including the Arabs) whose climate usually presents starry skies, this is an object of great interest, and many folklore tales gather round it. When so glorious a cluster is content to bow down in the horizon and merge its light in the greater light created by Allah (see the last three lines of C. 228), it becomes a symbol of humility in beauty and power before the Most High, Whose revelation discloses the summit of beauty, power and wisdom.

Hawā in the text may mean either "goes down (or sets)" or "rises". Whichever meaning we take, it makes no difference to the symbolic interpretation given above.

5086. "Your Companion" is the Holy Prophet Muhammad, who had lived among the Quraysh all his life. He is defended from three kinds of charges that the Unbelievers brought against him: (1) that he was going astray, either through defect of intelligence or through carelessness; (2) that he was being misled or deceived by evil spirits; and (3) that he spoke out of a whim or impulse, or from a selfish desire to impress his own personality. None of these charges were true. On the contrary he had direct inspiration from Allah.

5087. This is referred by the Commentators to the angel Gabriel, through whom the inspiration came. Cf. 81:20.

5088. Gabriel appeared in stately form, perhaps towering above the Mountain of Light (see C. 31). Istawā in verse 6, translated "appeared", means literally "mounted" or "ascended", or "set himself to execute a design": see n. 1386 to 10:3.

5089. Two bow-shots (counting 100 to 150 yards to a bow-shot) would be a clearly visible distance. (R).

5090. Gabriel would be just a messenger, to do no more than convey Allah's Message to Allah's Messenger.

5091. "Heart" in Arabic includes the faculty of intelligence as well as the faculty of feeling. The impression conveyed was pure truth; there was no illusion in it.

5092. The first occasion when Gabriel appeared in a visible form was at the Mountain of Light, when he brought his first revelation beginning with Iqra': see C. 29-35. The second was at the Prophet's Mi'raj or Ascension: see Introduction to S. 17, paras. 2-4. These were the only two occasions when Gabriel appeared in visible form. (R).

5093. For the Lote-tree in its literal meaning, see n. 3814 to 24:16. The wild Lote is thorny; under cultivation it yields good fruit and shade, and is symbolic of heavenly bliss, as here and in 56:28.

5094. The "Garden of Abode" (Jannah al Ma'wa) lies close to the Lote-tree and, in the opinion of some authorities, is so called because the souls of believers will find their abode therein. [Eds.].

5095. From the heights of divine Glory, we come back again to this sorry earth, with its base idolatries. We are asked to "look at this picture, and at that!" The three principal idols of Pagan Arab Idolatry were the goddesses Lāt, 'Uzzā, and Manāt. Opinions differ as to their exact forms: one version is that Lāt was in human shape, 'Uzzā had its origin in a sacred tree, and Manāt in a white stone. (R).

5096. To show Allah in human shape, or imagine sons or daughters of Allah, as if Allah were flesh, was in any case a derogation from the supreme glory of Allah, high above all creatures, even if the human shapes were invested with great beauty and majesty as in the Greek Pantheon. But when we consider in what low opinion Pagan Arabia held the female sex, it was particularly degrading to show Allah, or so-called daughters of Allah, in female shapes. Cf. 16:57-59, and n. 2082; also 52:39, and n. 5073.

5097. Cf. 7:71; 12:40, n. 1693. The divine names which they give to stocks and stones, or to heroes living or dead, or even to prophets and men of God, are but the creatures of their own fancy. Whatever they were, they were not gods.

5098. Cf. 6:116. Conjecture is a dangerous thing in speaking of divine things. It follows lines which reflect the lusts of men's own hearts. Why not follow the divine guidance which comes through the prophets of Allah?

5099. The unpurified desires of men's hearts often lead to destruction, for they are dictated by Evil. The true source of guidance and light is Allah, just as He is also the goal to which all persons and things — all existence — returns.

25. But it is to Allah

5100. We are apt to imagine the angelic host of heaven as beings of immense power. But their power is all derived from Allah. Men, when they attain to the highest spiritual dignities, may have even more power and position than angels in the sight of Allah, as is typified by angels bidden to bow down to Adam: 2:34. The Quraysh superstition about angels being intermediaries and intercessors for man with Allah is condemned.

5101. Cf. 20:109 and 21:28. No one can intercede except with the permission of Allah, and that permission will only be given for one who is acceptable to Allah. For a possible different shade of meaning, see n. 2643 to 20:109.

5102. Cf. 53:21 above, and n. 5096. The Pagan Quraysh had no firm belief in the Hereafter. Their prayers for intercession to angels and deities was on account of their worldly affairs.

5103. Cf. 53:23 above, and n. 5098.

5104. Men with a materialist turn of mind, whose desires are bounded by sex and material things, will not go beyond those things. Their knowledge will be limited to the narrow circle in which their thoughts move. The spiritual world is beyond their ken. While persons with a spiritual outlook, even though they may fail again and again in attaining their full ideals, are on the right Path. They are willing to receive guidance and Allah's Grace will find them out and help them.

C. 230. — When once in Allah's Way, turn not away,
(53:33-62.) Nor check your generous impulse to give
Your all to Allah. The spiritual world
Unseen is above all worldly bargains.
Each soul must bear its own responsibility.
It must strive its utmost and attain its end.
The final Goal of all is Allah:
In His hands are Laughter and Tears, Life
And Death, the mystery of Birth and Creation,
And the Hereafter. He controls our Bliss
And inner satisfaction. He is Lord
Of the highest and noblest in Nature. His hand

5105. All deeds have their consequences, good or ill. But this is not an iron law, as the Determinists in philosophy, or the preachers of bare Karma, would have us believe. Allah does not sit apart. He governs the world. And Mercy as well as Justice are His attributes. In His Justice every deed or word or thought of evil has its consequence for the doer or speaker or thinker. But there is always in this life room for repentance and amendment. As soon as this is forthcoming, Allah's Mercy comes into action. It can blot out our evil, and the "reward" which it gives is nearly always greater than our merits.

5106. Allah's attributes of Mercy and Forgiveness are unlimited. They come into action without our asking, but on our bringing our will as offerings to Him. Our asking or prayer helps us to bring our minds and wills as offering to Him. That is necessary to frame our own psychological preparedness. It informs Allah of nothing for He knows all.

5107. As Allah knows our inmost being, it is absurd for us to justify ourselves either by pretending that we are better than we are or by finding excuses for our conduct. We must offer ourselves unreservedly such as we are: it is His Mercy and Grace that will cleanse us. If we try, out of love for Him, to guard against evil, our striving is all that He asks for.

Traces the course of History. Learn,
Oh learn from His Revelation and
Adore the Lord of your inmost Soul!

39. That man can have nothing
But what he strives for;

٣٩- وَاَنْ لِّىْسَ لِلْاِنْسَانِ اِلَّا مَا سَعَى ۚ

5108. The particular reference in this passage, according to Bayḍāwī is to Walīd ibn Mughayrah, who bargained with a Quraysh Pagan for a certain sum if the latter would take upon himself the sins of Walīd. He paid a part of the sum but withheld the rest. The general application that concerns us is threefold: (1) if we accept Islam, we must accept it whole-heartedly and not look back to Pagan superstitions; (2) we cannot play fast and loose with our promises and (3) no man can bargain about spiritual matters for he cannot see what his end will be unless he follows the law of Allah, which is the law of righteousness.

5109. 'So that he can see what will happen in the Hereafter': for no bargains can be struck about matters unknown.

5110. Books of Moses: apparently not the Pentateuch, in the Tawrah, but some other book or books now lost. For example, the Book of the Wars of Jehovah is referred to in the Old Testament (Num. xxi. 14) but is now lost. The present Pentateuch has no clear message at all of a Life to come.

5111. No original Book of Abraham is now extant. But a book called "The Testament of Abraham" has come down to us which seems to be a Greek translation of a Hebrew original. See n. 6094 to 87:19, where the Books of Moses and Abraham are again mentioned together.

5112. One of the titles of Abraham is Hanif, the True in Faith: Cf. 16:120, 123.

5113. Here follows a series of eleven aphorisms of ancient wisdom apparently incorporated in current Semitic folklore. The first is that a man's spiritual burden—the responsibility for his sin—must be borne by himself and not by another: Cf. 6:164. There can be no vicarious atonement.

40. That (the fruit of) his striving⁵¹¹⁴
Will soon come in sight;
41. Then will he be rewarded
With a reward complete;
42. That to thy Lord
Is the final Goal;⁵¹¹⁵
43. That it is He Who
Granteth Laughter and Tears;
44. That it is He Who
Granteth Death and Life;
45. That He did create
In pairs—male and female,⁵¹¹⁶
46. From a seed when lodged
(In its place);
47. That He hath promised
A Second Creation
(Raising of the Dead);⁵¹¹⁷
48. That it is He Who
Giveth wealth and satisfaction;⁵¹¹⁸
49. That He is the Lord
Of Sirius (the Mighty Star);⁵¹¹⁹

- ٣٠- وَأَنَّ سَعْيَهُ سَوْفَ يُرَى ۖ
- ٣١- ثُمَّ يُجْزَاهُ الْجَزَاءَ الْأَوْفَى ۖ
- ٣٢- وَأَنَّ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ الْمُنْتَهَى ۖ
- ٣٣- وَإِنَّهُ هُوَ أَضْحَكَ وَأَبْكَى ۖ
- ٣٤- وَإِنَّهُ هُوَ آمَاتٌ وَأَحْيَا ۖ
- ٣٥- وَإِنَّهُ خَلَقَ الزَّوْجَيْنِ الذَّكَرَ وَالْأُنثَىٰ ۖ
- ٣٦- مِنْ نُّطْفَةٍ إِذَا تُمْنَىٰ ۖ
- ٣٧- وَأَنَّ عَلَيْهِ النُّشْأَةَ الْآخِرَىٰ ۖ
- ٣٨- وَإِنَّهُ هُوَ أَغْنَىٰ وَأَقْنَىٰ ۖ
- ٣٩- وَإِنَّهُ هُوَ رَبُّ الشَّعْرَىٰ ۖ

5114. The second and third aphorisms are that man must strive, or he will gain nothing; and that if he strives, the result must soon appear in sight and he will find his reward in full measure.

5115. The fourth, fifth, and sixth aphorisms are that all things return to Allah; that all our hope should be in Him and we should fear none but Him; and that He alone can give Life and Death.

5116. The seventh aphorism relates to the mystery of sex: all things are created in pairs: each sex performs its proper function, and yet its wonderful working is part of the creative process of Allah: the living seed fructifies, but contains within itself all the factors disclosed in its later development and life.

5117. No less wonderful is the promise He has made about the raising of the dead, and a new life in the Hereafter, and this is the subject of the eighth aphorism.

5118. Wealth and material gain are sought by most men, in the hope that they will be a source of enjoyment and satisfaction. But this hope is not always fulfilled. There is a psychical and spiritual side to it. But both the material and the spiritual side depend upon the working of Allah's Plan. This is referred to in the ninth aphorism.

5119. The tenth aphorism refers to a mighty phenomenon of nature, the magnificent star Sirius, which is such a prominent object in the skies, in the early part of the solar year, say, from January to April. It is the brightest star in the firmament, and its bluish light causes wonder and terror in Pagan minds. The Pagan Arabs worshipped it as a divinity. But Allah is the Lord, Creator and Cherisher, of the most magnificent part of Creation, and worship is due to Him alone.

50. And that it is He
Who destroyed the (powerful)
Ancient 'Ād (people),⁵¹²⁰
51. And the Thamūd,
Nor gave them a lease
Of perpetual life.
52. And before them,
The people of Noah,
For that they were (all)
Most unjust
And most insolent transgressors,
53. And He destroyed
The Overthrown Cities⁵¹²¹
(Of Sodom and Gomorrah),
54. So that (ruins unknown)
Have covered them up.
55. Then which of the gifts⁵¹²²
Of thy Lord, (O man,)
Wilt thou dispute about?
56. This is a Warner,⁵¹²³
Of the (series of) Warners
Of old!
57. The (Judgement) ever approaching
Draws nigh:

٥- وَأَنَّهُ أَهْلَكَ عَادًا الْأُولَى ۖ

۱۵- وَتَمُودًا فَمَا أَبْقٰ

٥٢- وَقَوْمٌ نُورٍ مِّن قَبْلُ
لَهُمْ كَالنَّارِ كَانُوا هُمْ أَظْلَمَ وَأَطْعَمُوا

٥٢- وَالْمُؤْتَفِكَةَ أَهْوَى ۙ

۵۴۔ فَعَشَاهَا مَا غَشَى ۝

۵۵۔ فَبَايَ الْاِلٰهَ رَبِّكَ تَمَارٰی ۝

٥٤- هَذَا نَذِيرٌ مِّنَ النَّذِيرِ الْأُولَى ○

٥- اَرْفَتِ الْاَرْفَةَ ۚ

5120. The eleventh and last aphorism refers to the punishment of the most powerful ancient peoples for their sins. For the Ad people, see n. 1040 to 7:65, and for the Thamūd, see n. 1043 to 7:73. They were strong; and they were talented: but their strength and their talents did not save them from being destroyed for their sins. The same may be said about the earlier generation of Noah, who were destroyed in the Flood: they "rejected Our Signs: they were indeed a blind people" (7:64); see also n. 1039 to 7:59; and 11:25-49.

Ancient 'Ād (people): some Commentators construe, First 'Ād people, distinguishing them from the later 'Ād people, a remnant that had their day and passed away.

5121. Verses 53-60 may be construed as a commentary on the aphorisms. The story of the Overthrown Cities, to which Lot was sent for a warning, will be found in 11:74-83 and the notes thereon. This story may well be treated as separate from the aphorisms as it refers to events that happened in the later life of Abraham.

5122. With a slight modification this forms the refrain of the next Sūrah but one, the highly poetical Sūrah of Al Raḥmān. In S. 54. 15, 17 etc., there is a similar refrain in different words. Every gift and benefit you have is from Allah, and to save you from the just punishment of your sins, Allah at all times sends revelations and Messengers to warn you. Why not accept Allah's Grace instead of disputing about it?

5123. The Prophet before the Quraysh (and before us) continues the line of messengers of Allah who have come to teach mankind and lead men into unity and righteousness. Shall we not listen to his voice? Every day that passes, the Judgement approaches nearer and nearer. But Allah alone can say at what precise hour it will come to any of us. It is certain, and yet it is a mystery, which Allah alone can lay bare.

58. No (soul) but Allah
Can lay it bare.

٥٨- كَيْسَ لَهَا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ كَاشِفَةٌ ۝

59. Do ye then wonder⁵¹²⁴
At this recital?

٥٩- أَفَمِنْ هَذَا الْحَدِيثِ تَعْجَبُونَ ۝

60. And will ye laugh⁵¹²⁵
And not weep, —

٦٠- وَتَضْحَكُونَ وَلَا تَبْكُونَ ۝

61. Wasting your time
In vanities?

٦١- وَأَنْتُمْ سَاهُونَ ۝

62. But fall ye down in prostration
To Allah and adore (Him)⁵¹²⁶

٦٢- فَاسْجُدْ وَابْتَهِ ۝ وَاعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ ۝

5124. Mere wondering will not do, even if it is the wonder of admiration. Each soul must strive and act, and Allah's Mercy will take it under its wings.

5125. The higher issues of Life and the Hereafter are serious, and therefore all that we do in this life is serious and important. We must shun inanities and frivolities. It is no laughing time. If we only realised our own shortcomings, we should weep, with our good angels who weep for us. But weeping by itself will not help. We must try and understand Allah and adore Him. Thus shall we be able to understand ourselves and our fellow-men.

5126. And so we are invited to prostrate ourselves and adore Him. For this is the true end of Revelation and the true attitude when we understand the world, Nature, History and the working of Allah's Plan.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 54—AL QAMAR

This is an early Makkan Sūrah, the fifth in the series dealing with Judgement, and the truth of Revelation, as explained in the Introduction to S. 50.

The theme of the Sūrah is explained by the refrain: "Is there any that will receive admonition?" which occurs six times, at the end of each reference to a past story of sin and rejection of warnings and in the appeal to the simplicity of the Qur'ān (verses 15, 17, 22, 32, 40, and 51). There is an invitation to listen to the Message and turn to Truth and Righteousness.

Summary—The Hour of Judgement is nigh, but men forget or reject the Message, as did the people of Noah, of 'Ād, of Thamūd, of Lot, and of Pharaoh. Is there any that will receive admonition? (54:1-55, and C. 231).

C. 231. — With every breath of our life, comes nearer
 (54:1-55.) And nearer the Hour of Judgement: the proud
 Will be brought low: the lovers of ease
 Will find themselves in hardship. Come!
 Is there any that will truly receive admonition?
 So said Noah, but his people rejected
 The warning and perished. We have made
 Our Revelation easy to understand and follow.
 Is there any that will truly receive admonition?
 So said the prophets of 'Ād and Thamūd;
 So said the prophets deputed to the People
 Of Luṭ and the Pharaoh: but the wicked continued
 In sin and defiance and perished. Will the present Generation learn wisdom by warning? Alas!
 Is there any that will truly receive admonition?
 The Righteous will dwell in their Gardens of Bliss—
 In joyful Assembly of realised Truth,
 In the Presence of their Sovereign Most High!

Sūrah 54.

Al Qamar (The Moon)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. The Hour (of Judgement)⁵¹²⁷
Is nigh, and the moon
Is cleft asunder.⁵¹²⁸

2. But if they see
A Sign, they turn away,
And say, "This is

3. They reject (the warning)
And follow their (own) lusts
But every matter has⁵¹³⁰
Its appointed time.

4. There have already come
To them Recitals wherein⁵¹³¹
There is (enough) to check (them),

5. Mature wisdom — but
(The preaching of) Warners
Profits them not.

6. Therefore, (O Prophet)⁵¹³²
Turn away from them.

5127. See paragraph 2 of the Introduction to S. 53. The idea of the Judgement being nigh at the beginning of this Sūrah connects it with the same idea at the end of the last Sūrah (verse 57), though the actual words used in the two cases are different.

5128. Three explanations are given in the Mufradāt, and perhaps all three apply here: (1) that the moon once appeared cleft asunder in the valley of Makkah within sight of the Prophet, his Companions, and some Unbelievers; (2) that the prophetic past tense indicates the future, the cleaving asunder of the moon being a Sign of the Judgement approaching; and (3) that the phrase is metaphorical, meaning that the matter has become clear as the moon. That the first was noticed by contemporaries, including Unbelievers, is clear from verse 2. The second is an incident of the disruption of the solar system at the New Creation: Cf. 75:8-9. And the third might well be implied as in eastern allegory, based on the other two.

5129. Mustamirr: transient, or powerful: either meaning will apply. The Unbelievers acknowledge the unusual appearance, but call it magic. They do not therefore profit by the spiritual lesson.

5130. The prevalence of sin and the persecution of truth may have its day, but it must end at last.

5131. The stories of the sins of past generations having been visited with exemplary punishments were already in their possession, and should, if they had been wise, have opened their eyes and checked them in their mad career of sin. Five of these stories are again referred to later in this Sūrah by way of illustration.

5132. For a time godlessness seems to triumph, but the triumph is short-lived. And in any case there is the great Reckoning of the Day of Judgement.

- The Day that the Caller⁵¹³³
Will call (them)
To a terrible affair,
7. They will come forth—
Their eyes humbled—
From (their) graves, (torpid)⁵¹³⁴
Like locusts scattered abroad,
8. Hastening, with eyes transfixed,
Towards the Caller!—
“Hard is this Day!”
The Unbelievers will say.
9. Before them the People
Of Noah rejected (their messenger):
They rejected Our servant,⁵¹³⁵
And said, “Here is
One possessed!”, and he
Was driven out.
10. Then he called on his Lord:
“I am one overcome:
Do Thou then help (me)!”⁵¹³⁶
11. So We opened the gates
Of heaven, with water
Pouring forth.
12. And We caused the earth
To gush forth with springs.
So the waters met (and rose)⁵¹³⁷
To the extent decreed.

- يَوْمَ يَدْعُ الدَّاعِ إِلَى شَيْءٍ مُّكْرٍ ۝
- ۞ خُشْعًا أَبْصَارُهُمْ يَخْرُجُونَ مِنَ الْأَجْدَاثِ
كَأَنَّهُمْ جَرَادٌ مُّنتَشِرٌ ۝
- ۞ تَهْتَطِعِينَ إِلَى الدَّاعِ
يَقُولُ الْكَافِرُونَ هَذَا يَوْمٌ عَسِرٌ ۝
- ۞ كَذَّبَتْ قَبْلَهُمْ قَوْمُ نُوحٍ

- ۞ فَدَعَا رَبَّهُ

- ۞ وَفَجَّرْنَا الْأَرْضَ عُيُونًا
فَالْتَقَى الْمَاءُ عَلَى أَمْرٍ قَدْ قُدِرَ ۝

5133. The angel whose voice will call at the Resurrection and direct all souls. Cf. 20:108-111.

5134. At one stage in the invasion of locust swarms, the locusts are torpid and are scattered abroad all over the ground. I have seen them on railway tracks in 'Irāq, crushed to death in hundreds by passing trains. The simile is apt for the stunned beings who will rise up in swarms from their graves and say, 'Ah! woe unto us! who had raised us up?' (36:52).

5135. The story of Noah and the Flood is frequently referred to in the Qur'ān. The passage which best illustrates this passage will be found in 11:25-48. Note in that passage how they first insult and abuse him arrogantly; how he humbly argues with them; how they laugh him to scorn, as much as to say that he was a madman possessed of some evil spirit; and how the Flood comes and he is saved in the Ark, and the wicked are doomed to destruction.

5136. He did not call down punishment. He merely asked for help in his mission, as he felt himself overpowered by brute force and cast out, which prevented the fulfilment of his mission. But the wicked generation were past all repentance, and they were wiped out.

5137. The torrents of rain from above combined with the gush of waters from underground springs, and caused a huge Flood which inundated the country.

13. But We bore him
On an (Ark) made of
Broad planks and caulked⁵¹³⁸
With palm-fibre:

١٣- وَحَمَلْنَاهُ عَلَىٰ
ذَاتِ الْأَوْبَاقِ وَدُسِّرَ ۝

14. She floats under Our eyes
(And care): a recompense⁵¹³⁹
To one who had been Rejected (with scorn)!

١٤- تَجَوَّرُ بِأَعْيُنِنَا ۚ
جَزَاءً لِّمَن كَانَ كُفِرًا ۝

15. And We have left
This as a Sign⁵¹⁴⁰
(For all time): then
Is there any that will
Receive admonition?⁵¹⁴¹

١٥- وَلَقَدْ تَرَكْنَاهَا آيَةً
فَهَلْ مِنْ مُّذَكِّرٍ ۝

16. But how (terrible) was⁵¹⁴²
My Penalty and My Warning?

١٦- فَكَيْفَ كَانَ عَذَابِي وَنُذُرٍ ۝

17. And We have indeed
Made the Qur'ān easy⁵¹⁴³
To understand and remember:
Then is there any that
Will receive admonition?

١٧- وَلَقَدْ يَسَّرْنَا الْقُرْآنَ لِلذِّكْرِ
فَهَلْ مِنْ مُّذَكِّرٍ ۝

19. The 'Ad (people) (too)
Rejected (Truth): then
How terrible was
My Penalty and My Warning?

١٨- كَذَّبَتْ عَادٌ
فَكَيفَ كَانَ عَذَابِي وَنُذُرٍ ۝

19. For We sent against them⁵¹⁴⁴

١٩- إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ

5138. Dusur, plural of disār, which means the palm fibre with which boats are caulked: from dasara, to ram in, to spear. A derived meaning is "nails", (which are driven into planks): this latter meaning also applies, and is preferred by translators not familiar with the construction of simple boats.

5139. As usual, Allah's Mercy in saving His faithful servants takes precedence of His Wrath and Penalty. And He helps and rewards those whom the world rejects and despises!

5140. Cf. 29:15, where the Ark (with the salvation it brought to the righteous) is mentioned as a Sign for all Peoples. So also in 25:37 and 26:121, it is a Sign for men. Similarly the saving of Lot, with the destruction of the wicked Cities of the Plain, is mentioned as a Sign left for those who would understand: 29, 35, and 51:37.

5141. A refrain that occurs six times in this Sūrah: see Introduction.

5142. While the Mercy of Allah is always prominently mentioned, we must not forget or minimise the existence of Evil, and the terrible Penalty it incurs if the Grace of Allah and His Warning are deliberately rejected.

5143. While the Qur'ān sums up the highest philosophy of the inner life, its simple directions for conduct are plain and easy to understand and act upon. Is this not in itself a part of the Grace of Allah? And what excuse is there for anyone to fail in receiving admonition?

5144. Cf. 41:16. How graphic is the description of the tornado that uprooted them! It must indeed be a dreadful tornado that plucks up the palm trees by their tap-roots. The "Day" is an indefinite period of time. The wind that destroyed the 'Ad people lasted seven nights and eight days: 69:7.

A furious wind, on a Day
Of violent Disaster,

20. Plucking out men as if
They were roots of palm-trees
Torn up (from the ground).
21. Yea, how (terrible) was
My Penalty and My Warning!⁵¹⁴⁵
22. But We have indeed
Made the Qur'ān easy
To understand and remember:
Then is there any that
Will receive admonition?

SECTION 2.

23. The Thamūd (also)
Rejected (their) Warners.
24. For they said: "What!⁵¹⁴⁶
A man! A solitary one
From among ourselves!
Shall we follow such a one?"⁵¹⁴⁷
Truly should we then be
Straying in mind, and mad!
25. "Is it that the Message
Is sent to him,
Of all people amongst us?
Nay, he is a liar
An insolent one!"⁵¹⁴⁸
26. Ah! they will know
On the morrow, which is
The liar, the insolent one!

٢٣- كَذَّبَتْ ثَمُودُ بِالنُّذُرِ ۝

٢٤- فَقَالُوا أَبَشَرًا

٢٥- أَوَلَيْكَ الذِّكْرُ عَلَيْهِ مِنْ بَيْنِنَا
بَلْ هُوَ كَذَّابٌ أَشِرٌ ۝

٢٦- سَيَعْلَمُونَ غَدًا
مَنْ الْكَذَّابُ الْأَشِرُّ ۝

5145. Repeated from verse 18 to heighten the description of the sin, the penalty, and the criminal negligence of the sinners in refusing the warnings on account of their self-complacent confidence in their own strength and stability! It is repeated again as a secondary refrain in 54:30 and (with slight modification) in 54:32 and 39.

5146. The psychology of the Thamūd is more searchingly analysed here than in 41:17, to show up the contrast between shallow men's ideas about Revelation, and the real sanity, humanism, social value, and truth of Revelation. To them the Revelation was brought by Ṣāliḥ.

5147. Because the Preacher is one among so many, and different from them, although brought up among themselves, it is made a cause of reproach against him, when it should have been an index leading to a searching of their hearts and an examination of their ways.

5148. Pure abuse, as a contrast to Ṣāliḥ's expostulation! See 26:141-158, and notes.

27. For We will send
The she-camel⁵¹⁴⁹
By way of trial for them.
So watch them, (O Ṣāliḥ),
And possess thyself in patience!

٢٧- إِنَّا مُرْسِلُوا النَّاقَةِ فِتْنَةً لَهُمْ

28. And tell them that

29. But they called

And he took a sword
In hand, and hamstrung (her).

٢٩- فَنَادَوْا صَاحِبَهُمْ

30. Ah! how (terrible) was
My Penalty and My Warning!

٣٠- فَكَيْفَ كَانَ عَذَابِي وَنُذُرِي ۝

31. For We sent against them⁵¹⁵¹
A single Mighty Blast,
And they became
Like the dry stubble used
By one who pens cattle.⁵¹⁵²

٣١- إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ صَيْحَةً وَاحِدَةً
فَكَانُوا كَالْهَشِيمِ الْمُحْتَظِرِ ۝

32. And We have indeed
Made the Qur'ān easy
To understand and remember:
Then is there any that
Will receive admonition?

٣٢- وَلَقَدْ يَسَّرْنَا الْقُرْآنَ لِلذِّكْرِ
فَهَلْ مِنْ مُدَكِّرٍ ۝

33. The People of Lūṭ⁵¹⁵³
Rejected (his) Warning.

٣٣- كَذَّبَتْ قَوْمُ لُوطٍ بِالنُّذُرِ ۝

34. We sent against them
A violent tornado

٣٤- إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ حَاصِبًا

5149. See n. 1044 to 7:73, for the she-camel as a trial or test among selfish people who tried to monopolise water and pasture as against the poor.

5150. See 26:155-56. All were to have water in due turn. It was to be no one's monopoly. And certainly the gates were not to be shut against the poor or their cattle.

5152. They became like dry sticks such as are used by herdsman in making pens or enclosures for their cattle.

5153. The story of Lot (Lūṭ) and the Cities of the Plain has been frequently referred to. See 11:74-83.

With showers of stones,⁵¹⁵⁴
(Which destroyed them), except Luṭ's household: them We Delivered by early Dawn—

إِلَّا آلَ لُوطٍ
نَجَّيْنَاهُمْ بِسَحَرٍ

35. As a Grace from Us:
Thus do We reward
Those who give thanks.⁵¹⁵⁵

۴۵- نِعْمَةً مِّنْ عِنْدِنَا
كَذَلِكَ نَجْزِي مَنْ شَكَرَ

36. And (Luṭ) did warn them⁵¹⁵⁶
Of Our Punishment, but
They disputed about the Warning.

۴۶- وَلَقَدْ أَنْذَرَهُمْ بَطْشَتَنَا
فَتَمَارَدُوا بِالنَّذْرِ

37. And they even sought
To snatch away his guests⁵¹⁵⁷
From him, but We blinded
Their eyes. (They heard:)
“Now taste ye My Wrath
And My Warning.”

۴۷- وَلَقَدْ رَاوَدُوهُ عَنْ ضَيْفِهِ
فَطَمَسْنَا أَعْيُنَهُمْ
فَذُوقُوا عَذَابِي وَنَذِيرِ

38. Early on the morrow
An abiding Punishment
Seized them:

۴۸- وَلَقَدْ صَبَّتْهُمْ
بَكْرَةٌ عَذَابٌ مُّسْتَقَرٌّ

39. “So taste ye My Wrath
And My Warning.”

۴۹- فَذُوقُوا عَذَابِي وَنَذِيرِ

40. And We have indeed
Made the Qur'ān easy
To understand and remember:
Then is there any that
Will receive admonition?

۵۰- وَلَقَدْ يَتْرَنَا الْقُرْآنَ لِلذِّكْرِ
فَهَلْ مِنْ مُّدْكِرٍ

5154. Hāṣib: a violent tornado bringing a shower of stones. The word occurs here; in 17:68 (without reference to any particular place); in 29:40 (where it seems to refer to Lot's Cities, see n. 3462); and in 67:17 (where again there is no reference to a particular place). In Lot's Cities the shower was of brimstone: see 11:82.

5155. “Giving thanks” to Allah in Quranic phrase is to obey Allah's Law, to do His Will, to practise righteousness, to use all gifts in His service.

5156. Cf. 11:78-79.

5157. Lot had been preaching to them some time against their iniquities. The crisis of their fate came when the two angels came to Lot in the guise of handsome young men. The men of the whole City came in an uproar, assaulted his house, and tried to snatch away the two handsome men. Lot tried to prevent them, but was powerless. Darkness fell on their eyes, as the first stage in their punishment, and before next morning the wicked cities were buried under a shower of brimstone. Lot and his believing household were saved.

SECTION 3.

41. To the People⁵¹⁵⁸
Of Pharaoh, too, aforetime,
Came Warners (from Allah).
42. The (people) rejected all
Our Signs; but We
Seized them with such Penalty
(As comes) from One
Exalted in Power,
Able to carry out His Will.
43. Are your Unbelievers,
(O Quraysh), better than they?⁵¹⁵⁹
Or have ye an immunity
In the Sacred Books?
44. Or do they say:
"We acting together
Can defend ourselves"?
45. Soon will their multitude
Be put to flight,
And they will show
Their backs.
46. Nay, the Hour (of Judgement)
Is the time promised them
(For their full recompense):⁵¹⁶⁰
And that Hour will be
Most grievous and most bitter.

٣١- وَلَقَدْ جَاءَ آلَ فِرْعَوْنَ النُّذُرُ

٣٢- كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا كُلِّهَا
فَأَخَذْنَاهُمْ أَخَذَ
عَزِيزٍ مُّقْتَدِرٍ ○

٣٣- أَكْفَأُكُمْ خَيْرٌ مِنْ أُولَئِكَ
أَمْ لَكُمْ بَرَاءَةٌ فِي الزُّبُرِ ○

٣٤- أَمْ يَقُولُونَ نَحْنُ جَمِيعٌ مُنْتَصِرُونَ ○

٣٥- سَيُلْهَزُمُ الْجَنَّةُ
وَيُولُونَ الدُّبُرَ ○

٣٦- بَلِ السَّاعَةُ مَوْعِدُهُمْ
وَالسَّاعَةُ أَدهَى وَأَمْرٌ ○

5158. The Egyptian people of old are the last people mentioned in this Sūrah as an example of iniquity meeting with punishment. And the moral is driven home to the Pagan Quraysh, to warn them of their fate if they persisted in their evil lives. The Egyptians had many Signs given them. They were gifted people and had made much progress in the sciences and the arts. They could have learnt from history that when the highest virtues disappear, the nation must fall. Moses was brought up among them and commissioned to give Allah's Message to them. But they were arrogant; they were unjust to Allah's creatures; they followed debasing forms of worship; they mocked at Truth; and were at last punished with destruction in the Red Sea for their arrogant leaders and army. See 10:75-90 for a narrative.

5159. If the Egyptians with all their power and science were unable to resist the punishment of their sins, the Pagan Quraysh are asked: how will you fare when you come to a trial of strength against Allah's Truth? You are not specially favoured so as to be immune from Allah's Law. And if you rely on your numbers, they will be a broken reed when the trial comes, as indeed happened at the Battle of Badr.

5160. The calculations of unjust men—on their science, their resources, their numbers, etc.—will in many cases be falsified even in this world, as stated in the last two verses, but their real Punishment will come with Judgement, i.e., when they find their real place in the spiritual world at the restoration of true values. It will then be a most grievous and bitter experience for them, throwing into the shade any calamities they may suffer in this life.

47. Truly those in sin
Are the ones
Straying in mind, and mad.⁵¹⁶¹

۴۷- إِنَّ الْمَجْرِمِينَ فِي ضَلَالٍ وَسُعُرٍ

48. The Day they will be Dragged through the Fire
On their faces,⁵¹⁶² (they Will hear:) "Taste ye
The touch of Hell!"

۴۸- يَوْمَ يُسْحَبُونَ فِي النَّارِ عَلَى وُجُوهِهِمْ
ذُوقُوا مَسَّ سَقَرَ

49. Verily, all things
Have We created
In proportion and measure.⁵¹⁶³

۴۹- إِنَّا كُلَّ شَيْءٍ خَلَقْنَاهُ بِقَدَرٍ

50. And Our Command
Is but a single (Act)—⁵¹⁶⁴
Like the twinkling
Of an eye.

۵۰- وَمَا أَمْرُنَا إِلَّا وَاحِدَةٌ
كَلَمْحٍ بِالْبَصَرِ

51. And (oft) in the past,
Have We destroyed gangs⁵¹⁶⁵
Like unto you: then

۵۱- وَلَقَدْ أَهْلَكْنَا أَشْيَاءَكُمْ

5161. Cf. liv. 24 above. Note how the tables are turned in the argument by the repetition. The unjust think that the godly are wandering in mind and mad. They will find that it is really they who were wandering in mind, and mad, even when they were in the plenitude of their power and in the enjoyment of all the good things of this life. These minor echoes heighten the effect of the major refrain mentioned in the Introduction.

5162. On their faces: the Face is the symbol of Personality. Their whole Personality will be subverted and degraded—in the midst of the Fire of Suffering.

5163. Allah's Creation is not haphazard. Everything goes by law, proportion, and measure. Everything has its appointed time, place, and occasion, as also its definite limitation. Nothing happens but according to His Plan, and every deed, word, and thought of man has its fullest consequences, except insofar as the Grace and Mercy of Allah intervenes, and that is according to law and plan.

5164. While in the life of created things there is "proportion and measure", and a lag of time or distance or circumstance, in Allah's Command, the Design, the Word, the Execution, and the Consequences are but a single Act. The simile given is that of the twinkling of an eye, which is the shortest time that a simple man can think of: the cause which occasions the twinkling, the movement of the muscles connected with it, the closing of the eyelids, and their reopening, are all almost like a simultaneous act. By way of contrast take an illustration life that of a man writing a book. He must form the design in his mind; he must prepare himself by research, collection of knowledge, or of personal experience; he must use or acquire the art of writing; he must collect the material for writing, viz., paper, ink, pen, etc., and this will connect with a chain of manufacturing processes in which he is dependent upon other people's work and experience; then his book may have to be printed or lithographed or bound, and sold, or taken to a library, or presented to a friend, which will bring into play numerous other chains of processes, and dependence upon other people's work or skill; and the lag of Time, Space, and Circumstance will occur at numerous stages. In Allah's Command, the word "Be" (kun) includes everything, without the intervention, of or dependence upon any other being or thing whatever. And this is also another phase of the philosophy of Unity.

5165. Ashyā'akum: 'gangs or parties or collection of men like you'—addressed to wicked men who arrogantly rely upon their own strength or combination, neither of which can stand for a moment against the Will of Allah.

5166. The cases of Pharaoh's men of old and the Pagan Quraysh are considered as parallel, and an appeal is addressed to the latter from the experience of the former: 'will ye not learn and repent?'

5168. The record, in the case of those who dishonoured and violated Truth, will lead to their undoing; but in the case of those who honoured the Truth and adopted it so as to shine in their righteous lives, the result is expressed by four metaphors, in an ascending degree of sublimity: (1) they will be in the midst of Gardens where rivers flow; (2) they will be in an Assembly of Truth; (3) in the Presence of Allah; (4) Whose sovereignty is omnipotent.

"Gardens" with Rivers (flowing beneath): this has been explained more than once already: Cf. n. 4668 to 43:70. The Garden suggests all the Bliss we can imagine through our senses. (R).

5169. While we possess our bodily senses, the best conceptions we can form are through our sense-perceptions, and the Garden is a good symbol from that point of view. The next higher understanding of spiritual truth is through our intellect and social satisfaction. This is best symbolised by the Assembly of Truth — the gathering in which we sit with our fellows and enjoy the realisation of Truth and the dissipation of falsehoods and half-truths.

5170. But there is a higher conception still, something so intensely spiritual that it can only be expressed by reference to the Presence of Allah. (R).

5171. Muqtadir, which is translated Omnipotent, implies something more: the eighth-declension form denotes not only complete mastery, but the further idea that the mastery arises from Allah's own nature, and depends on nothing else whatever. (R).

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 55—AL RAḤMĀN

The majority of Commentators consider this an early Makkan Sūrah, though some consider at least a part of it as dating from Madīnah. The greater part of it is undoubtedly early Makkan.

It is highly poetical and most sublime, and the refrain "Then which of the favours of your Lord will ye deny?" is interspersed 31 times among its 78 verses. (R).

It is the sixth of the series of seven dealing with Revelation, the favours of Allah, and the Hereafter: see Introduction to S. 1.

Here the special theme is indicated by the refrain. The rhyme in most cases is in the Dual grammatical form, and the Argument implies that though things are created in pairs, there is an underlying Unity, through the Creator, in the favours which He bestows, and in the goal to which they are marching.

Summary—Allah Most Gracious has sent Revelation, one of His greatest favours to man; His creation is in pairs, well-balanced; all created things receive His favours, but they will all pass away, and only Allah will endure through the ages (55:1-34, and C. 232).

Ultimately all evil shall return to its destination, as well as all Good, but ever blessed is the name of Allah, Lord of Glory, Honour and Bounty (55:35-78, and C. 233).

C. 232.—Allah's creatures! Which favours of Allah will ye deny?
(55:1-34.) Most Gracious is Allah, Who reveals Himself
In the Qur'ān, in man's Intelligence,
And in the nature around man.
Balance and Justice, Goodness and Care,
Are the Laws of His Worlds. Created
From clay, man can yet comprehend
The Lord of the Easts and the Wests, Him
Who sustains all His creatures, Him
Who bestows the Jewels of Life and Faith,
Him Who abides when all else perisheth,
Him Whose Eternity is the Hope
Of man's Future, the Lord Everlasting
Of Justice and Glory and Bounty and Honour!
Which, then, of the favours of your Lord will ye deny?

Sūrah 55.

Al Raḥmān (The Most Gracious)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. (Allah) Most Gracious!
2. It is He Who has⁵¹⁷²
Taught the Qur'ān.
3. He has created man:
4. He has taught him speech⁵¹⁷³
(And Intelligence).
5. The sun and the moon
Follow courses (exactly)
computed;⁵¹⁷⁴
6. And the herbs⁵¹⁷⁵ and the trees —
Both (alike) bow in adoration.⁵¹⁷⁶
7. And the Firmament has He Raised high, and He has set up
The Balance (of Justice),⁵¹⁷⁷
8. In order that ye may
Not transgress (due) balance.

الْجُزْءُ السَّائِرُ وَالْعَشْرُونَ سُورَةُ الرَّحْمَنِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١-الرَّحْمَنُ ۝

٢-عَلَّمَ الْقُرْآنَ ۝

٣-خَلَقَ الْإِنْسَانَ ۝

وَوَضَعَ الْمِيزَانَ ۝

٨-أَلَّا تَطْغَوْا فِي الْمِيزَانِ ۝

5172. The Revelation comes from Allah Most Gracious, and it is one of the greatest Signs of His grace and favour. He is the source of all Light, and His light is diffused throughout the universe.

5173. Bayān: intelligent speech: power of expression: capacity to understand clearly the relation of things and to explain them. Allah has given this to man, and besides this revelation in man's own heart, has aided him with revelation in nature and revelation through prophets and messengers.

5174. In the great astronomical universe there are exact mathematical laws, which bear witness to Allah's Wisdom and also to His favours to His creatures; for we all profit by the heat and light, the seasons, and the numerous changes in the tides and the atmosphere, on which the constitution of our globe and the maintenance of life depend.

5175. Najm: may mean stars collectively, or herbs collectively; perhaps both meanings are implied.

5176. All nature adores Allah. Cf. 22:18, and n. 2790; 13:15; and 16:48-49.

5178. To be taken both literally and figuratively. A man should be honest and straight in every daily matter, such as weighing out things which he is selling: and he should be straight, just and honest, in all the highest dealings, not only with other people, but with himself and in his obedience to Allah's Law. Not many do either the one or the other when they have an opportunity of deceit. Justice is the central virtue, and the avoidance of both excess and defect in conduct keeps the human world balanced just as the heavenly world is kept balanced by mathematical order.

5179. How can Allah's favours be counted? Look at the earth alone. Life and the conditions here are mutually balanced for Allah's creatures. The vegetable world produces fruit of various kinds and corn or grain of various kinds for human food. The grain harvest yields with it fodder for animals in the shape of leaves and straw, as well as food for men in the shape of grain. The plants not only supply food but sweet-smelling herbs and flowers. Rayḥān is the sweet basil, but is here used in the generic sense, for agreeable produce in the vegetable world, to match the useful produce already mentioned.

5180. Both the pronoun "your" and the verb "will ye deny" are in the Arabic in the Dual Number. The whole Sūrah is a symphony of Duality, which leads up to Unity, as explained in the Introduction. All creation is in pairs: 51:49, and notes 5025-26; 36:36, n. 3981. Justice is the conciliation of two opposites to unity, the settlement of the unending feud between Right and Wrong. The things and concepts mentioned in this Sūrah are in pairs: man and outer nature; sun and moon; herbs and trees; heavens and earth; fruit and corn; human food and fodder for cattle; things nourishing and things sweet-smelling; and so on throughout the Sūrah. Then there is man and jinn, for which see n. 5182 below.

Will ye deny? that is, fail to acknowledge either in word or thought or in your conduct. If you misuse Allah's gifts or ignore them, that is equivalent to ingratitude or denial or refusal to profit by Allah's infinite Grace.

5181. See n. 1966 to 15:26. The creation of men and Jinns is contrasted. Man was made of sounding clay, dry and brittle like pottery. The Jinn (see next note) was made from a clear flame of fire. Yet each has capacities and possibilities which only Allah's Grace bestows on them. How can they deny Allah's favours?

5182. For the meaning of Jinn, see n. 929 to 6:100. They are spirits, and therefore subtle like a flame of fire. Their being free from smoke implies that they are free from grossness, for smoke is the grosser accompaniment of fire. (R).

16. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?⁵¹⁸³

١٦- فَيَا أَيُّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكْذِبِينَ ○

17. (He is) Lord
Of the two Easts⁵¹⁸⁴
And Lord
Of the two Wests:

١٧- رَبُّ الْمَشْرِقَيْنِ
وَرَبُّ الْمَغْرِبَيْنِ ○

18. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

١٨- فَيَا أَيُّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكْذِبِينَ ○

19. He has let free⁵¹⁸⁵
The two bodies
Of flowing water,
Meeting together:

١٩- مَرَجَ الْبَحْرَيْنِ
يَلْتَقِيانِ ○

20. Between them is a Barrier
Which they do not transgress:

٢٠- بَيْنَهُمَا بَرْزَخٌ لَا يَبْغِيانِ ○

21. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

٢١- فَيَا أَيُّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكْذِبِينَ ○

22. Out of them come
Pearls and Coral:⁵¹⁸⁶

٢٢- يَخْرُجُ مِنْهُمَا اللُّؤْلُؤُ وَالْمَرْجَانُ ○

23. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

٢٣- فَيَا أَيُّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكْذِبِينَ ○

5183. Part of the idea of this refrain will be found in 16:71, 72; 40:81; and 53:55 (where see n. 5122).

5184. The two Easts are the two extreme points where the sun rises during the year, and includes all the points between. Similarly the two Wests include the two extreme points of the sun's setting and all the points between. The Dual Number fits in with the general atmosphere of Duality in this Sūrah. Allah is Lord of every region of the earth and sky, and He scatters His bounties everywhere. See also n. 4641 to 43:38, and n. 4034 to 37:5.

5185. See 25:53. and n. 3111, where it is explained how the two bodies of water, salt and sweet, meet together, yet keep separate, as if there was a barrier or partition between them. This is also one of the favours of Allah. Sea water is a sanitating agent, while fresh water is sweet and palatable to drink. For the allegorical interpretation, see notes 2404-5 to 18:60; also n. 5186 (end) below.

5186. Pearls are produced by the oyster and coral by the polyp, a minute marine creature which, working in millions, has by its secretions produced the reefs, islands, and banks in and on both sides of the Red Sea and in other parts of the world. The pearl has a translucent lustre, usually white, but sometimes pink or black. Coral is usually opaque, red or pink, but often white, and is seen in beautiful branching or cup-like shapes as visitors to Port Sudan will recall. Both are used as gems and stand here for gems generally. Mineral gems, such as agate and cornelian, are found in river-beds. Pearl oysters are also found in some rivers.

Taken allegorically, the two kinds of gems would denote the jewels of this life and the jewels of the spiritual world. The jewels of this world—like coral—are hard, widely spread over the world, comparatively cheap, and less absorptive of the light from above. The spiritual jewels—like pearls—are soft, rare, costly, and translucent, absorbent of light and showing the more lustre the more they are in light. The analogy can be carried further to the two seas—the two bodies of flowing water—mentioned in verses 19-20 above. They are the two kinds of knowledge—human and divine—referred to in the story of Moses and Khidr: see notes 2404-5 to 18:60..

24. And His are the Ships⁵¹⁸⁷
Sailing smoothly through the seas,
Lofty as mountains:⁵¹⁸⁸

25. Then which of the favours

٢٤- فَيَأْتِي الْآءَ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبِينَ ۝

SECTION 2.

26. All that is on earth
Will perish:

٢٥- كُلُّ مَنْ عَلَيْهَا فَانٍ ۝

27. But will abide (forever)
The Face of thy Lord — ⁵¹⁸⁹
Full of Majesty,
Bounty and Honour.⁵¹⁹⁰

ذُو الْجَلَالِ وَالْإِكْرَامِ ۝

28. Then which of the favours

29. Of Him seeks (its need)⁵¹⁹¹

Every day in (new) Splendour⁵¹⁹²
Doth He (shine)!

٢٨- يَسْأَلُهُ مَنْ فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
كُلُّ يَوْمٍ هُوَ فِي شَأْنٍ ۝

30. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

٢٩- فَيَأْتِي الْآءَ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبِينَ ۝

5187. The Ships—sailing ships and steamers, and by extension of the analogy, aeroplanes and airships majestically navigating the air—are made by man, but the intelligence and science which made them possible are given by man's Creator; and therefore the Ships also are the gifts of Allah.

5189. The most magnificent works of man—such as they are—are but fleeting. Ships, Empires, the Wonders of Science and Art, the splendours of human glory or intellect, will all pass away. The most magnificent objects in outer Nature—the mountains and valleys, the sun and moon, the Constellation Orion and the star Sirius—will also pass away in their appointed time. But the only One that will endure forever is the "Face" of Allah. "Face" expresses Personality, Glory, Majesty, Inner Being, Essence, Self—all the noble qualities which we associate with the Beautiful Names of Allah. See n. 114 to 2:112; also n. 1154 to 7:180, and n. 2322 to 17:110.

5190. Ikrām: two ideas are prominent in the word. (1) the idea of generosity, as proceeding from the person whose attribute it is, and (2) the idea of honour, as given by others to the person whose attribute it is. Both these ideas are summed up in "nobility". To make the meaning quite clear, I have employed in the translation the two words "Bounty and Honour" for the single word Ikrām. The same attributes recur in the last verse of this Sūrah. In the Fact of Allah's Eternity is the Hope of our Future.

5191. Every single creature depends on Allah for its needs: of all of them the Cherisher and Sustainer is Allah. Seek (its needs): does not necessarily mean 'seek them in words': what is meant is the dependence: the allusion is to the Source of supply.

5192. Shā'n: state, splendour; aim, work, business, momentous affair. Allah's is still the directing hand in all affairs. He does not sit apart, careless of mankind or of any of His creatures. But His working shows new Splendour every day, every hour, every moment.

31. Soon shall We
Settle your affairs,
O both ye worlds!⁵¹⁹³

٣١- سَنَفْرُغُ لَكُمْ أَيُّهَ الثَّقَلَيْنِ ۝

32. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

٣٢- فَيَا أَيُّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبِينَ ۝

33. O ye assembly of Jinns⁵¹⁹⁴
And men! If it be
Ye can pass beyond
The zones of the heavens
And the earth, pass ye!
Not without authority
Shall ye be able to pass!

٣٣- يٰعَشْرَ الْجِنِّ وَالْإِنْسِ إِنِ اسْتَطَعْتُمْ
أَنْ تَنْفُذُوا مِنْ أَقْطَارِ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
فَاَنْفُذُوا
لَا تَنْفُذُونَ إِلَّا بِسُلْطَنِ ۝

34. Then which of the favours⁵¹⁹⁵
Of your Lord will ye deny?

٣٤- فَيَا أَيُّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبِينَ ۝

C. 233. — Let not Evil think that it will escape
(55:35-78.) Justice: its telltale Mark is on those Who follow it, and it must meet its Reward
In the final adjustment. But the Good,
The Righteous, must reach their Fulfilment
In the Gardens of Bliss, where every Delight
Will be theirs in Beauty and Dignity.
How can such Delights be pictured in words?
In symbols subjective let each take his choice.
For Good can there ever be any Reward
Other than Good? Beautiful sights
And sounds, delicious fruits to nourish
The soul, and Companionship where Grace
Is mingled with Love, may figure forth our Bliss.

5193. Thaqal: weight, something weighty, something weighed with something else. The two thaqals are Jinns and men who are burdened with responsibility or, as some commentators hold, with sin. They are both before Allah, and the affairs of both are conducted under His Command. If there are inequalities or apparent disturbances of balance, that is only for a season. Allah gives to both good and evil men a chance in this period of probation; but this period will soon be over, and Judgement will be established. To give you this chance, this probation, this warning, is itself a favour, by which you should profit, and for which you should be grateful. (R).

5194. Cf. 6:130, where the Jinns and men are addressed collectively. That whole passage, 6:130-134, should be read as a commentary on this verse. 'If you think that because you do things in secret, or because some of your sins do not seem to meet their inevitable punishment or some of your good deeds seem to go unnoticed, do not be deceived. Judgement will soon come. You cannot possibly escape out of the zones in which your lives have been cast, without authority from Allah. Be grateful to Allah for the chances He has given you'. All that hath been promised unto you will come to pass: nor can ye frustrate it in the least bit" (6:134).

5195. Note how gradually we have been led up in the Argument. 'The Signs of Allah are all about you, in revelation, in your intelligence, and in nature around you. Your creation; the mystic light and heat typified by the sun in all directions; the cycle of waters in the physical earth and of Knowledge in the world of Intelligence; the help and cherishing care of Allah Himself—all these things should teach you the Truth and warn you about the Future, which is more particularly referred to in the remainder of the Sūrah.

Blessed be Allah, full of Majesty and Bounty.
Allah's creatures! What favours of Allah will ye deny?

35. On you will be sent
(O ye evil ones twain!)⁵¹⁹⁶
A flame of fire (to burn)
And a smoke (to choke):⁵¹⁹⁷
No defence will ye have:
36. Then which of the favours⁵¹⁹⁸
Of your Lord will ye deny?
37. When the sky is rent
Asunder, and it becomes red
Like ointment:⁵¹⁹⁹
38. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?
39. On that Day
No question will be asked⁵²⁰⁰
Of man or Jinn
As to his sin,
40. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?
41. (For) the sinners will be Known by their Marks:⁵²⁰¹
And they will be seized
By their forelocks and
Their feet.

۳۵- يُرْسَلُ عَلَيْكُمَا شَوَاظٌ مِّن نَّارٍ

۳۶- فَيَأْتِي الْآءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَنِ ۝

۳۸- فَيَأْتِي الْآءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَنِ ۝

۴۱- يُعْرَفُ الْمُجْرِمُونَ بِسِيمَاهُمْ
فَيُؤْخَذُ بِالنَّوَاصِي وَالْأَقْدَامِ ۝

5196. The Dual is with reference to the two worlds explained above in n. 5193.

5197. We now come to the terrors of the Judgement on the evil ones.

5198. Here and in some of the verses that follow, (verses 40, 42, and 45 below), the refrain applies with an ironical meaning. It is as if it was said: 'You used to laugh at Revelation, and at the warnings which were given for your own benefit in order to draw you to repentance and Allah's Mercy; what do you find now? Is not all that was said to you true?' To reject Allah's Law is in itself to deny Allah's Mercies.

5199. Melting away like grease or ointment. The red colour will be due to the flames and the heat. The whole of the world as we know it now will dissolve.

5200. This does not of course mean that they will not be called to account for their sin. They will certainly be called to account for all their deeds: 15:92. The meaning of this whole passage is that their personal responsibility will be enforced. But their own tongues and hands and feet will bear witness against them as to their actions: 24:24. Every man will bear marks on his person, showing his classification in the Final Account: 7:48. After these Marks are affixed, everyone's position and status in the Final Account will be known to everyone. As to the Judge on the Throne of Judgement. He will of course know all before Judgement is set up. But to give every chance to the accused, his record will be produced and shown to him (49:19,25; 18:49), and he will be given a chance to plead (7:53), but if a sinner, he will be in confusion (28:66).

5201. By their Marks: see last note.

42. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

43. This is the Hell which
The Sinners deny:⁵²⁰²

44. In its midst
And in the midst
Of boiling hot water
Will they wander round!⁵²⁰³

45. Then which of the favours

SECTION 3.

46. But for such as fear
The time when they will Stand before (the Judgement
Seat⁵²⁰⁴
Of) their Lord,

48. Containing all kinds
(Of trees and delights)—

49. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

50. In them (each) will be
Two Springs flowing (free);⁵²⁰⁶

51. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

٢٢- فَيَا أَيُّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكْذِبِينَ ۝

٣١- فَيَا أَيُّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكْذِبِينَ ۝

5202. It will then become too real to them. "Oh! that this too, too solid flesh would melt", as Hamlet said to his Queen-Mother (Hamlet, i. 2. 129).

5203. They will apparently have no rest. The fire will burn but not consume them, and their drink will be only boiling water.

5204. The reference to the Punishment of Sin having been dismissed in a few short lines, we now come to a description of the state of the Blessed. (R).

5205. Here two Gardens are mentioned, and indeed four, counting the other two mentioned in 55:62-76. Opinions are divided about this, but the best opinion is that the two mentioned in verses 46-61 are for the degree of those Nearest to Allah (Muqarrabūn), and those in verses 62-76 for the Companions of the Right Hand: Why two for each? The Duality is to express variety, and the whole scheme of the Sūrah runs in twos. There will be no dullness of uniformity: as our minds can conceive it now, there will be freshness in change, but it will be from Bliss to Bliss, and there will be Unity. (R).

5206. Two Springs, for the same reasons as there will be two Gardens. See last note.

52. In them will be Fruits
Of every kind, two and two.⁵²⁰⁷
53. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?
54. They will recline on Carpets,
Whose inner linings will be
Of rich brocade: the Fruit
Of the Gardens will be
Near (and easy of reach).⁵²⁰⁸
55. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?
56. In them will be (Maidens),⁵²⁰⁹
Chaste, restraining their glances,⁵²¹⁰
Whom no man or Jinn
Before them has touched—
57. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?
58. Like unto rubies and coral.⁵²¹¹
59. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?
60. Is there any Reward
For Good—other than Good?⁵²¹²
61. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?
62. And besides these two,
There are two other Gardens—⁵²¹³

٥٧- فَيَا أَيُّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبِينَ ۝

٦١- فَيَا أَيُّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبِينَ ۝

٦٢- وَمِنْ دُونِهِمَا جَنَّتَيْنِ ۝

5207. The Duality of Fruits is for the same reason as the Duality of the Gardens. See n. 5205.

5208. The toil and fatigue of this life will be over: Cf. 35:35.

5209. See notes 4728-29 to 44:54. (R).

5210. Cf. 37:48 and n. 4064. Their purity is the feature chiefly symbolised.

5211. Delicate pink, with reference to their complexions and their beauty of form. The gems also indicate their worth and dignity.

5212. This is the summing up of all the symbolism used to express the Fruit of Goodness or Good. The symbolism must necessarily resort to comparative terms, to subjective ideas of Bliss. But the fullest expression can only be given in abstract terms: "Is there any reward for Good—other than Good?" Can anything express it better?

5213. See n. 5205 above.

63. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

64. Dark green in colour⁵²¹⁴
(From plentiful watering).

65. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

66. In them (each) will be
Two Springs pouring forth
water⁵²¹⁵
In continuous abundance:

67. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

68. In them will be Fruits,
And dates and pomegranates:⁵²¹⁶

69. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

70. In them will be Fair (Companions), good, beautiful — ⁵²¹⁷

71. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

72. Companions restrained (as to⁵²¹⁸
Their glances), in (goodly) pavilions — ⁵²¹⁹

73. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

٦٣- فَيَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا رَبِّكُمْ تَكْذِبُونَ ۚ

٦٤- مُدْهَامَاتَيْنِ ۚ

٦٥- فَيَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا رَبِّكُمْ تَكْذِبُونَ ۚ

٦٦- فِيهِمَا عَيْنَانِ تَصْاخَتَانِ ۚ

٦٧- فَيَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا رَبِّكُمْ تَكْذِبُونَ ۚ

٦٨- فِيهِمَا تَلَكُكُهُ تَوْنُجٌ وَرُفَّانٌ ۚ

٦٩- فَيَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا رَبِّكُمْ تَكْذِبُونَ ۚ

٧٠- فِيهِنَّ خَبْرَتٌ حَسَنٌ ۚ

٧١- فَيَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا رَبِّكُمْ تَكْذِبُونَ ۚ

٧٢- حُورٌ مَّقْصُورَاتٌ فِي الْخِيَامِ ۚ

٧٣- فَيَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا رَبِّكُمْ تَكْذِبُونَ ۚ

5214. Dark green in colour"; these Gardens will also be fruitful and flourishing, and watered plentifully; but their aspect and characteristics will be different, corresponding to the subjective differences in the ideas of Bliss among those who would respectively enjoy the two sets of Gardens.

5215. In comparison with the Springs in the other two Gardens, described in 55:50 above, these Springs would seem to irrigate crops of vegetables and fruits requiring a constant supply of abundant water.

5216. See last note. Cf. also with 55:52 above, where "fruits of every kind" are mentioned.

5217. see n. 5209 above. Goodness and Beauty are specially feminine attributes.

5218. Maqṣūrāt here is the passive participle of the same verb as the active participle Qāṣirāt in 55:56, 37:48 and 38:52. As I have translated Qāṣirāt by the phrase "restraining (their glances)", I think I am right in translating the passive Maqṣūrāt by "restrained (as to their glances)". This is the only place in the Qur'an where the passive form occurs.

5219. The Pavilions seem to add dignity to their status. In the other Gardens (55:58), the description "like rubies and corals" is perhaps an indication of higher dignity.

74. Whom no man or Jinn
Before them has touched—

٤٢- لَمْ يَطْمِثْهُنَّ اِنْسٌ قَبْلَهُمْ وَلَا جَانٌّ ۝

75. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

٤٣- فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَنِ ۝

76. Reclining on green Cushions⁵²²⁰
And rich Carpets of beauty.

٤٤- مُتَكِيْنٌ عَلَى رَفْرَفٍ خُضْرٍ وَعَبْقَرِيٍّ حِسْلِ ۝

77. Then which of the favours
Of your Lord will ye deny?

٤٥- فَبِأَيِّ آلَاءِ رَبِّكُمَا تُكَذِّبَنِ ۝

78. Blessed be the name
Of thy Lord;
Full of Majesty,
Bounty and Honour.⁵²²¹

٤٦- تَبَارَكَ اسْمُ رَبِّكَ
ذِي الْجَلَالِ وَالْاِكْرَامِ ۝

5220. Cf. the parallel words for the other two Gardens, in 55:54 above, which suggest perhaps a higher dignity.

Rafraf is usually translated by Cushions or Pillows, and I have followed this meaning in view of the word "reclining". But another interpretation is "Meadows", in view of the adjective "green"—abqarī: carpets richly figured and dyed, and skillfully worked.

5221. Cf. 55:27 and n. 5190. This minor echo completes the symmetry of the two leading Ideas of this Surah—the Bounty and Majesty of Allah, and the Duty of man to make himself worthy of nearness to Allah.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 56—AL WĀQI'AH

This is the seventh and last Sūrah of the series devoted to Revelation and the Hereafter, as explained in the Introduction to S. 50.

It belongs to the early Makkan period, with the possible exception of one or two verses.

The theme is the certainty of the Day of Judgement and its adjustment of true Values (56:1-56); Allah's Power, Goodness and Glory (56:57-74); and the truth of Revelation (56:75-96).

Summary—When the Day of Judgement comes, the world as we know it will be shaken to its foundations, and men shall be sorted out into three sorts: Those nearest to Allah, in exalted Bliss; the Companions of the Right Hand, in Bliss; and the Companions of the Left Hand, in Misery (56:1-56, and C. 234).

Surely the Power and Goodness of Allah, of which Revelation is a Sign, should lead man to accept the Message and glorify Him (56:57-96. and C. 235).

C. 234. — The Event Inevitable is the Day
 (56:1-56) Of Judgement: the world as we know it
 Will be shaken to its depths, and its place
 Will be taken by a world made new,
 Where Good will be sorted out from Evil.
 In Dignity and Bliss will the Good find Fulfilment:
 Both those Nearest to the Throne of Allah,
 And those who earned, by faith and good life,
 The title, Companions of the Right Hand.
 Who can tell of the Misery in which
 The Companions of the Left Hand will live?
 They will be as it were in a fierce blast
 Of Fire; their drink but boiling water;
 Their shade that of Black Smoke that chokes
 Their lungs—ever burning with hunger and thirst,
 And never satisfied: fit emblems
 Of the Life in Death to which Evil leads.

Sūrah 56.

Al Wāq'ah (The Inevitable)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. When the Event Inevitable⁵²²²
Cometh to pass,
2. Then will no (soul)
Entertain falsehood
Concerning its coming.
3. (Many) will it bring low;⁵²²³
(Many) will it exalt;
4. When the earth shall be
Shaken to its depths,
5. And the mountains shall
Be crumbled to atoms,⁵²²⁴
6. Becoming dust scattered abroad,
7. And ye shall be sorted out
Into three classes.⁵²²⁵
8. Then (there will be)
The Companions of
The Right Hand—
What will be
The Companions of
The Right Hand?

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- إِذَا وَقَعَتِ الْوَاقِعَةُ ۝

۲- لَيْسَ لَوْعَتَيْهَا كَاذِبَةٌ ۝

۳- خَافِضَةٌ رَافِعَةٌ ۝

۴- إِذَا رُجَّتِ الْأَرْضُ رَجًا ۝

۵- وَبُتَّتِ الْجِبَالُ بَتًّا ۝

۶- فَكَانَتْ هَبَاءً مُنْبَثًّا ۝

۷- وَكُنْتُمْ أَزْوَاجًا ثَلَاثَةً ۝

۸- فَأَصْحَابُ الْيَمِينِ ۝

مَا أَصْحَابُ الْيَمِينِ ۝

5222. The Event Inevitable is the Hour of Judgement. People may doubt now whether it will come. But when it comes, as it will come, suddenly upon them, it will come with such tremendous reality that it will be burnt deep into the experience of every soul. No one can then be deceived or entertain false notions about it.

5223. There will be a sorting out of Good and Evil. Or rather, (verse 7 below), there will be three main classes. Among the Good there will be the specially exalted class, those nearest to Allah (muqarrabūn, 56:11-26), and the righteous people generally, called the Companions of the Right Hand (Ashāb al maymanah, 56:27-40). And there will be those in agony, the Companions of the Left Hand (Ashāb al mash'amah, 56:41-56). Many who were high and mighty in this life will be brought low for their sins, and many who were lowly but virtuous will be exalted to various ranks and degrees. The old landmarks will be lost in the inner world, as they will be in the outer world.

5224. The old physical world will disappear in the New Creation.

5226. Foremost (in Faith): There are two meanings, and both are implied. (1) Those who have reached the highest degree in spiritual understanding, such as the great prophets and teachers of mankind, will also take precedence in the Hereafter. (2) Those who are the first in time—the quickest and readiest—to accept Allah's Message—will have the first place in the Kingdom of Heaven. Verses 8,9 and 10 mention the three main categories or classifications after Judgement. In the subsequent verses their happiness or misery are symbolised. This category, Foremost in Faith, is nearest to Allah.

5227. See n. 5223 above. Nearness to Allah is the test of the highest Bliss. (R).

5228. Of great Prophets and Teachers there were many before the time of the Holy Prophet Muḥammad. As he was the last of the Prophets, he and the great Teachers under his Dispensation will be comparatively fewer in number, but their teaching is the sum and flower of all mankind's spiritual experience.

5229. Cf. 15:47; 37:44, 52:20, and 48:13. [Eds.].

5230. But they will not be separate each in his own corner. They will face each other. For they are all one, and their mutual society will be part of their Bliss.

5231. Cf. 52:24, and n. 5058. The youth and freshness with which the attendants will serve is a symbol of true service such as we may expect in the spiritual world. That freshness will be perpetual and not subject to any moods, or chances, or changes.

18. With goblets, (shining) beakers,
And cups (filled) out of
Clear-flowing fountains:
19. No after-ache will they Receive therefrom, nor will they
Suffer intoxication:⁵²³²
20. And with fruits,
Any that they may select;
21. And the flesh of fowls,
Any that they may desire.
22. And (there will be) Companions
With beautiful, big,
And lustrous eyes—⁵²³³
23. Like unto Pearls⁵²³⁴
Well-guarded.
24. A Reward for the Deeds
Of their past (Life).
25. No frivolity will they⁵²³⁵
Hear therein, nor any
Taint of ill—
26. Only the saying,⁵²³⁶
“Peace! Peace”.

- ٢٦- إِلَّا قِيلًا سَلَامًا سَلَامًا ۝
- ٢٧- وَأَصْحَابُ الْيَمِينِ ۝ مَا

5232. The Feast of Reason and the Flow of Soul are typified by all that is best in the feasts in this imperfect world, but there will be none of the disadvantages incident to such feasts in this world, such as satiety, aches, excess, a sense of exhaustion, or loss of senses, etc. Cf. 37:47, and n. 4063. A goblet is a bowl without handles; a beaker has a “lip” and a stem; “cup” is a general term.

5233. Cf. 44:54, and n. 4729. The companionship of Beauty and Grace is one of the highest pleasures of life. In this bodily life it takes bodily form. In the higher life it takes a higher form. (R).

5234. Cf. 52:24, where this description is applied to the youths who serve. See also n. 5058 there. In 56:78 below the adjective maknūn is applied to the Qur’ān, “the well-guarded Book”.

5235. Cf. 52:23. Apart from the physical ills, worldly feasts or delights are apt to suffer from vain or frivolous discourse, idle boasting, foolish flattery, or phrases pointed with secret venom or moral mischief. The negation of these from spiritual Bliss follows as a matter of course, but it is specially insisted on to guard against the perversities of human nature, which likes to read ill into the best that can be put in words.

5236. Qāl is best translated “saying”, rather than “word”. For the saying is an act, a thought, a fact, which may be embodied in a word, but which goes far beyond the word. The “Peace of Allah” is an atmosphere which sums up Heaven even better than “Bliss”.

The Companions of The Right Hand!	أَصْحَابُ الْيَمِينِ ۖ
28. (They will be) among ⁵²³⁷ Lote trees without thorns,	ۚ فِي سِدْرٍ مَّخْضُودٍ ۖ
29. Among Talh trees ⁵²³⁸ With flowers (or fruits) Piled one above another—	ۚ وَطَلْحٍ مَّنْضُودٍ ۖ
30. In shade long-extended,	ۚ وَظِلٍّ مَّمْدُودٍ ۖ
31. By water flowing constantly,	ۚ وَمَاءٍ مَّسْكُوبٍ ۖ
32. And fruit in abundance,	ۚ وَفَاكِهَةٍ كَثِيرَةٍ ۖ
33. Whose season is not limited, Nor (supply) forbidden, ⁵²³⁹	ۚ لَا مَقْطُوعَةٍ وَلَا مَمْنُوعَةٍ ۖ
34. And on Thrones (of Dignity), Raised high.	ۚ وَفُرُشٍ مَّرْفُوعَةٍ ۖ
35. We have created (their Companions) ⁵²⁴⁰ Of special creation,	ۚ إِنَّا أَنْشَأْنَاهُنَّ إِنْشَاءً ۖ
36. And made them Virgin-pure (and undefiled)—	ۚ فَجَعَلْنَاهُنَّ أَبْكَارًا ۖ
37. Beloved (by nature), Equal in age—	ۚ عُرُبًا أَتْرَابًا ۖ
38. For the Companions Of the Right Hand.	ۚ لِأَصْحَابِ الْيَمِينِ ۖ

5237. Lote trees: see 34:16 n. 3814. (R).

5238. Talh: some understand by this the plantain or banana tree, of which the fruit is borne in bunches, one tier above another; but the banana tree does not grow in Arabia and its ordinary Arabic name is Mawz; perhaps it is better to understand a special kind of Acacia tree, which flowers profusely, the flowers appearing in tiers one above another.

5239. As it is not like earthly fruit, its season is not limited, nor is there any prohibition by law or custom or circumstance as to when or how it is to be consumed. (R).

5240. The pronoun in Arabic is in the feminine gender, but lest grosser ideas of sex should intrude, it is made clear that these Companions for heavenly society will be of special creation—of virginal purity, grace, and beauty inspiring and inspired by love, with the question of time and age eliminated. Thus every person among the Righteous will have the Bliss of Heaven and the Peace of Allah.

SECTION 2.

39. أ (goodly) number
From those of old,⁵²⁴¹
40. And a (goodly) number
From those of later times.
41. The Companions of
The Left Hand—
What will be
The Companions of
The Left Hand?
42. (They will be) in the midst
Of a fierce Blast of Fire⁵²⁴²
And in Boiling Water,
43. And in the shades
Of Black Smoke:⁵²⁴³
44. Nothing (will there be)

45. For that they were wont
To be indulged, before that,
In wealth (and luxury),⁵²⁴⁴
46. And persisted obstinately
In wickedness supreme!^{5244-A}
47. And they used to say,
"What! when we die
And become dust and bones,⁵²⁴⁵

٤٠-وَأُخْرَىٰ مِنَ الْآخِرِينَ ۝

٤١-وَأَصْحَابُ الشِّمَالِ ؕ
مَا أَصْحَابُ الشِّمَالِ ۝

٤٢-فِي سَعُورٍ وَحَمِيمٍ ۝

٤٣-وَزَظْلٍ مِنْ يَحُومٍ ۝

٤٤-لَا بَارِدٌ وَلَا كَرِيمٌ ۝

٤٥-إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا قَبْلَ ذَلِكَ مُتْرَفِينَ ۝

٤٦-وَكَانُوا يُصِرُّونَ عَلَى الْحِنثِ الْعَظِيمِ ۝

٤٧-وَكَانُوا يَقُولُونَ ؕ
إِنَّا مِتْنَا وَكُنَّا تُرَابًا وَعِظَامًا

5241. This class—the righteous—will be a large company in Heaven, belonging to all the ages of the world. Cf. n. 5228 to 56:13 above. Such is the unbounded Bounty of Allah. These verses 39-40 should really be in the last Section.

5242. Notice the parallelism in the contrast between those in Bliss and those in Misery. The allegory in each case pursues the idea of contrast, and the allegories about Misery lose nothing by their terse brevity. The fierce Blast of Fire and the Boiling Water are in contrast to the happy Lote tree and the flowers and fruits in verses 28-29 above.

5243. Even the Shades get a different quality in the Abode of Misery: shades of black smoke in contrast to the cool and refreshing long extended shades of trees by brooks in verses 30-31 above.

5244. Cf. 34:34, and 43:23. We must read verses 45-46 together. They had wealth and the good things of life, but they used them in self-indulgence and shameless crime, and now they are in humiliation.

5244-A. Wickedness supreme: i.e. their associating others with Allah in His divinity. [Eds.].

5245. Their want of belief and ridicule of Allah's Message contrasts with the stern reality which they see around them now.

- Shall we then indeed
Be raised up again?—
48. "(We) and our fathers of old?"
49. Say: "Yea, those of old
And those of later times,
50. "All will certainly be
Gathered together for the meeting
Appointed for a Day
Well-known."⁵²⁴⁶
51. "Then will ye truly—
O ye that go wrong,
And treat (Truth) as Falsehood!—
52. "Ye will surely taste
Of the Tree of Zaqqum."⁵²⁴⁷
53. "Then will ye fill
Your insides therewith,
54. "And drink Boiling Water
On top of it:
55. "Indeed ye shall drink
Like diseased camels
Raging with thirst!"⁵²⁴⁸
56. Such will be their entertainment
On the Day of Requital!
- وَرَأَيْنَا كَبَعُوثُونَ ۝
۴۸- أَوْ آبَاؤُنَا الْأَوَّلُونَ ۝
۴۹- قُلْ إِنَّ الْأَوَّلِينَ وَالْآخِرِينَ ۝
۵۰- لَمَجْمُوعُونَ إِلَىٰ مِيقَاتِ
يَوْمٍ مَّعْلُومٍ ۝
۵۱- ثُمَّ إِنَّكُمْ أَيْتَهَا الضَّالُّونَ
الْمُكَذِّبُونَ ۝
۵۲- لَا يَكُونُ مِنْ شَجَرٍ مِنْ زَقُّومٍ ۝
۵۳- فَيَأْكُلُونَ مِنْهَا الْبُطُونَ ۝
۵۴- فَشَرِبُونَ عَلَيْهِ مِنَ الْحَمِيمِ ۝
۵۵- فَشَرِبُونَ شُرْبَ الْهَيْمِ ۝
۵۶- هَذَا نُزْلُهُمْ يَوْمَ الدِّينِ ۝

C. 235. — Learn ye then to witness the Truth in your lives.
(56:57-96.) Your own creation and growth, the seeds
That ye sow in the ground, the Circuit of Water
Through streams, rivers, and seas, to vapour,
Clouds, and rain that feeds the streams,
The Fire that stands as an emblem of Life
And Light—all point to your Lord Supreme.

5246. In 26:38 (see n. 3159) the phrase a day well-known is used for a solemn day of festival, when the multitude of people gather together. The Day of Judgement is such a day in the supreme sense of the word.

5247. This is the Cursed Tree mentioned in 17:60, where see n. 2250. Cf. also 37:62, n. 4072; and 44:43-46 and n. 4722.

5248. A terrible picture of Misery in contrast to the Companionship of the Good, the True, and the Beautiful, on Thrones of Dignity, for the Companions of the Right Hand, in verses 34-38 above.

His Revelation conveys the same Message
To the pure in heart. Will ye receive it
And live, assured of the truth of the Hereafter?
Glory and Praise to Allah the Beneficent,
Supreme to Justice, Mercy, and Truth!

57. It is We Who have Created you: why will ye⁵²⁴⁹
Not witness the Truth?

٥٧- نَحْنُ خَلَقْنَاكُمْ
فَلَوْ لَا تَصَدِّقُونَ ۝

58. Do ye then see?—
The {human Seed} that
Ye throw out,—

٥٨- أَفَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا تُمْنُونَ ۝

59. Is it ye who create it,
Or are We the Creators?

٥٩- أَمْ أَنْتُمْ خَالِقُونَ ۚ أَمْ نَحْنُ الْخَالِقُونَ ۝

60. We have decreed Death
To be your common lot,⁵²⁵⁰
And We are not
To be frustrated

٦٠- نَحْنُ قَدْ زَيَّنَّا بَيْنَكُمْ الْمَوْتَ
وَمَا نَحْنُ بِسَبُّوقِينَ ۝

61. From changing your Forms
And creating you (again)
In (Forms) that ye know not.

٦١- عَلَى أَنْ تُبَدِّلَ أَمْثَالَكُمْ
وَنُنشِئَكُمْ فِي مَا لَا تَعْلَمُونَ ۝

62. And ye certainly know already
The first form of creation:
Why then do ye not
Celebrate His praises?

٦٢- وَلَقَدْ عَلِمْتُمُ النَّشْأَةَ الْأُولَى
فَلَوْ لَا تَذْكُرُونَ ۝

63. See ye the seed that⁵²⁵¹
Ye sow in the ground?

٦٣- أَفَرَأَيْتُمْ مَا تَحْرُثُونَ ۝

64. Is it ye that cause it
To grow, or are We
The Cause?

٦٤- أَمْ أَنْتُمْ تُزْرِعُونَهُ
أَمْ نَحْنُ الزَّارِعُونَ ۝

5249. Man is apt to forget his Creator, and even the fact that he, man, is a created being. The seed of his body, out of which his physical life starts, is not created by man, but by Allah in the process of the unfoldment of the world. Why will not man recognise and bear witness of this fact by a life of obedience to Allah's Law?

5250. Just as Allah has created this life that we see, so He has decreed that Death should be the common lot of all of us. Surely, if He can thus give life and death, as we see it, why should we refuse to believe that He can give us other forms when this life is over? The Future Life, though indicated by what we know now, is to be on a wholly different plane. (R).

5251. Having appealed to our own nature within us, He appeals now to the external nature around us, which should be evidence to us (1) of His loving care for us, and (2) of its being due to causes other than those which we produce and control. Three examples are given: (1) the seed which we sow in the soil; it is Allah's processes in nature, which make it grow; (2) the water which we drink; it is Allah's processes in nature, that send it down from the clouds as rain, and distribute it through springs and rivers; (3) the fire which we strike; it is again a proof of Allah's Plan and Wisdom in nature.

65. Were it Our Will,
We could crumble it
To dry powder, and ye would
Be left in wonderment,
66. (Saying), "We are indeed
Left with debts (for nothing):⁵²⁵²
67. "Indeed are we shut out
(Of the fruits of our labour)".
68. See ye the water
Which ye drink?
69. Do ye bring it Down
(In rain) from the Cloud
Or do We?
70. Were it Our Will,
We could make it
Salt (and unpalatable):⁵²⁵³
Then why do ye not
Give thanks?
71. See ye the Fire
Which ye kindle?
72. Is it ye who grow
The tree which feeds⁵²⁵⁴
The fire, or do We
Grow it?
73. We have made it
A memorial (of Our handiwork),⁵²⁵⁵

- ٦٥- لَوْ نَشَاءُ لَجَعَلْنَاهُ حُطَامًا

- ٦٦- إِنَّا لَمُعْرِمُونَ ۝
- ٦٧- بَلْ نَحْنُ مَحْرُومُونَ ۝
- ٦٨- أَفَرَأَيْتُمُ الْمَاءَ الَّذِي تَشْرَبُونَ ۝
- ٦٩- ءَأَنْتُمْ أَنْزَلْتُمُوهُ مِنَ الْمُزْنِ

- ٧٢- ءَأَنْتُمْ أَنْشَأْتُمْ شَجَرَتَهَا
أَمْ نَحْنُ الْمُنْشِئُونَ ۝
- ٧٣- بَلْ نَحْنُ جَاعِلُهَا تَذْكِرَةً ۝

5252. The cultivator contracts debts for seed and gives labour for ploughing, sowing, watering, and weeding, in the hope of reaping a harvest. Should he not give thanks to Allah when his harvest is in?

5253. The mystery of the two streams of water, one sweet and the other salt, constantly mingling, and yet always separate, is referred to more than once. The never-ending circuit is established by streams and rivers mingling with the ocean, the ocean sending forth mists and steam through a process of evaporation which forms clouds, and the clouds by condensation pouring forth rain to feed the streams and rivers again: see notes 3111-2 to 25:53, and n. 5185 to 55:19, and the further references given there.

5254. The relation of Fire to Trees is intimate. In nearly all the fire that we burn, the fuel is derived from the wood of trees. Even mineral coal is nothing but the wood of prehistoric forests petrified under the earth through geological ages. Fire produced out of green trees is referred to in 36:80; and n. 4026 there gives instances.

5255. Fire is a fit memorial of Allah's handiwork in nature. It is also an emblem of man's earliest civilisation. It can stand as a symbol of physical comfort and convenience to man, of the source of spiritual light, and also of the warning to Evil about its destruction. In the same way the sower's seed has a symbolical meaning in the preaching of the Message: see 48:29, and n. 4917: and the Rain and the Streams of Water have a symbolical meaning: see notes 2404-5 to 18:60.

And an article of comfort
And convenience for
The denizens of deserts.⁵²⁵⁶

74. Then celebrate with praises⁵²⁵⁷
The name of thy Lord,
The Supremel

۞ فَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ

SECTION 3.

75. Furthermore I call
To witness the setting⁵²⁵⁸
Of the Stars—

۞ فَلَا أَقِيمُ بِمَوَاقِعِ النُّجُومِ ۝

76. And that is indeed
A mighty adjuration⁵²⁵⁹
If ye but knew—

۞ وَإِنَّهُ لَقَسَمٌ لِّتُوعَكُنَّ عَظِيمٌ ۝

77. That this is indeed
A Qur'ān most honourable,⁵²⁶⁰

۞ إِنَّهُ لَقُرْآنٌ كَرِيمٌ ۝

78. In a Book well-guarded,

۞ فِي كِتَابٍ مَّكْنُونٍ ۝

79. Which none shall touch
But those who are clean:

۞ لَا يَسْطِئُ إِلَّا الطَّهَّرُونَ ۝

5256. Cf. 20:10, and n. 2541, where the mystic meaning of the Fire which Moses saw in the desert is explained. Even ordinarily, a fire in a desert is a sign of human habitation; by following it you may get human society and human comfort. A fire, or light, or beacon in many places directs a traveller on the way. Lighthouses at sea and beacons in modern aerodromes serve the same purpose for mariners and airmen.

Another parable about fire will be found in 2:17-18, and n. 38.

5257. Seeing all these Signs in nature and their symbolical meaning in the spiritual world, man must turn to Allah and do His Will.

5258. The setting of the Stars: a number of mystic meanings are attached. Here are three. (1) Cf. 43:1 and n. 5085; the setting of a glorious star is a symbol of humility before the power, beauty, and goodness of Allah. (2) It may refer to the extinction of the stars at the Day of Judgement, betokening the establishment of Allah's Justice and the Truth of His Revelation. (3) What is bright or beautiful to our senses may disappear from our ken within a few hours, even though its own existence may continue. All light is relative except the Light of Allah.

5259. The glory of the firmament as it exists, and the wonder of its passing away, are both evidence, to the discerning mind, of the Future which Allah has prepared, but this evidence can only be effective if men "but knew", i.e., turned their earnest attention to it.

5260. Your attention is drawn to the momentous issues of the Future by the Qur'ān. It is a Revelation described by four characteristics. (1) It is most honourable, karīm, which implies, besides the fact that it is worthy of receiving honour, that it confers great favours on those who receive it. (2) It is well-guarded, maknūn; precious in itself, and well-preserved in its purity; see n. 5234 to 56:23; see also 15:9, and n. 1944. (3) None but the clean shall touch it—clean in body, mind, thought, intention, and soul; only such can achieve real contact with its full meaning. (4) It is a Revelation from the Lord of the Worlds, and therefore universal for all.

80. A Revelation from the Lord
Of the Worlds.
81. Is it such a Message
That ye would hold⁵²⁶¹
In light esteem?
82. And have ye made it⁵²⁶²
Your livelihood that ye
Should declare it false?
83. Then why do ye not⁵²⁶³
(Intervene) when (the soul
Of the dying man)
Reaches the throat—
84. And ye the while
(Sit) looking on—⁵²⁶⁴
85. But We are nearer
To him than ye,
And yet see not—
86. Then why do ye not—⁵²⁶⁵
If you are exempt
From (future) account—
87. Call back the soul,⁵²⁶⁶
If ye are true
(In your claim of Independence)?

٨٠- تَنْزِيلٌ مِّن رَّبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝

٨١- أَفَبِهَذَا الْحَدِيثِ أَنْتُمْ مُدْهِنُونَ ۝

٨٢- وَتَجْعَلُونَ رِشْقَكُمْ
أَنْتُمْ تُكَذِّبُونَ ۝

٨٣- فَلَوْلَا إِذَا
بَلَغَتِ الْحُلُقُومَ ۝

٨٤- وَأَنْتُمْ حِينِيذٍ تَنْظُرُونَ ۝

٨٥- وَنَحْنُ أَقْرَبُ إِلَيْهِ مِنْكُمْ
وَلَكِنْ لَا تُبْصِرُونَ ۝

٨٦- فَلَوْلَا إِنْ كُنْتُمْ غَيْرَ مَدِينِينَ ۝

٨٧- تَرْجِعُونَهَا إِنْ كُنْتُمْ صَادِقِينَ ۝

5261. The Message being such as is described in the last note, how can anyone ignore it or treat it with contempt or refuse to allow it to improve his life?

5262. The worst indictment of an enemy of Revelation would be that he should make Falsehood a source of filthy lucre for himself, or that he should let his precious life be corrupted by such unholy occupation.

5263. There is a hiatus after why do ye not?— and two parenthetical clauses— after which the clause why do ye not? is resumed again in verse 86 below, with its complement in verse 87. It is permissible to the translator to add some such word as intervene here, to make the translation run smoothly.

5264. The dying man's friends, relatives and companions may be sitting round him and quite close to him in his last moments, but Allah is nearer still at all times for He is nearer than the man's own jugular vein (1:16), and one of Allah's own titles is "Ever Near" (34:50).

5265. These words resume the sentence begun at verse 83 above and interrupted by the two parenthetical clauses in verses 84 and 85. See n. 5263 above.

5266. The sentence may now be briefly paraphrased. 'If you disbelieve in Revelation and a future Judgement, and claim to do what you like and be independent of Allah, how is it you cannot call back a dying man's soul to his body when all of you congregate round him at his death-bed? But you are not independent of Judgement. There is a Day of Account, when you will have to be judged by your deeds in this life.'

88. Thus, then, if he
Be of those Nearest to Allah,⁵²⁶⁷
89. (There is for him) Rest
And Satisfaction,⁵²⁶⁸ and
A Garden of Delights.
90. And if he be
Of the Companions of
The Right Hand,⁵²⁶⁹
91. (For him is the salutation),
"Peace be unto thee,"⁵²⁷⁰
From the Companions
Of the Right Hand.
92. And if he be
Of those who treat
(Truth) as Falsehood,⁵²⁷¹
Who go wrong,
93. For him is Entertainment
With Boiling Water,
94. And burning in Hell-Fire.
95. Verily, this is
The very Truth
And Certainty.⁵²⁷²
96. So celebrate with praises⁵²⁷³
The name of thy Lord,
The Supreme.

- ٨٨- فَأَمَّا إِنْ كَانَ مِنَ الْمُقَرَّبِينَ ۝

- ٩٦- فَسَبِّحْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الْعَظِيمِ ۝

5267. See above, 56:11-26 and notes.

5268. Rayhān: sweet-smelling plants, as in 55:12. Here used as symbolical of complete Satisfaction and Delight.

5269. See above, 56:27-38 and notes.

5270. In 56:26 above the salutation of "Peace, Peace!" is addressed to those Nearest to Allah. Here we learn that it is also addressed to the Companions of the Right Hand. Both are in Gardens of Bliss: only the former have a higher Dignity than the latter.

5271. Cf. above 56:51-55.

5272. "The assurance of the Hereafter" is one of the strongest features of Faith. For without it the apparent inequalities and injustices of this Life cannot be satisfactorily explained.

5273. Cf. 56:74 above. That was the conclusion of the argument about the Future from the examples of Allah's goodness in nature. Now we have the conclusion of the same argument from Allah's revelation through His inspired Messengers.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 57—AL ḤADĪD

We have now studied the contents of nearly nine-tenths of the Qurʾān. We have found that the arrangement of the Sūrahs in the present Text is not haphazard, but that they follow a distinct logical order more helpful for study than the chronological order. The comprehensive scheme of building up the new Ummah or Brotherhood and its spiritual implications is now complete. The remaining tenth of the Qurʾān may be roughly considered in two parts. The first contains ten Sūrahs (S. 57 to S. 66), all revealed in Madīnah, and each dealing with some special point which needs emphasis in the social life of the Ummah. The second (S. 67 to 94.) contains short Makkan lyrics, each dealing with some aspect of spiritual life, expressed in language of great mystic beauty.

The present Madīnah Sūrah is chiefly concerned with spiritual humility and the avoidance of arrogance, and a warning that retirement from the world may not be the best way of seeking the good pleasure of Allah. Its probable date is after the Conquest of Makkah, A. H. 8.

Summary—Allah's Power and Knowledge extend to all things: follow His Light direct, without doubt or fear or half-heartedness, but with humility, generous charity, and faith, and not in a life of isolation from the world. (57:1-29, and C. 236).

C. 236.—Allah is All-in-All: follow His Law
 (57:1-29.) And His Light, and obey His Prophet, who invites
 You to deeds of goodness and charity.
 Strive and spend your resources and yourselves
 In the Cause of Allah: He will grant you a Light
 To go before you and guide you to your Eternal
 Goal, where no Evil can enter. When success
 Crowns your efforts, even then is the time
 To humble yourselves before Allah, in sincere
 Witness to His Love. The pleasures here below
 Are deceptive: be foremost in seeking Allah
 And His Good Pleasure: trust Him: be not
 Like those who mistook mere renunciation
 Of the world for Allah's service. Allah's Grace
 Is for all: be your love and your service for all.

Sūrah 57.

Al Hadīd (Iron)⁵²⁷⁴

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Whatever is in
The heavens and on earth—
Let it declare
The Praises and Glory of Allah:⁵²⁷⁵
For He is the Exalted
In Might, the Wise.
2. To Him belongs the dominion
Of the heavens and the earth:
It is He Who gives
Life and Death; and He
Has Power over all things.
3. He is the First
And the Last,
The Evident
And the Hidden:⁵²⁷⁶
And He has full knowledge
Of all things.
4. He it is Who created
The heavens and the earth
In six Days,⁵²⁷⁷ and is moreover Firmly established on the Throne
(Of authority),⁵²⁷⁸ He knows

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الْعَلِيِّ الْكَرِيمِ سُوْرَةُ الْحَدِيْدِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- سَبِّحْ لِلَّهِ
مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ۝

۲- لَهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
يُحْيِي وَيُمِيتُ
وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ۝

۳- هُوَ الْأَوَّلُ وَالْآخِرُ
وَالظَّاهِرُ وَالْبَاطِنُ
وَهُوَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ۝

۴- هُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ فِي
سِتَّةِ أَيَّامٍ ثُمَّ اسْتَوَى عَلَى الْعَرْشِ
يَعْلَمُ

5274. Iron is the type and emblem of strength and reliability, on which depend the real virtues expounded in this Sūrah, such as real humility, whole-heartedness, and charity, as opposed to Monasticism, Loadiceanism, and Niggardliness. See 57:25. below.

5275. A connecting thought between this and the last Sūrah, of which see verse 96. See also paragraph 3 of the Introduction to S. 53.

5276. Allah is Evident insofar as there is ample evidence of His existence and providence all around us. On the other hand, Allah is Hidden insofar as intellect cannot grasp His essence nor can He be seen in the present world. The following tradition in Ṣaḥīḥ Muslim is also significant for an understanding of this verse. The Prophet (peace be on him) said: "Thou art the First, so that there was nothing before Thee; and Thou art the Last, so that there is nothing after Thee; and Thou art Evident, (or Ascendant) so that there is nothing above Thee, and Thou art the Hidden, the Knower of hidden things, so that there is nothing hidden from Thee." [Eds.].

5277. In six Days: see 41:9-12, and notes; also more briefly, n. 1031 to 7:54.

5278. Cf. 10:3, and n. 1386. It is not that Allah completed His Creation in six days and rested on the seventh day, or rests now. Certain external forms of the universe were by Allah's Command completed in six periods of evolution. But His creative process still goes on, and He is still, and will always be, in full control, knowing all and guiding all affairs. (R).

What enters within the earth
And what comes forth out
Of it, what comes down
From heaven and what mounts
Up to it. And He is
With you wheresoever ye⁵²⁷⁹
May be. And Allah sees
Well all that ye do.

مَا يَلْجِ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَمَا يَخْرُجُ مِنْهَا
وَمَا يَنْزِلُ مِنَ السَّمَاءِ وَمَا يَعْرُجُ فِيهَا
وَهُوَ مَعَكُمْ أَيْنَ مَا كُنْتُمْ
وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ ٥

5. To Him belongs the dominion
Of the heavens and the earth:⁵²⁸⁰
And all affairs are Referred back to Allah.

هـ- لَهُ مُلْكُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
وَالِلَّهِ تُرْجَعُ الْأُمُورُ ٥

6. He merges Night into Day,
And He merges Day into Night;
And He has full knowledge
Of the secrets of (all) hearts.

٦- يُؤَلِّجُ اللَّيْلَ فِي النَّهَارِ وَيُؤَلِّجُ النَّهَارَ
فِي اللَّيْلِ وَهُوَ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ ٥

7. Believe in Allah
And His Messenger,
And spend (in charity)
Out of the (substance)
Whereof He has made you⁵²⁸¹
Heirs. For, those of you
Who believe and spend
(In charity)—for them
Is a great Reward.

٧- اٰمِنُوْا بِاللّٰهِ وَرَسُوْلِهِ
وَاَنْفِقُوا مِمَّا جَعَلَكُمْ مُسْتَخْلِفِيْنَ فِيْهِ
فَالَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا مِنْكُمْ وَاَنْفَقُوْا
لَهُمْ اَجْرٌ كَبِيْرٌ ٥

8. What cause have ye⁵²⁸²
Why ye should not believe
In Allah?—And the Messenger
Invites you to believe

٨- وَمَا لَكُمْ لَا تُؤْمِنُوْنَ بِاللّٰهِ
وَالرَّسُوْلُ يَدْعُوْكُمْ لِتُؤْمِنُوْا

5279. Allah watches over man and observes his deeds. His knowledge comprehends all, the earth, heavens, what is in them or above them or whatever is in between them, comes out of them or goes into them, for "not a leaf doth fall but with His knowledge", and "there is not a grain in the darkness (or depths) of the earth, nor anything fresh of dry (green or withered), but is inscribed in a Record". (6:59). [Eds.].

5280. See 57:2 above, where this phrase referred to Allah's complete authority over the whole of the external universe: the same phrase now refers to His complete authority over the abstract world—of thoughts and affairs. Every affair must finally go back to Him, whether it comes out here from Darkness into Light, or hides itself from Light into Darkness. Allah's knowledge penetrates into the inmost recesses of all Hearts.

5281. Whenever power or wealth or influence or any good thing is transferred from one person or group of persons to another, it involves added responsibilities to the persons receiving these advantages. They must be the more zealous in real charity and all good works, for that is a part of the evidence which they give of their faith and gratitude. And, besides, their good deeds, under the general law in the spiritual world, carry their own reward.

5282. What cause have ye why should not...? A figure of speech implying a far wider meaning than the words express. It is equivalent to saying: "There is every reason why ye should believe in Allah", etc. The same construction applies to verse 10 below.

In your Lord, and has Indeed taken your Covenant,⁵²⁸³
If ye are men of faith.

وَقَدْ أَخَذَ مِيثَاقَكُمْ إِن كُنْتُمْ مُؤْمِنِينَ
بِرَبِّكُمْ

9. He is the One Who
Sends to His Servant⁵²⁸⁴
Manifest Signs, that He
May lead you from
The depths of Darkness
Into the Light. And verily,
Allah is to you
Most Kind and Merciful.

هُوَ الَّذِي يُنْزِلُ عَلَى عَبْدِهِ آيَاتٍ بَيِّنَاتٍ
لِّيُخْرِجَكُمْ مِنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى النُّورِ
وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ بِكُمْ
لَرَءُوفٌ رَحِيمٌ ٥

10. And what cause have ye
Why ye should not spend
In the cause of Allah?—
For to Allah belongs⁵²⁸⁵
The heritage of the heavens
And the earth.
Not equal among you
Are those who spent (freely)
And fought, before the Victory,⁵²⁸⁶
(With those who did so later).
Those are higher in rank
Than those who spent (freely)
And fought afterwards.
But to all has Allah promised
A goodly (reward). And Allah
Is well-acquainted
With all that ye do.

۱۰- وَمَا لَكُمْ
أَلَّا تُنْفِقُوا فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
وَاللَّهُ مِيرَاثُ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
لَا يَسْتَوِي مِنْكُمْ
مَنْ أَنْفَقَ مِنْ قَبْلِ الْفَتْحِ وَقَتْلَ
أُولَئِكَ أَعْظَمُ دَرَجَةً
مِنَ الَّذِينَ أَنْفَقُوا مِنْ بَعْدِ وَقَتْلُوا
وَكُلًّا وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الْحُسْنَى
وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ ٦

5283. There are two shades of meaning. (1) There is the implied Covenant in a man who accepts the Gospel of Unity that he will bring forth all the fruits of that Gospel, i.e., believe in Allah, and serve Allah and humanity. See n. 682 to 5:1. (2) There were at various times express Covenants entered into by the Muslims to serve Allah and be true to the Prophet, comparable to the Covenants of the Jewish nation about the Message of Moses; e.g., the two Covenants of 'Aqabah (5:8, and n. 705) and the Pledge of Ḥudaybiyah (48:10, n. 4877). For the Covenant with Israel at Mount Sinai, see 2:63, n. 78.

5284. The Holy Prophet Muḥammad. The Signs sent to him were: (1) The Āyahs of the Qur'ān, and (2) his life and work, in which Allah's Plan and Purpose were unfolded.

5285. To Allah belongs the heritage of. . . . : see n. 485 to 3:180; also n. 988 to 6:165; and n. 1964 to 15:23.

5286. This is usually understood to refer to the Conquest of Makkah, after which the Muslims succeeded to the power and position which the Pagan Quraysh had so misused at Makkah. Thereafter the Muslims had the hegemony of Arabia, and in a few centuries, for a time, the hegemony of the world. But the words are perfectly general, and we must understand the general meaning also: that the people who fight and struggle in Allah's Cause and give of their best to it at any time are worthy of praise: but those are worthy of special distinction who do it when the Cause is being persecuted and in most need of assistance, before victory comes.

SECTION 2.

11. Who is he that will
Loan to Allah a beautiful⁵²⁸⁷
Loan? For (Allah) will Increase it manifold
To his credit,
And he will have (besides)
A liberal reward.
12. One Day shalt thou see
The believing men and
The believing women —
How their Light runs⁵²⁸⁸
Forward before them
And by their right hands:
(Their greeting will be):
"Good News for you this Day!
Gardens beneath which flow rivers!
To dwell therein for aye!
This is indeed
The highest Achievement!"⁵²⁸⁹
13. One Day will the Hypocrites —
Men and women — say
To the Believers: "Wait
For us! Let us borrow
(A light) from your Light!"⁵²⁹⁰
It will be said: "Turn
Ye back to your rear!
Then seek a light (where Ye can)!" So a wall⁵²⁹¹
Will be put up betwixt them,
With a gate therein.

«مَنْ ذَا الَّذِي
يُقْرِضُ اللَّهَ قَرْضًا حَسَنًا
فِيُضَعِّفَهُ لَهُ
وَلَهُ أَجْرٌ كَرِيمٌ»

١٢- يَوْمَ تَرَى الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ
يَسْعَى نُورُهُمْ بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ
وَبِأَيْمَانِهِمْ بُشْرَاكُمُ الْيَوْمَ
جَلَّتْ تَجْجِرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ
خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا
ذَلِكَ هُوَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ

١٣- يَوْمَ يَقُولُ الْمُنَافِقُونَ وَالْمُنَافِقَاتُ لِلَّذِينَ
آمَنُوا انظُرُونَا نَقْتَبِسْ مِنْ نُورِكُمْ
قِيلَ ارْجِعُوا وَرَاءَكُمْ
فَالْتَبِسُوا نُورًا
فَضْرِبَ بَيْنَهُمُ سُورًا بَابٌ

5287. Cf. 2:245, n. 276.

5288. In the Darkness of the Day of Judgement there will be a Light to guide the righteous to their Destination. This will be the Light of their Faith and their Good Works. Perhaps the Light of the Right Hand mentioned here is the Light of their Good Works: for the Blessed will receive their Record in their right hand (69:19-24).

5289. The highest Achievement, the highest felicity, the attainment of Salvation, the fulfillment of all desires. See n. 4733 to 44:57.

5290. Watchful preparation in Life, and the light of Faith, which reflects the divine Light, are matters of personal Life, and cannot be borrowed from another. So, in Christ's parable of the Ten Virgins (Matt. xv. 1-13), when the foolish ones had let their lamps go out for want of oil, they asked to borrow oil from the wise ones, but the wise ones answered and said, "Not so; . . . but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves".

5291. The wall of Personality, or Record of Deeds, will divide the Good from the Evil. But the Gateway in it will show that communication will not be cut off. Evil must realise that Good — i.e., Mercy and Felicity — had been within its reach, and that the Wrath which envelops it is due to its own rejection of Mercy.

Within it will be Mercy
Throughout, and without it,
All alongside, will be (Wrath and) Punishment!

بَاطِنُهُ فِيهِ الرَّحْمَةُ
وَزَاهِرُهُ مِنْ قِبَلِهِ الْعَذَابُ ۚ

14. (Those without) will call out,
 "Were we not with you?"⁵²⁹²
 (The others) will reply, "True!
 But ye led yourselves
 Into temptation; ye looked forward
 (To our ruin); ye doubted
 (Allah's Promise); and (your false)
 Desires deceived you; until
 There issued the Command
 Of Allah. And the Deceiver
 Deceived you in respect of Allah.⁵²⁹³

١٣- يُنَادُوا لَهُمُ الْمَوْتُ كُنْ مَعَكُمْ
قَالُوا بَلَىٰ وَلَكِنَّكُمْ فَتَنْتُمْ أَنْفُسَكُمْ
وَتَرَبَّصْتُمْ وَارْتَبْتُمْ
وَعَزَّيْتُمُ الْأَمَانِي
حَتَّىٰ جَاءَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ
وَعَزَّيْتُمُ يَاللَّهُ الْعَرُورُ ○

15. "This Day shall no ransom
Be accepted of you, nor
Of those who rejected Allah⁵²⁹⁴
Your abode is the Fire:
That is the proper place
To claim you: and an evil
Refuge it is!"

١٥- فَالْيَوْمَ لَا يُؤْخَذُ مِنْكُمْ فِدْيَةٌ
وَلَا مِنَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
مَا أُنْكُمُ الثَّارُ
هِيَ مَوْلَاكُمْ وَبِشِّ الْمَصِيئِ ○

16. Has not the time arrived⁵²⁹⁵
 For the Believers that
 Their hearts in all humility
 Should engage in the remembrance
 Of Allah and of the Truth
 Which has been revealed (to them),
 And that they should not
 Become like those to whom

۱۶- اَلَمْ يَأْنِ لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
اَنْ تَخْشَعَ قُلُوبُهُمْ لِذِكْرِ
اللّٰهِ وَمَا نَزَلَ مِنَ الْحَقِّ
وَلَا يَكُونُوا كَالَّذِينَ

5292. The evil will now claim some right of kinship or association or proximity with the good in earthly life; but in fact they had been arrogant and had selfishly despised them before. The reply will be: (1) you yourselves chose temptation and evil; (2) when you had power in your earthly life, you hoped for ruin to the good, and perhaps plotted for it; (3) you were warned by prophets of Allah, but you doubted Allah's very existence and certainly His Mercy and Justice, and the Hereafter; (4) you followed your own lusts and neglected Reason and Truth; (5) you were given plenty of rope, but you followed your mad career, until Judgement came upon you, and now it is too late for repentance.

5293. The Arch-Deceiver (Satan) deceived you in respect of Allah in many ways: for example, he made you oblivious of Allah's Mercy and loving-kindness; he made you reject His Grace; he made you think that Allah's Justice may not overtake you; etc.

5294. In personal responsibility there is no room for vicarious ransom or for ransom by payments of gold or silver or by sacrifice of possessions. Nor can the crime be expiated for after Judgement 'You' and 'those who rejected Allah' are two ways of looking at the same persons. 'You are rejected because you rejected Allah.'

5295. Humility and the remembrance of Allah and His Message are never more necessary than in the hour of victory and prosperity.

- Was given Revelation
aforetime,⁵²⁹⁶
But long ages passed over them
And their hearts grew hard?
For many among them
Are rebellious transgressors.
17. Know ye (all) that
Allah giveth life
To the earth after its death!⁵²⁹⁷
Already have We shown
The Signs plainly to you,
That ye may learn wisdom.
18. For those who give
In Charity, men and women,
And loan to Allah⁵²⁹⁸
A Beautiful Loan,
It shall be increased manifold
(To their credit),
And they shall have (besides)
A liberal reward.
19. And those who believe
In Allah and His messengers —
They are the Sincere⁵²⁹⁹
(Lovers of Truth), and
The Witnesses (who testify),⁵³⁰⁰
In the eyes of their Lord:
They shall have their Reward
And their Light.⁵³⁰¹

أَوْتُوا الْكِتَابَ مِنْ قَبْلُ
فَطَالَ عَلَيْهِمُ الْأَمَلُ فَفَسَدَتْ قُلُوبُهُمْ
وَكَثِيرٌ مِنْهُمْ فَاسِقُونَ

۱۷- اِعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ يُحْيِي الْأَرْضَ بَعْدَ
مَوْتِهَا قَدْ بَيَّنَّا لَكُمُ الْآيَاتِ
لَعَلَّكُمْ تَعْقِلُونَ

۱۸- إِنَّ الْمُسْدِقِينَ وَالْمُسَدِّقَاتِ
وَأَقْرَضُوا اللَّهَ قَرْضًا حَسَنًا
يُضَاعَفُ لَهُمْ
وَلَهُمْ أَجْرٌ كَرِيمٌ

۱۹- وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرُسُلِهِ
أُولَئِكَ هُمُ الصِّدِّيقُونَ
الشَّهَادَةُ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ
لَهُمْ أَجْرُهُمْ وَتُورُهُمْ

5296. The men immediately referred to are the contemporary Jews and Christians. To each of these Ummahs was given Allah's Revelation, but as time passed, they corrupted it, became arrogant and hard-hearted, and subverted justice, truth, and the purity of Life. But the general lesson is far wider. No one is favoured by Allah except on the score of righteousness. Except on that score, there is no chosen individual or race. There is no blind good fortune or ill fortune. All happens according to the just laws and Will of Allah. But at no time is humility or righteousness more necessary than in the hour of victory or triumph.

5297. As the dead earth is revived after the refreshing showers of rain, so is it with the spirit of man, whether as an individual or a race or Ummah. There is no cause for despair. Allah's Truth will revive the Spiritual faculties if it is accepted with humility and zeal.

5298. Cf. 57:11; also see 2:245, n. 276.

5299. Cf. 4:69, and n. 586. The four categories there mentioned as constituting the beautiful Fellowship of Faith are: the Prophets who teach, the Sincere Lovers of Truth, the Witnesses who testify, and the Righteous who do good. Of these, the prophets or messengers have already been mentioned in this verse. The Righteous who do good are mentioned as the men and women given over to deeds of charity in verse 18.

5300. The Witnesses are not only Martyrs, but all those who carry the Banner of Truth against all odds and in all positions of danger, whether by pen or speech, or deed or counsel.

5301. Note that these two are specially high degrees in the spiritual kingdom, just short of Prophethood. For they have not only their reward in the spiritual Kingdom of Allah, like those who practise charity (verse 18 above), but they themselves become sources of light and leading.

But those who reject Allah
And deny Our Signs—
They are the Companions
Of Hell-Fire.

وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا
أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ الْجَحِيمِ ۝

SECTION 3.

20. Know ye (all), that
The life of this world
Is but play and amusement,⁵³⁰²
Pomp and mutual boasting
And multiplying, (in rivalry)
Among yourselves, riches
And children.
Here is a similitude;⁵³⁰³
How rain and the growth
Which it brings forth, delight
(The hearts of) the tillers;⁵³⁰⁴
Soon it withers; thou
Wilt see it grow yellow;
Then it becomes dry
And crumbles away.
But in the Hereafter
Is a Penalty severe
(For the devotees of wrong).
And Forgiveness from Allah
And (His) Good Pleasure
(For the devotees of Allah).
And what is the life
Of this world, but
Goods and chattels
Of deception?⁵³⁰⁵

۝۲- اَعْلَمُوا أَنَّمَا الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا
لَعِبٌ وَلَهْوٌ
وَرِزْقٌ وَتَفَاخُرٌ بَيْنَكُمْ
وَتَكَاثُرٌ فِي الْأَمْوَالِ وَالْأَوْلَادِ
كَمَثَلِ غَيْثٍ أَعْجَبَ الْكُفَّارَ نَبَاتُهُ
ثُمَّ يَهْبِطُ
فَتَرَاهُ مُضْفَرًا
ثُمَّ يَكُونُ حُطَامًا
وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ عَذَابٌ شَدِيدٌ
وَمَغْفِرَةٌ مِّنَ اللَّهِ وَرِضْوَانٌ
وَمَا الْحَيَاةُ الدُّنْيَا
إِلَّا مَتَاعُ الْغُرُورِ ۝

21. Be ye foremost (in seeking)
Forgiveness from your Lord,
And a Garden (of Bliss),

۝۲۱- سَابِقُوا إِلَىٰ مَغْفِرَةٍ مِّنَ رَبِّكُمْ
وَجَنَّةٍ

5302. Cf. 6:32, and n. 855. In the present passage the idea is further amplified. In this life people not only play and amuse themselves and each other, but they show off, and boast, and pile up riches and man-power and influence, in rivalry with each other.

5303. Cf. 39:21, and n. 4273. Here the Parable is meant to teach a slightly different lesson. Allah's mercies are free and open to all, like His rain. But how do men make use of them? The good men take the real spiritual harvest and store the spiritual grain. The men who are in love with the ephemeral are delighted with the green of the tares and the grass; but such things give no real nourishment; they soon wither, become dry, and crumble to pieces, like the worldly pleasures and poms, boastings and tumults, possessions and friends.

5304. Kuffār is here used in the unusual sense of 'tillers or husbandmen', because they sow the seed and cover it up with soil. But the ordinary meaning, 'Rejectors of Truth', is not absent. The allegory refers to such men.

5305. Cf. 3:185, and n. 492. Many of the attractive vanities of this world are but nets set by the Evil One to deceive men. The only thing real and lasting is the Good Life lived in the Light of Allah.

The width whereof is
As the width of
Heaven and earth,⁵³⁰⁶
Prepared for those who believe
In Allah and His messengers:
That is the Grace of Allah,
Which He bestows on whom⁵³⁰⁷
He pleases: and Allah is
The Lord of Grace abounding.

عَرْضَهَا كَعَرْضِ السَّمَاءِ وَالْأَرْضِ
أَعَدَّتْ لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرُسُلِهِ
ذَلِكَ فَضْلُ اللَّهِ يُؤْتِيهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ
وَاللَّهُ ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيمِ

22. No misfortune can happen
On earth or in your souls⁵³⁰⁸
But is recorded in
A decree before We bring⁵³⁰⁹
It into existence:
That is truly easy for Allah:

٢٢- مَا أَصَابَ مِنْ مُصِيبَةٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَ
لَا فِي أَنْفُسِكُمْ إِلَّا فِي كِتَابٍ مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ
تَبْرَأَهَا إِنَّ ذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ

23. In order that ye may
Not despair over matters
That pass you by,
Nor exult over favours
Bestowed upon you.
For Allah loveth not
Any vainglorious boaster —⁵³¹⁰

٢٣- لِكَيْلَا تَأْسَوْا عَلَى مَا فَاتَكُمْ
وَلَا تَفْرَحُوا بِمَا آتَاكُمْ
وَاللَّهُ لَا يُحِبُّ
كُلَّ مُتَكَبِّرٍ مَخْوِرٍ

24. Such persons as are⁵³¹¹
Covetous and commend
Covetousness to men,
And if any turn back⁵³¹²

٢٤- الَّذِينَ يَبْتَغُونَ
وَيَأْمُرُونَ النَّاسَ بِالْبُخْلِ وَمَنْ يَتَوَلَّ

5306. Cf. 3:133, and n. 452.

5307. Bestows on whom He Pleases: that is, such grace and favour is beyond anyone's own merits. It is bestowed by Allah according to His Holy Will and Plan, which is just, merciful, and righteous.

5308. External disasters or misfortunes may strike people's eye or imagination, but there are worse crises and misfortunes in the spiritual world, which are of equal or greater importance to man's future. All this happens according to the Will and Plan of Allah. Even where we are allowed the exercise of our own wills, the consequences that follow are in accordance with the laws and Plan decreed by Allah beforehand.

5309. For bara'a, 'to bring into existence', and other words denoting Allah's creative energy, see n. 120 to 2:117; n. 916 to 6:94; and n. 923 to 6:98.

5310. In the external world, what people may consider misfortune or good fortune may both turn out to be illusory—in Kipling's words, "both imposters just the same". The righteous man does not grumble if some one else has possessions, nor exult if he has them. He does not covet and he does not boast. If he has any advantages, he shares them with other people, as he considers them not due to his own merits, but as gifts from Allah. (R).

5311. Neither the Covetous nor the Boasters have any place in the Good Pleasure of Allah. The Covetous are particularly insidious, as their avarice and niggardliness not only keep back the gifts of Allah from men, but their pernicious example dries up the streams of Charity in others.

5312. It is Charity in Allah's Way that is specially in view here. If people are selfish and withhold their hand, they only injure themselves. They do not hurt Allah's Cause, for He is independent of all needs, and He will find other means of assisting His more meagrely endowed servants; He is worthy of all praise in His care for His creatures.

(From Allah's Way), verily
Allah is free of all needs,
Worthy of all praise.

فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْغَنِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ ۝

25. We sent aforetime
Our messengers with Clear Signs
And sent down with them
The Book and the Balance⁵³¹³

May stand forth in justice;
And We sent down⁵³¹⁴ Iron,⁵³¹⁵
In which is (material for)
Mighty war, as well as
Many benefits for mankind,
That Allah may test who
It is that will help,
Unseen,⁵³¹⁶ Him and His messengers:⁵³¹⁷
For Allah is Full of Strength,
Exalted in Might⁵³¹⁸
(And able to enforce His Will).

٢٥- لَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا رُسُلَنَا بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ

وَلِيَعْلَمَ اللَّهُ مَن يَنصُرُهُ
وَرُسُلَهُ بِالْغَيْبِ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ قَوِيٌّ عَزِيزٌ ۝

SECTION 4.

26. And We sent Noah
And Abraham, and established
In their line Prophethood
And Revelation: and some of them⁵³¹⁹

٢٦- وَلَقَدْ أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا وَإِبْرَاهِيمَ
وَجَعَلْنَا فِي ذُرِّيَّتِهِمَا النُّبُوَّةَ وَالْكِتَابَ
فَمِنْهُمْ

5313. Three things are mentioned as gifts of Allah. In concrete terms they are the Book, the Balance, and Iron, which stand as emblems of three things which hold society together, viz., Revelation, which commands Good and forbids Evil; Justice, which gives to each person his due; and the strong arm of the Law, which maintains sanctions for evildoers. For Balance, see also 42:17, and n. 4550.

5314. Sent down: anzala; in the sense of revealed to man the use of certain things, created in him the capacity of understanding and using them: Cf. 39:6: "sent down for you eight head of cattle in pairs".

5315. Iron: the most useful metal known to man. Out of it is made steel, and from steel and iron are made implements of war, such as swords, spears, guns, etc., as well as instruments of peace, such as ploughshares, bricklayers' trowels, architects' and engineers' instruments, etc. Iron stands as the emblem of Strength, Power, Discipline, Law's sanctions, etc. Iron and steel industries have also been the foundation of the prosperity and power of modern manufacturing nations. (R).

5316. In 21:49, I have translated "in their most secret thoughts" for the more literal "unseen" (bil ghayb). Perhaps the more literal "unseen" may do if understood in the adverbial sense as explained in 35:18, n. 3902. The sincere man will help the Cause, whether he is seen or brought under notice or not.

5317. To help Allah and His messengers is to help their Cause. It is to give men an opportunity of striving and fighting for His Cause and proving their true mettle, for thus is their spirit tested. As explained in the next line, Allah in Himself is Full of Strength, Exalted in Power, and Able to enforce His Will, and He has no need of others' assistance.

5318. Cf. 22:40 and n. 2818. "Strength" is specific; Power or Might is more abstract, the ability to enforce what is willed.

5319. Some of them: i.e., of their line, or posterity, or Ummah. When the Book that was given to them became corrupted, many of them followed their own fancies and became transgressors.

Were on right guidance,
But many of them
Became rebellious transgressors.

27. Then, in their wake,
We followed them up
With (others of) Our messengers:
We sent after them
Jesus the son of Mary,
And bestowed on him
The Gospel; and We ordained
In the hearts of those
Who followed him
Compassion and Mercy,⁵³²⁰
But the Monasticism
Which they invented
For themselves, We did not
Prescribe for them:⁵³²¹
(We commanded) only
The seeking for the Good
Pleasure of Allah; but that
They did not foster⁵³²²
As they should have done.
Yet We bestowed, on those
Among them who believed,⁵³²³
Their (due) reward, but
Many of them are
Rebellious transgressors.⁵³²⁴

مُهْتَدٍ ۖ وَكَثِيرٌ مِّنْهُمْ فَسِقُونَ ۝

۲۷- ثُمَّ تَقْبِلْنَا عَلَىٰ آثَارِهِمْ بِرُسُلِنَا
وَقَبْلْنَا بِعِيسَى ابْنِ مَرْيَمَ
وَأَيِّنَّا إِلَىٰ الْجَنَّةِ ۖ
وَجَعَلْنَا فِي قُلُوبِ الَّذِينَ اتَّبَعُوهُ
رَأْفَةً وَرَحْمَةً ۖ
وَرَهْبَانِيَّةً ابْتَدَعُوهَا
مَا كَتَبْنَا عَلَيْهَا

فَمَا رَعَوْهَا حَقَّ رِعَايَتِهَا ۖ
فَأَتَيْنَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مِنْهُمْ
أَجْرَهُمْ
وَكَثِيرٌ مِّنْهُمْ فَسِقُونَ ۝

5320. The chief characteristic of the teaching in the Gospels is humility and other-worldliness. The first blessings in the Sermon on the Mount are on "the poor in spirit", "they that mourn", and they that are "meek" (Matt. v. 3-5). Christ's disciples were enjoined to "take no thought for the morrow", and told: "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof" (Matt. vi. 34). They were also commanded "that ye resist not evil; but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also" (Matt. v. 39). These are fragmentary presentments of an imperfect philosophy as seen through monastic eyes. Insofar as they represent pity, sympathy with suffering, and deeds of mercy, they represent the spirit of Christ.

5321. But Allah's Kingdom requires also courage, resistance to evil, the firmness, law, and discipline which will enforce justice among men. It requires to mingle with men, so that they can uphold the standard of Truth, against odds if necessary. These were lost sight of in Monasticism, which was not prescribed by Allah.

5322. Allah certainly requires that men shall renounce the idle pleasures of this world, and turn to the Path which leads to Allah's Good Pleasure. But that does not mean gloomy lives, ("they that mourn"), nor perpetual and formal prayers in isolation. Allah's service is done through pure lives in the turmoil of this world. This spirit was lost, or at least not fostered by monastic institutions. On the contrary, a great part of the "struggle and striving" for noble lives was suppressed.

5324. The corruptions in the Christian Church, the hair-splitting disputes, and mutual strife and hatred of sects had become a scandal by the time that the light of Islam came into the world. The pages of Gibbon's great History bear witness. Not only had the religion become void of grace, but the lives of the people, priests and laity, had fallen into great depths of degradation. See remarks in my Appendix V, and the general picture in Kingsley's Hypatia.

28. ﴿ ye that believe!⁵³²⁵
 Fear, Allah, and believe
 In His Messenger, and He will Bestow on you a double⁵³²⁶
 Portion of His Mercy:
 He will provide for you
 A Light by which ye⁵³²⁷
 Shall walk (straight
 In your path), and He
 Will forgive you (your past);⁵³²⁸
 For Allah is Oft-Forgiving,
 Most Merciful:

۲۸- يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللّٰهَ وَاٰمِنُوْا
 بِرَسُوْلِهِ يُوْزِنْكُمْ
 كِفْلَيْنِ مِنْ رَّحْمَتِهِ
 وَيَجْعَلَ لَكُمْ نُوْرًا
 تَمْشُوْنَ بِهٖ وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ
 وَاللّٰهُ غَفُوْرٌ رَّحِيْمٌ

29. That the People of
 The Book may know
 That they have no power⁵³²⁹
 Whatever over the Grace
 Of Allah, that (His) Grace
 Is (entirely) in His Hand,
 To bestow it on
 Whomsoever He wills.
 For Allah is the Lord
 Of Grace abounding.

۲۹- لِمَ لَا يَعْلَمُ اَهْلُ الْكِتٰبِ
 اَلَا يَقْدِرُوْنَ عَلَى شَيْءٍ مِّنْ فَضْلِ اللّٰهِ
 وَاَنَّ الْفَضْلَ بِيَدِ اللّٰهِ
 يُؤْتِيْهِ مَن يَشَآءُ
 وَاللّٰهُ ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيْمِ

5325. From the context before (see n. 5323 above) and after (see next note), this is held to refer to the Christians and People of the Book who kept their Faith true and undefiled.

5326. The double portion refers to the past and the future. As noted in the last note, this passage is addressed to the Christians and the People of the Book, who, when honestly facing the question of the new Revelation in Islam, find in it the fulfilment of previous revelations, and therefore believe in Allah's Messenger Muḥammad, and walk by the new Light. Their previous merits will be duly recognised, and they will be treated on fully equal terms in the new Ummah. This is their double share, not necessarily more in quantity than that of their brethren in Islam who passed through no other gate, but having a twofold aspect.

5327. As this refers to the Christians and the People of the Book, the following saying of Christ in his last days may interest them: "Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you. . . While ye have the light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them". (John, xii. 35-36). The light of Christ's Gospel soon departed; his Church was enveloped in darkness; then came the light again, in the fuller light of Islam. And they are asked to believe in the Light, and to walk in it. Cf. also 57:12, and n. 5288 above.

5328. Any wrongs they may have committed through ignorance or misconceptions in their previous religion will be forgiven them, as they have seen the new Light and walk by it.

5329. Let not any race, or people, or community, or group, believe that they have exclusive possession of Allah's Grace, or that they can influence its grant or its withholding. Allah's Grace is free, and entirely controlled by Him, independently of any priests and privileged people. He dispenses it according to His own wise and Holy Will and Plan; and to His Grace there is no limit.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 58—AL MUJĀDILAH

This is the second of the ten Madīnah Sūrahs referred to in the Introduction to the last Sūrah. Its subject matter is the acceptance of a woman's Plea on behalf of herself and her children (see n. 5330 to 58:1 below), and a condemnation of all secret counsels and intrigues in the Muslim Brotherhood.

The date is somewhat close to that of S. 33, say between A. H. 5 and A. H. 7.

Summary—All false pretences, especially those that degrade a woman's position, are condemned—as well as secret consultations between men and intrigues with falsehood, mischief, and sedition. (58:1-22, and C. 237).

C. 237. — Let not false pretences or superstitions
 (58:1-22) Degrade the position of women. Eschew
 Secret plottings and secret counsels.
 Observe order and decorum in public assemblies,
 And seek not in selfish pride to engage
 Your Leader's private attention. It is wrong
 To turn to the enemies of Allah for friendship:
 They make their oaths a cloak for wrongdoing,
 And keep back men from the Right. But none
 Can resist the Power or the Judgement of Allah.
 The righteous seek only His Good Pleasure,
 And rejoice therein as their highest Achievement.

Sūrah 58.

Al Mujādilah (The Woman Who Pleads)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Allah has indeed
Heard (and accepted) the statement
Of the woman who pleads⁵³³⁰
With thee concerning her husband
And carries her complaint
(In prayer) to Allah:
And Allah (always) hears
The arguments between both⁵³³¹
Sides among you: for Allah
Hears and sees (all things).
2. If any men among you
Divorce their wives by *Zihār*⁵³³²
(Calling them mothers),
They cannot be their mothers:
None can be their mothers
Except those who gave them
Birth. And in fact
They use words (both)
iniquitous⁵³³³
And false: but truly
Allah is One that blots out⁵³³⁴
(Sins), and forgives
(Again and again).

الجزء الثامن والعشرون سُبُورَةُ الْمُجَادِلَةِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- قَدْ سَمِعَ اللَّهُ قَوْلَ الَّتِي
تُجَادِلُكَ فِي زَوْجِهَا
وَتَشْتَكِي إِلَى اللَّهِ
وَاللَّهُ يَسْمَعُ مَخَاوِرُكُمْ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ نَكِيمٌ بَصِيرٌ ○

۲- الَّذِينَ يُطَهِّرُونَ مِنْكُمْ مَنْ نِسَائِهِمْ
مَا هُنَّ أُمَّهَاتُهُمْ
إِنَّ أُمَّهَاتَهُمْ إِلَّا الْإِثْمُ وَلَكِنْ هُمْ
وَلَهُمْ لَيَقُولُونَ مُنْكَرًا مِنَ الْقَوْلِ وَزُورًا
وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ لَعَفُوفٌ غَفُورٌ ○

5330. The immediate occasion was what happened to Khawlah bint Tha'labah, wife of Aws son of Sāmit. Though in Islam, he divorced her by an old Pagan custom: the formula was known as Zihār, and consisted of the words "Thou art to me as the back of my mother". This was held by Pagan custom to imply a divorce and freed the husband from any responsibility for conjugal duties, but did not leave the wife free to leave the husband's home, or to contract a second marriage. Such a custom was in any case degrading to a woman. It was particularly hard on Khawlah, for she loved her husband and pleaded that she had little children who she had no resources herself to support and whom under Zihār her husband was not bound to support. She urged her plea to the Prophet and in prayer to Allah. Her just plea was accepted, and this iniquitous custom, based on false words, was abolished. See also n. 3670 to 33:4.

5331. For He is a just God, and will not allow human customs or pretences to trample on the just rights of the weakest of His creatures.

5333. Such words are false in fact and iniquitous, inasmuch as they are unfair to the wife and unseemly in decent society.

5334. Cf. 4:99 and 22:60. Were it not that Allah in His Mercy makes allowances for our weaknesses and the various grades of motives that actuate us, such conduct would be inexpiable. But He prescribes expiation as in the next verse, because He wishes to blot out what is wrong and give us a chance to reform by His forgiveness.

3. But those who divorce
Their wives by Zihār,
Then wish to go back⁵³³⁵
On the words they uttered —
(It is ordained that Such a one)
Should free a slave
Before they touch each other:
This are ye admonished
To perform: and Allah is
Well-acquainted with (all)
That ye do.

۝ وَالَّذِينَ يُظَاهِرُونَ مِنْ نِسَائِهِمْ
ثُمَّ يَعُودُونَ لِمَا قَالُوا
فَتَحْرِيرُ رَقَبَةٍ
مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَتَمَاسَا^ط
ذَلِكُمْ تُوَعِّظُونَ بِهِ^ط
وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ ۝

4. And if any has not
(The wherewithal),⁵³³⁶
He should fast for
Two months consecutively
Before they touch each other.
But if any is unable
To do so, he should feed
Sixty indigent ones.⁵³³⁷
This, that ye may show
Your faith in Allah⁵³³⁸
And His Messenger,
Those are limits (set
By) Allah. For those who Reject (Him), there is
A grievous Penalty.⁵³³⁹

۝ فَمَنْ لَمْ يَجِدْ فَصِيَامَ شَهْرَيْنِ مُتَتَابِعَيْنِ
مِنْ قَبْلِ أَنْ يَتَمَاسَا^ط
فَمَنْ لَمْ يَسْتَطِعْ^ط
وَأَطْعَامَ سِتِّينَ مِسْكِينًا^ط
ذَلِكَ لِتُؤْمِنُوا بِاللَّهِ
وَرَسُولِهِ^ط
وَتِلْكَ حُدُودُ اللَّهِ^ط
وَاللَّكَفْرِينَ عَذَابُ الْآلِيمِ ۝

5335. If Zihār were to be ignored as if the words were never uttered, it would mean that men may foolishly resort to it without penalty. It is therefore recognised in respect of the penalty which the man incurs, but safeguards the woman's rights. She can sue for maintenance for herself and her children, but her husband could not claim his conjugal rights. If it was a hasty act and he repented of it, he could not claim his conjugal rights until after the performance of his penalty as provided below. If she loved him, as in Khawlah's case, she could also herself sue for conjugal rights in the legal sense of the term and compel her husband to perform the penalty and resume marital relations.

5336. Cf. 4:92. The penalty is: to get a slave his freedom, whether it is your own slave or you purchase his freedom from another; if that is not possible, to fast for two months consecutively (in the manner of the Ramadhān fast); if that is not possible, to feed sixty poor. See next note.

5337. There is a great deal of learned argument among the jurists as to the precise requirements of Canon Law under the term "feeding" the indigent. For example, it is laid down that half a Ṣā' of wheat or a full Ṣā' of dates or their equivalent in money would fulfil the requirements, a Ṣā' being a measure corresponding roughly to about 9 lbs. of wheat in weight. Others hold that a Mudd measure equivalent to about 2¼ lbs. would be sufficient. This would certainly be nearer the daily ration of a man. It is better to take the spirit of the text in its plain simplicity, and say that an indigent man should be given enough to eat for two meals a day. The sixty indigent ones fed for a day would be equivalent to a single individual fed for sixty days, or two for thirty days, and so on. But there is no need to go into minutiae in such matters.

5338. These penalties in the alternative are prescribed, that we may show our repentance and Faith and our renunciation of "iniquity and falsehood" (verse 2 above), whatever our circumstances may be.

5339. It would seem that this refers to the spiritual Penalty in the Hereafter for not complying with the small penalty here prescribed. The next verse would then refer to the bigger "humiliating Penalty" for "resistance" to Allah's Law generally.

5. Those who resist Allah
And His Messenger will be
Humbled to dust, as were
Those before them: for We
Have already sent down
Clear Signs. And the Unbelievers
(Will have) a humiliating
Penalty,

ه- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يُحَادِّثُونَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ
كُتِبُوا كَمَا كُتِبَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ
وَقَدْ أَنْزَلْنَا آيَاتٍ بَيِّنَاتٍ
وَلِلْكَافِرِينَ عَذَابٌ مُهِينٌ ۝

6. On the Day that
Allah will raise them
All up (again) and show
Them the truth (and meaning)⁵³⁴⁰
Of their conduct. Allah has
Reckoned its (value), though
They may have forgotten it,
For Allah is Witness
To all things.

٦- يَوْمَ يَبْعَثُهُمُ اللَّهُ جَمِيعًا
فَيُنَبِّئُهُمْ بِمَا عَمِلُوا
أَحْصَاهُ اللَّهُ وَنَسُوهُ
وَاللَّهُ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدٌ ۝

SECTION 2.

7. Seest thou not that
Allah doth know (all) that is
In the heavens and
On earth? There is not
A secret consultation
Between three, but He Makes the fourth among them — ⁵³⁴¹
Nor between five but
He makes the sixth —
Nor between fewer nor more,
But He is with them,
Wheresoever they be:
In the end will He
Tell them the truth
Of their conduct, on the Day
Of Judgement. For Allah
Has full knowledge
Of all things.

ه- أَلَمْ تَرَ أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَعْلَمُ
مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ
مَا يَكُونُ مِنْ ثَلَاثَةٍ إِلَّا هُوَ
رَابِعُهُمْ وَلَا خَمْسَةٍ إِلَّا
هُوَ سَادِسُهُمْ
وَلَا آدَنَى مِنْ ذَلِكَ وَلَا أَكْثَرُ
إِلَّا هُوَ مَعَهُمْ آيِنٌ مَا كَانُوا
ثُمَّ يُنَبِّئُهُمْ بِمَا عَمِلُوا يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ۝

5340. This phrase, "Allah will tell them the truth of their deeds (or their doings or their conduct)" occurs frequently. See 5:51, n. 762; 5:108, n. 811; 6:60; 9:94; etc. In this life there is a certain mist or illusion in our spiritual sight. We see things from different angles and dispute about them; we hide real motives, and pretend to virtues which we do not possess; others may attribute such virtues to us, and we may come to believe it ourselves; we conceive likes and hatreds on insufficient grounds; we forget what we should remember, and remember what we should forget. Our vision is narrow, and our values are false. On the Day of Account all this will be remedied. Not only will true values be restored, but we shall ourselves see the inwardness of things in our own lives, which we never saw before.

5341. Secrecy is a relative and limited term among ourselves. There is nothing hidden or unknown to Allah. Usually secrecy implies fear or distrust, plotting or wrongdoing. But all is open before Allah's sight.

8. Turnest thou not thy sight
Towards those who were
Forbidden secret counsels⁵³⁴²
Yet revert to that which
They were forbidden (to do)?
And they hold secret counsels
Among themselves for iniquity
And hostility, and disobedience
To the Messenger. And when
They come to thee,
They salute thee,⁵³⁴³
Not as Allah salutes thee,
(But in crooked ways):
And they say to themselves,
"Why does not Allah
Punish us for our words?"⁵³⁴⁴
Enough for them is Hell:
In it will they burn,
And evil is that destination!

هـ- لَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ نُهُوا عَنِ النَّجْوَى
ثُمَّ يَعُودُونَ لِمَا نُهُوا عَنْهُ
وَيَتَنَجَّوْنَ بِالْأَثِمِ وَالْعُدْوَانِ
وَمَعْصِيَةِ الرَّسُولِ
وَلِذَا جَاءُوكَ حَيَّوكَ
بِمَا لَمْ يُحْيِكَ بِهِ اللَّهُ
وَيَقُولُونَ فِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ
لَوْلَا يُعَذِّبُنَا اللَّهُ بِمَا نَقُولُ
حَسْبُهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ يَصَلُّونَهَا
فَبِئْسَ الْمَصِيرُ ٥

9. O ye who believe!
When ye hold secret counsel,
Do it not for iniquity
And hostility, and disobedience
To the Messenger; but do it
For righteousness and self-restraint;⁵³⁴⁵
And fear Allah, to Whom
Ye shall be brought back.

هـ- يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا تَنَاجَيْتُمْ فَلَا
تَتَنَاجَوْا بِالْأَثِمِ وَالْعُدْوَانِ وَمَعْصِيَةِ
الرَّسُولِ وَتَتَنَاجَوْا بِالْبِرِّ وَالتَّقْوَى
وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ الَّذِي إِلَيْهِ تُحْشَرُونَ ٥

10. Secret counsels are only
(Inspired) by the Evil One,

١٠- إِنَّمَا النَّجْوَى مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ

5342. When the Muslim Brotherhood was acquiring strength in Madīnah, and the forces of disruption were being discomfited in open fight against the Messenger of Righteousness, the wicked resorted to duplicity and secret intrigues, in which the ringleaders were the disaffected Jews and the Hypocrites, whose machinations have been frequently referred to in the Qur'ān. E.g., see 2:8-16; and 4:142-145.

5343. The salutation of Allah was (and is) "Peace!" But the enemies, who had not the courage to fight openly often twisted the words, and by using a word like Sām, which meant "Death!" or "Destruction!" instead of Salām! (Peace!), they thought they were secretly venting their spite and yet apparently using a polite form of salutation. Cf. 2:106, and n. 107, where another similar trick is exposed.

5344. The enemies derisively enjoyed their trick (see last note) according to their own perverted mentality. They asked blasphemously, "Why does not Allah punish us?" The answer is given; there is a Punishment, far greater than they imagine; it will come in good time; it will be the final Punishment after Judgement: it is delayed in order to give them a chance of repentance and reformation.

5345. Ordinarily secrecy implies deeds of darkness, something which men have to hide; see the next verse. But there are good deeds which may be concerted and done in secret: e.g., charity, or the prevention of mischief, or the defeat of the dark plots of evil. The determining factor is the motive. Is the man doing some wrong or venting his spite, or trying to disobey a lawful command? Or is he doing some good, which out of modesty or self-renunciation he does not want known, or is he in a righteous cause defeating the machinations of Evil, which may involve great sacrifice of himself?

In order that he may Cause grief to the Believers;
But he cannot harm them
In the least, except as⁵³⁴⁶
Allah permits; and on Allah
Let the Believers
Put their trust.

لِيَحْزُنَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
وَلَيْسَ بِضَارٍّ لَهُمْ شَيْئًا إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ
وَعَلَى اللَّهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ ○

11. ﴿٥٨﴾ ye who believe!
When ye are told
To make room
In the assemblies,⁵³⁴⁷
(Spread out and) make room:
(Ample) room will Allah provide
For you. And when
Ye are told to rise up,⁵³⁴⁸
Rise up: Allah will Raise up, to (suitable) ranks
(And degrees), those of you
Who believe and who have
Been granted Knowledge.⁵³⁴⁹
And Allah is well-acquainted
With all ye do.

١١- يٰٓأَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا قِيلَ لَكُمْ
تَفَسَّحُوا فِي الْمَجَالِسِ
فَافْسَحُوا يَفْضَحِ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ
وَإِذَا قِيلَ انشُرُوا فَانشُرُوا
يَرْفَعِ اللَّهُ
الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مِنْكُمْ وَالَّذِينَ
أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ دَرَجَاتٍ
وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ ○

12. ﴿٥٩﴾ ye who believe!
When ye consult
The Messenger in private,⁵³⁵⁰
Spend something in charity

١٢- يٰٓأَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِذَا نَاجَيْتُمُ الرَّسُولَ
فَقَدْ مُوا

5346. Evil can harm no one who is good, except insofar as (1) there is some question of trial in Allah's Universal Plan, or (2) what appears to be harm may be real good. Nothing happens without Allah's will and permission. And we must always trust Him, and not our cleverness or any adventitious circumstances that draw us the least bit from the path of rectitude.

5347. Even when a great man or a Leader comes into an Assembly, we are not to press forward without discipline, as it causes inconvenience to him and detriment to public business. Nor are we to shut out other people who have equal rights to be in the Assembly. We must spread out, for Allah's earth is spacious, and so are our opportunities.

5348. Rising up is a mark of respect. Just as those who obey soon become worthy of command, so those who honour where honour is due, become themselves worthy of honour, in various degrees according to their capacities. "Rise up" may also here imply: 'when the Assembly is dismissed, do not loiter about'.

5349. Faith makes all people equal in the Kingdom of Allah, as regards the essentials of citizenship in the Kingdom. But there is leadership, and rank and degree, joined with greater or less responsibility, and that depends on true knowledge and insight. (R).

5350. In the Kingdom of Allah all instruction or consultation is open and free. But human nature is weak. And people want special instruction or private consultation with the Teacher from one of several motives: (1) they may have, or think they have, a special case, which they are not willing to disclose to their brethren in general; (2) they may have some sense of delicacy or dignity, which can only be satisfied by a private interview; (3) they may even be selfish enough to want to monopolise the Teacher's time. These motives are, in an ascending order, worth discouraging; and yet, considering the weakness of human nature, they cannot be reprobated to the extent of shutting out their victims from chances of improvement. It is therefore recommended that they spend something in charity for the good of their poorer brethren before they indulge in such weaknesses.

Before your private consultation.
That will be best for you,
And most conducive
To purity (of conduct).⁵³⁵¹
But if ye find not
(The wherewithal), Allah is
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

بَيْنَ يَدَيْ نَجْوَاكُمْ صَدَقَةٌ
ذَلِكَ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ وَأَطْهَرُ
فَإِنْ لَّمْ تَجِدُوا
وَإِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ ٥

13. Is it that ye are Afraid of spending sums⁵³⁵²
In charity before your
Private consultation (with him)?
If, then, ye do not so,
And Allah forgives you,
Then (at least) establish
Regular prayer; practise⁵³⁵³
Regular charity; and obey
Allah and His Messenger.
And Allah is well-acquainted
With all that ye do.

١٣- أَشْفَقْتُمْ أَنْ تُقَدِّمُوا
بَيْنَ يَدَيْ نَجْوَاكُمْ صَدَقَاتٍ
وَإِذْ لَمْ تَفْعَلُوا وَتَابَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمْ
فَأَقِمْوُا الصَّلَاةَ وَآتُوا الزَّكَاةَ
وَاطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ
وَاللَّهُ خَبِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ٦

SECTION 3.

14. Turnest thou not
Thy attention to those⁵³⁵⁴
Who turn (in friendship)
To such as have the Wrath
Of Allah upon them?⁵³⁵⁵
They are neither of you
Nor of them, and they
Swear to falsehood knowingly.⁵³⁵⁶

١٤- أَلَمْ تَرَ إِلَى الَّذِينَ
تَوَلَّوْا قَوْمًا غَضِبَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ
مَا هُمْ مِنْكُمْ وَلَا مِنْهُمْ
وَيَحْلِفُونَ عَلَى الْكَذِبِ وَهُمْ يَعْلَمُونَ ٧

5351. The charity is a sort of expiation for their pardonable weakness. Having made some monetary sacrifice for their poorer brethren they could face them with less shame, and the charity would direct their attention to the need for purifying their motives and conduct. At the same time, this special charity is not made obligatory, lest such persons should be shut out altogether from chances of the higher teaching on account of their pardonable foibles.

5352. Note the plural here, Ṣadaqāt, instead of the singular, Ṣadaqah in verse 12 above. While people with the foibles described in n. 5350 may be willing to spend "something" (small) in charity for a special consultation occasionally, they may be frightened of spending large sums when their needs for consultation may be numerous. What is to be done then? Are they to be shut out altogether? No. They are asked to be punctilious in the discharge of their normal duties of at least normal regular prayers and regular charity, "if Allah forgives you", i.e., if Allah's Messenger relieves them of further special contributions such as those noted in verse 12. This condition, "if Allah forgives you", provides the safeguard against the abuse of the privilege. The messenger would know in each case what is best for the individual and for the community.

5353. Zakāh, which I have translated "regular charity", was instituted about A.H. 2.

5354. This refers to the Hypocrites of Madīnah who pretended to be in Islam but intrigued with the Jews. See references as given in n. 5342 above.

5355. By this time the Jews of Madīnah and the Jewish tribes around had become actively hostile to Islam, and were being sharply called to account for their treachery.

5356. They knew that as Muslims their duty was to refrain from the intrigues of the enemies of Islam and to assist Islam against them.

15. Allah has prepared for them
A severe Penalty: evil
Indeed are their deeds.

١٥- أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا
إِنَّهُمْ سَاءَ مَا كَانُوا يَعْمَلُونَ ○

16. They have made their oaths
A screen (for their misdeeds):
Thus they obstruct (men)⁵³⁵⁷
From the Path of Allah:
Therefore shall they have
A humiliating Penalty.

١٦- اِتَّخَذُوا أَيْمَانَهُمْ جُنَّةً
فَصَدُّوا عَنْ سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ
فَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ مُهِينٌ ○

17. Of no profit whatever
To them, against Allah,
Will be their riches⁵³⁵⁸
Nor their sons:
They will be Companions
Of the Fire, to dwell
Therein (for aye)!

١٧- لَنْ تَغْنِي عَنْهُمْ
أَمْوَالُهُمْ وَلَا أَوْلَادُهُمْ مِنَ اللَّهِ شَيْئًا
أُولَئِكَ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ
هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ ○

18. One Day will Allah
Raise them all up
(For Judgement): then
Will they swear to Him⁵³⁵⁹
As they swear to you:
And they think that they
Have something (to stand upon).
No, indeed! they are
But liars!

١٨- يَوْمَ يَبْعَثُهُمُ اللَّهُ جَمِيعًا
فَيَحْلِفُونَ لَهُ كَمَا يَحْلِفُونَ لَكُمْ
وَيَحْسَبُونَ أَنَّهُمْ عَلَى شَيْءٍ
أَلَا إِنَّهُمْ هُمُ الْكَاذِبُونَ ○

19. The Evil One has Got the better of them:⁵³⁶⁰
So he has made them
Lose the remembrance
Of Allah. They are the Party
Of the Evil One. Truly,
It is the Party

١٩- اسْتَحْوَذَ عَلَيْهِمُ الشَّيْطَانُ
فَأَنسَاهُمْ ذِكْرَ اللَّهِ
أُولَئِكَ حِزْبُ الشَّيْطَانِ أَلَا إِنَّ حِزْبَ

5357. A false man, by swearing that he is true, makes his falsehood all the more heinous. He stands in the way of other people accepting Truth. He gives a handle to the cynics and the sceptics.

5358. They may arrogantly boast of riches and alliances and followers in manpower. But what are such worldly advantages before the Throne of the Disposer of all events? They must come to utter misery.

5359. When Judgement is established, and before they realise the Truth, they may think (as now) that some oaths or excuses will save them. But they have not now—much less will they have then—any footing to stand upon. Falsehood is falsehood, and must perish. They must learn the worthlessness of their falsehood.

5360. Man's original nature as created by Allah is good (30:30, and n. 3541). It is because man, in spite of the warnings he has received, allows Evil to get the mastery over him, that man forgets Allah and the divine qualities which Allah gave him. The result of the perversion is that man becomes a partisan of Evil, and as such dooms himself to perdition.

Of the Evil One
That will Perish!

20. Those who resist
Allah and His Messenger
Will be among those
Most humiliated.⁵³⁶¹

21. Allah has decreed:
"It is I and My messengers
Who must prevail":
For Allah is One
Full of strength,
Able to enforce His Will.⁵³⁶²

22. Thou wilt not find
Any people who believe
In Allah and the Last Day,
Loving those who resist
Allah and His Messenger,
Even though they were
Their fathers or their sons,⁵³⁶³
Or their brothers, or
Their kindred. For such
He has written Faith⁵³⁶⁴
In their hearts, and strengthened
Them with a spirit⁵³⁶⁵
From Himself. And He
Will admit them to Gardens
Beneath which Rivers flow,
To dwell therein (forever).
Allah will be well pleased

يُوَادُّونَ مَنْ حَادَّ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ
وَلَوْ كَانُوا آبَاءَهُمْ أَوْ أَبْنَاءَهُمْ
أَوْ إِخْوَانَهُمْ أَوْ عَشِيرَتَهُمْ
أُولَئِكَ كَتَبَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمُ الْإِيمَانَ
وَآتَاهُمُ بُرُودَهُمْ مِنْهُ
وَيُدْخِلُهُمْ جَنَّاتٍ
تَجْرَى مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا
رَضِيَ اللَّهُ

5361. There are various degrees of humiliation in the final state in the spiritual world. But the worst is the humiliation of being numbered among those who ignominiously attempted to resist the Irresistible.

5362. For the meaning of 'Aziz, see n. 2818 to 22:40.

5363. If anyone believes in Allah and His goodness and justice, and in the Hereafter, in which all true values will be restored he will never love evil or wrongdoing or rebellion against Allah, even if these things are found in his nearest kith and kin.

5364. Faith in Allah is indelibly written on the tablets of their hearts and they can never be false to Allah.

5365. Cf. 2:87 and 253, where it is said that Allah strengthened the Prophet Jesus with the Holy Spirit. Here we learn that all good and righteous men are strengthened by Allah with the Holy Spirit. If anything, the phrase used here is stronger, "a spirit from Himself". Whenever anyone offers his heart in faith and purity to Allah, Allah accepts it, engraves that Faith on the seeker's heart, and further fortifies him with the divine spirit, which we can no more define adequately than we can define in human language the nature and attributes of Allah.

With them, and they with Him.⁵³⁶⁶
 They are the Party⁵³⁶⁷
 Of Allah. Truly it is
 The Party of Allah that
 Will achieve Felicity.

عَنْهُمْ وَرَضُوا عَنْهُ
 أُولَئِكَ حِزْبُ اللَّهِ
 أَلَا إِنَّ حِزْبَ اللَّهِ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ۝

5366. Again we have the doctrine of Allah's Good Pleasure as the highest goal of man, the spiritual heaven which he achieves by a life of purity and faith. He not only attains Allah's Good Pleasure as the crown of his felicity, but his own nature is so far transformed to the pattern of Allah's original creation that his own good pleasure is in nothing but in Allah's Good Pleasure. The mutual good pleasure shows the heights to which man can attain. (R).

5367. This is in antithesis to the Party of the Evil One, mentioned in verse 19 above. That Party of Evil will perish, but while it has its run in the scheme of the present world, the Party of Truth and Reality may be figuratively called the Party of Allah, even though all Creation is Allah's in another sense.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 59—AL HASHR

This is the third of the series of ten short Madīnah Sūrahs, dealing each with a special point in the life of the Ummah: see Introduction to S. 57. The special theme here is how treachery to the Ummah on the part of its enemies recoils on the enemies themselves, while it strengthens the bond between the different sections of the Ummah itself, and this is illustrated by the story of the expulsion of the Jewish tribe of the Banū Nadīr in Rabī' al Awwal, 4 A.H.

This fixes the date of the Sūrah.

Summary—The expulsion of the treacherous Jews from the neighbourhood of Madīnah was smoothly accomplished: their reliance on their fortified positions and on the faith of their allies in treachery proved futile. But the internal bonds in the Ummah were strengthened. Such is the wisdom of Allah, Lord of the Most Beautiful Names. (59:1-24, and C. 238).

C. 238.—Allah's wisdom foils the treachery of men,
 (59:1-24.) And makes the path smooth for Believers who strive
 Even against odds. Against Allah's decrees
 All resistance is vain. In property taken
 From the enemy, let those in need have a share,
 And those who sacrifice their all for the Cause.
 But those who lend a helping hand
 In the hour of need do it for love
 And crave no reward, nor feel the least
 Envy or jealousy. They all rejoice
 That the Brotherhood should thrive. Not so
 The Hypocrites: they are false even among Themselves. Perdition is the end
 Of all evil. But the Good and Faithful
 Will achieve felicity. Such is the power
 Of Truth and Allah's Revelation. Allah!
 There is no god but He!—the Good,
 The Glorious, the Irresistible!
 All Creation sings His praise—
 The Exalted in Might, the Wise!

فَأَتَاهُمُ اللَّهُ مِنْ حَيْثُ

عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مَسْعُودٍ

5368. This verse, introducing the Sūrah is identical with 57:1, introducing S. 57. The theme of both is the wonderful working of Allah's Plan and Providence. In the one case it referred to the conquest of Makkah and taught the lesson of humility. In this case it refers to the dislodgement of the treacherous Banū Nadīr from their nest of intrigue in the neighbourhood of Madīnah, practically without a blow. See next note.

5369. This refers to the Jewish tribe of the Banū Nadīr whose intrigues and treachery nearly undid the Muslim cause during the perilous days of the battle of Uhūd in Shawwāl, A.H. 3. Four months after, in Rabī' al Awwal, A.H. 4, steps were taken against them. They were asked to leave the strategic position which they occupied, about three miles south of Madīnah, endangering the very existence of the Ummah in Madīnah. At first they demurred, relying on their fortresses and on their secret alliances with the Pagans of Makkah and the Hypocrites of Madīnah. But when the Muslim army was gathered to punish them and actually besieged them for some days, their allies stirred not a finger in their aid, and they were wise enough to leave. Most of them joined their brethren in Syria, which they were permitted to do, after being disarmed. Some of them joined their brethren in Khaybar: see n. 3705 to 33:27. The Banū Nadīr richly deserved punishment, but their lives were spared, and they were allowed to carry away their goods and chattels.

5370. That is, without actual hostilities, and the shedding of precious Muslim blood.

5371. They had played a double game. Originally they were sworn allies of the Madīnah Muslims under the Holy Prophet, but they secretly intrigued with the Makkah Pagans under Abū Sufyān and the Madīnah Hypocrites. They even tried treacherously to take the life of the Prophet while he was on a visit to them, breaking both the laws of hospitality and their own sworn alliance. They thought the Pagan Quraysh of Makkah and the Hypocrites of Madīnah would help them, but they did not help them. On the contrary the eleven day siege showed them their own helplessness. Their supplies were cut off: the exigencies of the siege necessitated the destruction of their outlying palm trees; and the unexpected turn in their fortunes disheartened them. Their hearts were struck with terror and they capitulated. But they laid waste their homes before they left: see next note.

From which they little
Expected (it), and cast
Terror into their hearts,
So that they destroyed
Their dwellings by their own⁵³⁷²
Hands and the hands
Of the Believers.
Take warning, then,
O ye with eyes (to see)!

3. And had it not been
That Allah had decreed
Banishment for them,⁵³⁷³
He would certainly have
Punished them in this world:
And in the Hereafter
They shall (certainly) have
The Punishment of the Fire.

4. That is because they
Resisted Allah and His Messenger:
And if anyone resists Allah,⁵³⁷⁴
Verily Allah is severe
In Punishment.

5. Whether ye cut down
(O ye Muslims!)
The tender palm trees,
Or ye left them standing
On their roots, it was⁵³⁷⁵
By leave of Allah, and
In order that He might⁵³⁷⁶

لَعَذَّبَهُمْ فِي الدُّنْيَا
وَلَهُمْ فِي الْآخِرَةِ

۴- ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ شَاقُوا اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ

أَوْ تَرَكْتُمُوهَا قَائِمَةً عَلَى أُصُولِهَا
فَبِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ

5372. Their lives were spared, and they were allowed ten days in which to remove themselves, their families, and such goods as they could carry. In order to leave no habitations for the Muslims they demolished their own houses and laid waste their property, to complete the destruction which the operations of war had already caused at the hands of the besieging force of the Muslims.

5373. Banishment was a comparatively mild punishment for them, but the Providence of Allah had decreed that a chance should be given to them even though they were a treacherous foe. Within two years, their brethren the Banū Qurayzah showed that they had not profited by their example, and had to be dealt with in another way: see 33:26 and notes.

5374. The punishment of the Banū Naḍīr was because in breaking their plighted word with the Messenger and in actively resisting Allah's Message and supporting the enemies of that Message, they rebelled against His Holy Will. For such treason and rebellion the punishment is severe, and yet in this case it was seasoned with Mercy.

5375. The unnecessary cutting down of fruit trees or destruction of crops, or any wanton destruction whatever in war, is forbidden by the law and practice of Islam. But some destruction may be necessary for putting pressure on the enemy, and to that extent it is allowed. But as far as possible, consistently with that objective of military operations, such trees should not be cut down. Both these principles are in accordance with the Divine Will, and were followed by the Muslims in their expedition.

5376. The arrogance of the Banū Naḍīr had to be humbled, and their power for mischief destroyed.

5377. Neither cavalry nor troops mounted on camels were employed in the siege. In fact the enemy surrendered at the first onset. See 59:2, and n. 5369 above.

5378. Allah accomplishes His Purpose in various ways, according to His Wise and Holy Will and Plan. In some cases a fight is necessary. In some cases the godly attain their objective and overawe the forces of evil without actual fighting.

5379. The Jews had originally come from outside Arabia, and seized on the land near Madīnah. They refused to adapt themselves to the people of Arabia, and were in fact a thorn in the side of the genuine Arabs of Madīnah. Their dispossession is therefore a restoration of the land to its original people. But the word Fā' is here understood in a technical sense, as meaning property abandoned by the enemy or taken from him without a formal war. In that sense it is distinguished from Anfāl, or spoils, taken after actual fighting, about which see 8:1 and 41.

5380. The people of the townships: the townships were the Jewish settlements round Madīnah, of the Banū Nadīr, and possibly of other tribes. Cf. the "townships" mentioned in 59:14 below. The reference cannot be to the Wādī al Qurā (Valley of Towns), now Madā'in Šālīh, which was subjugated after Khaybar and Fadak in A.H. 7, unless this verse is later than the rest of the Sūrah.

5381. Belongs to Allah: i.e., to Allah's Cause; and the beneficiaries are further detailed. No shares are fixed; they depend upon circumstances, and are left to the judgement of the Leader. Compare a similar list of those entitled to Charity, in 2:177, but the two lists refer to different circumstances and have different beneficiaries in addition to the portion common to both.

5381-A. Alternatively these words may be translated: "So take what the Messenger gives you, and refrain from what he prohibits you". [Eds.].

8. (Some part is due)
To the indigent Muhājirs,⁵³⁸²
Those who were expelled
From their homes and their

While seeking Grace from Allah
And (His) Good Pleasure,
And aiding Allah and His

Such are indeed
The sincere ones—

٨- لِلْفُقَرَاءِ الْمُهَاجِرِينَ

9. But those who
Before them, had homes⁵³⁸³

As came to them for refuge,
And entertain no desire
In their hearts for things
Given to the (latter),
But give them preference
Over themselves, even though
Poverty was their (own lot).
And those saved from
The covetousness of their own
Souls—they are the ones
That achieve prosperity.

٩- وَالَّذِينَ تَبَوَّءُوا الدَّارَ

يُحِبُّونَ مَنْ هَاجَرَ إِلَيْهِمْ
وَلَا يَجِدُونَ فِي صُدُورِهِمْ حَاجَةً مِمَّا
أُوتُوا وَيُؤْثِرُونَ عَلَىٰ أَنْفُسِهِمْ
وَلَوْ كَانَ بِهِمْ خَصَاصَةٌ ۚ
وَمَنْ يُوقِ شُحَّ نَفْسِهِ
فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ۝

10. And those who came⁵³⁸⁴
After them say: "Our Lord!
Forgive us, and our brethren
Who came before us

١٠- وَالَّذِينَ جَاءُوا مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ يَقُولُونَ رَبَّنَا
اغْفِرْ لَنَا وَلِإِخْوَانِنَا الَّذِينَ سَبَقُونَا

5382. The Muhājir are those who forsook their homes and property in Makkah in order to assist the Holy Prophet in his migration to Madīnah (Hijrah). Their devotion and sincerity were proved beyond doubt by their self-denial, and they were now to be rewarded.

5383. This refers to the Anṣār (the Helpers), the people of Madīnah, who accepted Islam when it was persecuted in Makkah, and who invited the Holy Prophet to join them and become their Leader in Madīnah. The Hijrah was possible because of their good will and their generous hospitality. They entertained the Prophet and all the refugees (Muhājirs) who came with him. The most remarkable ties of full brotherhood were established between individual members of the one group and the other. Until the Ummah got its own resources, the Helpers regularly gave and the Refugees regularly received. The Helpers counted it a privilege to entertain the Refugees, and even the poor vied with the rich in their spirit of self-sacrifice. When the confiscated land and property of the Banū Naḍīr was divided, and the major portion was assigned to the refugees, there was not the least jealousy on the part of the Helpers. They rejoiced in the good fortune of their brethren. And incidentally they were themselves relieved of anxiety and responsibility on their behalf.

5384. Those that came after them: the immediate meaning would refer to later arrivals in Madīnah or later accessions to Islam, compared with the early Muhājirs. But the general meaning would include all future comers into the House of Islam. They pray, not only for themselves, but for all their brethren, and above all, they pray that their hearts may be purified of any desire or tendency to disparage the work or virtues of other Muslims or to feel any jealousy on account of their successes or good fortune.

11. Hast thou not observed
The Hypocrites say
To their misbelieving brethren
Among the People of the Book?—⁵³⁸⁶

"If ye are expelled,
We too will go out
With you, and we will

Ye are attacked (in fight)

But Allah is witness⁵³⁸⁷
That they are indeed liars.

12. If they are expelled,
Never will they go out
With them; and if they
Are attacked (in fight),
They will never help them;
And if they do help them,
They will turn their backs;
So they will receive no help.⁵³⁸⁸

لَئِنْ أُخْرِجُوا لَا يَخْرُجُونَ مَعَهُمْ

وَلَئِنْ نَصَرُوهُمْ لَيُولِيَنَّ الْأَدْبَارُ
ثُمَّ لَا يَنْصُرُونَ ٥

13. Of a truth ye are Stronger (than they)

إِنَّا نَحْنُ أَشَدُّ -

5385. Cf. 7:43, and n. 1021.

5386. The Jews of the Banū Naḍīr had been assured by the Hypocrites of Madīnah of their support to their cause. They had thought that their defection from the Prophet's Cause would so weaken that cause that they would save their friends. But they never intended to undertake any act involving self-sacrifice on their part; if they had helped their Jewish friends, it was not likely that they would have succeeded; and if they had actually gone to the fight, they had neither valour nor fervour to support them, and they would have fled ignominiously before the discipline, earnestness, and Faith of the men of Islam.

5387. For this actually happened. They never stirred a finger for the Jews, and they never intended to do so. And Allah knows all their motives and secrets: cf. 47:26, n. 4850.

5388. All hopes founded on iniquity and treachery are vain and illusory. There may be honour among thieves. But there is no honour as between dishonest intriguers, and they are not likely to get any real help from any quarter.

Because of the terror⁵³⁸⁹
In their hearts,
(Sent) by Allah.
This is because they are
Men devoid of understanding.

14. They will not fight you
(Even) together, except
In fortified townships,
Or from behind walls.⁵³⁹⁰
Strong is their fighting (spirit)
Amongst themselves:
Thou wouldst think
They were united,
But their hearts are divided.⁵³⁹¹
That is because they
Are a people devoid
Of wisdom.

۱۴- لَا يَفْعَلُونَ كُمْ جَمِيعًا
إِلَّا فِي قَرْىٍ مُّحَصَّنَةٍ أَوْ مِنْ وَرَاءِ جُدُرٍ

تَحْسِبُهُمْ جَمِيعًا وَقُلُوبُهُمْ شَتَّىٰ
ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُمْ
قَوْمٌ لَا يَعْقِلُونَ ۝

15. Like those who lately⁵³⁹²
Preceded them, they have
Tasted the evil result
Of their conduct; and
(In the Hereafter there is)
For them a grievous Penalty—

۱۵- كَسَلِ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ قَرِيبًا
ذَاتُوا وَبَالَ أَمْرِهِمْ
وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ۝

16. (Their allies deceived them),
Like the Evil One,
When he says to man,

۱۶- كَسَلِ الشَّيْطَانِ
إِذْ قَالَ لِلْإِنْسَانِ

5389. As construed here, the meaning is: "Ye Muslims, even if ye are weak numerically, or they may have other seeming advantages, ye are really stronger than they are, because they have a wholesome fear in their minds, and Allah sends such fear into the hearts of wrongdoers!" An alternative construction would yield the meaning: Being Unbelievers they fear you more than they fear Allah, because your valour they see, but in Allah they do not believe.

5390. They have not sufficient self-confidence or élan to sustain them in a fight except under material advantages or defences. Even if they join forces, they have not sufficient trust in each other to expose themselves to open fighting.

5391. 'It may be that they have a strong fighting spirit among themselves, but they have no Cause to fight for and no common objective to achieve. The Makkan Pagans want to keep their own unjust autocracy; the Madīnah Hypocrites wish for their own domination in Madīnah; and the Jews want their racial superiority established over the Arabs, of whose growing union and power they are jealous.' Their pretended alliance could not stand the strain of either a defeat or a victory. If they had been wise, they would have accepted the Cause of Unity, Faith, and Truth.

5392. The immediate reference was probably to the Jewish goldsmith tribe of the Qaynuqā', who were also settled in a fortified township near Madīnah. They were also punished and banished for their treachery, about a month after the battle of Badr, in which the Makkan Pagans had suffered a signal defeat, in Shawwāl, A. H. 2. The Nadīr evidently did not take that lesson to heart. The general meaning is that we must learn to be on our guard against the consequences of treachery and sin. No fortuitous alliances with other men of iniquity will save us.

"Deny Allah": but when⁵³⁹³
(Man) denies Allah,
(The Evil One) says,
"I am free of thee:
I do fear Allah,
The Lord of the Worlds!"

كُفِّرْ فَلَمَّا كَفَرَ

With (all) that ye do.

١٨- يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اتَّقُوا اللَّهَ

فَأَنسَاهُمْ أَنفُسَهُمْ

5393. An apt simile. Evil tempts man in all sorts of ways, and presents seductive promises and alliances to delude him into the belief that he will be saved from the consequences. The Evil One says, "Deny Allah": which means not merely denial in words, but denial in acts—disobedience of Allah's Law, deviation from the path of rectitude. When the sinner gets well into the mire, the Evil One says cynically: "How can I help you against Allah? Don't you see I am afraid of Him? All our alliances and understandings were moonshine. You must bear the consequences of your own folly."

5394. The "fear of Allah" is akin to love; for it means the fear of offending Him or doing anything wrong that will forfeit His Good Pleasure. This is Taqwā, which implies self-restraint, guarding ourselves from all sin, wrong, and injustice, and the positive doing of good. See 2:2, and n. 26.

5395. The positive side of Taqwā or "fear of Allah" (see last note) is here emphasised. It is not merely a feeling or an emotion: it is an act, a doing of things which become a preparation and provision for the Hereafter—the next life, which may be described as "the morrow" in relation to the present Life, which is "today".

5395-A. The repetition emphasises both sides of Taqwā: "let your soul fear to do wrong and let it do every act of righteousness; for Allah observes both your inner motives and your acts, and in His scheme of things everything will have its due consequences."

5396. To forget Allah is to forget the only Eternal Reality. As we are only reflected realities, how can we understand or do justice to or remember ourselves, when we forget the very source of our being? (R).

(and Perfection),

٢٣- هُوَ اللَّهُ الَّذِي لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ
الْمَلِكُ الْقُدُّوسُ السَّلَامُ

5397. The others, the Companions of the Fire, will find their lives wasted and nullified. Their capacities will be rendered inert and their wishes will end in futility.

5398. There are two ideas associated in men's minds with a mountain: one is its height, and the other that it is rocky, stony, hard. Now comes the metaphor. The Revelation of Allah is so sublime that even the highest mountains humble themselves before it. The Revelation is so powerful and convincing that even the hard rock splits asunder under it. Will man then be so arrogant as to consider himself superior to it, or so hardhearted as not to be affected by its powerful Message? The answer is "No" for unspoiled man; "Yes" for man when degraded by sin to be the vilest of creatures.

5399. Cf. 7:143, and n. 1103, where, in the story of Moses, the Mount became as dust "when the Lord manifested His Glory". Also cf. 33:72, and n. 3778, where the mountains are mentioned as an emblem of stability, but as refusing to accept the Trust (Amānah) because they felt themselves to be too humble to be equal to such a tremendous Trust. (R).

5400. Here follows a passage of great sublimity, summing up the attributes of Allah. In this verse, we have the general attributes, which give us the fundamental basis on which we can form some idea of Allah. We start with the proposition that there is nothing else like Him. We think of His Unity; all the varying and conflicting forces in Creation are controlled by Him and look to Him, and we can never get a true idea of Him unless we understand the meaning of Unity. His knowledge extends to everything seen and unseen, present and future, near and far, in being and not in being; in fact these contrasts, which apply to our knowledge, do not apply to Him. His Grace and His Mercy are unbounded: see 1:1, and n. 19; and unless we realise these, we can have no true conception of our position in the working of His Will and Plan. (R).

5401. This phrase is repeated from the last verse in order to lead us to the contemplation of some other attributes of Allah, after we have realised those which form our fundamental conceptions of Allah. See the preceding and the following note.

The Guardian of Faith,
The Preserver of Safety,⁵⁴⁰²
The Exalted in Might,
The Irresistible, the Supreme:⁵⁴⁰³

24. He is Allah, the Creator,⁵⁴⁰⁵
The Evolver,
The Bestower of Forms⁵⁴⁰⁶
(Or Colours).
To Him belong⁵⁴⁰⁷
The Most Beautiful Names:
Whatever is in
The heavens and on earth,

And He is the Exalted

۲۴- هُوَ اللَّهُ الْخَالِقُ
الْبَارِئُ الْمُصَوِّرُ
لَهُ الْأَسْمَاءُ الْحُسْنَى
يُسَبِّحُ لَهُ
مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ
وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ۝

5402. How can a translator reproduce the sublimity and the comprehensiveness of the magnificent Arabic words, which mean so much in a single symbol? (1) "The Sovereign" in our human language implies the one undisputed authority which is entitled to give commands and to receive obedience, and which in fact receives obedience; the power which enforces law and justice. (2) Human authority may be misused, but in the title "the Holy One", we postulate a Being free from all stain or evil, and replete with the highest Purity. (3) "Salām" has not only the idea of Peace as opposed to Conflict, but wholeness as opposed to defects: hence our paraphrase "Source of Peace and Perfection". (4) Mū'min, one who entertains Faith, who gives Faith to others, who is never false to the Faith that others place in him; hence our paraphrase "Guardian of Faith". (5) "Preserver of Safety": guarding all from danger, corruption, loss, etc.: the word is used for the Qur'ān in 5:51. These are the attributes of kindness and benevolence: in the next note are described the attributes of power.

5403. See last note. (6) Allah is not only good, but He can carry out His Will. (7) And if anything resists or opposes Him, His Will prevails. (8) For He is Supreme, above all things and creatures. Thus we come back to the Unity with which we began in verse 22.

5404. Such being Allah's attributes of Goodness and Power, how foolish is it of men to worship anything else but Him? Who can approach His glory and goodness?

5405. Allah's attributes of Goodness and Power having been referred to, we are now told of His creative energy, of which three aspects are here mentioned, as explained in the following note. The point is emphasised that He does not merely create and leave alone; He goes on fashioning, evolving new forms and colours, and sustaining all the energies and capacities which he has put into His Creation, according to various laws which He has established.

5406. The act or acts of creation have various aspects, and the various words used in this connection are summarised in n. 120 to 2:117, as supplemented by n. 916 to 6:94 and n. 923 to 6:98. Khālaqa is the general term for creation, and the Author of all Creation is Khāliq. Bara'a implies a process of evolving from previously created matter or state: the Author of this process is Bārī, the Evolver. Ṣawwara implies giving definite form or colour, so as to make a thing exactly suited to a given end or object: hence the title Muṣawwir, Bestower of Forms or Colours: for this shows the completion of the visible stage of creation.

5407. Cf. 7:180, n. 1154; and 17:110, n. 2322.

5408. Thus the argument of the Sūrah is rounded off on the same note as was struck at the beginning, 59:1. The first verse and the last verse of the Sūrah are the same, except as regards the tense of the verb sabbaha. In the first verse it is the optative form of the preterite sabbaha: 'let everything declare the Glory of Allah'. After the illustrations given, the declaratory form of the aorist is appropriate, yusabbihuh: "everything doth declare the Glory of Allah".

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 60—AL MUMTAHINAH

This is the fourth of the ten Madīnah Sūrahs, each dealing with a special point in the life of the Ummah.

Here the point is: what social relations are possible with the Unbelievers? A distinction is made between those who persecute you for your Faith and want to destroy you and your Faith, and those who have shown no such rancour. For the latter there is hope of mercy and forgiveness. The question of women and cross-marriages is equitably dealt with.

The date is after the Pagans had broken the treaty of Ḥudaybiyah, for which see Introduction to S. 47—say about A. H. 8, not long before the conquest of Makkah.

Summary—The enemies of your Faith, who would exterminate you and your Faith, are not fit objects of your love: follow Abraham's example: but with those Unbelievers who show no rancour, you should deal with kindness and justice: marriages between Believers and Unbelievers. (60:1-13, and C. 239).

C. 239. — What social relations should you hold
(60:1-13.) With men whose hearts are filled with rancour—
Who hate both Allah and men of God?
Surely you cannot offer love and friendship
To such as seek to destroy your Faith,
And you. Seek protection for you and yours
From Allah and not from Allah's sworn enemies.
But deal kindly and justly with all: it may be
That those who hate you now may love you:
For Allah can order all things. But look not
For protection to those who are bent on driving
You out. Let not believing women
Be handed over to Unbelievers:
No marriage tie is lawful between them.
When women wish to join your society,
Take their assurance that they yield not
To sin or unbecoming conduct.
Take every care to keep your society
Free and pure, and self-contained.

Sūrah 60.

Al Mumtahinah (That Which Examines)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ﴿٥٤٠٩﴾ ye who believe!
Take not My enemies
And yours as friends
(Or protectors)—offering them⁵⁴⁰⁹
(Your) love, even though
They have rejected the Truth
That has come to you,
And have (on the contrary)
Driven out the Messenger
And yourselves (from your homes),
(Simply) because ye believe
In Allah your Lord!⁵⁴¹⁰
If ye have come out
To strive in My Way
And to seek My Good Pleasure,
(Take them not as friends),
Holding secret converse
Of love (and friendship)
With them: for I know
Full well all that ye
Conceal and all that ye
Reveal. And any of you
That does this has strayed
From the Straight Path.

2. If they were to get⁵⁴¹¹
The better of you,

الْجُزْءُ الثَّامِنُ وَالْعِشْرُونَ سُورَةُ الْمُتَحَنِّنَاتِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا لَا تَتَّخِذُوا
عَدُوِّي وَعَدُوَّكُمْ أَوْلِيَاءَ
تُلْقُونَ إِلَيْهِم بِالْمَوَدَّةِ
وَقَدْ كَفَرُوا بِمَا جَاءَكُمْ مِنَ الْحَقِّ

وَمَنْ يَفْعَلْهُ مِنْكُمْ
فَقَدْ ضَلَّ سَوَاءَ السَّبِيلِ ۝

۲- إِنْ يَنْتَفِعُوكُمْ

5409. The immediate occasion for this was a secret letter sent by one Hātib, a Muhājir, from Madīnah, to the Pagans at Makkah, in most friendly terms, seeking for their protection on behalf of his children and relatives left behind in Makkah. The letter was intercepted, and he confessed the truth. He was forgiven as he told the truth and his motive did not appear to be heinous, but this instruction was given for future guidance. This was shortly before the conquest of Makkah, but the principle is of universal application. You cannot be on terms of secret intimacy with the enemies of your Faith and people, who are persecuting your Faith and seeking to destroy your Faith and you. You may not do so even for the sake of your relatives as it compromises the life and existence of your whole community.

5410. Such was the position of the Muslim community in Madīnah after the Hijrah and before the conquest of Makkah.

5411. Besides the question of your fidelity to your own people, even your own selfish interests require you to beware of secret intrigues with the enemies. They will welcome you as cat's paws. But what will happen when they have used you and got the better of you and your people? Then they will show you their hand. And a heavy hand it will be! Not only will they injure you with their hands but with their tongues! The only words they will use for you will be "Traitors to their own"! If they intrigue with you now, it is to pervert you from the Path of Truth and righteousness and to win you over to their evil ways.

They would behave to you
As enemies, and stretch forth
Their hands and their tongues
Against you for evil;
And they desire that ye
Should reject the Truth.

يَكُونُوا لَكُمْ أَعْدَاءً
وَيَبْسُطُوا إِلَيْكُمْ أَيْدِيَهُمْ وَأَلْسِنَهُمْ بِالسُّوءِ
وَوَدَّوْا لَوْ تَكْفُرُونَ ۝

3. Of no profit to you⁵⁴¹²
Will be your relatives
And your children
On the Day of Judgement:
He will judge between you:
For Allah sees well
All that ye do.

۝ لَنْ تَنْفَعَكُمْ أَرْحَامُكُمْ
وَلَا أَوْلَادُكُمْ يَوْمَ الْقِيَمَةِ
يَفْصِلُ بَيْنَكُمْ
وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ ۝

4. There is for you
An excellent example (to follow)
In Abraham and those with him,⁵⁴¹³

When they said
To their people:
"We are clear of you
And of whatever ye worship
Besides Allah: we have rejected
You, and there has arisen,
Between us and you, enmity⁵⁴¹⁴
And hatred forever—unless
Ye believe in Allah
And Him alone":
But not when Abraham
Said to his father:
"I will pray for forgiveness⁵⁴¹⁵
For thee, though I have
No power (to get) aught
On thy behalf from Allah."

۝ قَدْ كَانَتْ لَكُمْ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ
فِي إِبْرَاهِيمَ وَالَّذِينَ مَعَهُ
إِذْ قَالُوا لِقَوْمِهِمْ
إِنَّا بَرَاءٌ وَمِمَّا تَعْبُدُونَ مِنْ دُونِ
اللَّهِ كُفْرًا بَكُمْ وَبَدَا
بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَكُمُ الْعَدَاوَةُ وَالْبَغْضَاءُ أَبَدًا
حَتَّى تُوْمِنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَحْدَهُ
إِلَّا قَوْلَ إِبْرَاهِيمَ لِأَبِيهِ لَا تُسْتَغْفَرَكَ
لَكَ وَمَا أَمْلِكُ لَكَ
مِنَ اللَّهِ مِنْ شَيْءٍ ۝

5412. The plea of children and relatives (see n. 5409 above) will be no excuse for treachery when the Day of Judgement comes. Your children and family will not save you. The Judgement will be in the hands of Allah, and He has full knowledge of all your overt and hidden acts and motives.

5413. See 9:114. Abraham was tender-hearted, and loyal to his father and his people. He warned them against idolatry and sin, and prayed for his father, but when his father and his people became open enemies of Allah. Abraham entirely dissociated himself from them, and left his home, his father, his people, and his country. Those with him were his believing wife and nephew Lūṭ and any other Believers that went into exile with him.

5414. The enemies of Allah are enemies of the righteous, and they hate the righteous. Therefore the righteous must cut themselves off eternally from them, unless they repent and come back to Allah. In that case they receive Allah's mercy and are entitled to all the rights of love and brotherhood. This shows that our detestation is for evil, not for men as such so long as there is a chance for repentance. See also verse 7 below. But we must give no chance to Evil for working evil on our Brotherhood at any time.

5415. Refer again to 9:114. n. 1365: and n. 5413 above. Abraham's conduct is not condemned: it was a special case, and is not to be imitated by weaker men, who may fall into sin by thinking too much of sinners.

(They prayed): "Our Lord!⁵⁴¹⁶
In Thee do we trust,
And to Thee do we turn
In repentance: to Thee
Is (our) final Goal.

رَبَّنَا عَلَيْكَ تَوَكَّلْنَا
وَإِلَيْكَ أُنَبِّئْنَا
وَإِلَيْكَ الْمَصِيرُ ۝

5. "Our Lord! Make us not
A (test and) trial⁵⁴¹⁷
For the Unbelievers,
But forgive us, our Lord!
For Thou are the Exalted
In Might, the Wise."

هـ- رَبَّنَا لَا تَجْعَلْنَا فِتْنَةً لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
وَاعْفِرْ لَنَا رَبَّنَا
إِنَّكَ أَنْتَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ۝

6. There was indeed in them⁵⁴¹⁸
An excellent example for you
To follow—for those Whose hope is in Allah
And in the Last Day.
But if any turn away,
Truly Allah is Free of all⁵⁴¹⁹
Wants, Worthy of all Praise.

و- لَقَدْ كَانَ لَكُمْ فِيهِمْ أُسْوَةٌ حَسَنَةٌ
لِّمَن كَانَ يَرْجُوا اللَّهَ وَالْيَوْمَ الْآخِرَ
وَمَن يَتَوَلَّ
فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ الْغَنِيُّ الْحَمِيدُ ۝

SECTION 2.

7. It may be that Allah
Will grant love (and friendship)⁵⁴²⁰
Between you and those whom
Ye (now) hold as enemies.
For Allah has power
(Over all things); And Allah is
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

ز- عَسَى اللَّهُ أَن يَجْعَلَ بَيْنَكُمْ
وَبَيْنَ الَّذِينَ عَادَيْتُم مِّنْهُمْ مَّوَدَّةً
وَاللَّهُ قَدِيرٌ
وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَّحِيمٌ ۝

8. Allah forbids you not,
With regard to those who
Fight you not for (your) Faith

ح- لَا يَنْهَى كُمُ اللَّهُ عَنِ الَّذِينَ
لَمْ يُقَاتِلُوكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ

5416. This prayer indicates what our attitude should be. We must trust to Allah, and not to Allah's enemies to protect and befriend ourselves, our families, or those near and dear to us.

5417. In n. 1198 to 8:25, I have explained the shades of meaning in the word Fitnah. In 2:102 Hārūt and Mārūt were a trial to test the righteous who trusted in Allah from the unrighteous who resorted to evil and superstition. Here the prayer to Allah is that we should be saved from becoming so weak as to tempt the Unbelievers to try to attack and destroy us.

5418. In them: i.e., in their attitude of prayer and reliance on Allah, and of dissociation from evil.

5419. If anyone rejects Allah's Message or Law, the loss is his own. It is not Allah Who needs him or his worship or his sacrifice or his praise. Allah is independent of all wants, and His attributes are inherently deserving of all praise, whether the wicked give such praise or not, in word or deed.

5420. Apparent religious hatred or enmity or persecution may be due to ignorance or over-zeal in a soul, which Allah will forgive and use eventually in His service, as happened in the case of 'Umar, who was a different man before and after his conversion. As stated in n. 5414 above, we should hate evil, but not men as such.

Nor drive you out
Of your homes,
From dealing kindly and justly⁵⁴²¹
With them: For Allah loveth
Those who are just.

9. Allah only forbids you,
With regard to those who
Fight you for (your) Faith,
And drive you out,
Of your homes, and support
(Others) in driving you out,
From turning to them
(For friendship and protection).
It is such as turn to them
(In these circumstances),
That do wrong.

10. Q ye who believe!
When there come to you
Believing women refugees,⁵⁴²²
Examine (and test) them:
Allah knows best as to
Their Faith: if ye ascertain⁵⁴²³
That they are Believers,
Then send them not back
To the Unbelievers.
They are not lawful (wives)
For the Unbelievers, nor are
The (Unbelievers) lawful

For them. But pay
The Unbelievers what they

إِلَى الْكُفَّارِ لَا هُنَّ حِلٌّ لَهُمْ
وَلَا هُمْ يَحِلُّونَ لَهُنَّ
وَأَتُوهُنَّ

5421. Even with Unbelievers, unless they are rampant and out to destroy us and our Faith, we should deal kindly and equitably, as is shown by our Holy Prophet's own example.

5422. Under the treaty of Ḥudaybiyah [see Introduction to S. 48, paragraph 4, condition (3)], women under guardianship (including married women), who fled from the Quraysh in Makkah to the Prophet's protection at Madīnah were to be sent back. But before this Āyah was issued, the Quraysh had already broken the treaty, and some instruction was necessary as to what the Madīnah Muslims should do in those circumstances. Muslim women married to Pagan husbands in Makkah were oppressed for their Faith, and some of them came to Madīnah as refugees. After this, they were not to be returned to the custody of their Pagan husbands at Makkah, as the marriage of believing women with non-Muslims was held to be dissolved if the husbands did not accept Islam. But in order to give no suspicion to the Pagans that they were badly treated as they lost the dower they had given on marriage, that dower was to be repaid to the husbands. Thus helpless women refugees were to be protected at the cost of the Muslims.

5423. The condition was that they should be Muslim women. How were the Muslims to know? A non-Muslim woman, in order to escape from her lawful guardians in Makkah, might pretend that she was a Muslim. The true state of her mind and heart would be known to Allah alone. But if the Muslims, on an examination of the woman, found that she professed Islam, she was to have protection. The examination would be directed (among other things) to the points mentioned in verse 12 below.

Have spent (on their dower).
 And there will be no blame
 On you if ye marry them⁵⁴²⁴
 On payment of their dower
 To them. But hold not
 To the guardianship of⁵⁴²⁵
 Unbelieving women: ask
 For what ye have spent
 On their dowers, and let
 The (Unbelievers) ask for
 What they have spent
 (On the dowers of women
 Who come over to you).
 Such is the command
 Of Allah: He judges
 (With justice) between you.
 And Allah is Full of Knowledge and Wisdom.

11. And if any
 Of your wives deserts you
 To the Unbelievers,⁵⁴²⁶
 And ye have an accession
 (By the coming over of
 A woman from the other side),
 Then pay to those
 Whose wives have deserted
 The equivalent of what they
 Had spent (on their dower).
 And fear Allah,
 In Whom ye believe.

5424. As the marriage was held to be dissolved (see n. 5422 above), there was no bar to the remarriage of the refugee Muslim woman with a Muslim man on the payment of the usual dower to her.

5425. Unbelieving women in a Muslim society would only be a clog and a handicap. There would be neither happiness for them, nor could they conduce in any way to the healthy life of the society in which they lived as aliens. They were to be sent away, as their marriage was held to be dissolved; and the dowers paid to them were to be demanded from the guardians to whom they were sent back, just as in the contrary case the dowers of believing women were to be paid back to their Pagan ex-husbands (n. 5422 above).

5426. A very unlikely contingency, considering how much better position the women occupied in Islam than under Pagan custom. But all contingencies have to be provided for equitably in legislation. If a woman went over to the Pagans, her dower would be recoverable from the Pagans and payable to the deserted husband. If a woman came over from the Pagans, her dower would be payable to the Pagans. Assuming that the two dowers were equal, the one would be set off against the other as between the two communities; but within the communities the deserted individual would be compensated by the individual who gains a wife. If the dowers were unequal, the balance would be recoverable as between the communities, and the adjustment would then be made as between the individuals. In practice the common Fund compensated the deserted husband in anticipation of any necessary adjustments.

The Unbelievers are
In despair about those (Buried) in graves.⁵⁴³⁰

يَسْأَلُ الْكُفَّارُ مِنْ أَصْحَابِ الْقُبُورِ ۚ

5430. The Unbelievers, who do not believe in a Future Life, can therefore have no hope beyond this life. Miserable indeed is this life to them; for the ills of this life are real to them, and they can have no hope of redress. But such is also the state of others—People of the Book or not—who wallow in sin and incur the divine Wrath. Even if they believe in a Future Life, it can only be to them a life of horror, punishment, and despair. For those of Faith the prospect is different. They may suffer in this life, but this life to them is only a fleeting shadow that will soon pass away. The Reality is beyond; there will be full redress in the Beyond, and Achievement and Felicity such as they can scarcely conceive of in the terms of this life.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 61—AL ŞAFF

This is the fifth Sūrah of the series of short Madīnah Sūrahs beginning with S. 57. Its subject matter is the need of discipline, practical work, and self-sacrifice in the cause of the Ummah. Its date is uncertain, but it was probably shortly after the battle of Uḥud, which was fought in Şhawwāl, A. H. 3.

Summary—Allah's Glory shines through all Creation: but what discipline can you show to back your words with action? What lessons can you learn from the stories of Moses and Jesus? Help the Cause, and Allah's help will come with glorious results (61:1-14, and C. 240).

C. 240. — Allah's glory shines through all the universe.
 (61:1-14.) What deeds of unity and discipline,
 Of love and righteousness, have you
 To show in conduct? Or do you
 Only mock and insult the messengers
 As they did of old? Nay, trust in Allah
 And strive your utmost in His Cause.
 Little have you to give, but glorious
 Is the reward that Allah will give you—
 Now and in the Eternal Life to come!

Sūrah 61.

Al Šaff (The Battle Array)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Whatever is⁵⁴³¹
In the heavens and
On earth, let it declare
The Praises and Glory
Of Allah: for He is
The Exalted in Might,
The Wise.
2. O ye who believe!
Why say ye that
Which ye do not?⁵⁴³²
3. Grievously odious is it
In the sight of Allah
That ye say that
Which ye do not.
4. Truly Allah loves those
Who fight in His Cause
In battle array, as if⁵⁴³³
They were a solid
Cemented structure.
5. And remember, Moses said⁵⁴³⁴
To his people: "O my people!
Why do ye vex and insult
Me, though ye know

الْبَعْرِ الثَّامِنَ وَالْعِشْرُونَ سُورَةُ الصَّفِّ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- سَبِّحَ لِلَّهِ
مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ
وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ۝

٢- يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
لِمَ تَقُولُونَ مَا لَا تَفْعَلُونَ ۝

٣- كَبُرَ مَقْتًا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ
أَنْ تَقُولُوا مَا لَا تَفْعَلُونَ ۝

٤- إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ الَّذِينَ
يُقَاتِلُونَ فِي سَبِيلِهِ صَفًّا
كَأَنَّهُمْ بُيُوتٌ مَرْصُوصٌ ۝

٥- وَإِذْ قَالَ مُوسَى لِقَوْمِهِ يُقَوْمِ
لِمَ تَوَدُّدُنِي وَقَدْ تَعْلَمُونَ

5431. This verse is identical with 59:1. The latter illustrated the theme of the wonderful working of Allah's providence in defeating the wiles of His enemies. Here the same theme is illustrated by showing the need of unshaken discipline if we are to receive the help of Allah.

5432. At Uhud there was some disobedience and therefore breach of discipline. People had talked much, but had failed to back up their resolution in words with firmness in action. See n. 442 to 3:121. But on all occasions when men's deeds are not commensurate with their words, their conduct is odious in the sight of Allah, and it is only due to Allah's Mercy if they are saved from disaster.

5433. A battle array, in which a large number of men stand, march, or hold together against assault as if they were a solid wall, is a striking example of order, discipline, cohesion, and courage. A solid cemented structure is even a better simile than the usual "solid wall" as the "structure" or building implies a more diversified organisation held together in unity and strength, each part contributing strength in its own way, and the whole held together not like a mass but like a living organism. Cf. also 37:1 and n. 4031.

5434. The people of Moses often rebelled against him, vexed his spirit, and insulted him. See 33:69. n. 3774, and (in the Old Testament) Num xii. 1-13. They did it not through ignorance, but from a selfish, perverse, and rebellious spirit, for which they received punishment. The Ummah of Islam should remember and take note of it, and should avoid any deviation from the Law and Will of Allah.

That I am the messenger
Of Allah (sent) to you?"
Then when they went wrong,⁵⁴³⁵
Allah let their hearts go wrong.
For Allah guides not those
Who are rebellious transgressors.

إِنِّي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ إِلَيْكُمْ
فَلَمَّا زَاغُوا أَزَاغَ اللَّهُ قُلُوبَهُمْ
وَاللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الْفَاسِقِينَ ○

6. And remember, Jesus,
The son of Mary, said:
"O Children of Israel!
I am the messenger of Allah
(Sent) to you,⁵⁴³⁶ confirming⁵⁴³⁷
The Law (which came)
Before me, and giving
Glad Tidings of a Messenger
To come after me,
Whose name shall be Aḥmad."⁵⁴³⁸
But when he came to them
With Clear Signs,⁵⁴³⁹
They said, "This is Evident sorcery!"

٧- وَإِذْ قَالَ عِيسَى ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ
يَبْنَیْ اِسْرَءِیْلَ اِنِّي رَسُولُ اللَّهِ اِلَيْكُمْ
مُصَدِّقًا لِمَا بَيْنَ يَدَيَّ مِنَ التَّوْرَةِ
وَمُبَشِّرًا بِرَسُولٍ يَأْتِي مِنْ بَعْدِي
اسْمُهُ اَحْمَدُ
فَلَمَّا جَاءَهُمْ بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ
قَالُوا هَذَا سِحْرٌ مُبِينٌ ○

7. Who doth greater wrong
Than one who invents
Falsehood against Allah,
Even as he is being invited⁵⁴⁴⁰

٨- وَمَنْ أَظْلَمُ مِمَّنِ افْتَرَى
عَلَى اللَّهِ الْكَذِبَ وَهُوَ يُدْعَى

5435. The sinner's own will deviates, i.e., goes off from the right way, and he does wrong. That means that he shuts off Allah's grace. Allah then, after the sinner's repeated rebellion, withdraws the protecting Grace from him, and the sinner's heart is tainted: there is "a disease in his heart", which is the centre of his being: his spiritual state is ruined. Allah's guidance is withdrawn from him.

5436. The mission of Jesus was to his own people, the Jews. Cf. Matt. x 5-6. See also Matt. xv. 24: "I am not sent but to the lost sheep of Israel;" also Matt. xv. 26: "It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to the dogs."

5437. Cf. Matt v. 17.

5439. Our Holy Prophet was foretold in many ways; and when he came, he showed forth many Clear Signs, for his whole life from beginning to end was one vast miracle. He fought and won against odds. Without learning from men he taught the highest wisdom. He melted hearts that were hard, and he strengthened hearts that were tender and required support. In all his sayings and doings men of discernment could see the working of Allah's hand; yet the ignorant Unbelievers called it all Sorcery!—called that unreal which became the most solid fact of human history!

5440. It is wrong in any case to uphold falsehoods and debasing superstitions, but it is doubly wrong when these are put forward in rivalry or opposition to the light of eternal Unity and Harmony which is Islam. See C. 7-11. Allah sends His guidance freely, but withdraws His Grace from those who willfully do wrong.

To Islam? And Allah
Guides not those
Who do wrong.

8. Their intention is
To extinguish Allah's Light
(By blowing) with their mouths:⁵⁴⁴¹
But Allah will complete
(The revelation of) His Light,
Even though the Unbelievers
May detest (it).

9. It is He Who has sent
His Messenger with Guidance
And the Religion of Truth,
That he may proclaim it
Over all religion,⁵⁴⁴²
Even though the Pagans
May detest (it).

SECTION 2.

10. Q ye who believe!
Shall I lead you
To a bargain⁵⁴⁴³ that will Save you from
A grievous Penalty?—

11. That ye believe in Allah
And His Messenger, and that
Ye strive (your utmost)
In the Cause of Allah,
With your property
And your persons:

إِلَى الْإِسْلَامِ
وَاللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ ○

هـ- يُرِيدُونَ لِيُطْفِئُوا نُورَ اللَّهِ بِأَفْوَاهِهِمْ
وَاللَّهُ مُتِمُّ نُورِهِ
وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْكَافِرُونَ ○

و- هُوَ الَّذِي أَرْسَلَ رَسُولَهُ بِالْهُدَى
وَدِينِ الْحَقِّ
لِيُظْهِرَهُ عَلَى الدِّينِ كُلِّهِ
وَلَوْ كَرِهَ الْمُشْرِكُونَ ○

أ- يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
هَلْ أَدُلُّكُمْ عَلَى تِجَارَةٍ
تُنَجِّيكُمْ مِنْ عَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ○

ب- تَوَاصَوْا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ وَتُجَاهِدُوا
فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ بِأَمْوَالِكُمْ وَأَنْفُسِكُمْ

5441. Allah's Light is unquenchable. A foolish, ignorant person who thinks of extinguishing it is like a rustic who wants to blow out electric light as he might blow out a rush candle! With their mouths also implies the babble and cackle of Ignorance against Allah's Truth. The more the foolish ones try to quench Allah's Light, the clearer it shines, to shame them!

5442. Over all religion: in the singular: not over all other religions, in the plural. There is really only one true Religion, the Message of Allah, submission to the Will of Allah: this is called Islam. It was the religion preached by Moses and Jesus; it was the religion of Abraham, Noah, and all the prophets, by whatever name it may be called. If people corrupt that pure light, and call their religions by different names, we must bear with them, and we may allow the names for convenience. But Truth must prevail over all. See also 9:33, n. 1290, and 68:28, n. 4912.

5443. Tijārah: bargain, trade, traffic, transaction: something given or done, in return for something which we desire to get. What we give or do on our part is described in verse 11 below, and what we get is described in verse 12. It is truly a wonderful bargain: what we are asked to give is so little; what we are promised in return is so much. There comes Allah's unbounded Bounty and Munificence. Cf. also 9:111, where the bargain is stated in another way.

That will be best for you,
If ye but knew!⁵⁴⁴⁴

ذَلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ إِن كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ۝

12. He will forgive you
Your sins, and admit you
To Gardens beneath which
Rivers flow, and to beautiful
Mansions in Gardens
Of Eternity: that is indeed
The supreme Achievement.

۱۲- يَغْفِرُ لَكُمْ ذُنُوبَكُمْ
وَيُدْخِلُكُمْ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ
وَمَسْكِنٍ طَيِّبَةٍ فِي جَنَّتٍ عَدْنٍ
ذَلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ ۝

13. And another (favour
Will He bestow), which ye⁵⁴⁴⁵
Do love—help from Allah
And a speedy victory.
So give the Glad Tidings
To the Believers.

۱۳- وَأُخْرَى يُحِبُّونَهَا
نَصْرٌ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَفَتْحٌ قَرِيبٌ
وَبَشِيرُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ ۝

14. ① ye who believe!
Be ye helpers of Allah:⁵⁴⁴⁶
As said Jesus, the son of Mary,⁵⁴⁴⁷
To the Disciples, "Who will be
My helpers to (the work
Of) Allah?" Said the Disciples,
"We are Allah's helpers!"
Then a portion of the Children
Of Israel believed, and
A portion disbelieved:
But We gave power
To those who believed
Against their enemies,

۱۴- يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا كُونُوا أَنْصَارَ اللَّهِ
كَمَا قَالَ عِيسَى ابْنُ مَرْيَمَ لِحَوَارِيِّينَ
مَنْ أَنْصَارِي إِلَى اللَّهِ قَالَ السَّوَارِيُّونَ
نَحْنُ أَنْصَارُ اللَّهِ
فَأَمْنَتْ طَائِفَةٌ مِنْ بَنِي إِسْرَءِيلَ
وَكَفَرَتْ طَائِفَةٌ
فَايْتَدْنَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا عَلَى عَدُوِّهِمْ

5444. It would indeed be a great and wonderful bargain to give so little and get so much, if we only knew and understood the comparative value of things—the sacrifice of our fleeting advantages for forgiveness, the love of Allah, and eternal bliss.

5445. The supreme Achievement has already been mentioned, viz.: the Gardens of Eternity in the Presence of Allah. But lest that seem too remote or abstract for the understanding of men not spiritually advanced, another type or symbol or metaphor is mentioned which the men who first heard this Message could at once understand and appreciate—"which ye do love": viz.: Help and Victory. For all striving in a righteous Cause we get Allah's help: and however much the odds against us may be, we are sure of victory with Allah's help. But all life is a striving or struggle—the spiritual life even more than any other; and the final victory there is the same as the Garden of Eternity.

5446. If we seek Allah's help, we must first help Allah's Cause, i.e., dedicate ourselves to Him entirely and without reserve. This was also the teaching of Jesus, as mentioned in this verse. As found in the New Testament, the metaphor used is that of the Cross. "Then said Jesus to his disciples, if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me." (Matt. xvi. 24).

5447. See 3:52, and n. 392; and for the Biblical reference, see the last note. The names of the twelve Disciples will be found in Matt. x. 2-4.

And they became
The ones that prevailed.⁵⁴⁴⁸

فَأَصْبَحُوا ظَاهِرِينَ ۝

5448. A portion of the Children of Israel—the one that really cared for the Truth—believed in Jesus and followed his guidance. But the greater portion of them were hard hearted, and remained in their beaten track of formalism and false racial pride. The majority seemed at first to have the upper hand when they thought they had crucified Jesus and killed his Message. But they were soon brought to their senses. Jerusalem was destroyed by Titus in A.C. 70 and the Jews have been scattered ever since. "The Wandering Jew" has become a byword in many literatures. On the other hand, those who followed Jesus permeated the Roman Empire, brought many new races within their circle, and through the Roman Empire, Christianity became the predominant religion of the world until the advent of Islam. So is it promised to the people of Islam: they must prevail if they adhere to the Truth. Badr (A.H. 2) was a landmark against Pagan Arabia: Qādisīyah (A.H. 14) and Madā'in (A.H. 16) against the might of Persia: Yarmūk (A.H. 15) against the might of the Byzantine Empire in Christian Syria; and Heliopolis (A.H. 19) against the same Empire in Christian Egypt and Africa. These were symbols in external events. The moral and spiritual landmarks are less tangible, and more gradual, but none the less real. Mark how the arrogance and power of Priesthood have been quelled; how superstition and belief in blind Fate have been checked; how the freedom of human individuals has been reconciled with the sanctity of marriage in the Law of Divorce, how the civil position of women has been raised; how temperance and sobriety have been identified with religion; what impetus has been given to knowledge and experimental science; and how economic reconstruction has been pioneered by rational schemes for the expenditure and distribution of wealth.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 62—AL JUMU'AH

This is the sixth Sūrah in the Madīnah series of short Sūrahs which began with S. 57.

The special theme here is the need for mutual contact in the Community for worship and understanding: for the spirit of the Message is for all, ignorant and learned, in order that they may be purified and may learn wisdom.

The date has no special significance: it may be placed in the early Madīnah period, say between A.H. 2 and 3.

Summary—The Revelation has come among unlearned men, to teach purity and wisdom not only to them but to others, including those who may have an older Message but do not understand it: meet solemnly for the Assembly (Friday) Prayer, and let not worldly interests deflect you therefrom. (62:1-11, and C. 241).

C. 241. — Allah's care for His creatures is universal.
 (62:1-11) His Revelation is for all—ignorant
 And lowly as well as learned and high-placed—
 Now and forever. None can arrogantly
 Claim exclusive possession of Allah's gifts:
 If they do, search their hearts within, and you
 Will find them afraid of Death and Judgement.
 Men of Faith! On the Day of Assembly,
 When you hear the call, hasten earnestly
 To answer it: leave off business, and join
 In common worship and devotion. Then
 You may disperse about your ordinary business,
 But remember the Praises of Allah always:
 It is He alone that can provide
 For you every need, and His gifts are best.

Sūrah 62.

Al Jum'u'ah (Friday)

الْجُمُعَةُ الثَّامِنُ وَالْعِشْرُونَ سُورَةُ الْجُمُعَةِ

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. Whatever is
In the heavens and
On earth, doth declare⁵⁴⁴⁹
The Praises and Glory
Of Allah—the Sovereign,⁵⁴⁵⁰
The Holy One, the Exalted
In Might, the Wise.
2. It is He Who has sent
Amongst the Unlettered⁵⁴⁵¹
A messenger from among Themselves, to rehearse
To them His Signs,⁵⁴⁵²
To sanctify them, and
To instruct them in Scripture⁵⁴⁵³
And Wisdom—although⁵⁴⁵⁴
They had been, before,
In manifest error—

۱- يُسَبِّحُ لِلَّهِ
مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ
الْمَلِكِ الْقُدُّوسِ
الْعَزِيزِ الْحَكِيمِ ۝

۲- هُوَ الَّذِي بَعَثَ فِي الْأُمِّيِّينَ رَسُولًا مِنْهُمْ
يَتْلُو عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتِهِ
وَيُزَكِّيهِمْ وَيُعَلِّمُهُمُ الْكِتَابَ
وَالْحِكْمَةَ وَإِنْ
كَانُوا مِنْ قَبْلُ لَفِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ ۝

5449. See n. 5408 to 59:24, where I have explained the difference in signification between sabbaha and yusabbiḥu. The latter form is used here to express an actual fact. 'Everything declares the Praises and Glory of Allah, because Allah's mercies extend to all His creatures: He sends His Revelation for the benefit of the ignorant and unlettered as well as for those who have learning in their midst, especially as the latter are apt, by the very weight of their ponderous learning, to miss the real point and spirit of Allah's Message.'

5450. See 59:23, and n. 5402. Here we have two of the divine attributes repeated from 59:23 and two from the end of 59:24, implying a reminiscence of all the beautiful divine attributes mentioned in that passage.

5451. The Unlettered: as applied to a people, it refers to the Arabs, in comparison with the People of the Book, who had a longer tradition of learning, but whose failure is referred to in verse 5 below. As applied to individuals, it means that Allah's Revelation is for the benefit of all men, whether they have worldly learning or not.

5452. His Signs: Allah's wonderful Signs in His Creation and in His ordering of the world. It may include the Verses of the Qur'ān, but they are more specifically referred to as "Scripture" in the next line but one.

5453. Cf. 2:129, and n. 129. Read again the attributes in the last verse. Allah is full Sovereign, and therefore cares for all His subjects, including the meanest and most ignorant, and sends His prophets or messengers to them. He is the Holy One, and therefore purifies and sanctifies those who were steeped in superstition and wickedness. He is Exalted in Power, and therefore He can confer all these blessings on the most unlikely people (verse 3), and no one can stay His hand. He is wise, and therefore He instructs in wisdom, both through written Scriptures, and in other ways, e.g., by means of a knowledge of life and its laws, and an understanding of His wonderful universe.

5454. Previous ignorance or error is no bar to a person or nation receiving the blessings of Allah's revelation, provided such person or nation has the will to come to Allah and the capacity to bear His Message. For an instance of incapacity through arrogance, see verse 6 below. For some remarks on the Arabs as vehicles of the new Light, see. C. 12-15.

3. As well as (to confer
All these benefits upon)
Others of them,⁵⁴⁵⁵ who
Have not already joined them:
And He is Exalted
In Might, Wise.

ۛ-ۛ وَالْآخَرِينَ مِنْهُمْ
لَتَأْتِيَ كُلَّ حَقِّهِمْ
وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ۝

4. Such is the Bounty of Allah,
Which He bestows
On whom He will:⁵⁴⁵⁶
And Allah is the Lord
Of the highest bounty.

ۛ-ۛ ذَلِكَ فَضْلُ اللَّهِ
يُؤْتِيهِ مَنْ يَشَاءُ
وَاللَّهُ ذُو الْفَضْلِ الْعَظِيمِ ۝

5. The similitude of those
Who were charged
With the (obligations
Of the) Mosaic Law,
But who subsequently failed
In those (obligations), is
That of a donkey⁵⁴⁵⁷
Which carries huge tomes
(But understands them not).
Evil is the similitude
Of people who falsify
The Signs of Allah:
And Allah guides not
People who do wrong.

ۛ-ۛ مَثَلُ الَّذِينَ
حُمِّلُوا التَّوْرَةَ
ثُمَّ لَمْ يَعْمَلُوهَا كَمَثَلِ الْحِمَارِ
يَحْمِلُ أَثْقَالًا
يَتَّبِعُ مَثَلُ الْقَوْمِ الَّذِينَ
كَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِ اللَّهِ
وَاللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ ۝

6. Say: "O ye that
Stand on Judaism!⁵⁴⁵⁸
If ye think that ye
Are friends to Allah,
To the exclusion of
(Other) men, then express

ۛ-ۛ قُلْ يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ هَادَوْا
إِنْ زَعَمْتُمْ أَنكُمْ أَوْلِيَاءُ لِلَّهِ مِنْ دُونِ
الْكَافِرِينَ

5455. Others of them: refers to other persons or peoples who may be ignorant, i.e., others than those among whom the Holy Prophet came as a messenger. In other words his Message is for his Arab people and his non-Arab contemporaries as well as those who live in other ages, and have no personal contact with him or his Companions.

5456. That is, according to His wise Will and Plan, and also as a result of His unbounded generosity to all.

5457. The Children of Israel were chosen as special vehicles for Allah's Message early in history. When their descendants corrupted the Message and became guilty of all abominations against which prophets like Isaiah inveighed with such zeal and fire, they merely became like beasts of burden that carry learning and wisdom on their backs but do not understand or profit by it.

5458. Standing on Judaism is a very different thing from following the Law and Will of Allah. An arrogant claim to be a chosen people, to be the exclusive possessors of divine teaching, to be exempt from any punishment for breaches of the divine law, (cf. 2:88), is presumptuous blasphemy. It may be Judaism, but it is not in the spirit of Moses.

Your desire for Death,
If ye are truthful!"⁵⁴⁵⁹

7. But never will they Express their desire
(For Death), because of
The (deeds) their hands
Have sent on before them!
And Allah knows well
Those that do wrong!

8. Say: "The Death from which
Ye flee will truly
Overtake you: then will
Ye be sent back
To the Knower of things
Secret and open: and He
Will tell you (the truth)⁵⁴⁶⁰
Of) the things that ye did!"

SECTION 2.

9. Q ye who believe!
When the call is proclaimed
To prayer on Friday⁵⁴⁶¹
(The Day of Assembly),
Hasten earnestly to the Remembrance
Of Allah, and leave off

5459. Cf. 2:94-96. If they claimed to be special friends of Allah, why do they not eagerly desire death, which would bring them nearer to Allah? But of all people, they are the most tenacious of this life and the good things of this life! And they know that their grasping selfish lives have run up a score of sin against them, which will meet its recompense.

5460. Before Allah's Judgement Seat, when Judgement is established, we shall see the full inwardness of all deeds in this world. The veil of illusion and delusion will be torn off. All our secret motives will be laid bare. The results of all our little plots and plans and their reactions on our spiritual and eternal welfare will be clearly visible to us. All make-believe will disappear.

5461. Friday, is primarily the Day of Assembly, the weekly meeting of the Congregation, when we show our unity by sharing in common public worship, preceded by a Khutbah, in which the Imām (or Leader) reviews the week's spiritual life of the Community and offers advice and exhortation on holy living. Notice the gradations of social contact for Muslims if they followed the wise ordinances of their Faith. (1) Each individual remembers Allah for himself or herself five or more times everyday in the home or place of business, or local mosque, or open air, as the case may be. (2) On Friday in every week there is a local meeting in the central mosque of each local centre—it may be a village, or town, or ward of a big city. (3) At the two 'Ids every year, there is a large local area meeting in one centre. (4) Once at least in a lifetime, where possible, a Muslim share in the vast international assemblage of the world, in the centre of Islam, at the Makkan Pilgrimage. A happy combination of decentralisation and centralisation, of individual liberty and collective meeting, and contact at various stages or grades. The mechanical part of this ordinance is easy to carry out. Are we carrying out the more difficult part?—the spirit of unity, brotherhood, mutual consultation, and collective understanding and action? (R).

Business (and traffic):⁵⁴⁶²
That is best for you
If ye but knew!⁵⁴⁶³

10. And when the Prayer
Is finished, then may ye
Disperse through the land,
And seek of the Bounty
Of Allah: and celebrate
The Praises of Allah
Often (and without stint):
That ye may prosper.⁵⁴⁶⁴

11. But when they see
Some bargain or some
Amusement, they disperse
Headlong to it, and leave
Thee standing. Say:
"The (blessing) from the Presence
Of Allah is better than
Any amusement or bargain!
And Allah is the Best
To provide (for all needs)."⁵⁴⁶⁵

الْبَيْعُ ذَلِكُمْ خَيْرٌ لَّكُمْ إِن كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ٥

١- فَإِذَا قُضِيَتِ الصَّلَاةُ فَانْتَشِرُوا فِي الْأَرْضِ
وَابْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضْلِ اللَّهِ
وَاذْكُرُوا اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا
لَّعَلَّكُمْ تُفْلِحُونَ ٥

١١- وَإِذَا رَأَوْا تِجَارَةً أَوْ لَهْوًا
انْفَضُّوا إِلَيْهَا وَتَرَكُوكَ قَائِمًا ٥
قُلْ مَا عِنْدَ اللَّهِ خَيْرٌ
مِّنَ اللَّهِو وَمِنَ التِّجَارَةِ ٥
وَاللَّهُ خَيْرُ الرَّازِقِينَ ٥

5462. The idea behind the Muslim weekly "Day of Assembly" is different from that behind the Jewish Sabbath (Saturday) or the Christian Sunday. The Jewish Sabbath is primarily a commemoration of Allah's ending His work and resting on the seventh day (Gen. ii. 2; Exod. xx. 11): we are taught that Allah needs no rest, nor does He feel fatigue (2:255). The Jewish command forbids work on that day but says nothing about worship or prayer (Exod. xx.10); our ordinance lays chief stress on the remembrance of Allah. Jewish formalism went so far as to kill the spirit of the sabbath, and call forth the protest of Jesus: "the sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath" (Mark, ii. 27). But the Christian Church, although it has changed the day from Saturday to Sunday, has inherited the Jewish spirit: witness the Scottish Sabbath; except insofar as it has been secularised. Our teaching says: 'When the time for Jumū'ah Prayer comes, close your business and answer the summons loyally and earnestly, meet earnestly, pray, consult and learn by social contact: when the meeting is over, scatter and go about your business'.

5463. The immediate and temporal worldly gain may be the ultimate and spiritual loss, and vice versa.

5464. Prosperity is not to be measured by wealth or worldly gains. There is a higher prosperity—the health of the mind and the spirit.

5465. Do not be distracted by the craze for amusement or gain. If you lead a righteous and sober life, Allah will provide for you in all senses, better than any provision you can possibly think of.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 63—AL MUNĀFIQŪN

This is the seventh of the ten short Madīnah Sūrahs dealing with a special feature in the social life of the Brotherhood.

The special feature here dealt with is the wiles and mischief of the Hypocrite element in any community, and the need of guarding against it and against the temptation it throws in the way of the Believers.

The battle of Uḥud (Shawwāl A.H. 3) unmasked the Hypocrites in Madīnah: see 3:167, and n. 476. This Sūrah may be referred to some time after that event, say about 4 A.H. or possibly 5 A.H. if the words reported in verse 8 were uttered in the expedition against the Banū Muṣṭaliq, A.H. 5. (See n. 5475 below).

Summary—False are the oaths of the Hypocrites: they only seek selfish ends: Believers should beware of their wiles and strive devotedly always for the Cause (63:1-11, and C. 242).

C. 242.—The oaths of Hypocrites are a screen
 (63:1-11.) For their misdeeds. They think they deceive
 With their fair exteriors and plausible talk,
 But their minds are impervious to the real Truth.
 They may plot to withhold from men of God
 Such things of this world as they may command;
 They may plot to expel and persecute the righteous;
 They may call them ill names and slight them.
 But to Allah belong the treasures of the heavens
 And the earth, and He will bestow according
 To His wise and universal Plan. Let not
 The world's foolish craze divert the Believers
 From the service of Allah—from good deeds and Charity.
 Now is the time: all vain will be
 Your pleas and your regrets when the shadow
 Of Death cuts off your last chance of Repentance!

Sūrah 63.

Al Munāfiqūn (The Hypocrites)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. When the Hypocrites⁵⁴⁶⁶
Come to thee, they say,
"We bear witness that thou
Art indeed the Messenger
Of Allah." Yea, Allah
Knoweth that thou art
Indeed His Messenger,
And Allah beareth witness
That the Hypocrites are Indeed liars.
2. They have made their oaths⁵⁴⁶⁷
A screen (for their misdeeds):
Thus they obstruct (men)
From the Path of Allah:
Truly evil are their deeds.
3. That is because they believed,
Then they rejected Faith:
So a seal was set⁵⁴⁶⁸
On their hearts: therefore
They understand not.
4. When thou lookest
At them, their exteriors⁵⁴⁶⁹

۴- وَاِذَا رَاٰتَهُمْ تُعْجِبُكَ اَجْسَامُهُمْ

5466. The hypocrite element, if one exists in any society, is a source of weakness and a danger to its health and its very existence. When the Holy Prophet came to Madīnah in Hijrah, his arrival was welcome to all the patriotic citizens: it not only united them in common life and healed their old differences, but it brought honour and light to them in the person of the greatest living Teacher of Truth. But there were some baser elements filled with envy. Such hopes as they had entertained of attaining power and leadership by playing on the animosities of the factions were now dashed to the ground. They now began to work underground. For fear of the majority they dared not oppose the new growing Brotherhood of Righteousness. They tried to undermine it by intriguing secretly with its enemies and swearing openly its loyalty to the Holy Prophet. They were thoroughly unmasked and discredited at the battle of Uḥud. See 3:167, and n. 476.

5467. Cf. 58:16 and n. 5358. When they say that Muḥammad is the Prophet of Allah, it is Allah's own truth: but what is in their hearts? Nothing but falsehood.

5468. Cf. 2:7. Their double-dealing has fogged their understanding. In Arabic the heart is taken to be the seat of understanding as well as of affection.

5469. The Hypocrites at all times are plausible people, and so were the Hypocrites of Madīnah. They present a fine exterior; they dress well; they can usually afford fine equipages; they try to win the confidence of everyone, as they have no scruples in telling lies, and apparently expressing agreement with everyone. Their words are fair-spoken, and as truth does not check their tongues, their flattery and deception know no bounds. But all this is on the outside. As they have no sincerity, nothing that they say or do is worth anything.

Please thee; and when
They speak, thou listenest
To their words. They are
As (worthless as hollow)
Pieces of timber propped up,⁵⁴⁷⁰
(Unable to stand on their own).
They think that every
Cry is against them.⁵⁴⁷¹
They are the enemies;
So beware of them.
The curse of Allah be
On them! How are they
Deluded (away from the Truth)!

لَئِنْ يَقُولُوا تَسْمَعُ لِقَوْلِهِمْ
كَأَنَّهُمْ خُشُبٌ مُسْنَدَةٌ
يَحْسِبُونَ كُلَّ صَيْحَةٍ عَلَيْهِمْ
هُمُ الْعَدُوُّ فَاحْذَرْهُمْ
فَتَلَهُمُ اللَّهُ
أَلِيٌّ يُؤْفَكُونَ ○

5. And when it is said
To them, "Come, the Messenger
Of Allah will pray for your⁵⁴⁷²
Forgiveness", they turn aside
Their heads, and thou wouldst
See them turning away
Their faces in arrogance.

هـ- وَإِذَا قِيلَ لَهُمْ تَعَالَوْا
يَسْتَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ
لَوَّارُءٌ وَهُمْ وَأَبْصَرَتُهُمْ
وَهُمْ مُسْتَكْبِرُونَ ○

6. It is equal to them
Whether thou pray for
Their forgiveness or not.⁵⁴⁷³
Allah will not forgive them.
Truly Allah guides not
Rebellious transgressors.

و- سَوَاءٌ عَلَيْهِمْ أَسْتَغْفَرْتَ لَهُمْ أَمْ لَمْ
تَسْتَغْفِرْ لَهُمْ لَنْ يَغْفِرَ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الْفَاسِقِينَ ○

7. They are the ones who say,
"Spend nothing on those
Who are with Allah's
Messenger,⁵⁴⁷⁴
To the end that they

ز- هُمُ الَّذِينَ يَقُولُونَ
لَا تُنْفِقُوا عَلَى مَنْ عِنْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ حَتَّى

5470. Good timber is strong in itself and can support roofs and buildings. Hollow timber is useless, and has to be propped up against other things. The Hypocrites are like rotten timber. They have no firm character themselves, and for others they are unsafe props to rely upon.

5471. Their conscience always troubles them. If any cry is raised, they immediately get alarmed, and think it is against themselves. Such men are worse than open enemies.

5472. Even hypocrisy like other sins can be forgiven by repentance and amendment, provided there is a will and earnest desire to turn from evil and seek the Grace of Allah. In this case there was none.

5473. The stiff-necked rejecters of Allah's Truth have made a wide gulf between themselves and Allah's Grace. No prayer for them will help them. In the attitude of rebellion and transgression they cannot obtain Allah's forgiveness.

5474. The Muhājirūn, who had come to be with the Holy Prophet in Madīnah in exile, were received, helped, entertained by the Anṣār (Helpers). The Hypocrites in Madīnah did not like this, and tried in underhand ways to dissuade the good folk of Madīnah from doing all they could for the exiles. But their tricks did not succeed. The small Muslim community grew from strength to strength until they were able to stand on their own resources and greatly to augment the resources of their hosts as well. It is goodness that produces strength and prosperity, and Allah holds the keys of the treasures of man's well-being. It is not for Allah's enemies to dole out or withhold the unbounded treasures of Allah.

May disperse (and quit Madīnah)."

But to Allah belong
The treasures of the heavens
And the earth; but
The Hypocrites understand not.

8. They say, "If we⁵⁴⁷⁵
Return to Madīnah, surely
The more honourable (element)
Will expel therefrom the meaner".
But honour belongs to Allah
And His Messenger, and
To the Believers; but
The Hypocrites know not.

SECTION 2.

5475. Words of this import were spoken by 'Abd Allah Ibn Ubayy, the leader of the Madīnah Hypocrites to or about the Exiles, in the course of the expedition against the Banū Mustāliq in the fourth or fifth year of the Hijrah. He had hopes of leadership which were disappointed by the coming to Madīnah of a man far greater than he. So he arrogated to himself and his clique the title of "the more honourable (element)" and slightly spoke of the Emigrants as the "meaner" element that had intruded from outside.

5476. Riches and human resources of all kinds are but fleeting sources of enjoyment. They should not turn away the good man from his devotion to Allah. "Remembrance of Allah" includes every act of service and goodness, every kind thought and kind deed, for this is the service and sacrifice which Allah requires of us. If we fail in this, the loss is our own, not anyone else's: for it stunts our own spiritual growth.

5477. "Substance" or "Sustenance", in every sense, literal and metaphorical. Whatever good we enjoy comes from Allah, and it is our duty to use some of it in the service of others, for that is Charity and the service of Allah. Every unselfish act is Charity. And we must not postpone our good resolutions to the future. Death may come suddenly on us, and we cannot then be allowed to plead for more time. Every present moment calls urgently for its good deed.

Should have been one
Of the doers of good”.

وَإِنْ مِنْ الصَّالِحِينَ ۝

11. But to no soul
Will Allah grant respite⁵⁴⁷⁸
When the time appointed
(For it) has come; and Allah
Is well-acquainted
With (all) that ye do.

۝- وَلَنْ يُؤَخِّرَ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا
إِذَا جَاءَ أَجَلُهَا
وَاللَّهُ خَبِيرٌ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ ۝

5478. When our limited period of probation is over, we cannot justly ask for more time, nor will more time be given to us then. Procrastination is itself a fault, and Allah knows every hidden thought and motive in our minds.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 64—AL TAGHĀBUN

This is the eighth of the short Madīnah Sūrahs, each dealing with a special aspect of the life of the Community.

The special aspect spoken of here is the mutual gain and loss of Good and Evil, contrasted in this life and in the Hereafter.

It is an early Madīnah Sūrah, of the year 1 of the Hijrah or possibly even of the Makkan period just before the Hijrah. (See n. 5494 below).

Summary—Both the Unbelievers and the Believers were created by the One True God, Who created all and knows all: why should Unbelief and Evil exult in worldly gain when their loss will be as manifest in the Hereafter as will be the gains of the Believers? (64:1-18, and C. 243).

C. 243.—The self-same God created all men.
 (64:1-18.) If some do good and others evil,
 And ye wonder how the good do suffer
 And the evil thrive, remember the Final
 Goal, when true adjustments will
 Be made. The Gainers here will be
 The Losers there, and the Losers Gainers.
 Some of this exchange you will see
 Even here, in this life, for Unbelievers
 Who deny the Hereafter; but in the Hereafter,
 Full account and true adjustment
 Of good and ill will follow before
 The Judgement Seat: nay, Good will get
 More than its full reward: for Allah
 Is Bounteous, Merciful, Mighty, Wise.

Sūrah 64.

Al Taghābun (The Mutual Loss and Gain)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. What is
In the heavens and
On earth, doth declare⁵⁴⁷⁹
The Praises and Glory
Of Allah: to Him belongs
Dominion, and to Him belongs
Praise: and He has power
Over all things.
2. It is He Who has
Created you; and of you
Are some that are
Unbelievers, and some⁵⁴⁸⁰
That are Believers:
And Allah sees well
All that ye do.
3. He has created the heavens
And the earth
In just proportions,
And has given you shape,⁵⁴⁸¹
And made your shapes
Beautiful: and to Him
Is the final Goal.⁵⁴⁸²
4. He knows what is
In the heavens
And on earth;

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الْعَلِيِّ الْكَامِلِ سُوْرَةُ التَّغَابُنِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- يُسَبِّحُ لِلَّهِ
مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَمَا فِي الْأَرْضِ
لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ
وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ۝

۲- هُوَ الَّذِي خَلَقَكُمْ
فَمِنْكُمْ كَافِرٌ وَمِنْكُمْ مُؤْمِنٌ
وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ بَصِيرٌ ۝

۳- خَلَقَ السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضَ بِالْحَقِّ
وَصَوَّرَكُمْ فَأَحْسَنَ صُورَكُمْ
وَالِلَّهِ الْمَصِيرُ ۝

۴- يَعْلَمُ مَا فِي السَّمَوَاتِ وَالْأَرْضِ

5479. Cf. 62:1, and n. 5449. All things by their very existence proclaim the Glory and the Praises of Allah. He has dominion over all things, but He uses His dominion for just and praiseworthy ends. He has power over all things: therefore He can combine justice with mercy, and His Plan and Purpose cannot be frustrated by the existence of Evil along with Good in His Kingdom.

5480. It is not that He does not see Rebellion and Evil, nor that He cannot punish them. He created all things pure and good, and if evil crept in by the grant of a limited free will by Him, it is not unforeseen; it is in His wise and universal Plan, for giving man a chance of rising higher and ever higher.

5481. Cf. 40:64, and n. 4440; also 7:11 and n. 996. In addition to the beauty and grandeur of all God's Creation, He has endowed man with special aptitudes, faculties and capacities, and special excellencies which raise him at his best to the position of Allah's vicegerent on earth. "Beautiful" also includes the idea of "adapted to the ends for which they were created".

5482. The final Goal: not only of mankind, but of all things created, whether material or in the realm of ideas and events. All things return to Allah: as they derive their origin from Him, so is the return or destination of all of them to Allah.

And He knows what⁵⁴⁸³
 Ye conceal and what
 Ye reveal: yea, Allah
 Knows well the (secrets)
 Of (all) hearts.

وَيَعْلَمُ مَا تَسْرُونَ وَمَا تُعْلِنُونَ
 وَاللَّهُ عَلِيمٌ
 بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ

5. Has not the story
 Reached you, of those
 Who rejected Faith aforetime?
 So they tasted the evil
 Result of their conduct;⁵⁴⁸⁴
 And they had
 A grievous Penalty.

هـ- أَلَمْ يَأْتِكُمْ نَبَأُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ قَبْلُ
 فَنَزَّلْنَا بِأَلَامِهِمْ
 وَلَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ

6. That was because there
 Came to them messengers
 With Clear Signs,
 But they said:
 "Shall (mere) human beings⁵⁴⁸⁵
 Direct us?" So they rejected
 (The Message) and turned away.
 But Allah can do without (them):
 And Allah is⁵⁴⁸⁶
 Free of all needs,
 Worthy of all praise.

و- ذَلِكَ بِأَنَّهُ كَانَتْ تَأْتِيهِمْ رُسُلُهُمْ
 بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ
 فَقَالُوا أَبَشَرٌ يَهْدِيُونَنَا
 فَكَفَرُوا وَتَوَلَّوْا
 وَأَسْتَعَى اللَّهُ
 وَاللَّهُ غَنِيٌّ حَلِيمٌ

7. The Unbelievers think
 That they will not be Raised up (for Judgement).⁵⁴⁸⁷
 Say: "Yea, by my Lord,
 Ye shall surely be

ز- زَعَمَ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَنْ لَنْ يُبْعَثُوا
 قُلْ بَلَىٰ وَرَبِّي

5483. Not only does He create and develop and sustain all things; but all thoughts, motives, feelings, ideas, and events are known to Him. Therefore we must not imagine that, if some evil seems to go unpunished, it is not known to Him or has escaped His notice. His Plan is wise and good in its fullest compass: sometimes we do not see its wisdom and goodness because we see only a broken fragment of it, as our own intelligence is narrow.

5484. "The evil result of their conduct" begins to manifest itself in this very life, either in external events, or in internal restlessness and agonies of conscience. But its culminating force will be seen in the "grievous Penalty" of the Hereafter.

5485. This is referred to in a more expanded form in 14:9-11.

5486. Their obedience is not necessary to Allah, nor will their rejection of Truth affect the validity of Truth or injure the progress of Truth. Allah is free of all needs or dependence on any circumstance whatever. He sends His Message for the good of mankind, and it is man who suffers by ignoring, rejecting, or opposing it.

5487. In other words, they think that there is no future life, and no responsibility for our actions beyond what we see in the present life. If that were true, all the profits of fraud and roguery, which remain unpunished in this world — and many do remain unpunished in this world — will remain with the wicked; and all the losses and pain suffered by integrity and righteousness, if they find no compensation in this life, will never find any compensation. This would be an odd result in a world of justice. We are taught that this is not true — that it is certain that the balance will be redressed in a better future world; that there will be a resurrection of what we call the dead; and that on that occasion the full import of all we did will be made plain to us, and our moral and spiritual responsibility will be fully enforced.

Raised up: then shall ye
Be told (the truth) of
All that ye did.
And that is easy for Allah."

لَتَبْعَنَّ ثُمَّ لَتَنْبُؤَنَّ بِمَا عَمِلْتُمْ
وَذَلِكَ عَلَى اللَّهِ يَسِيرٌ ٥

8. Believe, therefore, in Allah
And His Messenger, and
In the Light which We⁵⁴⁸⁸
Have sent down. And Allah
Is well-acquainted
With all that ye do.

٨- فَأَمِنُوا بِاللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ
وَالنُّورِ الَّذِي أَنْزَلْنَا
وَاللَّهُ بِمَا تَعْمَلُونَ خَبِيرٌ ٥

9. The Day that He assembles
You (all) for a Day
Of Assembly—that will be
A day of mutual loss⁵⁴⁸⁹
And gain (among you).
And those who believe
In Allah and work righteousness—
He will remove from them⁵⁴⁹⁰
Their ill, and He will admit
Them to gardens beneath
which⁵⁴⁹¹
Rivers flow, to dwell therein
Forever: that will be
The Supreme Achievement.

٩- يَوْمَ يَجْمَعُكُمْ لِيَوْمِ الْجَمْعِ
ذَلِكَ يَوْمُ التَّغَابُنِ
وَمَنْ يُؤْمِن بِاللَّهِ وَيَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا
يُكَفِّرْ عَنْهُ سَيِّئَاتِهِ
وَيُدْخِلْهُ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا
الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا
ذَلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْعَظِيمُ ٥

10. But those who reject Faith
And treat Our Signs
As falsehoods, they will be
Companions of the Fire,
To dwell therein for aye:
And evil is that Goal.

١٠- وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا
أُولَٰئِكَ أَصْحَابُ النَّارِ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا
وَبِئْسَ الْمَصِيرُ ٥

5488. The Light which We have sent down: i.e., the light of Revelation, the light of conscience, the light of reason, and every kind of true light by which we may know Allah and His Will. If we play false with any such lights, it is fully known to Allah.

5489. The Day of Judgement will truly be "a Day of Mutual Loss and Gain", as the title of this Sūrah indicates. Men who thought they were laying up riches will find themselves paupers in the Kingdom of Heaven. Men who thought they were acquiring good by wrongdoing will find their efforts were wasted; 28:104. On the other hand the meek and lowly of this life will acquire greater dignity and honour in the next; the despised ones doing good here will be the accepted ones there; the persecuted righteous will be in eternal happiness. The two classes will as it were change their relative positions.

5490. Remove from them their ills. The ills may be sins, faults, mistakes, or evil tendencies; Allah will of His grace cover them up, and blot out the account against them; or they may be sorrows, sufferings, or disappointments: Allah may even change the evil of such persons into good, their apparent calamities into opportunities for spiritual advancement; 25:70. This is because of their sincere Faith as evidenced by their repentance and amendment.

5491. "Gardens" the symbol of the highest Bliss, see 2:25, n. 44; 13:35; 47:15. (R).

SECTION 2.

11. No kind of calamity
Can occur, except
By the leave of Allah:
And if anyone believes⁵⁴⁹²
In Allah, (Allah) guides his Heart (aright): for Allah
Knows all things.
12. So obey Allah, and obey
His Messenger: but if
Ye turn back, the duty
Of Our Messenger is but
To proclaim (the Message)⁵⁴⁹³
Clearly and openly.
13. Allah! There is no god
But He: and on Allah,
Therefore, let the Believers
Put their trust.
14. O ye who believe!
Truly, among your wives
And your children are (some
That are) enemies to⁵⁴⁹⁴
Yourselves: so beware
Of them! But if ye
Forgive and overlook,⁵⁴⁹⁵
And cover up (their faults),
Verily Allah is
Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

۱۱- مَا أَصَابَ مِنْ مُصِيبَةٍ إِلَّا بِإِذْنِ اللَّهِ
وَمَنْ يُؤْمَرْ بِاللَّهِ يَهْدِ اللَّهُ قَلْبَهُ
وَاللَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عَلِيمٌ ۝

۱۲- وَأَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ
فَإِنْ تَوَلَّيْتُمْ
فَأِنَّمَا عَلَى رَسُولِنَا الْبَلْغُ الْمُبِينُ ۝

۱۳- اللَّهُ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ
وَعَلَى اللَّهِ فَلْيَتَوَكَّلِ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ ۝

۱۴- يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِنَّ مِنْ أَزْوَاجِكُمْ
وَأَوْلَادِكُمْ وَعَدُوِّكُمْ
فَاتَّخَذُوا هُمْ
وَلِنْ تَعْفُوا وَتَصْفَحُوا وَتَغْفِرُوا
فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ۝

5492. What we consider calamities may be blessings in disguise. Pain in the body is often a signal of something wrong, which we can cure by remedial measures. So in the moral and spiritual world, we should in all circumstances hold firmly to the faith that nothing happens without Allah's knowledge and leave; and therefore there must be some justice and wisdom according to His great universal Plan. Our duty is to find out our own shortcomings and remedy them. If we try to do so in all sincerity of heart, Allah will give us guidance.

5493. The Messenger comes to guide and teach, not to force and compel. The Messenger's teaching is clear and unambiguous, and it is open and free to all. Cf. also 5:95.

5494. In some cases the demand of families, i.e., wife and children may conflict with a man's moral and spiritual convictions and duties. In such cases he must guard against the abandonment of his convictions, duties, and ideals to their requests or desires. But he must not treat them harshly. He must make reasonable provision for them, and if they persist in opposing his clear duties and convictions, he must forgive them and not expose them to shame or ridicule, while at the same time holding on to his clear duty. Such cases occurred when godly men undertook exile from their native city of Makkah to follow the Faith in Madīnah. In some cases their families murmured, but all came right in the end.

5495. For the different words for "forgiveness" see n. 110 to 2:109.

15. Your riches and your children
May be but a trial:⁵⁴⁹⁶
But in the Presence of Allah
Is the highest Reward.

١٥- إِنَّمَا أَمْوَالُكُمْ وَأَوْلَادُكُمْ فِتْنَةٌ
وَاللَّهُ عِنْدَ أَجْرٍ عَظِيمٍ ۝

16. So fear Allah⁵⁴⁹⁷
As much as ye can;
Listen and obey;
And spend in charity
For the benefit of
Your own souls.⁵⁴⁹⁸
And those saved from
The covetousness of their own
Souls—they are the ones
That achieve prosperity.⁵⁴⁹⁹

١٦- فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ
وَأَسْمِعُوا وَأَطِيعُوا
وَأَنْفِقُوا خَيْرًا لِّأَنْفُسِكُمْ
وَمَنْ يُوقْ شَرَّ
نَفْسِهِ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ السَّالِحُونَ ۝

17. If ye loan to Allah⁵⁵⁰⁰
A beautiful loan, He
Will double it to
Your (credit), and He
Will grant you Forgiveness:
For Allah is most Ready
To appreciate (service),⁵⁵⁰¹
Most Forbearing—

١٧- إِنْ تَقْرَضُوا اللَّهَ قَرْضًا حَسَنًا
يُضَاعِفْهُ لَكُمْ
وَيَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ
وَاللَّهُ شَكُورٌ حَلِيمٌ ۝

18. Knower of what is hidden
And what is open,

١٨- عَلِيمُ الْغَيْبِ وَالشَّهَادَةِ

5496. Children may be a trial in many senses: (1) their different ways of looking at things may cause you to reflect, and to turn to the highest things of eternal importance; (2) their relationship with you and with each other may confront you with problems far more complicated than those in separate individual lives, and thus become a test of your own strength of character and sense of responsibility; (3) their conflict with your ideals (see n. 5494 above) may vex your spirit, but may at the same time search out your fidelity to Allah; and (4) their affection for you and your affection for them, may be a source of strength for you if it is pure, just as it may be a danger if it is based on selfish or unworthy motives. So also riches and worldly goods have their advantages as well as dangers.

5497. Fear Allah combined with as much as you can obviously means: "lead lives of self-restraint and righteousness": the usual meaning of Tāqawā: see n. 26 to 2:2.

5498. Charity is meant to help and do good to other people who need it. But it has the highest subjective value for the person who gives it. Like mercy "it blesseth him that gives and him that takes". It purifies the giver's soul: the affection that he pours out is for his own spiritual benefit and progress. Cf. Coleridge: "He prayeth best who loveth all things both great and small, for the Great God Who loveth us, Who made and loveth all".

5499. Cf. 59:9. Our worst enemy is within ourselves—the grasping selfishness which would deprive others of their just rights or seize things which do not properly belong to it. If we can get over this covetous selfishness, we achieve real Prosperity in justice and truth.

5500. Cf. 2:245 and n. 276. Our Charity or Love is called a loan to Allah, which not only increases our credit account manifold, but obtains for us the forgiveness of our sins, and the capacity for increased service in the future.

5501. Cf. 14:5, n. 1877; and 35:30, n. 3917. Allah's appreciation of our service or our love goes far deeper than its intrinsic merits or its specific expression on our side. His reward is beyond our deserts, and passes over our defects. He judges by our motives, which He can read through and through; see next verse.

Exalted in Might,
Full of Wisdom.⁵⁵⁰²

الْعَزِيزُ الْحَكِيمُ ٥٥٢

5502. Allah's Appreciation and Forbearing Kindness can reach so far beyond our merits, because (1) His universal knowledge comprehends hidden motives, which others cannot see in us; (2) His power is so great that He can afford to reward even the unworthy; and (3) His Wisdom is so great that He can turn even our weakness into our strength.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 65—AL ṬALĀQ

This is the ninth of the ten short Madīnah Sūrahs dealing with the social life of the Community. The aspect dealt with here is Divorce, and the necessity of precautions to guard against its abuse. The relations of the sexes are an important factor in the social life of the Community, and this and the following Sūrah deal with certain aspects of it. "Of all things permitted by Law", said the Prophet, "divorce is the most hateful in the sight of Allah". (Abū Dāwūd, Sunan, xiii. 3). While the sanctity of marriage is the essential basis of family life, the incompatibility of individuals and the weaknesses of human nature require certain outlets and safeguards if that sanctity is not to be made into a fetish at the expense of human life. That is why the question of Divorce is in this Sūrah linked with the question of insolent impiety and its punishment.

The date is somewhere about A.H. 6, but the chronology has no significance.

Summary—Provision to be made for women in case of Divorce; insolent impiety always leads to punishment (65:1-12, and C. 244).

C. 244.—Guard well your truth and pure integrity
 (65:1-12.) In sex relations. Keep the tie
 Of marriage sacred; but where it must
 Be dissolved, use all precautions to ensure
 Justice to the weaker party and protect
 The interests of unborn or newborn lives
 As well as social decency; and close not
 To the last the door of reconciliation.
 Allah's Laws must be obeyed; 'tis man's
 Own loss if he is deaf to the Voice
 Which teaches him, or blind to the Light
 Which guides him. Allah's universe
 Of beauty and wonder stands strong in wisdom:
 Let man but tune himself thereto.

Sūrah 65.

Al Ṭalāq (Divorce)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ﴿١﴾ Prophet!⁵⁵⁰³ When ye
Do divorce women,⁵⁵⁰⁴
Divorce them at their
Prescribed periods,⁵⁵⁰⁵
And count (accurately)
Their prescribed periods:
And fear Allah your Lord:⁵⁵⁰⁶
And turn them not out
Of their houses, nor shall
They (themselves) leave,⁵⁵⁰⁷
Except in case they are
Guilty of some open lewdness,
Those are limits
Set by Allah: and any
Who transgresses the limits
Of Allah, does verily
Wrong his (own) soul:
Thou knowest not if
Perchance Allah will

الْجُزْءُ الثَّامِنُ وَالْعِشْرُونَ سُورَةُ الطَّلَاقِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ إِذَا طَلَقْتُمُ النِّسَاءَ
فَطَلِّقُوهُنَّ لِعَدَّتِهِنَّ
وَاحْصُوا الْعِدَّةَ وَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ رَبَّكُمْ
لَا تُخْرِجُوهُنَّ مِنْ بُيُوتِهِنَّ وَلَا يَخْرُجْنَ
إِلَّا أَنْ يَأْتِيَنَّ بِفَاحِشَةٍ مُبَيَّنَةٍ
وَبَلَاكُمُ حُدُودُ اللَّهِ
وَمَنْ يَتَعَدَّ حُدُودَ اللَّهِ
فَقَدْ ظَلَمَ نَفْسَهُ
لَا تَدْرِي لَعَلَّ اللَّهَ

5503. Note that in the first instance the Prophet is himself addressed individually, as the Teacher and representative of the Community. Then the actual directions: "when ye. . .": are addressed to the Community collectively.

5504. "Of all things permitted by law, Divorce is the most hateful in the sight of Allah": see Introduction to this Sūrah. The general directions and limitations of Divorce may be studied in 2:228-232, 236-237, 241, and notes; also 4:35.

5505. 'Iddah, as a technical term in divorce law, is explained in n. 254 to 2:228. Its general meaning is "a prescribed period": in that general sense it is used in 2:185 for a prescribed period of fasting.

5506. The prescribed period (see last note) is in the interests of the wife, of the husband, of an unborn child (if there is any), and of sex laws in nature, and therefore the elementary dictates of refined human society. In English Law the six months interval between the decree nisi and the decree absolute in divorce attains the same purpose in a round-about way. The Commentators suggest that the divorce should not be pronounced during the courses. Read with 2:222, this implies that any incipient differences between husband and wife should not be forced to an issue at a time when sex is least attractive and almost repulsive. Everything should be done to strengthen the social and spiritual aspects of marriage and keep down stray impulses of animal instinct. The parties are to think seriously in a mood of piety, keeping the fear of Allah in their minds.

5507. As Islam treats the married woman as a full juristic personality in every sense of the term, a married woman has a right, in the married state, to a house or apartment of her own. And a house or apartment implies the reasonable expenses for its upkeep and for her own and her children's maintenance. And this is obligatory not only in the married state, but during the 'iddah, which is necessarily a most trying period for the woman. During this period she must not only not be turned out, but it is not decent for her to leave of her own accord, lest the chances of reconciliation should be diminished: see the next note.

Bring about thereafter
Some new situation.⁵⁵⁰⁸

يُحْدِثُ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ أَمْرًا ۝

2. Thus when they fulfil
Their term appointed,
Either take them back
On equitable terms⁵⁵⁰⁹
Or part with them
On equitable terms;
And take for witness
Two persons from among you,
Endued with justice,
And establish the evidence⁵⁵¹⁰
(As) before Allah. Such
Is the admonition given
To him who believes
In Allah and the Last Day.
And for those who fear
Allah, He (ever) prepares⁵⁵¹¹
A way out,

۲- فَإِذَا بَلَغْنَ أَجَلَهُنَّ
فَأَمْسِكُوهُنَّ بِمَعْرُوفٍ
أَوْ فَارِقُوهُنَّ بِمَعْرُوفٍ
وَأَشْهَدُوا ذَوَى عَدْلٍ مِّنكُمْ وَأَقِيمُوا
الشَّهَادَةَ لِلَّهِ
ذَلِكَ مِمَّا يُوَعِّظُ بِهِ
مَنْ كَانَ يُؤْمِنُ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ
وَمَنْ يَتَّقِ اللَّهَ
يَجْعَلْ لَهُ مَخْرَجًا ۝

3. And He provides for him
From (sources) he never Could imagine. And if Anyone puts his trust
In Allah, sufficient is (Allah)
For him. For Allah will
Surely accomplish His purpose.⁵⁵¹²

۳- وَيَزِدْ لَهُ مِمَّنْ هُوَ لَا يَحْتَسِبُ
وَمَنْ يَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ فَهُوَ حَسْبُهُ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ بِأَلَمِ أَمْرِهِ ۝

5508. A reconciliation is possible, and is indeed recommended at every stage. The first serious differences between the parties are to be submitted to a family council on which both sides are represented (4:35); divorce is not to be pronounced when mutual physical attraction is at an ebb (n. 5506); when it is pronounced, there should be a period of probationary waiting; dower has to be paid and due provision has to be made for many things on equitable terms; every facility has to be given for reconciliation till the last moment, and impediments are provided against hasty impulse leading to rupture. Thou knowest not if perchance Allah will bring about thereafter some new situation.

5509. Cf. 2:231. Everything should be done fairly and squarely, and all interests should be safeguarded.

5510. Publicity and the establishment of proper evidence ensure that no one will act unjustly or selfishly. All should remember that these are matters of serious import, affecting our most intimate lives, and therefore our position in the spiritual kingdom.

5511. In these very delicate and difficult matters, the wisdom of jurists provides a less satisfactory solution than a sincere desire to be just and true, which is described as the "fear of Allah". Where such a desire exists, Allah often provides a solution in the most unexpected ways or from the most unexpected quarters; e.g., the worst enemies may be reconciled, or the cry or the smile of an infant baby may heal seemingly irreparable injuries or unite hearts seemingly alienated forever. And Faith is followed at once by a psychological feeling of rest for the troubled spirit.

5512. Our anger and our impatience have to be curbed. Our friends and our mates or associates may seem to us ever so weak and unreasonable, and the circumstances may be ever so disheartening; yet we must trust in Allah. How can we measure our own weakness or perhaps blindness? He knows all. His universal Purpose is always good. His Will must be accomplished, and we should wish for its accomplishment. His ordering of the universe observes a due, just, and perfect proportion.

Verily, for all things
Has Allah appointed
A due proportion.

قَدْ جَعَلَ اللَّهُ لِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدْرًا ۝

4. Such of your women
As have passed the age
Of monthly courses, for them
The prescribed period, if ye
Have any doubts, is
Three months, and for those
Who have no courses
(It is the same):⁵⁵¹³
For those who carry
(Life within their wombs),
Their period is until
They deliver their burdens:
And for those who Fear Allah, He will
Make their path easy.⁵⁵¹⁴

۴- وَالَّذِي يَيْتُسْنَ مِنَ الْحَيْضِ مِنْ نِسَائِكُمْ
إِنْ ارْتَبْتُمْ
فَعِدَّتُهُنَّ ثَلَاثَةُ أَشْهُرٍ
وَإِلَّا لَمْ يَحْضُنَّ
وَأُولَاتُ الْأَحْمَالِ
أَجَلُهُنَّ أَنْ يَضَعْنَ حَمْلَهُنَّ
وَمَنْ يَتَّقِ اللَّهَ
يَجْعَلْ لَهُ مِنْ أَمْرِهِ يُسْرًا ۝

5. That is the Command
Of Allah, which He
Has sent down to you:
And if anyone fears Allah,
He will remove his ills⁵⁵¹⁵
From him, and will enlarge
His reward.

۵- ذَلِكَ أَمْرُ اللَّهِ أَنْزَلَهُ إِلَيْكُمْ
وَمَنْ يَتَّقِ اللَّهَ يَكْفِرْ عَنْهُ سَيِّئَاتِهِ
وَيُعْظِمْ لَهُ أَجْرًا ۝

6. Let the women live
(In 'iddah) in the same
Style as ye live,
According to your means:
Annoy them not, so as
To restrict them.⁵⁵¹⁶
And if they carry (life

۶- أَسْكُنُوهُنَّ مِنْ حَيْثُ
سَكَنْتُمْ مِنْ وَجْدِكُمْ
وَلَا تُضَارُّوهُنَّ لِتُضَيِّقُوا عَلَيْهِنَّ
وَإِنْ كُنَّ أُولَاتٍ حَمْلٍ

5513. Cf. 2:228. For normal women, the 'iddah is the three monthly courses after separation: if there are no courses or if the courses are in doubt, it is three calendar months. By that time it will be clear whether there is pregnancy: if there is, the waiting period is still after delivery.

5514. Cf. n. 5511 above. If there is a true and sincere desire to obey the Will of Allah and do right the difficulties will vanish, and these delicate matters will be settled for the greatest happiness of all.

5515. Allah's ordinance is nothing arbitrary. It is to help us, and to lead us on to our highest good, temporal and spiritual. If we obey Allah, His wisdom will not only solve our difficulties, but it will remove other ills that we may have, subjective and objective. Like a good shepherd, he will lead us on to more and more luscious pastures. With each step higher, our position becomes more and more sure and our reward more and more precious.

5516. Cf. n. 5507 above. A selfish man, because he has divorced his wife, may, in the probationary period before the divorce becomes absolute, treat her with contumely, and while giving her residence and maintenance, may so restrict it as to make her life miserable. This is forbidden. She must be provided on the same scale as he is, according to his status in life. There is still hope of reconciliation, and if not, yet the parting must be honourable.

In their wombs), then⁵⁵¹⁷
Spend (your substance) on them
Until they deliver
Their burden: and if
They suckle your (offspring),
Give them their recompense:
And take mutual counsel
Together, according to
What is just and reasonable.
And if ye find yourselves⁵⁵¹⁸
In difficulties, let another
Woman suckle (the child)
On the (father's) behalf.⁵⁵¹⁹

فَإِنْفِقُوا عَلَيْهِنَ حَتَّى يَرْضَعْنَ حَمْلَهُنَّ
وَإِنْ أَرْضَعْنَ لَكُمْ فَآتُوهُنَّ أُجُورَهُنَّ
وَأَنْتُمْ رُءُوسُ بَيْنِكُمْ بِمَعْرُوفٍ
وَإِنْ تَعَاوَرْتُمْ
فَسَرِّضُوهُ لَهَا أُخْرَى ۝

7. Let the man of means
Spend according to
His means: and the man
Whose resources are restricted,
Let him spend according
To what Allah has given him.
Allah puts no burden
On any person beyond
What He has given him.
After a difficulty, Allah
Will soon grant relief.⁵⁵²⁰

لِيُنْفِقَ ذُو سَعَةٍ مِّنْ سَعَتِهِ
وَمَن قُدِرَ عَلَيْهِ رِزْقُهُ
فَلْيُنْفِقْ مِمَّا آتَاهُ اللَّهُ
لَا يُكَلِّفُ اللَّهُ نَفْسًا إِلَّا مَا آتَاهَا
سَيَجْعَلُ اللَّهُ بَعْدَ عُسْرٍ يُسْرًا ۝

SECTION 2.

8. How many populations
That insolently opposed⁵⁵²¹
The command of their Lord

وَكَايَتُن مِّنْ قَرْيَةٍ عَتَتْ
عَنْ أَمْرِ رَبِّهَا

5517. If there is a pregnancy, a sacred third life comes on the scene, for which there is added responsibility (perhaps added hope for reconciliation) for both parents. In any case no separation is possible until after the child is born. Even after birth, if no reconciliation between parents is possible, yet for the nursing of the child and for its welfare the care of the mother remains the duty of the father, and there must be mutual counsel between him and the mother in all truth and sincerity.

5518. If ye find yourselves in difficulties: e.g., if the mother's milk fails, or if her health fails, or if any circumstance arises which bars the natural course of the mother nursing her own child. There may be psychological difficulties also.

5519. That is, the father must stand all expenses, without cutting down the reasonable allowance to which the mother is entitled.

5520. We must trust in Allah, and do whatever is possible for us in the interests of the young life for which we are responsible. We must not be frightened by difficulties. Allah will give us relief and provide a solution if we act with honest integrity. Cf. 96:5-6.

5521. Insolent impiety consists not only in the breach of the rites of religion. Even more vital is the defiance of the laws of nature which Allah has made for us. These laws, for us human beings include those which relate to our fellow-beings in society to whom kindness and consideration form the basis of our social duties. Our duties to our families and our children in intimate matters such as were spoken of in the last Section, are as important as any in our spiritual life. Peoples who forgot the moral law in marriage or family life perished in this world and will have no future in the Hereafter. The lessons apply not only to individuals but to whole nations or social groups.

And of His messengers,
Did We not then
Call to account—
To severe account?—
And We imposed on them
An exemplary Punishment.⁵⁵²²

وَرُسُلِهِ

9. Then did they taste
The evil result of
Their conduct, and the End
Of their conduct
Was Perdition.

۹- فَذَاقَتْ وَبَالَ أَمْرِهَا
وَكَانَ عَاقِبَةُ أَمْرِهَا خُسْرًا ○

10. Allah has prepared for them
A severe Punishment⁵⁵²³
(In the Hereafter).
Therefore fear Allah,
O ye men of understanding—
Who have believed!—
For Allah hath indeed
Sent down to you
A Message—⁵⁵²⁴

۱۰- أَعَدَّ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا شَدِيدًا
فَاتَّقُوا اللَّهَ يَا أُولِيَ الْأَلْبَابِ
الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
قَدْ أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ إِلَيْكُمْ ذِكْرًا

11. A Messenger, who rehearses
To you the Signs of Allah
Containing clear explanations,
That he may lead forth
Those who believe
And do righteous deeds
From the depths of Darkness⁵⁵²⁵
Into Light. And those who Believe in Allah and work
Righteousness, He will admit
To Gardens beneath which rivers
Flow, to dwell therein
Forever: Allah has indeed
Granted for them
A most excellent provision.

۱۱- رَسُولًا يَتْلُو عَلَيْكُمْ آيَاتِ اللَّهِ
مُبَيِّنَاتٍ
لِيُخْرِجَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
مِنَ الظُّلُمَاتِ إِلَى النُّورِ
وَمَنْ يُؤْمَرْ بِاللَّهِ وَيَعْمَلْ صَالِحًا
يُدْخِلْهُ جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ
خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا أَبَدًا
قَدْ أَحْسَنَ اللَّهُ لَهُ رِزْقًا ○

5522. This refers to the present life: apparently the Hereafter is implied in verse 10 below.

5523. See last note.

5524. There is no excuse for us to go astray, seeing that Allah in His infinite Mercy has explained to us His Message by His many Signs around us and clearly by means of the human Teachers and Messengers whom He has sent for our instruction: see next verse.

5525. Cf. 24:40: the unbelievers' state is "like the depths of darkness in a vast deep ocean, overwhelmed with billow topped by billow, topped by dark clouds; depths of darkness, one above another." Cf. 2:257: "Allah is the Protector of those who have Faith: from the depths of darkness He will lead them forth into light."

12. Allah is He Who Created seven Firmaments⁵⁵²⁶
 And of the earth
 A similar number.⁵⁵²⁷
 Through the midst
 Of them (all) descends⁵⁵²⁸
 His Command: that ye may Know that Allah has power
 Over all things, and that
 Allah comprehends all things
 In (His) Knowledge.

١٢- اللهُ الَّذِي خَلَقَ سَبْعَ سَمَوَاتٍ
 وَمِنَ الْأَرْضِ مِثْلَهُنَّ
 يَنْزِلُ الْأَمْرُ بَيْنَهُنَّ
 لِتَعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ
 وَأَنَّ اللَّهَ قَدْ أَحَاطَ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ عِلْمًا

5526. "Seven Firmaments." (Cf. 2:29; 17:44; 23:86; and 51:12.) [Eds.].

5527. As there are grades one above the other in the spiritual kingdom, there are similar grades in our life on this earth. If we take the literal meaning—just as we see the heavenly spheres one above another, over our heads, so we can see that the crust of the earth is built up of geological strata one above another. (R).

5528. But in all spheres of life and Creation, whatever conception we are able to form of them, it is certain that the Command or Law of Allah runs through them all, for His knowledge and power extend through all things.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 66—AL TAHRĪM

This is the tenth and last of the series of short Madīnah Sūrahs which began with S. 57: see Introduction to that Sūrah. The point dealt with here is: how far the turning away from sex or the opposition of one sex against another or a want of harmony between the sexes may injure the higher interests of society.

The date may be taken to be somewhere about A.H. 7.

Summary—The failings of the weaker sex should not turn away men from normal social life: harmony and mutual confidence should be taught and enforced, and Allah's blessing will descend on the virtuous even if their lot is cast with the wicked (66:1-12, and C. 245).

C. 245. — The relations between the sexes are embittered
(66:1-12.) By misunderstandings and conflicts that produce
Unhappiness and misery, personal and social.
Harmony and confidence are due between
The sexes, not disgust or isolation, which may
Please some but cause injustice to others.
Respect each other's confidence, and if
You fail, repent and make amends.
The good man seeks virtue for himself
And his family. If Evil is yoked to Good,
It must take the fruit of its own deeds;
The worldly tie will profit naught;
But Good should firmly make a stand
And will be saved, for Allah doth care
For all His true devoted Servants.

Sūrah 66.

Al Tahrīm (Prohibition)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ﴿٦٦﴾ Prophet! Why
Holdest thou to be forbidden
That which Allah has⁵⁵²⁹
Made lawful to thee?
Thou seekest to please⁵⁵³⁰
Thy consorts. But Allah
Is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

2. Allah has already ordained⁵⁵³¹
For you, (O men),
The dissolution of your oaths
(In some cases): and Allah
Is your Protector, and He
Is Full of Knowledge
And Wisdom.

الْحُجَّةُ الثَّامِنُ وَالْعِشْرُونَ سُورَةُ الْجُرُجِيِّ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ لِمَ تُحَرِّمُ
مَا أَحَلَّ اللَّهُ لَكَ
تَبْتَغِي مَرْضَاتِ أَزْوَاجِكَ
وَاللَّهُ غَفُورٌ رَحِيمٌ ٥

مَقَدْ قَرَضَ اللَّهُ لَكُمْ
تَحِلَّةَ أَيْمَانِكُمْ
وَاللَّهُ مَوْلَاكُمْ
وَهُوَ الْعَلِيمُ الْحَكِيمُ ٥

5529. The Prophet's household was not like other households. The Consorts of Purity were expected to hold a higher standard in behaviour and reticence than ordinary women, as they had higher work to perform. See n. 3706 to 33:28. But they were human beings after all, and were subject to the weaknesses of their sex, and they sometimes failed. The imprudence of 'Ā'ishah (see n. 2962 to 24:11) once caused serious difficulties: the Holy Prophet's mind was sore distressed, and he renounced the society of his wives for some time. This renunciation seems to be referred to here. The situation was none the less difficult for him because she was a daughter of Abū Bakr, one of the truest and most intimate of his Companions and lieutenants. The commentators usually cite the following incident in connection with the revelation of these verses. It is narrated from 'Ā'ishah, the wife of the Holy Prophet (peace be on him) by Bukhārī, Muslim, Nasa'i, Abu Dawūd and others that the Holy Prophet usually visited his wives daily after 'Aṣr Prayer. Once it so happened that he stayed longer than usual at the quarters of Zaynab bint Jaḥsh, for she had received from somewhere some honey which the Holy Prophet liked very much. "At this", says 'Ā'ishah, "I felt jealous, and I, Ḥafṣah, Sawda and Safiyah agreed among ourselves that when he visits us each of us would tell him that a peculiar odour came from his mouth as a result of what he had eaten, for we knew that he was particularly sensitive to offensive smells". So when his wives hinted at it, he vowed that he would never again use honey. Thereupon these verses were revealed reminding him that he should not declare to himself unlawful that which Allah had made lawful to him. The important point to bear in mind is that he was at once rectified by revelation, which reinforces the fact that the prophets are always under divine protection, and even the slightest lapse on their part is never left uncorrected. (R).

5530. The tender words of admonition addressed to the Consorts in 33:28-34 explain the situation far better than any comments can express. If the Holy Prophet had been a mere husband in the ordinary sense of the term, he could not have held the balance even between his private feelings and his public duties. But he was not an ordinary husband, and he abandoned his renunciation on his realisation of the higher duties with which he was charged, and which required conciliation with firmness.

5531. Cf. 2:224. If your vows prevent you from doing good, or acting rightly, or making peace between persons, you should expiate the vow, but not refrain from your good deed.

3. When the Prophet disclosed
A matter of confidence⁵⁵³²
To one of his consorts,
And she then divulged it
(To another), and Allah made it
Known to him, he confirmed⁵⁵³³
Part thereof and repudiated
A part. Then when he Told her thereof, she said,
"Who told thee this?"
He said, "He told me
Who knows and is well-acquainted
(With all things)"

۳- وَإِذْ أَسَرَّ النَّبِيُّ
إِلَى بَعْضِ أَزْوَاجِهِ حَدِيثًا
فَلَمَّا تَبَيَّنَتْ لَهُ وَأَظْهَرَهُ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ
عَرَفَ بَعْضَهُ وَأَعْرَضَ عَنْ بَعْضٍ
فَلَمَّا تَبَيَّنَ لَهُ
قَالَتْ مَنْ أَخْبَاكَ هَذَا
قَالَ تَبَيَّنَ الْغَيْبُ لِي خَبِيرٌ ۝

4. If ye two turn in repentance⁵⁵³⁴
To Him, your hearts
Are indeed so inclined;
But if ye back up
Each other against him,
Truly Allah is his Protector,
And Gabriel, and (every)
Righteous one among those Who believe—and
furthermore,⁵⁵³⁵
The angels—will back (him) up.

۴- إِنْ تَتُوبَا إِلَى اللَّهِ
فَقَدْ صَغَتْ قُلُوبُكُمَا
وَإِنْ تَظَاهَرَا عَلَيْهِ
فَإِنَّ اللَّهَ هُوَ مَوْلَاهُ وَجِبْرِيلُ وَصَالِحُ
الْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ ظَهِيرٌ ۝

5532. Who these two consorts were, and what was the matter in confidence which was disclosed, we are not expressly told, but the facts mentioned in n. 5529 above will help us to understand this passage. The sacred words imply that the matter was of great importance to the principle involved, but that the details were not of sufficient importance for permanent record. For the lessons to be drawn, see the notes following.

5533. The moral we have to draw is manifold. (1) If anything is told to us in confidence, especially by one at the head of affairs, we must not divulge it to our closest friend. (2) If such divulgence is made in the most secret whispers, Allah's Plan is such that it will come to light and expose those guilty of breach of confidence. (3) When the whispered version is compared with the true version and the actual facts, it will be found that the whispered version is in great part untrue, due to the misunderstanding and exaggeration inevitable in the circumstances. (4) The breach of confidence must inevitably redound to the shame of the guilty party, whose surprise only covers a sense of humiliation. See next note.

5534. There are further lessons. (5) Both the party betraying confidence and that encouraging the betrayal must purge their conduct by repentance. (6) Frank repentance would be what their hearts and conscience themselves would dictate and they must not resist such amends on account of selfish obstinacy. (7) If they were to resist frank repentance and amends, they are only abetting each other's wrong, and they cannot prevail against all the spiritual forces which will ranged on the side of the right.

5535. Do not forget the dual meaning: immediate, in application to the Holy Prophet, and general, being the lesson which we ought all to learn. The Holy Prophet could not be injured by any persons doing anything against him even though they might unconsciously put him in greater jeopardy: for Allah, the Angel Gabriel, (who was the Messenger to him), and the whole Community, would protect him,—to say nothing of the army of angels or hidden spiritual forces that always guarded him. Cf. 33:56. The general lesson for us is that the good man's protection is that of the spiritual forces around him; it is divine protection, against which human weakness or folly will have no power.

5. It may be, if he
Divorced you (all),⁵⁵³⁶
That Allah will give him
In exchange Consorts
Better than you—
Who submit (their wills),
Who believe, who are devout,
Who turn to Allah in repentance,
Who worship (in humility),
Who travel (for Faith) and fast — ⁵⁵³⁷
Previously married or virgins.

6. O ye who believe!⁵⁵³⁸
Save yourselves and your Families from a Fire
Whose fuel is Men⁵⁵³⁹
And Stones, over which
Are (appointed) angels
Stern (and) severe,⁵⁵⁴⁰
Who flinch not (from Executing) the Commands
They receive from Allah,
But do (precisely) what
They are commanded.

7. (They will say),
"O ye Unbelievers!

هـ- عَلَىٰ رَبِّكَ إِن طَلَّقْتَن
أَنْ يُبَدِّلَكَ أَوْ أَجَاخِزًا مِّنْكَ
مُسْلِمَاتٍ مُّؤْمِنَاتٍ
قَنِيطَاتٍ تَتَّبِعُنَّ
عَمَلَاتٍ سَابِقَاتٍ
تُحِبُّنَّ وَالْبِكَارَاتِ ۝

٤- يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا
اَنْفُسَكُمْ وَاَهْلِيْكُمْ نَارًا
وَقُودُهَا النَّاسُ وَالْاِجَارَةُ
عَلَيْهَا مَلٰٓئِكَةٌ غِلَاظٌ شِدَادٌ
لَّا يَعْصُوْنَ اللّٰهَ مَاۤ اَمَرَهُمْ
وَيَفْعَلُوْنَ مَا يُوْمَرُوْنَ ۝

هـ- يٰۤاَيُّهَا الَّذِيْنَ كَفَرُوْا

5536. From the case of two in verse 4, we now come to the case of all the Consorts generally, in verse 5. Cf. 33:28-30. Their duties and responsibilities were higher than those of other women, and therefore their failure would also be more serious. This is only hypothetical, in order to show us the virtues expected of them: faith and devotion, worship and service, readiness for travel or hijrah, whether they were young or old, new to married life or otherwise. From them again the more general application follows—to all women in Islam.

5537. Sā'ihāt: literally, those who travel about for the Faith, renouncing hearth and home: hence those who go on pilgrimage, who fast, who deny themselves the ordinary pleasures of life. Note that the spiritual virtues are named, in the descending order: submitting their wills (Islam), faith and devotion, turning ever to worship and faith, and performing other rites, or perhaps being content with asceticism. And this applies to all women, maiden girls or women of mature experience who were widows or separated from previous husbands by divorce.

5538. Note how we have been gradually led up in admonition from two Consorts to all consorts, to all women, to all Believers, and to all men and women including Unbelievers. We must carefully guard not only our own conduct, but the conduct of our families, and of all who are near and dear to us. For the issues are most serious, and the consequences of a fall are most terrible.

5539. A Fire whose fuel is Men and Stones. Cf. 2:24. This is a terrible Fire: not merely like the physical fire which burns wood or charcoal or substances like that, and consumes them. This spiritual Fire will have for its fuel men who do wrong and are as hardhearted as stones, or stone Idols as symbolical of all the unbending falsehoods in life.

5540. Cf. 74:31. We think of angelic nature as gentle and beautiful, but in another aspect perfection includes justice, fidelity, discipline, and the firm execution of duty according to lawful Commands. So, in the attributes of Allah Himself, Justice and Mercy, Kindness and Correction are not contradictory but complementary. An earthly ruler will be unkind to his loyal subjects if he does not punish evildoers.

Make no excuses
This Day! Ye are being⁵⁵⁴¹
But requited for
All that ye did!"

SECTION 2.

8. ﴿٨﴾ ye who believe!⁵⁵⁴²
Turn to Allah
With sincere repentance:
In the hope that
Your Lord will remove⁵⁵⁴³
From you your ills
And admit you to Gardens
Beneath which Rivers flow —
The Day that Allah
Will not permit
To be humiliated
The Prophet and those
Who believe with him.
Their Light will run⁵⁵⁴⁴
Forward before them
And by their right hands,
While they say, "Our Lord!
Perfect our Light for us,
And grant us Forgiveness:
For Thou has power
Over all things."

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا
تَوْبُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ تَوْبَةً نَّصُوحًا
عَسَىٰ رَبُّكُمْ
أَن يَكْفِرَ عَنْكُمْ سَيِّئَاتِكُمْ
وَيُدْخِلَكُم جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ
يَوْمَ لَا يُخْزِي اللَّهُ النَّبِيَّ
وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مَعَهُ
نُورُهُمْ يَسْعَىٰ بَيْنَ أَيْدِيهِمْ وَبِأَيْمَانِهِمْ
يَقُولُونَ رَبَّنَا أَتِمِّمْ لَنَا نُورَنَا وَاعْفِرْ لَنَا
إِنَّكَ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ۝

9. ﴿٩﴾ Prophet! Strive hard⁵⁵⁴⁵
Against the Unbelievers

يَا أَيُّهَا النَّبِيُّ جَاهِدِ الْكُفَّارَ

5541. 'This is no hardship or injustice imposed on you. It is all but the fruit of your own deeds; the result of your own deliberate choice.'

5542. The opposition of sex against sex, individual or concerted, having been condemned, we are now exhorted to turn to the Light, and to realise that the good and righteous can retain their integrity even though their own mates, in spite of their example and precept, remain in evil and sin.

5543. Whatever may have been the faults of the past, unite in good deeds, and abandon petty sectional jealousies, and Allah will remove your difficulties and distresses, and all the evils from which you suffer. Indeed He will grant you the Bliss of Heaven and save you from any humiliation which you may have brought on yourselves by your conduct and on the revered Prophet and Teacher whose name you professed to take.

5544. See 57:12, and n. 5288. The darkness of evil will be dispelled, and the Light of Allah will be realised by them more and more. But even so they will not be content: for they will pray for the least taint of evil to be removed from them, and perfection to be granted to them. In that exalted state they will be within reach of perfection—not by their own merits, but by the infinite Mercy and Power of Allah.

5545. See 9:73, where the same words introduce the argument against the Hypocrites. Here they introduce the argument against wickedness, which, though given the privilege of association with goodness and piety, persisted in wicked deeds, and in favour of those noble souls, which, though tied to wickedness, retained their purity and integrity. Two examples of each kind are given — of women, as this Sūrah is mainly concerned with women.

And the Hypocrites,
And be firm against them.
Their abode is Hell—
An evil refuge (indeed).

وَالْمُفِقِينَ وَاعْلُظْ عَلَيْهِمْ
وَمَا لَهُمْ جَهَنَّمُ وَبَيْتِ الْمَصِيدِ ۝

10. Allah sets forth,
For an example
To the Unbelievers,
The wife of Noah⁵⁵⁴⁶
And the wife of Lūt:⁵⁵⁴⁷
They were (respectively)
Under two of our righteous
Servants, but they were
False to their (husbands),⁵⁵⁴⁸
And they profited nothing
Before Allah on their account,
But were told: "Enter ye
The Fire along with (Others) that enter!"

۝- ضَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
أَمْرَاتِ نُوحٍ وَامْرَأَتِ لُوطٍ
كَانَتَا تَحْتَ عَبْدَيْنِ
مِنْ عِبَادِنَا صَالِحَيْنِ
فَخَانَتَهُمَا
فَلَمْ يَغْنِيَا عَنْهُمَا مِنَ اللَّهِ شَيْئًا
وَقِيلَ ادْخُلَا النَّارَ مَعَ الدَّاسِغِينَ ۝

11. And Allah sets forth,
As an example
To those who believe,
The wife of Pharaoh:⁵⁵⁴⁹
Behold she said:
"O my Lord! build
For me, in nearness⁵⁵⁵⁰

۝- وَضَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا
لِلَّذِينَ آمَنُوا امْرَأَتِ فِرْعَوْنَ
إِذْ قَالَتْ رَبِّ ابْنِ لِي عِنْدَكَ

قَالَ

5546. Read Noah's story in 11:36-48. Evidently his contemporary world had got so corrupt that it needed a great Flood to purge it. "None of the people will believe except those who have believed already. So grieve no longer over their evil deeds." But there were evil ones in his own family. A foolish and undutiful son is mentioned in 11:42-46. Poor Noah tried to save him and pray for him as one "of his family"; but the answer came: "he is not of thy family; for his conduct is unrighteous". We might expect such a son to have a mother like him, and here we are told that it was so. Noah's wife was also false to the standards of her husband, and perished in this world and the Hereafter.

5547. The wife of Lūt has already been mentioned more than once. See 11:81, and n. 1577; 7:83, and n. 1051; etc. The world around her was wicked and she sympathised with and followed that wicked world, rather than her righteous husband. She suffered the fate of her wicked world.

5548. False to their husbands: not necessarily in sex, but in the vital spiritual matters of truth and conduct. They had the high privilege of the most intimate relationship with the noblest spirits of their age; but if they failed to rise to the height of their dignity, their relationship did not save them. They could not plead that they were the wives of pious husbands. They had to enter Hell like any other wicked women. There is personal responsibility before Allah. One soul cannot claim the merits of another, any more than one pure soul can be injured by association with a corrupt soul. The pure one should keep its purity intact. See the next two examples.

5549. Traditionally, she is known as 'Āsiyah, one of the four perfect women, the other three being Mary the mother of Jesus, Khadījah the wife of the Holy Prophet, and Fāṭimah his daughter. Pharaoh is the type of arrogance, godlessness, and wickedness. For his wife to have preserved her Faith, her humility, and her righteousness was indeed a great spiritual triumph. She was probably the same who saved the life of the infant Moses: 28:9.

5550. Her spiritual vision was directed to Allah, rather than to the worldly grandeur of Pharaoh's court. It is probable that her prayer implies a desire for martyrdom, and it may be that she attained her crown of martyrdom.

To Thee, a mansion
In the Garden,
And save me from Pharaoh
And his doings,
And save me from
Those that do wrong”;

12. And Mary the daughter⁵⁵⁵¹
Of 'Imrān, who guarded
Her chastity; and We
Breathed into (her body)⁵⁵⁵²
Of Our spirit; and she Testified to the truth
Of the words of her Lord
And of his Revelations,
And was one of the
Devout (Servants).⁵⁵⁵³

بَيْنًا فِي الْجَنَّةِ
وَنَجِّنِي مِنْ فِرْعَوْنَ وَعَمَلِهِ
وَنَجِّنِي مِنَ الْقَوْمِ الظَّالِمِينَ ۝

١٢- وَمَرْيَمَ ابْنَتَ عِمْرَانَ
الَّتِي أَحْصَنَتْ فَرْجَهَا
فَنَفَخْنَا فِيهِ مِنْ رُوحِنَا
وَصَدَّقَتْ بِكَلِمَاتِ رَبِّهَا
وَكُتِبَ لَهَا مِنَ الْغَنِيِّ ۝

5551. 'Imrān was traditionally the name of the father of Mary the mother of Jesus: see n. 375 to 3:35. She was herself one of the purest of women, though the Jews accused her falsely of unchastity: Cf. 19:27-28.

5552. Cf. 21:91. As a virgin she gave birth to Jesus: 19:16-29. In 32:9, it is said of Adam's progeny, man, that Allah "fashioned him in due proportion, and breathed into him something of His spirit". In 15:29, similar words are used with reference to Adam. The virgin birth should not therefore be supposed to imply that Allah was the father of Jesus in the sense in which Greek mythology makes Zeus the father of Apollo by Latona or of Minos by Europa. And yet that is the doctrine to which the Christian idea of "the only begotten Son of God" leads.

5553. Mary had true faith and testified her faith in the Prophet Jesus and in his revelation as well as in the revelations which he came to confirm (and to foreshadow). She was of the company of the Devout of all ages. The fact that Qānitin (devout) is not here in the feminine gender implies that the highest spiritual dignity is independent of sex. And so we close the lesson of this Sūrah, that while sex is a fact of our physical existence, the sexes should act in harmony and cooperation for in the highest spiritual matters we are all one. "We made her and her son a Sign for all peoples. Verily this Brotherhood of yours is a single Brotherhood, and I am your Lord and Cherisher: therefore serve Me and no other" (21:91-92).

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 67—AL MULK

We have now done fourteen-fifteenths of the Qur'ān, and have followed step by step the development of its argument establishing the Ummah or Brotherhood of Islam.

There is a logical break here. The remaining fifteenth consists of short spiritual Lyrics, mostly of the Makkan period, dealing mainly with the inner life of man, and in its individual aspects. They may be compared to Hymns or Psalms in other religious literature. But these short Quranic Sūrahs have a grandeur, a beauty, a mystic meaning, and a force of earnestness under persecution, all their own. With their sources in the sublimest regions of heaven; their light penetrates into the darkest recesses of Life, into the concrete facts which are often mistaken for the whole of Reality, though they are but an insignificant portion and on the surface and fleeting. There is much symbolism in language and thought, in describing the spiritual in terms of the things we see and understand.

It is the contrast between the shadows of Reality here and the eternal Reality, between the surface world and the profound inner World, that is urged on our attention here.

This Sūrah of 30 verses belongs to the Middle Makkan period, just before S. 69 and S. 70. Allah is mentioned here by the name Rahmān (Most Gracious), as He is mentioned by the names of Rabb (Lord and Cherisher) and Rahmān (Most Gracious) in S. 19.

C. 246. — Lordship in right and in fact belongs
 (67:1-30.) To Allah Most Gracious, Whose Goodness
 And Glory and Power are writ large
 On all His Creation. The beauty and order
 Of the Heavens above us proclaim Him.
 Then who can reject His call but those
 In pitiful delusion? And who can fail
 To accept, that truly knows himself
 And the mighty Reality behind him?
 The earth and the good things thereof are prepared
 For man by his Gracious Lord, Who guards
 Him from hourly dangers. Who sustains
 The wonderful flight of the Birds in midair?
 Above, and below, and in midair can we see
 His boundless Signs. We know that His Promise
 Of the Hereafter is true. The spring and source
 Of the goodness of things is in Him, and will Appear triumphant when the Hour is established.

Sūrah 67.

Al Mulk (The Dominion)

In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.

1. Blessed⁵⁵⁵⁴ be He
In Whose hands
Is Dominion;⁵⁵⁵⁵
And He over all things
Hath Power—

2. He Who created Death⁵⁵⁵⁶
And Life, that He
May try which of you
Is best in deed;⁵⁵⁵⁷
And He is the Exalted⁵⁵⁵⁸
In Might, Oft-Forgiving—

3. He Who created
The seven heavens⁵⁵⁵⁹

الْبُحْرَةُ الثَّامِسَةُ وَالْعِشْرُونَ سُورَةُ الْمُلْكِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- تَبَارَكَ الَّذِي بِيَدِهِ الْمُلْكُ
وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ ۝

٢- الَّذِي خَلَقَ الْمَوْتَ وَالْحَيَاةَ
لِيَبْلُوَكُمْ أَيُّكُمْ أَحْسَنُ عَمَلًا ۝
وَهُوَ الْعَزِيزُ الْعَفُورُ ۝

٣- الَّذِي خَلَقَ سَبْعَ سَمَاوَاتٍ

5554. What do we mean when we bless the name of Allah, or proclaim (in the optative mood) that the whole Creation should bless the name of the Lord? We mean that we recognise and proclaim His beneficence to us; for all increase and happiness is through Him, "in His hands"—in the hands of Him Who also holds Dominion or Power. In our human affairs we sometimes see the separation of Dominion or Power from Goodness or Beneficence: in the divine nature we recognise that there is no separation or antithesis.

5555. Mulk: Dominion, Lordship, Sovereignty, the Right to carry out His Will, or to do all that He wills. Power (in the clause following) is the Capacity to carry out His Will, so that nothing can resist or neutralise it. Here is beneficence completely identified with Lordship and Power; and it is exemplified in the verses following. Note that Mulk here has a different shade of meaning from Malakūt in 36:83. Both words are from the same root, and I have translated both by the word "Dominion". But Malakūt refers to Lordship in the invisible World, while Mulk to Lordship in the visible World. Allah is Lord of both.

5556. Created Death and Life. Death is here put before Life, and it is created. Death is therefore not merely a negative state. In 2:28 we read "Seeing that ye were without life (literally, dead), and He gave you life; then will He cause you to die, and will again bring you to life; and again to Him will ye return." In 53:44, again, Death is put before Life. Death then is: (1) the state before life began, which may be non-existence or existence in some other form; (2) the state in which Life as we know it ceases, but existence does not cease; a state of Barzakh (23:100), or Barrier or Partition, after our visible Death and before Judgement; after that will be the new Life, which we conceive of under the term Eternity.

5557. Creation, therefore, is not in mere sport, or without a purpose with reference to man. The state before our present Life, or the state after, we can scarcely understand. But our present Life is clearly given to enable us to strive by good deeds to reach a nobler state.

5558. All this is possible, because Allah is so Exalted in Might that He can perfectly carry out His Will and Purpose, and that Purpose is Love, Mercy, and Goodness to His creatures.

5559. Cf. 45:12, and n. 5526-27. The heavens as they appear to our sight seem to be arranged in layers one above another, and ancient astronomy accounted for the motions of the heavenly bodies in an elaborate scheme of spheres. What we are concerned with here is the order and beauty of the vast spaces and the marvellous bodies that follow regular laws of motion in those enormous spaces in the visible world. From these we are to form some conception of the vastly greater Invisible World, for which we want special spiritual vision.

One above another:
No want of proportion
Wilt thou see
In the Creation
Of (Allah) Most Gracious.
So turn thy vision again:
Seest thou any flaw?

طَبَاقًا
مَا تَرَى فِي خَلْقِ الرَّحْمَنِ مِنْ تَفَوُّتٍ
فَارْجِعِ الْبَصَرَ
هَلْ تَرَى مِنْ فُتُورٍ ۝

4. Again turn thy vision⁵⁵⁶⁰
A second time: (thy) vision
Will come back to thee
Dull and discomfited,
In a state worn out.

۴- ثُمَّ ارْجِعِ الْبَصَرَ كَرَّتَيْنِ
يَنْقَلِبْ إِلَيْكَ الْبَصَرُ خَاسِئًا
وَهُوَ حَسِيرٌ ۝

5. And We have,
(From of old),
Adorned the lowest heaven⁵⁵⁶¹
With Lamps, and We
Have made such (Lamps)
(As) missiles to drive⁵⁵⁶²
Away the Evil Ones,
And have prepared for them
The Penalty
Of the Blazing Fire.

۵- وَلَقَدْ زَيَّنَّا السَّمَاءَ الدُّنْيَا
بِصَافِرٍ
وَجَعَلْنَاهَا رُجُومًا لِلشَّيَاطِينِ
وَأَعْتَدْنَا لَهُمْ
عَذَابَ السَّعِيرِ ۝

6. For those who reject
Their Lord (and Cherisher)⁵⁵⁶³
Is the Penalty of Hell:
And evil is (such) destination.

۶- وَلِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا بِرَبِّهِمْ
عَذَابُ جَهَنَّمَ وَيُسْـَٔلُونَ
عَذَابَ الْبَاقِي ۝

7. When they are cast therein,
They will hear

۷- إِذَا أُلْقُوا فِيهَا سَمِعُوا

5560. Reverting to the symbolism of the external or visible world, we are asked to observe and study it again and again, and as minutely as our powers will allow. However closely we observe it, we shall find no flaw in it. Indeed the region of enquiry is so vast and stretches so far beyond our ken, that our eyes, aided with the most powerful telescopes, will confess themselves defeated in trying to penetrate to the ultimate mysteries. We shall find no defect in Allah's handiwork: it is our own powers that we shall find fail to go beyond a certain compass.

5561. Lowest (or, nearest) heaven: see n. 4035 to 37:6.

5562. The phenomenon of the shooting stars has been explained in 15:16-18, notes 1951-54; and in 37: 6-10 and notes thereon. (R).

5563. We have seen how the fire in the stars can suggest the beauty and order of the external world; and yet, when it meets with resistance and disharmony, it can burn and destroy. So in the moral and spiritual world. What can be a greater sign of evil, disharmony, and rebellion than to reject the Cherisher and Sustainer, on Whom our life depends, and from Whom we receive nothing but goodness? The Punishment, then, is Fire in its fiercest intensity, as typified in the next two verses.

The (terrible) drawing in⁵⁵⁶⁴
Of its breath
Even as it blazes forth,

لَهَا شَهِيقًا وَهِيَ تَفُورٌ

8. Almost bursting with fury:
Every time a Group
Is cast therein, its Keepers⁵⁵⁶⁵
Will ask, "Did no Warner
Come to you?"

هـ- تَكَادُ تَسَيِّرُ مِنَ الْغَيْظِ
كُلَّمَا أُلْقِيَ فِيهَا فَوْجٌ سَأَلَهُمْ خَزَنَتُهَا
أَلَمْ يَأْتِكُمْ نَذِيرٌ ٥

9. They will say: "Yes indeed;
A Warner did come to us,
But we rejected him
And said, 'Allah never Sent down any (Message):
Ye are in nothing but
An egregious delusion!'"⁵⁵⁶⁶

و- قَالُوا بَلَىٰ قَدْ جَاءَنَا نَذِيرٌ
كَذَّبْنَا وَقُلْنَا مَا نَزَّلَ اللَّهُ مِنْ شَيْءٍ
إِنْ أَنْتُمْ إِلَّا فِي ضَلَالٍ كَبِيرٍ

10. They will further say:
"Had we but listened
Or used our intelligence,⁵⁵⁶⁷
We should not (now)
Be among the Companions
Of the Blazing Fire!"

ا- قَالُوا لَوْ كُنَّا نَسْمَعُ
أَوْ نَعْقِلُ مَا كُنَّا فِي
أَصْحَابِ السَّعِيرِ ١٠

11. They will then confess⁵⁵⁶⁸
Their sins: but far

١١- فَأَعْتَرَفُوا بِذَنبِهِمْ

5564. For shahīq see n. 1607 to 11:106. There shahīq (sobs) was contrasted with zafīr (sighs): in the one case it is the drawing in of breath, and in the other the emission of a deep breath. Here the latter process is represented by the verb fāra, to swell, to blaze forth, to gush forth. In 11:40, the verb fāra was applied to the gushing forth of the waters of the Flood: here the verb is applied to the blazing forth of the Fire of Punishment. Fire is personified: in its intake it has a fierce appetite: in the flames which it throws out, it has a fierce aggressiveness. And yet in ultimate result evil meets the same fate, whether typified by water or fire.

5565. Cf. 39:71, n. 4348. Every time: it may not be the same angels who are guarding the gates of Hell every time new inmates come in. The pure, innocent angel nature does not know the crookedness of human evil, and is surprised at so many human beings coming in for punishment: it wonders if no warning was conveyed to men, whereas in fact men have a warning in Clear Signs during all the period of their probation. The Clear Signs come from Revelation, from their own conscience, and from all nature around them.

5566. Allah's Signs were not only rejected or defied, but their very existence was denied. Nay, more, even their possibility was denied, and alas! righteous people and spiritual Teachers were persecuted or mocked (36:30). They were called fools or madmen, or men under a delusion!

5567. Man has himself the power given to him to distinguish good from evil, and he is further helped by the teachings of the great Messengers or World Teachers. Where such Teachers do not come into personal contact with an individual or a generation, the true meaning of their teaching can be understood by means of the Reason which Allah has given to every human soul to judge by. It is failure to follow a man's own lights sincerely that leads to his degradation and destruction.

5568. They will then have passed through the fire of Judgement and will now be in the fire of Punishment. The Reality will not only now be clear to them, but after the questionings of the angels they cannot even pretend to make any excuses. They will freely confess, but that is not repentance, for repentance implies amendment, and the time for repentance and amendment will have long been past.

Will be (Forgiveness)
From the Companions
Of the Blazing Fire!

فَسُحْقًا لِّأَصْحَابِ السَّعِيرِ ۝

12. As for those who Fear their Lord unseen,⁵⁵⁶⁹
For them is Forgiveness
And a great Reward.

۝۱۲- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ يَخْشَوْنَ رَبَّهُم بِالْغَيْبِ
لَهُمْ مَغْفِرَةٌ وَأَجْرٌ كَبِيرٌ ۝

13. And whether ye hide
Your word or publish it,
He certainly has (full) knowledge,
Of the secrets of (all) hearts.

۝۱۳- وَاسْرُؤْ قَوْلَكُمْ أَوِ اجْهَرُوا بِهِ
إِنَّهُ عَلِيمٌ بِذَاتِ الصُّدُورِ ۝

14. Should He not know—
He that created?⁵⁵⁷⁰
And He is the One
That understands the finest
Mysteries (and) is
Well-acquainted (with them).

۝۱۴- أَلَا يَعْلَمُ
مَنْ خَلَقُ
وَهُوَ اللَّطِيفُ الْخَبِيرُ ۝

SECTION 2.

15. It is He Who has
Made the earth manageable⁵⁵⁷¹
For you, so traverse
Ye through its tracts
And enjoy of the Sustenance
Which He furnishes: but
Unto Him is the Resurrection.⁵⁵⁷²

۝۱۵- هُوَ الَّذِي جَعَلَ لَكُمُ الْأَرْضَ ذَلُولًا
فَأَمْشُوا فِي مَنَاكِبِهَا
وَكُلُوا مِنْ رِزْقِهِ
وَالْيَوْمِ النَّشُورُ ۝

5569. See n. 3902 to 35:18. Read "unseen" adverbially. To fear the Lord is to love Him so intensely that you fear to do anything which is against His Will, and you do it because you realise Him intensely in your hearts, though you do not see Him with your bodily senses. Nor is it of any consequence whether other people see your love or the consequences that flow from your love, for your good deeds are for the love of Allah and not for show in the eyes of men. Such intensity of love obtains forgiveness for any past, and is indeed rewarded with Allah's love, which is immeasurably precious beyond any merits you may possess.

5571. Dhātul is used in 2:71 for an animal trained and tractable; here it is used to qualify the earth, and I have translated 'manageable'. Man has managed to make paths through deserts and over mountains; through rivers and seas by means of ships; through the air by means of airways; he has made bridges and tunnels and other means of communication. But this he has only been able to do because Allah has given him the necessary intelligence and has made the earth tractable to that intelligence.

5572. In describing Allah's gifts and mercies and watchful care in this our temporary sojourn on this earth, it is made clear that the ultimate end is the Hereafter. The real Beyond, which is the goal, is the life after the Resurrection.

16. Do ye feel secure that
He Who is in Heaven
Will not cause you
To be swallowed up⁵⁵⁷³
By the earth when it
Shakes (as in an earthquake)?

١٦- أَمْ أَمِنْتُمْ مَّنْ فِي السَّمَاءِ

17. Or do ye feel secure
That He Who is in Heaven
Will not send against you
A violent tornado⁵⁵⁷⁴
(With showers of stones),
So that ye shall
Know how (terrible)
Was My warning?

١٧- أَمْ أَمِنْتُمْ مَّنْ فِي السَّمَاءِ
أَنْ يُرْسِلَ عَلَيْكُمْ حَاصِبًا
فَسَتَعْلَمُونَ
كَيْفَ نَذِيرٌ ۝

18. But indeed men before them
Rejected (My warning):
Then how (terrible) was
My rejection (of them)?⁵⁵⁷⁵

١٨- وَلَقَدْ كَذَّبَ الَّذِينَ مِنْ قَبْلِهِمْ
فَكَيْفَ كَانَ نَكِيرٌ ۝

19. Do they not observe
The birds above them,⁵⁵⁷⁶
Spreading their wings
And folding them in?⁵⁵⁷⁷
None can uphold them
Except (Allah) Most Gracious:
Truly it is He
That watches over all things.

١٩- أَوَلَمْ يَرَوْا إِلَى الطَّيْرِ فَوْقَهُمْ
صَفَّتْ وَيَقْبِضْنَ ۚ
وَمَا يُسْكَهِنَّ إِلَّا الرَّحْمَنُ
إِنَّهُ بِكُلِّ شَيْءٍ بَصِيرٌ ۝

5573. Cf. 17:68 and n. 2263. Also Cf. the story of Qārūn in 28:76-82. If we feel safe on land, it is because Allah has made this earth amenable, manageable and serviceable to us (verse 15 above). But if we defy Allah and break His Law, have we any security, that even this comparatively unimportant safety in a fleeting world will last? Looking at it from a purely physical point of view, have there not been dreadful earthquakes, typhoons, and tornadoes?

5574. Cf. 17:68; and 29:40, n. 3462. Such a violent wind destroyed the wicked Cities which defied Lūt's warning.

5576. The flight of birds is one of the most beautiful and wonderful things in nature. The make and arrangement of their feathers and bones, and their streamlined shapes, from beak to tail, are instances of purposive adaptation. They soar with outstretched wings; they dart about with folded wings; their motions upwards and downwards, as well as their stabilisation in the air, and when they rest on their feet, have given many ideas to man in the science and art of aeronautics. But who taught or gave to birds this wonderful adaptation? None but Allah, Whose infinite Mercy provides for every creature just those conditions which are best adapted for its life.

5577. In the Arabic, there is an artistic touch which it is not possible to reproduce in the translation. Sāffāt (spreading their wings) is in the form of the active participle, suggesting the continuous soaring on outspread wings; while yaqbiḍna (folding them in) is in the Aorist form, suggesting the spasmodic flapping of wings.

20. Nay, who is there
That can help you,
(Even as) an army,⁵⁵⁷⁸
Besides (Allah) Most Merciful?
In nothing but delusion
Are the Unbelievers.

٢٠- اَمَّنْ هَذَا الَّذِي هُوَ جُنْدٌ لَكُمْ
يَنْصُرُكُمْ مِنْ دُونِ الرَّحْمَنِ
اِنَّ الْكَافِرُونَ اِلَّا فِي غُرُورٍ

21. Or who is there
That can provide you⁵⁵⁷⁹
With Sustenance if He
Were to withhold His provision?
Nay, they obstinately persist
In insolent impiety
And flight (from the Truth).

٢١- اَمَّنْ هَذَا الَّذِي يَرْزُقُكُمْ
اِنْ اَمْسَكَ رِزْقَهُ
بَلْ لَجُّوا فِي عُتُوٍّ وَنُفُوْرٍ

22. Is then one who
Walks headlong, with his face⁵⁵⁸⁰
Groveling, better guided —
Or one who walks⁵⁵⁸¹
Evenly on a Straight Way?

٢٢- اَفَمَنْ يَتَّبِعْ مِكْبًا عَلَى وَجْهِهِ
اَهْدَى اَمَّنْ يَسْتَقِيْمًا
عَلَى صِرَاطٍ مُسْتَقِيْمٍ

23. Say: "It is He Who⁵⁵⁸²
Has created you (and made⁵⁵⁸³
You grow), and made
For you the faculties
Of hearing, seeing,
Feeling and understanding:
Little thanks it is ye give.

٢٣- قُلْ هُوَ الَّذِي اَنْشَاَكُمْ
وَجَعَلَ لَكُمْ
السَّمْعَ وَالْاَبْصَارَ وَالْاَفْئِدَةَ
قَلِيْلًا مَّا تَشْكُرُوْنَ

24. Say: "It is He Who
Has multiplied you

٢٤- قُلْ هُوَ الَّذِي ذَرَاَكُمْ

5578. Not the greatest army that man can muster is of any use against the Wrath of Allah: while the constant watchful care of Allah is all-in-all to us, and we can never do without it. If the godless wander about in search for blessings otherwise than in the Mercy and Grace of Allah, they are wandering in vain delusions.

5579. "Sustenance" here, as elsewhere, (e.g., in 16:73, n. 2105), refers to all that is necessary to sustain and develop life in all its phases, spiritual and mental, as well as physical. Allah Most Gracious is the Source of all our Sustenance, and if we persist in looking to Vanities for our Sustenance, we are pursuing a mirage, and, if we examine the matter, we are only following obstinate impulses of rebellion and impiety.

5580. Cf. 27:90, and n. 3320. The man of probity is the man who walks evenly on a Straight Way, his feet guided by Allah's Light and his heart sustained by Allah's Mercy. The man who chooses evil grovels, with his face down, in paths of Darkness, stumbling on the way, and in constant distrust and fear, the fear of Evil. The two kinds of men are poles apart, although they live on the same earth, see the same Signs, and are fed with the same Mercies from Allah.

5581. Like Abraham trying to guide his unbelieving father: Cf. 19:43.

5582. The Teacher is asked to draw constant attention to Allah, the source of all growth and development, the Giver of the faculties by which we can judge and attain to higher and higher spiritual dignity. And yet, such is our self-will, we use our faculties for wrong purposes and thus show our ingratitude to Allah.

5583. For anshā' see n. 923 to 6:98.

Through the earth,⁵⁵⁸⁴

25. They ask: When will

27. At length, when they
See it close at hand,⁵⁵⁸⁷
Grieved will be the faces
Of the Unbelievers,
And it will be said

(The promise fulfilled),⁵⁵⁸⁸

5584. Mankind, from one set of parents, has been multiplied and scattered through the earth. Men have not only multiplied in numbers, but they have developed different languages and characteristics, inner and outer. But they will all be gathered together at the End of Things, when the mischief created by the wrong exercise of man's will will be cancelled, and the Truth of Allah will reign universally.

5585. The Unbelievers are sceptical, but they are answered in the next two verses.

5586. The Judgement is certain to come. But when it will exactly come, is known to Allah alone. The Prophet's duty is to proclaim that fact openly and clearly. It is not for him to punish or to hasten the punishment of evil. Cf. 22:47-49.

5587. "It", i.e., the fulfilment of the promise, the Day of Judgement. When it is actually in sight, then the Unbelievers realise that those whom they used to laugh at for their Faith were in the right, and that they themselves, the sceptics, were terribly in the wrong.

5588. They had defiantly asked for it. Now that it has come near, and it is too late for repentance, there is "weeping and gnashing of teeth".

5589. The sceptics might say and do say to the righteous: "Ah well! if calamities come, they involve the good with the bad, just as you say that Allah showers His mercies on both good and evil!" The answer is: "Don't you worry about us: even supposing we are destroyed, with all who believe with us, is that any consolation to you? Your sins must bring on you suffering, and nothing can ward it off. If we get any sorrows or sufferings, we take them as a mere trial to make us better, for we believe in Allah's goodness and we put our trust in Him." See next verse.

The Unbelievers from

Most Gracious: we have Believed in Him,
And on Him have we
Put our trust:
So, soon will ye know⁵⁵⁹⁰

30. Say: "See ye?—
If your stream be

(In the underground earth),
Who then can supply you
With clear-flowing water?"

۲۹- قُلْ هُوَ الرَّحْمَنُ أَمَّنَّا بِهِ

۳۰- قُلْ أَرَأَيْتُمْ

إِنْ أَصْبَحَ مَاؤُكُمْ غَوْرًا

فَمَنْ يَأْتِيكُمْ بِمَاءٍ مَعِينٍ ۝

5590. See the end of the last note. "Our Faith tells us that Allah will deliver us from all harm if we sincerely repent and lead righteous lives. You, Unbelievers, have no such hope. When the real adjustment of values is established, you will soon see whether we were in the wrong or you!"

5591. The Sūrah is closed with a parable, taken from a vital fact of our physical life, and leading up to the understanding of our spiritual life. In our daily life, what would happen if we woke up some fine morning to find that the sources and springs of our water supply had disappeared and gone down into the hollows of the earth? Nothing could save our life. Without water we cannot live, and water cannot rise above its level, but always seeks a lower level. So in spiritual life. Its sources and springs are in the divine wisdom that flows from on high. Allah is the real source of that life, as He is of all forms of life. We must seek His Grace and Mercy. We cannot find grace or mercy or blessing from anything lower. His Wisdom and Mercy are like fresh clear-flowing spring water, not like the muddy murky wisdom and goodness of this lower world which is only relative, and which often hampers life rather than advances it.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRAH 68—AL QALAM

This is a very early Makkan revelation. The general opinion of Muslim Commentary is that a great part of it was second in order of revelation, the first being S. 96: (Iqra'), verses 1-5: see Itqān. Chapter 7.

The last Sūrah having defined the true Reality in contrast with the false standards set up by men, this illustrates the theme by an actual historical example. Our Holy Prophet was the sanest and wisest of men: those who could not understand him called him mad or possessed. So, in every age, it is the habit of the world to call Truth Falsehood and Wisdom Madness, and, on the other hand, to exalt Selfishness as Planning, and Arrogance as Power. The contrast is shown up between the two kinds of men and their real inner worth.

Summary—Let the good carry on their work, in spite of the abuse of the Companions of Evil: let all remember Allah, before Whom all men are on trial (68:1-33, and C. 247).

True Judgement comes from Allah, and not from the false standards of men (68:34-52, and C. 248).

C. 247. — The Pen is the symbol of the permanent Record,
 (68:1-33.) The written Decree, the perfect Order
 In the government of the world. And by that token,
 The man of Allah comes with a Plan
 And Guidance that must win against
 All detraction. Truth is high above Slander.
 But men must be tried against selfishness
 And overweening confidence in themselves
 Such as would lead them to forget Allah
 And His providence—like the brothers who built
 Castles in the air about their garden
 And found it desolate in one night's storm.
 But repentance brought them forgiveness:
 Thus work the Wrath and the Mercy of Allah.

Sūrah 68.

Al Qalam (The Pen), or *Nūn*⁵⁵⁹²

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

4. And thou (standest)
On an exalted standard
Of character.

5. Soon wilt thou see,⁵⁵⁹⁶
And they will see,

6. Which of you is
Afflicted with madness.

5592. Nūn is an Abbreviated Letter: see Appendix I at the end of S. 2.

Nūn may mean a fish, or an ink holder, or it may be just the Arabic letter of the alphabet, N. In the last case, it may refer to either or both of the other meanings. Note also that the Arabic rhyme in this Sūrah ends in N. The reference to ink would be an appropriate link with the Pen in verse 1. The reference to the fish would be appropriate with reference to the story of Jonah in verses 48-50. Jonah's title is "the Companion of the Fish", (Dhu al Nūn, 21:87), as he was, in the story, swallowed by the Fish. The letter N could also symbolically represent Jonah in the Arabic form Yūnus, where the characteristic "Firm Letter" is N. (R).

5592-A. See note above.

5593. The Pen and the Record are the symbolical foundations of the Revelation to man. The adjuration by the Pen disposes of the flippant charge that Allah's Messenger was mad or possessed. For he spoke words of power, not incoherent, but full of meaning, and through the Record of the Pen, that meaning unfolds itself, in innumerable aspects to countless generations. Muḥammad was the living Grace and Mercy of Allah, and his very nature exalted him above abuse and persecution. (R).

5595. Instead of being out of his right mind, the Prophet of Allah had been raised to a great spiritual dignity, a reward that was not like an earthly reward that passes away, but one that was in the very core of his being, and would never fail him in any circumstances. He was really granted a nature and character far above the shafts of grief or suffering, slander or persecution.

5596. Though Al Muṣṭafā's nature raised him above the petty spite of his contemporaries, an appeal is made to their reason and to the logic of events. Was it not his accusers that were really mad? What happened to Walīd ibn Muḡhayrah, or Abū Jahl, or Abū Lahab?—and to Allah's Messenger and those who followed his guidance? The world's history gives the answer. And the appeal is not only to his contemporaries, but for all time.

5597. Men set up false standards of judgement. The right standard is that of Allah. For His Knowledge is complete and all-embracing; He reads hidden motives as well as things that appear before men's sight; and He knows the past history in which the roots of present actions are embedded, as well as the future consequences of present actions.

5598. The enemies of Allah's truth are sometimes self-deceived. But quite often they have a glimmering of the truth in spite of their desire to shut their eyes. Then they compromise, and they would like the preachers of inconvenient truths to compromise with them. On those terms there would be mutual laudation. This easy path of making the best of both worlds is a real danger or temptation to the best of us, and we must be on our guard against it if we would really enter into the company of the Righteous who submit their wills to the Will of Allah. Abū Jahl freely offered impossible compromises to the Holy Prophet.

5599. The type of each of these hateful qualities is not uncommon, though the combination of all in one man makes him peculiarly despicable, as was Walid ibn Mughayrah, who was a ringleader in calumniating our Prophet and who came to an evil end not long after the battle of Badr, in which he received injuries.

5600. It is only liars who swear on all occasions, small or great, because their ordinary word is not believed in. The true man's word, according to the proverb, is as good as his bond.

5601. Besides the self-deceiver and the easy-going man, there is a third type, even more degraded. He has no idea of truth or sincerity. He is ready to swear friendship with everyone and fidelity to every cause. But at the same moment he will slander and backbite, and cause mischief even between good but credulous persons. Evil seems to be his good, and good his evil. He will not only pursue evil courses himself but prevent other people from doing right. When checked, he resorts to violence. In any case, he will intrude where he has no right, claiming relationship or power or consideration in circles which would gladly disown him. He is vain of his wealth or because he has a large following at his beck and call. Religion is to him merely old-fashioned superstition.

14. Because⁵⁶⁰² he possesses

15. When to him are rehearsed

16. Soon shall We brand

١٦- سَنَسِفُهُ عَلَىٰ الْخُرْطُومِ ۝

17. Merily We have tried them
As We tried the People
Of the Garden,⁵⁶⁰⁶
When they resolved to gather
The fruits of the (garden)
In the morning,

١٧- إِنَّا بَلَوْنَهُمْ كَمَا بَلَوْنَا أَصْحَابَ

إِذْ أَقْسَمُوا لَيَصْرِمُنَّهَا مُصْبِحِينَ ۝

18. But made no reservation,

١٨- وَلَا يَسْتَنْوُونَ ۝

19. Then there came
On the (garden)

١٩- فَطَافَ عَلَيْهَا ۝

5602. Because may connect with heed not in verse 10, or with violent and cruel in verse 13. In the former case, we construe: 'Pay no attention to despicable men of the character described, simply because they happen to have wealth or influence, or much backing in manpower'. In the latter case, we construe: the fellow is violent and cruel, because he is puffed up with his wealth or riches or backing in manpower'. In the eyes of Allah such a man is in any case branded and marked out as a sinner.

5603. Allah's Signs, by which He calls us, are everywhere—in nature and in our very heart and soul. In Revelation, every verse is a Sign, for it stands symbolically for far more than it says. "Sign" (Āyah) thus becomes a technical term for a verse of the Qur'ān.

5604. Cf. 6:25.

5605. Literally, proboscis, the most sensitive limb of the elephant. The sinner makes himself a beast and can only be controlled by his snout.

5606. "Why do the wicked flourish?" is a question asked in all ages. The answer is not simple. It must refer to (1) the choice left to man's will, (2) his moral responsibility, (3) the need of his tuning his will to Allah's Will, (4) the long-suffering quality of Allah, which allows the widest possible chance for the operation of (5) His Mercy, and (6) in the last resort, to the nature of spiritual Punishment, which is not a merely abrupt or arbitrary act, but a long, gradual process, in which there is room for repentance at every stage. All these points are illustrated in the remarkable Parable of the People of the Garden, which also illustrates the greed, selfishness, and heedlessness of man, as well as his tendency to throw the blame on others if he can but think of a scapegoat. All these foibles are shown, but the Mercy of Allah is boundless, and even after the worst sins and punishments, there may be hope of an even better orchard than the one lost, if only the repentance is true, and there is complete surrender to Allah's Will. But if, in spite of all this, there is no surrender of the will, then, indeed, the punishment in the Hereafter is something incomparably greater than the little calamities in the Parable.

5607. We must always remember, in all our plans, that they depend for their success on how far they accord with Allah's Will and Plan. His universal Will is supreme over all affairs. These foolish men had a secret plan to defraud the poor of their just rights, but they were put into a position where they could not do so. In trying to frustrate others, they were themselves frustrated.

(Which swept away) all around,

By the morning, like
A dark and desolate spot,
(Whose fruit had been gathered).

۲۰- فَاصْبَحَتْ كَالضَّرِيمِ ۝

21. As the morning broke,
They called out,
One to another—

۲۱- فَتَنَادُوا مُصْبِحِينَ ۝

22. "Go ye to your tilth
(Betimes) in the morning,⁵⁶⁰⁹
If ye would gather
The fruits."

۲۲- اِن اَعْدُوا عَلَىٰ حَرْثِكُمْ
اِنْ كُنْتُمْ صٰرِمِينَ ۝

23. So they departed, conversing
In secret low tones, (saying) —

۲۳- فَانْطَلَقُوا وَهُمْ يَتَخَفَتُونَ ۝

24. "Let not a single indigent⁵⁶¹⁰
Person break in upon you
Into the (garden) this day."

۲۴- اِنْ لَا يَدْخُلْنَهَا الْيَوْمَ عَلَيْكُمْ

25. And they opened the morning,
Strong in an (unjust) resolve.

۲۵- وَاعْدُوا عَلَىٰ حَرْثٍ قٰدِرِينَ ۝

26. But when they saw
The (garden), they said:
"We have surely lost our way:⁵⁶¹¹

۲۶- فَلَمَّا رَاَوْهَا
قَالُوا اِنَّا لَضَالُّونَ ۝

27. "Indeed we are shut out
(Of the fruits of our labour)!"⁵⁶¹²

۲۷- بَلْ لَّحْنُ مَحْرُومُونَ ۝

5608. It was a terrible storm that blew down and destroyed the fruits and the trees. The whole place was changed out of all recognition.

5609. Awakening from sleep, they were not aware that the garden had been destroyed by the storm overnight. They were in their own selfish dreams: by going very early, they thought they could cheat the poor of their share. See next note.

5610. The poor man has a right in the harvest—whether as a gleaner or as an artisan or a menial in an Eastern village. The rich owners of the orchard in the Parable wanted to steal a march at an early hour and defeat this right, but their greed was punished, so that it led to a greater loss to themselves. They wanted to cheat but had not the courage to face those they cheated, and by being in the field before anyone was up they wanted to make it appear to the world that they were unconscious of any rights they were trampling on.

5611. Their fond dreams were dispelled when they found that the garden had been changed out of all recognition. It was as if they had come to some place other than their own smiling garden. Where they had expected to reap a rich harvest, there was only a howling wilderness. They reflected. Their first thought was of their own personal loss, the loss of their labour and the loss of their capital. They had plotted to keep out others from the fruits: now, as it happened, the loss was their own.

5612. Cf. 56:67. Also see last note.

28. Said one of them,
More just (than the rest):⁵⁶¹³
"Did I not say to you,
'Why not glorify (Allah)?'"

٢٨- قَالَ أَوْسَطُهُمْ
أَلَمْ أَقُلْ لَكُمْ لَوْلَا تُسَبِّحُونَ ۝

29. They said: "Glory
To our Lord! Verily we
Have been doing wrong!"

٢٩- قَالُوا سُبْحَنَ رَبِّنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا ظَالِمِينَ ۝

30. Then they turned, one
Against another, in reproach.⁵⁶¹⁴

٣٠- فَأَقْبَلَ بَعْضُهُمْ عَلَى بَعْضٍ يَتَلَامَى ۝

31. They said: "Alas for us!
We have indeed transgressed!"

٣١- قَالُوا يَوَيْلَنَا إِنَّا كُنَّا ظَالِمِينَ ۝

32. "It may be that our Lord
Will give us in exchange
A better (garden) than this:
For we do turn to Him
(In repentance)!"⁵⁶¹⁵

٣٢- عَلَى رَبِّنَا أَنْ يُبَدِّلَنَا خَيْرًا مِنْهَا
إِنَّا إِلَى رَبِّنَا رَاغِبُونَ ۝

33. Such is the Punishment
(In this life); but greater
Is the Punishment⁵⁶¹⁶
In the Hereafter—
If only they knew!

٣٣- كَذَلِكَ الْعَذَابُ
وَلَعَذَابُ الْآخِرَةِ أَكْبَرُ
لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ ۝

قَالَ

C. 248. — To evil and good there can never be the same
(68:34-52.) End: no authority can the unjust produce
For their false imaginings. In shame
Will they realise this on the Day when all
Illusions will vanish and they find that the time
For repentance is past. The good man should wait

5613. This was not necessarily a righteous man, but there are degrees in guilt. He had warned them, but he had joined in their unjust design.

5614. When greed or injustice is punished people are ready to throw the blame on others. In this case, one particular individual may have seen the moral guilt of defying the Will of Allah and the right of man, but if he shared in the enterprise in the hope of profit, he could not get out of all responsibility.

5615. If the repentance was true, there was hope. For Allah often turns a great evil to our good. If not true, they only added hypocrisy to their other sins.

The Parable presupposes that the garden came into the possession of selfish men, who were so puffed up with their good fortune that they forgot Allah. That meant that they also became harsh to their fellow-creatures. In their arrogance they plotted to get up early and defeat the claims of the poor at harvest time. They found their garden destroyed by a storm. Some reproached others, but those who sincerely repented obtained mercy. The "better garden" may have been the same garden, flourishing in a future season under Allah's gift of abundance.

5616. Even in this life the punishment for heedless or selfish arrogance and sin comes suddenly when we least expect it. But there is always room for Allah's Mercy if we sincerely repent. If the Punishment in this life seems to us so stupefying, how much worse will it be in the Hereafter, when the Punishment will not be only for a limited time, and the time for repentance will have passed?

And should never lose patience, even though
 Things go dead against him. Jonah suffered
 In agony, but his sincere repentance
 Brought him the grace of his Lord, and he Joined the company of the Righteous:
 For Truth is firm and unshaken, is calm
 And works good, through all Allah's Creation.

SECTION 2.

34. Merily, for the Righteous,
 Are Gardens of Delight,⁵⁶¹⁷
 In the Presence
 Of their Lord.

۳۴- إِنَّ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ
 جَنَّاتٍ التَّعْلِيمِ ۝

35. Shall We then treat
 The People of Faith
 Like the People of Sin?⁵⁶¹⁸

۳۵- أَفَجَعَلُ الْمُسْلِمِينَ كَالْجُرْمِ ۝

36. What is the matter
 With you? How judge ye?

۳۶- مَا لَكُمْ كَيْفَ تَحْكُمُونَ ۝

37. Or have ye a Book
 Through which ye learn —

۳۷- أَمْ لَكُمْ كِتَابٌ فِيهِ تَدْرُسُونَ ۝

38. That ye shall have,
 Through it whatever
 Ye choose?⁵⁶¹⁹

۳۸- إِنْ لَكُمْ فِيهِ لَمَا تَخَيَّرُونَ ۝

39. Or have ye Covenants
 With Us on oath,⁵⁶²⁰

۳۹- أَمْ لَكُمْ أَيْمَانٌ عَلَيْنَا

5618. The spiritual arrogance which rejects faith in Allah is perhaps the worst Sin, because it makes itself impervious to the Mercy of Allah, as a bed of clay is impervious to the absorption of water. It sets up its own standards and its own will, but how can it measure or bind the Will of Allah? It sets up its own fetishes — idols, priests, gods, or godlings. The fetishes may be even God-given gifts or faculties. Intellect or Science, if pushed up to the position of idols. If they are made rivals to Allah, question them: Will they solve Allah's mysteries, or even the mysteries of Life and Soul?

5619. It is clearly against both logic and justice that men of righteousness should have the same End as men of sin. Even in this life, man cannot command whatever he chooses, though he is allowed a limited freedom of choice. How can he expect such a thing under a reign of perfect Justice and Truth?

5620. Nor can the Pagans plead that they have any special Covenants with Allah which give them a favoured position above other morals. The "Chosen Race" idea of the Jews is also condemned. It is quite true that a certain race or group, on account of special aptitude may be chosen by Allah to uphold His truth and preach it. But this is conditional on their following Allah's Law. As soon as they become arrogant and selfish, they lose that position. They cannot have a perpetual and unconditional lease till the Day of Judgement.

Reaching to the Day
Of Judgement, (providing)
That ye shall have
Whatever ye shall demand?

بَالِغَةً إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَمَةِ
إِنَّ لَكُمْ لَمَا تَسْكُونُ ۝

40. Ask thou of them,
Which of them will stand
Surety for that!

۴۰- سَأَلُهُمْ أَتَيْتُمْ بِذَلِكَ زَعِيمٌ ۝

41. Or have they some
"Partners" (in Godhead)?⁵⁶²¹
Then let them produce
Their "partners"
If they are truthfull!

۴۱- أَمْ لَهُمْ شُرَكَاءُ ۚ
فَلْيَأْتُوا بِشُرَكَائِهِمْ إِنْ كَانُوا صَادِقِينَ ۝

42. The Day that the Shin⁵⁶²²
Shall be laid bare,
And they shall be summoned
To bow in adoration,
But they shall not be able—

۴۲- يَوْمَ يُكْشَفُ عَنْ سَاقٍ
وَيُذْعَنُ إِلَى السُّجُودِ
فَلَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ ۝

43. Their eyes will be⁵⁶²³
Cast down—ignominy will Cover them; seeing that
They had been summoned
Aforetime to bow in adoration,
While they were whole,⁵⁶²⁴
(And had refused).

۴۳- خَاشِعَةً أَبْصَارُهُمْ تَرْهُقُهُمْ ذِلَّةٌ
وَقَدْ كَانُوا يُذْعَنُونَ إِلَى السُّجُودِ
وَهُمْ سَالِمُونَ ۝

44. Then leave Me⁵⁶²⁵ alone
With such as reject
This Message: by degrees
Shall We punish them

۴۴- فَذَرْنِي وَمَنْ يُكَذِّبُ بِهَذَا الْحَدِيثِ
سَنَنْتَدْرِجُهُمْ

5621. "Partners" in Godhead: as in the doctrine of the Trinity, or indeed in any form of polytheism. Such a doctrine destroys the cardinal doctrine of the Unity of Allah.

5622. The Day that the Shin shall be laid bare, that is, when men are confronted with the stark reality of the Day of Judgement. On that occasion men will be summoned to adoration, not necessarily in words, but by the logic of facts, when the Reality will be fully manifest: the Glory will be too dazzling for the Unbelievers, whose past deliberate refusal, when they had freedom to choose, and yet rejected, will stand in their way. (R).

5623. Their past memories, combined with their present position, will then fill them with a sense of the deepest dismay and humiliation. See last note.

5624. Sālimūn: whole, in full possession of the power of judgement and will; not constrained, as they now will be, by the Punishment staring them full in the face.

5625. Notice the transition between "Me" and "We" in this verse, and again to "I" and "My" in the next verse. The first person plural ordinarily used in the Holy Qur'ān as Allah's Word, is the plural of respect. In Royal decrees the first person plural is similarly used. When the first person singular is used, it marks some special personal relation, either of Mercy or favours (as in 2:38 or 2:150) or of punishment, as here. (Cf. n. 56 to 2:38).

From directions they perceive not.⁵⁶²⁶

مِنْ حَيْثُ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ ۝

45. A (long) respite will I
Grant them: truly
Powerful is My Plan.

٢٥- وَأَمْلِي لَهُمْ ۝
إِن كَيْدِي مَتِينٌ ۝

46. Or is it that thou dost
Ask them for a reward,⁵⁶²⁷
So that they are burdened
With a load of debt?—

٢٦- أَمْ تَسْأَلُهُمْ أَجْرًا
فَهُمْ مِنْ مَّعْرَمٍ فَتَقْلُونَ ۝

47. Or that the Unseen⁵⁶²⁸
Is in their hands, so that
They can write it down?

٢٧- أَمْ عِنْدَهُمُ الْغَيْبُ فَمُمْ يَكْتُبُونَ ۝

48. So wait with patience
For the Command
Of thy Lord, and be not
Like the Companion⁵⁶²⁹
Of the Fish—when he
Cried out in agony.

٢٨- فَاصْبِرْ بِحُكْمِ رَبِّكَ
وَلَا تَكُنْ كَصَاحِبِ الْحُوتِ ۝
إِذْ نَادَىٰ وَهُوَ مَكْظُومٌ ۝

49. Had not Grace
From His Lord
Reached him, he
Would indeed have been
Cast off on the naked⁵⁶³⁰
Shore, in disgrace.

٢٩- لَوْلَا أَن تَدْرَكُهُ
نِعْمَةٌ مِّن رَّبِّهِ
لَنُبِذَ بِالْعَرَاءِ وَهُوَ مَذْمُومٌ ۝

5626. Cf. 7:182. and n. 1154-A. We must not be impatient if we see the wicked flourish. It may be that the very appearance of flourishing here may be a part of the Punishment. There may be an eventual punishment by a sort of Cataclysm; but evolutionary punishment is gradual and sure. Allah may punish wicked people by granting them respite and providing them worldly benefits in abundance, which encourages them in sin and transgression. So when they are finally seized by the Wrath of Allah they are caught suddenly and utterly unprepared, as it were, red-handed while engrossed in disbelief, a life of impiety and open revolt against their Lord! (R).

5627. Cf. 52:40 n. 5074. It costs the Unbelievers nothing to hear the Preacher, for the Preacher asks for no reward, and indeed suffers for their benefit. The Preacher need not look even for appreciation or conversions. Al Mustafā is addressed in the first instance, but there is always a universal interpretation. The righteous man asks for no reward for his preaching or example: if he did, the value would be too great for the world to pay for. The Unbelievers behave as if they had the secret of the Unseen, but they are empty triflers, for, if they only tried to formulate spiritual laws, they would fail.

5628. Cf. 52:41, n. 5075. The Unseen is certainly not within their knowledge or control. If it were, they could clearly write it down for their own guidance or the guidance of others. They should listen to the words of inspiration, sent by the Knower of all things.

5629. This was Dhu al Nūn, or Jonah, for whom see n. 2744 to 21:87-88. Cf. also 37:139-148 and the notes there. Jonah was asked to preach to the people of Nineveh, a wicked city. He met with hostility and persecution, fled from his enemies, and took a boat. He was caught in a storm and thrown into the sea. He was swallowed by a fish or whale, but he repented in his living prison, and was forgiven. But the people of Nineveh were also forgiven, for they, too, repented. Here is a double allegory of Allah's mercy and forgiveness, and a command to patience, and complete and joyful submission to the Will of Allah.

5630. Cf. 37:145-146, and n. 4126.

50. Thus did his Lord⁵⁶³¹
Choose him and make him
Of the company
Of the Righteous.⁵⁶³²

٥٠- فَاجْتَبَيْنَاهُ رَبُّهُ
فَجَعَلْنَاهُ مِنَ الصَّالِحِينَ ۝

51. And the Unbelievers
Would almost trip thee up⁵⁶³³
With their eyes when they Hear the Message; and they Say: "Surely he is possessed!"

٥١- وَإِنْ يَكَادُ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَيُزْلِقُونَكَ
بِأَبْصَارِهِمْ لَمَّا سَمِعُوا الذِّكْرَ
وَيَقُولُونَ إِنَّهُ لَمَجْنُونٌ ۝

52. But it is nothing less
Than a Message⁵⁶³⁴
To all the worlds.

٥٢- وَمَا هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ لِلْعَالَمِينَ ۝

5631. Jonah was chosen by Allah's Grace and Mercy to be Allah's Prophet to Niheveh. If in his human frailty he lost a little patience, he suffered his punishment, but his true and sincere repentance and recognition of Allah's goodness and mercy restored him from his physical and mental distress, and from the obscurity of the spiritual Light in him.

5632. Cf. 4:69, n. 586. In the beautiful Fellowship of the Righteous there is room for all, of every grade of spiritual advancement, from the highest to the most ordinary. But, as in democratic politics every citizen's rights and status have complete recognition, so, in the spiritual Fellowship, the badge of Righteousness is the bond, even though there may be higher degrees of knowledge or experience.

5633. The eyes of evil men look at a good man as if they would "eat him up", or trip him up or disturb him from his position of stability or firmness. They use all sorts of terms of abuse—"madman" or "one possessed by an evil spirit", and so on. Cf. 68:2 above, and n. 5594. But the good man is unmoved, and takes his even course. The Message of Allah is true and will endure, and it is a Message to all Creation.

5634. This is the extreme antithesis to madness or demoniacal possession. So far from the Holy Prophet uttering words disjointed or likely to harm people, he was bringing the Message of true Reality, which was to be cure of all evil, in every kind of world. For the different kinds of worlds see n. 20 to 1:2.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRAH 69—HĀQQAH

This Sūrah belongs to the early middle period of Makkan Revelation. The eschatological argument is pressed home: 'the absolute Truth cannot fail; it must prevail; therefore be not lured by false appearances in this life; it is Revelation that points to the sure and certain Reality.

C. 249. — In this fleeting world few things are what (69:1-52.) They seem. What then is sure Reality?
 Nations and men in the past assumed
 Arrogance and perished because they were unjust,
 But that destruction was but a foretaste
 Of the Doom to come in the Hereafter, when all
 Creation will be on a new plane, and true values
 Will be fully established: to the Righteous
 Will be Bliss, and to Evil, Punishment.
 The Word of Revelation is not a Poet's
 Imagination or a Soothsayer's groping
 Into the future. It is Allah's own Message,
 Of Mercy to the Righteous, and warning
 To those who reject the Truth. Praise
 And Glory to the name of Allah Most High!

Sūrah 69.

Al Ḥaqqah (The Sure Reality)

الجزء التاسع والعشرون سُورَةُ الْحَاقَّةِ

*In the Name of Allah, Most Gracious
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. The Sure Reality!⁵⁶³⁵

١- الْحَاقَّةُ ۞

2. What is the Sure Reality?

٢- مَا الْحَاقَّةُ ۞

3. And what will make
Thee realise what
The Sure Reality is?

٣- وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْحَاقَّةُ ۞

4. The Thamūd⁵⁶³⁶
And the 'Ad people
(Branded) as false
The Stunning Calamity!⁵⁶³⁷٤- كَذَّبَتْ ثَمُودُ وَعَادٌ
بِالْقَارِعَةِ ۞5. But the Thamūd —
They were destroyed
By a terrible Storm⁵⁶³⁸
Of thunder and lightning!٥- فَأَمَّا ثَمُودُ فَأُهْلِكُوا
بِالطَّاغِيَةِ ۞6. And the 'Ad — ⁵⁶³⁹
They were destroyed
By a furious Wind,
Exceedingly violent;٦- وَأَمَّا عَادٌ فَأُهْلِكُوا
بِريحٍ صَرْصَرٍ عَاتِيَةٍ ۞7. He made it rage
Against them seven nights
And eight days in succession:٧- سَخَّرَهَا عَلَيْهِمْ
سَبْعَ لَيَالٍ وَثَلَاثَةَ أَيَّامٍ حُسُومًا ۞

5635. Al Ḥaqqah: the sure Truth: the Event that must inevitably come to pass; the state in which all falsehood and pretence will vanish, and the absolute Truth will be laid bare. The question in the three verses raise an air of mystery. The solution is suggested in what happened to the Thamūd and the 'Ad, and other people of antiquity, who disregarded the Truth of Allah and came to violent end, even in this life — symbolically suggesting the great Cataclysm of the Hereafter, the Day of Doom.

5636. For these two peoples of antiquity, see n. 1043 to 7:73, and n. 1040 to 7:65.

5637. Another description of the terrible Day of Judgement. This word Qāri'ah also occurs as the title of S. 101.

5638. The Thamūd were addicted to class arrogance. They oppressed the poor. The prophet Ṣāliḥ preached to them, and put forward a wonderful she-camel as symbol of the rights of the poor, but they hamstrung her. See n. 1044 to 7:73. They were destroyed in a mighty calamity, an earthquake accompanying a terrible thunderstorm.

5639. The 'Ad were an unjust people spoilt by their prosperity. The prophet Hūd preached to them in vain. They were apparently destroyed by a terrible blast of wind. See n. 1040 to 7:65. See also 41:15-16, n. 4483, and 54:19, n. 5144.

So that thou couldst see
The (whole) people lying
Prostrate in its (path),
As if they had been
Roots of hollow palm trees⁵⁶⁴⁰
Tumbled down!

8. Then seest thou any
Of them left surviving?⁵⁶⁴¹

9. And Pharaoh,⁵⁶⁴²
And those before him,⁵⁶⁴³
And the Cities Overthrown,⁵⁶⁴⁴
Committed habitual Sin,

10. And disobeyed (each)
The messenger of their Lord;
So He punished them
With an abundant Penalty.

11. We, when the water
(Of Noah's Flood) overflowed
Beyond its limits,⁵⁶⁴⁵
Carried you (mankind),
In the floating (Ark),

12. That We might
Make it a Message⁵⁶⁴⁶

فَتَرَى الْقَوْمَ فِيهَا صَرْعَىٰ
كَأَنَّهُمْ أَعْجَازٌ مِّنْ خَلِّ خَالِيَةٍ ۝

٨- فَهَلْ تَرَى لَهُمْ مِّنْ بَاقِيَةٍ ۝

٩- وَجَاءَ فِرْعَوْنُ وَمَنْ قَبْلَهُ
وَالْمُؤْتَفِكَةُ بِالْخَاطِئَةِ ۝

١٠- فَعَصَا رَأْسُ رَبِّهِمْ
فَأَخَذَهُمْ أَخْذَةً رَّابِيَةً ۝

١١- إِنَّا لَنَاطِقَاتُ الْمَاءِ
حَمَلْنَاكُمْ فِي الْجَارِيَةِ ۝

١٢- لِنَجْعَلَهَا لَكُمْ تَذْكِرَةً ۝

5640. A graphic simile. Dead men all lying about like hollow trunks of palm trees with their roots exposed! The 'Ād were reputed to be of a tall stature.

5641. The calamity was thorough. The 'Ād were destroyed, and then the Thamūd, and only the tradition of them was left behind. See the references in n. 5636.

5643. If we follow the sequence of peoples whose sins destroyed them, as mentioned in 7:59-158, we begin with Noah, then have the 'Ād, and the Thamūd, then the Cities of the Plain, then Midian, then the people whose prophet was Moses (who occupies a central place in the canvas), and then the Pagan Quraysh, to whom came the last and the greatest of the prophets, our holy Prophet Muhammad. This is the chronological sequence. Here there is no detail, nor even complete mention. But Noah is alluded to last, and the 'Ād and the Thamūd mentioned first, because the latter two belong to Arab tradition, and this is specially addressed to the Pagans of Makkah. Pharaoh is mentioned rather than Moses for the same reason, and any others are "those before Pharaoh".

5644. The Cities Overthrown: Sodom and Gomorrah, Cities of the Plain, to whom Lot preached see 9:70, n. 1330; and 7:80-84, n. 1049.

5645. It was a widespread Flood. Cf. 7:59-64; also 11:25-49. Noah was ridiculed for his preparations for the Flood: see 11:38, n. 1531. But Allah had commanded him to build an Ark, in order that mankind should be saved from perishing in the Flood. But only those of Faith got into the Ark and were saved. As the Ark was built to Allah's command, Allah "carried you (mankind) in the floating (Ark)". (R).

5646. It was a memorial for all time, to show that evil meets with its punishment, but the good are saved by the mercy of Allah.

Shall the (Great) Event
Come to pass, | ۱۵- فَيَوْمَئِذٍ وَقَعَتِ الْوَاقِعَةُ ۝ |
| 16. And the sky will be
Rent asunder, for it will
That Day be flimsy, | ۱۶- وَانْشَقَّتِ السَّمَاءُ فَهِيَ يَوْمَئِذٍ وَاهِيَةٌ ۝ |
| 17. And the angels will be

ثَمَنِيَةٌ ۝ |
| 18. That Day shall ye be
Brought to Judgement: | ۱۸- يَوْمَئِذٍ تُعْرَضُونَ |

5647. Cf. the biblical phrase, "He that hath ears to hear, let him hear" (Matt. xi. 15). But the phrase used here has a more complicated import. An ear may hear, but for want of will in the hearer the hearer may not wish, for the future or for all time, to retain the memory of the lessons he has heard, even though for the time being he was impressed by it. The penetration of the Truth has to be far deeper and subtler, and this is desired here.

5648. We now come to the Inevitable Event, the Day of Judgement, the theme of this Sūrah. This is the first Blast referred to in 39:65, n. 4343.

5649. The whole of our visible world, as we now know it, will pass away, and a new world will come into being. The mountains are specially mentioned, because they stand as a type of hardness, size, and durability. They will be "crushed to powder", i.e., lose their form and being at one stroke.

5650. The whole picture is painted in graphic poetical images, to indicate that which cannot be adequately described in words, and which indeed our human faculties with their present limited powers are not ready to comprehend. The angels will be on all sides, arrayed in ranks upon ranks, and the Throne of the Lord on high will be borne by eight angels (or eight rows of angels). That will be the Day when Justice will be fully established and man be mustered to his Lord for reckoning. (R).

5651. The number eight has perhaps no special significance, unless it be with reference to the shape of the Throne or the number of the angels. The Oriental Throne is often octagonal, and its bearers would be one at each corner. (R).

Not an act of yours
That ye hide will be hidden.

لَا تَخْفَى مِنْكُمْ خَافِيَةٌ ۝

19. Then he that will be Given his Record
In his right hand⁵⁶⁵²
Will say: "Ah here!
Read ye my Record!

۱۹- فَأَمَّا مَنْ أُوتِيَ كِتَابَهُ بِيَمِينِهِ ۖ
فَيَقُولُ هَآؤُمُ اقْرَءُوا كِتَابِيهِ ۝

20. "I did really understand⁵⁶⁵³
That my Account would
(One Day) reach me!"

۲۰- إِنِّي ظَنَنْتُ أَنِّي مُلِقٌ حِسَابِيهِ ۝

21. And he will be
In a life of Bliss,

۲۱- فَهُوَ فِي عِيشَةٍ رَاضِيَةٍ ۝

22. In a Garden on high,

۲۲- فِي جَنَّةٍ عَالِيَةٍ ۝

23. The Fruits whereof⁵⁶⁵⁴
(Will hang in bunches)
Low and near.

۲۳- تَطُوفُهَا دَانِيَةٌ ۝

24. "Eat ye and drink ye,
With full satisfaction;
Because of the (good)
That ye sent before you,⁵⁶⁵⁵
In the days that are gone!"⁵⁶⁵⁶

۲۴- كُلُوا وَاشْرَبُوا هَنِيئًا
بِمَا أَسْلَفْتُمْ فِي الْأَيَّامِ الْخَالِيَةِ ۝

25. And he that will
Be given his Record
In his left hand,⁵⁶⁵⁷

۲۵- وَأَمَّا مَنْ أُوتِيَ كِتَابَهُ بِشِمَالِهِ ۖ

5652. Cf. 18:71, where the righteous are described as those who are given their record in their right hand at Judgement. In 56:27, 38, and other passages, the righteous are called "Companions of the Right Hand".

5653. The righteous one rejoices that the faith he had during this world's life was fully justified, and is now actually realised before him. He quite understood and believed that good and evil must meet with their due consequences in the Hereafter, however much appearances may have been against it in the life in the lower world, "in the days that are gone."

5654. The symbolism is that of ripe, luscious grapes, hanging low in heavy bunches, so near that they could be gathered and enjoyed in dignified ease. Cf. also 6:54; 76:14.

5655. Cf. 2:110: "Whatever good ye send forth for your souls before you, ye shall find it with Allah: for Allah sees well all that ye do."

5656. It will be a wholly new world, a new earth and a new heaven, when the blessed might well think with calm relief of "the days that are gone". Cf. 14:48, and n. 1925. Even Time and Space will be no more, so that any ideas that we may form here will be found to have become wholly obsolete by them.

5657. This is in contrast to the righteous ones who will receive their record in their right hand. Cf. 69:19, n. 5652. The righteous are glad when they remember their past: their memory is itself a precious possession. The unjust are in agony when they remember their past. Their memory is itself a grievous punishment.

- Will say: "Ah! would
That my record had not
Been given to me!
26. "And that I had never
Realised how
My account (stood)!
27. "Ah! would that (Death)⁵⁶⁵⁸
Had made an end of me!
28. "Of no profit to me
Has been my wealth!
29. "My power has
Perished from me!" . . .⁵⁶⁵⁹
30. (The stern command will say):
"Seize ye him,
And bind ye him,⁵⁶⁶⁰
31. "And burn ye him
In the Blazing Fire.
32. "Further, make him march
In a chain, whereof⁵⁶⁶¹
The length is seventy cubits!
33. "This was he that
Would not believe⁵⁶⁶²
In Allah Most High,
- فَيَقُولُ يَلَيْتَنِي
لَمْ أُوتَ كِتَابِيَهٗ ۝
۲۶- وَلَمْ أَدْرِمَا حِسَابِيَهٗ ۝
۲۷- يَلَيْتَنِي مَا كَانَتْ الْقَاضِيَهٗ ۝
۲۸- مَا أَغْنَىٰ عَنِّي مَالِيَهٗ ۝
۲۹- هَلَكَ عَنِّي سُلْطَانِيَهٗ ۝
۳۰- خُذُوهُ فَغُلُّوهُ ۝
۳۱- ثُمَّ الْجَحِيمَ صَلُّوهُ ۝
۳۲- ثُمَّ فِي سِلْسِلَةٍ
ذَرْعُمَا سَبْعُونَ ذِرَاعًا فَاسْلُكُوهُ ۝
۳۳- إِنَّهُ كَانَ لَا يُؤْمِنُ
بِاللَّهِ الْعَظِيمِ ۝

5658. The death as from this life was but a transition into a new world. They would wish that that death had been the end of all things, but it will not be.

5659. The intensest agony is when the soul loses power over itself, when the personality tries to realise itself in new conditions and cannot: this is life in death.

5660. Perhaps the word for 'bind' should be construed: 'bind his hands round his neck, to remind him that his hands when they were free were closed to all acts of charity and mercy': Cf. 17:29.

5661. The sinful men who will be given their record on the Day of Judgement in their left hands will be in utter despair. Their power and authority which they misused to perpetrate injustice and oppression will be gone. The wealth that had made them turn a deaf ear to the call of truth will be no more. They will cry out in agony. "O would that we were never raised again! O would that death had obliterated us once for all". But these cries will be of no avail. They will be seized, bound in chains and thrown into the Blazing Fire for their crimes against Allah and man. [Eds.].

5662. The grip of sin was fastened on sinners because they forsook Allah. They ran after their own lusts and worshipped them or they ran after Allah's creatures, ignoring Him Who is the cause and source of all good.

34. "And would not encourage⁵⁶⁶³
The feeding of the indigent!

۳۴- وَلَا يَحْضُ عَلَى طَعَامِ الْيَسْكِينِ ۝

35. "So no friend hath he
Here this Day.

۳۵- فَلَيْسَ لَهُ الْيَوْمَ هُنَا حَمِيمٌ ۝

36. "Nor hath he any food
Except the corruption⁵⁶⁶⁴
From the washing of wounds,

۳۶- وَلَا طَعَامٌ
إِلَّا مِنْ غَسَلِينِ ۝

37. "Which none do eat
But those in sin."

۳۷- لَا يَأْكُلُهُ إِلَّا الْخَاطِئُونَ ۝

SECTION 2.

38. So I do
Call to witness⁵⁶⁶⁵
What ye see

۳۸- فَلَا أَقْسَمُ بِمَا تُبْصِرُونَ ۝

39. And what ye see not,

۳۹- وَمَا لَا تُبْصِرُونَ ۝

40. That this is
Verily the word
Of an honoured messenger;⁵⁶⁶⁶

۴۰- إِنَّهُ لَقَوْلُ رَسُولٍ كَرِيمٍ ۝

41. It is not the word
Of a poet;⁵⁶⁶⁷
Little it is
Ye believe!

۴۱- وَمَا هُوَ بِقَوْلِ شَاعِرٍ
قَلِيلًا مَّا تُوْمِنُونَ ۝

5663. Cf. 107:3; 89:18. The practical result of their rebellion against the God of Mercy was that their sympathies dried up. Not only did they not help or feed those in need, but they hindered others from doing so. And they have neither friend nor sympathy (food) in the Hereafter.

5664. They wounded many people by their cruelty and injustice in this life, and it is befitting that they should have no food other than "the corruption from the washing of wounds". (R).

5665. This is an adjuration in the same form as that which occurs in 56:75, 70:40, 90:1, and elsewhere. Allah's Word is the quintessence of Truth. But what if someone doubts whether a particular Messenger is Allah's Word communicated through His Messenger, or merely an imaginary tale presented by a poet, or a soothsayer's vain prophecy? Then we have to examine it in the light of our highest spiritual faculties. The witness to that Word is what we know in the visible world, in which falsehood in the long run gives place to truth, and what we know in the invisible world, through our highest spiritual faculties. We are asked to examine and test it in both these ways.

5666. Honoured messenger: one that is worthy of honour on account of the purity of his life, and may be relied upon not to invent things but to give the true inner experiences of his soul in Revelation.

5667. A poet draws upon his imagination, and the subjective factor is so strong that though we may learn much from him, we cannot believe as facts the wonderful tales he has to tell. And the poet who is not a Seer is merely a vulgar votary of exaggerations and falsehoods.

42. Nor is it the word
Of a soothsayer:⁵⁶⁶⁸
Little admonition it is
Ye receive.
43. (This is) a Message
Sent down from the Lord
Of the Worlds.
44. And if the messenger
Were to invent
Any sayings in Our name,
45. We should certainly seize him
By his right hand,⁵⁶⁶⁹
46. And We should certainly
Then cut off the artery
Of his heart:⁵⁶⁷⁰
47. Nor could any of you
Withhold him⁵⁶⁷¹
(From Our wrath).
48. But verily this
Is a Message for
The God-fearing.
49. And We certainly know
That there are amongst you
Those that reject (it).
50. But truly (Revelation)
Is a cause of sorrow⁵⁶⁷²
For the Unbelievers.

- ٣٢- وَلَا يَقُولُ كَآهِنٌ
قَلِيلًا مَّا تَذَكَّرُونَ ۝
- ٣٣- تَنْزِيلٌ مِّن رَّبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝
- ٣٤- وَلَوْ تَقَوَّلَ عَلَيْنَا بَعْضُ الْأَقَاوِيلِ ۝
- ٣٥- لَأَخَذْنَا مِنْهُ بِالْيَمِينِ ۝
- ٣٦- ثُمَّ لَقَطَعْنَا مِنْهُ الْوَتِينَ ۝
- ٣٧- فَمَا مِنْكُمْ مِّنْ أَحَدٍ عَنْهُ حَاجِزِينَ ۝
- ٣٨- وَإِنَّهُ لَتَذِكْرٌ لِّلْمُتَّقِينَ ۝
- ٣٩- وَإِنَّا لَنَعْلَمُ أَنَّ مِنْكُمْ مُّكَذِّبِينَ ۝
- ٤٠- وَإِنَّهُ لَحَسْرَةٌ عَلَى الْكَافِرِينَ ۝

5668. A soothsayer merely pretends to foretell future events of no profound spiritual consequence. Most of his prophecies are frauds, and none of them is meant to teach lessons of real admonition. Such admonition is the work of an honoured prophet.

5669. The right hand is the hand of power and action. Anyone who is seized by his right hand is prevented from acting as he wishes or carrying out his purpose. The argument is that if an imposter were to arise, he would soon be found out. He could not carry out his fraud indefinitely. But the prophets of Allah, however much they are persecuted, gain more and more power every day, as did the Holy Prophet, whose truth, earnestness, sincerity, and love for all, were recognised as his life unfolded itself. (R).

5670. This would effectually stop the functioning of his life.

5671. The protection which the prophets of Allah enjoy in circumstances of danger and difficulty would not be available for imposters. (R).

5672. The Message of Allah is glad tidings for those who believe in Him and follow His Law, for it is a message of Mercy and Forgiveness through repentance and amendment. But in the case of the wicked it is a cause of sorrow, for it denounces sin and proclaims the punishment of those who do not turn from evil.

51. But verily it is Truth⁵⁶⁷³
Of assured certainty.

٥١- وَإِنَّهُ لَحَقُّ الْيَقِينِ ۝

52. So glorify the name⁵⁶⁷⁴
Of thy Lord Most High.

٥٢- فَسَبِّحْ بِاسْمِ رَبِّكَ الْعَظِيمِ ۝

5673. All Truth is in itself certain. But as received by men, and understood with reference to men's psychology, certainty may have certain degrees. There is the probability or certainty resulting from the application of man's power of judgement and his appraisal of evidence. This is 'ilm al yaqīn, certainty by reasoning or inference. Then there is the certainty of seeing something with our own eyes. "Seeing is believing." This is 'ain al yaqīn, certainty by personal inspection. See 102:5, 7. Then, as here, there is the absolute Truth, with no possibility of error of judgement or error of the eye, (which stands for any instrument of sense-perception and any ancillary aids, such as microscopes, etc.). This absolute Truth is the ḥaqq al yaqīn spoken of here.

5674. As Allah has given us this absolute Truth through His Revelation, it behooves us to understand it and be grateful to Him. We must celebrate His praises in thought, word and deed.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: SŪRAH 70—MA'ĀRIJ

This is another eschatological Sūrah closely connected in subject matter with the last one. Patience and the mystery of Time will show the ways that climb to Heaven. Sin and Goodness must each eventually come to its own.

Chronologically it belongs to the late early or early middle Makkan period, possibly soon after S. 49.

C. 250. — Man can ascend to the Presence of Allah,
 (70:1-44.) But by gradual Ways and in process of Time.
 But what is Time? A Day is as fifty
 Thousand years, on two different planes.
 What seems near is far, and what seems far is near.
 So will be Judgement, when things as we know them
 Will be transformed completely in a world
 All new. Evil will come to its own,
 Whatever its masks in this transitory world,
 And good will surely reach its goal.
 The good life is patient, in prayer
 And well-doing, Faith and the earnest search
 For the Good Pleasure of Allah, purity and probity.
 These are the paths to the Heights and the Gardens
 Of Bliss. No evil can enter there:
 For the evil are other ways, leading
 By steep descent to dark Ignominy!

Sūrah 70.

Al Ma'ārij (The Ways of Ascent)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. A questioner asked⁵⁶⁷⁵
About a Penalty
To befall—
2. The Unbelievers,
The which there is none
To ward off—
3. (A Penalty) from Allah,
Lord of the Ways
Of Ascent.⁵⁶⁷⁶
4. The angels and
The Spirit⁵⁶⁷⁷ ascend
Unto Him in a Day⁵⁶⁷⁸
The measure whereof
Is (as) fifty thousand years:
5. Therefore do thou hold
Patience—a Patience
Of beautiful (contentment).⁵⁶⁷⁹

الجزء الثانی والعشرون سُوْرَةُ الْمَعَارِجِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- سَأَلَ سَائِلٌ بِعَذَابٍ وَاقِعٍ ۝

۲- لِلْكَافِرِينَ لَيْسَ لَهُ دَافِعٌ ۝

۳- مِنَ اللَّهِ ذِي الْمَعَارِجِ ۝

۴- تَعْرُجُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ وَالرُّوحُ إِلَيْهِ فِي يَوْمٍ
كَانَ مِقْدَارُهُ خَمْسِينَ أَلْفَ سَنَةٍ ۝

هـ- فَاصْبِرْ صَبْرًا جَمِيلًا ۝

5675. Any one might ask. When will Judgement come? That question usually implies doubt. The answer is: the mystery of Time is beyond man's comprehension. But there is something which touches him closely and concerns his conduct and his future welfare; and that is explained in four propositions: (1) Judgement is sure to come, and none can ward it off; (2) it will exact a dreadful Penalty from Unbelievers, but the righteous have nothing to fear; (3) it will be a Penalty from Allah, the Lord of both Justice and Mercy, it will not be merely a blind calamity of fate; and (4) further we are reminded of another title of Allah. "Lord of the Ways of Ascent"; which means that though He sits high on His Throne of Glory, He is not inaccessible, but in His infinite Mercy has provided ways of ascent to Him; see next note.

5676. Ma'ārij: stairways, ways of ascent. In 43:33, the word is used in its literal sense: "silver stairways on which to go up". Here there is a profound spiritual meaning. Can we reach up to Allah Most High? In His infinite grace He gives that privilege to angels and spiritual beings, man being such in his highest aspect. But the way is not easy, nor can it be travelled in a day. See the next two notes.

5677. Rūh: "The Spirit", Cf. 78:38, "the Spirit and the angels"; and 97:4, "the angels and the Spirit". In 16:2, we have translated Rūh by "inspiration". Some Commentators understand the angel Gabriel by "the Spirit". But I think a more general meaning is possible, and fits the context better. (R).

5678. Cf. 32:4-5, and notes 3632 and 3634.

5679. The prophet of Allah, persecuted and in trouble with the world, should yet hold Patience—not the sort of patience which goes with complaints expressed or suppressed, but the sort of patience that is content with the ordering of Allah's world, for he believes and knows it to be good, as did the holy Prophet Muḥammad. Such a patience is akin to Good Pleasure, for it arises from the purest faith and trust in Allah. (R).

| 6. They see the (Day) indeed
As a far-off (event): | ٦- إِنَّهُمْ يَرَوْنَهُ بَعِيدًا ۝ |
| 7. But We see it
(Quite) near. ⁵⁶⁸⁰ | ٧- وَنَرَاهُ قَرِيبًا ۝ |

The sinner's desire will be:
Would that he could

The Penalty of that Day ⁵⁶⁸⁴
By (sacrificing) his children, | ١١- يُبْصَرُونَهُمْ ط

| 12. His wife and his brother, | ١٢- وَصَاحِبَتِهِ وَأَخِيهِ ۝ |
| 13. His kindred who sheltered him. | ١٣- وَفَصِيلَتِهِ الَّتِي تُؤْوِيهِ ۝ |

5680. The men of evil may see the just retribution for their sins so far off that they doubt whether it would ever come. But in Allah's sight, and on the scale of the Universal Plan, it is quite near; for time as we know it hardly exists in the spiritual world. It may come even in this life: but it is bound to come eventually.

5681. Cf. 18:29 (where the wrongdoer will have a drink like melted brass in Hell); and 44:45, (where his food will be like molten brass). Here the appearance of the sky is compared to molten brass, or, as some understand it, like the dregs of oil. What is conveyed by the metaphor is that the beautiful blue sky will melt away.

5682. Cf. 101:5, where the metaphor of carded wool is used. The mountains which seem so solid will be like flakes of wool driven by the carder's hand.

5683. The world as we know it will have so completely passed away that the landmarks in the heavens and on earth will also have vanished. Not only that, but the human relationships of mind and heart will have been transformed by sin into something ugly and dreadful. The sinners will be so overcome with terror at the realisation of their personal responsibility that they will desert their most intimate friends, and indeed their very sight of each other will add to their agony.

5684. The sinner will offer his children, his family, his kinsmen, who had sheltered and protected him — in fact everything on earth that he could — as a ransom for himself. Such would be his selfishness and his agony.

14. And all, all that is
On earth—so it could
Deliver him:⁵⁶⁸⁵

١٣- وَمَنْ فِي الْأَرْضِ جَمِيعًا
ثُمَّ يُنْجِيهِ ۝

15. By no means!
For it would be
The Fire of Hell!—

١٤- كَلَّا إِنَّهَا لَأُظَى ۝

16. Plucking out (his being)
Right to the skull!—⁵⁶⁸⁶

١٥- نَزَاعَةً لِّلشَّوَى ۝

17. Inviting (all) such
As turn their backs⁵⁶⁸⁷
And turn away their faces
(From the Right),

١٦- تَدْعُوا مَنْ أَدْبَرَ
وَتَوَلَّى ۝

18. And collect (wealth)
And hide it (from use)!

١٧- وَجَمَعَ فَأَوْعَى ۝

19. Truly man was created
Very impatient—⁵⁶⁸⁸

١٨- إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ خُلِقَ هَلُوعًا ۝

20. Fretful when evil
Touches him;

١٩- إِذَا مَسَّهُ الشَّرُّ جَزُوعًا ۝

21. And niggardly when
Good reaches him —⁵⁶⁸⁹

٢٠- وَإِذَا مَسَّهُ الْخَيْرُ مَنُوعًا ۝

5685. What would not the sinner give for his own deliverance! But nothing could save him. The Fire of Hell would be roaring for him!

5686. It would be a Fire not only burning his body, but reaching right up to his brains and his understanding and—as is said in 104:7—his heart and affections also. In other words the Penalty typified by the Fire will burn into his inmost being.

5687. The analysis of sin is given in four masterstrokes, of which the first two refer to the will or psychology of the sinner, and the last two to the use he makes of the good things of this life. (1) Sin begins with turning your back to the Right, refusing to face it squarely, running away from it whether from cowardice or indifference. (2) But Conscience and the sense of Right will try to prevent the flight; the Grace of Allah will meet the sinner at all corners and try to reclaim him; the hardened sinner will deliberately turn away his face from it, insult it, and reject it. (3) The result of this psychology will be that he will abandon himself to greed, to the collection of riches, and the acquisition of material advantages to which he is not entitled; this may involve hypocrisy, fraud, and crime. (4) Having acquired the material advantages, the next step will be to keep others out of them, to prevent hoarded wealth from fructifying by circulation, to conceal it from envy or spite. This is the spiritual Rake's Progress.

5688. Man, according to the Plan of Allah, was to be in the best of moulds (95:4). But in order to fulfil his high destiny he was given free will to a limited extent. The wrong use of this free will makes his nature weak (4:28), or hasty (17:11), or impatient, as here. That becomes his nature by his own act, but he is spoken of as so created because of the capacities given to him in his creation.

5689. In adversity he complains and gets into despair. In prosperity he becomes arrogant and forgets other people's rights and his own shortcomings. Cf. 41:49-50.

22. Not so those devoted
To Prayer — ⁵⁶⁹⁰
23. Those who remain steadfast
To their prayer;
24. And those in whose wealth
Is a recognised right

And him who is prevented
(For some reason from asking); ⁵⁶⁹¹
26. And those who hold
To the truth of the Day
Of judgement;
27. And those who fear ⁵⁶⁹²
The displeasure of their Lord —
28. For their Lord's displeasure
Is the opposite of Peace

29. And those who guard
Their chastity,
30. Except with their wives
And the (captives) whom ⁵⁶⁹⁴

- ٣٠- إِلَّا عَلَىٰ أَرْوَاجِهِمْ أَوْ مَا مَلَكَتْ

5690. The description of those devoted to Prayer is given in a number of clauses that follow, introduced by the words "Those who...". "Devoted to Prayer" is here but another aspect of what is described elsewhere as the Faithful and the Righteous. Devotion to prayer does not mean merely a certain number of formal rites or prostrations. It means a complete surrender of one's being to Allah. This means an earnest approach to and realisation of Allah's Presence ("steadfastness in Prayer"); acts of practical and real charity; and attempt to read this life in terms of the Hereafter; the seeking of the Peace of Allah and avoidance of His displeasure; chastity; probity; true and firm witness; and guarding the sacredness of the Presence (verse 34).

5691. See n. 5001 to 51:19. True charity consists in finding out those in real need, whether they ask or not. Most frequently those who ask are idle men who insolently wish to live upon others. But all cases of those who ask should be duly investigated, in case a little timely help may set the erring on the way. But the man with wealth or talent or opportunity has the further responsibility of searching out those in need of his assistance, in order to show that he holds all gifts in trust for the service of his fellow creatures.

5692. A true fear of Allah is the fear of offending against His Holy Will and Law, and is therefore akin to the love of Allah. It proceeds from the realisation that all true peace and tranquility comes from attuning our will to the Universal Will, and that sin causes discord, disharmony, and displeasure—another name for the Wrath of Allah.

5693. Some would construe this verse: "And their Lord's displeasure is one against which there is no security"; meaning that the punishment of sin may come suddenly at any time, when you least expect it.

5694. Captives of war may be married as such: see 4:25; but their status is inferior to that of free wives until they are free. This institution of the captives of war is now obsolete. Such inferiority of status as there was, was in the status of captivity, not in the status of marriage as such, in which there are no degrees except by local customs, which Islam does not recognise.

۝۳۱- فَمَنْ أَتَعْبَىٰ وَرَاءَ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْعَادُونَ

۝۳۸- أَيُظْمَعُ كُلُّ امْرِئٍ مِنْهُمْ
أَن يَدْخُلَ جَنَّةَ نَعِيمٍ ۝

5695. For obligations of trusts and covenants, express or implied, see n. 682 to 5:1. They are just as sacred in ordinary everyday life as they are in special spiritual relationships. In addition, our life itself, and such reason and talents as we possess, as well as our wealth and possessions are trusts, of which we must fulfil the duties punctiliously.

5696. If we know any truth of any kind, to that we must bear witness, as affecting the lives or interests of our fellow beings—firmly, not half-heartedly, without fear or favour, even if it causes loss or trouble to us, or if it loses us friends or associates.

5697. Worship or prayer includes honest work, charity, and every good deed. To guard the sacredness of this ideal is to sum up the whole duty of man. We began with "steadfastness in prayer" in verse 23 above, and after a review of various aspects of the good man's life, close with the sacredness of worship, i.e., living as in the sight of Allah.

5698. Before thee. The Unbelievers did not believe in a Hereafter. When the Bliss of the Hereafter was described, as in the last verse, they ridiculed it and pretended to be running in for it as in a race. They are here rebuked in the same tone of sarcasm.

39. By no means!
For We have created them

40. Now I do
Call to witness⁵⁷⁰⁰
The Lord of all points
In the East and the West⁵⁷⁰¹
That We can certainly — ⁵⁷⁰²
41. Substitute for them
Better (men) than they;
And We are not
To be defeated
(In Our Plan).
42. So leave them
To plunge in vain talk
And play about,⁵⁷⁰³
Until they encounter
That Day of theirs which
They have been promised!—
43. The Day whereon
They will issue
From their sepulchres
In sudden haste
As if they were
Rushing to a goalpost
(Fixed for them)— ⁵⁷⁰⁴
44. Their eyes lowered
In dejection—

٣٩- كَلَّا إِنَّا خَلَقْنَاهُمْ مِمَّا يَعْلَمُونَ ۝

٤٠- فَلَا أُقْسِمُ
بِرَبِّ الشَّرْقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ إِنَّا لَقَدِرُونَ ۝

٤١- عَلَى أَنْ تُبَدِّلَ خَيْرًا مِنْهُمْ
وَمَا نَحْنُ بِمُسْبُوقِينَ ۝

٤٢- فَذَرَهُمْ يَخُوضُوا وَيَلْعَبُوا
حَتَّى يُلَاقُوا
يَوْمَهُمُ الَّذِي يُوْعَدُونَ ۝

٤٣- يَوْمَ يَخْرُجُونَ
مِنَ الْأَجْدَاثِ سِرَاعًا
كَأَنَّهُمْ إِلَىٰ نُصُبٍ يُوفِضُونَ ۝

٤٤- خَاشِعَةً أَبْصَارُهُمْ

5699. The animal part of man is nothing to be proud of, and they know it. It is by spiritual effort, and long preparation through a good life that a man can rise above the mere animal part of him to his high dignity as a spiritual being, and his noble destiny in the Hereafter.

5700. For the form of adjuration, Cf. 69:38, n. 5665; also 56:75. Here the witness placed before us by Allah is His own power and glory manifested in the splendour of sunrise and sunset at different points through the solar year.

5701. See n. 4034 to 37:5. If Allah has such power in the wonderful phenomena of the rising of the sun at varying points, repeated year after year, can you not see that He can easily substitute better men than you Unbelievers and blasphemers?

5702. The transition from the singular "I" to the plural "We" may be noted. See n. 56 to 2:38

5703. Their talk, their scepticism, is vain, because all spiritual evidence is against it, it is like the foolish play of people who do not think seriously. But the tremendous Day of Judgement and Reality will come, as described in the next two verses.

5704. Now there will be a definite Goalpost or Banner or Standard of Truth fixed, which all must acknowledge. But they will acknowledge it in shame and dejection. For the time for their repentance and amendment will then have passed.

Ignominy covering them
(All over)!
Such is the Day
The which they
Are promised!

تَزْهَقُهُمْ ذِلَّةٌ ذَٰلِكَ الْيَوْمِ الَّذِي

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 71—NŪH

This is another early Makkan Sūrah, of which the date has no significance. The theme is that while Good must uphold the standard of Truth and Righteousness, a stage is reached when it must definitely part company with Evil, lest Evil should spread its corruption. The story of Noah's agony is almost a Parable for the Holy Prophet's persecution in the Makkan period.

C. 251. — The Prophet's Message, as was that of Noah,
 (71:1-28.) Is a warning against sin, and the Good News of Mercy
 Through the door of Repentance: for Allah is loving
 And long-suffering, and His Signs are within us
 And around us. But the sinners are obstinate:
 They plot against Righteousness, and place their trust
 In futile falsehoods. They will be swept away,
 And the earth will be purged of Evil. Let us
 Pray for Mercy and Grace for ourselves,
 For those nearest and dearest to us,
 And for all who turn in faith to Allah.
 In all ages and all countries,
 And amongst all Peoples.

Sūrah 71.

Nūh (Noah)

الجزء الثامنة والعشرون سُوْرَةُ نُوحٍ

In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. He sent Noah⁵⁷⁰⁵
To his People
(With the Command):
"Do thou warn thy People
Before there comes to them
A grievous Penalty."
2. He said: "O my People!
I am to you
A Warner, clear and open:⁵⁷⁰⁶
3. "That ye should worship
Allah, fear Him,
and obey me:⁵⁷⁰⁷
4. "So He may forgive you
Your sins and give you
Respite for a stated Term:
For when the Term given
By Allah is accomplished,
It cannot be put forward:⁵⁷⁰⁸
If ye only knew."
5. He said: "O my Lord!
I have called to my People
Night and day:

۱- إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا نُوحًا إِلَىٰ قَوْمِهِ
أَنْ أَنْذِرْ قَوْمَكَ مِنْ قَبْلِ
أَنْ يَأْتِيَهُمْ عَذَابٌ أَلِيمٌ ۝

۲- قَالَ يَقَوْمِ
إِنِّي لَكُمْ نَذِيرٌ مُّبِينٌ ۝

۳- أَنْ اعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ
وَاتَّقُوهُ وَأَطِيعُوا ۝

۴- يَغْفِرْ لَكُمْ مِنْ ذُنُوبِكُمْ
وَيُؤَخِّرْكُمْ إِلَىٰ أَجَلٍ مُّسَمًّى
إِنَّ أَجَلَ اللَّهِ إِذَا جَاءَ لَا يُؤَخَّرُ
لَوْ كُنْتُمْ تَعْلَمُونَ ۝

۵- قَالَ رَبِّ
إِنِّي دَعَوْتُ قَوْمِي لَيْلًا وَنَهَارًا ۝

5705. Noah's mission is referred to in many places. See specially 11:25-49 and notes. His contemporaries had completely abandoned the moral law. A purge had to be made, and the great Flood made it. This gives a new starting point in history for Noah's People—i.e., for the remnant saved in the Ark.

5706. His Warning was to be both clear (i.e., unambiguous) and open (i.e., publicly proclaimed). Both these meanings are implied in Mubīn. Cf. 67:26. The meaning of the Warning was obviously that if they had repented, they would have obtained mercy.

5707. Three aspects of man's duty are emphasised: (1) true worship with heart and soul; (2) God-fearing recognition that all evil must lead to self-deterioration and Judgement; (3) hence repentance and amendment of life, and obedience to good men's counsels.

5708. Allah gives respite freely; but it is for Him to give it. His command is definite and final; neither man nor any other authority can alter or in any way modify it. If we could only realise this to the full in our inmost soul, it would be best for us and lead to our happiness.

6. "But my call only
Increases (their) flight
(From the Right)."⁵⁷⁰⁹
7. "And every time I have Called to them, that Thou
Mightest forgive them,
They have (only) thrust
Their fingers into their ears,
Covered themselves up with⁵⁷¹⁰
Their garments, grown obstinate,
And given themselves up
To arrogance.
8. "So I have called to them
Aloud;"
9. "Further I have spoken
To them in public⁵⁷¹¹
And secretly in private,"
10. "Saying. 'Ask forgiveness
From your Lord;
For He is Oft-Forgiving;"
11. "'He will send rain⁵⁷¹²
To you in abundance;
12. "'Give you increase
In wealth and sons;
And bestow on you

٧- فَلَمْ يَزِدْهُمْ دُعَائِي إِلَّا فِرَارًا ۝

٨- وَإِنِّي كُلَّمَا دَعَوْتُهُمْ لِتَغْفِرَ لَهُمْ
جَعَلُوا أَصَابِعَهُمْ فِي آذَانِهِمْ
وَاسْتَعْصَوْا ثِيَابَهُمْ وَأَصْرُوا
وَاسْتَكْبَرُوا اسْتِكْبَارًا ۝

٩- ثُمَّ إِنِّي دَعَوْتُهُمْ جَهَارًا ۝

١٠- ثُمَّ إِنِّي أَعْلَنْتُ لَهُمْ
وَاسْرَرْتُ لَهُمْ إِسْرَارًا ۝

١١- فَقُلْتُ اسْتَغْفِرُوا رَبَّكُمْ
إِنَّهُ كَانَ غَفَّارًا ۝

١٢- يُرْسِلُ السَّمَاءَ عَلَيْكُمْ مِدْرَارًا ۝

١٣- وَيُزِيدْكُمْ بِأَمْوَالٍ ذَوِيْنٍ وَيَجْعَلْ لَكُمْ

5709. When convincing arguments and warnings are placed before sinners, there are two kinds of reactions. Those who are wise receive admonition, repent, and bring forth fruits of repentance, i.e., amend their lives and turn to Allah. On the other hand, those who are callous to any advice take it up as a reproach, fly farther and farther from righteousness, and shut out more and more the channels through which Allah's healing Grace can reach them and work for them.

5710. The literal meaning would be that, just as they thrust their fingers into their ears to prevent the voice of the admonisher reaching them, so they covered their bodies with their garments that the light of truth should not penetrate to them and that they should not even be seen by the Preacher. But there is a further symbolic meaning. "Their garments" are the adornments of vanities, their evil habits, customs, and traditions, and their ephemeral interests and standards. They drew them closer round them to prevent the higher Light reaching them. They grew obstinate and gave themselves up to the grossest form of selfish arrogance.

5712. They had perhaps been suffering from drought or famine. If they had taken the message in the right way, the rain would have been a blessing to them. They took it in the wrong way, and the rain was a curse to them, for it flooded the country and drowned the wicked generation. In the larger Plan, it was a blessing all the same; for it purged the world, and gave it a new start, morally and spiritually.

| 18. "And in the End

5713. Each of these blessings—rain and crops, wealth and manpower, flourishing gardens, and perennial streams—are indications of prosperity, and have not only a material but also a spiritual meaning. Note the last point, "rivers of flowing water". The perennial springs make the prosperity as it were permanent; they indicate a settled population, honest and contented, and enjoying their blessings here on earth as the foretaste of the eternal joys of heaven.

5714. Cf. 22:5, and notes 2773-2777; also 23:12-17, and notes 2872-2875. The meaning here may be even wider. Man in his various states exhibits various wonderful qualities or capacities, mental and spiritual, that may be compared with the wonderful workings of nature on the earth and in the heavens. Will he not then be grateful for these Mercies and turn to Allah. Who created all these marvels?

5715. See n. 5559 to 67:3.

5716. Cf. 25:61, where the sun is referred to as the glorious Lamp of the heavens: "Blessed is He Who made the Constellations in the skies, and placed therein a lamp, and a moon giving light."

5717. Cf. 3:37, where the growth of the child Mary the Mother of Jesus is described by the same word nabāt, ordinarily denoting the growth of plants and trees. The simile is that if a seed sown, that germinates, grows, and dies, and goes back to the earth. In man, there is the further process of the Resurrection Cf. also 20:55.

And raise you forth
(Again at the Resurrection)?

وَيُخْرِجُكُمْ أَخْرَاجًا ۝

19. "And Allah has made
The earth for you
As a carpet (spread out),⁵⁷¹⁸

5718. Cf. 22:53.

5719. Fijāj implies valley roads or passes between mountains. Though there are mountain chains on the earth, Allah's artistry has provided even in such regions, valleys and channels by which men may go about. Mountain roads usually follow the valleys.

5719-A. Sinners always resent it as a reproach that righteous men should speak to them for their own good. They prefer smooth flatterers, and they worship power even though the depositories of power are selfish men, who neither profit themselves nor profit others by the wealth and manpower that they collect round themselves. They forget that mere material things may be a delusion and a snare unless the moral and spiritual factor behind them sanctifies them.

5720. Having got material resources the wicked devise plots to get rid of the righteous whose presence is a reproach to them. For a time their plots may seem tremendous and have the appearance of success, but they can never defeat Allah's Purpose.

5721. For an account of how these Pagan gods and superstitions connected with them originated, and how they became adopted into the Arabian Pagan Pantheon, see Appendix X at the end of this Sūrah.

25. Because of their sins
They were drowned
(In the flood),⁵⁷²³
And were made to enter

And they found—
In lieu of Allah—
None to help them.

26. And Noah said:
"O my Lord! Leave not

27. "For, if Thou dost leave

But mislead Thy devotees,
And they will breed none
But wicked ungrateful ones.

28. "O my Lord! Forgive me,

٢٦- وَقَالَ نُوحٌ رَبِّ لَا تَذَرْ

٢٧- إِنَّكَ إِن تَذَرَهُمْ

٢٨- رَبِّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَلِوَالِدَيَّ
وَلِمَن دَخَلَ بَيْتِيَ مُؤْمِنًا
وَالْمُؤْمِنِينَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتِ
وَلَا تَزِدِ الظَّالِمِينَ إِلَّا تَبَارًا ۝

5722. Such Pagan superstitions and cults do not add to human knowledge or human well-being. They only increase error and wrongdoing. For example, how much lewdness resulted from the Greek and Roman Saturnalia! And how much lewdness results from ribald Holy songs! This is the natural result, and Noah in his bitterness of spirit prays that Allah's grace may be cut off from men who hug them to their hearts. They mislead others: let them miss their own mark! See also verse 28 below.

5723. The Punishment of sin seizes the soul from every side and in every form. Water (drowning) indicates death by suffocation, through the nose, ears, eyes, mouth, throat, and lungs. Fire has the opposite effects; it burns the skin, the limbs, the flesh, the brains, the bones, and every part of the body. So the destruction wrought by sin is complete from all points of view. And yet it is not death (20:74); for death would be a merciful release from the Penalty, and the soul steeped in sin has closed the gates of Allah's Mercy on itself. There they will abide, unless and "except as Allah willeth" (6:128). For time and eternity, as we conceive them now, have no meaning in the wholly new world which the soul enters after death or Judgement.

5724. The Flood was sent in order to purge all sin. The prayer of Noah is not vindictive. It simply means, "Cut off all the roots of sin". See next note.

5725. Indeed he prays for himself, his parents, his guests, and all who in earnest faith turn to Allah, in all ages and in all places. Praying for their forgiveness is also praying for the destruction of sin.

5726. This is slightly different in form from verse 24 above, where see n. 5722. See also last note.

APPENDIX X.

Ancient Forms of Pagan Worship (see 71:23, n. 5721)

From prehistoric times man has sought to worship powers of nature, or symbols representing those powers, or idols representing those symbols. In vulgar minds they become debased superstitions, and seem to come into competition with the worship of the one True God.

2. The five names mentioned in 71:23 represent some of the oldest Pagan cults, before the Flood as well as after the Flood, though the names themselves are in the form in which they were worshipped by local Arab tribes. The names of the tribes have been preserved to us by the Commentators, but they are of no more than archaeological interest to us now. But the names of the false gods are interesting to us from the point of view of comparative religion, as, under one form or another, such cults still exist in countries which have not accepted the Gospel of Unity, as they have always existed since man turned from his Maker and Sustainer to the worship of created things or invented fancies.

3. The names of the five false gods and the symbols under which they were represented were as follows:

Pagan god	Shape	Quality represented
1. Wadd	Man	Manly Power
2. Suwā'	Woman	Mutability, Beauty
3. Yaghūth	Lion (or Bull)	Brute Strength
4. Ya'ūq	Horse	Swiftness
5. Nasr	Eagle, or Vulture, or Falcon	Sharp Sight, Insight

It is not clear whether these names are to be connected with true Arabic verbal roots or are merely Arabicised forms of names derived from foreign cults, such as those of Babylonia or Assyria, the region of Noah's Flood. The latter supposition is probable. Even in the case of Wadd (Affection, Love) and Nasr (Eagle), which are good Arabic words, it is doubtful whether they are not, in this connection, translations or corruptions of words denoting foreign cults.

4. In studying ancient comparative mythologies we must never forget the following facts. (1) Men's ideas of God always tend to be anthropomorphic. The qualities which they admire they transfer to their godhead. (2) But fear in primitive man also leads to the transfer of anything mysterious or imagined to be injurious, to the Pantheon. Such things have to be placated in order that they may not injure man. Thus, in popular Hinduism the goddess of smallpox, which causes terror over an ignorant countryside, has to be worshipped, placated, or appeased with sacrifice. (3) This leads to the worship of animals noxious to man, such as serpent worship, which has prevailed and still prevails in many primitive areas. In ancient Egyptian mythology the Crocodile (so common in the Nile), the Dog, the Bull, and the Ibis were worshipped both literally and symbolically. See Appendix V. (4) But as men's knowledge grows, and they observe the wonderful heavenly bodies and their motions, they begin to feel their sublimity, beauty and mystery, and they transfer their worship to the heavenly bodies. The first great astronomers in the ancient world were the Babylonians and Chaldaeans. Among them was Abraham's homeland. The allegory of Abraham (6:74-82 and notes) points to the importance of the cult of the worship of heavenly bodies and the fallacy in them. "It is those who believe, and confuse not their beliefs with wrong—that are truly in security, for they are on right guidance" (6:82). The Sabaeen worship of heavenly bodies in Arabia had probably its source in Chaldaea (see last paragraph of n. 76 to 2:62). (5) A further refined step in Paganism is to worship abstractions, to treat concrete things as symbols of abstract qualities which they represent. For example, the planet Saturn with its slow motion was treated as phlegmatic and evil. The planet Mars with its fiery red light was treated as betokening war and havoc and evil, and so on. Jupiter, with its magnificent golden light, was treated as lucky and benignant to any who came under its influence. Venus became the symbol and the goddess of carnal love. The Pagan Arabs erected Time (Dahr) into a deity, existing from eternity to eternity, and dispensing good and ill fortune to man. The ancient Aegean religion treated the vital principle in the same way, as spontaneous and eternal, and traces of this are found in many religions, ancient and modern. (6) The next step was to reincarnate as it were these qualities in beings of flesh and blood, with lives, feelings, and passions like those of ordinary men and women, and to fill up a confused Pantheon with gods and goddesses that quarrelled, hated, loved, were jealous, and suffered or enjoyed life like human beings. In such a Pantheon there was room for demi-gods and real human heroes that were worshipped as gods. The Greek poets and artists were past masters in carrying out this process, under cover of which they discussed profound human problems with great power. They made religion dramatic. While they gained in humanism, they lost the purer spiritual conceptions which lift the divine world far above the futilities and crimes of this life. Hierarchical Christianity has suffered from this inheritance of the Greek tradition. (7) Where there was a commingling of peoples and cultures, several of these ideas and processes got mixed up together. Gods and goddesses of different origins were identified with one another, e.g. Artemis, the chaste virgin huntress goddess of the Greek Pantheon, was identified with Diana of the Romans, Diana of the Ephesians (representing the teeming life of nature), and Selene the cold moon-goddess. Similarly Diana was identified with the Egyptian Isis, and Diana's twin brother Apollo (the sun) with the Egyptian Osiris. Forces of nature, animals, trees, qualities, astronomical bodies, and various other factors got mixed up together, and formed a shapeless medley of superstitions, which are all condemned by Islam.

5. To revert to the worship of the heavenly bodies. The countless fixed stars in the firmament occupied always the same relative positions in the heavens, and did not impress the imagination of the ancients like the objects which stood out vividly with mysterious laws of relative motion. A few individual stars did attract the worshippers' attention: e.g., Sirius the Dog star, the brightest fixed star in the heavens, with a bluish tinge in its light, and Algol the variable star, being Beta of the constellation Perseus, whose variation can be perceived by the naked eye in two or three nights, became connected with many legends, myths, and superstitions. It is probably Sirius that is referred to as the fixed star in the Parable of Abraham (6:76). With regard to the fixed stars in their myriads, the astronomers turned their fancy to devising Groups or Constellations. But the moving "stars", or planets, each with its own individual laws of motion, stood out to them personified, each with a motion and therefore will or influence of its own. As they knew and understood them, they were seven in number, viz.: (1) and (2) the moon and the sun, the two objects which most closely and indubitably influence the tides, the temperatures, and the life on our planet: (3) and (4) the two inner planets, Mercury and Venus, which are morning and evening stars, and never travel far from the sun; and (5), (6) and (7) Mars, Jupiter, and Saturn, the outer planets, whose elongations from the sun on the ecliptic can be as wide as possible. The number seven became itself a mystic number, as explained in n. 5526 to 65:12.

6. It will be noticed that the sun and the moon and the five planets got identified each with a living deity, god or goddess, with characteristics and qualities of its own. The solar myth was a myth of very fruitful vitality, and got mixed up with many other myths and ideas. In late Roman religion it appears in the story of Apollo, the sun-god of light and learning and of manly beauty, twin brother to Diana the moon-goddess. In ancient Egypt it appears in the myth of Horus, the falcon-eyed, or Ra or Re, the Eye, which sees all things. Further, the eagle, or falcon, or hawk, became itself identified with the sun, with its piercing light. The sun myth mixes itself up with the myth of the Nile and with the cycle of legends connected with Isis and Osiris, who were subsequently identified with the moon and the sun divinities. In Babylon the name Shamash (Arabic, Shams) proclaims the glory of the sun-god corresponding to the old Sumerian Utu of Babbar, while the hymns to Sūrya (the sun) in the Rig-Veda and the cult of Mithra in Persia proclaim the dominance of sun-worship.

7. Moon-worship was equally popular in various forms. I have already referred to the classical legends of Apollo and Diana, twin brother and sister, representing the sun and the moon. The Egyptain Khonsu, traversing the sky in a boat, referred to the moon, and the moon legends also got mixed up with those about the god of magic, Thoth, and the Ibis. In the Vedic religion of India the moon-god was Soma, the lord of the planets, and the name was also applied to the juice which was the drink of the gods. It may be noted that the moon was a male divinity in ancient India; it was also a male divinity in ancient Semitic religion, and the Arabic word for the moon (qamar) is of the masculine gender. On the other hand, the Arabic word for the sun (shams) is of the feminine gender. The Pagan Arabs evidently looked upon the sun as a goddess and the moon as a god.

8. Of the five planets, perhaps Venus as the evening star and the morning star alternately impressed itself most on the imagination of astro-mythology. This planet was in different places considered both male and female. In the Bible (Isaiah, xiv. 12), the words "How art thou fallen, O Lucifer, son of the morning!" are understood to refer to the Morning Star in the first instance, and by analogy to the King of Babylon. The Fathers of the Christian Church, on the other hand, transferred the name Lucifer to Satan, the power of evil. Mercury is a less conspicuous planet, and was looked upon as a child in the family, the father and mother being the moon and the sun, or the sun and the moon (according to the sex attributed to these divinities), or else either the sun or moon was the father and Venus the mother (the sexes being inter-changeable in the myths). Of the three outer planets, Jupiter is the most conspicuous: indeed, after the sun and the moon, it is the most conspicuous object in the heavens, and was reputed to be beneficent and to bestow good fortune. The sun and the moon being considered in a class apart, Jupiter was considered the father of the planets, and possibly his worship got occasionally mixed up with that of the sun. Mars and Saturn, as has already been stated, were considered malevolent planets, to be feared for the mischief that they might do; for the Pagan Pantheons worshipped powers both of good and evil.

9. It is remarkable that the days of the week are named after the seven planets of geocentric astronomy, and if we take them in alternate sequence they indicate the order in which their heavens were arranged with reference to proximity to the earth. The following table represents this grouping:—

Planet	Presiding god or goddess	Day of the week in alternate sequence
Moon	Diana	Sunday
Mercury	Mercury	Tuesday
Venus	Venus	Thursday
The Sun	Apollo	Saturday
Mars	Mars	Monday
Jupiter	Jupiter	Wednesday
Saturn	Saturn	Friday

This alternate sequence is carried into a circle, as the total number is seven, itself a mystic number.

10. These cross-currents and mixtures of nature-worship, astral-worship, heroworship, worship of abstract qualities, etc., resulted in a medley of debasing superstitions which are summed up in the five names, Wadd, Suwā', Yaghūth, Ya'ūq, and Nasr, as noted in paragraph 3 above. The time of Noah is taken to be the peak of superstition and false worship, and the most ancient cults may thus be symbolically brought under these heads. If wadd and Suwā' represented Man and Woman, they might well represent human self-glorification, the worship of Self as against Allah, or they might represent the worship of Manly Power and Female Beauty, or other abstract qualities of that kind. On the other hand, it is possible that the worship of Jupiter and Venus itself not mixed up with the worship of the sun-moon pair. One pair being identified with another pair in a Septet, the number seven was reduced to five, and the five (itself a mystic number) might itself represent the seven planets as then worshipped. Further, it may be that Nasr (the vulture, falcon, hawk, or eagle, the Egyptian Horus) also represents a solar myth, mixed up with the cult of the planets. These cross-currents of astro-mythological mixtures of cults are well-known to students of ancient popular religions. If the five names, from another angle of vision, represent qualities, the Wadd-Suwā' pair (Sun-Moon, Jupiter-Venus) would represent manly power and womanly beauty or mutability respectively, and the three remaining ones (paragraph 3) might represent Brute Strength, like that of a Bull or a Lion; Swiftmess like that of a Horse or sharpness (of sight or intelligence) like that of a vulture, hawk, or eagle.

11. It may be noted that the five names of deities mentioned here to represent very ancient religious cults are well-chosen. They are not the names of the deities best known in Makkah, but rather those which survived as fragments of very ancient cults among the outlying tribes of Arabia, which were influenced by the cults of Mesopotamia (Noah's country). The Pagan deities best known in the Ka'bah and round about Makkah were Lāt, 'Uzzā, and Manāt. (Manāt was also known round Yathrib, which afterwards became Madinah.) See 53:19-20. They were all female goddesses. Lāt almost certainly represents another wave of sun-worship: the sun being feminine in Arabic and in Semitic languages generally. "Lāt" may be the original of the Greek "Leto", the mother of Apollo the sun-god (Encyclopaedia of Islam, I, p. 380). If so, the name was brought in prehistoric times from South Arabia by the great Incense Route (n. 3816 to 34:18) to the Mediterranean. 'Uzzā probably represents the planet venus. The origin of Manāt is not quite clear, but it would not be surprising if it also turned out to be astral. The 350 idols established by the Pagans in the Ka'bah probably represented the 360 days of an inaccurate solar year. This was the actual "modern" Pagan worship as known to the Quraysh contemporary with our Prophet. In sharp contrast to this is mentioned the ancient antediluvian worship under five heads, of which fragments persisted in outlying places, as they still persist in different forms and under different names in all parts of the world where the pure worship of Allah in unity and truth is not firmly established in the minds and hearts of men.

References: The classical work on Arabian idol-worship is Ibn al Kalbī's Kitāb al aṣnām, of the late second century of the Hijrah. The book is not easily accessible. Our doctors of religion have evinced no interest in the study of ancient cults, or in comparative religion, and most of them had not before them the results of modern archaeology. But a modern school of Egyptian archaeologists is arising, which takes a great deal of interest in the antiquities of their own country. For astral worship consult Hastings' Encyclopaedia of Religion and Ethics, articles on "Sun, Moon, and Stars," as worshipped in different countries. Consult also Sir E.A. Wallis Budge, Gods of the Egyptians, London 1904; A.H. Sayce, Religions of Ancient Egypt and Babylonia, Gifford Lectures, Edinburgh 1902; M. Jastrow, Religion of Babylonia and Assyria, Boston 1898; E.W. Hopkins, Religions of India, London 1896; G.A. Barton, Sketches of Semitic Origins, New York 1902. Any Classical Dictionary would give the details of Greek and Roman Mythology. It is curious that the Indus Civilization, which resembles the Second Pre-diluvian Culture of Elam and Mesopotamia, does not clearly disclose any signs of astral worship. But this study is still in its tentative stage. There is tree and animal worship, phallic worship, and the worship of the great Mother-goddess. Animal worship regards strength, courage virility, or swiftness, as in the Pagan Arabian deities we have been considering. See Sir John Marshall, Mohenjo Daro and the Indus Civilization, 3 vols, London 1931.

Sir J.G. Frazer, in his Adonis, Attis, and Osiris (4th ed. London 1914, Vol. i, pp. 8-9) refers to Allatu or Eresh-Kigal as "the stern queen of the internal regions" in Babylonian religion: she was the goddess of the nether regions, of darkness and desolation, as her counterpart Ishtar was the chief goddess of the upper regions, or reproduction and fertility, associated with the planet Venus.

INTRODUCITON AND SUMMARY: SŪRAH 72—AL JINN

This is a late Makkan Sūrah, of which we can be tolerably certain of the date. It was two years before the Hijrah, when the Prophet, despised and rejected in his native city of Makkah, went to evangelise the lordly men of Ṭā'if. They maltreated him and nearly killed him; what caused him even greater pain was the maltreatment of the humble and lowly men who went with him. Ṭabarī has handed down that memorable Prayer of faith and humility which he offered in the midst of his suffering. On his return journey to Makkah, a glorious vision was revealed to him—hidden spiritual forces working for him—people not known to him accepting his mission while his own people were still rejecting him. Within two months some strangers from Madīnah had privately met him and laid the foundations of that Hijrah which was to change the fate of Arabia and the course of world history.

C. 252.—Spiritual Truth finds its lodgement

(72:1-28.) In all sorts of unexpected places, and in all sorts
 Of unexpected ways. The man of God,
 When most depressed by the buffets of a world
 Steeped in selfishness, sees a glorious vision:
 Hidden spiritual forces work for him,
 Make known the truth in marvellous ways,
 And proclaim the Goodness and Judgement of Allah.
 They reject all Error and lead others to purify
 Their wills and come to Allah. Behold!
 Every place and time, every gift
 Is meet for the service of Allah, the One,
 The True, Whose Word the righteous one
 Proclaims and must proclaim at all cost.
 Man's Duty is plain, but in the Kingdom
 Of Allah, through Allah's chosen ones,
 We rise to higher and higher Mysteries,
 As may be expedient for us. Yet when
 Or how our End may be, is not given
 To man to know: let him but take
 The Treasures well-guarded, that come to him,
 And praise the Lord of all Knowledge and Wisdom!

Sūrah 72.

Al Jinn (The Spirits)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Say: It has been
Revealed⁵⁷²⁷ to me that
A company of Jinns⁵⁷²⁸
Listened (to the Qur'ān).
They said, 'We have
Really heard a wonderful
Recital!⁵⁷²⁹

2. 'It gives guidance
To the Right,
And we have believed therein:
We shall not join (in worship)
Any (gods) with our Lord.

3. 'And exalted is the Majesty
Of our Lord: He has Taken neither a wife
Nor a son.⁵⁷³⁰

4. 'There were some foolish ones
Among us, who used
To utter extravagant lies
Against Allah;

5. 'But we do think
That no man or spirit
Should say aught that is
Untrue against Allah.⁵⁷³¹

الْجِنُّ النَّاسِ وَالْعَشْرُونَ سُورَةُ الْجِنِّ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- قُلْ أُوحِيَ إِلَيَّ
أَنَّهُ اسْتَمَعَ نَفَرٌ مِّنَ الْجِنِّ
فَقَالُوا إِنَّا سَمِعْنَا قُرْآنًا عَجَبًا ۝

۲- يَهْدِي إِلَى الرُّشْدِ
فَأَمَّا بِهِ
وَلَنْ نُشْرَكَ بِرَبِّنَا أَحَدًا ۝

۳- وَ أَنَّهُ تَعَالَى جَدُّ رَبِّنَا
مَا اتَّخَذَ صَاحِبَةً وَلَا وَلَدًا ۝

۴- وَ أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقُولُ سَفِيهُنَا
عَلَى اللَّهِ شَطَطًا ۝

۵- وَ أَنَا ظَنَنَّا أَنْ لَّنْ نَقُولَ الْإِنْسُ وَالْجِنُّ
عَلَى اللَّهِ كَذِبًا ۝

5727. Revelation may be through various channels, and one of the channels may be a vision, by which the Prophet sees and hears events clearly passing before him. This particular vision may be the same as that referred to more briefly in 46:29-32, where see n. 4809. The Jinns had evidently heard of previous revelations, that of Moses (46:30), and the error of Trinitarian Christianity (72:3). The people from whom they come have all sorts of good and bad persons, but they are determined to preach the good Message of Unity which they have heard and believed in.

5728. For Jinns, see n. 929 to 6:100. (R).

5729. The Holy Qur'ān would be to them a wonderful Recital—both in subject matter and in the circumstance that it had come in Arabia among a pagan and ignorant nation.

5730. They abjure paganism and also the doctrine of a son begotten by Allah, which would also imply a wife of whom he was begotten. Cf. 6:101.

5731. No one ought to entertain false notions about Allah. For by joining false gods in our ideas of worship, we degrade our conception of ourselves and the duty we owe to our Creator and Cherisher, to Whom we have to give a final account of life and conduct. If we worship idols or heavenly bodies, or human beings, or any creature, or false fancies born of self or foolish abstractions, or the lusts and desires of our own hearts, we are not only doing violence to Truth, but we are causing discord in the harmony of the world.

6. 'True, there were persons
Among mankind who took shelter
With persons among the Jinns,
But they increased them
In folly.⁵⁷³²
7. 'And they (came to) think
As ye thought, that Allah
Would not raise up
Any one (to Judgement).
8. 'And we pried into
the secrets of heaven;
But we found it filled
With stern guards
And flaming fires.⁵⁷³³
9. 'We used, indeed, to sit there
In (hidden) stations, to (steal)
A hearing; but any
Who listens now⁵⁷³⁴
Will find a flaming fire
Watching him in ambush.
10. 'And we understand not
Whether ill is intended
To those on earth,⁵⁷³⁵
Or whether their Lord
(Really) intends to guide
Them to right conduct.

٤- وَآلَهُ كَانَ بِجَالٍ مِنَ الْإِنْسِ
يَعُوذُونَ بِجِبَالٍ مِنَ الْجِنِّ
فَزَادُوهُمْ رَهَقًا ۝

٥- وَآلَهُمْ ظَنُّوا كَمَا ظَنَنْتُمْ
أَنْ لَنْ يَبْعَثَ اللَّهُ أَحَدًا ۝

٨- وَآلَا لَسْنَا السَّمَاءَ
فَوَجَدْنَاهَا مُلِئَتْ حَرَسًا
شَدِيدًا وَشُهَبًا ۝

٩- وَآلَا كُنَّا نَقْعُدُ مِنْهَا مَقَاعِدَ لِلسَّمْعِ
كَمْ يَسْمَعُونَ الْآنَ يَجِدُ لَهُ
شِهَابًا رَصَدًا ۝

١٠- وَآلَا لَإِنْدَرَىٰ أَشَرُّ
أُرِيدَ بِسَنٍ فِي الْأَرْضِ
أَمْ أَرَادَ بِهِمْ رَبُّهُمْ رَشَدًا ۝

5732. If human beings think that by a resort to some myterious spirits they can shelter themselves from the struggles and actualities of their own lives, they are sadly mistaken. They must "dree their own weird", as the Scots would say. It is folly to try to escape from the duties which they can understand in their own natural surroundings, or to try to avoid the consequences of their own acts. Only such persons do so as do not realise that they will ultimately have to answer at the Judgement Seat of Allah, whose first outpost is in their own conscience.

5733. See notes 1951, 1953, and 1954 to 15:17-18. See also n. 5562 to 67:5. The speakers here have repented of sin and evil; but they recognise that there are evil ones among them, who love stealth and prying, but their dark plots will be defeated by vigilant guardians of the Right, whose repulse of the attacks of evil is figured by the shafts of meteoric light in the heavens.

5734. What is the force of "now"? It refers to the early Makkan period of Revelation. It means that whatever excuse there may have been before, for people to try to seek out the hidden truths of the Unseen World through spirits, there was none now, as the perspicuous Qur'ān had restored the Message of Unity and cleared religion of all the cobwebs, mysteries, and falsehoods with which priestcraft and pious fraud had overlaid it. The result is that such seekers after false hidden knowledge will find themselves confronted now by the flaming fire of the Qur'ān, which, like the shafts of meteoric light (see last note), will lie in wait for and nip such priestcraft and black magic in the bud.

5735. To these spirits this revolutionary gospel is yet new, and appears like a flaming sword which destroys falsehood while it protects Truth. They frankly confess that they do not clearly understand whether on the whole it will be a mercy to mankind or a punishment for mankind forsaking the paths of Allah. But they rightly feel that it must be a blessing if all seek right Guidance.

11. 'There are among us
Some that are righteous,
And some the contrary:
We follow divergent paths.

۱۱- وَأَنَا مِنَّا الصَّالِحُونَ وَمِنَّا دُونَ ذَلِكَ
كُنَّا ظَرَائِفَ قَدَدًا ۝

12. 'But we think that we
Can by no means frustrate
Allah throughout the earth,
Nor can we frustrate Him
By flight.⁵⁷³⁶

۱۲- وَأَنَا ظَنَمْنَا أَن لَّنْ نُغْزِلَ اللَّهَ فِي الْأَرْضِ
وَلَنْ نُغْزِرَهُ هَرَبًا ۝

13. 'And as for us,
Since we have listened
To the Guidance, we have Accepted it: and any
Who believes in his Lord
Has no fear, either⁵⁷³⁷
Of a short (account)
Or of any injustice.

۱۳- وَأَنَا لَمَّا سَمِعْنَا الْهُدَى
أَمْنَاهُ ۝
فَمَنْ يُؤْمِنُ بِرَبِّهِ
فَلَا يَخَافُ بَخْسًا وَلَا رَهَقًا ۝

14. 'Amongst us are some
That submit their wills
(To Allah), and some
That swerve from justice.
Now those who submit
Their wills—they have⁵⁷³⁸
Sought out (the path)
Of right conduct:

۱۴- وَأَنَا مِنَّا السُّلِمُونَ
وَمِنَّا الْقَاسِطُونَ ۝
فَمَنْ أَسْلَمَ فَأُولَئِكَ
تَحَرَّوْا رَشَدًا ۝

15. 'But those who swerve —
They are (but) fuel
For Hell-fire'—⁵⁷³⁹

۱۵- وَأَمَّا الْقَاسِطُونَ فَكَانُوا لِجَهَنَّمَ
حَطَبًا ۝

16. (And Allah's Message is):
"If they (the Pagans)
Had (only) remained

۱۶- وَأَن لَّوِ اسْتَقَامُوا

5736. See last note. In any case, they know that Allah's Truth and Allah's Plan must prevail, and no one can frustrate Allah's Purpose, or escape from it. Why not then bring the human will into conformity with it, and find Peace, as they have found, by the acceptance of Faith?

5737. Possibly, from this world's standards, it may be that a man suffers for his Faith. He may be laughed at, persecuted, and actually hurt, "in mind, body, or estate". But he is not perturbed. he takes it all cheerfully, because he knows that when his full account is made up — real gain against apparent loss — he is a gainer rather than a loser. And his Faith tells him that Allah is a just God, and will never allow him to suffer any injustice, or permit the account of his merit to appear one whit shorter than it is.

5738. Any one who responds to true Guidance, and submits his will to Allah, finds that he makes rapid progress in the path of right conduct and right life. He gets more and more assurance that his destination is the Garden of Bliss.

5739. An unjust life carries its own condemnation. It does no good to itself or to anyone else. It bears no fruit. It becomes merely fuel for the Fire of Punishment.

On the (right) Way,
We should certainly have
Bestowed on them Rain⁵⁷⁴⁰
In abundance.

But if any turns away
From the remembrance⁵⁷⁴¹
Of his Lord, He will Cause him to undergo
A severe Penalty.

۝ لَنَنْفِتَنَّهُمْ فِيهِ
وَمَنْ يُعْرِضْ عَنْ ذِكْرِ رَبِّهِ

18. "And the places of worship⁵⁷⁴²

19. "Yet when the Devotee⁵⁷⁴³

SECTION 2.

20. Say: "I do
No more than invoke

۝ قُلْ إِنَّمَا أَدْعُوا

5740. Rain: literally, water: stands for all kinds of blessings, material, moral, and spiritual. Among the spiritual blessings, is the insight into higher things, which results from our will and endeavour to stand firm on the right Way, the natural, moral, and spiritual Law established by Allah. All blessings come by way of trial: the more we have, the more is expected of us. A man of gifts, talents, or insight is expected to show a higher standard of love and unselfishness than one less gifted, just as a rich man is expected to give more in charity than a poor man.

5741. To remember Allah is to realise His presence, acknowledge His Goodness, and accept His guidance. If we fail to do so, by deliberately turning away. He will withdraw His Grace, and that will be a severe Penalty indeed.

5742. This is a Makkan Sūrah, and Masjid must be understood, not in the later technical sense of a Mosque, but in the root meaning, of any place, or occasion of worship or humble prostration in the service of Allah, or any limbs of faculties or accessories used in such worship, e.g., hands and feet, lips and voice, understanding or organisation. A number of meanings therefore follow: (1) No place of worship whatever should be used for the worship of any other but Allah the true God. The Ka'bah was then full of idols, but the idols and their votaries were usurpers. (2) Worship should not be mixed up with vain objects, but should be reserved for the sincere service of Allah. (3) All our gifts are for Allah's service, which includes the service of His creatures, and not for our vainglory. (R).

5743. The Devotee of Allah: the Holy Prophet Muḥammad.

5744. They. The immediate reference was to the Pagan Quarrysh who were then in possession of the Ka'bah and who put all sorts of obstacles and indignities in the way of Holy Prophet for preaching the One True God and denouncing idol-worship. They used to surround him and mob him and to treat him as if he was guilty of some dreadful crime. But the wider application refers to the habit of the world to make a marked man of any who diverges from the beaten paths of their favourite sins and who pleads earnestly for the cause of truth and righteousness. They ridicule him; they surround him with jeers and obloquy; and they try to make the physical condition of his life as difficult for him as possible.

My Lord, and I join not
With Him any (false god)."

رَبِّي وَلَا أُشْرِكُ بِهِ أَحَدًا ۝

21. Say: "It is not
In my power to cause⁵⁷⁴⁵
You harm, or to bring
You to right conduct."

۲۱- قُلْ إِنِّي لَا أَمْلِكُ
لَكُمْ ضَرًّا وَلَا رَشَدًا ۝

22. Say: "No one can
Deliver me from Allah⁵⁷⁴⁶
(If I were to disobey Him),
Nor should I find refuge
Except in Him.

۲۲- قُلْ إِنِّي لَنْ يُخَيِّرَنِي مِنَ اللَّهِ أَحَدٌ ۚ
وَلَنْ أَجِدَ مِنْ دُونِهِ مُلْتَحَدًا ۝

23. "Unless I proclaim what
I receive from Allah
And His Messages:
For any that disobey Allah
And His Messenger—for them
Is Hell: they shall dwell
Therein forever."

۲۳- إِلَّا بَلَاغًا مِنَ اللَّهِ وَرِسَالَاتِهِ
وَمَنْ يَعْصِ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ
فَأَن لَّهُ نَارُ جَهَنَّمَ
خَالِدًا فِيهَا أَبَدًا ۝

24. At length, when they
See (with their own eyes)
That which they are promised — ⁵⁷⁴⁷
Then will they know
Who it is that is
Weakest in (his) helper
And least important
In point of numbers.

۲۴- حَتَّىٰ إِذَا رَأَوْا مَا يُوعَدُونَ
فَسَيَعْلَمُونَ مَنْ أَضْعَفُ نَاصِرًا
وَأَقْلَرُ عَدَدًا ۝

25. Say: "I know not whether
The (Punishment) which ye
Are promised is near,⁵⁷⁴⁸

۲۵- قُلْ إِن أَدْرِي
أَقْرَبُ مَا تُوعَدُونَ

5745. 'Do not suppose that I am going to harm you individually or socially; the very opposite is my wish; but I cannot force you to right conduct; that must depend upon the purification of your own faith and will.'

5746. 'My mission is from Allah. I cannot choose but obey. He has charged me to deliver the Message, and if I were to disobey him, I would myself be worthy of His punishment, and no one can save me. From every kind of trouble and difficulty my only refuge is in Him. I must proclaim His Message: otherwise I am false to the mission He has entrusted to me.'

5747. When the Hereafter arrives, and true values are restored, they will see clearly that the Promise of Allah was true, and that death on this earth was not the end of all things. Then they will see that those who were accounted weak on this earth will, in the realm of Reality, be strong ones; those who seemed to have no following here will have, there, all the great and true ones with them, to help them and welcome them to their own ranks.

5748. The coming of Judgement is certain. But the exact time, relatively to our standards on this earth, no one can tell. Allah alone knows it. Even a Prophet of Allah, as such, does not know the Mysteries of the Unseen World, except insofar as they have been revealed to him by Allah's Revelation. Cf. 6:50, and notes 867-68.

Or whether my Lord
Will appoint for it
A distant term.

أَمْ يَجْعَلُ لَهُ رَبِّي أَمَدًا ۝

26. "He (alone) knows the Unseen,
Nor does He make anyone
Acquainted with His Mysteries — 5749

٢٦- عِلْمُ الْغَيْبِ
فَلَا يُظْهِرُ عَلَى غَيْبِهِ أَحَدًا ۝

27. "Except a messenger⁵⁷⁵⁰
Whom He has chosen:
And then he makes
A band of watchers⁵⁷⁵¹
March before him
And behind him,

٢٧- إِلَّا مَنِ ارْتَضَىٰ مِنْ رَسُولٍ
فَاتَّخِذْ يَسْلُكُ
مِنْ بَيْنِ يَدَيْهِ وَمِنْ خَلْفِهِ رَصَدًا ۝

28. "That he may know
That they have (truly)^{5751-A}
Brought and delivered
The Messages of their Lord:
And He surrounds⁵⁷⁵²
(All the mysteries) that are
With them, and takes account
Of every single thing."⁵⁷⁵³

٢٨- لِيَعْلَمَ
أَنْ قَدْ أَنْبَغُوا رَسَلَتِ رَبِّهِمْ
وَاحَاطَ بِمَا لَدَيْهِمْ
وَاحْصَىٰ كُلَّ شَيْءٍ عَدَدًا ۝

5749. Mystery, or the Unseen, has two aspects. The relative Unseen is so with reference to a particular person, because of the intervention of Time, Space, or particular circumstances. For example: I cannot see today a house which I saw last year, because it has since been pulled down; or I cannot in Lahore see the "Gateway of India" in Bombay, although anyone in Bombay can see it; or I cannot see the satellites of Jupiter with the naked eye, though I can through a telescope; but the Absolute Unseen, the Absolute Mystery, or Allah's Mystery, is something which no creature can know or see, except insofar as Allah reveals it to him; and Allah reveals such things to the extent that is good for men, through His chosen messengers, among whom the greatest is Muḥammad. The exact time of the Hour of Judgement has not been so shown, because we must not wait for it, but live as if it is to be at this minute. See last note and next note, and the references there.

5750. Cf. 3:179, and n. 482. See also last note.

5751. Revelation is not a mechanical or material thing. It has to be safeguarded from being distorted or corrupted by ignorance, selfishness, or the powers of evil. How can its precious and subtle worth and the spiritual safeguards against its misuse by human folly or the perversity of evil be expressed in plain human words? We can imagine a very great treasure, which has to be transmitted. To guard it against evilly-disposed persons, a strong escort is required, to march in front and behind, so as to protect it from all sides. When it reaches its destination, the escort presents its credentials and an Invoice showing the Treasure being transmitted. Then the destined receiver knows that it has come intact and feels satisfied. So, about spiritual Revelation, the spiritual man recognises the credentials and checks the contents on the tablets of his own heart and insight. He has then no doubt that it is a true Message from Allah, and that those who bring it are the true messengers "of their Lord". (R).

5751-A. They: the band of watchers. In "he may know" it is better to construe "he" to refer to the Prophet who receives the Message from the "watchers".

5752. Aḥāṭa: surrounds, encompasses, encloses, guards on all sides, keeps under his own possession and control, and does not allow to be corrupted or debased. See last not but one.

5753. In the spiritual Kingdom — as indeed, in all things — Allah's knowledge, wisdom, and Plan comprehend all things, great and small. There is nothing which we do, nothing which happens that is outside His account.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 73—AL MUZZAMMIL

This is one of the earliest Sūrahs to have been revealed. The first was S. 96:1-5 (Iqra'), in the fortieth year of the Prophet's life, say about 12 years before the Hijrah. Then there was an interruption (Fatrah), of which the duration cannot be exactly ascertained, as there was no external history connected with it. The usual estimate puts it at about six months, but it may have been a year or two years. The years were then counted by the luni-solar calendar: see Appendix IX. The second Sūrah in chronological order was probably a great portion of S. 68. (Al Qalam), which came after the Fatrah was over. About the same time came this Sūrah (say third) and S. 74, which follows (say fourth), and the remainder of S. 96. We may roughly put the date of this Sūrah at about 11 to 10 years before the Hijrah.

The subject matter is the significance of Prayer and Humility in spiritual life and the terrible fate of those who reject Faith and Revelation.

C. 253.—Devote yourself to the service of Allah
 (73:1-20.) In the stillness of the night, but not
 All night. In the world's persecution rely
 On Allah, Who will deal with His enemies fittingly.
 Let not Allah's service be a matter
 Of difficulty to you: do all your duties
 In whole-hearted remembrance of Allah.
 And ever seek His bountiful Grace.

Sūrah 73.

Al Muzzammil (The Enfolded One)*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1.  thou folded
In garments!⁵⁷⁵⁴
2. Stand (to prayer) by night,
But not all night — ⁵⁷⁵⁵
3. Half of it —
Or a little less,
4. Or a little more;
And recite the Qur'ān⁵⁷⁵⁶
In slow, measured rhythmic tones.
5. Soon shall We send down
To thee a weighty Message.⁵⁷⁵⁷
6. Truly the rising by night
Is most potent for governing
(The soul), and most suitable
For (framing) the Word⁵⁷⁵⁸
(Of Prayer and Praise).
7. True, there is for thee
By day prolonged occupation

الجزء التاسع والعشرون سُوْرَةُ الْمُزْمِّلِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- يَا أَيُّهَا الْمُزْمِّلُ ۝

٢- قُمْ لَيْلًا إِلَّا قَلِيلًا ۝

٣- نِصْفَهُ أَوْ انْقُصْ مِنْهُ قَلِيلًا ۝

٤- أَوْ زِدْ عَلَيْهِ
وَرَتِّلِ الْقُرْآنَ تَرْتِيلًا ۝

٥- إِنَّا سَنُلْقِي عَلَيْكَ قَوْلًا ثَقِيلًا ۝

٦- إِنَّ نَاشِئَةَ اللَّيْلِ هِيَ أَشَدُّ وَظًا
وَأَقْوَمُ قِيلًا ۝

٧- إِنَّ لَكَ فِي النَّهَارِ

5754. Muzzammil: Some Commentators understand by this, "properly dressed for prayer", or "folded" in a sheet, as one renouncing the vanities of this world. Muzzammil is one of the titles of our Holy Prophet. But there is a deeper mystic meaning in this and the address "Thou wrapped up" of the next Sūrah. Human nature requires warm garments and wrappings to protect the body from cold or heat or rain. But in the spiritual world these wrappings are useless; the soul must stand bare and open before Allah, in the silence of the night, but not too austere, as the following verses show.

5755. The Prophet was prone to austerities in the cave of Hira', both before and after he received his mission, spending days and nights in prayer and contemplation. See C. 29. Midnight and after-midnight prayers have technically received the name of Tahajjud. See also verse 20 below; also 17:79. (R).

5756. At this time there was only S. 96, S. 68, and possibly S. 74, and the opening Sūrah (Al Hamd); but the heart of the Messenger had received enlightenment, and that Light was gradually finding expression in the verse of the Qur'ān. For us, now, with the whole of the Qur'ān before us, the injunction is specially necessary. The words of the Qur'ān must not be read hastily, merely to get through so much reading. They must be studied, and their deep meaning pondered over. They are themselves so beautiful that they must be lovingly pronounced in tones of rhythmic music.

5757. The Qur'ān as completed by degrees, after the Fatrah (see Introduction to this Sūrah).

5758. For contemplation, prayer, and praise, what time can be so suitable as the night, when calm and silence prevail, the voices of the marketplace are still, and the silent stars pour forth their eloquence to the discerning soul.

With ordinary duties:⁵⁷⁵⁹

8. But keep in remembrance
The name of thy Lord
And devote thyself
To Him wholeheartedly.
9. (He is) Lord of the East
And the West: there is
No god but He:
Take Him therefore
For (thy) Disposer of Affairs.⁵⁷⁶⁰
10. And have patience with what
They say, and leave them
With noble (dignity).
11. And leave Me
(Alone to deal with)
Those in possession of
The good things of life,⁵⁷⁶¹
Who (yet) deny the Truth;
And bear with them
For a little while.
12. With Us are Fetters⁵⁷⁶²
(To bind them), and a Fire⁵⁷⁶³
(To burn them),
13. And a Food that chokes,⁵⁷⁶⁴

سَبْحًا طَوِيلًا ۝

٨- وَاذْكُرْ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ
وَتَبَتَّلْ إِلَيْهِ تَبْتِيلًا ۝

٩- رَبُّ الْمَشْرِقِ وَالْمَغْرِبِ
لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا هُوَ
فَاتَّخِذْهُ وَكِيلًا ۝

١٠- وَاصْبِرْ عَلَى مَا يَقُولُونَ
وَاهْجُرْهُمْ هَجْرًا جَبِيلًا ۝

١١- وَذَرْنِي
وَالْمُكَذِّبِينَ أُولِي النَّعْمَةِ
وَمَحَلَّهُمْ قُلُوبًا ۝

١٢- إِنَّ لَدَيْنَا أَنْكَالًا وَجَحِيمًا ۝

١٣- وَطَعَامًا ذَا غُصَّةٍ ۝

5759. A prophet of Allah, as a man, a member of a family, or a citizen, has many ordinary duties to perform; and his work may be made difficult and irksome in protecting those who listen to his preaching and are therefore molested and persecuted by the world. But while discharging all his ordinary duties, he should work as in the presence of Allah, and in all matters and at all times retain the sense of Allah's nearness. His work may be on earth, but his heart is in Heaven.

5760. Allah is all-in-all. He is Lord of all places. He rules the world. Therefore be not discouraged by the plots or enmity of wicked men. Leave all things to Allah; trust Him; He is just and will do justice. Only turn away from the unjust, but in a worthy, noble way; i.e., to show them clearly that you do not fear them, but that you leave all affairs in Allah's hands. If we divide the world into hemispheres from the north to south, "East and West" will cover all directions.

5761. Men who enjoy the good things of life have special cause for gratitude to Allah. Who bestowed them. When they are in the ranks of Allah's enemies, none but Allah can adequately deal with them.

5762. Cf. 13:5; 34:33; 40:71 and 69:30-32. [Eds.].

5763. Cf. 44:47 and 56:94. [Eds.].

5764. Cf. 44:43; lvi. 52; 69:36-37, and 88:6. [Eds.].

And a Penalty Grievous.⁵⁷⁶⁵

وَعَذَابًا أَلِيمًا

14. One Day the earth
And the mountains
Will be in violent commotion.
And the mountains will be
As a heap of sand
Poured out and flowing down.⁵⁷⁶⁶

١٤- يَوْمَ تَرْجُفُ الْأَرْضُ وَالْجِبَالُ
وَكَانَتِ الْجِبَالُ
كَيْبًا مَهِيلًا

15. We have sent to you,
(O men!) a messenger,
To be a witness concerning you,⁵⁷⁶⁷
Even as We sent
A messenger to Pharaoh.

١٥- إِنَّا أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَيْكُمْ رَسُولًا
شَاهِدًا عَلَيْكُمْ
كَمَا أَرْسَلْنَا إِلَىٰ فِرْعَوْنَ رَسُولًا

16. But Pharaoh disobeyed⁵⁷⁶⁸
The messenger; so We
Seized him with
A heavy Punishment.

١٦- فَعَصَىٰ فِرْعَوْنُ الرَّسُولَ
فَأَخَذْنَاهُ أَخْذًا وَبِيلًا

17. Then how shall ye,
If ye deny (Allah)
Guard yourselves against

١٧- فَكَيْفَ تَتَّقُونَ إِن كَفَرْتُمْ

5765. In general terms, the Penalty of sin may be described as a Penalty Grievous, an Agony. It may come in this very life, but that in the Hereafter is certain! See next verse.

We can also consider punishments from another aspect. The first object of punishment is to protect the innocent from the depredations of the criminal; we have to bind him. The next object is to produce in his heart the fire of repentance, to consume his evil proclivities and to light his conscience. Where that is not enough, a more drastic punishment for the callous is something which causes him pain in things which ordinarily cause him pleasure, such as food, drink, and the satisfaction of physical needs. People in whom the higher spiritual faculties are dead may perchance be awakened through the lower physical features of their life, which appeal to them. Where this also fails, there is finally the complete Agony, a type or symbol too terrible to contemplate.

5766. The Judgement is described as a violent commotion which will change the whole face of nature as we know it. Even the hard rock of mountains will be like loose sand running without any cohesion.

5767. Our Holy Prophet has to warn his age, i.e., the present age, reclaim it from sin, and be a witness for the righteous and against evil, as Moses did his office in his age. For Pharaoh, his arrogance, and his punishment, see 10:75-92.

5768. Pharaoh the earthly king faces Moses the Prophet of Allah. In earthly eyes it was Moses who disobeyed Pharaoh. In spiritual relations, it was Pharaoh who disobeyed Moses. Pharaoh represented an ancient and mighty kingdom, with a long history behind it, and a pride in its learning and science, art, organisation, and power. Moses led a depressed people, hewers of wood and drawers of water. But the might of Allah was behind him. What became of the wisdom, power, and armies of Pharaoh? They were rent asunder when the day came, and the terror and surprise must have been the same as if the heavens had been rent asunder, and children's hair had turned grey! But formidable revolutions turn children grey-haired in another way. Nations that were as children became wise before they in their turn decayed, and from similar disobedience to the laws of Allah. For Allah's law must stand and be fulfilled when all else is swept away.

A Day that will make
Children hoary-headed?—⁵⁷⁶⁹

18. Whereon the sky will be
Cleft asunder?
His Promise needs must
Be accomplished.

19. Verily this is an Admonition;⁵⁷⁷⁰
Therefore, whoso will, let him
Take a (straight) path
To his Lord!

SECTION 2.

20. Thy Lord doth know
That thou standest forth
(To prayer) nigh two-thirds
Of the night, or half
The night, or a third⁵⁷⁷¹
Of the night, and so doth
A party of those with thee.
But Allah doth appoint Night
And Day in due measure.
He knoweth that ye are
Unable to keep count thereof.⁵⁷⁷²
So He hath turned to you
(In mercy): read ye,

يَوْمًا يَجْعَلُ الْوِلْدَانَ شِيبًا ۝

١٨- السَّمَاءُ مُنْفَطِرٌ بِهِ
كَانَ وَعْدُهُ مَفْعُولًا ۝

١٩- إِنَّ هَذِهِ تَذَكُّرَةٌ
فَمَنْ شَاءَ اتَّخَذْ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِ سَبِيلًا ۝

٢٠- إِنْ رَأَيْتَ رَبَّكَ يَعْلَمُ أَنَّكَ تَقُومُ أَدْنَىٰ
مِّنْ ثُلُثَيِ اللَّيْلِ وَنِصْفَهُ
وَتُلُكَّهِ وَطَائِفَةٌ مِّنَ الَّذِينَ مَعَكَ
وَاللَّهُ يُقَدِّرُ اللَّيْلَ وَالنَّهَارَ
عَلِمَ أَنْ لَّنْ نَّحْصُوهُ
فَتَنَابَ عَلَيْكُمْ
فَاتْلُوا

5769. If already you deny and disobey Allah in this life of probation, how can you stand up to the Day of Judgement, the Day of the terrible Reality? That Day is described in two metaphors; (1) It will be a time of such stress that even children will become like hoary-headed men; (2) What we look upon as the eternal sky, ever the same, will be cleft asunder; cf. 82:1. In other words, the shape of things will be completely altered, both within man and in outer nature, and all true values will be restored. For the Promise of Allah, in this as in all other respects, cannot but be fulfilled.

5770. This is no empty threat. It is an admonition for your good. If you have the will, you can at once come for the Grace and Mercy of Allah, and obtain it. For Repentance and Amendment are the straight Way to the nearness of Allah.

5771. Cf., above, 73:2-4. The Prophet, and a zealous band of his disciples, were often up, two-thirds of the night, or a half, or a third, rejecting sleep and giving themselves up to Prayer and Praise and the reading of the Qur'ān. They are told that this was too severe a tax on them, especially if their health was affected, or they were on a journey, or they were striving, with might and main, in other ways, for the cause of Allah. See the lines following.

5772. The usual meaning taken is that the counting of the exact hours of night and day may not be possible for ordinary people, in order to determine exactly the half, or the third, or the two-thirds of a night. The length of the night and day varies everyday of the solar year, and the precise hour of midnight can only be determined by exact observation in clear skies or by chronometers, which is not possible for everyone. But I understand it in a wider meaning. Allah fixes night and day in due proportions; for rest and work, and according to seasonal variations. For prayer and praise no meticulous observations of that kind are necessary or possible. Allah's service can be done in many ways as detailed below. But we must give some time to devotion, as may be most easy and convenient to us, in various circumstances of health, travel, and the performance of various duties.

Therefore, of the Qur'ān⁵⁷⁷³
 As much as may be
 Easy for you. He knoweth
 That there may be (some)
 Among you in ill-health;
 Others travelling through the land,
 Seeking of Allah's bounty;
 Yet others fighting⁵⁷⁷⁴
 In Allah's Cause. Read ye,
 Therefore, as much of the Qur'ān
 As may be easy (for you);
 And establish regular Prayer
 And give regular Charity;
 And loan to Allah
 A Beautiful Loan.⁵⁷⁷⁵
 And whatever good
 Ye send forth
 For your souls,⁵⁷⁷⁶
 Ye shall find it
 In Allah's Presence —
 Yea, better and
 Greater, in Reward,
 And seek ye the Grace
 Of Allah: for Allah is⁵⁷⁷⁷
 Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.

5773. The reading of the Qur'ān here is a part of Prayer and religious devotion. This is not to be made into an obsession or a burden. Cf. 20:2: "We have not sent down the Qur'ān to thee to be an occasion for thy distress." We must do it whole-mindedly, but not by formal mechanical computations.

5774. This refers to Jihād. The better opinion is that this particular verse was revealed in Madinah, long after the greater part of the Sūrah. The reference, further on, to canonical Prayers and regular Charity (Zakāh), points to the same conclusion.

5775. Cf. 2:245, and n. 276, where the meaning of "a Beautiful Loan" is explained. See also 57:18. The "Beautiful Loan" should be that of our own souls. We should expect no returns in kind, for that is not possible. But the reward we shall find with Allah will be infinitely greater and nobler. Cf. the biblical phrase, "Lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven" (Matt. vi. 20).

5776. Any good that we do raises our own spiritual status and dignity. We must not think that when we speak of Allah's service or Allah's Cause, we are doing anything for His benefit: He is independent of all needs whatsoever.

5777. This emphasises the need of Allah's Grace. Whatever good we do, our own merits are comparatively small. Allah's Grace must lift us up and blot out our shortcomings. Even in piety there may be an arrogance which may become a sin. We should always seek Allah's Mercy in all humility.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 74—AL MUDDATHTHIR

This Sūrah dates from about the same time as the last one. Its subject matter is also similar: Prayer and Praise, and the need of patience in a period of great spiritual stress: the unjust who cause sorrow and suffering now will themselves experience agony in the Hereafter.

C. 254. — The Seer, by devotion and contemplation,
 (74:1-56.) Prepares himself for the duties of Guide
 And Leader to mankind: but when there comes
 The clear Call, he must stand forth
 And proclaim the Message—in purity,
 Unselfish devotion, and patience long-suffering—
 To save men from the Distress of the Final Day.
 For many there be who glory in a life
 Of ease and plenty, arrogant splendour,
 And the applause of men, who scorn Allah's Truth
 And reject the divine. How will they fare
 When the Judgement comes, and the Penalty?
 Every Fact of Life's grand Pageant
 Is but a Portent for the Future.
 Every soul is in pledge and must
 Redeem itself by Faith and Prayer,
 By Charity and earnest care for the Realities
 Of Life. Bring but the will, and Allah
 Will guide—the Lord of Righteousness,
 The Lord of Mercy and Forgiveness!

Sūrah 74.

Al Muddaththir (The One Wrapped Up)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ﴿ thou wrapped up⁵⁷⁷⁸
(In a mantle)!
2. Arise and deliver thy warning!
3. And thy Lord
Do thou magnify!
4. And thy garments⁵⁷⁷⁹
Keep free from stain!
5. And all abomination shun!⁵⁷⁸⁰
6. Nor expect, in giving,
Any increase (for thyself)!⁵⁷⁸¹
7. But, for thy Lord's (Cause)⁵⁷⁸²
Be patient and constant!
8. Finally, when the Trumpet
Is sounded,

الجزء التاسع والعشرون سُورَةُ الْمُدَّثِّرِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- يَأْتِيهَا الْمُدَّثِّرُ ۝

٢- قُمْ فَأَنْذِرْ ۝

٣- وَرَبِّكَ فَكَبِّرْ ۝

٤- وَثِيَابَكَ فَطَهِّرْ ۝

٥- وَالرُّجْزَ فَاهْجُرْ ۝

٦- وَلَا تَسْنُنْ سَتَكُنْ ۝

٧- وَلِرَبِّكَ فَاصْبِرْ ۝

٨- فَإِذَا نُفِخَ فِي النُّفُورِ ۝

5778. In these wonderful early mystic verses there is a double thread of thought; (1) A particular occasion or person is referred to; (2) a general spiritual lesson is taught. As to (1), the Prophet was now past the stage of personal contemplation, lying down or sitting in his mantle; he was now to go forth; boldly to deliver his Message and publicly proclaim the Lord; his heart had always been purified, but now all his outward doings must be dedicated to Allah, and conventional respect for ancestral customs or worship must be thrown aside; his work as a Messenger was the most generous gift that could flow from his personality, but no reward or appreciation was to be expected from his people, but quite the contrary; there would be much call on his patience, but his contentment would arise from the good pleasure of Allah. As to (2), similar stages arise in a minor degree in the life of every good man, for which the Prophet's life is to be a universal pattern. (R).

5779. Possibly, in its immediate application, there is a reference to the dirt and filth which the Pagans used to throw at the Prophet to insult and persecute him.

5780. Rujz or Rijz: abomination: usually understood to refer to idolatry. It is even possible that there was an idol called Rujz. But it has a wider signification, as including a mental state opposed to true worship a state of doubt or indecision.

5781. The legal and commercial formula is that you give in order to receive. And usually you expect to receive what is worth to you a little more than you give. The spiritual consideration is that you give, but expect nothing from the receiver. You serve Allah and Allah's creatures.

5782. Our zeal for Allah's Cause itself requires that we should not be impatient, and that we should show constancy in our efforts for His Cause. For we have faith, and we know that He is All-Good, All-Wise, and All-Powerful, and everything will ultimately be right.

9. That will be—that Day—
A Day of Distress—⁵⁷⁸³
10. Far from easy
For those without Faith.
11. Leave Me alone, (to deal)⁵⁷⁸⁴
With the (creature) whom
I created (bare and) alone!—⁵⁷⁸⁵
12. To whom I granted
Resources in abundance,
13. And sons to be
By his side!—⁵⁷⁸⁶
14. To whom I made
(Life) smooth and comfortable!
15. Yet is he greedy—
That I should add
(Yet more)—⁵⁷⁸⁷
16. By no means!
For to Our Signs
He has been refractory!
17. Soon will I visit him
With a mount of calamities!⁵⁷⁸⁸
18. For he thought
And he plotted—
19. And woe to him!⁵⁷⁸⁹
How he plotted!—

- ٩- فَذَٰلِكَ يَوْمِئِذٍ عَسِيرٌ ۝

- ١٧- سَأَرْسِلُهُ صَاعُودًا ۝
- ١٨- لَإِنَّهُ فَعَلَّو قَدَّرَ ۝
- ١٩- فَقَتِلَ كَيْفَ قَدَّرَ ۝

5783. The Sinner's course is now shown in contrast to the Seeker's. The Sinner may be self-complacent now; but what will be his position when the Reckoning comes? Not easy; indeed a Day of Distress!

5784. The question of Justice and Punishment to men is for Allah alone. For man at his best can see only one side of truth, and only Allah is All-Knowing. He alone can judge the limits of Justice and Mercy.

5785. Man's adventitious advantages—wealth, power, position, talents—are not due to his own merits. They are gifts from Allah, Who created him. In himself he came bare and alone.

5786. The great ones of the earth may have wealth, a large following, sons by their side to defend them and do their bidding and manpower to help them in their battles. Life may be smooth and agreeable to them. But their responsibility is to Allah.

5787. The Sinner takes Allah's gifts as if they were his right. The more he gets, the more is he greedy. Yet to Allah's Signs and revelations he is willfully deaf or even openly rebellious. But he is only preparing the way for his own undoing.

5788. "A mount of calamities" or disasters: may be understood as a phrase for cumulative disasters. (R).

5789. Cf. 51:10; "Woe to the falsehood mongers!"

20. Yea, woe to him;
How he plotted!—
۲۰- ثُمَّ قَتَلَ كَيْفَ قَدَرٌ
21. Then he looked round;
۲۱- ثُمَّ نَظَرَ
22. Then he frowned
And he scowled;
۲۲- ثُمَّ عَبَسَ وَبَسَرَ
23. Then he turned back
And was haughty;
۲۳- ثُمَّ أَدْبَرَ وَاسْتَكْبَرَ
24. Then said he:⁵⁷⁹⁰
"This is nothing but magic,
Derived from of old;"
۲۴- فَقَالَ
إِنْ هَذَا إِلَّا سِحْرٌ يُؤْتَرُ
25. "This is nothing but
The word of a mortal!"
۲۵- إِنْ هَذَا إِلَّا قَوْلُ الْبَشَرِ
26. Soon will I
Cast him into Hell-Fire!⁵⁷⁹¹
۲۶- سَأُصْلِيهِ سَقَرَ
27. And what will explain
To thee what Hell-Fire is?
۲۷- وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا سَقَرُ
28. Naught doth it permit
To endure, and naught⁵⁷⁹²
Doth it leave alone!—
۲۸- لَا تُبْقِ وَلَا تَذَرُ
29. Darkening and changing
The colour of man!
۲۹- لَوَاحٍ لِلْبَشَرِ
30. Over it are Nineteen.⁵⁷⁹³
۳۰- عَلَيْهَا تِسْعَةَ عَشَرَ

5790. The Commentators understand the reference to be to Walīd ibn Mughayrah, who was a wealthy Sybarite, Pagan to the core, and an inveterate enemy to the Holy Prophet. He and Abū Jahl did all they could, from the beginning of the preaching of Islam, to abuse and persecute the Preacher, to run down his doctrine, and to injure those who believed in it. But the meaning for us is much wider. There are Walīds in all ages. They cannot understand divine inspiration, and seek to explain its wonderful influence over the lives of men by some such unmeaning formula as "magic". The eternal Hope is to them mere human delusion!

5791. The Sinner's perversity can only end in the Fire of Punishment. It enters his very being. See next note.

5792. He is in a state in which he neither lives nor dies (87:13). Looked at in another way, the things that in a good man are meant to last and grow, are for the sinner destroyed, and no part of his nature is left untouched. The brightness of his very manhood is darkened and extinguished by sin.

5793. The figure nineteen refers to angels appointed to guard Hell. See verse 31 below and the corresponding note. [Eds.].

31. And We have set none⁵⁷⁹⁴
 But angels as guardians
 Of the Fire; and We
 Have fixed their number⁵⁷⁹⁵
 Only as a trial
 For Unbelievers—in order
 That the People of the Book
 May arrive at certainty,
 And the Believers may increase
 In Faith—and that no doubts
 May be left for the People
 Of the Book and the Believers,
 And that those in whose hearts
 Is a disease and the Unbelievers
 May say, "What symbol
 Doth Allah intend by this?"⁵⁷⁹⁶
 Thus doth Allah leave to stray
 Whom He pleaseth, and guide
 Whom He pleaseth; and none
 Can know the forces
 Of thy Lord, except He.⁵⁷⁹⁷

٣١- وَمَا جَعَلْنَا أَصْحَابَ النَّارِ إِلَّا مَلَائِكَةً
 وَمَا جَعَلْنَا عَدَّتَهُمْ إِلَّا فِتْنَةً
 لِلَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لِيَسْتَيْقِنَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا
 الْكِتَابَ وَيَزِدَّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا إِيمَانًا
 وَلَا يَزِنَ آتَابَ الَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْكِتَابَ وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ
 وَلِيَقُولَ الَّذِينَ فِي قُلُوبِهِمْ مَرَضٌ
 وَالْكَافِرُونَ مَاذَا أَرَادَ اللَّهُ بِهَذَا مَثَلًا
 كَذَلِكَ يُضِلُّ اللَّهُ مَن يَشَاءُ
 وَيَهْدِي مَن يَشَاءُ
 وَمَا يَعْلَمُ جُنُودَ رَبِّكَ إِلَّا هُوَ

5794. Cf. 66:6, and n. 5540.

There was a great volume of angelology in the religious literature of the People of the Book (i.e. the Jews and Christians) to whom (among others) an appeal is made in this verse. The Essenes, a Jewish brotherhood with highly spiritual ideas, to which perhaps the Prophet Jesus himself belonged, had an extensive literature of angelology. In the Midrash also, which was a Jewish school of exegesis and mystical interpretation, there was much said about angels. The Eastern Christian sects contemporary with the birth of Islam had borrowed and developed many of these ideas, and their mystics owed much to the Gnostics and the Persian apocalyptic systems. In the New Testament the relation of the angels with Fire is referred to more than once. In Rev. ix. 11 we have "the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon". In Rev. xiv. 18 there is an "angel which had power over fire", and in Rev. xvi. 8 and angel has "power. . . given unto him to scorch men with fire". In the Old Testament (Daniel vii. 9-10) the essence of all angels is fire: thousands of them issued as a fire stream from before the Ancient of Days, whose "throne was like the fiery flame, and His wheels as burning fire".

5795. The mystic significance of numbers is a favourite theme with some writers, but I lay no stress on it. In Christian theology the number of the Beast, 666, in Rev. xiii. 18 has given rise to much controversy, and may refer only to the numerical value of the letters in the name of the Roman Emperor Nero. In our own literature I think that we ought to avoid too much insistence on speculative conjectures. (R).

5796. There are four classes of people mentioned here: (1) the Muslims will have their faith increased, because they believe that all revelation is from Allah Most Merciful, and all His forces will work in their favour; (2) the People of the Book, those who had received previous revelations of an analogous character, the Jews and Christians, had numerous sects disputing with each other on minute points of doctrine; but they will now, if they believe, find rest from controversies in a broad understanding of scripture; (3) those in whose hearts is a disease (see 2:8-10, notes 33-34), the insincere ones, the hypocrites, will only be mystified, because they believe nothing and have rejected the grace and mercy of Allah; (4) the Unbelievers have frankly done the same and must suffer similar consequences. (R).

5797. It is a necessary consequence of moral responsibility and freedom of choice in man, that he should be left free to stray if he chooses to do so, in spite of all the warning and the instruction he receives. Allah's channels of warning and instruction—His spiritual forces—are infinite, as are His powers. No man can know them. But this warning or reminder is addressed to all mankind.

All things are referred to Allah. But we must not attribute evil to Him. In 4:79 we are expressly told that the good comes from Allah, and the evil from ourselves.

And this is no other than
A warning to mankind.

وَمَا هِيَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ لِلْبَشَرِ ۝

SECTION 2.

32. Nay, verily:
By the Moon,⁵⁷⁹⁸

۝۳۲- كَلَّا وَالْقَمَرِ ۝

33. And by the Night⁵⁷⁹⁹
As it retreateth,

۝۳۳- وَالَّيْلِ إِذَا أَدْبَرَ ۝

34. And by the Dawn
As it shineth forth—

۝۳۴- وَالصُّبْحِ إِذَا أَصْفَرَ ۝

35. This is but one⁵⁸⁰⁰
Of the mighty (Portents),

۝۳۵- إِنَّهَا لَإِحْدَى الْكُبَرِ ۝

36. A warning to mankind—

۝۳۶- نَذِيرٌ لِلْبَشَرِ ۝

37. To any of you that
Chooses to press forward,
Or to follow behind—⁵⁸⁰¹

۝۳۷- لِمَنْ شَاءَ مِنْكُمْ أَنْ يَتَقَدَّمَ أَوْ يَتَأَخَّرَ ۝

5798. An oath in human speech calls in evidence something sacred in the heart of man. In Allah's Message, also, when delivered in human language, solemn emphasis is indicated by an appeal to something striking among the Signs of Allah, which will go straight to the human heart which is addressed. In each case the symbol of the appeal has reference to the particular point enforced in the argument. Here we are asked to contemplate three wonderful phenomena, and they lead up to the conclusion in verse 38. (1) The moon, next after the sun, is the most striking luminary to our sight. Its reflected light has for us even a greater mystery than the direct light of the sun, which looks to us like pure fire. The moon was worshipped as a deity in times of darkness. But in reality, though she rules the night, her rays are only reflections, and are wanting in warmth and vitality. So every soul which looks up to a mere creature of Allah for a sort of vicarious salvation is in spiritual darkness of error; for the true source of spiritual light and life is Allah, and Allah alone. For (2) the Night and (3) the Dawn, see the following note.

5799. (2) The Night when it is illuminated by the Moon is light in a sense, but it is really dark and must give place to (3) the Dawn when it comes, as the harbinger of the Sun. So in spiritual matters, when every soul realises its own responsibility, it will look less and less to reflected lights, and through the beauty of a dawn-like awakening, will be prepared more and more for the splendour of the light of Allah Himself, the goal of the Heaven of our dreams.

5800. This is but one, etc. There are numerous Signs of Allah, of which Judgement is one, and one of the mightiest portents. Or the reference may be to the waning of the Moon, the decline of the night, and the glorious sunrise, as tokens or symbols of the world renewed when the present transitory world passes away. According to some commentators "This" here refers to Hell. (R).

5801. Three interpretations are possible. (1) Those pressing forward may be the Righteous, and those following behind may be the laggards, the Unbelievers, who reject Allah's love, care, and mercy. (2) Men of two kinds of temperament may be referred to; those who are always in the van and those who are always in the rear. Allah's Message is open to both. But there may be a danger to both; in the one case, overconfidence, or hope in wrong things; in the other case missing great opportunities so that their spiritual lives may be "bound in shallows and in miseries". Extremes should be avoided. (3) Or it may mean that the warning is effective only for those willing to move forwards or backwards, as the case may be, but is lost in some cases we have to retreat from false positions. The hopeless case is that of the obstinate man, whose heart is so dead that he dares not advance to the right or withdraw from the wrong.

38. Every soul will be (held)
In pledge for its deeds.⁵⁸⁰²

٣٨- كُلُّ نَفْسٍ بِمَا كَسَبَتْ رَهِينَةٌ ۝

39. Except the Companions
Of the Right Hand,⁵⁸⁰³

٣٩- إِلَّا أَصْحَابَ الْيَمِينِ ۝

40. (They will be) in Gardens
(Of Delight); they will Question each other,

٤٠- فِي جَنَّاتٍ تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ
يَتَسَاءَلُونَ ۝

41. And (ask) of the Sinners:

٤١- عَنِ الْمُجْرِمِينَ ۝

42. "What led you
Into Hell-Fire?"

٤٢- مَا سَلَكَكُمْ فِي سَقَرٍ ۝

43. They will say;
"We were not of those
Who prayed;"

٤٣- قَالُوا لَمْ نَكُ مِنَ الْمُصَلِّينَ ۝

44. "Nor were we of those
Who fed the indigent;"

٤٤- وَلَمْ نَكُ نُطْعِمُ الْمِسْكِينَ ۝

45. "But we used to talk
Vanities with vain talkers;"

٤٥- وَكُنَّا نَخُوضُ مَعَ الْخَائِضِينَ ۝

46. "And we used to deny
The Day of Judgement,"

٤٦- وَكُنَّا نكَذِّبُ بِيَوْمِ الدِّينِ ۝

47. "Until there came to us
(The Hour) that is certain."⁵⁸⁰⁴

٤٧- حَتَّىٰ آتَانَا الْيَقِينَ ۝

48. Then will no intercession
Of (any) intercessors
Profit them.

٤٨- فَمَا تَنْفَعُهُمْ شَفَاعَةُ الشَّافِعِينَ ۝

49. Then what is
The matter with them

٤٩- فَمَا لَهُمْ عَنِ

5802. Cf. 52:21. Man cannot shift his responsibility to vicarious saviours or saints. His redemption depends upon the grace of Allah, for which he should constantly and wholeheartedly strive by means of right conduct. If he does so he will be redeemed and he will join the Companions of the Right Hand.

5803. Cf. n. 5223 to 56:3, and see 56:27-38. The Companions of the Right Hand will be the Righteous or the Blessed in the Hereafter. Their grounds of merit will be Prayer, Charity, Earnestness, and Faith in Allah's just Judgement; all which are within the reach of the humblest Seeker. They are not separate acts of virtues, but are all interconnected. At Judgement, the pledge of their soul will be redeemed by Allah's Grace at the Taking of the Account.

5804. Cf. 15:99, and n. 2018. The Hour that is Certain is usually taken to be Death. (R).

- That they turn away
From admonition?—⁵⁸⁰⁵
50. As if they were
Affrighted asses,
51. Fleeing from a lion!
52. Forsooth, each one of them
Wants to be given⁵⁸⁰⁶
Scrolls (of revelation) spread out!
53. By no means! But
They fear not the Hereafter.
54. Nay, this surely
Is an admonition:
55. Let any who will,⁵⁸⁰⁷
Keep it in remembrance!
56. But none will keep it
In remembrance except
As Allah wills: He⁵⁸⁰⁸
Is the Lord of Righteousness,
And the Lord of Forgiveness.

التَّذْكِرَةُ مُعْرِضِينَ ۝
 ٥٠- كَانَتْ لَهُمْ حُمُرٌ مُسْتَنْفِرَةٌ ۝
 ٥١- فَفَرَّتْ مِنْ قَسْوَرَةٍ ۝
 ٥٢- بَلْ يَرِيدُ كُلُّ امْرِئٍ مِنْهُمْ
 أَنْ يُؤْتَى صُحُفًا مُنشَرَةً ۝
 ٥٣- كَلَّا بَلْ لَا يَخَافُونَ الْآخِرَةَ ۝
 ٥٤- كَلَّا إِنَّهُ تَذْكِرَةٌ ۝
 ٥٥- فَمَنْ شَاءَ ذَكَّرْهُ ۝
 ٥٦- وَمَا يَذْكُرُونَ إِلَّا أَنْ يَشَاءَ اللَّهُ
 هُوَ أَهْلُ التَّقْوَى
 وَأَهْلُ السَّغْفَرَةِ ۝

5805. If the Day of Judgement is inevitable, it is strange that men should not heed a plain warning, but go on as if they were thoughtless and obstinate asses stampeding from a lion. Instead of heeding the warning, they try to avoid it. They are frightened at Allah's Word.

5806. Cf. 17:93: "Until thou send down to us a book, that we could not read". The Unbelievers pretend in ridicule that they would believe if a special message written on open scrolls and addressed to them severally were brought to them by a miracle! There is a disease in their hearts and understandings. The Teacher's warning is plain, and enough for any reasonable man who has the will to seek Allah.

5807. The Qur'an it self is the admonition—the latest among the revealed Books of Allah. If man has the will to learn, he will keep the Message always before Him, and Allah's grace will help him to carry out in his conduct.

5808. Righteousness as well as Forgiveness have their source in Allah's Will Man's Righteousness has no meaning except in relation to the Universal Will. For Tāqwa see n. 26 to 2:2. If we take the word here in the sense of "the fear of Allah", the translation would be: "He alone is worthy to be feared, and He alone is entitled to grant Forgiveness."

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 75—AL QIYĀMAH

This Sūrah belongs to the early Makkan period, but comes chronologically a good deal later than the last Sūrahs.

Its subject matter is the Resurrection, viewed from the point of view of Man, especially unregenerate Man, as he is now, and as he will be then—his inner and psychological history.

C. 255.—Eschew all Evil: for man was not created
 (75:1-40.) Without purpose or without responsibility.
 The Day of Account will come, and his own
 Conscience bears witness that he
 Must walk straight; for he must face
 That Day's Realities. With patience await
 The unfoldment of Allah's view. The faces
 Of the Blest will beam with brightness and beauty.
 For the others, Death will be a terror—
 For duties neglected and sins committed.
 Woe unto man that he thinks not now
 Of Allah's Purpose and the noble Destiny
 For which Allah gave him Life and its Gifts.

Sūrah 75.

Al Qiyāmah (The Resurrection)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. I do call to witness⁵⁸⁰⁹
The Resurrection Day;
2. And I do call to witness
The self-reproaching spirit;⁵⁸¹⁰
(Eschew Evil).
3. Does man think that We Cannot assemble his bones?⁵⁸¹¹
4. Nay, We are able to put Together in perfect order
The very tips of his fingers.⁵⁸¹²
5. But man wishes to do
Wrong (even) in the time
In front of him.⁵⁸¹³
6. He questions: "When⁵⁸¹⁴
Is the Day of Resurrection?"
7. At length, when
The Sight is dazed,⁵⁸¹⁵

الْحُزْنَ الثَّانِيَةَ وَالْعَشْرُونَ سُورَةُ الْقِيَامَةِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- اَلَا اُقْسِمُ بِيَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ ۝

۲- وَاَلَا اُقْسِمُ بِالنَّفْسِ اللَّوَّامَةِ ۝

۳- اَيَحْسَبُ الْاِنْسَانُ اَلْنَّ نَجْمَعُ عِظَامَهُ ۝

۴- بَلَى قَدَرِيْنَ عَلٰى
اَنْ نُّسَوِّيَ بَنَانَهُ ۝

۵- بَلْ يُرِيْدُ الْاِنْسَانُ
لِيَفْجُرَ اَمَامَهُ ۝

۶- يَسْئَلُ اَيَّانَ يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ ۝

۷- وَاِذَا بَرِقَ الْبَصَرُ ۝

5809. Cf. 70:40, and n. 5700. Here the point to be enforced is understood: I have added it in brackets: "eschew Evil". The appeal is made to two considerations: (1) That every act has to be accounted for, and evil must have its recompense at the Resurrection; and (2) that man's own spirit has a conscience which would reproach him of sin, if he did not suppress that inner voice.

5810. Our doctors postulate three states or stages of the development of the human soul; (1) Ammārah (12:53), which is prone to evil, and, if not checked and controlled, will lead to perdition; (2) Lawwāmah, as here, which feels conscious of evil, and resists it, asks for Allah's grace and pardon after repentance and tries to amend; it hopes to reach salvation; (3) Mutma'innah (89:27), the highest stage of all, when it achieves full rest and satisfaction. Our second stage may be compared to Conscience, except that in English usage Conscience is a faculty and not a stage in spiritual development.

5811. The Unbelievers' usual cry is: "What! when we are reduced to bones and dust, how can our personality be called to account?" (17:49). The answer is: Allah has said so, and He will do it; for the death here is not the end of all things.

5812. An idiom for the most delicate parts of the body.

5813. It is bad enough not to repent of past sins. But the evildoer who rejects a Day of Reckoning and has no conscience wants to go on in his career of sin and jeopardise his future also.

5814. The question is sceptical or derisive. He does not believe that there is any chain of consequences in the Hereafter. He does not believe in a Hereafter.

5815. At the Hour of Judgement the full light and glory of the Lord will shine, and the effulgence will dazzle man's eyes. For the world as we knew it will go to pieces and a new World will come into being.

| 8. And the moon is
Buried in darkness. ⁵⁸¹⁶ | ٨- وَخَسَفَ الْقَمَرُ ۖ |
| 9. And the sun and moon
Are joined together— ⁵⁸¹⁷ | ٩- وَجُمِعَ الشَّمْسُ وَالْقَمَرُ ۖ |
| 10. That Day will Man say;
"Where is the refuge?" | ١٠- يَقُولُ الْإِنْسَانُ يَوْمَئِذٍ أَيْنَ الْمَفْزُؤُ ۖ |
| 11. By no means!
No place of safety! | ١١- كَلَّا لَا وَفَرَائِجَ لَدِ الْغَوَّاسِ ۖ |
| 12. Before thy Lord (alone),
That Day will be
The place of rest. | ١٢- إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ يَوْمَئِذٍ الْمُسْتَقَرُّ ۖ |
| 13. That Day will Man
Be told (all) that he
Put forward, and all
That he put back. ⁵⁸¹⁸ | ١٣- يُنَبِّئُوا الْإِنْسَانَ
يَوْمَئِذٍ بِمَا قَدَّمَ وَأَخَّرَ ۖ |
| 14. Nay, man will be
Evidence against himself, ⁵⁸¹⁹ | ١٤- بَلِ الْإِنْسَانُ عَلَىٰ نَفْسِهِ بَصِيرَةٌ ۖ |
| 15. Even though he were
To put up his excuses. | ١٥- وَلَوْ أَلْقَىٰ مَعَاذِيرَهُ ۖ |
| 16. Move not thy tongue
Concerning the (Qur'ān)
To make haste therewith. ⁵⁸²⁰ | ١٦- لَا تَحْرُكَ بِهِ لِسَانَكَ لِتَتَاجَلَّيَ بِهِ ۖ |

5816. Not only will man's sight be dazed, but the great luminaries themselves will lose their light. The moon with its present reflected light will then cease to shine. All reflected or relative truth or goodness will sink into nothing before the true and Eternal Reality. (R).

5817. To the moon the sun is the original light, but the sun itself is a created light, and it will sink into nothingness along with the moon. Both will be like empty shells "whose lights are fled, whose glories dead", because the Prototype of all Light now shines in full splendour in a new World. See n. 4344 to 39:69.

5818. All good and bad deeds, positive and negative, i.e., all sins of commission and omission, and all the good that a man did and all the evil that he omitted, all the influence that he radiated before him and all that he left behind him.

5819. Cf. 24:24, and n. 2976: "On the Day when their tongues, their heads, and their feet will bear witness against them as to their actions." It is not what a man says about himself, or what others say of him, that determines judgement about him. It is what he is in himself. His own personality betrays him or commends him.

5820. Cf. 20. 114, and n. 2639: "Be not in haste with the Qur'ān before its revelation to thee is completed." S. 75. is an earlier revelation, and the shade of meaning is slightly different. The immediate meaning was that the Holy Prophet was to allow the revelation conveyed to him to sink into his mind and heart and not to be impatient about it; Allah would certainly complete it according to His Plan, and see that it was collected and preserved for men, and not lost; that the inspired one was to follow it and recite it as the inspiration was conveyed to him; and that it carries its own explanation according to the faculties bestowed by Allah on man. The general meaning follows the same lines; we must not be impatient about the inspired Word: we must follow it as made clear to us by the faculties given to us by Allah.

17. It is for Us to collect it
And to promulgate it:
18. But when We have Promulgated it, follow thou
Its recital (as promulgated):
19. Nay more, it is
For us to explain it
(And make it clear):
20. Nay, (ye men!)
But ye love
The fleeting life,⁵⁸²¹
21. And leave alone
The Hereafter.
22. Some faces, that Day,⁵⁸²²
Will beam (in brightness
And beauty)—
23. Looking towards their Lord;
24. And some faces, that Day,
Will be sad and dismal,
25. In the thought that some
Backbreaking calamity was about
To be inflicted on them;
26. Yea, when (the soul)⁵⁸²³
Reaches to the collarbone
(In its exit),

- ١٧- إِنْ عَلَيْنَا جُمُعَهُ وَقُرَانَهُ ۚ
- ١٨- فَإِذَا قُرَأْنُهُ فَاتَّبِعْ قُرْآنَهُ ۚ
- ١٩- ثُمَّ إِنَّ عَلَيْنَا بَيَانَهُ ۚ
- ٢٠- كَلَّا بَلْ تُحِبُّونَ الْعَاجِلَةَ ۚ
- ٢١- وَتَذَرُونَ الْآخِرَةَ ۚ
- ٢٢- وَجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ نَّاصِرَةٌ ۚ
- ٢٣- إِلَىٰ رَبِّهَا نَاظِرَةٌ ۚ
- ٢٤- وَجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ بَاسِرَةٌ ۚ
- ٢٥- تَظُنُّ أَنْ يُفْعَلَ بِهَا فَاقِرَةٌ ۚ
- ٢٦- كَلَّا إِذَا بَلَغَتِ التَّرَاقِيَ ۚ

5822. This passage (especially with reference to verses 26-28) would seem to refer to what our Doctors call the Lesser Judgement (Qiyāmah al Sughrā), which takes place immediately after death, and not to the Greater or General Judgement, which may be supposed to be referred to in such passages as occur in S. 56. There are other passages referring to the Lesser Judgement immediately after death; e.g., 7:37 etc. If I understand aright, the punishment of sin takes place in three ways; (1) it may take place in this very life, but this may be deferred, to give the sinner respite; (2) it may be an agony immediately after death, with the Partition or Barzakh (23:100) separating the sinner from the final Resurrection; and (3) in the final Resurrection, when the whole of the present order gives place to a wholly new World: 14:48.

5823. A symbolic picture of the agony of death.

27. And there will be a cry,
"Who is a magician
(To restore him)?"

٢٦- وَقِيلَ مَنْ سَاقٍ ۝

28. And he⁵⁸²⁴ will conclude
That it was (the Time)
Of Parting;

٢٨- وَظَنَّ أَنَّهُ الْفِرَاقُ ۝

29. And one leg will be⁵⁸²⁵
Joined with another:

٢٩- وَالتَّغَيَّتِ السَّاقُ بِالسَّاقِ ۝

30. That Day the Drive
Will be (all) to thy Lord!

٣٠- إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ يَوْمَئِذٍ الْمَسَاقُ ۝

SECTION 2.

31. So he gave nothing
In charity, nor
Did he pray! — ⁵⁸²⁶

٣١- فَلَا صَدَقَ وَلَا صَلَّى ۝

32. But on the contrary,
He rejected Truth
And turned away!

٣٢- وَلَكِنْ كَذَّبَ وَتَوَلَّى ۝

33. Then did he stalk
To his family
In full conceit!⁵⁸²⁷

٣٣- ثُمَّ ذَهَبَ إِلَىٰ أَهْلِهِ يَمَمَطِي ۝

34. Woe to thee,
(O man!), yea, woe!

٣٤- أَوَّلَىٰ لَكَ فَأُولَىٰ ۝

35. Again, woe to thee,
(O man!), yea, woe!

٣٥- ثُمَّ أَوَّلَىٰ لَكَ فَأُولَىٰ ۝

5824. 'He' = the dying man, whose soul is referred to in verse 26 above.

5825. When the soul has departed, the legs of the dead body are placed together in position, in preparation for the rites preliminary to the burial. Sāq (literally, leg) may also be taken metaphorically to mean a calamity: calamity will be joined to calamity for the poor departed sinner's soul, as his life story in this world is now done. Willy-nilly, he will now have to go before the Throne of Judgement.

5826. His indictment in this and the succeeding verse consists of four counts: (1) he neglected prayer; (2) he neglected charity; (3) he rejected Truth; and (4) he turned away. In 74:43-46, the four counts are: (1) neglecting prayer; (2) neglecting charity; (3) talking vanities; (4) denying the Day of Judgement; see n. 5803. Nos. (1) and (2) are identical in both places, and Nos. (3) and (4) are analogous. Rejecting the truth is equivalent to talking vanities and making an alliance with falsehoods. Denying the Day of Judgement means behaving as if no account was to be given of our actions. i.e., turning away from right conduct. An additional touch is found here in verse 33. See next note.

5827. Conceit or arrogance is the root cause of most Evil. By that cause fell Iblīs: see 2:34.

36. Does Man think
That he will be left Uncontrolled, (without purpose)?⁵⁸²⁸

٣٦- اَيَحْسَبُ الْاِنْسَانُ اَنْ يُتْرَكَ سُدًى ۝

37. Was he not a drop
Of sperm emitted
(In lowly form)?⁵⁸²⁹

٣٧- اَلَمْ يَكُنْ نُطْفَةً
مِنْ مَرْئِي يُمْنَى ۝

38. Then did he become
A clinging clot;
Then did (Allah) make
And fashion (him)
In due proportion.

٣٨- ثُمَّ كَانَ عَلَقَةً
فَخَلَقَ فَسَوَّى ۝

39. And of him He made
Two sexes, male
And female.

٣٩- فَجَعَلَ مِنْهُ الزَّوْجَيْنِ
الذَّكَرَ وَالْاُنثَى ۝

40. Has not He, (the same),
The power to give life
To the dead?

٤٠- اَلَيْسَ ذَلِكَ بِقَدِيرٍ
عَلَى اَنْ يُحْيِيَ الْمَوْتَى ۝

5828. Suda: has many implications; (1) uncontrolled, free to do what he likes; (2) without any moral responsibility; not accountable for his actions; (3) without a purpose, useless; (4) forsaken.

5829. Cf. 22:5, where the argument is developed in greater detail. The briefer argument here may be stated thus. His lowly animal origin makes him no higher than a brute; his foetal development is still that of a brute animal; then at some stage come human limbs and shape; the divine spirit is poured into him, and he is fashioned in due proportion for his higher destiny. In spite of that the mystery of sex remains in his nature: we are living souls, yet men and women. Allah Who creates these wonders—has He not the power to bring the dead to life at the Resurrection?

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 76—AL INSĀN or AL DAHR

The revelation of this Sūrah was probably in the early Makkan period, with the possible exception of some verses, but its date has no particular significance

Its theme is the contrast between the two classes of men, those who choose good and those who choose evil, with special reference to the former.

The title of the Sūrah recalls a Pagan Arab idea, which personified Time as existing spontaneously from eternity to eternity and responsible for the misery or the happiness of mankind. In 45:24 we read: "They say. . . 'nothing but Time can destroy us.'" This attitude is of course wrong. Time is a created thing: it has its mysteries, but it is no more eternal than matter. It is also relative to our conceptions and not absolute, as Einstein has proved. It is only Allah Who is Self-Subsisting, Eternal from the beginning and Eternal to the end, the absolute Existence and Reality. We must not transfer His attributes to any figments of our imagination.

This deification of Time (Dahr) as against a living personal God has given rise to the term dahrīyah, as applied to an atheist or a materialist.

The whole of the Sūrah is full of the highest symbolism, as is generally the case with Makkan Sūrahs, and this should always be remembered in their interpretation.

C. 256.—Man was evolved out of nothing, and through low
(76:1-31) Beginnings; but he was given Insight
And Understanding. Allah showed him the Way;
And if man doth willfully reject the Right,
Man but chooses Chains and Yokes and a Blazing Fire within his own soul. Not so
The Devotees of Right: they attain
The Mystic Fountain of Kāfūr:
For, purely out of love for Allah,
They do good to Allah's Creatures, and serve them.
The Light of Beauty and Joy will be
On them. In full felicity and honour
Will they live in the garden of Delights, and share
In the Banquet—the Presence and Glory Divine!

* * * *

The Righteous are patient in Constant Devotion:
Allah's Way is open to all: whosoever
Has the Will, may attain to the Perfect Goal.

الجزء التاسع والعشرون سورة الإنسان

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- هَلْ أَتَى عَلَى الْإِنْسَانِ حِينٌ مِّنَ الدَّهْرِ
لَمْ يَكُنْ شَيْئًا مِّنْ ذِكْرٍ ۝

٢- إِنَّا خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ مِنْ نُّطْفَةٍ أَمْشَلٍ
نَّبْتَلِيهِ
فَجَعَلْنَاهُ سَمِيعًا بَصِيرًا ۝

٣- إِنَّا هَدَيْنَاهُ السَّبِيلَ
إِمَّا شَاكِرًا وَإِمَّا كَفُورًا ۝

٤- إِنَّا أَعْتَدْنَا لِلْكَافِرِينَ
سَلَاسِلًا وَأَغْلَالًا وَسَعِيرًا ۝

٥- إِنَّ الْأَبْرَارَ يَشْرَبُونَ

5830. The undoubted fact is mentioned in the form of a question, to get the assent of man. It is certain that the physical world existed long before man was ever heard of or mentioned, as geological records prove. It is also true that the spiritual world existed long before man came on the scene: see 2:30-31. Man is here taken in a generic sense.

5831. Dahr is Time as a whole, or for a long period. Time used to be deified by the Pagan Arabs, as explained in the Introduction to this Sūrah. An analogy can be found in the Greek ideas connected with Chronos or Kronos, themselves a blend of different myths. Kronos (or Time), they said, was the father of Zeus himself.

5832. Mingled: the female ovum has to be fertilised with the male sperm before a new animal can be born. Man as an animal has this humble origin. But he has been given the gift of certain faculties of receiving instruction (typified by Hearing) and of intellectual and spiritual insight (typified by Sight). His life has therefore a meaning: with a certain amount of free will, he is to be Allah's vicegerent on earth (2:30). But he must be trained and tried, and that is the whole problem of human life.

5833. Besides the gift of the faculties, Man has been shown the Way by means of Revelation, through men of the highest spiritual standing. If he is grateful, he will accept Guidance, be of the Righteous, and join the company of the Blessed. If not, he puts chains round himself, thus burdening himself with sin, and gets into the Blazing Fire of Punishment. See next verse. His choice rests on his will. (R).

5834. Cf. 13:5; 34:33 and 40:71. [Eds.].

Of a Cup (of Wine)
Mixed with Kāfur—⁵⁸³⁵

6. A Fountain where
The Devotees of Allah
Do drink, making it
Flow in unstinted abundance.
7. They⁵⁸³⁶ perform (their) vows,⁵⁸³⁷
And they fear a Day
Whose evil flies far and wide.⁵⁸³⁸
8. And they feed, for the love
Of Allah, the indigent,
The orphan, and the captive—⁵⁸³⁹
9. (Saying), "We feed you
For the sake of Allah alone:
No reward do we desire
From you, nor thanks."⁵⁸⁴⁰
10. "We only fear a Day
Of distressful Wrath
From the side of our Lord."⁵⁸⁴¹

مِنْ كَأْسٍ كَانَ مِزَاجُهَا كَافُورًا ۝

٦- عَيْنًا يَشْرَبُ بِهَا عِبَادُ اللَّهِ
يُفَجِّرُونَهَا تَفْجِيرًا ۝

٧- يُؤْتُونَ بِالنَّذْرِ
وَيَخَافُونَ يَوْمًا كَانَ شَرُّهُ مُسْتَطِيرًا ۝

٨- وَيُطْعِمُونَ الطَّعَامَ عَلَى حُبِّهِ مِسْكِينًا
وَيَتِيمًا وَآسِيرًا ۝

٩- إِنَّمَا نُطْعِمُكُمْ لِوَجْهِ اللَّهِ
لَا نُرِيدُ مِنْكُمْ جَزَاءً وَلَا شُكُورًا ۝

١٠- إِنَّا نَخَافُ مِنْ رَبِّنَا
يَوْمًا عَبُوسًا قَمْطَرِيرًا ۝

5835. Kāfur is literally Camphor. It is a fountain in the Realms of Bliss. It is a seasoning added to the Cup of pure, beautiful Wine, which causes no intoxication (56:18-19), but stands for all that is wholesome, agreeable, and refreshing. Camphor is cool and refreshing, and is given as a soothing tonic in Eastern medicine. In minute doses its odour and flavour are also agreeable. (R).

5836. They: i.e., the Righteous: they are known in the present life by the virtues symbolically described in verses 7-10, and in the life of the Hereafter they will enjoy the Bliss symbolically described in verses 11-22.

5837. Cf. 22:29. The vows must be vows of spiritual service, which of course includes service to humanity, such as is mentioned in the next verse. They are Devotees of Allah, and they must perform all vows and contracts (5:1 and n. 682). Vows of the Pagan sort, savouring of a sort of "bribe" to the Deity, are not approved.

5838. That is, they prepare for the Judgement to come, where the effects of Sin will not be transitory but far-reaching.

5839. The captive: when taken literally, it refers to the old state of things when captives of war had to earn their own food, or their own redemption; even ordinary prisoners in jail for criminal offences often starved unless food was provided for them by private friends or from their own earnings. But there is a further symbolic meaning, which applies to the indigent, the orphans, and the captives, viz. those who are so in a spiritual sense: those have no mental or moral resources, or have no one to look after them, or are held down in social or moral or economic captivity. They hunger for spiritual food, or perhaps their appetite is deadened, but the Righteous understand and supply their real needs. It has also been held that "captives" include dumb animals who are under subjection to man; they must be properly fed, housed, and looked after; and the righteous man does not forget them.

5840. These words need not be actually uttered. They express the true motives of pious and unpretentious Charity.

5841. It is a Day of Wrath for sin and evil. But the truly righteous are not self-righteous. They have the fear of Allah in their minds: they know they are human, and they fear lest they should be found wanting in the sight of Allah. But Allah in His Mercy gives them a bountiful Reward.

11. But Allah will deliver
Them from the evil
Of that Day, and will
Shed over them a Light⁵⁸⁴²
Of Beauty and
A (blissful) Joy.
12. And because they were Patient and constant, He will Reward them with a Garden
And (garments of) silk.⁵⁸⁴³
13. Reclining in the (Garden)
On raised thrones,⁵⁸⁴⁴
They will see there neither
The sun's (excessive heat)
Nor (the moon's) excessive cold.⁵⁸⁴⁵
14. And the shades of the (Garden)
Will come low over them,
And the bunches (of fruit),
There, will hang low
In humility.⁵⁸⁴⁶
15. And amongst them will be
Passed round vessels of silver⁵⁸⁴⁷
And goblets of crystal —
16. Crystal-clear, made of silver:⁵⁸⁴⁸
They will determine
The measure thereof
(According to their wishes).

5842. Cf. 75:22-23.

5843. Cf. 22:23.

5844. Cf. 18:31.

5845. The sun and the moon as we know them will be no longer there. It will be a new world on a different plane. But to give us an idea of comfort we recall the excessive heat of the sun especially in tropical climates, and the excessive cold of the moon especially in northern climates, and we negative them both. That is, the temperature will be just that delightful one that is most agreeable to our sensations as we know them now. The moon is not mentioned, but Zamharīr (excessive cold) is sometimes used for the moon. (R).

5846. Without sun and moon there will of course be no shade in the literal sense of the word. But for full comfort, there will be sheltering shade for rest and change from whatever light there be. But the whole idea here is that of humility. Even the shadows show humility: cf. 13:15. So does the fruit in hanging low for man. Man has now reached the height of his dignity. (R).

5847. Cf. 43:71, where "dishes and goblets of gold" are mentioned. The idea conveyed is that of rarity, preciousness, and spotless splendour. (R).

5848. That is, silver polished and white, and shining like crystal.

17. And they will be given

٢١- عَلَيْهِمْ ثِيَابٌ سُدُسٌ خُضْرٌ

5849. Cf. above, 76:5-6, and n. 5835, where the Cup of Kāfur (Camphor) was mentioned for coolness and refreshment to the Righteous, who had just passed the great Event of Judgement. The second stage is symbolised by verses 12-14, when they enter the Garden in Garments of Silk, and find that their former humility in the probationary life is rewarded with high honour in the new world they have entered. The third stage is in verses 15-21, where they settle down in Bliss, with Garments of fine silk and heavy brocades, with Ornaments and Jewels, with an ordered Feast of set service, and the Cup of Zanjabīl. This literally means Ginger. In Eastern medicine Ginger is administered to give warmth to the body and zest to the taste; this is appropriate for the Royal Feast which is now figured forth. (R).

5850. Salsabīl literally means: "Seek the Way". The Way is now open to the presence of the Most High. The Banquet is spread. Get thyself ready. It is a "Realm Magnificent" (verse 20) in a new spiritual world. (R).

5851. Cf. 56:17 and n. 5231.

5852. Pearls for beauty and splendour: scattered, because they are moving to and fro all round the Banquet.

5853. Cf. 17:31. The bracelets are there said to be of gold.

5854. This would seem to be the culmination of the honour which the Blessed receive at the Royal and Divine Banquet. The words in the next verse express the sort of speech which will make the Guest a denizen of Heaven. (R).

22. "Verily this is a Reward
For you, and your Endeavour
Is accepted and recognised."

٢٢- إِنْ هَذَا كَانَ لَكُمْ جَزَاءً

SECTION 2.

23. It is We Who

24. Therefore be patient
With constancy to the Command
Of thy Lord, and hearken not
To the sinner or the ingrate

25. And celebrate the name⁵⁸⁵⁶
Of thy Lord morning
And evening,
26. And part of the night,
Prostrate thyself to Him;
And glorify Him⁵⁸⁵⁷
A long night through.
27. As to these, they love
The fleeting life,
And put away behind them⁵⁸⁵⁸
A Day (that will be) hard.

٢٤- فَأَصْبِرْ لِحُكْمِ رَبِّكَ
وَلَا تَطِعْ مِنْهُمْ
إِنَّمَا أَوْكُفُّورًا ۝

٢٥- وَادْكُرِ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ بُكْرَةً وَأَصِيلًا ۝

٢٦- وَمِنَ اللَّيْلِ فَاسْجُدْ لَهُ
وَسَبِّحْهُ لَيْلًا طَوِيلًا ۝

٢٧- إِنْ هَؤُلَاءِ يُحِبُّونَ الْعَاجِلَةَ
وَيَذَرُونَ وِرَاءَهُمْ يَوْمًا ثَقِيلًا ۝

5855. The Qur'ān was being revealed stage by stage as the occasion demanded and at the date of this Sūrah it was still one of the earlier stages. Persecution, abuse, and false charges were being levelled against the man of Allah, but he is bidden to stand firm and do his duty. In a minor degree this applies to all of us who suffer in the cause of Truth.

5856. Three methods of Prayer and Devotion are mentioned: (1) to remember and celebrate the Holy Name of Allah always; (2) to spend a part of the night in humble prostration; and (3) to glorify Him in the long hours of a weary night of waiting and watching. As to (1), "morning and evening" means all the waking hours of our life, but in the special hours of morning and evening the physical world without us, and the inner world within us, combine to make us specially receptive of spiritual influences. The "name" of Allah includes His attributes, as a locked golden casket might include priceless jewels. Anyone may carry the casket, even though he may not be worthy to handle the jewels. If he carries the casket, he is in potential possession of the jewels, and he hopes some time to get the key which opens the jewels to him. So the tyro, who celebrates the Holy Name of Allah, hopes some day to see the "Face" of Allah and be blessed with the privilege of proximity to His Person. For (2) and (3) see next note. (R).

5857. See last note. (2) Humble prostration to Allah means some visible mode or symbol of dedication. That is best done at night, when the soul, free from worldly occupations, is alone with its God. (3) The weary hours of a long night are no longer weary, but become full of meaning when we join in concert with the whole Creation, which glorifies Allah: 57:1.

5858. Fleeting life: Cf. 75:20. They: the immediate reference was to the Pagan Quraysh; the general reference is to the Unbelievers of all ages. They reject, or at least put away the thought of, a Hereafter, a Day that will be hard, for the easy pleasures of a fleeting life.

28. It is We Who created
Them, and We have made
Their joints strong;⁵⁸⁵⁹
But, when We will,
We can substitute
The like of them⁵⁸⁶⁰
By a complete change.

۲۸- نَحْنُ خَلَقْنَاهُمْ
وَشَدَدْنَا أَسْرَهُمْ
وَإِذَا شِئْنَا
بَدَلْنَا أَمْثَالَهُمْ تَبْدِيلًا ۝

29. This is an admonition:
Whosoever will, let him
Take a (straight) Path
To his Lord.

۲۹- إِنْ هَذِهِ تَذْكِرَةٌ
فَمَنْ شَاءَ اتَّخَذْ إِلَىٰ رَبِّهِ سَبِيلًا ۝

30. But ye will not,
Except as Allah wills;⁵⁸⁶¹
For Allah is full of
Knowledge and Wisdom.

۳۰- وَمَا تَشَاءُونَ إِلَّا أَنْ يَشَاءَ اللَّهُ
إِنَّ اللَّهَ كَانَ عَلِيمًا حَكِيمًا ۝

31. He will admit
To His Mercy Whom He will;⁵⁸⁶²
But the wrongdoers—
For them has He prepared
A grievous Penalty.

۳۱- يُدْخِلُ مَنْ يَشَاءُ فِي رَحْمَتِهِ
وَالظَّالِمِينَ أَعَدَّ لَهُمْ عَذَابًا أَلِيمًا ۝

5859. Allah has not only created men, but "made their joints strong", i.e., given them the power and strength to withstand the temptations of Evil and stand firmly in the Path of Right.

5860. If, in spite of Allah's loving care, any particular men or group of men, misuse their powers or wilfully disobey Allah's Law, Allah will set them aside, and substitute others in their place, with like powers. Allah's gifts are free, but let no one think that he can monopolise them or misuse them without being called to answer for the trust. And the man of Allah must not be discouraged by the whole world being at some moment completely against him. Allah can in a moment make a complete change. Either the same men that fought against him will be his zealous adherents, or another generation will spring up, which will carry the flag of Righteousness to victory. Allah's Will and Plan work in their own good time.

5861. Man in himself is weak; he must seek Allah's Grace; without it he can do nothing; with it he can do all. For Allah knows all things, and His wisdom comprehends the good of all.

5862. That is according to His just and wise Plan. If the will is right, it obtains Allah's Grace and Mercy. If the will of man rejects Allah, man must suffer the Penalty.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 77—AL MURSALĀT

This Sūrah belongs to the early Makkan period, somewhere near to S. 75. (Al Qiyāmah). The theme is somewhat similar. It denounces the horrors of the Hereafter, for those who rejected Truth. The refrain, "Ah woe, that Day, to the Rejecters of Truth!" which occurs ten times in its fifty verses, or, on an average, once in every five verses, indicates the leitmotif.

C. 257. — The winds in the world of nature are types
 (77:1-50.) Of Allah's Bounty and Power: they gently bring
 The beneficent rain, and when roused to wrath,
 They clean the world and wipe out Infection.
 So works Allah's Revelation, in sunshine
 And storm. It will root out Evil, and restore
 True values at Judgement. Truly terrible
 Will be that Day for the evil ones.
 It will be a Day of Sorting out:
 Ah woe, that Day, to the Rejecters of Truth!
 Will man not learn from his own little story,
 Or from nature around him? The Blazing Fire
 Will be indeed an enveloping Punishment.
 How dreadful the contrast with the Bliss of the Righteous!
 Learn, ye, therefore, Humility, and approach
 Allah's Throne in Repentance and Earnest Endeavour.

Sūrah 77.

Al Mursalāt (Those Sent Forth)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. By the (Winds) Sent Forth⁵⁸⁶³
One after another

2. Which then blow violently

3. And scatter (things)
Far and wide;

4. Then separate them,
One from another,

5. Then spread abroad
A Message,⁵⁸⁶⁶

الْجُزْءُ الثَّامِنُ وَالْعِشْرُونَ سُورَةُ الْمُرْسَلَاتِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- وَالْمُرْسَلَاتِ عُرْفًا

٢- فَالْعَصْفَاتِ عَصْفًا

٣- وَالتَّنَشِيرِ نَشْرًا

٤- فَالْفُرْقَاتِ فَرْقًا

٥- فَالْمُلْقِيَاتِ ذِكْرًا

5863. This Sūrah begins with an appeal to five things, as pointing to the substantive statement in verse 7, that the Day of Justice and Judgement is bound to come, and we must prepare for it. It is difficult to translate, but easy to understand, if we remember that a triple thread of allegory runs through this passage (verses 1-7). The five things or phases, which will be presently considered in detail, refer to (a) Winds in the physical world, (b) Angels in the spiritual world, and (c) Prophets in the human world, connecting it with the spiritual world.

5864. Understanding the reference to Winds, we can see that they are powerful factors in the government of the physical world. (1) They come gently as harbingers of the blessings of rain and fertility (15:22, 30:48); but (2) they can come as violent tornadoes, uprooting and destroying (51:41-42); (3) they can scatter seeds far and wide, and (4) they can separate chaff from grain, or clear the air from epidemics; and (5) they literally carry sound, and therefore Messages, and metaphorically they are instrumental in making Allah's Revelation accessible to hearers, whether by way of justification or repentance for the Penitent, or warning for unrepentant Sinners. All these things point to the power and goodness of Allah, and we are asked to believe that His promise of Mercy and Justice in the Hereafter is indeed true.

Cf. this passage with 51:1-6 (Al Dhāriyāt) with which it has many affinities.

5865. If we understand the reference to be, not to Winds, but to Angels, they are agencies in the spiritual world, which carry out similar functions, changing and revolutionising the face of the world. (1) They come softly, on beneficent errands of Mercy; (2) they are charged with the mission of punishment and destruction for sin as in the case of the two angels who came to Lūṭ (15:57-66); (3) they distribute Allah's Mercies as the Winds distribute good seeds; (4) they sort out the good from the evil among men; and (5) they are the agency through which Allah's Messages and Revelations are conveyed to the Prophets (see No. 5 in the last note).

5866. If we understand the reference to Prophets or Messengers of Allah, or the verses of Revelation which would be particularly appropriate for verses 5-6, we also get a satisfactory solution of the Allegory. (1) The Prophets have followed one another in a series: the verses of the Qur'ān came, one after another as needed; in both cases it was for man's spiritual profit; (2) they caused great disturbance in a spiritually decadent world; they pulled down evil institutions root and branch, and substituted new ones; (3) they proclaimed their truths far and wide, without fear and without favour; (4) through them were sorted out men of Faith and rebels against Allah's Law; and (5) they gave a Message, through which just men were justified through repentance, and evil men were warned of their sins.

Some Commentators take one or other of these allegories, and some apply one allegory to a few of these verses, and another to another few. In my opinion the Allegory is wide enough to comprehend all the meanings which I have sketched. I wish a translation could do justice to those marvellously terse sentences in the original.

| 16. Did We not destroy
The men of old ⁵⁸⁷⁰
(For their evil)? | ١٦- أَلَمْ نُهْلِكِ الْأَوَّلِينَ ۝ |

5867. The lustre of the stars will become dim; in fact they will disappear: cf. 81:2, and 82:2. The heaven's canopy will be torn asunder: cf. 82:1, and 73:18. The mountains will be uprooted and fly about like dust: cf. 69:14, 81:3, etc. All the old landmarks of the physical world as we know them will be swept away. (R).

5868. The Resurrection will be established. In the world which will then have passed away, inspired Prophets had been sent in succession at different times to all nations. Now they will be gathered together in one place before the Judgement Seat to bear witness as to the righteous or the evil ones within their respective spheres of work. Cf. 39:69.

5869. Cf. 37:21 and n. 4047; also 44:40, and n. 4718. That will be the Day of Judgement or Day of Decision. Good will then be completely separated from Evil. And the men who rejected Truth and flourished on Falsehood will find that in the world of Realities they will be absolutely nowhere. Hence the refrain of this Sūrah, "Ah woe, that Day, to the Rejecters of Truth!". It sounds like a dirge on Sin.

5870. Allah's Law is always the same. Sin or corruption prepares its own destruction. It was so with the generation of Noah. In Arab tradition it was so with the 'Ād and the Thamūd. In our own day we see relics of prehistoric civilisations, in Egypt, Mesopotamia, the Indus Valley, and the Aegean: these were men of wonderful skill and resource, but they went under. If our generations, which pride themselves on their science and skill, desert Allah's Law, they will be certain to meet the same fate.

17. So shall We make

25. Have We not made

٢٥- أَلَمْ نَجْعَلِ الْأَرْضَ كِفَاتًا ○

26. The living and the dead,⁵⁸⁷⁵

٢٦- أَحْيَاءَ وَأَمْوَاتًا ○

5871. Cf. 32:8, n. 3638. Man is ashamed of the process of physical creation, by which he comes into being. Yet he is arrogant in life and neglectful of the Future.

5872. See n. 2873 to 23:13. The silent growth in the mother's womb, and the protection and sustenance which the growing life receives from the life of the mother, are themselves wonders of creation.

5873. The period roughly of nine months and ten days is subject to many adjustments. In fact throughout our prenatal as well as postnatal life there are wonderful and nicely-balanced adjustments of which we are ourselves unconscious. Should we not turn in love and gratitude to Allah our Creator?

5874. Perhaps the life in the womb, in relation to the life after birth, is an allegory for our probationary life on earth in relation to the eternal Life to come. Perhaps, also, our state when we are buried in the tomb suggests an allegory to the life in the womb, in relation to the life in the Hereafter.

5875. What a wonderful parable! The earth is a place where death and life, decay and growth and decay, green grass, stubble, and fuel, corruption and purification jostle together—one often leading to the other. The drama which we see with our own eyes in this world should enable us to appreciate the wonders in the spiritual world where the despised and rejected receive the highest honour. Lazarus rests in Abraham's bosom, and the Pharaoh is led in chains for his arrogance and his sin.

27. And made therein
Mountains standing firm,⁵⁸⁷⁶
Lofty (in stature);
And provided for you
Water sweet (and wholesome)?

٢٧- وَجَعَلْنَا فِيهَا رَوَاسِي شَجَاجٍ

28. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth!

٢٨- وَيْلٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْمُكَذِّبِينَ ۝

29. (It will be said:)
"Depart ye to that
Which ye used to reject
As false!"

٢٩- اِنْطَلِقُوا إِلَى
مَا كُنْتُمْ بِهِ تَكْذِبُونَ ۝

30. "Depart ye to a Shadow⁵⁸⁷⁷
(Of smoke ascending)
In three columns,

٣٠- اِنْطَلِقُوا إِلَى ظِلٍّ ذِي ثَلَاثِ شُعَبٍ ۝

31. "(Which yields) no shade
Of coolness, and is
Of no use against
The fierce Blaze.

٣١- لَا ظِلِيلٍ
وَلَا يُغْنِي مِنَ الْهَبِ ۝

32. "Indeed it throws about
Sparks (huge) as Forts,⁵⁸⁷⁸

٣٢- إِنَّهَا تَرْمِي بِشَرَرٍ كَالْقَصْرِ ۝

33. "As if there were
(A string of) yellow camels
(Marching swiftly)."⁵⁸⁷⁹

٣٣- كَأَنَّهُ جُمُوءٌ صُفُرٌ ۝

34. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth!

٣٤- وَيْلٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْمُكَذِّبِينَ ۝

5876. See n. 2038 to 16:15. The solid mountains are frequently referred to: cf. 13:3. The parable here is that the mountains are hard, solid rock, and yet they act as sponges to collect, store up, and filter sweet and wholesome water, which on account of their altitude they are able to distribute by gravity to the lower, dry land by means of rivers or springs. Anyone who has seen the parched Makkan valleys and the delicious springs in the mountains around, or the Zubaydah Canal, which is the main source of Makkah's water supply, will appreciate the aptness of the metaphor, but it applies to any country, though not to so striking a degree. If the wisdom and power of Allah can do such things before your eyes, how can you reject His teaching of a still more wonderful future Life?

5877. The Sinners, instead of reposing in cool shades, will only see the blazing Fire. The only shadow they will see will be that of Smoke, ascending in three columns, right, left, and above, i.e., completely enveloping them. But it will give no comfort or coolness. On the contrary, it will contain huge sparks. (R).

5878. Qasr: Fort, big building, palace. An alternative reading is Qasar, plural of Qasarat (-un), meaning bundles of wood used for fuel: Ibn 'Abbās apud Bukhārī. I almost prefer this latter reading.

5879. The yellow sparks flying swiftly one after another suggest a string of camels marching swiftly, such as the Arabs of Nejd and central Arabia are so proud of. There is a double allegory. It refers not only to the colour and the rapid succession of sparks, but to the vanity of worldly pride, as much as to say: "your fine yellow camels in which you took such pride in the world are but sparks that fly away and even sting you in the Hereafter!" Smoke with sparks may also assume fantastic shapes like long-necked camels.

35. That will be a Day
When they shall not
Be able to speak,⁵⁸⁸⁰

٣٥- هَذَا يَوْمٌ لَا يَنْطِقُونَ ۖ

36. Nor will it be
Open to them
To put forth pleas.

٣٦- وَلَا يُؤْذَنُ لَهُمْ فَيَعْتَذِرُونَ ۖ

37. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth!

٣٧- وَيْلٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْمُكَذِّبِينَ ۖ

38. That will be a Day
Of Sorting out! We shall
Gather you together
And those before (you)!⁵⁸⁸¹

٣٨- هَذَا يَوْمُ الْفَصْلِ ۚ
جَمَعْنَاكُمْ وَالْأَوَّلِينَ ۖ

39. Now, if ye have
A trick (or plot),
Use it against Me!⁵⁸⁸²

٣٩- وَإِنْ كَانَ لَكُمْ كَيْدٌ فَكِيدُونِ ۖ

40. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth!

٤٠- وَيْلٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْمُكَذِّبِينَ ۖ

SECTION 2.

41. As to the Righteous,
They shall be amidst
(Cool) shades and springs
(Of water).⁵⁸⁸³

٤١- إِنَّ الْمُتَّقِينَ
فِي ظِلٍّ وَعُيُونٍ ۖ

42. And (they shall have)
Fruits—all they desire.⁵⁸⁸⁴

٤٢- وَفَوَاكِهَ مِمَّا يَشْتَهُونَ ۖ

5880. They will be dumbfounded; i.e., (when read with the next verse), they will not be in a position to put forward any valid defence or plea. Facts will speak too plainly against them. They might perversely try to deny false worship: 6:23; but their own tongues and limbs will bear witness against them: 24:24. Nor does the fighting out or settling of doctrinal disputes in the Hereafter (39:31) amount to putting forward pleas in defence.

5881. We may suppose this as spoken primarily to the Quraysh who were plotting against the Prophet. You may use all your wisdom and that of your ancestors, but you will not be able to defeat Allah or His Plan. See next verse.

5882. The plots against the Holy Prophet were plots against Allah's Truth, and therefore against Allah. Can anyone hope to profit by such plots? Can anyone defeat Allah's Plan and Purpose? Let them try. They will only ruin themselves, as the Pagan leaders did. There can only be pity for such men. What will be their state in the Hereafter? "Ah woe, that Day, to the Rejecters of Allah's Truth!"

5883. This is in contrast to the triple shade of smoke and sin for the sinners, which neither gives them coolness nor protects them from the Blazing Fire. The Shade, i.e., Covering, of Allah's Good Pleasure, will be the greatest Boon of all, and the Spring of Allah's Love will be inexhaustible. (R).

5884. Fruits: see n. 4671 to 43:73. (R).

43. Eat ye and drink ye
To your heart's content:
For that ye worked
(Righteousness).⁵⁸⁸⁵
44. Thus do We certainly
Reward the Doers of Good.
45. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth!
46. (O ye Unjust!)
Eat ye and enjoy yourselves
(But) a little while,⁵⁸⁸⁶
For that ye are Sinners.
47. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth!
48. And when it is said
To them, "Prostrate yourselves!"
They do not so.⁵⁸⁸⁷
49. Ah woe, that Day,
To the Rejecters of Truth!
50. Then what Message,
After that,⁵⁸⁸⁸
Will they believe in?

5885. The fruits of righteousness are contentment in this life and the supreme Bliss in the next.

5886. "Eat" is symbolical of having the good things of life in this world. It may be that they are only given for a trial. Because their minds and wishes run to wrong things, the opportunities for wrong are multiplied, as the impetus for good or for evil increases progressively. They are to believe and repent. But if they do not, they are to be pitied, even for the good things of this life, for they will come to an evil End in the Hereafter.

5887. Prostration is a symbol of humility and a desire to get nearer to Allah by Prayer and a good life. Those who refuse to adopt this Path are to be pitied: how will they fare at Judgement?

5888. That may refer to verse 48: they were given plain and clear Guidance, and they refused to accept it: after that what kind of Message will they accept? The Guidance referred to is obviously that of Islam or the Qur'ān.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 78—AL NABA'

This beautiful Makkan Sūrah is not quite so early as the last (S. 77) nor quite so late as S. 76, but nearer in time to the later.

It sets forth Allah's loving care in a fine nature passage, and deduces from it the Promise of the Future, when Evil will be destroyed and Good will come to its own; and invites all who have the will, to seek refuge with their Lord.

C. 258.—The Great News for man, in his spiritual Destiny,
 (78:1-40.) Is the Judgement to come, the Day of Sorting Out.
 Do not the Power, the Goodness, and the Justice
 Of Allah reveal themselves in all nature?
 The Panorama around us, the voice in our souls,
 And the harmony between heaven and earth?
 That Day is sure to arrive at its time
 Appointed, when behold! the present order
 Will pass away. Then will the Fruits
 Of Evil appear, and the Fruits of Righteousness.
 Allah's blessings will be more than the merits of men;
 But who can argue with the Fountain of Grace?
 And who can prevent the course of Justice?
 Let us then, before it becomes too late,
 Betake ourselves to our Lord Most Gracious!

Sūrah 78.

Al Naba' (The Great News)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

۹- وَجَعَلْنَا نَوْمَكُمْ سُبَاتًا ۝

5889. Great News: usually understood to mean the News or Message of the Resurrection or the Hereafter, about which there are various schools of thought among the Jews and Christians and other nations. There is practically nothing about the Resurrection in the Old Testament, and the Jewish sect of Sadducees even in the time of Christ denied the Resurrection altogether. The Pagan ideas of a future life—if any—varied from place to place and from time to time. Even in the early Christian Church, as we learn from Paul's First Epistle to the Corinthians, there were contentions in that little community (1. Corinthians, i. 11), and some definitely denied the resurrection of the dead (ib., xv. 12).

Great News may also be translated Great Message or a Message Supreme as I have translated at 38:67. In that case it would refer to the Qur'ān, or the Message of Revelation, or the Message of the Holy Prophet, about which there was great contention in those days. As this Message also lays great stress on the Day of Judgement and the Resurrection, the practical result by either mode of interpretation amounts to the same.

5890. See n. 2038 to 16:15. Cf. also 13:3 and 15:19. The spacious expanse of the earth may be compared to a carpet, to which the mountains act as pegs. The Signs of Allah are thus enumerated: the great panorama of outer nature (verses 6-7); the creation of Man in pairs, with the succession of rest and work fitting in with the succession of night and day (verses 8-11); the firmaments above, with their splendid lights (verses 12-13); and the clouds and rain and abundant harvests, which knit sky and earth and man together (verses 14-16). These point to Allah, and Allah's Message points to the Future Life.

Shall be sounded, and ye
Shall come forth in crowds; | ١٨- يَوْمَ يُنْفَخُ فِي الصُّورِ

5891. The darkness of the night is as a covering. Just as a covering protects us from exposure to cold or heat, so this covering gives us spiritual respite from the buffets of the material world, and from the tiring activities of our own inner exertions. The rest in sleep (in verse 9) is supplemented by the covering of the night with which we are provided by Allah.

5892. Subsistence in English only partly covers the idea of ma'āsh, which includes every kind of life activity. The Day is specially illuminated, so runs the figure of speech, in order that these life activities of all kinds may be fully exercised.

5893. See n. 5526 to 65:12 and n. 2876 to 23:17, also 37:6 and notes there.

5894. That is, the sun. Cf. 25:61; 38:46 (where it is used metaphorically for the Holy Prophet); and 71:16.

5895. Note how the evidences of Allah and His beneficence are set out in four groups. (1) Look to external nature on the earth around you (verses 6-7); (2) your own nature, physical, mental and spiritual (verses 8-11); (3) the starry heavens, and the glory of the sun (verses 12-13); and (4) the interdependence of earth, air, and sky in the cycle of water, clouds, rain, corn and gardens, all serving in their several ways to further the whole plan of the World as it affects us. Can you not then believe that a Creator who does this will sort out Good and Evil on an appointed Day with real justice and power?

5896. Cf. 37:21, n. 4047, and 36:59, n. 4005 (end). The Day of Judgement is the Day of Sorting Out, as between Good and Evil.

5897. The angel charged with the sounding of the Trumpet is Isrāfīl. It will herald Judgement, Cf. 1:20: also 39:68, and n. 4343; and 69:13, n. 5648.

19. And the heavens
Shall be opened
As if there were doors,⁵⁸⁹⁸

١٩- وَفُتِحَتِ السَّمَاءُ
فَكَانَتْ أَبْوَابًا ۝

20. And the mountains
Shall vanish, as if
They were a mirage.

٢٠- وَسُيِّرَتِ الْجِبَالُ
فَكَانَتْ سَرَابًا ۝

21. Truly Hell is
As a place of ambush — ⁵⁸⁹⁹

٢١- إِنَّ جَهَنَّمَ كَانَتْ مِرْصَادًا ۝

22. For the transgressors
A place of destination:

٢٢- لِلظَّالِمِينَ مَأْبَأٌ ۝

23. They will dwell therein
For ages.

٢٣- لَيَبْثِينَ فِيهَا أَحْقَابًا ۝

24. Nothing cool shall they taste
Therein, nor any drink,

٢٤- لَا يَذُوقُونَ فِيهَا بَرْدًا وَلَا شَرَابًا ۝

25. Save a boiling fluid
And a fluid, dark, murky,
Intensely cold — ⁵⁹⁰⁰

٢٥- إِلَّا حَمِيمًا
وُغَسَّاقًا ۝

26. A fitting recompense
(For them).⁵⁹⁰¹

٢٦- جَزَاءٌ وَفَاقًا ۝

27. For that they used not
To fear any account
(For their deeds),⁵⁹⁰²

٢٧- إِنَّهُمْ كَانُوا لَا يَرْجُونَ حِسَابًا ۝

5898. A sign that the present order of things will have ceased to exist, and a new world will have come into being. Such a figure applies to the heavens in this verse and to the earth in the next verse. The mystery of what is beyond the heavens will have vanished through the doors which will then be opened. The solid mountains, as we suppose them to be, will have vanished like an unsubstantial mirage.

5899. Hell, the embodiment of evil, is lying in wait like an ambush for everyone. We should be on our guard. For the transgressors, those who have wilfully rebelled against Allah, it will be a definite destination, from which there is no return, except, it may be, after ages i.e., unless Allah so wills: Cf. 6:128, and n. 951.

5900. Cf. 10:4, and n. 1390; also 38:57, and n. 4213.

5901. Their transgressions go on progressively as they refuse to repent and turn to Allah. The fire of misery begins to blaze forth more and more fiercely, and there is nothing to cool that blaze; their food and drink themselves are tainted with the disorder of contradictory elements—boiling hot drink, with intensely cold, murky, and disgusting fluids. These are fitting punishments for their crimes, which are inconsistent with the pure and gentle mould in which Allah had originally cast their nature.

5902. It was not isolated acts, but a continued course of evil conduct; they repudiated the moral and spiritual responsibility for their lives; and they impudently called Truth itself by false names and disdained Allah's Signs, which were vouchsafed for their instruction. These are not mere impressions; these are hard facts "preserved on record", so that every deed can have its due weight in making up the account.

28. But they (impudently) treated
Our Signs as false.

٢٨- وَكَذَّبُوا بِآيَاتِنَا كِذَابًا ۝

29. And all things have We Preserved on record.

٢٩- وَكُلَّ شَيْءٍ أَحْصَيْنَاهُ كِتَابًا ۝

30. "So taste ye (the fruits
Of your deeds);
For no increase⁵⁹⁰³
Shall We grant you,
Except in Punishment."

٣٠- فَذُوقُوا
فَلَنْ نَّزِيدَكُمْ إِلَّا عَذَابًا ۝

SECTION 2.

31. Merily for the Righteous
There will be
A fulfilment of
(The Heart's) desires;⁵⁹⁰⁴

٣١- إِنَّ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ
مَفَازًا ۝

32. Gardens enclosed, and
Grapevines;⁵⁹⁰⁵

٣٢- حَدَائِقَ وَأَعْنَابًا ۝

33. Companions of Equal Age;⁵⁹⁰⁶

٣٣- وَكَوَاعِبَ أَتْرَابًا ۝

34. And a Cup full
(To the Brim).⁵⁹⁰⁷

٣٤- وَكَأْسًا دِهَاقًا ۝

35. No Vanity shall they hear
Therein, not Untruth — ⁵⁹⁰⁸

٣٥- لَا يَسْمَعُونَ فِيهَا لَغْوًا وَلَا كِذَابًا ۝

5903. Just as there is a progressive deterioration in the sinner's soul when he surrenders himself to evil, so there is a progressive increase in the Penalty which he suffers.

5904. This is true Salvation. It is not only safety and felicity, but the attainment of the final Goal, the supreme Achievement, the Fulfilment of the highest in human nature, the satisfaction of the true and pure desires of the heart—seeing the "Face of Allah". See n. 4733 to 44:57.

5905. The supreme Achievement, or the Fulfilment of the Heart's Desires, spoken of in the last verse, is now described in three symbols (verses 32-34), as further explained by two negatives (verse 35). The first symbol is the enclosed Fruit Garden, and the symbol taken for the fruit is the Grape. The Garden in its many aspects is the most frequent symbol adopted for Bliss. Here the symbolism is further particularised. The most carefully-tended Garden is a Fruit Garden, with walls all round to protect it, and the most characteristic fruit mentioned here is the luscious Grape. (R).

5906. The second symbol is Companions of Equal Age. Maidens or Virgins, symbols of purity, grace, beauty, innocence, truth, and sympathy. (R).

5907. The third symbol, the Cup, takes us partly to the Grapes mentioned in verse 32 and partly to the Springs or Rivers mentioned with the Garden in so many places. Full to the brim brings to our mind the unbounded Bounty of Allah.

5908. The explanation of the three symbols is made further clear by the two negatives. (1) There will be no talk of vanities, such as are usually associated on this earth with pleasant Gardens, Companions of equal age, or generous Cups flowing in Assemblies. (2) There will be no Untruth or Falsehood. Insincerity or Hollowness there. Everything will be on a plane of absolute Truth and Reality.

36. Recompense from thy Lord,
A Gift, (amply) sufficient⁵⁹⁰⁹ —

٣٦- جَزَاءٌ مِّن رَّبِّكَ عَطَاءٌ حَسَابًا ۝

37. (From) the Lord
Of the heavens
And the earth,
And all between —
(Allah) Most Gracious:
None shall have power
To argue with Him.⁵⁹¹⁰

٣٧- رَبِّ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ
وَمَا بَيْنَهُمَا الرَّحْمٰنُ
لَا يَنْلِكُوْنَ مِنْهُ خِطَابًا ۝

38. The Day that
The Spirit⁵⁹¹¹ and the angels
Will stand forth in ranks,
None shall speak
Except any who is Permitted by (Allah) Most
Gracious,
And he will say
What is right.⁵⁹¹²

٣٨- يَوْمَ يَقُوْمُ الرُّوْحُ وَالْمَلٰٓئِكَةُ صَفًّا
لَّا يَتَكَلَّمُوْنَ
اِلَّا مَن اٰذِنَ لَهُ الرَّحْمٰنُ
وَقَالَ صَوَابًا ۝

39. That Day will be
The sure Reality:⁵⁹¹³
Therefore, whoso will, let him
Take a (straight) Return
To his Lord!

٣٩- ذٰلِكَ الْيَوْمُ الْحَقُّ
فَمَن شَاءَ اِنۡخَضَ اِلٰى رَّبِّهِ مَآبًا ۝

5909. The Recompense is not exactly a Reward in proportion to merit, but is rather a Gift or a Bounty from the Merciful — a Gift most amply sufficient to satisfy all desire on that plane of purity. A Gift (amply) sufficient might almost be translated: a liberal and bountiful gift. Cf. the phrase, A'tā fa ahsana = he gave generously, or bountifully. (R).

5910. No one has the right or the power to argue with Allah about the Gifts which He may bestow on His devotees beyond their deserts, (verse 36 above) or about the Penalty which His justice may inflict for sin or wrongdoing. He is high above all Creation. But He is also Most Gracious. Therefore He may permit special Dignitaries, of honour in His eyes, to plead for sinners, but they will only plead in truth and righteousness: see verse 38 below.

5911. The Spirit: see n. 5677 to 70:4. Some Commentators understand by "the Spirit" the angel Gabriel as he is charged specially with bringing Messages to human prophets: see 21:193. n. 3224. (R).

5912. See n. 5910 above. No one has the right to speak before the Judgement Seat; but certain great Dignitaries may be given permission to plead for mercy for sinners, and they will only so plead if the mercy is not negatory of Allah's universal justice.

5913. Cf. 69:1 and n. 5635. Judgement is sure to come, and Truth will then be free from all veils. Why should not man, therefore, now in this life of probation, turn back to Allah, and understand and do His Will?

40. Verily, We have warned you
Of a Penalty near—⁵⁹¹⁴
The Day when man will
See (the Deeds) which
His hands have sent forth,
And the Unbeliever will say,
"Woe unto me! Would that
I were (mere) dust!"⁵⁹¹⁵

٣٠- اِنَّا اَنْذَرْنٰكُمْ عَذَابًا قَرِيْبًا
يَوْمَ يَنْظُرُ الْمَرْءُ مَا قَدْ مَتَّ يَدَاهُ
وَيَقُوْلُ الْكَافِرُ
يَلَيْتَنِي كُنْتُ تُرَابًا ۝

5914. Is Judgement very near? Yes. There are three stages of Judgement. (1) Many of our sins and wrongdoings find their penalty in this very life. It may not be an open or striking event, but it corrodes the soul and conscience all the time. Let us therefore turn back to Allah in repentance and ask for forgiveness (2) Where the Penalty is not actually perceived or is not visible in this life, Death is considered the Lesser Judgement for each individual soul: see n. 5822 to 75:22. Death may come to anyone at any time, and we must all be ready for it. (3) Then there is the final Judgement, when the whole of the present order passes away, and there is a New World. Time as we know it will not exist. Fifty thousand years as we reckon now will be but as a Day; 70:4. According to those standards even this Final Judgement is quite near, and we must prepare for it. For it will be too late then for repentance.

5915. The Unbeliever, the Rejecter of Allah, will then find himself in a world of absolute Reality, in which there will be no place for him. He will neither live nor die: 20:74. He will wish that he could be reduced to nothingness, but even that would not be possible.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 79—AL NĀZĪ'ĀT

This is also an early Makkan Sūrah, of about the same date as the last, and deals with the theme of Judgement from the point of view of Pride and its Fall. The parable of Pharaoh occupies a central place in the argument: for he said, "I am your Lord Most High", and perished with his followers.

C. 259.—Never can Evil escape Allah's order
 (79:1-46.) And law: His angels are ever present
 To bring the wicked to their bearings
 And they ever strive and press forward to bring Comfort, succour, and Allah's Mercy to those Who seek it. Then will come the Day
 When the proud shall be humbled, though they Deny the coming Judgement. What happened
 To Pharaoh? He flouted Allah's Message specially
 Sent to Him, and arrogantly proclaimed:
 "I am your Lord Most High!" He perished
 In this life and will answer for his deeds in the next.

* * * *

But can ye not see, O men, the mighty
 Works of Allah in the heavens and on earth?—
 The darksome splendour of the Night with its Stars.
 And the daylight splendour of the Sun?—
 How the earth, with its spacious expanse and its mountains,
 Yields moisture and pasture, and feeds and sustains
 Men and cattle, through Allah's wise Providence?
 Ah! transgress not all bounds and earn not the Fire
 Or Punishment, but fear Allah and His Judgement,
 And prepare for the Garden of Perpetual Bliss.
 Delay not! The Judgement is sure, and it's nigh!

Sūrah 79.

Al Nāzi'āt (Those Who Tear Out)

الجزء الثَّلَاثُونَ سُورَةُ النَّازِعَاتِ

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. By the (angels)⁵⁹¹⁶
Who tear out
(The souls of the wicked)
With violence;⁵⁹¹⁷
2. By those who gently
Draw out (the souls
Of the blessed);⁵⁹¹⁸
3. And by those who glide
Along (on errands of mercy),⁵⁹¹⁹
4. Then press forward
As in a race,
5. Then arrange to do
(The Commands of their Lord) —

١- وَالنَّازِعَاتِ
عُرْقًا ۖ٢- وَالتَّشَاتِطِ
نَشْطًا ۖ

٣- وَالسَّيْحَاتِ سَبْحًا ۖ

٤- فَالْتِمِيقَاتِ سَبْقًا ۖ

٥- فَالْمُدَبِّرَاتِ أَمْرًا ۖ

5916. The beginning of this Sūrah may be compared with the beginning of S. 77. A translator's task in such passages is extremely difficult. He has to contend, again and again, with verities of a realm beyond man's normal range of experience expressed in elliptical language and he has to render them in another language with words of precision intelligible to readers. It is therefore necessary for him to put in part of the Commentary in the Translation in such cases. (R).

The evidence of five things is here invoked in verses 1-5, in order to lead to the conclusion in verse 6 and those following. Or, if we treat verses 3-5 as three stages of the same thing, there are three things to be considered in five stages. What are they? And what is the conclusion? See the following notes.

5917. There is much difference of opinion among the Commentators as to the five things or beings mentioned in these verses. I follow the general opinion in my interpretation, which is that angels are referred to as the agency which in their dealings with mankind show clearly Allah's Justice, Power, and Mercy, which again point to the Judgement to come, as a certainty which none can evade. The first point, referred to in this verse, is that the souls of the wicked are loath to part with their material body at death, but their will will not count: their souls will be wrenched out into another world. Who will then deny Resurrection and Judgement?

5918. The second point is that in contrast with the wicked, the souls of the blessed will be drawn out gently to their new life. They will be ready for it. In fact death for them will be a release from the grosser incidents of bodily sense. To them the approach of Judgement will be welcome.

5919. At all times are errands of mercy and blessings and errands of justice, which the angels are prompt to execute by order of Allah. There are three features of this, thus giving the third, fourth, and fifth points. (3) Their movement is compared to that of gliding or swimming (sabhan). In 21:33 this verb is applied to the motion of the celestial bodies: they all "swim along, each in its rounded course". Cf. Shakespeare, Merchant of Venice: "There's not an orb which thou behold'st, But in his motion life and angel sings, Still quiring to the young-eyed cherubims". (4) In hurrying on their errands angels press forth as in a race. (5) And thus they promptly execute the orders of their Lord.

6. One Day everything that
Can be in commotion will
Be in violent commotion,⁵⁹²⁰
7. Followed by oft-repeated
(Commotions).⁵⁹²¹
8. Hearts that Day⁵⁹²²
Will be in agitation;
9. Cast down will be⁵⁹²³
(Their owners') eyes.
10. They say (now): "What!
Shall we indeed be⁵⁹²⁴
Returned to (our) former state?"—
11. "What!—when we shall
Have become rotten bones?"
12. They say: "It would,
In that case, be
A return with loss!"
13. But verily, it will
Be but a single
(Compelling) Cry,⁵⁹²⁵

5920. The evidence of the wonderful working of the spiritual world having been invoked in the first five verses, the conclusion is now drawn and stated. It is certain that one great Day (to be taken in a spiritual sense as the Day of Account), the whole world as we now see it in our life will be in violent revolution. It will be like an earthquake destroying all landmarks. But that will affect only things subject to change: they will suffer violent convulsions as a preliminary to their disappearance. But Allah and His divine order will not change: his "Face" abideth forever, full of Majesty, Bounty, and Honour (55:27).

5921. The Commotion will be repeated again and again in the transitory world, to make way for the new world that will then come into being.

5922. All hearts will be in agitation: those of the blessed ones to see the beginning of the fulfilment of their Lord's Promise; those of the Rejecters of Allah for fear of His just Judgement.

5923. Similarly all eyes will be cast down: those of the blessed ones to see the beginning of the fulfilment of the Rejecters of Allah, in utter humiliation, sorrow, and shame, for their arrogance and insolence in their probationary life.

5924. The Unbelievers say now, in their arrogance, insolence, and mocking defiance: "Surly death here is the end of all things! When we are dead and buried, and our bones are rotten, how can we be restored again?" They add, "If that were so, then we should indeed be in a turn of dreadful luck! Instead of gaining by the Resurrection, we should be in terrible loss (with our rotten bones)!" They mean this in biting mockery. But there will indeed be an Account taken, and they will indeed be in a terrible loss, for they will go to perdition!

5925. Judgement will be inaugurated with a single compelling Cry. Cf. 37:19. See also 36:29 and 49, where the single mighty Blast seems to refer to the sinners being cut off in this life and plunged into the other world where they will be further judged, and 36:53, where the final Judgement is referred to.

5926. They will have been more or less dormant before the Great Judgement, as contrasted with the Lesser Judgement (n. 5914 to 78:40, and n. 5822 to 75:22). When the resurrection comes, they will come fully into the new world, the old heaven and earth having then completely passed away, not only for them but absolutely.

5927. This is just a reference to the story of Moses told more fully in S. 20:9-76. The lessons drawn are: (1) That even to an arrogant blasphemer and rebel against Allah's Law, like Pharaoh, Allah's grace was offered through a major prophet Moses; (2) that this rejection brought about his signal downfall even in this world; and (3) that his humiliation and punishment will be completed in the Hereafter at Judgement.

5928. Cf. 20:12.

5929. Cf. 20:24.

5930. Even for such a one as Pharaoh, intoxicated with his own power and greatness, guidance and grace were offered through Moses.

5931. What was the Great Sign? Some Commentators understand by it the "White Shining Hand": see n. 2550 to 20:22-23. Others think it was the miracle of the rod that became a "snake active in motion": see 20:20, n. 2549. These were among the Greater Signs: 20:23. In 17:101 there is a reference to nine clear Signs given to Moses, and these are specified in detail in n. 1091 to 7:133. the fact is, there were many Signs given, "openly self-explained," but Pharaoh and his men "were steeped in arrogance — a people given to sin" (7:133). the pre-eminently Great Sign was therefore the fact of Moses being sent to Pharaoh, which subsequently converted the magicians and the more learned Egyptians to the true God (20:70-73), though Pharaoh and his Chiefs resisted and suffered for their sins. 5932. See 20:78-79, also 7:135-137.

5933. Cf. 24:44.

5934. If man grows arrogant or forgets his accountability to Allah, in his ignorance or thoughtlessness, he is reminded that he is only an insignificant speck in Allah's spacious Creation. All the excellence that man acquires is the gift of Allah. Who had bestowed on him a high Destiny if he fulfils the purpose of his creation: 2:30-39. Then follows a nature passage, pointing to the glory of the heavens and the earth, and how they are both made to subserve the life of man.

5935. Cf. 2:29. The mystery of the heavens with their countless stars and the planets obeying the laws of motion, and the sun and moon influencing the temperature and climates of the earth from thousands or millions of miles, illustrate the order and perfection which Allah has given to His Creation. Can man then remain exempt from his responsibility for his deeds, endowed as he is with a will, or deny the Day of Sorting Out, which is the Day of Judgement?

5936. Its of course refers to the starry heaven. Both the Night and the Day have each its own beauty and its utility for man, as has been frequently pointed out in the Qur'an. The night is a period of darkness, but it has also its splendours of light in the moon, or the planets Jupiter or Venus, or stars like Sirius or the Milky Way. These countless lights of night have their own beauty, and by day there is splendour of the sun for us, which in Creation as a whole, is just one of countless stars.

30. And the earth, moreover,⁵⁹³⁷
Hath He extended

٣١- أَخْرَجَ مِنْهَا مَاءَهَا
وَمَرْعَاهَا ۝

32. And the mountains
Hath He firmly fixed —⁵⁹³⁹

٣٢- وَاجْبَالَ أَرْسُهَا ۝

33. For use and convenience⁵⁹⁴⁰
To you and your cattle.

٣٣- مَتَاعًا لَّكُمْ وَلِأَنْعَامِكُمْ ۝

34. Therefore, when there comes
The great, overwhelming
(Event) —⁵⁹⁴¹

٣٤- فَإِذَا جَاءَتِ الطَّامَةُ الْكُبْرَى ۝

35. The Day when Man
Shall remember (all)
That he strove for,⁵⁹⁴²

٣٥- يَوْمَ يَتَذَكَّرُ الْإِنْسَانُ مَا سَعَى ۝

36. And Hell-Fire shall be Placed in full view⁵⁹⁴³
For (all) to see —

٣٦- وَبُورِزَتِ الْجَحِيمُ
لِمَنْ يَرَى ۝

37. Then, for such as had
Transgressed all bounds,

٣٧- فَأَمَّا مَنْ ظَنَى ۝

5937. Moreover: or, more literally, after that. See n. 4475 to 41:11.

5938. The underground springs and wells as well as rivers and glaciers in northern climates are due to the different levels of highlands not lowlands. They spread the moisture evenly as wanted, and give corn, fruits, and vegetables to man, and pastures and feeding grounds to beasts of the fields. For the wonderful circuit or cycle of water between heaven and earth, see notes 3106 (25:49) and 3111 (25:53).

5939. See n. 2038 to 16:15. the "eternal hills" are the main reservoirs for the storage and gradual distribution of water, the very basis of the life of man and beast.

5940. This clause I construe to apply to verses 30, 31, and 32 above. Everything on earth has, by Allah's bountiful providence, been arranged to subserve the use and convenience of man and the lower life which depends upon him. The intermediary between Allah's providence and the actual use made for Allah's other gifts is man's own intelligence and initiative, which are also gifts of Allah.

5941. The Judgement, the time for sorting out all things according to their true, intrinsic, and eternal values.

5942. The Judgement will be not only for his acts but for his motives, "all he strove for". In this life he may forget his ill-deeds, but in the new conditions he will not only remember them, but the Fire of Punishment will be plainly visible to him, and not only to him, but it will be "for all to see". This will add to the sinner's humiliation.

5943. Cf. 26:91.

38. And had preferred⁵⁹⁴⁴
The life of this world,
39. The Abode will be Hell-Fire;
40. And for such as had
Entertained the fear
Of standing before⁵⁹⁴⁵
Their Lord's (tribunal)
And had restrained
(Their) souls from lower Desires,

The Garden.
42. They ask thee⁵⁹⁴⁶
About the Hour—'When
Will be its appointed time?'
43. Wherein art thou (concerned)
With the declaration thereof?
44. With thy Lord is
The Limit⁵⁹⁴⁷ fixed therefor.
45. Thou art but a Warner
For such as fear it.⁵⁹⁴⁸
46. The Day they see it,
(It will be) as if they
Had tarried but a single

- ٣٨- وَأَشْرَ الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا ۖ

- ٤٦- كَانَتْهُمْ يَوْمَ يُرَوُّنَهَا
لَمْ يَلْبِسُوا إِلَّا

5944. The abiding Punishment will be for those who had willfully and persistently rebelled against Allah, "transgressing all bounds", and had given themselves up to the vanities and lusts of this lower life. This Punishment will not touch those who had repented and been forgiven, nor those guilty, through human frailty, of minor sins, whose deeds will be weighed in the balance against their good deeds: 101:6-9.

5945. The contrast is complete and parallel: the persistent rebels against Allah's Law, who preferred the lower life, are to dwell in the Fire of Punishment, while those who humbly feared the punishment of sin and believing in their Lord's warnings restrained their lower desires, will dwell in the Garden. See last note.

5946. Cf. 7:187 and n. 1159. Only Allah can reveal it. But were it known, "heavy were its burden through the heavens and the earth".

5947. Our time has no sort of comparison with the timeless state in the new spiritual World in which the final Judgement will take place. Nor can its limits—how long it will last—be set except in the Will of Almighty Allah, Lord of Supreme Wisdom, Justice, and Goodness: 11:107-108. But it is near, in the sense explained in n. 5914 to 78:40.

5948. The warning is only effective for those who believe in Allah and in the Final Account. Such men immediately turn in repentance to Allah, and it is to lead such men and help them, that Prophets are sent.

Evening, or (at most 'till)
The following morn⁵⁹⁴⁹

عَشِيَّةٌ أَوْ ضُحًى ۝

5949. Cf. 10:45, where the expression used is: "it will be as if they had tarried but an hour of a day." Here the metaphor used is "a single evening, or at most, 'till the following morn". Death is like sleep, and may be compared to the evening of life. In sleep we do not know how the time passes. When we wake up from the sleep of Death at the Resurrection, we shall not know whether it was the following moment or the following hour after we slept, but we shall feel that it is morning, for we shall be conscious of all that goes on, as one awakened in the morning.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 80—ABASA

This is an early Makkan Sūrah, and is connected with an incident which reflects the highest honour on the Prophet's sincerity in the Revelations that were vouchsafed to him even if they seemed to reprove him for some natural and human zeal that led him to a false step in his mission according to his own high standards.

He was once deeply and earnestly engaged in trying to explain the Holy Qur'ān to Pagan Quraysh leaders, when he was interrupted by a blind man, 'Abd Allah ibn Umm Maktūm, one who was also poor, so that no one took any notice of him. He wanted to learn the Qur'ān. The Holy Prophet naturally disliked the interruption and showed impatience. Perhaps the poor man's feelings were hurt. But he whose gentle heart ever sympathised with the poor and the afflicted, got new Light from above, and without the least hesitation published this revelation, which forms part of the sacred scripture of Islam, as described in verses 13-16. And the Prophet always afterwards held the man in high honour.

The incident was only a passing incident, but after explaining the eternal principles of revelation, the Sūrah recapitulates the Mercies of Allah to man, and the consequences of a good or a wicked life here, as seen in the spiritual world to come, in the Hereafter.

C. 260. — Men not blest with the good things of this life
 (80:1-42.) May yet be earnest seekers of Truth
 And Purity, and deserve as much attention as those Who seem to wield some influence, yet who
 In their pride are self-sufficient. Allah's Message
 Is universal: all have a right
 To hear it. Held high in honour, kept
 Pure and holy, it should be writ
 By none but good and honourable men.

* * * *

Allah's Grace is showered on man not less
 For his inner growth than in his outward
 Life. There must be a final Reckoning,
 When each soul must stand on its own past Record:
 The faces, then, of the Blest will beam
 With Joy and Light, while the Doers of Iniquity
 Will hide in Dust and Shame and Darkness.

Sūrah 80.

'Abasa (He Frowned)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. (The Prophet) frowned
And turned away,⁵⁹⁵⁰
2. Because there came to him
The blind man (interrupting).
3. But what could tell thee
But that perchance he might
Grow (in spiritual understanding)?
4. Or that he might receive
Admonition, and the teaching
Might profit him?⁵⁹⁵¹
5. As to one who regards
Himself as self-sufficient,⁵⁹⁵²
6. To him dost thou attend;
7. Though it is no blame
On thee if he grow not⁵⁹⁵³
(In spiritual understanding).
8. But as to him who came
To thee striving earnestly,

الْجُودُ الثَّانُونَ سُوْرَةُ عَبَسَ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- عَبَسَ وَتَوَلَّى ۝

٢- اِنْ جَاءَهُ الْاَعْمٰى ۝

٣- وَ مَا يُدْرِىكَ لَعَلَّهٗ يَزْكٰى ۝

٤- اَوْ يَذَّكَّرُ
فَتَنْفَعَهُ الْذِّكْرٰى ۝

٥- اَمَّا مَنِ اسْتَغْنٰى ۝

٦- فَاَنْتَ لَهٗ تَصَدِّى ۝

٧- وَ مَا عَلَيْكَ اِلَّا يَزْكٰى ۝

٨- وَ اَمَّا مَنِ جَاءَكَ يَسْعٰى ۝

5950. See the Introduction to this Sūrah for the incident to which this refers. The lesson is that neither spiritual worth nor the prospect of effective spiritual guidance is to be measured by a man's position in life. The poor, or the blind, the halt, or the maimed, may be more susceptible to the teaching of Allah's Word than men who are apparently gifted, but who suffer from arrogance and self-sufficiency.

5951. It may be that the poor blind man might, on account of his will to learn, be more likely to grow in his own spiritual development or to profit by any lessons taught to him even in reproof than a self-sufficient leader. In fact it was so. For the blind man became a true and sincere Muslim and lived to become a governor of Madīnah.

5952. Such a one would be a Pagan Quraysh leader, whom the Holy Prophet was anxious to get into his fold, in order that the work of preaching Allah's Message might be facilitated. But such a Message works first amongst the simple and lowly, the poor and despised folk, and the mighty ones of the earth only come in when the stream rushes in with irresistible force.

5953. Allah's Message is for all, but if the great ones arrogantly keep back from it, it is no fault of the Preacher, so long as he has proclaimed the Message. He should attend to all, and specially to the humble and lowly.

تَفَضَّلْهُ

5954. The fear in the blind man's heart may have been twofold. (1) He was humble and God-fearing, not arrogant and self-sufficient: (2) being poor and blind, he feared to intrude: yet his earnest desire to learn the Qur'ān made him bold, and he came, perhaps unseasonably, but was yet worthy of encouragement, because of the purity of his heart.

5955. Allah's Message is a universal Message, from which no one is to be excluded—rich or poor, old or young, great or lowly, learned or ignorant. If anyone had the spiritual craving that needed satisfaction, he was to be given precedence if there was to be any question of precedence at all.

5956. At the time this Sūrah was revealed, there were perhaps only about 42 or 45 Sūrahs in the hands of the Muslims. But it was a sufficient body of Revelation of high spiritual value, to which the description given here could be applied. It was held in the highest honour; its place in the hearts of Muslims was more exalted than that of anything else: as Allah's Word, it was pure and sacred; and those who transcribed it were men who were honourable, just and pious. The legend that the early Sūrahs were not carefully written down and preserved in books is a pure invention. The recensions made later in the time of the first and the third Khalifahs were merely to preserve the purity and safeguard the arrangement of the text at a time when the expansion of Islam among non-Arabic-speaking peoples made such precautions necessary.

19. From a sperm drop:⁵⁹⁵⁷
He hath created him, and then
Mouldeth him in due proportions;
20. Then doth He make
His path smooth for him;
21. Then He causeth him to die,
And putteth him in his Grave;⁵⁹⁵⁸
22. Then, when it is
His Will, He will
Raise him up (again).
23. By no means hath he Fulfilled what Allah
Hath commanded him.⁵⁹⁵⁹
24. Then let man look
At his Food,⁵⁹⁶⁰
(And how We provide it):
25. For that We pour forth
Water in abundance,
26. And We split the earth
In fragments,⁵⁹⁶¹

- ١٩- مِنْ تُطْفَةِ ۖ
خَلَقَهُ فَقَدَرَهُ ۖ
- ٢٠- ثُمَّ السَّبِيلَ يَسْرَهُ ۖ
- ٢١- ثُمَّ أَمَاتَهُ فَأَقْبَرَهُ ۖ
- ٢٢- ثُمَّ إِذَا شَاءَ أَنشَرَهُ ۖ
- ٢٣- كَلَّا لَمَّا يَقْضِ
مَا أَمَرَهُ ۖ
- ٢٤- فَلْيَنْظُرِ الْإِنْسَانُ إِلَى طَعَامِهِ ۖ
- ٢٥- إِنَّا صَبَبْنَا الْمَاءَ صَبًّا ۖ
- ٢٦- ثُمَّ شَقَقْنَا الْأَرْضَ شَقًّا ۖ

5957. Cf. 76:2, and n. 5832. The origin of man as an animal is lowly indeed. But what further faculties and capacities has not Allah granted to men? Besides his animal body, in which also he shares in all the blessings which Allah has bestowed on the rest of His Creation, man has been granted divine gifts which entitle him to be called Vicegerent of Allah on earth: 2:30. He has a will; he has spiritual perception; he is capable of divine love; he can control nature within certain limits, and subject nature's forces to his own use. And he has been given the power of judgement, so that he can avoid excess and defect, and follow the middle path. And that path, as well as all that is necessary for his life in its manifold aspects, has been made easy for him.

5958. Cf. 20:55. Death is an inevitable event after the brief life on this earth, but it is also in a sense a blessing—a release from the imperfections of this world, a close of the probationary period, after which will dawn the full Reality. The Grave may be understood to be the period between physical death and immortal Life, whatever may be the mode of disposal of the dead body. This intermediate period is the Barzakh or Partition: see n. 2940 to 23:101.

5959. Though all these blessings and stages have been provided by Allah's Grace for the good of man, yet unregenerate man fails in carrying out the purpose of his creation and life.

5960. After a reference to man's inner history, there is now a reference to just one item in his daily outer life, his food: and it is shown how the forces of heaven and earth unite by Allah's Command to serve man and his dependants, "for use and convenience to you and your cattle" (verse 32 below). If that is the case with just one item, food, how much more comprehensive is Allah's beneficence when the whole of man's needs are considered!

5961. The water comes from the clouds in plentiful abundance; the earth is ploughed, and the soil is broken up in fragments, and yields an abundant harvest of cereals (Corn), trellised fruit (Grapes), and vegetable food (nutritious Plants), as well as fruit that can keep for long periods and serve many uses, like olives and dates.

27. And produce therein⁵⁹⁶² Corn,
 28. And Grapes and nutritious Plants,
 29. And Olives and Dates,
 30. And enclosed Gardens,⁵⁹⁶³
 Dense with lofty trees,
 31. And Fruits and Fodder—
 32. For use and convenience
 To you and your cattle.⁵⁹⁶⁴
 33. At length, when there
 Comes the Deafening Noise — ⁵⁹⁶⁵
 34. That Day shall a man
 Flee from his own brother,
 35. And from his mother
 And his father,
 36. And from his wife
 And his children.⁵⁹⁶⁶
 37. Each one of them,
 That Day, will have Enough concern (of his own)
 To make him indifferent
 To the others.⁵⁹⁶⁷

5962. Therein: i.e., from within the earth or the soil.

5963. We not only get field crops such as were mentioned in n. 5961 above, but we have the more highly cultivated garden crops, both in the way of lofty trees, and in the way of carefully tended fruits like the fig; and then we have grass and all kinds of fodder.

5964. The same verse occurs at 79:33, where n. 5940 explains the wider meaning in that context.

5965. Preliminary to the establishment of the Final Judgement.

5966. Even those who were nearest and dearest in this life will not be able or willing to help each other on that awful Day. On the contrary, if they have to receive a sentence for their sins, they will be anxious to avoid even sharing each other's sorrows or witnessing each other's humiliation; for each will have enough of his own troubles to occupy him. On the other hand, the Righteous will be united with their righteous families: 52:21; and their faces will be "beaming, laughing, rejoicing" (80:38-39).

5967. Cf. 70:10-14. No friend will ask after a friend that Day. On the contrary the sinner will desire to save himself at the expense even of his own family and benefactors.

38. Some Faces that Day
Will be beaming,

۳۸- وَجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ مُّسْفِرَةٌ ۝

39. Laughing, rejoicing.

۳۹- ضَاحِكَةٌ مُّسْتَبْشِرَةٌ ۝

40. And other faces that Day
Will be dust stained;⁵⁹⁶⁸

۴۰- وَوُجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ عَلَيْهَا غَبَرَةٌ ۝

41. Blackness will cover them:

۴۱- تَرَاهُمْ بِهَا قَتَرَةٌ ۝

42. Such will be
The Rejecters of Allah,
The Doers of Iniquity.

۴۲- أُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْكَفَرَةُ الْفَجَرَةُ ۝

5968. The dust on the faces of the sinners will be in contrast to the beaming light on the faces of the righteous; and the blackness in contrast to the "laughing, rejoicing" faces of the righteous. But the dust also suggests that being Rejecters of Allah, their faces and eyes and faculties were choked in dust, and the blackness suggests that being Doers of Iniquity they had no part or lot in purity or Light. Another contrast may possibly be deduced: the humble and lowly may be "in the dust" in this life, and the arrogant sinners in sunshine, but the roles will be reversed at Judgement.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 81—AL TAKWĪR

This is quite an early Makkan Sūrah, perhaps the sixth or seventh in chronological order. It opens with a series of highly graphic images portraying the break-up of the world as we know it (verses 1-13) and the enforcement of complete personal responsibility for each soul (verse 14). This is followed by a passage showing how the Quranic Revelation was true, and revealed through the angel Gabriel, and not merely a rhapsody from one possessed. Revelation is given for man's spiritual guidance (verses 14-29). (R).

Comparable with this Sūrah are Sūrahs 82 and 84 which may be read with this.

C. 261. — How can the soul's self-conviction be fitly
 (81:1-29.) Expressed, except by types of tremendous Cataclysms in nature, and still more by tremendous Searchings in the heart of man? These want
 Deep pondering. When once the spiritual Dawn
 Has "breathed away" the Darkness of the Night,
 The Vision Glorious clears all doubts,
 And brings us face to face with Truth.
 The highest Archangel in heaven is sent
 By Allah to bring these truths to men
 Through their Prophet. Allah's Grace flows freely:
 We have but to tune our Will to His—
 The ever-loving Righteous God.

Sūrah 81.

Al Takwīr (The Folding Up)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. When the sun⁵⁹⁶⁹
(With its spacious light)
Is folded up;⁵⁹⁷⁰
2. When the stars⁵⁹⁷¹
Fall, losing their lustre;
3. When the mountains vanish
(Like a mirage);⁵⁹⁷²
4. When the she-camels,
Ten months with young,
Are left untended;⁵⁹⁷³
5. When the wild beasts
Are herded together
(In human habitations);⁵⁹⁷⁴

الجزء الثَّانِي سُوْرَةُ التَّكْوِيْرِ

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِيْمِ

۱- اِذَا الشَّمْسُ كُوِّرَتْ ۝

۲- وَاِذَا النُّجُومُ انْكَدَرَتْ ۝

۳- وَاِذَا الْجِبَالُ سُيِّرَتْ ۝

۴- وَاِذَا الْعِشَارُ عُطِّلَتْ ۝

۵- وَاِذَا الْوُحُوْشُ خُسِّرَتْ ۝

5969. Verses 1 to 13 are conditional clauses, and the substantive clause is in verse 14. The time will come when nature's processes as we know them will cease to function, and the soul will only then know by self-conviction the results of its actions. With reference to an individual soul, its resurrection is its supreme crisis: the whole world of sense, and even of imagination and reason, melts away, and its whole spiritual scroll is laid bare before it.

5970. The conditional clauses are twelve, in two groups of six. The first six affect the outer or physical life of man; the last six, his inmost spiritual life. Let us take them one by one. (1) The biggest factor affecting us in the external physical World is the light, heat, and perhaps electric or magnetic energy of the sun. The sun is the source of all the light, heat, and energy, and indeed the source and support of all physical life that we know. It is the biggest factor and yet most remote from us in our solar system. Yet the sources of our inner spiritual life will be greater and more lasting, for they will survive it. The sun as the centre of our solar system also stands as a symbol of the present order of things. The physical forces, as defined in Newton's laws of Matter and Attraction, will also break up with the break-up of the sun.

Is folded up: is folded up, or twisted up, like a sheet or garment.

5971. (2) Next after the sun, we can derive faint lights from the innumerable stars in the firmament. For all the ages of which we have any record, these stars have remained fixed. Nothing can be more fixed: yet they can and will fail.

5972. Cf. 78:20. (3) On our own earth the mountains—the "eternal hills"—seem the most striking examples of stability; yet they will be swept away like a mirage, as if they had never existed.

5973. (4) The type of Arab property, as well as the type of the Arab pet, was the camel, and the most precious camel was the she-camel just about to be delivered of her young. She would in normal times be most sedulously cared for. But when all our landmarks of this life vanish, even she would be left untended. Nothing would then be as it is now.

5974. (5) In the present world, the wild animals fear each other, and they all fear man and normally keep away from human habitations. But when this order passes away, there will be scarcely any differentiation between human habitations and the wilds of the forests.

| 12. When the Blazing Fire⁵⁹⁸⁰
Is kindled to fierce heat; | ج- وَاِذَا الْجَحِيْمُ سُعِّرَتْ ۝ |

5975. See 52:6 and n. 5041. (6) The oceans, which now keep their bounds, will surge and boil over, and overwhelm all landmarks. At present the waters seem to have reached their fixed and normal levels, but the whole equilibrium will then be disturbed. Such will be the complete wreck of this transitory world, at the approach of the dawn of the permanent Reality. But these are physical symbols, relating to the outer nature surrounding the physical nature of man. The remaining six, viz.: the 7th to the 12th, describe the ordering of the new spiritual World, from which all present seeming incongruities will be removed.

5978. (9) The Scrolls recording the deeds of men, good or bad, will then be laid open before all. Cf. 50:17-18, n. 4954; also 82:11-12. In the present phenomenal world, things may be concealed; but in the spiritual world of absolute Reality, every secret is opened out, good or bad. The whole tale of acts, omissions, motives, imponderable spiritual hurt, neglect, or help will be laid bare.

5979. The World on High: literally, the Sky, or Heaven as standing for both the Blazing Fire and the Garden, the Home of the Hereafter. (10) The soul's spiritual Sky — the things it held high or sacred — will be stripped of the thin blue that gave rest — and partly illusion — to its spiritual eye in the world of illusions. Just as when an animal is skinned, its real flesh and blood and inner organs become visible, without any outer coating to hold them together, so the inmost state of the spiritual world will then become plain.

5980. (11) Then will burn the Blazing Fire of the Hell, worse than the fiercest fire. (R).

13. And when the Garden⁵⁹⁸¹
Is brought near—⁵⁹⁸²
14. (Then) shall each soul know
What it has put forward.⁵⁹⁸³
15. So verily I call⁵⁹⁸⁴
To witness the Planets—⁵⁹⁸⁵
That recede,
16. Go straight, or hide;
17. And the Night
As it dissipates;⁵⁹⁸⁶
18. And the Dawn
As it breathes away
The darkness—⁵⁹⁸⁷
19. Verily this is the word
Of a most honourable
Messenger,⁵⁹⁸⁸

- ١٣- وَإِذَا الْجَنَّةُ أُرْفِئَتْ ۖ
- ١٤- عَلِمَتْ نَفْسٌ مَّا أَحْضَرَتْ ۖ
- ١٥- فَلَا أُقْسِمُ بِالْخُنُوسِ ۖ
- ١٦- الْجَوَارِ الْكُنُوسِ ۖ
- ١٧- وَالْأَيْلِ إِذَا عَسَّصَ ۖ
- ١٨- وَالصُّبْحِ إِذَا تَنَفَّسَ ۖ
- ١٩- إِنَّهُ لَقَوْلُ رَسُولٍ كَرِيمٍ ۖ

5981. (12) The last of the Metaphors, the Garden of Bliss—the Light of Allah's Face (92:20)—will come in sight—not yet attained, but visible, or "brought near". For the scales have fallen from the eyes, and the soul knows itself.

5982. See 75:22, n. 5822; 78:40, n. 5914; and 79:14, n. 5926. [Eds.].

5983. This is the conclusion. It is only on such conditions that the soul reaches its full realisation. Put forward: cf. "the Deeds which his hands have sent forth" in 78:40.

5984. Cf. 76:75, n. 5258, for the witness that the heavenly bodies bear symbolically to the power, beauty, and goodness of Allah, in sending His Revelation. See n. 5798 to 74:32, for the significance of an adjuration in the Qur'ān.

5985. The appeal here is made to three things, the Planets, the Night, and the Dawn. (1) The Planets have a retrograde and a forward motion, and during occultation, hide or disappear behind the sun or moon, or are otherwise invisible or appear stationary. They behave differently from the millions of stars around them. Yet they are not mere erratic bodies, but obey definite laws, and evidence the power and wisdom of Allah.

5986. How the Night gradually declines after its height at midnight! It seems gradually to steal away, and as Dawn approaches, to merge into Day. So a soul in spiritual darkness gradually awakes to its spiritual Dawn through Revelation.

5987. The slow "breathing out" of the darkness by the Dawn, shown us, by beautiful imagery, that these mysterious operations, of which people in their ignorance are frightened if they have to do with darkness, are really beneficent operations of Allah. They have nothing to do with evil spirits, or witches, or magic. For three questions were actually raised about the Holy Prophet's Ministry by the ignorant. (1) Did his wonderful works come from himself and not from Allah? (2) Was he possessed of an evil spirit? In other words, was he mad? For that was the theory of madness, then current. (3) Was he a soothsayer, or necromancer, or magician? For he had virtues, powers, and eloquence, so extraordinary that they could not understand him.

5988. They are told here that all their three theories were foolish. The Revelation was really from Allah. Their wonder should cease if they observe the daily miracles worked round them in nature. The bringer of Allah's Message was the angel Gabriel, and not an evil spirit.

20. Endued with Power,
With rank before
The Lord of the Throne,⁵⁹⁸⁹

٢٠- ذِي قُوَّةٍ
عِنْدَ ذِي الْعَرْشِ مَكِينٍ ۝

21. With authority there,
(And) faithful to his trust.

٢١- مُطَاعٍ ثَمَّ أَمِينٍ ۝

22. And (O people)!
Your Companion is not
One possessed;⁵⁹⁹⁰

٢٢- وَمَا صَاحِبُكُمْ بِمَجْنُونٍ ۝

23. And without doubt he saw him
In the clear horizon.⁵⁹⁹¹

٢٣- وَلَقَدْ رَآهُ بِالْأُفُقِ الْمُبِينِ ۝

24. Neither doth he withhold
Grudgingly a knowledge
Of the Unseen.⁵⁹⁹²

٢٤- وَمَا هُوَ عَلَى الْغَيْبِ بِضَنِينٍ ۝

25. Nor is it the word
Of an evil spirit accursed.⁵⁹⁹³

٢٥- وَمَا هُوَ بِقَوْلِ شَيْطَانٍ رَجِيمٍ ۝

26. Then whither go ye?⁵⁹⁹⁴

٢٦- فَأَيْنَ تَذْهَبُونَ ۝

27. Verily this is no less
Than a Message
To (all) the Worlds.⁵⁹⁹⁵

٢٧- إِنَّ هُوَ إِلَّا ذِكْرٌ لِلْعَالَمِينَ ۝

5989. Not only was the bringer of the Revelation, Gabriel, an honourable Messenger, incapable of deceit, but he had, in the angelic kingdom, rank and authority before Allah's Throne, and he could convey an authoritative divine Message. He was, like the Holy Prophet, faithful to his trust; and therefore there could be no question of the Message being delivered in any other way than exactly according to the divine Will and Purpose. These epithets could apply to the Prophet himself, but in view of verse 23 below, it is best to understand them of Gabriel.

5990. After describing the credentials of the Archangel Gabriel, the Text now appeals to the people to consider their own "Companion", the Prophet, who had been born among them and had lived with them, and was known to be an honourable, truthful, and trustworthy man. If Gabriel was the one who brought the Message to him, then there was no question of demoniacal possession. And the Prophet had seen him in his inspired vision "in the clear horizon".

5991. Read along with this the whole passage in 53:1-18 and notes there; specially n. 5092, where the two occasions are mentioned when there was a vision of inspiration: "For truly did he see, of the Signs of his Lord, the Greatest" (53:18).

5992. Such would be the words of a soothsayer, guarded, ambiguous, and misleading. Here everything was clear, sane, true, and under divine inspiration.

5993. Such as evil suggestions of envy, spite, greed, selfishness, or other vices. On the contrary, the teaching of the Qur'ān is beneficent, pointing to the Right Way, and Way of Allah. Rajīm: literally, driven away with stones, rejected with complete ignominy. Cf. 15:17. The rite of throwing stones in the valley of Minā at the close of the Makkan Pilgrimage [see n. 217 (6) to 2:197] suggests symbolically that the Pilgrim emphatically, definitely, and finally rejects all Evil.

5994. It has been shown that this is no word of a mortal, but that it is full of divine wisdom: that its teaching is not that of a madman, but sane to the core and in accordance with human needs: that it freely and clearly directs you to the right Path and forbids you the Path of evil. Why then hesitate? Accept the divine Grace; repent of your sins; and come to the higher Life.

5995. It is not meant for one class or race; it is universal, and is addressed to all the Worlds. For the meaning of "Worlds", see n. 20 to 1:2.

28. (With profit) to whoever
Among you wills
To go straight:⁵⁹⁹⁶

٢٨- لِمَن شَاءَ مِنْكُمْ أَن يَسْتَقِيمَ ۝

29. But ye shall not will Except as Allah wills—
The Cherisher of the Worlds.

٢٩- وَمَا تَشَاءُونَ إِلَّا أَن يَشَاءَ اللَّهُ
رَبُّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝

5996. Cf. 74:55-56. Allah is the Cherisher of the Worlds, Lord of Grace and Mercy, and His guidance is open to all who have the will to profit by it. But that will must be exercised in conformity with Allah's Will (verse 29). Such conformity is Islam. Verse 28 points to human free will and responsibility; verse 29 to its limitations. Both extremes, viz.: cast-iron Determination and an idea of chaotic Free Will, are condemned.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 82—AL INFIṬĀR

In subject matter this Sūrah is cognate to the last, though the best authorities consider it a good deal later in chronology in the early Makkan Period.

Its argument is subject to the threefold interpretation mentioned in n. 5982 to 81:13, viz., as referring (1) to the final Day of Judgement, (2) to the Lesser Judgement, on an individual's death, and (3) to the awakening of the Inner Light in the soul at any time, that being considered as Death to the Falsities of this life and a Rebirth to the true spiritual Reality.

C. 262.—How fixed is the order holding together
 (82:1-19.) This material universe above and below us?
 Yet it must give way before the vast
 Unfathomed Truth in which man will see
 His past and his future in true perspective.
 To Allah he owes his life and all
 Its blessings: will he not see
 That the Future depends on Right and Justice?
 Righteousness must come to its own,
 And so must Discord and Rebellion.
 The Day must come when Discord
 Must finally cease, and the Peace of Allah
 And His Command are all-in-all.

الْجُزْءُ الثَّلَاثُونَ سُورَةُ الْإِنْفِطَارِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- إِذَا السَّمَاءُ انْفَطَرَتْ ۖ

٢- وَإِذَا الْكَوَاكِبُ انتَثَرَتْ ۖ

٣- وَإِذَا الْبِحَارُ فُجِّرَتْ ۖ

٤- وَإِذَا الْقُبُورُ بُعْثِرَتْ ۖ

٥- عَلِمَتْ نَفْسٌ مَّا قَدَّمَتْ
وَآخَرَتْ ۖ

5997. Cf. the passage 81:1-14 and notes. For the three parallel interpretations, see the Introduction to this Sūrah. There are four conditional clauses here, and the substantive clause is in verse 5. In S. 81. there were 12 conditional clauses, and the conclusion was similar, but not expressed in precisely the same terms. See 72:5. n. 6002 below. The physical world as we see it now will be destroyed before the final Day of Judgement, establishing the true spiritual Reality. In the following four clauses we have a reference to the Lesser Judgement, the individual dawn of the true Reality at Death. (R).

5998. Cf. 73:18, n. 5869. The beautiful blue sky overhead, which we take for granted in sunshine and storm, will be shattered to pieces before the New World is established. The partition which seems at present to divide things divine from the phenomenal world has to be shattered before each soul knows the reality about itself. (R).

5999. Cf. 81:2, where the word for "stars" (Nujūm) is different, and the verb is different. Najm has reference to brightness, and the verb "losing their lustre" was appropriate there, to show the opposite. Kawkab (used here) has more the meaning of a star as fixed in a constellation; and the opposite of a fixed and definite order is "scattered", the verb used here. In fact, throughout this passage, the dominating idea is the disturbance of order and symmetry. The metaphor behind the scattering of the constellations is that in the present order of things we see many things associated together, e.g., rank with honour, wealth with comfort, etc. In the New World this will be seen to have been merely fortuitous. (R).

6000. Cf. 81:6, "when the oceans boil over with a swell". Here, "are suffered to burst forth" expresses the end of the present order of things. This may be in two ways: (1) The barrier, which keeps within their respective bounds the various streams of salt and fresh water (55:20, n. 5185), will be removed; (2) the Ocean will overwhelm the whole Globe. (R).

6001. This item is not mentioned in 81:1-14. Here it is introduced to show that the whole order of things will be so reversed that even Death will not be Death. We think there is tranquillity in Death, but there will be no tranquillity. Literally, and figuratively, Death will be the beginning of a new Life. What we think to be Death will bring forth Life.

6002. Sent Forward and kept back: may mean: the deeds of commission and omission in this life. Or the Arabic words may also be translated: sent forward and left behind: i.e., the spiritual possibilities which it sent forward for its other life, and the physical things on which it prided itself in this life, but which it had to leave behind in this life. Or else, the things it put first and the things it put last in importance may change places in the new world of Reality. "The first shall be last and the last shall be first".

6003. Cf. 15:29. Allah not only created man, but fashioned him in due proportions, giving him extraordinary capacities, and the means wherewith he can fulfil his high destiny.

6004. See n. 834 to 6:1. Having given a limited free will, He gave us a just bias through our reason and our spiritual faculties. If we err, it is our will that is at fault.

6005. By "Form" (Ṣūrah) here I understand the general shape of things in which any given personality is placed, including his physical and social environments, his gifts of mind and spirit, and all that goes to make up his outer and inner life. The Grace of Allah is shown in all these things, for His Will is formed from perfect knowledge, wisdom, and goodness.

6006. The goodness and mercies of Allah, and His constant watchful care of all His creatures should make men grateful, instead of which they turn away from the Right and deny the Day of Sorting Out, the Day when every action performed here will find its fulfilment in just reward or punishment.

6007. Besides the faculties given to man to guide him, and the Form and Personality through which he can rise by stages to the Presence of Allah, there are spiritual agencies around him to help and protect him, and to note down his Record, so that perfect justice may be done to him at the end. For these Guardian Angels, see 50:17-18, and n. 4954.

Able to keep away therefrom.
17. And what will explain
To thee what the Day
Of Judgement is?
18. Again, what will explain
To thee what the Day
Of Judgement is?⁶⁰⁰⁹
19. (It will be) the Day
When no soul shall have
Power (to do) aught

For the Command, that Day,
Will be (wholly) with Allah.

١٥- يَصْلَوْنَهَا يَوْمَ الدِّينِ ۝

١٦- وَمَا هُمْ عَنْهَا بِغَائِبِينَ ۝

١٧- وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا يَوْمَ الدِّينِ ۝

١٨- ثُمَّ مَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا يَوْمَ الدِّينِ ۝

١٩- يَوْمَ لَا تَمْلِكُ نَفْسٌ

لِنَفْسٍ شَيْئًا ۝

وَالْأَمْرُ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلَّهِ ۝

6008. I understand this relative clause to govern "the Fire", i.e., the Punishment. It will be postponed as long as possible, to give the Sinner every chance of repentance and amendment. But once the period of probation is past, it will be irrevocable. There will be no going back from it. By inference, the Righteous may individually reach some stage of Bliss at once, possibly in this life, possibly after death, though the Final Judgement will be the general and complete cessation of this fleeting world and the creation of the world of Eternity.

6009. We can speak of Rewards and Punishments, the Fruits of Actions, the Resurrection and the Tribunal, the Restoration of True Values, the Elimination of all Wrong, and a hundred other phrases. They might serve to introduce our minds vaguely to a new World, of which they cannot possibly form any adequate conception under present conditions. The question is repeated in verses 17-18 to emphasise this difficulty, and a simple answer is suggested, as explained in the next note.

6010. The answer is suggested by a negative proposition: 'No soul shall have power to do aught for another.' This is full of meaning. Personal responsibility will be fully enforced. In this world we all depend on one another proximately, though our ultimate dependence is always on Allah, now and forever. But here a father helps a son forward; husband and wife influence each other's destinies; human laws and institutions may hold large masses of mankind under their grip; falsehood and evil may seem to flourish for a time, because a certain amount of limited free will has been granted to man. This period will be all over then. The good and the pure will have been separated from the evil and the rebellious; the latter will have been rendered inert, and the former will have been so perfected that their wills will be in complete consonance with Allah's Universal Will. The Command, thenceforward, will be wholly with Allah.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 83—AL MUTAFFIFĪN

This Sūrah is close in time to the last one and the next one.

It condemns all fraud—in daily dealings, as well as and especially in matters of Religion and higher spiritual Life.

C. 263.—Shun Fraud in all things: in little (83:1-36.) Things of daily life, but specially
 In those subtler forms of higher life,
 Which will be exposed to view at Judgement,
 However hidden they may be
 In this life. Give everyone his due
 For the Record of ill deeds and good
 Is fully kept, and the stains of sin
 Corrupt the soul. Reject not the Real
 Now, nor mock: for the time will come
 When the True will come to its own, and then
 The mighty arrogant will be abased!

Sūrah 83.

Al Mutaffifin (The Dealers in Fraud)

In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.

1. oe to those
That deal in fraud — 6011
2. Those who, when they
Have to receive by measure
From men, exact full measure,
3. But when they have
To give by measure
Or weight to men,
Give less than due.
4. Do they not think
That they will be called
To account?— 6012
5. On a Mighty Day,
6. A Day when (all) mankind
Will stand before
The Lord of the Worlds?
7. ay! Surely the Record
Of the Wicked is
(Preserved) in Sijjīn. 6013

الجزء الثالثون سُوْرَةُ الْمُتَفَفِّفِيْنَ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- وَيَلْئَلِ الْمُتَفَفِّفِينَ ۝

٢- الَّذِينَ إِذَا اكْتَالُوا عَلَى النَّاسِ
يَسْتَوْفُونَ ۝٣- وَإِذَا كَالُوهُمْ
أَوْ وَزَنُوهُمْ يُخْسِرُونَ ۝٤- أَلَا يَظُنُّ
أُولَئِكَ أَنَّهُمْ مَبْعُوثُونَ ۝

٥- لِيَوْمٍ عَظِيمٍ ۝

٦- يَوْمَ يَقُومُ النَّاسُ
لِرَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ ۝

٧- كَلَّا إِنَّ كِتَابَ الْفُجَّارِ لَفِي سِجِّينٍ ۝

6011. "Fraud" must here be taken in a widely general sense. It covers giving short measure or short weight, but it covers much more than that. The next two verses make it clear that it is the spirit of injustice that is condemned—giving too little and asking too much. This may be shown in commercial dealings, where a man exacts a higher standard in his own favour than he is willing to concede as against him. In domestic or social matters an individual or group may ask for honour, or respect, or services which he or they are not willing to give on their side in similar circumstances. It is worse than one-sided selfishness: for it is double injustice. But it is worst of all in religion or spiritual life: with what face can a man ask for Mercy or Love from Allah when he is unwilling to give it to his fellow-men? In one aspect this is a statement of the Golden Rule. 'Do as you would be done by'. But it is more completely expressed. You must give in full what is due from you, whether you expect or wish to receive full consideration from the other side or not.

6012. Legal and social sanctions against Fraud depend for their efficacy on whether there is a chance of being found out. Moral and religious sanctions are of a different kind. 'Do you wish to degrade your own nature?' 'Do you not consider that there is a Day of Account before a Judge Who knows all, and Who safeguards all interests, for He is the Lord and Cherisher of the Worlds? Whether other people know anything about your wrong or not, you are guilty before Allah.'

6013. This is a word from the same root as Sijīn, a Prison. It rhymes with and is contrasted with 'Illiyīn in verse 18 below. It is therefore understood by many Commentators to be a place, a Prison or a Dungeon in which the Wicked are confined pending their appearance before the Judgement Seat. The mention of the Inscribed Register in verse 9 below may imply that Sijjīn is the name of the Register of Black Deeds, though verse 9 may be elliptical and may only describe the place by the significance of its contents.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 8. And what will explain
To thee what Sijjīn is? | مَوَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا سَجِّينٌ ۝ |
| 9. (There is) a Register
(Fully) inscribed. ⁶⁰¹⁴ | ۝-كِتَابٌ مَرْقُومٌ ۝ |
| 10. Woe, that Day, to those
That deny— | ۝-وَيْلٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ لِلْمُكَذِّبِينَ ۝ |
| 11. Those that deny
The Day of Judgement. ⁶⁰¹⁵ | ۝-الَّذِينَ يُكَذِّبُونَ بَيِّومَ الدِّينِ ۝ |
| 12. And none can deny it
But the Transgressor
Beyond bounds,
The Sinner! | ۝-وَمَا يَكْذِبُ بِهِ إِلَّا
كُلُّ مُعْتَدٍ أَثِيمٍ ۝ |
| 13. When Our Signs are rehearsed
To him, he says,
"Tales of the Ancients!" ⁶⁰¹⁶ | ۝-إِذَا تُتْلَىٰ عَلَيْهِ آيَاتُنَا
قَالَ أَسَاطِيرُ الْأَوَّلِينَ ۝ |
| 14. By no means!
But on their hearts
Is the stain of the (ill)
Which they do! ⁶⁰¹⁷ | ۝-كَلَّا بَلْ عَنَت
رَأْنَ عَلَىٰ قُلُوبِهِمْ مَّا كَانُوا يَكْسِبُونَ ۝ |
| 15. Verily, from (the Light
Of) their Lord, that Day,
Will they be veiled. ⁶⁰¹⁸ | ۝-كَلَّا إِنَّهُمْ عَنْ رَبِّهِمْ
يَوْمَئِذٍ لَمَّحْجُوبُونَ ۝ |
| 16. Further, they will enter
The Fire of Hell. | ۝-ثُمَّ إِنَّهُمْ لَصَالُوا الْجَحِيمِ ۝ |

6014. If we take Sijjīn to be the Register itself, and not the place where it is kept, the Register itself is a sort of Prison for those who do wrong. It is inscribed fully: i.e., no one is omitted who ought to be there, and for every entry there is a complete record, so that there is no escape for the sinner. (R).

6015. The fact of Personal Responsibility for each soul is so undoubted that people who deny it are to be pitied, and will indeed be in a most pitiable condition on the Day of Reckoning, and none but the most abandoned sinner can deny it, and he only denies it by playing with Falsehoods.

6016. Cf. 6:25; 68:15; etc. They scorn Truth and pretend that it is Falsehood.

6017. The heart of a man, as created by Allah, is pure and unsullied. Every time that a man does an ill deed, it marks a stain or rust on his heart. But on repentance and forgiveness, such stain is washed off. If there is no repentance and forgiveness, the stains deepen and spread more and more, until the heart is sealed (2:7), and eventually the man dies a spiritual death. It is such stains that stand in the way of his perceiving Truths which are obvious to others. That is why he mocks at Truth and hugs Falsehood to his bosom.

6018. The stain of evil deeds on their hearts sullies the mirror of their hearts, so that it does not receive the light. At Judgement the true Light, the Glory of the Lord, the joy of the Righteous, will be hidden by veils from the eyes of the Sinful. Instead, the Fire of Punishment will be to them the only reality which they will perceive.

17. Further, it will be said
To them: "This is
The (reality) which ye
Rejected as false!
18. Nay, verily the Record
Of the Righteous is (Preserved) in 'Illiyūn.⁶⁰¹⁹
19. And what will explain
To thee what 'Illiyūn is?
20. (There is) a Register
(Fully) inscribed,⁶⁰²⁰
21. To which bear witness
Those Nearest (to Allah).⁶⁰²¹
22. Truly the Righteous
Will be in Bliss:
23. On Thrones (of Dignity)⁶⁰²²
Will they command a sight
(Of all things):
24. Thou wilt recognise
In their Faces⁶⁰²³
The beaming brightness of Bliss.
25. Their thirst will be slaked
With Pure Wine sealed:⁶⁰²⁴

١٧- ثُمَّ يُقَالُ هَذَا الَّذِي
كُنْتُمْ بِهِ تَكْذِبُونَ ۝

١٨- كَلَّا إِنَّ كِتَابَ الْبَرِّارِ
لَفِي عِلِّيِّينَ ۝

١٩- وَمَا أَذْرُكَ مَا عِلِّيُّونَ ۝

٢٠- كِتَابٌ مَرْقُومٌ ۝

٢١- يَشْهَدُهُ الْمُقَرَّبُونَ ۝

٢٢- إِنَّ الْبَرَّارَ لَفِي نَعِيمٍ ۝

٢٣- عَلَى الْأَرْشَادِ يَنْظُرُونَ ۝

٢٤- تَعْرِفُ فِي وُجُوهِهِمْ
نُورَةَ النَّعِيمِ ۝

٢٥- يُسْقَوْنَ مِنْ رَحِيقٍ مَخْمُومٍ ۝

6020. This repeats verse 9 above, where see n. 6014. But the Register is of the opposite kind, that of the Righteous. It contains every detail of the Righteous. (R).

6021. See 56:11, n. 5227; also n. 5223. Those Nearest to Allah will be witnesses to this Righteous Record; or as it may also be rendered, they will be present at the Record, and watch this Record. Metaphorically, the highest spiritual dignitaries are always helping and assisting at the piling up of the good record of every soul that strives for good, however humble in rank that soul may be.

6022. Cf. 36:56.

6023. Cf. 75:22, and 76:11.

6024. The Wine will be of the utmost purity and flavour, so precious that it will be protected with a seal, and the seal itself will be of the costly material of musk, which is most highly esteemed in the East for its perfume. Perhaps a better interpretation of the "seal" is to take it as implying the final effect of the drink: just as a seal closes a document, so the seal of the drink will be the final effect of the delicious perfume and flavour of musk, heightening the enjoyment and helping in the digestion. (R).

26. The seal thereof will be
Musk: and for this
Let those aspire,
Who have aspirations:⁶⁰²⁵

٢٦- خِتْمُهُ مِسْكٌ
وَفِيْ ذٰلِكَ فَلْيَتَنَافَسِ الْمُتَنَافِسُوْنَ ۝

27. With it will be (given)
A mixture of Tasnīm:⁶⁰²⁶

٢٧- وَ مِزَاجُهُ مِنْ تَسْنِيْمٍ ۝

28. A spring, from (the waters)
Whereof drink
Those Nearest to Allah.

٢٨- عَيْنًا يَشْرَبُ بِهَا الْمُقَرَّبُوْنَ ۝

29. Those in sin used
To laugh at those
Who believed,

٢٩- اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ اٰجْرَمُوْا
كَانُوْا مِنَ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوْا يَضْحَكُوْنَ ۝

30. And whenever they passed
By them, used to wink
At each other (in mockery);

٣٠- وَاِذَا مَرُّوْا بِهِمْ يَتَغَامِرُوْنَ ۝

31. And when they returned
To their own people,
They would return jesting;

٣١- وَاِذَا اِنْقَلَبُوْا اِلَىْ اَهْلِهِمْ
اِنْقَلَبُوْا فَكِهِيْنَ ۝

32. And whenever they saw them,
They would say, "Behold!
These are the people
Truly astray!"⁶⁰²⁷

٣٢- وَاِذَا رَاوْهُمُ قَالُوْا
اِنَّ هٰؤُلَاءِ لَضَالُّوْنَ ۝

33. But they had not been
Sent as Keepers over them!⁶⁰²⁸

٣٣- وَمَا اُرْسِلُوْا عَلَيْهِمْ حٰفِظِيْنَ ۝

6025. If you understand true and lasting values, this is the kind of pure Bliss to aspire for, and not the fleeting enjoyments of this world, which always leave a sting behind.

6026. Tasnīm literally indicates height, fulness, opulence. Here it is the name of a heavenly Fountain, whose drink is superior to that of the Purest Wine. It is the nectar drunk by Those Nearest to Allah (n. 5227 to 56:11), the highest in spiritual dignity; but a flavour of it will be given to all, according to their spiritual capacity. See n. 5835 to 76:5 (Kāfūr fountain), and n. 5849 to 76:17-28 (Salsabīl), (R).

6027. The wicked laugh at the righteous in this world in many ways. (1) They inwardly laugh at their Faith, because they feel themselves so superior. (2) In public places, when the righteous pass, they wink at each other and insult them. (3) In their own houses they run them down. (4) Whenever and wherever they see them, they reproach them with being fools who have lost their way, when the boot is really on the other leg. In the Hereafter all these tricks and falsehoods will be shown for what they are, and the tables will be reversed.

6028. But the wicked critics of the Righteous have no call in any case to sit in judgement over them. Who set them as Keepers or guardians over the Righteous? Let them look to their own condition and future first.

34. But on this Day
The Believers will laugh
At the Unbelievers:⁶⁰²⁹
35. On Thrones (of Dignity)
They will command (a sight)
(Of all things).⁶⁰³⁰
36. Will not the Unbelievers
Have been paid back
For what they did?

٣٤- وَالْيَوْمَ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مِنَ الْكُفَّارِ
يَضْحَكُونَ ۝

٣٥- عَلَى الْأَرَائِكِ يَنْظُرُونَ ۝

٣٦- هَلْ تُؤْتَى الْكُفَّارُ
مَا كَانُوا يَفْعَلُونَ ۝

6029. The tables will then be reversed, and he laughs best who laughs last.

6030. A repetition of verse 23 above, but with a different shade of meaning. The Righteous on their Thrones of Dignity will be able to see all the true values restored in their own favour: but they will also see something else: they will also see the arrogant braggarts brought low, who brought about their own downfall by their own actions.

INTRODUCTION TO SŪRAH 84—AL INSHIQĀQ

Chronologically this Sūrah is closely connected with the last one. In subject matter it resembles more S. 82 and 81, with which it may be compared.

The Sūrah, which opens with a mention of some cataclysmic events, shows that the present phenomenal order will not last, and Allah's full Judgement will certainly be established: man should therefore strive for that World of Eternity and True Values. (R).

C. 264. — All mysteries, fair or shrouded in gloom,
 (84:1-25.) Will vanish when the full Reality
 Stands revealed. If this Life is but Painful
 Toil, there's the Hope of the Meeting with the Lord!
 That will be Bliss indeed for the Righteous,
 But woe to the arrogant dealers in sin!
 Like the sunset Glow or the shades of Night,
 Or the Moon's ever-changing light, man's life
 Never rests here below, but travels ever onwards
 Stage by stage. Grasp then Allah's Message
 And reach the Heights, to reap a Reward
 That will never fail through all eternity!

Sūrah 84.

Al Inshiqāq (The Rending Asunder)*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. When the Sky is
Rent asunder,⁶⁰³¹
2. And hearkens to⁶⁰³²
(The Command of) its Lord—
And it must needs
(Do so)—
3. And when the Earth
Is flattened out,⁶⁰³³
4. And casts forth
What is within it
And becomes (clean) empty,
5. And hearkens to⁶⁰³⁴
(The Command of) its Lord—
And it must needs
(Do so)—(then will come
Home the full Reality).⁶⁰³⁵
6. O thou man!
Verily thou art ever

الْجُزْءُ الثَّالِثُونَ سُورَةُ الْإِنْشِقَاقِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- إِذَا السَّمَاءُ انْشَقَّتْ ۖ

٢- وَأَذِنَتْ لِرَبِّهَا
وَحَقَّتْ ۖ

٣- وَإِذَا الْأَرْضُ مُدَّتْ ۖ

٤- وَأَلْقَتْ مَا فِيهَا
وَتَخَلَّتْ ۖ٥- وَأَذِنَتْ لِرَبِّهَا
وَحَقَّتْ ۖ

٦- يَا أَيُّهَا الْإِنْسَانُ إِنَّكَ

6031. The passing away of this world of sense to make way for a new World of Reality is here indicated by two Facts, which are themselves Symbols for a complete revolution in our whole knowledge and experience. At the beginning of S. 82 and S. 81, other Symbols were used, to lead up to the arguments there advanced. Here the Symbols are: (1) the Sky being rent asunder and giving up its secrets, and (2) the Earth being flattened out from the globe it is, and giving up its secrets. See the following notes.

6032. We may think that the heavens we see above us—high and sacred, seemingly vast and limitless, eternal and timeless—are not created matter. But they are. And they remain just so long as Allah wills it so, and not a moment longer. As soon as His Command issues for their dissolution, they will obey and vanish, and all their mystery will be emptied out. And it must necessarily be so; their very nature as created beings requires that they must hearken to the voice of their Creator, even to the extent of their own extinction.

6033. The Earth is a globe, enclosing within it many secrets and mysteries—gold and diamonds in its mines, heat and magnetic forces in its entrails, and the bodies of countless generations of men buried within its soil. At its dissolution all these contents will be disgorged: it will lose its shape as a globe, and cease to exist.

A more mystic meaning lies behind the ordinary meaning of the vanishing of the heavens and the earth as we see them. Our ideas of them—their subjective contents with reference to ourselves will also lose all shape and form and vanish before the eternal verities.

6034. See n. 6032. We think the earth so solid and real. All our perishable things dissolve into the earth. But the earth itself will dissolve into a truer Reality.

6035. The substantive clause, to follow the two conditional clauses preceding, may be filled up from the suggestion contained in 82:5.

Toiling on towards thy Lord — ⁶⁰³⁶
Painfully toiling—but thou
Shalt meet Him.

7. Then he who is given
His Record in his Right hand, ⁶⁰³⁷

8. Soon will his account
Be taken by an easy reckoning,

9. And he will turn
To his people, ⁶⁰³⁸ rejoicing!

10. But he who is given
His Record behind his back — ⁶⁰³⁹

11. Soon will he cry
For Perdition, ⁶⁰⁴⁰

12. And he will enter
A Blazing Fire.

13. Truly, did he go about
Among his people, rejoicing! ⁶⁰⁴¹

14. Truly, did he think
That he would not

كَادِحٌ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ كَدًا فَمَلَقِيهِ ۝

فَأَمَّا مَنْ أُوتِيَ كِتَابَهُ
بِيمِينِهِ ۝

فَسَوْفَ يُحَاسَبُ حِسَابًا يَسِيرًا ۝

وَيَنْقَلِبُ إِلَىٰ أَهْلِهِ مُسْرُورًا ۝

وَأَمَّا مَنْ أُوتِيَ كِتَابَهُ وَرَاءَ ظَهْرِهِ ۝

فَسَوْفَ يَدْعُوا ثُبُورًا ۝

وَيَصْلَىٰ سَعِيرًا ۝

إِنَّهُ كَانَ فِي أَهْلِهِ مُسْرُورًا ۝

إِنَّهُ ظَنَّ أَنْ لَنْ

6036. This life is ever full of toil and misery, if looked at as empty of the Eternal Hope which Revelation gives us. Hence the literature of pessimism in poetry and philosophy, which thinking minds have poured forth in all ages, when that Hope was obscured to them. "Our sweetest songs are those that tell of saddest thought." "To each his suffering; all are men condemned alike to groan!" It is the noblest men that have to "scorn delights and live laborious days" in this life. The good suffer on account of their very goodness: the evil on account of their Evil. But the balance will be set right in the end. Those that wept shall be made to rejoice, and those that went about thoughtlessly rejoicing, shall be made to weep for their folly. They will all go to their account with Allah and meet Him before His Throne of Judgement.

6037. Right Hand: Cf. 17:71. These will be the fortunate ones, who spent their lives in goodness and truth: for them the account will be made easy; for even after the balancing, they will receive more than their merits deserve, on account of the infinite grace and mercy of Allah.

6038. His people: should be understood in a large sense, including all righteous persons of his category, (including of course all those nearest and dearest to him), who are spiritually of his family, whether before him or after him in time.

6040. The wicked will cry for death and annihilation: but they will neither live nor die: 20:74.

6041. The tables are now turned. His self-complacence and self-conceit in his lower life will now give place to weeping and gnashing of teeth! Cf. n. 6036 above.

Have to return (to Us)!⁶⁰⁴²

يَحْجُورُ ۞

15. Nay, nay! for his Lord
Was (ever) watchful of him!

۞ ١٥- بَلَىٰ ۚ إِنَّ رَبَّهُ كَانَ بِهِ بَصِيرًا ۞

16. So I do call⁶⁰⁴³
To witness the ruddy glow
Of Sunset,⁶⁰⁴⁴

١٦- فَلَا أُقْسِمُ بِالشَّفَقِ ۞

17. The Night and its Homing,⁶⁰⁴⁵

١٧- وَاللَّيْلِ وَمَا وَسَقَ ۞

18. And the Moon
In her Fulness:⁶⁰⁴⁶

١٨- وَالْقَمَرِ إِذَا اتَّسَقَ ۞

19. Ye shall surely travel
From stage to stage.⁶⁰⁴⁷

١٩- لَتَرْكَبُنَّ طَبَقًا عَنْ طَبَقٍ ۞

20. What then is the matter
With them, that they Believe not?—⁶⁰⁴⁸

٢٠- فَمَا لَهُمْ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ ۞

6042. Most of the Evil in this world is due to the false idea that man is irresponsible, or to a mad and thoughtless indulgence of self. Man is not irresponsible. He is responsible for every deed, word, and thought of his, to his Maker, to Whom he has to return, to give an account of himself. To remember this and act accordingly is to achieve salvation; to forget or flout that responsibility is to get into the Fire of self-deception and misery.

6043. The same form of adjuration as in 69:37. The substantive statement is in verse 19 below: "Ye shall surely travel from stage to stage". Nothing in this life is fixed, or will last. Three things are mentioned which on the one hand have remained from age to age for as far back as the memory of man can go, and yet each of them is but a short phase, gone as it were in the twinkling of an eye. See the following notes: So our life here is but a fleeting show. Its completion is to be looked for elsewhere.

6044. (1) The sun seems such a great reality that people worshipped it as a divinity. The beautiful glow it leaves when it sets is but momentary: it changes every moment and vanishes with the twilight.

6045. (2) The Night is a phenomenon you see during almost half of every twenty-four hours in ordinary latitudes. At nightfall, all the wandering flocks and herds come home. The men scattered abroad for their livelihood return home to rest and sleep. The Night collects them in their homes, and yet this phase of Homing lasts but a little while. Presently all is silent and still. So will it be with our souls when this life is ended with our death. We shall be collected in a newer and larger Homing.

6046. (3) The astronomical Full Moon does not last a moment. The moment the moon is full, she begins to decline, and the moment she is in her "inter-lunar swoon", she begins her career anew as a growing New Moon. So is man's life here below. It is not fixed or permanent, either in its physical phases, or even more strikingly, in its finer phases, intellectual, emotional, or spiritual.

6047. Man travels and ascends stage by stage. In 67:3 the same word in the form ṭibāqa was used of the heavens, as if they were in layers one above another. Man's spiritual life may similarly be compared to an ascent from one heaven to another.

6048. Considering man's high destiny, and the fact that this life is but a stage or a sojourn for him, it might be expected that he would eagerly embrace every opportunity of welcoming Allah's Revelation and ascending by Faith to heights of spiritual wisdom. There is something wrong with his will if he does not do so. Notice the transition from the second person in verse 19, where there is a direct appeal to Allah's votaries, to the third person in verses 20-21, where men who are rebels against Allah's Kingdom are spoken of as if they were alien.

21. And when the Qur'ān
Is read to them, they
Fall not prostrate,⁶⁰⁴⁹

۲۱- وَإِذَا قُرِئَ عَلَيْهِمُ الْقُرْآنُ
لَا يَسْجُدُونَ ۝

22. But on the contrary
The Unbelievers reject (it).

۲۲- بَلِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يَكْذِبُونَ ۝

23. But Allah has full Knowledge
Of what they secrete
(In their breasts).

۲۳- وَاللَّهُ أَعْلَمُ بِمَا يُوعُونَ ۝

24. So announce to them
A Penalty Grievous,

۲۴- فَبَشِّرْهُمْ بِعَذَابٍ أَلِيمٍ ۝

25. Except to those who believe
And work righteous deeds:
For them is a Reward
That will never fail.⁶⁰⁵⁰

۲۵- إِلَّا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
لَهُمْ أَجْرٌ غَيْرُ مَمْنُونٍ ۝

6049. Prostrate: out of respect and humble gratitude to Allah.

6050. Cf. 41:8.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 85—AL BURŪJ

This is one of the earlier Makkan Sūrahs, chronologically cognate with S. 91. The subject matter is the persecution of Allah's votaries. Allah watches over His own, and will deal with the enemies of Truth as He dealt with them in the past.

C. 265. — Woe to those who persecute Truth!
(85:1-22.) They are being watched by mighty Eyes;
They will have to answer when the Judgement comes;
And a clear Record will witness against them.
Are they cruel to men because of their Faith?
The Fire they use will be turned against them.
For Allah is strong, and will subdue
The mightiest foes. Be warned, and learn
From His gracious Message, preserved through all Time!

Sūrah 85.

Al Burūj (The Constellations)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. By the Sky, (displaying)⁶⁰⁵¹
The Zodiacal Signs;⁶⁰⁵²

2. By the promised Day
(Of Judgement);⁶⁰⁵³

3. By one that witnesses,
And the subject of the witness — ⁶⁰⁵⁴

4. Woe to the makers
Of the pit (of fire),⁶⁰⁵⁵

5. Fire supplied (abundantly)
With Fuel:

الْجُزْءُ الثَّلَاثُونَ سُورَةُ الْبُرُوجِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١-وَالسَّمَاءِ ذَاتِ الْبُرُوجِ ۝

٢-وَالْيَوْمِ الْمَوْعُودِ ۝

٣-وَشَهِيدٍ وَ مَشْهُودٍ ۝

٤-قُتِلَ أَصْحَابُ الْأُخْدُوْدِ ۝

٥-النَّارِ ذَاتِ الْوُتُوْدِ ۝

6051. Here is an appeal to three symbols in verses 1-3, and the substantive proposition is in verses 4-8, a denunciation of wicked persecutors of the votaries of Allah, persecutors who burnt righteous men for their Faith. The three Symbols are: (1) the Glorious Sky, with the broad belt of the Constellations marking the twelve Signs of the Zodiac; (2) the Day of Judgement, when all evil will be punished; and (3) certain Persons that will be witnesses, and certain Persons or things that will be the subjects of the witness. See the notes following.

6052. See n. 1950 to 15:16. The Stars of the Zodiac as well as of other Constellations are like the eyes of the Night. It may be that crimes are committed in the darkness of night (literally or metaphorically). But countless eyes (metaphorically) are watching all the time, and every author of evil will be brought to book.

6053. The Day of Judgement, when the Sinner will have to give an account of every deed, open or hidden, is not merely a matter of speculation. It is definitely promised in revelation, and will inevitably come to pass. Woe then to the Sinners for their crimes.

6054. The literal meaning is clear, but its metaphorical application has been explained in a variety of ways by different Commentators. The words are fairly comprehensive, and should, I think, be understood in connection with Judgement. There the Witnesses may be: (1) the Prophets (3:81); Allah Himself (3:81, and 10:61); the Recording Angels (50:21); the Sinner's own misused limbs (24:24); his record of deeds (17:14); or the Sinner himself (17:14). The subject of the witness may be the deed or crime, or the Sinner against whom the testimony cries out. The appeal to these things means that the Sinner cannot possibly escape the consequences of his crime. He should repent, seek Allah's Mercy, and amend his life.

6055. Who were the makers of the pit of fire in which they burnt people for their Faith? The words are perfectly general, and we need not search for particular names, except by way of illustration. In ancient history, and in Mediaeval Europe, many lives were sacrificed at the stake because the victims did not conform to the established religion. In Arab tradition there is the story of Abraham: Nimrūd tries to burn him to death, but on account of Abraham's Faith, the fire became "a means of safety for Abraham": 21:69, and n. 2725. Another case cited is that of Dhu Nuwās, the last Himyarite King of Yemen, by religion a Jew, who persecuted the Christians of Najrān and is said to have burnt them to death. He seems to have lived in the latter half of the sixth Christian century, in the generation immediately preceding the Prophet's birth in 570 A.D. While the words are perfectly general, a reference is suggested to the persecution to which the early Muslims were subjected by the Pagan Quraysh. Among other cruelties, they were stripped, and their skins were exposed to the burning rays of the Arabian summer sun. (R).

6. Behold! They sat⁶⁰⁵⁶
Over against the (fire),
7. And they witnessed
(All) that they were doing
Against the Believers.
8. And they ill-treated them
For no other reason than
That they believed in Allah,
Exalted in Power,
Worthy of all Praise!—
9. Him to Whom belongs
The dominion of the heavens
And the earth!
And Allah is Witness
To all things.⁶⁰⁵⁷
10. Those who persecute (or draw into temptation)
The Believers, men and women,
And do not turn
In repentance, will have
The Penalty of Hell:
They will have the Penalty
Of the Burning Fire.⁶⁰⁵⁸
11. For those who believe
And do righteous deeds,
Will be Gardens,⁶⁰⁵⁹
Beneath which Rivers flow:
That is the great Salvation,
(The fulfilment of all desires),⁶⁰⁶⁰
12. Truly strong is the Grip
(And Power) of thy Lord.

- ٦- اِذْ هُمْ عَلَيْهَا قُعُودٌ ۝
- ٧- وَهُمْ عَلَىٰ مَا يَفْعَلُونَ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ شُهُودٌ ۝
- ٨- وَمَا نَقَمُوا مِنْهُمْ اِلَّا اَنْ يُؤْمِنُوا بِاللّٰهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَمِيدِ ۝
- ٩- الَّذِي لَهُ مُلْكُ السَّمٰوٰتِ وَالْاَرْضِ ۝ وَاللّٰهُ عَلَىٰ كُلِّ شَيْءٍ شَهِيدٌ ۝
- ١٠- اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ فَتَنُوا الْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ وَالْمُؤْمِنٰتِ ثُمَّ لَمْ يَتُوبُوْا فَلَهُمْ عَذٰبٌ جَهَنَّمُ وَلَهُمْ عَذٰبُ الْحَرِيقِ ۝
- ١١- اِنَّ الَّذِيْنَ اٰمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصّٰلِحٰتِ لَهُمْ جَنَّٰتٌ تَجْرِىْ مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْاَنْهٰرُ ۝ ذٰلِكَ الْفَوْزُ الْكَبِيْرُ ۝
- ١٢- اِنَّ بَطْشَ رَبِّكَ لَشَدِيْدٌ ۝

6056. The persecutors sat calmly to gloat over the agonies of their victims in the well-fed fire.

6057. It is suggested that the persecutors will richly deserve to be punished in the Fire of Hell. That Punishment will be far more real and lasting than the undeserved cruelty which they inflicted on men for their Faith in the One True God.

6058. The "Penalty of the Burning Fire" has been mentioned here in addition to the "Penalty of Hell". This assumes a special significance in the background of the cruel burning of the Faithful by the "makers of the pit". These criminals would be duly retributed by being subjected to a similar kind of suffering that they had caused their innocent victims. [Eds.].

6059. Cf. 5:122; 9:72 and 22:19. [Eds.].

6060. Cf. 5:122, n. 833.

13. It is He Who Creates

And He can restore (life).

14. And He is the Oft-Forgiving,
Full of loving-kindness,

15. Lord of the Throne of Glory,

١٥- ذُو الْعَرْشِ الْمَجِيدُ ۝

16. Doer (without let)⁶⁰⁶²
Of all that He intends.

17. Has the story
Reached thee,
Of the Forces — ⁶⁰⁶³

١٧- هَلْ اَتَاكَ حَدِيثُ الْجُنُودِ ۝

18. Of Pharaoh
And the Thamūd?

١٨- فِرْعَوْنَ وَثَمُودَ ۝

19. And yet the Unbelievers
(Persist) in rejecting
(The Truth)!⁶⁰⁶⁴

١٩- بَلِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا فِي تَكْذِيبٍ ۝

20. But Allah doth
Encompass them
From behind!⁶⁰⁶⁵

٢٠- وَاللَّهُ مِنْ وَرَائِهِمْ مُحِيطٌ ۝

21. Nay, this is
A Glorious Qur'ān

٢١- بَلْ هُوَ قُرْآنٌ مَّجِيدٌ ۝

6061. For the various words for "Creation" and the ideas implied in them, see n. 120 to 2:117.

6062. Allah's Will is itself the Word and the Deed. There is no interval between them. He does not change His mind. No circumstances whatever can come between His Will and the execution thereof. Such are His Power and His Glory. Compare it with that of men, described in the next two verses.

6063. In contrast to the real, all-embracing, and eternal power of Allah, what are the forces of man at their best? Two examples are mentioned. (1) Pharaoh was a proud monarch of a powerful kingdom, with resources and organisation, material, moral, and intellectual, as good as any in the world. When he pitted himself against Allah's Prophet, he and his forces were destroyed. See 79:15-26. (2) The Thamūd were great builders, and had a high standard of material civilisation. But they defied the law of Allah and perished. See 7:73-79, and n. 1043.

6064. In spite of the great examples of the past, by which human might and skill were shown to have availed nothing when the law of Allah was broken, the unbelievers persist (in all ages) in defying that law. But Allah will know how to deal with them.

6065. Allah encompasses everything. But the wicked will find themselves defeated not only in conditions that they foresee, but from all sorts of unexpected directions, perhaps from behind them, i.e., from the very people or circumstances which in their blindness they despised or thought of as helping them.

22. (Inscribed) in
A Tablet Preserved!⁶⁰⁶⁶

يٰٓاَيُّهَا
۲۲- فِى لَوْحٍ مَّحْفُوظٍ ۝

6066. Inscribed in a Table Preserved, i.e., Allah's Message is not ephemeral. It is eternal. The "Tablet" is "preserved" or guarded from corruption: 15:9: for Allah's Message must endure forever. That Message is the "Mother of the book": see n. 347 to 3:7. (R).

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 86—AL ṬĀRIQ

This Sūrah also belongs to the early Makkan period, perhaps not far removed from the last Sūrah.

Its subject matter is the protection afforded to every soul in the darkest period of its spiritual history. The physical nature of man may be insignificant, but the soul given to him by Allah must win a glorious Future in the end.

C. 266.—Through the darkest night comes the penetrating light
 (86:1-17.) Of a glorious Star. Such is the power
 Of Revelation: it protects and guides the erring.
 For what is man? But a creature of flesh
 And bones! But Allah by His Power doth raise
 Man's state to a Life Beyond!—when lo!
 All things hidden will be made plain.
 Man's help will then be but the Word
 Of Allah, which none can thwart. So wait
 With gentle patience—for His Decision.

Sūrah 86.

Al Tāriq (The Night Star)*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. By the Sky⁶⁰⁶⁷
And the Night-Visitant⁶⁰⁶⁸
(Therein)—
2. And what will explain to thee
What the Night-Visitant is?—
3. (It is) the Star
Of piercing brightness—
4. There is no soul but has
A protector over it.⁶⁰⁶⁹
5. Now let man but think
From what he is created!
6. He is created from
A drop emitted—⁶⁰⁷⁰
7. Proceeding from between
The backbone and the ribs:⁶⁰⁷¹

الْجُزْءُ الثَّالِثُونَ سُورَةُ الطَّارِقِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱-وَالسَّمَاءِ وَالطَّارِقِ ۝

۲-وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الطَّارِقُ ۝

۳-النَّجْمُ الثَّاقِبُ ۝

۴-إِنْ كُلُّ نَفْسٍ لَمَّا عَلَيْهَا حَافِظٌ ۝

۵-فَلْيَنْظُرِ الْإِنْسَانُ مِمَّ خُلِقَ ۝

۶-خُلِقَ مِنْ مَّاءٍ دَافِقٍ ۝

۷-يَخْرُجُ مِنْ بَيْنِ الصُّلْبِ وَالتَّرَائِبِ ۝

6067. The appeal here is to a single mystic Symbol, viz.: the Sky with its Night-Visitant: and the substantive proposition is in verse 4: "There is no soul but has a protector over it". In the last Sūrah we considered the persecution of Allah's votaries, and how Allah protects them. Here the same theme is presented in another aspect. In the darkest sky shines out most brilliantly the light of the most brilliant star. So in the night of spiritual darkness—whether through ignorance or distress—shines the glorious star of Allah's revelation. By the same token the man of Faith and Truth has nothing to fear. Allah will protect His own.

6068. This is explained in verse 3 below. The "Star of piercing brightness" is understood by some to be the Morning Star, by others to be the planet Saturn, by others again to be Sirius, or the Pleiades or shooting stars. I think it is best to take the "Star" in the collective or generic sense, for stars shine on every night in the year, and their piercing brightness is most noticeable on the darkest night.

6069. If man has a true spiritual understanding, he has nothing to be afraid of. He is protected by Allah in many ways that he does not even know. He may be an insignificant creature as a mere animal, but his soul raises him to a dignity above other creation. And all sorts of divine forces guard and protect him.

6070. See n. 5832 to 76:2. See also last note.

6071. A man's seed is the quintessence of his body. It is therefore said metaphorically to proceed from his loins, i.e., from his back between the hipbones and his ribs. His backbone is the source and symbol of his strength and personality. In the spinal cord and in the brain is the directive energy of the central nervous system, and this directs all action, organic and psychic. The spinal cord is continuous with the Medulla Oblongata in the brain.

| 8. Surely (Allah) is able
To bring him back
(To life)! ⁶⁰⁷² | ٨- إِنَّهُ عَلَى رَجْعِهِ لَقَادِرٌ ۝ |
| 9. The Day that
(All) things secret
Will be tested, | ٩- يَوْمَ تُبْلَى السَّرَائِرُ ۝ |
| 10. (Man) will have
No power,
And no helper ⁶⁰⁷³ | ١٠- فَمَالَهُ مِنْ قُوَّةٍ
وَلَا نَاصِرٍ ۝ |
| 11. By the Firmament ⁶⁰⁷⁴
Which returns (in its round), | ١١- وَالسَّمَاءِ ذَاتِ الرَّجْعِ ۝ |
| 12. And by the Earth
Which opens out ⁶⁰⁷⁵
(For the gushing of springs
Or the sprouting of vegetation) — | ١٢- وَالْأَرْضِ
ذَاتِ الصُّدُوعِ ۝ |
| 13. Behold this is the Word
That distinguishes (Good
From Evil): ⁶⁰⁷⁶ | ١٣- إِنَّهُ لَقَوْلٌ فَضْلٌ ۝ |
| 14. It is not a thing
For amusement. | ١٤- وَمَا هُوَ بِالْهَزْلِ ۝ |
| 15. As for them, ⁶⁰⁷⁷ they
Are but plotting a scheme, | ١٥- إِنَّهُمْ يَكِيدُونَ كَيْدًا ۝ |

6072. The Creator who can mingle the forces of psychic and physical muscular action in the creation of man, as explained in the last note, can surely give a new life after physical death here, and restore man's personality in the new world that will open out in the Hereafter.

6073. In that new world, all our actions, motives, thoughts, and imaginings of this life, however secret, will be brought into the open, and tested by the standards of absolute Truth, and not by false standards of custom, prejudice, or partiality. In that severe test, any adventitious advantages of this life will have no strength or force whatever, and cannot help in any way.

6074. The Firmament above is always the same, and yet it performs its diurnal round, smoothly and punctually. So does Allah's Revelation show forth the Truth, which like a circle is ever true to its centre — which is ever the same, though it revolves through the changing circumstances of our present life.

6075. The earth seems hard, but springs can gush forth and vegetables sprout through it and make it green and soft. So is Truth: hard perhaps to mortals, but through the fertilising agency of Revelation, it allows our inner personality to sprout and blossom forth.

6076. See the last two notes. Revelation — Allah's Truth — can pierce through the hardest crusts, and ever lead us back to the centre and goal of our spiritual life: for it separates Good from Evil definitely. It is not mere play or amusement, any more than the Sky or the Earth is. It helps us in the highest issues of our life.

6077. Though Allah in His Mercy has provided a piercing light to penetrate our spiritual darkness, and made our beings responsive to the growth of spiritual understanding, just as the hard earth is responsive to the sprouting of a seed or the gushing of a stream, yet there are evil, unregenerate men who plot and scheme against the beneficent purpose of Allah. But their plots will be of no avail, and Allah's Purpose will prevail. It happened so with the Quraysh who wanted to thwart the growth of Islam. It will be so in all ages.

16. And I am planning
A scheme.⁶⁰⁷⁸

١٤- وَأَكِيدُ كَيْدًا ۖ

17. Therefore grant a delay
To the unbelievers:
Give respite to them
Gently (for awhile).⁶⁰⁷⁹

١٥- فَمَتِّلِ الْكَافِرِينَ أَمَلَهُمْ ذُرِّيَّةً ۖ

6078. Makara is applied both to plotting with an evil purpose and planning with a good purpose. Cf. 3:54, and n. "And the unbelievers plotted and planned, and Allah too planned, and the best of planners is Allah."

6079. Gentle forbearance with Evil shows our trust in Allah and Allah's Plan: for it can never be frustrated. This does not mean that we should assist or compromise with evil, or fail to put it down where we have the power. It means patience and humility where we have no visible power to prevent Evil.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 87—AL A'LĀ

This is one of the earliest of the Makkan Sūrahs, being usually placed eighth in chronological order, and immediately after S. 81.

The argument is that Allah has made man capable of progress by ordered steps, and by His Revelation will lead him still higher to purification and perfection.

C. 267.—Wonderful are the ways of Allah
 (87:1-19.) In creation, and the love with which
 He guides His creatures' destinies,
 Gives them the means by which to strive
 For maturity by ordered steps, and reach
 The end most fitted for their natures.
 His Law is just and easy, and His Grace
 Is ever ready to help: let us look
 To the Eternal Goal, with hearts and souls
 Of Purity, and glorify His name:
 For in this changing, fleeting world,
 His Word is always true, and will remain,
 Through all the ages, ever the same.

Sūrah 87.

Al A'tā (The Most High)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Glorify the name
Of thy Guardian-Lord⁶⁰⁸⁰
Most High,
2. Who hath created,⁶⁰⁸¹
And further, given
Order and proportion;
3. Who hath ordained laws,⁶⁰⁸²
And granted guidance;
4. And Who bringth out⁶⁰⁸³
The (green and luscious) pasture,
5. And then doth make it
(But) swarthy stubble.
6. By degrees shall We
Teach thee to declare⁶⁰⁸⁴

الْجُزْءُ الثَّالِثُونَ سُورَةُ الْأَعْلَى

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- سَبِّحْ اسْمَ رَبِّكَ الْأَعْلَى ۝

٢- الَّذِي خَلَقَ فَسَوَّى ۝

٣- وَالَّذِي قَدَّرَ فَهَدَى ۝

٤- وَالَّذِي أَخْرَجَ الْمَرْعَى ۝

٥- فجعله غثَاءً أَحْوَى ۝

٦- سَنُقَرِّبُكَ ۝

6080. The word "Lord" by itself is an inadequate rendering here for Rabb. For it implies cherishing, guarding from harm, sustaining, granting all the means and opportunities of development. See n. 20 to 1:2. For shortness, perhaps "Guardian-Lord" will be sufficient in the Text.

6081. The story of Creation is wonderful and continuous. There are several processes which we contemplate in glorifying Allah's name. First, He brings us into being. Secondly, He endows us with forms and faculties exactly suited to what is expected of us, and to the environments in which our life will be cast, giving to everything due order and proportion.

6082. Thirdly, He has ordained laws and decrees, by which we can develop ourselves and fit ourselves into His whole scheme of evolution for all His Creation. He has measured exactly the needs of all, and given us instincts and physical and psychic predispositions which fit into His decrees. Fourthly, He gives us guidance, so that we are not the sport of mechanical laws. Our reason and our will are exercised, that we may reach the higher destiny of man.

6083. Fifthly, after maturity comes decay. But even in that decay, as when green pasture turns to stubble, we subserve other ends. Insofar as we are animals, we share these processes with other forms of material. Creation, animal, vegetable, and even mineral, which all have their appointed laws of growth and decay. But man's higher destiny is referred to in subsequent verses.

6084. The soul, as it reaches the Light of Allah, makes gradual progress, like a man going from darkness into light. So the Qur'ān was revealed by stages. So all revelation from Allah comes by stages.

As usual, there are two parallel meanings: (1) that connected with the occasion of direct inspiration to the Holy Prophet; and (2) the more general Message to mankind for all time. Everyone who understands the Message must declare it, in words, and still more, in his conduct.

(The Message), so thou
Shalt not forget,⁶⁰⁸⁵

فَلَا تَنْسَى ۝

7. Except as Allah wills:⁶⁰⁸⁶
For He knoweth
What is manifest
And what is hidden.

إِنَّمَا يَعْلَمُ الْبَهْرُ مَا يَخْفَى ۝
إِلَّا مَا شَاءَ اللَّهُ ۝

8. And We will make it
Easy for thee (to follow)
The simple (Path).⁶⁰⁸⁷

وَنُيَسِّرُكَ لِلْيُسْرَى ۝

9. Therefore give admonition
In case the admonition⁶⁰⁸⁸
Profits (the hearer).

فَذَكِّرْ إِن نَّفَعَتِ الذِّكْرَى ۝

10. The admonition will be received
By those who fear (Allah):

أ- سَيَذَكِّرُ مَنْ يَخْشَى ۝

11. But it will be avoided
By those most unfortunate ones,

ب- وَيَتَجَنَّبُهَا الْأَشْقَى ۝

12. Who will enter
The Great Fire,⁶⁰⁸⁹

ج- الَّذِي يَصْلَى النَّارَ الْكُبْرَى ۝

6085. The particular occasion was an assurance to the Prophet, that though he was unlettered, the Message given to him would be preserved in his heart and in the hearts of men. The more general sense is that mankind, having once seized great spiritual truths, will hold fast to them, except as qualified in the following verse.

6086. There can be no question of this having any reference to the abrogation of any verses of the Qur'an, for this Sūrah is one of the earliest revealed, being placed about eighth according to the most accepted chronological order. While the basic principles of Allah's Law remain the same, its form, expression, and application have varied from time to time, e.g., from Moses to Jesus, and from Jesus to Muḥammad. It is one of the beneficent mercies of Allah that we should forget some things of the past, lest our minds become confused and our development is retarded. Besides, Allah knows what is manifest and what is hidden, and His Will and Plan work with supreme wisdom and goodness.

6087. The path of Islam is simple and easy. It depends on no abstruse mysteries or self-mortifications, but on straight and manly conduct in accordance with the laws of man's nature as implanted in him by Allah (30:30). On the other hand, spiritual perfection may be most difficult, for it involves complete surrender on our part of Allah in all our affairs, thoughts, and desires: but after that surrender Allah's Grace will make our path easy.

6088. This is not so strong as the Biblical phrase, "Cast not pearls before swine" (Matt. vii. 6) The cases where admonition does produce spiritual profit and where it does not, are mentioned below in verses 10 and 11-13 respectively. Allah's Message should be proclaimed to all; but particular and personal admonitions are also due to those who attend and in whose hearts is the fear of Allah; in the case of those who run away from it and dishonour it, such particular and personal admonition is useless. They are the unfortunate ones who prepare their own ruin.

6089. The Great Fire is the final Penalty or Disaster in the Hereafter, as contrasted with the minor Penalties or Disasters from which all evil suffers from within in this very life.

6090. A terrible picture of those who ruin their whole future by evil lives here below. They introduce a discord into Creation, while life should be one great universal concord. And their past clings to them as part of their own will. They are not even like the dry swarthy stubble mentioned in verse 5 above, which grew naturally out of the luscious pasture, for they have grown harmful, in defiance of their own nature. "Neither die nor live"; Cf. 20:74.

6091. Prosper: in the highest and spiritual sense; attain to Bliss or Salvation: as opposed to "enter the Fire".

6092. The first process in godliness is to cleanse ourselves in body, mind, and soul. Then we shall be in a fit state to see and proclaim the Glory of Allah. That leads us to our actual absorption in Praise and Prayer.

6093. The law of righteousness and godliness is not a new law, nor are the vanity and short duration of this world preached here for the first time. But spiritual truths have to be renewed and reiterated again and again.

6094. No Book of Abraham has come down to us. But the Old Testament recognises that Abraham was a prophet (Gen. xx. 7). There is a book in Greek, which has been translated by Mr. G.H. Box, called the Testament of Abraham (published by the Society for the Promotion of Christian Knowledge, London, 1927). It seems to be a Greek translation of a Hebrew original. The Greek Text was probably written in the second Christian century, in Egypt, but in its present form it probably goes back only to the 9th or 10th Century. It was popular among the Christians. Perhaps the Jewish Midrash also refers to a Testament of Abraham.

6095. The original Revelation of Moses, of which the Present Pentateuch is a surviving recension. See Appendix II., p. 288-290.

The present Gospels do not come under the definition of the "earliest" Books. Nor could they be called "Books of Jesus"; they were written not by him, but about him, and long after his death.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 88—AL GHĀSHIYAH

This is a late Sūrah of the early Makkan period, perhaps close in date to S. 53. Its subject matter is the contrast between the destinies of the Good and the Evil in the Hereafter—on the Day when the true balance will be restored: the Signs of Allah even in this life should remind us of the Day of Account, for Allah is good and just, and His creation is for a just Purpose.

C. 268.—Have you heard of that Tremendous Day
(88:1-26.) When the Good from the Evil will be separated?

There will be Souls that Day will burn
And grovel in the blazing Fire of Wrath!
No Food can fill their Hunger: no Drink,
Alas, can slake their fierce Thirst!

There will be Souls that Day will shout
With Joy to the glory of their Lord!
Their past Endeavour will now be Achievement.
Raised high on Thrones of Dignity they
Will be Guests at the sumptuous Feast of Bliss.

Let man but look at his dominion o'er
The beasts of the field, or his glorious Canopy
Of stars, or the Eternal Hills that feed
His streams, or the wide expanse of Mother
Earth that nurtures him, and he
Will see the ordered Plan of Allah.
To Him must he return and give account!
Let him, then, learn his Lesson and live!

Sūrah 88.

Al Ghāshiyah (The Overwhelming Event)*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Has the story
Reached thee, of
The Overwhelming (Event)?⁶⁰⁹⁶
2. Some faces, that Day,⁶⁰⁹⁷
Will be humiliated,
3. Labouring (hard), weary—⁶⁰⁹⁸
4. The while they enter
The Blazing Fire—
5. The while they are given
To drink, of a boiling hot spring,
6. No food will there be
For them but a bitter *Darī*⁶⁰⁹⁹
7. Which will neither nourish
Nor satisfy hunger.
8. (Other) faces that Day
Will be joyful,
9. Pleased with their Striving—⁶¹⁰⁰

الْجُزْءُ الثَّلَاثُونَ سُورَةُ الْغَاشِيَةِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- هَلْ أَتَاكَ حَدِيثُ الْغَاشِيَةِ ۝

٢- وَجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ خَاشِعَةٌ ۝

٣- عَامِلَةٌ تَأْسِبَةٌ ۝

٤- تَصْلِي نَارًا حَامِيَةً ۝

٥- تُسْقَى مِنْ عَيْنٍ أَنْيَّةٍ ۝

٦- لَيْسَ لَهُمْ طَعَامٌ إِلَّا مِنْ ضَرِيعٍ ۝

٧- لَا يُسْنِنُ وَلَا يُغْنِي مِنْ جُوعٍ ۝

٨- وَجُوهٌ يَوْمَئِذٍ تَأْنِيَةٌ ۝

٩- لِسَعْيِهِنَّ رَاضِيَةٌ ۝

6096. Ghāshiyah: the thing or event that overshadows or overwhelms, that covers over or makes people lose their senses. In 12:107, it is described as the "covering veil of the Wrath of Allah"; where see n. 1790. The Day of Judgement is indicated, as the Event of overwhelming importance in which all our petty differences of this imperfect world are covered over and overwhelmed in a new world of perfect justice and truth.

6097. Cf. 75:22, 24.

6098. On the faces of the wicked will appear the hard labour and consequent fatigue of the task they will have in battling against the fierce Fire which their own Deeds will have kindled.

6099. The root meaning implies again the idea of humiliation. It is a plant, bitter and thorny, loathsome in smell and appearance, which will neither give fattening nourishment to the body nor in any way satisfy the burning pangs of hunger—a fit plant for Hell, like Zaqqūm (56:52; or 17:60, n. 2250).

6100. Notice the parallelism in contrast, between the fate of the Wicked and that of the Righteous. In the one case there was humiliation in their faces; in the other, there is joy; where there was labour and weariness in warding off the Fire, there is instead a healthy Striving, which is itself pleasurable—a Striving which is a pleasant consequence of the spiritual Endeavour in the earthly life, which may have brought trouble or persecution from without, but which brought inward peace and satisfaction.

10. In a Garden on high,⁶¹⁰¹
11. Where they shall hear
No (word) of vanity:
12. Therein will be
A bubbling spring:⁶¹⁰²
13. Therein will be Thrones
(Of dignity), raised on high,
14. Goblets placed (ready),
15. And Cushions set in rows,
16. And rich carpets
(All) spread out.
17. Do they not look
At the Camels,⁶¹⁰³
How they are made?—
18. And at the Sky,⁶¹⁰⁴
How it is raised high?—
19. And at the Mountains,⁶¹⁰⁵
How they are fixed firm?—

- ١- فِي جَنَّةٍ عَالِيَةٍ ۝
٢- لَا تَسْمَعُ فِيهَا لَاغِيَةً ۝
٣- فِيهَا عَيْنٌ جَارِيَةٌ ۝
٤- فِيهَا سُرُرٌ مَرْفُوعَةٌ ۝
٥- وَأَكْوَابٌ مَوْضُوعَةٌ ۝
٦- وَنَمَارِقُ مَصْفُوفَةٌ ۝
٧- وَزُرَّاقٌ مَبْنُوتَةٌ ۝
٨- أَفَلَا يَنْظُرُونَ
إِلَى الْإِبِلِ كَيْفَ خُلِقَتْ ۝
٩- وَإِلَى السَّمَاءِ كَيْفَ رُفِعَتْ ۝
١٠- وَإِلَى الْجِبَالِ كَيْفَ نُصِبَتْ ۝

فِي الْجَنَّةِ

6101. The most important point is their inward state of joy and satisfaction, mentioned in verses 8-9. Now are mentioned the outer things of bliss, the chief of which is the Garden. The Garden is in contrast to the Fire. Its chief beauty will be that they will hear there nothing unbecoming, or foolish, or vain. It will be a Garden on high, in all senses—fit for the best, highest, and noblest. (R).

6102. Instead of the boiling hot spring (verse 5) there will be a bubbling spring of sparkling water. Instead of the grovelling and grumbling in the place of Wrath, there will be Thrones of Dignity, with all the accompaniments of a brilliant Assembly.

6103. In case men neglect the Hereafter as of no account, they are asked to contemplate four things, which they can see in everyday life, and which are full of meaning, high design, and the goodness of Allah to man. The first mentioned is the domesticated animal, which for Arab countries is par excellence the Camel. What a wonderful structure has this Ship of the Desert? He can store water in his stomach for days. He can live on dry and thorny desert shrubs. His limbs are adapted to his life. He can carry men and goods. His flesh can be eaten. Camel's hair can be used in weaving. And withal, he is so gentle! Who can sing his praises enough?

6104. The second thing they should consider is the noble blue vault high above them—with the sun and moon, the stars and planets, and other heavenly bodies. This scene is full of beauty and magnificence, design and order, plainness and mystery. And yet we receive our light and warmth from the sun, and what would our physical lives be without these influences that come from such enormous distances?

6105. From everyday utility and affection in the Camel, to the utility in grandeur in the heavens above us, we had two instances touching our individual as well as our social lives. In the third instance, in the Mountains we come to the utility to mankind generally in the services the Mountains perform in storing water, in moderating climate, and in various other ways which it is the business of Physical Geography to investigate and describe.

20. And at the Earth,⁶¹⁰⁶
How it is spread out?

٢٠- وَإِلَى الْأَرْضِ كَيْفَ سُطِحَتْ ۖ وَقَدْ

21. Therefore do thou give
Admonition, for thou art
One to admonish.

٢١- فَذَكِّرْ ۚ إِنَّمَا أَنْتَ مُذَكِّرٌ ۚ

22. Thou art not one
To manage (men's) affairs.⁶¹⁰⁷

٢٢- لَسْتَ عَلَيْهِمْ بِمُصَيِّطٍ ۚ

23. But if any turns away
And rejects Allah—

٢٣- إِلَّا مَنْ تَوَلَّى وَكَفَرَ ۚ

24. Allah will punish him
With a mighty Punishment.

٢٤- فَيُعَذِّبُهُ اللَّهُ الْعَذَابَ الْأَكْبَرَ ۚ

25. For to Us will be
Their Return;

٢٥- إِنَّ إِلَيْنَا إِيَابَهُمْ ۚ

26. Then it will be for Us
To call them to account.

٢٦- ثُمَّ إِنَّ عَلَيْنَا حِسَابَهُمْ ۚ

6106. The fourth and last instance given is that of the Earth as a whole, the habitation of mankind in our present phase of life. The Earth is a globe, and yet how marvellously it seems to be spread out before us in plains, valleys, hills, deserts, seas, etc.! Can man, seeing these things, fail to see a Plan and Purpose in his life, or fail to turn to the great Creator before Whom he will have to give an account after this life is done?

6107. The Prophet of Allah is sent to teach and direct people on the way. He is not sent to force their will, or to punish them, except insofar as he may receive authority to do so. Punishment belongs to Allah alone. And Punishment is certain in the Hereafter, when true values will be restored.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 89—AL FAJR

This is one of the earliest of the Sūrahs to be revealed—probably within the first ten in chronological order.

Its mystic meaning is suggested by contrasts—contrasts in nature and in man's long history. Thus does it enforce the lesson of Faith in the Hereafter to "those who understand". Man's history and legendary lore show that greatness does not last and the proudest are brought low. For enforcing moral and spiritual truths, the strictest history is no better than legend. Indeed all artistic history is legend, for it is written from a special point of view.

Man is easily cowed by contrasts in his own fortunes, and yet he does not learn from them the lesson of forbearance and kindness to others, and the final elevation of goodness in the Hereafter. When all the things on which his mind and heart are set on this earth shall be crushed to nothingness, he will see the real glory and power, love and beauty, of Allah, for these are the light of the Garden of Paradise.

C. 269.—Man is apt to forget the contrasts
 (89:1-30.) In nature and life, and all that they mean
 In his spiritual growth. Perchance his mind
 Is so absorbed in what he sees,
 That he doubts the vast Realities
 He does not see. The Present makes Him blind to the Past and to the Future.
 Fooled by glory, he fears not a fall;
 And baulked in disaster, he gives up Hope
 And sometimes Faith. Let him study
 Nature and History, and restore his Faith:
 Realising the Sure Event, the Hereafter,
 Let him find his fullest fulfilment
 In the service and the good pleasure of Allah!

Sūrah 89.

Al Fajr (The Dawn)*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*1. By the Break of Day;⁶¹⁰⁸2. By the Nights twice five;⁶¹⁰⁹3. By the Even
And Odd (contrasted);⁶¹¹⁰4. And by the Night⁶¹¹¹
When it passeth away—5. Is there (not) in these⁶¹¹²

الْجُزْءُ الثَّلَاثُونَ سُورَةُ الْفَجْرِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- وَالْفَجْرِ

٢- وَلَيَالٍ عَشْرٍ

٣- وَالشَّفْعِ وَالْوَتْرِ

٤- وَاللَّيْلِ إِذَا يَسْرِ

٥- هَلْ فِي ذَلِكَ

6108. Four striking contrasts are mentioned, to show Allah's Power and Justice, and appeal to "those who understand". The first is the glory and mystery of the Break of Day. It just succeeds the deepest dark of the Night, when the first rays of light break through. Few people except those actually in personal touch with nature can feel its compelling power. In respect both of beauty and terror, of hope and inspiration, of suddenness and continuing increase of light and joy, this "holy time" of night may well stand as the type of spiritual awakening from darkness to Faith, from Death to Resurrection.

6109. By the Ten Nights are usually understood the first ten nights of Dhu al Hijjah, the sacred season of Pilgrimage. From the most ancient times Makkah was the centre of Arab pilgrimage. The story of Abraham is intimately connected with it; see 2:125-127 and notes, also n. 217 to 2:197. In times of Paganism various superstitions were introduced, which Islam swept away. Islam also purified the rites and ceremonies, giving them new meaning. The ten days specially devoted to the Hajj introduce a striking contrast in the life of Makkah and of the pilgrims. Makkah, from being a quiet secluded city, is then thronged with thousands of pilgrims from all parts of the world. They discard their ordinary dress—representing every kind of costume—to the simple and ordinary Ihrām (n.217); they refrain from every kind of fighting and quarrel; they abstain from every kind of luxury and self-indulgence; they hold all life sacred, however humble, except in the way of symbolical and carefully regulated sacrifice; and they spend their nights in prayer and meditation.

6110. The contrast between even and odd forms the subject of learned argument among those who deal with the mystic properties of numbers. In any case, even and odd follow each other in regular succession: each is independent, and yet neither is self-sufficient. In ultimate analysis every even number is a pair of odd ones. And all things go in pairs: see 36:36, and n. 3981. In the animal world pairs are but two individuals, and yet each is a complement of the other. Both abstract and concrete things are often understood in contrast with their opposites. Why should we not, in spiritual matters, understand this life better with reference to the Hereafter, and why should we disbelieve in the Hereafter simply because we cannot conceive of anything different from our present life?

6111. That is, the last part of the night, just before full daylight. Note the gradations in spiritual awakening, and their symbols: first, the turn of the night, when just the first rays of daylight break through; secondly, the social and institutional rites of religion, like those during the ten nights of Pilgrimage; thirdly, when the usual contrast between the Here and Hereafter vanishes, and we can see heaven even here; and lastly, when this world vanishes, the full light of Day arrives, and we see Reality face to face.

6112. All these mystic Symbols draw our attention, like solemn adjurations in speech, to the profoundest mystery of our inner life, viz., how from utter depths of darkness—ignorance or even degradation—Allah's wonderful Light or Revelation can lead us by contrast into the most beautiful sunshine of a glorious spiritual Day. But the contrast suggests also the opposite process as a corollary—how resistance to Allah's light would destroy us utterly, converting our greatness or glory to perdition, as happened with the peoples of Arab antiquity, the 'Ād and the Thamūd, and the type of the powerful but arrogant and godless monarch, the Pharaoh of Egypt. Like a man with a bounded horizon, the average man does not understand these long range mysteries of life, and we have need to pray that we may be of "those who understand".

An adjuration (or evidence) For those who understand?	قَسَمٌ لِّذِي حِجْرٍ ۝
6. Seest thou not How thy Lord dealt With the 'Ād (people)— ⁶¹¹³	۞-۶ أَلَمْ تَرَ كَيْفَ فَعَلَ رَبُّكَ بِعَادٍ ۝
7. Of the (city of) Iram, ⁶¹¹⁴ With lofty pillars,	۞-۷ إِرَامَ ذَاتِ الْعِمَادِ ۝
8. The like of which Were not produced In (all) the land? ⁶¹¹⁵	۞-۸ الْبَتَى لَمْ يَخْلُقْ مِثْلَهَا فِي الْبِلَادِ ۝
9. And with the Thamūd ⁶¹¹⁶ (People), who cut out (Huge) rocks in the valley?—	۞-۹ وَتَسُودَ الَّذِينَ جَاءُوا الصَّخَرَ بِالْوَادِ ۝
10. And with Pharaoh, Lord of Stakes? ⁶¹¹⁷	۞-۱۰ وَفِرْعَوْنَ ذِي الْأَوْتَادِ ۝
11. (All) these transgressed Beyond bounds in the lands.	۞-۱۱ الَّذِينَ طَغَوْا فِي الْبِلَادِ ۝
12. And heaped therein Mischiefs (on mischief).	۞-۱۲ فَالْكَثْرَ وَفِيهَا الْفَسَادُ ۝
13. Therefore did thy Lord Pour on them a scourge Of diverse chastisements:	۞-۱۳ فَصَبَّ عَلَيْهِمْ رَبُّكَ سُوطَ عَذَابٍ ۝

6113. For the 'Ād see n. 1040 to 7:65. They seem to have possessed an ancient civilisation, which succumbed when they persistently broke Allah's law.

6114. Iram would seem to have been an ancient 'Ād capital, in southern Arabia. It boasted of lofty architecture ("lofty pillars"). Some Commentators understand Iram to be the name of an eponymous hero of the 'Ād, in which case the following line, "with lofty pillars", should be construed "of lofty stature". The 'Ād were a tall race.

6115. This tract of southern Arabia was once very prosperous (Arabia Felix) and contains ruins and inscriptions. It has always been an object of great interest to the Arabs. In the time of Mu'āwiyah some precious stones were found among the ruins in this locality. Quite recently, a bronze lion's head and a bronze piece of gutter with a Sabaean inscription, found in Najrān, have been described in the British Museum Quarterly, vol. XI, No. 4, Sept. 1937.

6116. For the Thamūd see n. 1043 to 6:79. Their civilisation shows traces of Egyptian, Syrian, and (later) Greek and Roman influences. They built fine temples, tombs, and buildings cut out of the solid rock. The cult of the goddess Lāt flourished among them.

6117. For "Lord of Stakes", see 38:12, n. 4160. For Pharaoh's arrogance and his fall, see 20:43, 78-79. The three examples given, the 'Ād, the Thamūd, and Pharaoh, show that neither nations nor individuals, however mighty, prosperous, or firmly established they may be, can live if they transgress the Law of Allah. The Law of Allah, which is also the law of the higher nature which He has bestowed on us, made them in the first place great and glorious: when they fell from it and "heaped mischief on mischief", they were swept away.

14. For thy Lord is
(As a Guardian)
On a watchtower.⁶¹¹⁸

۞ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَبِالْمُرْصَادِ ۞

15. Now, as for man,⁶¹¹⁹
When his Lord trieth him,
Giving him honour and gifts,
Then saith he, (puffed up),
"My Lord hath honoured me"

۞ فَأَمَّا الْإِنْسَانُ إِذَا مَا ابْتَلَاهُ رَبُّهُ
فَأَكْرَمَهُ وَنَعَّمَهُ ۖ
فَيَقُولُ رَبِّي أَكْرَمَنِ ۞

16. But when he trieth him,
Restricting his subsistence⁶¹²⁰
For him, then saith he
(In despair), "My Lord
Hath humiliated me!"

۞ وَأَمَّا إِذَا مَا ابْتَلَاهُ
فَقَدَّرَ عَلَيْهِ رِزْقَهُ ۖ
فَيَقُولُ رَبِّي أَهَانَنِ ۞

17. Nay, nay! But ye⁶¹²¹
Honour not the orphans!

۞ كَلَّا بَلْ لَا تَكْرُمُونَ الْيَتِيمَ ۞

18. Nor do ye encourage
One another⁶¹²²
To feed the poor!—

۞ وَلَا تَحْضُونَهُ عَلَىٰ طَعَامِ الْمِسْكِينِ ۞

19. And ye devour Inheritance—⁶¹²³
All with greed,

۞ وَتَأْكُلُونَ الثَّرَاثَ أَكْلًا لُّثًّا ۞

6118. Even though Allah's punishment is delayed, it is not to be supposed that He does not see all things. Allah's providence is ever vigilant: His punishment of evildoers is a form of justice to the weak and the righteous whom they oppress. It is part of the signification of His title as Rabb (Cherisher). (R).

6119. Contrast with Allah's justice and watchful care, man's selfishness and pettiness. Allah tries us both by prosperity and adversity: in the one we should show humility and kindness; and in the other patience and faith. On the contrary, we get puffed up in prosperity and depressed in adversity, putting false values on this world's goods.

6120. Subsistence, in both the literal and the figurative sense. Allah provides for all, but people complain if the provision is measured and restricted to their needs, circumstances, and antecedents, and does not come up to their desires or expectations, or is different from that given to people in quite different circumstances.

6121. Even at our own valuation, if we are favoured with superfluities, do we think of the fatherless children, or the struggling poor? On the contrary, too many men are but ready to embezzle the helpless orphan's inheritance, and to waste their own substance in worthless riot instead of supplying the people's real needs.

6122. Kindness and generosity set up standards which even worldly men feel bound to follow out of social considerations even if they are not moved by higher motives. But the wicked find plausible excuses for their own hardheartedness, and by their evil example choke up the springs of charity and kindness in others.

6123. Inheritance is abused in two ways. (1) Guardians and trustees for the inheritance of minors or women or persons unable to look after their own interests should fulfil their trusts with even more care than they devote to their own interests. Instead of that they selfishly "devour" the property. (2) Persons who inherit property in their own rights should remember that in that case, too, it is a sacred trust. They must use it for the purposes, objects, and duties which they also inherit. It gives them no licence to live in idleness or waste their days in riotous show.

20. And ye love wealth
With inordinate love!
21. Nay! When the earth
Is pounded to powder,⁶¹²⁴
22. And thy Lord cometh,
And His angels,
Rank upon rank,
23. And Hell, that Day,⁶¹²⁵
Is brought (face to face)—
On that Day will man
Remember, but how will
That remembrance profit him?
24. He will say: "Ah!
Would that I had Sent forth (Good Deeds)
For (this) my (Future) Life!"
25. For, that Day,
His Chastisement will be
Such as none (else)
Can inflict,⁶¹²⁶
26. And His bonds
Will be such as
None (other) can bind.
27. (To the righteous soul
Will be said:)
"O (thou) soul,"⁶¹²⁷

- ٢٠- وَتُحِبُّونَ الْمَالَ حُبًّا جَمًّا ۝
- ٢١- كَلَّا إِذَا دُكَّتِ الْأَرْضُ دَكًّا دَكًّا ۝
- ٢٢- وَجَاءَ رَبُّكَ
وَالْمَلَائِكَةُ صَفًّا ۝
- ٢٣- وَجَاءَتْ يَوْمَئِذٍ بُرْجُهُمْ
يَوْمَئِذٍ يَتَذَكَّرُ الْإِنْسَانُ
وَأَنَّى لَهُ الذِّكْرَى ۝
- ٢٤- يَقُولُ يَلَيْتَنِي
قَدَّمْتُ بِحَيَاتِي ۝
- ٢٥- فَيَوْمَئِذٍ لَا يُعَذِّبُ
عَذَابَهُ أَحَدٌ ۝
- ٢٦- وَلَا يُوثِقُ وَثَاقَهُ أَحَدٌ ۝
- ٢٧- يَا أَيَّتُهَا النَّفْسُ

6124. Our attention is now called to the Day of Reckoning. Whether we failed to respect the rights of the helpless here or actually suppressed those rights in our mad love for the good things of this life, we shall have to answer in the realm of Reality. This solid earth, which we imagine to be so real, will crumble to powder like dust before the real Presence, manifested in glory.

6125. The Retribution will at last come, and we shall realise it in our inmost being, all the illusions of this fleeting world having been swept away. Then we shall remember, and wish, too late, that we had repented. Why not repent now? Why not bring forth the fruits of repentance now, as a preparation for the Hereafter?

6126. "Chastisement" in this verse and the "binding in bonds" in the next verse are two distinct phases of the Penalty. "Chastisement" involves pain and agony, such as cannot be imagined anywhere else, or from any other source, for it touches our inmost soul and cannot be compared with anything our bodies may suffer or others may inflict. "Bonds" imply confinement, want of freedom, the closing of a door which was once open but which we deliberately passed by. We see that others accepted in faith and entered that door. This shutting out of what might have been is worse than any other bonds or confinement we can imagine, and may be worse than actual chastisement.

6127. The righteous enter into their inheritance and receive their welcome with a title that suggests freedom from all pain, sorrow, doubt, struggle, disappointment, passion, and even further desire: at rest, in peace; in a state of complete satisfaction.

In Muslim theology, this stage of the soul is the final stage of bliss. The unregenerate human soul, that seeks its satisfaction in the lower earthly desires, is the Ammārah (12:53). The self-reproaching soul that feels conscious of sin and resists it is the Lawwāmah (75:2, and n. 5810).

In (complete) rest
And satisfaction!

الْمُطْمَئِنَّةُ ۝

28. "Come back thou
To thy Lord — ⁶¹²⁸
Well pleased (thyself),
And well-pleasing
Unto Him!

٢٨- اَرْجِعْ إِلَىٰ رَبِّكَ
رَاضِيَةً مَّرْضِيَّةً ۝

29. "Enter thou, then,
Among my Devotees!

٢٩- فَادْخُلِي فِي عِبَادِي ۝

30. "Yea, enter thou
My Heaven!" ⁶¹²⁹

٣٠- وَادْخُلِي جَنَّاتِي ۝

6128. Note that Evil finds itself isolated, and cries out in lonely agony (verse 24), while Good receives a warm welcome from the Lord of Goodness Himself—also that it is the soul which enters heaven, and not the gross body which perishes.

6129. The climax of the whole is: "Enter My Heaven!" Men may have imagined all kinds of heaven before, and many types and symbols are used in the sacred Word itself. But nothing can express the reality itself better than "My Heaven"—Allah's own Heaven! May we reach it through Allah's grace! (R).

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 90—AL BALAD

This is an early Makkan revelation, and refers to the mystic relation (by divine sanction) of the Holy Prophet with the city of Makkah. He was born in that City, which had already been sacred for ages before. He was nurtured in that City and had (to use a modern phrase) the freedom of that City, belonging, as he did, to the noble family which held the government of its sacred precincts in its hands. But he was an orphan, and orphans in his day had a poor time. But his mind was turned to things divine. He protested against the prevailing idolatry and sin, and his parent City persecuted him and cast him out. He made another City, Yathrib, his own: it became the Madīnah al Nabī, the City of the Prophet, and it has ever since been called Madīnah. We can speak of Madīnah as the Prophet's child. But the Prophet ever cherished in his heart the love of his parent City of Makkah, and in the fulness of time was received in triumph there. He purified it from all idols and abominations, reestablished the worship of the One True God, overthrew the purse-proud selfish autocracy, restored the sway of the righteous (people of the Right Hand), the liberty of the slave, and the rights of the poor and downtrodden. What a wonderful career centering round a City? It becomes a symbol of the world's spiritual history.

- C. 270.—The Prophet's own City persecuted him.
 (90:1-20.) Honoured by his nativity, it sought to slay him:
 Yet he loved it and purged it of all that was wrong.
 What toil and struggle did it not involve?
 Man is made for toil and struggle:
 Let him not boast of ease and wealth.
 He will be called to account for all his doings.
 Let him use his God-given faculties, and tread
 The steep path that leads to Heaven's Heights:
 The steps thereto are Love, unselfish Love,
 Given freely to Allah's creatures—all those
 In need—and Faith in Allah, and Patience
 Joined with self-restraint and kindness.
 Thus only can we reach the ranks
 Of the blest Companions of the Right Hand!

الجزء الثامن سورة البلد

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- لَا أُقْسِمُ بِهَذَا الْبَلَدِ ۝

٢- وَأَنْتَ حِلٌّ بِهَذَا الْبَلَدِ ۝

٣- وَوَالِئِی وَمَا وَلَدَ ۝

٤- لَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ فِي كَبَدٍ ۝

٥- أَيْحَسِبُ أَنْ لَنْ يُقَدَّرَ عَلَيْهِ أَحَدٌ ۝

٦- يَقُولُ أَهْلَكْتُ مَالًا

6132. A parent loves a child ordinarily: the father is proud and the mother, in spite of her birth pains, experiences supreme joy when the child is born. But in abnormal circumstances there may be misunderstandings, even hatred between parent and child. So Makkah cast out her most glorious son, but it was only for a time. Makkah was sound at heart; only her power had been usurped by an ignorant autocracy which passed away, and Makkah was to receive back her glory at the hands of the son whom she had rejected but whom she welcomed back later. And Makkah retains for all time her sacred character as the centre of Islam.

6133. Cf. "Man is born unto troubles as the sparks fly upward" (Job, v. 7); "For all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief" (Ecclesiastes, ii. 23). Man's life is full of sorrow and vexation; but our text has a different shade of meaning: man is born to strive and struggle; and if he suffers from hardships, he must exercise patience, for Allah will make his way smooth for him (65:7; 94:5-6). On the other hand no man should boast of worldly goods or worldly prosperity (see verses 5-7 below).

6134. See the end of last note. If a man has wealth, influence, or power, he should not behave as if it is to last forever, or as if he has no responsibility for his acts and can do what he likes. All his gifts and advantages are given to him for trial. Allah, Who bestowed them on him, can take them away, and will do so if man fails in his trial.

In abundance!" ⁶¹³⁵	لُبْدًا ۝
7. Thinketh he that none Beholdeth him? ⁶¹³⁶	ء- اَيَحْسَبُ اَنْ لَّمْ يَرَهُ اَحَدٌ ۝
8. Have We not made For him a pair of eyes?—	۝ اَلَمْ نَجْعَلْ لَهُ عَيْنَيْنِ ۝
9. And a tongue, ⁶¹³⁷ And a pair of lips?—	۝ وَاِلْسَانًا وَشَفَتَيْنِ ۝
10. And shown him The two highways? ⁶¹³⁸	۝ ا- وَهَدَيْنَاهُ النَّجْدَيْنِ ۝
11. But he hath made no haste On the path that is steep. ⁶¹³⁹	۝ ۝ فَلَآ اِتَّخَمَ الْعُقَبَةَ ۝
12. And what will explain To thee the path that is steep?—	۝ ۝ وَمَا اَدْرَاكَ مَا الْعُقَبَةُ ۝
13. (It is:) freeing the bondman; ⁶¹⁴⁰	۝ ۝ فَكَفَّ رَقَبَةً ۝

6135. The man who feels no responsibility and thinks that he can do what he likes in life forgets his responsibility to Allah. He boasts of his wealth and scatters it about, thinking that he can thus purchase the support of the world. For a time he may. But a rude awakening must come soon, for he bases his hopes on unsubstantial things. Or if he spends his substance on self-indulgence, he is weakening himself and putting himself into snares that must destroy him.

6136. Allah watches him, and sees all his acts and motives, and all the secret springs of his follies. But lest he should think the higher spiritual forces too remote for him, let him look within himself and use the faculties which Allah has given him. See the next verses following.

6137. The eyes give us the faculty of seeing, and may be taken in both the literal and the metaphorical sense. In the same way the tongue gives us the faculty of tasting in both senses. Along with the lips, it also enables us to speak, to ask for information and seek guidance, and to celebrate the praises of Allah.

6138. The two highways of life are: (1) the steep and difficult path of virtue, which is further described in the verses following, and (2) the easy path of vice and the rejection of Allah, referred to in verses 19-20 below. Allah has given us not only the faculties implied in the eyes, the tongue, and the lips, but also given us the judgement by which we can choose our way; and He has sent us Teachers and Guides, with Revelation, to show us the right and difficult way.

6139. In spite of the faculties with which Allah has endowed man and the guidance which He has given him, man has been remiss. By no means has he been eager to follow the steep and difficult path which is for his own spiritual good. Cf. Matt. vii. 14: "Strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it".

6140. The difficult path of virtue is defined as the path of charity or unselfish love, and three specific instances are given for our understanding: viz. (1) freeing the bondman, (2) feeding the orphan, and (3) feeding the indigent down in the dust. As regards the bondman, we are to understand not only a reference to legal slavery, but many other kinds of slavery which flourish especially in advanced societies. There is political slavery, industrial slavery, and social slavery. There is the slavery of conventions, of ignorance, and of superstition. There is slavery to wealth or passions or power. The good man tries to liberate men and women from all kinds of slavery, often at great danger to himself. But he begins by first liberating himself. (R).

6141. Feed those who need it, both literally and figuratively; but do so especially when there is privation or famine, literal or figurative, i.e., when or where the sources of sustenance, physical, moral, or spiritual, are cut off.

6142. All orphans should be fed and helped. But ordinary orphans will come under the indigent in verse 16 below. The orphans related to us have a special claim on us. They should be near and dear to us, and if charity begins at home, they have the first claim on us.

6143. Persons down in the dust can only be helped from motives of pure charity, because nothing can be expected of them—neither praise nor advertisement nor any other advantage to the helper. Such help is help indeed. But there may be various degrees, and the help will be suited to the needs.

6144. Such practical charity and love will be the acid test of Faith and the teaching of all virtues. The virtues are summed up under the names of Patience (the Arabic word includes constancy and self-restraint) and compassionate kindness. Not only will they be the test by which the sincerity of their Faith will be judged: they will be the fruit which their Faith will constantly produce.

6145. Cf. 56:27-40, also n. 5223. They will be those who achieve salvation.

6146. Cf. 56:41-56, also n. 5223. They will be the unfortunate ones enveloped in the Fire of lasting Penalty, heaped over them and all round them.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 91—AL SHAMS

This is one of the early Makkan revelations. Beginning with a fine nature passage, and leading up to man's need of realising his spiritual responsibility, it ends with a warning of the terrible consequences for those who fear not the Hereafter.

C. 271. — All nature around us and her pageants,
(91:1-15.) And the soul of man within, proclaim
The goodness of Allah. Allah gave the soul
The power of choice and the sense of Right
And Wrong. Let man keep it pure and attain
Salvation—soil it with sin and reach
Perdition. Inordinate wrongdoing ruined
The Thamūd. They defied Allah's sacred Law
And His Prophet, and went to Destruction for their crime.

Sūrah 91.

Al Shams (The Sun)

الجزء الثلاثون سُورَةُ الشَّمْسِ

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. By the Sun⁶¹⁴⁷
And its (glorious) splendour;
2. By the Moon⁶¹⁴⁸
As it follows (the Sun);
3. By the Day as it⁶¹⁴⁹
Shows up (the Sun's) glory;
4. By the Night as it
Conceals it;
5. By the Firmament⁶¹⁵⁰
And its (wonderful) structure;⁶¹⁵¹
6. By the Earth
And its (wide) expanse;

١- وَالشَّمْسِ وَضُحَاهَا ۝

٢- وَالْقَمَرِ إِذَا تَلَّهَا ۝

٣- وَالنَّهَارِ إِذَا جَلَّهَا ۝

٤- وَاللَّيْلِ إِذَا يَغْشَاهَا ۝

٥- وَالسَّمَاءِ وَمَا بَنَاهَا ۝

٦- وَالْأَرْضِ وَمَا طَحَاهَا ۝

6147. Six types are taken in three pairs, from Allah's mighty works in nature, as tokens or evidence of Allah's providence and the contrasts in His sublime creation, which yet conduce to cosmic harmony (verses 1-6). Then (verses 7-8) the soul of man, with internal order and proportion in its capacities and faculties, as made by Allah, is appealed to as having been endowed with the power of discriminating between right and wrong. Then the conclusion is stated in verses 9-10, that man's success or failure, prosperity or bankruptcy, would depend upon his keeping that soul pure or his corrupting it.

6148. The first pair is the glorious sun, the source of our light and physical life, and the moon which follows or acts as second to the sun for illuminating our world. The moon, when she is in the sky with the sun, is pale and inconspicuous; in the sun's absence she shines with reflected light and may metaphorically be called the sun's vicegerent. So with Revelation and the great Prophets who brought it; and the minor Teachers who derive their light reflected, or perhaps doubly reflected, from the original source.

6149. The next contrasted pair consists, not of luminaries, but conditions, or periods of time, Day and Night. The Day reveals the sun's glory and the Night conceals it from our sight. So there may be contrasts in our subjective reception of divine light, but it is there, working all the time, and must reappear in its own good time.

6150. The next contrasted pair is the wonderful firmament on high, and the earth below our feet, stretching away to our wide horizons. The sky gives us rain, and the earth gives us food. Yet both work together: for the rain is moisture sucked up from the earth, and the food cannot grow without the heat and warmth of the sun. There are many other contrasts under this head; yet they all point to unity.

6151. The mā maṣdariyyah in Arabic, in this and the subsequent clauses, is best translated in English by nouns. Thus what would literally be "and the (wonderful) making or construction of it" or "the fact of its (wonderful) construction" is, idiomatically, "its (wonderful) structure." "The (wide) spreading out" of the earth is rendered "its (wide) expanse," and so on.

| 13. But the Messenger of Allah⁶¹⁵⁶
Said to them: "It is

And (bar her not

| 14. Then they rejected him
(As a false prophet), | ١٤- فَكَذَّبُوهُ ۞ |

6152. Allah makes the soul, and gives it order, proportion, and relative perfection, in order to adapt it for the particular circumstances in which it has to live its life. Cf. 32:9. See also n. 120 to 2:117. He breathes into it an understanding of what is sin, impiety, wrongdoing and what is piety and right conduct, in the special circumstances in which it may be placed. This is the most precious gift of all to man, the faculty of distinguishing between right and wrong. After the six external evidences mentioned in verses 1-6 above, this internal evidence of Allah's goodness is mentioned as the greatest of all. By these various tokens man should learn that his success, his prosperity, his salvation depends on himself—on his keeping his soul pure as Allah made it; and his failure, his decline, his perdition depends on his soiling his soul by choosing evil.

6153. This is the core of the Sūrah, and it is illustrated by a reference to the story of the Thamūd in the following verses.

6154. The allusion to the story of the Thamūd will be understood by a reference to 7:73-79; see specially n. 1044. Their prophet was Ṣāliḥ but he had to deal with an arrogant people, who oppressed the poor and denied them their rights of watering and pasture for their cattle.

6155. The prophet Ṣāliḥ made a certain she-camel a Sign or Symbol, a test case, "This she-camel of Allah is Sign unto you; so leave her to graze in Allah's earth and let her come to no harm, or ye shall be seized with a grievous punishment" (7:73). but they plotted to kill her and sent the most wicked man among them to dare and do that deed of impiety. It was probably when she came to drink at the stream that she was hamstrung and killed. See 26:155, and 54:27.

6156. That is, Ṣāliḥ: see last note.

And they hamstrung her.⁶¹⁵⁷
 So their Lord, on account
 Of their crime, obliterated
 Their traces and made them
 Equal (in destruction,
 High and low)!

فَعَقَرُوْهَا
 فَكَمَدَ عَلَيْهِمْ رَبُّهُمْ يَدْأُوْهُمْ
 فَسَوَّاهَا

15. And for Him⁶¹⁵⁸
 Is no fear
 Of its consequences.

هَـٰوَلَا يَخَافُ عَقْبَاهَا

6157. The man who was deputed to do the impious deed of hamstringing the she-camel had, of course, the sympathy and cooperation of the whole people. Only he was more daring than the rest.

6158. This verse has been variously construed. I follow the general opinion in referring the pronoun "Him" to "their Lord" in the last verse and the pronoun "its" to the Punishment that was meted out to all, high and low, equally. In that case the meaning would be: God decreed the total destruction of the Thamūd; in the case of creatures any such destruction might cause a loss to them, and they might fear the consequences of such loss or destruction, but Allah has created and can create at will, and there can be no question of any such apprehension in His case. An alternative view is that "him" refers to the prophet Ṣāliḥ, mentioned in verse 13. Then the interpretation would be: Ṣāliḥ had no fear of the consequences for himself; he had warned the wicked according to his commission; he was saved by Allah's mercy as a just and righteous man, and he left them with regrets (7:79). Yet another alternative refers "him" to the wicked man (mentioned in verse 12) who hamstrung the she-camel: he feared not the consequences of his deed.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 92—AL LAYL

This was one of the first Sūrahs to be revealed—within the first ten; and may be placed in date close to S. 89 and S. 93. Note that in all these three Sūrahs the mystery and the contrast as between Night and Day are appealed to for the consolation of man in his spiritual yearning. Here we are told to strive our utmost towards Allah, and He will give us every help and satisfaction.

C. 272.—When we consider Allah's wonderful Creation,
 (92:1-21.) We see many myteries—many opposites—
 Many differences; the succession of nights
 And days, the creation of male and female.
 Can we wonder at the differences
 In the nature and objectives of man?
 He is endowed with Will, and he must strive
 For the Right through all his diverse paths.
 For the righteous, the way is made the smoother
 For bliss; for the arrogant crooked will,
 The way is the smoother for Misery.
 But Allah's guidance is always nigh,
 If man will choose it. And what
 Is the goal for those who choose aright?—
 The sight of the Face of Allah Most High:
 For that indeed is happiness supreme.

Sūrah 92.

Al Layl (The Night)

Most Merciful.*

Conceals (the light);⁶¹⁵⁹
2. By the Day as it
Appears in glory;
3. By (the mystery of)⁶¹⁶⁰
The creation of male
And female — ⁶¹⁶¹
4. Verily, (the ends) ye
Strive for are diverse.⁶¹⁶²
5. So he who gives

6. And (in all sincerity)
Testifies to the Best — ⁶¹⁶³

الجزء الثامن سُوْرَةُ اللَّيْلِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- وَاللَّيْلِ إِذَا يَغْشَى ۝

٢- وَالنَّهَارِ إِذَا تَجَلَّى ۝

٣- وَمَا خَلَقَ الذَّكَرَ وَالْأُنثَى ۝

٤- إِنَّ سَعْيَكُمْ لَشَتَّى ۝

٥- فَأَمَّا مَنْ أَعْطَى وَاتَّقَى ۝

٦- وَصَدَّقَ بِالْحُسْنَى ۝

6159. The evidence of three things is invoked. viz., Night, Day, and the mystery of Sex, and the conclusion is stated in verse 4, that men's aims are diverse. But similarly there are contrasts in nature. What contrast can be greater than between Night and Day? When the Night spreads her veil, the sun's light is hidden, but not lost. The sun is in its place all the time, and will come forth in all its glory again in its own good time. Cf. 91:3, 4, and n. 6149. Man pursuing diverse aims may find, owing to his own position, Allah's light obscured from him for a time, but he must strive hard to put himself in a position to reach it in all its glory.

6160. Mā maṣḍarīyah as in 9:507; see there n. 6151.

6161. The mystery of the sexes runs through all life. There is attraction between opposites; each performs its own functions, having special characters, primary and secondary, within limited spheres, and yet both have common characteristics in many other spheres. Each is indispensable to the other. Love in its noblest sense is the type of heavenly love and the highest good; in its debasement it leads to the lowest sins and the worst crimes. Here, then, striving is necessary for the highest good.

6162. There are wide contrasts in the nature and aims of men. These may be broadly divided into two classes, good and evil. As night replaces day on account of certain relative positions, but does not annihilate it, so evil may for a time obscure good but cannot blot it out. Again, night in certain circumstances (e.g. for rest) is a blessing; do certain things, which seek the highest truth from the light of Allah. Considering these contrasts, do not be surprised or depressed. Men's immediate aims may be different. The duty of all is to seek the one true Light.

6163. The good are distinguished here by three signs: (1) large-hearted sacrifices for Allah and men: (2) fear of Allah, which shows itself in righteous conduct, for Taqwā (see n. 26 to 2:2) includes just action as well as a mental state: and (3) truth and sincerity in recognising and supporting all that is morally beautiful, for Husn is the good as well as the beautiful.

| 11. Nor will his wealth

| 14. Therefore do I warn you
Of a Fire blazing fiercely; | ١٤- فَأَنْذَرْتُكُمْ نَارًا تَلَظَّى ۝ |

6164. So far from there being any hardship in a good life, the righteous will enjoy their life more and more, and Allah will make their path smoother and smoother until they reach eventual Bliss.

6165. The evil are distinguished here by three signs: (1) selfish greed and denial of other people's rights; (2) arrogance and self-sufficiency (96:6-7); and (3) knowingly dishonouring Truth out of spite, or seeing ugliness where there is beauty. Such men's downward progress gathers momentum as they go, and their end can be nothing but Misery. Where will be their boasted wealth and possessions, or their self-confidence?

6166. Wealth amassed in this world will be of no use at the Day of Final Judgement, nor will any material advantages of this life bring profit by themselves in the spiritual world. What will count will be a life of truth and righteousness, and of goodness to all the creatures of Allah.

6167. Allah in His infinite mercy has provided full guidance to His creatures. All through His creation there are sign posts indicating the right way. To man He has given the five senses of perception, with mental and spiritual faculties for co-ordinating his physical perceptions and leading him higher and higher in thought and feeling. He has besides sent inspired men for further teaching and guidance.

6168. In the End man will return to Allah, and even from the beginning of man's life Allah's mercies and loving care surround him. In the probationary period of man's life, he has a measure of free will, and he is expected to use it in such a way as to bring his whole being into harmony with the universal Will and Law. For he will have to answer for the right use of his talents and opportunities. If man's will has any meaning, he has the choice of accepting Allah's guidance or rejecting it, and in the latter case he must take the consequences. Hence the warning of the future "Fire" in the next verse.

15. None shall reach it⁶¹⁶⁹

And turn their backs.
17. But those most devoted
To Allah shall be⁶¹⁷⁰

19. And have in their minds
No favour from anyone
For which a reward
Is expected in return,⁶¹⁷³
20. But only the desire
To seek for the Countenance

21. And soon will they
Attain (complete) satisfaction.

١٥-لَا يَصْلُهَا إِلَّا الْأَشْقَى ۝

١٦-الَّذِي كَذَّبَ وَتَوَلَّى ۝

١٧-وَسَيُجَنَّبُهَا الْأَتْقَى ۝

١٨-الَّذِي يُؤْتِي مَالَهُ يَتَزَكَّى ۝

٢٠-إِلَّا ابْتِغَاءَ وَجْهِ رَبِّهِ الْأَعْلَى ۝

٢١-وَلَسَوْفَ يَرْضَى ۝

6169. The Fire of Punishment will not reach any except those who have deliberately sinned against their conscience and rejected Allah's Truth. The term used for them is 'Ashqā' (superlative degree). Cf. 87:11. The corresponding idea in Christian theology is expressed in the following sentence. "All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men" (Matt. xiii. 31). (R).

6170. "Those most devoted to Allah": the Atqā, the God-fearing men who live lives of purity, and seek only for the "Face of their Lord Most High". See the verses following.

6171. The spending may be for charity, or for good works, such as advancing the cause of knowledge or science, or supporting ideals, etc. "Wealth" must be understood not only for money or material goods, but also for any advantage or opportunity which a man happens to enjoy, and which he can place at the service of others.

6172. The Arabic root word zakā implies both increase and purification, and both meanings may be understood to be implied here. Wealth (understood both literally and metaphorically) is not for selfish enjoyment or idle show. It is held on trust. It may be a trial in itself, from which a man who emerges successfully is a man all the purer in his life; and even if he was a good man before, his proper use of his wealth increases his position and dignity in the moral and spiritual world.

6173. The good man does not give in charity or do his good deeds with the motive that he is returning someone else's favour and compensating and rewarding someone for some service done to him or expecting some reward in return for his own good deed: the sole motive in his mind is that he desires the Countenance or Good Pleasure of Allah Most High. This "Countenance" or "Face" (Arabic, Wajh) implies good pleasure or approval; but it implies something more. It also means the Cause—either the "final cause" or the "efficient cause" of Aristotelian philosophy. For the Atqā would refer everything, backwards in origin and forwards in destiny, to Allah. Allah is the source of their goodness, as well as its goal or purpose.

6174. The definition of Righteousness, Charity, or Self-sacrifice, becomes thus highly spiritualised. The Atqā are so completely identified with Allah's Will that everything else is blotted out to them. What would seem to be sacrifice from other points of view, becomes their own highest pleasure and satisfaction. Every virtuous man will have his own bliss, for there are degrees in virtue and bliss. This supreme bliss is the portion—not the prize—of supreme virtue. (R).

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 93—AL DUḤĀ

This Sūrah is close in date to Sūrahs 89 and 92, and the imagery drawn from the contrast of Night and Day is common to all three. In this Sūrah the vicissitudes of human life are referred to, and a message of hope and consolation is given to man's soul from Allah's past mercies, and he is bidden to pursue the path of goodness and proclaim the bounties of Allah. This is the general meaning. In particular, the Sūrah seems to have been revealed in a dark period in the outer life of the Holy Prophet, when a man of less resolute will might have been discouraged. But the Prophet is told to hold the present of less account than the glorious Hereafter which awaited him like the glorious morning after a night of stillness and gloom. The Hereafter was, not only in the Future Life, but his later life on this earth, full of victory and satisfaction.

C. 273. — What an example we have in the Prophet's life!
 (93:1-11.) When moments of inspiration were still,
 His soul yet felt the power of that stillness,
 Like one who prays by night and waits
 For the dawn, knowing how the light grows brighter
 Every hour till noon, and well content
 That night and morn and the hours succeeding
 Are but steps to the plenary splendour of noon.
 He was content and consoled in the thought that Allah
 Had bestowed His loving care on him,
 In the past, and so the future was sure.
 He followed the Light Divine—to help
 The helpless, to attend with patience to the call
 Of those in need, and to rehearse and proclaim
 And share the boundless Bounties of Allah!

Sūrah 93.

Al Duḥā (The Glorious Morning Light)

الجزء الثَّلَاثُونَ سُورَةُ الضُّحَى

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- وَالضُّحَى ۝

2. And by the Night⁶¹⁷⁶

٢- وَالْأَيْلِ إِذَا سَجَى ۝

3. Thy Guardian-Lord

Nor is He displeased.⁶¹⁷⁸٣- مَا وَدَّعَكَ رَبُّكَ

٤- وَلَآخِرَةُ خَيْرٌ لَّكَ مِنَ الْأُولَىٰ ۝

5. And soon will thy
Guardian-Lord give thee

٥- وَلَسَوْفَ يُعْطِيكَ رَبُّكَ

6175. The full morning light of the sun, when its splendour shines forth in contrast with the night which has passed. Cf. 91:1. The growing hours of morning light, from sunrise to noon, are the true type of the growth of spiritual life and work, while the stillness of the night is, to those who know, only a preparation for it. We are not to imagine that the stillness or quiescence of the night is wasted, or means stagnation in our spiritual life. The stillness may seem lonely, but we are not alone, nor forsaken by Allah. Nor is such preparation, without immediate visible results, a sign of Allah's displeasure.

6176. Cf. 92:1-2. There Night is mentioned first, and Day second, to enforce the lesson of contrasts: the veil of the night naturally comes first before the splendour of daylight is revealed. Here the argument is different: the growing hours of morning light are the main thing and are mentioned first; while the hours of preparation and quiescence, which are subordinate, come second.

6177. As usual, there is the particular assurance to the Holy Prophet, and the general assurance to mankind: see the Introduction to this Sūrah. The early years of the Prophet's ministry might well have seemed blank. After inspiration there were days and periods of waiting. A sense of loneliness might well have weighed on his mind. His own tribe of the Quraysh jeered at him, taunted and threatened him, and slandered and persecuted him as well as those who believe in him. But his faith was never shaken, not even to the extent of that cry of agony of Jesus: "My God! why hast Thou forsaken me?": (Mark, xvi. 34). Much less did it enter the Prophet's mind to think that Allah was angry with him, as the taunts of his enemies suggested.

6178. See last note. The more general meaning is similar. To the man who prepares for spiritual work and spiritual growth the chief thing is typified by the growing hours of the morning. He should not be discouraged, nor overcome with a sense of loneliness in his early struggles or difficulties. The end will crown his work. Allah's care is always around him. If unsympathetic or hostile critics laugh at him or taunt him with being "mad" or "old-fashioned" or "ploughing his lonely furrow", his steady faith will uphold him. He will never believe that his earnest and sincere devotion to Allah, whatever be its results in this world, can be anything but pleasing to Allah.

6179. To the truly devout man, each succeeding moment is better than the one preceding it. In this sense the "hereafter" refers not only to the Future Life after death, but also to "the soul of goodness in things" in this very life. For even though some outward trappings of this shadow world may be wanting, his soul is filled with more and more satisfaction as he goes on.

- (That wherewith) thou
Shalt be well-pleased.⁶¹⁸⁰
6. Did He not find thee⁶¹⁸¹
An orphan and give thee
Shelter (and care)?⁶¹⁸²
7. And He found thee
Wandering, and He gave
Thee guidance.⁶¹⁸³
8. And He found thee
In need, and made
Thee independent.⁶¹⁸⁴
9. Therefore treat not⁶¹⁸⁵
The orphan with harshness,

- فَرَضَى ۝
- ٦- أَلَمْ يَجِدْكَ يَتِيْمًا فَآوَى ۝
- ٧- وَوَجَدَكَ ضَالًّا
فَهَدَى ۝
- ٨- وَوَجَدَكَ عَائِلًا
فَأَغْنَى ۝
- ٩- فَامَّا الْيَتِيْمَ فَلَا تُقَهَّرْ ۝

6180. Allah's good pleasure is sure when we serve Him. But we are assured that even our feelings of doubt and suffering will vanish, and we shall have a sense of complete satisfaction, contentment, and active pleasure when our will is identified with the Will of Allah.

6181. Judge the future from the past. Allah has been good to you in your past experience: trust His goodness in the future also. Again, there is a particular and a general meaning. Three facts are taken from the Holy Prophet's outer life by way of illustration. Metaphorically they also apply to us. And further, the outer facts are themselves types for the spiritual life. See notes below.

6182. (1) There is the case of the orphan, literally and figuratively. Our Holy Prophet was himself an orphan. His father 'Abd Allah died young before the child was born, leaving no property. The Prophet's mother Āminah was in ailing health, and he was chiefly brought up by his nurse Ḥalīmah. His mother herself died when he was only six years old. His aged grandfather 'Abd al Muṭṭalib treated him as his own son, but died two years later. Thereafter his uncle Abū Ṭālib treated him as his own son. He was thus an orphan in more senses than one, and yet the love he received from each one of these persons was greater than ordinary parental love. Each one of us is an orphan in some sense or another, and yet someone's love and shelter come to us by the grace of Allah. In the spiritual world there is no father or mother: our very first sustenance and shelter must come from the grace of Allah.

6183. (2) The Holy Prophet was born in the midst of the idolatry and polytheism of Makkah, in a family which was the custodian of this false worship. He wandered in quest of Unity and found it by the guidance of Allah. There is no implication whatever of sin or error on his part. But we may err and find ourselves wandering in mazes of error, in thought, motive, or understanding: we must pray for Allah's grace ever to give us guidance.

The Arabic root ḡalla has various shades of meaning. In 1:7, I have translated it by the verb "stray". In 53:2 the Prophet is defended from the charge of being "astray" or straying in mind. In 12:8 and 12:95 Jacob's sons use the word for their aged father, to suggest that he was senile and wandering in mind. In 32:10 it is used of the dead, and I have translated it "hidden and lost" (in the earth).

6184. (3) The Holy Prophet inherited no wealth and was poor. The true, pure, and sincere love of Khadījah not only raised him above want, but made him independent of worldly needs in his later life, enabling him to devote his whole time to the service of Allah. So do we all find ourselves in some want or another, which, if we work wholeheartedly and sincerely is supplied to us by the grace of Allah. When we have found the Way, it is a laborious task to climb up in our poverty of spiritual equipment: Allah will give us spiritual riches in love and knowledge.

6185. Verses 9-11 carry on, to a step further, the triple argument of verses 6-8, as explained in the preceding notes. The Prophet treated all orphans with tender affection and respect, setting an example to his contemporaries, who frequently took advantage of the helpless position of orphans, and in any case looked upon them as subordinate creatures to be repressed and kept in their place. Such an attitude is common in all ages. Helpless creatures ought, on the contrary, to be treated as sacred trusts, whether they are orphans, or dependants, or creatures of any kind unable to assert themselves, either through age, sex, social rank, artificial conditions, or any cause whatever.

10. Nor repulse the petitioner
(Unheard);⁶¹⁸⁶

١٠- وَأَمَّا السَّائِلَ فَلَا تَنْهَرْ ۝

11. But the Bounty
Of thy Lord—
Rehearse and proclaim!⁶¹⁸⁷

١١- وَأَمَّا بِنِعْمَةِ رَبِّكَ فَحَدِّثْ ۝

6186. Then there are the people who come with petitions—who have to ask for something. They may be genuine beggars asking for financial help, or ignorant people asking for knowledge, or timid people asking for some lead or encouragement. The common attitude is to scorn them or repulse them. The scorn may be shown even when alms or assistance is given to them. Such an attitude is wrong. Charity is of no moral value without sympathy and love. Nor is it charity to give to idle sturdy professional beggars, for show or to get rid of them. They are mere parasites on society. Every petition should be examined and judged on its merits.

6187. Besides the petitioners, who ask for help, there is the case of those who do not ask but are nevertheless poor—poor but contented in worldly goods, or poor in knowledge or resources and not even knowing that they are poor. If you are bountifully endowed by Allah, your duty is to make that Bounty spread far and wide. Proclaim it and share it, as the Holy Prophet always did. Spiritually we all belong to one of these three classes in one sense or another—orphans, petitioners, and victims of poverty. We all receive Allah's grace and guidance in some degree or other. We all owe it as a duty to our fellow-men to be kind and helpful to those less endowed in any respect than ourselves.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 94 —
AL SHARH or AL INSHIRĀH

This short Sūrah gives a message of hope and encouragement in a time of darkness and difficulty. It was revealed to the Holy Prophet soon after the last Sūrah (Al Duḥā), whose argument it supplements.

C. 274. — The Prophet's mind and heart had indeed
 (94:1-8.) Been expanded and purified; the burden
 Which pressed on his soul had been removed;
 And his name exalted in this world and the next.
 For the righteous man there is no trouble
 But is linked with ease and joy: he must strive
 At every stage, and look to Allah
 Alone as the goal of all his hopes.

Sūrah 94.

Al Sharḥ or Al Inshirāḥ (The Expansion of the Breast)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Have We not
Expanded thee thy breast?⁶¹⁸⁸
2. And removed from thee
Thy burden⁶¹⁸⁹
3. The which did gall
Thy back?—
4. And raised high the esteem
(In which) thou (art held)?⁶¹⁹⁰
5. So, verily,
With every difficulty,
There is relief.⁶¹⁹¹
6. Verily, with every difficulty
There is relief.
7. Therefore, when thou art
Free (from thine immediate task),

الْجُزْءُ الثَّلَاثُونَ سُورَةُ الشَّرْحِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- أَلَمْ نَشْرَحْ لَكَ صَدْرَكَ ۖ

٢- وَوَضَعْنَا عَنْكَ وِزْرَكَ ۖ

٣- الَّذِي أَنْقَضَ ظَهْرَكَ ۖ

٤- وَرَفَعْنَا لَكَ ذِكْرَكَ ۖ

٥- فَإِنَّ مَعَ الْعُسْرِ يُسْرًا ۖ

٦- إِنَّ مَعَ الْعُسْرِ يُسْرًا ۖ

٧- فَإِذَا فَرَغْتَ

6188. Cf. the prayer of Moses in 20:25. The breast is symbolically the seat of knowledge and the highest feelings of love and affection, the treasure house in which are stored the jewels of that quality of human character which approaches nearest to the divine. The Holy Prophet's human nature had been purified, expanded, and elevated, so that he became a Mercy to all Creation. Such a nature could afford to ignore the lower motives of ordinary humanity which caused shameful attacks to be made on him. Its strength and courage could also bear the burden of the galling work which it had to do in denouncing sin, subduing it, and protecting Allah's creatures from its oppression.

6189. See last note. It is indeed a grievous and galling burden for a man to fight single-handed against sin. But Allah sends His grace and aid, and that burden is removed, or converted into joy and triumph in the service of the One True God.

6190. The Prophet's virtues, the magnanimity of his character, and his love for mankind were fully recognised even in his lifetime, and his name stands highest among the heroic leaders of mankind. The phrase used is more comprehensive in meaning than that used for various prophets in 37:119 etc.: "We left this blessing for them among generations to come in later times".

6191. This verse is repeated for extra emphasis. Whatever difficulties or troubles are encountered by men, Allah always provides a solution, a way out, a relief, a way to lead to ease and happiness, if we only follow His Path and show our Faith by patience and well-doing. The solution or relief does not merely come after the Difficulty: it is provided with it. I understand the definite article in al 'usr in a generic sense, and translate: "every difficulty". In 92:7, I have translated Yusr as Bliss, and in 92:10 'Usr as Misery.

Still labour hard,⁶¹⁹²

8. And to thy Lord
Turn (all) thy attention.⁶¹⁹³

فَانْصَبْ ۝

۝-وَالِى رَّبِّكَ فَارْغَبْ ۝

6192. When thou art free: or when thou art relieved. The words understood may be: from thy immediate task, that of preaching to men, denouncing sin, and encouraging righteousness; or, from the difficulties that confronted thee. When that happens, that does not finish the labours of the man of Allah. It is only one step to them. He has constantly and insistently to go on. When there is rest from the task of instructing the world, the contact with the spiritual kingdom continues, and indeed it becomes more intimate and concentrated.

6193. The kingdom of Allah is everything. Other things are incidental, and really do not matter. Worldly greatness or success may be a means to an end, but it may also be a hindrance to true spiritual greatness. Allah is the goal of the righteous man's whole attention and desire.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 95—AL TĪN

This is also a very early Sūrah. It appeals to the most sacred symbols to show that Allah created man in the best of moulds, but that man is capable of the utmost degradation unless he has Faith and leads a good life. In subject matter this Sūrah closely resembles S. 103.

C. 275. — Nature and history and the Light of Revelation,
(95:1-8.) Through the ages, show that man,
Created by Allah in the best of moulds,
Can yet fall to the lowest depths, unless
He lives a life of faith and righteousness.
Then will he reach his goal: if not,
He must stand his Judgement—none can doubt—
Before the wisest and justest of Judges.

Sūrah 95.

Al Tīn (The Fig)*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. By the Fig⁶¹⁹⁴
And the Olive,⁶¹⁹⁵

2. And the Mount
Of Sinai,⁶¹⁹⁶

3. And this City⁶¹⁹⁷
Of security—⁶¹⁹⁸

الجزء الثَّلَاثُونَ سُورَةُ التِّينِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- وَالتِّينِ وَالزَّيْتُونِ ۝

٢- وَطُورِ سَيْنَاءَ ۝

٣- وَهَذَا الْبَلَدِ الْأَمِينِ ۝

6194. The substantive proposition is in verse 4-8, and it is clinched by an appeal to four sacred symbols. viz., the Fig, the Olive, Mount Sinai, and the sacred City of Makkah. About the precise interpretation of the first two symbols, and especially of the symbol of the Fig, there is much difference of opinion. If we take the Fig literally to refer to the fruit or the tree, it can stand as a symbol of man's destiny in many ways. Under cultivation it can be one of the finest, most delicious, and most wholesome fruits in existence: in its wild state, it is nothing but tiny seeds, and is insipid, and often full of worms and maggots. So man at his best has a noble destiny: at his worst, he is "the lowest of the low". Christ is said to have cursed a fig tree for having only leaves, and not producing fruit (Matt. xxi. 18-29), enforcing the same lesson. There is also a parable of the fig tree in Matt. xxiv. 32-35. See also the parable of the good and evil figs in Jeremiah, xxiv. 1-10. But see n. 6198 below.

6195. For the sacred symbolism of the Olive, see n. 2880 to 23:20, and notes 3000-3002 to 24:35, where the parable of Allah's Light includes a reference to the Olive. But it is possible that the Olive here refers to the Mount of Olives, just outside the walls of the City of Jerusalem (see n. 5038 to 52:2), for this is the scene in the Gospel story (Matt. xxiv. 3-4) of Christ's description of the Judgement to come.

6196. This was the Mountain on which the Law was given to Moses. See 19:52, and n. 2504. The Law was given, and the glory of Allah was made visible. But did Israel faithfully obey the Law thereafter?

6197. "This City of security" is undoubtedly Makkah. Even in Pagan times its sacred character was respected, and no fighting was allowed in its territory. But the same City, with all its sacred associations, persecuted the greatest of the Prophets and gave itself up for a time to idolatry and sin, thus presenting the contrast of the best and the worst.

6198. Having discussed the four symbols in detail, let us consider them together. It is clear that they refer to Allah's Light or Revelation, which offers man the highest destiny if he will follow the Way. Makkah stands for Islam, Sinai for Israel, and the Mount of Olives for Christ's original and pure Message. It has been suggested that the Fig stands for the Ficus Indica, the Bo-tree, under which Gautama Buddha obtained Nirvana. I hesitate to adopt the suggestion, but if accepted it would cover pristine Buddhism and the ancient Vedic religions from which it was an offshoot. In this way all the great religions of the world would be indicated. But even if we refer the Fig and the Olive to the symbolism in their fruit, and not to any particular religion, the contrast of Best and Worst in man's destiny remains, and that is the main thing.

This raises a doctrinal question of considerable importance: how does Islam view the ancient vedic religions and Buddhism, or for that matter, any other religion? As Muslims we are not in a position to affirm whether Budha was a prophet or not. Although the Qur'ān states that Allah sent Prophets to every people (90:78), it does not mention the names of all of them. In fact it mentions by name relatively few of the Prophets of the semitic tradition, or only such as with whom its first audience, the Arabs were generally familiar. As to its present form, we find the doctrines of Buddhism clearly at variance with monotheism and cardinal Principles of the True Religion as explained in the Qur'ān. This may have been the result of distortion or loss by the followers of its original teachings.

As a general rule, we cannot describe anyone as a Prophet or Messenger of Allah unless explicitly mentioned in the Qur'ān, or Ḥadīth. The Message as brought by Prophet Muḥammad preserves in itself all that was essential in the earlier revelations or scriptures: it abrogates all the previous messages sent through earlier Prophets (3:85). (R).

4. We have indeed created man
In the best of moulds,⁶¹⁹⁹

٢-لَقَدْ خَلَقْنَا الْإِنْسَانَ فِي أَحْسَنِ تَقْوِيمٍ

5. Then do We abase him
(To be) the lowest
Of the low—⁶²⁰⁰

٥-ثُمَّ رَدَدْنَاهُ أَسْفَلَ سَافِلِينَ ۝

6. Except such as believe
And do righteous deeds:
For they shall have
A reward unfailing.

٧-إِلَّا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
فَلَهُمْ أَجْرٌ غَيْرُ مَمْنُونٍ ۝

7. Then what can,
After this, contradict thee,⁶²⁰¹
As to the Judgement
(To come)?

٨-فَمَا يَكْذِبُكَ
بَعْدُ بِالدِّينِ ۝

8. Is not Allah
The wisest of Judges?⁶²⁰²

٨-أَلَيْسَ اللَّهُ بِأَحْكَمِ الْحَاكِمِينَ ۝

6199. Taqwīm: mould, symmetry, form, nature, constitution. There is no fault in Allah's creation. To man Allah gave the purest and best nature, and man's duty is to preserve the pattern on which Allah has made him: 30:30. But by making him His vicegerent, Allah exalted him in posse even higher than the angels, for the angels had to make obeisance to him (2:30-34, and n. 48). But man's position as vicegerent also gives him will and discretion, and if he uses them wrongly he falls even lower than the beasts. See next note.

6200. This verse should be read with the next. If man rebels against Allah, and follows after evil, he will be abased to the lowest possible position. For Judgement is sure. Those who use their faculties aright and follow Allah's Law will reach the high and noble destiny intended for them. That reward will not be temporary, but unfailing.

6201. Thee: may refer to the Holy Prophet, or to man collectively. After this: i.e., when it is clearly shown to you that Allah created man true and pure, that He guides him, and that those who rebel and break His law will be punished and brought down in the Hereafter, who can doubt this, or contradict the Prophet when he gives warning?

6202. Allah is wise and just. Therefore the righteous have nothing to fear, but the evil ones cannot escape punishment.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 96—AL 'ALAQ or IQRA'

Verses 1-5 of this Sūrah were the first direct Revelation to the Holy Prophet. The circumstances, material and psychical, in which they came, are described in C. 28-30, which should be referred to.

After that there was an interval or break (Fatrah), extending over some months or perhaps over a year. S. 68 is usually considered to have been the next revelation in point of time. But the remainder of this Sūrah (96:6-19) came soon after the Fatrah, and that portion is joined on to the first five verses containing the command to preach, because it explains the chief obstacle to the delivery of the message to man, viz.: man's own obstinacy, vanity, and insolence.

C. 276.—Noble is the mission of the Prophet, selected
 (96:1-19.) To proclaim the Message of Allah, the Lord
 And Cherisher of all His Creation, Whose measureless
 Bounties include the instruction of man
 In new and ever new knowledge. But alas
 For man! he fancies himself self-sufficient,
 Turns away from the Path, and misleads others.
 But nothing is hidden from Allah. He will bring
 All untruth and sin and rebellion to Judgement,
 And subdue all evil. The righteous bow
 In adoration to Allah, and draw closer to Him.

Sūrah 96.

Al 'Alaq (The Clinging Clot) or
Iqra' (Read!)

الجزء الثالثون سورة العلق

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. Proclaim! (or Read!)⁶²⁰³
In the name⁶²⁰⁴
Of thy Lord and Cherisher,

٣- اقْرَأْ وَرَبُّكَ الْأَكْرَمُ ۝

4. He Who taught
(The use of) the Pen—⁶²⁰⁶

٤- الَّذِي عَلَّمَ بِالْقَلَمِ ۝

6203. Iqra' may mean "read", or "recite or rehearse", or "proclaim aloud", the object understood being Allah's Message. For an account of the circumstances in which this first revelation—the divine commission to preach and proclaim Allah's Message came to the Holy Prophet, in the cave of Hira', see C. 27-31. In worldly letters he was unversed, but with spiritual knowledge his mind and soul were filled, and now had come the time when he must stand forth to the world and declare his mission.

6204. The declaration or proclamation was to be in the name of Allah the Creator. It was not for any personal benefit to the Prophet: to him there was to come bitter persecution, sorrow, and suffering. It was the call of Allah for the benefit of erring humanity. Allah is mentioned by his title of "thy Lord and Cherisher", to establish a direct nexus between the source of the Message and the one addressed. The Message was not merely an abstract proposition of philosophy, but the direct concrete message of a personal Allah to the creatures whom He loves and cherishes. Thy addressed to the Prophet is appropriate in two ways: (1) he was in direct contact with the divine Messenger (Gabriel) and Him Who sent the Messenger; (2) he represented the whole of humanity, in a fuller sense than that in which Christ Jesus is the "Son of Man".

6206. The symbol of a permanent revelation is the mystic Pen and the mystic Record. See n. 5593 to 68:1.

The Arabic words for "teach" and "knowledge" are from the same root. It is impossible to produce in a Translation the complete orchestral harmony of the words for "read", "teach", "pen" (which implies reading, writing, books, study, research), "knowledge" (including science, self knowledge, spiritual understanding), and "proclaim", an alternative meaning of the word for "to read". This proclaiming or reading implies not only the duty of blazoning forth Allah's message, as going with the prophetic office, but also the duty of promulgation and wide dissemination of the Truth by all who read and understand it. The comprehensive meaning of qara' refers not only to a particular person and occasion but also gives a universal direction. And this kind of comprehensive meaning, as we have seen, runs throughout the Qur'ān—for those who will understand.

6207. Allah teaches us new knowledge at every given moment. Individuals learn more and more day by day; nations and humanity at large learn fresh knowledge at every stage. This is even more noticeable and important in the spiritual world.

6208. All our knowledge and capacities come as gifts from Allah. But man, in his inordinate vanity and insolence, mistakes Allah's gifts for his own achievements. The gifts may be strength or beauty, wealth, position, or power, or the more subtle gifts of knowledge or talents in individuals—or Science, or Art, or Government, or Organisation for mankind in general.

6209. Man is not self-sufficient, either as an individual, or in his collective capacity. If he arrogates Allah's gifts to himself, he is reminded—backwards, of his lowly physical origin (from a drop of animal matter), and forwards, of his responsibility and final return to Allah.

6210. The words, may be applied generally to perverse humanity, which seeks not only to rebel against Allah's Law, but also to prevent others from following it. There may however be a reference here to Abū Jahl, an inveterate enemy of Islam, who used, in its early days, to insult and persecute the Holy Prophet and those who followed his teaching. He used, in particular, to use shameful methods to prevent the Prophet from going to the Ka'bah for devotions, and forbid any who came under his influence, from offering prayers or performing devotions. He was arrogant and purse-proud and met his end in the battle of Badr.

6211. Man's insolence leads to two results: (1) self-destruction through self-misleading; (2) a false example or false guidance to others. The righteous man must therefore test human example or human guidance by the question, "Is there Allah's guidance behind it?" And visible light would be thrown on it by the question, "Does it lead to righteousness?" A flouting of Allah and Allah's truth answers the first question in the negative, and conduct which turns back from the eternal principles of Right answers the second.

6212. The usual trick of the ungodly is to refuse to face Truth. If they are placed in a corner, they deny what is obvious to reasonable men, and turn their backs.

14. Knoweth he not
That Allah doth see?

۱۴- أَلَمْ يَعْلَم بِأَنَّ اللَّهَ يَرَى ۝

15. Let him beware! If he Desist not, We will
Drag him by the forelock — 6213

۱۵- كَلَّا لَئِنْ لَمْ يَنْتَهِ ۚ
لَنَسْفَعًا بِالنَّاصِيَةِ ۝

16. A lying, sinful forelock!

۱۶- نَاصِيَةٍ كَاذِبَةٍ خَاطِئَةٍ ۝

17. Then, let him call
(For help) to his council⁶²¹⁴
(Of comrades):

۱۷- فَلْيَدْعُ نَادِيَهُ ۝

18. We will call
On the angels of punishment
(To deal with him)!⁶²¹⁵

۱۸- سَنَدْعُ الزَّبَانِيَةَ ۝

19. Nay, heed him not:
But bow down in adoration,
And bring thyself
The closer (to Allah)!⁶²¹⁶

۱۹- كَلَّا لَا تَطِعْهُ
وَاسْجُدْ وَاقْتَرِبْ ۝

6213. Cf. 11:56, and n. 1551. The forelock is on the forehead, and is thus symbolical of the summit and crown of the man's power or dignity. To be dragged by it is to suffer the lowest dregs of humiliation. Nasfa'an is a syncopated form of the emphatic first person plural.

6214. The Pagan Quraysh, who formed an oppressive junta or council to manage the Ka'bah were in sympathy with Abū Jahl, though they did not go to the unbridled lengths to which Abū Jahl went. But they could not, all combined, resist the onward march of the divine mission, though they did all they could to check it.

6215. All the combined forces of evil, though they may have worldly appearances in their favour, and though they may seem to be successful for a time, cannot stand against Allah. He has but to command His forces of punishment to exert themselves, and they will subdue evil, protect Allah's votaries and justify the faith for which the votaries suffer.

6216. The righteous man has no fear. He can disregard all the forces of evil that are brought against him. But he must learn humility: that is his defence. He will bow down in adoration to Allah. He must have the will to bring himself closer to Allah. For Allah is always close to him,—closer to him than his life blood in the jugular vein. (50:16). Man's humility and adoration remove him from being an insolent rebel on the one hand and, on the other, prepare his will to realise his nearness to Allah.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 97—AL QADR

The chronology of this Sūrah has no significance. It is probably Makkan, though some hold that it was revealed in Madīnah.

The subject matter is the mystic Night of Power (or Honour), in which Revelation comes down to a benighted world—it may be to the wonderful Cosmos of an individual—and transforms the conflict of wrongdoing into Peace and Harmony—through the agency of the angelic host, representing the spiritual powers of the Mercy of Allah.

C. 277.—Blessed indeed is the Night of Power!—

(97:1-5.) When the Mercy of Allah's Revelation breaks through

The darkness of the human soul!

All the Powers, of the world divine,

Speed on their mystic Message of Mercy,

By Allah's command, and bless every nook

And corner of the heart! All jars

Are stilled in the reign supreme of Peace,

Until this mortal night gives place

To the glorious day of an immortal world!

Sūrah 97.

Al Qadr (The Night of Power or Honour)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. We have indeed revealed
This (Message)
In the Night of Power:⁶²¹⁷
2. And what will explain
To thee what the Night
Of Power is?
3. The Night of Power
Is better than
A thousand Months.⁶²¹⁸
4. Therein come down
The angels and the Spirit⁶²¹⁹
By Allah's permission,
On every errand:
5. Peace! . . . This
Until the rise of Morn!⁶²²⁰

الجزء الثالثون سُورَةُ الْقَدْرِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَاهُ فِي لَيْلَةِ الْقَدْرِ ۝

۲- وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا لَيْلَةُ الْقَدْرِ ۝

۳- لَيْلَةُ الْقَدْرِ خَيْرٌ مِّنْ أَلْفِ شَهْرٍ ۝

۴- تَنْزِيلُ الْمَلَكِ وَالرُّوحِ
فِيهَا يَأْذِنُ رَبُّهُمْ مِّنْ كُلِّ أَمْرٍ ۝

۵- سَلَامٌ هِيَ حَتَّىٰ مَطْلَعِ الْفَجْرِ ۝

6217. Cf. 44:3 and n. 4690. The 23rd, 25th or 27th night of Ramādān, as well as other nights, have been suggested as the Night of Power. See, however, the Introduction to this Sūrah. It is best to take this in the mystic sense, which also accords with verse 3 below, which says that the Night of Power is better than a thousand Months. It transcends Time: for it is Allah's Power dispelling the Darkness of Ignorance, by His Revelation, in every kind of affair. (R).

6218. "A thousand" must be taken in an indefinite sense, as denoting a very long period of time. Cf. notes 3632 and 3634 to 32:4-5, and n. 5678 to 70:4. This does not refer to our ideas of time, but to "timeless Time". One moment of enlightenment under Allah's Light is better than thousands of months or years of animal life, and such a moment converts the night of darkness into a period of spiritual glory.

6219. The Spirit: usually understood to be the angel Gabriel, the Spirit of Inspiration. (R).

6220. When the Night of spiritual darkness is dissipated by the glory of Allah, a wonderful Peace and a sense of Security arise in the soul. And this lasts on until this life closes, and the glorious Day of the new spiritual world dawns, when everything will be on a different plane, and the chequered nights and days of this world will be even less than a dream.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 98—AL BAYYINAH

This Sūrah was probably an early Madīnah Sūrah, or possibly a late Makkan Sūrah.

In subject matter it carries forward the argument of the last Sūrah. The mystic night of revelation is indeed blessed: but those who reject Truth are impervious to Allah's Message, however clear may be the evidence in support of it.

C. 278. — But those who reject the light of Truth
 (98:1-8.) Are obstinate. Why should they persist
 In evil ways when the Clear Evidence
 Has come before them? The straight Religion
 Is simple: to adore with a pure heart
 The God of Truth, to draw nigh to Him
 In Prayer sincere, and to serve
 Our fellow-creatures in charity and love.
 To do aught else is to fall from Grace.
 But Faith and Good Life lead straight to the Goal—
 The beauteous Gardens of Bliss Eternal,
 And the mutual good pleasure of the Soul in her Lord.

Sūrah 98.

Al Bayyinah (The Clear Evidence)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Those who reject (Truth),
Among the People of the Book⁶²²¹
And among the Polytheists,⁶²²²
Were not going to depart
(From their ways) until
There should come to them
Clear Evidence—⁶²²³

2. A messenger from Allah,
Rehearsing scriptures⁶²²⁴
Kept pure and Holy:⁶²²⁵

3. Wherein are laws (or decrees)
Right and straight.⁶²²⁶

4. Nor did the People
Of the Book
Make schisms,⁶²²⁷
Until after there came
To them Clear Evidence.

الجزء الثامن سُوْرَةُ الْبَيِّنَاتِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- لَمْ يَكُنِ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ
وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ مُنْقَلَبِينَ
حَتَّى تَأْتِيَهُمُ الْبَيِّنَةُ ۝

۲- رَسُولٌ مِنَ اللَّهِ
يَتْلُوا صُحُفًا مُطَهَّرَةً ۝

۳- فِيهَا كُتِبَ قِيمَةٌ ۝

۴- وَمَا تَفَرَّقَ الَّذِينَ الَّذِينَ أُوْتُوا الْكِتَابَ إِلَّا
مِنْ بَعْدِ مَا جَاءَتْهُمْ الْبَيِّنَةُ ۝

6221. The People of the Book immediately referred to are the Jews and the Christians, who had received scriptures in the same line of prophecy in which came our Holy Prophet. Their scriptures should have prepared them for the advent of the greatest and last of the Prophets. For the Jewish scriptures promised to the Jews, cousins or brethren to the Arabs, a prophet like Moses: "The Lord thy God will raise up unto thee a Prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him ye shall hearken" (Deut. xviii. 15). And Christ promised a Comforter (John, xiv. 16; xv. 26; and xvi. 7; see my n. 5438 to 61:6) almost by name. The People of the Book fell from the true, straight, and standard religion, into devious ways, and would not come to the true Path until (they said) they were convinced by the arrival of the promised Prophet. But when the promised Prophet came in the person of Muḥammad, they rejected him, because they really did not seek for Truth but only followed their own fancies and desires.

6222. The Polytheists, the Pagans, had not previously believed in any scriptures. But yet, when clear evidence came to them, they should have believed. Yet they rejected the Holy Prophet because they were not really searching for Truth, but were only following their own fancies and desires.

6223. The Clear Evidence was the Holy Prophet himself, his life, his personality, and his teaching.

6224. Cf. 2:151.

6225. Cf. 80:13-16.

6226. Qayyimah: straight, as opposed to crooked; standard as opposed to irregular; definite and permanent, as opposed to casual or temporary. Cf. 9:36; 12:40; etc.

6227. The responsibility of the People of the Book is greater than that of Pagans, because the People of the Book had been prepared for the standard and straight Religion by the revelations which they had already received. Yet, when the clear evidence came in Islam, they resisted it. And what is this standard and straight Religion, free of all ambiguity, and free of all casual rights and ceremonies? They are summed up in three eternal principles, as explained in the next verse and the next note.

5. And they have been commanded
No more than this:⁶²²⁸
To worship Allah,
Offering Him sincere devotion,
Being True (in faith);⁶²²⁹
To establish regular Prayer;
And to practise regular Charity;
And that is the Religion
Right and Straight.⁶²³⁰

هـ- وَمَا أُمِرُوا إِلَّا
لِيَعْبُدُوا اللَّهَ مُخْلِصِينَ لَهُ الدِّينَ ۚ
حَقَّاءَ وَيُقِيمُوا الصَّلَاةَ
وَيُؤْتُوا الزَّكَاةَ
وَذَلِكَ دِينُ الْقَيِّمَةِ ۝

6. Those who reject (Truth),
Among the People of the Book
And among the Polytheists,
Will be in Hellfire,
To dwell therein (for aye).
They are the worst
Of creatures.⁶²³¹

٦- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا
مِنْ أَهْلِ الْكِتَابِ وَالْمُشْرِكِينَ
فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا
أُولَئِكَ هُمْ شَرُّ الْبَرِيَّةِ ۝

7. Those who have faith
And do righteous deeds—
They are the best
Of creatures.⁶²³²

هـ- إِنَّ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ
أُولَئِكَ هُمْ خَيْرُ الْبَرِيَّةِ ۝

8. Their reward is with Allah:
Gardens of Eternity,
Beneath which rivers flow;
They will dwell therein
Forever; Allah well pleased
With them, and they with Him:⁶²³³
All this for such as
Fear their Lord and Cherisher.⁶²³⁴

هـ- جَزَاءُ وَّهُمْ عِنْدَ رَبِّهِمْ جَنَّاتُ عَدْنٍ
تَجْرِي مِنْ تَحْتِهَا الْأَنْهَارُ خَالِدِينَ فِيهَا
أَبَدًا رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمْ وَرَضُوا عَنْهُ
ذَلِكَ لِمَنْ خَشِيَ رَبَّهُ ۝

6228. The three eternal principles of Religion are: (1) sincere devotion to Allah; (2) Prayer and Praise as drawing man nearer to Allah and to the spiritual world; and (3) the service of Allah's creatures by deeds of practical charity.

6229. Hanīf: see n. 134 to 2:135.

6230. See n. 6226 above.

6231. To be given the faculty of discrimination between right and wrong, and then to reject truth and right, is the worst folly which a creature endowed with will can commit. It must necessarily bring its own punishment, whether the creature calls himself one of the children of Abraham or one of the redeemed of Christ, or whether he goes by the mere light of nature and reason as a Pagan. Honour in the sight of Allah is not due to race or professions of faith, but to sincere and righteous conduct (49:13).

6232. Contrast this with the preceding verse. Human beings who live a life of faith and good deed justify the purpose of their probation here. They attain the fulfillment of their highest hopes. (R).

6233. The Good Pleasure of Allah is the final Bliss of Salvation. The good pleasure is mutual; the truly saved is he whose will has become completely identified with Allah's Universal Will. (R).

6234. The fear of Allah is the fear to offend against His Holy Law, the fear to do anything which is against His Holy Will. Such fear is akin to love; for with it dawns the consciousness of Allah's loving care for all His creatures.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 99—AL ZALZALAH

This Sūrah is close in date to the last: it is generally referred to the early Madīnah period, though it may possibly be of the late Makkan period.

It refers to the tremendous convulsion and uprooting which will take place when the present order of the world is dissolved and the new spiritual world of Justice and Truth takes its place. The symbol used is that of an earthquake which will shake our present material and phenomenal world to its very foundations. The mystic words in which the earthquake is described are remarkable for both power and graphic aptness. With that shaking all hidden mysteries will be brought to light.

C. 279. — The Hour of Judgement must needs be heralded
 (99:1-8.) By a mighty Convulsion: the Earth will give up
 Her secrets and tell her tale of all
 Man's doings: men will march in companies
 And clearly see the inwardness
 Of all their Deeds: not an atom of Good
 Or Evil done, but will be shown
 In the final Account of men convinced.

Sūrah 99.

Al Zalzalah (The Earthquake)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. ~~When~~ When the Earth is Shaken to its (utmost) convulsion, ⁶²³⁵
2. And the Earth throws up
Its burdens (from within), ⁶²³⁶
3. And man cries (distressed);
'What is the matter with it?'— ⁶²³⁷
4. On that Day will it
Declare its tidings:
5. For that thy Lord will
Have given it inspiration. ⁶²³⁸
6. On that Day will men
Proceed in companies sorted out, ⁶²³⁹
To be shown the Deeds
That they (had done).

الْجُزْءُ الثَّلَاثُونَ سُورَةُ الزَّلْزَلَةِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- إِذَا زُلْزِلَتِ الْأَرْضُ زِلْزَالَهَا ۝

٢- وَأَخْرَجَتِ الْأَرْضُ أَثْقَالَهَا ۝

٣- وَقَالَ الْإِنْسَانُ مَا لَهَا ۝

٤- يَوْمَئِذٍ تُحَدِّثُ أَخْبَارَهَا ۝

٥- بِأَنَّ رَبَّكَ أَوْحَىٰ لَهَا ۝

٦- يَوْمَئِذٍ يَصْدُرُ النَّاسُ أَشْتَاتًا ۝

لِيُرَوْا أَعْمَالَهُمْ ۝

6235. To the ordinary human observer a violent earthquake is a terrifying phenomenon, in its suddenness, in its mysterious origin, and in its power to destroy and uproot the strongest buildings and to bring up strange materials from the bowels of the earth. The Overwhelming Event (S. 88) which ushers in the Judgement will be a bigger and more far-reaching convulsion than any earthquakes that we know. And yet the incidents of earthquakes may give us some idea of that supreme world-shaking Event.

6236. An earthquake, if accompanied by a volcanic eruption, throws up enormous boulders and lava from beneath the crust of the earth. They are thrown up as if they were a burden to the Earth personified. They may be all kinds of minerals, or treasures buried for secrecy. So in the great and final Convulsion, the dead who had been buried and forgotten will rise; matters and motives which had been secretly hidden and metaphorically buried will be brought to the light of day, and justice will be done in the full glare of absolute Truth.

6237. The puzzled agony suffered by the victims of violent earthquakes is as nothing compared to the experience of the new and wonderful world which will then open out to the gaze of man.

6238. The present order may be personified as the earth. It will pass away, but the Deeds done therein, even the most secret, will be brought to the full light of day. And this will be because Allah will give the Command, the inspiration or Word, by which alone all events do proceed. The "inspiration" is the Command or direction conveyed by instruction breathed into the Earth personified: it is directed to tell the whole story of what it knows. Cf. 16:68, n. 2097.

6239. In this world good and evil are mixed together. But then they will be sorted out, and each grade of good and evil will be sorted out. So they will proceed in companies to receive judgement. And they will be shown the exact import of everything that they had thought, said, or done, in this life of probation, however they may have concealed or misinterpreted it in this life. Everything will be considered in taking the account, and the account will convince the persons concerned themselves.

7. Then shall anyone who
Has done an atom's weight⁶²⁴⁰
Of good, see it!

8. And anyone who
Has done an atom's weight
Of evil, shall see it.

۞ فَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ
خَيْرًا يَرَهُ ۞

۞ وَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ مِثْقَالَ ذَرَّةٍ
شَرًّا يَرَهُ ۞

ع
۲۶

6240. Dharrah: the weight of an ant, the smallest living weight an ordinary man can think of. Figuratively the subtlest form of good and evil will then be brought to account, and it will be done openly and convincingly: he "shall see it".

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 100—AL 'ĀDIYĀT

This is one of the earlier Makkan Sūrahs. In the depth of its mystery and the rhythm and sublimity of its language and symbolism, it may be compared with S. 79. Its subject matter is the irresistible nature of spiritual power and knowledge, contrasted with unregenerate man's ingratitude, pettiness, helplessness, and ignorance.

C. 280. — There are those that fight, with eager charge,
 (100:1-11.) The hosts of evil, and storm its citadel.
 But unregenerate Man shows less
 Than gratitude for Allah's most gracious
 Bounties: his life bears witness to his treason
 And his greed. Allah's knowledge is all-embracing:
 All things hidden will be laid bare at Judgement.

Sūrah 100.

Al 'Adiyāt (Those That Run)

الجزء الثلاثون سُوْرَةُ الْعَدِيَّتِ

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. By the (Steeds)⁶²⁴¹
That run, with panting (breath),

١- وَالْعَدِيَّتِ صُبْحًا ۝

2. And strike sparks of fire,⁶²⁴²

٢- فَالْمُورِيَّتِ قَدْحًا ۝

3. And push home the charge
In the morning,⁶²⁴³

٣- فَالْمُغِيرَتِ صُبْحًا ۝

4. And raise the dust
In clouds the while,⁶²⁴⁴

٤- فَأَكْثَرْنَ بِهِ نَفْعًا ۝

5. And penetrate forthwith
Into the midst (of the foe)
En masse — ⁶²⁴⁵

٥- فَوَسَطْنَ بِهِ جَنًّا ۝

6. Truly Man is,
To his Lord,⁶²⁴⁶
Ungrateful;

٦- إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لِرَبِّهِ لَكَنُودٌ ۝

6241. The substantive proposition is in verses 6-8 below, and the metaphors and symbols enforcing the lesson are in verses 1-5 here. These symbols have at least three layers of mystic meaning: (1) Look at the chargers (mares or swift camels) panting for war on behalf of their masters. Off they go, striking fire with their hoofs by night at the behest of their riders; they push home the charge in the morning, chivalrously giving the enemy the benefit of daylight; and regardless of flashing steel or the weapons of their enemies they boldly penetrate into the midst of their foe, risking their lives for the Cause. Does unregenerate man show that fidelity to his Lord Allah? On the contrary he is ungrateful to Allah; he shows that by his deeds; he is violently in love with wealth and gain and things that perish. (2) By the figure of metonymy the brave fidelity of the war horse may stand for that of the brave and true men who rally to the standard of Allah and carry it to victory, contrasted with the poltroonery and pettiness of unregenerate man. (3) The whole conflict, fighting, and victory, may be applied to spiritual warfare against those who are caught and overwhelmed by the camp of Evil.

6242. With their hoofs. If we suppose the march to be in the dead of night, the sparks of fire would be still more conspicuous.

6243. We may suppose a surprise attack, but yet a chivalrous attack by daylight. The foe is punished through his own lethargy and unpreparedness, apart from the strength, fire, and spirit of the forces of righteousness.

6244. The clouds of dust typify the ignorance and confusion in the minds of those who oppose Truth.

6245. The forces of evil mass themselves for strength, but their massing itself may become a means of their speedy undoing.

6246. Man, i.e., unregenerate man, in contrast to those who receive guidance and wage unceasing war with Evil, is ungrateful to his Lord and Cherisher, Him Who created him and sustains him, and sends His blessings and favours at all times. The ingratitude may be shown by thoughts, words, and deeds — by forgetting or denying Allah and His goodness, by misusing His gifts, or by injustice to His creatures. He is in this respect worse than the war horse that risks his life in the service of his master.

7. And to that (fact)
He bears witness
(By his deeds);⁶²⁴⁷
8. And violent is he
In his love of wealth.⁶²⁴⁸
9. Does he not know—
When that which is
In the graves is

6247. Man himself, by his conduct, proves the charge of treason against himself.

6248. What an evil choice he makes in committing treason against his own Benefactor by going after the petty baubles of this world's wealth of fleeting gains?

6249. Dead bodies, secret plots, evil thoughts and imaginings, long since buried, will yet stand forth before the Judgement Seat of Allah. Instead of being closely hidden or blotted out—as they will have been from the consciousness of mankind—they will stand out as from the consciousness of Allah, which is all-embracing and never suffers from sleep or fatigue.

6250. Allah's knowledge is full and vigilant at all times. But on that day it will reveal to men secrets which they had long forgotten; for the Book of their Deeds will be made manifest at Judgement.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 101—AL QĀRI'AH

This Makkan Sūrah describes the Judgement Day as the Day of Clamour, when men will be distracted and the landmarks of this world will be lost, but every deed will be weighed in a just balance, and find its real value and setting.

C. 281. — How will the senses of man stand the Noise
 (101:1-11.) And Clamour of the great Day of Account,
 Whereon this life's old landmarks will vanish,
 And men will be helpless like scattered moths?
 Nay, but a Balance of Justice will weigh
 And appraise all Deeds: and those whose good
 Will show substance and weight will achieve a Life
 Of good pleasure and satisfaction, while those Whose good will be light will find themselves,
 Alas, in a blazing Pit of Punishment.

Sūrah 101.

Al Qāri'ah (The Great Calamity)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

Noise and Clamour:⁶²⁵¹
2. What is the (Day)
Of Noise and Clamour?
3. And what will explain
To thee what the (Day)
Of Noise and Clamour is?
4. (It is) a Day whereon
Men will be like moths
Scattered about,⁶²⁵²
5. And the mountains
Will be like carded wool.⁶²⁵³
6. Then, he whose
Balance (of good deeds)⁶²⁵⁴
Will be (found) heavy,

الجزء الثامن سُوْرَةُ الْقَارِعَةِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- الْقَارِعَةُ ۞

٢- مَا الْقَارِعَةُ ۞

٣- وَمَا أَدْرَاكَ مَا الْقَارِعَةُ ۞

٤- يَوْمَ يَكُونُ النَّاسُ
كَالْفَرَّاشِ الْمُبْتُوثِ ۞

٥- وَتَكُونُ الْجِبَالُ كَالْعِهْنِ الْمَنْفُوشِ ۞

٦- فَأَمَّا مَنْ ثَقُلَتْ مَوَازِينُهُ ۞

6251. The Day of Noise and Clamour is the Day of Judgement, when the whole of the present order of things will be overthrown with a tremendous convulsion. Cf. n. 6235 to 99:1, and n. 6096 to 88. All our present landmarks will be lost. It will be a stunning experience to begin with, but it will inaugurate a new world of true and permanent values, in which every human deed will have its true and just consequences, as if weighed in the balance. See verses 6-11 below.

6252. Moths are frail light things. To see them scattered about in a violent storm gives some idea of the confusion, distress, and helplessness in which men will be at first overwhelmed on the Day of Account. Old memories will be like a book almost blotted out. New hopes will be vague in a new world just rising on the horizon. But it will be a perfectly just world, and no good action will be lost and no evil one but will have its compensating value estimated.

6253. Cf. n. 5682 to 70:9. The mountains are solid things, which seem as if nothing could move them. But in that tremendous cataclysm they will be scattered about like flakes of teased or carded wool. This is a metaphor to show that what we consider very substantial in this life will be as an airy nothing in the spiritual world.

6254. The Good Deeds will be weighed and appraised. This appraisalment will be of the nicest and justest kind: for it will take into account motives, temptations, provocations, surrounding conditions, antecedents, subsequent amends, and all possible connected circumstances. Against them, presumably, will be deeds of the opposite kind, appraised in the same way. If the good predominates, the judgement will be in the man's favour, and he will be ushered into a life of good pleasure and satisfaction. This will of course be on another plane. (R).

7. Will be in a Life
Of good pleasure and satisfaction.⁶²⁵⁵
8. But he whose
Balance (of good deeds)
Will be (found) light—
9. Will have his home
In a (bottomless) Pit.⁶²⁵⁶
10. And what will explain
To Thee what this is?
11. (It is) a Fire
Blazing fiercely!

٠-فَهُوَ فِي عِيشَةٍ رَاضِيَةٍ ۝

٠-وَأَمَّا مَنْ خَفَّتْ مَوَازِينُهُ ۝

٠-فَأُمُّهُ هَاوِيَةٌ ۝

٠-وَمَا أَذْرَبِكَ مَاهِيَةٌ ۝

٠-نَارٌ حَامِيَةٌ ۝

6255. Cf. 98:8, and n. 6233, but perhaps the Bliss is not of the same grade for all men. In every case it is bliss, but bliss suited to the particular nature of the individual concerned.

6256. Just as grades of bliss are indicated for the righteous, so apparently we are to understand grades of punishment suited to the sins of the individual sinners concerned.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 102—AL TAKĀTHUR

This probably early Makkan Sūrah gives a warning against acquisitiveness, i.e., the passion for piling up quantities or numbers, whether in the good things of this world, or in manpower or in other forms of megalomania, which leave no time or opportunity for pursuing the higher things of life.

C. 282. — Be not engrossed in things ephemeral,
(102:1-8.) To the neglect of higher things in life.
Life is but short, and Death will soon claim you.
Oh that men would only learn,
Before it is too late, the serious
Issues of the higher life! They must
Taste the consequences of their neglect.
For every good enjoyed they must
In the Hereafter give a strict account.

Sūrah 102.

Al Takāthur (The Piling Up)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. The mutual rivalry
For piling up (the good things
Of this world) diverts you⁶²⁵⁷
(From the more serious things),

2. Until ye visit the graves.⁶²⁵⁸

3. But nay, ye soon shall
Know (the reality).

4. Again, ye soon shall know!

5. Nay, were ye to know
With certainty of mind,⁶²⁵⁹
(Ye would beware!)

6. Ye shall certainly see
Hellfire!⁶²⁶⁰

7. Again, ye shall see it
With certainty of sight!

الجزء الثامن سورة التكاثر

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- اَلْهَيْكُمُ
التَّكَاثُرُ

٢- حَتَّى زُرْتُمُ الْمَقَابِرَ

٣- كَلَّا سَوْفَ تَعْلَمُونَ

٤- ثُمَّ كَلَّا سَوْفَ تَعْلَمُونَ

٥- كَلَّا لَوْ تَعْلَمُونَ عِلْمَ الْيَقِينِ

٦- لَكُرْهُنَّ الْجَحِيمِ

٧- ثُمَّ لَكُرْهُنَّ عَيْنَ الْيَقِينِ

6257. Acquisitiveness, that is, the passion for seeking an increase in wealth, position, the number of adherents or followers or supporters, mass production and mass organisation, may affect an individual as such, or it may affect whole societies or nations. Other people's example or rivalry in such things may aggravate the situation. Up to a certain point it may be good and necessary. But when it becomes inordinate and monopolises attention, it leaves no time for higher things in life, and a clear warning is here sounded from a spiritual point of view. Man may be engrossed in these things till death approaches, and he looks back on a wasted life, as far as the higher things are concerned.

6258. That is, until the time comes when you must lie down in the graves and leave the pomp and circumstance of an empty life. The true Reality will then appear before you. Why not try to strive for a little understanding of that Reality in this very life?

6259. Three kinds of yaqīn (certainty of knowledge) are described in n. 5673 to 69:51. The first is certainty of mind or inference mentioned here: we hear from someone, or we infer from something we know: this refers to our own state of mind. If we instruct our minds in this way, we should value the deeper things of life better, and not waste all our time in ephemeral things. But if we do not use our reasoning faculties now, we shall yet see with our own eyes, the Penalty for our sins. It will be certainty of sight. We shall see Hell. See next verse. But the absolute certainty of assured Truth is that described in 69:51. That is not liable to any human error or psychological defect.

6260. See 19:71-72, and n. 2518.

8. Then, shall ye be Questioned that Day
About the joy⁶²⁶¹
(Ye indulged in!)

ثُمَّ لَتُسْأَلُنَّ يَوْمَئِذٍ عَنِ النَّعِيمِ ۝

6261. We shall be questioned, i.e., we shall be held responsible for every kind of joy we indulge in—whether it was false pride or delight in things of no value, or things evil, or the enjoyment of things legitimate—the last, to see whether we kept this within reasonable bounds.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 103—AL ‘AṢR

This early Makkan Sūrah refers to the testimony of Time through the Ages. All history shows that Evil came to an evil end. But Time is always in favour of those who have Faith, live clean and pure lives, and know how to wait, in patience and constancy. Cf. the theme of S. 95.

C. 283. — Waste not, nor misuse, your life. Time
(103:1-3.) Through the Ages bears witness that nothing remains
But Faith and Good Deeds, and the teaching of Truth
And the teaching of Patience and Constancy.
But for these, Man against Time is in loss!

ع

6262. Al 'Aṣr may mean: (1) Time through the Ages, or long periods, in which case it comes near to the abstract idea of Time, Dahr, which was sometimes deified by the Pagan Arabs (see Introduction to S. 76.); (2) or the late afternoon, from which the Aṣr canonical prayer takes its name (see n. 271 to 2:238). A mystic use of both these ideas is understood here. An appeal is made to Time as one of the creations of Allah, of which everyone knows something but of which no one can fully explain the exact significance. Time searches out and destroys everything material. No one in secular literature has expressed the tyranny of "never-resting Time" better than Shakespeare in his Sonnets. For example, see Sonnets 5 ("never-resting Time"), 12 ("Nothing 'gainst Time's scythe can make defense"), and 64 ("When I have seen by Time's fell hand defaced, the rich proud cost of outworn buried age"). If we merely run a race against Time, we shall lose. It is the spiritual part of us that conquers Time. See verse 3 below. For the "afternoon" idea see next note.

6263. If life be considered under the metaphor of a business bargain, man, by merely attending to his material gains, will lose. When he makes up his day's account in the afternoon, it will show a loss. It will only show profit if he has Faith, leads a good life, and contributes to social welfare by directing and encouraging other people on the Path of Truth and Constancy.

6264. Faith is his armour, which wards off the wounds of the material world; and his righteous life is his positive contribution to spiritual ascent.

6265. If he lived only for himself, he would not fulfil his whole duty. Whatever good he has, especially in moral and spiritual life, he must spread among his brethren, so that they may see the Truth and stand by it in patient hope and unshaken constancy amidst all the storm and stress of outer life. For he and they will then have attained Peace within.

APPENDIX XI

Oaths and Adjurations in the Qur'ān

1. An oath is an invocation of the name of Allah or of some person or object held sacred by the person using the invocation, to witness the truth of a solemn affirmation and to emphasise that affirmation.

2. An adjuration is a solemn appeal to a person or persons to do some act or to believe some important statement by the evidence of something great or sublime or remarkable or out of the ordinary.

3. On these subjects as thus defined, let us review the teaching of the Holy Qur'ān.

4. Among the Pagan Arabs the use of oaths became so common that it almost ceased to have any solemn meaning. On the other hand, when they wanted to suppress the rights of women or do some unjust acts, they would resort to an oath to do so, and then plead that they were bound by their oath when pressure was brought to bear on them to desist from their injustice. Thus, they doubly dishonour oaths: they took the name of Allah lightly, and on the other hand, they made an oath an excuse for not doing what was right and just. It is much to be feared that our own contemporaries are not free from such forms of disrespect to Allah.

5. Such practices are condemned in the strongest terms in the Qur'ān. "Make not Allah's name an excuse in your oaths against doing good, or acting rightly, or making peace between persons" (2:224). Perjury is condemned as deception which hurts both the deceiver and the deceived. "Take not your oaths to practise deception between yourselves, with the result that someone's foot may slip after it was firmly planted, and ye may have to taste the evil consequences of having hindered men from the Path of Allah, and a mighty Wrath descend on you" (16:94). See also 3:77. You must not only fulfil your oaths, but you must fulfil all covenants, express or implied, and all your obligations of every kind, without reference to an oath: 5:1, n. 682.

6. Considering the harm caused by thoughtless oaths, in which there was no intention to deceive or to do wrong, it is provided that they may be expiated for. "Allah will not call you to account for what is futile in your oaths, but He will call you to account for your deliberate oaths: for expiation feed ten indigent persons. . . or clothe them, or give a slave his freedom. If that is beyond your means, fast for three days. That is the expiation for the oaths ye have sworn. But keep to your oaths" (5:92). See also 2:225 and 66:2.

7. Some examples may be cited of the false oaths which were used for deception. The Hypocrites, "in whose hearts is a disease", "swore their strongest oaths by Allah" that they would be with the Muslims, but treachery was in their hearts (5:55-56). See also 24:53. On the other hand, the oath of Joseph's wicked brethren, "By Allah!", in speaking to their father, (12:85), seems to be a mere expletive, used lightly, and therefore worthy of condemnation.

8. In passages like the following, the oath seems to be emphatic and solemn as in a court of law:

12:66 — By Joseph's brethren, at Jacob's request.

12:73 — By Joseph's brethren, to the Egyptians.

21:57 — By Abraham, to the Polytheists.

26:97 — By the denizens of Hell, when they realise their wrong.

37:56 — By the righteous one in heaven, when he realises the great danger he escaped in life.

38:82 — By the Power of Evil, who solemnly swears by the power of Allah.

46:34 — By the denizens of Hell, when they realise the Truth.

4:65 — "By thy Lord" (they can have no real faith until...).

15:92 — "By thy Lord" (We will call them to account).

16:56 — "By Allah" (ye shall be called to account).

16:63 — "By Allah" (We sent messengers).

19:68 — "By thy Lord" (We shall gather them together).

34: 3 — "By my Lord (said by the Prophet to assure men of the coming of the Hour of Judgement).

64:7 — " " " "

51:23 — "By the Lord of heaven and earth" (this is the very Truth). See also 70:40 (paragraph 12 below).

15:72 — "By thy life" (to enforce the lesson of the unspeakable crime of Lot's people).
 36:2 — "By thy Qur'ān, Full of wisdom" (to show the Prophet's inspiration).
 38:1 — "By thy Qur'ān, Full of admonition" (to show the error of the Unbelievers).
 43:2 — "By the Book that Makes things clear" (to show that Revelation is reasonable and conformable to truth).
 44:2 — " " " "
 50:1 — "By the Glorious Qur'ān" (to quell the wonder of the ignorant).

12. Lā Uqsimu (with the first person singular) implies that special attention is drawn to something by a personal and beneficent God, and an appeal is made to His creatures:

- 56:75 — "The setting of the stars." Other glories may set, but not the glory of Revelation.
69:38 — "What ye see and what ye see not." Revelation is good for both outer and inner life.
70:40 — "The Lord of all points in the East and the West." Allah's Kingdom extends everywhere.
75:1-2 — "The Resurrection Day and the self-reproaching spirit." Evil should be eschewed.
81:15-18 — "Planets, Night, and Dawn." Nature may vary, but Allah's Light is ever the same.
84:16-18 — "The ruddy glow of sunset, the Night, the Moon." Man must travel from stage to stage.
90:1-3 — "This City (of Makkah) and mystic ties." Man is created for toil and struggle, but Allah has given him guidance.

13. The great mystic Symbols or Signs, introduced by the particle wa, by which man is adjured to turn to the higher life, are rich in suggestive imagery, which loses part of its charm by any attempt at precise definition:

- 37:1 — "By those who range themselves in ranks".
- 51:1-4 — "By the (Winds) that scatter broadcast" etc.
- 51:7 — "By the heaven with its numerous Paths" etc.
- 52:1-6 — "By the Mount (of Revelation)" etc.
- 53:1 — "By the Star when it goes down."
- 68:1 — "By the Pen and by the Record which men write".
- 74:32-34 — "By the Moon, the Night, the Dawn".
- 77:1-5 — "By the (Winds) sent forth (to man's profit)" etc.
- 79:1-5 — "By the (angles) who tear out" etc.
- 85:1-3 — "By the Sky (displaying) the Zodiacal Signs" etc.
- 86:1 — "By the Sky and the Night-Visitant (therein)".
- 86:11-12 — "By the Firmament which returns (in its round), and by the Earth" etc.
- 89:1-5 — "By the Break of Day", etc.
- 91:1-8 — "By the Sun and its (glorious) splendour, By the Soul. . ." etc.
- 92:1-3 — "By the Night as it conceals (the light); By the Day as it appears in glory" etc.
- 93:1-2 — "By the Glorious morning Light" etc.
- 95:1-3 — "By the Fig and the Olive" etc.
- 100:1-5 — "By the (Steeds) that run with panting breath" etc.
- 103:1 — "By (the Token of) Time (through the Ages)".

14. The great mystic Symbols introduced by the adverb "when" (idha) do not in form belong to the category of Adjurations, but their mystic meaning and imagery bring them within this category. They refer to the end of the present order of things, and the inauguration of the new world of perfect spiritual values, but they need not necessarily be understood in a definite sequence of time such as we know it, for the spiritual world overlaps the material:

- 77:8-11 — "When the Stars become dim" etc.
- 81:1-13 — "When the Sun is folded up" etc.
- 82:1-4 — "When the Sky is cleft asunder" etc.
- 84:1-5 — "When the Sky is rent asunder" etc.
- 99:1-3 — "When the Earth is shaken" etc.

15. Every Symbol is connected with the argument of the passage concerned, by way of metaphor or illustration. See n. 5798 to 74:32. The appropriate meaning suggested is explained in the notes to each passage as it occurs.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 104—AL HUMAZAH

This Makkan Sūrah condemns all sorts of scandal, backbiting, and selfish hoarding of wealth, as destroying the hearts and affections of men.

C. 284. — Woe to the man or woman who deals
(104:1-9.) In scandal, in word or act, or by insults
Or suggestions. Woe to the backbiter, e'en
If his tale is true, for the taint is in his motive.
Woe to the miser who blocks up the channels
Of use and service and dams up his wealth,
As if he could remain in possession
For all time! The Fire of Wrath will envelop them
And wither up their hearts and minds, and consume
That largeness of life which is the portion of mankind.

Sūrah 104.

2. Who pileth up wealth
And layeth it by,
3. Thinking that his wealth
Would make him last
Forever!
4. By no means! He will
Be sure to be thrown into
That which Breaks to Pieces.⁶²⁶⁷
5. And what will explain
To thee That which Breaks
To Pieces?
6. (It is) the Fire
Of (the Wrath of) Allah
Kindled (to a blaze),
7. The which doth mount
(Right) to the Hearts:⁶²⁶⁸
8. It shall be made
Into a vault over them,
9. In columns outstretched.⁶²⁶⁹

٩- فِي عَمَدٍ مُّسَدَّدَةٍ ۝

6266. Three vices are here condemned in the strongest terms: (1) scandalmongering, talking or suggesting evil of men or women by word or innuendo, or behaviour, or mimicry, or sarcasm, or insult; (2) detracting from their character behind their backs, even if the things suggested are true, where the motive is evil; (3) piling up wealth, not for use and service to those who need it, but in miserly hoards, as if such hoards can prolong the miser's life or give him immortality: miserliness is itself a kind of scandal.

6267. Hutamah: that which smashes or breaks to pieces: an apt description of the three antisocial vices condemned. For scandalmongering and backbiting make any sort of cohesion or mutual confidence impossible; and the miser's hoards block up the channels of economic service and charity, and the circulation of good-will among men.

6268. This Fire of Punishment mounts right up to the hearts and minds of such men, and shuts them out of the love of their fellows. "Heart" in Arabic means not only the seat of affection, pity, charity, etc., but also of understanding and intelligent appreciation of things.

6269. Those guilty of these vices will be choked and suffocated, for this Vault of Fire will cover them all over, and its scorching columns will extend over a far wider area than they imagine.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 105—AL FĪL

This early Makkan Sūrah refers to an event that happened in the year of the birth of our Holy Prophet, say about 570 A.C. Yemen was then under the rule of the Abyssinians (Christians), who had driven out the Jewish Ḥimyarite rulers. Abrahah Ashram was the Abyssinian governor or viceroy. Intoxicated with power and fired by religious fanaticism, he led a big expedition against Makkah, intending to destroy the Ka'bah. He had an elephant or elephants in his train. But his sacrilegious intentions were defeated by a miracle. No defence was offered by the custodians of the Ka'bah as the army was too strong for them. But a shower of stones, thrown by flocks of birds, destroyed the invading army almost to a man. The stones produced sores and pustules on the skin, which spread like a pestilence. (R).

C. 285.—Let not man be intoxicated with power
 (105:1-5.) Or material resources: they cannot defeat
 The purpose of Allah. So Abrahah Ashram
 Found to his cost. His sacrilegious attack
 On the holy Fane of Allah brought about
 His own undoing: what seemed but frail
 Destroyed his mighty hosts in a day!

6271. These were the troops of Abrahah the Abyssinian, who invaded Makkah with a large army, in which were some elephants. See Introduction to this Sūrah.

6272. The miracle consisted in the birds coming in large flights and flinging stones at the army which caused a great pestilence to arise and destroy the whole of Abrahah's army.

6273. Sijjil: see n. 1579 to 11:82. The word also occurs at 15:74. Stones of baked clay, or hard as baked clay, are part of the miracle in the story.

6274. A field, from which all the corn has been eaten up and only straw with stalks or stubble is left, is a field dead and useless. And such was the army of Abrahah—dead and useless. Another possible rendering would be: "like eaten straw and stubble found in the dung of animals". The meaning would be the same, but much more emphatic.

6275. The lesson to be drawn is twofold. For the Pagan Quraysh of Makkah it was: Allah will protect His own; if you persecute the Holy Prophet, he is greater than the mere building of the Ka'bah: will not Allah protect him? For men in all ages it is: 'a man intoxicated with power can prepare armies and material resources against Allah's Holy Plan; but such a man's plan will be his own undoing; he cannot prevail against Allah'.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 106—QURAYSH

This Makkan Sūrah may well be considered as a pendant to the last. If the Quraysh were fond of Makkah and proud of it, if they profited, by its central position and its guaranteed security, from their caravans of trade and commerce, let them be grateful, adore the One True God, and accept His Message.

C. 286.—Who gave the Quraysh their talents for the arts
(106:1-4.) Of peace, for trade and commerce, and for journeys
South and north at proper seasons,
And made their home inviolable in Makkah?
Surely they, if any, should adore their Lord
And listen to His Message of Unity and Truth.

Sūrah 106.

Quraysh (The Tribe of Quraysh)

الجزء الثالثون سُوْرَةُ قُرَيْشٍ

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. For the covenants
(Of security and safeguard
Enjoyed) by the Quraysh, ⁶²⁷⁶

١- لَا يَلْفِ قُرَيْشٍ ۝

2. Their covenants (covering) journeys
By winter and summer— ⁶²⁷⁷

٢- إِنْهُمْ رِحْلَةَ الشِّتَاءِ وَالصَّيْفِ ۝

3. Let them adore the Lord
Of this House, ⁶²⁷⁸

٣- فَلْيَعْبُدُوا رَبَّ هَذَا الْبَيْتِ ۝

4. Who provides them
With food against hunger, ⁶²⁷⁹
And with security
Against fear (of danger). ⁶²⁸⁰

٤- الَّذِي أَطْعَمَهُمْ مِنْ جُوعٍ ۝
وَأَمَّنَّهُمْ مِنْ خَوْفٍ ۝

6276. The Quraysh were the noblest tribe of Arabia, the tribe to which belonged the Holy Prophet himself. They had the custody of the Ka'bah, the central shrine of Arabia, and their possession of Makkah gave them a triple advantage: (1) they had a commanding influence over other tribes; (2) their central position facilitated trade and intercourse, which gave them both honour and profit; and (3) the Makkah territory being, by Arabian custom, inviolable from the ravages of war and private feuds, they had a secure position, free from fear of danger. This honour and advantage they owed to their position as servants of the sacred shrine of the Ka'bah. They owed it to Allah. Was it not therefore right and fitting that they should adore the One True God, and listen to His Message of Unity and Purity, brought by His Prophet?

In those days of general insecurity, their prestige as custodians of Makkah enabled them to obtain Covenants of security and safeguard from the rulers of neighbouring countries on all sides—Syria, Persia, Yemen, and Abyssinia—protecting their trade journeys in all seasons.

6277: See last note, especially section (2). On account of their trade journeys to the warmth of Yemen in the winter and the cooler regions of Syria and the north in the summer, The Quraysh became practised travellers and merchants, acquired much knowledge of the world and many arts, and perfected their language as a polished medium of literary expression.

6278. The Ka'bah.

6279. Their trade caravans enriched them, and drew people from distant parts to visit Makkah and bring their merchandise and gifts thither.

6280. Their territory being inviolable, they did not suffer from the dangers of constant warfare nor from private feuds of vengeance or breaches of the peace in their secure homes.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 107—AL MĀ'ŪN

This Sūrah—at least the first half of it—belongs to the early Makkan period. The subject matter is the meaning of true worship, which requires Faith, the practical and helpful love of those in need, and sincerity rather than show in devotion and charity.

C. 287.—What remains if you deny all Faith
(107:1-7.) And personal Responsibility? Why then
Help the helpless or teach others
Deeds of Charity? Vain were worship
Without heart and soul. What think ye of men
Who make great show, but fail to meet
The simple needs of daily life?

Sūrah 107.

Al Mā'ūn (The Neighbourly Assistance)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Seest thou one
Who denies the Judgement⁶²⁸¹
(To come)?

2. Then such is the (man)
Who repulses the orphan
(With harshness),

3. And encourages not⁶²⁸²
The feeding of the indigent.

4. So woe to the worshippers

5. Who are neglectful
Of their Prayers,⁶²⁸³

6. Those who (want but)
To be seen (of men),⁶²⁸⁴

7. But refuse (to supply)
(Even) neighbourly needs.⁶²⁸⁵

الْجُزْءُ الثَّلَاثُونَ سُورَةُ الْمَاعُونِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- اَرَأَيْتَ الَّذِي يُكَذِّبُ بِالْذِّينِ ۝

۲- فَذَلِكَ الَّذِي يَدْعُ الْيَتِيمَ ۝

۳- وَلَا يَحْضُ عَلَى طَعَامِ الْمِسْكِينِ ۝

۴- قَوْلٍ لِلْمُصَلِّينَ ۝

۵- الَّذِينَ هُمْ عَنْ صَلَاتِهِمْ سَاهُونَ ۝

۶- الَّذِينَ هُمْ يُرَاءُونَ ۝

۷- وَيَسْتَعُونَ الْمَاعُونَ ۝

6281. Dīn may mean either (1) the Judgement to come, the responsibility in the moral and spiritual world, for all actions done by men, or (2) Faith, Religion, the principles of right and wrong in spiritual matters, which often conflict with selfish desires or predilections. It is men who deny Faith or future responsibility, that treat the helpless with contempt and lead arrogant selfish lives.

6282. The Charity or Love which feeds the indigent at the expense of Self is a noble form of virtue, which is beyond the reach of men who are so callous as even to discourage or forbid or look down upon the virtue of charity or kindness in others.

6283. True worship does not consist in the mere form of prayer, without the heart and mind being earnestly applied to seek the realisation of the presence of Allah, and to understand and do His Holy Will.

6284. Cf. 4:142: "When they stand up to prayer, they stand without earnestness, to be seen of men, but little do they hold Allah in remembrance."

6285. Hypocrites make a great show of hollow acts of goodness, devotion, and charity. But they fail signally if you test them by little acts of neighbourly help or charity, the thousand little courtesies and kindnesses of daily life, the supply of needs which cost little but mean much.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 108—AL KAWTHAR

This very brief early Makkan Sūrah sums up in the single mystic word Kawthar (Abundance) the doctrine of spiritual Riches through devotion and sacrifice. The converse also follows: indulgence in hatred means the cutting off of all hopes of this life and the Hereafter.

C. 288.—To the man of God, rich in divine
(108:1-3.) Blessings, is granted a Fountain unfailing,
That will quench the spiritual thirst of millions.
Turn, then, in devotion and sacrifice to Allah,
Nor heed the venom of Hatred, which destroys
Its own hopes, alas, of the present and the future!

Sūrah 108

Al Kawthar (The Abundance)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. To thee have We
Granted the Fount
(of Abundance).⁶²⁸⁶

2. Therefore to thy Lord
Turn in Prayer
And Sacrifice.⁶²⁸⁷

3. For he who hateth thee—⁶²⁸⁸
He will be cut off
(From Future Hope).

الجزء الثامن سورة الكوثر

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- إِنَّا آتَيْنَاكَ الْكَوْثَرَ ۝

٢- فَصَلِّ لِرَبِّكَ وَانْحَرْ ۝

٣- إِنَّ شَانِئَكَ هُوَ الْأَبْتَرُ ۝

6286. Kawthar literally means "good in abundance". It is the abundant bounty which Allah bestowed on Prophet Muḥammad (peace be on him). This includes a river (or fountain) in heaven of this name which Allah has promised the Prophet (peace be on him). [Eds.].

6287. He who grants these blessings is Allah, and to Allah alone must we turn in adoration and thanksgiving, and in sacrifice. Nahr = sacrifice: in a restricted ritual sense, the sacrifice of camels: see n. 2813 to 22:36. But the ritual is a mere Symbol. Behind it is a deep spiritual meaning; the meat slaughtered feeds the poor, and the slaughter is a symbol of the self-sacrifice in our hearts. "It is not their meat nor their blood, that reaches Allah; it is your piety that reaches Him" (22:37).

6288. Hatred and spite are not constructive contributions to the work of this world, but its opposites. Abū Jahl and his Pagan confederates vented their personal spite and venom against the Holy Prophet by taunting him with the loss of his two infant sons by Khadījah, but where were these venomous detractors a few years afterwards, when the divine Light shone more brilliantly than ever? It was these that were cut off from all future hope, in this world and the next.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 109—AL KĀFIRŪN

This is another early Makkan Sūrah. It defines the right attitude to those who reject Faith; in matters of Truth we can make no compromise, but there is no need to persecute or abuse anyone for his faith or belief.

C. 289. — The man of Faith holds fast to his faith,
(109:1-6) Because he knows it is true. The man
Of the world, rejecting Faith, clings hard
To worldly interests. Let him mind
His worldly interests, but let him not
Force his interests on men sincere
And true, by favour, force or fraud.

Sūrah 109.

Al Kāfirūn (Those Who Reject Faith)

الْجُذَاءُ الثَّلَاثُونَ سُورَةُ الْكَافِرُونَ

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. Say: O ye
That reject Faith!⁶²⁸⁹

١- قُلْ يَا أَيُّهَا الْكَافِرُونَ ۝

2. I worship not that
Which ye worship,

٢- لَا أَعْبُدُ مَا تَعْبُدُونَ ۝

3. Nor will ye worship
That which I worship.⁶²⁹⁰

٣- وَلَا أَنْتُمْ عِبُدُونَ مَا أَعْبُدُ ۝

4. And I will not worship
That which ye have been
Wont to worship,

٤- وَلَا أَنَا عَابِدٌ مَا عَبَدْتُمْ ۝

5. Nor will ye worship
That which I worship.

٥- وَلَا أَنْتُمْ عِبُدُونَ مَا أَعْبُدُ ۝

6. To you be your Way,
And to me mine.⁶²⁹¹

٦- لَكُمْ دِينُكُمْ وَلِيَ دِينِ ۝

6289. Faith is a matter of personal conviction, and does not depend on worldly motives. Worship should depend on pure and sincere Faith, but often does not: for motives of worldly gain, ancestral custom, social conventions or imitative instincts, or a lethargic instinct to shrink from enquiring into the real significance of solemn acts and the motives behind them, reduce a great deal of the world's worship to sin, selfishness, or futility. Symbolic idols may themselves be merely instruments for safeguarding the privileges of a selfish priestly class, or the ambitions, greed, or lust of private individuals. Hence the insistence of Islam and its Teacher on the pure worship of the One True God. The Prophet firmly resisted all appeals to worldly motives, and stood firm to his Message of eternal Unity.

6290. Verses 2-3 describe the conditions as they were at the time when this Sūrah was revealed, and may be freely paraphrased: 'I am a worshipper of the One True God, the Lord of all, of you as well as of myself; but you on account of your vested interests have not the will to give up your false worship, of idols and self. Verses 4-5 describe the psychological reasons; 'I, being a prophet of Allah do not and cannot possibly desire to follow your false ancestral ways; and you, as custodians of the false worship, have not the will to give up your ways of worship, which are wrong'. The "will" in the translation represents less the future tense than the will, the desire, the psychological possibility; it tries to reproduce the Arabic noun-agent.

6291. 'I, having been given the Truth, cannot come to your false ways; you, having your vested interests, will not give them up. For your ways the responsibility is yours: I have shown you the Truth. For my ways the responsibility is mine; you have no right to ask me to abandon the Truth. Your persecutions will be in vain; the Truth must prevail in the end'. This was the attitude of Faith then: but it is true for all time. Hold fast to Truth, "in scorn of consequence".

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 110—AL NAṢR

This beautiful Sūrah was the last of the Sūrahs to be revealed as a whole, though the portion of the verse 5:4, "This day have I perfected your religion for you" etc., contains probably the last words of the Qur'ān to be revealed.

The date of this Sūrah was only a few months before the passing away of the Holy Prophet from this world, Rabi' I, A.H. 11. The place was either the precincts of Makkah at his Farewell Pilgrimage, Dhu al Hijjah, A.H. 10, or Madīnah after his return from the Farewell Pilgrimage.

Victory is the crown of service, not an occasion for exultation. All victory comes from the help of Allah.

C. 290.—For that which is right the help of Allah.

(110:1-3) Is ever nigh, and victory!

When the spirit of men is stirred, they come
To the flag of faith in troops and battalions.
They are to be welcomed: but Praise and Glory
Belong to Allah: to Him we humbly
Turn and pray for Grace: for He Is Oft-Returning in Grace and Mercy.

Sūrah 110.

Al Naṣr (The Help)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. When comes the Help
Of Allah, and Victory,
2. And thou dost see
The People enter Allah's Religion
In crowds,⁶²⁹²
3. Celebrate the Praises
Of thy Lord, and pray
For His Forgiveness:⁶²⁹³
For He is Oft-Returning
(In Grace and Mercy).

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ
سُورَةُ النَّصْرِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

١- إِذَا جَاءَ نَصْرُ اللَّهِ وَالْفَتْحُ ۝

٢- وَرَأَيْتَ النَّاسَ يَدْخُلُونَ فِي دِينِ اللَّهِ
أُفْوَجًا ۝

٣- فَسَبِّحْ بِحَمْدِ رَبِّكَ وَاسْتَغْفِرْهُ ۝
إِنَّهُ كَانَ تَوَّابًا ۝

6292. The Prophet migrated from Makkah to Madīnah, a hunted and persecuted man. In Madīnah all the forces of truth and righteousness rallied round him, and the efforts by the Makkans and their confederates to destroy him and his community recoiled on their own heads. Gradually all the outlying parts of Arabia ranged themselves round his standard and the bloodless conquest of Makkah was the crown and prize of his patience and constant endeavour. After that, whole tribes and tracts of country gave their adhesion to him collectively, and before his earthly ministry was finished, the soil was prepared for the conquest of the wide world of Islam. What was the lesson to be learnt from this little epitome of the world's history? Not man's self-glory, but humility; not power but service; not an appeal to man's selfishness or self-sufficiency, but a realisation of Allah's Grace and Mercy, and the abundant outpouring of Allah's Praises in word and conduct.

6293. Every man should humble himself before Allah, confess his human frailties, and seek Allah's grace—attributing any success that he gets in his work, not to his own merits, but to the goodness and mercy of Allah. But the Prophet of Allah had also another duty and privilege—to pray for grace and forgiveness for his people in case any of them had exulted in their victory or done anything that they should not have done.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 111—AL MASAD or AL LAHAB

This very early Makkan Sūrah, though it referred in the first instance to a particular incident in a cruel and relentless persecution, carries the general lesson that cruelty ultimately ruins itself. The man who rages against holy things is burnt up in his own rage. His hands, which are the instruments of his action, perish, and he perishes himself. No boasted wealth or position will save him. The women, who are made for nobler emotions, may, if they go wrong, feed unholy rage with fiercer fuel—to their own loss. For they may twist the torturing rope round their own neck. It is a common experience that people perish by the very means by which they seek to destroy others.

C. 291. — The Chosen One of Allah, in his earnest
 (111:1-5.) Desire to proclaim the Message, gathered
 His kin together to hear and judge
 With open minds between error and truth.
 Behold, the fiery "Father of Flame"
 Blazed up with foul abuse and curses,
 And said to the holy one: "Perish thou!"
 With his hands he took stones and cast them
 At the holy one's head. Purse-proud he headed Relentless persecution. His wife
 Laid snares, tied thorns with twisted ropes
 Of prickly palm-leaf fibre, and strewed them
 In the holy one's path on darkest nights,
 For cruel sport! But lo! the curses,
 Insults, spite, harmed not the Innocent,
 But hit the wrongdoers themselves
 And branded them with eternal infamy!

Sūrah III.

Al Masad (The Plaited Rope) or Al Lahab (The Flame)

الجزء الثالثون سورة المسد

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
 Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. Perish the hands
 Of the Father of Flame!⁶²⁹⁴
 Perish he!

١- تَبَّتْ يَدَا أَبِي لَهَبٍ وَتَبَّ ۝

2. No profit to him
 From all his wealth,
 And all his gains!

٢- مَا أَغْنَىٰ عَنْهُ مَالُهُ
وَمَا كَسَبَ ۝

3. Burnt soon will he be
 In a Fire
 Of blazing Flame!

٣- سَيَصْلَىٰ نَارًا ذَاتَ لَهَبٍ ۝

4. His wife shall carry
 The (crackling) wood—
 As fuel! — ⁶²⁹⁵

٤- وَامْرَأَتُهُ حَمَّالَةَ الْحَطَبِ ۝

5. A twisted rope
 Of palm leaf fibre
 Round her (own) neck!

٥- فِي حَبْلٍ مَّعْجُولٍ ۝

6294. Abū Lahab: "Father of Flame", was the nickname of an uncle of the Holy Prophet, from his fiery hot temper and his ruddy complexion. He was one of the most inveterate enemies of early Islam. When the Holy Prophet called together the Quraysh and his own kith and kin to come and listen to his preaching and his warning against the sins of his people, the "Father of Flame" flared up and cursed the Holy Prophet, saying "Perdition to thee!" According to the English saying, "the causeless curse will not come". His words were futile, but his power and strength were equally futile. The star of Islam rose higher and higher every day, and its persecutors dwindled in strength and power. Many of the leaders of persecution perished at Badr, and Abū Lahab himself perished a week after Badr, consumed with grief and his own fiery passions. Verse 3 was prophetic of his end in this very life, though it also refers to the Hereafter.

6295. Abū Lahab's wife was a woman of equally passionate spite and cruelty against the sacred person of the Holy Prophet. She used to tie bundles of thorns with ropes of twisted palm leaf fibre and carry them and strew them about on dark nights in the paths which the Prophet was expected to take, in order to cause him bodily injury. "To carry firewood" may also be symbolical for carrying tales between people to embroil them. This was also one of her vices. But she was laying up for herself another kind of Fire and another kind of Rope, the Fire of Punishment, and the Rope of Slavery to Evil. Thus does Evil prepare its own fate. This is the general lesson of sustained craft and cruel wrongdoing recoiling on the wrongdoer's head. See also Introduction to this Sūrah.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 112—AL IKHLĀṢ

This early Makkan Sūrah sums up in a few terse words the Unity of the Godhead—often professed, but frequently mixed up in the popular mind with debasing superstitions.

C. 292.—Keep Faith all pure and undefiled.
(112:1-4.) There is Allah, the One and Only;
Eternal, Free of all needs; on Whom
Depend, to Whom go back, all things;
He hath no son nor father nor partner.
There is no person like unto Him.

Sūrah 112.

Al Iḥlās (The Purity of Faith)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Say: He is Allah,⁶²⁹⁶
The One and Only;⁶²⁹⁷

2. Allah, the Eternal, Absolute;⁶²⁹⁸

3. He begetteth not,
Nor is He begotten;⁶²⁹⁹

4. And there is none
Like unto Him.⁶³⁰⁰

الْجُزْءُ الثَّانِي سُوْرَةُ الْاِخْلَاصِ

بِسْمِ اللّٰهِ الرَّحْمٰنِ الرَّحِیْمِ

۱- قُلْ هُوَ اللّٰهُ اَحَدٌ ۝

۲- اللّٰهُ الصَّمَدُ ۝

۳- لَمْ يَلِدْ وَلَمْ يُولَدْ ۝

۴- وَلَمْ يَكُنْ لَهٗ كُفُوًا اَحَدٌ ۝

6296. The nature of Allah is here indicated to us in a few words, such as we can understand. The qualities of Allah are described in numerous places elsewhere, e.g., in 59:22-24, 62:1, and 2:255. Here we are specially taught to avoid the pitfalls into which men and nations have fallen at various times in trying to understand Allah. The first thing we have to note is that His nature is so sublime, so far beyond our limited conceptions, that the best way in which we can realise Him is to feel that He is a Personality, "He", and not a mere abstract conception of philosophy. He is near us; He cares for us; we owe our existence to Him. Secondly, He is the One and Only God, the Only One to Whom worship is due; all other things or beings that we can think of are His creatures and in no way comparable to Him. Thirdly, He is Eternal, without beginning or end, Absolute, not limited by time or place or circumstance, the Reality before which all other things or places are mere shadows or reflections. Fourthly, we must not think of Him as having a son or a father, for that would be to import animal qualities into our conception of Him. Fifthly, He is not like any other person or thing that we know or can imagine: His qualities and nature are unique.

6297. This is to negate the idea of Polytheism, a system in which people believe in gods many and lords many. Such a system is opposed to our truest and profoundest conceptions of life. For Unity in Design, Unity in the fundamental facts of existence, proclaim the Unity of the Maker.

6298. Samad is difficult to translate by one word. I have used two, "Eternal" and "Absolute". The latter implies: (1) that absolute existence can only be predicted of Him; all other existence is temporal or conditional; (2) that He is dependent on no person or things, but all persons or things are dependent on Him, thus negating the idea of gods and goddesses who ate and drank, wrangled and plotted, depended on the gifts of worshippers, etc.

6299. This is to negative the Christian idea of the godhead, "the Father", "the only-begotten Son" etc.

6300. This sums up the whole argument and warns us specially against Anthropomorphism, the tendency to conceive of Allah after our own pattern, an insidious tendency that creeps in at all times and among all peoples.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 113—AL FALAQ

This early Makkan Sūrah provides the antidote to superstition and fear by teaching us to seek refuge in Allah from every kind of ill arising from outer nature and from dark and evil plottings and envy on the part of others.

C. 293.—It is Allah Who brings forth light from darkness,
(113:1-5.) Life and activity from death, spiritual
Enlightenment from ignorance and superstition
Banish fear, and trust His Providence.
No danger, then, from the outer world,
No secret plottings from perverted wills,
No disturbance of your happiness or good,
Can affect the fortress of your inmost soul.

Sūrah 113.

Al Falaq (The Daybreak)

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

1. Say: I seek refuge⁶³⁰¹
With the Lord of the Dawn,⁶³⁰²
2. From the mischief
Of created things;⁶³⁰³
3. From the mischief
Of Darkness as it overspreads;⁶³⁰⁴
4. From the mischief
Of those who practise
Secret Arts;⁶³⁰⁵
5. And from the mischief
Of the envious one
As he practises envy.⁶³⁰⁶

الْبُحْرَةُ الثَّلَاثُونَ سُورَةُ الْفَلَقِ

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

۱- قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ ۝

۲- مِنْ شَرِّ مَا خَلَقَ ۝

۳- وَمِنْ شَرِّ غَاسِقٍ إِذَا وَقَبَ ۝

۴- وَمِنْ شَرِّ النَّفَّاثِ فِي الْعُقَدِ ۝

۵- وَمِنْ شَرِّ حَاسِدٍ إِذَا حَسَدَ ۝

6301. In Allah's created world, there are all kinds of forces and counterforces, especially those put in motion by beings who have been endowed with some sort of will. The forces of good may be compared to light, and those of evil to darkness. Allah can cleave the depths of darkness and produce light (6:96), and therefore we should cast off fear and take refuge in divine guidance and goodness.

6302. Falaq is the Dawn or Daybreak, the cleaving of darkness and the manifestation of light. This may be understood in various senses: (1) literally, when the darkness of the night is at its worst, rays of light pierce through and produce the dawn; (2) when the darkness of ignorance is at its worst, the light of Allah pierces through the soul and gives it enlightenment: 24:35; (3) non-existence is darkness, and life and activity may be typified by light. The author and source of all true light is Allah, and if we seek Him, we are free from ignorance, superstition, fear, and every kind of evil.

6303. See n. 6301 above. Our trust in Allah is the refuge from every kind of fear and superstition, every kind of danger and evil. Three special kinds of mischief are specified in the next three verses, against which our best guard is our trust in Allah, the Light of the heavens and the earth. They are: (1) physical dangers, typified by darkness, (2) psychical dangers within us, typified by Secret Arts, and (3) psychical dangers from without us, resulting from a perverted will, which seeks to destroy any good that we enjoy.

6304. The darkness of the night, physical darkness, is a good type of physical dangers and difficulties. Many people are afraid of physical darkness, and all are afraid of physical injuries, accidents, and calamities. We should not fear, but having taken reasonable precautions, trust in Allah.

6305. Those who practise Secret Arts: literally, 'those (feminine) who blow on knots', this having been a favourite form of witchcraft practised by perverted women. Such secret arts cause psychological terror. They may be what is called magic, or secret plottings, or the display of false and seductive charms (3:14), or the spreading of false and secret rumours or slanders to frighten men or deter them from right action. There is fraud in such things, but men are swayed by it. They should cast off fear and do their duty.

6306. Malignant envy, translated into action, seeks to destroy the happiness or the material or spiritual good enjoyed by other people. The best guard against it is trust in Allah with purity of heart.

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY TO SŪRAH 114—AL NĀS

This early Makkan Sūrah is a pendant to the last Sūrah, and concludes the Holy Qur'ān, with an appeal to us to trust in Allah, rather than man, as our sure shield and protection. It warns us specially against the secret whispers of evil within our own hearts.

- C. 294. — Insidious Evil lies in wait
(114:1-6.) For man, and loves to whisper and withdraw,
Thus testing his will. But man can make
Allah his sure shield; for Allah doth care
For him and cherishes him: Allah is
The heavenly King who gives him laws:
And Allah is the Goal to which he will Return and be judged. Let man but place
Himself in Allah's hands, and never can Evil
Touch him in his essential and inner life.

Sūrah 114.

Al Nās (Mankind)

الجزء الثامن سورة الناس

*In the name of Allah, Most Gracious,
Most Merciful.*

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

1. Say: I seek refuge⁶³⁰⁷
With the Lord
And Cherisher of Mankind,⁶³⁰⁸

أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ ۝

2. The King (or Ruler)
Of Mankind,

مَلِكِ النَّاسِ ۝

3. The God (or Judge)
Of Mankind—

إِلَهِ النَّاسِ ۝

4. From the mischief
Of the Whisperer⁶³⁰⁹
(Of Evil), who withdraws
(After his whisper)—

مِّنْ شَرِّ الْوَسْوَاسِ الْخَفَايِيسِ ۝

5. (The same) who whispers
Into the hearts of Mankind—

الَّذِي يُوسْوِسُ فِي صُدُورِ النَّاسِ ۝

6. Among Jinns
And among Men.⁶³¹⁰

مِّنَ الْجِنَّةِ وَالنَّاسِ ۝

6307. The previous Sūrah pointed to the necessity of seeking Allah's protection against external factors which might affect an individual. Here the need of protection from internal factors, mankind being viewed as a whole, is pointed out. For this reason the threefold relation in which man stands to Allah is mentioned, as explained in the next note.

6308. Man's relation to Allah may be viewed in three aspects: (1) Allah is his Lord, Maker, and Cherisher; Allah sustains him and cares for him; He provides him with all the means for his growth and development, and for his protection against evil; (2) Allah is his king or ruler; more than any earthly king, Allah has authority to guide man's conduct, and lead him to ways which will make for his welfare; and He has given him laws; and (3) Allah is He to Whom mankind must return, to give an account of all their deeds in this life (2:156); Allah will be the Judge; He is the goal of the Hereafter, and the only Being entitled to man's worship at any time. From all these aspects man could and should seek Allah's protection against evil.

6309. Evil insinuates itself in all sorts of insidious ways from within so as to sap man's will, which was given to man by Allah. This power of evil may be Satan or his host of evil ones, or evil men or the evil inclinations within man's own will: for there are "evil ones among men and Jinns, inspiring each other with flowery discourses by way of deception" (6:112). They secretly whisper evil and then withdraw, to make their net the more subtle and alluring.

6310. This last clause amplifies the description of the sources from which the whisper of evil may emanate: they may be men whom you may see or invisible spirits of evil working within. See last note. So long as we put ourselves in Allah's protection, and trust in Allah, evil cannot really touch us in our essential and inner life.

CONCLUSION

- C. 295.— Thus spake, inspired, our Holy Prophet,
 Muḥammad, on whom we invoke Allah's blessings
 For ever and ever—we who are heirs
 To his teaching, his exemplary life,
 And the golden thread which he inwove
 Into the web of human history.
 In pious retreats he prayed; much thought
 He gave to Life's most obstinate tangles;
 'Gainst odds he strove with might and main;
 Wisely he led; gently he counselled;
 And firmly he subdued Evil.
- C. 296.— Mantle-clad,⁶³¹¹ he solved the most baffling
 Mysteries. His soul would scale
 The heights of Heaven, yet showered its love
 On the weak and lowly of this earth.
 Like a cloud that catches the glory of the Sun,
 He threw his protecting shade on all.
 The widow's cry, and the orphan's, found
 An answer in his heart, as did
 The cry of Penury and Need.
 He searched out those who felt no need,
 Being by pride or ignorance blinded,
 And he fulfilled their real wants.
 His last great charge summed up the rule
 Of spiritual life in linking Faith
 With one universal Brotherhood.
 Ah! ne'er shall we see such life again!
- C. 297.— But his clarion voice still speaks his message.
 His love and wisdom still pour forth
 Without stint the inexhaustible Treasures
 Of Allah, for whosoe'er will bring
 A purified heart to receive them.
 And ne'er did the world, improverished
 By its own wayword lusts and greed,
 Need those treasures more than now!
- C. 298.— There's still with us much sorrow and sin,
 Injustice, oppression, wrong, and hate.
 Still does Arrogance deaden Conscience,
 Rob struggling souls of e'en the crumbs
 Of Pity, and make, of loathsome flesh
 And crumbling dust, fair-seeming Idols
 For worship. Still does Ignorance blow
 A mighty Horn and try to shame
 True Wisdom. Still do man drive Slaves—
 Protesting smoothly the end of Slavery!

6311. An epithet applied to the Prophet in the Qur'an. See 74:1, n. 5778. I have in my mind a reminiscence of an Urdu Na't, or Song in praise of the Holy Prophet. (R).

Still does Greed devour the substance
 Of helpless ones within her power.
 Nay, more—the fine Individual Voice
 Is smothered in the raucous din
 Of Groups and Crowds that madly shout
 What they call Slogans New—
 Old Falsehoods long discredited.

C.299.— What can we do to make Allah's Light
 Shine forth through the Darkness around us?
 We must first let it shine in our own true Selves
 With that Light in the niche of our inmost hearts
 We can walk with steps both firm and sure:
 We can humbly visit the comfortless
 And guide their steps. Not we but the Light
 Will guide! But oh! the joy of being found
 Worthy to bear the Torch, and to say
 To our brethren: "I too was in Darkness
 Comfortless, and behold, I have found
 Comfort and Joy in the Grace Divine!"

C. 300.— Thus should we pay the dues of Brotherhood—
 By walking humbly, side by side,
 In the Ways of the Lord,
 With mutual aid and comfort,
 And heartfelt prayer,
 Backed by action,
 That Allah's good Purpose
 May be accomplished
 In us all together!

L'ENVOI

Cowper wrote: "Oars alone can ne'er prevail to reach the distant coast; the breath of heaven must swell the sail, Or all the toil is lost." I praise and glorify the name of Allah that He has enabled His humble servant to complete in manuscript the work of Interpretation at which he has systematically and unceasingly laboured for the last three years. My manuscript was completed in Lahore on the fourth of April 1937, my sixty-fifth birthday according to the solar calendar. My inner history during these three years has been one of joyful and concentrated exploration, undisturbed by the storms that vexed my outer life. I had not imagined that so much human jealousy, misunderstanding, and painful misrepresentation should pursue one who seeks no worldly gain and pretends to no dogmatic authority. But I have been much consoled by numerous appreciative letters from distant readers. I thank them and wish them to feel that they and I are fellow riders (Arabice, Zamil) on a steed of research in a field that is unlimited in scope and sublime compared to all ordinary knowledge. Such relationship is closer in spirit than ties of blood, or country, or any other joint enterprise whatsoever.

The printer and publisher hope now to bring out the whole completed volumes within two months. I have appended a short Index, which yet is fuller than is to be found in most Quranic Translations. A complete analytical Index, covering the text, notes, and commentary, such as I contemplated in my Preface, will take time to prepare, and will, if there is a demand, be issued as a separate volume at some future time.

And so I take leave of thee, Gentle Reader, and pray for thy spiritual advancement, as I wish thee to pray for mine.

كلمة الناشر

نحمد الله سبحانه وتعالى على ما يستر لنا من إصدار هذه الطبعة الجديدة المنقحة (ترجمة معاني القرآن الكريم) التي سبق وأن قام بإعدادها العلامة عبد الله يوسف علي رحمه الله.

ويعتّل هذا العمل خلاصة التجارب لشركة أمانة للنشر في خدمة كتاب الله العزيز خلال العقدين الأخيرين. وذلك بإصدار تراجم معاني القرآن بعدة لغات.

وقد سُرع في العمل على هذه الطبعة منذ أكثر من عشر سنوات، حين بدأت تطلنا ملاحظات القراء والعلماء والمراكز والجمعيات الإسلامية تبدي تصورياً أو اعتراضاً أو استفساراً على ما أورده المترجم. ثم كوّنت شركة أمانة لجنة تتضمن نخبة من العلماء المسلمين لاختيار أفضل التراجم المتداولة لمعاني القرآن الكريم باللغة الإنجليزية. وقد وقع اختيار تلك اللجنة على العمل الجليل الذي قام به عبد الله يوسف علي. فدرست الآراء والملاحظات التي تجمعت حول هذا العمل على اختلاف مصانرها. ثم تلتها عدة لجان لمراجعة الزبود والآراء وفحص المتن وتحقيق الهوامش عامة، ولقد قام بأخر مراجعة لأعمال تلك اللجان الأستاذ الدكتور اسماعيل راجي الفاروقي (رحمه الله) الذي كان يومها رئيساً للمعهد العالمي للفكر الإسلامي (IIIT) بالولايات المتحدة الأمريكية.

وحرصاً على إتقان هذا العمل المبارك قمنا بالتعاون مع المعهد العالمي للفكر الإسلامي بتأسيس هيئة تحرير لتنفيذ التروصيات ومراجعة التعديلات وإعداد النسخة النهائية وإخراج العمل بشكله الحالي (والمشار إليه بتفصيل في المقدمة الإنجليزية الخاصة بهذه الطبعة المنقحة).

نسأل الله تعالى أن يجزي خير الجزاء المعهد العالمي للفكر الإسلامي وكل من أسهم في إخراج هذه الطبعة المنقحة بالرأي أو الجهد أو المال، ونسأله سبحانه أن يثيب العلامة عبد الله يوسف علي ويسكنه فسيح جناته، آمين.

وأخر دعوانا أن الحمد لله رب العالمين
